MR. DAVID G. NOBLE, Lead or Heavy Lead. Offers invited. Dec. 3, London. Per. Address, 48, Agate-road, Hammersmith.

MR. ALFRED NORTHWAY, "The Prodigal Parson" Tour, Letters, 57, Warrington-cres., W.

MR. GUS OXLEY, Disengaged. Disengaged. 12, De Laune-street, Kennington-park, S.E.

MR. F. M. PAGET, Antonio, Polonius, Brabantio, Duke Frederick. Theatre Royal, Belfast, Dec. 10.

MR. and MRS. ROBSON PAIGE (Mabel Syringa). Disengaged now and Pantomime. 10, Ospringe-rd., N.W., or BLACKMORE.

MR. ASHTON PEARSE, Lord Percy Kilgour, in "Public Opinion." Disengaged Dec. 17. Opera House, Torquay.

MR. and MRS. FRED W. PERMAIN (Miss Florence Le Clercq), c/o Messrs Wheeler, 11, Greenmarket-sq., Cape Town, S. Africa.

MR. and MRS. FRANK E. PETLEY, (Miss Gertrude Price). W. Greet's "Sign of the Cross." Dis. Dec. 10. Nov. 26, Rotunda. L'p'l.

MR. W. SCOTT PHIPP, General-Manager for "Lady Kinton's Necklace." En route, or Managers' Club.

MR. FELIX PITT, Mr. Andrew Melville's Company. Theatre Royal, Windsor.

MR. DONALD PRICE-EVANS, Title-rôle, "The Private Secretary" Co. Marlborough Theatre.

MR. STANLEY PRINGLE, at Liberty. 6, Brunswick-gardens, W.

MR. ARTHUR LAW RAYNOR, Manager for Mr. Bert Coote. Address, 150, Oxford-street, W.

MR. and MRS. TOM REDMOND (Mary Morison), at Liberty Dec. 3. Nov. 26, Theatre Royal, Nottingham.

MR. PERCY RHODES, with Mr. Forbes Robertson, Rufio, in "Cæsar and Cleopatra." New Amsterdam T., New York.

MR. FRANK RIDLEY, Mr. Forbes Robertson's American Tour. Letters addressed A.A. forwarded.

MR. HARRY H. RIGNOLD, Mr. Lionel Rignold and Miss Ada Blanche's "What the Butler Saw." A. T., Stoke Newington.

MR. WALTER L. RIGNOLD, Stage-Management, Apollo Theatre, W. Address, 34A, Aldis-street, Tooting, S.W.

MR. WALTER RINGHAM, Mr. Forbes Robertson's company. New Amsterdam Theatre, New York.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS, Dis. Heavy, Character, or Pathetic O.M. Dis. 2, Lancaster-road, Leytonstone, N.E.

MR. LEONARD ROBSON, Playing in own first piece. "Prince Chap" Co., Theatre Royal, Dublin.

MR. BASSETT ROE, At liberty Dec. 3 for a few weeks Grand Opera H., Middlesbrough.

MR. STANLEY ROGERS, Address all communications, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

MR. BAY RUSSELL, Engaged by Robert Courtneidge, Esq., "Dandini," King's, Edinburgh. Rehearsing, open Dec. 8.

MR. FREDERICK SANDY, Geoffrey Waring and General-Manager A. Melville's "Driven from Home" Co. T. R., Windsor.

MR. WILLIE SCOTT, Miss Maud Hildyard's "Great Awakening" Co. Opera House, Norwich. Panto. Vacant.

MR. ARCHIE SELWYN, Hon. Dick Spinnaker and S.M., "The Broken Melody." Nov. 26, Empire, Oldham.

MR. and MRS. JOHN B. SHINTON (Ada M. Ryder), Starring in "The Price of Her Soul." Aquarium, Yarmouth. Dis. Dec. 10.

MR. THOMAS SIDNEY, Address, 15, Long-acre, W.C.

MR. JAMES SKEA, as Bill Sikes. Dis. Dec. 3, Drama, Comedy, Panto., or Sketch. Prince's T., Poplar.

MR. GERALD SPENCER, at Liberty for Lead, Havies, Stock or Tour. Business or S. M. Tours Booked. 47, Mill-st., Frizington, Cumbs.

MR. A. GIFFORD STACEY, Manager for Mr. Robert Courtneidge, Apollo Theatre, W.

MR. FRANK STANLEY, Acting-Manager, Her Majesty's Theatre, Carlisle.

MR. E. STANTON-SHARP, John Storm, in "The Christian" (Howard's). Nov. 26, Altrincham; 29th, Goole.

MR. W. R. STAVELEY, Disengaged. 239, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

MR. CHARLES STIRLING, Lead, Heavies. Immediate offers invited. 60, Wouldhave-street, South Shields.

MR. GEORGE STONE, Resident-Manager (Thirteenth Year), Royalty T. and Opera House, Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. STORY-GOFTON, At Liberty, productions, parts, or Management. Address, care of "The Era."

MR. WALLACE STRANACK, Manager, "Mr. Popple," Principal Co. Theatre Royal, Birmingham.

MR. EDWARD SWINTON, Thanks Mr. Chattell for third engagement. Dis. 19, Bloomfield-st., Bury St. Edmunds.

MR. AUGUSTIN SYMONDS and Miss KATE PARRY, Disengaged. Coms. only, 88, Rectory-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. ALGERNON SYMS, Disengaged Lead, &c. Disengaged. Perm. add., 3, Springdale-road, Clissold Park, N.

MR. TAPPING, Address, 28, Leyland-road, Lee, S.E.

MR. and MRS. J. MILNE TAYLOR, Mr. A. Melville's Co., Heavies and Comedy. Dis. Xmas. Opera House, Bury, Lancs.

MR. FOWLER THATCHER, Disengaged, Char., Com., and Eccentric, &c., or Management. 35, Mall-rd., Hammersmith.

MR. and MRS. E. W. THOMAS (Agnes Knights), Mr. Edward Terry's Co., Shakespeare Theatre, Liverpool. At Lib. Dec. 10.

MR. WYLIE A. THOMPSON, Lewis Waller's "Brigadier Gerard" Co. Nov. 26, King's, Hammersmith. Dis. Dec. 18.

MR. ALEC F. THOMPSON, Stage-Manager, Messrs. Lely and McNilson's Productions. Coatbridge (3), Motherwell (3).

MR. CHARLES THORBURN, "Prince of Pilsen" and "Belle of New York" Tours. P. O. W. Theatre, Birmingham.

MR. and MRS. WALTER THORNTON (Miss Florence Hamilton). Disengaged Shortly. Nov. 26, T. R., Jarrow.

MR. ALFRED C. TOONE, Musical Director, Gatti and Frohman's "Belle of Mayfair." Tyne, Newcastle.

MR. TRUEMAN TOWERS, Stage-Manager for Messrs. Gatti and Frohman's "Belle of Mayfair" Co. T. T., Newcastle.

MR. GEORGE TRAILL, "The Breed of the Treshams" Tour. Theatre Royal, Ashton-under-Lyne.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD VAN BIENE (Kate Hallam), Gen. Mgt. and Star Lead. "The Drama of Life" Co. Q. T., Gateshead.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. B. VAUGHAN (Miss M. Lewes). Mr. Vaughan supporting Mr. Forbes Robertson, Amsterdam T., New York.

MR. PERCY H. VERNON, Regretfully concluding Tour with Mr. W. W. Kelly. Arrangements complete. O. H., St. Helens.

MR. FREDERICK VICTOR, Napoleon, "A Royal Divorce." Opera House, St. Helens.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS VIGORS (Miss L. Beaumont). D.V., "Peter Pan," D. of Y. T., L. B., Dis. Dec. 17. 36, Bridge-av., H'smith.

MR. ARTHUR WALCOTT, Disengaged. Address, 10, Brunswick-square, W.C.

MR. EDWIN WALTON, Address, Playgoers' Club, 6, Clements Inn, London, W.C.

MR. PERCY CARNE WARAM, Mr. Ben Greet's Co. C/o Low's Exchange, 1123, Broadway, New York.

MR. ALBERT WARD, Starring, Lead with John M. East, Esq., Elephant and Castle Theatre, S.E.

MR. HYLTON WARDE, Messrs. B. & F. Wheeler's Comedy Co., South African Tour. Perm., 17, Doris-rd., Norwich, or A.A

MR. W. LEMMON WARDE, William Trembletl, "The Perfect Lover." H. M. Theatre, Dundee. Dis. Dec. 10.

MR. and MRS. HENRY WATSON, Disengaged Dec. 3. Termination of "Two Little Vagabonds" Tour. H. M. T., Carlisle.

MR. FRANK WEATHERSBY, Theatrical Agency, 3, Bedford-street, Strand. 'Phone, 3781 Cen. Tel., "Frivolous, London."

MR. WYN WEAVER, Nov. 26, O. H., Harrogate.

MR. CHARLES WEIR, Disengaged Dec. 3. "Shulamite" Co., Cardiff.

MR. EUGENE WELLESLEY, With Mr. Martin Harvey, on Tour. Nov. 26, Opera House, Cork.

MR. C. A. WHITE, At Liberty Dec. 15, 3 or 4 weeks. "Beauty and the Barge" Co. T. R., Hull.

MR. HERBERT WILLIAMS, Six Brothers Luck Co. Palace, Walthamstow.

MR. LEONARD WILLIAMS, Juv. Lead. Dis. To-day. Term. of "Four Just Men" Tour. The Blorenge, Taunton, or A.A.

MR. & MRS. JAMES WILLOUGHBY, Disengaged; refs., A. Wilkie (one tour), J. H. Clyndes (two), &c. 26, Anhalt-rd., Battersea Park.

MR. BREMBER WILLS, N. V. N. Co. Friends send address Newport. =25th, Southampton.

MR. H. LOUIS WILSON, Paul and A.S.M., "Christian" (Howard's). 26th, Altrincham; 29th, Goole, or A.A.

MR. F. WILSON-LOWTHER, Dis., Resps. Com., Char., Military parts, &c., tall. 14, Wellmeadow-gdns., Hither Green-rd., S.E.

MR. A. WOOD, Address, 59, St. Mary's-road, Peckham, S.E.

MR. FRANK MOTLEY WOOD, Disengaged Dec. 8. Rotunda Theatre, Liverpool ("Sign of the Cross.").

MR. GRAHAM WOODS, De Beaumont, in "A Royal Divorce"; MISS MARIE ROBSON, L. Carson's Co., T. R., St. Helens.

MR. NORMAN WRIGHTON, Shakespearean Character and Heavy Lead. The Actors' Association. Agent, BLACKMORE.

MR. EDWIN H. WYNNE, Comedy, Character. Address, 39, Aigburth-mansions, Brixton, S.W.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISSES DORA, WINNIE, and MASTER LEONARD CRISP. Child parts and toe dancers. West London Theatre, W.

LITTLE DOTT MOSS, Toy Comedienne. Success, Manchester. Panto. settled. Offers invited for Spring. P. T., Portsmouth.

APPLICATIONS FOR POSITIONS on the FRONT PAGE of "The Era" should be addressed to the PUBLISHER.

AUTHORS' COLUMN.

THE Late HENRY PETTITT'S PLAYS. All Business communications to A. J. FLAXMAN, the Executor of the late Mr. Henry Pettitt, to be made to the care of H. M. PIKE, 26, Old Burlington-street, London, W., Solicitor.

J. W. WHITBREAD'S PLAYS. "LORD EDWARD; or, '98." "THE INSURGENT CHIEF." "THE IRISH MAN." "THE NATIONALIST." "IRISH DRAGOON." "THE SHAM SQUIRE." "THE VICTORIA CROSS." "WOLFE TONE." Address, QUEEN'S THEATRE, DUBLIN.

"ARRAGE-NA-POGUE," "AFTER DARK," "HOW LONDON LIVES," "DUCHESS OF COOLGARDIE," and others. For terms and catalogues, giving Cast, Scenes, Special Printing, apply MUSKERRY TILSON, 36, Southampton-street. Also the following, by Arthur Shirley and others, "UNDER A MASK," "LION'S HEART," "A CITY OF SIN," "HUB AND CRY," "BOOM OF BIG BEN," "WORKGIRL," "LIGHTNING'S FLASH." To Let, with fine Plants of Pictorials to Responsible Managers.

DRURY LANE DRAMAS. "THE ARMADA," "PLUCK," "HUMAN NATURE," "A RUN OF LUCK," "LIFE OF PLEASURE," "THE DERBY WINNER," "A MILLION OF MONEY," "YOUTH," "THE PRODIGAL DAUGHTER," "THE WORLD," "CHEER, BOYS, CHEER," "FREEDOM," "A SAILOR AND HIS LASS," "QUEEN'S EVIDENCE," "THE ROYAL OAK," Other Plays and Operas, the property of the late Sir Augustus Harris. List and Particulars apply to the Executors, 5, Victoria-street, London, S.W.

ARTHUR JEFFERSON'S PLAYS. "World's Verdict," "Orphan Heiress," "London by Day and Night." To Let for Stock, Messrs. Walter and Fred Melville, Andrew Melville, Samuel James, and J. M. East have arranged to produce. Address, 2, Park-terrace, Queen's Park, Glasgow.

B. J. SIMMONDS and CO., Theatrical Costumiers to the Principal London Theatres. KING STREET, COVENT GARDEN. Costumes and Wigs for Amateur Theatricals on Hire or made to order. Telephone, 5563 Gerrard. Telegrams, "History, London."

OUR MOTTO—

"NEVER ASLEEP."

AN EXCEPTIONAL OFFER.

By Special Arrangement,

TOURING MANAGERS

can have their Wardrobes Cleaned between Shows, when in or near London. 'Phone, wire, or write

FACILITIES AND ENERGY ILLIMITABLE.

SPECIAL QUOTATIONS. ADVICE FOR NOTHING.

PRECEDENCE GIVEN TO PROFESSIONAL ORDERS.

Last year's exceptionally low offer for cleaning panto dresses, in quantities, holds good for this season. Price and quality of our work not to be beaten. Nulli secundus.

WARDROBES CLEANED BETWEEN SHOWS.

'PHONE, WIRE, OR WRITE TO T. HARRIS.

T. HARRIS.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

TOURING MANAGERS, LOOK OUT YOUR PANTOMIME DRESSES AT ONCE.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS.

New Theatre, St. Martin's-lane. Nov. 12, 1906.

Dear Mr. Harris,—Thank you so much for the quantity of costumes cleaned last week. Everything was beautifully clean, and most valuable pearls on dresses quite perfect. I had not a moment's anxiety as to their arrival at the theatre, and I must again thank you.—Yours very truly, C. NICOLL.

108, Hartington-street, Barrow-in-Furness, Nov. 13, 1906.

Dear Sir,—Thanks for brown jacket, received safely. It is most satisfactory, and am pleased with it.—Yours, &c., MRS. HARRY KILBURN.

CHEMICAL CLEANING & DYEING COMPANY.

ORIGINAL THEATRICAL CLEANERS AND DYERS,

6, ARGYLL ST., REGENT ST., W.

Telegraphic Address, "CLEANING, LONDON." Telephone, THREE-NINE-TWO-THREE, GERRARD.

THE LATEST STYLE.

THE 'PREMIER' TIP-UP CHAIRS.

PATENT AUTOMATIC, ELEGANT & INEXPENSIVE, MAHOGANY INLAID FRAMES.

"Examples of Seating," new edition, just published, containing an extensive assortment of the Newest Designs in Theatrical Seating, &c.

Write for New Catalogue post free—

{Telegraphic Address: "Malleable," London. Telephone: 9153, London Wall.

H. LAZARUS & SON, Specialists in Seating.

21, GREAT EASTERN STREET, LONDON, E.C.

- - THE AMERICAN PATENT FOR OUR CHAIRS FOR SALE - -

WHITE'S TIGHTS Postage, 3d. per Pair. Strong Cotton Tights, Black, White, and Flesh, 2s. 6d. per Pair; Forty other Shades in stock. 2s. 9d. per Pair; New Silk Lustre Tights, 3s. 9d.; Silk Tights, 8s. 6d.; Very Best, 10s. Worsted Tights, 6s. 6d. Stamp for List. Patterns of Colours, and Self-Measure Form. WHITE and SONS, BOBBERS MILL, NOTTINGHAM. SOLE London Agent for these Tights, GAMAGE, LTD., 126, HOLBORN. Call and inspect.

MADAME WINTER'S DRESS AGENCY, 18, KENNINGTON-ROAD, S.E., near Bakerloo Tube. Have a Large Stock of nearly New, Smart, Up-to-date Evening Dresses, Tea Gowns, Costumes, Stage Dresses, &c., at Prices exceptionally moderate. Dresses taken in Exchange, or Sold on Commission. M. EUSTACE, Principal. Closed 2 o'clock Thursdays.

W. WALLER, THEATRICAL COSTUMIER and WIG MAKER. Every Description of Play and Opera correctly Costumed and Wigged. Historical and other Costumes, &c., for Tableaux and Fancy Balls. Amateurs advised on Correctness of Detail in Costumes and Wigs. 79, CITY ROAD, LONDON. Tel., 9399, London Wall. Quantity Secondhand Wardrobe and Wigs for Sale.

W. CLARKSON, The Leading House in the World for Costumes, Wigs, Properties, Blondin Donkeys, Animal Dresses, Grease Paints, Powders, Paints, Rouges, &c. Lowest Cash Prices. 41 and 43, WARDOUR-STREET, W.

EXCERPT FROM THE "MANCHESTER EVENING CHRONICLE," Tuesday, November 20th, 1906.

ORGANISED OPPOSITION ALLEGED AT SALFORD.

THE MANAGER'S VIEWS.

The disgraceful scene which was witnessed at the Regent Theatre, Salford, last night, and which caused Miss Ada Reeve to prematurely conclude her "turn" at the first house, was a theme of conversation in theatrical circles this morning.

On every hand the greatest sympathy is felt with the talented comedienne, who, in her own words, "never had such an experience in the whole course of my life." But the painfulness of the totally uncalled-for proceeding is softened by the belief that the whole thing was organised. Said the manager to an Evening Chronicle representative this morning: "It was an organised opposition, and I know who was at the bottom of it all and the clique by whom it was carried out. But as the lights were down at the time I should have great difficulty in proving it."

The clique to whom he referred occupied seats in the gallery, the price for which, in view of the exceptional expense incurred in bringing an artist of such ability as Miss Reeve, had been increased from 2d. to 3d. "And," added the manager, "I shall keep it at 3d., for I would rather play to an empty gallery than have a recurrence of such an unpleasant scene."

Miss Reeve, who, it may be mentioned, is making her first appearance in Salford as a music-hall artist, and who is receiving £300 for the week, sang her first song—her "Penny" song—with success. But immediately she commenced her second contribution the clique in the gallery derisively applauded, and made themselves so objectionable that Miss Reeve left the stage.

In the hope of bringing her back, the larger portion of the audience displayed their appreciation, but Miss Reeve only reappeared to tell them she could not go on while people in the gallery were laughing and jeering. At the conclusion of the performance many of the people in the better-priced seats waited upon the manager, and were given tickets for the second house, when Miss Reeve, though apparently nervous, sang four songs, and was vociferously applauded for each, encores being demanded for three of her efforts.

She was very much pained by the incident which occurred earlier in the evening, and, like the manager of the theatre, she is confident the whole thing was organised, for the opposition came from so few.

It is estimated that the interruption meant a considerable financial loss to the management, but such an incident is not likely to occur again. Any attempts in a similar direction in the future will be followed with a prosecution.

The preceding excerpt from the Manchester Evening Chronicle of Nov. 20 conveys a fairly accurate idea of the occurrence under notice, and the object of this advertisement is to trace the instigator, organiser, and financier of the outrage.

I am in possession of a certain amount of information which has enabled me to trace several of the actual perpetrators, who are in very humble circumstances, but which, unfortunately, is not sufficiently precise to warrant the institution of proceedings against the individual who organised the disgraceful incident, and who is legally responsible.

I hereby offer a substantial reward to anyone who will supply sufficient proof against the individual in question to warrant the institution of legal proceedings.

The circumstances are so curious that it is obviously impossible to state a precise amount of cash as reward for the information required, but terms will be made with persons supplying the required information which shall be more than ample to recompense them for all loss of time, trouble, and financial loss which may be occasioned through their connection with the matter.

All communications will be treated with the strictest confidence until such time as arrangements have been made with correspondents for the use of information supplied.

It has come to my notice that on two previous occasions similar unscrupulous tactics were adopted against two other eminent artists appearing at Manchester music-halls.

Should this advertisement come under their notice I shall be infinitely obliged if they will communicate with me.

WILFRED COTTON.

Chideock, Dorset.

Now in course of publication.

FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

A World-wide Circulation, therefore an excellent Medium for Advertisers.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1907.

ADVERTISEMENTS should be forwarded at once to the Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C. For Scale of Charges see another Page.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906. The thirty-ninth issue of "The Era" Annual has just appeared, and once more it supplies a useful record of the theatrical year. An editorial note reminds us that among the contributors to the first number, that of 1868, were E. L. Blanchard (its editor), Charles Mathews, T. W. Robertson, Andrew Halliday, H. J. Byron, Watts Phillips, and Dion Boucicault—a brilliant band indeed. The contributors to the present issue are almost exclusively actors rather than literary men, but upon the whole they make a very fair show; while the lists of plays produced in London and the provinces, and in Paris and Berlin during the twelve months under review are distinctly useful. There are a number of photographs, including an exceedingly fine one of the late Sir Henry Irving.—Pall Mall Gazette, Jan. 22.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906. "The Era" Annual is published from the offices of the old-established organ of the theatrical profession, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C. As usual, it is a carefully-compiled record of notable events of the year 1905. A pleasing feature is the selection of short stories, after recounting strange experiences, by "stars" of the dramatic and music-hall professions, these being in every case accompanied by photographs of the writers.—Newcastle Daily Journal, Jan. 27 1906.

PROVINCIAL THEATRICALS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

ABERDEEN.—HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. C. Cavanah, C.A.—The Perfect Lover is drawing large audiences here this week. Mr. Harold V. Neilson acts with strength and incision as Joseph Trembett; and Mr. W. Lemmon Warde gives a natural and finished portraiture of William Trembett. Miss Beatrice Forbes-Robertson plays with much charm as the heroine; Miss Elizabeth Watson is successful as the brusque, mannish aunt and godmother; and Mr. Lewis Willoughby throws the requisite degree of fervour into the part of the lover. Excellent work is also done in the smaller parts by Miss Dorothy Milne, Miss Rene de Lestrade, Mr. John Detliv, and others.

PALACE THEATRE. — Managing-Directors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Resident-Manager, Mr. Walter Gilbert.—The star turn of the evening this week is that of the Lukushima troupe of Japanese gymnasts, which is wonderfully clever; next in order come the Bouncing Dillons, with a remarkable performance; and among the other successful artists may be noted Cavius and Lynch, very smart dancers; Spry and Austin, the well-known vaudeville performers; Walker and Lake, whose drollery is exceedingly diverting; the American Comedy Company, in an exceedingly amusing piece; Mr. Harry Thurston, a resourceful comedian; Bernardo, the comedy juggler; and Almon, "the upside-down marvel."

ABERTILLERY. — THEATRE METROPOLE.—Lessees, Messrs. Arthur Carlton and Sam Duckworth; General and Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. W. Ventom; Stage-Manager, Mr. Fred Thomas.—Mr. Robert Perris and Company in A Fight for Millions are delighting large houses here this week. Miss Alwynne Ermon makes a charming heroine; Miss Elma Turner is a sympathetic Helen Dudley; Miss Mabel Howe is a dainty Little Madge; Miss Rosie Kearns and Miss Nora Kingsley are both good in their respective parts; Mr. John Carlyle makes an admirable Tom Manley; Mr. Gus Harding an effective Solomon Moses; Mr J. Schofield a satisfactory Hudson Rivers; and Mr. Hugh Mewburn a successful Richard Dudley.

ACCRINGTON.—PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. B. Ormerod; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. E. Barnes.—On Monday the evergreen Grip of Iron opened here under the direction of Messrs. Knight and Denham, with Mr. Fred Powell in his old part of Jagon, a remarkable performance; Mr. W. Curnock gives an excellent portrayal of Paul Blanchford; Lorentz de Rabas is a clever character sketch by Mr. A. G. Polson Turner; Mr. J. Brittian is very funny as Dodot; Alphonso de Concon is a good portrayal by Mr. T. R. Lockwood; Mr. George Denham must be complimented on his embodiment of Smiler; Miss Rosabel Dodd gives a praiseworthy reading of Cora Simmonet; Sophie Blanchford is well played by Miss M. Inglis; Misses Violet Ingram, Cissie Hayes, and Miss Pope Royal score in their respective parts.

HIPPODROME. — Proprietors, Messrs. Willmot, Vandy, Potter, and Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Parsons.—A good bill here this week include the Athos Troupe, who give a smart performance; Mayvilles, the Liliputian novelties; the Allisons; Patti Bella, a charming comedienne; Tom E. Hughes, a versatile comedian; the Elgars; Stephens and Rennior, clever comedians and dancers; and the Bio Pictures.

ALDERSHOT.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. Sounes; Resident-Manager, Mr. G. E. Williams.—Messrs. G. M. Polini and Austin Melford's company is here with The Silver King. Mr. Herbert Ford gives a talented portrayal of Denyer. In Miss Victoria Addison is found a successful impersonator of Nellie; and faithful Jaikes is ably played by Mr. Tom Paulton. Mr. Chas. Baird is a cool and resourceful Spider, and his clever acting as the scoundrel is ably backed up by Messrs Claude Vernon, Henry Osman, Chas. Fenton as Corket, Combe, and Cripps respectively.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Fairbairn.—Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's company is here for the week with Under Two Flags, and a very effective performance is given of this dramatic version of the story. Miss Mary Thorne as Cigarette, the vivandière, is full of life and vigour in the lighter scenes of the play, and in the more dramatic passages she commands admiration and sympathy for her depiction of bravery and self-sacrifice. Mr. Wellesley Draper is the Bertie Royellieu, and he attains a high level of excellence as the hero. Barklie Royellieu is played by Mr. Lionel West with undoubted ability and discretion; Mr. Chas. Brooke as Lord Royellieu; Mr. Fred Pawl as Lord Rockingham and Mr. Harry Benson as Rake are capable interpreters of their respective rôles. Colonel Chanteroy, the black hawk, finds in Mr. Arthur Elwyn a very intelligent exponent; nor does Capt. Claude de Chaurellon suffer in the hands of Mr. Joseph Cowell. Mr. Fred Beck extracts fun out of the character of Ezra Baroni, the moneylender; and other minor parts are well filled. Miss Mabel Ormonde is a graceful Princess Venetia; and Lady Beatrice has charming interpretation to her many feminine points of interest by Miss Madge Stevens. Miss Amy Maitland is a bright and engaging Lavinia, and sings and dances well; and Joan Stern is good as the Countess Olga.

EMPIRE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Leech.—Mr. Robt. Peel and his orchestra give an opening selection from The Mikado; Ray Royal, a contralto vocalist, with a voice of much charm, sings some tuneful songs with acceptance; Sylvia Martin proves herself a clever horse-trainer; then in succession the varied talents are exhibited of Harry Taft, whistling expert and comedian; Flo Hilton, poses as a male impersonator and sings and dances after the approved style; Fred Casburn sings some comic ditties in approved fashion; the Sisters Bartholomew warble duets and do some graceful dancing; the Howards (Ralph and Nellie) give a pleasing act of comedy and melody combined; and Davis and Davis amuse mightily with a golf scene. The Bonnettis are clever speciality artists. The feature of the bill, however, is a musical mixture in one scene, entitled, Office Hours, in which some artists of note appear.

ATTERCLIFFE.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Frank Macnaghten.—So popular have the picture entertainments proved at this house that they are still being continued.

PALACE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Lacy Lyne; Assistant-Manager, Mr. S. H. Laycock.—An excellent programme is submitted here this week, the premier position being taken by Mr. F. V. St. Clair, the prolific song-writer and vocalist, who is heartily applauded, especially in the satirical song "In Chicago," and in the recital of his own poem, "A Shoeblack Hero." Miss Millie Howell is heard to advantage as a descriptive vocalist; Mr. George Davis and company present a mirth-provoking sketch, entitled, Jack's Uncle; a group of clever and well-trained dogs and pony are introduced by Miss Fredrica; Mr. H. O. Wills is a quaint comedian; Mr. E. C. Clayton shows Attergraph pictures; and the Calcotts, banjoists, vocalists, and dancers; and Ingram and Irving, in a laughable monologue, entitled The New Office Boy, are also in the bill.

AYR.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry W. Day.—On the first three nights of the present week, Mr. Charles Windermere and his clever company appeared in Facing the Music. The Rev. John Smith is made the most of by Mr. C. Casson Freer; the other Mr. Smith is in the capable hands of Mr. Windermere; Dick is well played by Mr. Gordon Phillott; while his uncle, the Colonel, is portrayed to the life by Mr. W. H. G. Wynn. Mr. Henry Nelson has a part which fits him well in Sergeant Duffell; the Rev. Smith's wife and the other Smith's wife are played appreciatively by Miss K. Willoughby and Miss Clare Manifield respectively; while Miss Mary Buckstone is delightful as Miss Fotheringay; and Miss Evelyn Shelley as Mrs. Pointing, the housekeeper, is decidedly good. The piece was preceded by a domestic episode, by Mr. Windermere himself, entitled The Bookworm, in which he appeared along with Mr. Gordon Phillott and Miss Clare Manifield.

BACUP. — NEW COURT THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Denman-Wood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Dudley Harcourt.—Mr. John Gerant's company is appearing here this week in the military drama, At Duty's Call. Mr. John Gerant as the rascally Harold Allison is evidently an actor of experience and power; George is played by Mr. Harry Scott in a convincing manner; and Mr. Ernest St. John, excellently made up as the hero of Khartoum, is well received. Mr. Harry Ugar makes an amusing Terry, and Mr. Walter P. Carr is well placed as Jack Spencer; the drummer boy, Joe Trot, is brightly portrayed by Mr. Ivan Mavis; and Miss Beatrice Western acquits herself well as Salema.

BARNSLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. A. C. Mitchell.—The attraction here this week is Claudian, well played by Mr. and Mrs. William Maclaren and company. The title-rôle is powerfully acted by Mr. Maclaren, and Lily C. Bandmann scores as Almida, and other characters are well placed.

PUBLIC HALL.—Manager, Mr. G. E. Hoey.—Mr. Jasper Redfern opened here again on Monday with a strong variety company. Messrs. Ethel Arden and George Abel, in a sketch, top the bill; Klio is well received. Other turns are Columbia Comedy Trio, in an original humorous absurdity; Ouda and Leon, in a triple bar act; Myra Love, comedienne; Miss Lottie D'Abbey, vocalist; the Lascars, in a hand-balancing act. Some new animated pictures conclude.

BARROW-IN-FURNESS. — ROYALTY THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE. — Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Stone.—Mr. Fredk. Melville's company, in Between Two Women, is here. Mr. Fred Goddard is a dignified and telling Earl of Millard, and Harry Millard is ably impersonated by Mr. Jackson Wilcox. James Durward is made sufficiently villainous by Mr. Walter Thornton, as is also Major Strangeways by Mr. Ronald Yorke; while Miss Lulu Bowes is good as the Blind Boy. Miss Molly Malone plays Violet Thornton with pathos and tenderness, and the subtleties and intrigues of Carmen de Severeaux are ably portrayed by Miss Nellie Fletcher.

HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Lessees and Managers, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Routledge.—Mr. and Mrs. John Walter's company, in Babes in the Wood, is here. Miss Gerty McQueen is a dashing Robin Hood, and Miss Kitty Lester a charming Dolly Dimple; Miss Kitty Chester and Baby Blyth make typical babes, while Messrs. Traynor and O'Connor prove very bold, bad men; Mr. Ernest Thirlwell is a characteristic Baron Wheresmecash; Ally Benson is an amusing Dame Flossie; and Miss Fanny Adamson an engaging Maid Marian. The Four Emeralds are good acrobatic dancers.

TIVOLI THEATRE OF VARIETIES. — Lessee and Manager, Signor Pepi; Stage-Manager, Mr. Tom Whiting.—Miss Hetty King does well, as also do Mountford and Walsh, the speciality artists, in their saying and songs; Mr. Arthur Aldridge is a fine singer; Dora Martine is a daring and graceful gymnast; Vospar, the facial portrait expert, Violet Morgan, speciality mimic, and George Barron, eccentric comedian, are also well received.

BATH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Egbert Lewis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lewis A. Long.—Lovers of the old comedies are being well catered for this week by Mr. Cyril Keightley and Miss Haidee Gunn, who are supported by an excellent company. For the opening performance The Rivals was chosen, and this fine comedy with its local colouring was received with great cordiality. Mr. Keightley was the Sir Lucius O'Trigger, and a finer portrayal of the jovial Irishman it is difficult to conceive. Miss Gunn impersonated Lydia Languish with girlish charm, and her histrionic abilities were evident in the scenes with Captain Absolute, who had a capital representative in Mr. Baliol Holloway. Mr. Henry Crocker as Sir Anthony Absolute simply revelled in the part; Mr. B. A. Pittar (like Mr. Keightley, an old Bensonian) did well as Faulkland; Mr. Iden Payne gave a humorous study of Acres; the Fag of Mr. Ivan Leslie was in every way commendable; and David was safe in the hands of Mr. Charles Medwin, Mr. Arthur Fayne, as the coachman, being also good. Miss Alice Arden gave the speeches of Mrs. Malaprop with capital effect; Miss Theresa Gregory was a subdued Julia; and Miss Ethel Dane made a pretty and mischievous Lucy. On Tuesday She Stoops to Conquer was billed; and The School for Scandal and the new Irish comedy Miles Carew—Highwayman are also promised.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Chas. Schuberth.—The opening turn this week is supplied by Elsie and Rubie Redfern, in banjo, song, and dance; Capt. Slingsby follows with his new ventriloquial act; Lillie Langtry livens matters up with her goey songs and smart dancing; Valazza holds the stage with a wonderful juggling equilibristic and athletic performance; Blanche and Powell's vocal and instrumental music is sandwiched with amusing comedy; the Almas include a gentleman responsible for daring deeds upon chairs; and the best laugh of the evening is heard when Gus Garrick gives his "Tit-Bits" of well-known stars, his final skit on La Mattichiche being extremely comical. Raymond's Bio-Tableaux conclude an excellent entertainment.

BEDFORD.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. E. Graham-Falcon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter R. Wilson.—This week the boards are occupied by Mr. F. Mouillott's company in the comedy-drama, A Message from Mars. Mr. Herbert J. Bentley is an exceedingly good Horace Parker, and Mr. William H. Brougham as the Messenger from Mars leaves nothing to be desired. Mr. Bruce Findley scores as the Tramp, and the part of Arthur Dicey finds a capital exponent in Mr. J. Edgar Stevenson. Miss Constance Groves successfully interprets the rôle of Mrs. Clarence; Miss Joan Ellis is a charming Minnie Temple; Miss Flora Hastings cleverly depicts the character of Miss Parker.

BELFAST.—PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietors, Warden, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. George Harris.—We are favoured this week by a visit from the Royal Carl Rosa Opera Company. Tannhäuser was presented on Monday with every element of success. In the title-rôle Mr. Julius Walther acted and sang in a manner that deserves the highest commendation; Miss Grace Nicoll's vocalism as Elizabeth was superb, and her acting was marked by much charm; Mr. Charles Victor's fine voice was heard to advantage in the beautiful song, "Star of Eve"; and much praise is due to Mme. Marie Alexander, who appeared as Venus. As the Landgrave, Mr. Arthur Winckworth displayed to advantage his fine bass voice; and Miss Lilia De Berna was an excellent Shepherd Boy. The largely-augmented orchestra was conducted by Mr. Eugene Goossens. Carmen, Lohengrin, Faust, Fidelio, Il Trovatore, and The Bohemian Girl have also been performed.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; General-Manager, Mr. J. De Frece; Acting-Manager, Mr. James M. McCann.—For three weeks only "variety" forms the attraction here—so it is announced—and for the first week a fine bill has been provided, headed by that clever magician, Mr. Carl Hertz. It must have been gratifying to the management to see such a capital house on Monday, and the success achieved by Mr. Hertz was certainly a notable one, his various feats being quite extraordinary. Assisted by Miss Emmeline D'Alton and Co., he introduces his datest sensation, "The Bridal Chamber," with great effect. Dezmonte and Mora appear in their marvellous triple-bar performance; and a hit has been made by Mr. Charles Bignell with his catchy chorus songs. The evergreen comedian, Mr. Sam Redfern, takes well, his stump speech being very humorous; and Shawlene exhibits much talent as a siffleur and mimic; Miss Maidie Scott is a delightful comedienne; and Miss Sylvia Du Barry gains much approval for her vocal efforts. Also appearing are the Brothers Lavelle, acrobatic comedians; Miss Gertie Gitana, an exceedingly smart comedienne; and the attractive Royal Pictures.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Acting-Manager, Mr. John S. Walker.—The chief attraction here this week is provided by the Midget Minstrels, about thirty in number, who provide a very entertaining and successful performance under the title of Casey's Court. Miss Nellie Farrell sings Irish songs in characteristic style; and the feats of equilibrism by the Henry Taylor Trio are little short of marvellous. Maxwell and Francis appear to advantage in their comedy act, which is quite refreshing; and Miss May Henderson, "the dusky comedy queen," sings and dances excellently. Also here are Messrs. Walter King and Walter Curtis, comedians; and the Two Tees, musical grotesques.

NEW ALHAMBRA THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—General Manager, Mr. Henry T. Downs.—The Alhambra Dramatic Company stage this week the evergreen Irish drama, The Shaughraun. In the rôle of Conn Mr. T. H. Solly was simply inimitable, his success being in every sense complete; Moya was delightfully played by Miss Effie Mackintosh; Harvey Duff, the informer, was well realised by Mr. Cyril Grier; and Corry Kinchela was capitally sustained by Mr. H. Hesselgrave. Miss Nina Blake-Adams, a charming actress, filled the rôle of Arte O'Neill with much grace; Mr. H. Arnold Frith furnished a skilful impersonation of Father Doolan; and a word of praise is due to Mr. H. Arnold Allen for his interpretation of Robert Ffolliott. Mr. Horace Denton, a fine actor, had in Captain Molineux a part that fitted him like the proverbial glove; and Miss Mattie Crawford was seen to much advantage as Claire Ffolliott. Miss Alice Clarke was a capital Mrs. O'Kelly.

BILSTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. H. Battersby; Manageress, Miss G. Battersby.—Under the personal direction of Mr. Percy Shaw Miss Evelyn Moore's company is presenting The Crimson Club. Prominent in the heavy part of Julia we have Miss Florence Delmar, whose portrayal is beyond reproach; and Miss Sydney Barrasford makes an interesting heroine.

BIRKENHEAD.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. W. W. Kelly; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Pell. — Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company, in A Country Mouse, is creating an excellent impression here. The Hon. Archibald Vyse is admirably impersonated by Mr. Tempier Powell; Mr. Charles Bedells is a capital John Bowlby, M.P.; and Mr. Thomas Sidney is well suited as the Duke of St. Kitts. Lord Robert Wykeham is efficiently sustained by Mr. Ernest H. G. Cox, and Jephcot, the butler, is in the experienced hands of Mr. Frank Hill. Lady Sylvia Bowlby is irreproachably played by Miss Lilias Earle, and Miss Margaret Marshall is all that could be wished as Violet Aynsley. The time-honoured farce, A Rough Diamond, serves as an interesting curtain-raiser.

ARGYLE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. D. J. Clarke.—A particularly fine company includes Mr. Mark Sheridan, the popular comedian; Bella and Bijou, vaudeville artists; Miss Florrie Gallimore, comedienne; and Mr. W. J. Churchill, in his funniosities—all of whom are fulfilling very successful return engagements. In addition there are Orpheus, instrumentalist, Miss Jose Delaine, vocalist and dancer, Cyclo, trick bicyclist, Mr. Tom Yorke, coster comedian, and Brown's Royal Bioscope. On Thursday Mr. Clarke generously gave his annual benefit in aid of the town's charities.

BIRMINGHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Tom B. Davis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Philip Rodway.—The Girl Behind the Counter, with the actual London company, made its first apearance in Birmingham here on Monday, and scored instantly. Mr. Hayden Coffin as Charles Chetwynd at once proved himself the very beau-ideal of operatic lovers, and gained a most demonstrative welcome. Miss Isabel Jay was applauded oft and long for her beautiful singing and acting as Winnie; Mr. J. F. McArdle's clever drollery was again recognised in the part of General Willoughby; Mr. George Barrett gave a study of the waiter which was much enjoyed; and Mr. Fred Allandale as M. Duval, Mr. G. Dave Burnaby as Gushington, Mr. Lionel Victor as the office boy, and Mr. Ernest Laceby as the commissionaire were undoubted successes. Miss Violet Englefield plays an important part as Millie Mostyn with much distinction; and Mesdames Violet Crossley, Helene Rose, and Kathleen Courtney diffused brightness and charm.

PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Rodgers, Ltd.; Manager, Mr. J. F. Graham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Johnston.—Mr. and Mrs. Kendal have returned to delight their admirers here in The Ironmaster, A Tight Corner, The Elder Miss Blossom, and The Housekeeper. The first-mentioned was played on Monday, when the popular twain, as Derbiay and Claire de Beaupré respectively, were received with every token of affection. Mr. Bassett Roe played the Duc de Beaupré in his well-known finished style; Mr. Edward Vaughan made a graceful and handsome Octave; Mr. Metcalfe Wood presented the Baron de Préfont in a decidedly clever fashion; Mr. Ernest Hendrie left nothing wanting in the character of Moulinet; and Mr. W. M. Rutherford imparted a characteristic touch to the rôle of Béchelin. Mrs. A. B. Tapping's work as the Marquise de Beaupré was much admired; Miss Dora Fellowes made a noteworthy Baroness; Miss Moore-Lane a charming Suzanne; Miss Violet Lewis a dramatic Athenaïs; and Miss Kate Bishop a successful Brigitte.

GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Victor Turner.—The Manxman is repeating its success here with Mr. Alfred B. Cross and company. Mr. Sydney Kearns, in the absence of Mr. Cross, indisposed, made a sympathetic and delightful Pete; Miss Minnie Watersford, in the difficult rôle of Kate, acted with much emotional feeling; Miss Mona Spearing invested the rôle of Miss Christian with the utmost grace and dignity; Miss Dorothy Duncan was responsible for animated acting as Nancy; Miss Kitty Livesey was an agreeable Belle Kelly; and Messrs. James Dillon, Tom Bowron, Dudley Stuart, Richard Hutton, and Edward Cartell did extremely well.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Lester Collingwood.—Mr. Frank Lindo is once more in our midst with the successful drama Home, Sweet Home. Mr. Lindo's fine, manly acting as Stephen Armitage evokes the utmost enthusiasm; Mr. D. Lawrence Doyle acts as the old sailor-fisherman with rugged pathos; Capt. Gerald Gambier invests the rôle of the Duke of Ancaster with natural dignity; Mr. F. Miles Hodgson dissimulates as the villain, Lucas Lyle, with great plausibility; and sympathy for the heroine, Joan, is secured by Miss Marion Wakeford. Miss Daisy Rochefort is a great favourite as Dora; the Hon. Percy and Sybil Fay are cleverly and amusingly drawn by Mr. Jack Patrick and Miss Ray Rochefort respectively; and other characters are well portrayed by Miss Cecil Warde and Messrs. T. Lewis, Geo. Overs, Helsby Wright, E. C. Owens, and Danvers.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Andrew Melville; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Hindle Taylor.—Mr. Andrew Melville continues to attract with his own company, which this week is playing here In a Woman's Grip. Mr. Melville humorously enacts the rôle of Joe Butters; Miss Rose Ralph appears in a triple rôle with success; Mr. Percy Dawson displays estimable qualities as Frank Haydon; Mr. J. Milne Taylor gives a telling performance of Maurice Stanton; Mr. Edward Finlay scores as the British Ambassador, Sir Edward Merton; Mr. William Summers is a successful Mr. Fairley; Miss Jessie Yatman an acceptable Lilian Fairley; Mr. F. A. Mackenzie a capable Dick Langley; and Miss Amy Corelli, Mr. Edward Worth, Mr. Arnold Winters, Mr. P. C. Henry, Mr. Francis Everard, Mr. Montague Lane (in a clever impersonation of the mad doctor), little Polly Hughes, and others do well.

CARLTON THEATRE, SALTLEY. — General-Manager, Mr. James Alexander.—A Traitor Prince is represented here with all its accustomed success by Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesey's company. Mr. George M. Montanini is a sinister Prince; Mr. T. P. McBride as Lieutenant Frank Derrick is pleasantly frank and vigorous; Mr. James Sherwin as Cara is interesting; Mr. Austin H. Longford is successful both as Richard and Colonel Vane; Miss Nesta Sandford makes a fascinating Vashti; Miss Rose Routledge as the heroine, Lola Vane, acts with charm and sympathy; Mr. Edmund O'Grady entertains the audience well as Billy Bright; Mr. Lex Philip lends strong support as the Hon. Bobby; and Miss Kitty Thomas and Miss Clara O'Grady are smart and humorous as Pansy and Martha Blossom respectively.

THEATRE ROYAL, ASTON.—Lessee, Mr. Charles Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson; Acting Manager, Mr. Frank Whittles.—The Beast and the Beauty, with Fredk. Melville's company, is playing to large audiences here. Mr. W. S. Hartford is a successful Jack Barrymore; Mr. Wm. E. Passmore a creditable Earl of Loman; Mr. Bernard Mervyn a convincing Lord X.; Mr. Harry Talbot a diverting Tom Chicken; Mr. Eric Campbell a satisfactory Ned Sampson; and Mr. Harry Wimpenny a realistic Dick Soames. Miss Alice Bowes does all that is possible with the rôle of Violet (Beauty); Miss Daisy Gwynne displays power and intensity as Delilah Vane; Miss Mamie Rendle renders useful help as Mimi; and Messrs. Alfred Wood, Stanley Vivian, Harry Seton, and Will H. Gainsford lend valuable aid.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. A. W. Matcham.—Arthur Roberts and company, in The Importance of Being Another Man's Wife is proving a great attraction here. As Fitz Awful-Smith, Mr. Roberts keeps the house in hearty laughter. The motor-car and duel of the Griffiths Bros. is exceedingly amusing; the eccentricities of Russell Brandon are smart; Tripells has a musical turn with the saxophone and tubes; Marguerite Broadfoote is applauded for her songs; Hillman and Russell, in their duologue, The Somnambulist, are good; Phil Herman is a pleasing comedian; Dolly Denton and Lady Mansell's Juveniles are in the bill.

GAIETY THEATRE. — General-Manager, Mr. Albert Bushell.—Ethel Arden and George Abel, in their humorous sketch, Three of a Kind, are accorded well-merited cheers; Rappo's marvellous equilibristic performance is excellent; Bert Woodward is an entertaining cycling coon; Athas and Collins, in their sketch, The Italian and the Monkey, are good; Ike Scott and Son, the Findons, Laurance Barclay, and Charles Santon complete an excellent programme.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—In The Dandy Thieves Fred Karno's company of comedians are attracting crowded houses, while Lottie Lennox has some capital songs, which are loudly applauded; an interesting musical turn is provided by Barton and Franklin; Charlie Ulrich is an expert barrel manipulator, and the Bros. Curran provide amusement in their unique boxing act; Johnston and De Cure are accomplished trick cyclists; as a ventriloquist Bert Williams is most entertaining; Morimura as an illusionist is exceedingly smart; and Helen Martin renders her Irish ballads with effect.

BORDESLEY PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Edward Foster.—The principal position of the bill is this week occupied by Frank Danby and company who have an amusing musical comedy sketch in The Chauffeur. Leo Tell has extraordinary powers of mimicry; Professor Dunning is a ventriloquist of merit; Amy Marsden, a dainty and original comedienne, is very well received; and Kahn and Kahn have some very good conjuring tricks; the Wedburns and Lillian Warren also contribute to an excellent programme.

BISHOP AUCKLAND.—EDEN THEATRE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. Addison; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. J. Huntley.—For Life and After is being presented here by Hardie and Von Leer's company. Mr. Vernon Sansbury efficiently fills the rôle of Richard Grey; the despicable characters of Rube Hexham and Jack Huggett are capably undertaken by Messrs. Charles Osborne and Henry Hare; Mr. Chris Mason as Joe Grimper merits praise; and Mr. Harry G. Wright is successful as Zeke. Miss Grace Heywood gains much sympathy in her portrayal of Marion Grey; Miss Muriel Dean plays Dora Grey in a pleasing manner; Jenny Huggett is ably sustained by Miss Marion Fawcett; and Miss Rosslyn Vane is an excellent Loo Hexham.

BLACKBURN. — THEATRE ROYAL.— Proprietor, Mr. Harry Yorke; Manager, Mr. Reginald C. Yorke.—Florodora is an old favourite with Blackburn theatre-goers, and the visit of Mr. Bannister Howard's principal company this week is attracting large audiences. Presented by an excellent cast of artists, the musical comedy has lost none of its freshness. Mr. Daley Cooper as Tweedlepunch is as irresistibly funny as ever, and Mr. V. R. Tate as Cyrus Gilfain is also excellent. Mr. R. Courtier Dutton sings well in the part of Frank Abercoed, and Mr. Harold Perry is good as Arthur Donegal. The Dolores of Miss Gwladys Elvey, who has a fine stage presence and a tuneful voice. Miss Nellie Bowman is a sweet Angela, and Miss Edith Housley wins approval as Lady Holyrood.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Page.—Mr. Fred Granville's company, in the drama For Better or Worse, is a strong attraction here.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Will Murray.—There is another capital variety company here, good turns being given by Fanny Wentworth, in musical sketches at the piano; the Brothers Ethairien, comedians; Rebla, comic juggler; Charles Colby and Lily May, in the ventriloquial sketch, The Dancing Doll; Susie and Pvotti, Continental dancers; and others.

BLACKPOOL.—HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE.—General-Manager, Mr. J. R. Huddlestone. — Mr. H. R. Roberts and company are here this week with The Prince Chap, which is proving very popular. Mr. Roberts as William Peyton scores a great success; and Mr. Victor Widdicumbe gives every satisfaction as Marcus Runion. Miss Ethel Hollingshead supplies the comedy element in the part of Alice Travers; and Messrs. Lorna Lawrence, Betty Green, and Geraldine Wilson each in turn presents a pleasing picture of Claudia. The other parts are also in capable hands.

GRAND THEATRE.—Owner and Manager, Mr. T. Sergenson.—The Span of Life, as enacted by Mr. Arthur Carlton's company, is the fare provided here this week. The Almo trio of acrobats provide the human bridge, and also give a clever triple bar act; whilst other specialities are introduced by Miss Kitty Russell and Mr. Walter Dale.

PALACE. — General-Manager, Mr. G. H. Harrop; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Waller.—The Five Vernons top a good bill here this week, and prove themselves to be expert xylophone players; Celest does sensational feats on the wire; Maud and Sydney Wood sing and dance well; Oakdene is an entertaining ventriloquist; Les Marsumas contribute a sketch; Barrington plays the piano in all positions; Bishop and Hanlon are good comedians; the Charles Troupe give an extraordinary juggling act; and Robert Gilmore is a popular comedian.

BLYTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. A. C. Moody.—Messrs. Frank J. Pitt and Charles Halling's company is here in the well-known drama, £1000 Reward. Of the character of Dick Springthorpe Mr. Charles Rogers, jun., gives a vivid and highly-interesting reading; Mr. J. Newton Cowling as Fred Ingleford is commendable; the junior Ingleford of Mr. Frank J. Pitt is a clever piece of acting; Mr. Charles Halling is agreeably prominent as Vincent Rainsworth; and Mr. Frank Dallas as Inspector Gilbert is much applauded. Gilbert Lisle, alias Darrell Grey, finds an able exponent in Mr. Charles V. Sandford, and Mr. Arthur Merton is much in evidence as Fighting Jepps. Miss Lynn Darlington is a charming Meg, and Miss Daisy Halling a clever Madame Sanson. Mr. Moody, the energetic lessee, has provided an extra attraction in an interesting series of pictures.

GAIETY THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. John Grantham; Manager, Mr. Arthur James.—Appearing at the above hall are the under-mentioned artists: Jack Hastings, in illustrated song; Alf. E. Rick, comedian; J. H. Malva, in a ventriloquial act; and Carley and Place, burlesque artists.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. W. Tudor.—The chief attraction at the above amusement resort has been supplied by the Four M.P.s, otherwise the Musical Palmers, who have met with a hearty reception. Mr. Tudor still runs a most attractive pictorial show, interspersed with variety turns of a meritorious description

BOLTON.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Melvin.—Mr. George Alexander's company is this week appearing here in A. W. Pineros's comedy, His House in Order. The characters of Hilary Jesson and Nina are finely rendered by Mr. Stephen T. Ewart and Miss Jean Sterling Mackinlay; Mr. J. Edward Pearce's interpretation of the part of Filmer Jesson, M.P., is everything that could be wished; Miss Moyna Hill contributes a pretty and intelligent rendering of Derek Jesson; the haughty Ridgeley family are in the capable hands of Messrs. Geo. Fitzgerald (Sir Daniel Ridgeley), Ernest R. Hollway (Pryce Ridgeley), Miss Augusta Haviland (Lady Ridgeley), and Miss Elaine Steddall (Geraldine Ridgeley), the four parts being admirably filled. The Major Maurewarde of Mr. Lloyd Lowndes is another excellent assumption; and Mr. Luke Forster and Mlle. Eve Grand are responsible for the parts of Dr. Dilnott and Mlle. Thome.

GRAND THEATRE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry Kenyon.—The Maningos do an exceptionally smart act as acrobats and equilibrists, obtaining much applause for their clever turn. Other items in the bill are: The Two Celloe, in a refined musical entertainment; Miss Patty Yole, comedienne and elegant dancer; Frank Dunlop, comedian and patterer; Francis and Alfred, sensational and comedy jugglers; Miss Katie Butler, character comedienne; Regan and Ryan, in their high-class comedy act; Miss Elsie Clair, soprano vocalist; Fred Lincoln, comedian; Fred Horsfall, vocalist and mimic; Frank Cumminger, sand dancer; the Columbia Trio, in their original comedy operatic and humorous absurdity; and Vernon's Imperial Bioscope.

BOSCOMBE. — HIPPODROME.—Joint-Proprietors, Messrs. F. Mouillot and W. de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. De Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Ball.—Mr. J. G. Grahame, jun., and Miss Zerlina Harrington, in a cleverly-enacted dramatic episode, entitled A Daughter of Pleasure, form the star turn this week. Rich and Rich are great favourites, their brisk singing and patter causing much laughter; Larola, the funny man with the funny ways, is distinctly clever and amusing; Elsie Roby, the comedienne pianist, elicits much laughter; the Brothers Bright, gymnasts du Salon, submit a clever turn; Mark Tapley, comedian, deserves hearty mention; Rose Cabani, comedienne and dancer, is very good; and the Hippodrome Pictures conclude a fine bill.

BOSTON.—PALACE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Geo. Saphrini.—A crowded house witnessed an excellent programme here on Monday. The chief attraction was the Three Sisters Giovini, acrobats; Phinas and Aida are good hand-balancers and equilibrists; the Morgans are a clever couple; and the Sisters Hly, chic duettists; George Bliss, comedian; Noel, gymnast; Little George, sketch artist and mimic; and Hardy and Willis, eccentric comedians, complete a good entertainment.

BOURNEMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, David Allen and Son; Sole Lessee, Mr. Mouillot; Manager, Mr. Rowland Stewart.—The Bournemouth Dramatic Club occupy the theatre this week with My Friend the Prince.

BRADFORD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. T. F. Doyle; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Richardson.—Large audiences here this week bear testimony to the popularity of The Geisha, which is on a return visit, and Walls of Jericho, the staging being admirable. Mr. Herbert Brinston displays much power in his impersonation of Jack Frobisher; Mr. George A. Brandram is excellent as Hankey Bannister; Mr. Cyril Baleine makes a good character study of the Marquess of Steventon; Mr. Alexander Cassy is satisfactory as Lord Drayton; and Mr. Sydney Hamilton is highly effective as Harry Dallas. Miss Florence Jackson is in every way charming as Lady Alethea Frobisher, her varied moods being cleverly portrayed; Miss Molly Carton is pleasing as Lady Lucy Derenham; and Miss Lydia Busch acts well in the sympathetic part of Lady Westerby. The smaller parts are capitally taken by the Misses Edith Cuthbert, Rita Milman, Evelyn Maxwell, Doris Lytton, Millie Emden, Messrs. E. F. Meads. Harry Pemberton, Joseph Herbert, Frank Gibbon, Charles Walters, W. F. Fletcher, and Herbert Norris.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Ernest Carpenter; Resident-Manager, Mr. W. F. Crowe.—The Girl Who Lost Her Character is on a return visit here, the drama being staged in a very complete manner and cleverly played by Mr. Douglas Bruce's company. Miss Ethel Bracewell presnts a clever exposition of Molly Vernon; Mr. Frank Adair is exceptionally good in the unpopular part of Captain Caversham; Mr. C. W. Standing is manly and effective as Jack England; Mr. Harold Macartney does well as the Rev. Robert Everton; Mr. George Mitchell makes the part of James Sutton an excellent one; Miss Bertha Northam is interesting and pleasing as Rose Seymour; and Miss Lydia Mannington acts with considerable power as Marian Franklyn. The comic parts of Dick Punch and Isabella Jones are capitally taken by Mr. George H. Asquin and Miss Daisy Meynard.

PALACE THEATRE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace Livermore; Treasurer, Mr. F. V. Welchman.—Rollo Balmain and Sara Mignon, supported by a good company, are successfully appearing here in a dramatic sketch, Oliver Twist; the Four Delevines have an amusing comedy act, Flipp and Flopp, in which some smart dancing and knockabout business is introduced; W. J. Ashcroft, assisted by J. W. Morton amuse immensely with an Irish and American comedy duologue; and other successful artists are Maude Esmond, burlesque actress; the Three Ramoniers, in an exceptionally clever double balancing act; the Haverleys, American song illustrators; Fred Fyne and Johnny Hurley in their speciality, The Coster and the Dude; and Will English, in coon songs and dances. The performance concludes with a good display of Vernon's animated pictures.

EMPIRE.—Proprietor, Mr. B. Pearce Lucas; Resident-Manager, Mr. Sid Macaire.—Edwin Boyde, comedian, heads the bill and obtains appreciation; Melot presents a clever turn as a conjurer, &c.; Stratton Mills, Bobby Nairn, and Minnie Blanchard score in an amusing sketch, A Lovely Liar; Lady Fauntleroy displays considerable skill as a ventriloquist; Stacey and Williams are versatile comedians and dancers; Daisy Martell, comedienne and dancer, is highly successful; Will Johnson, comedian, obtains applause; and May Lilian Levy, comedienne and burlesque artist, does a pleasing turn. The performance concludes with animated pictures.

BROUGHTON.—VICTORIA, LTD.—Manager and Licensee, Mr. J. Fred Watson.—On Monday evening Mr. Ernest R. Abbott's clever combination presented a version of Sapho, which evidently gave much enjoyment. Miss Ada Abbott, in the title-rôle, did excellent work. Mr. Abbott's Jean Gaussin was a fine performance. Mr. Douglas C. Phelps was a very amusing Uncle Césaire. Mr. W. H. Davis-Brown as Hettema and Miss Louis Gilmour as Aunt Devonne also caused roars of laughter. Mr. Weedon Ross was a comical old Legrand. Mr. W. H. Garbois was successful as Henri Dechelette. Flamant and Croudel were in the safe hands respectively of Mr. Edward Tring and Mr. John Lester. Miss Doris Dew was a charming Lucy, and Miss Marjorie Tennant did well as Madame Hettema. Mr. Edwin Keene (D'Arac) gave some amusing musical specialities. Sapho was repeated on Tuesday and Wednesday, and for the remainder of the week A Wife's Triumph was announced.

BURNLEY.—VICTORIA OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—The Prince of Pilsen is presented for the first time here this week by Baron H. Harris's excellent company, and is very cordially received. Mr. Harry Kilburn as Hans Wagner, the brewer, is the life and soul of the piece; Miss Sophie Harriss is a fine actress, and quite at home in the rôle of Mrs. Maddison Croker; Mr. Frank Crimp as the Prince is to be complimented on his singing of "A Passing Cloud." Other artists of merit are Mr. Roy Sydney, Mr. Bernard Russell, Mr. Ernest Gifford, Miss Florence Beach, Miss Connie Leon, and Miss Molly Wynne. Miss de Loriere (the Gibson Girl) is most pleasing. The dresses and scenery are splendid.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—Well filled houses are the rule here this week. Mlle. Marvelli's cockatoos and macaws give a clever and pleasing performance; Henry Abdy's canine hippodrome is another excellent turn, the revolving table which is introduced causes much laughter; the Toreadors are very funny in a burlesque bull-fight, and Renson and Waite are rewelcomed for their smart patter; Shangai, Chinese magician, presents a mysterious performance, and the Violas, the white Mahatmas, give a clever séance of mental telegraphy; the Harleys, in a gymnastic and cycling turn, are highly appreciated, and the New Empire Theatroscope presents interesting pictures.

BURTON-ON-TRENT.—OPERA HOUSE NEW HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. H. Dudley Bennett; Manager, Mr. John Waller.—This week's variety programme includes Miss Beatrice Bonnie, who renders her songs in good style; the St. Johns, who score in their selections on various instruments; and Mr. Harry Bent, impersonator of the "Stars of the Halls." Stylo is received with unstinted applause in his marvellous hoop jugglery; Carlotta Lunn, the possessor of a strong and tuneful voice, is heard to advantage; a versatile comedian is Mr. Ernest Heathcote; a sensational feat is achieved by Mr. Tom Grave, who is whirled round the revolving wheel on a bicycle. The Raymond Bio-Tableaux winds up a good show.

BURY (LANCS.).—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Mr. Edmund Tearle and company are playing here this week. On Monday Hamlet was presented. In the title-rôle Mr. Tearle gave a clever study; Mr. J. Cooke Hinton was good as the King; Mr. Samuel Seldet submitted a capital study of Polonius; Miss Esther Tearle deserved the highest-praise for her Ophelia; the part of the Queen was well acted by Miss Mary Campbell; Mr. Ernest Lodge gave a dreamy presentment of the Ghost; and Mr. B. Turner as Laertes, Mr. C. Marle as Horatio, and Mr. R. H. Lace as Rosencrantz were all good. During the week, Othello, Julius Cæsar, Jeanie Deans, and The Three Musketeers were to be played.

CIRCUS OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—A high-class programme here includes Mendel, the blind pianist; the Rio Brothers, American gymnasts; May Glenn, vocalist; Marie Reeve, comedienne; Thorpe and Coe, in a sketch, entitled My Burglar; the Three Sisters Chester, vocalists and dancers; H. Downes, coloured vocalist; and Sammy Shields, Scottish comedian.

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Broadhead and Sons; General-Manager, Mr. Broadhead, jun.—A number of good turns here this week include Von Etta, a clever lady illusionist and quick-change artist; Edwin Garth, comedian; the Spanish Goldinis, acrobats; the Sisters Marion, clever duettists; Evelyn Taylor, comedienne; Oliver Conroy, comedian; Frances and Francis, acrobatic comedians; and Vera Mayne, a Canadian singer.

CAMBRIDGE.—NEW THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. B. Redfern, J.P., D.L.—D'Oyly Carte's principal repertoire company is here this week, and on Monday night a charming performance was given of The Gondoliers, in which Mr. C. H. Workman as the Duke of Plaza-Toro was as good as ever; Mr. Fred Billington as Don Alhambra del Bolero was admirable; Mr. Pain Ripple, another favourite here, was also excellent as Marco; Miss Theresa Rassam was delightful as the Duchess; other parts being taken by Messrs. Albert Kavanagh, Fred Drawater, Strafford Mop, and J. Lewis Campion, Miss Mabel Graham, Miss Hope Hastings, and Miss Lulu Evans all being vocalists of great ability. On Tuesday The Mikado was presented; Iolanthe on Wednesday; H.M.S. Pinafore on Thursday; and Patience on Friday.

ASSEMBLY ROOMS.—Proprietors, Public Rooms Co.; Secretary, Mr. Edward Baldwin.—Mr. Charles Harrington's No. 1 American combination occupied the rooms for two evenings this week in Uncle Tom's Cabin. The company is composed of real negroes, and Mr. J. Carr in the rôle of Uncle Tom left nothing to be desired. Mr. J. H. Renney as Phineas Fletcher was really good; Mr. Leslie Beaufort as George Harris interpreted the part with realistic power, as did also Miss Hettie Johnson that of Eliza Harris. Mr. Stanley Howard was a success as Mr. St. Clair; and the same may be said of Miss May Turner as Mrs. St. Clair. Little Minnie acted the part of Little Eva with such feeling and pathos as to visibly touch the large audience. Mrs. Carr was good in the part of Aunt Chloe; Mr. J. Henry Rogers was a success as Legree, the villainous slave-owner; Mr. Walter Langford was responsible for much laughter as Marks, the lawyer; Miss Jennie Malcolm as Aunt Ophelia, a model of order, enacted the part admirably; while Miss Carrie Ellis as Emmeline, and Miss Mabel Bowman as Dina, proved worthy exponents. The character of Topsy was in the capable hands of Miss Annie Watson, and that of Cassy in those of Miss Ethel Middmay. In the plantation scene a capital variety entertainment was given.

CARDIFF.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Robt. Redford.—The successful comedy, The Catch of the Season, has been presented here by Mr. Geo. Dance's company. Mr. Frank Lincoln as the Duke of St. Jermyns gives a capital rendition, his breezy manner making his portrayal very popular; as Angela Miss Moya Mannering quite charms the audience by her pretty and graceful impersonation; Miss Belle Napier makes a capital Lady Caterham; Miss Ida Mann does well as Lady Crystal, and, as her Ladyship's two daughters, Miss M. Savell and Miss Jane Eyre are well placed; as Lord Dundreary Mr. E. H. Kelly causes much fun, while Buckett is amusingly portrayed by Master Grata; Mr. Julian Cross (Sir John Crystal), Mr. Alfred Lloyd (Mr. Gibson), Miss Gwynneth Galton (Duchess of St. Jermyns), are deserving of praise; and the talented chorus of Gibson Girls has been carefully trained.

KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James; Acting-Manager, Mr. Albert C. Duncan.—Mr. Samuel James's own company occupies the boards this week with the exciting drama, Why Woman Sins. Mr. Harry Cullenford is a manly and gallant Lieut. Harry Maxwell; Mr. Jackson Hayes acts with much ability as Capt. Herbert Carlton; Mr George Ellis excellently interprets Cecil Spencer; and Mr. George Claremont gives an excellent portrayal of Jim Rainbird. A charming and winsome Nell Desmond is found in Miss Hilda Baynton; and quite a delightful Lily de Vere in Miss Nellie Sheffield. The difficult part of Ida Valette is quite safe in the reliable hands of Miss Gertrude Netterville.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. H. S. Dring.—La Milo, the living Venus, has packed the Empire this week, and her charming performance has aroused genuine admiration; the clever lightning caricaturist, Cruikshanks, has also been an additional attraction; the popular Welsh comedians, Ted and May Hopkins, have naturally a rousing reception; Cliff Ryland is a dry humorist who causes continual laughter; Barton and Ashley give their unconventional comedy act with their well-known smartness; a marvellous acrobatic troupe is the Stein-Eretto; Arthur Reece, the bright vocal comedian; Mezzetti and Mora in a comedy triple bar performance; Amy Sullivan, a captivating comedian; and the popular Bioscope, with laughable pictures, complete a varied programme.

CARLISLE.—H.M. THEATRE.—Lessees, Trustees of R. Stewart M'Kim; Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Stanley.—Messrs. Melford and Polini's company, in The Silver King, opened here to a good house on Monday night. Mr. Fred D. Daviss as Wilfred Denver gives a polished performance, and is ably assisted by Miss Daisy Scudamore, a sympathetic Nellie Denver. The veteran Mr. Edward J. George appears as Jaikes, and is as firm a favourite as ever; Mr. L. St. George Lowther portrays the villainies of the Spider to perfection; Henry Corkett loses nothing in the capable hands of Mr. A. Hornby Warburton; Mr. Arthur Wright is capital as Elijah Coombe; Mr. Warriss Lindon is successful as Cripps; and Mr. Byrom Pedley makes the most of the part of Baxter. Miss Dorothy Radford plays Olive Skinner aritstically. Special mention should be made of Miss Flossie Hall Daviss, who plays Cissy with exceeding charm and sweetness. Other parts are well placed, and the whole production is crowned with success.

THE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Signor Rino Pepi; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. E. Nicholls.—The premier position is occupied by Mme. Lydia Yeamans-Titus, who charms her audience with her beautiful singing and clever imitations; the Philippe Brothers cause much uproarious fun with their absurdity, Shunting; Miss Dolly Harmer, with her "Suffragette" song meets with an ovation at each performance; Bishop and Vale are exceedingly clever knockabout comedians; Osmonde Penstone submits a pleasing and smart magical act; Jack Charman sings a couple of capital songs in taking style; Miss Onro on the silver wire is appreciated; capital pictures on the bioscope complete an excellent programme.

CARMARTHEN.—ASSEMBLY ROOMS.—Proprietors, Public Rooms Co.; Secretary, Mr. Edward Baldwin.—This week Miss Hilda Hatton and Mr. Victor Gardom's company presented on two nights Not Peace, but a Sword, a stirring drama illustrating a tale of the Chinese mission fields. Mr. C. Milley Doyle was most successful as General Wilford; Mr. Rupert Carlton interpreted the part of Tien Sing, the scheming and bloodthirsty Chinese mandarin and opium merchant, with realistic power; Miss Letitia Rushforth was an unqualified success in the character of Dorothy Danecourt, and her rendering of "Down the Vale" proved that she possessed a well-trained voice of good compass and power; Miss Eileen Leoville acted the character of Helen, the widow of John Danecourt, with the requisite power and pathos; Mr. Leon Ainscliffe as Captain Anstruther delineated the part with dramatic power; while Mr. Wallace Childs ably sustained that of Sergt. Murphy O'Dowd, and was responsible for much laughter. Mr. Bernard Beere as the ghost of the murdered missionary was good; and the same may be said of Mr. Alec Finlayson as Li-Hung and Mr. Oswald Bertram as Danecourt. Mr. Luigi Cavallo as Chin-li Chinaman was a decided hit; as was also Miss Gertrude Vickers as Anna Maria. Miss Bella Richardson was successful as Lika Yoka (a dancer); Mr. Victor Gardom gave a powerful interpretation to the rôle of Sir Philip Darcy, the villain of the piece; and to Miss Hilda Hatton must be accredited high praise for the power, pathos, and realism which she introduced into her portrayal of Carlotta, the half-caste.

CHATHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. C. and L. B. Barnard; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lionel Barnard; Secretary, Mr. Geo. G. Ridley.—This week marks a return visit of Mr. Arnold Bell's company in Ben-My-Chree. Mr. Bell sustains in powerful style the arduous rôle of Dan Mylrea; Miss Frances Campbell does well as Mona; Mr. H. M. Clifford is seen to advantage as Cilchrist Mylrea; and Davy Fayle and Hommy-Beg, as portrayed by Messrs. F. Carlile and John Henley respectively, are popular characters.

BARNARD'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. L. B. Barnard.—This week's sketch is The Maniac, with Mr. Melville Bickford scoring in the name part; Clive and Clark prove smart dancers; the Boston Twins are new to Barnard's audiences, the mimicry of one of them being most amusing; Gicardo is a juvenile juggler whose dexterity surprises; and Harry Cooke, comedian, Newco and Cullo, comedians and dancers, and Rene Ring, comedienne, also appear. Mr. Lacey has a capital film, entitled "Where there's a will there's a way."

GAIETY THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Capt. H. E. Davis; Manager, Mr. Frank E. Donne.—Happy Fanny Fields is back again, delighting all; Conway and Leland prove a merry pair of monopedes, and the remaining turns are: Little Don, the mirthful mite; Dolly Golden, speciality dancer; Wright and Elton, with comedy; Kathleen Radford, the Gravesend flower seller; Walter Clyde, vocalist; and pictures projected by the Edisonograph.

CHELTENHAM.—OPERA HOUSE.—General Manager, Mr. H. Oswald Redford.—Mr. George Dance's principal company is paying a welcome return visit with the Orchid. Mr. Stenson Liddard plays neatly the part of the Minister of Commerce; Mr. Bertie Wright's zeal as Meakin is unflagging, his great song "I do all the dirty work" proving a remarkable hit; Mr. Sinclair Holden is smart as the Hon. J. Scrymgeour; Miss Dorothy Firmin prettily fills the rôle of Lady Violet; Mr. John R. Val (Zaccary) is an exceedingly clever and nimble speciality dancer; and Mr. Edward Nainby is notably good as the Comte. The chorus is strong and attractive; and the augmented orchestra is well led by M. Jean Desormes.

CHORLEY.—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. G. T. Santé; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. Hemingway.—Mr. J. Rice Cassidy's company is here presenting the excellent drama, In Holy (?) Russia. The play is exceptionally well mounted and staged. As Renée Rubinoff, Mrs. J. Rice Cassidy displays talent of the highest order; Miss Mavis Lee Anderson as Catska Layotski submits a clever delineation; Mr. J. Rice Cassidy undertakes Micky Nolan, and, as usual, is particularly smart and versatile; Laurice Steragoff is effectively depicted by Mr. Carl Rovinelli; Mr. Frank Copeland doing capital service as Sir Harry Berresford. Colonel Richard Forrest is successfully presented by Mr. Arthur Stratton; Mr. J. Cuthbertson as Baron Von Pleve, and Mr. Fredk. Loyd (Count Gregori Petrolski) play with marked success.

COATBRIDGE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Coatbridge Theatre Company; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Commins.—Mr. C. Watson Mill and company are drawing crowded houses here this week with A Warning to Women. Mr. Watson Mill, who appears in the rôle of Dr. Marcus Dread, gives a powerful representation of the character; Mr. George Harvey successfully portrays Shaun; Mr. Norman B. Cannon provides an excellent rendering of Fergus McNaughton; and Lord Eversleigh is admirably represented by Mrs. N. Carter Slaughter; Miss Rosalind Tate renders the difficult part of Moira Kennion in a masterly manner; Miss Ellen Beverley does well as Molly O'More; and Hellena is cleverly undertaken by Miss Sadie Hilton.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Charles Macdona; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. C. Upton.—A good house assembled on Monday to witness The Great Awakening, as played by Miss Maud Hildyard and company, and the play, which was capitally staged and most admirably enacted, was well received. Miss Hildyard herself played the rôle of Lola Selby, upon which character the piece rests, and did so in quite her best style, her changes from comedy to tragedy and vice versâ stamping her as a versatile actress. Mr. A. C. Hardie was most powerful as James Selby; Mr. Bernard Copping doubled the parts of Sir Henry and Jack Merton in clever fashion; Mr. Charles Linney and Mr. George Child made a capable pair of subsidiary villains; and the lighter rôles of Billy Brass and Selina Worts were humorously depicted by Mr. Willie Scott and Miss Isa Bellington respectively. Mr. Herbert Evelyn was painstaking as the harassed Capt. Lambert, being ably assisted by Miss Doris Digby as Molly.

HIPPODROME.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. Fredk. Mouillot and Walter de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Ben de Frece.—The premier position is this week held by Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, depicting the now much-talked-of fight between Gunner Moir and Jack Palmer at the National Sporting Club. The Whitworth Cycling Girls and Campkin the tramp cyclist contribute an interesting turn to which is added the excitement of nightly competitions. Harry Mack is applauded to the echo for his really novel entertainment; Onda and Artell are expert aerial gymnasts; Rose D'Alberg and Blanche Price shine as comediennes and dancers; and Dick Kendall excels in eccentric dancing.

CONSETT.—NEW THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance.—Mr. F. B. Woulfe and his répertoire company are here this week. On Monday Lady Godiva was produced. In the title-rôle, Miss Ethel Griffies acquitted herself with commendable ability; and as Lady Aldyth, Miss Katherine Brook was very good. Mr. F. B. Woulfe as Tom of Coventry still maintains his reputation; whilst as Leofric, Mr. R. Seath Innes was entirely satisfactory. Mr. Wm. McCready gave an excellent representation of the part of Algar; and as Unwolf, Mr. Ernest Hamilton was all that could be desired. Jane Shore was billed for Tuesday night, Nell Gwynne for Wednesday, Hamlet for Thursday and Richelieu for Friday.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. John Horgan.—Mr. Lionel Glenister and Mr. Wood Ingram's company opened here on Monday in All-of-a-Sudden Peggy. As Peggy Miss Decima Moore gave a charming reading of her part, and evoked hearty appreciation; Miss Annie Brophy as Mrs. O'Mara was humorous, her Irish brogue being capital; Mr. Frank G. Bayly, in the rôle of the naturalist, supplied a delightful study; Miss Kate Wingfield, as Lady Crackenthorpe, was excellent; Mr. Henderson Bland, as Major Archie Phipps was capital; Miss Violet Barton Astor as the Hon. Millicent Keppel and Miss Estelle Despa as the Hon. Mrs. Colquhoun adequately portrayed their parts.

PALACE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Henry Kemble.—The Zouaves go through a series of drill exercises very difficult with great skill and marvellous precision; Frank Coyle, comedian, contributes three songs, which he renders in capital style; the Sisters Bronson are clever duettists and dancers; V. L. Granville, character impersonator, gives striking impersonations from The Sign of the Cross, Silver King, and Trilby; Leonard and Larry as the "Unique Komedy Kouple" give humorous dialogues and sing good songs; Theodore Jones and company do a vocal scena which is well received; the Cranks provide a sensational bicycle turn, and prove themselves very clever; and Carte and Mirtziana are gymnasts whose feats are excellent.

COVENTRY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr Wm. Bennett.—A large house gathered on Monday night to give a hearty reception to Mr. Wm. Greet's company in The Earl and the Girl. Miss Florence Wix is again seen as Liza Shoddam, who gives a fine study of the part; Mr. William Cromwell gives a good account of the heavy responsibilities as Jem Cheese; Mr. Robert Hyett is well suited to the part of Dick Walgrave; Mr. A. E. Coleby gives a forcible rendering of A. Bunker Bliss; Miss Gertrude Simpson is a dainty and charming heroine as Elphin Haye; and Miss Eva Bevington shows the possession of a good voice as Daisy Fallowfield; Miss Nellie Grant makes a most imposing Mrs. Shimmering Black; and Miss Helen Langton is responsible for Miss Virginia Bliss.

THE HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. T. M. Sylvester.—A capital audience attended on Monday night to witness a good programme, one of the chief attractions being by Ethel Arden and Geo. Abel's (Ltd.) company in The Little Stowaway, which was much appreciated; the Aquamarinoff Troupe of Russian singers and dancers are most successful, giving some marvellous exhibitions of Russian dances; Sweet, Dale, and Sweet provide an amusing knockabout turn; John Falaway, the comedian cat on the wire, makes a realistic pussy and a very clever wire performer; Boyd and Gilfain are popular as speciality artists; Miss Molly Lawson is a skilful speciality dancer; and Fred. Keallam is well received as a comedian. The Cinematograph Pictures are excellent.

THE EMPIRE.—Manager, Mr. A. Rand.—Plenty of amusement is provided at this popular house of amusement this week. Alexandre and Hughes give a highly entertaining turn in mirth and melody, and are also clever concertina players; McDonald's melody-makers give an extraordinary display in acting, singing, and dancing, and are deservedly appreciated; Miss Ray Wallace gives some bright impersonations of leading artists; Lilian shows with marked success how she has mastered the safety bicycle in trick-riding; Ernest Ball is well received as an actor-vocalist; the Brothers Vetter give their original production entitled The Page's Recreation, in a capable manner; Halma, the society juggler, does a clever juggling entertainment; and Geo. C. Doughty and company present a comedy scene, Captain Cupid, with success.

CRADLEY HEATH.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Jno. H. Morton.—Mr. Frank E. Burdett's company is treating us to a welcome week of The Indian Mutiny. Miss F. Melrose Millett gives a very powerful rendering of her part as Ghuznah, a Brahmin priestess; and Mr. George Steel as Lieutenant Manley submits a very careful study. Mr. Cyril Harrison as Captain Manley is well chosen; and Mr. Jno. Davidson makes a dignified Major Ingleby. The heavy part of Nebu Singh is in the capable hands of Mr. Villiers Stanley; and the rôle of Ra Goonga is wisely entrusted to Mr. Charles Boult. Mr. G. Birch gives an able presentment of Ensign Blake; and Mr. Cecil Morand is funny as Terry O'Brien. Mr. F. Anderson deserves praise for his Sergeant Thompson; and Miss Lillie Grey makes a stately Mrs. Major Ingleby; whilst Miss Agnes Kingston is very winsome as Kate Ingleby. Mr. J. S. Shedden must not be forgotten for his Abul Khan; nor Mr. D. Matthews for his capital Asinga. Mr. Arrack Saumy shows ability in his portrayal of Ghaute; and Mr. J. Peters deserves mention for his neat rendering of Sved Rao.

CREWE.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry Taylor, J.P.—Mr. Lingford Carson's company in The Power of the Cross is the attraction here. Mr. Geo. A. De Gray gives a weird and clever impersonation of Baron Woulfe Curzola; and Mr. Harry C. Rutland is an excellent Gerald Fairfax. Mr. Royce Carleton distinguishes himself as Dr. Leslie Fairfax; and Mr. Richard E. Nugent is both humorous and entertaining as Timothy O'Dowd. Mr. L. Fred Tenaur is good as Benjamin Hawke, and Mr. A. J. Murray acts the part of David Kingsley with care. Miss Cissie St. Elmo shows considerable talent as the designing Rita Lascelles; and Miss Stanley Burt gives an emotional rendering of Margaret Seaton. Miss May Grayce is conspicuous as Blanche Kingsley; and Miss Etta Turner is an interesting Dolly Grey.

CROYDON.—GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Lawson Lambert.—Mr. Lambert is giving Croydon playgoers a rich dramatic treat with a visit of Mr. George Alexander's company in His House in Order. Miss Auriol Lee is seen at her best in the rôle of Nina, the performance having many good points; Mrs. Kemm's is admirably fitted to the part of Lady Ridgeley; Miss Audrey Campbell deserves all praise for her rendering of Geraldine Ridgeley; Mlle. Juliette Milo enacts Mlle. Thome in the best possible manner; and Miss Doris Champion is well placed as Derek Jesson. Mr. Frank Fenton submits a scholarly portrayal of Hilary Jesson; Mr. Cyril Harcourt's Filmer Jesson is played with studied accuracy; Mr. Adam Alexander gives a sound performance as Sir Daniel Ridgeley; Mr. George Silver is amusing as Pryce Ridgeley; Mr. Charles Tyrel acts creditably as Major Maurewarde; Mr. James Annand deserves a word as Dr. Dilnott; Mr. Langford Browne is persevering as Harding; and Mr. Cyril Cattley makes the most of his opportunities as Forsham.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Herrick.—Mr. Chas. Watson Mills' company in A Wrecker of Men, is here this week. Mr. Frederick Byron is excellent as Jim Murley; Mr. Milner Noble as Pharosaphus acts with intensity; Mr. Millar Anderson as Railton displays talent; Mr. Stanley Champion is good as Guise Strange; Mr. Chas. Earle as Ezekiel Isaacs does well; Mr. Harry Dunning is capital as the Hon. Reggie Verincourt; and Mr. Thos. Carruthers as Eric Melville is very convincing. Miss Gwendoline Talbot as Marion Isaacs is commendable; Miss Beatrice Reynolds is well received as Varasole Slopper; Miss Cissie Podmore, as Dora Melville, performs a difficult part with sincerity; and Miss Lucy Sibley ably sustains the rôle of Risca Mallinson.

EMPIRE PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. Walter Gibbons; Manager, Mr. Eustace Jay.—A capital all-round programme is here this week. Joe Elvin and company cause incessant amusement in the ever-popular sketch, Over the Sticks; Fred Holland is a capital comic vocalist; the Cape Girls, singers and dancers, give an enjoyable turn; Claire Romaine, musical comedy artist, makes a big hit; Hallam and Stanton are appreciated in the sketch, A Broken Journey; the Kalos, human marionettes, are clever; the Four Aces, comedy acrobats, win applause; and Doody and Wright, Australian comedians, are first-rate.

DARLINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL AND HIPPODROME.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. James Bell.—Are You a Mason? is here for the first time, under the direction of Mr. Charles Macdona. The piece is preceded each night by a one-act play, The Ruby Heart. Mr. Ernest Cassart as George Fisher is extremely funny; Mr. E. H. Paterson as Amos Bloodgood is admirable; Mr. Howard L. Tracy makes a good Frank Perry; Mr. Edwin Millins as John Halton is clever and smart; Mr. F. Jacques as the eccentric actor, Hamilton Travers, plays to perfection; Mr. Dare Austin as Ernest Morrison, makes a decided hit; Miss Adelaide Grace's portrayal of Mrs. Bloodgood is excellent; Miss Gwen Clifford as Lottie is well worth seeing; Miss Mabel Durrant is an excellent Mrs. Perry; and Miss Stuart and Miss Merrique as Mrs. Bloodgood's two daughters are delightful.

DARWEN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. A. M. Loader; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. J. Robinson.—Messrs. Levy and Cardwell's Juvenile company is appearing here this week, in Beauty and the Beast. Miss Dolly Dodds makes a sprightly Principal Girl, and sings excellently; Miss Kitty Trewhitt as Prince Charming is a decided success; Miss Daisy Fielder as Will Scarlet, Miss Isa Gibson as Maid Marion, and Miss Eadie Cannon as Marjorie Daw, all act cleverly; Miss May Gibson sings well as Silver Star; as does Miss Beattie Townshend as the Witch. The humorous side is kept rolling by Mr. Jack Harrison, the Baron; the Bros. Armstrong, the Baron's daughters, and Messrs. Doyle and Gibson as Flip and Flop.

DERBY.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Denley; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Albert Orton.—Mr. William Greet's principal company is here with The Earl and the Girl. Mr. Wm. Stephens, who again enacts Jim Cheese, scores a big success; Mr. Arthur Harrold is successful as Dick Wargrave, his singing being one of the features of the production; Miss Frances Earle appears to distinct advantage as Elphin Haye; Mr. Percy Wright is capital as the Hon. Crewe Boodle; Mr. H. Courtin cleverly sketches the American; and Mr. W. Norman as the hustling American lawyer is also typical, affording a sharp contrast to Mr. Talk, the English solicitor, well represented by Mr. Greene Taylor. Miss Jennie Richards is to be congratulated on her 'Liza Shoddam; Miss Beatrice Anderson is thoroughly effective as Mrs. Shimmering Black; Miss Gertrude Melville is graceful and vivacious as Daisy Fallowfield; and Miss Mary Morison makes a dignified Virginia Bliss.

PALACE.—Lessee and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Herbert Taylor.—Charles Morritt, described as the "world-renowned wizard," is this week's attraction. He is accompanied by a blind man, endowed with a prodigious memory. Wyndham and Waters, clever comedy artists, give a capital sketch, entitled The Professor and the Pupil. Other turns which are well received include Wheeler and Wilson, comedy acrobats; Grace Langley, a pleasing dancer; the Two Errolls; George Prince, the crazy comedian; and the Sisters Neilson, duettists and dancers. The Palace Bioscope provides a new series of pictures.

DEVONPORT.—METROPOLE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Geo. S. King.—Mr. Bulner's celebrated company are producing the well-known drama, entitled Sentenced for Life, in creditable fashion. Mr. Edward E. Louis plays Lieutenant Roy Stillwell, the hero, most effectively; Mr. Ernest Vaughan, as Captain Paul Derrick, the villain, receives a full measure of the applause generally bestowed on a good stage villian; Mr. Morris Maud is a kindly Rev. Martin Orris; Mr. James F. Firth is an exceptionally humorous Percy McGentle; and Miss May Neilson, in addition to being a clever actress, is an accomplished vocalist.

DONCASTER.—NEW THEATRE AND EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. W. Chapman.—Sergeant Brue of the C Division proved mirth-provoking on Monday evening. In the title-rôle, Mr. J. Harold Carson was inimitable; Mr. Robert Selby as his son, Michael, capably supporting; and Miss Florence Spurgeon, as Aurora, combining to make a brilliant trio. Miss Dora Taylor's Daisy was meritoriously interpreted; and Mr. Cecil Strickland had the astute and alert mien of a shrewd solicitor (Matthew Habisham); Mr. Harold Godwin's reading of Inspector Corringe showed marked ability; and Mr. Maitland Dicker as Crookie Scrubbs was incisive and capable; Miss Reydon Dallas was delightful in the rôle of Lady Bickenhall.

DOVER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Dover Theatres, Ltd.; Chairman of Directors, Mr. B. Carter; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred C. Dew.—A powerful dramatic company is this week presenting The Village Blacksmith. During the absence of Mr. Livesey the early part of the week, the rôle of John Strong was taken by Mr. Joseph Carter, who fully deserved the enthusiastic plaudits accorded him. Owing to the change of cast Mr. Edwin Maydew was given the part of Captain Leo, and submitted a really excellent and highly effective portrayal. Mr. George Wilton's skilful handling of Lucas Marlow is worthy of high praise, and this gentleman also gave a clever little sketch of St. John Harman. A fine character study of a travelling tinker is contributed by Mr. Thomas E. Marshall as Jeremiah Parkins, whose wife, Sal, is played with considerable humour by Mrs. T. C. Livesey. The excellent dialect and amusing mannerisms of Mr. George V. Campbell combine to make his performance as Billy Twigg one of the most successful in the play, and Mr. A. Walker as Humpy Tarn also does good work. A charming impersonation of Harry Strong is given by Miss Bertha Hanbury, whose captivating ways and pretty voice made her conquest of the audience complete. Miss Maggie Edwards shows much histrionic talent in her rendering of the rôle of Kate Strong, and Miss Cassie Le Grande's pathetic and at times powerful enactment of Ruth Parkins is well received. The drama is adequately dressed and staged.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Proprietors, the Vaudeville Syndicate Co.; Manager, Mr. B. H. Harland; Secretary, Mr. Chas. R. Standfield.—A really clever turn is this week contributed by Stanley's Urchins, who meet with a good reception; Tony Iveson proves himself both a skilful and talented comedian at the piano; Mlle. Du Roche, the possessor of a voice of great charm, sings with good taste and expression; Alice Coates, a clever comedienne, and the Brothers Tarrant, patter comedians, are most successful; and the Four Louberts appear in their comedy act, entitled Uninvited.

DUBLIN.—GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Directress, Mrs. Michael Gunn; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. Charles Hyland.—Mr. Edward Terry and company are paying a return visit here this week, and on Monday night a large audience was present to witness the production of Liberty Hall. Mr. Terry has ample scope for the display of his artistic talent as William Todman, and the famous comedian was seen to the utmost advantage. Particularly successful received. As a comedian, Harry Herbert scores successfully; as do also the Sisters Lavender, duettists and dancers. Gus Dallon wins favour as a versatile comedian; and Marie Nelson imparts much spirit to her song and dance. The Empire pictures are, as usual, interesting.

TIVOLI.—General-Manager, Mr. Charles M. Jones; Secretary, Mr. H. A. Murphy. — Duncan's collie dogs, who go through a number of remarkable feats, are here this week, and prove an attractive item; the Cattaneo Troupe of comedy acrobats make a decided hit; and Hinton and Wooton are seen in a novel act, Football on Bicycles, which is very smart. The Brothers Ashley's sketch, Next, Please, is highly amusing; and Molly Woolstenthume is an accomplished operatic vocalist. The McGregors, in a refined musical act, merit applause; and Mollie Doon, comedienne, is popular. Earl and Melville, in humorous songs and patter, are nightly encored; and as a magician, Carl Roxine excels. Some exceptionally good pictures are shown on the bioscope.

DUMFRIES.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. W. B. Potts; Manager, Mr. Payne Sedden.—The first three nights of this week, Mr. Edward Marris's No. 1 Company, under the direction of Mr. W. H. Kirby appeared here in the musical comedy, entitled Somebody's Sweetheart. Mr. E. H. Betram was a capital Stanton Ashleigh; Miss Millie Gorden was well placed as Freddie Ashleigh; Mr. W. H. Kirby as Martin Blabe was most amusing; Mr. Douglas B. Watson as Stephen Leverton was very good; Miss Molly Hackett as Lulu was charming and natural; Miss Cordelia Knight played the part of Zora, the gipsy, in an efficient manner, her singing being above the average; Miss Nora Melton as Mrs. Ainslie was quite at home in the part.

DUNDEE. — HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Louis Karpe.—An Actor's Romance is produced here this week by Miss Lilian Beisant's company. Mr. Eardley Howard makes a fine appearance in the part of Harold Davenport. Miss Beatrice Hone is excellent in the character of Louise Davenport, and the remaining parts are portrayed by thoroughly competent artists.

PEOPLE'S PALACE. — Managing-Directors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. J. Dexter.—Harry Lauder, the great Scotch comedian, is here, and meets with an extraordinary reception, the packed house being roused to enthusiasm by his clever character creations. He is supported by a company which includes Arthur Goodman, the Three Clarions, Les Valdos, the Zelovas, Acland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payte, and Vernon's Bioscope.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. R. A. P. Williams.—Miss Ina Lorimer, a really smart Scotch comedienne, tops the bill, and gets a splendid reception for her clever songs and dances. Mr. George Melvin, a new Scotch comedian, creates great hilarity with his quaint songs; Fox and Melville score with illustrated ballads, and the remainder of the company is quite up to high-class standard.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Percival.—A French drama, entitled, The Throne of Terror, is located here. Mr. Wm. J. Miller is a capital Maximilian Robespierre; Miss Ethel Lanyan Maude, as his accomplice, is good; and Mr. E. Roy Milton, as Captain De Lisle, gives a capital rendering. The other parts are very well played.

EASTBOURNE.—DEVONSHIRE PARK THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. Standen Triggs.—Mr. Charles Macdona's company is appearing here in Mr. Hopkinson. Mr. Frank Stanmore as Hoppy is again notably successful; Mr. Arnold Lucy is an easy and polished Duke; Mr. Shirley Lea is quite a success as Addleton; and the parts of Cawthorpe and Dursingham are admirably filled by Mr. Reginald Dane and Mr. Charles M. Heslop. Mr. G. C. Murray is an able Mr. Smethurst; and artistic help is given by Messrs. V. Galley and J. G. Lowther. A delightful performance is that of Miss Marie Hassell as the Duchess; Miss Gladys Jesson is an attractive Lady Tyra; and Miss Katherine M. Romsey an animated Eliza Dibbs.

THE PIER PAVILION.—Manager, Mr. George Hayes.—Mr. Edward Marris's company is appearing here in The Dandy Doctor. A very large part of the work falls on Miss Florence Smithers, who as Jane keeps the house in roars; Miss Rosie Chandler is an attractive Ivy; Mr. James Salter a merry and smart Melchisedeck; Mr. Herbert Pearce an able Colonel; Mr. Walter Nugent a good Vandyke; Mr. Leslie Martin a funny Bertie; and Mr. Dalton Dane an eccentric Drycoff.

THE HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Sidney W. Winter; General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Resident-Manager, Mr. Walter Smith.—At the top of the bill are the original Luigo's Sextette, who sing and dance capitally in a pretty and effective scena; Mr. Charles Chard causes much laughter; the Sisters Hall cleverly hold the audience; Miss Gladys Williams is a favourite comedienne; Phen and Phen have an original and popular musical act; Miss Annie Casey pleases as a comedienne; and new pictures are added.

ECCLES.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. C. Hamilton Baines; Manager, Mr. Ernest Hales.—Mr. Edward Marris's company is here in the sensational drama, As Midnight Chimes. Mr. Witty Wattie Walton as Tat Spavvin, and Miss Madge Beresford as Suzette evoke continuous laughter; the Luke Dezzard of Mr. Percy Maitland is very creditable; Mr. Leonard Dalrymple as Nat Wilson is decidedly good; Mr. Lewis Leslie as Dave Stannard is commendable; Mr. Herbert Belmore is highly successful as Ezra Gamble; Miss Carlotta Anson and Miss Ethel Denville as Stannard's wife and son respectively play their parts well.

EDINBURGH. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Whitehead.—Mr. Charles Frohmann's company began on Monday a week's engagement at this house in the exciting play, Raffles. Mr. Leonard Boyne made a distinct hit as the "Amateur Cracksman"; Mr. Boyne's acting, both on its lighter and more serious side, reached a high level of excellence, and he was repeatedly recalled; Mr. Clifford Brooke as the shrewd American detective, Curtis Bedford, played with incisive force; and the Earl of Amersteth found an admirable representative in Mr. Arthur Willoughby. Mr. Lewis Edgard gave an excellent performance as Harry Manders; and a clever piece of character-acting was seen in Mr. Dalziel Heron's Crawshay. Miss Hilda Stewart was a graceful, dramatic Mrs. Vidal; Miss Hazel Thomson was a sweet pathetic figure as Gwendoline Conran; Miss Beatrice Fitzgerald made the most of the small part of Marie, the French maid; and capital support was rendered by Mr. Edmund Breon as Viscount Crowley, and Miss Madge Murray as Lady Ethel. The play was preceded by a pleasant comedietta, entitled A Lesson in Shakespeare, well acted by Mr. Dalziel Heron, Mr. Edmund Breon, and Miss Hilda Wright.

ROYAL LYCEUM THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Howard Wyndham, Ltd.; General Manager, Mr. Geo. T. Minshall.—There was no doubt as to the warmth of the reception accorded to The Belle of Mayfair, which was presented for the first time in Edinburgh on Monday evening. Miss Alice Russon, in the rôle of Julia Chaldicott, won great favour with the house; Miss Tilley Cunningham as Corrie Fay easily danced herself into popularity; and the parts of Princess Karl, the Countess of Highgate, and Lady Chaldicott, were agreeably filled by Miss Joan Keddie, Miss Rosa Snell, and Miss Barbara Huntley; while pleasing impersonations of Lady Rocksley and Lady Gussop were given by Miss Blanche Massey and Miss Dorothy Hanbury. Many charming ladies, handsomely dressed, made up an imposing crowd of débutantes, Gibson and Chippy girls, who supplied an efficient chorus. Mr. Charles McNaughton was a droll Sir John Chaldicott, and found a good foil in Mr. Percy Yorke's Earl of Highgate; with Mr. Vernon Davidson a promising Raymond Finchley, Mr. Wensley Russel a lively Hugh Meredith, and Mr. Robert Whyte, jun., quite at home as Comte de Perrier. The Bishop of Brighton was characteristically portrayed by Mr. Trueman Towers.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Parham Wells.—Miss Louie Freear is this week's star at the Empire, where she appears with her company in the farcical sketch, Snooks, taking the slavey part of Jemima with her accustomed vivacity. Edward Lauri is associated with Miss May Beatty, the Australian singer, in the musical mélange, entitled In Her Boudoir, which affords plenty of amusement. George Newburn supplies a clever turn as an imitator of music-hall celebrities; Carlton introduces a number of exceedingly curious and comic card tricks; Les Voces render a selection of operatic duets in artistic style; and the Stavordale Quintette of performers on the harp and banjo give a most enjoyable entertainment. The programme includes interesting gymnastic turns, contributed by the Paxton Trio of head and hand balancers, and by Frank Maura, the Mexican foot equilibrist; and favourable mention must also be made of Jessie Burnett, comedienne, and of the animated pictures shown by the American Bioscope.

COOKE'S ROYAL CIRCUS.—Proprietor, Mr. John Henry Cooke.—A good bill is provided by the management of this popular place of amusement for the current week. The equestrian items, in which Mr. James Humel, Miss Florrie Humel, and Miss Iona Ginnett greatly distinguish themselves, are pleasing and important features. Horton and Linder, Chinese comedy experts, contribute a clever performance on the triple bars; Du'Callon shows great skill as a lighting ladder climber; Verne gives a smart display of Continental novelty skating; and Gilbert's Bioscope presents some excellent pictures. There is capital clowning by Neddy Vokes and Pete Simple; while the eccentricities of Frank Anderson, in addition to the mirth-provoking sketch, His Lordship's Household in an Uproar, by members of the company, supply genuine fun.

ALHAMBRA THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—A capital programme is given here this week. The Royal Quintette of dancers and vocalists are clever, alike in their terpsichorean and vocal turns; Stuart and Worth are comedians of genuine ability, with fresh business; and the Prinellas furnish a sketch in which a farmyard and live stock figure, greatly to the taste of the audience. There are many other interesting turns, and the Alhambrascope shows several excellent films.

EXETER. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Chairman and Managing-Director, Mr. Edward J. Domville, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy M. Dunsford.—Mr. Charles Harrington's company is here this week, and is presenting the naval play, The Sailors of the King, before large and appreciative audiences. Mr. Charles Harrington himself ably takes the part of the retired Admiral, and ably sustains the rôle; Mr. Frank Stephens, as Dick Drake, makes a capital hero; whilst Mr. R. F. Stacey as Orrel Drake, the villain, does well; Miss Madge North, as Felicia Phrynne, the heroine, is all that could be desired, and Miss Sylvia Stella, as Rebecca Crosby, makes a good adventuress; Miss Lily Prescott, as Daisy Dent, gains the sympathies of the audience.

FALKIRK.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. H. W. Ebbutt.—East Lynne, the ever-popular domestic drama, engaged the attention of theatre-goers during the first three nights of the week. The company was Mr. H. Armitage and Mr. Arthur Leigh's, and they did the piece every justice. In the chief rôles of Lady Isobel and Mme. Vene Miss Julie Kennard gave an artistic delineation of the characters. Mr. Alfred Beaumont's presentation of Archibald Carlyle was very becoming; his antithesis, Sir Francis Levison, found a fitting exponent in Mr. Monckton Hope; Mr. C. C. Grattan was very clever as the irascible old magistrate; Mr. Cyril Hayward made an acceptable Lawyer Dill; and as P.C. Bullock Mr. Alfred Tate kept the audience in the best of good humour. Miss Ethel Hardacre, in the character of the punctilious Aunt Corny was very interesting. Miss Jessie Bayes made a pretty Little Willie. The other parts were all very well filled. The piece was nicely dressed.

FARNWORTH.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, T. Morton Powell.—Mr. Lingford Carson's company is this week presenting The Drama of Life. Miss Kate Hallam as Sylvia Beech gives a good all round performance; Robert Beech has a capable representative in Miss Marie Pardy; Miss Florence French as Lady Jane Wilde proves herself equal to the part; Mr. E. M. Hamilton plays Harry Beech in a convincing manner; as Sir Dobson Wilde Mr. H. Roberts gives an amusing performance; Mr. J. J. Hooker as Walter Beech is all that can be desired; and Mr. H. M. Payne gives a capital representation of Jack Lawton.

FLEETWOOD.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Harry J. Snelson.—Mr. Whitmore Ledger this week presents Miss Hettie Jeffries and company in A Nobleman of Nature. Mr. W. Ledger is impressive as Prince Ivan, and Mr. G. Broughton as Barrie Forsyth, an English renegade, represents villainy in excellent style. Good humour is supplied by Mr. C. Spencer as Bill Drinkwater; Mr. Tom Handley is capital as Philip Hampton, as also is Mr. J. B. Harvey as Michael; Miss Agnese D'Aragon takes the parts of Mother Jorges and Mrs. Bouncer, to both of which she adapts herself very well; the twin sisters Edith Nehldoff and Katusha Vodski are ably represented by Miss E. Elwes; Miss E. Terry is good as Olga, and Miss H. Jeffries makes a dainty and charming Vera, and earns well-merited applause. For Friday The Bells, by the same company, was announced.

FOLKESTONE.—PLEASURE GARDENS THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland.—Mr. Allan Wilkie and company are here this week with a répertoire which includes, Othello, The Lady of Lyons, David Garrick, The Bells, Hamlet, The Corsican Brothers, and Romeo and Juliet. In the first-named piece Mr. Allan Wilkie gave a capital embodiment of the title-rôle; Mr. G. Alexander Marsh was a capable Iago; Mr. C. N. Dockwray as the Duke of Venice was all that could be desired; Miss Gertrude Gilbert as Bianca deserves high praise; Miss Ine Cameron's portrayal of Emilia was exceedingly clever; and Miss Carrie Baillie as Desdemona acted in a natural and charming manner.

GAINSBOROUGH.—KING'S THEATRE.—General-Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. H. Stead.—Dare-Devil Dorothy company paid us a return visit for three nights last week. The company was under the management of Mr. J. W. Cordiner, and played this well-known comedy in a capable manner. On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Mr. H. F. Maltby's company appeared here in The Youngest of Three. Mr. Maltby gave a capital rendering of George Wendover; Mr. Wyn Weaver was an excellent Gerald; and Phillip Rodford was well played by Mr. R. Favell; Miss Janet Hodson proved herself a talented actress in the part of the Eldest Sister; and was well supported by Miss Mora Maltby as Florence; the title-rôle was played in a charming manner by Miss Beatrice Marsden.

GATESHEAD.—METROPOLE THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Thomas France.—The attraction here this week is Messrs. Alfred Northway and W. V. Garrod's company in The Prodigal Parson. Chief honours go to Mr. Garrod, whose depiction of the parson is very powerful; Mr. Hugh Carmichael makes the most of the canting hypocrite Enoch Juggins; Mr. Wm. Hayward is seen to advantage as Ben Juggins; Mr. H. Newton is amusing as Phil Drive, and capital support is furnished by Miss Lydia Hart as Gretchen; Miss Vera Fordyce is successful as Fern Godley; and Miss Gladys Conover does well in the rôle of Myrtle Godley; the dancing of Miss Dot Russell in the second act is appreciated.

KING'S THEATRE.—Licensee, Mr. Edward Johnson; General-Manager, Mr. Harold Arnold.—Muggins, V.C. is the title of what is described as "a mirthful musical melange" (presented by Mr. Lew Lake's company), which forms the principal attraction at this house. Mr. Lake's company includes Miss Marie Brian, Mr. Fred Lawrence, and the Black and White Girls, a troupe of clever dancers. The Tally-Ho Trio of vocalists make a hit; success is also achieved by Clive Watts, a wooden-shod ragtime dancer; Mr. Ronald Bayne and Miss Evelyn Hope submit an historical duologue bearing the title An Emperor's Divorce, which finds a host of admirers; the Du Gros Trio present a funny gymnastic act; Tom Fancourt and Jennie Rubie are seen to advantage in a musical comedy act entitled Nursery Pets; Angeline, the dancing juggler, has a novel "turn"; she features the cannonball business à la Cinquevalli. Pictures by Vernon's Bioscope complete the "show."

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Stephen Smith.—Mr. Dickie Clare's company in Lucky 'Liza is delighting large audiences here this week. Mr. Clare as Silas Slim gets through an enormous amount of work with considerable success; and Mr. Leonard Maitland as Paul Pettitoe gives an excellent character sketch of a sapient young man; Mr. H. A. Griffiths as Biffins is another large factor in the success achieved; and capital support is forthcoming from Messrs. T. W. Benson (Paul Pettitoe), A. W. Thompson (Barnaby Blatherwick), George Minto (the Judge), James Guinn (the Usher), and Bert Collins (P.C. M'Gurk). In the name part Miss Madge Brownie is the life and soul of the farce, her singing and dancing gaining for her loud applause; Miss Vesta Brownie is a dainty Virginia Pettitoe; and Miss Bella Russell fills the rôle of Marie Pettitoe creditably. The Esmond Trio of lady vocalists and acrobatic dancers claim a large share of the abundant praise.

GILLINGHAM (Kent).—HIPPODROME.—Lessees, The New Bioscope Trading Co.; Managing-Director, Mr. F. R. Griffiths.—The pictures continue to form the principal attraction here, and are well received by the large audiences. Well appreciated items are also given by Wragg and Wragg, who excel as military athletes and expert swordsmen, and Charles Compton, in dramatic character sketches.

GLASGOW.—KING'S, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. H. Macfarlane.—A good play, well acted, was the verdict of large audiences, which witnessed the Hall Caine play, The Prodigal Son, as produced here this week. The strongly dramatic story, and the originality of the Icelandic setting, were important factors, added to which is the fact that the company is a particularly good one. Miss Lily Hall Caine as Thora, in the two earlier acts, gives a specially fine performance, dramatic and pathetic; while in the later scenes, as the daughter Eilin, she contributes a well-contrasted study. Miss Alma Murray as Anna finds scope for her experience and ability in the more stirring scenes. Mr. Norman Partriege as Oscar acts with power throughout, his performance being admirable in every detail. Another part of special merit is that of Magnus, as played by Mr. Herbert Hewetson. Miss Cecil Cromwell acts with much abandon as Helga; Mr. Howard Russell as the stern old Governor; Mr. Fred Epitaux as the Factor; and Mr. David Mills as the Sheriff, ably sustain their respective rôles. Miss Mima Renouf imparts the necessary humour to the part of Aunt Margaret; and Mr. Charles Douglas Cox as Dr. Olsen, Mr. Gordon Macintosh as the Director of the Casino, and Mr. Charles A. Maynard as Neils Finsen lent effective support.

ROYALTY, LTD.—Managing Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. M. Downie.—Messrs. Lockwood and Croesman's company present that clever musical comedy, Sergeant Brue, with conspicuous success. Mr. Arthur Reynolds makes a capable Sergeant Brue; another laughable character is Crookie Scrubbs, as played by Mr. Chas. M'Lagan, a clever comedian; Miss Hebe Bliss, as Lady Bickenhall, is very successful; Miss Mary Hay makes a pretty Aurora; and conspicuous amongst remaining characters are the Michael Brue of Mr. E. Percy Rogers and the Daisy of Miss Marion Hargrave.

GRAND, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Duncan Macfarlane.—Bright and attractive is the representation of The White Chrysanthemum, presented by Mr. Charles Macdona's company. Much of the fun is provided by Mr. Charles Schmidt, who, as Admiral Sir Horatio Armitage, causes continual laughter; Mr. H. E. Garden is also responsible for hilarity as Lieut. Belmont; Mr. Richard Telford wins hearty applause for his clever impersonation of Sin Chong; Mr. Langdon Bruce makes a capital Lieut. Reginald Armitage; Mr. Jamie Dallas is well suited as Private Perks; Miss Muriel George is a graceful and vivacious Sybil; and Miss Emily Taylor is sufficiently dashing as the Widow, the Cornelia of Miss Nellie Groves being a pleasing feature of the performance.

ROYAL PRINCESS'S.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Rich. Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. Murdoch.—This popular place of amusement was well filled in every part to welcome the visit of Mr. Walter Melville's famous drama, The Worst Woman in London, presented by Mr. Tom H. Taylor's company. Miss Florence Dalton plays Frances Vere with power, and is ably assisted by Mr. Paul Barry Lewers as Vincent Lyle. A word of praise is also due to Mr. George Gaisford as Jack Felton and Miss Elizabeth Watkins as Ruth Milford. Miss Emily Kelsey as Matilda and Mr. Willie Garvey as Bob Goldfinch are responsible for some droll scenes.

METROPOLE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Gillespy.—Mr. T. Edward Ward's company opened on Monday to a large house in Her Fatal Past. Mr. T. E. Ward as Jonathan kept everyone in good spirits; as did Mr. Sydney Bryant in the rôle of Dicky Bird. Mr. Stuart Lomath makes the hero interesting; Mr. Victor Rowland is first-rate as Leonard Fernside; the part of Gilbert is effectively handled by Mr. Wilson Coleman.

LYCEUM.—Proprietor, Mr. Rich. Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Oakden.—Two Little Vagabonds forms the attraction here this week, being played by Hardie and Von Leer's company, the same as appeared at the Royal Princess's last week.

EMPIRE. — Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. Sam Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. Charles Mussett.—Marie Loftus, "Glesca's ain comedienne," is again drawing big houses, and her new song, "A' Scotch," takes well, while her burlesque of music-hall types is extremely clever. Selma Braatz, the smart young juggler, displays her ability in a host of neat and difficult feats; Syd May's imitations are life-like; Madge Morley and company contribute an amusing sketch, After the Races; the Glenroy Troupe of Dancers come in for a large share of popular favour; Stelling and his dog provide a pleasing turn; R. T. Meikle displays a good voice in his illustrated songs; Lillian Doreen, at the piano, and Lauri Clare and Ned Graydon, comedians, complete a well-diversified programme.

ZOO-HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.., and E. H. Bostock; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—A lively sketch, with much enjoyable singing and clever dancing, entitled A Trip to Coontown, is the principal turn here, and is given by members of the In Dahomey company. G. H. Elliott, in his negro business, is always a great favourite, this visit being no exception; the Sauterons give a clever jumping act, with some wonderful feats introduced; the Three Lloyds, in their tight-rope business, ably uphold the traditions of their name; Time and Money are an amusing pair of knockabouts; Ray Maskell dances neatly; and Effie Stuart is smart as a Scotch school-girl. The Sisters Lotus sing pleasingly; and Fred Clements scores as a topical comedian. The Urban pictures of the Moir-Palmer fight are wonderfully clear and steady.

PAVILION, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd.—The bill is headed this week by Jack Mackenzie and company, in The Belle of Barcelona. Mr. Mackenzie sustains the character of Marmaduke Miggles, supported by excellent choristers and dancers; the Maisanos give an amusing musical performance; the Firmans, a droll pair, keep the fun going; Flo Challis, assisted by Will Lynn, gives an effective operatic scene; the Morton Trio successfully present a blend of mirth and melody; the Laure Brothers as acrobats cause much laughter; and Kate Lynd, comedienne; Johnson and Bert, eccentrics; Rosie Reval, comedy artist; and Charlie Dixon, comedian, complete an excellent company.

COLISEUM.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. S. Gething; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry Burdette.—John F. Preston and company score heavily here in the racing sketch, Rogues of the Turf, the five scenes composing it being carried through with great spirit. Lee Rubens sing the "Excelsior" duet capitally; the songs and dances of Beatty and Blanche are well received; Gracie Moore wins applause for her illustrated songs; the Adeler and Sutton pierrot troupe combine humour with vocal skill in a very pleasing turn; a strong attraction is found in clever Nellie Wallace, whose facial comedy is unique; Tom and Marie Motramo convulse everyone in musical comedy; the Selbinis are truly described as "really sensational cyclists"; and Beatty and Bentley, the merry Hottentots, are a capable pair.

PALACE.—Sole Proprietor, Rich. Waldon; General-Manager, Harry M'Kelvie.—A capital company is billed here this week. Harold Montague's Vagabonds, who occupy the place of honour, are accorded a hearty reception. George French, comedian, is applauded; and little Rose Pink, comedienne and dancer; Willie Gardner, American roller-skate dancer; the Three Panamas, acrobats; Alice Maydue, the popular character comedienne; Peter Bermingham, the new Scotch comedian; the Saletos, hand-balancers; Dennison and Clingan, comedians and dancers; and the Bioscope are other attractions.

HARMONIC CONCERTS.—Musical Secretary, Mr. Wm. Biggam.—Baroni and Kemp, in a quick-change turn, top the bill here. The St. Johns, in their musical and dancing turn, are popular; A. J. Gamble, as an eccentric Scotch comedian, is amusing; Jim Harte and company appear in the lively sketch The Mummy; J. H. Harris gives his latest ditties; and pleasant contributions to the programme are made by Messrs. Archie Cameron, Albert Hildon, and J. M. Louie, and Misses Clara A. Butler and Jessie Star.

GLOSSOP.—THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Sydney Spenser.—Hardie and Von Leer's company, in Two Little Vagabonds, made a welcome appearance on Monday. Mr. Arthur E. Melborne was a powerful and impressive George Thornton; Mr. Edward McLean was seen to advantage as Capt. Darville; and Mr. Richard Hicks made a praiseworthy John Scarth. Mr. Lionel Ellis (The Gaffer), Mr. Frank Gordon (Dido Bounce), and Mr. Gerald Valentine (The Cough-drop), were responsible for good character sketches. Mr. Maurice Holmes, as a footman, did well; and Mr. Frank G. Kent made the part of Leeson interesting. Miss Valerie Crespin played with dramatic effect as Marion Thornton; Miss Lilian Steuart gave a good reading of Barbara Scarth.

GLOUCESTER.—PALACE.—Owners, Messrs. C. W. and J. R. Poole; Manager, Mr. Rea.—The Novello family, with their animal act, are a distinct novelty, and obtain a good reception, as do the Athlones for their classical poses and gymnastic feats. Cyclumina is the title of an act introduced by a gentleman who does some astonishing feats on an electrically lighted bicycle; Mr. Barry Wright, the evergreen comedian, still scores with impromptu verses; Miss Nellie Gannon holds her audiences with descriptive songs; Miss Peggy Fame, the talented daughter of talented parents, is well received; Mr. T. W. Barrett contributes an amusing turn; Pueblo and Cropp are capital exponents of sand dancing; and Miss Jenny Sydney also proves a nimble dancer. The bioscope this week shows a capital film, "The Life of a Cowboy."

GOOLE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. John B. Tomlinson.—Mr A. Campbell-Kelly's company opened on Monday in The Trail of the Serpent. Mr. Bradford Crosby as Gerald Kingston gives a capital representation. Mr. Henry P. Kenn is successful as Sir Gerald Kingston; Mr. A. Campbell-Kelly acts with force the villainous rôle of Ralph Hammond; Miss Nana Cameron gives an excellent portrayal of Rachael the Gipsy; Mr. Robert Cromwell as William Higgings and Miss Gladys Newcombe as Rose Wilson keep the house amused; Miss Mabel Aspinall wins the sympathies of the audience in the trying rôle of Ethel Maynard; and Mr. Vincent Kelway is well placed as Gipsy Jake. The latter part of the week the same company played The Colleen Bawn.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—ROYAL AQUARIUM.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. W. Nightingale.—Mr. Herbert Hollister's dramatic company is this week presenting The Lights o' London. Mr. C. F. Collings plays with force and fervour as the persecuted Harold Armytage, and is ably supported by Miss Jennie Burgoyne with an effective realisation of Bess; as the villainous Clifford Armitage Mr. Raymond Thomas acts cleverly and incisively; Mr. Sydney N. Hallows is excellent as Squire Armytage; Mr. Herbert Lewis is exceedingly amusing as Jarvis; Miss Violet Temple gives a capital character study as Mrs. Jarvis; and Miss Renée Douglas is humorous as Shakespeare Jarvis. Hetty Preene is well played by Miss Constance Davey; and Mr. F. H. Waters causes plenty of laughter as Percy de Vere

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. Geo. Gilbert.—One of the finest programmes of the season is being presented this week. Miss Ella makes her troupe of forest-bred lions perform many tricks in the large iron cage into which the ring is turned, and hearty applause greets her daring exhibition. The Kyasgas give an astonishing show as dental and hirsute athletes; and Tom Lloyd, eccentric comedian, amuses with his songs and oddities. Other artists appearing are Les Frere Babusio in a staircase performance; the Sisters Brenton, duettists and dancers; Tom Carney, vocalist; Jolding, equestrian; and the Boy Doodies and Little Aidini, clowns. A series of new pictures is shown on the bioscope.

GREENOCK.—ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietors, The Greenock Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident Directors and Managers, Messrs. A. B. and J. J. Wright.—Miss Ida Millais and company (under the direction of Mr. Henry Herne) are presenting No Man's Land here this week. Mr. Henry Herne delineates with masterly skill the character of Harry Oaklands; Mat Marsden has an admirable exponent in Mr. A. G. Lytton; in the dual rôles of Gilbert and Captain Norman Bathurst, Mr. H. W. Warburton displays ability; Mr. Frank Denis is well suited as Silas Moore; Mr. Alfred Byron makes the character of Thompson Poodle an amusing one; Miss Ida Millais is deservedly popular as Mary Bathurst; and Mrs. Mallalieu as Mrs. Poodle and Miss Nancy Mitchell as Bessie, are seen to advantage in their respective parts.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. H. L. Skivington.—The big attraction here is a laugh-provoking sketch entitled Golfing, presented by Harry Tate's No. 1 company; Those Troublesome Slaveys is the title of another sketch by the Elvio Comedy Trio, which is well received; the Four Avocas make a great hit with their new operatic scena entitled The Reckless Miner; J. P. Ling, society entertainer, sings well, and gives some clever imitations; Grey and Benson are a pair of smart acrobats; and Millie Denham is a pleasing vocalist. The Empire pictures are also interesting.

PAVILION THEATRE.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd; Resident-Manager, Mr. Chas. A. White.—A strong bill is headed here by Messrs. Harry Lowther, Hulo Hodgson and Co. They appear in a laughable comedy entitled Barmaids, which proves very amusing. Vernando gives an original and novel ventriloquist performance; the Olive Trio are pleasing comediennes and dancers; plenty of good comedy emanates from Wake and Dean in A Dispute in the Lane; Fred Dunstone sings his songs in capital style; and George Fairburn (impersonator) is also successful; Indian Pastimes is effectively presented by Ara, Zebra, and Vora.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Chairman of Directors, Mr. H. J. Curry; Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry.—The romantic play, The Breed of the Treshams, has again been seen here, and is presented with appropriate colour by Mr. Frank Bertram's company. In Mr. H. Tripp Edgar is seen a new exponent of Reresby, and he gives an excellent portrayal of the reckless swashbuckler. Mr. Richard A. Green accomplishes good work as the conspirator, Col. Hungerford; whilst the spiteful Capt. Stanhope is suitably played by Mr. Gifford Reynolds. The strongly contrasting character of Francis Tresham, the Rat's half-brother, is adequately emphasised by Mr. Cecil C. Klein. Miss Celestine Bertram is a popular figure as the boy Batty, and Miss Nellie Clyde a winsome Margaret Hungerford.

CURRY'S TIVOLI. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. W. North.—That capital drama in miniature, The Fighting Parson, has achieved instantaneous popularity on its first appearance in Grimsby. Mr. George Gray won admiration for his manly representation of the clerical sportsman; the Cumberlands gave a skilful display of acrobatic cycling; the Brothers Dean proved expert dancers and whistlers; Silent Tait presented some entertaining burlesque; Frank Lynne gave new songs; and others appearing were the Alskarno Trio, comedy acrobats; the Cress Woollett trio, comedians; and Master May, a juvenile vocalist.

THE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. A. Edwardes; Resident-Manager, Mr. T. W. Moyes; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. V. Allton.—Dinah Morris's troupe, in the musical burlesque, The Lost Coon, have scored a big hit. Miss Morris herself is a charming artist, and her company is talented without exception. Daisy Jerome's pleasing voice and quaint impersonations immediately rendered her a favourite. The Three Behans gave a smart quick-change act, coupled with dances; Rezene and Robini combined comedy with gymnastic exercises; Yorkshire Tom proved an entertaining mimic; Stanley and Vandyke contributed amusing songs and patter; Ruby Bijou performed a pretty barefoot dance; and Frank Caffrey was successful as a comedian.

THE HIPPODROME. — Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. T. Haydn Reano.—There has been an innovation this week, drama being introduced in place of the usual variety entertainment. The attraction was A Heart's Desire, presented by Messrs. Elliman's company. Mr. Cecil Gray as Beautiful Jim, and Miss Dora E. Eastlake as Oiya, were prominent, and the remaining members of a numerous company did justice to their parts.

GUILDFORD.—BOROUGH HALL.—On Monday and Tuesday evenings Dr. Seaton's Grand National Animated Photographs and Concert company were here. The pictures, which are very good, include scenes from all countries. A capital variety entertainment includes the Four Watsons, instrumental quartette; Mr. Charles Kingsley, Royal handbell soloist; Miss Enid Fane, a dainty dancer; and Dr. Seaton, the handcuff expert, hypnotist, and plate manipulator.

HALIFAX.—GRAND THEATRE, LTD.—Resident-Manager, Mr. S. Winks.—Messrs. Lockwood and Crossman's company is paying a welcome return visit with Sergeant Brue here this week. Mr. T. A. Shale retains his quaint character of Crookie Scrubbs with gratifying success; the title-rôle is in the safe keeping of Mr. E. Russell; a dashing Michael Brue is found in Mr. J. H. Goldsworthy, who sings well; and Mr. Henry Chichester proves to be an energetic magistrate. Miss Lily Lingard is as chic as ever in the volatile character of Lady Bickenhall; Aurora has an amiable representative in Miss Kitty Dale; and Miss Aileen Macdonald does creditable work as Daisy. The chorus, under the vigilant eye of Mr. Yorke, submit clever work

THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—One of the brightest entertainments seen in Halifax is being presented here this week to delighted audiences. The Four Indian Fakirs hold the premier position in a weird and mystifying performance, which is vociferously applauded; Tray and Rich are a pair of diverting comedians; while a huge success is attained by Edwin Lambert and Emmie Hands in vocal scenes; Martinengo, musician, owing to cross booking, does not appear; he is, however, ably deputised for by Russell Wallett, the female impersonator; Arthur Pearl, in a new item, The Schoolboy; the Four Hearnes; Forest and King, in Pieces of Elastic; Correze and Keith, in a gladiatorial performance, together with the Rinaldo Trio, equilibrists, complete a programme of remarkable merit.

PALACE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Edward Harrison.—Rousby's scenic display, Around Paris, makes its initial appearance here successfully; Rose and Calvert are refreshing in a burlesque; Will Priscall keeps the house in a merry mood; for her rendition of "The Old Brigade," Frances Haskoll has been cordially received; the Jansons (gymnasts), and Prince Kokin, Japanese juggler, are both smart and entertaining; and some excellent pictures are again submitted.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr.

HORWICH.—PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Fred Lewis.—Mr. Lewis provided his patrons with a rare treat on Monday and Tuesday, when Mr. Chas. Macdona's company presented A Country Girl. Miss Violet Leslie in the title-rôle, Miss Madge Campbell as Sophie, Miss Hettie Peel as Nan, and Miss Adelaide Clifton as the Princess immediately caught on, and received unstinted applause. Mr. Frank Weir as Barry created roars of laughter; Mr. Bernard Vaughan as the Rajah, Mr. Martin D. Pitts as Geoffrey, Mr. W. O. Billington as Sir Joseph Verity, Mr. W. Besley Beltram as Douglas, and Mr. Geo. Stone as Granfer Mummery kept the ball rolling. Miss Grace Warner's company in The Little Widow and My Artful Valet are billed for the rest of the week.

HOYLAND.—METROPOLE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Geo. S. King; Acting-Manager, Mr. Geo. R. Baker; Stage-Manager, J. Dyer.—On Monday Mr. H. F. Housden presented A Woman's Past to a good house. Mr. Clifton Earle is a crafty Uriah Craven; Mr. H. F. Housden a good Clement Harper; Miss Irene Carrington a powerful Clara Darrell; and Miss Dorothy Wallace a capable Bessie.

HUDDERSFIELD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. W. J. Andrews.—The house this week is occupied by Mr. J. F. Elliston's variety combination, which includes Tarro Myaki, the champion Ju-Jitsu wrestler of the world; Carson Hicks, comedian and dancer; Charles March, protean artist; Harry Leander, Dutch delineator; Ellis Barrieton, vocalist; Maston, mimic; Miss Jeanette Hall, a fine contralto singer; and two sketches, Kiss Your Father and True to His Trust.

HIPPODROME, LTD.—Resident-Manager, Mr. N. M. Robinson.—There is not a bad turn in this week's bill, which is headed by De Dio in her beautifully artistic dancing speciality. The others are Miss Mary Anderson and company in a bustling interlude entitled The Banana Queen; Howard and Collinson, in their cleverly played duologue The Porter and the Parcel; The Brooklands, two neat comediennes and dancers; the Bodina trio of good class vocalists; Picitt and Lizette, in a smartly-worked illusionist entertainment entitled The Crazy Cook; Kioto, the agile and powerful young Japanese equilibrist; J. W. Hall, comedian, whose funniosities keep the house in a roar and are vigorously encored; and a change of pictures on the biograph.

HULL.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee, Mr. W. Morton; Resident-Director, Mr. W. F. Morton.—Mrs. Russ-Whytal has found a play thoroughly suited to her powers in Alice Sit-by-the-Fire, in which on Monday evening she proved her ability to run over the whole gamut of human emotions with the touch of a true artist. As the husband Mr. R. Bartlett succeeded admirably; whilst Mr. A. W. Baskombe caught the audience's favour rapidly by his breezy picture of the son who hates slobbering. Mr. A. Mallalieu plays with sympathy and restraint the part of Rollo. Miss Beatrice Bramah makes Amy a living entity; and Miss Lilian Locke's Richardson is a portrait cleverly Dickensian. Barrie's play is received with the utmost enthusiasm. A clever little comedy, entitled The Royal Flower, in which Mrs. Whytal plays the Marquis with the same artistic skill, precedes.

GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; Resident-Manager, Mr. Wynn Miller.—The Private Secretary is the attraction this week, and proves that nearly a quarter of century's life has not robbed it of its drawing powers. Mr. Donald Price Evans as the Rev. Robert Spalding "brings the house down"; the sham tutor in the hands of Mr. J. P. E. Hussey is well enacted; the girls Edith and Eva have capable and clever representatives in Miss Dora Grey and Miss Bett Elliott. As Cattermole Mr. Hargreaves fully maintains his widespread reputation.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Mortons, Ltd.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. Morton.—The Love that Women Desire is a play which is fully to the taste of the patrons of this popular playhouse. The hero, Philip Carnaby, entrusted to Mr. Fred Lloyd, is a good piece of character acting. Sybil Thorburn is sympathetically represented by Miss Lalla Stanhope. The comic relief is in the capable hands of Miss Nita Imeson and Mr. John Hignet and Mr. J. W. Wilkinson, their united efforts being of a nature to give general satisfaction.

THE HIPPODROME.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Graham; Manager, Mr. Tom Lunn.—Dolly Elsworthy and company are appearing with much success in The Orange Girl. The remainder of the company is quite up to the average.

HULL EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. Harry Slingsby.—Appearing here with success are Fontain's Mannikins, Marie Leonard, Tom Hulme, Jardine, Geo. Bernard, Flo Chevalier. The Laudiers, Elsie Edwardes, and the Levines.

THE PALACE.—Moses and Son, a laughable sketch of Fred Karno's, in which Fred Kitchen makes a big hit, is the premier attraction; and an excellent variety company includes Harry Carsdale, the Bros. Horne, Hall and Earle, Arthur Lloyd Trio, Techow's Cats, Chas. Pastor, and Dave O'Malley.

HYDE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. R. Feather.—Large and fashionable audiences have been attracted here this week by Mr. Smith, presented by Mr. Walter Reynolds's company. Mr. Cecil du Gue, in the title-rôle, gives a forcible and convincing portrayal; Mr. Sydney Price acts skilfully as the Earl of Oxted; Mr. Wm. Dunlop submits a finished performance of the Duke; Mr. Austin Spencer makes the most of his lines as the Hon. Dudley Dysart; and Mr. Russell Norrie is well placed as Jack Berkley. Roars of laughter are raised by Mr. George Ross in the character of Herr Diedrich; Miss Mildred Cottell looks and acts the part of the haughty Duchess to perfection; a charming and graceful Lady Mary Hildergate is found in Miss Elsina Gaunt; Miss Daisy Mayne Young makes Ruth a delightful personage; and Miss Daisy England's interpretation of Mrs. Smith is capital.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. Rogers.—Mr. George Testo Sante and company are in the drama The Life of a Showman, in which he himself makes a hit in the rôle of Brian Leader; Miss May Warden as Linette and Master Harry Warden as Dickie are successful juveniles; Mr. Evan Roland ably fills the part of Sir Noel Hartland, afterwards known as Stickers; and Mr. Edward Warden is an acquisition as the Rev. Cyril Arliss; Mr. Frank Sante as Tommy Allthere; Miss Sybil Haughton as Angelina; and Mr. Will Lindsey as Ben Tick Tack, prove capable exponents; whilst Mr. Fred Vaughan is seen to advantage as Ned Chuckers; Mr. Lambat de Lambert is excellent as Hendrick Marais, and has a suitable assistant in Miss Amy McNeill as Agatha. The Bros. Testo, musical comedians, are a great success; and Comical Walker also provides much amusement.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Knightall.—This hall re-opened on Monday evening with a well-selected company of artists, the Delemers topping the bill and presenting a clever act as comedians and dancers; the Sidneys keep the audience in a good humour with their juggling show; Leo Loveday exhibits smartness; Chas. Ellis is a meritorious character comedian; Amor and Seta are well up to the mark as magicians and illusionists; Marie Laurence is successful as a serio and dancer; and Steve Buckingham scores as a descriptive vocalist.

IPSWICH.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Leonard Grey.—Mr. Lester Collingwood's company has occupied the boards here this week with the melodrama entitled When London Sleeps. The villain of the play, Col. Rodney Hayes, was in the hands of Mr. C. P. Wentworth, who made him a scoundrel of the worst type; the part of Queenie was played by Miss Mabel Scudamore, an actress of experience, who did full justice to the character; as the suffering heroine, Miss Josephine Melbourne gave a pathetic rendering, and elicited the warm applause of the audience; Mr. Sam Arthur was quite at home as David Engleheart; while Miss Maude Yorke played effectively as the wife of the villain; Mr. Harry Barham added to the success of the piece in the part of Mark Blackwood; and the same may be said of Mr. D'Arcy Kelway and Miss Bessie Frank.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. B. H. Bostock.—The two chief attractions here are Griff, the clever juggler; and the Sutcliffe troupe, in their Scotch performances; the Scottish troupe give a lively display of music and dancing, and their acrobatic feats are received with much applause. Other items of the programme include Jack Hylton, a clever comedian; Maude Mortimer, who renders some old songs in pleasing style; Princess Pauline, who sings and dances with much spirit; Harrigan and Holt, knockabout artists; a sketch called the Belle of Arizona, and the Biontes, in a laughable interlude called Saucy Maud.

JARROW.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. E. Reed.—This week Mr. Louis Calvert presents his company in Sunday. Mr. Leonard Pagden gives a first-class rendering of Colonel Brinthorpe; Mr. G. Wallace Johnston does full justice to Arthur Brinthorpe; Mr. Ernest A. Douglas is quite at home as Tom Oxley; Mr. Will Lockhart makes a capital Towzer; and Mr. Sidney Rennef is satisfactory as Davy. Miss Emelie Polini is engaging and lovable in the title-rôle; and Miss M'Aimee Murray makes the most of the part of Mrs. Naresby.

JERSEY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee, Mr. C. Rbt. Perkins.—This week's bill of fare consists of S. Buchanan Robertson's play, When It Was Dark, which is drawing good houses. The piece is staged by Mrs. Morton Powell, who appears as Helena Byars. Mr. George H. Pitt represents Constantine Schwabe, and Miss Eva Moss is admirable as Gertrude Hunt. Another character excellently portrayed is the Rev. Basil Gortre, a rôle entrusted to Mr. Cyril Austen-Lee. Mr. Riddell Robinson is good as Sir Robert Llewellyn, and Mr. Henry Heller acts with credit as the Rev. Mr. Byars. In lighter vein Mr. Millar Wilson scores as the Honourable Charlie Gayfly, and is well supported by Miss Bessie Ellis as Gracie Goldeye, and by the sisters E. and G. Allen, who appear as Flossie Lovegay and Minnie Golightly respectively, and who favour with a clever tambourine dance in Act 4. Mr. Robert Hall is entrusted with the part of Harold Spence, and the minor rôles are well sustained.

KETTERING.—AVENUE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Payne.—Mr. Arthur Carlton's company is here with In Sight of St. Paul's. Mr. Ernest Allen is a decided success as Tom Chichester; Mr. Edward Valentine is an admirable Fretley Burside; and Mr. George Daiper portrays John Gridston in a powerful manner; Miss Lallah Davis contributes some excellent acting as Cynthia Dell; and Miss Cissie Bellamy is deserving of praise as Aileen Miller. The comedy parts of Jim Palfrey and Becky Veich are admirably sustained by Miss Amy Randolph and Mr. Herbert Colley.

KIDDERMINSTER.—NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Licensee and Managing-Director, Mr. Jas. P. Moore; Acting-Manager, Mr. R. C. Gudgeon.—This week Mrs. Bandmann-Palmer, the well-known tragedienne, is here, supported by her well-balanced company. The plays for the week include From Washerwoman to Duchess, Mary, Queen of Scots, Sapho, East Lynne, Nell Gwynne, and Jane Shore. On Tuesday, Mrs. Bandmann-Palmer, in the title-rôle of Mary, Queen of Scots, gave a powerful display of action, and was ably supported by Mr. F. Skein as Earl of Leicester; Mr. A. Wilson Wynne as Earl of Shrewsbury; Mr. Leonard Cheetham as Lord Burleigh; and Miss Katherine Herbert, who acts admirably the part of Elizabeth, Queen of England.

KIRKCALDY.—KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Burton.—Messrs. Durward Lely and William Mollison's company are appearing here this week in Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush. Several of the artists who took part in the production of the play in London are still to be found in the cast; Mr. Mollison repeats his powerful impersonation of Lachlan Campbell, and the many recalls are evidence of his success; the part of the Rev. John Carmichael is in the capable hands of Mr. Eric Mayne; Mr. W. A. MacKersey makes a very good old doctor; while Mr. D. Lyall, as the earl, makes the most of his opportunities; Mr. Archie W. Chappell is commendable as Lord Hay; and Mr. Alex. F. Thomson as the Postie proves himself a comedian of undoubted abilities; he is ably assisted in the comic element by Mr. Kendal Chalmers as Tammas Mitchell, the make-up of the latter being particularly clever; Miss Evelyn McNay is pleasing and artistic in the rôle of Flora; and Miss Edith Blair Staples is delightful as Annie. Others who took part successfully are Misses Alice Francis, Josephine Woodyard, Martha Stewart, and Jeannie Fitzgerald.

LANCASTER.—ATHENÆUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Acting-Manager, Mr. Alfred Hook.—Sapho is once more with us. This time Miss Annie Bell has supplied the attraction, and was greeted with a crowded house on Monday. Miss Bell was successful in giving vivid realism and sustained interest to her impersonation of Fanny Legrand. Very successful support was given by Mr. Otto Minster as Jean Gaussin and by Mr. George Antley as Uncle Césaire. The Dechelette of Mr. Laurence Kingsley and the Caoudal of Mr. H. Langford were also especially good. Miss Clara Greenhalgh was successful as La Sombreuse, and Miss Grace Chester was delightful as Zazave. The dresses and staging were all that could be desired.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. J. Porter and W. J. Fergusson.—The programme arranged this week is one of all-round excellence, each turn being received with the utmost appreciation. At the head of affairs are the Sisters Macarte, who are undoubtedly clever. Messrs. Cullen, Carthy, and Cluley are smart comedians, and their patter is good; Miss Mabel Mavis is a very pleasing glassophone soloist, and Mr. L. B. Athol, actor-vocalist, sings well; Mr. J. A. Wilson, comedian, supported by his dog, Private "Towser," wins favour; whilst Miss Billie Burford, comedienne, Lorne and Rene, in a Lancashire singing sketch, Capital and Labour, and Walter Payne's animated pictures all add to the enjoyment of the entertainment.

PALACE.—Proprietors, Messrs. J. and C. Fell; Manager, Mr. John Fell.—Arthur Lennard, comedian, is the star this week, and right well has he been received. The Musical Keiths supply a capital turn, and the same may be said of Dolly, Agnes, and Maud, boxmakers and vocalists; Miss Lizzie Fletcher is petite, and Joe K. Ramsden, baritone, sings in good voice; Harry Barber, comedian, Massona, boy juggler, and the Edison Swan animated pictures all prove attractive.

LEAMINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Manager, Mr. Harry Hunter.—Miss Lena Stanton and Mr. Harry Joseph's company is appearing here this week in Victor Stevens' musical success Bonny Boy Blue. Miss Lena Stanton, in the title-rôle, is most successful. The character of Dolly Dickory is presented by Miss Nora Neville in a charming and vivacious style; and Little Keeno's quaint drolleries are a decided success. Mr. Bruce Green as Dame Dickory does all that is expected of him as the "old woman of the piece," and Squire Longacre finds an excellent exponent in Miss Adrian Romer. As Lawyer Copall Mr. Will Terry is worthy of praise. The Orient troupe introduce some clever and graceful dances

LEEDS.—GRAND THEATRE.—Managing Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. Edward Cadman.—There was a good attendance of enthusiastic Dickensonians on Monday to welcome Mr. Tree's production of Oliver Twist. The play is staged and costumed in a very elaborate manner. Mr. William Mackintosh gives an exceedingly fine and virile portrayal of Fagin; the Bill Sikes of Mr. Cecil A. Collins is also a conception of considerable power; Miss Marie Polini submits a convincing study of Nancy; the villainous Monks receives a fine interpretation at the hands of Mr. C. H. Croker-King; Rose Maylie and Harry Maylie are well and carefully played by Miss Savile and Mr. Harvey Braban; Brownlow and Grimwig are presented by Mr. E. C. Buffum and Mr. T. P. Haynes with rare fidelity; Miss Maudie Ray enacts the title-rôle with every grace; and the Artful Dodger and his associates are cleverly limned by Mr. Tom Macfarlane, Mr. Christmas Grose, and Mr. Max Montesole.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. R. Ernest Liston.—The Girl I Love is being played here this week by a capable company. Miss Lois Du Cane, who appears as the heroine, gives a really charming and sympathetic portrayal; a fine and manly personation of Max Donovan goes to the credit of Mr. Fred Maxwell; the rôle of Captain Adair has a capable exponent in Mr. Charles Levey; and the Colonel's part is well looked after by Mr. Sam Harcourt. Miss Louise Biddulph merits high praise as Bessie Donovan, and much good work is also put in by Miss Helen Greke and Miss Kate Mansell.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Dottridge and Longden; General-Manager, Mr. C. H. Longden; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. Bush.—At the popular Queen's we are this week introduced to a musical piece entitled The Sweet Girl, which in the hands of Miss Claudia Lasell's company makes a delightful entertainment. Miss Lasell herself takes the part of the heroine in attractive style, displaying vocal and histrionic powers of high quality. Another prime favourite is Miss Alice Lethbridge, whose clever dancing is quite a feature. Mr. Fred Eastman is irresistibly funny as the eccentric Count Alexis, whose secretary is capitally played by Mr. George De Lara; Mr. Algernon Newark earns general approbation for his clever dancing in a prominent part; the fine vocal abilities of Mr. Leonard Russell find plenty of scope in the character of Arnold Renfrew; and Mr. Lister Morrah, Mr. W. H. Page, and Miss Muriel Harding deserve praise in other parts.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Moss Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. T. Gerald Morton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Alex Galley.—An interesting feature of the week's bill is the appearance of the Three Olympiers, the statuesque trio; Fisher's Operatic Trio, who combine fine vocal work with comedy, provide an enjoyable turn; the De Wynne Bros., past-masters of head and hand balancing, are again in the bill; the Lyons Trio of pantomimists provide an uproariously funny episode; the comedians Frank Darwin and Bugler Carr are smart and satisfactory; Minnie Cunningham is again pleasing hosts of admirers; Gertrude Bradshaw presents her illustrated song scena with success; and the contributions of Rosie Archer, mimic, are much enjoyed. Pat Rafferty is also in the bill.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; General-Managers, Mr. Claude Shayler and Mr. Chas. Weldon.—A series of artistic pictures by the beautifully-proportioned Irma Lorraine is a leading feature of this week's bill here. George Leyton, in another patriotic song-scena, arouses enthusiasm; a novel cycle-racing device is exploited by the Davies-Geldhill Trio; Diamond and Beatrice earn unstinted applause for their musical turn; Zeta Grey and company have a clever specialty; the Four Emilions, with wonderful acrobatic feats, arouse interest; a novel dancing turn is contributed by Woodward and Walton; and the programme also includes Great Scott, a clever juggler, Lily Lena, comedienne, and Arthur Elvey, in eccentric comedy.

CITY VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. Fred W Wood; General-Manager, Mr. J. C. Whiteman; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sam Jones.—An entertaining comedy extravaganza The Battle of the Belles, by Messrs. Fred Moule and E. D. Nicholls' company is a big feature of the week's bill here. The McConnell Trio prove vastly popular in one of their vocal comedy concoctions; Herbert La Martine, bâton manipulator and specialty dancer; Walter Stanley, comedian; Eily Adair, comedienne; Andy Fagan, character portrayer; and Ethel Loftus, in song and comedy, are also in the bill.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; General and Business Manager, Mr. Henry Dundas.—The attraction this week is provided by a visit of Mr. Walter Maxwell's company in The Lion and the Mouse. Mr. Leslie Carter displays his histrionic talents to the greatest advantage as John Burkett Ryder; and Miss Christine Silver as Shirley Roesmore is to be highly complimented on a performance of all-round excellence. Mr. Stephen Wentworth is very successful as Jefferson Ryder; Mr. J. W. Mackie enacts the part of the Hon. Fitzroy Bagley in a humorous manner; Mr. John Wheatman is good as J. Whitmore Roberts, M.P.; Mr. Arthur B. Murray is capital as Jorkins; Miss Elspeth Dudgeon scores as Mrs. John Burkett Ryder; and Miss Dorrie Roberts does well as Kate Roberts.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessees and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Business-Manager, Mr. E. R. Beaumont.—The boards here are occupied this week by Mr. Andrew Melville's company, in Driven from Home. Miss Florence Creagh, in the dual rôle of Laura Raybrook and Walter the younger, is conspicuous by her clever acting; Mr. Felix Pitt plays exceedingly well as Anthony Raybrook; Mr. Percy Dawsone, as Willie the outcast, is very good; Mr. Frederick Sandy is all that can be desired as Geoffrey Waring; and Miss Evelyn Marrable, as Margaret Bailey, also does justice to her part.

PALACE THEATRE, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; District-Manager, Mr. Hatton Wharton; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. Finch-Hatton; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Bertram G. Iles.—A grand ovation from a crowded house awaited Vesta Tilley here on Monday evening when she made her appearance; indeed, the popularity of the clever little lady is remarkable, every section of the audience vieing with each other in giving her a hearty welcome. She has to contribute four songs before she is allowed to depart. All her songs are rendered in the usual smart and dainty style for which she is so renowned, and her introduction of "The king of the house is baby" is a rare treat. The Albert and Edmunds' comedy troupe are creating much merriment with their sketch Neighbours, which is new to Leicester. The New Macs are good comedians; Brett and Orford, as usual, are most entertaining; the Imperial Russian Troupe of singers and dancers are seen and heard to advantage; George Brooks, an excellent comedian, contributes two songs that meet with great popularity; the Sisters Dorrell are smart dancers; Lizzie Daniels is also an entertaining turn, and the American Bioscope is a popular feature.

PAVILION THEATRE.—Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Acting-Manager, Mr Walter Lapworth.—Fred Southern and company met with an exceedingly warm welcome from a full house on Monday in an elaborate spectacular sketch, Black-Eyed Susan. Miss May Emery (Mrs. Southern) as Susan, Gipsy Alexander as Dolly Mayflower, Percy Emery as William, Fred Southern as Jacob Twig, and Chas. Ashwell as Captain Crosstree are to be singled out for praise. The Delornes, duettists and dancers, are scoring a well-deserved success, Wallace Whitney is popular, Florrie Brady (vocalist) gets a good reception, Olivetta is an entertaining juggler, Beattie Foster is successful, and Carter and Gale (character and comedy duettists) also entertain. Walter H. Pallister's Bioscope is still retained.

LEIGH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Cragg; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Rousby.—Mr. Horace Stanley and company occupy the boards here this week with the sensational drama, entitled The 10.30 Down Express. Mr. George Beverley gives a masterly impersonation of the hero Jack O'Malley. Miss Elsie Capell is charming and convincing as the heroine, Bessie Leigh; the rôle of James Inderwick is well represented by Mr. Chas. Burdon; Mr. Tom Roydon gives an admirable portrayal of Seth Coombes; Mr. Alaric Burton acquits himself admirably as Gilbert Leigh; Mr. Horace Stanley presents an original and breezy interpretation of the sailor, Sam Wagstaffe; Miss Evelyn M. Walton is amusing as the maiden lady, Letitia Leigh; Miss Kate Kilpack is well placed as Peggy Potts; while Mr. Edwin Clarke shows ability in the rôle of Huntley Mason.

ASSEMBLY ROOMS.—Professor Wood is this week paying his sixth annual visit with his well-known musical pictorial organisation. Professor Maccann, concertina player, is loudly applauded; Miss Elsie May is a smart Indian club manipulator; Miss Nellie Hewitt proves herself a talented instrumentalist; Mr. Nat Keeown, comedian, causes roars of laughter; Mr. Norman Russell is also appreciated; and the pictures are up to date and interesting.

LEITH.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Darlison.—Good houses have once more marked Leith playgoers' appreciation of Messrs. Glenville and Osmond's excellent production of Mr. Joseph Arthur's drama, The Still Alarm. The piece is staged with thorough completeness in every detail, and some wonderfully realistic effects are presented, while the members of a good all-round company give sound interpretations of their various rôles. Mr. Matthew H. Glenville takes the lead as Jack Manley; and good work is done by Mr. G. Fordham as John Bird; by Mr. Fred Osmond as Doc Wilber; by Mr. Lewis Gordon as Franklin Fordham; and the parts of Willie Manley and Joe Jones are well played by Mr. Tom Beasley and Mr. J. Sutton Pateman. Miss Mabel Veriton's impersonation of Mrs. Manley is a sterling performance; Miss Maud Warburton is quite a charming Elinor Fordham; and Miss Hettie Zillwood a sprightly Carrie Wilber. Two specially-trained horses and a quartette of singers, besides many minor characters, add to the interest and attractiveness of an enjoyable play.

LIVERPOOL.—ROYAL COURT THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur Lawrence.—The White Chrysanthemum made its first appearance here on Monday, and at once became popular. Mr. Frank Curzon's company comprises artists of the first water. The efforts of Mr. W. H. Rawlins as Admiral Armitage, Mr. F. Pope Stamper as his son, Mr. Horace Mills as Lieut. Belmont, Mr. O. B. Lennon as Sin Chong, and Mr. Harry Paulton, jun., as Private Perks keep the audience in incessant laughter, the bright, witty dialogue being richly enjoyed. To Miss Ruth Lincoln, who undertakes the name-part every praise is due for the manner in which she both acts and sings, the reception accorded to her being most flattering. Miss Katie Vesey makes a lively and vivacious Cornelia and dances gracefully, and Miss Daisy Le Hay assumes the rôle of Betty with credit. The music and singing are alike excellent, and the costumes and scenery very pretty.

SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, LTD.—Manager and Secretary, Mr. John Gaffney.—Shakespeare has been crowded into the week here, no less than three matinées being given in addition to the evening performances by the brilliant Benson company. On Monday evening Much Ado About Nothing was selected, the comedy being enhanced by the introduction of several charming old-time stately dances. The fine portraits of Benedick and Beatrice (Mr. and Mrs. Benson) were richly enjoyed; Mr. G. Buchanan as Claudio and Miss Helen Haye in the rôle of Hero were particularly interesting; and Mr. Geo. R. Weir made a most amusing Chief Constable. Miss Leah Hanman's vocal items were received with every favour. The other works presented were Richard II., As You Like It, Henry V., Twelfth Night, Taming of the Shrew, Coriolanus, and Macbeth.

ROTUNDA THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery.—Having had a successful week with his Revenge, Mr. E. Hill-Mitchelson commenced another six nights on Monday with Death or Glory Boys. The author plays his original part of Captain Glyn Ferrers with much effect; Mr. Jerrold Ord is eminently suited to the rôle of Colonel Fergeson; Mr. Bonhote Wilson makes a capital Jack Malden; the rascally part of Carn is well presented by Mr. Francis Serle; Miss Violet Carlyle acts gracefully as Nena Fergeson; Miss Amy Ellam is a pathetic Edith; and some capital comedy comes from Mr. J. Russell Bogue as Nat Wilks and Miss Marion Armitage as Jane. The mounting of the piece is in Mr. Mitchelson's customary elaborate style.

LYRIC THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry C. Arnold; Directors of Entertainments, Messrs. T. Barrasford and F. Willmot; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Coles.—Highly interesting variety is drawing crowded houses here. Joe Reichen's dogs top the bill with a clever and novel exhibiton; Marie Kendal, always a great favourite here, sings songs that are loudly applauded; H. Flocton-Foster's sketch company in Freddie's Ma-in-Law creates roars of laughter; Boy Glen is a clever young comedian; Dusty Rhodes evokes applause; Clarke's Nippers are entertaining; Leah Arden's numbers are loudly applauded; Steve McCarthy is successful; and for laughter making Ryder Slone would be hard to beat.

STAR THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Harris Fineberg.—Crowded audiences have this week witnessed A Girl's Cross Roads, given here by Mr. Walter Melville's company. Miss Beaumont Collins plays with sympathetic touch the rôle of the unfortunate Barbara Wade; Mr. Wilson Gunning proves eminently satisfactory as Jack Livingstone; a well-drawn type of farmer is presented by Mr. Charles Franmore as John Meadows; Miss Jessica Black makes a sweet Constance Cornell; as Nellie Meadows Miss Nannie Meade acts with discretion; Mr. Frank Brunell is well placed as Dr. Weston; and the other characters are efficiently filled.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Lingford Carson; Manager, Mr. Fred L. Arthur.—The Blind Foundling is here this week, and is received with much favour. The character of Gerald Dalton is played in capital style by Mr. Charles H. Phelps, his acting being powerful and effective; Miss Belle Tilbury ably impersonates Isabel; Mr. Alfred G. Fry brings out all the telling points in regard to the rascally Mark Redman; Miss Mabel Hall, in the title-rôle displays much ability; Mr. Bernard Webb makes the most of Jasper Waterford; and capital fun is provided by Mr. Harry Tilbury as Dick Dobbins, and Miss Milly Doris as his wife, the humorous singing of both being much enjoyed.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Manager, Mr. Walter Hassan.—As usual an enjoyable all-round programme is presented here this week, top place being occupied by Mlle. Eugénie Fougere, whose songs and imitations have been received with delight; that particularly funny artist, Frank Cary, is in great form, his song "Kissing" arousing much laughter; Fred Cullene's comedy quartet has a mirthful musical item, Pipple from Pippleton; the favourite Martin Conway contributes some of his taking songs; smart comedy work on the bars is performed by the Three Pirmans; an interesting allegorical comedy scena, The Man in the Moon, is given by the Two Bees; the Wilfords prove themselves to be strong acrobats; a clever show of singing and dancing is provided by John Tiller's Manchester Mites; and others in the bill are W. B. Raby, comedian; and C. Woodward, comedian.

NEW PARTHENON.—Proprietor, Mr Edwin W. Smith.—This hall is occupied by the British Imperial Life-Motion Picture Company, under the direction of Mr. Anthony Brown.

ROYAL PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank O'Toole.—A dramatic sketch, entitled The Guiding Star, is being given here this week by the Royal stock company. Mr. Percy Boucher makes a humorous Bob Bowser; as the villainous Harold Hagar Mr. Sydney Grant acts with power; Mr. Harry Tresham is an excellent Jack Hilton; Mr. Cecil Ravenswood plays Farmer Dean in a lifelike manner; and Mr. Robert Wilton handles the rôle of Joe Slater with credit. Of the ladies Miss Florence Palmer acts sweetly in the dual rôle of Madge and Gladys Goodwin; Miss Beryl Ravenswood is the Mother Hagar, and Miss Sara Blumenthal makes a finished Mrs. Slater.

PADDINGTON PALACE.—Lessee, Mr. M. Montgomery.—The dramatic sketch here this week is George Dibden Pitt's Love's Cross Roads, which is capitally given by the Royal stock company. Mr.

Albert Sember, an able actor, gives a fine picture of Farmer Brightwell; Mr. Frank S. Strickland makes a sufficiently villainous Edgar Granley; Mr. Walter Foster affords the utmost satisfaction with his Dick Darkley; Mr. Vincent A. Briscoe handles the rôle of Humphrey Bacon with credit; and exceedingly amusing is Mr. H. G. Brandon as Jimmy Links. Miss Line Nazeby affords satisfaction as Mrs. Brightwell; Miss Lilian Burns is most creditable as Jane Brightwell; and Miss Florence Barnes is a humorous Polly Maul.

Park Palace, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmott.—The Theatrescope is showing a number of especially fine pictures here this week; Charlton causes surprise with his magic kettle; a laughable sketch, You're Still a Friend of Mine, is given by O'Malley and Brown; some smart hand balancing is gone through by the Gladenbecks; Clifton and Gibson are a pair of eccentric comedians; and Frank Cass scores with his popular amusing songs.

Westminster.—Lessee, Mr. Fred E. Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Montgomery.—Top of the bill here this week is Harry Edson, with his well-trained dogs; Selby and Myers give a capital show of singing, dancing, and smart dialogue; J. H. Wakefield renders several coon songs and dances in good style; a neat turn comes from the Sisters Russell, low comedy artists; the Brothers Hannaway are very diverting as cross talkers, comedians, and dancers; and others in the bill are Joe Hoctor, boy comedian; and Mephisto, society contortionist. On Thursday next Mr. G. Montgomery takes his benefit.

Empire. — Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.—The popular Eugene Stratton is foremost here, delighting everyone with his popular songs, his revival of "The Coon Drum Major" being accepted with much pleasure. Another big item is Dutch Daly, to whom is accorded a big reception; the lightning drill by Captain Bevan's Gordon Highlanders is watched with the closest attention; George Formby tickles his audience immensely with his Lancashire patter and songs; the Knick-Knacks submit a clever comedy dancing and singing speciality; the Haytors show themselves to be accomplished comedy artists; and others who appear are Frank Sylvo, quaint comedy juggler; Hanid Alexander, juvenile musical entertainer; and Alfred Hurley, vocalist.

Olympia, Ltd.—Manager, Mr. A. W. Young.—Although there were fourteen performances of the aquatic spectacle, The Flood, given here last week, each house was crowded in every part, and hundreds of people had to be turned away nightly. The production is in the programme again this week, and will be given for some time yet. In the variety portion of the evening's entertainment is Charles Whittle, whose funny song, "I'm Billy Muggins," arouses great laughter; Little Ganty proves as merry as ever; Boswell's stage circus is an entertaining item; Burley and Burley are a lively couple; Bonnie Goodwin and her piccaninnies are an acceptable turn; and also in the list are Madge May, comedienne; Eugen Joly, cornet soloist; and the Maples, comedy artists and dancers.

Roscommon.—Lessee, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Heading the bill here this week are the Collinson Combination of comedians, with their screamingly funny sketch, Cook's Guest, including a burlesque on Nero by Harry Pleon; Charles Valvo gives a smart ventriloquial show with his doll, "Tommy Atkins, jun."; the Gallery Boy has a good reception for his singing and mimicry; Cross has an intelligent dog; George Croker acquits himself well as a comedian and whistler; and Flo Warner, vocal comedienne, also appears.

LLANDUDNO.—Prince's Theatre.—Lessee and Proprietor, Mr. C. R. Chaplin.—This week Mr. Howard Cochran's company is here in The Marriage of Kitty. Sir Reginald Belsize is in the capable hands of Mr. Howard Cochran; as John Travers, Mr. Cecil Wilford is good; Rosalie is well sustained by Miss Helen Kay Robinson; Miss Betty Castle as Mme. De Semiano is all that can be desired; and Miss Margaret Damer as Kitty Silverton is excellent.

LLANELLY.—Royalty Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Z. Andrews; Acting Manageress, Miss Alice Rocheforte.—Mr. Stanley Carlton's company is here this week in A Marriage of Vengeance and A Life's Story. In the former play Mr. Stanley Carlton makes a convincing Paul Earnscliff; Mr. Edward Fryer is a good Geoffrey Varnoc; as Max Reinhardt Mr. J. W. Henson does exceedingly well; Mr. Geo. Porteous and Mr. Arthur St. Clair are capable as Glyn Earnscliff and Ralph Dean; and as Bob Shorter Mr. V. T. Raynor merits praise. The part of Guy Vendom is well portrayed by Mr. Percy Darrell; Miss Rubie Maude as Stella is clever; and Miss Susie Beaven is a capable Amelia.

LONG EATON.—Lyceum Theatre.—This week we have here A Beautiful Fiend company. Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesey's company was here four years ago, and the impression made by Miss V. St. Lawrence in the Russian drama has not been forgotten. Her fine elocution is conspicuous. Mr. Beaudyn is Ivan, the head of the secret police, a very fine performance; Mr. Tom Robertson is the Count; Mr. Albert Wray is Sergius; and Nadine is portrayed by Miss Irene Munro. Mr. Harry Oates is capital as Christopher Crackles, and is ably assisted in the humorous line by Miss Annie Clunn as Patty.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—New Theatre Royal.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Payne-Seddon and George Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lindsey Edwards.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company is appearing here this week with The Silver King. Mr. Horace E. Herbert is to be complimented upon an excellent performance of the title-rôle; Mr. Oswald Cray makes an excellent Spider; Miss B. Doyle capitally portrays Nellie Denver; and Miss Dorothea Black as Olive Skinner is also good. Mr. Percy Foster as the faithful Jaikes is successful; and the Coombes of Mr. Wm. Dempsey is exceedingly clever. Mr. S. Bernard is good as Cripps; and Miss Madge Gillard makes a winsome Cissy.

MACCLESFIELD. — The Royal.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. W. K. Gatley.—The successful comedy, The New Barmaid, presented by Mr. Alexander Loftus and company, is the attraction here this week. Mr. Charles Adeson in the part of Bertie White, in conjunction with Mr. Alexander Loftus as William, is responsible for much hearty laughter; Miss Amy Preston in the title-rôle is vivacious, and she has a good voice which she uses to advantage; Mr. Leslie Austin gives a characteristic rendering of Captain Lorebury; Miss Grafton is excellent as Brenda, and Miss Violet Osmound is a capital Dora Heather; Miss James Grant is particularly good as Colonel Claymore, and Mr. W. E. Chewd is highly amusing as Mons. Bousor, and Miss Winifred Preston is excellent as Lady Moulton.

MAIDSTONE.—Hippodrome.—Lessee, Mr. S Baskerville.—Austin Rudd is at the head of affairs here this week, and receives a very flattering reception. Stanley and Greenop, banjoists, are on a welcome return visit, and are as popular as ever, their clever playing being one of the hits of the programme. Sibb and Sibb are daring trapeze artists, their feats being clever and novel; the Society Quartette are smart dancers; the Swift Trio of cyclists, together with Miss Kathleen Cogan, comedienne, and Miss Sheila McNiell, Scotch comedienne, complete the bill.

MANCHESTER.—Theatre Royal.—Lessees, the United Theatres Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Edmonstone Shirra.—Mr. Robert Courtneidge's production of The Dairymaids attracted a fair audience here on Monday. The piece is very bright and interesting, and was well rendered by a company which includes Miss Edith Blanche as Lady Brudenell, Mr. Harry Dent as the amusing Joe Mivens, Mr. E. Statham Staples as Sam, and Miss Violet Lloyd as Peggy, clever work being added by Mr. George Desmond as Lieut. Brudenell, Miss Madge Avery as Miss Penelope Pychase, Miss Beryl Vaudrey as Helene, and Miss Rose Musgrove as Eliza. The large chorus and augmented orchestra were under the direction of Mr. Albert Bartlett, and the scenery and dresses are magnificent.

Prince's Theatre. — Proprietors, The United Theatres Co.; Acting-Manager, Mr. George Lee.—This week we have here Mr. George Welch, in his latest success, When Knights Were Bold. A cleverly-designed farce, the piece offers fine opportunities for amusing work. Mr. Welch as Sir Guy de Vere is excellent, and he has admirable support from Miss Audrey Ford as Rowena, Mr. Edward Sass as Sir Brian, and Mr. Arthur Grenville as Isaac Isaacson; while clever and amusing impersonations are offered by Mr. Henry J. Ford as Widdicombe, Mr. Arthur Chesney as the Rev. Peter Pottleberry, Miss Emma Gwynne as the Hon. Mrs. Waldegrave, Miss Estelle Winword as Millicent Eggington, and Miss Daisy Cordell as Miss Isaacson, all contributing to a most enjoyable and novel entertainment. The play is preceded by The Lady Burglar, a smart one-act piece very neatly rendered by Miss Estelle Winwood and Mr. Henry J. Ford. The place of this, however, was taken on Wednesday (by special request) by The Man in the Street, in which Mr. Welch appeared with immense success.

Gaiety Theatre.—Mr. G. P. Huntley and company are here in Mr. Popple (of Ippleton).

Royal Osborne Theatre.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Mr. W. H. Hallatt's company present here this week The Temptress, a powerful and entertaining drama. Mr. Weldon Atherstone as Lucas Denbigh gives a spirited performance; Mr. Wallace Campbell is well suited as Philip Welford; Mr. Fred. H. Constable adds a clever performance as Pedro Gonzales; and capable work is added by Mr. Claude Ashworth as Sir Oswald Fordyce and Mr. C. Quinton Fulford as Austin Dale. In the title-part Miss Lydia Donovan is particularly strong; while Miss Violet Sims as Marion Fordyce and Miss Effie Bartlett as Madge Denbigh contribute valuable assistance. Humorous impersonations are given by Mr. William P. Sheen (the author), Mr. Allan Carruthers, Mr. Charles Reyne, and Miss Ivy Chandos.

Metropole.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—A capital programme here this week is headed by the Eight Lancashire Lads, a clever combination of singers and dancers. Carl Mysto, the handcuff artist, is also prominent; while the Dagodets give a fine comedy entertainment; Cribb and Cribb present a smart scena; Tod Lowan, comedian, is very well received; and other good turns are provided by Linton, the Mexican "cable" performer; Maud Vera, descriptive vocalist and coon singer; the Sisters Russell, comedy duettists; and Clarmont and Victor, comedy acrobats.

St. James's Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Richd. Flanagan.—An interesting musical comedy drama, At the World's Mercy, is here this week. Mr. Carr Loates's company is a clever combination in which Mr. Loates, as Captain Manley, particularly shines, assisted in the companion heroic rôle of Alice Lloyd by Miss Lillian Beaumont. Mr. Percy Beresford as Barber, the solicitor, acts well; Miss Cissie Milford is excellent as Skittles; Mr. Henry Fergusson makes a capital Jew as Morris Goldstein; and enjoyable humour is contributed by Mr. Jess Boxer as Charlie Smart. As Dot, Little Daisy is remarkably clever, and Miss Molly Bee as Rosie deserves special commendation for her dancing; while Mrs. Loates is distinctly good as Kitty Knott.

Grand Junction Theatre.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Mr. George Kirk and Miss Mary Neil's company are here this week in their popular and attractive drama, Her Luck in London. Miss Mary Neil gives a really fine rendering of Nelly Harborne, and in strong parts Mr. Chas. A. Leicester, Mr. Douglas Tremayne, and Mr. Henry Charles are conspicuous. Miss Ada Roscoe is excellent as Madame Gabrielle; and among the fun-makers, Miss Florrie Groves as Maud Gladys Shovepenny and Mr. J. Telly Dillsen as Jerry Gotobed are worthy of particular praise. The entire production is under the personal direction of Mr. George Kirk, and is a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Queen's Theatre.—Lessee, Mr. R. Flanagan; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Berry.—Great interest was aroused here on Monday by the performance of The Four Just Men, by Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company, including Mr. H. A. Saintsbury as George Manfred—an admirable impersonation. Excellent work was done also by Mr. E. H. Dobell as Miguel Thery, Mr. H. Elliott Ball as Sir Philip Ramon, Miss Dorothea Desmond as Juanita, Mr. Leonard Williams as Manuel Garcia, and Miss Alys Rees as Mrs. Mavis. The piece is worthily described as the successor to Sherlock Holmes, and is certainly a thrilling entertainment, well staged, and admirably played throughout.

Empire.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. Hall.—A fine programme here this week is headed by Percy Honri, who gives his latest success, Concordia, in excellent style, supported by a talented company. The Donaldson Bros. and Ardell present their well-known comic sketch, A Zoological Comedy; Professor Selkirk's juvenile spectacle, In Bonnie Scotland, is well received; Dora Barrington, in a song-scena, is heard to great advantage; Kate Cohen, vocalist, sings well; Preston and Balmaine give one of their enjoyable illustrated songs; and other good turns are provided by Albert Christian, vocalist; the Sisters Caselli, comediennes and dancers; and Norah Emerald, comedienne and dancer. The Bioscope pictures, as usual, are highly interesting.

Palace.—General-Manager, Mr. Walter de Frece; Secretary, Mr. Peter Watson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Nelson Barry. — George Lashwood, the "Beau Brummel of Vanity," is the attraction here this week, and, as usual, makes a big hit. Excellent, also, are Radford and Valentine, in a really comic and clever juggling act. The Daunton-Shaw troupe go through an exceptionally smart cycle performance; Morny Cash, the Lancashire comedian, scores with his "Bed" song; Jeanie Hartley, comedienne, dances in a delightful manner; and Leoni Clarke introduces with success two hundred well-trained animals and birds. Other smart turns are contributed by the New York Nippers, in a scena "Bedtime"; Tatten Hall, comedian; Harry Conlin, comedian; and Nellie Martell, comedienne and dancer. Up-to-date pictures complete.

Hippodrome.—Managing Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. P. Morgan.—Mr. John Tiller's company are here this week, in an amusing sketch entitled Mad Minstrels (a most unsuitable and misleading title), in three scenes, introducing some fine dancing, good singing, and beautiful dresses. Particularly good are Dorothy Gould, Jessie Templeton, May Sharples, Harry Elliston, Sam Poluski, jun., and Harold Wardroper in the principal parts. The Leslie Brothers are excellent musicians of the comic order with decidedly funny patter, and make a big hit; the Welsh Wanderers are a trio of first-class singers, accompanied by a harpist, and are deservedly well received; Mlle. Larive, chanteuse, sings and dances exceedingly well; James Stewart, the tramp at the piano, creates his usual good impression; Corbin's dogs are canines of high intelligence, and "on their own" go through a fine performance; Lamber and Robertson appear in a typical Scotch scena, "Scots Folks a-wooing"; Miss Mildred Timms, assisted by the choir, sings in good style "Won't you come over to my house?" an illustrated song; and the programme also includes some excellent Bioscope films, and a well-rendered part-song by the choir.

Tivoli.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles A. Wilkes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur B. Wilkes.—Prominent turns here this week are the Warsaw Brothers, in a capital comedy musical act; Valvero's Naval Bombardment, a really clever performance; and Lauri Wylie, as the "mimicking mannikin," excellent, as usual. Other good turns are those of Rosa Rossetti, a charming 'celloist and violinist; Maude Prenton, chic comedienne, with a pleasing song; Walter Emerson, comedian; Fred Allsop and Florrie Beckwith, in a humorous act; Bert Bowden, quaint comedian; the Twin Sisters Edwards, vocalists, dancers, and drummers; and May Gurney, comedienne. Raymond's Vivagraph pictures complete.

King's, Longsight.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kimberley's company is here this week in a tabloid edition of that capital sporting drama, Bound to Win. Mr. F. G. Kimberley is excellent as Harry Lyndon, and Miss Lottie Addison as Gladys Orme acquits herself exceptionally well. Mr. J. Franklin does admirably as Ned Oakley; Mr. Charles Vivian scores as the villain; and Miss Violet Langley is a pleasing heroine. Other parts are well sustained by Messrs. Edward Bekker, Charles Coventry, and Mrs. J. Franklin and Miss Trixie Toole. The drama is well staged.

Queen's Park Hippodrome.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—An exceptionally bright and attractive programme is presented here this week, attracting good houses. Harry Grey, the Australian Nugget, is a vastly entertaining comedian, and is heartily applauded, as are also the Three Boccaccios, including Signor Francia, vocalists and instrumentalists of high merit; Mack Ollive, assisted by Daisy Baldry, is very successful in his whistling scena, entitled The Candy Store; the Moncktons (Fred and Lillie) present a smart comedy sketch; and Levano gives a unique and sensational double somersault act with daggers. Bert Rayner and Cissie Reece are clever dancers; the Two Wiltons, duettists and dancers, are very good; Nancy Renshaw, negro comedienne, is an expert bone soloist; King and Delane appear in a humorous comedy act, At the Club; George Edney is an excellent descriptive vocalist; and the Bioscope pictures are amusing.

Hippodrome (Hulme).—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—The star attractions here this week are Clown Zestho and his wonderfully well-trained dogs, and the clever Corman Youngsters, whose singing and dancing are good, their scena, Christmas Eve, being very pretty and effective. O. B. Krebo is an excellent comedy juggler; Will Litters is a capital comedian; Edie Gray and White Coons are good singers; Jay Laurier is a comedian with original methods; the Four Jumels give a fine musical act; the Kroney Brothers are clever tumblers; and Maud Kaye is a pleasing coon song and dance artist. "Following in His Father's Footsteps" is shown on the Bioscope, and is very amusing.

MANSFIELD.—Grand Theatre.—Proprietors, Mansfield Theatre Company; General-Manager, Captain Cecil Clayton. — This week the United English Opera company has provided the attraction here. On Monday Wallace's opera Maritana was staged, and greatly appreciated; Miss Elsa May filled the title-rôle with credit, singing her numerous items very nicely; Miss Doris Gilbert made a fine Lazarillo; Mr. F. S. Gilbert (a native of Mansfield) had a great reception in the part of Don Cæsar de Bazan; as Don José Mr. J. K. Campbell sang well, and the part of the King of Spain was ably presented by Mr. J. F. Farrelly; Mr. H. Blagrave scored in the rôle of Marquess Montefiore. The chorus was a capable one, and the staging was all that could be desired. On Tuesday evening Donnizetti's opera, Daughter of the Regiment, was given, when Mr. F. S. Gilbert sustained the part of Tony in an able manner. The evening concluded with the Miserere scene from Il Trovatore. Other operas for the week are Faust, the Bohemian Girl, and Il Trovatore.

Hippodrome.—Managing-Director, Mr. Herbert Darnley; Resident-Director, Mr. Tom Jennings.—The Singing Mill Lads top the bill here, and have a great reception. Another popular turn is that of Cope and Hagan, who create roars of laughter; Billy Taylor gives an exceedingly novel act which is loudly applauded; the turn of H. C. Prosper is also loudly cheered; Vernon's Imperial Biscope presents a good series of up-to-date pictures.

MARGATE.—Hippodrome.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. F. Mouillot and W. De Frece; General Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. F. Bawtree.—This week's programme includes some pleasing turns, chief among which stands that contributed by Will Van Allen, the tramp musician and raconteur, in his novel and entertaining performance; Sinclair and Parr, in their diverting vocal entr'acte, Keeping an Appointment, are clever, their singing being above the usual standard; R. C. Note sings sensible songs well; Florrie St. Roy, comedienne and acrobatic dancer, is pleasing; Amy Elcock makes a dashing comedienne and dances well; and Ruby and Laws, vaudeville artists, give an enjoyable turn. The Hippodrome pictures this week are more amusing than usual.

MERTHYR TYDFIL. — Theatre Royal.—Lessees, The South Wales Entertainments, Ltd.; Manager, Mr. Lewis Gilbert.—Mr. F. Marriott-Watson's company is here presenting A False Wife. Miss Florence E. Florence, in the title-rôle, displays considerable power; Mr. George Langham is successful as Sir Colin Mansfield; Mr. W. Howard Barlow, as Lieut. Mansfield, presents an excellent impersonation; Mr. Elton Morgan is highly diverting in the part of Ben Rattler; and Mr. F. Marriott-Watson ably depicts the adventurer Jean Beraud; Miss Annie Hylton acquits herself admirably as Agnes Weyland; and Miss Minnie Leslie makes a delightful Bessie.

Temperance Hall.—Manager, Mr. Israel Price.—An interesting programme is headed by Jules Kiars, hand balancer; The Carvers, comedians and speciality dancers; the Three Parzones, in sketches; the Evalos, jugglers and gymnasts; May Peskett, serio; Bodie Bros., triple bar performers; La Sonnambula; and the Biograph with a new series of pictures, concludes an excellent entertainment.

MEXBOROUGH.—Prince of Wales Theatre.—Manager, Mr. W. H. Melton.—Mr. Lingford Carson's Répertoire company is here this week On Monday and Tuesday A Modern Adventuress was presented; Mr. Charles Draycott gave a thoroughly dramatic rendering of Pietro Donelli; Mr. Sydney C. Cranston was effective as Harry Delby; the Wallace Danton of Mr. E. J. Fare was a capable effort; Mr. John Byron ably typified the bluff Yorkshireman, John Crompton; Mr. J. Dobson Clyde scored as the detective Beal; Miss Muriel Thompson played the title-rôle with the necessary callousness; Miss Marie Robson submitted a charming rendering of Vivette Delby; and Miss Daisy Norman made an interesting Sally Hodges. On Wednesday The Octoroon was played; on Thursday The Heart of a Hero, and on Friday The Ticket of Leave Man.

MIDDLESBROUGH. — Theatre Royal.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Chas. Imeson.—The attraction at this popular theatre this week is Messrs. Carpenter and Cooper's company in a sensational play, The Spider and the Fly, by Arthur Shirley and Sutton Vane. Miss Nina Vaughton is an ideal Edith McAllister; Mr. Stanley S. Gordon, as Cyril Girdlestone, the hero, is well-suited to his part; while Mr. Ellis J. Preston, as Welby Girdlestone, is equally good; the part of Stella Grey, is placed in the hands of Miss Amy Venimore, whose powerful acting quickly wins her a reputation she thoroughly deserves; Mr. Frederick Ross is excellent as David Strong, an honest Jack tar; considerable amusement is introduced at intervals by Mr. Chas. A. Preece, as Remus Roe and Mr. Fred Terris as Romulus Roe (twin brothers); and Miss Lucy Murray, who is entrusted with the part of Molly Blake, a jolly little Irish servant lass.

Opera House.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Managing, Mr. W. K. Chatto.—The Love of Woman is the attraction here this week, and is presented by Mr. Edward Bradford's company. The interest and enjoyment are greatly heightened by attractive scenery and effects. Mr. Henry C. Cooper figures with marked effect in the leading rôles of George Leigh and Dominoe Bill; and Miss Nesta Sandford acquits herself admirably in the part of Nell Leigh; Miss Lillian King appears as Gladys Leigh, and gives a natural and womanly rendering of the character; Mr. Harry Fairbridge does full justice to the rôle of Sir Charles Murdstone, and for the part of Rupert Murdstone, a clever representative is found in Mr. Fellows Bassett; Miss Florrie Green is good as Jake, a waif; and Miss Winifred Glynn acquits herself admirably as Mrs. Gringer.

Empire Palace.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Brill; Manager, Mr. Charles G. Rembges. — A varied and interesting programme is submitted here this week. Ernie Mayne makes a great hit, his songs and patter creating roars of laughter; Jack Lane maintains his popularity, while Sinclair and Whiteford are enthusiastically received in their sketch, Getting Even; Lee and Kingston cause much laughter in their comedy duo, "Practical Joking"; and Les Molassos provide a clever dancing entertainment; Dave Meier and Belle Mora are exceedingly good in their ball punching, singing, and dancing turn; and Bob Baxter, comedian, pleases. The other turns are provided by Alma O'Brey, character comedian; and the Bioscope.

Oxford Palace.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Alf. Graham.—One of the most popular turns here is that of Austin and Cowan, who render some well-known ballads. An amusing sketch, entitled The Would-be Actors Rehearsing a Drama, is given by Livesey and Rosbury; and Charles Austin causes roars of laughter with his funny songs; Julian Mac, comedian, pleases; and Mr. George M. Schilling, the famous athlete who has walked round the world, relates his adventures. Other turns are provided by Barney Stuart, Kathleen Gray, comedienne, and Culpitt, in his comedy skits, and the Bioscope.

MIDDLETON.—Pardoe's Theatre.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. and J. Pardoe.—A capital company is this week presenting the thrilling drama A Gambler's Daughter. Sir Robert Ayrton gives a vigorous impersonation of the Irish emigrant. Miss Adria Hill, in a two-fold character, loses no opportunity for effect, and gains general admiration; Mr. Alfred Sanders makes a humorous Jew; while Mr. J. Martin is an ideal villain. Other members of the company give valuable support.

MOTHERWELL. — New Century Theatre.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. Reginald Grant.—Mr. Charles Carey's company is this week appearing in After the Ball. As a merrymaker Mrs. M. Sadie is a host in herself, her quaint get-up, the drollery of her songs and her patter keeping the house in continuous laughter. Miss Queenie Finnis is a sweet and winsome Nellie Mathers, singing and dancing with much grace and charm; the Ruth Gay of Miss Eva Ellis is an impersonation of much distinction; Mr. Algernon W. Lee does well as Halliwell Menit; Mr. Percy Baverstock is equally apt as the peppery old Colonel; Martin loses nothing in the hands of Mr. Buckstone Clair; and Dick Seymour is well impersonated by Mr. Norman Bowyer.

NELSON.—New Grand Theatre.—Lessee and Manageress, Mrs. C. Greenwood Croft; Business-Manager, Mr. George E. Mudd.—This week Mr. Augustine Knight and powerful company are appearing in The Assassin. The staging of the piece is exceptionally good; Mr. Augustine Knight gives a fine portrayal of Prince Demetri; Mr. Edward E. Ashby as Ivan Ipanoff does some good work as the Prince's rival; Mr. Theo. Balfour causes much amusement by his eccentricities as Duke Karl; Mr. Chauncey Morris makes a capital General Nicol; Mr. Edward Jenner is good as Captain O'Neil; Mr. Tom Taylor ably sustains the part of Peter; Miss Ella Vane proves herself to be an actress of a high order of merit by her impersonation of Countess Wanda; Miss Hettie Senior, in the character of a comic Jonathan, makes a typical Yankee lady; Miss Frances Waring is good as the Prince's victim, Nita, and Miss Marie E. Robertson as Katrina cleverly plays the part of the maid.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.—Theatre Royal.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. Teale Lingham.—A first visit is paid to the Theatre Royal this week by Mr. Silvanus Dauncey and Mr. M. V. Leveaux's company. Alfred Sutro's comedy, The Fascinating Mr. Vanderveldt, the story of a man, woman, and motor, being given. The representation on Monday evening highly pleased a large and critical audience. Miss Gladys Mason is a delightful exponent of the part of the young widow, her reading of the character of Lady Howland being unrestrained and effective throughout. Mr. Vanderveldt is played in quite convincing fashion by Mr. Reginald Dance, the wit of the young rake and impertinence and gaiety of his whole demeanour being faithfully presented. As Colonel Rayner, Mr. H. Lawrence Leyton also figures admirably; Miss Mary Weigall, Miss Eve Titheradge, Miss Agnes Gunn, Mr. Edward Coutts, Mr. Russell Barry, and Mr. Gerald Henson, in other principal parts, are seen to advantage. The cast also includes Mr. George A. Seagar, Mr. George Percy, Mr. F. Vernon Travers, Miss May Brooke, Miss Dorothy Haigh, Miss Helen Tytler, and Miss Muriel Mason.

Tyne Theatre. — Lessees, Messrs. Howard and Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. C. Sutcliffe.—Mr. George Edwardes's company, in the modern light opera, The Little Michus, is again attracting large audiences to this theatre. The principals in the company are unchanged from the last visit; Mr. Eric Thorne, a great favourite on Tyneside, more than ever convulses the audience with his broadly-drawn portrait of General Des Ifs. As the Little Michus, Miss Iris Hoey and Miss Thelma Kaye are both charming, the one as the demure Blanche Marie, and the other as the livelier Marie Blanche. Mr. W. T. Andrews is capital in the part of the military lover; and a droll impersonation of the shop-assistant is given by Mr. Leonard Mackay. Very humorous, too, is Mr. Jack Carnot as Bagnolet; and Mr. G. Miller and Miss Florence Parfrey are also worthy of mention.

Palace Theatre.—Manager, Mr. T. Rowe.—That most fascinating of all detective plays, Sherlock Holmes, forms the programme this week at the Palace Theatre. The title-rôle is in the able custody of Mr. H. Hamilton Stewart, and as the heroine, Alice Faulkner, Miss Constance Leigh soon became a favourite with the audience. Mr. Ernest Gray gives an able impersonation of James Larrabee; and the Dr. Watson of Mr. Stanley Logan, and the Professor Moriarty of Mr. W. F. Stirling, also call for favourable comment.

Grand Theatre.—Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon.—The popular musical comedy, Kitty Grey, is drawing good houses to this theatre. Miss Hilda Guiver as Kitty Grey is a pronounced success, her singing being especially good; while Miss Elsie Skillings as Sadie is also a favourite. The audience are kept in roars of laughter by Mr. Leslie Steward as Lord Plantaganet; while exceedingly good is Mr. Herbert Ranson as Sir John Bingfield.

Empire Theatre.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Richard Thornton; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Andrews.—The Kremos, a troupe of ten of the smartest and most daring Risley performers ever seen in Newcastle, provide the chief turn in an attractive entertainment this week at the Empire, their accomplishment of amazing feats, with marvellous accuracy, being received with much demonstration. Ginnett's Rejected Remounts is an equestrian scene in which a well-trained animal is introduced to a nervous and novitiate rider, and provides hilarious fun; a charming vaudeville entertainment is given by the Nine Courtiers; and The Serio and the Slavey is a bright little sketch, produced by Ella and Dacie Hope. Holden's Mannikins, a clever marionette show, proves popular; and other turns are given by Clarice Netta, a gifted soprano; the Clarkes, banjoists; Pat Carey, Irish comedian; and the American Bioscope.

Pavilion Theatre. — Acting-Manager, Mr. Will H. Boardman.—The chief line on the bill at the Pavilion Theatre is occupied by Jock Whiteford, a Scottish comedian, who, in a recall, after two amusing songs, delighted large audiences on Monday evening with a capital and droll imitation of a football enthusiast witnessing a match. A clever dog act is produced by Charles Prelle, whose canine tribe is trained to perfection, the performance, indeed, being one of the best of its kind. The Paragon Trio, speciality vocalists, are also an acceptable turn; and a humorous parody on the "Shades of the old apple-tree," is ably contributed by Bert Lytton. An entertaining sketch, entitled An Anglo-American Alliance, is produced by Wilton Heriot and company; and clever impersonations of leading music-hall artists are given by Lily Sharplin. Other excellent turns—the whole programme being an exceptionally attractive one—are Winona and King, American speciality artists; the Rallis, in The Artist and His Monkey; the Mackweys, the riotous trio; the Three Sisters Thurban, vocalists and instrumentalists; Arthur Stacey, eccentric comedian and dancer; and a new series of pictures by the Barrascope.

NEWPORT.—Lyceum.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Sidney Cooper.—Florodora is being played here by Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company this week to delighted houses. Dolores (Miss Josephine Sullivan) sings finely, and makes a charming heroine; the Lady Holyrood of Miss Kate Leicester is a finished performance; and Miss Lily Gulliett, as Angela Gilfain acts charmingly; Mr. Alf. E. Passmore, a genuine humorist, revels in the part of Prof. Tweedlepunch; Mr. Allen Morris sings well as Frank Abercoed; and Mr. Stanley White exhibits a lot of quiet humour in the part of Cyrus W. Gilfain; Mr. Herbert St. John (Capt. Arthur Donegal), and Mr. C. A. James (Leandro) acquit themselves creditably.

Empire.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. O. Stoll.—Lil Hawthorne, a favourite here, fully sustains her reputation; the Harmony Four are a smart set of musicians; and Whit Cunliffe sings some catchy songs; Clemart provides much that is fresh in ventriloquial business; Paulinetti and Piquo give a clever gymnastic performance; and Maud Ross scores in a pretty step dance; Will Mitcham delights the house with his musical turn; and the Bioscope shows some interesting pictures of the Springbok v. Glamorgan football match.

NORTHAMPTON.—Opera House. — Proprietors and Managers, Mr. Milton Bode and Mr. Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Frank Seddon.—A return visit is being paid this week of Saturday to Monday, as presented by Fred Karno's company. Mr. Rolando Martin keeps the fun going from start to finish, and is ably supported by Miss May Rogerson, Miss Daisy Stone, Miss Ada Maskell, Mr. J. W. Bradbury, Mr. V. H. Crawford, Mr. J. Fletch, and Mr. Dick Harcourt.

Palace of Varieties.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Fred H. Anderson; Representative, Mr. Edwin C. Jazon; Acting-Manager, Mr. T. A. Evans.—Mr. Will Musgrave, the popular comedian, nightly wins enthusiastic applause; the Three Delaries, in The Demon Grotto, give a clever series of acrobatic feats; Flo Melville, burlesque artist, give some piquant ditties with good effect; Fraser and Haley are again welcomed for their charming duets; Frances Ferina, assisted by a gentleman, appears in a pathetic episode, Pity the Blind; C. Vincent projects an interesting story of the gold mines on the screen; Harding and Preston give a very laughable and amusing comedy turn; and Cyril Earle, the actor-vocalist, submits a dramatic rendering of the descriptive song, "Dreams."

NORTH SHIELDS.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Horace Lee.—The attraction here this week is Mr. Chalmers Mackey's company in Wearin' o' the Green. As Barney O'Hea Mr. Chalmers Mackey keeps his audience in a happy mood; Mr. Charles Homer as Shamus M'Dermott is worthy of the highest praise; Mr. David McFarlane makes a capital Connor Martin; Mr. Haughton Macauley displays conspicuous ability as Michael Kenny, and Mr. St. John Stuart gives a fine performance of Jerold Courteney; as Norah McGrath Mrs. Chalmers Mackey submits an admirable rendering; Miss Adele Liddon works well as Mrs. McDermott; Miss Nana Flensberg makes quite a hit as Biddy M'Ginn.

Central Palace.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Wm. Mould.—The Pickels, who perform some smart risley feats, are at the top of the bill here; Kloof and Ramsay in their musical act are accorded a hearty reception, and Messrs. Lambert and Glover in My Birthday cause much laughter; Messrs. Daly and Doyle, comedians and dancers, are loudly applauded; Veronique, speciality dancer, is smart; Mr. Syd Herman, Hebrew comedian and storyteller, is popular, and the Bio-Photoscope still meets with much favour.

NORTHWICH. — Central Theatre. — Proprietress, Mrs. S. Golden; Secretary, Miss E. Golden.—Capital fare is presented here this week by Mr. Gilbert Payne's company in The Honeymoon. Mr. Gilbert Payne, who appears as Nathaniel Noodle, is an excellent comedian, and a good dancer; Miss Pattie Fairley, the possessor of a fine voice, does well as Madge Armstrong; Mr. Leslie Erle capably presents Jack Armstrong; as Archie, Mr. Harry Farrow both looks and plays the part to the life; Miss Nellie Dyson, as Stella Le Brunns, plays and sings in a charming manner; Mr. Roy Lovell gives a lifelike impersonation of Colonel Vandyke Brown; Miss Rene Walton, as Emeretta Noodle, is well placed; and the Florentia Troupe of dancers give several clever and pleasing turns. The piece is prettily staged and well dressed.

NORWICH.—Theatre Royal.—Sole Manager Mr. Fred. Morgan.—Mr. Mouillot's excellent company is here this week with San Toy. Miss Bessie Allayne is pleasing in the title-rôle; and Miss Nellie Beryl is excellent as Dudley. Miss Irene Lavington is well received as Poppy; and Miss Maud Rundal is successful in her dance. Mr. Arthur week. Mr. Alfred Paumier portrays the part of Paul Valmar in a forcible manner; Mr. Clinton Baddeley is capital as Capt. Von Scarsbruck; and Mr. Fred W. Freeman makes a good Crown Prince. Miss Annie Saker gives an artistic rendering of the part of the Princess Astrea; and Misses Florence Hunt and Prudence Laurence as Rozel and Marie do very well. The humorous characters are in the capable hands of Messrs. Page, Balfour, and Spalding as Max, Otto, and Bobo; and Miss Ada Champion assists effectively as Kathie. Mr. Ulick Burke ably fills the part of Lieut. Strelsburg; and Mr. W. S. Hardy makes a good Father Gerrard. The remaining characters are also well played.

ROYAL THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant-Manager, Mr. W. Howgate.—Frank and Jen Latona head the bill in a turn full of music and comedy; the Bros. Egbert cause much hearty laughter; and the Westwoods are a pair of smart trick cyclists, and are the recipients of much applause. Lillian Lea takes well in a beautiful song-scena; the Three Transfields, lady instrumentalists, are also very good; Madeline Rossiter is a capable comedienne and dancer; W. G. Webber is an excellent singer of bass songs; and W. G. Sutton is a tuneful vocal comedian. Interesting pictures by the Royal Dottoscope conclude the programme.

HIPPODROME. — Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Nuttall.—The Five Saxonias are the stars this week with their novel musical act; Gus Harris, character delineator, is very good in his vocal scena, The Synagogue; the Sisters Lytton are sweet duettists; Ariel and Astarte have a smart aerial turn; Rose Tilley, versatile artist, is a capital vocalist; and Mike Cray, a skilful comedy juggler, introduces his dog Dooley. The Sisters Walmsley have a capital scena in From School to Stage; Charles Somers is a good comedian; and the Dottoscope is still a prominent feature in the bill.

OXFORD.—NEW THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Lucas, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. C. Dorrill.—This week The Spring Chicken, admirably played by Mr. George Dance's company, is proving a genuine attraction here. There is not a weak spot in the cast, and the attractive and tuneful chorus and beautiful dresses and scenery make up a most enjoyable entertainment; Mr. J. S. Durant plays Babori with an agreeably light touch; Mr. Edwin Dodds gives an amusing rendering of Felix; Mr. Fred Payne keeps the house in good humour as Girdle; and Boniface, Baron Papouche, and Stephen Henry all find capable exponents in Messrs. H. Averell, R. Holland, and L. Wigley; Miss Crissie Leonard has won all hearts here with her delightfully piquant acting and clever dancing as Rosalie; Miss Nellie Kavanagh scores heavily as Mrs. Girdle; and the Baroness and Babori's wife find most charming and efficient representatives in the Misses Poppy Poole and Florence Lee.

PAISLEY.—PAISLEY THEATRE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Bentz.—This week the popular comic opera La Poupée is making a welcome visit and doing first-class business, the company being that of Mr. Herbert Ralland. Miss Mysie Devine is an attractive and clever Alesia; her singing and acting are both very good. Mr. Harry Brayne as Hilarius is a general favourite and is conspicuously clever in the part, interpreting the doll-maker with the happiest results. Mr. Arthur Cozens creates a decidedly favourable impression by his embodiment of the novice Lancelot; Mr. Walter Balfour is well suited as Father Maxime; the Baron Chanterelle is admirably portrayed by Mr. Fuller Allen; as Loremois Mr. Arthur Dennis submits a distinct and successful representation; Mr. E. Mooney is excellent as Balthazar; Miss Edith Hunter imparts many commendable points in her assumption of Madame Hilarius; Henri is charmingly interpreted by Miss Doris Dickens; and as the first and second dolls Misses Nita Cree and Dora Dickens merit praise.

HIPPODROME.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Bostock; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Wilson.—There is an excellent list of artists at the Hippodrome this week. Signor and Mme. Borelli provide a delightful and humorous musical turn; the songs and dances of Esta Stella, chic comedienne, are received with the heartiest applause; Fanny Robina, charming vocalist, makes an instantaneous hit; the Three Stebbings are well received in their amusing and likewise skilful equilibrist act; Jordan and Harvey are a pair of quaint dialect comedians; the Villions do wonders in their trick and comedy acrobatic cycle act; Billy Bint, popular vocalist, scores; Florrie Cooper makes an immediate success by her sweet singing; and the Hippodrome Bioscope concludes an altogether attractive programme.

EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. J. H. Savile; Manager, Mr. Delno Fritz.—The bill of fare offered here is of excellent quality. A remarkable entertainment is provided by Fred Karno's comedians under the direction of W. B. Crabtree in the pantomimical burlesque The Smoking Concert, which evokes much laughter; T. C. Callaghan, refined character comedian, affords much enjoyment; Harry Jennings, comedian and dancer, is well received; an excellent turn is given by Will Gonn, instrumentalist, coon singer, buck and sand dancer; Marie Walker, trombone virtuoso, is successful; Gus Granville, comedian, is warmly welcomed; and Jessie Star, Scottish vocalist and comedienne, is very acceptable.

PENTRE. — LYCEUM THEATRE — Sole Owners, Messrs. Carlton and J. Duckworth; Manager Mr. Sam Duckworth; Resident Manager, Mr. Harry Counsell. — The Woman Who Gambles is being played here by Mr. Morton Powell's company, under the direction of Mr. Horatio Sinclair. Mr. James Duncan gives an admirable impersonation of Count Otto Steinbach; Miss Gertrude Hunt displays histrionic powers as the Countess Natalie; Mr. Horatio Sinclair cleverly sustains the rôle of Baron Cratzlaw; Mr. Reginald Fox deserves praise for the apt manner in which he portrays the character of Lieutenant Carl; Miss Florrie Halton appeals to all in her pathetic interpretation of Cora Gouldhart. The comic relief is ably introduced by Mr. J. O. Stevenson, Mr. Fred Prior, and Miss Brenda May; and Miss Lilly Malvern is exceedingly good as Stella Melakoff.

PERTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Aldridge.—Mr. Henry E. Leigh's company is here this week in the successful farcical comedy, The 'Varsity Belle. Mr. James Danver's delineation of Professor Septimus Stoney is clever and amusing; Mr. Edward Chester's Theocritus Ward Sparkleton is well received; Messrs. Morrice Holmes and Roy Barraclough are seen to considerable advantage as the two undergraduates, George Barker and Albert Perrin respectively; Mr. Frank Lilliput, as his name denotes, is a somewhat diminutive college scout, and as Runyard creates unrestrained mirth throughout; Miss Emma Rainbow is admirably suited to the rôle of Mrs. Barker; Miss Beatrice Egerton is a charming Maud Stoney; Miss Nellie Beacon achieves considerable success as Eva Stoney; Miss Josephine Ellis is entrusted with the title-rôle, and she certainly leaves nothing to be desired in her clever portrayal of George Sparkleton, her marked success eliciting hearty approbation. A special feature of the evening is Mr. James Danvers' sketch, "A Musical Lesson," in which Miss Nellie Beacon ably assists. The Last Hour, a one-act dramatic episode, is successfully given as a curtain-raiser.

PETERBOROUGH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. A. Darville Vernon.—Mr. George Edwardes' company in San Toy is here this week. Miss Mora Hersee is a charming San Toy, singing with much tunefulness, and at the same time revealing herself as an accomplished actress; Mr. Victor C. Huntley is a manly and effective Captain Bobbie Preston; Mr. Grahame Herington, is well placed as the mandarin. Yen How; Mr. Bert Barton is a capital Li; Mr. Harry Turner is a dignified Sir Bengo Preston; Mr. F. W. Ford is good as the Emperor, and Mrs. Althea Hyde does satisfactory work as Poppy.

PLYMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr J. Langdon Lee.—The attraction this week is Mr. A. Clifton Anderson's company in the emotional melodrama, Held Apart. Mr. Anderson, as James Douglas presents the part in a manner satisfactory to the most critical; Mr. Leonard Lawrence is a quiet yet manly John Douglas, Laird of Glen Ross; Mr. A. W. Norman, as Captain Ford, proves to be a shrewd member of the Australian Mounted Police; and Mr. Robert B. Drysdale is the Andrew McPherson, his assumption of the Scotch dialect being complete in every detail. Miss Ethyle Murray acts capably as the distasteful Countess de Castro, a Creole; and Miss Ruby Loncraine, as the heroine, Sybil Grey, displays fine emotional feeling. Other members of the company fulfilling less prominent parts are Messrs. T. Kirkwood, T. Weymms, and the Misses Emily Levettez, Winifred Love, and Paget Ford.

GRAND THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Williams; Assistant Acting-Manager, Mr. Ernest Grant.—After a highly successful six months' run, Mr. Percy Williams's capable stock company have arrived at their final week's performances, and present as a farewell piece, The Shaugraun. Mr. Edward Lloyd is a smart Captain Molineux; Mr. Alfred Brandon, as R. Ffolliott, the hero, makes a most effective study of this difficult part; Mr. Durford Geddes, as Corry Kinchela, is a villain of the first water, and Mr. Clavering Craig, as Harvey Duff, is capable; Mr. Larry Clements creates any amount of fun in the title-rôle; Miss Lilian Mildred is a fascinating heroine; Miss M. C. Livesey could hardly have improved on the part of Moya; and Miss Caroline Fenton is a humorous Mrs. O'Kelly.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. Jack Field.—A diversified and attractive bill of fare is provided for the week. Hardeen, the handcuff king, mystifies large audiences by the ease and ability with which he frees himself from handcuffs and manacles; C. Emlyn Jones and his ladies' quartette of International singers are loudly applauded for their high-class vocal efforts; the Three Amaranths are the smartest trio of lady dancers who have visited the Palace for a considerable period; Rachel Lowe catches on immensely with her topical song, "The Progressive Woman;" Les Sados are a clever pair of jugglers and equilibrists; Cliff and Kean work hard in their comedy and dancing act; and Wal Robbins is a humorous black and white comedian. The other bookings are Spry and Monti, Charles Vincent, and Vernon's Pictures.

PONTYPRIDD. — ROYAL CLARENCE THEATRE. — Owners and Proprietors, Mrs. Trenchard and Miss L. Jones; Manager, Mr. Charles Trenchard. — A return visit of Mr. Fred Benton and his powerful company in The French Spy has been enthusiastically received here. The chief interest is naturally centred in Mr. Benton's able characterisation of Fritz. Mr. Beresford Lovatt is seen to advantage as Capt. Somers; Count Romanoff is ably played by Mr. Max Coutts; Mr. L. C. Thorpe scores well as General Trepoff; Mr. Charles Digby is worthy of praise as Viscount Alexis; Lieut. Maxwell is effectively portrayed by Mr. L. Chaseby; the part of Petroff Romanoff is in the able hands of Mr. Geo. Sherraton; Miss Madge Devereux admirably impersonates the Countess Andre; Miss A. Harrison-Tate cleverly portrays Olga; Julie is carefully represented by Miss Cissie Cleveland.

PORTSMOUTH. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Bell.—Mr. George Dance's principal company, with The Cingalee, is here for the week, gaining unbounded applause from large audiences. The Baboo lawyer, Chambhuddy Ram, played by Mr. Jack Crichton, causes plenty of merriment; Mr. Cyril Dane takes the part of the Hon. Harry Vereker in good style and with great success; Boobhamba is presented by Mr. Helier Le Maistre in a masterly way, his very powerful voice being heard to advantage; Sir Peter Loftus, in the hands of Mr. Grafton Williams, is a most amusing personage; and Mr. Ethelbert Edwards as Bobby Warren is admirable. Miss Georgina Middleton gives a very fine portrayal of the Cingalee girl Nanoya, her charming playing and singing captivating the house; Peggy Sabine is delightfully rendered by Miss Gladys Guy; Miss Marjory Clark makes an excellent Lady Pat; and Miss Essie Perrin dances very prettily as Angy. The additional chorus and special orchestra, under the able direction of Mr. Peter Flitcroft, deserve mention.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. T. E. Agate.—The popular moral drama, The Sin of Her Childhood is being played here this week by Mr. J. A. Campbell's capital company.—Miss Mary Fulton, in the character of Mary Harpel, plays with great histrionic power and charm; Mr. Austin Milroy as Stephen Haysel sustains the part in a fittingly callous and hard manner; the Rev. Alan Grey finds an excellent exponent in Mr. Charles Fancourt; Capt. John Thornton is ably undertaken by Mr. Wordley Hulse; Mr. Hugh Brady as the rollicking Irishman, Barney O'Reilly, and Miss Nellie Hook as Eliza Muggins are admirable in the comedy parts; and Little Dot Moss as Hannah Spry deserves a word of praise for her capable singing and dancing. The mounting and floral decorations are much admired.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Secretary, Mr. W. Pratt.—Topping the bill here for the week is Arthur Prince, with his extraordinary ventriloquial entertainment, crowded houses giving him a hearty welcome; Carrie Joy, a clever and pleasing soubrette, meets with approval; Billy Bowlby, with his stump orations, proves most diverting; Amy Elvira, burlesque actress, is well to the fore with her smart business; Bruil and Hemsley in comedy act, Fun in a Music Shop, are amusing; Kavados, juggler and cannon ball performer, gives an admirable turn that is much appreciated; Grapho and Jackson in the sketch, In a Restaurant, are applauded for their many personations; the Schiavonys, lady and gentleman acrobats, are exceedingly clever; and other capable turns in the programme are J. W. Ellison, light comedian; Sisters St. Julian, harmonising vocalists and expert dancers; and Payne's Bio-photoscope, with some new pictures.

PRESTON. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Executors of the late Mr. Wm. Johnson; Manager, Mr. Stephen Pritt.—Mr. Mouillot's company is here this week in The Geisha, and (on Friday night) The Greek Slave. Miss Lydia Bland gives a pleasing impersonation of O Mimosa San, her artistic vocalism being well appreciated. Miss Doris Langdon is seen to advantage as O Juliette Diamante; Miss Edith Adeson makes a captivating Mollie Seamour, and is an exceptionally good dancer; Miss Winifred Knightly acquits herself well as Lady Constance; Mr. Wilfred Heath as Reginald Fairfax renders his songs excellently; and Mr. Edward Pollard, Mr. Ryton Hoare, Mr. T. Squire, and Miss Emily Lovell are entirely satisfactory in their respective parts. Mr. Edward Kipling scores a success by his mirth-provoking delineation of Wun Hi; Mr. J. H. Booth is a droll Marquis Imari; Mr. Harry Reynolds a quaint Takemine; and Mr. Albert B. Hunter sings acceptably as Capt. Katana. Praise is due to the chorus, and the music is satisfactorily rendered under the direction of Chevalier Legrand.

PRINCE'S THEATRE. — Proprietors, Messrs. Sawyer and Woodruff.—Mr. Will Onda's vaudeville company is appearing here this week. At the head of the bill is Mr. John Higgins, who gives a wonderful display of jumping; Mr. Will McIvor sings several songs, which earn well-merited applause; Mr. Rowland Hill is a comedian with good songs and patter; a clever ventriloquial turn is supplied by Mr. Gillin; Blanche and Diacott are two clever cyclists, who perform on an inclined track; Miss Daisy Morell is an accomplished vocalist; Miss Babs Lloyd is a smart little lady, who contributes several songs and dances; Mr. Will Raine and company successfully present a new novelty sketch, The Motor Maniac. Other good turns are the Sisters Kilner, vocalists and dancers, and the De Cars.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H Broadhead and Sons; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. E. J. Linsdell.—Miss Ada Fawn heads the bill here, and is warmly applauded for her taking songs. Miss Marie Jones also is well received in her quick-change duologue, The Way to Win a Bet. The Juggling Geraldos present many new tricks in excellent style. Others who contribute successfully are Little Dando, eccentric comedian; Mabel La Blanche, ballad vocalist; Hardie Palm, comedian; the Four Sherrys, in a comedy act; Carr and Rose, the humorous singing duo; and Percy Farrimond, the Lancashire singing collier.

RADCLIFFE. — GRAND OPERA HOUSE. — Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Geo. T. Sante; Acting-Manager, Mr. James Boothman.—Miss Florence Baines and company are paying a successful return visit in the farce Miss Lancashire, Limited. Miss Baines almost immediately gets the audience into good humour, and continuous roars of laughter are frequent throughout the performance. Miss Annie Mitchell as Eva Lancashire is delightful, and Miss Pattie Groves wins golden opinions as Bridget Thomson. Mr. Burt Burton gives a fine rendering of Isadore Moses, and Mr. David Donaldson is good as John Higgins, and Mr. Payne Fletcher deserves high praise as Farmer Thompson. Mr. Walter Hicks as Grant and Mr. Will Casey as Herbert Fox are both vivacious and eccentric.

RAMSGATE.—AMPHITHEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry Bowman.—A popular attraction has been furnished here during the week in the shape of exhibitions of Gale and Polden's animated pictures, showing scenes of naval and military life. The series is entitled "The King's Service: Afloat and Ashore." The pictures effectively mirror the daily routine of the services, and there are in addition, humorous and topical films of first-rate interest. Musical sketches are introduced by Wilfred Lyndon, society entertainer, and there are illustrated songs by Miss Maudie Wright. Some fine effects are worked in with the pictures. There have been large and appreciative audiences.

RAWTENSTALL. — GRAND THEATRE. — Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. George Dickinson.—This week we have Mr. James Hare's company in A Destroyer of Men. Mr. Chas. Bickell makes an excellent Michael Mischla; Mr. Harold B. Lewis is conspicuous for his interpretation of Count Starevitch; Mr. Hill Cremer does well as Paul; Mr. Arthur Swain makes a capital Linievitch and Mr. James Hare a clever Carl Mischla; whilst Mr. Frank Orchard is successful as Strelitzki. Miss Gladys Lloyd is a delightful Vidal Ravel, and Miss Irene Clifford shines in her impersonation of Olga Mischla, and Miss Alice Buckland is responsible for bright relief with her humorous rendering of the part of Nina Pattakake.

READING.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. Michael Dempsey.—Mr. A. Hardy's company is appearing this week in Beauty and the Barge. The part of Capt. Barley is played by Mr. Blake Adams with much humour, and all the other parts are well filled.

TOWN HALL.—A grand flying matinée was given here on Friday, at which Miss Camille Clifford, Mr. Lionel Brough, and a number of other well-known artists were announced to appear.

ROCHDALE. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Managing-Director, Mr. W. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Hague. —Lady Kinton's Necklace is the attraction here this week. It is a play in which plenty of scope is given for the introduction of some clever illusions, remarkably well executed by Le Roy, Talma, and Bosco. The part of Prof. Le Gros is in the able hands of Mr. Frank Melrose; Mr. Henry Danson cleverly portrays Robert Fenton; Mr. Stafford Smith acts with effect the part of Lord Kinton; and Mr. John S. Chamberlain makes the most of Bothwell Daraville; Willie Atom is amusing as Billy Brighton; and Mr. Robert A. Innes is heard to advantage as Rufus Merivale; Miss Marie Ault creates roars of laughter as Annie Jones; Miss Queenie Fraser Brunner acts with success the part of Lucy Daraville; and Miss May Harley is a capital Mary Gray. Some of the illusions by Le Roy, Talma, and Bosco completely mystify the audience.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Smith and Co.—Hands Up! tops the bill here. It is a laughable sketch cleverly performed by the Pender troupe; Miss Marie Blythe is a popular vocalist; Carl Lynn submits a capital turn of animal mimicry; Geo. Young, blind musician, is another artist who finds great favour; the Continental stilt walkers; Golden and Grey, in a sketch, entitled The Missing Will; the Two Whites, comedy artists; and Vernon's Bioscope, complete the list.

EMPIRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Thomas Hargreaves; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Hargreaves. —The Marlo Dunham Trio on the horizontal bars, perform some daring feats; Billy, the talking horse, introduced by Jas. De Voye, is a highly intelligent animal. Others turns are submitted by Ada Twibell, burlesque artist; Ted Young, versatile comedian; Mozondos, eccentric speciality artists; Franks and Thomas, duettists; Alice Maude, mimic and male impersonator; and the Empire Bioscope.

ROTHERHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. Holbery Hardy.—Mr. Henry Swinerd's No. 1 company is here this week with Dare Devil Dorothy, under the direction of Mr. J. W. Cordiner. Mr. Walter Ashley is a smart Captain George Fielding; Mr. Henry C. Ward is seen to advantage as Captain Edward Dudley; Mr. Arthur Hartley scores as Hawkins; and Mr. Will Brereton is an amusing Silas Crump. Miss Nellie Harcourt is a sprightly Judith, and Misses Mabel and Lillie Blake as Polly and Mary Ann respectively are deserving of mention; Miss Marie Vere is an effective Ruth Montrose, and Miss Nita Clavering an excellent Dorothy Montrose. Special musical items are presented by Miss Nita Clavering, Miss Marie Vere, and Messrs. Will Brereton and Walter Ashley, and Miss Mabel and Lillie Blake give an excellent mirror dance.

RUGBY. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Drew Mackintosh.—This week Kennedy's animated pictures and a good variety show are being presented here. The pictures are excellent. The turns include Miss Madeline May, American songstress; Mons. Reni and his dog; Martin Hope, eccentric comedian, who is very funny; the Cedrics, who score a success in their comedy act; Lulu, the lady instrumentalist, who displays great ability; Sands and Vincent, the comedy pair; Vela, in her wire act; and Mlle. Corlette, vocalist.

SALFORD.—PRINCE OF WALES'S.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. E. B. Goulden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harold Goulden.—Mr. Jack Haddon's No. 1 company is this week presenting the thrilling drama Under the Russian Flag. Mr. George Herbert makes a fine General Romanoff; Miss Marie Rayner creditably portrays Luka Marischla; Vera Vassiloff is successfully presented by Miss Elaine Vanbrugh; Michael and Ivan are respectively well played by Mr. Edward Avinal and Mr. Cecil Merton; Mr. Jack Haddon gives a clever impersonation of Captain Demetrius; Mr. P. Haming is well placed as Alex Skopolopski; Mr. Hal Forde as Peter Poulski, and Miss Violet Lytton as Orgarita, furnish plenty of amusement, and Wolf Marischla is a good study by Mr. Charles Liddon.

REGENT THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary, Mr. J. C. Patterson.—An excellent programme this week includes Miss Ada Reeve, who appeared at the first house on Monday evening. Among the other attractions are Lillie Soutar, comedienne; Alice Raymond, lady cornettist and bugler, assisted by John Kurcamp, in a clever and pleasing performance; Walter Wade, comedian and mimic; Fred Mulvey and Minnie Miriam, in their sketch, In the Studio; Rosie Lloyd, comedienne; Happy Tom Parker, comedian and dancer; and Austin and Austin, comic acrobats.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. C. H. Wentworth.—The chief contributors to this week's programme are Peter Gotz, light-weight wrestler; and MacKinnon's Scottish Meisters, in a vocal scena. Other good turns include the Two Falcons, good hand balancers; Little Tichborne, song and big boot dancer; Mlle. Hayden, with her miniature theatre; the Brothers Esdale, patter comedians; Ernest Montifiore and company, in The Little Colonel; Field and Lewis, burlesque artists; and the Edwards Trio, jugglers and balancers.

SCARBOROUGH.—LONDESBOROUGH THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Waddington; Manager, Mr. J. T. Carpenter.—Mr. Ian Maclaren's Old English Comedy Company is here this week. On Monday evening Mr. Maclaren delighted the audience with David Garrick, taking the title-rôle with very marked ability. He was ably assisted by Miss Edith Coleman, who as Mabel Brackson was all that could be desired. As the Hon. Bob Fairley, Mr. Philip Gordon has a part that suits him admirably, and he acted up to it. As Mr. Peters, Mr. Whitford Kane gave a clever representation of a City gentleman; Alderman Brackson was in the very able hands of Mr. Edward Landor; and Mrs. Henry Howard as Arabella Johnson adapted herself in an energetic fashion to a difficult part. During the week She Stoops to Conquer, The School for Scandal, and The Merchant of Venice were also announced.

PEOPLE'S PALACE AND AQUARIUM.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Morgan; Secretary and Manager, Mr. Walter Kitchingman.—Variety is still the order of the day, amongst the artists being Geo. Gulliver, ventriloquist, who is a master in the art of deception; Barefoot and Carson, comedians, are very funny; Flo Penley and Geo. English, in old English comedies, strike a line that finds distinct favour with the audience; Tom E. Odlin is a comedian with much originality; Sandy and Carl are clever acrobatic dancers, and submit a comic boxing act; Eric Temple is a very dainty comedienne, and sings well; Vernon's Imperial Bioscope is as popular as ever, with excellent pictures.

THE HIPPODROME.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Geo. Zalva.—A good programme is submitted to patrons here this week; Lilly and Albert are clever gymnasts, and execute their feats with precision; Harry Hayton is full of comicalities; the Two Wambas submit an up-to-date comedy musical act; Louis Kerno sings coon songs in a polished manner, and is well received; and the Lovelaces find favour with their illustrated songs. An important item of the programme is the animated pictures, which are of considerable variety.

SEACOMBE.—IRVING THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. James Kiernan.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company is here this week with The Christian. Mr. E. Stanton-Sharp is a capital John Storm, and Miss Laura Walker gives a powerful rendering of Glory Quayle. Parson Quayle (Mr. Percy Johnson), Father Lamplugh (Mr. Harry Colbeck), and Archdeacon Wealthy (Mr. Phipps Stanley) are all well played by their respective exponents. Mr. Percy Twyman as Lord Robert Ure, and Mr. Duncan Yarrow as Horatio Drake, give satisfaction; as also does Mr. Anthony Raules as the Faro King. Miss Aggie Royal gives a pathetic rendering of Aggie Jones; and Miss Alice Maude presents a capital Mrs. Callander.

SEAHAM HARBOUR.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. A. C. Harrison.—Mr. W. Reuben Payne's company is here this week with The World's Verdict. Mr. Cecil R. Thompson is a capable Sir Geoffrey Woodleigh, whose scheming nephew, Jasper Woodleigh, is carefully drawn by Mr. Albert Guyon; George Ashford is vigorously represented by Mr. Harry Stuart; Mr. W. Reuben Payne is responsible for much hilarity as Jeremiah Screw; another good humorous character is Sammy Carrot, as played by Mr. W. G. Wesley; and the maniac, Nathan Black, is played with realism by Mr. Eric Hudson. Florence Woodleigh is artistically portrayed by Miss Beatrice Fitzhugh; a sympathetic Nellie Ashford is found in Miss May Axon; as Sally Miss Anna Walton is popular; Cora Cassilis is carefully acted by Miss Lily Roselle.

SHEERNESS. — THE HIPPODROME. — General-Manager, Mr. F. Leighton.—This popular place of amusement still continues to draw crowded houses. Topping the bill for this week are Hayman and Franklin, who create a favourable impression in the comedy sketch, A Matrimonial Agency; Eddie Stidder and Gwennie Dunbar, in a musical potpourri act, are well received; Frederic Neiman presents a capital entertainment with his ventriloquial minstrels; Florence Leonard, soprano vocalist, wins admiration; and Mabelle May, comedienne, is likewise much appreciated. The remaining items include Charles Cardow, comedian, and Harry Morgan, coon song and dance artist; the programme concludes with a capital selection of pictures from Vernon's Imperial Bioscope.

PALACE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Phil Reymond.—The company engaged here this week is fully up to the standard for which the Palace is noted. Miss Ethel Mordaunt is a charming ballad and descriptive vocalist; Mr. Frank Godfrey makes a hit with his songs and recitations; Mr. Horace Sade Leggett is a capital comedian and champion dancer; the Maynard and France company produce a first-class dramatic sketch, All for Gold; Miss Topsy Levane is making a great and deserved success, her songs being capitally rendered. She is also a clever and graceful dancer. The Elshaw company conclude with a screaming comedy sketch, A Perfect Lady.

SHEFFIELD. — LYCEUM THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont. — La Poupée was again played to a good house on Monday by Mr. C. P. Levilly's company. Miss Stella Gastelle as Alesia repeated a performance replete with grace, vivacity, and vocal charm; Mr. W. H. Powell proved a great success in the rôle of Hilarius; Miss A. Graham was a handsome Madame Hilarius; and Miss Kitty Cavendish made a comely Henri. Mr. Vernon Reed was effective as Belthazar; Mr. William Griffin played the part of the Baron on approved opera-bouffe lines; Mr. Frederick Hobbes acted and sang well as Maxime; and Mr. Aubrey Carr as Launcelot ably depicted the embarrassments of that shy young lover, singing also with sympathetic expression.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont.—Lady Madcap began a welcome return visit to Sheffield on Monday, when the serio-comic adventures of Oroya Brown, cleverly impersonated by Mr. Harold Parkes, kept a large audience in the best of humours. Miss Mabelle Dillon, in the title-rôle, acted with the requisite high spirits, and sang in a tuneful manner. Other characters were admirably represented by the talented members of Mr. George Dance's specially-selected company, and the delightful play was in every way a success.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. W. D. Forsdike; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. W. Ramsay.—Mr. Jas. Willard's popular company headed by the Alexandra favourite, Miss Grace Lester, opened to an enthusiastic house on Monday in the thrilling domestic and sensational drama A Woman's Pluck.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Proprietors, The Moss' Empires Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Alan D. Dunbar.—A well-arranged bill of fare has been submitted to crowded audiences this week, the star turn being the screamingly funny pantomimic absurdity The Bricklayers, rattled through by those agile performers the Boissetts; Mr. J. H. Milburn, Sheffield's old pantomime favourite, returns to the vicinity of his early triumphs as a vocal comedian, and meets with a cordial welcome. Mr. Ben Albert is a humorous comic vocalist; the Misses Lucia and Viati, wire performers, are pretty, graceful, and accomplished; Baker and Balfe are two expert instrumentalists; and other clever and successful turns are Madame Albertine Melich and her well-trained parrots, pigeons, &c.; the Bros. Hayes, comedians and dancers; Miss Lillian Lowe, a prepossessing vocalist; and Miss Daisy James, a dashing serio-comic vocalist, who does a clever imitation of Miss Camille Clifford as the "Gibson Girl." The American Bioscope winds up a delightful programme.

GRAND PALACE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Richard Ralli.—The following artists are appearing here to appreciative audiences: Mr. Paul Courtney's popular combination; Mr. S. S. Peake's company, in a dramatic sketch; Miss Madge Field, comedienne; Mr. C. F. Best; Mr. Woolmer Young; Mr. Eric Graham; and Simosa San. Pallister's Biograph remains a popular feature in the Grand programme.

SHILDON. — EMPIRE.—Sole Lessee, Mr. R. Lomas; Acting and Resident Manager, Mr. M. Baker.—The company here this week is an exceptionally strong one. The Camerons (Jim and Marie) are placed in their right position at the top; their comedy sketch, Plough Boy and Lady Guide, is one which the audience heartily enjoyed. Alexander Fox, ventriloquist, keeps the audience amused with his wooden figures; Flo Beck, clever comedienne, J. Taylor, clog dancer, and Lukos, man monkey, are very good; Marie de Voy is a favourite; and Leo Fallowfield, quaint comedian, Dan Ashton, singing collier, and the Lomascope, with good pictures, complete the bill.

SHREWSBURY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Licensee and Business-Manager, Mr. W. C. Dornton.—Mr. Chas. Macdona's bright and thoroughly capable company is here this week with the attractive musical play, Three Little Maids. Miss Kate Graham-Beck is a most successful Lady St. Mallory; and the Misses Cora Lingard, Daisy Sylverton, and Eva Weigh impersonate the daughters of the Vicar of Market Mallory in a creditable manner. Miss Laura Wright is a droll Gretchen, and her dance with "Cupid" is loudly encored. Miss Hilda Stencker, Miss Daisy Goldsack, and Miss Edith Maynard are an attractive trio as protegées of Lady St. Mallory; Miss Maude Mudie merits praise as Miss Price; Mr. Victor Kerr is an amusing and clever Daisy; Mr. Guy Williams plays with care and ability as Bryan Molyneux; Mr. C. Leverton makes a good Vicar; Mr. Chas. Caffrey is a lively Cupid; and Mr. Eric Barrington is a smart Mme. L'Orme.

SOUTHAMPTON. — GRAND THEATRE. — Lessee and Manager, Mr. Fredk. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. Arthur Weston.—Mr. Robert Courtneidge's company is playing a very successful first visit with The Blue Moon. Several favourites are included in the cast, viz., Messrs. Alfred Clark (the Major), A. Wykes Ashdowne (Bobbie Scott), Alfred Beers (Moolraj), and Reginald Switz (Private Chas. Taylor), all of whom do exceedingly well, and are mainly responsible for the success of the play. Among the ladies, Miss Florence Imeson is delightfully vivacious as Millicent, and Miss Clarice Lockstone sings sweetly as Chandra Nil. The other members of the company render good support, the chorus doing good work under the bâton of Mr. Carlton Mason.

PALACE. — Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. William Trussell.—The pièce de résistance is Chas. Majilton's sketch, The Trippers, which is productive of great merriment; a capital turn is that given by Mr. Chas. Parker's sextet of entertainers, known as the Aeolians; the Leotard Bros., hat throwers; the Bros. Durrant and the Three Rubys, acrobats; Spencer and Marks, comedians; and Minnie d'Aubyn, burlesque actress, complete the bill.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. F. Mouillot and W. de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Manager, Mr Harold P. Howell.—The star turn is that given by Lockhart's elephants, who are put through a wonderful series of tricks by Capt. Taylor; Mlle. Aladina and her clever cockatoos also give an interesting performance; De Henau, armless wonder; the Kentucky Four, including Topsy, a smart dancer; Dale and O'Malley, cross-talk comedians; Keir and Kempton, vocal duettists; Chas. J. Johnson, coloured comedian and dancer; and Will Fredo, comedian, also submit acceptable turns.

SOUTHEND-ON-SEA.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Empire Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Geo. Conquest; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. Lingham Power.—For the first three nights of this week Mr. Lawrence Brough presented The Lady of Ostend. Mr. Henry Hampson made an ideal Dick Whortles; Mr. Charles Groves, jun., gave a worthy portrayal of Joseph Carbury; Mr. Lawrence Brough, in the rôle of Le Baron, was seen to advantage; Mr. Watkin Wynn was decidedly good as Toby Krockett; and Mr. Harry Collier was successful as John Humbert. The Lady of Ostend found in Miss Daisy Cook a creditable exponent, and Miss Ida Vynall cleverly interpreted the part of Jane. Matilda Carbury had in Miss Bessie Harrison a clever exponent. Miss Evelyn Ormonde gave a pleasing characterisation of Millie Grace, and Miss Kate Milford's Dorothy Whortles gave entire satisfaction.

SOUTHPORT.—OPERA HOUSE, WINTER GARDENS.—Secretary, Mr. R. Singleton.—On Monday evening Mr. William Greet's excellent company presented for the first time at this theatre

Sprightly, up-to-date comediennes; Bosanquet in an illuminated speciality scena introducing the singing violin and his Bosanquephone; Lozell, sensational gymnast. Other good items are contributed by Fannie Humber, instrumentalist, comedienne, and expert skipping-rope dancer; Rose Waller, comedienne; G. W. Foster, comedian; Alec Kenedy, actor-vocalist; and the Bioscope, with the latest films.

PIER PAVILION.—Proprietors, The Southport Pier Co., Ltd.; Manager, Mr. Charles F. Johnson.—The following good all-round combination of variety artists are appearing here this week:—The Tennessee Guards, in their marvellous lightning drill and wall-scaling exhibition; Lillian Hodge, ballad vocalist; Leslie and Player, comedy duettists and patterers; Tom Moore, character comedian; Monti Santos, the original comedy coon juggler; James Alston, comedian, in his amusing parody "Starve her Joe"; the Paolias, speciality performers; Pete and Minnie Lee, in a sketch entitled The Scotchman's Visit to London; and the Bio-Tableaux.

SOUTH SHIELDS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. John and Fred Coulson.—A powerful company is here this week presenting Lucky Durham to good houses. As John Durham, Mr. Edmund Kennedy, an actor of considerable ability, stands out in bold relief; Mr. Arthur Leigh portrays the Hon. Reginald Steighton very cleverly; Mr. Robert Forsyth makes an able Lord Mountfallen, and the same may be said of Mr. A. E. Walker as Mr. Vallerton; Helen Valerton is charmingly played by Miss Alice Esther Belmore; Mrs. Durham is in the able hands of Miss Louisa Gourlay, and Miss Frances Wolviston is godd as Lady Mountfallen. The minor parts are all capably performed.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Richard Thornton; General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. F. Thompson.—Fred Karno's inimitable comedians are here another week in their sketch Jail Birds, which loses none of its popularity. A film representing the recent great fight between Gunner Moir and Jack Palmer is shown by the American Bioscope, and the movements are narrated to the audience at intervals by a lecturer. The bill also includes Charles J. Jerome, speciality artist; D. W. Watson, cornettist; Ruby Wentworth, a clever coon comedienne; L. W. Harris, versatile comedian; and Mona Macdonald, comedienne.

TIVOLI.—Proprietors, Messrs. J. K. Hall and Jos. Sweeney; Business-Manager, Mr. Harry Burns.—The chief turn is Mr. Alix Lukos, who gives a good entertainment in "Pictures in the Fire"; Maggie Rimmer is well received, her latest song being "I drive the motor"; Nancy St. John is a charming comedienne, her dancing being much admired; other enjoyable turns are Bros. Ralston, James McNamee, Charles Craston, and the Bioscope.

STAFFORD. — LYCEUM THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. James Elphinstone. — From this week on the theatre will be known as the Stafford Empire and Lyceum, and there will be two performances nightly. The bill this week includes Craig, Rose, and Craig, gymnastic experts, in a smart and clever show; Percy Victor's minstrels—highly-trained dogs; Ivy Gallard, comedienne and dancer; Sphinx and Sphinx, magicians; Empress, who thoroughly mystifies the audience as a handcuff expert; Ray and Miles, eccentric jugglers; Eddie Clay, American comedy musician; and E. W. Selman, comedian and dancer.

STALYBRIDGE. — GRAND THEATRE. — Sole Lessee, Mr. Louis Ellison; General-Manager, Mr. Eugene E. Hardie; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. D. Oswald.—The Alberto troupe are excellent as head, hand, and wire equilibrists; the selections of The Greys, operatic duettists, are chosen with taste, and are loudly cheered; Dickinson and Johnson give a fine aquatic exhibition; Will Dalton, a quaint comedian, causes much merriment in a parody on a popular song; the Sisters Brand, duettists and dancers; Dan Paulton, comedian; Rosie Sylvester, comedienne; Bros. Brooks, comedians; T. C. Jaques, comedian; and Aletheon, in speciality act, meet with much favour.

ST. HELENS. — THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, The St. Helens Theatre, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. McLeod Loader.—This week we are favoured with a welcome return visit of Mr. Wentworth Croke's company in The Christian. Mr. Frank Tennent displays power and ability as John Storm, and Miss Grace Chalmer's impersonation of Glory Quayle leaves little to be desired. Both are capitally supported.

HIPPODROME. — Proprietors, Messrs. Barrasford, Will Sley, and Fred Wilmott; Resident-Manager, Mr. A. V. Carnell.—Parks' Eton Boys head the bill here this week. Others appearing are the Ringling Trio, in a laughable sketch entitled The Manager's Lunch; Miss Emilie Warren, illustrated ballad vocalist; Miss Ruby Dahl, with "The Merry Mannikins"; Vincent, acrobatic table expert; Myles and May, "the Merry Huntsmen"; Luggins and Mulone, black and white comedians; and Miss Rosie Elliott, comedienne.

STOCKPORT.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Revill.—At Cripple Creek is being capably played here by Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Frank Blow's company, Mr. Stanley Bedwell acts the character of Joe Mayfield in manly style; and Mr. Chas. H. Lester makes a capital villain, Martin Mason; whilst Mr. Arthur D. Layland impersonates the faithful Indian Wahketah, with much power and effect; Mr. Sydney Benson is genuinely funny as the negro Ben White; and an amusing character is Reggie Harwood in the hands of Mr. Will Hook; Belle Gordon is charmingly played by Miss Lily Beagle; marked ability is shown by Miss Agnes Verity, as "Dynamite" Ann; and Miss Daisy Carlton delightfully fills the part of Maggie Mason.

EMPIRE.—Proprietors, the Stockport Empire Theatre Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Black.—The Three Vaudevilles, comedy vocalists and instrumentalists, who head the bill here, have been thoroughly entertaining; a quaint comedian is George Collins, whose feminine make-up is distinctly funny; Jean Seul, illusionist, is cordially greeted; the popular comedian, Henry Carlton, and company, in The Window Cleaner, causes plenty of laughter; Mlle. Victoria Dagmar and comedy assistant on the horizontal bar are highly pleasing and clever; and Jennie Johns, comedienne; J. C. Scatter, comedian and clog dancer; and Jock Walker, Scotch comedian, are successful.

ALBERT HALL.—The "Times" animated pictures, under the direction of Mr. Frank Abbott, are being displayed here this week to crowded audiences.

STOKE. — HIPPODROME. — Proprietor, Mr. T. Allen Edwardes; Manager, Mr. H. Miller.—Miss Madge Grey heads the bill this week, and is distinctly successful with her mimicry; the Two Hartfords, in their clever cycle act, are the recipients of much applause; the Virginians, in their plantation dances, are capital; Miss Adelina Collier (supported by Mr. Hal Collier) is seen in a clever sketch, The Lost Heiress; Mark Leslie, the dusky prince, is successful in his songs and dances; Grant and Allen are, as usual, most diverting; Marco, as an illusionist, is well to the front; and Nat Watkins also scores a hit.

STOURBRIDGE. — ALHAMBRA THEATRE.—Manageress, Miss Maude Lynton.—Mr. T. Arthur Jones and company are paying a return visit with the drama, Life's Sweetest Sins. Amongst the capable artists who form the cast, the most prominent is Mr. Oswald Douglas, who, as Dr. Colbroke, was especially good. Mr. T. Arthur Jones as Captain Marston played in his usually clever style; while Miss Hazel Dent as Doreen Rivers proved an accomplished actress. Others who deserve mention are Messrs. Robert Sawin, Clem Horlock, Fred Winstone, Edgar Morgan, and Misses Mary Ainslie and Elsie Watton.

SUNDERLAND.—AVENUE THEATRE. — Director and Manager, Mr. Chas. E. Machin.—Mr. George Musgrove's The Prince of Pilsen company is proving a strong attraction here. As Carl Otto, the princely Heidelberg student, Mr. J. B. Fox creates a favourable impression; Mr. Martin Adeson infuses much breezy heartiness into his rendition of the American brewer, Hans Wagner; Mr. G. Villiers Arnold is smart as Lieut. Tom Wagner, and Mr. Lawrence Wensley is successful as the Earl of Shrimpton. Mr. Alfred Selley is active as the versatile French waiter, Francois, and Mr. G. O. Ugiass is commendable as Sergt. Bril. Miss Maise Ettinger sustains the rôle of Mrs. Maddison Crocker with graceful vigour, singing her allotted numbers with excellent taste; Miss Isa Bowman, as Nellie Wagner, both sings and acts charmingly; Miss Nellie Barnwell is in evidence as Edith Adams; and Miss Nell Emerald's rendering of the French maid, Sidonie, is sufficiently vivacious, and has all the necessary abandon; Miss Meg Hamylton is a sprightly Jimmie. The augmented orchestra is under the baton of Mr. T. M. Tunbridge, and the staging leaves nothing to be desired.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. E. Machin; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jos. Hemingway.—The intensely interesting play, The Golden Ladder, appeals strongly to the devotees of stirring modern drama. It is presented by Miss Mary Austin and Mr. E. Vivian Edmond's company. Mr. Wm. Clayton, as the zealous young missionary, Frank Thornhill, plays with well-sustained dignity and earnestness; a fine character study of the kind-hearted Samuel Peckaby is submitted by Mr. Joseph Rowland; Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds as the unscrupulous Michael Severn leaves little to be desired, receiving all the necessary assistance from his accomplice, M. Peranza, played by Mr. Graham Winsford. Miss Mary Austin's embodiment of Lilian Grant stands out as a strong histrionic effort that secures the plaudits of her audience; Miss Mimi Edwards is commendable as Mrs. Peckaby, and a world of praise is due to Miss May Ediss for her excellent rendition of the child-part of Lily.

PALACE OF VARIETIES. — Lessees and Managers, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Managers, Messrs. Browne and Stringer.—The premier position is this week held by Gustave Fasola, the oriental wonder worker and mystifier; the Martelloni troupe of lady acrobats also figure large upon the bill; J. W. Rickaby, comedian, is also recalled; a successful sketch is submitted by James Willard and company, entitled Did He Deserve It? The programme also includes Matt. Wilkinson and company in The Registry Office sketch; Will Cornish, hand-bell ringer; the Steinway Quartette, in "Songs of the Sea"; Herbert Clifton, comedian; and Vernon's pictures.

VICTORIA HALL.—Proprietors, The Sunderland Corporation, Ltd.—Pringle's North American Animated Picture Company continues to draw good houses here. In addition to an excellent selection of pictures, there is a good band and a smart vaudeville company, including, amongst others, Chocd's clever performing dogs.

SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD.—KING'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Edward Gray.—Mr. Julian Malvern opened here on Monday with his capital company in the powerful drama, I Defy the World. The parts are all in good hands, and those who achieve distinct success include Mr. Percy Ballard as Leon Darville, Mr. Charles Conway as Laroche, Miss Violet Crauford, who gains sympathy as Blanche Darville, and Miss Rosalie Heath, who ably portrays the character of Pauline Delaporte.

SWINDON.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Responsible Manager, Mr. Alfred Manners.—Mr. Eade Montefiore is this week presenting that popular old drama, The Streets of London, performed by a strong company. Mr. William Rokeby must be highly commended on his excellent portrayal of the part of Badger; Mr. Riddell Robinson is seen to advantage as Bloodgood; and Mr. Reginald Palgrave is successful as Mark Livingstone. Miss Winifred Ingham is prominent and winning as Lucy; while Miss Dorothy Cacey submits a clever impersonation of the banker's daughter. Mr. Joe Bracewell is capital as Puffy; and Miss Adelaide Gracey as Mrs. Puffy; while Miss Florence Moore as Dan, their son, is very pleasing. Mr. Clifford Armitage as Capt. Fairweather and Mr. Charles Kean as Paul deserve mention for good work. The local fire brigade effectively assist in the fire scene in the last act.

TODMORDEN.—TOWN HALL.—Proprietors, Todmorden Corporation; Secretary, Mr. H. Stansfield.—Mr. Charles Macdona's company opened here on Monday in The Chinese Honeymoon. Miss Francis Olgar as Soo-Soo was piquant and pleasing; Miss Florence Wilton as Mrs. Pineapple proved a great success; Miss Alma Bolton as Mrs. Brown, looked the part to the life; and Miss Kitty Clayton brought down the house with her antics and amusing sallies as Fi-Fi. The part of Tom Hatherton was ably played by Mr. C. F. Howard; and Mr. Edwin Sykes as Hi Lung, Lord High Admiral, did exceedingly well. Hang Chow, the Emperor, was cleverly undertaken by Mr. James Wilson.

TON-Y-PANDY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessees, Messrs. Carlton and Duckworth; General-Manager, Mr. Sam Duckworth; Resident-Manager, Mr. Ridgewood Barrie.—Her Nameless Child was presented here on Monday by Mrs. Sam Duckworth's company. The play was written by the wife of the popular general-manager and the resident-manager (Mr. Barrie). Mr. J. W. Evelyn did well as Anthony Ford; Arthur was ably played by Mr. F. R. Gwyn Richardson; Mr. Ellerslie Pyne made a success as the villainous Lord Woodville; Miss Pattie Hastings was an excellent Phyllis Ford; and Lady Sybil Woodville was admirably undertaken by Miss Grace Jones; the comedy relief being supplied by Mr. A. Sawyer and Miss Grace Harlington, as Tom Rivers and Bessie Brooks respectively.

HIPPODROME.—Director, Mr. D. Taylor; General Manager, Mr. Curline Baldry.—Among the most successful turns here are the Tokio Troupe of Imperial Japanese; Mrs. H. de Beer's company, in a comedy sketch, The Collar Stud; the Gondolier Glee Singers, who are much appreciated; Sword and Robb; the Reays; E. G. Aitken; and Leon and Onda.

TORQUAY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Licensee and Managing-Director, Mr. W. H. Mortimer; Secretary, Mr. Arthur Pearse.—Messrs. Granville and Thorne's company, in the historic drama, Napoleon the Great, commenced a week's engagement here on Monday evening. As the Emperor, Mr. Hugh Montgomery acts with domineering power and kingliness; Mr. Henry Earlesmere portrays Colonel Lavarennes with Machiavellian duplicity; and as Colonel Jules Meuron, Mr. Phil Harper is both calm and courageous. In the rôle of Marie Walewska, Miss Leslie Warner displays much sympathy and tact; and Miss Maud Russell acts with womanly affection as Mlle. Leonie. Sergeant Choupin is successfully represented by Mr. Albert Sinclair; and Mr. Bartlett Garth works energetically as Paul Laczinska, his strenuous appeal in the last act being particularly well done. The lighter element is supplied by Mr. Frank M. Thorne as Pierre Pomponnet; and Miss Marie Harcourt as Marcelle Choupin. The remaining characters are also well sustained.

BATH SALOONS.—Proprietors, The Torquay Town Council; Manager, Mr. George Courtney. — Mr. McCrae is this week presenting the Smart Set Entertainers, and on Monday evening an enthusiastic audience greeted the reappearance of this popular party. Mr. Arthur Court has a tenor voice of much power, and is frequently applauded; and Miss Georgie Martin is a pleasing comedienne. Miss Lena Hutchings is a young artist of considerable promise; and Miss Hilda Light has a cultured soprano voice, and meritoriously encored her duet with Miss Martin being particularly admired. Mr. Walter George is an old favourite, and provokes general hilarity; and Mr. Lionel Atwill has a good bass voice. Miss Ethel Willford is a capable elocutionist; and Mr. Herbert Oliver is a very efficient accompanist.

TREHERBERT. — OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Poole; Manager, Mr. James Gunn.—Miss Rose Faith's company, in No Cross, No Crown, opened here on Monday. Mr. W. Carriden deserves unstinted praise for his interpretation of Sir Francis Luttrell; Mr. Harrison Chapman is good as Professor Nebb; Mr. Herbert de Ville gives a capital reading of Austin Blake; Dr. Ashby is in the capable hands of Mr. Fred Gresham; Miss Rose Faith, in the part of Lady Luttrell, deserves special mention; and Miss Gwen Stewart as Mistress Gray and Lady Margaret Luttrell is clever.

WAKEFIELD.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Sherwood and Co.—Mr. Hilliard Vox and company were here this week in the drama Alaska, the first three nights of the week. Mr. Albert Rogers is capital as the Coon Pompey Cæsar; Mr. C. D. Robert is effective as Ned Larson, the villain, and is well supported by Mr. H. Naylor Grimson as Baptista; Mr. John Ford is satisfactory as Malumite Kid, and Mr. Hilliard Vox gives a striking impersonation as Skookhum Jim; Miss G. Hastings Walton acts with power as Alaska, and Miss E. Turner Elliott wins favour as Jessie Dalton. A Man in a Thousand was billed for the remaining three nights.

HIPPODROME.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—The Lizzette Troupe, a quartette of lady acrobats, submit a good turn; Mr. A. P. Boswell, negro comedian, gives a clever and amusing performance; Harry Gold, comedian, sings in capital style; Miss Ivy Dene, soubrette; Salida and Vone, Creole duettists and dancers; Elsie Rubina, wire walker; the Gelders, illusionists; Miss Molly Augarde and Miss Marie Ray, ballad vocalists, complete an attractive programme.

WALSALL.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—A capital programme is being submitted here this week, the principal attraction being Kaiser Wilhelms, military Hercules; Paul Conchas, the famous military juggler; Alex Kendall, patter comedian; Farr and Farland, patterers and sensational banjoists; Mount and Corelli, society entertainers at the piano; the Two Finneys, mermaids, who please; Little May Orchard, juvenile comedienne; and Mabel Bright and company, in a very enjoyable sketch, Girls Will Be Girls.

GRAND THEATRE. — Proprietors, the Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—A visit is being paid here this week by Miss Blanche St. Albans and Mr. J. Leicester Jackson's company, with Her One Great Sin. Mr. Jackson makes a capital Arnold Thornhill; Mr. Fred Hudson is good as Jerry Jumble; Miss Nellie Lambert as Nancy Winpenny, and Miss Maudie Lambert as Little Gracie, do exceedingly well; Miss Blanche St. Albans gives a clever representation of Grace Warhurst.

WARRINGTON.—ROYAL COURT.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. Joseph Potter; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred J. Reece.—Mr. F. R. Benson's company is here this week in a series of the most notable productions of the Swan of Avon, meeting with the great success that it merits. A crowded audience assembled on Monday evening to witness Henry V. Mr. Henry Herbert gives a capital portraiture of the King, and is effective alike in the intensely dramatic as well as the lighter passages of the play; Mr. Charles Francis shows a fine appreciation of the humours of Pistol; and Mr. Ross Shore plays cleverly as Fluellen; the fine elocution of Mr. E. Spencer Geach, as the Duke of Exeter, is much admired; Miss Dorothy Green is a charming Katharine; and Miss Mary Webb is effective as Isabel; Miss Rosa Burgess scores well as Mistress Quickly. The dresses and staging is very effective. On Tuesday night The School for Scandal was staged, and that the comedy is still a favourite was evidenced by the crowded house. Mr. Henry Herbert, as Joseph Surface, realised the cunning and hypocrisy of the character; and Mr. Charles Francis, as Charles Surface, infused plenty of humour and life into the part; nothing could have been better than Mr. Reginald Davis's portrayal of Sir Oliver Surface; and Mr. E. Spencer Geach did convincing work as Sir Peter Teazle; as Lady Teazle, Miss Dorothy Green was seen to great advantage, her reading of the part drawing forth great applause. On the remaining nights As You Like It, Macbeth, Much Ado About Nothing, The Merchant of Venice, and Richard III. were billed

ROYAL THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. Willmot.—Another capital entertainment is doing good business here this week. Norman and Leonard Trio are heard to advantage in the musical sketch, The Itinerant; Dandy George and his remarkable dog are an acceptable turn; and the Lannons are clever duettists and dancers. Other good items are U. C. Ugo, the man of mystery; Blanche Marion, comedienne; Baroni and Kemp, change artists; Arthur Woodville, comedian; and the Royal Bioscope pictures.

WEDNESBURY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessee, Mr. Harry Battersby; Acting-Manager, Mr. Kuner. — Messrs. Beaudyn and Crowe's company in The Way of the World is making a big hit here this week. Mr. Malcolm J. Cumming's characteristic rendering of Cecil Montague is hailed with hearty applause, and as Captain Fred Slade Mr. Victor Gordon makes a capital impression; Mr. Herbert Skardon plays the important part Mathew Malyon in an effective manner; excellent humour is provided by Mr. Augustus Hammond in the rôle of Horatio Bluff; Adela de la Roche is admirably portrayed by Miss Sidney Crowe, and as the heiress Marian Fanshaw Miss Laura Deering leaves little to be desired; Miss Marie Fontaine does well as Kate Montague and the rôle of Mlle. Bellini is ably sustained by Miss Violet Vivienne.

WEST BROMWICH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee, Mr. Harding Thomas; Manager, Mr. Herbert Vere.—The Shadow of a Crime is this week drawing good houses, the four-act drama being capably presented by Messrs. Fred J. Little and Fred Darcy's company. Harry Bullington finds a clever and manly exponent in Mr. Stephen Crossley, Sir Edward Bullington is effectively played by Mr. John H. Manley; a vigorous Jim Murdock is found in Mr. Wm. Mathews; the deep rascality of Ralph Esmond is clearly shown by Mr. Robert Forder; Mr. E. W. Avery keeps the house in a good humour in the character of Tom Brown; Mr. Alfred Richards lends excellent aid in his portrayal of Jim Todd; Miss Ina Grant plays the part of Loyale Norman with distinction; Dora Bullington is charmingly presented by Miss Dorothy Riddell; Miss Bertha St. Rude is all that can be desired as Sarah; and as Mrs. Brown Miss May Rosine causes much mirth.

NEW HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Player.—The programme this week is headed by Mr. George Gilbey, in his screamingly funny songs; the Ten Dixie Girls give a smart show, and well deserve the applause accorded them; a clever turn is submitted by Welda and Wynne; a mirth-provoking sketch, entitled Semi-Detached, is presented by the Meymotts; Ellis and Watts do well in their song and dance; Robins and Collier appear in a comedy scena, named The Lady and the Porter, and cause a great amount of genuine fun; Mrs. Oscar Luck's company in Kismet evokes much praise; an original turn is provided by the Bollingers, who produce some clever realistic pictures on the large screen entirely out of coloured rags; Montague Biggs is well received; and the Hippodrome pictures conclude the evening's entertainment.

WEST HARTLEPOOL.—GRAND.—Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Manager, Mr. J. A. Lewis.—Mr. and Mrs. William Maclaren's company is this week presenting Proof, which is being favourably received. Mr. Gerald Kennedy appears as Pierre Lorance, and presents a masterly portrayal of the character; Mr. W. J. Butler, in the rôle of Lazare, is conspicuously successful; judicious comedy is infused into the play by Mr. Wilford Bailey as Chamboran; and Adrienne and Valentine have capable exponents in Miss Beatrice Shirley and Miss May Grimshaw.

PALACE. — Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Julius Simpson.—A most marvellous exhibition of the Protean art is that presented by R. A. Roberts in his production Ringing the Changes, a sketch of eight characters, all of which are taken by Mr. Roberts himself; the contortions by Leonzi are clever; Vox, the Irish ventriloquist, has wonderful facial control, and his diologue is crisp and witty; George Hyam contributes an acceptable item to the programme; and praise is due to Bert Harrow, comedian; Les Belles Americaines are loudly applauded for their vivacity; Bliss and Bliss, so popular here as pierrots, have had a good reception; and Raymond's Bio-tableau shows some new and interesting pictures.

WEST STANLEY. — VICTORIA THEATRE. — Proprietor, Mr. T. C. Raws; Responsible Manager, Mr. John Cassidy.—Lovers of variety are well catered for here this week. Mlle. Florence is a clever globe-runner; Polly Adula, a winning comedienne; Hoozee's ventriloquial act evokes applause; the Arnolds give a mystifying act; the Astley Bros. are responsible for considerable amusement; Dale and D'Argan are clever comedy conjurers; Alvar is a favourite gymnast; Harry Kebble a good comedian; and the programme is brought to a close by Abex, the Miniature Hercules.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Stanley Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Mark H. Lindon.—Messrs. Darcy and Little's company is here, playing On the Stroke of Twelve. Mr. Vin W. Carlyle gives a manly portrayal of Jack Rutledge; Mr. Fred Guiness is an effective George Bainbridge; Mr. Creagh Hunt makes a typical James Horton; Mr. Fred Ferne a good Harry Rutledge; Miss Nellie Moore is responsible for good acting as Jess Bainbridge; the rôle of Doris Rutledge is well handled by Miss Beatrice Moore; Miss Madge Laverton is a capable Marie; Mr. Syd T. Russell a typical Jew; and Mr. Fred Little as Jasper, a coloured gentleman, is responsible for good work.

WHITEHAVEN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. Clark; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Clark.—The following variety company is engaged here: Miss Daisy de Roy, Miss Violet Robson, the Sages (burlesque artists), Miss Edna Reeve, Bert Boothroyd (comedian), Fred Field (baritone), and Soros (illusionist).

WIGAN.—ROYAL COURT THEATRE.—Proprietors, The Wigan Entertainments Co.—Messrs. G. M. Polini and L. Maitland's Lancashire play, The Coal King, appeals very strongly to the sympathies of a large section of this coal-mining district. The chief characters are admirably sustained by Mr. L. Maitland as Tom Roberts, mine-manager, and Miss Gertrude Valentine as Grace Shirley, a schoolmistress. Other prominent players are Messrs. Wm. A. Armour, Escott Robson, and Alfred Terris. Miss Sinna St. Clair as Mad Ann also displays much dramatic ability.

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, The Wigan Entertainments Co.—The Craggs are exceptionally clever acrobats, and are enthusiastically received. Starr and Leslie, excellent vocalists and club-throwers, are also exceedingly popular; the Dunvilles, Elton and Elma, Leo, Johnny Holland and company, Harry Levaine, and the Sisters Volbecque provide a sufficiency of good comedy; and Mlle. de Rose, baritone, and J. H. Hawtrey, actor-vocalist, complete the bill.

WOLVERHAMPTON. — GRAND THEATRE. — Lessees and Managers, Mr. E. H. Bull and Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Percival.—Still another visit is being paid by Mr. W. W. Kelly's company in the ever-popular Royal Divorce. The Josephine of Miss Edith Cole is so well and favourably known that no comment is necessary, and Mr. Frederick Victor is equally successful as Napoleon. The remaining characters are in the hands of Mr. Alfred Granville, Miss Helen Richmond, and other able artists.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. W. H. Lennon.—Haley's Juveniles, a clever set of artists, are the leading attraction here this week; Electra's Bower, presented by Alma, Abdullah, and La Superbe, is a pleasing performance. Other items in the programme include George Martinengo, 'cello player; Roxburgh and Wright, comedians; Prince and Milner, quick-change artists; Hyram Travers, the pearly king; Bert Reeves, comedian; and Tom Davies' Comedy Sketch Company.

HIPPODROME.—The principal features in this week's programme are Arthur Conquest and company in the North American pantomime The Sioux, and Vi Carlyle, with "My Mountain Maid" song. Other attractions are Larmo, juggler; the Macdonald Trio, musicians; Frank Gee, comedian; Rita Resdan, character comedienne; and Miss Violet Nunn.

WORCESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. Le Wards.—The Moody-Manners Opera company is providing a full week's grand opera, commencing on Monday with Faust, and giving at successive performances, including a matinée, Carmen, Lohengrin, Bohemian Girl, Il Trovatore, Tannhäuser, and Maritana. The support accorded has been of a generous description, and will, it is hoped, lead to an annual visit. Carmen, with Mlle. Zelie de Lussan in the title-rôle, was, perhaps, chief attraction of the week, and for this performance there was a crowded house. Other well-known principals appearing during the week have included Misses Alice Boaden, Enriquetta Crichton, Rosina Beynon, Lucie Lever, Mary Norton, Messrs. Seth Hughes, George Neilson, Chas. Carter, Fredk. Erle, Maurice Pall, and Marshall Vincent. With a powerful chorus and largely augmented orchestra, several operas have been heard under the best of conditions, and the principals have entirely justified their great reputations.

WORKINGTON.—OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Manager, Mr. Falconer Jackes.—On Monday night, Mr. T. Morton Powell's company presented Honour Thy Father to a large house, and was well received. Mr. B. N. Ross was a good hero; as the villain, Mr. W. R. Winning was forcible; Mr. Claude Merton was excellent as Merry; Mr. F. Roles was humorous as Mike; Mr Walter M. Cameron evinced skill and pathos as Garth; and Miss Kate Newton secured approval as his wife; Miss Mabel Coleman as Lillian gave satisfaction, and equally so Miss Winine Donovan as Mercy.

WREXHAM. — EMPIRE MUSIC HALL. — Proprietor, Mr. J. J. Scott; Manager, Mr. Herbert Nicholls.—The following strong company has appeared here during the past week: Burton and Trent, in their legmania and musical comedy act; Miss Maud Marlow, burlesque artist; Mr. Andie Burn, expert dancer; MacIntosh and Royal, clog dancers; Mr. J. H. Crew, character comedian; and the Empire Electric Animated Tableaux.

YORK.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Waddington; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. J. Dacre.—Mr. F. J. Little's company is here again this week with The Executioner's Daughter. Mr. Stanley Radcliffe as Mons. Roche gives a telling rendition; Miss Nellie Howett is a charmingly natural Annette; and Miss Evelyn Robson as Felice acts a disagreeable rôle with much skill; Mr. W. Ruddle Brown as Paul Rovel is a capital exponent of a popular part; and the villainies of Felix Marus are accentuated by Mr. Juan de Alberti; much fun is caused by Mr. Willie Hicks and Bella Moody as comic servants.

OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Peacock; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sidney Brook. — The York Operatic Amateurs are producing My Lady Molly this week, with unbounded success, which, to a great extent, is due to the excellent coaching of Mr. Geo. McCloskie and to the clever acting of the professionals engaged. Miss Mabel Lait is a most engaging Lady Molly; Miss Olivia Elton as Hester looks handsome, and acts with grace and charm; Mr. H. E. Bean is a dashing Capt. Romney; the tuneful vocalisation of Mr. Ernest Harries as Lionel Bland is one of the hits of the opera; and Mr. Albert Chapman as Sir Miles uses his splendid voice and ripe experience with excellent effect.

RICHMOND THEATRE.

On Thursday, Nov. 22,
Matinée of
"THE SPRING CHICKEN."

Encouraged by the success of previous matinées, Mr. Kay Draco enlisted the services of Mr. Geo. Dance's principal Spring Chicken company, and it was but natural that a good house should result. The play was admirably rattled through, and many of the numbers were rapturously applauded, and not a few redemanded. Premier honours go to Miss Chrissie Leonard, who proved altogether delightful as Rosalie; from start to finish she kept the house in constant good humour; her song "Rotterdam" won much applause, and she had to comply with many demands for repetitions throughout the afternoon. Mr. J. S. Durant was eminently successful as the impulsive young avocat, Gustave Babori. Everyone voted Mr. Girdle a droll dog, and very ably did Fred Payne enter into the fun, causing explosions of merriment right along the line; whether entertaining girls at the "Crimson Butterfly," or metaphorically fencing with Mme. Girdle, he was always amusing and often really clever, his duet with Babori, "Sunday in London," proved his versatility beyond doubt. Mr. Edwin Dodd made quite a clever little character-sketch of Felix, the head-waiter of the "Crimson Butterfly." Miss Nelly Kavanagh played the part of the jealous mother, Mrs. Girdle, and she acquitted herself to the satisfaction of everybody; her best vocal efforts were "Regent Street" and "I guess," both of which were redemanded. Quite prettily and effectively Miss Florence Lee sustained the part of the wife, Dulcie Babori; she made a decided success in her song, "Go gently." Another dainty impersonation that merits more than passing notice was the Baroness Papouche of Miss Poppy Poole; she sang with delightful naïveté "It's the very first time I've done this sort of thing." Mr. Ralph Holland, as the Baron Papouche, did very well; and mention may also be made of Stephen-Henry, who, as the precocious youth, popped up whenever opportunity occurred. Miss Nancy Reeve as La Belle Cissi looked handsome and danced prettily. Some excellent work, too, was done by Miss Lilian Erroll as Emmy-Lou; nor should dainty Miss Laura Hayden be omitted from the roll of honourable mention, inasmuch as her performance of Sybille was very charming. Minor parts were efficiently filled by Messrs. M. Frank Stewart, A. Burton, C. Nikola, and Mesdames V'Ames, Percheron, Kitty Carlisle, and Enid Brook. The chorus and orchestra did excellently under the direction of Mr. Knight Pearce, while Mr. Harry B. Earle was responsible for the company generally, and left nothing to be desired. To Mr. Kay Draco considerable credit is due for the excellent arrangements throughout.

STAGE STAFF GOSSIP.

MR. EDWARD TERRY, writing from Dublin, sent to Mr. William Johnson, secretary of the National Association of Theatrical Employees, three cheques of £8 each, being the final portion of the Dramatic and Musical Fund for the following societies:—The Heads of Departments' Association, the General Staff Branch N.A.T.E., and the General Theatrical Operatives Sick and Benevolent Society. The other societies benefiting by the distribution of these funds are the Actors' Benevolent Fund, the Actors' Orphanage, and the Theatrical Ladies' Guild.

THE Stage Employees' Concert Committee have received the following additions to the list of patrons:—Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree, Mr. Cyril Maude, and Mr. Edward Terry. Miss Genevieve Ward and Mrs. Cecil Raleigh have each taken tickets for a box.

THERE appears to be an energetic competition between two stage-managers connected with West End theatres as to which can sell the most tickets for the concert on Dec. 22. At present Mr. Harry Norton, at the Haymarket Theatre, is leading. It may be as well to remind intending supporters that there is a great demand for tickets for the concert, and no time should be lost by those who wish to be present. Mr. George Faber, M.P., has placed his box at the Opera House at the disposal of the Concert Committee. See advertisement columns for full particulars.

A WELL-attended meeting of the Provisional Committee appointed to form a daymen's branch of the National Society was held during the week. The following officers have been appointed:—Chairman, Mr. Ed. Keating; vice-chairman, Mr. A. Searle; treasurer, Mr. W. Crane; secretary, Mr. G. W. Farrell. It was decided that the entrance fee should be 2s. 6d. and the contribution 3d. per week, being 2d. to the General Fund and 1d. per week to the Benevolent Fund. Any dayman who has been continuously employed for twelve months in any stage department, a painting-room, or theatrical workshop is eligible for membership.

THE Islington Trades Council have passed a resolution recommending the granting of a licence for the Finsbury Empire to Mr. Oswald Stoll, subject to an agreement to pay the rate of wage recognised by the Theatrical Employees' Societies and the Musicians' Union.

AT the moment of going to press we regret to learn that Mr. T. Sheridan, whose condition has for some time been hopeless, died at eleven o'clock yesterday (Friday) morning. His brother, Mr. David Sheridan, has been appointed electrician at the Waldorf Theatre.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Sir Alexander Mackenzie gave his last lecture on "Bohemian Music" on Wednesday afternoon, and in speaking of the great composer Dvorák, said he would principally confine his lecture to his early career. Dvorák, the son of a butcher, was born in 1841, and early manifested a taste for music, and, against his father's wishes, contrived to get some kind of tuition, the lecturer remarking that in his former lecture he referred to the fact that most schoolmasters were required to teach music in Bohemia. At last, after a hard fight, Dvorák, in 1857, was allowed to become a pupil in the Organ School at Prague. About this time Dvorák was so poor that even a piano was beyond his reach,

"DAVID GARRICK."

David Garrick .....CHARLES WYNDHAM
Simon Ingot .....MR. LOUIS CALVERT
Squire Chivey .....MR. SIDNEY BROUGH
Mr. Smith .....MR. H. PAULTON
Mr. Brown .....MR. REGINALD WALTER
Mr. Jones .....MR. BERTRAM STEER
William .....MR. LAWRENCE WHITE
George .....MR. J. NAPPER
Mrs. Smith .....MISS EMILY VINING
Miss Araminta Brown ....MISS CAROLINE EWELL
Ada Ingot .....MISS MARY MOORE

There was a gratifying attendance at the special matinée of David Garrick given under Mr. Charles Calvert's management at the New Theatre on Thursday. A special interest attached to the revival in view of the fact that Mr. Calvert appeared in the rôle of the old city merchant, Simon Ingot. For Mr. Calvert's characterisation we have nothing but praise. It was a picture of flesh and blood and a good deal of human feeling. Simon Ingot stood before us, the affectionate father who would give way to his winsome and rather self-willed daughter on every subject and in every request she had to make except as to her marrying a play-actor—Simon Ingot, the typical self-made man, who required something more than mere sentimental reasoning to convince him that it was possible for a play-actor to be gentlemen, and to disabuse him of his prejudice against the theatre. But if Mr. Calvert showed us a materialist, he also showed a man with a heart and a man with a understanding, and his portraiture brought out in convincing fashion the essential traits of the individual he represented. Sir Charles Wyndham gave his deligthful performance of David Garrick. The lovable and high-minded attributes of the generous-souled actor were indicated in a manner that would, we doubt not, have secured a pæan of praise from Sir Charles's prototype. Sir Charles Wyndham's scholarly interpretation of the part needs no commendation at this day. His name in association with Garrick's is always regarded as a pleasant memory by all who have seen him enact the rôle. Miss Mary Moore was as engaging, tender, affectionate, and sincere as Ada Ingot, and her work revealed that thought and care and artistic realism to which this accomplished actress has accustomed us. Mr. Sidney Brough played with spirit and with rollicking good humour and youthful abandon the part of the inebriate Squire Chivey, and Mr. H. Paulton was ludicrously comical as Mr. Smith; while Mr. Reginald Walter as Mr. Brown and Mr. Bertram Steer as Mr. Jones added each his quota to the humorous side of the play. As the absurdly-affected, absurdly-mannered, and absurdly-attired Miss Araminta Brown, Miss Caroline Ewell was intensely entertaining, and evidenced an adequate appreciation of the quaint comedy of the character; while Miss Emily Vining realised to good effect the superciliousness and ridiculous hauteur of Mrs. Smith.

In response to enthusiastic cries for speech, Sir Charles Wyndham once more stepped before the footlights, and after thanking the audience for their reception of him, went on: "You may, perhaps, like to know why this special performance has been given. I have not announced the fact, though I may tell you in confidence that this month and this week twenty years ago we first produced David Garrick, and it speaks volumes for your kindness and your indulgence that, with one exception, every year of those twenty years has been marked by a revival of this play, and this, of all the houses that I have had during these twenty years, is the largest and the most enthusiastic. There has been during the last few days an after-thought of mine that another benefit would accrue from it. A little while ago Miss Moore received a letter from a mutual friend of ours in New York regretting that I was in such a sorry state of health. He thought by my long holiday it meant serious illness. This performance should be a polite reply to the contrary, although on second thoughts, I am not quite sure it would be so effective, because if they read—as they probably will—of your wonderful reception of us, they will attribute my present condition to the excitement which you have engendered. I may say with candour that such a welcome as yours I think would revive a corpse. It has had one effect, and that is, a determination on my part, as soon as I possibly can, to return to my ordinary duties on the stage. I cannot exactly say what date, but I can say in the words of my friend Chivy, "that my intentions are honourable though remote," and since I am indulging in confidences, permit me to make one more. I have already told you what infinite pleasure you have given to my partner, Miss Moore, and myself, and talking it over this afternoon, we came to the conclusion we should like others, a little less fortunate than ourselves, in some way to participate in that pleasure. So we have decided to give a performance of this play on Monday week, Dec. 3, for the benefit of the Actors' Benevolent Fund. It is our intention to defray all the expenses and give the entire receipts to them, and in connection with that you will perhaps allow me to mention two gracious and generous acts, first, that Mr. Calvert (my tenant for the present) has offered the theatre for that occasion rent free, and the rest of the company, cheered by your kindness, have all volunteered their gratuitous services. We trust, therefore, that this fund, which needs assistance so much, will benefit considerably by your kindness and by theirs. I take a special interest in this cause. Being the president of the fund, I am taking the chair on Dec. 5. And now all I have to say to you is to thank you and to wish you a grateful au revoir."

"THE ERA" can be obtained at the principal bookstalls throughout the provinces.

"HER SON."

A Comedy, in Four Acts, by Horace Annesley Vachell, produced for the first time at the Theatre Royal, Glasgow, on Thursday, Nov. 15, 1906.

Dick Gascoyne .....MR. EILLE NORWOOD
Sir Augustus Helmingham .....MR. HARRY ASHFORD
Min (in Act II.) ....MASTER BOBBIE ANDREWS
Min (in Acts III. and IV.) ..MR. M. WETHERELL
Parfiete .....MR. H. CANNON GEORGE
Lady Curragh .....MISS MAY CHEVALIER
Chrystal Wride .....MISS MINNA BLAKISTON
Susan Judkins .....MISS KEITH LYTTON
Lady Helmingham .....MISS EILEEN MUNRO
Kitty Tabard .....MISS HARRIET TRENCH
Toy Seller .....MISS YVONNE MOREL
Dorothy Fairfax .....MISS WINIFRED EMERY

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

This new play is designated by the author a comedy, and doubtless the conventional and satisfactory "happy ending" justifies the name, but the story, very early in its development, takes a serious tinge, and retains it to within a few minutes of the fall of the curtain. When the play opens we are introduced to Miss Dorothy Fairfax, a bright and animated young lady of independent views, who has, in opposition to the wishes of her relations, become engaged to a clever but impecunious young journalist, Dick Gascoyne. Dorothy's worldly uncle and aunt, Sir Augustus and Lady Helmingham, even tempt her with an offer of marriage from an earl, but she remains firm. However, a few minutes afterwards there is ushered in one Chrystal Wride, a music-hall dancer, who had befriended the journalist in his days of penury, nursed him through an illness, and latterly lived with him for a time. To save this woman from suicide, Dorothy promises to postpone her marriage for a year at least, or even indefinitely. On this assurance Chrystal Wride departs, telling Dorothy that her good-heartedness has "saved two lives." When Gascoyne is told about the visit, and the postponement of the wedding, he accepts an engagement as war correspondent in Africa, and is absent for several years. Meanwhile, the dancer dies in giving birth to a son, and at the request of the dying mother, Dorothy adopts the child. As this still further estranges her relations, she, with her faithful servant Susan, removes to France, where she passes as a widow to save awkward explanations regarding the boy, and there she remains for about eight years. During this time Dick Gascoyne returns from Africa, follows Dorothy to France, and hearing her referred to as a married lady with a young son, returns to England without making any further inquiries, and marries soon after. The next meeting between Dick and Dorothy takes place at Bournemouth, and she is on the point of telling the actual parentage of the boy when the news that Dick is married stops her, and as she has become much attached to Min, as he is called, she allows the father to depart without any hint of the truth. Ten years elapse, and we find Dorothy and her grown-up son residing at Winchester. The boy has appealed to "Sir" Richard Gascoyne, who has now amassed vast wealth, and in response the millionaire-journalist comes in person to see what can be arranged. He is followed by his jealous wife, who is in failing health, and in a dramatic scene this lady accuses Dorothy of being her husband's mistress, and brands the son as the fruits of their supposed guilt. The upshot is that the excitement upsets Lady Gascoyne, who goes off home, and conveniently dies; explanations ensue regarding the parentage of Min, and the father (in a scene somewhat reminiscent of a similar one in A Woman of No Importance) expresses much admiration for the manly young fellow, of whose relationship he had till then been quite in the dark. A quiet, but effective, interview between Dorothy and Sir Richard follows, and the curtain falls on the prospective realisation of their long-deferred happiness.

The play obtained excellent treatment from Miss Winifred Emery and her company, and the reception of it was most enthusiastic. As the tender-hearted Dorothy, Miss Emery was particularly good, and her scenes with Dick in the first act, the depth of her feeling for Min in the later scenes, and the dramatic power of her acting in the concluding act, were alike admirable. Mr. Eille Norwood, as Dick Gascoyne (the part which will in London, we understand, be taken by Mr. Cyril Maude), was well placed, and from the light-hearted gaiety of the love-making scenes, to the restrained but powerful intensity of the more dramatic moments, he easily carried the sympathies of the audience with him. Miss Minna Blakiston, as Chrystal Wride, is only seen in the first act, but her performance was a striking and clever one. The ostentation and vulgarity of the character, hidden beneath a slight veneer of polish ("You notice I speak like a lady now," she says pathetically), were given with convincing fidelity. As Min, the little boy in Act II., Master Bobbie Andrews, gave an exceptionally bright performance, without the slightest touch of staginess, and his reception by the audience was most hearty, even when later on in the evening he was ensconced in a private box. In Acts III. and IV. Min is played by Mr. M. A. Wetherell, and he was able to give the impression (rather difficult in most plays) that we were witnessing the same open-hearted, bright boy as he would be after ten years' interval. In the strong scene, where he first learns his actual parentage, his acting was both powerful and pathetic. Mr. Harry Ashford and Miss Eileen Munro ably hit off the conventional society couple as Sir Augustus and Lady Helmingham. Miss Harriet Trench, as Kitty Tabard, who marries Gascoyne, gave a clever performance. Miss May Chevalier as the sympathetic Lady Curragh, Miss Keith Lytton as the faithful Susan Judkins, and Mr. H. Cannon George as Min's friend Parfiete, all lent able assistance. Miss Yvonne Morel, cleverly made up, gave a touch of character to the toy-seller in the Bournemouth scene. At the first performance the play went absolutely without a hitch, and the success of it was immediate. Calls were given to all the principals at the end of each act, and at the conclusion, in response to loud demands for the author, Mr. Vachell appeared before the curtain, and thanked the audience most heartily for the enthusiastic reception they had accorded the new play.

MISS MAIMIE BRICKWELL.

MISS MAIMIE BRICKWELL on Saturday last sailed for South Africa under contract to Messrs. B. and F. Wheeler to play the leading parts in a répertoire of musical plays, including The White Chrysanthemum, The Dairymaids, The Beauty of Bath, &c. Miss Brickwell is a daughter of Mr. H. T. Brickwell, for many years lessee of the Garrick, Globe, and Court Theatres, and made her first appearance as one of the little schoolgirls in the revival of The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown at the Court Theatre some four years ago. Since then, despite the fact that she aspires to play comedy parts, she has drifted into musical comedy, having played leading parts in Mr. George

MISS MAIMIE BRICKWELL.

Edwardes's San Toy, Kitty Grey, and Three Little Maids companies on tour with great success. Miss Brickwell is accompanied by her sister Eva, who is under engagement to the same management, and who plays under the nom de théâtre of Eva May.

THEATRE ROYAL, STRATFORD.

On Monday, Nov. 19, the Drama, in Four Acts, by Arthur Shirley, entitled "THE MIDNIGHT MAIL."

Critical audiences have to be faced this week by The Midnight Mail at the Theatre Royal, Stratford, for in the neighbourhood are the huge works of the Great Eastern Railway, whose employees form no inconsiderable proportion of the patrons of Mrs. Ellis Frederick's popular melodrama theatre. That the incidents of railway life stand the test well is evidenced by the loud applause which the piece evokes, and the success of its former visit is being easily repeated. Mr. Alfred Goddard depicts the temptations of the engine-driver, Harry Steyne, with much realism, and his fine stage appearance and fluent diction render the character additionally popular. In depicting such a strange character as the drunken, dissolute stoker, Billy Brewer, Mr. Fred G. Evison displays strong histrionic ability, mirth and pathos being blended with fine judgment. Mr. Robert Grey makes an outspoken and convincing Leonard Royle; and the scheming Hassan Padisha is capitally delineated by Mr. Arthur Gilroy, who combines also the duties of stage-management. Mr. Charles McCann does well as the good-hearted Donald Craig; Mr. J. Warburton makes an admirable Superintendent at the Waif's Home; Mr. A. Dobell Lyle submits a clever sketch of the signalman Jasper Thornleigh; and Mr. J. Ingledew is well placed as Sergeant O'Flynn. Miss Phyllis Dailley is a handsome and pleasing exponent of Lady Phyllis Eustace; Miss Ada Oakley acts in entire sympathy with the part of Mary Steyne; and Miss Mildred Carr plays with the utmost success as Nancy Brewer. Miss Grace Chesterfield is good as Mrs. Mildmay, the Matron of the Waifs' Home, and Miss Dolly Gilroy plays Patty appropriately.

"THE BEAUTY SHOP."

A Musical "Something-to-laugh-at," in three scenes, by W. H. Kirby, Music by George Gee, and Lyrics by Douglas B. Watson, Produced at the New Gaiety Theatre, Ayr, on Thursday, Nov. 15.

Daniel Dobbs .....MR. W. H. KIRBY
John Jenkins .....MR. D. R. WATSON
Harry St. Clare .....MR. E. H. BERTRAM
Colonel Berry .....MR. CHAS. HOWITT
Constable Higgins ..MR. REG. HUGH HUMBER
Jasper .....MR. WILL B. CRONIN
Mrs. Agnes Dobbs .....MISS NORAH MELTON
Miss Mary Dobbs .....MISS K. EMMETT
Angelina Blossom .....MISS MILLIE GORDON
Bertha .....MISS M. BANKS
Susette .....MISS CORDELIA KNIGHT

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

On Thursday evening of last week, in the New Gaiety Theatre, Ayr, Mr. W. H. Kirby successfully produced his new play. The title of the comedy is The Beauty Shop, but we think The Troubles of Daniel Dobbs would be more appropriate. It is a game of complications from the rise to the fall of the curtain, and these are so deftly worked into the fabric of the play that an amused bewilderment alternates with laughter that cannot be controlled. The piece affords opportunity for an artist like Mr. Kirby to revel in his humour, yet he has not forgotten any of those who take part with him, for all have their opportunities. As Mrs. Agnes Dobbs, Miss Nora Melton gave a most pleasing impersonation; Susette, a French girl, had a sweet exponent, who sang delightfully, in Miss Cordelia Knight; Miss K. Emmett played the part of Miss Mary Dobbs very cleverly; but Miss Millie Gordon divided honours with Mr. Kirby in her clever embodiment of the slavey, Angelina Blossom. Mr. D. B. Watson was the John Jenkins, and Mr. E. H. Bertram was Harry St. Clare, and they played their parts very well; while Mr. Chas. Howitt made a characteristic Colonel Berry, and in the scene between him and Dobbs, the garrulous passage of words is of the most comical description. There are many opportunities for working in special business. In the last scene, the characters are assembled in the garden grounds of Mr. Daniel Dobbs, and strut about in fancy costume, prior to a rehearsal of Hamlet, which they are going to produce for the benefit of some charity. Into the midst of this assembly comes Mr. Dobbs, who, to avert the discovery of his former acquaintance with Susette, conceals his identity in many disguises, but particularly as the waiter, he extracts much fun from the situation. The piece abounds in smart things, play upon words, witty sayings, and with ludicrous situations, and is bound to prove a draw. The music is by Mr. George Gee and the lyrics by Mr. Douglas B. Watson, and there are several very good songs in the piece, notably "That's how a married man's found out," and "When a man's in love."

MISS DAPHNE DE ROHAN

AS A SUPPORTER OF "L'ENTENTE CORDIALE," AND FRENCH AND ENGLISH LIFE-SAVING SOCIETIES.

Chère Mademoiselle de Rohan,—

I take a very early opportunity of again expressing my most sincere thanks for the charming performance you gave last night. I was enchanted; and one thing struck me very forcibly: it is the wonderful power you possess of "throwing your voice" so as to fill such a very large hall. It is marvellous! Every word you spoke could be heard as if one were quite near. Excuse this brief tribute and accept my kindest souvenirs.

(Signed). BARON L. DE SANTA MARIA,
Delegate-General of French and Belgian Life-Saving Societies; Chevalier de l'Ordre du Devoir, Ordre de St. Jean Baptiste (Spain), &c., &c.

Nov. 3, 1906.

* * * * * * *

Bow Schools Swimming Association Prize Day.

The interest was, however, centred in Mlle. Daphne de Rohan's splendid impersonation of Lady Teazle in the well-known Quarrel Scenes from the School for Scandal Mlle. Daphne de Rohan, who has obtained world-wide fame as a society actress, vocalist, instrumentalist (mandolinist), and dancer, not to speak of other accomplishments, is an honorary member and patroness of the French "Mariniers Ambulanciers," and being much interested in swimming and life-saving work, kindly gave her services to the committee. Mlle. de Rohan, who specially arranged the scene and composed the very elegant gavotte therein introduced, really surpassed herself. Gowned in a lovely silver, pearl covered costume, which enhanced her natural charms, she seemed the perfect incarnation of the wayward lady of fashion of that bygone age of perruques and powder. Her enunciation is particularly clear and silvery, and, when she danced with old-world grace the stately measures of the gavotte the finishing touch was given to a chef d'œuvre of dramatic art. At the conclusion, amidst loud applause, Mlle. de Rohan received a fine bouquet from the committee. —Kent Herald, Nov. 11, 1906.

MR. J. BANNISTER HOWARD will put before his rapidly-increasing patrons at the Crystal Palace Theatre next week Mr. Charles Macdona's principal company in Three Little Maids. At Mr. Howard's Castle Theatre, Richmond, for the last three evenings of the week, the attraction will be Lights Out, presented by Mr. J. Maundy-Gregory's company.

NEW PLAYS AT LADBROKE HALL.

The Thalia Dramatic Society presented at Ladbroke Hall, Notting Hill, on Thursday evening three new one-act plays. The first of these was a comedietta by Kitty Smart, entitled

"HER NEXT NOVEL."

Sir Giles Cripplegate..MR. HOLDSWORTH FISHER
Hugh Trevor .....MR. G. ESDALE
Norah Fitzgerald .....MISS FLORENCE DOWSE
Lily Landon .....MISS MINNA WING
Susan .....MISS G. HEINRICH

A quiet, simple little piece, fairly well written, and quite suitable for amateur actors. Norah Fitzgerald is a lady novelist who lives in a flat, where she receives a visit from Sir Giles Cripplegate and her friend Lily Landon. Norah is secretly in love with a young man named Hugh Trevor, but finding she has a rival for his affections in Lily, she generously sacrifices her own feelings and promises to help her friend. Therefore when Hugh calls, and after explaining that he has just had the offer of a lucrative appointment, makes ardent love to Norah, his amatory overtures are coldly received. He naturally believes that he has been deceived by the lady and that his wooing is only to be made use of as material for a penny novelette. Norah, however, remains staunch to her friend, and Hugh takes his departure in high dudgeon. Then Lily Landon, who may reasonably be described as a fickle young person, returns and joyfully announces that Sir Giles has asked her to marry him, and she has consented. Hugh Trevor also comes back to ask forgiveness for the unkind words he had used to Norah, who quickly gives him to understand that she has changed her mind, whereupon he is overcome with joy. He enquires why she refused his offer of marriage an hour or so ago, and she replies—not quite truthfully, be it said—"Oh, simply to gain a new experience for my next novel." Mr. G. Esdale played the part of Hugh Trevor with commendable earnestness and conviction; and Miss Florence Dowse was a pleasing but amateurish Norah Fitzgerald. Mr. Holdsworth Fisher made Sir Giles Cripplegate an irritatingly inane individual; Miss Minna Wing was an animated Lily Landon, and Miss G. Heinrich as the servant Susan completed the cast.

The next new production was a fantastic play by B. N. Graham, entitled

"THE ROSE WITH A THORN."

Pierrot .....MR. ERNEST HOWE
Pierrette .....MISS GERTRUDE CHURCHILL
Corin, a Shepherd .....MR. G. ESDALE
Mira, a Shepherdess .....MISS GRACE BATLEY

Fantistic but not very funny, this little play shows only a faint glimmering of real humour. The plot, too, is somewhat nebulous; but we gather that Pierrot and Pierrette, travellers from Moonlight, pay a visit to Sunland in search of adventures, and on the borders of a wood make the acquaintance of Corin, a shepherd, and Mira, a pretty shepherdess, with whom he is very deeply in love. Mira carries in her hand a small rose bush, and the strong perfume of the flowers apparently possesses some potent influence, for after smelling the roses Corin suddenly transfers his affections to Pierrette, and snubs poor Mira. However, matters are put right by the magic pricks of the thorn, and the travellers from Moonland depart, leaving the bucolic lovers quite reconciled and happy. Mr. Ernest Howe and Miss Gertrude Churchill sustained the parts of Pierrot and Pierrette with appropriate vivacity of manner; Mr. G. Esdale was amusing as the love-lorn shepherd, and Miss Grace Batley spoke her lines well as the shepherdess.

The third piece in the programme was a comedy in one act, by F. E. Potter, entitled

"KNAVE OF HEARTS."

Sir Ralph Hamilton-Eyre, Bart. .....MR. CORYTON DAY
Dick Cuninghame .....MR. ERNEST HOWE
Peters .....MR. PLANTAGENET LUMSDALE
Dulcie Fane .....MISS G. HEINRICH

Knave of Hearts reveals the inexperienced playwright in a lurid light. The action is much too slow, the story is awkwardly handled, and much of the dialogue is inept, discursive, and hopelessly feeble. Sir Ralph Hamilton-Eyre, late of the Indian Service, and his niece, Dulcie Fane, are on the rise of the curtain discovered in a summer-house on the banks of the Thames. They indulge in a game of nap, of which the old gentleman from India is very fond, and the knave of hearts turns up with remarkable frequency, and wins a trick every time. The audience were not sorry when the—to them—tedious game was interrupted by the arrival of Dick Cuninghame, alias Aubrey Lyle, who has performed some gallant deed in one of our little wars in India, and is described by the enthusiastic old gentleman as "the lion of the season." He and Dulcie have met before, and parted years ago through a misunderstanding which arose in consequence of an undelivered letter. The young man enlisted in an assumed name, and has risen to the rank of captain. Explanations ensue, and the one-time lovers renew their vows, the gentleman's advent having been forecast by the eccentric behaviour of the knave of hearts. Mr. Coryton Day did very well in the part of the old gentleman from India; Mr. Ernest Howe was a satisfactory Dick Cuninghame; Miss G. Heinrich was an intelligent and graceful Dulcie Fane, and Mr. Plantagenet Lumsdale appeared as Peters. A programme of music by the St. James's Orchestra of amateurs, under the direction of Mr. Sydney W. Toms, was played during the intervals.

PRINCESS LOUISE (Duchess of Argyll), accompanied by the Duke of Argyll and suite, were present at Wyndham's Theatre on Thursday, and witnessed the performance of Peter's Mother.

CHAPPELL & CO.'S PANTOMIME SUCCESSES.

Songs for Principal Boy:

"WHISPERS OF LOVE,"
"THE PARISIENNE,"
"VIVE LE SPORT,"
"MAL DE MER,"
by Harry Fragson.

"ROSE-A-RUBIE," by Bernard Rolt.

"WHEN THE STARS ARE SHINING IN THE SKY,"
by Garnet Wolseley Cox.

"RAMONA" (Indian Love Song),
by Lee Johnson.

Songs for Principal Girl:

"LOVE'S LAST WORD,"
by Octave Cremieux.

"THE LILY OF BOULTER'S LOCK,"
"THE LITTLE GOLD FIREFLY,"
by Bernard Rolt.

Songs for Principal Girl:—continued.

"LA MATTCHICHE" (Maxixe),
by Ch. Borel-Clerc.

"WHEN THE STARS ARE SHINING IN THE SKY,"
by Garnet Wolseley Cox.

"KISSING IS NO SIN,"
by Edw. Eysler.

Songs for Fairy Queen:

"CARESSANTE,"
by Frank Lambert.

"THE WIND IN THE ORCHARD,"
by Frank E. Tours.

"A SONG OF ANDALUSIA,"
by E. J. Margetson.

Songs for Comedian:

"VIVE LE SPORT,"
"MAL DE MER,"
"THE PARISIENNE,"
by Harry Fragson.

"A SURPRISE,"
by Frank E. Tours.

N.B.—We can confidently recommend all the above, as they have been placed with most of the principal Pantomimes throughout the country. Professional copies will be supplied to recognised artists upon receipt of professional card and six stamps for each song required.

Instrumental:

"THE WHISTLER AND HIS DOG,"
Caprice, by Arthur Pryor.

"HOP-SCOTCH," Two-Step,
by Paul A. Rubens.

Instrumental:—continued.

"HALLO! HALLO!" March,
by P. Maria Costa.

"CHRISTMAS," Valse,
by Alfred Margis.

"FOLIE D'AMOUR," Valse,
by Paul Fanchey.

"FASCINATION," Valse,
by F. D. Marchetti.

"WIENER FRAUEN," Valse,
by Franz Lehar.

"REVE DE JEUNESSE," Valse,
"SOURIRE D'AMOUR," Valse,
by Frank Lambert.

N.B.—The above are particularly recommended for Ballets and Marches.

CHAPPELL & CO., LTD., 50, NEW BOND STREET, LONDON, W.

LONDON & SUBURBAN THEATRES.

THE MARLBOROUGH.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Musical Play, entitled
"THE BLUE MOON."

Mr. Robert Courtneidge's Dairymaids company has been succeeded this week by his Blue Moon company, the first visit to the North of London of this successful Lyric musical extravaganza. The representation is as finished and complete and as sumptuously mounted as could be wished for. Full advantage is taken of the opportunities presented by the Marlborough stage for the effective presentment of the gorgeous scenery, and the quick change of the elaborate sets is in no small measure due to the able stage-management of Mr. David Fisher, jun., and his assistants. The company is one and all up to a very high standard of merit. Miss Florence Smithson scores a distinct success both by her quiet acting and with the vocal numbers allotted to the part of Chandra Nil. Mr. Herbert Clayton met with a hearty reception as Captain Jack Ormsby. His acting is good, and he is a singer of exceptional merit. Both artists are encored for their contributions, and especially good is their duet "Mystic Love." Mr. Leslie Gaze plays and sings well as Major Vivian Callabone, and Mr. George Mudie, jun., deserves favourable mention for his breezy portrayal of Bobby Scott. Mr. Thomas Holding is to be commended for a clever performance as Prince Badahur Samatsinjhi; and Mr. J. W. Duval (Abdul), Mr. Walter Lynham (Hafez), Mr. Arthur Wyndham (Hon. Archie May), and Mr. Horace Manger (Clive Mansfield) treat their respective characters in a natural and effective manner. Mr. Bert Gilbert as Private Charles Taylor works like a Trojan; his comedy acting is above the average, and his real ability for versatile dancing makes him a conspicuous figure. His comic rendering of the song "Mother" is much appreciated, and many encores are demanded for his "Crocodile" song and eccentric dance, in which he is ably assisted by a number of "Oriental" ladies. Miss Lulu Valli is a smart and vivacious Millicent Leroy. Both these artists play well into each others hands. Miss Valli secures a well-earned encore for "She didn't know," and both she and Mr. Gilbert in their burlesque on music hall items appear quite exhausted before the audience is satisfied. Mr. Edward Lewis is funny in the part of Moolraj; his dry humour and the alert way he scores points when opportunity serves are indeed capital. Miss Mabel Lorrell plays Lady Augusta Brabasham, and her voice and manner contribute to a successful reading of the rôle. Miss Daisy Revett is very smart as Evelyn Ormsby; she has a happy manner of imparting the maximum of piquancy to the lines falling to her share. In the remaining parts all are deserving of praiseworthy mention, but we must not omit to pay a deserved compliment to Mr. Ernest Hurman, the musical conductor, and the chorus, which has been so well drilled, acquit themselves with merit.

KING'S THEATRE, HAMMERSMITH.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Play, by Wilkie Collins, entitled
"THE NEW MAGDALEN."

Mr. Mulholland's revival of The New Magdalen is a distinctly interesting one. He is the proud possessor of the original MSS. in Wilkie Collins's handwriting, and, we believe, holds the performing rights of the play. Upon both of which he can be congratulated. The New Magdalen is the most skilful and was the most successful of Wilkie Collins's several plays, and ought to be much more in demand. The part of Mercy Merrick requires the powers of a really great actress, and the present production fortunately can boast of having been the means of giving a further example of the remarkable talent of a young actress of extraordinary promise, namely, Miss Edith Wynne-Matthison. She positively electrified the house on Monday evening by her powerful acting, and in the scene where, stung by her taunts, she defies Grace Roseberry she received a well-merited ovation. Mr. Walner Gregory assisted by a very spirited representation of Horace Holmcroft. Captain Arnault was capably played by Mr. F. L. Lawrence, and Mr. James Storey made a clever Surgeon Surville. A sound performance was that of Mr. Lloyd Townrow as Surgeon Wetzell, the German army doctor. Mr. Ernest E. Norris rendered Julian Gray, the clergyman, very successfully. His acting was well within the picture, and he proved a valuable colleague in the scenes with Mercy Merrick. As Grace Roseberry Miss Ethel Royale bore herself with proper distinction and skill in that very unsympathetic part; and Miss Phyllis Manners scored as the dear old Lady Janet Roy. The scenery was, as usual, up to the high standard of the King's Theatre.

THE CAMDEN.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Farcical Comedy, in Three Acts, by Brandon Thomas, entitled
"CHARLEY'S AUNT."

The old lady hailing from Brazil, "where the nuts come from," is still running, and this week she is in Camden Town, where her stage career is being laughed at as heartily as ever. Mr. Brandon Thomas's capital company opened at the Camden on Monday to a well-filled house, and the comedy went as merrily as ever. Mr. Stanley Cooke again appears as Lord Fancourt Babberly, and his assumption of the rôle of Charley's aunt is as mirth-provoking as of yore, for he never overdoes the part, and proves his value as a first-rate comedian. As Jack Chesney Mr. Hastings Lynn is in every way acceptable; and Mr. Richard B. Mason is decidedly good as Charley Wykeham. Miss Lena McNaughton is seen to advantage as the real Donna Lucia, a part which she fills in a distinguished manner. The Misses Lilyan Lait and Kitty Carew are both most charming as Kitty Verdum and Amy Spettigue. Ela Delahay is fascinatingly depicted by Miss Eva Boyne, who plays in a very sweet manner; Stephen Spettigue has a fine exponent in Mr. Walter Beaumont, who hits off the character in most amusing fashion. Mr. Sydney Compton, in his old part of Brassett, is again most successful; and Mr. C. B. Keston is likewise good as Sir Francis Chesney. The comedy is preceded by a clever little play, Fourchette and Co., also from the pen of Mr. Thomas, in which Mr. C. B. Keston and Miss Eva Boyne appear with much success. Mr. C. B Keston is the stage-manager, and Mr. Alleyn M. Hylton the manager of the company.

THE SHAKESPEARE.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Comedy, by Edward A. Parry and Frederick Mouillot, entitled
"WHAT THE BUTLER SAW."

It has long been known What the Butler Saw at Foden Wells Hydro, but the story—as interpreted by Mr. Lionel Rignold and Miss Ada Blanche's capable company—is so humorous and entertaining that it is very evident that for years to come it will be well worth repeating. The visit had been eagerly anticipated by Clapham playgoers, and at the opening performance on Monday evening the theatre, from floor to ceiling, was filled with an enthusiastic audience. Miss Ada Blanche, by her clever and spirited impersonation of the fascinating Mrs. Barrington, added another triumph to her long list of successes, and at the final fall of the curtain was accorded much applause. The popular comedian, Mr. Lionel Rignold, as Pink the butler, has a part which suits him to perfection. Mr. Charles Fawcett contributed a delightful embodiment of Jack Barrington, who is so susceptible to the charms of the fair sex, and in an arduous and exacting rôle acquitted himself with distinct success. Another good performance was that of Mr. Reddick Anderson, who submitted a natural and polished performance as Sir Charles Foden. Mr. George Ascott scored with a clever delineation of the peppery General Dunlop; and Mr. Harry Rignold depicted the Jew, Abraham Weinstein, with excellent effect. Mr. Louis Lingard as Sydney Clifford, Mr. Alec Alves as Vere de Bogyns, and Mr. Frank Kingsley as Dr. Clayton were capable exponents of their respective parts; and Mr. Roy Boyford as Professor Shales caused much laughter by his appearance, in the last act, as an early Briton. Miss Marie Daltra displayed considerable ability in the rôle of Miss Foden; and Miss Jenny Wigney was pleasing as Nora. Miss Hilda Davies and Miss Vera O'Connell, as the two Miss Dunlops, also rendered valuable assistance. Miss Violet Gould as Mrs. Fleming Smyth, and Miss Annie Coward as Mrs. Hake, contributed excellent performances in their respective parts, and are deserving of warm praise. Miss Minnie Willett was satisfactory as Sophonisba Hake; and the parts of Fanny and Maria were adequately sustained by Miss Agnes Webster and Miss Dorothy Garth. The scenery is admirable, and the dresses, &c., very effective. Mr. W. H. Cecil Pierpont is acting-manager for Mr. Lionel Rignold and Miss Ada Blanche.

THE CORONET.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
"THE SPRING CHICKEN."

Mr. George Edwardes's company is appearing this week at the pretty Notting Hill Gate theatre, under the business-management of Mr. W. H. Hesseltine. The piece is prettily mounted and dressed, and the scene at the Crimson Butterfly Restaurant is gorgeous in the extreme. Miss Gertrude Glyn is delightfully winsome and sparkling with animation as the charming Rosalie, and her Dutch clog-dance is exceedingly graceful and quaintly contrived. Miss Irene Verona is one of the best of the "Connie Ediss" impersonators, and adds little touches of her own to the part of Mrs. Girdle, her songs, "I can guess," and "Regent-street," go with a swing. Miss Gertrude Gilliam is an attractive Baroness Papouche, and her affectation of terror lest the little supper-party should be surprised by her husband, is most realistic and laughable, and her rendition of "It's the very first time" is quite in keeping with the character. Miss Nancy Langtyre has one of the best songs in the piece allotted to her in the shape of "Gently," which never fails to please, and she gives a sweet and sympathetic rendering of the part of Dulcie Babori. Mr. George Gregory is immensely funny as the indefatigable Mr. Girdle, and in song and dance and "business," he is one of the merriest fellows we could wish to while away the time with at any musical comedy. As "Ajax defying the soap trust" he is "great." Mr. John Brabourne, who was such a prime favourite in last year's pantomime here, acts the part of "le coquin de Printemps" with great ability, his transition from the earnest, sedate advocate to the giddy, frivolous bird of passage, is very aptly indicated in manner and appearance. Mr. Fred Leslie, jun., shows indications of inheriting the talents and of being a credit to his illustrious forbear, and as a singer, actor, and dancer he does marvellously well; and Miss Nellie Lonnen, as Emmy Lou, is another who is equally promising, especially as an exponent of the calisthenic art. Miss Jennie McNulty's name catches the eye; and Mr. William Spray does good work as the young hopeful, Stephen Henry Girdle. Mr. Frank Hector makes an effective entrance as Baron Papouche; and Mr. Jocelyn Hope is funny as the infuriated proprietor of the Crimson Butterfly restaurant. Mr H. C. Portway stage-manages the production, and Mr. Ernest Vousden conducts the augmented orchestra.

DALSTON THEATRE.

On Monday, Nov. 19, the Drama, entitled
"OLIVER TWIST."

Mr J. Bannister Howard's company is presenting at the Dalston Theatre this week Mr. J. Comyns Carr's adaption of Dickens's novel, Oliver Twist. This is the second visit little Oliver has paid to Dalston, and, judging by the enthusiastic reception accorded the entire performance, it would appear that the story woven around the life of the workhouse waif appeals strongly to the sympathies of residents of this part of London. Miss Dorothy Marsdin takes the part of Oliver Twist, and she succeeds in investing the character with a considerable amount of interest. Fagin finds a weird, but, withal, an impressive representative in Mr. Stanley Drewitt; Mr. James Skea brings out all the terrible ferocity of the brutal Bill Sikes; and Nancy is sympathetically played by Miss Edith Anton Laing. Miss Dorothy Mayhew makes a charming Rose Maylie; and Miss A. Lingham is well placed as Mrs. Maylie. Mr. W. H. Rotherham scores in the dual characters of Mr. Grimwig and Monks, a combination requiring considerable diversity of style. Mr. Fred Penley represents Mr. Brownlow, Mr. Charlie Clark the artful dodger, Mr. R. C. Hunter Charlie Bates, Mr. J. Johns appears as Tom Chitling, and Mr. Arthur Klein as Barney. The cast also includes Miss Cicely Oates, Miss J. Tyres, Mr. Paige Lawrence, Mr. E. Walsh, Mr. J. C. Appleby, Mr. T. Williams, Mr. Crank, Mr. J. James, and Mr. C. Brown.

GRAND, WOOLWICH.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Comedy, by Cosmo Gordon Lennox, entitled
"THE FREEDOM OF SUZANNE."

An excellent house assembled here on Monday night to welcome Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company in the above-named comedy. An excellent company has been got together, and the interpretation of the play is in good hands throughout. In the title-rôle Miss Mabel Love is provided with a part which is admirably suited to her particular style of acting, and which she plays with a spontaneous gaiety and vivacity all her own. Suzanne's varying moods—from light-hearted carelessness to momentary fits of tearful repentance—are rendered with rare skill, and the whole character is portrayed with commendable naturalness and absence of effort. Mr. Percy Hutchison plays Charles Trevor in good style, acting easily and quietly a part that calls for considerable exercise of these qualities. He is particularly successful in the love scene at the end of the last act, in which his acting shows an admirable combination of tact and suppressed passion. A most amusing rendering of Fitzroy Harding is submitted by Mr. F. G. Thurstans, whose humour is as unforced as it is characteristic, and makes one quite regret his early disappearance from the scene of action. Miss Annie Stalman is sufficiently shrewish as Lady Charlotte; Miss Florence Harwood is amusing as Fanny Minching; and Miss Violet Ley makes the most of the small part of Lady Isabel. Mr. J. Hastings Batson makes a decided hit as Lord Datchet; Mr. Patrick Quill is an admirable and good-humoured Sir Horace Hatton; Mr. Townsend Whitling plays forcibly as Captain Harry Cecil; and Mr. Richard Neville does as well as possible in the somewhat thankless and characterless part of Tommy Keston. The play is mounted and staged with an unusual degree of elaborateness.

NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE, POPLAR.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Comedy-Drama, in Three Acts,
by Herbert Keith and J. T. Tanner, entitled
"THE BROKEN MELODY."

M. Auguste Van Biene and company are presenting The Broken Melody at this theatre during the present week. As Paul Borinski, the Polish refugee, he is interesting, and his skill on the 'cello wins him much applause. Mr. Henry Ludlow gives an excellent portrayal of the character of General Ivanhoff, supplying just that touch of officialdom which gives realism to the part. Mr. Charles A. Morgan is capital as Dickson, the lodging-house keeper, who proves such an excellent friend in adversity. As Mortimer, Mr. Faulkner Cox provides plenty of amusement as a theatrical agent of a very energetic nature; and Mr. Lawrence Grove as Beaufour, a concert impresario, is highly successful. Mr. Archie Selwyn makes the most of his opportunities as the Hon. Richard Spinnaker; and Mr. W. Thompson gives a careful rendering of the part of Dr. Magrath. Miss Rosemary Lees as the Duchess plays with earnestness and feeling; as the Hon. Mrs. Spinnaker, Miss Mary Mannering is exceedingly amusing; and Miss Rosie Lewis as Miss Dickson could scarcely be bettered. Miss Lena Turnleigh as Mabel proves herself to be an actress of considerable power, and quickly wins the sympathies of her audience for her highly effective rendering. The piece is excellently staged and produced under the capable managment of Mr. Gilbert Heron.

KENNINGTON THEATRE.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Historical Drama, entitled
"DOROTHY O' THE HALL."

This charming play was presented to a critically discriminating but none the less enthusiastic audience by Mr. Fred Terry's company, and was acclaimed a complete success. The story is one of absorbing interest, not only to the ordinary lover of the drama, but to all students of the romantic incidents of English history, and the possibilities are fully exploited at the hands of Mr. Fred Terry, Miss Julia Neilson, and their company. The play contains some scenes of tragic intensity which hold the audience spellbound, and give the principal characters opportunity of displaying their undoubtedly great power of dramatic interpretation. The staging is excellent, and the dresses are accurate in every point of detail, so that the audience have quite a series of instructive and picturesque tableaux of the stirring days of the sixteenth century presented them. Mr. Fred Terry was admirable as Sir John Manners, a character eminently suited to an artist of his rare gifts. His was a powerful study of the part. Miss Julia Neilson was as warm a favourite as ever in the title-rôle, her charming manner and vivid portraiture of the girl anxious to save her lover's life bringing down the house. As the Earl of Rutland, Mr. F. Groves gave an excellent impression. Mr. Horace Hodges ably represented Perkin, the deformed jester; Mr. J. Carter-Edwards scores as Sir George Vernon; Mr. Jerrold Robertshaw deserves praise for his effective Sir Malcolm Vernon. Miss Claire Pauncefort did well in the part of Lady Vernon. The Mary Queen of Scots of Miss Lilias Waldegrave left little to be desired; and Miss Miriam Lewis gave a careful study of Queen Elizabeth. The Misses Mary Mackenzie, Marion Sterling, Messrs. Frederick Groves, D. J. Williams, Malcolm Cherry, Haines, Edwin Dudley, and Borthwick also lend valuable assistance, and the romantic play is admirably mounted and dressed.

GRAND THEATRE, ISLINGTON.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Drama, in Four Acts, by Arthur Shirley and Wm. Muskerry, entitled
"A CITY OF SIN."

Messrs. Dottridge, Longden, and Elliott's company in the above drama is the current attraction at his theatre. In choosing Paris as the locale of the play, the authors have utilised all the opportunities for both vivid and sensational incidents, and the result is a production that fulfils to the full every demand that popular melodrama has to satisfy. Mr. Conrad Heywood as Paul Lorraine has a part that calls for a good deal of resource, both as an actor and quick-change artist, but he surmounted the difficulties with distinction. Zip Barzon receives excellent treatment from Mr. Wilfred Braham, who acts with intensity and power. Mr. J. Berresford touches the right note as Mortain, and submits a clever study. The welcome humorous relief is in the safe hands of Messrs. C. W. Spencer and Val. C. Gully, together with Mesdames Polly Denville and Elvira Stuart, their matrimonial experiences furnishing abundant material for laughter. Messrs. W. H. Burton as Bertrand and J. Gardner as Boulard render valuable aid; and Mr. W. G. Clements is an efficient police-sergeant. Miss Jenny Weston as Ilma acts with obvious sincerity, and makes a good impression. Miss Edith Wallis as Alice is very effective in the rôle. Smaller parts are all satisfactorily filled by the remaining members of the cast. The mounting of the drama is on a lavish scale, the big scene, the Devil's Casino, being a very effective stage-set. A good audience witnessed the performance on Monday, and very cordial applause was the order of the evening.

THE GRAND, FULHAM.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Historical Play, in Four Acts, entitled
"CHARLOTTE CORDAY."

This play, founded on the tragic career of Charlotte Corday, has provided Mrs. Brown Potter with good opportunities of displaying her great dramatic powers. Her performance is a fine one throughout. It is a clever study of the character of a woman with a mission, a devotee and a mystic, almost entirely preoccupied with her purpose, when once it has taken possession of her, very much like Charlotte's great prototype, the Maid of Orleans. Possibly, it is in the later scenes of the play that Mrs. Brown Potter is at her best, particularly in the last and most moving scene of all, the farewell to her friends in the prison of the Conciergerie, in which the actress makes a beautiful and strikingly pathetic figure. Much excellent work is done by other members of the cast. Mr. Clarence Blakiston contributes a fine study of the grim personality of the infamous Marat, and shows fine power in his last scene. Mr. Esme Percy acts well as Charlotte's unhappy lover, Adam Lux; while Mr. Edwin Palmer and Mr. F. Morland are admirable representatives of the two old men, Charlotte's father and the Abbé Fleuriot. Mr. Lawrence Grant plays the famous painter David in the grand manner, and is well supported by Mr. Harold Payne as the advocate, Chauveaux-Lagarde. Mr. Frank Collins contributes a dash of humour to the otherwise undiluted tragedy as the barber Potin; and so do the representatives of a most truculent patriot and his unfortunate landlord. Miss Dora Maitland acts sympathetically as Charlotte's sister Rose; and Miss Lena Pierpoint does well as Simonne Evrard.

LYRIC, HAMMERSMITH.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Drama, by Arthur Jefferson, entitled
"THE WORLD'S VERDICT."

An excellent production of the above domestic drama is being given by the Lyric's stock company at their theatre this week, and a full house nightly is recorded. Mr. D. G. Noble, to whom the villainous part of Jasper Woodleigh is entrusted, is quite equal to the responsibility, and renders the rôle in a life-like and telling manner. Mr. A. Bawtree as George Ashford, the somewhat unfortunate but gallant hero, gives a praiseworthy performance of an English gentleman. As Cora Cassillis, Miss Beatrice May is excellent. A sweet, yet emotional, heroine is portrayed by Miss Agnes Collier as Nellie Ashford, and on the night of our visit she received much applause. Miss Louise Hampton is responsible for the pathetic character, Florence Woodleigh, and runs her performance through with a charming grace and pathos. There is plenty of merriment in the play, Mr. A. P. Kayne as Sammy Carrot and Miss May Seton as Sally Jenkins causing roars of laughter at their every appearance. A word of praise must be given to Mr. Edward Harvey for his wonderful impersonation of Sir Geoffrey Woodleigh—a part all too short; while Mr. J. P. Dryden as Jeremiah Screw is really good. A character at once realistic and gruesome is that of Nathan Block, a dangerous maniac, played by Mr. Alfred Holles with considerable skill. Others who deserve mention are Mr. Ashton Winslow as old Ned, the postman, and Mr. Alfred Manning as the Inspector.

THE CROWN, PECKHAM.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Musical Comedy, entitled
"THE BELLE OF NEW YORK."

The Belle of New York has visited Peckham several times before, but, judging from the enthusiastic and crowded audience on Monday, the charms of the dainty and melodious young lady remain unabated, and have in no degree lost their attraction for local playgoers. Mr. George Musgrove's principal company, which is under the direction of Mr. J. Bannister Howard, gives an excellent rendering of the famous musical comedy, which has the advantage of possessing Mr. Frank Lawton in his original part of Blinky Bill. Mr. Lawton, by his whistling, dancing, and performance on the bones, secures a great reception. Miss Florence Hersee ably seconds him as Bill's sweetheart, Mamie Clancy. The little lady works untiringly throughout the evening, and her clever dancing is much appreciated. Miss Empsie Bowman makes a pretty and demure Salvation lass, as Violet Grey, rendering her musical numbers in excellent style. Miss Lily Maxwell is very fascinating and engaging as the French girl, Fifi Fricot, and one can quite forgive the millionaire's son for falling a victim to her allurements. Miss Winnie Browne is a handsome and stately Cora Angelique, and shows considerable vocal ability. Mr. Paddy Dupres exhibits much humour as Ichabod Bronson; and Mr. John Doran sings nicely, and acts pleasantly as Harry Bronson. Mr. Max Copeland gives a clever character-sketch in the rôle of Karl von Pimpernick, "the polite lunatic," his German-American accent being well sustained. Mr. Walter Uridge is quaint and humorous as Kenneth Mugg, the low comedian, whose manager, the portly Doc Snifkins, is well played by Mr. Alfred Sandoe. The Portuguese Twins receive adequate treatment at the hands of Messrs. Lionel Yeoman and R. L. Cody. Mr. Ernee Woodville conducts efficiently; and the large chorus render effective aid throughout. One of the chief attractions of the production is the bright and effective scenery, notably the street in Chinatown, and on the lawn at the Casino.

THE TERRISS.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Drama, by the late F. A. Scudamore, entitled
"THE BEAUTIFUL AVENGER."

On Monday, the members of the clever stock company at this theatre gave a further instance of their capability by a most acceptable rendering of the late Mr. Scudamore's play, The Beautiful Avenger. It is an interesting piece of work, and well suited to a popular audience, as the applause on Monday night rightly testified. Mr. Ashley Page plays the hero, Cyrus Telford, in his usual forcible and telling style, well realising the character. Miss Marion Denvil, in the title-rôle, has a good part, and a great reception is awarded her for her artistic efforts. Miss Denvil is a great favourite at this house. Mr. John Sargent has an arduous task in playing the old scoundrel Zadoc Foxbane, and scores heavily, enlivening the part with some grim flashes of humour. His son, Herman Foxbane, is excellently acted by Mr. Alfred Harding. Miss Georgie De Lara gives sympathetic treatment to the rôle of the unfortunate girl, Edna Volta; and Mr. Johnny Chippendale causes much laughter as Peregrine Patch. Miss Mattie Everett is very amusing as Arabella Binks; and Miss Ida Taylor is pathetic in the character of the poor lad, Baldie Mansfield. Mr. C. A. Chandler is humorous as Jim J'hams. Special music has been composed for the play by the musical conductor at this theatre, Mr. Alexander Humphreys. The scenery and effects are all that can be desired.

THE WEST LONDON.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Play, in Five Acts, by Theo. Kremer, entitled
"THE FATAL WEDDING."

The return visit of Mr. Bert Coote's company to Marylebone proved to be very welcome, and a hearty reception was accorded them. Mr. Wilson Howard impersonates Mr. Howard Wilson in a suitable way; Mr. Guy Hastings thoroughly succeeds in making a good impression as Robert Curtis; Mr. E. Morgan skilfully portrays the French butler, Toto; Mr. Jack Waring gives a humorous study of O'Reilly; and Mr. Arthur Law Raynor, in addition to his duties as business-manager for Mr. Coote, proffers an imposing and dignified portrayal of the Rev. Dr. Lanceford. The important rôle of Cora Williams is sustained by Miss Leah Marlborough in a convincing and masterly way, which instantly attracts great attention; Miss Katherine Clarke enacts Mabel Wilson in a painstaking way; Miss Blanche Stanley makes a hit as Bridget; and Miss Madge McCalla fashions prettily as Jessie. The chorus of specially trained children in the third act is most effective, and a great measure of praise is due to Master Walter Aubrey for his skilful step-dancing; to Miss Ivy Westaby for her singing of "Absence makes the heart grow fonder"; to Miss Winnie Crisp for her clever toe-dancing; to Miss Madge McCalla for her rendering of "Honey, won't you stop teasing me?"; and to Miss Dolly McCalla for her Indian coon song and dance, "Cariboo," which she gave in quite her best style.

COUNTY THEATRE, KINGSTON.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Musical Play, entitled
"THE LITTLE MICHUS."

Notwithstanding the dull and depressing weather, there have been good houses at the Kingston playhouse this week to witness this charming production, which was presented by one of Mr. George Dance's companies, which is equivalent to saying that it was presented well. The humour of the play was not lost upon those who came to hear and see, judging by their laughter, which was almost continuous, and the tuneful music was equally well appreciated. Chief honours were carried off by Mr. Foster Courtenay, who as the eccentric General des Ifs was irresistibly funny. The two little Michus, Marie and Blanche, were charmingly portrayed by the Misses Alice Coverick and Ethel Bryan, who each invested the part with a naïve simplicity that was most engaging. Their singing and dancing, too, were very cleverly done. Mr. Leon Simkin and Miss Florence Hylton as Pierre and Madame Michu were both most satisfactory in the parts allotted to them; and Mr. Gilbert Childs as the facetious aide-de-camp Bagnolet contributed considerably to the general hilarity. Good work was done by Mr. William Everard as Gaston Regaud, whose voice was heard to advantage in the numbers allotted to him; and valuable assistance was also rendered by Mr. Robert C. Harcourt, who made a most acceptable Aristide Vert. A word of commendation is also deserved by Mlle. Marjorie for her graceful dancing. The chorus is a numerous and well-trained one, and was admirably kept under control by Mr. Otto Manns, who also conducted an augmented orchestra.

BOROUGH THEATRE, STRATFORD.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Drama, in Five Acts, by Frederick Melville, entitled
"HER FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE."

The patrons of the popular parts of the spacious Borough Theatre are directly catered for this week by the engagement of Mr. Fredk. Melville's company in Her Forbidden Marriage, which is paying a return visit. Mr. Henry Lonsdale plays in manly and convincing style as George Madison; and the villainous Charles Devereux is portrayed in an incisive and forcible manner by Mr. Louis Hector. Mr. Beresford Whitcomb makes a natural and dignified Sir George Lancaster, and Mr. Leonard Maxwell does excellent work as Geoffrey Broughton. Mr. Fred De Vere is decidedly amusing as Timothy Tuttutt, and his odd actions cause roars of laughter. Mr. Arthur Hickman does well as John William; Mr. Rawdon Vivian plays Rev. Mr. Dean appropriately; Mr. Wm. Griffin is smart as Inspector Doone; and Mr. Philip Renouf gives an able sketch of an old rustic. Miss Octavia Noel portrays with ease and fluency the adventuress, Lady Lucretia Lancaster; and Miss Nellie Bonsor is a sympathetic and charming Lucy. Miss Barbara Gott lends distinction to the part of the Mother Superior; and Miss Denny Fitzherbert makes a bright and sprightly Patty Lovejoy. Mr. John A. Atkin worthily fulfils the duties of general and stage manager of the company.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, N.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Drama, in Four Acts, by A. Conan Doyle, entitled
"BRIGADIER GERARD."

A very complete performance is given at the Alexandra Theatre this week of Conan Doyle's stirring and exciting play, Brigadier Gérard, by Mr. Lewis Waller's company, under the direction of Mr. Peter Davey. The piece is admirably dressed and no less admirably mounted, and evidently no pains have been spared to make the production in every way a successful one. The hero, who is only "Captain" Gérard until almost the final fall of the curtain, is played by Mr. Loring Fernie, who infuses plenty of dash and spirit into his impersonation, and fully realises the character of the gallant Gascon. A finished and clever piece of acting comes from Mr. George Mallett, who, as Talleyrand, submits one of the most striking and artistic performances in the piece. Mr. Arthur Somers as the Emperor Napoleon does not make his appearance until the last act, but the excellence of his work leaves a marked impression. The rôle of the Comtesse de Roquelaure is allotted to Miss Maud Hoffman, who proves herself fully equal to all the demands made upon her. A bright little sketch of the maid, Agnes, comes from Miss Gertrude Beattie; and a characteristic Mère Lafitte is found in Miss Florence Denbigh. Other parts of a long cast noticeably well played are those filled by Messrs. Cecil Wynne, Edwin Bennett, Reginald Mason, Arthur Bowyer, Frank Powell, Fenn Hamilton, and J. Henry Twyford. Messrs. Leon M. Lion and Tom Gallon's one-act play, The Borrowed Uncle, is played as a curtain-raiser by Miss Gertrude Beattie and Messrs. Frank Powell, Arthur Claremont, and Arthur Somers, the last-mentioned being particularly good as Filby, an escaped convict.

THE ELEPHANT AND CASTLE.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Drama, in Four Acts, by Arthur Jefferson, entitled
"LONDON BY DAY AND NIGHT."

Large audiences are being attracted this week by the interestingly improbable incidents so convincingly dramatised in London by Day and Night. The author is much indebted to Mr. J. M. East's excellent stock company, which gives a most adequate rendering of this powerful and stirring play. Mr. Albert Ward, in the responsible part of Richard Thorneycroft, contributes greatly to the success of the piece, and realistically plays the careworn and much-wronged guardian. Mr. Horace Hunter gives another of his well-finished and polished representations as Gideon Snake, a shady legal villain, and equally successful as his accomplice in crime is Miss East Robertson as Olga Snake. Mr. W. H. Hatchman is entirely effective as Edgar Thorneycroft, a sea captain. Mr. William Felton gives a careful reading of Jack Hainsworth, who might be described as the hero of the play. Mr. Horace Pollock plays in a convincing style as Geo. Fleming, a man of many parts. Miss Irene Ross as Richard Edgar Thorneycroft is admirable, and should, if she so wishes, have a future before her as a male impersonator. That clever comedian, Mr. Teddy Coleman, as Nicodemus Sneezer, by his wheezes and eccentric costumes, keeps the house convulsed with laughter. Mr. H. J. Crane makes an imposing Governor of Portland Prison, his fine elocution being most noticeable. Mr. Edward Boddy renders valuable assistance as P.C. Black. That experienced actor, Mr. Brian Daly, does excellent work as Peter Carter, chief warder, and also in other parts. Miss Kate Mac is successful as Mrs. Weston, as also is Miss Anderson as Sybil Langton, and Miss Daisy Marshall as Mrs. Sneezer. Miss Agnes Paulton charmingly impersonates Maria Pink, Miss Kathleen Russell as Beatrice Thorneycroft quite secures the sympathies of the house, and gains much approbation for her clever impersonation. The orchestra, under Mr. J. Nurnberger, very ably supply the incidental music. Mr. R. A. Neville courteously and carefully looks to the front of the house.

CRYSTAL PALACE THEATRE.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Musical Comedy, in Two Acts, written by Seymour Hicks, composed by Ivan Caryll, entitled
"THE EARL AND THE GIRL."

Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company has played to full houses this week in this popular musical comedy. Through the sudden indisposition of Miss Alice Nixon Miss S. W. Wynne appeared as Elphin Haye, the American heiress, and efficiently supplied her place. Miss Nellie Dade's broad humour made Eliza Shoddam a most amusing impersonation, and Miss C. Stephens as Virginia Bliss, the hostess at whose house the action of the second scene takes place, was sprightly and well-gowned. In the part of Mrs. Shimmering Black, Miss M. Maude filled the bill in more senses than one, and Miss Florence Brandon as Daisy Fallowfield looked sweet, and secured encores in the well-known "Sammy" song. There was a full chorus of "Cosy Corner Girls," maids at the Fallowfield Inn, and guests at the Fancy Dress Ball, all smart and well-costumed. Mr. John Clegg as Jim Cheese, the dog trainer, showed great aptitude as a first-class low comedian, and Mr. Frank Wilson worked hard as Dick Wargrave, the heir, scoring well in his song with Elphin Haye in the first act. Mr. Frank Wilson's impersonation of the Hon. Crewe Boodle was full of life and go, and Mr. H. Cotter as the Yankee bent on revenge was vehement and effective. As Downham, an American solicitor, Mr. Alec Godfrey pattered agreeably and danced nimbly, and Mr. F. Franks as Rossiter was an ideal footman. The scenery was elaborate and appropriate.

GRAND THEATRE, FOREST GATE.

On Monday, Nov. 19,
the Play, in Three Acts, by Herman Merivale and F. C. Grove, entitled
"FORGET-ME-NOT."

The company Mr. Sibley presented on Monday was worthy of the heartiest support, and certainly those who visted the theatre during the week were delighted with a really high-class performance of a play which has long been known to fame. Mr. Alfred Hearne has played Sir Horace Welby so often that he seems to live in the part, and the audience followed each line with marked interest. A clever and powerful rendering of the Prince Mallotti is given by Mr. John Duggan; and Barrato is played with dramatic power by Mr. H. Middlemass. Stephanie Marquise de Mohrivart has an excellent representative in Miss Edith Jordan, who looks the part perfectly and dresses it with perfect taste. Miss Elsie Dennis is all that could be desired as Alice Verney; and as Mrs. Foley, Miss Pattie Lundie completes an excellent all-round cast.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

MR. SHAW, in his new medical play, The Doctor's Dilemma, produced at the Court on Tuesday afternoon, almost exaggerates the callousness of the hospital ward on the matter of death. His moribund painter is pushed in on an invalid chair, and dies realistically, after a prolonged monologue. Then one of the doctors says—we quote from memory—"Let's get this out of the way!" and proceeds to wheel the corpse into the next room. The phrase makes one's flesh creep, and we can aver from experience that it is a libel on the medical profession.

MR. SHAW'S fashion of alluding to himself in the dialogue of his pieces is unworthy of his genius. Fancy Mr. Pinero in His House in Order making one of his characters say, "Saw a piece of Pinero's last night; devilish clever fellow, that!" Yet something very like this occurs in The Doctor's Dilemma. Mr. Shaw is improving so much in method and manner that it jars on one to find that he has not quite abandoned his early tricks of charlatanry. He can really do without them now.

MR. W. T. STEAD, with Mr. F. R. Benson and Mr. J. T. Grein, are enthusiastically promoting a Dramatic Revival Society, which is to realise the ideal of restoring to the everyday life of our English folk the four great instruments of innocent mirth and of popular culture—the dance, the song, the pageant, and the drama. The first object of the society is to facilitate and encourage amateur dramatic representations throughout the country, especially in villages by the villagers themselves, in schools by the scholars, for purposes of education and recreation. Our elementary schools, we are told, will never truly succeed in stimulating the sluggish mind of our youth until the drama's all-powerful assistance has been completely recognised and guaranteed. The only item of public amusement with which Mr. Stead has expressed himself absolutely satisfied is the performance of La Milo; and few amateurs, if any, would be found capable of emulating that artist.

MRS. KENDAL was in "her best form" when she opened the Scottish Horticultural Society's chrysanthemum show in Waverley Market, Edinburgh, the other day. She presented two prize cups, one to a Mr. Thomas Lunt, the other to a Mr. Hutton; and, we are informed by the Edinburgh Evening Dispatch, "the accomplished actress, who appeared to enjoy the proceedings thoroughly, amused and delighted her audience by an unrehearsed effect. The wrong cup was handed to her for presentation to Mr. Lunt. Before the presentation ceremony was complete the mistake was discovered, and Mrs. Kendal, dramatically throwing her hands up in mock consternation, apologised promptly to Mr. Lunt, adding, however, that it was not her fault since she had been badly prompted." In conclusion she told an anecdote of the early days of her connection with Edinburgh. When the late Mr. Robert Wyndham was alive, she said, and the Haymarket company came to Edinburgh, the members of the company were always entertained to a picnic. One year it was held on May 2, just below Arthur's Seat. While the picnic preparations were being made, some of the younger members of the company strolled away, and on the very top of Arthur's Seat a young man proposed to a young woman, by whom the proposal was accepted. When they came down to luncheon everybody knew the secret, though they did not observe that themselves. (Loud laughter). She would not tell them who that young man was, because he ought to have been there beside her on the platform. (Loud laughter). She had been looking for him everywhere. (Laughter). He was far more attentive on the day of the picnic than he had been that day. (Loud and prolonged laughter).

MR. J. N. RAPHAEL, the "Percival" of the Referee, included some pungent statements in his address to the O.P. Club at the Criterion on Sunday. In describing a Paris pantomime, he said the chief characteristic of the French manager was his voice. Unless he could stand at the back of the dress-circle and bellow, he was nowhere. There were French authors who were more capable of producing and staging a play than the managers. But in a general way there was a certain amount of trouble, because the manager always thought he knew better how to produce it, and then there was his voice to reckon with. Consequently the rehearsals lasted a good deal longer, but the extraordinary thing was that the result was in a general way a good deal better. The point of this lies in the fact that, for many years past, we have been assured that in France the author is despotic at rehearsals, and is never interfered with. Another illusion gone!

ACCORDING to the Sketch, the matinée hat difficulty has been conquered. A Frenchman has invented a device which enables one to look over the matinée hat, or any other obstacle in the line of vision. The device is in appearance like an ordinary walking-stick, opera glasses being fixed near the handle, and an eye-piece at the end of the stick. When the stick is raised so that the opera glasses are above the obstacle, the person can see the players through the eye-piece, their images being reflected by a set of lenses and mirrors.

MISS LENA ASHWELL has met the inevitable American interviewer. The subject of discussion was wife-beating. Miss Ashwell remarked that she preferred to cry rather than laugh when she went to the theatre, as laughter does not touch the heart, while misfortune, sorrow, and crime do. On being asked if she believed in the spectacle of wife-beating as an evening's entertainment, Miss Ashwell replied: "It is true to life, is it not. And if it is true to life it should be an entertaining play. Men do beat their wives, you know. If the secrets of all domestic lives were laid bare we would find that wife-beating is a much more common diversion than is generally thought. Also if the secrets of men's lives were laid bare we would find that there are a lot of husbands who would like to beat their wives if they dared."

"How about wives beating their husbands? Would you approve of that?" asked the interviewer. "Certainly," was Miss Ashwell's answer; "turn about is fair play. I presume many of them would like to if they were only strong enough. I know of one woman in the west of England who used to do it. She was very athletic, rode to hounds, and did all that sort of thing. She was a big woman, too. Her husband was a little fellow, and the way she used to whip him on the slightest provocation was a joy to all the old maids in the neighbourhood." Miss Ashwell added that she herself had met some men that she would have liked to beat—in fact, "lots of them."

MR. E. H. SOTHERN and Miss Julia Marlowe recently appeared at the Lyric Theatre, Philadelphia, in Hermann Sudermann's play, John the Baptist. Mr. Sothern enacted the title-rôle, and Miss Marlowe represented Salome. The play follows the Bible story closely, Salome demanding the head of John the Baptist on a golden charger as the price of her dance before Herod. The head is brought in covered with a cloth. The final scene shows the approach of the King of the Jews, and the striking of Herod by a bar of light from above as he is about to ascend the steps of the throne. The audience, we are told, was "perhaps more amazed than enthusiastic," the most intense scenes being followed in silence. Many Baptist ministers were present as the guests of the management, and some of them appeared to be absolutely immersed in the play.

"KING RICHARD II."

Revival of Shakespeare's Play, at His Majesty's Theatre, on Monday, Nov. 19.

King Richard II. .....MR. TREE
John of Gaunt .....MR. J. FISHER WHITE
Edmund of Langley..MR. CHARLES QUARTERMAINE
Henry of Hereford .....MR. LYN HARDING
Duke of Aumerle .....MR. JULIAN L'ESTRANGE
Thomas Mowbray, Duke of Norfolk
MR. BASIL GILL
Earl of Northumberland ....MR. CLIVE CURRIE
Henry Percy .....MR. REGINALD OWEN
Bishop of Carlisle .....MR. ROBERT ATKINS
Sir John Bushey .....MR. SWORDER
Sir William Bagot .....MR. DAVID POWELL
Sir Thomas Greene .....MR. E. EGERTON HINE
Duke of Surrey .....MR. JAMES SMYTHE
Earl of Salisbury .....MR. HEWETT
Lord Scroope .....MR. EDWARD OUSTON
Lord Berkeley .....MR. PALMER
Lord Ross .....MR. A. C. GRAIN
Lord Willoughby .....MR. STUART GRAHAME
Lord Fitzwater .....MR. REGINALD CRAVEN
The Lord Marshal ....MR. S. YATES SOUTHGATE
Sir Piers of Exton .....MR. P. FORBES
Keeper of the Dungeon .....MR. WARMINGTON
The Gardener .....MR. G. W. ANSON
Second Gardener .....MR. J. FRANCES ELVEY
The Queen .....MISS VIOLA TREE
First Lady .....MISS HILDA MOORE
Second Lady .....MISS FLORENCE WELLS
Third Lady .....MISS EVELYN BEAUMONT
Fourth Lady .....MISS ELIZABETH GILSON

Richard II. is a curious and exceptional play. As a rule, Shakespeare is an optimist. But there was certain themes which defy optimistic treatment. Take the story of King John, for instance. The sympathy shifts about from time to time; we never know on which side the playwright is, and on which he expects us to be; all is compromise, cynicism, and despair. In most of Shakespeare's historical plays there is no mistake about the author's intention. Richard III. is a "bloody dog" from beginning to end; Henry V. is a high-toned hero of the best British water. But sometimes Shakespeare, in the dearth of popular plots, was led to "tackle" a period and a condition of affairs so "unmanageable," that he was obliged to stick to the story, and make the best of a bad business. The characters in Richard II. are, indeed, a sorry crew. The King is the most contemptible of all. When he is in power he is insolent, exorbitant, and profligate; when he is in distress, he is profuse in high-flown sentiments and poetical reflections. As for Bolingbroke, the hypocrisy with which he covers his intention of seizing the throne and having its lawful possessor conveniently assassinated, is positively sickening; and the pretentious vacillations of York, who plays the traitor to the accompaniment of a vast amount of high-toned protestation, is scarcely less repellant. Shakespeare, in most of his works, has shown men governing circumstances; in Richard II. he adopts Byron's theory that "Men are the sport of circumstances when

The circumstances seem the sport of men."

Placed in a less difficult position, York would probably have led a life of unblemished respectability; Bolingbroke, unhardened by his exile and the threatened loss of his inheritances, might have been a good subject; and the youth of Richard, on his ascending the throne, and his consequent susceptibility to evil influences, were more to his disadvantage than any inherent vice—at any rate, far worse kings have died in their beds and in the odour of sanctity. Richard II. is a realistic picture of a muddy "back-water" of English history. Shakespeare seems to have chafed under the trammels of his theme, and to have relieved himself by putting into the mouth of John of Gaunt the finest outburst of patriotism ever written. It is characteristic of this sorrowful play that Gaunt—the one honest man of the principal personages—dies soon after speaking it.

The great attraction of the performance of Richard II. at His Majesty's on Monday—the play was first revived at this theatre in the September of 1903—was Mr. Tree's Richard. Mr. Tree is absolutely true to the character, as drawn by the dramatist. He shows us, in the earlier acts, the King's love of pleasure, his baseness, his weakness, and his petty cruelty. There is a timorous indecision in Richard's attitude towards his unruly courtiers, combined with a tyranny which tries to be crafty, but is only rash and injudicious. With this are combined touches of uxoriousness and effeminacy which make up a most effective and complete character-study. Later on, Mr. Tree delivers the eloquent tirades of the deserted monarch with admirable expressiveness; and presents a picture which is strikingly subtle, finished, and artistic. Mr. J. Fisher White is nobly dignified as John of Gaunt and delivers the famous speech about the "precious stone set in the silver sea" grandly and impressively. Mr. Charles Quartermaine is thoroughly good throughout as the Duke of York; and a very clean and distinct rendering of the rôle of Aumerle is contributed by Mr. Julian L'Estrange. Mr. Clive Currie is capital as the Earl of Northumberland. The two rivals, Norfolk and Hereford, have powerful and energetic exponents in Mr. Basil Gill and Mr. Lyn Harding. Mr. Gill is full of fervour and emotional earnestness; and Mr. Harding makes Bolingbroke exactly the needed combination of energy, craft, and ruthlessness. Mr. Reginald Owen plays Henry Percy very creditably indeed. Bushey, Bagot, and Greene have careful and conscientious representatives in Mr. Sworder, Mr. David Powell, and Mr. E. Egerton Hine; and Mr. Robert Atkins is an excellent Bishop of Carlisle. Mr. Edward Ouston must be particularly praised for his liberal treatment of the rôle of Lord Scroope; and Mr. G. W. Anson's sonorous tones and ripe experience well fit him to depict the solid and sententious Gardener. Mr. James Smythe deserves praise for his performance as the Duke of Surrey; Mr. Hewett is equally commendable as the Earl of Salisbury; Mr. Palmer is conscientious and careful as Lord Berkeley; Mr. A. C. Grain's Lord Ross is entirely satisfactory; Mr. Stuart Grahame is efficient as Lord Willoughby; Mr. S. Yates Southgate's Lord Marshal "fills the eye"; Mr. P. Forbes's rôle of Sir Piers of Exton suits him thoroughly; and Mr. Warmington as the Keeper of the Dungeon and Mr. J. Francis Elvey as the Second Gardener do good and useful work. Miss Viola Tree plays the Queen not only with exquisite grace and sweetness, but with real depth of feeling in the pathetic passages. Her depiction of the Queen's sorrow and despair is very earnest and expressive indeed. Richard II. is mounted with the superb scenery, armour, and costumes which are familiar to those who have witnessed the previous performances of the play at His Majesty's, and the well-known work of Messrs. W. T. Hemsley, Joseph Harker, and Walter Hann is again immensely admired.

MAKES THE SKIN AS SOFT AS VELVET.—Beetham's "LAROLA" preserves the Skin from the effects of the sun, winds, and hard water. Entirely removes and prevents all roughness, redness, irritation, chaps, &c., and KEEPS THE SKIN SOFT, SMOOTH, and WHITE at All Seasons. INVALUABLE for the COMPLEXION, DELIGHTFULLY SOOTHING and REFRESHING after walking, golfing, cycling, motoring, &c. Gentlemen will find it wonderfully soothing if applied after shaving. Bottles, 1s., 1s. 9d., and 2s. 6d. each, of all Chemists and Stores. M. BEETHAM and SON, CHELTENHAM.—[ADVT.]

"THE DOCTOR'S DILEMMA."

A Tragedy, in Four Acts and an Epilogue, by Bernard Shaw, produced at the Court Theatre, at a matinée, on Tuesday, Nov. 20.

Sir Patrick Cullen ..MR. WILLIAM FARREN, JUN.
Sir Ralph Bloomfield Bonnington
MR. ERIC LEWIS
Sir Colenso Ridgeon .....MR. BEN WEBSTER
Cutler Walpole .....MR. JAMES HEARN
Leo Schutzmacher ....MR. MICHAEL SHERBROOKE
Dr. Blenkinsop .....MR. EDMUND GURNEY
Louis Dubedat .....MR. GRANVILLE BARKER
Redpenny .....MR. NORMAN PAGE
The Newspaper Man .....MR. TREVOR LOWE
Mr. Danby .....MR. LEWIS CASSON
A Waiter .....MR. PERCY MARMONT
Jennifer Dubedat .....MISS LILLAH MCCARTHY
Emmy .....MISS CLARE GREET
Minnie Tinwell .....MISS MARY HAMILTON

In one of Alfred de Musset's little-known tragedies, a dissolute Abbé is induced, in order to win the favours of a celebrated danseuse, to murder a man. The result is that the amorous ecclesiastic is disappointed, and, deploring his fate, concludes,

"J'ai taché mon pourpoint et l'on me
congédie,
C'est la moralité de cette comédie."

The first thing one ought to do in analysing a piece of Mr. Bernard Shaw's is to seek out its moralité. For he is nothing if not an Ideologue. He was not sent, he infers in his prefaces, to bring peace into the dramatic world, but a sword. Lately, his moralité has, like Gratiano's reasons, resembled two grains of wheat hid in two bushels of chaff; you shall seek all day ere you find it, and—but the quotation is somewhat musty. The intellectual kernel of The Doctor's Dilemma is a protest against the conventional ideas respecting money and marriage. "I have not been scrupulous as to borrowing money with no intention of repayal," says his artist on his death-bed; "but, on the other hand, I have not debased my gift of genius by doing anything but my best work. I have not hesitated to commit bigamy; but I have made one woman perfectly happy; and I shall live in her, and in my life-work. I have neglected the lower duties for the sake of those which I regarded as the higher ones."

But The Doctor's Dilemma is not, like Widower's Houses and Mrs. Warren's Profession, firstly and chiefly the development of an idea. It is, more than any of Mr. Shaw's previous works, a drama of plot, circumstance, and incident, and contains obvious evidences of an attempt at design. It is necessary, for the sake of our afternoon's enjoyment, to grant Mr. Shaw his improbable premiss that a doctor may be so skilled in the treatment of tubercular disease that any patient he takes in hand may be considered saved; also that the physician can truly announce "house full" when a certain number of sick men are on his hands. This is the position of Sir Colenso Ridgeon in Mr. Shaw's piece. To him comes Jennifer Dubedat, the wife of a young artist of genius, who is attacked by consumption. Will Sir Colenso take him in hand and cure him? "No," says the great doctor; "for in order to do so I should have to throw over one of my present patients. I must be satisfied that your husband is worth more than the man I should thus abandon." So Mr. and Mrs. Jennifer meet Sir Colenso and his friends at dinner at the Star and Garter; and here the discovery is made that Dubedat is a shameless borrower, and has committed bigamy—or, at least, what looks like it. Then an absolutely virtuous doctor, named Blenkinsop, with one lung affected, begs Sir Colenso to cure him; and thus we have the case clearly put: Which is to be saved, the artist of genius, or the blameless medico? This is the doctor's "dilemma."

But he has fallen in love with Jennifer, and hopes to marry her when she is a widow. So he hands over the husband to a fashionable quack who kills him; and Dubedat dies, with his head on his worshipping wife's bosom, after reciting an artist's parody of the Creed, and begging Jennifer to marry again. Sir Colenso, however, finds that he has committed a medical murder in vain. Jennifer continues to adore her husband's memory; and when, at an exhibition of his works in the epilogue, Sir Colenso confesses his crime and his love for her, she simply "squashes" him by reminding him of the difference in their ages, and telling him that, in obedience to Dubedat's dying desire, she is already remarried.

The flaw in the construction is obvious. Up to the end of the second act, the scheme is consistent. The dilemma is "stuff of the conscience"; and the drama, having been ethical so far, should continue to be so to the end. The only logical development lies in the doctor's choice between the two men being influenced by conviction. But, after the Star and Garter scene, the ethical question is dropped, and the motive of the medical murder is simply the doctor's desire for the artist's wife. The drawn-out argument between Dubedat and the doctors as to his "blackguardism" is thus put outside the plot and action of the piece, and is excrescent. This is felt all the more on account of the distressing length of the artist's "last dying speech and confession." On the other hand, the comedy in The Doctor's Dilemma is the best Mr. Shaw has ever written. There are no less than six doctors; and each of them is drawn with masterly decision, delicacy, and humour. The fun—the exquisite, irresistible fun—of their discussions, deserves our warmest gratitude and praise. The caricature of the brutal reporter is "cheap," and so is Mr. Shaw's introduction of vain references to himself; but Jennifer Dubedat, the doctor's servant Emmy, and the waitress at the Star and Garter are all admirably observed and invented. If Dubedat were not such an "unconscionable time in dying," there would not be a "draggy" scene in the play.

The Doctor's Dilemma was acted with a finish which raised the performance into the atmosphere of high comedy. Each of the doctors was capitally differentiated, and each creation was real, typical, and convincing. There was Mr. William Farren, jun.—to the life the slightly-soured, sceptical, but kind-hearted Sir Patrick Cullen; there was Mr. Eric Lewis, from whose lips, as Sir Ralph Bloomfield Bonnington, the longest speeches came most trippingly, and who hit off the amusing character with marvellous cleverness; there was Mr. Ben Webster, capitally made up as the refined, acute, slightly autocratic specialist, and acting the part with absolute fidelity and exactness, and with a power and restraint which were remarkable; there was Mr. James Hearn as the operating surgeon, firm, hard, and forcible; there was Mr. Michael Sherbrooke as a dry little Jew, resigned to repose during most of an act, but making his impression nevertheless; and there was Mr. Edmund Gurney, touchingly modest and self-suppressed as the unsuccessful doctor, Blenkinsop. With such acting at his disposal, the coming comedy-writer need not delay his arrival for fear of inadequate interpretation. Mr. Granville Barker's rôle of Louis Dubedat suited him well. He sustained it unimpeachably, and certainly Dubedat's death scene was a very severe trial of skill. Mr. Norman Page was efficient as Redpenny; and Miss Lillah McCarthy was exactly the earnest, exaltée, and spirited creature inferred by the dialogue. A palpable hit was scored by Miss Clare Greet as the doctor's servant Emmy, a minor character, but one to be remembered; and Miss Mary Hamilton played Minnie Tinwell with a nice sense of the meaning and proportion of the part. All the scenery was satisfactory and effective; and the Star and Garter set, with its distant river and landscape dotted with lights, was quite realistic.

"THE BANQUET."

A light comedy, in three acts, by Frank Freeth, Revived at the King's Hall, Covent Garden, on Tuesday, Nov. 20.

Alderman Gosling .....MR. FRANK HOLE
Roland Newby .....MR. BIRKET FOSTER
Captain Smart .....MR. BERNARD A. EVERITT
Hon. Arthur Scallop..MR. P. H. STANLEY-ADAMS
Gregory .....MR. VICTOR T. TOLLER
Bella .....MISS DOROTHY FOSTER
Enid .....MISS RENÉE DE VAUX.
Ada .....MISS MARY STRAHAN
Susan .....MISS ADRIENESSE CLARKE

Mr. Frank Freeth's play was revived at an amateur performance given in aid of Our Dumb Friends' League Horse Ambulance Fund. As there was a large audience present a deserving object will no doubt benefit largely by Tuesday night's entertainment. The "light comedy," which was originally produced at the Kilburn Town Hall on May 26, 1888, although not showing any striking originality, either in plot or characterisation, is not without distinct merits, and is beyond question admirably adapted for the modest requirements of a company of amateur performers. Mr. Freeth, we may take it, has made no attempt to aim high as a playwriter, but he can, at any rate, be credited with a certain degree of skill in the handling of his plot, he possesses an appreciation of stage effect, and his dialogue, if not brilliant, is natural, unaffected, and often pointed.

The first act shows how a rather serious difference arises between Mr. Roland Newby, a country solicitor, and his wife Enid, over a very trifling matter. Mr. Newby has prepared a speech for the Mayor's approaching annual banquet, and the notes he has made for use on this occasion are found on the desk in his study by his wife, who has, it appears, a strong objection to his again attending the festivity. She therefore consigns the manuscript to the flames, and answers the anxious inquiries of her husband by confessing what she has done. Roland, however, expresses his annoyance at the destruction of the notes of his intended speech, and in spite of the tearful entreaties of Enid, declares his intention of going to the banquet. The lady loses her temper, and threatens to leave her home. After this domestic tiff Captain Smart calls, accompanied by his friend, the Hon. Arthur Scallop. They are both invited guests to the banquet; and Smart asks Newby to permit Scallop to stay at the house. The solicitor consents, but introduces the Hon. Arthur as a new clerk whom he has just engaged.

The scene of the second act is at Alderman Gosling's house, where the old man's niece unexpectedly makes her appearance, alleging as an excuse that at home "there is something wrong with the kitchen range." Gosling has another niece named Ada, with whom the Hon. Arthur has fallen in love, and considerable amusement arises from Mrs. Gosling treating the girl as a child, and, therefore, much too young to have a sweetheart. In the last act the husband and wife are happily reconciled, Mrs. Gosling is induced to give her consent to the engagement of the Hon. Arthur and Ada, and, finally, a communication is received postponing the banquet owing to the illness of the mayor of the town.

That experienced amateur actor, Mr. Frank Hole, gave a capital embodiment of the genial, good-hearted Alderman; Mr. Birket Foster played quietly, but effectively, the part of Roland Newby; and Mr. Bernard A. Everitt was an appropriately hearty and boisterous Captain Smart. Mr. P. H. Stanley-Adams scored well in the dude part of the Hon. Arthur Scallop, but an unfortunate lapse of memory quite marred the end of the first act. Miss Dorothy Foster was an amusingly precise and severe Mrs. Gosling; and Miss Renée de Vaux played exceedingly well as Enid. Miss Mary Strahan was a pleasing and girlish Ada; and able assistance was rendered by Mr. Victor T. Toller as Gregory, Gosling's man-servant, and Miss Adriennesse Clarke as Susan, the Newbys' maid.

The new piece was preceded by Mr. Henry Arthur Jones's one-act comedy, A Bed of Roses, in which Mr. H. Fuller-Clark, as Peter Vellacott, drew a capital picture of an irritable dyspeptic old man; Mr. E. Gordon Taylor was a manly, earnest George Dalyson; and Miss Adrienesse Clarke played brightly and naturally the part of Dora Vellacott. Other characters were satisfactorily sustained by Mr. P. H. Stanley-Adams, Mr. Edwin Feis, and Miss Irma de Kusel. Both plays were produced under the able direction of Mr. E. Gordon-Taylor, and the duties of acting-manager were safely entrusted to Miss Adrienesse Clarke.

MR. WILLARD AND ACTORS' DAY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—Lest your paragraph concerning myself and "Actors' Day" should breed a misunderstanding in the minds of those not fully acquainted with me, I should like to point out that the contributions to the Actors' Funds of England and America made by the ladies and gentlemen of my company during the past three seasons have been as entirely voluntary as have been my own. It is true, that for convenience sake, there is a clause in each contract that I shall have the right to retain, as trustee, the salary due to each artist on one special night in each year, but this clause was only inserted after consultation with the members of my 1903 company, and after their engagements had otherwise been definitely settled; has never been since challenged by anyone, and if it were, would at once be struck out by me, as I have as great an objection to what is known as "enforced charity" as any of its more openly-avowed exponents; but I have also gained sufficient knowledge of my fellow workers during my thirty-seven years' experience of the stage to know that without some kind of organisation, their generous impulses are apt to fail of fruition.

I hope, therefore, that "Actors' Day" will be made a "non-paying" day in all contracts, feeling sure that in a year or two actors will regard it with the same equanimity as they now regard Christmas Day, Good Friday, &c.

I am not theorising, but speaking from the experience of four such days in my own company, the last having taken place at Buffalo on Nov. 1, and being cheerfully contributed to by all my company, including those American artists who, having been engaged at the eleventh hour, had not, owing to the pressure of other business, had the formal contract submitted to them.

Yours faithfully,
EDWARD S. WILLARD.

THE final in a golf handicap for a cup presented by Mr. Horace Mills for competition among the members of The White Chrysanthemum company took place at Sandygate, a suburb of Sheffield, on the 14th inst. One of the semi-finals was played the previous week on the Shipley Club's course, near Bradford, between Horace Mills and F. Freeman, the latter winning by four up and three to play. The other semi-final was decided at Sandygate on the following Tuesday, the players being O. E. Lennon and W. H. Rawlins, the latter winning by 4 and 3. Considerable interest was taken in the final, and, in the end, Rawlins won by seven and six. The competition was on the American tournament principle.

THE King and Queen of Norway witnessed the performance of Raffles at the Comedy Theatre on Tuesday night.

SCALA THEATRE.

CHARITY PERFORMANCE.

Two performances in aid of the Little Sisters of the Poor were given at the Scala Theatre on Friday and Saturday evenings last week, when the programme was an interesting one, including, as it did, Mr. F. W. Broughton's musical comedietta, and Mr. T. Arthur Bleackley's "fantastic opera," in one act, entitled The Minstrel, the music to both pieces being, as is well known, the work of the Rev. Father Downes; and Mr. Bleackley's duologue La Jalouse. We confess that there is not much to be said for A Simple Sweep and La Jalouse. The music is the pleasantest part of the former, while as for the latter, it consists of less else but inane conversations between two supposed lovers. In both cases good acting was wasted upon weak lines. Mr. George Robins presented a rather comical figure as the proud baronet, Sir Orange Peel, in A Simple Sweep; and Mr. Aubrey Standing as the Sweep, Miss Nora Long as the "interesting heroine," and Miss Florence Shee as Miss Lemon Peel, fulfilled the requirements of their parts in able fashion, and sang well too. To Mme. Emilie Clarke a special word of praise is due for a very lively impersonation of the sweep's aged mother. In La Jalouse, Mr. Lawrence White as Cyril Peach, and Miss Olga Kay as Violet Ulmar, delivered their respective speeches—such as they were—with appropriate expression.

The Minstrel was unquestionably the best item in the programme, though the complaint can be levelled against it that it is far too long-winded. Here, again, it must be conceded that Father Downes's music forms the better half of the piece. One can always listen to the reverend gentleman's compositions with great delight, for, as in the play under review, they are graceful, tuneful, and ear-enchanting. The story, with which many people are already acquainted, concerns the offer by a Princess of her hand in marriage to him who shall be deemed successful in a song contest. The triumphant competitor is, seemingly, an old man, bent with the weight of years, and with the white locks and flowing beard of a patriarch. Of course, the King expostulates with the Count at the idea of a young maiden marrying an aged and penniless minstrel, but all of a sudden the latter is transformed into a youth of glowing countenance and sprightly movement. Mr. Walter Dolphin was an imposing figure as the King, arrayed in magnificent robes of scarlet, gold, and ermine. M. André Kayà (Simon), who possesses an excellent vocal range, was heard to good effect in some duets with another talented singer, Miss Nora Long (Catherine); and Mr. Bernard Ansell, as Frederick, was also seen and heard to advantage. Mr. Dennis Creedon as Prince Eustace, Miss Palgrave-Turner as the Queen of Harmony, and Miss May Gurney as Myra, gave admirable support. The operas were produced by Mr. Reginald Cooper, the orchestra conducted by Mr. Frederick Rosse, the whole performance being under the managment of Mr. Reginald Walter.

ACTORS' DAY.

Nominations for the proposed Advisory Board, particulars of which we gave in a recent issue, must reach the Organising Committee not later than the last day of November, and must be sent on copies of forms printed below:—

NOMINATION FORM.

Name of proposed representative.....
Permanent Address .....
*Class .....
Name of Proposer .....
Permanent Address .....
*Class .....

If elected, I consent to act as representative on the Advisory Board to the trustees of the Actors' Day Fund.

Signature .....
Date.....

* State here whether Actor, Manager (resident, touring, acting), or Author.

Those who have promised, and have not yet sent in their contribution, would greatly oblige if they would forward them as soon as possible to the Committee, 10, King's-street, Covent-garden, W.C.

THE LONDON MUSICAL CLUB.

A musical, dramatic, and Shakespearean entertainment, under the direction of Mr. Gerald Stevens, was given at Hart-street, New Oxford-street, on Friday evening, Nov. 16, the hall being well filled. The most important feature of the entertainment was the Shakespearean scenes recited by Mr. Norman Wrighton, who was first heard in Scene III., Act I., of The Merchant of Venice, Mr. Norman Wrighton giving Shylock's speech relating to Antonio's loan of three thousand ducats. Mr. Wrighton has great elocutionary powers, clear enunciation, and a style quite his own. At times, however, a somewhat hurried delivery of the lines marred their impressive effect, and this was especially noticeable in Mr. Wrighton's second and most striking example, the scenes from Act I. and Act V. of King Richard III., where, in the character of Richard, Duke of Gloucester, Mr. Wrighton first gives the soliloquy and then the stormy scene with Lady Anne, admirably impersonated by Miss Daisy Murch. In this scene Mr. Wrighton was at his best, although the famous line, "Was ever woman in such humour wooed, was ever woman in such humour won?" lost much of its significance for want of a pause. Mr. Wrighton's last scene was from King Henry V., Scene I., Act III. The incidental music for the Shakespearean scenes was composed by Mr. Francis Böhr, who, during the evening, gave several selected pianoforte solos with good effect. A number of well-selected songs and recitations pleasantly varied the proceedings. The instrumentalists, Messrs. F. Burns and J. Dunn, played Ed. German's "Dances" from Henry VIII. Mr. Wallace Bosco greatly pleased the audience in his song, "Beloved, Awake, Arise!" by Valentine Emery; and Mr. Wood Barrett gained hearty applause for his singing of "I thank thee" (Francis Böhr), and "I'll sing thee songs of Araby. In Tosti's "Good-bye" Miss Elisabeth Davies was honoured by an encore; while Miss Freda Sharlotte created so good an impression by her recitation of "Bride of the Timbalier," by Victor Hugo, that she had to respond with "Lorraine, Lorraine, Lorree." Later in the programme this clever reciter was set down for a monologue, The Cheat. Mr. Percy Brookes was also well received in Dr. Arne's song, "Blow, blow, thou winter wind," from As You Like It. A so-called Shakespearean coon song, sung by Mr. Reginald North, who gave a comic version of the balcony scene in Romeo and Juliet, written by Hill, caused much merriment, the audience taking up the chorus, and afterwards encoring the vocalist. Mr. North's song in the second part of the programme was "The burglar's serenade" (Ed. Kent), by desire. The small stage on the platform was under the direction of Mr. Wallace Bosco; and in the Shakespearean recitals the wigs were by Gustave, and costumes by W. Nathan. Mrs. David Christie Murray, Miss Isabelle Brunnel, and Miss Carter presided at the piano.

T.R.H. the Princess Henry of Battenberg, Prince Leopold of Battenberg, Princess Beatrice of Saxe Coburg and suite witnessed the performance of Amasis at the New Theatre on Monday.

"SINS OF SOCIETY," a drama in a prologue and three acts, by Charles Darrell, will be produced at the Theatre Royal, Darlington, on Monday.

THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

Mr. E. S. Willard and his company devoted, as usual, the first Thursday in November to theatrical charities, and have forwarded a cheque for the substantial sum of £72 4s. 9d. to the trustees of Actors' Day. The amount is made up of the salaries of the various members of the company according to a clause in their contracts, which, however, as will be seen by a letter from the eminent actor which we print in another column, is purely voluntary, and could be struck out if so desired. To the credit of those chiefly interested it may be added that no contingency of this kind has ever occurred.

Mr. George Alexander has brought out a very artistic souvenir of His House in Order. On the outside pages of the cover are a pretty coloured picture of himself and Miss Irene Vanbrugh in the principal parts and laudatory extracts from the leading daily papers. Inside, on cerulean note-paper with the heading "Overbury Towers," is the following extract from Major Maurewarde's letters to the deceased wife:—"We have never wanted for pluck, Bel, you and I. But these past six or seven years have been hell upon earth. They have pretty well broke both of us, and all for what? For this cursed sham of respectability. Bel, dearest, as to the child; how often have I told you I don't expect you to join me without him. In God's name, what gives you the notion that I could bear, any more than you could, to leave our boy in Jesson's keeping?"

Mr. Edward Terry added an unqualified success to his répertoire by the revival of Liberty Hall, which has been warmly welcomed in the provinces. The popular comedian's present tour terminates on Dec. 8 at Oxford. Mr. Terry, who is appearing this week at the Gaiety, Dublin, has just concluded highly gratifying engagements at Belfast and Cork, Irish audiences thoroughly endorsing the verdict already pronounced in the principal towns of England and Scotland.

Mr. Arthur Bourchier will afford his London admirers an opportunity of witnessing his embodiment of Macbeth, which created such interest last week at Stratford-on-Avon, by giving special matinées of the play at the Garrick Theatre on Tuesday and Thursday, Dec. 11 and 13. Miss Violet Vanbrugh will, as on the former occasion, appear in the rôle of Lady Macbeth. These performances, it should be added, will in no way interfere with the successful run of The Morals of Marcus, which reaches its 100th performance on Monday next.

Mrs. D'Oyly Carte will inaugurate the Savoy opera revival on Saturday, Dec. 8, with The Yeomen of the Guard, which, after a five weeks' season, will be followed by The Gondoliers and others of the series at similar intervals. The operas will then be played as a répertoire, changes being made nightly. The cast of The Yeomen of the Guard will consist of Messrs. Alec Johnstone, Stuart Alexander, Overton Moyle, Henry Burnand, C. H. Workman, John Clulow, H. M. White, Frank Beckett, Leo Sheffield, and Richard Andean, and Misses Lilian Coomber, Jessie Rose, Louie René, and Marie Wilson. Mr. Gilbert will, from Monday next, personally superintend the rehearsals.

Two only of the former members of the Savoy company have been secured, one of whom is Mr. C. H. Workman, who is promoted to the part of Jack Point. He has contributed to the gaiety of the Rand as well as of London, having recently returned from the prosperous tour with the D'Oyly Carte company in South Africa, and the retention in the cast of such a capable comedian is an invaluable means of ensuring the success of the enterprise. The other Savoyard is Miss Jessie Rose, who will play Phœbe Meryll.

Mr. John Clulow, to whom is allotted the important part of Wilfred Shadbolt, was conspicuous in touring melodrama before he joined the D'Oyly Carte répertoire, and played in The Bells of Haslemere, Harbour Lights, and other of the Adelphi dramas. Miss Lilian Coomber, who will play Elsie Maynard, was formerly principal soprano of the Carl Rosa company, and excelled especially as Michaela in Carmen and Marguerite in Faust.

The Imperial Theatre was offered for sale at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, on Thursday, by Messrs. Marler and Marler, acting on instructions from Mrs. Langtry. Mr. Sprague, the well-known theatre architect, as well as Mr. Arthur Chudleigh and Mr. Oscar Barrett, were present. The auctioneer pointed out that the theatre was in an excellent condition, and was practically immediately available for a production. The house had been let at a yearly rental of £2,500, and the present sale concerned a seven years' lease. Bidding started at £2,000, but as no higher offer than £2,500 was made, the lease was withdrawn. Messrs. Fairbrother, Ellis, and Co. subsequently, on the same day, and at the Mart, offered the Greenwich Theatre, formerly known as Morton's, but no bids were made for the property.

"The Virgin Goddess" was the subject of a debate before a considerable body of members of the Playgoers' Club, in the rooms, on Monday evening, Mr. H. Passmore Edwards occupying the chair. Mr. Harry Hart remarked how deplorable it was that, at a time when everybody was loudly and bitterly lamenting the decadence of the British drama, there should be found but an insignificant number of playgoers to support a production so commendable in every particular as The Virgin Goddess. The opinions of the other speakers coincided with that of the opener of the debate, and it was decided to forward to Mr. Otho Stuart a letter conveying to him "the hearty appreciation of the members of the Club of his public-spirited production of many excellent plays, and specially of such a play as The Virgin Goddess, which is worthy of the applause and support of all who are genuinely interested in the welfare of the English stage."

The Savoyard dinner, under the auspices of the O.P. Club will take place on Sunday, Dec. 30, at the Hotel Cecil. The suggestion made by Mr. Carl Hentschel (the hon. treasurer of the club) that the revival of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas should be celebrated in some such way has been enthusiastically taken up. The President, Mr. Sidney Dark, will be in the chair, and Mr. W. S. Gilbert will be the guest of the evening, supported by all the available Savoyards.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bourchier achieved a veritable triumph at Oxford last week with their exquisite representations of The Walls of Jericho and The Fascinating Mr. Vanderveldt. The enthusiastic reception at the New Theatre by the undergraduates of the founder of their own University Dramatic Society was something to be remembered, and each night Mr. Bourchier had to make a speech and thank them for their extraordinary reception of his wife, himself, and his company. Mr. Bourchier was entertained at dinner by the University Dramatic Society and by the Bullingdon Club. On Sunday he met the Vice-Chancellor of the University (Mr. Warren, President of Magdalen College) at lunch at Christ Church, and on Sunday evening dined at Wytham Abbey with the Earl and Countess of Abingdon.

Mr. Luscombe Searelle, who was one of the original members of the Eccentric Club, was re-elected this week by acclamation.

The Lyric Theatre will be again devoted to grand opera in English next summer, Mr. Tom B. Davis having arranged with the Moody-Manners company to repeat the season which met with so encouraging a result this year. Mr. Lewis Waller will remain in possession of the theatre until July 13 next, when Mr. Charles Manners will begin a season of opera lasting until Sept. 7, after which Mr. Waller returns with Robin Hood, should its prosperity, as it seems in a fair way to do, outlast the time.

Mr. Owen Hall's scheme of turning himself into a public company is the topic of the week. The capital of "Owen Hall, Ltd.," is only £12,000. The company is not formed for the production of Mr. Hall's own pieces exclusively, though of course the primary object of the people who are finding the money is to run his musical plays. He hopes to start about February at a London theatre, with a farcical comedy with music, called King Silly. The directors are Mr. Cecil Raleigh, Prince Victor Dhuleep Singh, Sir James Home, Sir Theodore Brinckmann, and Mr. Hall himself.

Mr. Hall's shareholders will only be doing openly what has been done in private for years past in the case of leading actors. The system of "backing" has notoriously worked well for certain capitalists. Of course, there is an acknowledged amount of risk in investing one's money in a mere mortal; but Mr. Hall is still young, and his death by infectious disease or accident could be insured against. Uncertainty is an element of all speculation, and with such great possibilities of profit, and capital so moderate, the venture is certainly not bolder than many which have been eagerly supported by the public.

Mr. Hall, otherwise Mr. James Davis, practised as a solicitor from 1874 to 1886, and contested Dundalk in the Conservative interest in 1880 against the late Sir Charles Russell. The list of his librettos includes A Gaiety Girl, An Artist's Model, The Geisha, A Greek Slave, Florodora, The Silver Slipper, The Girl from Kay's, and The Medal and the Maid. We may hope that, with a free hand, and without trammels in the way of artists or otherwise, Mr. Hall will do for "Owen Hall Limited," some of his very best work.

Mr. Hall writes to the Daily Mail:—"Your analysis of my prospectus is a steam-hammer to crack a filbert. I never propounded the scheme as a sound commercial enterprise. It is a speculation, with the chances greatly in favour of the investors. If one out of two pieces proves a success, we ought to pay 50 per cent. dividend; if we have two or three consecutive failures, the capital will be lost. I have never had two failures yet, and I hope I shall not break the record under my own management."

Mr. Charles Carey will produce a new edition of After the Ball at Christmas, under the title of The Pick of the Bunch. The chorus and ballet will be greatly augmented for the spring tour, and new scenery and dresses are being prepared at the Opera House, Tunbridge Wells.

Mr. Whitford Kane, who is about to appear for the first time in a series of leading Shakespearean parts, will be supported by a strong company, consisting of Messrs. Godfrey Tearle, Philip Gordon, F. M. Paget, Bernard Grahame, Alfred Gray, Cyril Este, J. V. Bryant, Houston Meharry, Ed. Landor, Stafford Dawson, and R. H. Stevenson, and Miss Lillian Herries, Miss Molly Malone, Miss Gertrude Gilbert, Mrs. Henry Howard, Miss Kythie Mackenzie, &c. Mr. Henry Howard will be the business-manager.

Mr. Charles Manners sang a solo in St. Michael's Church, Sheffield, on the 4th inst., by means of which a very agreeable precedent was made. A small collection having been taken, the churchwardens kindly devoted therefrom the sum of £2 6s. 6d. to the Actors' Benevolent Fund, and the vicar has sent a cheque for that amount to the secretary.

His Excellency the Chinese Minister and suite paid a visit to the New Royalty Theatre on Tuesday evening, to witness the performance of The Electric Man, which has earned such an enviable reputation as a laughter-creator. Mr. Charles Hannan, the author of the piece, it may be remembered, has written a novel, entitled "The Captive of Pekin," based upon personal experiences in the Far East twenty years ago, and admitted to be an accurate picture of life and thought in the celestial Empire.

Mr. Henry Dundas, the general and business-manager of the Royal Opera House, Leicester, has issued the annual Opera Magazine for 1906-7. It contains excellent portraits of Mr. Milton Bode and Mr. Edward Compton, with entertaining articles on the careers of these gentlemen, who are the present owners of the Opera House. A large fund of information and a number of portraits are also contained in the book, which is got up in admirable style.

Jacos Gordon's play, Man and Devil, as interpreted by the capable members of the Jewish Operatic and Dramatic Company, was again presented on Monday evening at the Pavilion Theatre to a crowded house. During the week successful performances have been given of The Bells, Mad for Love, True Luck, Holy Sabbath, and The Somnambulist.

The stage has given to the church this week, in the person of Mr. George Trollope, until recently a member of Mr. Arthur Bourchier's company, who lately became a member of the Catholic Church, and has now gone to the English College at Rome to prosecute his studies for the priesthood. Mr. Trollope, whose stage career has extended over nine years, had his first engagement in one of Mr. Ben Greet's companies playing The Sign of the Cross. He toured the provinces for three years, and afterwards obtained a minor part in The Second in Command at the Haymarket.

A more important rôle in The Man of Honour, at the Avenue, was followed by that of Cyril Isidore Isard in Business is Business, under Mr. Tree at His Majesty's. Mr. Bourchier then engaged him for a long period, and he was in the cast of Brother Officers, The Merchant of Venice, and The Fascinating Mr. Vandervelt, afterwards going on tour with the Garrick star company. Mr. Trollope, who was very popular with his comrades of the footlights, does not leave his old calling without a feeling of keen regret, and says he will always take an interest in anything appertaining to the stage.

At the special meeting of the British Empire Shakespeare Society, to be held on Thursday afternoon at the St. James's Theatre (kindly lent by Mr. George Alexander), Her Highness Princess Louise Augusta of Schleswig-Holstein will distribute prizes, and dramatic readings of scenes from The Taming of the Shrew, Julius Cæsar, and Henry VIII. will be given. Mr. Acton Bond, Miss Hutin Britton, Mr. Lewis Casson, Mr. Walter Hampden, Mr. Matheson Lang, and Miss Edith Wynne-Matthison will be included in the cast. Mr. Laurence Irving will recite the Ode to Shakespeare, and Mr. Sidney Lee (president of the Society) will take the chair.

"Guilty Gold," a new piece, described as a psychological drama, by Dr. D. G. Callahan, of San Francisco, will be produced, for the first time in this country, at the Dalston Theatre, on Monday. Miss Italia Conti will enact the rôle of the heroine.

The Julie Bon-Bon company, by whose efforts it is hoped to bring life and gaiety once more to the Waldorf, arrived in London from America on Wednesday. Included in the combination are Miss Clara Lipman, the authoress of the play, and Mr. Louis Mann, who have the chief parts. As the company have been appearing in the piece for some time in the States, there is little necessity for rehearsal, and the Messrs. Schubert's newest London enterprise will, therefore, be quite ready for production on Monday.

The Royal Academy of Music will benefit appreciably by the will of the late Miss Ada Lewis-Hill, who died on Oct. 13 last. The deceased lady, whose scholarships are so keenly contested by students at the above-named institution, has bequeathed to Sir Alexander Mackenzie or other the president of the Royal Academy of Music her finest Strad violin, which was valued at £1500, for the use of the "Ada Lewis" scholars, at the discretion of the principal, and to the Royal Academy of Music certain pianos and stringed instruments, a 'cello, and the full Steinway grand for special occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hemming and their little daughter were amongst the saloon passengers on the ss. Caronia, which left Liverpool on Saturday. They purpose spending the winter in America, where Mr. Hemming has gone to arrange business matters that may cause him to spend half the year in the States, and the other half at his property in the Isle of Man.

Mr. John Horgan, the energetic manager of the Cork Opera House, has secured a leading attraction in Mr. Martin Harvey, who pays his first visit to the Irish seaport on Monday, for a week's engagement in The Only Way and other popular plays of his répertoire. Mr. Horgan has also pencilled dates with the famous actor in each year up to 1910.

The wedding took place at Oldham on the 10th inst. of Miss Ina Hill, one of the principal artists of the Carl Rosa Opera Company, and Mr. C. H. S. Dring, the resident-manager of the Empire Theatre, Cardiff. The bride and bridegroom were attended by Mr. Julius Walther and Miss Doris Woodall, both of the Carl Rosa company. After the ceremony breakfast was served in Oldham, and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Dring left for Manchester, for a short honeymoon, after which the bride rejoined her company at Blackburn. Mrs. Dring, who will shortly take up her residence at Cardiff, has sung Arline in The Bohemian Girl, Zerlina in Don Giovanni, and other leading operatic rôles. When Beethoven's Fidelio was revived in Dublin a few weeks ago, after an interval of twenty-five years, Miss Hill was entrusted with, and fulfilled most successfully, the part of Marcellina.

Mr. Hugh Robertson's tenancy of the Cambridge Theatre, Spennymoor, had a most auspicious beginning last week when Mr. Alfred Northway and Mr. W. V. Garrod's production of The Prodigal Parson drew large audiences nightly, culminating on Saturday in a house packed to the doors. This sterling drama, with its strong cast and elaborate mounting, created a great impression. Mr. David Collins, the new acting-manager, has made several improvements in the heating arrangements of the theatre.

Mr. F. B. Woulfe is producing at the Star Theatre, Liverpool, at Christmas, a new version of Robin Hood, written for him by Clifford Rean. The music is to be an especial feature, and to that end Mr. Woulfe is travelling a male quartette of glee singers. Mr. Woulfe has no intention of finishing with his répertoire company, which has been more than usually successful this autumn, Hamlet in particular being such a draw that other Shakespearean productions are to be added.

Mr. Albert C. Duncan announces his intention of resigning his position as resident-manager of the King's Theatre, Cardiff. Mr. Duncan, who has only been in the town some six or seven months, came with excellent credentials, and during his brief sojourn has greatly improved business at the theatre and made a host of friends. His intending departure is widely regretted, but he leaves with the best of good wishes for his future prosperity. Mr. Duncan's previous record embraces some years of touring management for Mr. Weedon Grossmith, Mr. Charles Macdona, Mr. J. F. Elliston, and other leading enterprises.

Considerable changes will shortly take place in the management of the Devonshire Park, Eastbourne, which is to be placed under the direction of the well-known managers Messrs. Murray, King, and Clarke, who have been associated with the provincial success of Bluebell in Fairyland, and have supplied some of the best attractions seen at the house. Various alterations and improvements are to be carried out at an early date, and it is hoped that a prosperous career awaits what is undoubtedly one of the prettiest theatres on the South Coast.

Mr. Edgar Allan Brown has been appointed acting-manager and secretary of the Devonshire Park generally. During his two and a half years' service as secretary he has made many friends, and has shown a keen business capacity in the management of the affairs of the company.

All that was left of the old Theatre Royal, Stockton, and the site whereon it stood, were offered at auction on Tuesday, but withdrawn at £2300. The property was subsequently disposed of privately for £2400 to the trustees of a Presbyterian denomination for the purposes of erecting a new church.

Mr. Cecil Kingsley has been specially engaged by Mrs. Michael Gunn to play the Vizier in Sinbad the Sailor at the Gaiety Theatre, Dublin, at Christmas.—Miss Julie Temple has been so successful on her third engagement as Bridget (The Fatal Wedding) with Mr. Bert Coote, that she has been re-engaged by him for Christmas and spring.—Mr. Albert Robertson has obtained his fifth re-engagement from Mr. Chas. Macdona for the tour of A Country Girl which opens at Aberavon at Christmas.—Miss Rose Moncrieff is touring her pantomime of Jack in the Beanstalk this Christmas, thus making the third year of the successful production.—Miss Tita Brand has been specially engaged by Mr. F. R. Benson to play Volumnia in Coriolanus at the Shakespeare Theatre, Liverpool, to-day.

The Irving Memorial Committee held a meeting on Tuesday, Mr. Cyril Maude occupying the chair, and Messrs. Laurence Grant, Lewis Casson, and Chas. Cruikshanks (secretary) being in attendance. It was announced that Mr. Arthur Bourchier had kindly placed the Garrick Theatre at the disposal of the committee for the purpose of holding a meeting of the profession on Friday, Dec. 14, at three o'clock. It was announced that the meeting would be presided over by Mr. John Hare, and that amongst those who had already signified their intention of being present were Mr. A. W. Pinero and Mr. George Alexander.

At the Grand Theatre, Croydon, on Monday, The Little Stranger will be followed by the revival of Fogged, which, in itself a very popular farce some years ago, is mainly a vehicle to introduce Mr. John Morris and his extraordinary mechanical contrivance for rapid change of costume in full sight of the audience. Mr. Charles Steuart is responsible for the production, and the following members of his company will play parts in the farce:—Miss Mary Allestree, Mr. George E. Bellamy, and Mr. Charles Goold.

The usual weekly meeting of the council of the Actors' Association was held on Tuesday, when there were present Mr. C. Aubrey Smith (chairman), Mr. Henry W. Mote (hon. solicitor), Mr. John Hare, V.P., Mr. Cyril Maude, V.P., Mesdames Carlotta Addison and Kate Phillips, Messrs. Cecil Barth, J. Cooke Beresford, Acton Bond, Burton Cooke, William Devereux, Lawrence Grant, Fewlass Llewellyn, Algernon Syms, A. B. Tapping, Spencer Trevor, Fredk. Volpe, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary).

The hon. solicitors reported progress in several matters; amongst other announcements they reported the settlement of four claims for monies due to members, and the secretary received instructions as to the division of the amount recovered between the claimants, and the payment of costs and expenses out of pocket. Two cases in connection with the present state of two provincial theatres were under consideration, and the secretary received instructions. Two former members were reinstated, matters in connection with the proposed Irving Memorial were discussed, and the secretary received instructions.

The Finance and General Purposes Committee held a meeting on Tuesday last, when there were present Mr. Acton Bond (chairman) and Messrs. J. Cooke Beresford, Lawrence Grant, C. Aubrey Smith, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary). Matters in connection with the acounts of the year were considered, and the secretary received instructions.

Holloway theatregoers should be in happiest vein this Christamas, when the pantomime Cinderella at the Marlborough promises to be one of the finest, as well as the funniest, pantos North London has yet witnessed. Written and produced by Stanley Rogers, the prolific pantomime librettist, author of over thirty "books," it will be gorgeously mounted and costumed, and presented by a company fit to represent comic opera.

Mr. Percy H. Vernon is concluding his engagement as Talleyrand in A Royal Divorce, and has been engaged by Miss F. Glossop-Harris to produce all the plays in her répertoire company, starting on Dec. 31. Mr. Vernon will also play Malvolio, Mercutio, Il Dancairo in Carmen, and other important rôles.

Mr. C. Robt. Perkins, the lessee of the Opera House, Jersey, has let the theatre to Mr. Edward Marris. Mr. Perkins has been connected with the house for close on seven years, and his departure will be keenly regretted by his many friends on the island, with whom his business acumen and social qualities had made him a great favourite.

Mr. Arthur Collins announces the last nights of The Bondman with regret. Mr. Hall Caine's piece has, to all appearances, proved one of the most successful of Drury Lane autumn productions, but the theatre is required for rehearsals of the elaborate production of Sindbad, and The Bondman will perforce be withdrawn on Wednesday, Dec. 5.

Mr. T. J. Robinson, the popular acting-manager of the Alexandra Theatre, Stoke Newington, which closes its doors as a theatre on the night of Dec. 8, will have a benefit matinée on Dec. 10, the theatre having been kindly placed at his disposal by the managing-director, Mr. H. G. Dudley Bennett. Mr. Robinson has looked after the comfort and well-being of the patrons of the theatre with unvaried assiduity and care, and they will doubtless show their appreciation of his efforts in their behalf by rendering his benefit a substantial one.

Miss Olga Hope, a very youthful actress, has been engaged for No. 1 Claudia in Mr. A. H. Canby's Prince Chap company, and makes her début at Newcastle on Dec. 3. Miss Florence Somers has been engaged by Mr. E. Graham Falcon to play the title-rôle in Bluebell in Fairyland in his forthcoming tour, which starts at Bedford on Christmas Eve.

Mr. Sydney Tolfree, the new manager of the Hippodrome, Wakefield, comes from Grimsby, where he had been manager of the Prince of Wales Theatre for six years, and also secretary and manager of the Tivoli in the same town. He commenced his duties at Wakefield on the 12th inst., succeeding Mr. Henry Lucas.

Miss Annie Hughes, who will produce Mr. Jerome K. Jerome's new comedy, Tommy, at Manchester on Tuesday, will bring it to London the following week, when it will be given at the Camden. Tommy will be played by Miss Hughes, who will be supported by Messrs. Evelyn Vernon, William Calvert, A. E. Benedict, and Rupert Lister; and Miss Moyra Creegan and Miss Ida Richardson. The action takes place on the second floor of a house in Gough-square, E.C., during its occupancy by two successive tenants.

The jubilee performance to Mr. Charles Santley, which Lord Kilmorey is inaugurating, will be commemorative of his London début, the eminent vocalist having made his actual first appearance in his native town of Liverpool fifty-three years ago. He was a member of a musical society, and the first song he sang was Benedict's "Rage, thou angry storm." The event which it is proposed to celebrate is that of his appearance in St. Martin's Hall, London, when he sang the part of Adam in The Creation.

The eminent baritone is not among those who consider that the English language does not lend itself to musical treatment. "If people will only pronounce the words properly," says the singer, "English is as musical as most other languages, and is quite as easy to sing. I have sung in French, Italian, and German; Spanish I know, but I do not know its songs. My favourite for musical expression is Italian, most unquestionably."

"Robin Hood" made his appearance within the precincts of Windsor Castle on the 16th inst., when Mr. Lewis Waller and his company from the Lyric Theatre performed before the King and Queen of England and their Majesties of Norway. The cast of the "command" performance included, in addition to Mr. Waller, Messrs. Philip Cunningham, William Devereux, S. B. Brereton, Frank Woolfe, H. Viner, Herbert Vyvyan, H. J. Carvill, Shiel Barry, R. C. Smith, Frank Cochrane, Herbert Jarman, A. E. George, Owen Roughwood, Cecil Cameron, I. H. Irvine, Cecil McGuinness, P. Digan, and Lewis Waller, and Misses Helen Leyton, Dorothy Minto, Georgie Esmond, Gertrude Ayre, and Evelyn Millard. Supper for the principal performers was afterwards served in the Presence Chamber, while the rest of the company were entertained in other rooms of the Castle.

Miss Christine Silver, who has just concluded a tour as Shirley Rossmore with The Lion and the Mouse, will play the leading parts in Mr. Walter Maxwell's répertoire company at Christmas.

Mr. Hugh Fleming, who concludes to-night an eight years' engagement with the George Musgrove Belle of New York and Prince of Pilsen companies as advance director, will, after a fortnight's rest, join Baron Harries's Prince of Pilsen company in the same capacity for a tour extending over three years.

The numerous friends of Miss Dot Stephens will be glad to hear that the little lady is still progressing favourably. News from the specialist is to the effect that he hopes, by the aid of surgical appliances, that Miss Stephens will be able to walk once more

Miss Marie Studholme will appear in the title-rôle of Alice in Wonderland, which will be revived at the Prince of Wales's Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 19. Mr. Seymour Hicks will resume his merry performance of the Mad Hatter, and the cast will further comprise Messrs. Tom Graves, J. C. Buckstone, Harry Ulph, Julian Cross, Arthur Borrett, and H. H. H. Cameron, and Misses Florrie Arnold, Alice Barth, Florence Lloyd, and Rigaro.

Mr. C. W. Somerset will give The Jungle its first performance at the Queen's Theatre, Liverpool, on Monday, Dec. 21. The new production will have the benefit of scenery by leading scenic artists, and special music will be composed by Denham Harrison. In the rôle of the mad Doctor Mr. Somerset will have a character filled with weird intensity and giving the greatest scope to his well-known powers of delineation. The company has been specially chosen, and Mr. Edward Russell has been entrusted with the business management of the tour.

Her Majesty's Theatre, Aberdeen, which finally closes its doors on Saturday, will next week have a powerful attraction in Miss Emma and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company with Cousin Kate and A Country Mouse, in which Miss Lilias Earle takes the chief parts. The historic playhouse of the North will therefore resound during the last week it will be open to the laughter and cheers of delighted audiences.

Miss Mabel Ormonde, who is on tour with Mr. Mark Blow's Under Two Flags company, has written an article on "Naval Plate of the Seventeenth Century," which has been published in the November number of The Connoisseur magazine.

Miss May Harley is to be congratulated on her success in the two distinct parts of Mary Grey and Lottie Mayday in Lady Kinton's Necklace, the interesting play in which the illusions of Servais Le Roy, Talma, and Bosco figure so remarkably. Miss Harley is an ambitious young lady, and her future gives every promise.

"Mizpah," the poetical play founded on the Hebraic narrative of Esther, by Ella Wheeler Wilcox and Luscombe Searelle, shortly to be produced in London, has appealed very strongly to the Jewish community in America. Congregations at the synagogues have been urged from the pulpit to witness the play, which they were assured was almost the only drama produced on the English-speaking stage which portrayed the true dignity of the race, instead of holding it up to scorn and ridicule. At the first performance of the drama in New York, at the close of a speech where Mordecai, invoking Jehovah's aid to succour his persecuted race, a tall, distinguished-looking Jew rose from the stalls and thundered out, "Send that message to Russia."

The market for Mr. Arthur Jefferson's plays has lately been given a decided impulse. The Orphan Heiress figured as Messrs. Melville's attraction at the Terriss last week, and is to be followed by The World's Verdict. The latter play is chosen by Mr. Samuel James this week for the Lyric, Hammersmith, where The Orphan Heiress will be shortly put on; while next week will witness London by Day and Night at the Elephant, which is later to welcome The Orphan Heiress and The World's Verdict.

Mr. L. F. Chapuy, the esteemed Professor of Elocution at the Guildhall School of Music, will have the deepest sympathy of all in the loss he has sustained by the death of his son, who passed away on the 16th inst. in his forty-second year. The deceased, who had suffered from paralysis for five years, was for twelve years superintendent of Carnegie Hall, New York, and was held in the highest respect.

A remarkable instance of the smallness of this world occurred last week at Newport. Mr. Cooper, the lessee of the Lyceum, introduced Mr. Richard F. Symons, the manager of The Duchess of Dantzic company, to a local doctor, neither gentleman having heard each other's name before. In the course of conversation the doctor said: "I had a patient of last week's company, When It Was Dark, who will very soon be at the top of the tree. She puts her whole heart and soul into her work, and her voice is one of the very finest. I was called in on account of throat trouble, and I examined her throat, and I assure you that she has for speaking the exact copy of Mme. Melba's singing voice, the vocal cords being identical. She has undoubtedly a very great asset in her voice. She is quite young, too, only twenty-five, and she has been playing star parts for some time. She is very good-looking, full of animation and spirits. Her eyes, her hair, in fact, her whole personality is perfect, and all the audience thought so, too, for she carries conviction in all she does and says. I am," he added, "speaking of Miss Eva Moss, who was the star of last week's company. Do you know her?" "Yes," was the quiet reply, "she is my wife."

Miss Ida Bowman, who is delighting provincial audiences with her captivating performance of Nellie Wagner in the George Musgrove Prince of Pilsen company, has a vivid remembrance of being at Louisville, U.S.A., as a mere child, during the great cyclone in 1894. With the exception of the theatre, scarcely a building was left standing. Mr. Richard Mansfield, with whom she was then travelling, considering the terrible havoc and loss of life, had never dreamt of playing that night, but the homeless citizens threatened to tear him out of his special travelling saloon train if he refused. "We played," says Miss Bowman, "to one of the best audiences of the town. The poor, homeless people had made up their minds to 'dope' their misery with theatrical pleasure. It was sad, though just a little unpleasant, to play the gorgeous banquet scene in A Parisian Romance to an audience of hungry people. Mr. Mansfield was always very realistic, and insisted on real food and real champgne being provided on the stage."

Miss Stella Brereton (Mrs. S. Brereton Douglas) will present her pupils at a dramatic and musical recital, given under the patronage of Mrs. Kendal, at the Queen's Small Hall on Monday, Dec. 3, at three o'clock. Mrs. Brereton, herself an adept in the art of elocution and deportment, trains up her protégées to follow faithfully in her footsteps, and their efforts are sure to result in an interesting afternoon.

Miss Minnie Rayner (Mrs. Frederic Jacques) has been engaged by Mr. Maurice Bandmann for his Mediterranean and India tour to play Miss Connie Ediss's parts and other characters in Mr. Popple, Beauty of Bath, The Dairymaids, &c. She sails for Bombay on Friday next per s.s. Persia from Tilbury Docks.

Miss Florence Smithers concludes on Saturday next another successful tour as Jane—her original part—in Mr. Edward Marris's The Dandy Doctor company, having been with the piece over six and a half years. On the following Monday she starts a tour with her sketch company, being booked by Mr. Oswald Stoll for Birmingham, Liverpool, and other important towns.

A donation of one guinea has been forwarded for the Dot Stephens' Fund as the proceeds of the sale of the first edition of the P.O.P., published and edited by Albert Vernon, musical director, contributed to by the members of The Prince of Pilsen company, and raffled by Miss Sophie Harris

DINNER TO MR. T. P. O'CONNOR.

The proceedings at the complimentary dinner given at the Hotel Cecil by the musical profession in honour of Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., were characterised by whole-hearted enthusiasm. It was recognised by everyone present that the Musical Copyright Act of 1906, to the introduction and passing into law of which Mr. O'Connor had so strenuously applied his energies, had righted a great wrong, and that the disabilities, in regard to the piracy of musical compositions, under which everybody connected with the music industry had suffered, were now, in the opinion of those best qualified to speak upon the subject, for ever removed. The general note of the meeting was one, we might say, of joyous congratulation—congratulation to the man who had for so many months, and almost single-handed, fought for a just cause, and succeeded in the fight; and mutual congratulation among those engaged in the various branches of the music trade, who could now look forward with hopefulness to the future. Mr. O'Connor's description of how he ran the gauntlet with his Bill against opposition in the House of Commons, and contrived to slip it into the Lords, was full of that good humour and embellished with those sudden flashes of genial witticism which have marked his utterances in the past.

The chair was occupied by the Duke of Argyll, and on the right of His Grace sat the guest of the evening. Among those present were eminent representatives of music, art, literature, medicine, and politics, as the following list will evidence:—

Lord Monkswell, M.P., Right Hon. Sir Edward H. Carson, P.C., K.C., M.P., Mr. T. E. Scrutton, K.C., Mr. F. Thomasson, M.P., Mr. T. H. Sloan, M.P., Mr. J. Redmond, M.P., Sir A. C. Mackenzie, Mr. Beerbohm Tree, Mr. George Alexander, Mr. Hamish McCunn, Mr. George Edwardes, Signor F. Paolo Tosti, Mr. T. S. Chappell, Mr. H. J. Chinnery, Hon. Harry W. Lawson, Mr. William Boosey, Mr. J. T. Agg-Gardner, J.P., Mr. J. W. Crombie, M.P., Mr. Arthur Boosey, Mr. R. D. Muir, Mr. Alfred Littleton, Mr. Alberto Randegger, Mr. J. Comyns Carr, Mr. Edward German, Right Hon. C. B. Stuart-Wortley, P.C., K.C., M.P., Sir C. V. Stanford, Mr. David Day, Mr. Frank Forty, Mr. W. Pritchard, Mr. Charles Warren, Mr. F. W. Leigh, Mr. C. Wilmott, Mr. H. E. Pether, Mr. J. S. Rubinstein, Mr. F. H. Pedgrift, Signor C. Pavone, Signor Tito Mattei, Signor Marchisio, Mr. H. L. Mocatta, Mr. B. Feldman, Mr. J. H. Bird, Mr. Leslie Stuart, Colonel Henry Mapleson, Mr. J. Coudurier, Mr. W. Ganz, Mr. J. M. Tusky, Mr. Harry Dacre, Mr. C. Mudie, Mr. A. Preston, Mr. J. Jennings, Mr. H. W. Reynolds, Mr. J. H. Larway, Mr. Walter Reynolds, Mr. Collard Moutrie, Mr. Herbert Carr, Mr. T. J. Condon, M.P., Mr. J. Sarjeant, Ascherberg, Hopwood, and Crew, Mr. J. C. Lockhart, Mr. H. House, Mr. Frank Ashdown, Mr. C. E. D. Willcocks, Mr. Thos. White, Mr. G. F. Jefferys, Mr. Bennett Scott, Mr. E. Morton, Mr. Ben Davies, Mr. Paul A. Rubens, Mr. F. E. Tours, Mr. Sidney Jones, Mr. E. Goodman, Mr. C. V. Young, Keith, Prowse, and Co., Mr. G. Muir Wood, Mr. Hy. Parker, Mr. W. Saville, Mr. E. Donajowski, Mr. H. Mullen, Mr. Theo. Wendt, Mr. W. Slaughter, Hon. R. H. Lyttelton, Mr. Bernard Rolt, Mr. J. E. Strong, Mr. C. Donkin, Mr. R. J. Hawkins, Mr. H. King, Mr. H. W. Harston, Mr. C. F. East, Mr. W. H. Squire, Mr. A. Visetti, Sir E. Cornwall, Mr. E. Browne, Mr. E. Teschemacher, Mr. E. J. Marjetson, Mr. A. Healey Foster, Mr. W. W. Hedgcock, Mr. C. Copland, Dr. Wallace, Dr. Blake, Dr. R. Hayes, Mr. E. Newton, Mr. S. F. Blakeston, Mr. Harold Wilde, Mr. Percy Greenbank, Mr. Howard Talbot, Signor Albanesi, Sir George Power, Mr. C. Willeby, Mr. Allen Gill, Mr. A. van Biene, Mr. J. Pocock, Mr. A. Ives, Mr. Herman Finck, Mr. F. Lambert, Mr. L. Bantock, Dr. G. Bantock, Sir J. Herbert Marshall, J.P., Dr. Hugo Felix, Sir Clifton Robinson, Mr. H. A. Scott, Mr. N. Lambelet, Mr. F. Böhr, Mr. Louis Hillier, Mr. Henry Beaumont, Mr. C. Lederer, Mr. Orlando Powell, Mr. Stuart Cumberland, Mr. Fredk. Norton, Mr. E. W. Shackell, J.P., Signor F. Leoni, Mr. P. Cunningham, Signor Mario Costa, Mr. H. Percy Becher, Mr. Hermann Löhr, Mr. H. Houston, jun., Mr. John Lane, Mr. R. Coningsby Clarke, Mr. A. Somervell, Mr. J. Stevenson, Mr. W. Hassell, Mr. F. Egerton Smith, Mr. P. W. Carey, J.P., Mr. C. Blackett, Mr. Ivan Caryll, Mr. Alex. Wood, Sir Ernest Clarke, Mr. R. H. Walthew, Mr. Landon Ronald, Mr. W. Reynolds, Mr. C. Volkert, Mr. D. L. Straker, Mr. G. H. Clutsam, Mr. Waddington Cooke, Mr. Geo. Dixey, Mr. W. Hollick, Mr. H. Buchanan, Mr. Fredk. Cliffe, Mr. A. Ramsden, Mr. C. D. Vallance, Mr. W. Watts, Mr. Kennerley Rumford, Mr. Ian Malcolm, Dr. Milsom Rees, Mr. J. Collard, Mr. A. Murray, J.P., Mr. G. Chater, Dr. B. Ryley, Mr. F. Corder, Mr. R. Somerville, Mr. F. Howard, Dr. Cathcart, Mr. S. C. Blackett, and Mr. H. H. Riley Smith.

The CHAIRMAN, rising to propose the toast of "T. P. O'Connor, Esq., M.P.," said:—I come at once with your permission to the chief business of the evening, after being told that we are to have no music. There are so many musicians here that it will be probably a relief to them to know that there will be no music. Well, the chief business is the health of Mr. T. P. O'Connor, whom we recognise as the successful champion of the cause which we believe to be just, and, at all events, to be triumphant. I believe that all over the country the fruits of a man's brain in the matter of music have now received adequate protection, but that had not been so until very late in the year. I think it is only about eighteen months since we met at the Queen's Hall to protest and to bring before the notice of the Government of the day—I was happy to see a continuity of policy—the grievances of those men whose talent enabled them to write music, and the fruit of whose labours had been filched away by irresponsible persons. The protest was made by so many different shades of opinion in other matters that it could not but arrest the attention of the Government, and since then attempts have been made to pass an Act which should adequately do justice to those able to supply us with that great and human blessing—good music. As you are aware, we in England are perhaps not quite so good in the production of music as our friends on the Continent. We can, however, I think, congratulate ourselves upon the fact that, through the efforts of our friends, we may in England encourage men of British birth to put forth their best powers to compete with their foreign friends, and to increase that promising school of British composers which we happily already have among us. I hope that will be the first fruits of the success of Mr. T. P. O'Connor and his friends in this matter. A few years hence we shall wonder that there should have been any doubt about, or that there should have been any opposition to, these proposals; but there always is a certain class of our countrymen who indulge in misplaced sentiment. I am indebted for my part in this matter—because I hardly know one note of music from another, and Mr. O'Connor has confessed the same to me just now—to my friend, Mr. Hamish McCunn. Mr. O'Connor, whom I shall now introduce to you, has just crossed the ocean, and has been enlarging or playing upon the Irish harp, or, what we call in Scotland the clairshach. I hope he will give us a performance this evening. In any case, we are very happy to see him here. We recognise the exceedingly good work he has done in this matter, a good work we believe he is likely to extend to America, because I believe that the American composers also have their grievances, and what he has said about the work going on here has met with considerable approval in the States. We hope that he will have more power to his elbow, and that his shadow will never grow less. Here's to Mr. T. P. O'Connor and long life to him!

MR. T. P. O'CONNOR, before being allowed to respond, was made the object of a wildly enthusiastic ovation, and he was for some seconds on his feet awaiting the opportunity to give vent to the thoughts he wished to express. When the cheering had at last subsided, he quietly and unassumingly opened his address. "Your Grace, my Lords, and Gentlemen,—I think any man might very well be proud at having such a gathering before him as that I now address, presided over by a gentleman who has so many claims to distinction as our friend the chairman. I was reading the other day in a review of a distinguished man of letters who has recently died, Sir Leslie Stephen, who was described as a very modest man, which at once establishes the analogy between him and me. And one of the proofs of his modesty was that he always regarded himself as something of an impostor, and that he was going to be found out sooner or later. By the cordiality, not to say enthusiasm, with which that observation has been received, I gather that the analogy is quite complete. But, your Grace, I do feel something of an impostor here to-night, for I have reaped where others have sown. It is always the case that somebody comes at the end of a long task, and is able to put the little completing touch to a work of which the greater and more difficult part has been done by his predecessors, who have not reaped the glory or seen the consummation of their efforts. I always think in connection with these affairs, of which I have seen many examples in my political life—as I have never been in office you can quite understand that I have a certain detached view—I have always thought of the steeplejack, who, when the great architect has conceived the design, and the great builder has built up the temple, and thousands of workmen for many years have contributed their share—I think of the steeplejack, who, at the last moment, puts the cross on top of the great steeple, and I am inclined to believe that those who finally carry a Bill into an Act of Parliament deserve no more recognition than the steeplejack who puts the cross on the summit of a building which had taken the labour of many better men than himself through years, perhaps generations. Now, what was the evil with which we had to deal? The copyright in music was theoretically under the same protection as copyright in every other form of intellectual effort. But it was found that the protection was theoretical, not real. Men and women, who have composed pieces of music, which were the delight and joy of thousands and millions of homes, found that their music could be stolen, and that the law gave them no relief. As to the trade of music, it was passing through a serious, I might almost say, a tremendous crisis. In many parts of the country men engaged in the selling of music were becoming bankrupt, the composers of music were deprived of a large portion, some of them of all their income, and many a tragic story is known of men and women who were actually face to face with starvation, some of whom actually died of worry and starvation, because the law of the land refused to protect the product of their brain. Now this was the evil with which we had to deal. There was another evil to which I will not allude beyond the mere mention of it, and that was the great national loss which must come to a people when one of its great artistic and spiritual interests was prejudiced.

T. P. O'CONNOR, ESQ., M.P.

Application was made to Parliament over and over again, and in 1902 Parliament listened, and the Bill was introduced. The Bill was sent to a committee upstairs. That very often means to send the Bill downstairs into a grave from which there is no resurrection, and one of the pieces of advice which were given to me in the course of the struggle for my particular Bill was to send the Bill upstairs. I am very glad I resisted the temptation, for the Bill would probably be in its grave at this moment if I had not. The Bill for 1902 was sent upstairs. It was amended, with the result that the evil which was a dwarf before the amended Bill passed into law suddenly became a giant, and this Bill, which was actually brought in to put down musical piracy, had the effect of augmenting musical piracy, so that it became worse than ever. This is the effect of amending a Bill! Well, you know when you pass a measure in the House of Commons, you are expected to be satisfied for a considerable period afterwards. You are regarded as a somewhat importunate and impertinent person if you ask that assembly to reopen a question which it has closed. The Act of 1902 was an injury to the musical profession. It increased the evil it was intended to remove, and it closed the ear and the door of Parliament for some years. One of the resolutions I made in my own mind was that whether the Bill was carried or not, I would never be a party to the passing of a bad Bill. In 1905 the Bill was introduced. I think I was partly responsible for the introduction of the Bill. I spoke to the Prime Minister of the period, who is one of the most ardent admirers of music. My prayer to him to take up the question was backed by the two gentlemen who were mainly responsible for the introduction of such a Bill—the late Attorney-General, and my friend and countryman, the late Solicitor-General, Sir Edward Carson—and I am bound to say that if zeal and enthusiasm in the cause of the Bill on the part of the law officers and the Prime Minister could have completed the work, the Bill would have passed into law. But they were confronted by many obstacles, and the result was that the Bill was not passed into law. When the new Government came into office, I immediately set to work again upon the Bill. On almost the first day of the session I asked Mr. Herbert Gladstone whether the Government intended to introduce a Bill to deal with musical copyright. When in opposition every member of the present Government was a friend of musical copyright, and Mr. Gladstone gave me a soft answer. It turned away my wrath for the time being; but, gentlemen, I know something about Governments. I have sometimes had to use pressure upon Governments, and I asked again when the Government intended to bring in the Bill for musical copyright. I saw many members of the Government on the question, and from all I got the same soft answer, and if I had not been an old hand, I would really have taken these answers as meaning that a Bill was going to be immediately introduced and immediately passed into law. And when a Minister says to you, "My dear T. P.," in soft and dulcet tones, why, you will have to be a little harder-hearted than I am not for the moment to be impressed; and, gentlemen, week after week, and month after month, I lived in the hope that the Government would bring in the Bill. Now, I knew then that no Bill could be carried which had not at its back the support of the Government of the day, and that even with the support of the Government of the day it would require a good deal of effort to get the Bill considered and passed. There have been several pioneers before me in this undertaking. One of them, Mr. Ian Malcolm, is present, some of them are absent like Mr. Galloway and Lord Balcarres, and I am bound to say that the generosity of these men who have supported me is very much to the credit of them and the public life. When I look at the welter of legislation which is now occupying the attention of the House of Commons and the House of Lords, I congratulate myself that I got my little Bill passed. I rejoice that my little Private Bill did not have to wait for the Armageddon conflicts of to-day in Parliament, and if it had been in opposition to the Land Tenure Bill it would have stood no chance whatever. But I had not the slightest idea that the Bill would be so severely opposed. I thought I had good ground for being more sanguine than subsequent events justified. The Bill was backed by the strongest sponsorship that ever was behind a Bill in the House of Commons. It had at its back the Leader of the Opposition, Mr. Balfour; the leader of a party who sometimes stood in the way of legislation—I need scarcely say I think always bad legislation—my friend and leader, Mr. Redmond. It had at its back the leader of the Welsh party, Sir Alfred Thomas, the leader of the Scottish party, and Mr. Keir Hardie, the leader of the Labour Party. And in order that it might be complete I got the support of my friend, Mr. T. H. Sloan, the Orange Member for West Belfast, whose party at present seems to consist only of himself. Well, gentlemen, with such a backing, and with the Government favouring the Bill, you can quite understand that I started out on my journey in the best of spirits, and when I saw the blocking notice against the second reading I really could scarcely believe my eyes. There was a discussion between Mr. Balfour and the Prime Minister, the latter describing it as one of the most non-contentious Bills. I stated that it was one of those little, simple, innocent, non-contentious Bills which had in its favour practically the whole of the House of Commons. But a Bill that has in its favour nine-tenths of the House of Commons does not cease to become a contentious Bill. Why should the House of Commons allow a tiny minority, sometimes three or four, somtimes only one man, to stand between an important class and the removal of its grievances, and to stand against the judgment of the House of Commons? The Bill was one in favour of which its author never made a speech. I dwell upon the fact because I belong to a country where speech is supposed to be rather more difficult than silence; but though I made no speeches on the Bill in the House of Commons, it was not that I was not occasionally tempted to do so. I have always understood that you never know what a scoundrel you are until you write a play. These two gentlemen, Mr. Beerbohm Tree and Mr. Alexander, will tell you that if anything could destroy the friendship which has existed between them and me for so many years, it would be the announcement on my part that I am going to write a play. But, gentlemen, I never knew the depths of scoundrelism to which I had descended until I introduced a Private Bill. Some attacks were made upon the Bill, and some were even made upon me. But it rather upset my sense of humour when a man got up in the House of Commons, and, defending the rights of the kerbstone thief, appealed to the Englishmen there to remember the liberties for which their countrymen had fought! I have heard of the greatness of England placed upon many foundations, but I had never heard before that the Atlas who bore upon his shoulder all the magnitude of the weight of Empire was a kerbstone thief. There was not a concession which we made in the last days of the struggle which we were not willing to make in the early days as well. One gentleman opposed the Bill because there was a ring or a trust of music publishers or musical composers. Well, if there had been, you would not have had to wait so long for the redressing of your grievances. Another gentleman was extremely anxious to give cheap music to the people. I ventured to say that although cheapness was an excellent thing, it was not a thing which should be purchased by robbers. The third objection was that this was a Bill in favour of the publishers and not of the composers. Well, I confess I have no abstract love of the publisher, but I ventured to answer this gentleman that it was rather difficult to understand how, if the publishers were wrong, the composer could be benefited. All this kind of objection was foolish enough, but it did not exasperate me quite so much as another form of objection to the Bill, and that was the argument that copyright was a privilege, something that Parliament gave grudgingly, unwillingly, and almost against the public interest. To lay down that the work of a man's hand or the work of a man's capital or enterprise was more entitled to protection than the work of the soul or the brain, means that the nation is in its spiritual and intellectual decadence. These islands have produced great statesmen, great soldiers, great inventors, great conquerors; but put all the work of statesmanship, of arms, of commerce together into the balance, and Shakespeare into the other scale, and Shakespeare could outdo them all. I have not told you all the objections. I told you that I made no speech on the floor of the House, but if ever a volume of my speeches should be produced, I pity the publisher who is going to face the inevitable loss of such a production; but I would like him to add to the volume the speeches I made in the corridors and lobbies of the House of Commons. When I wanted someone suaviter in modo, fortiter in re, I fell back upon my friend, Lord Beauchamp; when I wanted the truly Mark Tapley spirit of optimism I always looked to my friend, Mr. Boosey. Let me tell you, gentlemen, that but for Mr. William Boosey the Musical Copyright Act would never have come into law. We have here a gentleman learned in the law, Mr. Muir. He was my coach, and if it had not been for the insight he gave me into the vagaries of the piracy people, possibly I should never have understood the question as well as I did. I went down to the House at eleven o'clock every night to propose the Bill for the purpose of creating an atmosphere, a thing that Mr. Tree and Mr. Alexander know all about. I also wanted to expose to the House of Commons the smallness of the numbers of those who opposed the Bill. That was not quite a pleasant task. My friend, Sir Edward Carson, was also down every night at eleven o'clock. He said it was an instruction in Parliamentary methods to watch the performance. But night after night some gentleman got up and objected, and the worst of it was that when I had squared one, another immediately succeeded to his place. In spite of the support of the Government, the Bill was still opposed by the small minority. Gradually the closing days of the session were at hand. I was afraid that my Bill was doomed. However, I went on, and the result of it was that at last the Bill was starred by the Government. My work at this stage was enormously helped by Mr. Herbert Gladstone, the Home Secretary, and Mr. Samuel, the Under-Secretary, who applied his powers of persuasion to some supporters of the Government whom I could not reach. We got the Bill taken up by the Government. We had two all-night sittings over the Bill, and we got through the two all-night sittings. We got it through the House of Commons, and then came the House of Lords. It is not often that the House of Lords has a special sitting for a private member and a private Bill; but I went to Lord Beauchamp, who had charge of the Bill in the Upper House, and I asked him if could have a private and special sitting of the House of Lords to get one stage of the Bill passed. He referred me to the Lord Chancellor, who was a friend of the Bill. The Lord Chancellor referred me to Lord Ripon, who was a friend of the Bill and of myself, and the result of it was that within a few moments of the Bill passing through the House of Commons there was an assembly of the House of Lords. One noble lord occupied the chair and two others occupied the benches. There was another in the shape of Lord Beauchamp, the sponsor of the Bill. The Bill was put through the Woolsack, and it was carried without a dissentient voice. In order to frank the amendments I got the printers to sit up all night, and it was not until I saw the clerks in possession of the amendments that I realised the Bill was safe. The Bill was to come up and to pass through several stages at once. The House of Lords is a very practical assembly, an observation in which I find I am in entire agreement with the Marquis of Salisbury and Sir Edward Carson. Just as I was standing at the Bar of the House waiting for my Bill to come up, I suddenly saw the empty room begin to fill. Lord Halsbury, the Lord Chancellor, made his appearance, then came Lord Armstrong, then came a number of Irish peers, who are notorious for their love of personal liberty, and a number of English peers who are not indifferent to the rights of property. Well, on the Saturday that I went into the gallery of the House of Lords I heard the Royal assent given to many Bills, and until I heard "Musical Copyright Bill," and saw the two clerks make four genuflexions, and the Lord Chancellor lift his hat—until that moment I did not believe that the Bill was safe. I am glad that the Bill did not have to wait for the Armageddon conflicts of to-day in Parliament, and when I see the Land Tenure Bill, the Education Bill, the Merchant Shipping Bill, the Trades Disputes Bill, and all the other Bills contending for the attention of Parliament, I can still scarcely believe that the Musical Copyright Bill has become part of the law of the nation. It is extremely gratifying to be able to say that, according to the reports which have been given to me, this is an effective Act of Parliament. Musical piracy already has practically disappeared. Now, in trying to pass this Bill into law, I had more than one motive. One of my first and main motives was a certain vanity in trying to do a job which badly wanted doing, and which had not yet been done. I thought I would show Sir Edward Carnmore and the other youngsters in the House of Commons how the thing should be done. But I had other reasons. I regard music as one of the greatest of arts, one of the highest, one of the noblest, one of the proudest possessions of any nation. I believe that one of the great problems that every reflecting man has to put to himself is to afford to our people a choice between the higher and lower forms of amusement and recreation. In Ireland we have a saying, "You must fight the divil with fire." A great agency of civilisation and popular education is to be found in the parks or on the Embankment. Finally, I was inspired by the thought that many men and women who have given to us hours of pleasure and exaltation, which are perhaps the most enjoyable hours of our life, should no longer be suffering under an intolerable grievance. And the composers of the land, long after I have passed away, will feel that they owe some little debt of gratitude to me for the protection of the children of their genius, and it will be a compensation and consolation to me to my latest day.

MR. IAN MALCOLM, M.P., in the absence through illness of Mr. J. Comyns Carr, proposed the toast of "Music." He was exceedingly sorry that illness should have prevented Mr. Carr from taking his place among them that evening. He thought, however, that the committee, as some slight solatium to the pirates, should have arranged that the toast of "Music" be proposed by the Pirate King, and responded to by Mr. Caldwell. For three years he had tried to persuade the Government to give support to the Bill. He was delighted that the honest followers of an honest profession are coming at last into their own. The law of copyright was at last vindicated in the land. He considered music in the domestic sense to be a very fine example of home rule. They toasted music because it was now possible for music to hold up its head, and it was one of the professions which the State, at least, was delighted to honour. We were proud of our British music and musicians. We needed them and could not live in a world without music.

SIR CHARLES VILLIERS STANFORD, responding for the "Drama," said:—The range of the term "music" is so great that I must perforce choose some small section of it to return thanks for. Shall it be Irish music, in honour of my countryman who is your guest to-night? I have been, all my life, always giving thanks for Irish music. Or shall it be that music which recently fell among thieves, and was rescued by him and his friends? Here I must speak vicariously, for I have not had the good-fortune, or ill-fortune (which is it?), to hit the taste or to reach the heart of the pirate. But I am deeply grateful to Mr. O'Connor and to those associated with him for accomplishing their task. They have safeguarded property and the commercial honour of this country; they have warded off the danger that threatened that hardly-won cause, international copyright; and they have secured the safety of those works which produce the quickest returns and the largest profits, and so once more raised the hope that some small portion of those profits will be devoted to the publishing of music which appeals to a smaller, but an earnest, circle of music-lovers.

LORD MONKSWELL, in proposing "The Sister Arts," remarked that there was present a distinguished representative of the drama, whom they would all be delighted to hear. He was informed that the three sister arts were Literature, the Fine Arts, and the Drama. He had the greatest pleasure in proposing the toast, coupling with it the name of Mr. Beerbohm Tree.

MR. BEERBOHM TREE, in response, said:—Your Grace, my Lords and Gentlemen,—I presume it is because the drama is the most comprehensive of all the arts that an actor has been asked to respond to this toast. It is precisely because the theatre seeks and obtains the aids of all the other arts that its appeal is so universal. Like Cleopatra, or, shall I say like Mr. T. P. O'Connor, the drama is all-embracing. You have heard much to-night as to the many-sidedness of our honoured guest, but you have not heard all. Not only is he the lightning and enlightening editor of most of our journals, but he is also the master of the art of oratory—not only of oratory, but of song, for he has sung "The Wearing of the Green" with such a sweet and moving tenor that I am told he has brought the nebular hypothesis of Home Rule within the precincts of practical politics. It is thought that his eloquent advocacy of Musical Copyright has been inspired only by an enlightened altruism, but within the rose of altruism there lurks the utilitarian caterpillar. And I believe that the announcement will shortly be made public that the author of the Musical Copyright Bill has lately been engaged, during the leisure which is afforded to him during the all-night sittings in the House of Commons, in composing a symphony cycle which will companion him with Wagner and with Strauss, and will necessitate the massed orchestras of Villiers Stanford, Richter, and Henry J. Wood. Woe be to the barrel-organs! Nay, more, he is about to eclipse the Bacon-Shakespeare controversy, for, after elaborate study, I have arrived at the startling conclusion that the magic initials, "T. P. O.," are cryptogrammatically interchangeable with those of "G. B. S.," and that our guest is consequently the real author of those masterpieces which have been hitherto popularly attributed to that plodding Socialist, Mr. George Bernard Shaw.

And so an actor must have a smattering of universality—without a certain affinity towards literature, music, and painting, he cannot hope to have a place in the modern art of the theatre. Like other possessions, this universality, this wide sympathy, has its penalties. I remember a Scotchman once visited me after a performance of Twelfth Night. He complimented me with the most glowadjectives which it is given to a Scotchman to conjure up on the excellence of my company, on the dresses, the scenery, and the music, but said never a word about my own efforts. He left me, and I despaired of his intelligence, but, returning, he said:—"Mr. Tree, I read an article of yours in the Fortnightly Review, and all I can say is, I think you've mistaken your vocation." So you see, my Lords and Gentlemen, why I am competent to respond for Literature. Some time ago I produced Du Maurier's Trilby on the stage, and in this music was freely employed. I had to play the piano—it was a dummy, and the pianist played off. In praising the presentation highly, a great lady said, "The part of the performance I most admired was Svengali's wonderful mastery of the piano." This is a further justification of my replying for the sister arts.

Again, we are sometimes told that the modern theatre is lamentably dependent on scene-painting. Only within the last few days I have been interested in reading Mr. Sidney Lee's new book, in which he deals drastically with modern methods of the production of Shakespeare. To him the method of Charles Kean and Sir Henry Irving is to be condemned. According to Mr. Lee, Shakespeare's plays should only be presented in an archaic manner, and with an abandonment of the modern advantages of production which our generation gives us. In my belief Shakespeare, as a practical stage-manager and dramatist, would have bent all the arts to his will, just as Wagner of the great moderns has done, in his music dramas. The strong man is always of his generation. It is the best accomplishment of the manager to present the master works of the language in such a manner as to commend them to the multitude. Everything that the sister arts can do to add to the glory of Shakespeare is admissible—everything, that is, that tends to aid the imagination and to help the spectator to a better understanding and a deeper love of the poet. The theatre is not for middle-aged epicures; it is, after all, a better achievement to fill the theatre with an appreciative paying public, drawn from all classes of the community, than to cater only for the self-elect who stay away.

But I go further than Mr. Lee on his own lines. I maintain it is better not to represent Shakespeare at all than to present him with adequate inadequacy, for one can read him with pleasure and profit in the study, whereas a dull presentation is calculated to make one turn from the further contemplation of his works. Shakespeare himself, who was a practical man, would, I am sure, not have objected to the best acting, the best scenery, the best costumes, and the best audiences he could get.

In these days of stirring controversy one cannot open one's paper in the morning without reading some diatribe, not only against the production of great dramas, but as to the decadence of the modern drama. Mr. Henry Arthur Jones's successes, and especially his recent great success in America, should, one would think, have put him in an optimistic frame of mind; but, speaking at a dinner in New York on Thursday, he gave vent to the most pessimistic utterances on the English drama. Well, gentlemen, with all respect to Mr. Jones, I feel that on this subject he talks arrant nonsense. Mr. Jones speaks of the present-day drama as though we had retrograded severely during the last two generations. If Mr. Henry Arthur Jones could devote some of the wondrous energy which he expends at present in attacking his contemporaries to writing a new play, I feel that it would outshine all his previous masterpieces, and prove the most enormous success of the contemporary drama. In truth, the theatre is suffering from its physicians, who are pulling long faces, and the watching public is deceived by them, and imagines that the drama is in an unhealthy state. I notice that Mr. Jones takes a less desponding view of the position on the other side of the Atlantic; but then he is on the other side of the Atlantic, and there is always a temptation to unfurl the star-spangled banner. Perhaps, in a way, we compare unfavourably with the American public. The United States is a country of eighty million inhabitants—mostly playgoers; the United Kingdom is a country of forty millions—mostly football players. And, certainly, if we may judge by the newspaper columns, the subjects most engrossing to the British public are football—and, of course, mixed bathing. Be that as it may, there is on this side of the water a splendid minority—a minority, growing from season to season—who care for the art of the theatre, and who are making possible the growth of a genuine revival of the English drama.

In these days of country pageants, of village plays, of Court theatres, and of young and striving dramatists, to bewail the decadence of the drama seems to me a vain imagining and a mischievous indiscretion. Let us leave Mediæval curmudgeons and literary dry-as-dustmen to their own devices. It may be that our drama is still hampered by the conventions of hypocrisy—it is a pity, perhaps, that dramatists do not permit themselves to hold the mirror up to nature—and that the truth can only be whispered among us. On the stage, as elsewhere, a man is allowed to think, but not aloud. But the tide always creeps up again, and the revelation of truth through art is ever recurrent as is the tide. Science is always progressing, flowing like a river; new facts are daily discovered. Science never attains perfection. But art is like the sea, flowing from imperfection to the perfection of the ideal, and ebbing back again to imperfection. No sculpture can excel that of the ancient Greeks; no literature can excel that of Shakespeare, no painting that of Rembrandt and Velasquez. Let us hope that we are moving towards the ideal once more, for by hope, not by despair, do we advance. It is by encouragement that we gain strength; it is by such opimtism as our guest of to-night always preaches that we are encouraged to effort; it is by the aid of the sister arts that the drama is able to fulfil its highest flights, and to the sister arts I return the thanks of the Stage.

Mr. William Boosey, in a few well-chosen phrases, proposed "The Press," and the Hon. Harry Lawson responded in a bright and amusing fashion.

Mr. Hamish McCunn, in proposing the health of and a vote of thanks to the chairman, commented on the universal satisfaction which was felt when his Grace the Duke of Argyll presided over the Queen's Hall meeting some time ago, and what great pleasure it gave them to see him on an occasion of rejoicing like the present.

The proceedings then came to an end, and the company separated.

Among the letters and telegrams expressing regret at the absence of the senders, and offering congratulations to Mr. O'Connor, was a brief note from Sir Squire Bancroft, who was unable to attend the dinner in consequence of his recent bereavement; and others came from Mr. Franklin Thomasson, M.P., Mr. W. L. Courtney, Mr. Raymond Roze, Mr. Denis O'Sullivan, and Mr. Charles Willeby.

PANTOMIME SONGS.

Messrs. Charles Sheard and Co., the popular music publishers of Shaftesbury-avenue, are entirely up to date in publishing the latest pantomime successes, and not only do they chronicle the "hits" of the present season, but they refer to some remarkable songs of the past. One of these is "The Blue Moon," sung by Mr. Walter Passmore in the Drury Lane pantomime, Cinderella. The composer was Mr. Walter Davidson, and the authors of the words were Messrs. Davenport and Wimperis, who have got out of the subject all the eccentric suggestions possible. Among the new songs which are likely to please the pantomime visitors during the coming Christmas we may mention "The blow almost killed father," whose adventures are sufficiently absurd, as when he purchases an ostrich, who swallows some gunpowder, and we are told that the bird "lays a box of squibs." "One of the Upper Ten" is bound to be a favourite, and "Tickle me" is certain to evoke hearty laughter. Sometimes old proverbs serve as a title; for example, the great benefit of help as compared with pity. Nor is sentiment wanting. "I'm wearing my heart away for you" is sure to find a host of admirers. "Roses, roses everywhere" will be warmly welcomed, even on Boxing night, and the nautical flavour of "Sailors three," with its echo of "Poll was true to me," will commend it to any British audience. This song is published in another key to suit lower voices. It may be safely affirmed that Messrs. Charles Sheard and Co. have hit the mark in their collection of pantomime ditties, and have appealed to every taste, whether sentimental, comic, or grotesque, and we anticipate a rapturous reception will be given to many of these melodies and choruses when sung by the stars of the pantomimes. The firm, always famous for its lively musical productions, is here represented at its very best, and a large sale is the certain result of their enterprise.

BARRING CLAUSE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

Sir,—I have pleasure in stating that, with reference to my previous letter, I have seen Mr. Walter Gibbons, and we have come to an amicable arrangement.

I find now that it was a misunderstanding which prompted me to insert the letter in question.—Yours faithfully, W. J. GRIMES.

Empress, Brixton, Nov. 21.

The great asphalt roller skating rink in the North Transept of the Crystal Palace opens today at 2.30. At four o'clock there will be the Lancers on skates, followed by an exhibition of fancy trick skating by Mr. Albert T. C. Bridge. In the evening an interesting item is provided by rink hockey, Selborne v. Sydenham (First League match), and an exciting Rugby football match on skates, Alexandra Palace v. Crystal Palace, will also be decided. The first gymkhana of the season is fixed for Dec. 15.

COPYRIGHT CONVICTIONS.

Arthur Long, 27, a powerful fellow, was charged at Old-street on Monday with being in possession of eighty-five copies of pirated music, and further with assault. Mr. Houston, barrister, prosecuted for the Music Publishers' Association, and called evidence to show that the prisoner was watched on Sunday morning by a constable of the E Division, employed for the purpose, leaving his home in Boundary-street, Shoreditch, with something under his coat. When stopped, the parcel was found to be pirated music, and the agent of the publishers gave prisoner in charge. The man became very violent, and kicked and fought, the agent getting a blow in the face and a kick on the shin. Prisoner was fined £5 for the music, and for the assault was remanded.

The prisoner was brought up on remand on Wednesday.

On the charge of assault Mr. Margetts now defended, and cross-examined to show that the kick on the shin which the prosecutor complained of was accidental. The witness insisted that the prisoner, a powerful fellow, made a determined resistance, and used words when kicking which showed deliberate intention. The agent asserted that the prisoner well knew him as employed to detect the sellers of pirated music.

The prisoner, in giving evidence on his own behalf, admitted that he had long been dealing in it, and that he knew when stopped he had done what was wrong.

Mr. Margetts asked him if the agent did not act in an overbearing way towards him.

Mr. Cluer: Overbearing! If a man steals my watch and I say, "You rascal, give that back," am I to be described as overbearing? This man is engaged in a fraud. Can one act overbearingly to a thief?

The magistrate decided to fine the prisoner an additional £4 for the assault, and the prisoner, protesting that he was a poor man and would appeal, was taken out of court, but quickly paid the £9, and was released.

A case of considerable interest to music dealers and the public generally was heard on the 16th inst. in the Belfast Custody Court, before Mr. F. G. Hodder, R.M., when a young man named David Berman, was charged on remand by Constable Thomas Armstrong with having in his possession for sale ninety-four copies of pirated music, contrary to the Musical Copyright Act.

Mr. A. J. Lewis prosecuted for the police, Mr. R. B. Crymble represented the Music Publishers' Association, and Mr. N. Tughan defended the prisoner.

The depositions already made in the case were read over. Prisoner was found selling the songs in Royal-avenue and Berry-street.

Mr. Lewis said a point had been raised by Mr. Tughan that the authority for arrest addressed to the head of the police was not in writing. He now produced the original document.

The charge was then proved against the prisoner with reference to "The Holy City" (Adams), the copyright of which was vested in Messrs. Boosey and Co., 295, Regent-street, London.

Mr. Crymble produced the certificate of the registration at Stationers' Hall of the copyright of "The Holy City."

Mr. Lewis said from one standpoint the case was not of very much importance. If the man was improperly arrested it was at the risk of the owners of the copyright.

His Worship did not think there would be any question about that.

Mr. Tughan said there was not. He would show that the prisoner was imposed upon in the matter.

His Worship was not disposed to take a very serious view of the case.

Mr. Tughan said the owners of copyright had been largely imposed upon prior to the Act of Parliament, which now protected them. His client was imposed upon by a Manchester firm, which sent him certain pieces of music, and told him that it was not pirated. There were some genuine pieces amongst the number. Mr. Tughan thought that was the first prosecution under the Act.

His Worship thought it was quite possible that the Act of Parliament might not have come under the notice of the prisoner. If he was quite satisfied that the prisoner intended to break the law he would impose the full penalty.

Mr. Lewis did not press for a heavy penalty in that particular case, but if a similar case came up it would be his duty to press for a heavy penalty. A pirated piece of music did not bear on the face of it the name of the publisher, whereas every genuine piece did; so that "he who runs may read."

His Worship imposed a fine of 5s. and costs. The genuine pieces of music were returned to Berman.

The penalty under the Act for the offence complained of is a fine not exceeding £5 on the first occasion, and on a second or subsequent conviction imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two months, or to a fine not exceeding £10.

"THE YELLOW FANG."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

Sir,—I noticed in The Era of last week that a sketch by John G. Brandon was to be produced this week entitled The Yellow Fang, a dramatic episode of an opium hell in Chinatown, San Francisco. It is alluded to as being quite new to the stage. In 1895 I wrote and produced a sketch entitled The Opium Den, for which I now hold, on behalf of Mr. Chas. E. Machin, the entire copyright, and it is also legally protected. The main incident of my story occurred in an opium den in San Francisco, and as the production of the sketch met with great success, it is now included in Mr. Chas. E. Machin's répertoire of pieces, all of which are legally protected.—Yours faithfully,

CHAS. M. DALY.
Manager, Author, and Producer for Mr. Chas. E. Machin's companies.
Avenue Opera House, Sunderland, Nov. 19.

A shocking discovery was made early on Friday, the 16th inst., by the hall porter at the South London. Making his inspection of the hall, he found the body of the night fireman, a man named Samuel Harmer, suspended by a rope attached to the bars of the gallery. The body was cut down immediately. At the inquest at Southwark on Tuesday the deceased's mother said she could in no way account for the tragedy. Four years ago her son was in the Royal Fusiliers, and while stationed at Woolwich was kicked by a horse on the knee. He was invalided out of the Army, and there had been some talk of his probably having to have his leg off, and this might have troubled him, as he was about to get married. The jury returned a verdict of suicide while insane.

The regular convocation of the Wanderers' Chapter was held at the Freemasons' Hall on Tuesday, under the presidency of Mr. C. G. Wetzlar, M.E.Z., C. Coop, H., E. A. Hubbard, J., E. Romain, S.E. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and confirmed, the M.E.Z. exalted the following members of the dramatic and vandeville professions:—Messrs. C. J. Doughty, G. H. Dyball, Harry Bawn, Attas, Burnetti, Frank Hardie, Graham, and F. H. Pedgrift. There was a large attendance, the visitors including Albert Le Fre, Serpentello, W. S. Lyon, A. Hitch, and Dr. Ramsden, honorary physician to the Chelsea Palace.

Mr. Frederic Jacques has been engaged by Mr. Robert Arthur for his production of Cinderella at the Camden Theatre.

THE CANTERBURY ANNIVERSARY.

Full well they laughed and applauded at the Canterbury on Thursday evening, when a couple of thousand or so of pilgrims from the suburbs south of the Thames assembled to celebrate the fifty-fourth anniversary of the famous and historic house; and apparently there was no thought of impending trouble with the licensing body in the minds of those seated in every part of a fine auditorium to enjoy to the full the admirable programme that Mr. Fred Miller, the popular manager, aided by his chief of staff behind the stage—Mr. David Cowis—set before them. There were old friends and new friends of the management in front; and Mr. George Adney Payne (looking hearty and well in spite of a catering career for thirty years or so) and Mrs. G. A. Payne, Mr. Horace Marriott, with his accomplished daughter, Miss Helena Millais, Mr. Joseph Wilson, who ran over from the Tivoli, Messrs. Tom Pacey, Ernest De Vere, Alan Macey, Theo. Dunkley, and a host of other friends of the management came to congratulate and to talk of the changes and chances of variety.

One of the most interesting events of the night was the appearance on the stage of Miss Henriquette Maude, a New Zealand girl, who has been working her way round the world as a reciter and entertainer. She has been two years on her journey, and arrived in London in September. In America she entered an elocution competition, and, as one of five hundred competitors, secured a gold medal, personally presented to her by President Roosevelt for her delivery of Mr. Frank Desprez's fine poem of the prairies, "Lasca." It was this selection that she gave on Thursday to the Canterburians, and her success was undoubted. Miss Maude is about the pluckiest piece of humanity in petticoats that we have met for some time, and she truly deserves any good fortune that may come her way. She is highly intelligent, evidently well-informed, musically trained, and, with her excellent elocutionary powers and a voice that vibrates with sympathy, she should do well on the variety stage.

A very hearty reception was accorded to Miss Victoria Monks, a great favourite across the bridge; charming Lily Burnand introduced a new song on the picture post-card craze; My Fancy danced herself into the hearts of the audience; Lieut. Travis voiced his puppets in the same skilful way as of yore; Mr. George Mozart entertained in his own original way; Miss Edie King showed us different styles of dancing; the cross-talk and dancing of Sanford and Lyons were quite to the taste of the audience; Miss Gracie Grahame's coquetry and comedy found a host of admirers; the soft shoe dance of Billy Hobbs was very neat; and other turns appearing included Mr. Bert Brantford, Mr. G. H. Chirgwin, Mr. Fred Eustace and company in the dramatic sketch entitled The Walter Hast, Mr. Sam Mayo, Miss Constance Walter Host, Mr. Sam Mayo, Miss Constance Moxon, the Poluskis, Mr. Harry Rogerson, Miss Amy Savile, Terry and Bentley, and a number of others.

The cavernous approach of the great hall had quite a fairylike appearance with numerous Japanese lanterns hanging from the roof; and in the auditorium bouquets of flowers decorated the boxes, giving quite a carnival aspect to a house that may be truthfully referred to as the pioneer of variety entertainments as we now know them. It is to be hoped that no such untoward event as the withdrawal of the licence will arrest the brilliant record of a hall that stands now as a monument to the forethought and enterprise of the late Charles Morton.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

An interesting orchestral concert, under the conductorship of Sir Charles V. Stanford, was given at the Royal College on Thursday evening, Nov. 15. The concert began with Dvorak's fine "Symphonic Variations in C major," in which the young orchestral students, led by their accomplished conductor, greatly distinguished themselves, while great praise must also be awarded for their painstaking and effective rendering of Berlioz's beautiful symphony, "Harold in Italy," in which the four movements of "Harold in the Mountains," "Procession of Pilgrims," "Serenade," and "Brigands' Orgies," were skilfully played by the orchestra; while in the solo viola Mr. Ernest Tomlinson did himself great credit. A very youthful performer, Miss Gertrude Mustard, received most enthusiastic applause and many recalls for her really brilliant playing in Greig's "Greig's Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in A minor." In all technical requirements Miss Mustard is well equipped, and a certain lack of power is, without doubt, only owing to the extreme youth of the performer, as in the matter of touch and expression the clever student excels. Another feature of the concert was the excellence of the vocal items given. Miss Jane Fyans, in the "Air des Adieux," from Tschaikowsky's Jeanne d'Arc, displaying a beautiful and well-trained voice; while, but for a certain want of dramatic style, Miss Dorothy Kershaw and Mr. W. Spencer Thomas's singing of the duet from Verdi's Aïda, "L'abborrita rivale," was eminently successful, and evoked loud applause from the huge audience.

ROYAL OPERA, COVENT GARDEN.

On Wednesday evening, at Covent Garden, a new Carmen, in the person of Miss Maria Gay, appeared with undoubted success. In many respects Miss Gay's Carmen is founded slightly on that of Mme. Calvé's, but with an individuality all her own, and making the gipsy cigarette-maker a fascinating and impulsive creation. The newcomer's voice, though not of any great power, is rich in quality, while her acting is dramatic and convincing; praise must also be awarded to her really clever and characteristic dancing, so truly Spanish, and to her artistic costume and graceful action. Seldom has any new Carmen at Covent Garden achieved so instant a success. Signor Fazzini was moderately successful in the character of Don José, and the rest of the cast was the same as that given on former occasions. Signor Mugnone conducted.

WILLIAM MORGAN JUBILEE TESTIMONIAL.

Further list of subscriptions:—	£	s.	d.
Geo. Padley	1	1	0
J. W. Rowley	1	1	0
J. N. Maskelyne	1	1	0
Mrs. D'Oyly Carte	1	1	0
T Bickerstaffe	1	1	0
F. A. Badman	1	1	0
Rd. Warner	1	1	0
Mme. Levante	1	1	0
Fred Ash	1	1	0
J. Fattorini	1	1	0
A. C. Baines	1	1	0
S. Padley	1	1	0
J. W. Whitbread	1	1	0
A. Voorzanger	0	10	6
Kahn and Dunning	0	10	6
S. C. Platts	0	10	6

Henry James Samuel Taylor, a trombone player in the Empire Theatre orchestra, Southend, on reaching home at one o'clock on Sunday morning, found his wife lying dead at the foot of the stairs. The carpet was loose and unnailed, and it is thought that in descending to get something for the children she fell. At the inquest yesterday Dr. Silva Jones declined to certify the cause of death, and the inquiry was adjourned for a post-mortem examination to be made.

THE M.H.A.R.A. AND CHARITY.

We have very great pleasure in inserting in our columns the following letters, the contents of which constitute a glowing testimonial to the charity of the variety profession—always united, at any rate, in benevolent work:—

General Manager's Office,
Midland Railway,
Derby.

Dear Sir,—I thank you very much for your letter of the 14th inst. enclosing a cheque for £105, which the Music Hall Artists Railway Association have been good enough to apportion out of its profits in aid of the funds of the Railway Servants' Orphanage.—Yours faithfully,

GUY GRANET.

General Manager's Office,
Great Western Railway,
Paddington Station.

Dear Sir,—I duly received your favour of the 14th inst., enclosing a cheque for 100 guineas on behalf of the funds of the Railway Benevolent Institution, and am much obliged to you for making me the medium of the Association's handsome donation.—Yours faithfully,

J. C. INGLIS.

Railway Servants' Orphanage,
Derby.

Dear Sir,—I have this morning received from Mr. W. Guy Granet, General Manager of the Midland Railway, the munificent cheque for 100 guineas, which you have sent to him as a further donation to the funds of this Orphanage. Permit me on behalf of our Treasurer, Lord Claud J Hamilton, and the Orphanage Committee to express our most grateful thanks for this additional generous help, and I should be glad if you would take some means of conveying to the members of your Association this expression of thanks.

I enclose a receipt and also certificate for 21 life-votes in the election of children, to which the donation entitles you, and am, your faithful servant,

ALBERT DEAN,
Secretary.
Music Hall Benevolent Fund,
18, Adam-street, W.C.

Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of yesterday's date containing cheque for 100 guineas, as a donation to this fund from the Music Hall Artists Railway Association. I am directed by my committee to thank your Association for your kind help, which is very sorely needed. Your committee are fully aware of the necessities of the poor of the profession, and their aid to meet the ever-increasing demands upon the funds is much appreciated. During the past year they investigated no less than 1580 cases, and gave assistance as far as their funds would allow. They feel sure that your committee will continue to bring before their members the necessity of individually and collectively doing all they can to help the funds to assist their less fortunate brother and sister artists.—Very faithfully yours,

HORACE MARRIOTT,
Secretary.
Music Hall Home Fund,
31, Wilson-road,
Camberwell, S.E.

Dear Mr. Stuart,—I have much pleasure to enclose receipt for cheque value £105 and at the same time to express my committee's sincerest thanks for such a munificent donation. Will you kindly convey the same to your Committee. With kind regards.—Yours sincerely,

J. J. FRUIN,
Secretary.
Music Hall Ladies' Guild,
69, Primrose Mansions,
Battersea Park.

Dear Mr. Stuart,—I have much pleasure in acknowledging the splendid donation of £105 from the M.H.A.R.A. I will write you more fully after Thursday's meeting.—I am, faithfully yours,

ANNA DE GREY.

LONDON COLISEUM.

We have received the following from the Moss' Empires (Limited):

"On May 10 last a resolution for the voluntary liquidation of the Coliseum was passed. Liquidators, with a committee of inspection, were appointed. Since that time these gentlemen have devoted much time and thought to the consideration of the possibility of resuscitating the company upon a sound basis, whereby the shareholders might have an opportunity of making good at any rate a part of the loss which has been sustained, and with this view many meetings have been held. Many schemes have been proposed and considered.

"Mr. Stoll was appointed by the Court as receiver on behalf of the First Debenture stockholders, and an order was made in the debenture action for a sale, and such order must be proceeded with unless a scheme is carried through. Mr. Stoll has offered that if a scheme is accepted by the various parties interested he will invest £35,000 in the new concern.

"The committee consider that this offer from Mr. Stoll places the scheme upon such a footing that it can be satisfactorily carried through. It will be borne in mind that the difficulties of the company were largely caused by sufficient capital not having been provided at the outset to build and equip the property, the shortage being due mainly to an excess of expenditure over estimates.

"Mr. Stoll has been in communication with a very well-known theatrical manager, and there is very little doubt that he will join the board of the new company if the present scheme is carried through.

"It is also proposed to make Mr. Frank Allen, of Moss' Empires, a director, together with Alderman Carey, of Cardiff, and two other gentlemen to be appointed by the committee.

"The scheme for the reconstruction of the Coliseum sets out that a new company be formed, under the name of the New Coliseum (Limited), with a capital of £214,965, divided into 39,200 Ordinary shares of £5 each, and 3793 Six per cent. Cumulative Preference shares of £5 each.

"The sum of £80,000, payable by the new company in cash, is to be allocated in paying to the 1st Mortgage Debenture-stockholders the interest due to them respectively; in paying to the holders of 2nd Debentures of the present company a composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound upon the amount of principal owing to them respectively; in paying a composition of 4s. in the pound to all the other creditors of the present company who shall have proved their debts within one month of the approval by the Court of this scheme.

"The proposed new directors are of opinion that a minimum profit of over £20,000 per annum can be earned, sufficient to pay 5 per cent. dividend to the Ordinary shareholders.

"All along the committee had been aware that Mr. Stoll would agree to sink a sum of £35,000 in any new flotation that might be made. He further intimated to the committee that he was prepared to work gratis for the new company until a 5 per cent. dividend at least had been paid to Ordinary shareholders. Consequently any remuneration he hoped to obtain would depend entirely upon dividends.

"Debenture-holders have received an offer for the building of about £200,000, but the committee point out that if this is accepted the existing Debenture issues and charges will swallow up the entire sum, leaving no benefit for Ordinary shareholders. It is the committee and Mr. Stoll's desire to protect the interests of and obtain as much as possible for the Ordinary shareholders."

ON THE ROAD, NOV. 26.

All-of-a-Sudden Peggy.—O. H., Cork.
Are You a Mason (Macdona).—Glasgow.
As Midnight Chimes.—T. R., Bristol.
Assassin.—Rotunda T., Liverpool.
At Cripple Creek.—Grand T., Luton.
At Duty's Call.—Colosseum, Oldham.
Beast and the Beauty.—T. R., Smethwick.
Beautiful Fiend.—Grand T., Mansfield.
Belle of Mayfair.—Tyne T., Newcastle.
Benson, F. R. (N.).—T. R., Dewsbury.
Benson, F. R. (S.).—Penzance and Falmouth.
Benson, Mr. & Mrs., & Co.—Royalty T., Chester.
Between Two Women.—T. R., Jarrow.
Bound to Win.—T. R., Sunderland.
Breed of the Treshams.—Ashton-under-Lyne.
Bulmer, Mr.—Grand T., Brighton.
Carl Rosa Opera Co.—Gaiety T., Dublin.
Catch of the Season (No. 1).—Bristol.
Charley's Aunt.—Kennington Theatre.
Chinese Honeymoon (Macdona).—North District.
Christian, The (Croke).—T. R., Blackburn.
City of Sin.—T. R., Croydon.
Claudian.—Queen's T., Leeds.
Coal King.—Prince's T., Accrington.
Country Girl (Macdona).—Midlands.
Dairymaids, The.—T. R., Manchester.
Dare-Devil Dorothy.—T. R., Chesterfield.
D'Oyly Carte.—New T., Oxford.
Driven from Home.—T. R., Windsor.
Duchess of Danteig (N.).—Brighton.
Earl and the Girl (M.).—Nottingham.
Earl and the Girl (W.).—West Bromwich.
Earl and the Girl (N.).—Swindon.
Executioner's Daughter.—Alexandra, Widnes.
Face at the Window.—Grand T., Byker.
Fascinating Mr. Vanderveldt.—O. H., Leicester.
Faust Up-to-Date.—Grand T., Leeds.
For Life and After.—T. R., South Shields.
Four Just Men.—Queen's T., Manchester.
Freedom of Suzanne.—Crown T., Peckham.
French Spy.—Merthyr Tydfil.
Golden Ladder.—Theatre Royal, Blyth.
Great Awakening.—T. R., Norwich.
Heart's Desire.—Kilmarnock and Ayr.
Held Apart.—T. R., Exeter.
Her Fatal Past.—Cambridge Theatre, Spennymoor.
Her Luck in London.—Osborne T., Manchester.
Her Lost Self.—King's Theatre, Gainsborough.
Her One Great Sin.—T. R., Dover.
His House in Order (N.).—O. H., Southport.
His House in Order (S.).—County T., Kingston.
Hour of Her Triumph.—Cambridge T., Spennymoor
Hutchison Repertoire.—H. M. T., Aberdeen.
Indian Mutiny.—T. R. Rotherham.
Kitty Grey.—Metropole T., Gateshead.
La Comedie Anglaise.—Taunton and Yeovil.
Lady Kinton's Necklace.—Queen's T., Longton.
Lady Madcap (S.).—Wolverhampton.
La Poupee (Levilly).—Grand T., Birmingham.
La Poupee (Ralland).—Motherwell and Coatbridge.
Life of a Showman.—P. O. W., Nuneaton.
Lights of London.—Empire T., Southend.
Little Breadwinner.—Lowestoft.
Little Michus (Edwardes).—Grand T., Hull.
Love of Women.—T. R., Hebburn.
Love that Women Desire.—P. O. W., Grimsby.
Lucky Durham.—T. R., Birkenhead.
Manxman.—Lyceum T., Eccles.
Marriage of Kitty.—Grand T., Blackpool.
Midnight Mail.—Pleasure Gardens, Folkestone.
Midnight Wedding.—Alexandra T., Hull.
Monte Cristo.—Halifax.
Moody-Manners (A).—T. R., Bolton.
Moody-Manners (B.).—Lyceum T., Crewe.
Mr. Hopkinson.—Cheltenham.
Mr. Popple.—T. R., Birmingham.
My Sweetheart.—Camden Theatre, N.W.
Napoleon the Great.—T. R., Stratford.
Norman V. Norman.—Grand T., Southampton.
On the Stroke of Twelve.—New T., Consett.
Otto the Outcast.—P. O. W., Mexborough.
Power of Gold.—Gaiety T., Burnley.
Prince of Pilsen (Harris).—T. R., Stockport.
Prince of Pilsen (Musgrove).—P. O. W., Birmingham.
Private Secretary.—Marlborough T., Holloway.
Prodigal Parson.—T. R., York.
Prodigal Son.—Lyceum T., Edinburgh.
Proof.—Corporation T., Chesterfield.
Public Opinion.—O. H., Torquay.
Raffles.—King's Theatre, Glasgow.
Revenge.—Prince's T., Preston.
Royal Divorce.—T. R., St. Helens.
Sailors of the King.—Winter Gdns. T., Blackpool.
Saints and Sinners.—T. R., Perth.
Shadow of a Crime.—Alexandra T., Birmingham.
Sherlock Holmes.—Avenue T., Sunderland.
Shulamite.—T. R., Cardiff.
Sign of the Cross.—Rotunda T., Liverpool.
Silver King (Polini) (N.).—Lyceum T., Newport.
Silver King (Polini (S.).—Gaiety T., Hastings.
Sin of Her Childhood.—Pontypridd.
Soldier's Honour.—T. R., Sunderland.
Spider and the Fly.—O. H., Coventry.
Still Alarm.—Kirkcaldy and Falkirk.
Temptress, The.—Junction T., Manchester.
Terry, Edward.—Shakespeare T., Liverpool.
Three Little Maids (N.) (Macdona).—Crystal P.
Throne of Terror.—Cowdenbeath & Dunfermline.
Toreador (Macdona).—Midlands.
Traitor.—Grand T., Nelson.
Two Hussars.—Muncaster T., Bootle.
Two Little Drummer Boys.—County T., Bedford.
Two Little Sailor Boys.—T. R., Rochdale.
Two Little Vagabonds (M.).—Brynmawr and Abercarne.
Two Little Vagabonds (N.).—H. M. T., Carlisle.
Two Little Vagabonds (S.).—T. R., Hyde.
Ugliest Woman on Earth.—Alex. T., Sheffield.
Under the Russian Flag.—T. R., Middlesbrough.
Unwedded Wife.—T. R., Batley.
'Varsity Belle.—T. R., Portsmouth.
Village Blacksmith.—Prince's T., Portsmouth.
Walls of Jericho (N.).—T. R., Huddersfield.
Walls of Jericho (S.).—T. R., Bournemouth.
Warner, Miss Grace.—Prince's T., Llandudno.
Warning to Women.—Gaiety T., Leith.
Way of the World.—T. R., Rugby.
Wearin' o' the Green.—H. M. T., Barrow.
What the Butler Saw.—A. T., Stoke Newington.
When London Sleeps.—T. R., Leicester.
When Women Hates.—Grand T., Brighton.
White Chrysanthemum (Curzon).—Prince's Theatre, Manchester.
White Chrysanthemum (Macdona).—Greenock.
Wilkie, Allan, and Co.—Pleasure Gdns., Folkestone.
Worst Woman in London.—Lyceum T., Govan.
Youngest of Three.—O. H., King's Lynn.
£1000 Reward.—Gaiety T., Dundee.
10.30 Down Express.—St. James's T., Manchester

THE VAUDEVILLE CLUB.

In the presence of an immense audience the members of the Vaudeville Club gave a performance of Hubert Henry Davies's comedy, Cousin Kate, at the King's Hall Theatre, Covent Garden, on Thursday night, Nov. 15. The comedy, produced under the direction of Mr. Frank Harding, was the 183rd dramatic performance of a club which does the greatest credit to its president, Mr. George Alexander. The performance on Thursday was of all-round excellence. Mr. Harry Peach proved a manly and effective representative of the artist, Heath Desmond, who so neglects the old adage, how well it is to be "off with the old love before on with the new"; and Miss Marguerite Paxton played Kate Curtis (Cousin Kate) in quite the right comedy spirit, the occasional touches of sentiment being well introduced. Miss Paxton's acting and clever comedy business in the second act, the scene of which is an empty house called Owlscot (because there are no owls), deserved great praise. Mr. Peach also most ably seconded her efforts, and was in this scene at his best. Miss Marjorie Chamberlin did all that was possible for the character of Amy Spencer, a young lady not quite certain whether she will have for a husband Heath Desmond, the artist, or the clergyman, the Rev. Jas. Bartlett, a part capitally impersonated by Mr. John C. Mason, who gave the clerical voice and manner in a most amusing, but not exaggerated style. Mrs. Spencer, the mother, who would prefer her daughter to marry the rich artist instead of the poor parson, was cleverly undertaken by Mrs. Herbert Ford; while the smaller parts of Bobby Spencer and Jane the servant were skilfully performed by Mr. Norman Galloway and Mrs. W. Simmonds. The scenery, painted by J. T Buh and Son, and wigs by C. H. Fox, were effective, and the stage-manager, Mr. J. A. Whitehead, deserved praise for his realistic thunderstorm in the second act. During the evening an excellent selection of music was given by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Frank Harrington, and the Vaudeville Club are to be congratulated on a highly successful entertainment.

"THE ERA" NEWSPAPER.

Notice to Contributors.

All communications intended for publication should be sent to "THE EDITOR," and be accompanied by the Writer's Name and Address, not necessarily for insertion, but as a guarantee of good faith.

The Editor will not undertake to be responsible for any rejected MSS., nor to return any Contribution unaccompanied by a stamped and directed envelope.

Notice to Subscribers.

"The Era" is sold by all Newsagents in all the leading English, Irish, and Scotch towns, every Saturday Morning. Price Sixpence.

TERMS, POSTAGE FREE,

Home Subscriptions.		Foreign Subscriptions.
One Year.....	£1 6 0	One Year.....	£1 12 0
Six Months.....	13 0	Six Months	16 0
Three Months ..	6 6	Three Months ..	8 0

Cash must accompany order.

Notice to Advertisers.

Advertisements should reach the Office early in the week, and not later than Thursday, 7 p.m. Remittances, payable to "THE ERA," LTD., and crossed Lloyd's Bank.

Address,
The PUBLISHER,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.
(two doors off Wellington Street)
Telegrams, "The Era, London." Telephone, 4747, Central.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

ARTHUR WILLIAMS.—(1) Wyllard's Weird, produced at the Criterion Theatre on Dec. 29, 1887. Cast—In the prologue: Gustave Georges, Mr. Henry Neville; Baron de Maucroix, Mr. M. P. Berton; Marie Prevol, Miss Janet Achurch; Barbe Girôt, Mrs. Juliet Anderson. In the drama: Julian Wyllard, Mr. H. Neville; Edward Heathcote, Mr. C. Charrington; Bothwell Graham, Mr. Scott Buist; Tibbins, Mr. Ferrand; Dora Dalmaine, Miss Janet Achurch; Hilda Heathcote, Miss Annie Hughes; Leonie Lemarque, Miss Maude Millett; Theresa Myerstein, Mrs. Juilet Anderson. (2) The Cloven Foot, produced at the Theatre Royal, Blackburn, on Jan. 27, 1890. Cast: John Treverton, Mr. Chas. Elton; Antoine Desrolles, Mr. Chas. Herbert; Edward Clare, Mr. Hamilton Piffard; Jos. Lemuel, Mr. Henry Herne; Smolendo, Mr. Berkeley Perkins; Dr. Gerard, Mr. Augustin Knight; Trimmer, Mr. Claremont Gaskell; Mr. Sampson, Mr. Haldane Crichton; Laura Treverton and La Chicot, Miss Janette Steer; Elizabeth Sampson, Miss Marie D'Alvera; Mrs. Evitt, Mrs. C. A. Clarke; Celia Clare, Miss Herbert.

W. G. PARRY.—(1) Trilby was originally produced at the Theatre Royal, Manchester, on Sept. 7, 1895. (2) An act may possibly have been played there on some special benefit occasion, but not otherwise.

H. GREENFIELD.—We regret that we cannot inform you, as it is against our rule to give the age of members of the profession.

J. HODGSON.—If you can give us the exact date of the competition we may be able to supply you with the information.

TYRO.—(1) It all depends on his arrangement with the manager. (2) Yes; it is the usual custom.

G. W. GERALD.—We regret that we could not publish your letter concerning the Society to which you refer.

NORMAN MCKINNEL.—"Modern Opera Houses and Theatres," by Edwin O. Sachs.

E. CHESTER.—Miss May Yohé appeared in the title-part in Dandy Dick Whittington, by G. R. Sims and Ivan Caryll, produced at the Avenue Theatre on March 2, 1895.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, & DEATHS.

The charge for inserting in "The Era" an announcement of a Birth or Death or an "In Memoriam" notice, not exceeding twenty-four words, is One Shilling and Sixpence, every additional word One Penny.

The charge for a notice of Marriage, not exceeding forty words, is Two Shillings and Sixpence, every additional word One Penny.

As a guarantee of good faith, the name and address of the sender must accompany each notice.

BIRTHS.

LONGFORD. — Thursday, Nov. 15, at 213, Fairfield-road, Droylsden, Manchester, the wife of Austin H. Longford, of a daughter.

LONGFORD.—Thursday, Nov. 15, at 213, Fairfield-road, Droylsden, Manchester, the wife of Austin H. Longford of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

FORTHCOMING MARRIAGE.

STUDT—DOONER.—The marriage is announced to take place, at St. Mary's Church, Southampton, on Wednesday, Dec. 5, of Jacob Studt, jun., eldest son of Jacob Studt, amusement caterer, of the Victoria Hall, Southampton, to Mary Ann Dooner, eldest daughter of Richard Dooner (of R. Dooner and Son, bioscope exhibition proprietors), of Bristol.

DEATHS.

CHAPUY.—On Nov. 16, at Lyndhurst-drive, Leyton, Leonard Louis Chapuy, aged 41, late of Carnegie Hall, New York.

CHAPUY.—Leonard Louis Chapuy, late of Carnegie Hall, New York, who succumbed to paralysis at Leyton Drive, November 15, aged 41.

COOKE (COURTE).—On Nov. 7, 1906, at 30, Partridge-road, Cardiff, Louisa Cooke (Courte), aged 82, actress for many years at the Theatre Royal, Glasgow. Deeply mourned by her son.

GEORGE.—Nov. 19, at 42, Brunswick-street, Stamford-street, S.E., Alf George, music hall comedian.

GOURLAY.—On Nov. 15, John (Johnnie) Gourlay. Interred at Wandsworth Cemetery Nov. 21. American and Australian papers please copy.

HUMBERSTONE.—Saturday, Nov. 17, at his residence, the Three Horse Shoes Hotel, Sheffield, Henry Humberstone, in his forty-seventh year.

MILLS.—Nov. 15, at 122, City-rd., Bristol, after a lingering illness, Martha Norman, mother of Tom Norman Mills, manager for Dr. Walford Bodie, in the 79th year of her age. Australian papers please copy.

IN MEMORIAM.

BASSANO.—In very loving memory of Nance Bassano (Nancie James), Nov. 21, 1904. FRANK BASSANO.

PREECE.—In loving memory of Edie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terriss (Emily Stevens), who passed away at Malta Nov. 24, 1899. Never forgotten.

READ.—In ever-loving memory of our dear father, Henry Read, late partner of Messrs. H. and T. Read and F. Bailey, World's Fair, Royal Agricultural Hall, London, who passed away Nov. 21, 1898. More than missed by his loving wife and children.

AT the Curzon Hall, Birmingham, on the 15th inst., Mr. Waller Jeffs took his annual benefit. Among the special items of the programme was a series of living tableaux by Birmingham military veterans. Mr. Jeffs made a speech from the stage, on which were assembled the heads of the various departments, and took occasion to thank the various members of his staff, the veterans, the artists, and all concerned. On Saturday, after the last performance, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffs gave a supper to the whole of the members of the staff and the curators of the hall, at which more than sixty were present.

A PLEASANT recognition of the services of Mr. Neddy Vokes at the recent concert of the Edinburgh Postal Club has been given by the members in the form of a present as a memento of the occasion. Mr. Vokes, by kind permission of Mr. John Henry Cooke, rendered a selection from his musical act, and aroused much enthusiasm.

"THE ERA" LETTER-BOX.

A Stamped Envelope, plainly addressed, must be enclosed with application for each Letter. Letters, after lying at this Office for One Month, are forwarded to the Postal Authorities, to be returned to the Senders.

No Circulars or Parcels admitted to this list

Alberto, Mr. Fred
Alexander, Mr. W.
Allen, Mr. Fredk. F.
Archer, Mr. J.
Ardeck, Miss Agnes
Arthur, Mr. Fred. E.
Balby, Mr. E. G.
Barker, Mr. H.
Barnet, Mr. W. J.
Barrs, Mr. H.
Barrs, Mrs. H.
Bathurst, Mr. Pat
Bedford, Mr. E. A.
Bella, Miss Pattie
Belle, Miss
Beltram, Miss Jessie
Bennett, Mr. Frank
Bestic, Mr. C. M.
Biddall, Mr. W.
Birkett, Mr. Harold
Bishop, Mr. J. H.
Boston Twins
Bronson, Miss Kate
Brophy, Miss Ida
Brown & Spink, Messrs.
Brull, Mrs.
Buckingham, Mr. F.
Buckle, Miss Jennie
Buist, Mr. Scott
Caddick, Mr. B.
Callan, Mr. John
Carling, Mr. Tony
Carson, Mr. L.
Chung Ling Soo
Clayton, Mr. J. W.
Clayton, Mr. Rene
Clifford, Mr. Nat
Cochrain, Mrs. C.
Colin, Mr. R.
Collins, Mr. Albert
Collins, Miss M.
Colwell, Mr.
Coma, Mr. Arthur
Conrad, Mr. Harry
Conrad, Mr. Louis
Corina, Miss C.
Courtney, Mrs.
Courtney, Mr. Alfred
Coopers, The Three
Crawley, Mr. J. C.
Creighton, Mr. James
Culshaw, Mr. Wm.
Dagmar, Miss V.
Dainton, Mr. Arthur
Danby, Mr. Frank
Darrell, Miss Hilda
Davis, Mr. Bell
Daunton, Mrs.
Daunton, Mr. Geo.
De Breans, The
De Camo, Mr. C.
Dene, Miss Hetty
Derina, Miss Addie
Dobbs, Miss Edith
Donaldson, Bros.
Easton, Mr. Reg.
Edwards, Miss Dollie
Ellison, Mr. J. W.
English Drama Society
English, Mr. Will
Entwistle, Mr. H.
Faber, Mr. Arthur
Field, Mr. W.
Fitzgerald, Mrs. Tom
Fontaine, Mr. V.
Foster, Mr. Chas.
Foster, Mr. B. S.
French, Mr. H. Ormsby
Fulford, Mr. C. Quinton
Garde, Mr. and Mrs.
Gates, Mr. Bob
George, Miss Marie
Gerrard, Mr. C. H.
Gilbert, Mr. Louis
Gillent, Mr. Frisky
Gordon, Miss Millie
Goutis, Mr. Henry
Gratton, Miss Emilie
Green, Mr.
Gregory, Mr. E. G.
Gribben, Mrs. Harry A
Guitano, Mr. Herrman
Hallet, Mr. Wilson
Hanbury, Miss Hilda
Hannan, Mr. Percy
Harris, Mr. Wm. Thos.
Hartley, Mr. Chas.
Hastings, Mr. Wm.
Haytors, The
Heam, Mr. Thomas
Heirlle, Mr. Sidney
Henche, Mr. H.
Henriot, Mr. Walter
"Henriques," The
Hill, Mr. Hamilton
Hill, Mr Leonard
Hodges, Mr. Horace
Holloway, Mr. Abe
Holman, Sisters
Holt, Prof
Iveson, Mr. Tony
Jones, Mr. J.
Kenny, Mr. Chas.
Kenyon, Mr. Neil
King, Miss Hetty
Kioto, Mr. N. T.
Kirby, Mr.
Kisbey, Mr. H. J.
Klein, Mr. W. H.
Knick-Knacks, The Lang, Mr. M.
Lauder, Mr. Harry
Lauri, Madame
Le Hay, Miss Daisy
Leigh and Armitage
Lemoine, Miss Rose
Leslie, Miss Fannie
Leslie, Mr. Alfred
Lewis, Mrs. Alwyn
Lewis, Mr. Gilbert
Leyton, Mr. Geo.
Lincoln, Mr. L.
Lingard, Mr. H.
Lloyd, Mr. Herbert
Loftus, Miss Vinie
Lovegrove, Miss P.
Lowenwirth, Mr. Sam
Lyndo, Mr. Fred
Macarte, Miss Eleanor
Mackersey, Mr. W. A.
Maclaren, Mr. Ian
Marjutti, Mlle.
Marsh, Mr. Albert
Martin, Miss Sylvia
Matthews, Mr. E. C.
Mawson, Mr. Chas.
May, Miss Edna
Mayne, Mr. W.
Mc Calla, Miss D.
Michel and Polo
Montefiore, Mr. Eade
Montford, Mr. Geo.
Moore, Mr. Henry
Murray, Miss Vera
Munro, Mr. D.
Napier, Miss B.
Neildon, Mr. Tommy
Newton, Mr. Cecil
Norman, Mr. A. W.
Novell, Mr. W.
O'Gorman, Miss Lill
Ollive, Mr. M.
Osborne, Miss N.
Pardo, Mrs.
Patti, Madame A.
Pattison, Mr. Bart
Pauline, Princess
Phydora, Mr. H.
Pierri, Mr. Antonio
Pillans, Miss Helen
Platt, Mr. J. H.
Powell, Mr. A.
Power, Mr. John
Proctor, Mr. John
Prye, Miss Maggie
Rawschle, Mr.
Rayburn, Miss Kittie
Reckitts, Miss Edie
Ree, Miss Molly
Rees, Mr. Leonard
Reeves, Miss Marie
Rennie, Miss Maggie
Restall, Mr. John
Revett, Miss Daisy
Rio, Mr. Otto
Roberts, Mr. H. R.
Robertson, Miss Helen Roulette, Miss L.
Russell, Mr. Harry
Sampson, Mr. C. A.
Scott Mrs. Veretta
Sidney, Mr. Charlie
Smith, Mr. Wellesley
Stadleman, Messrs. F.
Stanton, Miss J.
St. Clair, Miss Queenie
St. George, Miss Zana
Sutherd, Mr. D.
Tasker, Mr. Ernest
Taylor, Miss Evelyn
Tearle, Mr. Edmund
Temple, Mr. F.
Thomas, Mrs. R. S.
Tony, Little
Toy, Mr.
Trench, Miss Bertha
Tyrrell, Miss Florence
Vampire, Mr. James
Vane, Miss Ivy
Varney Miss Gladys
"Vasco"
Vassar, Dr. Carl
Voce, Prof.
Vokes, Mr. W.
Walpole, Mr. E.
Wardroper, Mr. Henry
Warren, Miss Lillian
Wells, Mr. Rhodes
White, Mr. Claude
White, Mr. Will
Williams, Miss Cora
Williams, Miss Jessie
Wills, Mr. Chas.
Wilson, Mr.
Yorke, Mr. Nansen
Young, Mr. Alan W.

BIRTHDAYS OF THE WEEK.

We wish Many Happy Returns of the Day to the following ladies and gentlemen:—

Marie Loftus—Saturday, Nov. 24.
Nellie Lauraine—Saturday, Nov. 24.
Rosie Kearns—Saturday, Nov. 24.
Arthur St. John—Saturday, Nov. 24.
Augustin Symonds—Saturday, Nov. 24.
Nellie Wilson—Saturday, Nov. 24.
Beatrice Parke—Sunday, Nov. 25.
G. W. Anson—Sunday, Nov. 25.
H. F. Maltby—Sunday, Nov. 25.
Wyn Weaver—Sunday, Nov. 25.
H. E. Ray—Sunday, Nov. 25.
W. W. Walton—Sunday, Nov. 25.
Wyn Weaver—Sunday, Nov. 25.
Louie Freear—Monday, Nov. 26.
John F. Lambe—Monday, Nov. 26.
Vesta Victoria—Monday, Nov. 26.
Jesse Sparrow—Monday, Nov. 26.
Acton Bond—Tuesday, Nov. 27.
Edwin T. Kisby—Tuesday, Nov. 27.
F. Stuart Willson—Tuesday, Nov. 27.
Lottie Stratton—Tuesday, Nov. 27.
Philip F. Howley—Wednesday, Nov. 28.
Sir Francis Burnand—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Surtees Corne—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Kate Kilpack—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Ada Watson—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Joe Elvin—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Lydia Dreams—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Hiram Henton—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Clarissa Talbot—Thursday, Nov. 29.
T. E. Worth—Thursday, Nov. 29.
Lelia Zillwood—Thursday, Nov. 29.
H. V. Esmond—Friday, Nov. 30.
John Glendinning—Friday, Nov. 30.
Ben Brown—Friday, Nov. 30.
Maud Hobson—Friday, Nov. 30.
Mary Stuart—Friday, Nov. 30.

BUREAU DE CHANGE
SPECIALLY RECOMMENDED.
HANDS and CO.,
16, STRAND,
CHARING-CROSS RAILWAY STATION,
LONDON, W.C.

LABELLED EPPS'S TINS ONLY.
SORENESS AND DRYNESS.
HOARSENESS, TICKLING AND IRRITATION.
THROAT AND COUGH
SOFTEN AND CLEAR THE VOICE.
ALWAYS EFFECTIVE.
7½D.-JUJUBES-13½D
JAMES EPPS & Co., Ltd., Homœopathic Chemists, London.

"I'll swear upon that bottle."—TEMPEST, Act ii.; Scene ii.

WHITBREAD'S
BOTTLED BEERS
maintain their popularity because they are brought into condition by MATURING IN BOTTLE,
the Natural method,
without the aid of carbonating or other artificial process.
The largest Beer Bottlers in the World.
APPLY TO CHIEF OFFICES,
BRITANNIA ST., KING'S CROSS, LONDON, W.C.
(Telephone No. 366 North. Telegraphic Address, "Beersellar, London.")
FOR NAME OF NEAREST AGENT.

Easy Cooking
Delicious recipes in every packet of PLASMON
PLASMON COCOA
The Food Cocoa.
PLASMON OATS
The 4 minutes' Porridge.
Plasmon, Ld., Farringdon St., London.

A COMPLETE FOOD FOR THE ROBUST OR INVALID.
The Allenburys' DIET
A pancreatised Milk and Wheaten Food most easy of assimilation. Prepared in a minute by the addition of boiling water only. It is an ideal diet for the Dyspeptic and the Aged, and is invaluable in the sick-room.
In Tins at 1/6 and 3/- of Chemists, &c. A large sample for 3 penny stamps.
ALLEN & HANBURYS, Ltd., 37, Lombard-street, LONDON.
The "Allenburys" DIET is a food for Adults, and is quite distinct from the well-known "Allenburys" Foods for Infants.

Admitted by the profession to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE
The original and only genuine, is the best-known remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.
IT ACTS LIKE A CHARM IN DIARRHŒA CHOLERA, AND DYSENTERY, and Effectually cuts short all attacks of Spasms
The only palliative in NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, TOOTHACHE
None genuine without the words "Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE on the stamp.
Overwhelming Medical Testimony accompanies each bottle.
Of all Chemists, 1/1½, 2/9, and 4/6.

ROWLAND'S ODONTO
FOR THE TEETH.
Whitens, Preserves, Beautifies the Teeth; prevents Tartar and Decay, 2/9, of Stores, Chemists, and ROWLAND'S, 67, Hatton Garden, LONDON.

Hayman's Balsam Cures
COUGH — One bottle completely cured my boy's troublesome cough. MRS. CHATFIELD, Beckenham.
COLD — Kindly send a bottle. I find it the only thing to cure a cold. A. ROSSON, Herons-gate, Herts.
Cash Prices, 9½d., 1/-, 2/6.

PATENT
THE H.W. Velvet Grip
STOCKING SUPPORTERS.
The only "GRIP" that "GRIPS" securely without Injury to the Hose
No. 6, Plain Cotton Elastic, 2 Grips, Pin or Loop Top ... ... 1/1 pair
,, 86, Plain Silk Elastic, 2 Grips, Pin or Loop Top ... ... 1/7 ,,
,, 10, Frilled Silk Elastic, 1 Grip, Safety Pin Top .. ... 1/6 ,, ,, 40, Frilled Silk Elastic, 2 Grips, New Clip Top ... ... 2/6 ,, GENTS' BOSTON GARTERS, for supporting the Socks, Cotton 1/- ,,
,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, Silk ... 2/- ,, Postage 1d. Par Extra.
PATENT RUBBER CUSHION BUTTON
If unable to obtain from your Draper or Hosier, Apply to THE VELVET GRIP MANUFACTORY, Hackney-road Works, LONDON, N.E.

THE MISTAKE MADE IN FURNISHING
is in having no settled plan, no fixed idea of exactly what will be required, down to the minutest detail in every room, and the exact cost. If you would furnish in STYLE, and yet with ECONOMY, you should secure the HACKNEY FURNISHING CO.'S
GUIDE AND CATALOGUE,
an illustrated volume that has helped thousands, together with Prospectus of our famed "MODEL" SYSTEM, testimonials, &c.
POST FREE.
CAUTION.—Please note HACKNEY FURNISHING CO., LTD., Painted over the Premises before entering. We are compelled to notify this.
HACKNEY Furnishing Co., Ltd.
CASH BARGAINS OR EASY TERMS.

GENERAL TERMS. Worth.	Per Month.
£10	£0 6 0
20	0 11 0
30	0 17 0
40	1 5 0
50	1 8 0
100	2 5 0
200	4 10 0
500	11 5 0

and pro rata.

Special Facilities for Members of the Dramatic and Music Hall Professions.
10 per cent. Discount for Cash.
Carpets, &c., laid free.
No Deposit Required.

TOWN HALL BUILDINGS, MARE STREET, HACKNEY, N.E., AND THE GROVE, ADJOINING.
Hours, 9 till 9; Thursdays close 4. Telegrams: "Furnments London." Tele.: 84 Dalston and 854. North Country orders packed free and carriage paid. OPEN SATURDAYS until a LATE HOUR. A. M. STEWART, Managing Director.

Evans' ANTISEPTIC THROAT PASTILLES
Made to a Formula of the Liverpool Throat Hospital.
Highly commended by Leading Actors, Vocalists, and Public Speakers, for Preventing and Removing Hoarseness, Soreness, Irritation, and all affections incident to prolonged or undue vocal exercise. Used and Recommended by the late William Terriss, and regularly used by many of the leading Actors and Singers, whose testimonials as to their efficacy have been received by us.
Write for Sample, and mention "THE ERA," to Sole Manufacturers,
EVANS SONS LESCHER & WEBB, LTD., LIVERPOOL.

DINNEFORD'S MAGNESIA.
The Best Remedy for Acidity of the Stomach, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and Indigestion.
A Safe and most effective Aperient for regular use.

THE FEET.—Nails a Speciality.
ALL DISEASES OF THE FEET Successfully Treated without pain by Gardner and Randall, Chiropodists and Foot Specialists, 95, Regent-street, London, W. Highest Surgical Testimonial (Sir WILLIAM JENNER, &c.). Also Testimonials from the Prime Minister, Bishop of London, H.R.H. Prince Christian, &c. CORN, BUNION, CHILBLAIN, and RHEUMATIC OINTMENT absolutely cures Gouty and all Painful affections of Tender Feet, Soft Corns, Stiff and Enlarged Toes and Joints, Rheumatism, Piles, &c.
Post Free, 14 stamps.

BIRKBECK BANK.
ESTABLISHED 1851.
SOUTHAMPTON BUILDINGS, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.
2½ PER CENT. INTEREST allowed on Deposit Accounts.
2 PER CENT. INTEREST on Drawing Accounts with Cheque Book.
All general Banking Business transacted.
PROSPECTUS, with full particulars, POST FREE.
C. F. RAVENSCROFT, Secretary.

ACCIDENTS OF ALL KINDS,
SICKNESS, EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY, BURGLARY, and FIDELITY GUARANTEE RISKS Insured against by the RAILWAY PASSENGER'S ASSURANCE CO.,
Capital (fully subscribed) £1,000,000. Claims paid, £5,000,000. 64, CORNHILL, LONDON.
A. VIAN, Secretary.

THE "MAGICIAN,"
Edited by WILL GOLDSTON.
The Bright, Crisp, and Up-to-Date Monthly Journal, devoted to the Latest Conjuring, Magic, Spiritualism, Hypnotism, &c. Fully Illustrated and Described. Essential to the success of every professional. 4s. 6d. per annum, post free. Single Copy, 4½d. Ensure getting it regularly.
A. W. GAMAGE, Ltd., Holborn, London, E.C.
New Conjuring Catalogue sent post free.

SHAFTESBURY
LIVERY STABLES,
25a, LISLE-ST., W.
(Close to Hippodrome and Leicester-square.)
HORSES FOR THEATRICAL ENTERTAINMENTS A SPECIALTY.
Hacks and Job Horses on Hire. Lessons given.
Apply to Manager. Telephone 11,106 Central.

LONDON THEATRES.

ROYAL ITALIAN OPERA,
COVENT GARDEN. AUTUMN SEASON.
To-day, at 2.30, MADAMA BUTTERFLY.
To-night, at 8.30, LA TRAVIATA.
Monday, at 8.30, MADAMA BUTTERFLY.
Tuesday, at 8, FAUST.
Wednesday Matinée, at 2, CARMEN.
Wednesday, at 8.30, LA TOSCA.
Thursday, at 8, CARMEN.
Telephones, 2888 Gerrard and 7903 Central.

ROYAL OPERA HOUSE,
COVENT GARDEN.
(By kind permission of Frank Rendle.)
Fourth Annual Concert, Stage Employees Benevolent Fund.
Sunday evening, Dec. 2, at 7.30.

LONDON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.
Conductor, Mr. LANDON RONALD.
Artists:

Madame Alice Esty.	Mr. Joseph O'Mara.
Madame Mary Conly.	Mr. Herbert Grover.
Miss Helen Blain.	Mr. Hector Lightfoot.
Miss Edna Thornton.	Mr. Charles Knowles.
Miss Marie Stiven.	Mr. Denis O'Sullivan.

Accompanist, Fredk. B. Kiddle.
Tickets 1s. to 5s.; Boxes 21s. to 7s. 6d., at Theatres and Music Halls, the usual Agents, and from Mr. William Johnson, Hon. Secretary, 29, Wellington-street, Strand.

HIS MAJESTY'S. MR. TREE.
To-night and Every Evening, at 8, for two weeks only,
Shakespeare's
KING RICHARD II.
King Richard, Mr. TREE.
The Queen, Miss VIOLA TREE.
MATINÉE, EVERY SATURDAY, at 2.
EXTRA MATINEE WEDNESDAY, Dec. 5.
Box Office (Mr. Watts) open 10 to 10. Tel. 1777 Ger.

GAIETY THEATRE.
Manager, Mr. GEORGE EDWARDES.
Every Evening at 8.15
(Doors open 8.0.)
THE NEW ALADDIN.
A Musical Extravagance.
Matinée every Saturday at 2.15 (Doors Open 1.50).
Box Office Open 10 till 10.

ST. JAMES'S, King-street, Pall Mall.
Every Evening, at 8.15 (326th time).
HIS HOUSE IN ORDER, by A. W. Pinero
MR. GEORGE ALEXANDER
MISS IRENE VANBRUGH
Matinée Every Wednesday and Saturday at 2.
Tel. 3903, Gerrard

GARRICK.
MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER,
Lessee and Manager.
Every Evening, at 8.30,
THE MORALS OF MARCUS,
a Play in four acts,
by William J. Locke.
MATINEES WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, 2.30

CRITERION THEATRE.
PICCADILLY CIRCUS.
Lessee, Sir Chas. Wyndham.
Every Evening, at 9,
THE AMATEUR SOCIALIST.
By W. Kingsley Tarpey.
Mr. ERIC LEWIS as The Socialist.
An evening of wild hilarity.—Daily Mail.
One long triumph for Mr. Eric Lewis.—Daily Telegraph.
A really clever farce. We laughed the evening through.—Standard.
Preceded at 8.30 by THE COLLABORATORS.
Miss LILIAN BRAITHWAITE in both pieces
Matinée every Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30.

NEW ROYALTY.
THE ELECTRIC MAN.
Sole Proprietors, The Royalty Theatre (Limited).
General-Manager, Mr. E. B. NORMAN.
Every Evening at 9,
THE ELECTRIC MAN,
by Charles Hannan.
Harry Nicholls and exceptional cast.
At 8.15, THE SETTING OF THE SUN.
Matinées Wednesdays and Saturdays 2.30.

COMEDY THEATRE.
Sole Lessee, Mr. ARTHUR CHUDLEIGH.
Under the Management of Mr. Arthur Chudleigh.
Every Evening at 8.50,
CHARLES FROHMAN presents
RAFFLES,
THE AMATEUR CRACKSMAN,
a Play, in Four Acts,
by E. W. Hornung and Eugene W. Presbrey.
Preceded at 8.20 by A WIRE ENTANGLEMENT.
Matinée every Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30.

DUKE OF YORK'S THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Charles Frohman.
Every Evening, at 9, CHARLES FROHMAN presents CYRIL MAUDE in a new play in 3 acts by Tristram Bernard and André Godfernaux, entitled TODDLES. At 8.25, THE SCAPEGRACE, with PAULINE CHASE, a wordless play in one act, arranged by Albert Chevalier. Music by Edward Jones. MAT. Every THURS. and SAT. at 2.25.

DALY'S THEATRE.
Produced by Mr. George Edwardes.—Every Evening, at 8.15, Matinée every Saturday, at 2.30, the New Comedy Opera, in English, entitled
THE MERVEILLEUSES.
The book by Victorien Sardou, adapted for the English stage by Basil Hood, lyrics by Adrian Ross, and the music by Hugo Félix, with an exceptional cast.
Box Office 10 till 10.

KING'S THEATRE, W.
'Phone, 119 HAMMERSMITH. Owner and Resident-Manager, J. B. MULHOLLAND.
Nightly at 8; Thursday Matinée, 2.30.
BRIGADIER GERARD.
Re Bookings at the MARLBOROUGH THEATRE Address MR. MULHOLLAND, King's Theatre. Magnificent Pantomime Production, "Red Riding Hood," for disposal. Scenery, Dresses, Costumes complete. Equally suitable for "Babes."

MARLBOROUGH THEATRE.
Managing-Directors,
Mr. Ernest Stevens and Mr. R. C. Buchanan.
Monday, Nov. 26,
THE PRIVATE SECRETARY.
Matinées, Thursdays, at 2.30. All communications re Dates, to Mr. J. B. Mulholland, King's Theatre, Hammersmith, W.
All other communications to Messrs. Stevens and Buchanan, Marlborough Th., N. 'Phone, 131 North.

WOOLWICH.—GRAND THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of S.E. London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Monday, Nov. 26,
ROBERT COURTNEIDGE'S
"BLUE MOON" Co.
Matinée every Thursday, at 2.30.
Add., Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E.

POPLAR. NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of East London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Monday, Nov. 26,
"OLIVER TWIST,"
by Arrangement with Mr. Tree.
Matinée every Thursday, at 2.30.
Several Spring Dates Open. Tel., 64 East.
Add., Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E.

ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE,
KINGSTON-ON-THAMES.
Managing Director, Mr. PETER DAVEY.
Monday, Nov. 26, Mr. George Alexander's company will present "HIS HOUSE IN ORDER." Pinero's great success. Now filling the St. James' Theatre.
Tel., "Theatre, Kingston." 'Phone, 58, Kingston.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

ALHAMBRA
Grand Ballet, "L'AMOUR."
Première Danseuse, Signorina MARIA BORDIN.
Varieties by AGNES and JULIUS ZANCIG, Brothers Bonnes, Onlaw Trio, "LES POETTINGERS," LUIGI ROSSI and Musical Horse, EMIR, Urbanora, "Climbing the Dolomites," "True to His Trust," "PARISIANA" BALLET.
Doors 7.45. Manager, GEORGE SCOTT.

EMPIRE (Leicester-square).
THE DEBUTANTE.
New Grand Ballet.
MLLE. GENEE, Premiere Danseuse.
FOX HUNTING on the Biograph.
"BURNING TO SING."
Helen Charles, Daunton Shaw Troupe, O'Kill, The Brittons, Herbert Lloyd, Chinka Pana, &c.
Every Evening at 8.
Manager, Mr. H. J. HITCHINS.

PALACE.
Galatea, Princess Trixie, Margaret Cooper, Darc's Marionettes, Malcolm Scott, Palace Girls, The McNaughtons, &c.
Latest Topical Events, &c., on Bioscope.
Every Evening at 8.0 (doors 7.45).
Special Priced Matinée Every Saturday at 2.0
Managing-Director, Mr. ALFRED BUTT.

THE OXFORD.
The Mysterious Cross, a novel, bewildering illusion, Sam Mayo, Kelly and Gillette, Lily Burnand, Ernest Shand, Dan Crawley, Geo. Bastow, Bertha Stuart (Scottish Character Vocalist), Three Laurels, Nat Clifford, Ike Scott and Son, Lina Verdi, Lockhart's Elephants, Fred Earle, Stella Troupe, Sandford and Lyons, Harry Weldon.
Open 7.30. Manager, Mr. BLYTH PRATT.
Saturday Matinées at 2.30.

THE TIVOLI.
Little Tich, Fragson, Wilkie Bard, G. H. Elliott, Will Van Allen, Jack Camp, Lee and Bentley, Florence Yaymen, Lennie and Hast, Billie Barlow, Carlotta Levey, Edie King, George Bastow, The Abdullah Arabs.
Open 7.30
Manager, JOSEPH WILSON.
Saturday Matinées (Reduced Prices), 2.15.

CANTERBURY.
"The Duchess of Tooting," a new and original musical comedy, by Sidney Bacon, full cast, refreshingly bright and sparkling; Griff and Alpha, Will Van Allan, Stewart and Morgan, Alfred Lester, Carlotta Levey, Nat Clifford, Gracie Grahame, G. H. Chirgwin, Datas, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, Charles Collette and Joan Derry, in a farce duologue, "Tea for Two," Victoria Monks, Tom Woottwell, Wright and Elton. Matinée Saturday, Dec. 1, at 2.50, when the full Variety Co. will appear. Reduced prices. Gen. Manager, FRED MILLER.

PARAGON,
Mile End-road, E.
The only Variety Theatre in the East End on the One House a Night System. Monday, Nov. 26, 1906, and during the week, Matinée every Thursday at 2.30, special attractions. Little Tich, Ruffell's Bioscope, Sisters Casselli, Terry and Bentley, B. Brantford, My Fancy, Alexandra Dagmar, Sterling and Love, Sisters Wingrove, S. Mayo, G. Mavius, C. Russell, Mignonette Kokin, H. Weldon, Fred Eustace and Co., in dramatic episode, "The Gay Parisienne." Doors open at 7. Prices, 3d. to £1 1s. 'Phone 166 East. Manager, CHAS. BEECHAM.

THE EUSTON
(opposite St. Pancras Station).
Twice Nightly, at 6.20 and 9.10.
Tom Craven and Co., Annie Purcell, Kelly and Gillette, Ruffell's Bioscope, A. Cruikshank, Germaine, Albert Christian, John Le Hay and Co., Geo. Antill, Middies and Maids, Myra Stansfield.
Manager, FRED McAVOY.

SOUTH LONDON PALACE,
London-road, S.E.
Twice Nightly, at 6.30 and 9.10.
Sensational Sketch, "La Vivandiere," Sam Mayo, Sandford and Lyons, Sisters Wingrove, Michael Nolan, Myra Stansfield, The Percys, Eugene Family, Mountford and Walsh, Gladys Mavius, Ruffell's Bioscope.
Manager, WILLIAM PAYNE.

THE NEW BEDFORD
PALACE OF VARIETIES, LTD.
Manager, A. F. LOVESY.
Twice Nightly at 6.10 and 9.0.
Monday, Nov. 26, John Lawson and Co., Moon and Morris, Mlle. Roza, Slippere, Gladys Williams, Trick and Trixie, Chas. Chard, Annie Casey, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, Norman King, May Henderson, Harry Russon.
Artists are notified that they must send their full Bill Matter in two clear weeks before opening. Rehearsal, 1 o'clock Mondays. All must attend. Artists not complying with the above rules are subject to having their contracts cancelled at option of Management.

EMPIRE, CAMBERWELL.
Managing-Directors,
JESSE SPARROW and HARRY BAWN.
Twice nightly, 6.40 and 9 o'clock.
Special production on a most lavish scale, by Arthur Rigby and company, of a comic opera in half an hour, "The Isle of Ooma." Twenty performers, including Arthur Rigby himself, Mamie Cannon, Morimura (Japanese illusionist), Sisters Selwyn, Kit Keen, The Claymores, Wally Hughes, The Dancing Gilberts, "Following in Father's Footsteps," by the Empire Pictures, Will Lytton, and the 5 Schiavonis, the greatest troupe of lady and gentlemen comedy acrobats in the world.

EMPRESS THEATRE OF VARIETIES,
BRIXTON
The Poluskis, Herbert Shelley, Geo. Bastow, Jake Friedman, Gladys Mavius, Frank Lyne, Sinclair and Parr, Carlotta Levy, Atlas and Vulcana, Gracie Grahame, Stella Troupe, Ruffell's Pictures, Three Laurels, Eldra and Dog Prince.
'Phone No. 41 Brixton. Doors open at 7.30; half-time, 9.15. Manager, NELSON FRANCIS

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE.
Two Performances Nightly, at 6.30 and 9.
Band Rehearsals at 3 p.m. on Mondays.
All Artists must attend.
Six Bros. Luck, Alexandra Dagmar, Selkirk's Juveniles, V. L. Granville, Maud Esmond, Sisters Caselli, Hallam and Stanton, Will Poluski, jun., Ruffell's Bioscope.
Manager, ARTHUR J. BARCLAY.

ROYAL ALBERT PALACE OF
VARIETIES, Canning Town, E. Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. ARTHUR G. H. HUNT. Assistant-Manager and Secretary, Mr. Alfred Levy. Monday, Nov. 26, twice nightly, 6.30 and 9.15, Six Bros. Luck, Percy Galino, the Two Maynards, Sisters Valli, the Mayes, Daisy Wright and Crazy Elton, Ernest Rees, Miss Eva Hope, Myra Love, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Wild, Willie, and West. Musical-Director, J. Stark; Stage-Manager, A. Everitt. Band Call 2 p.m. Monday. Price from 2d. to 1s. 6d.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES,
HIGH-ST., POPLAR. Telephone, 714 East.
Proprietors, Messrs. F. and M. ABRAHAMS.
Nightly, 6.30 and 9.10. Matinée, Thursday, 2.30.
John Henderson and company, including Miss Millie Henderson, in "Under the Maple Leaf," Cyril Carle, New Bioscope, Fred Herbert, Princess Pauline, Phone and Phone, Serpentello, Spencer and Marks, Geo. Shirley and Co., Johnny Alexander and Co.
Band rehearsal, 1 o'clock Mondays. Popular prices.
General-Manager, Mr. JACK WOOLF.

ROYAL STANDARD MUSIC HALL
(facing Victoria Station). Proprietor and Manager, Mr. T. S. DICKIE. One house nightly. (Half-time 9.30, except Saturdays and holidays). Monday, Nov. 26, T. E. Dunville, Arthur Lennard, Hayman and Franklyn, May Moore Duprez, Rose Lloyd, Seven Middies and Maids, Nipper Lupino Lane, Steely and Dowton, Bernard and Weston, Ethel Dunford, The Florios, Harry Maxam, Amy Saville, Edisonograph.
Rehearsal Monday, 1 o'clock. Assistant-Manager, Mr. M. Volay.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

MIDDLESEX, DRURY LANE, W.C.
—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. L. GRAYDON.—Lighting Programme.—Sidney Bacon's Company in "The Maniac," Amber Austa, Brown and Robinson, Vernon Troupe, Rosie Lloyd, Johnny Dwyer, Mrs. Oscar Luck's Company, Woolmer Young, White and Jerome, The Maymotts, The New Bioscope, Will Haines, Dusty Rhodes. Commence 7.15. Saturday one hour earlier. Popular prices.

HAMMERSMITH PALACE.
Proprietor, Mr. J. C. COE.
One Performance Nightly. Monday, Nov. 26.—Edith Garrud's Troupe of Japanese Lady Wrestlers, Sinclair and Parr, The Ongars, Harry Rogerson, Adey Spencer, Four Burnells, Kisbey, May Moore-Duprez, Kathleen Cogan, Charlie Faning, Tucker and Burns, Geo. E. Doughty and Co., in "Captain Cupid," Gregg and Goodman, Griff, The Edisonograph, The Poluskis. Doors open 7.30. Commence 7.45 (Saturdays 7.15). Telephone 106, Hammersmith.
Manager, LEWIS VINCENT.

THE METROPOLITAN,
EDGWARE-ROAD.—John Lawson and Co. in "The Devil's Sunday," G. H. Chirgwin, E. Shand, E. Veno, Kitts and Windrum, Peggy Pryde, Tom Woottwell, Middies and Maids, Dan Crawley, Connie Edison, Massano, Lottie Govell, Gladys Warren, Harry Rogerson, Lucy Weston. Open 7.15. Prices from 6d. to £1 10s. Manager, J. W. EDGAR. Tel. No. 194 Pad. Box-office from 11. Artists note.—If they do not send billing matter in 14 days before opening they will not be billed.

CHELSEA PALACE,
King's-road, Chelsea.
Twice Nightly, at 6.40 and 9.10
Lew Lake and Co., in "My Pal Jerry," Bertha Stuart, Lennie and Hast, in "The Sea Nymph," G. H. Elliott, the Leonards, Chas. Faning, Maud Laverne, the Florias, Peggy Pryde.
Manager, EDWARD SWANBOROUGH.

PUTNEY HIPPODROME.
Managing-Director, Mr. W. J. GRIMES.
Once Nightly. Half Time, 9.15.
Band Rehearsal for Artistes Monday, 12 noon.
"The Belle of India," Harry Maynard, Alma Burton, the Original Cecilias, Lucy Coventry, Sacho and Cowan, Ethel May, Professor Thornbury, Marie Reeve, Henry A. Moore, Minnie Mace, George French, Eileen Douglas, Raymond Trio, Sisters Lunelle, Phillips and Merrill, De Vere and Kenwick, Frankie, Ruffell's Pictures, George Leyton.
Doors open 7.30, commence 7.50. Seats booked.
Tel., 808 Putney.
Manager, Mr CLIFFORD KING.

LONDON HIPPODROME.
Twice daily, at 2 and 8 p.m.
"Earthquake," Lavater Lee, the Kellinos, Two Butterflies, "Daily Mirror" Boy Army, Bellonini, Grisse Bros., Stelling and Revell, Three Tauberts, the Schwartz Bros., Marzella's Birds, Morris and Vincent, Maningos, Bioscope, &c.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
CRYSTAL PALACE.
Monday, Nov. 26 and every evening.
In Theatre, at 8.0, Matinée, 3.0, Wednesday, "THREE LITTLE MAIDS," Electric Theatre, Mr. E. Noakes, Conjurer, Promenade Concerts Every Evening. Great Asphalt Skating Rink now Open. Sat., Dec. 1, at 3.30, Concert by Jan Hambourg, Mark Hambourg, and Boris Hambourg. Dec. 5 and 6, National Chrysanthemum Show.

MASKELYNE and DEVANT'S
MYSTERIES, ST. GEORGE'S HALL, LANGHAM-PLACE, W. Daily, at 3 and 8. A SIDE ISSUE, Mr. J. N. Maskelyne's New £1,000 Ghost Illusion. Mr. David Devant, with New Magical Problems.
Daylight Ghosts and various Entertainers.
Seats 1s. to 5s.
'Phone, 1545 Mayfair.

ACADEMIES AND SCHOOLS.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC,
TENTERDEN-STREET, W.
Instituted 1822. Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1830.
The Academy offers to Pupils of both sexes an opportunity of receiving a thorough education in Music in all its branches, the Drama, and Dramatic Elocution under the most eminent Professors.
For terms and all other information, apply to F. W. RENAUT, Secretary.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC
(Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1883),
Prince Consort-road, South Kensington, S.W.
Patron: HIS MAJESTY THE KING.
President, H.R.H. the PRINCE OF WALES, K.G
Director, Sir C. Hubert H. Parry, Bart., C.V.O., D.C.L., M.A., Mus.Doc.
Hon. Sec., Charles Morley, Esq.
Fourteen Free Open Scholarships will be Competed for in January and February, 1907. Particulars now ready.
Associateship Examination, April, 1907.
Syllabus and Official Entry Forms may be obtained from FRANK POWNALL, Registrar.

GUILDHALL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.
The only School in London for
OPERATIC and THEATRICAL
TRAINING which possesses a completely equipped Theatre. Public Performances periodically given.
Stagecraft, Elocution, Fencing, Gesture, and Deportment Taught by Eminent Professors.
New Pupils can enter at any time.
FEES MODERATE. Prospectus on application to H. SAXE-WYNDHAM, Secretary, Victoria-embankment, E.C.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC ART,
77, NEW OXFORD-STREET, W.C.
Principals: Cairns James, Ernest D'Auban.
President, George Edwardes, Esq.
Complete course of studies for the light opera and dramatic stage. Private and class lessons in all subjects. Over 80 students have secured professional engagements. Three "George Edwardes" Scholarships awarded yearly. Pupils can join at any time.
Apply, Secretary.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan.
GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.
First-class Attractions only.
KING'S THEATRE, EDINBURGH.
At Present in Course of Erection.
Will Open in December with
Mr. Robert Courtneidge's Pantomime "Cinderella."
KING'S THEATRE, SUNDERLAND.—Joint Managing-Directors, Ernest Stevens and R. C. Buchanan. A First-class Theatre, at present in course of erection. To be opened in December with Pantomime.
THE ALEXANDRA, GREENOCK.
THE NEW CENTURY, MOTHERWELL.
THEATRE ROYAL, COATBRIDGE.
THE NEW GAIETY, LEITH.
THE NEW GAIETY, AYR.
THE KING'S, KILMARNOCK.
THE GRAND, FALKIRK.
THE NEW GAIETY, CLYDEBANK.
THE KING'S, KIRKCALDY.
Also booked in conjunction,
THE METROPOLE, GLASGOW,
and THE THEATRE ROYAL, NORTH SHIELDS.
By arrangement with Mr. Jefferson.
HER MAJESTY'S CARLISLE.
By arrangement with Stanley Rogers, Esq.
All communications to Mr. R. C. Buchanan.
General Office, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.
Telegraphic Address, "Bookings, Glasgow."

COLONIAL THEATRES.

AUSTRALIA.
MELBOURNE, SYDNEY, BRISBANE.
Mr. J. C. Williamson,
Manager of the Leading Australian Theatres.
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, MELBOURNE;
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, SYDNEY;
THEATRE ROYAL, SYDNEY;
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, BRISBANE.
London Representative:
J. A. E. Malone, Daly's Theatre.

AUSTRALIA.
Mr. HARRY RICKARDS'
AUSTRALIAN ENTERPRISES:—
TIVOLI THEATRE, SYDNEY;
TIVOLI HOTEL, SYDNEY;
GRAND OPERA HOUSE, MELBOURNE;
PRINCE OF WALES'S HOTEL, MELBOURNE;
TIVOLI THEATRE, ADELAIDE;
THEATRE ROYAL, PERTH;
PALACE THEATRE AND GARDENS, PERTH.
Mr. Harry Rickards has now completed his bookings until 1909.
Address all communications Tivoli Theatre, Sydney.
Cable Address: Tivolian, Sydney.

AUSTRALIA.
THE BROUGH-FLEMING COMEDY CO., under the direction of
Mr. Herbert Fleming
Nov., Dec., PRINCESS'S T., MELBOURNE.
Jan., Feb., March, 1907, NEW ZEALAND.
Easter, 1907, PALACE THEATRE, SYDNEY.
All communications care of
Messrs. Blake and Riggall,
120, William-street, Melbourne.
London representative, R. Golding Bright,
120, Green-street, Leicester-square.

SOUTH AFRICA.
Messrs. B. and F. WHEELER
now control the
ONLY CIRCUIT OF THEATRES
in
SOUTH AFRICA.
Proprietors and Lessees of
OPERA HOUSE, CAPETOWN,
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, JOHANNESBURG,
WHEELER'S OPERA HOUSE, PRETORIA,
THEATRE ROYAL, DURBAN.
Companies now Touring:
Wheeler's London Musical Company,
Wheeler's No. 2 Musical Company,
Wheeler's Comedy Company,
The William Haviland Company
Wheeler's New Musical Company sail Nov. 17.
London Representative,
J. A. E. Malone, Daly's Theatre.

AFRICA.
LEONARD RAYNE.
Business-Manager in South Africa,
Grant Fallowes.
London Representative,
George Rayne,
Portugal House, Portugal-street, W.C.

INDIA and THE FAR EAST.
MAURICE E. BANDMANN'S CIRCUIT.
The premier theatres of the East.
Maurice E. Bandmann controls now the only circuit of theatres in the East.
Proprietor and Manager
GRAND OPERA HOUSE, CALCUTTA
(now in course of erection).
Holds, at ordinary prices, £350.
Sole Lessee and Manager,
THEATRE ROYAL, CALCUTTA.
Holds, at ordinary prices, £250.
Two Resident Scenic Artists, Band, and Full Staff.
Companies Touring:
THE BANDMANN OPERA COMPANY,
THE BANDMANN COMEDY COMPANY,
THE O'CONNOR OPERA COMPANY.
THE LONDON BIOSCOPE AND VARIETY COMPANY.
Required, first-class attractions of every description. Rent, Share, or Certainty.
Address all communications,
Maurice E. Bandmann,
Theatre Royal, Calcutta.
Cables, "Svengali," Calcutta."
London Representative, Kelson Trueman, 233a, Regent-street, W Telegrams, "Turridu," London.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

ALDERSHOT.—THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. Clarence Sounes.
First-class Attractions Only.
Applications for Dates,
Add., Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—THEATRE
ROYAL.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill. Only No. 1 Companies entertained. Vac. Jan. 14, Ap. 1, 15, 29. Fast booking Aut., 1907. Address Charles Revill, T. R., STOCKPORT.

BLACKPOOL.
HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE,
WINTER GARDENS,
The PRINCIPAL THEATRE
Holds MORE MONEY at ORDINARY PRICES, and has better average business throughout the Year than any Theatre in the Town.
The Most Comfortable, Elegant, and Best Equipped Theatre. Large and Well Electric Lighted Stage and First-Class Orchestra.
All visitors to the Theatre have Free Admission to the Winter Gardens, Floral Hall, Empress Ballroom, and Pavilion Entertainments; thus Companies visiting Her Majesty's Opera House have this additional attraction, which no other Theatre can offer. Only best No. 1 Companies booked.
For Dates, address, Jno. R. Huddlestone, Manager, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

BLACKPOOL.
GRAND THEATRE.
Holds at Ordinary Prices more money than any Theatre in the Town, as any Responsible Manager who has visited Blackpool can Prove.
The Premier Theatre.
Mr. Beerbohm Tree says it is the most perfect and best-managed theatre in the Kingdom.
Only First Companies Entertained.
Apply for Dates to
T. Sergenson,
Proprietor and Manager.

CAMBRIDGE.—NEW THEATRE (Ltd.)
Man. Director, Mr. W. B. Redfern, J.P., D.L.
A theatre among the most beautiful in England.—Sunday Times. Now booking Spring Dates, 1907. Vacant Jany. 14 and 31, and a few dates in Feb., March, and May, in full term time.
Silence a polite negative.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.
Sole Proprietor, Mr. Chas. Macdona.
Vacant Dates, Dec. 3 and 10.
Christmas, for Pantomime or Musical Attraction.
All communications to Chas. Macdona.
17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.
Vacant,
Jan. 14, Feb. 18, 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25.
Wanted, strong Musical Attraction for Easter Week, April 1, April 22, May 13.
None but First-Class Attractions received.
Applications to Mr. John Horgan, Manager.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

DUBLIN. — GAIETY THEATRE.
Gunn, Ltd. Managing-Director, Mrs. Michael Gunn; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. Chas. Hyland. All dates for 1906 filled. Applications for dates 1907-8 to be addressed to Mrs. Michael Gunn.

DUBLIN. QUEEN'S ROYAL THEATRE
Sole Proprietor and Patentee, Mr. Ellis Jones.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Whitbread.
Dec. 10 Vacant.
Address, J. W. Whitbread.
Silence in all cases a respectful negative.

EBBW VALE, MON.
CENTRAL HALL.
To Let for Every Kind of Entertainment.
Apply,
Thomas Hughes, Esq.,
Solicitor,
Ebbw Vale, Mon.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S
THEATRE, LTD.
Established 1884.
Chairman, H. J. Curry.
Managing-Director, Joseph H. Curry.
Open all the Year Round.
CURRY'S TIVOLI THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LIMITED.
Chairman, Mr. H. J. Curry.
Managing-Director, Mr. Joseph H. Curry.
Telegraphic Add., "Curry, Grimsby." Tel. No. 240.

HULL. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Sole Lessee, Wm. Morton.
Population: City, 256,000; District (including Bridlington), 90,000—346,000.
Autumn engagements ahead include George Alexander's Co., "His House in Order," Mr. Wentworth Croke's "The Christian" Co., Mr. Charles Frohman's Co. in "Raffles," Mrs. Russ-Whytal in J. M. Barrie's Play, "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire," "The Three Little Maids," Miss Julia Neilson, Mr. Fred Terry and Co., in "Dorothy o' the Hall," "The Walls of Jericho," Mr. Martin Harvey and Co., in Répertoire, William Mollison, in "The Middleman," "The Prince of Pilsen," Mr. Frank Curzon's London Company, including Mr. Hayden Coffin, Miss Isabel Jay, in "The Girl Behind the Counter," Hardie and Von Leer's Company, in "For Life—and After," Mr. Frank Curzon's Company, "The White Chrysanthemum," Mr. Maxwell's Co., in "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Shulamite," "Beauty and the Barge," "Cinderella," for a season at Xmas. by J. F. Elliston.
The ALEXANDRA THEATRE. The Original Melodrama House. More Successful than Ever. Accommodation for 3,000 people. Smoking permitted. Sliding roof. Popular with all Classes. Business Uniformly Good. Address, W. Morton.

HULL. — THE CIRCUS. —
General Manager, Edward Emerson.
One of the Finest and Largest Halls in the Provinces, Fitted with Large Stage, and Suitable for Circus, Minstrels, Concert, Choir Parties, &c. Rental, Share, or Salary. Only a Few Vacant Dates.

IPSWICH. — LYCEUM.
General-Manager, Mr. Leonard Grey.
Vacant Jan. 7, Jan. 21, Feb. 11, Feb. 25.
Required, Strong Attraction for Easter Week.
Apply, Leonard Grey, Lyceum, Ipswich.
Silence a polite negative.

JARROW. — THEATRE ROYAL.
BARROW, ROYALTY T. and OPERA HOUSE CONSETT, NEW THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson.
Vacant Dates: Jarrow, Feb. 4 and 11. Barrow, Jan. 21, March 11 and 18, for Musical Attractions The bookings for this Theatre include the Principal Attractions Touring, Consett.
Dec. 10 and 31, on, with exceptions.
Re Dates, Hugh Robertson, Jarrow.

JARROW.—Correspondent Required to supply theatre and music hall reports weekly. Address, Dramaticus, "The Era" Offices, 5, Tavistock-street, London, W C.

KIDDERMINSTER.—OPERA HOUSE.
Electricity throughout, Brilliantly Illuminated, Eminently Successful, High-class and best Productions only Entertained. Only Vac. Jan. 21, 28, Feb. 7, 8, 9, 11, 18. Address, J. P. Moore.

KINGSTOWN PAVILION and GARDENS, Ltd., General-Manager, Mr. C. Irvine Bacon, vacant dates in Nov., and onwards, with exceptions, for Répertoire companies, with comedy, comic operas, or musical comedy.

LLANDUDNO.—GRAND THEATRE.
Holds £200.
The Electric Tramway from Colwyn Bay will stop at the Theatre Doors.
Vacant next season.
Easter, Whit, July 22, 29, Sept. 16, 23.
Address, Haldane Crichton.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—NEW THEATRE
ROYAL. Proprietors, Messrs. Payne, Seddon, and George Robertson. Only vacancies, Dec. 6, 13, Jan. 10, (?), and March. Apply George Robertson, St. Heliers, Sheepcote-road, Harrow.

MORECAMBE.—ROYALTY THEATRE
Sole Lessee, Julian Malvern.
Vacant Easter, Whit, and on.
First-class attractions only.
Address Chas. M. Julian, General-Manager.
Nov. 26, THEATRE ROYAL, SHEFFIELD.

NORWICH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Enlarged, Redecorated, Lighted throughout by Electricity. Upholstered by Dean & Co. No vacant dates this year. Weekly Matinées for Country Visitors. Silence a polite negative.
Fred Morgan, as above.

NOTTINGHAM.—GRAND THEATRE.
Manager, Charles P. Cooke.
Vacant for First-class Attraction, Aug. 5, 12, also June 3, 10.
Silence a courteous negative.

OLDHAM. — EMPIRE THEATRE.
the Premier Theatre; holding capacity £200.
Vacant for Musical Attractions only,
March 11 (?), 25, April 8, 22, May 13, 27.
Address, Ernest Dottridge.

OXFORD. — NEW THEATRE.
Managers of First-class Companies are invited to apply for Dates to
Mr. Thomas Lucas, J.P.,
Managing-Director.
Silence a polite negative.

PLYMOUTH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Managing-Director, Mr. C. F. Williams.
"The" Theatre in the West of England.
For Vacant Spring Dates, apply, Mr. C. F. Williams, Theatre Royal, Plymouth.

PORTSMOUTH. — NEW THEATRE
ROYAL.
Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton.
Open throughout the year.
First-class Companies.
Weekly Matinées.

SHEERNESS. — Correspondent Required to Supply Music Hall Reports weekly. Address, "Dramaticus," "The Era" Offices, 5, Tavistock-street, London, W.C.

STOCKPORT. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill. Only No. 1 Companies entertained. Vacant May 20, June 3. Fast booking Autumn, 1907.
Address, Charles Revill.

SUNDERLAND. — THE KING'S THEATRE.—Joint Managing-Directors, Ernest Stevens and R. C. Buchanan.
A FIRST-CLASS PLAYHOUSE
AT PRESENT IN COURSE OF ERECTION.
Opening in December with Pantomime.
Seating Capacity, 2,500. Situated in Centre of Town.
Booked in conjunction with the King's Theatre, Edinburgh, Grand Theatre, Glasgow, and Scotland's Provincial Theatres.
Offers entertained from No. 1 attractions only.
All coms. re dates should be addressed to Messrs. Ernest Stevens and R. C. Buchanan, GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.

FUNDS, &c.

ROYAL GENERAL THEATRICAL FUND.
FOR MEMBERS BECOMING INCAPACITATED EITHER BY OLD AGE OR INFIRMITY
Hon. Treasurer, EDWARD TERRY, Esq.
CHARLES J. DAVIES, Secretary, Savoy House, Strand.

ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND,
8, ADAM-STREET, STRAND.
C. I. COLTSON, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL DINNER
of the
ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND will be held at the
HOTEL METROPOLE,
on WEDNESDAY, Dec. 5.
SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM (President)
in the Chair.
Donations will be most gratefully received and acknowledged by Sir Charles Wyndham, New Theatre, St. Martin's-lane, W.C., and by C. I. Coltson, the Secretary of the Fund, from whom Dinner Tickets (1 guinea) may be obtained.
A Selection of Music under the direction of Mr. J. H. Maunder will be given. Miss Mabel Manson, Mr. Ben Davies, Mr. Robert Radford, and the Westminster Glee Singers are kindly giving their services.
Office, 8, ADAM-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

ACTORS' ASSOCIATION
(Incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900), 10, King-street, Covent Garden, London, W.C. Annual Subscription, 15s.; entrance fee, 5s.
A Scheme of Insurance is now in force by which every member whose subscription for the year is paid is covered under certain conditions.
CHARLES CRUIKSHANKS, Sec. Telephone, No. 1753 Gerrard. Telegraphic address. "Actoris, London."

MUSIC HALL BENEVOLENT FUND.
Established 1888. Offices, 18, ADAM-ST., STRAND, W.C. Hon. President, Sir JOSEPH RENALS, Bart.
President, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq.; Trustees, G. ADNEY PAYNE, Esq., and R. WARNER, Esq.; Treasurer, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq.; Secretary, HORACE MARRIOTT.
Committee:—Vice-Chairman, H. G. Hibbert, Esq.; Frank Allen, A. A. Asher, H. Astley, C. Beecham, C. Berte, E. Brown, J. Chappell, C. Chapman, D. J. Clarke, W. Clarkson, J. W. Cragg, J. Dunedin, H. M. Edmunds, J. Elvin, J. Fortune, H. De Frece, W. De Frece, J. De Frece, Edgar Granville, Edward Granville, F. Griffiths, H. Grin, Henri Gros, C. E. Howell, A. Hubner, W. F. Hurndall, S. M. Hyman, J. Lawson, J. Leopold, J. Lyons, Alan Macey, F. McAvoy, H. Masters, A. W. Matcham, F. Miller, T. M. M'Naughton, D. Monro, G. W. Moore, Sir E. H. Moss, G. Mozart, J. O'Gorman, W. Oliver, T. Pacey, C. Blyth-Pratt, H. Randall, P. Ray, G. Robey, F. Russell, J. D. Stuart, J. Selbini, T. Shaw, J. Somers, W. Stockwell, P. Valentine, E. Warner, B. Williams, Captain E. H. Warren Wright.
The Relief Committee Meets every Thursday, at 2 o'clock.

MUSIC HALL SICK FUND,
Founded in 1867.
Committee Meetings second Wednesday in the month at 2 p.m., held at the York Hotel.
Sick Payments—£1 for 6d. per week, £1 10s. for 9d. per week. £10 paid to nearest relative on death of member. President, Mr. PAT CAREY; Hon. Auditors, Messrs. H. E. HIGH and H. GRIFF; Trustees, Messrs. G. ADNEY PAYNE, H. JENNINGS, and DOUGLAS WHITE; Vice-President, Mr. W. J. WAINRATTA; Treasurer, Mr. FRANK HEATH; Secretary, Mr. R. T. BAINES. Address all communications, 1, York-road, Lambeth, S.E.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION THEATRICAL EMPLOYEES.
Established to promote the interests of all engaged in any Stage Department, and to provide sick, funeral, and benevolent funds for members and dependents. Free Legal advice, and other Benefits. The co-operation of those interested invited to form a branch in every city. Entrance fee 2s. 6d.; contributions from 2d. to 1s. per week, according to benefits provided by a branch.
Further particulars from SECRETARY,
29, Wellington-street, Strand, London.

THE SCENIC ARTISTS' ASSOCIATION.
TUESDAY NEXT, NOV. 27,
COMMITTEE MEETING, at 7.30,
Dinner at 8, at Adelphi Hotel,
John-street, Strand, W.C.
Members generally are specially invited to attend Committee Meeting for purposes of making arrangements for Benevolent Fund Dinner in January next, and to elect four members to fill up vacancies on Committee. Members willing to serve are requested to send their names beforehand.
Dinner tickets must be applied for to-day by letter, with remittance to
H. LAWRENCE HARRIS, Honorary Secretary, 23, Whittingstall-road, Fulham, S.W.

THE LONDON MUSICAL CLUB are prepared to Let their Hall, capable of Seating 400, or Four Large Reception Rooms for Meetings of all kinds. The Hall is Beautifully Lighted and Decorated, and has a splendid Dancing Floor. The Club have Two Concerts Weekly, Free to Members.
For Particulars Write to
SECRETARY,
24-26, Hart-street, W.C.

IN the C. J. LIVERMORE, Deceased.
Pursuant to the Statute 22nd and 23rd Victoria, Chapter 35, intituled, "An Act to further amend the law of property and to relieve Trustees," Notice is hereby given that all Creditors and other persons having any debts, claims, or demands against the Estate of Lechmere Charles John Livermore, formerly of 53a, Shaftesbury-avenue, in the County of London, but late of "Fairview," 17, Hillbury-road, Upper Tooting, in the County of Surrey, Theatrical Manager and Director of Public Companies (who died on the 6th day of October, 1906, and whose Will was proved in the Principal Registry of the Probate Division of His Majesty's High Court of Justice on the 7th day of November 1906, by Ada Matilda Livermore and Herbert Sutton Syrett, two of the Executors therein named), are hereby required to send particulars in writing of their debts, claims, or demands, to us, the undersigned, as solicitors to the said Executors on or before the 31st day of December, 1906, after which date the said Executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased amongst the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the debts, claims, and demands of which they shall then have had notice, and that they will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof so distributed to any person or persons of whose debt, claim, or demand they shall not then have had notice.
Dated this 20th day of November, 1906.
SYRETT and SONS,
45, Finsbury-pavement, E.C.
Solicitors for the said Executors.

I HEREBY ADMIT that I Have wrongfully and without any authority or license performed the play entitled "TWO LITTLE DRUMMER BOYS," belonging to Miss MAGGIE MORTON, at the Palace Theatre of Varieties, Dolphin Meadow, Hitchin-street, Biggleswade, and elsewhere.
I regret having so infringed her rights, and apologise for the loss and annoyance which I have caused.
I hereby undertake that I will not in future perform or cause to be performed the said play or any substantial parts thereof without Miss Maggie Morton's consent, and will not use in connection with any plays announced or represented the title, "Two Little Drummer Boys," in such a way as to be calculated to deceive persons into the belief that the play so announced or represented is Miss Maggie Morton's play.
I also undertake to pay the cost of publicly advertising this apology and undertaking.
Dated this 27th day of October, 1906.
FRANK LANGLEY.
Witness,
S. WICKINS, 9, Quality-court, Chancery-lane, W.C., Solicitor.

TO OUR READERS.
A SINGLE COPY OF "THE ERA"
Post-free to any Address in the United Kingdom for SIX STAMPS.
Telegraphic Address, "The Era, London."
Address, THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

EXPERIENCE.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"
HAS BECOME KNOWN FAR AND WIDE FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH—ONE OF THE MOST POTENT, SIMPLE, AND AGREEABLE FACTORS IN MAINTAINING HEALTH.
IT IS THE BEST AND SIMPLEST PREPARATION FOR REGULATING THE ACTION OF THE LIVER THAT HAS YET BEEN DISCOVERED, AND REMOVES EFFETE GOUTY, RHEUMATIC MATTER, OR ANY FORM OF POISON FROM THE BLOOD.
CAUTION.—Examine the Capsule, and see that it is marked ENO'S "FRUIT SALT." Without it you have the sincerest form of flattery—IMITATION.

TYPEWRITING.
MRS. MARSHALL, 126, STRAND, W.C.
PROMPT BOOKS and ACTORS' PARTS.
TRANSLATIONS FROM and INTO ALL LANGUAGES.
ADAPTATIONS of FRENCH and GERMAN PLAYS UNDERTAKEN.
SHORTHAND DICTATION in FRENCH or ENGLISH. REFERENCES to MANY LEADING AUTHORS and MANAGERS.

TYPEWRITING, TYPEWRITING,
Shorthand Writers. Temporary Operators.
Dictations. Translations.
THEATRICAL WORK A SPECIALITY.
Despatch, Accuracy, and Neatness guaranteed.
CHARGES MODERATE.
THE MOYA TYPEWRITER CO.,
85, STRAND, LONDON, W.C. (Hotel Cecil Block).

A. BLACKFORD.
LADIES' and GENTLEMAN'S THEATRICAL BOOTS and SHOES
Companies Fitted.
Estimates Free on Application.
in Great Variety.
3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET, COVENT GARDEN, W.C.
Telephone, P.O. Central, 5,014.

DRESS CLOTHES LENT.—BLACKFORD has for SALE or HIRE the Finest of CLOTHES for Theatres, Balls, Parties, Weddings, Dinners, Funerals, &c. Clothes sent to any part of England. Perfect Fit guaranteed. 3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET, COVENT GARDEN (one door from Market), and 31, WELLINGTON-STREET, STRAND.
Telegraphic Address, "Misfits, London."
Telephone, P.O. Central, 5,014.

NOW IN PREPARATION.
FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
A World-wide Circulation, therefore an Excellent Medium for Advertisers.
1907—THE ERA ANNUAL—1907
Advertisements
should be Forwarded at once to the Office,
5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.
For Scale of Charges see another Page.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1906.

THE MUSICAL COPYRIGHT BILL.

The glorious gathering at the Hotel Cecil on Sunday, at the dinner offered to Mr. T. P. O'CONNOR as a tribute to his splendid services in connection with the Musical Copyright Act of 1906, was one of those jubilant celebrations which are permissible after a great victory. It was not only an expression of satisfaction on the part of a reassured and relieved industry; it was a demonstration of delight, in all directions, at the triumph of right over wrong, of honesty over dishonesty, of persevering effort over callous, and perhaps cynical, obstruction. We are now enabled to appreciate the unwearied perseverance, the dogged tenacity, and the happy spirit of adaptation which have gone to the passing of the Musical Copyright Bill of 1906. Mr. O'CONNOR'S tale of his trials and troubles in connection with the measure is an astonishing picture of prejudice, obstinacy, and density. The Bill was one of those upon which, one would have thought, there could be no two opinions. If there is anything that can be considered to be a man's personal, private, and inalienable property it is the product of his brains and talent. As Mr. O'CONNOR said, "To lay down that the work of a man's hand or the work of a man's capital or enterprise is more entitled to protection than the work of the soul or brain means that the nation is in its spiritual and intellectual decadence." Mr. O'CONNOR, with the excellent backing which, by painstaking persuasion and personal popularity, he had secured, had high hopes of the prompt passing of the Bill; one of those "little, simple, innocent, non-contentious" ones which had in its favour practically the whole of the House of Commons. It must have been indeed a shock to him, a terrible though only temporary "damper," when he saw the blocking notice against the second reading. Mr. O'CONNOR never made a speech in favour of the Bill. He probably felt that the battle was not to be won by oratory, but by steady, indefatigable "pegging away" at individuals. It is almost incredible, but the fact of his supporting this Bill—a spotlessly virtuous one if there ever was such a measure—led to attacks upon Mr. O'CONNOR'S character. And he had to oppose the wildest and most extravagant reasons for opposition. One Member appealed to the House to "remember the liberties for which their countrymen had fought"; another objected to the Bill because there was a "ring or trust of musical publishers or musical composers"; a third was anxious, at the expense of honesty, to "give cheap music to the people." It was to meet and combat arguments like these that Mr. O'CONNOR pleaded and persuaded night after night. But the objectors resembled the classical Hydra; when one had been overcome, another arose, until Mr. O'CONNOR'S task seemed hopeless and endless. And the Session still kept creeping on; the closing days were at hand; and he saw, looming in the near distance, the doom of the Bill upon which he had spent so much energy and eloquence. But help was at hand. There were certain supporters of the Government who were out of Mr. O'CONNOR'S reach. To these Mr. SAMUEL, the Under-Secretary to the Home Office, applied his powers of persuasion. Then the Government took up the Bill. With two all-night sittings, and "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull all together," the Musical Copyright Bill was passed through the Commons. But it was no time for Mr. O'CONNOR to rest on his oars. The House of Lords still remained. Mr. O'CONNOR went to Lord BEAUCHAMP, and by obliging and sympathetic co-operation a special sitting was arranged for the Bill; so that it went straight from the Lower House to the Upper, by which it was passed without a dissentient voice. On a certain memorable Saturday Mr. O'CONNOR went into the gallery of the House of Lords. He heard the words "Musical Copyright Bill"; he saw two clerks make four genuflexions, and the Lord Chancellor lift his hat. The victory was gained; the long struggle was over; the Bill had become law.

With characteristic generosity, Mr. O'CONNOR, in his speech on Sunday, acknowledged his indebtedness to the assistance of Mr. WILLIAM BOOSEY, but for whom this happy result would never have been attained; but Mr. BOOSEY would be the first to acknowledge that all extra-Parliamentary effort would have been vain without the experience of the House, the persuasive eloquence, and the delicate tact and judgment of "T. P."

The wildly enthusiastic reception which Mr. O'CONNOR met with on rising to respond at the Hotel Cecil was the tribute which Englishmen are always ready to give to generous and disinterested effort. Mr. O'CONNOR had no "axe to grind" in his support of the good cause. As he said in the peroration of his speech on Sunday: "I regard music as one of the greatest of arts, one of the highest, one of the noblest, one of the proudest possessions of any nation. I believe that one of the great problems that every reflecting man has to put to himself is to afford to our people a choice between the higher and lower forms of amusement and recreation. I was inspired by the thought that many men and women who have given to us hours of pleasure and exaltation, which are perhaps the most enjoyable hours of our life, should no longer be suffering under an intolerable grievance. And the composers of the land, long after I have passed away, will feel that they owe some little debt of gratitude to me for the protection of the children of their genius, and it will be a compensation and consolation to me to my latest day."

MR. DEANE TRIBUNE has been entrusted by Moss' Empires to invent and stage a pantomime for them that shall play for exactly thirty minutes. The story selected is that of Bo-Peep, and its treatment will be quite exceptional and novel. For instance, £45 alone has been spent on the roses that will be used in the Palace scene. There will be a military chorus and a surprise march, and the great comedy scene will be when Simple Simon (Mr. Deane Tribune) has to take a bath. Miss Stella Tribune is to be the Boy Blue, and Miss Ethie Lonsdale should make a charming Bo-Peep. Starting at Newport on Dec. 17, the pantomime will be played in Moss-Stoll halls until Easter.

DEANE TRIBUNE, who is really Willie Cowan Reid, was born in Glasgow "some little time ago," as he puts it. Before he took to the stage he was employed as a butcher in Sauchiehall-street, Glasgow, but afterwards got a job in Govan, and from there went to Dunoon. At that time he was doing some trick cycling, and at Mexican Joe's, now the Zoo, Glasgow, he played in sketches and showed a couple of spot ponies in the ring. Then he journeyed to London, but the trip was a dire failure. It was then that he turned his attention to the knockabout business, and achieved some degree of success with a companion. The Cheerful Idiot sketch then brought him to the front, and he has played it for ten years now. His hobby is fly-fishing, and nothing pleases him more than to get away to the North of Ireland and visit all the little villages, live in the country houses, and fish in the streams that abound so plentifully there. Motoring, too, he enjoys, and many a thousand miles has he gone on his little speed car.

A TREATISE might be written on the subject of "What a song will do for a singer," and apropos of this Miss Dora Lyric is by way of becoming a new star. Miss Lyric has a fine voice and a charming presence; and a really "big" song has been the one thing needed to place her in the front rank. This she is fortunate to have found in Messrs. Castling and Scott's domestic ballad, "All that glitters is not gold," which has done the trick for her. It will shortly be issued in Francis and Day's "Sixpenny Pops."

ON Monday night at the Royal Standard Music Hall, Pimlico, a very pretty show was presented by the Harmony Two, which was immediately booked by a West End manager. The lady is Miss May Clifton, a well-known musical comedy artist, and a pupil of the late Theodor Distin. The gentleman is Howard Hartman, one of the original Ordway Brothers, and an old favourite of the New York Roof Gardens.

MUNICIPAL theatre audiences are evidently to be kept well in check at Toulon, the Mayor of which town has issued an order prohibiting hissing and other signs of disapproval at the local municipal theatre. Thus the edict runs: "No one will be allowed to hiss, make audible remarks, applaud ironically, yawn noisily, use bad language, or otherwise disturb the dignified calm necessary to the proper enjoyment of the drama." A breach of the rule laid down is to be punished by immediate expulsion, and any complaint which members of the audience have to make are to be written in a book provided for the purpose.

"THE LOST CHORD," a play by Sutton Vane and Arthur Carlton, was produced for copyright purposes yesterday (Friday) at the Theatre Royal, Worcester.

MR. MARTIN HARVEY IN DUBLIN.

Mr. Martin Harvey's three weeks' season will terminate to-night, when he will present The Only Way in the presence of their Excellencies the Lord Lieutenant and Countess of Aberdeen.

The season has proved more successful than any previous one, and Mr. Martin Harvey's extraordinary popularity in Dublin seems to have increased, if such a thing were possible.

As the Lord Lieutenant and Countess of Aberdeen gave their patronage to the first night of the season, when The Corsican Brothers was played, their Excellencies will have been present both at the initial and final performances of the season.

The first week was given up entirely to The Corsican Brothers, the second week's programme was filled by The Breed of the Treshams and Hamlet, and the third week by a night of a triple bill (Rouget de L'Isle, Ib and Little Christina, and The Spell), The Only Way, and A Cigarette-maker's Romance.

Besides the performances in the theatre, Mr. Harvey's time was very much filled by social engagements and by giving personal help to various charitable functions. But the most important event was the lecture which he delivered at the invitation of the Provost and Fellows of Trinity College. This was altogether a unique occasion in the history of the College, for it was the first time that the University had entertained an actor and been honoured by the presence of the Lord Lieutenant. It was on Wednesday, Nov. 14, that Mr. Harvey delivered his lecture in the Examination Hall of Trinity College on "Reflections upon the Art of Acting." Much interest attached to the lecture, which was attended by a very large and appreciative audience, and many who sought to gain admittance were seriously disappointed in being obliged to turn away.

At four o'clock the Provost, preceded by the mace-bearer and accompanied by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, entered the hall, and proceeded to the platform, the occupants of the gallery meanwhile singing the National Anthem. The Provost presided, having on his right the Lord Lieutenant, the seat on his left being reserved for the lecturer. Amongst those present were Dr. Tyrrell, S.F.T.C.; Mr. Williamson, S.F.T.C.; Mr. Fred Purser, F.T.C.; Mr. William Kennedy, F.T.C.; Mr. Justice Barton, the Rev. Dr. Clarke, and Mr. Fry, F.T.C.

The Provost introduced Mr. Martin Harvey, who thereupon delivered his lecture, which was listened to with the greatest attention throughout.

Dr. Tyrrell, in conveying the thanks of the meeting to the lecturer, said they had had a most charming treat, and they were the recipients of a great favour from Mr. Harvey. It was no small favour for a great actor who was every night interpreting to overflowing houses those great impersonations with which his name was so closely wedded—it was no small favour for such an artist to come before them and give them of his best, his most energetic and enthusiastic criticism for nearly an hour, which to his audience seemed all too short. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Harvey had come before a highly-sympathetic and favouring audience. (Hear, hear.) If they were to be judged by the comments made, he (Dr. Tyrrell) supposed by the undergraduates, he would say that they had at least showed an intimate acquaintance with the works which Mr. Harvey had put before them during the past week. (Hear, hear.) To those who lived at the uttermost end of Rathmines, and had not, perhaps, seen The Breed of the Treshams, there must have been something criptic in the frequent allusion to "rats"—(laughter)—but those comments and words Mr. Harvey would understand to be only tokens of sympathy and goodwill. (Applause.) What the Provost had said of Mr. Harvey's Hamlet seemed to him (Dr. Tyrrell) to be perfectly true. The lecture, which was full of humour, good criticism, and other high qualities, was also marked by eloquence. There was one underlying thought running through it all which struck him as particularly profound, and, as far as he knew, it was original. It was this: that the interpreter of a great character did not sit down and say "How shall I interpret this character to my audience?" No; on the contrary, the character ran away with him. (Applause.) That University had always taken a deep interest in the actor's art, and he wished to express the desire that it might continue to associate itself with the delightful, instructive, and elevating art of the actor. (Applause.)

His Excellency, in thanking the Provost for presiding, said they all felt indebted to him for having originated or promoted that gathering. They had reason to be indebted to him for the lecture to which they had listened, and which had been very gracefully commented on by the proposer of the vote of thanks. They all felt that the Provost had struck a true note when he alluded, in introducing the lecturer, to his appreciation of his illustrious master, Sir Henry Irving. (Applause.) The manner in which that allusion had been responded to throughout the lecture must have been felt by all. (Hear, hear.) The lecture would have the effect of promoting recognition of the true position of the drama, and would help to remove the heresy which would represent the theatre as something of a merely light and frivolous nature. As one who had had the privilege of watching Mr. Harvey during his rendering of some of the great characters, he found himself frequently thinking of Sir Henry Irving. (Applause.)

Mr. Harvey and the Provost having each acknowledged the compliments, the proceedings terminated.

When Mr. Harvey left the hall and got into his motor, the undergraduates surrounded him, and in their enthusiasm they took him out and carried him shoulder high around the quadrangle. The popular actor's silk hat got smashed and his tie-pin was lost; but, despite the events of the afternoon, he found no difficulty in presenting his study of Beresby the Rat in The Breed of the Treshams that evening.

MR. W. S. GILBERT has no recollection whatever of his piece, Topsyturveydom, which was produced at the Criterion Theatre on March 21, 1874; in fact, his mind is a "blank on the matter." The play, the music of which was by Alfred Cellier, was stage-managed by H. J. Byron. In the cast were J. Clarke as a bewildered M.P., Messrs. Dewar and Garden, and Miss Hughes. The ladies created a striking impression with "hair to match the colour of their dresses."

MR. BERNARD SHAW writes to point out an error into which the critic of a daily paper has fallen in substituting for the Duberdat's words in The Doctor's Dilemma "I believe in Michael Angelo, Velasquez, and Rembrandt" the phrase "Velasquez, the father of Whistler." "This creed," says Mr. Shaw, "was openly borrowed with gratitude and admiration by me from Richard Wagner's well-known story, dated 1841, and translated under the title 'An End in Paris' by Mr. Ashton Ellis, in which the dying musician cries, 'I believe in God, Mozart, and Beethoven.'" And were not Turner's last words "The Sun is God"? It should be noticed, however, that Mr. Shaw's Duberdat leaves the Deity out entirely.

MR. HARRY ATHOL and Mr. Tom English will shortly produce a new realistic sketch, A Trip to the North Pole, with novel scenic effects and funny situations.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY GROVINE have produced successfully their new act, in the name of the Groves, at the Ealing Hippodrome.

"THE ISLE OF OOMA."

An Eastern Episode, Written and Composed by E. W. Rogers, Albert E. Ellis, and Wal Pink.
Produced at the Richmond Theatre, on Monday, Nov. 19.

Emperor of Ooma ..... MR. GEORGE POWER
Vizier ..... MR. LAWRENCE TURNEY
Lord D'Arcy ..... MR. CHAS. F. HOWARD
Twigg ..... MR. ARTHUR RIGBY
Mrs. Twigg ..... MISS DORA SELBY
Princess ..... MISS RITA EVERARD

Mr. Arthur Rigby, whose company is presenting this piece, gives us an entertaining musical comedy in miniature in The Isle of Ooma. We are not told what part of the world is occupied by the State of Ooma, but, judging by the extremely picturesque scene set before our eyes on the stage, we imagine that it must in all verity be a land of enchantment. The Emperor of Ooma is an Englishman who has found it convenient to fly his own country, and his vizier has done the same. Between them they have contrived to impose upon the inhabitants of this delightful Eastern dominion to the extent of securing all regal rights. Another personage, one Twigg, is making a sojourn at the Court to escape from his wife, who turns up, and ultimately claims the Emperor as her first husband. The Emperor's daughter, the Princess of Ooma, is in love with Lord D'Arcy, but the Vizier is endeavouring, by threats and offers of cash, to force the girl's father to give her to him in marriage. Twigg, who is an ingenious sort of individual, arranges that Lord D'Arcy shall make a present to the Emperor in the shape of a box, in which Twigg, attired and disguised to represent the Emperor's deserted wife, is secreted. When the box is opened, the bogus wife terrifies the Emperor by threatening to expose him, and eventually, after a very amusing scene, gets the Emperor's promise to allow Lord D'Arcy to marry the Princess. Later, the real wife comes upon the scene. Twigg is released from his former, and, so far as he is concerned, undesired, relationship with her, by reason of the existence and immediate presence of the lady's first husband. Mr. Arthur Rigby, with his comical mannerisms and absurd antics, is intensely ludicrous as Twigg, and is, so far as the fun-making goes, the soul of the piece. Miss Rita Everard quite takes one's fancy as the Princess, and she gives a very pretty rendering of the song, "Simple as A B C," and is also heard to advantage, along with Mr. Charles F. Howard as Lord D'Arcy, in the duet, "Princess of Ooma." Mention should also be made of the amusing rendering of "I haven't made my fortune yet," by Mr. Rigby. As the Emperor of Ooma, Mr. George Power gives us much to laugh at. Particularly ridiculous is the scene in which he makes affectionate advances to Mr. Rigby, dressed as a more or less charming dancing girl. Mr. Chas. F. Howard has a fairly "straight" part in that of Lord D'Arcy, and he treats us to an appropriately lover-like study. The rôles of the Vizier and Mrs. Twigg are in the capable hands of Mr. Lawrence Turney and Miss Dora Selby respectively. The Isle of Ooma is a praiseworthy production; it is superbly dressed and mounted, and, as we have already indicated, efficiently acted throughout. The piece is produced under the capable supervision of Mr. Michael Ring.

GUILDHALL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

The programme of the concert given on Wednesday evening commenced with a piano solo of Raff's "Tambourin," carefully played by Miss Amy L. Parsons. In Gounod's song, "Spring," Miss Stella Ulph, through slight nervousness, hardly did full justice to her vocal abilities. Miss Edith K. Eldridge gave Bohm's violin solo, "Legende," with considerable success, and Miss Ethel Richardson was much applauded in her piano solo, "Fantasia," by Beethoven. Batten's song, "Living Poems," was sung by Miss Catherine Baker, and Mr. Walter J. Wilder displayed a musical tenor voice in Lehmann's song, "Oh moon of my delight." Variety to the concert was afforded by two recitations, "The Victim," by Tennyson, and "A Surprise," given by Miss M. Amory, a most promising pupil of Mr. L. Cairns James. In Guy d'Hardelot's song, "I think," Miss Dorothy Freeman sang with good expression; while Miss Cressy Robinson displayed great freedom of execution in her piano solo of "Rondeau en Polonaise," by Bennett. Mr. H. T. Edney has a pleasing voice, but was hardly well suited in Sullivan's song, "I would I were a king." Miss Winifred Isabel Norman won hearty applause for her most skilful rendering of Rode's violin solo, "Adagio and Rondo" from Concerto in A minor. Two of Grieg's songs, "I love thee" and "A Vision," were intelligently sung by Miss Florrie Miller, and the concert concluded with Hummel's piano solo, "Rondo" from Concerto in A, played by Miss Dorothy Ellis, the second pianoforte part being taken by Mr. Mischa Levin.

THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The programme of the concert given by the students of the Royal Academy of Music commenced with a movement from Beethoven's "Sep tet in E flat," played by Miss Jessie Bowater (violin), Mr. Thomas Morgan (viola), Mr. Edgar Fawcett (violoncello), Mr. C. Winterbottom (double bass), Mr. Herbert Stutely (clarionet), Mr. John Alexandra (bassoon), and Mr. Oskar H. Boredorf (horn). In Mr. B. J. Dale's "Variations from Sonata in D minor for Pianoforte," which were written in 1905, and gained the 20-guinea prize offered by Mr. Mark Hambourg, Miss Myra Hess proved herself a most skilful executant, being at the close rewarded with loud and long-continued applause, and a strong attempt at a recall, though it is expressly printed in the programme that "no recall of a performer is allowed at these concerts." Miss Caroline Hatchard sang two songs of Liszt's, "Wo weilt er" and "Comment, disaient ils," with considerable power and dramatic effect; and Miss Marie Isabelle Wadia gave an artistic rendering of three songs composed by a student of the Academy, Mr. Ambrose Coviello. These were "When passion's trance," "To the Queen of my heart," and "I arise from dreams of thee," the last-named proving the most attractive. Sinigaglia's "Rapsodia Piemontese," for the violin, was brilliantly played by Miss Elsie W. Owen; and Miss Myra Hess was associated with Mr. B. Walton O'Donnell in his "Concertante Variations on an Original Irish Air for Pianoforte and Violoncello," a pleasing work, introducing a lively Irish jig and an elaborate cadenza for the 'cello, which was much applauded. An andante and allegro for strings (MS. by Miss F. Margaret Bennett, granddaughter of the late Sir W. Sterndale Bennett, had some interesting features, and was admirably played by the Ensemble Class. F. Curshmann's lovely terzettino, "Ti prego, o Madre pia," was sung with capital intonation and expression by Miss Nellie Franklin, Miss Edith Kirk, and Mr. Thomas Gibbs; and Mr. David Evans displayed a fine baritone voice in Gounod's cavatina, "Even bravest hearts may swell," from Faust. The last item in the programme was Mr. York Bowen's clever "Miniature Suite—Humoresque, Nocturne, Finale," for the pianoforte, excellently executed by Master Frank Hutchens.

MR. G. H. CHIROWIN writes:—"Allow me to contradict your correspondent at Hounslow. I am known as the White-eyed Kaffir, not One-eyed Kaffir, and I play the one-string Jap. fiddle, not the one-string banjo."

VARIETY GOSSIP.

The French Government have very graciously recognised Mr. George Scott's services in connection with the reception given to the French Fleet at the Alhambra in 1905, and also in connection with the Courrières Colliery Disaster Fund, by conferring on him, through the Ambassador yesterday, the decoration of Officier d'Académie.

We are glad to hear that there is some improvement in Miss Marie Lloyd's condition, and that she hopes soon to return to her numerous engagements.

Miss Ada Reeve was naturally very much distressed by the outrageous incident that occurred at the Regent Theatre, Salford, on Monday, and had to see a Manchester doctor on Tuesday morning as she was very nervous and ill. He (the doctor) strongly advised her not to play for a few days, as he feared a nervous breakdown; but Miss Reeve, anxious, as always, not to disappoint the public and the management, went to the theatre and played the matinée.

On her return to the hotel at about 4.30, she found a wire awaiting her with the sad news that her father was ill and could not possibly recover. This naturally, coming immediately on top of her other trouble, completely upset her. She went straight to her father, who has since died. On Thursday morning she went to Brighton, where she has been ordered by her own London medical adviser.

The Music Hall Ladies' Guild charity matinée at the Canterbury on Tuesday afternoon next is shaping well, and promises to be a most interesting function. For once affairs behind the footlights are to be swayed by the tempestuous petticoat. There may possibly be a little cherub sitting up aloft in the shape of a limelight man surveying this Adamless Eden; but the officials generally are to be of the softer sex.

Miss Constance Moxon, one of the stewards of the Guild, will stage-manage; Misses Edie and Lizzie Slater will change the numbers; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stratton, Miss Lil Hawthorn, Mrs. and Miss Katie Butler, are all coming long journeys in order to be present; and little Miss Shaw, aged five years, is travelling from Hull to entertain. Ladies who are appearing for the matinée are kindly requested to send on at once their private addresses to Miss Anna de Grey, the secretary, at 69, Primrose-mansions, Prince of Wales's-road, Battersea Park, S.W., in order that she may forward to them tickets of admission by the stage-door. The band call is two o'clock.

Among those who have volunteered their services for the occasion are Miss Victoria Monks, Miss Lily Burnand, Miss Constance Moxon, Miss Katie Lawrence, Miss Alice Mayduo, Miss Marie Dainton, Miss Marie Loftus, Miss Kate Carney, Miss Lil Hawthorne, Miss Topsy Sinden, Miss Clarice Heney, and Miss Empsie Bowman. Not a single male performer will appear, and even the orchestra will consist of ladies, directed by Mme. E. H. Angless. It is doubtful at the time of writing whether Miss Marie Lloyd will be able to appear.

At the forthcoming Canterbury matinée in aid of the funds of the Music Hall Ladies' Guild a novel feature will be the singing by Miss Constance Moxon (with all the ladies of the committee as chorus) of a new song, by Richard Elton and Denham Harrison, entitled "Do all the good that you can." The song is a gift from these well-known writers for the benefit of the Guild. Denham Harrison, by the way, has been commissioned by Mr. C. W. Somerset to write the incidental music to his new piece, The Jungle, which starts on tour at Liverpool on Monday.

Mr. Albert Gilmer, late the manager of the Oxford, will find a new sphere for his energy and ability at the Alexandra Theatre, Stoke Newington, which is now endowed with a music and dancing licence, and will shortly open as a variety house under his direction. It will be run on the twice-nightly plan, and will be called the Palace, Stoke Newington.

We have announced during the past few weeks the deaths of Mr. Harry Hunter, a founder of the Mohawk Minstrels, and Mr. Lechmere C. J. Livermore, one of the three Brothers Livermore, proprietors of the Court Minstrels. Now another pioneer of minstrelsy has joined the great majority in the person of Mr. W. H. Matthews, who died on Nov. 5, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was one of the three original Brothers Matthews, of Matthews's C.C.C. Minstrels, of St. James's Hall, in the 'sixties, prior to the establishment of the Moore and Crocker Troupe in Piccadilly. A full account of the deceased gentleman's career will be found in another column.

Mr. George Mozart will follow the example of other English variety comedians, and go to America, where large salaries rule. It is to be hoped that his character-studies and thumb-nail sketches of life in London will meet with as much appreciation in New York as they do on this side. He will sail on Dec. 12 on board the Majestic.

The Council meet as a body on Friday next to consider the preliminary decisions of their Theatres and Music Halls Committee. A great deal of interest will be imparted to the proceedings by the discussion that will arise out of the recommendation of the Licensing Committee not to renew the licence of the Canterbury. Last June the Council issued requisitions to Mr. G. A. Payne and the directorate that practically amounted to a reconstruction of the house. As the lease has but a short time to run, it was decided by the management that it was impossible to comply with the Council's demands.

Then an alternative scheme, whereby the number in balcony and gallery were to be restricted to 500. Such a restriction did not provide a way out of the difficulty, as its acceptance would have prevented the management running the house at a profit. Negotiations are in progress for an amicable settlement, and it is to be hoped that all difficulties will vanish.

The Metropolitan will celebrate its ninth anniversary under the present management on Thursday, Dec. 13. It can boast of a record possessed by no other hall in London. Mr. Handley, the pianist in the orchestra, has occupied that position from the opening night, and can give many interesting reminiscences of the different managements.

Mr. Henry Tozer presided at the second annual meeting of the Variety Theatres Consolidated, Ltd., held on Tuesday at their offices in Durham House-street, Strand. In moving the adoption of the report, which recommended a dividend of 8 per cent. for the year, the chairman said their profits were slightly higher than last year, and they were enabled to carry forward a slightly larger balance. They had not yet formed a reserve, but in these early days it was premature to speak of that. Although the takings had shown a slight diminution, that had been more than counterbalanced by the savings they had effected in almost every item of the expenditure. Owing to the prolonged summer, the receipts had suffered, but since Sept. 30 they were a large amount to the good in their net receipts as compared with the previous year. Therefore he thought they might consider that their earning power was not only firm, but it showed a tendency to increase. Mr. G. Adney Payne seconded the motion, which was carried unanimously.

The conversion of the Derry Opera House into a Hippodrome for a month's season has proved so successful that Mr. Payne-Seddon has arranged to run the New Royal, Loughboro', on the same lines for the month of February with two performances nightly.

The Assembly Rooms, Leigh, have been taken on a six months' lease from Dec. 3, and will be known as the Palace Theatre of Varieties.

The Lyceum Theatre, Stafford, on Monday became a variety house, and is now known as the Stafford Empire and Lyceum. The lessee and manager, Mr. James Elphinstone, is running it on the two-performances-nightly plan.

Mr. Walter de Frece's project to open a new music hall in Birmingham will, we are informed on that gentleman's own authority, be realised in less than twelve months. Mr. de Frece has been very busy looking over Birmingham, and has succeeded in securing a site which he is confident will suit him admirably, albeit at present he is not prepared to disclose the actual spot thereof. Nevertheless, and meanwhile, Birmingham chorties "Let 'em all come!"

The death, from bronchitis, is announced of Mr. Albert Ernest Colmer, formerly a solicitor, who recently became assistant-manager to his brother-in-law, Mr. Fred Leighton, at the Hippodrome, Sheerness. He passed away on the 15th inst., and the funeral took place on Tuesday, the staff of the Hippodrome acting as pall-bearers.

A quiet, but interesting, wedding was recently solemnised at Oldham, the contracting parties being Mr. C. H. S. Dring, the manager of the Empire, Cardiff, and Miss Ina Hill, one of the principal artists in the Carl Rosa Opera Co. The wedding, which was known only to the immediate friends of the bride and bridegroom, was attended by Mr. Julius Walther and Miss Doris Woodall, of the Carl Rosa Company. After the ceremony breakfast was served in Oldham, and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Dring left for Manchester, where a short honeymoon was spent, Miss Ina Hill subsequently rejoining her company at Blackburn.

Miss Ina Hill has filled such leading rôles as Arline in The Bohemian Girl, Marguerite in Faust, Zerlina in Don Giovanni, the shepherd boy in Tannhäuser, Countess Ceprano in Verdi's Rigoletto, and Frasquita in Carmen. When Beethoven's Fidelio was revived in Dublin a few weeks ago, after an interval of twenty-five years, Miss Hill was entrusted with, and fulfilled most successfully, the part of Marcellina, and she is to take the leading lady's rôle in The Merry Wives of Windsor, to be produced for the first time in English in Manchester a month hence.

Mrs. Barrasford, the proprietress of the Devil's Dyke Hotel, was summoned at Hove on Monday for keeping the hotel open during prohibited hours on a Sunday afternoon. The Dyke is about five miles from Brighton, and the defence was that precautions were taken to serve only bonâ-fide travellers. The case was dismissed.

A case of considerable interest to agents and artists, which had been remitted from the High Court, was heard this week at Stockton County Court before his Honour Judge Templer, when Leo Fritz, agent, London, claimed £33 16s. 4d. from Messrs. G. and R. A. Nicholson, of the Hippodrome, Stockton, for commission on engagements. The plaintiff, in his evidence, said when he saw Mr. R. A. Nicholson and Mr. Ainsworth at Stockton in November, 1905, nothing was said about the 10 per cent. commission being divided, and nothing was heard of any claim by defendants to any commission until the account was sent in in September, 1906.

Mr. R. A. Nicholson, one of the proprietors of the Hippodrome, called for the defence, said when the arrangements were made with Mr. Leo Fritz it was on the distinct understanding that the commission should be divided between them. His Honour said the defendants had not made it clear to him that there was an agreement that this commission should be divided, and he therefore gave judgment for the plaintiff, with costs.

Mr. James Johnson, the proprietor of the King's, Gateshead, gave a matinée on Wednesday for the benefit of the widows and orphans who lost their bread-winners in the disastrous explosion at Wingate Colliery. There was a good attendance.

Mr. Edwin Croueste's complimentary smoking concert, given in his honour by his Leicester friends, previous to his departure for the Antipodes, took place on Thursday, Nov. 15, at hte Fish and Quart Hotel, Churchgate, Leicester. In addition to a substantial cheque, presented to him by the president on behalf of the committee, Mr. Croueste was the recipient of several souvenirs of their esteem by private friends. A very pleasant evening was spent, Mr. Croueste being in the best of form in his spirited recitations and humorous stories. Apart from his Leicester friends, Mr. Croueste wishes to publicly thank through The Era Mr. Harry Rickards, J. C. Boswell, John Leopold, H. Stelling, Albert De Breean, Arthur Powell, and St. John Pinder for their subscriptions and kindly expressions. He anticipates sailing for Australia early next month.

Dr. Walford Bodie, author of "The Bodie Book," has just published a small volume, entitled "What is a Miracle? or, Thousands Buried Alive Annually." Although only published on Monday, the sale has been enormous. Close upon 50,000 have already been disposed of. A copy will be sent post free to anyone sending two penny stamps and address to the Manager, the Bodie Publishing Company, 163, Blackfriars-road, S.E.

That the popularity of minstrelsy did not entirely die with the demolition of St. James's Hall has been proved by Mr. Charles Dare, whose Ethiopian troupe is winning golden opinions everywhere. The principal artists were members of the far-famed Moore and Burgess crowd.

In the list of the new committee of the Music Hall Artists' Railway Association, sent to us officially, the name of Mr. Bob Hutt, who scored 308 votes, was omitted, and the total number of votes obtained by Mr. Fred McNaughton should have been 489, not 498.

The shareholders' committee of the London Coliseum has agreed upon the reconstruction scheme, under which £42,000 would be raised by ordinary and preference shareholders, and £65,000 second mortgage debentures would be issued. Mr. Oswald Stoll, who would be retained as managing director, is prepared to become responsible for £5,000 of the second mortgage bonds, if shareholders take up the amount mentioned.

The Haverleys, illustrated song artists, at the termination of their engagement to-day at the Palace, Cork, bring to a conclusion a highly successful seventeen weeks' continuous tour. The act is high-class and popular.

"A Case for Rescission," written and produced by Miss Edith Grenfell, will be played at Collins's next week. Since the production the sketch has been much improved.

Mr. Frank Weir, who has been playing Barry, in A Country Girl, has had a tempting offer for re-engagement by Mr. Chas. Macdona, but has been secured at a big salary by Mr. Bannister Howard, to play Wishee-Washee at the Crystal Palace, in Aladdin.

Mr. Arthur Rigby has certainly struck oil with his production at Richmond of The Isle of Ooma, which we shall no doubt see shortly at a West End hall. Mr. Rigby has aimed high in this pretty scena, with its Oriental setting, its perfection of detail, and its comedy of a most exhilarating kind. In the chief part Mr. Rigby, too, is able to let himself go, and to display that resourcefulness which makes him such an excellent pantomime comedian. Congratulations have been showered upon him, The Isle of Ooma being generally recognised as a charming and dainty production.

Miss Daphne de Rohan, who has been so long away from London, has returned, and will probably remain for a considerable time. Her many friends will be sorry to hear of her long and severe illness; but, judging from the encomiums lavished upon her on her first appearance since her recovery, there is every hope that her many and varied accomplishments will soon be again enjoyed by the public.

It is characteristic of Miss Daphne de Rohan, who recently was decorated with the Special Jewel of the French Life-Saving Society, that her first appearance after her illness should be devoted to providing enjoyment to "young England," as typified by the clever children whose swimming performances have gained them so much credit and also so many prizes.

Miss Henriquette Maude, who made an interesting appearance at the Canterbury anniversary on Thursday evening, has been travelling for two years round the world, maintaining herself by work on the stage and by singing and reciting on steamers. She won a medal in America for her elocution, and has recited "Lasca" in all parts of the world. During her delivery of this well-known poem, from the pen of Mr. Frank Desprez, she wears a picturesque cowboy costume. She is an excellent mimic.

Mr. David Day will take the chair on the occasion of the annual concert and dinner in aid of the funds of the Music Publishers' and Concert Assistants' Benevolent Society, which will take place on Saturday, Dec. 1, at the Crown (adjoining the London Hippodrome).

Mr. Bransby Williams, on his return from the States, found his little son Eric very ill. He immediately called in two doctors, who decided to take the opinion of a specialist, and a severe operation was performed on Wednesday. The little fellow is going on as well as can be expected; and one can sympathise with the loving parents in their deep anxiety.

It is with much regret that we learn the news of the death of Mr. James Henry Jee, father of the James Henry Jee family, who succumbed on Saturday last, at the age of fifty-seven, to the after effects of a severe operation. Much sympathy will be extended by the profession to his sons, Mr. James Jee and Mr. Charlene Jee, in their sad loss. The funeral took place on Thursday.

The members of the Urban African Expedition, whose purpose is to traverse the great continent from Cape Town to Cairo, taking pictorial records of life in Portuguese East Africa, Nyassaland, the Congo, British and German East Africa, and Uganda, sailed on the Walmer Castle from Southampton on Saturday.

Mr. Alfred Butt, whilst on his recent tour in America, discovered an equine curiosity—a horse capable of thinking independent of collusion with the trainer. Princess Trixie made her appearance at the Palace on Friday (yesterday) afternoon, before an audience composed of the Press, zoologists, and those interested in animal training, and spelt words suggested by the audience, did simple addition and subtraction sums, and picked out from a heap of pieces of silk any colour asked for. Princess Trixie is endowed with wonderful discrimination.

In France the claque is an institution; but in London, with two exceptions, it is almost unknown. When singing in Paris, Mr. Harry Fragson, who is still appearing at the Tivoli, objected to being blackmailed by the chef de claque, and invented mechanical plaudits, which were worked by a spring by the stage-manager. For a time all went well, the automatic hand-clapping being a great success. As, however, the stage-manager derived no profit from the operation, he, in turn, invented an automatic machine which sent off a tremendous hiss, like a steam launch syren, and he had to be paid as to which of these mechanical appliances he would turn on. In the result, the artist had to return to the old system.

At a meeting of the Metropolitan District Committee of the Essex County Council, held at Stratford on the 16th inst., Mr. F. A. S. Stern, solicitor, applied for a dramatic licence for the East Ham Palace Theatre, High-street, East Ham, which is in course of erection. The East Ham Palace immediately adjoins East Ham railway station, and its cost will exceed £20,000. It will accommodate 1800 persons, will have no fewer than twelve exits, and be handsomely appointed. It will be a two-houses-a-night hall. The committee said the licence would be granted on receipt of the certificate of the county architect that the plans deposited had been carried out.

Mr. J. J. Fruin, secretary of the Music Hall Home, and Mr. Horace Marriott, secretary of the Music Hall Benevolent Fund, have each received a cheque for £105 voted from their funds by the Music Hall Artists' Railway Association. Mr. Marriott also desires to acknowledge the sum of £17 1s. 1d. from Mr. Joe O'Gorman as the result of his efforts on behalf of the Fund during his voyage from South Africa on board the Briton. £3 15s. 7d. has been collected by Mr. William Payne, who is carrying on at the South London the good work initiated by the lamented Frank Weeks. Other pence-box collections in aid of the M.H.B.F. include the sum of £5 from Mr. A. W. Matcham, of the Empire, Birmingham; and £2 18s. 5d. from Mr. Fred Miller, manager of the Canterbury. Mr. E. H. Lucas has sent £1 as proceeds of his sale of picture postcards while journeying homeward from South Africa; and Mr. J. Christie, of the Hackney Empire, sends £6 5s.

Mr. Christie's method of collecting is described in a letter to Mr. Frank Allen, which we have permission to quote. Says the Hackney manager: "My method of disposing of the tickets in aid of the Fund is that everyone (Press and billorders excepted) entering this theatre on the free list must take a ticket from my doorsman." Were this plan adopted by all the halls throughout the country the Music Hall Benevolent Fund would be placed on a financial basis that would go far to relieve the constant anxiety of a committee struggling to relieve acute cases of distress with insufficient funds.

Dr. Walford Bodie's instructions to us to divide his cheque for £20 between the Music Hall Home and the Music Hall Benevolent Fund have been duly carried out, and drafts for £10 each have been forwarded to Messrs. J. J. Fruin and Horace Marriott, the respective secretaries of those excellent institutions, who have acknowledged the donations with many thanks. It is Dr. Bodie's intention to give Sunday lectures throughout the country, and to devote any profits therefrom to music-hall charities.

Commissioner of Income-tax to variety comedian who is appealing against his assessment: "But I see you have put down here no less than £50 for grease paint. That seems to be an immense sum for such a purpose. Last year you charged £25." "Quite so, but you must remember that now I have to play two houses a night!" Claim allowed.

Mr. Wilkie Bard has been secured by Mr. Joseph Wilson for a special week at the Tivoli, previous to his departure for pantomime at the Theatre Royal, Manchester, his native town, where he is to play the Baron in The Babes in the Wood. This is to be the only pantomime in Cottonopolis, the other dramatic houses running musical comedy. Mr. Bard's newest songs are "You, you, you" and "Incidents."

The new sketch, founded on a phase of Russian terrorism, which is to be produced at the Cambridge on Monday, is entitled The Woman with the Red Hair. It is a shortened English version of a play written by the revolutionary Paul Kosakin in the fortress of Kief, while awaiting his execution, and was only completed the night before his tragic end. His memorable speech to the soldiers of the firing party is introduced into the translation of the play. Miss Minnie Sadler and Mr. Webster Lawson are to play the two leading characters.

The libel action, Dagmar v. Lee, came before Mr. Justice Grantham and a special jury, in the King's Bench Division, on Friday, the 16th. The libel complained of appeared in The Encore, and was contained in the translation, with comments, of an alleged news paragraph from Das Programm, in which Miss Alexandra Dagmar's name was wrongly associated with a theatrical venture in Calcutta. Mr. Justice Grantham, in summing up, said the libel was about as gross as could have been written about any lady in the plaintiff's profession, and the question for the jury was the amount of damages. The jury, without leaving the box, found a verdict for Miss Alexandra Dagmar, assessing the damages at £250. On Monday an unsuccessful application was made for a stay of execution.

Mr. Bransby Williams, who goes to Glasgow to play Fitzwarren, has been presented with the full dress worn by the late Mr. Toole as Caleb Plummer, and has also been fortunate enough to purchase the model of the Maypole Inn at the Toole sale. The following passage is taken from the "Reminiscences of J. L. Toole," by Joseph Hatton:—"Let us glance at a large model of the Maypole Inn, immortalised by Dickens in the novel of 'Barnaby Rudge.' It is a clever realisation of the picturesque inn, with models of the leading characters of the novel grouped in front of it, the whole under a glass case. 'It was a feature of the dining-room of the Hen and Chickens, at Birmingham,' says my host. "Dickens saw it there, and greatly admired it. I tried to buy it, but the proprietor would not sell it at any price. When he retired from the Hen and Chickens he sent it to me. Unfortunately, Dickens was dead when the model came, and my chief purpose in desiring to buy it was frustrated; I wanted to give it to the Author of "Barnaby Rudge."'"

Among the engagements made by Mr. G. Brydon Phillips for the forthcoming pantomime season will be found the name of Messrs. Maitland Marler, Chas. Dillon, Esmonde and Verona, Henry De Solla, G. W. Taylor, R. Kitchen, Billee Taylor, Dan Whitley, the Maples, and Mesdames Belle Harcourt, Kitty Malone, Mamie Iris, Marie Beaufort, Edie Anderson, Lucy Coventry, Snow and Farron, Mlle. Onra; also the favourite West London clown, Harry Ewins. Sinbad opens on Christmas Eve at the West London Theatre, and Red Riding Hood on Boxing Day at Chester, afterwards visiting Dalston.

The 498th meeting of the Executive Committee of the M.H.A.R.A. was held on Wednesday afternoon, when the following were present:—Messrs. Albert Le Fre (vice-president), Fred M'Naughton, George H. Smythson, Geo. A. Booker, Albert Voyce, and C. Douglas Stuart (secretary). The minutes having been read and confirmed, several matters concerning refunds and insurances were dealt with. Dr. A. Graham, of 23, Hanover Buildings, Southampton, was appointed hon. medical officer in that town. The weekly statement of receipts and expenditure submitted showed the amount received during the week to be £36 13s. 6d. Several accounts were passed, and the meeting then terminated. The weekly meeting of the Committee of the M.H.A.R.A. will be held next week on Wednesday at one o'clock, when all members in town are particularly requested to attend.

Committed to a policy of constant change, the "Urbanora" exhibit of animated pictures at the Alhambra will, from Monday next, include the first records ever secured of the scaling, from base to summit, of many of the most difficult peaks in the Austrian Alps. The progress of the roped guides up the almost perpendicular sides and seemingly impassable "chimneys" of the Croda da Lago, is followed closely and minutely, and the stimulating sensation produced upon the spectator is that of sharing the climbers' peril. This series will be followed by a cinematographic minor melodrama, called "True to His Trust."

A matinée is to be given at the Stratford Empire, by permission of Moss' Empires, Ltd., on Thursday next, in aid of the Extension Fund of the West Ham Hospital. Mr. T. S. Mayne has worthily followed in Mr. S. Gething's footsteps in making a great success of the annual matinée in aid of this very deserving local charity, and as he has been promised the services of many prominent performers now in town, in addition to the support of the artists working at the Stoll London theatres, he will be able to submit a fine programme.

La Belle Otero will, in the course of the next week, marry a wealthy Englishman named René Webb, who has consented to allow her to appear on the stage on the condition that she appears under the name of Mme. René Webb. Mr. Webb is stated to have bought for his bride a fine mansion in the Rue Fortuny, and to have settled £20,000 upon her. The marriage will take place at the Madeleine.

The Dunedin Troupe of Cyclists, on tour in America with the Ringling, Forepaugh, and Sells Bros.' combined shows, are now finishing a successful engagement, and are re-engaged for next year. They have travelled 16,788 miles, visited twenty-nine States and territories, and played in 177 towns, the average number of miles travelled every night being ninety-six. Papa Dunedin says he intends to settle in New York this Christmas.

After a successful tour on the Continent, the Dayton Family are returning to Old England, where they will be very welcome. They will shortly produce a new act, entitled Le Rendezvous.

Carl and Carr, refined comedians, are playing Captain and Mate in the production of Dick Whittington at the Metropole Theatre, Devonport. This will be their third season with Mr. Arthur Carlton.

Miss Ethel Ra Leslie concludes to-night her London season, which has been an uninterrupted one of twenty-nine weeks, and has been the recipient of many floral offerings. The huge bouquet presented to her on Saturday night consisted of prize chrysanthemums from the Crystal Palace. Miss Ra Leslie commences a twenty-five weeks' tour on Monday at Birkenhead.

Mme. Ada Colley's rendering of Bishop's "Lo! here the gentle lark" (with flute obbligato), has been received with such marked favour by public and Press at the Tivoli, that the famous Australian "diva" has been prompted to include in her répertoire another song of the same type, viz., Sir Julius Benedict's "The Bird that came in spring."

Mr. Charles Collette recommences a tour of some months with his farce, Tea for Two, at the Canterbury on Monday. As before, he will be supported by Miss Joan Derry, a clever young actress, who has been most successful in the piece. After visiting several leading London halls, Mr. Collette goes into the provinces, returning to his old quarters at the London Pavilion early next year.

To the present generation of music hall frequenters the name of Alf George is unknown, but with their fathers in the 'seventies he was a very popular personage. He was always associated with a lady partner in duologues which were generally funny and invariably well acted. He was associated during his career with Miss Ruby Lee, Miss Nellie Griffiths, and Miss Lily Grey, the last-mentioned being the wife of Mr. Teddy Solomons, the well-known composer of "The Vicar of Bray." The deceased gentleman died suddenly on Monday.

Mr. Maurice H. Hoffman and Miss Ethel King produced, at the Middlesex on Wednesday evening, a new duologue, entitled The Sleeping-Car. The plot revolves round a couple of lovers who, by an extraordinary coincidence, are fellow travellers in a sleeping-car on a trip to Edinburgh. Of course, each was ignorant of the other taking the journey, and amusing situations eventuate. Though the gentlemen changes into pyjamas, and the lady removes her dress, the proprieties are never imperilled. The early comers to the Drury-lane house on Wednesday received the sketch with laughter.

Miss Lily Tiso, a charming singer and expert dancer, who is at the Stratford Empire this week, rejoins the Moss-Stoll circuit after her twelfth tour of Russian cities. Nowadays the ordinary person would rather avoid than seek anything Russian. Not so Miss Tiso. "Things are made out to be so much worse than they really are," she told the writer last week. "They are bad, of course, but I like the Russian people and Russian audiences; and, as I speak French as well as Russian, I never experience any difficulty. My last engagement at St. Petersburg was from Oct. 1, 1905, till Jan. 20, 1906. On last New Year's Eve I was having supper with friends at a restaurant, situate on the Nevsky Prospect. At midnight, everybody in the place, except one student, rose up and sang the National Anthem. An officer went up to him and asked why he remained seated. A few words passed, and the student smacked the officer's face, whereupon the officer drew his revolver and shot the student dead.

"I was taking a walk on the Nevsky Prospect when two hundred were shot down. The police ordered every shop to be shut during five days, and we had to provision for that time. My landlady—we lived opposite the big prison of St. Peter—hid two Jews in our flat, much to our alarm, for had they been discovered we should most certainly all have been massacred. At nights all the streets were picketed with soldiers. Nevertheless, I used to slip out and sup at one of the big restaurants.

"Fourteen Anarchist students were one morning arrested in the flat above ours. At the Aquarium, where I was engaged, two hundred soldiers were hidden about the establishment, ready to shoot down the audience if it became at all noisy. In Moscow no bread has been obtainable from the bakers for months. All who can afford to do so make their own bread. I took a turn at bread-making each morning during my stay."

M. Henri Coy, the giant, who naturally takes lofty views of his responsibilities, long since made it known that he was desirous of wedlock. He stipulated that the future sharer of his lot should have a good constitution, be of average height, and possess prettiness, gentleness, and modesty. Recently, like another Claude Melnotte, he was among the "ladies of Lyons," where he had tea, and his gaze rested on a fair Phyllis hailing from the northern heights. But it was not to be. Henri has since, however, seen no less than 301 girls willing to marry him, and at last he has proposed to and been accepted by Miss Faraday, of the Coach and Horses, Notting Hill Gate. He will appear at the Shepherd's Bush Empire on Monday

Mr. Harry Wright, one of the first dozen Terriers, has been elected on the committee every year since the fraternity was founded. He has been re-elected on the M.H.A.R.A. Committee each year since its formation. He was also on the provisional committee of the V.A.F., and rejoices in the honour of being elected on the permanent committee for three years.

The forty-fourth anniversary of Collins's is to take place on Thursday, Dec. 6. There will be an exceptional array of talent this year, and two performances, the first commencing at six o'clock and the second at nine. There will be extra attractions at each.

The latest quotations of music halls are as follow:—Alhambra 14, Canterbury 2, Empire (15s. pd.) 1½, Do. (10s. pd.) 1, London Pav. Ord. 4⅜, Do. Pref. 4⅞, Lon. Coliseum ¼, Metropolitan ⅛, Moss Empire 4⅜, Do. 5 p.c. Pref. 3⅝, Oxford 6⅜, Palace 11/-, Tivoli 6½, Var. Cons. Theas. 15/-.

Mr. Frederick Wilson, who has been appointed stage-manager at the Holloway Empire, entered on his duties this week. For seven years he was assistant stage-manager at the Alhambra, and during a very great part of the time was acting under his father, Mr. Chas. Wilson, who is now in America engaged in the production of operas. Mr. Wilson, jun., was also in the Land of the Stars and Stripes for five years, and possesses the undoubted advantage of being a practical stage carpenter.

Mr. Alfred Butt is making quite a number of changes in the Palace Theatre programme next week. Mr. Nelson Jackson, the well-known raconteur at the piano, will make his first appearance, and another turn of note is D'Arc's marionettes. These differ very considerably from the ordinary type. The figures are made to represent well-known variety artists, whose voice, figure, and gestures are reproduced. Aided by some novel lighting effects, a tabloid music-hall programme is represented on a miniature stage, only in this case the artists are all "stars."

Dunning and Kahn and Kahn, with their illusory and ventriloquial acts, have just finished a portion of the Moss-Stoll tour. After playing four weeks with Messrs. Edwardes and Elliston, they recommence their tour at Shepherd's Bush. Owing to their success, Mr. Stoll has rebooked them for 1907 and 1908.

At the meeting of the London County Council on Tuesday, the Building Act Committee reported that on July 30 last they, acting on behalf of the Council, refused an application under section 22 of the London Building Act, 1894, for consent to the retention of a structure in front of the Palace and directed the solicitor to take proceedings to secure its removal. At the adjourned hearing on the 30th ult., the magistrate gave judgment, upholding the Council's contention that the structure came within the provisions of section 22 of the London Building Act, 1894, and made an order for its demolition. The Palace will appeal.

SONGS, WRITERS, AND SINGERS.

THE American branch of Messrs. Francis, Day, and Hunter's business is working double tides owing to the great success of Leslie Stuart's Belle of Mayfair with Transatlantic music-lovers. Mr. Fred Day reports that no fewer than six numbers in the work go with as much enthusiasm nightly as did the never-to-be-forgotten "Tell me, pretty maiden" in Florodora.

MESSRS. FRANCIS AND DAY have this week acquired the publishing rights of a charming descriptive ballad, entitled "Mizpah, I'll dream of you," by John Francis Lambe and Kenneth Lyle. This number was originally accepted by Mr. Oswald Stoll for the Coliseum, and, had it not been for unforeseen circumstances, it would have been produced there. Mr. Stoll has been kind enough to comply with the request of the writers to give them an opportunity of placing the song elsewhere, and it will be sung at a very early date by one of the most accomplished actor-vocalists on the variety boards.

THE latest purchases of Messrs. Francis and Day include, among other works, the following: "Come to the tree-tops," by Josh Bowie and George Burnley, a song which will be featured in Messrs. Howard and Wyndham's Christmas productions; "I've got a girl," written, composed, and shortly to be sung by Mr. Ernest Shand; "I'm coming back, love" (Miss Kate Carney), by George Collins; "Alliance" waltz, by J. Shaw and L. Smith; "Woodland Nymph" waltz, by Gertrude Hancorne James and Clement Harris; "Our summer holidays" (Will Bentley), by Fred Frampton; "Two baby hands," by Fred Harrington; "Grandmamma's glasses," by St. John Hammond and Sydney Shaw; "Sincerity" waltz, by Theo. Ward; "What more can I do, little girlie?" by A. E. Sydney Davis and H. E. Darewski, jun.; and Miss Vesta Victoria's "Oh! Amelia!" by Murray and Hilbury.

MISS ETHEL RA-LESLIE has accepted a song entitled "Nana," written and composed by J. Robson, which will be published by Shapiro, Von Tilzer, and Co. Another, entitled "I can see red roses blooming," which is issued by Francis and Day, is also a big success.

PRODUCERS and artists who are in want of a "pretty" song should lose no time in securing Joseph Tabrar's latest success, "Just a tiny little portrait of my mother." Among others, Mr. J. F. Elliston is featuring it in all his productions. Free permissions for a few towns can be obtained from Lowther and Co., 4, Station-road, Finsbury Park, London, N.

MISS MILLIE HYLTON, who is at the Holloway Empire this week, gives a most charming rendering of the popular song, "By the side of the Zuyder Zee." Miss Hylton has been singing this number to our provincial cousins for the past four or five months with unfailing success.

MISS ROSE HARVEY has been scoring with Mills and Scott's march song, "The Boys' Brigade." Assisted by local contingents of boys, she has made a decided hit, the chorus being whistled and sung all over the towns she has visited.

THE Star Music Publishing Co., Ltd., have in the press some excellent numbers by Messrs. C. W. Murphy, Harry Castling, Maurice Scott, R. P. Weston, Albert Perry, and other well-known writers. The company's first three numbers—"Sailing in my balloon," "Nelson from his monument," and "Will you dance with me, Marie?"—are in greater demand than ever.

A. J. MILLS and Bennett Scott's charming ballad, "Snowflakes," published by Francis, Day, and Hunter, will figure prominently in the first pantomimes of the season at Aberdeen and Glasgow, where some novel and beautiful effects are promised.

MR. DENNIS DREW will be heard shortly in Kenneth Lyle's stirring military song, dedicated to Mr. Oswald Stoll, and named "The beat of the drum." Messrs. Francis and Day have published the song.

MESSRS. MELLOR, LAWRENCE, AND GIFFORD have five big songs on the market that bid fair to become even more popular in 1907 than their "Bamboo bungalow" is for the present year, and the respective publishing houses who have acquired the same are to be congratulated. The songs are "Châteaux on the Rhine" (free), "Maid in Madras" (free), "Castle in Spain" (Lil Hawthorne's), "Rickshaw Queen" (free), and "Sailing home" (free).

"I'VE BUILT A BAMBOO BUNGALOW FOR YOU," by Lawrance and Mellor, looks like being the hit bit of every pantomime this coming season. One hundred and three theatres have already decided to make it their "big" number, and it is being ordered in piles by the English in Berlin, Buda-Pesth, and other cities abroad.

NUMEROUS applications from pantomime producers have again been received this week by The Shapiro, Von Tilzer Music Co., Ltd., for "Take me back to London Town," "Sweet Saturday night," "Moonbeam," "Little girl," and "Capt. Reg. D'Arcy of the Guards."

THE Shapiro, Von Tilzer Music Co., Ltd., have in the press Mr. Geo. A. Stevens's song "Oh, matrimony," which Miss Florrie Forde will feature this week at several halls and also during her forthcoming pantomime engagement. This promising pantomime song for principal boys is a very suitable song.

THE Monte Carlo selection (No. 1) of popular songs will be issued at the end of the month, being No. 51 of the "Sixpenny Successes" series. It has been specially arranged by the well-known composer, Mr. Jas. W. Tate, and will include such popular favourites as "Bamboo Bungalow," "Remember me to mother dear," "Rosie is waiting," "Tiny firefly," "Sweet Eileen," "Widow Doolin," "Queen of Old Samara," &c. The price will be the hitherto unprecedentedly low one, for a pianoforte selection of popular music, of sixpence. Full orchestral parts will be issued simultaneously. This week the firm have issued no less than six new "Sixpenny Successes" to the trade.

THE "song-placers" of the Monte Carlo Publishing Co., Messrs. Harrington and Tate, have specially kept back their own composition, "Old Chisholm," for some time past; but, in some unaccountable manner, the fame of this tuneful march-time number has reached the profession, and now principal boys and girls in scores, to say nothing of baritone singers, are applying daily for permission to sing it both in pantomimes and on the variety boards. The permissions for the latter, however, are restricted to a very small number of artists at present.

NEVER before, perhaps, has a song become so universally in demand for pantomime production in such record time as Mr. J. F. Lambe's "Queen of Old Samara," which dainty Miss Alice Lloyd is making so popular at all her London engagements. Flattering letters from pantomime managers in Manchester, Liverpool, Leeds, Birmingham, Bristol, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Bradford, Hull, and other principal towns, record the desire of the writers to specially "feature" this Monte Carlo "winner" in their respective productions.

LONDON VARIETY THEATRES.

LONDON PAVILION.

A year or so since London capitulated to the piquancy and spirit of a new dance known as "The Mattchiche," which was presented on the stage of one of our principal theatres by a Continental celebrity, with a chic and fascination quite Parisian. Now we have "La Kraquette," the latest sensation of the boulevards. Its production at the London Pavilion on Monday is due to the enterprise of Mr. Frank Glenister, who has secured the services of Mr. Tod Cams, the original producer of "La Mattchiche." The music, which is in march time, is by Justin Clérice, and is animated by much gaiety. Being a catchy melody, too, that sets the feet a-moving, we anticipate that it will be heard everywhere. A special setting is given to "La Kraquette" at the Piccadilly-circus house, and just a few sentences of dialogue by way of introduction are spoken by the partners—Mr. Tod Cams, who represents a Frenchman, inspired by the gallantry of a boulevardier, to make warm protestations of affection to an Anglo-Saxon beauty in short skirts—none other than pretty Miss Mignon Tremaine. Though in some slight degree embarrassed by the warmth of his declarations, she is not altogether averse to them, as may be noted in the dance, which he invites her to share. It commences with a variant of the cake-walk movement, quickens at times into a polka, then slows down into stateliness. It was received on Monday evening with marked favour.

The other novelty of the Pavilion bill is also terpsichorean, and has been written and produced by Mr. Albert Le Fre, who has given it the title of The Professor. Though at the head of a school of calisthenics, he is in the main a teacher of dancing, and exhibits to his lady pupils the power of the pas bondissant, and the piquancy of the pirouette. For the purpose of discovering how his pupils pass their time during their absence, monsieur le maitre de danse disguises himself as a masher, and returning, is thought to be good fun by the girls. Their mirth is soon checked, however, when he removes his wig, and gives them a little lecture, which is followed by a well-written song, "The journey's end," which bears a topical complexion. Mr. Albert Le Fre, a capital comedian and a fine dancer, makes the very most of his chances, but he has not been over-indulgent to himself in providing them. He might with advantage have a few more verses tacked on to his song. He is capably assisted by the Pavilion Girls, who are smart and attractive in their gymnasium dresses.

Mr. Arthur Slater, the "whistling man in white," gets out of the rut followed by gentlemen in his "line of business," by whistling the well-known overture to Poet and Peasant, which he renders with much musical feeling and surprising facility. Nipper Lupino Lane does credit in song and dance to two names celebrated in the annals of the theatre. Mr. Marriott Edgar, too, comes of a good old theatrical stock, and is the exponent of an original comedy method that is broadening perceptibly. Miss José Collins reminds one in voice and feature of her celebrated mother, and looks as pretty as a picture in pink. She sings very artistically, and knows how to use her voice. Miss Marie Dainton, in her mimicry of Miss Edna May, sings a verse having reference to the Belle of New York, throwing up her recent engagement at the Vaudeville in The Belle of Mayfair on account of the conspicuous position given in the bills to Miss Camille Clifford, who the lady mimic also counterfeits in the song, "Why do they call me a Gibson girl?" Mr. Malcolm Scott arrives nightly "from the Embankment," in the scythe-wheeled chariot of Boadicea, and talks very cleverly of men and things in general, being thoroughly up to date.

Mlle. Renée, a member of a musical family, plays the piano, the ocarina, and the cornet with equal facility, providing a musical turn that is heartily appreciated. Miss Nellie Coleman is an interesting exponent of male character; Mr. Tom Leamore supplies amusing patter with his droll songs; Miss Bertha Pertina has established a high reputation as a toe dancer, which she worthily sustains; the Fitzroys, gymnasts, are responsible for a graceful drawing-room act; and other contributors to the bill are Miss Alma Gray, Mr. George Mozart, Mr. Wilbar Hill, and Miss Willette Whitaker, Foreman and Fannan, and Dome.

THE EUSTON.

The question of the unemployed is one that engages the attention of politicians to a considerable extent at the present time. Mr. Gus Elen, who has received a hearty welcome at the Euston this week, has chosen to treat the all-important question from a humorous point of view, much to the satisfaction of the patrons of the popular variety theatre at King's Cross. Mr. Elen, in his latest song-scena, is amusing at the expense of that particular type of "working man" who prefers to take it easy, and has a decided disinclination to seek for a job. In his own vernacular he waits "till the work comes raund"; and one cannot dispute the truth of his statement that while a man is not in work "he cannot get the sack." And so this hardy and philosophic son of toil moves from his bed to a comfortable armchair, and smokes his pipe contentedly, with an occasional "pull" at the glass of liquid in front of him. By the way, shouldn't it at least look like beer? He shudders at the picture on the wall of a bricklayer actively engaged at work, while the illustration of a workman who is only looking for a job commands his admiration. The scena affords Mr. Elen opportunities of introducing some clever little bits of acting, amusingly illustrative of the personage represented. Indeed, it is one of the most carefully finished as it is one of the most successful character-studies that the popular comedian has ever presented on the variety stage.

Miss Lileth Leyton and Mr. J. Spurling are here in their lively little sketch, The Order of the Bath, and continue to make much fun out of the extremely embarrassing position of a lady and gentleman who find themselves locked in a bath-room, and whose plans for escape therefrom are found not to work when put to the test, until at length the lady discovers how to manipulate the lock of the door, and so render egress possible. The sketch is very well received. Another couple that find favour are Talbot and Pierce, who appear as "the spider and the fly" in a pretty song-scena. Both the lady and gentleman possess excellent voices, and do ample justice to the high-class music. Miss Venie Clements is a refined comedienne and a dainty dancer. She introduces clever imitative studies of a French girl, a Scotch lassie in the national costume, and a little girl with a doll and a toy donkey that moves its ears and brays at the same time. The little girl pretends to recognise "Aunt Fanny" in the balcony, and also has something to say to the conductor. Miss Clements is deservedly greeted with much applause. So, too, are Mr. Macdonald and Miss Huntingdon, in their singing and dancing act. The gentleman represents a New York newsboy making love to his sweetheart, the duet between the two being a very acceptable contribution. Miss Huntingdon also makes a hit in her clever imitation of an American soubrette. Mr. Nat Clifford, comedian, continues to do well with his ditty, "The Grand Hotel," in which he introduces much comical business and patter. Mr. Billy French scores with his remarkably nimble dancing; and Miss Gracie Merton, described as "the genuine street singer," renders a popular ballad in admirable style. In the current bill are also Mr. Dan Crawley, a favourite comedian; and the Three Laurels, in their original speciality on the ping-pong table. A special attraction is Georges Hackenschmidt, whose wrestling matches with various well-known exponents of the art have again aroused an immense amount of interest. The pictures on Ruffell's Bioscope include "A Slippery Customer" and "Following in Father's Footsteps," both humorous subjects. Mr. Fred McAvoy, the manager here, has had the pleasure of welcoming crowded houses throughout the week; and the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Victor Opferman, deserves a word of praise.

SADLER'S WELLS.

Among the London acquisitions of the Macnaghten Vaudeville Circuit none need wish to enjoy greater prosperity than the historic house which looks out upon Rosebery-avenue. A dozen stage items figure in this week's bill, and to these is added an extra instalment of Raymond's Biotableaux. The pictures include a fine view of the recent Grand Prix Motor Races in France, and great interest is excited in the representation of the race along the high roads and through villages, the way in which awkward corners are skilfully turned by the competitors being greatly cheered. The second part of the picture show is a truly comic display of "A Tramp's Free Ride," in which a man goes to sleep in an empty barrel, which is started rolling down a hill. It continues its way furiously down precipitous slopes, and comes to a standstill on the edge of a railway bridge, whence it is pushed over into the street below, eventually finding its way into the river. The film is cleverly conceived and skilfully executed, and gains rapturous applause.

The sketch of the week is Pedlar Sam, played by Mr. Frank Hardie and company. Its main incident consists in the search made by an old pedlar named Sam to seek out his son's murderer, who has joined a mining party in California. The father tracks the villain to his lair, and engages him in an exciting duel with daggers. Sam disarms his opponent, but the latter's disreputable associates rush in and overpower the old pedlar. They go into the hut for the purpose of stealing some money, but meanwhile the heroine appears and releases the pedlar, who quickly disposes of the miscreants with a revolver, not, however, before the hut has been set on fire. Mr. Hardie, in the part of Pedlar Sam, has scope for his comedy as well as his dramatic powers, and scores accordingly, the scene in which he portrays the death of his son being specially commendable. Miss Irene Carlton acts in sympathetic style as the heroine, whose husband is played in vigorous fashion by Mr. George Grahame. Mr. A. Collins makes a sinister villain; and Mr. S. Phillips completes the cast.

A lady protean artist is found in Miss Addie Dorina, who, in a duologue entitled How It Was Done, impersonates six different characters. The story is that of a man who has read an account of a wife completely deceiving her husband by impersonating various people. He ventures to doubt the possibility of the occurrence, and his wife, in order to convince him, goes out on a pretended visit to the dentist. Immediately the husband receives a visit in quick succession of a gossiping old maid, a garrulous washerwoman, the mother-in-law, a "slavey," and an American belle, who all have a story to tell the master of the house with regard to his wife's relations with a certain sergeant-major. When the wife returns, she is taxed with her folly by her husband, but eventually the lady explains that it was she herself in different disguises, and all doubts are removed. Miss Dorina executes her changes with marvellous rapidity, and, in addition, acts each part cleverly. She is heartily applauded, and takes her call in yet another change of costume. Mr. Pat Waddock lends able support, and adds in an important degree to the humour of the sketch.

Ballads are tunefully sung by Miss Dora Lyric, who puts feeling and power into her rendering of "Somebody cares for you" and "All that glitters is not gold," both of which so appeal to the audience that they are moved irresistibly to join in the chorus. Galletti's pantomime monkeys cause an agreeable diversion with their eccentricities, which are many and various. Their pranks in a barber's shop, with a monkey as a hairdresser and shaver, are very comical, and grow still more hilarious when objection is taken to the rough usage received, and both customer and operator take off their coats to fight. Mr. Bert Danson gets all possible humour out of his song, "If it wasn't for the girls," and his subsequent patter, in which he administers a severe reproof to designing members of the fair sex, is well delivered, and listened to with real amusement. An American baritone and a Scotch comedian are to hand in Mr. Percy Hannon and Mr. Robbie Roy, who both do well in their respective rôles; and Miss Mignonette Kokin, comedienne and dancer; Mr. Harry Cotton, comedian; and Mr. Russell Carr, ventriloquist, are also included in the varied bill. Mr. Frederic Baugh is the general-manager of the hall, of which Mr. Pete Murray is in all respects "on the spot" as acting-manager.

CHELSEA PALACE.

The portals of the Palace at Chelsea are nightly thronged with eager crowds, and though Mr. J. Norman Berlin, the acting-manager, who is in command during the continued absence of Mr. Edward Swanborough, has reluctantly to send money away, he has the satisfaction of knowing that it will turn up again in the course of the week, such are the drawing powers of the programme. An alluring item of the current bill is the sketch, Turpin's Ride to York, played by Mr. Fred Ginnett and company. The romance of Dick Turpin and his bonnie mare has ever a charm for the lover of the picturesque, but when it is brought before the eye in such realistic fashion as that provided by Mr. Ginnett's combination, its attractiveness is abundantly increased. Black Bess is seen in all her sable beauty, and is put through some tricks which reflect great credit on the skill of her trainer. The sketch, which runs to five scenes, is embellished by a song or two, and grows very exciting, while the death of Black Bess, at the end, creates a profound impression.

A new view of the suffragette is afforded by Miss Kittee Rayburn, who appears as a charming claimant to "woman's rights." Her candidature has nothing akin to that of the "shrieking sisterhood," but stipulates simply for the comforts of hearth and home that from time immemorial have been the heritage of the true woman. Similarly, "Cock o' the roost; or, men, men, men," Miss Rayburn's second effusion, has no resemblance to the "Oh! you men" ditty in which the serio of other days used to delight, but is a smartly-written lyric, with a vein of satire and a refrain that has a direct appeal to the audience, who render enthusiastic support. Both songs are sung with the utmost point, and give untold delight to all. Miss Gracie Taylor exercises a charm by her tuneful singing of "Stowaway," and "My Irish Bess, at the end, creates a profound impression.

A musical pot-pourri, called Charlie's Visit, introduces a sketch which is eminently calculated to please the modern variety audience. It is presented by Eadie and Ramsden, a young lady and gentleman, the latter of whom impersonates the title-rôle—that of a youth on a visit to his sweetheart. He adopts the most extraordinary attitudes, and his acrobatic dancing is distinguished by eccentricity of a novel kind. The young lady, who makes a prepossessing appearance in white, has an agreeable voice, and sings "Mary of Argyle" in cultured fashion. She also indulges in a pretty coon song and dance, in which she is joined by her partner, whose "backbend" is quite out of the common, and exacts a veritable storm of applause. The banjo is made very effective in the hands of Edwards and Espinosa, who alternate solos and duets on that popular instrument. The comely young lady dances a pas seul, and well maintains the renown attached to the family name by her exposition of the graceful art. Mr. Tom Woottwell causes unlimited laughter with his singing of "The little shirt my mother made for me," and the mirth is renewed at his appearance in the garb of a highwayman, who sings of his "First time on earth," supplemented by a droll recitation that causes the house to ring with mirth. A comedian who makes an effective contribution to the evening's amusement is found in Mr. Dan Thomas, whose costume as a sprightly lady well past her youth is alone sufficient to create laughter, while his song of "My old woman," involves another quaint get-up as a "navvy," who indulges in a dance of the oddest description. Miss Blanche De Verne, a Canadian vocalist, has a powerful and cultivated soprano, which she employs in a well-appreciated rendering of "Annie Laurie" and Ascher's "Alice, where art thou?" The orchestra, led by Mr. Angelo Asher, plays some charming excerpts, and acquits itself ably throughout.

THE BEDFORD.

A big line on the current bill at the Bedford is Dr. Karl Hermann, who is termed "the renowned hypnotist, electrician, and scientist." He is backed by a costly electrical apparatus, from which he passes 10,000 volts through his body for two minutes. He has been responsible for some years for electrical cures of paralysis, and on the evening of our visit tried his powers on a boy who had been pronounced incurable by specialists at various hospitals. The lad was brought in on a chair by attendants, and, at the conclusion of the doctor's manipulation of the arm and leg, in practice known as bloodless surgery, the patient walked with but little difficulty towards him across the stage. The conclusion of his performance was distinguished by an exhibition of his expertness as a hypnotist upon a number of cases who came on to the stage, but were not chosen from among the audience. The doctor told us that it was his desire to fill the world with laughture (sic), and there was certainly plenty of merriment among the Bedfordians when the mesmerised ones, in their movements and facial play, became funny.

Miss Marie Santoi and her merry Japanese maidens are responsible for an agreeable song and dance episode, with a pretty setting of a lantern-lit garden in the neighbourhood of Tokio. The source of inspiration has undoubtedly been that most successful production, The Geisha, as may be guessed by the stage-name of the chief lady, who, in her boy's costume, has been very indifferently served by the couturier. She sings with no lack of charm, but some of her notes are marred by a nasal tone, and she might with advantage give greater distinctness to her words. The ladies of the chorus sing uncommonly well, and "The Angel of my Dreams" is a most successful number, as sung by a member of the company, dressed in the uniform of an officer of the Royal Navy. The gentleman playing the Chinee is a capital acrobat. Miss Addie Spencer, "the girl from the hat shop," plays brilliantly, and among her selections submits a pianoforte version of Frank Lawton's famous whistling solo in The Belle of New York. As a final selection, she shortens her skirts, and gives a bright and animated song and dance in the character of an American soubrette. Miss Spencer is certainly versatile. Kisbey, the call-boy, is no stranger to the Bedford, where he is a favourite. He uses gags that have been the property of innumerable comedians, and repeats precisely the same business as he did on his last visit. Grogie is a new impersonator of the yokel, an optimist of the plough, who possesses a smile that never comes off. His song is an amusing exposition of the vacuous rustic, and he shows himself to be a comedian of some resource when he imitates the countryman taking a penn'orth of electricity into his system. In this he creates roars of laughter. The sweet singing of Miss Mary Glenn early in the evening is supplemented by the comic songs of Ted Cowan, another Bedford favourite; by the legmania business of Miss Jenny Gray; and by the songs, and especially the patter, of Foreman and Fannan, the mirthful millionaires. The Three Bostonians, in their singing and dancing act; and Mr. Alf. Levaine, are also announced on the bill, which contains also the attraction of animated pictures. Mr. A. F. Lovesy is the courteous manager for Mr. B. P. Lucas, the managing-director.

THE GRANVILLE.

At the Walham Green theatre of varieties this week Mr. Phil Ray's name appears on the programme; but, unfortunately, he is indisposed, and a substitute has had to be found. The Dandies take his place, and obtain a gratifying success. Every kind of vocal effort, from grave to gay, from serious to facetious, is given, in first-rate style. "Just you and I alone" is admirably sung by a male member of the company; "Les Anglais militaire" is rendered with great vivacity by one of the fair sex; and "Nursery rhymes," in which all the company hold up to ridicule the unfinished stories of the crèche, is greeted with roars of laughter and applause. Altogether, this is a most appreciable engagement, which is likely to be repeated in the near future. Goodfellow and Gregson give a laughable and exhilarating comedy act, and keep the house convulsed while they hold the stage. Dot Hardy, with her song "Ever since we went to Scotland," and again in "Since father joined the football club," is a prime favourite. Cruikshank, the fool of the family, is highly popular, and his songs and comedy patter are much appreciated. Kit Keen, the star coon, scores remarkably well with his songs. His "business" is well thought out and intensely funny, and he is a neat and dexterous dancer. Gwennie Hasto is a fine and fair comedienne, and her songs, "Never let the green grass grow" and "Come in my canoe," as well as her dancing, find great favour with the audience. The Sisters Geretti are truly marvellous trapezists, and cause a sensation with their wonderful acrobatic feats in the air; Phil and Netty Peters, in their American comedy act, provide an original and entertaining musical and speaking turn. Harry M. Vernon's company, in Christmas Eve, an episode in which a bold, bad burglar meets his match in a little girl engaged as a lizard in the Drury Lane pantomime, who melts his heart, and turns his thoughts from filthy lucre to kindly charity, is capitally acted by Mr. Jove Hayman as Jim Tubbs and little Miss Dorothy Montague as the fearless and innocent little kiddie. Another capital sketch in the lighter vein is that of Mark Melford and company, Only a Wedding, in which a man supposed to have died eight years ago in Omdurman returns, like an Arab warrior, to find his old friend has married his supposed widow. Mark Melford's "business" and facial play are irresistibly funny. The Vernon Bioscope is amusing and up to date as ever in the pictures, "Pay Day," "A Modern Diogenes," and "Snapshot Fiends." The Vyponds are very good in their society duologue act as the young bride and bridegroom. The Sisters Warner are daring splits dancers and somersaultists; Fred Keeton, comedian; Ross and Grayson, in comedy and melody combined; Ruth Dorris, comedienne; Mons. Anthy, equilibrist; and Harry Nelson, comedian; together with Mr. W. S. Bassett's admirable orchestra, complete a programme of which Mr. Robert W. Duce may be justly proud.

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE.

Under the benign influence of Mr. Arthur J. Barclay, assisted by the acting-manager, Mr. Geo. F. Slatter, the business at this house is assuming phenomenal proportions. The present week's programme is replete with those good things that make a "dainty dish" fit to "put before a king." The most important place in this liberal programme is undoubtedly claimed by Mr. Alec Hurley and his clever company in The Costers' Beano, a comedy scene which, often as it has been seen, never seems to stale by repetition. Prior to the introduction of the sketch Mr. Hurley delights everyone with one of those coster ditties with which his name is associated and which have made his fame. Of the "Beano" enough has already been written to fill a goodly volume, and this week the lively piece goes with a dash that is irresistible. Where Mr. Alec Hurley has picked up his "crowd" it is not easy to say, but certainly they all look and act "as if to the manner born." Singing, dancing, shouting, and masquerading, every individual enters thoroughly into the spirit of the affair and all help materially towards the making of success. In the scene of the country lane with its stile, the hero sings his plaintive song, "My little love-bird," as sweetly as ever, the pathos of it almost bringing the tears to the eyes of the listeners. The entire production goes with undeniable success. Another coster turn is supplied by Mr. Will Bacchus, who looks to perfection and sings well. The Sisters Wingrove sing very prettily and dance with considerable grace. An extremely popular item of the programme is found in the Jackley Trio, who do wonders as acrobats, the somersaults of one of them from the top of no fewer than five piled-up tables being quite an achievement. The laughter of the audience is, however, chiefly accorded to the member of the Trio who carries on his conversation by means of whistling. This is very amusing. Mr. R. H. Douglass gives an admirable monologue performance, and excites roars of laughter by his quaint sayings and his clever quick-change, making up as a sort of amateur detective. The Lorrisons create much amusement in their singing, dancing, and acting. A great success is made by Miss Daisy Dormer, who looks as charming as ever, dresses divinely, and sings and dances exquisitely. Her rendering of the coon song "Mr. Johnstone don't want me" is nearly perfection, and the audience never seems to tire of the lady's dancing. Belrose and De Velin are immensely applauded for their really artistic singing. Both have cultivated voices, and their singing is a treat of the highest character. Their most popular achievement is their rendering of various airs—English, Scotch, Irish, and Welsh—in which one of the most legitimate successes made here for a long time is scored. Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, as usual, terminates as good an evening's entertainment as the most exigent could desire. Mr. H. Petersen and his orchestra give a fine rendering of the overture, "The Grenadiers" of Emile Waldteufel.

THE EMPRESS.

The capital programme that is this week being presented at this popular hall is being nightly witnessed by houses of most gratifying proportions, who are enjoying the fare provided to the utmost. Victoria Monks is certainly, if it is possible, increasing her hold on the Brixton public, and the loud applause re-echoes through the building when her number is signalled. This artist, who seems to get the maximum of effect with the minimum of effort, gives for her first number the ever-popular "London Town," the chorus of which is heartily taken up by the whole house. For her second she chooses "I'm leaving home," and the ready way in which the refrain of this also is repeated, tends to show that it will soon be a serious menace to the popularity of her first number. Everyone is sorry when Miss Monks has finished, and she has many times to bow her acknowledgments before the curtain. Sam Mayo, another prime favourite here, renders "I'm a Chinaman" and "A scared man" in his customary immobile fashion, and roars of laughter greet the conclusion of each verse. Tom Mellor, of "Wooden hut" fame, is exploiting a new song, entitled "Grow, little mushroom, grow," which obtains considerable applause. The Three Sisters Silcott are heard to advantage in "Good-bye, Susannah," which is followed by "Three British Boys." In the latter, dressed as three midshipmen, they have a song the excellence of which the audience quickly recognise. The clever trio bring their turn to a conclusion with some neat dancing. Sanford and Lyons are, as usual, full of up-to-date patter and cross-talk, and whilst they are on the stage the fun waxes fast and furious. They conclude with a capital song about "What we do." Harry Weldon is a comedian who is nothing if not original. He has a couple of laughable songs, and his patter is of the happiest. His skit on "Turpin's Ride to York" is certainly as funny as could be imagined. If applause counts, then Mignonette Kokin as a Dutch girl must be accorded a great success. As an encore she gives "My Hindoo Man," concluding with some quaint and original dancing, which is much admired. Lieutenant Travis is delighting all with his interesting and clever ventriloquial act, and with the aid of his puppets at times fairly convulses the house. He has recently added to his stock a new figure—that of a coon—which further enables him to show his abilities to advantage. Dan Crawley has a couple of fine songs, entitled "So does father" and "They can't diddle me." The latter especially is very funny, and the droll way in which Mr. Crawley sings it adds to the general merriment. John Lawson, who is giving Sally in Our Alley, is always sure of a hearty welcome here, and judging by the hearty reception of this piece, its popularity is as great as ever. Mr. Lawson's powerful acting gains for him the sympathies of the house, and deafening applause awaits him on concluding. The sketch is splendidly mounted, and the principal actor gets hearty assistance from his company. Miss Jessie Preston is making one of her periodical visits to this hall, and the two numbers which she is singing are evidently to the taste of the house. An interesting turn is provided by Sterling and Love, the male member of whom proves himself to be a cornet player of no mean ability. The lady possesses a tuneful voice, and the applause bestowed is certainly well earned. Bob and Jenny Leonard are the recipients of much applause, the former's policeman song being very amusing and furnished with a catchy tune. A most enjoyable evening is brought to a conclusion with some interesting and laughable pictures on the Bioscope. The efficient orchestra, led by Mr. Guillaume Leone, is heard to advantage in the overture "Primrose." Mr. Francis Winchcombe, who is Mr. Nelson Francis's trusty assistant, is au fait with his duties in the front of the house.

THE ELLIOTTS AND SAVONAS IN BRADFORD.

ARTISTS OF EXTRAORDINARY VERSATILITY.

PALACE THEATRE.

Having achieved such a striking success in their first week's engagement at the Palace Theatre, the Seven Savonas have been engaged for another term, and it was quite in accordance with expectations that there should be large "houses" at both performances last night. The Savonas are artists of quite extraordinary versatility, and their unique musical entertainment is alternated with an almost equally clever performance of trick cycling. Owing to the impossibility of fixing up the costly apparatus which is employed in giving the electrical effects more than once a day, the musical act only was given last night, and was in many respects quite different from the previous performances. The "William Tell" overture has also given way to that wonderful composition, Wagner's overture to Tannhäuser, which was rendered with a completeness which left nothing to be desired. One rather suspects that the Savonas overstep their audience in giving attention to such classics; at any rate, quite as much, if not more, applause was forthcoming for the rendering of some simple plantation melodies. A very decided novelty was introduced in the shape of some musical lanterns, and, indeed, the whole performance shows that the Savonas possess not only musical ability of a high character, but enterprise and brains.—Yorkshire Daily Observer, Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1906.

WATER RATS' MATINEE.

There were the usual hilarious proceedings at the sixth annual matinée of the Water Rats, given at the Pavilion on Monday. The present King Rat is Mr. Harry Tich, and a packed house testified to his popularity, many of whom were well known in variety circles. Little Tich, too, caused uproarious merriment with his absurd characterisation of Robin Hood in the afternoon's principal item, which, to quote the programme, was as follows:—

THE WATER RATS' BAND OF PLAYERS will celebrate the passing of another milestone on the Hanwell Road by uncorking a sleeping draught, entitled
"(COCK) ROBIN HOOD."
The draught prescribed by Wal Pink.
Musically bottled by J. S. Baker.
Dispensed by the following, who ought to know better.
Produced by Wm. Lee.
Wigs and Costumes by Clarkson.

Robin Hood ..... Little Tich
Maid Merry-un ..... Deane Tribune
Prince John ..... Tom McNaughton
Little John ..... Fred McNaughton
Friar Tuck ..... Jeff Vendome
Hugo de Longespee ..... Wm. Lee
King Richard ..... J. Cheevers
Haco ..... J. Thornbury
Adela ..... J. Gilmore
Motor 'Bus Driver ..... F. Collins
The Army ..... Will Oliver

Louisa was a naughty child, who swallowed pins and things;
She swallowed toys, her papa's paints, and mama's cherished rings.
Her "tummy" was a treasure-house, to her naught came amiss;
But Louie will indeed be brave, if Lewis Waller's this.

This classic, and the manner in which it was acted, can be better imagined than described. It was as farcical as it well could be.

Then we had some comical dances from the Spaghetti Troupe, including the Kalleheno Family, Signor Frazerino, Signor Thornberino, Signor Frederino Genettio, Signor Vendominski, and Signoria Davini O'Tooli. Mr. Dave O'Toole as a prima ballerina assoluta cut a comical figure.

As to the rest, Miss Marie Dainton gave capital imitations of Connie Ediss, Marie Lloyd, Edna May, Camille Clifford, and Mrs. Patrick Campbell; Miss Alice Lloyd delighted her hearers with her rendering of "He was a tourist, she was a maid"; and Mr. Hal Forde sang in his agreeable style, "She's my Japanese girl." Mr. Joe O'Gorman indulged in his amusing Irishisms to everybody's enjoyment; Mr. Wilkie Bard begged to be allowed to sing, and did so in his most entertaining way; Mr. Tom Costello won the sympathy and admiration of the audience for his admirable character-study of a broken-down clown; and Mr. George Mozart and Mr. Harry Fragson also assisted in their own particular way in the fun-making of the afternoon. Other names that appeared on the bill were those of Mr. Tom Woottwell, Mr. Tom Leamore, Mr. Arthur Aldridge, Mr. Michael Nolan, Mr. Albert Le Fre, Mr. Marriott Edgar, Mr. Johnny Gilmore, Mr. Bert Shepard, Mr. Arthur Reece, Mr. Malcolm Scott, Mr. Neil Kenyon, Mr. J. Thornbury, Mr. Fred Ginnett, Mr. Phil Ray, Mr. Arthur Slater, Mr. Joe Cheevers, Mr. Deane Tribune, Dome, Mr. Wilson Hallett, Miss Victoria Monks, Miss Kittee Rayburn, Miss Florrie Forde, Miss Simeta Marsden, Miss Vesta Victoria, Miss Annie Purcell, Miss Jessie Preston, Miss Bertha Pertina, Miss Nellie Coleman, Miss Alma Gray, Miss Alexandra Dagmar, Miss Ray Wallace, Miss Hetty King, Miss José Collins, the McNaughtons, Hill and Whitaker, the Leonards, Three Laurels, the Haytors, Foreman and Fannan, Collins and Rice, the Fitzroys, Stelling and Revell, Sisters Pine, Poluski Brothers, Verno and Voyce, Brown and Kelly Co., Jee's Musical Smithy, Brilliant and Brilliant, the Kellinos, Booker and Narbis, the O'Gorman Brothers, Eadie and Ramsden, and Halter and Ray.

Ascherberg, Hopwood, and Crew and Co. have arranged with Witmark and Sons for the sole publishing rights for Great Britain and the Colonies of the score and all music of Luscombe Searelle's "Mizpah," Witmark and Sons retaining the American rights only. One song from the work, "Where thou canst rest," the copyright of which is vested in Francis, Day, and Hunter, will be published jointly by both London firms. Mr. E. Ascherberg is pecuniarily interested in the production of the drama in London.

In addition to Mr. George Chirgwin, who was similarly honoured, as previously reported in these columns, a well-known song-writer received last week the following from Buckingham Palace:—"The Private Secretary is commanded to thank Mr. Harry Wincott for his kind message of congratulation upon the occasion of His Majesty's birthday."

Mr. Charles Osborne on Monday perpetrated his five thousandth "atrocity." His list includes songs of every conceivable kind, ventriloquial and double acts, gags, parodies, sketches for Joe Elvin, &c., operatic sketches, and other "afflictions," and still he is unrepentant. Amongst his latest are a sketch for Harry Tate, an operetta for the Tally-Ho Trio, a piano act, songs for Chirgwin, Ben Albert, and Bert Dansie, &c., in addition to a special novelty for Charles Minor, the living midget marvel, who will produce it at his forthcoming engagement at the Dome, Brighton. So that, what with managing the Southend Happy Valley for the "genial George" all the summer, and nib-scratching all the winter, C. O. can fairly claim to be "in it."

Among the songs which the Shapiro, Von Tilzer Music Co., Ltd., accepted this week for early publication are the following:—"Nana," a pretty ballad, featured successfully by Miss Ethel Ra Leslie; "Just those three words" and "Waiting for me," sung by Miss Gladys Mavius; Miss Winifred Hare's new song, "When fortune frowns"; "Fishing," by Hubert Delmar, sung nightly by Miss Gracie Grahame; Mr. Alec Hurley's great success, "It's a gift," by George Arthurs and Orlando Powell; "How to get on in the world," by the same authors, sung by Miss Lily Lena; and "Share my little nest with me," by George Arthurs and Orlando Powell, to be specially featured by Miss Alice Lloyd in pantomime at Peckham.

Miss Sylvia Du Barri, who has recently been seen and heard at the Camberwell Palace and the New Cross Empire was born under sunny skies at Lima when revolution was raging and bullets were flattening against the walls of her father's house. That was twenty-five years ago. The fortune of war not being favourable to the cause her father had espoused, Du Barri père took his wife and baby daughter to more peaceful Lisbon. Little girls grow big very quickly, and so it came about that Miss Sylvia was placed to school at Paris, where she learnt the rudiments of five languages. She also studied music there and in New York and London, winning a scholarship at the Royal College of Music, being one of the very few ladies of foreign nationality who have obtained such an award. Last year a reverse of fortune overtook the Du Barris, and their entire means were lost in a Spanish bank crash. Miss Du Barri's voice attracted the attention of the management of the Opéra Comique, Paris, where she fulfilled an engagement. This led to her appearance at the Moss-Stoll halls. Her rendering of "Sing me to sleep," "Il Bacio," and other songs at once made her a popular favourite.

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER

THE WORLD'S SONG PROVIDERS.

A few of our great Pantomime Songs:

"HELLO! HELLO! HELLO!"
("IT'S A DIFFERENT GIRL AGAIN.")
"SNOWFLAKES."
"THERE'S A MAN IN MANITOBA."
"I CAN SEE RED ROSES BLOOMING."

"ARRAH WANNA,"
Our 11th Hour Sensation.

"GOOD-NIGHT, MR. BROWN, I'M OUT."
"CHEYENNE."
"FIGHTING FOR THEIR KING & SIRELAND."
"ROSY'S COSY BUNGALOW."

(FOR FULL LIST SEE PANTOMIME BOOKS.)

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER

The Absolute Headquarters for Pantomime "HITS."

"THE GOOD OLD UNION JACK."
"COME BACK TO BORNEO."
"BOY BLUE."
"I WONDER WHAT WE'D DO WITHOUT OUR GIRLS."

"ARRAH WANNA,"
Our 11th Hour Sensation.

"WHY DO THE GIRLS LOVE CHARLIE."
"IN MY PAGODA."
"WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO LEARN TO LOVE ME."

(FOR FULL LIST SEE PANTOMIME BOOKS.)

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER

The Music Market of the World: 142 CHARING CROSS ROAD LONDON W.C.

"THE YELLOW FANG."

A Dramatic Episode, in One Scene, by John G. Brandon, with music by Harold Austin, produced for the first time in England, at the Empire, Camberwell, on Monday, Nov. 19.

Hung Kow ..... Mr. J. G. Grahame
Jun Kee ..... Mr. Cyril Rawdon
Jim Nares ..... Mr. C. Seguin
A Drunken Sport ..... Mr. E. Beresford
Policeman ..... Mr. T. Browning
Judith Beck ..... Miss Mary Mayfren

A surfeit of sensation has been enjoyed this week by visitors to the Camberwell Empire, where the American sketch above-named has formed an important item of Messrs. Jesse Sparrow and Harry Bawn's liberally arranged programme. All who witnessed it must have registered a vow to keep away from the opium dens of Chinatown in San Francisco, where crime flourishes and murder is apparently a matter of everyday occurrence. The sketch proved very engrossing, and though a happy ending is not secured the finish is sufficiently reassuring to come as a relief to the horrors which have accumulated. Realism in every particular is aimed at, and, by the expressions which came at intervals from the audience, is evidently thoroughly secured. The scene is an opium den in San Francisco, and the hour two in the morning. Among the inmates of the building is a young girl named Judith Beck, who has fallen into the clutches of Hung Kow, the keeper of the establishment, and has become a victim to the drug, which she takes to drown her feelings of degradation. The interior presents the appearance of a furniture dealer's, but is devoted to other and much more sinister purposes. Judith is quite aware of the ghastly deeds which are perpetrated in the den, and, being utterly careless as to her future, gives vent to her abhorrence to Jim Nares, the Chinaman's decoy. Jim warns his accomplice that the girl is dangerous, but Hung Kow is apparently well disposed towards Judith, for he gives her opium cigarettes and bids her "go and play." Presently Jim leads in a young man in an advanced stage of intoxication, who says he has won extensively at the races, and hopes there is plenty of whisky. Hung Kow assures him that there is, and hands him a glass. The "sport" is too far gone to heed the whispered warning of Judith, but he has scarcely tasted the liquor when the glass falls from his hand. Partially sobered, he realises that he has been drugged, and shows fight, but is quickly silenced, and deprived of his revolver. The girl is then secured and thrown, gagged and bound, into a corner, and Hung Kow proceeds deliberately to strangle the young man, who has shown signs of recovery. A knocking is heard at the door, and there is barely time for the dead body to be placed in a large chest when a police officer enters. His various enquiries elicit nothing unusual, but though he accepts a drink he does not depart without a certain suspicion. Meanwhile, Judith has managed to disengage herself from her bonds, and, crawling to the table, possesses herself of the murdered man's revolver, with which she holds Hung Kow in check. Snatching off the gag, she rushes to the door, where her screams bring back the policeman, in whose company the Chinaman and his accomplice make their final exit.

Admirable studies of character are furnished by the various members of the cast, which is headed by Mr. J. G. Grahame, the latest recruit from the legitimate stage. His make-up is an artistic study, and he makes of Hung Kow a sly, oily Chinaman with a smile that is appropriately childlike and bland. The relentlessness of the wily Celestial is nevertheless cleverly displayed, and furnishes an admirable example of subdued intensity. Miss Mary Mayfren, who plays the unfortunate Judith Beck, has a voice of sympathetic quality, and might easily be taken for a native American, so well is the Yankee twang preserved; while in appearance she cleverly secures the effect of constant indulgence in the narcotic. Few more difficult rôles are presented in an ordinary melodramatic sketch, but Miss Mayfren accomplishes by natural talent and thorough hard work what may well be described as a decided success. A vivid exposition of an unscrupulous rogue was given by Mr. C. Seguin, whose brutality was admirably suggested; and a picturesque representation of a Chinese assistant came from Mr. Cyril Rawdon. A gleam of humour was let in by the clever acting of Mr. T. Browning of a complacent member of the police force; and Mr. E. Beresford's simulation of the cries of a man undergoing the process of strangulation was startlingly realistic. The sketch was followed by appreciative silence, broken by occasional cheers, which were renewed at the end.

Little Zola made such a success at Kidderminster that his services have been retained for a second week. He has been secured by Mr. Walter George, of Smart Set fame, for nineteen weeks next summer. Who will engage him for pantomime?

Miss Gwennie Hasto commences pantomime rehearsals at New King's Theatre, Edinburgh, on Monday, and wishes to thank managers for kindly cancelling dates to enable her to do so.

Mr. Billie Bint, who told Londoners some years ago "that his father was a marquis," has been doing well this week at the Hippodrome, Paisley, in which town he has not appeared for twenty years. One evening during the week a workingman came in, and, finding that Billie, whom he had not heard for twenty years, had been on, wanted his money back.

Walter Graham, of Chaucer-road, Herne Hill, whose unique performance as "the living marionette" is so deservedly popular, answered, on Friday, the 16th inst., an adjourned summons at Marlborough-street, accusing him of driving a motor-car in a manner dangerous to the public at Wellington-place, Hyde Park-corner, on Oct. 22. Constable Cooper had sworn that the defendant drove at about twelve miles an hour across the front of Lady Penryn's carriage, causing a collision with the pole of the carriage, but the defendant and a witness on oath said that it was the carriage that went fast, and the car, proceeding slowly, was bound to take the place it did in order to avoid it, but the pole of the carriage struck a panel of the car. Mr. Kennedy came to the conclusion that no reliance could be placed on the constable's testimony, and dismissed the summons.

The company at the New Empire, Shildon, Durham, includes Dan Ashton, in an original and up-to-date collier's song-scena; the Camerons, in a comedy sketch; Alex Fox, ventriloquist; J. Taylor, clog-dancer; Lukos, man monkey; Flo Beck, comedienne; Marie De Voy, character vocalist; Leo Fallowfield, comedian; and the Lomascope Pictures.

Professor Attwood, hypnotist and magnetic healer, has started a school for instruction in the science so deeply studied by the eminent Dr. Charcot, and takes pupils at 247, Tettenhall-road, Wolverhampton.

Everyone knows, or should know, that Chirgwin's cognomen is "The White-Eyed Kaffir," and that he plays upon the "one-stringed Japanese fiddle." He was spoken of in the Press the other day as "The One-Eyed Kaffir," and also that he played the "one-stringed banjo." A distinction with a difference.

Messrs. Astley Bros., comedians, will in future be known as Cliff and Astley. The change has been made in order to avoid confusion with turns of a similar name.

THE SHOWMAN WORLD.

FAIRS, FEASTS, AND WAKES IN ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, AND WALES FOR DECEMBER:—

ENGLAND.

Dec. 1. St. Ives (Cornwall) (6,094)	Dec. 22. Northwich (17,600)
Dec. 6. Northwich (17,600)	Dec. 22. Portsmouth (189,000)
Dec. 11. Boston (15,700)	Dec. 22. Preston (113,000)
Dec. 11. Cobham (2,300)	Dec. 22. Rushden (12,500)
Dec. 11. Leighton Buzzard (6,400)	Dec. 22. Ryde (I. of W.) (11,000)
Dec. 11. Ringwood (4,400)	Dec. 22. Southampton (104,911)
Dec. 14. Millom (10,400)	Dec. 22. Southport (48,400)
Dec. 22. Bilston (24,000)	Dec. 22. South Shields (97,300)
Dec. 22. Birkenhead (111,000)	Dec. 22. Tunbridge Wells (33,400)
Dec. 22. Bristol (392,840)	Dec. 22. Wellington (7,300)
Dec. 22. Cheltenham (49,600)	Dec. 24. Rowthorne (67)
Dec. 22. Deptford (110,000)	Dec. 24. Salford (Trinity Market) (221,000)
Dec. 22. Islington (World's Fair)	Dec. 27. Rugeley (7,181)
Dec. 22. Jarrow-on-Tyne (31,300)	Dec. 27. Uttoxeter (5,200)
Dec. 22. Kirkby Lonsdale (1,600)	Dec. 28. Nantwich (7,700)
Dec. 22. Newcastle-on-Tyne (214,803)	Dec. 28. Sandbach (5,500)
Dec. 22. Northampton (87,000)	Dec. 29. Newport (Salop) (3,200)
Dec. 22. North Shields (50,000)	Dec. 22. Newport (Mon.) (67,000)

SCOTLAND.

Dec. 19. Govan (164,000)	Dec. 22. Motherwell (54,274)

WALES.

Dec. 22. Cardiff (164,000)	Dec. 22. Pontypridd (23,000)
Dec. 22. Merthyr Tydfil (26,500)	Dec. 22. Swansea (90,423)
Dec. 22. Mold (4,000)	Dec. 24. Flint (5,125)
Dec. 22. Morriston (15,055)

THE following is a list of the Christmas and New Year carnivals and world's fairs:—London—at the Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, Olympia, Deptford, Stratford, Mile End-road, Lillie-road (Fulham), and West Ealing; Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Cardiff, Merthyr, Swansea, Pontypridd, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Greenock, Dumfries, and Govan; Newcastle-on-Tyne, Gateshead, Jarrow, Sunderland, South and North Shields, Middlesbrough, Darlington, Leeds, Bradford, and Huddersfield; Southampton, Bristol, Plymouth, and Portsmouth; Oldham, Rochdale, Wigan, Salford (Trinity Market and Trafford-road), Hartlepool, and Bolton.

THE November fair at Leek had for its principal amusement-caterers A. Bates, with steam horses, swings, bottle batteries, emma sheets, and cokers; Mr. A. Beech provided similar novelties; and the other caterers were Messrs. Rowley and Connor.

MR. ALFRED BALL, with the Royal Bioscope, has opened for the winter season at West Ealing.

STOURBRIDGE WAKES was maintained by P. Collins's racing cockerels and No. 2 cinématograph show, H. Cullis's boxing pavilion, Harris's reptile exhibition, Whiteley and Craddock's set of swings, Hayes' big boat and set of overboats, G. Ford's juvenile midget horses and shooting saloon, Wright's shooting saloons, and cokernut sheets by Whiting, Humphreys, Wright, and Dobson, stalls, aunt sallies, and minor novelties by Birch, Winsper, Joice, and others.

A REGRETTABLE feature of the fight for Burslem Wakes has been the line taken by The Staffordshire Sentenel, the principal daily and weekly paper circulating in the Potteries.

IN a leader of the issue of Oct. 9, the editor said:—"The Council is to be congratulated upon its wise and courageous action, which we have no doubt at all will be heartily approved of by the best public opinion in the borough. The obstruction, the noise, and the insanitary conditions abundantly warrant the course that has now been taken." Another writer, under the cognomen of "Crocks and Crazes," said:—"As for the abolition of the Wakes Fair, the Council acted wisely and courageously. The obstruction of the centre of the town by shows, and the noise and dirt, could not but be regarded with disfavour by those who had the best interests of the town at heart. No doubt the showpeople could find a piece of land on the outskirts of the town if they cared to look for it, but it was time that such a display in the middle of the borough came to an end. Should any attempt be made to upset the Council's decision, there should be sufficient public spirit in Burslem to see that the resolution is adhered to. The statement that was printed in Tuesday's Sentenel showed that there are no prescriptive rights in the Wakes Fair, which was long ago abolished by the Home Secretary. The Fair that has been held of late years was held by the pleasure of the Council under its special powers, and this pleasure has now been withdrawn, and the matter is at an end. Burslem and Tunstall having excluded the Wakes Fair from their midst, when is Hanley going to act in a similar spirit of enlightenment?"

Now, after the public manifestation of disapproval of the Town Council's action, "Crocks and Crazes" again takes up the cudgels for the defeated anti-Wakes party in the following words: "What will the Burslem Council do? Two public meetings have protested against the abolition of the Wakes, and it remains to be seen what the consequential action of the Council may be. Two points may be mentioned here. Years ago a town's meeting at Tunstall protested against the abolition of the Wakes in that town, but no notice was taken of it, thanks to Mr. John Nash Peake, and there is no member of the Council to-day, probably, who would support their restoration. Is the Burslem Council going to give way to clamour—a great deal of it vulgar clamour? All that the Burslem Council has to do is, like Brer Rabbit, to sit still and say nuffin, and there will be no more Wakes. Another point is that a great deal has been said about the supposed legal inability of the Town Council to abolish a 'statutory fair.' But there is no such fair at Burslem. It was abolished many years ago by the Home Secretary. All that has happened since then is that the Town Council has from year to year permitted the shows to stand in the Market-place by a resolution, which it has now been resolved not to act upon again. If the Burslem Council stands firm, the Hanley Council cannot avoid following suit at no distant date. Should the Burslem Council give way, then Hanley will also suffer."

To this attack the hon. chaplain to the Guild has sent the following reply:—

"CROCKS AND CRAZES"
On Burslem Wakes.
An Answer.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STAFFORDSHIRE SENTINEL.

SIR,—Your able and humorous contributor, "Crocks and Crazes," has again made ex parte statements with regard to Burslem Wakes. Trusting entirely to your well-known impartiality and desire to afford to all parties full liberty of the Press, I venture to deal with the points raised by "Crocks and Crazes" in his column of Saturday last. First of all, your contributor suggests a policy of action to the Burslem County Council. He asks, "Is the Burslem Council going to give way to clamour—a great deal of vulgar clamour?" and then he suggests, "All that the Burslem Council has to do is like Brer Rabbit—to sit still and say nuffin, and there will be no more wakes."

Now, Sir, whether in jest or earnest, Mr. "Crocks and Crazes" has here raised a much more serious, and a vastly more important, question than the continuance of Burslem Wakes—nothing less than the constitutional question, is this a democratically governed country, or are we living both in imperial local concerns at the will and mercy (for the time being) of an oligarchy of elected persons? With any one or all of the other issues raised by the wakes controversy, I am ready to deal at another time; it will be quite sufficient to emphasise the serious and mischievous character of the policy outlined by "Crocks and Crazes."

What are the actual facts of the position? There is, at the present moment, hardly a member of the Burslem Corporation who has not willingly, or, with conscientious reluctance, agreed to allow the question of the wakes to be settled by the ascertained wish of the people. All parties concerned agreed to abide by the popular verdict, constitutionally expressed. The policy illustrated by Brer Rabbit, and expressed in the words, "Sit still and say nuffin, and there will be no more wakes," is the invitation to the Borough Council to ignore the properly-expressed opinion of the people. It is, Sir, more than that—it is the policy of the tyrant, the autocrat—it is Kaiserism in English political life.

I venture to assert that such a policy would condemn all those who adopted it to public obloquy.

I do not for one moment imagine that Mr. Councillor Brodie and the anti-wakes party on the Burslem Town Council will adopt such an un-English, such an unfair and unconstitutional course as that outlined by your regular contributor. In Imperial matters such a demonstration of disapproval of policy as that evidenced by the overwhelming vote of the town's meeting would have led inevitably to the resignation of the Ministry, and an immediate appeal to the country.

However, this one thing is perfectly certain, that the anti-wakes party made a serious error in judgment. For that mistake they had "to face the music" (not at all agreeable music), and it is to be hoped, in all seriousness, that men of public character, acknowledged probity, and undoubted zeal for the good of Burslem, will recognise the compelling significance of the popular vote, and, in a manly, straightforward, and constitutional manner, set right the wrong they have already committed.

"Crocks and Crazes'" second point is but begging the whole question, and is worthy of a "mining camp lawyer." In effect, it is that there is no legal wakes. This argument is merely a line of possible retreat for the discomfited and routed anti-wakes party. The legality or illegality of the wakes might indeed be a fruitful and profitable point for learned counsel before a judge in chambers; but it has nothing whatever to do with the unmistakable pronouncement of the people's will. The people of Burslem (this is the essential and dominant fact) desire that their old-time wakes shall be continued to them, and that expression of opinion loyally obeyed puts out of court all niceties of law as to the legality or illegality of the existing fair known as Burslem Wakes.

The executive council of the Showmen's Guild will take good care (having already committed themselves to the enterprise) that any attempt to play "Brer Rabbit" with them and their interests will be met by all proper and constitutional means of keeping this matter well before their patrons—the show-loving public of Burslem.

Let us clear the ground of all collateral questions and side issues. The question of all questions is, Shall the will of the people prevail, or shall the elected representatives of the people ignore the mandate of their constituents, and use their high position of administrative power in direct opposition to the constitutionally expressed opinion of the people of Burslem?—I am, Sir, faithfully yours,

T. HORNE,
Hon. Chaplain to the Showmen's Guild.
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.,
Nov. 21, 1906.

The Cheshire round has hitherto been free from vexatious restrictions on the show business, Cheshire being without bye-laws touching the fair-ground industry. That immunity is now threatened, and if Cheshire and Lancashire showpeople do not speedily set to work, the following bye-laws proposed by the County Council will receive official sanction, and serious injury inflicted upon the showmen and traders using the Cheshire circuit.

COUNTY PALATINE OF CHESTER BYE-LAWS.

For the good rule and government of the administrative County of Chester, excepting the Municipal Boroughs situate therein.

Notice is hereby given that the Cheshire County Council, at a meeting held at Chester Castle on Thursday, the 8th day of November, 1906, made the following bye-laws, viz.:—

ORGANS.

No person shall in any street or public place, or on any land adjoining or near to any street or public place, use or play, or cause to be used or played, any steam organ or other musical instrument worked by mechanical means, to the annoyance or disturbance of residents or passengers.

MUSIC NEAR HOUSES.

No person shall sound or play upon any musical or noisy instrument, or sing in any street or public place, within one hundred yards of any dwelling-house or office, to the annoyance of any inmate thereof, after being requested to desist by such inmate, either personally or through his servant, or through a constable: Provided that this bye-law shall not apply to properly-conducted religious services, except where the request to desist is made on the ground of the serious illness of any inmate of the house.

MUSIC NEAR CHURCHES.

No person shall sound or play upon any musical or noisy instrument, or sing in any street or public place, within one hundred yards of any place of public worship, or public entertainment, or other place of public assembly, in which persons are for the time being assembled, to the annoyance or disturbance of any person or persons so assembled, after being requested to desist by any constable, or by any person so annoyed or disturbed, or by any person acting on his behalf.

MUSIC NEAR HOSPITALS.

No person shall sound or play upon any musical or noisy instrument, or sing in any street or public place, within one hundred yards of any hospital, infirmary, convalescent home, or other place used for the reception of treatment of the sick after being requested to desist by any constable, or by any inmate or officer of such hospital or other place, or by any person acting on his behalf.

PENALTIES.

Any person who shall offend against any of the foregoing bye-laws shall be liable on summary conviction for each offence to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN that a sealed copy of such bye-laws has been forwarded to the Secretary of State.

REGINALD POTTS,
Clerk to the Cheshire County Council.
Chester, Nov. 12, 1906.

COUNTY PALATINE OF CHESTER.
LOCOMOTIVES ACT, 1898.

Notice is hereby given that the Cheshire County Council intend, at the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the first publication of this notice, to apply to the Local Government Board for the confirmation of the following bye-law made by them (pursuant to Section 6 of the Locomotives Act, 1898) at a meeting of the Council, held at Chester Castle on Thursday, the 8th day of November, 1906, viz.:—

For prohibiting or restricting the use of locomotives on specified highways in the county on account of the inconvenience caused to the inhabitants of dwelling-houses abutting upon or contiguous to such highways.

"A person in charge of a locomotive shall not use the locomotive between the hours of 10 o'clock p.m. and 6 o'clock a.m. on the highways or main roads, called or known as the Hyde and Mottram (New) Main Road, Mottram and Hollingworth Main Road, and Hollingworth and Glossop Main Road, so far as the same are situate in the urban districts of Mottram-in-Longdendale and Hollingworth, and the rural parishes of Matley and Hattersley, and lie between the boundary of the municipal borough of Hyde and the boundary of the county of Derby and Woolley Bridge, the Stalybridge Main Road from its junction with the Hyde and Mottram (New) Main Road to its junction with the Back Moor Main Road and the Back Moor Main Road from its junction with the Staly bridge Main Road to its junction with the Mottram and Hollingworth Main Road, the use of locomotives being hereby restricted on such highways or main roads on account of the inconvenience caused to the inhabitants of the dwelling houses abutting upon or contiguous to such highways or main roads."

And notice is hereby further given that a copy of such bye-law will be kept at the office at Chester of the undersigned, the Clerk to such Council, and the same can be inspected by any of the ratepayers of the county, without fee or reward, any day during office hours for one calendar month from the date of the first publication of this notice.

And notice is hereby also further given that copies of the said bye-law may be obtained at the aforesaid office, by any ratepayer of the county, on payment of sixpence for every such copy.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1906.

REGINALD POTTS,
Clerk to the Cheshire County Council.
Council Offices, Northgate-street, Chester.

With regard to the traction engine bye-laws set out above, we do not doubt but they have already been considered by the executive committee of the Roundabout Proprietors and Showmen's Union.

The rapid development of electric lighting and motor power by shows and roundabouts has revolutionised the whole aspect of fair-ground business. Large traction engines for electric lighting and motive force on the shows and machines at our fairs make the question of the free use of our roads a vital one, and county authorities must be brought to recognise that restriction on the use of steam traction engines is an unjust interference with, and a restriction in restraint of, trade.

Communications on both these matters will be at once opened up with the County Council of Cheshire. Our readers will notice, however, that the proposed bye-laws do not apply to cities and boroughs within the county, but only to the county areas proper.

BOSTOCK AND WOMBWELL'S MENAGERIE is located at Bradford for a short season, and is meeting with liberal patronage.

"MY SUGAR-PLUM."

A VOCAL SWEETMEAT THAT POSITIVELY MELTS IN THE MOUTH, ITS DELICIOUS FLAVOUR CLINGING TO THE MOST EPICUREAN PALATE.

Sing this Chorus over three times, and forget it IF YOU CAN!

Suitable for "Boy."

HARRY DACRE'S CHRISTMAS SUGAR-PLUM

(Dragée bien sucrée).

Suitable for "Girl."

CHORUS.

Suitable for "Girl."

HARRY DACRE'S CHRISTMAS BON-BON

(Très bon).

Suitable for "Boy."

The music of the Verse is à la Schottische, and is quite as alluring as that of the Chorus.

THIS ADVERTISEMENT APPEARED FOR THE FIRST TIME TWO WEEKS AGO.

No less than 147 applications have been received already.

WHICH PROVES THE ABOVE CHORUS TO BE A MAGNET.

IT IS FREE FOR PANTOMIME.

A few FREE Music Hall rights will be issued. Apply at once.

THE SUCCESSFUL SONG SYNDICATE, 20, Nassau Street, Mortimer Street, London, W.

At Hengler's Circus, Plymouth, the week's attractions include Hardy, the Handcuff King; Florence, Queen of the Arena; Tom Watson and his performing horse; Ray and Rushford, comedy duettists; Sam Anderson, jockey; and J. Clark's grand juvenile military spectacle of Russia and Japan.

Baker's American Circus was at Kidwell at the beginning of the week, and, despite the bad weather did well. The clever Baker family include Mr. Tom Baker—a fine jockey act. Miss Prissie is also a charming and clever jockey-act rider, and is, it seems, the youngest doing this act in the profession. Miss Eveline is a handsome and clever acrobat and contortionist. Mr. Paul Baker is exceptionally good on the trapeze as a teeth artist, and on the ground; and young Dick, on the flying rings, is wonderfully smart. The clowns are droll. In the circus is also what is probably the oldest performing pony travelling. It originally belonged to, and was trained by, the late Joe Baker. It is now thirty-four years of age and still very brisk.

Mr. Fred Ebley has been granted a theatrical licence by the local Bench, and opens his portable theatre at Blaina on Saturday.

Although it is impossible to plant Coliseums and Hippodrome in every little community, yet even the villages in the remote West of Wales are not without their joys. A newspaper correspondent at little Aberayron, for instance, writes with a glow to his journal:—"The merry-go-round of Danter was a brilliant affair, with its dazzling light, motor-'buses, galloping horses, and its wide variety of music, all worked by electricity. This theatre of brilliancy drew the crowds as a lamp doth the moth."

After failing to obtain a renewal of his licence for the portable theatre, Mr. Whitmee asked the Hemel Hempstead magistrates to license a more permanent building. To this request the Bench deferred their answer for a fortnight, in order that the Town Council might express their views on the matter. We wish Mr. Whitmee the success his enterprise and perseverance undoubtedly deserves.

Guild Subscriptions, 1906:—Per Mr. Hurst, Alfred Gibson, Esq. (Wigan), £1; Mr. David Johnson, 5s.

We are glad to note that the annual showmen's ball at the Empress Ballroom, Bolton, is already fixed, and the date is Jan. 8, 1907. Those energetic workers, Messrs. Pike and T. Hurst, have the matter in hand, and success (as in previous years) is practically assured.

A new departure this year is to mark the showmen's festival at Bolton—a grand football match, Yorkshire Showmen v. Lancashire Showmen. This match, like the ball, is for the benefit of the Guild funds, and will take place the day of the ball.

Owing to extreme pressure on our available space for showman world news, we are obliged to hold over interesting news on the fight for Burslem Wakes. A full report will be given next week of the showmen's triumph.

The marriage is announced to take place at St. Mary's Church, Southampton, on Wednesday, Dec. 5, of Jacob Studt, jun., eldest son of Jacob Studts, amusement caterer, of the Victoria Hall, Southampton, to Mary Ann Dooner, eldest daughter of Richard Dooner (of R. Dooner and Son, Bioscope exhibition proprietors), of Bristol.

"We put the world before you" is the well-known phrase of the "Charles Urban Trading Company," and looking over the magnificent catalogue just issued by the firm their claim is perfectly justified. It will well repay all those interested in the film market to get the Charles Urban catalogue; there's money in it.

ANSWERS TO SHOWMEN.

M. E. (Sunderland).—We cannot advise on so risky an enterprise as taking a show to Canada. Your best plan would be to write to some well-known American showman for information.

J. B. A. (Crediton).—We did write as we promised you, but have as yet no answer.

T. R. O. (Swinton).—You may join the Showmen's Guild if you are a showman or a fairground trader by paying a minimum subscription of 5s. per annum. You may join any day. Membership is valid for twelve months, following date of enrolment. Hon. members (not in the business) pay at least 10s. a year, without either benefits or vote.

Mme. Alice Esty has at last listened to the blandishments of the variety theatre managers, and will appear at the Leeds Empire on Monday, Dec. 17, in a new grand operatic scena, written and composed especially for her, entitled Betta, the Gipsy, in which she will be supported by a full chorus and grand orchestra. The libretto is by Edward Waltyere, and the music by Signor Emilio Pizzi.

Born at Lowell, Massachusetts, thirty miles from Boston, Mme. Esty made her first public appearance at a concert in connection with our Church, but appeared as a reciter. She arrived in England in 1891, and received encouragement from Mr. Henry J. Wood, then a student, and the late Mr. N. Vert, the latter offering her an engagement at a Patti concert at the Albert Hall, which she was delighted to accept. After successes at the Crystal Palace and St. James's Hall, she spent six years with the Carl Rosa Company, her work with that famous operatic combination eventually totalling fifty rôles. She has played Santuzza in Cavalleria Rusticana some five hundred times. She was the first to play Mimi in Puccini's La Bohème. Like most great artists, Mme. Esty has her superstitions, and values very highly an antique topaz brooch, fashioned from a stone once possessed by an Indian necromancer. This has always proved a mascot to her.

Miss Laura Dyson, who is to play the heroine in Crystal Gazing, was trained at the Guildhall School of Music, and learnt how to act at the Surrey, where she vastly benefited by playing as a member of the late George Conquest's stock company, both in drama and pantomime.

Miss Dyson tells many good stories. One of them may be recalled. On the occasion of the late Queen Victoria's Jubilee, the entire company engaged at the house across the bridge assembled on the huge stone verandah to see the procession go by. The late Dan Leno and Herbert Campbell being among the number, merry were the quips and jests, until somebody mentioned that the poor little gas boy had lost his mother, and had no money wherewith to bury her. At once the kind-hearted Dan suggested a novel kind of collection. A hat was placed in the middle of the verandah, and everyone was required to throw a shilling into it from where he or she happened to be standing or seated at the time. Everyone who missed was fined half-a-crown, and had to try again. Miss Dyson was such a wretched shot that she was fined four half-crowns. Dan was even worse, he being mulcted in nine half-crowns, whilst Herbert Campbell parted with seven. Both kind-hearted comedians were probably bad marksmen on purpose. Anyhow, the collection amounted to well over £10.

"The Era" can be obtained at the principal bookstalls throughout the provinces.

Mr. LEO DRYDEN,

Business Manager for

"The Australian Nightingale,"

MADAME

ADA COLLEY,

PRIMA DONNA,

Thanks the Proprietors, Managers, and Agents who have offered Dates for the BRITISH ISLES, CONTINENT, AND AMERICA, and wishes to inform those who have not Booked this

GREAT ARTIST

that Open Dates are being Rapidly Filled.

All coms.,

LEO DRYDEN,

HIPPODROME, LEEDS.

AMAZING AND UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS.

The Entire Press unanimous in its praises of CARLTON'S MYSTERIOUS CROSS.

(Registered No. 2,633.)

A POSITIVE SENSATION.

A Supernatural Illusion that no pen nor tongue can describe.

Last Week, First Production,

EMPRESS THEATRE, BRIXTON,

Top of the Bill.

Enormous Business.

This Week,

Top of the Bill,

THE LONDON, SHOREDITCH.

Causing a Sensation.

Next Week,

TIVOLI OR OXFORD, LONDON,

for One Month.

WHO WANTS IT NEXT?

Presented by

MR. ARTHUR PRESTON & COMPANY.

SOLE PROPRIETOR,

CARLTON.

Agent, HUGH J. DIDCOTT, Esq.

Solicitors, Messrs. Stanley, Woodhouse, and Hedderwick.

Please note that I shall immediately commence proceedings against any persons who infringe on my illusion, which is fully protected.—(Signed) CARLTON, Sole Proprietor.

CARLTON himself working with usual success on the Stoll Tour.

This Week, Starring,

EMPIRE, EDINBURGH.

CARLTON is also Proprietor of

THE FOUR KWEERIES,

ON TOUR; also of No. 2 Company of

THE FOUR KWEERIES,

EN ROUTE FOR AUSTRALIA.

Manager, Mr. JERRY HART.

CARLTON Specially Engaged to play the SHOWMAN in the forthcoming Christmas Pantomime at the PRINCE'S THEATRE, BRISTOL.

THE LATEST & GREATEST IN GORGEOUS PRODUCTION.

THE ISLE OF OOMA.

AN ORIGINAL EASTERN EPISODE,

Written and Composed by

E. W. ROGERS, ALBERT E. ELLIS, and WAL PINK.

Presented by

ARTHUR RIGBY

for the first time this week with

Instantaneous Success

at the

RICHMOND THEATRE,

By special arrangement with Frank Allen, Esq.

INUNDATED WITH CONGRATULATIONS BY EVERYONE, including all the Managers who have seen it.

Nothing Like it on the Music Halls.

Produced on a Lavish Scale.

No Expense Spared in any Department.

The beautiful Eastern Scene by JULIAN HICKS.

Gorgeous New Dresses by HARRISON, Ltd.

Fans, Embroideries, &c., by BHUMGARI & CO.

Produced by MICHAEL RING.

FULL COMPANY OF 20.

EACH AN ARTIST.

BEAUTIFUL SCENERY!

BEAUTIFUL DRESSES!

BEAUTIFUL GIRLS!

BEAUTIFUL MUSIC!

AND

SMART COMEDY!

Cannot accept splendid offers for next week, having arranged Special Week with Jesse Sparrow, Esq.,

EMPIRE, CAMBERWELL

FRED KARNO'S COMPANIES.

GLASGOW.

GRAND. Pantomime Season, 1906-7.

GORGEOUS XMAS PANTOMIME.

"The House that Jack Built.",

Fred Kitchen, Harmony Comedy Four, the Fourteen Black Hussars, Kirby's Flying Ballet, Miss May Mars, Miss Luna Love, Miss Frances Kapstowne, Sisters Hopkins, Little Maudie Francis, Wee Mona, Bob Sloan, Fred. Whittaker, Helier Le Maistre, Miss Genevera Tree, Miss Agnes Lane, Harry Lappo, Frank Douglas, Frederic Booth, E. Sydney Smith, Dave Laird, Harold Wellesley, Barry Searle, Albert Leonzi, H. Victor Smith, Misses Holly Errol, Eva Norman, May Prichard, Freda Vaughan, Lallie Forsyth, Kathleen Morland, Dora Grey, Nellie May, Florence Raymaur, Florence Fenwicke, Eva Carlisle, Flo Pragnell, Helen Temple, Ianthe Gordon, Florence Marks, Gabrielle Wallace, Violet Crossley, Helen Le Maistre, Lydia Granville, Louis Wollett, Alys Hardy, Jessie Clapham, and chorus and ballet of 150 performers.

GLASGOW. COLISEUM. "Moses and Sons."

Messrs. Fred Kitchen, Albert Bruno, T. Ellis-Buxton, Herbert Landeck, Anthony Gordon, J. Springsohn, H. Lappo, Nat Lewis, Bernard Katz, Gipsy Dolin, H. Myers, Phil Sinclair, D. Asher, W. Davis, N. Goodman, B. Hart, Frank Lester, F. Westcott, M. Rutherford, E. H. Carl, Harry E. Stafford, L. Banjamin, Fred Bentley, Misses Aggie Morris, Janet Reeve, Madge Rockingham, Rosa Abrahams, Lydia Weber, C. Doncaster, Leah Holland, Bertha Hymans, Kat Hymans, Blanche Newmann, Etty Ray, E. Silve, A. Boyce, A. Spencer, B. Asher, C. Gordon.

Manager, Mr. J. B. Helm; Musical Director, Mr. Dudley Powell.

AMERICA, U.S. MASS. NEW BEDFORD. "Mumming Birds."

Messrs. Harry Royston, James Russell, Sidney Chaplin, W. Fern, Ernest Stone, Fred Bendo, Bert Clark, Arnold McFarlane. Misses Amy Minister, Beatrice Barnes, Agnes Clark.

Manager, Mr. A. Forrest.

STRATFORD. THE EMPIRE. "Dandy Thieves."

Messrs. George Hestor, Frank Morton, Harry Howe, R. H. Kitchen, Tom Manardo, Alec Munro, Sydney Bolton, Charles Usher, B. Moore, S. Gossling, Frank Douglas, Cecil Frere, Misses Leonora Castelle, Kitty Brunton, Chloey Johnson, Margaret Ruby, Daisy Hestor, Edith Ager, Amy Hermance, Marjorie Gossling.

Manager, Mr. L. Greenwood; Musical Director, Mr. F. H. J. Moran.

AMERICA, U.S. BROOKLYN. NOVELTY.. "Early Birds."

Messrs. Billie Reeves, George Welch, Arthur Dando, Will Stanley, Charles Emerald, Jack Osborne, Chas. Sivado, Reed Almonti, Will Crackles, G. Seamans, J. Aubrey. Misses Rosie Fenton, Mabelle Welsh, Minna Dixon.

Manager, Mr. A. Reeves.

COLCHESTER. THEATRE ROYAL. "Saturday to Monday."

Messrs. Rolando Martin, James Fletch, Fred Palmer, J. W. Bradbury, Dick Harcourt, Victor H. Crawford, T. McDonough, George Cooper, C. Herbert Summers. Sydney Lansdown, Bertie Crew, W. Lawrence, E. Pablo, Mark Milton, Misses Amy Rogerson, Ada Maskell, Daisy Stone, Lucy Walden, Lulu Lillian, Kathleen Dennis, Valetta Rushton, Muriel Palmer, Ethel Milton.

Manager, Mr. H. A. Dooley; Musical Director, Mr. A. D'Albert.

NEWCASTLE. EMPIRE. "Jail Birds"

Messrs. James Le Fre, Bob Lewis, Chas. Wragg, Bert Williams, Will Moran, Frank Melroyd, Will Lorenzi, George Craig, Albert Layton, E. E. Giles, jun., B. Dean, Misses Marie Dayton, Sara Dudley, Louie Decubas, Marjorie Williams, Rosie Mayville.

Manager, Chas. Sewell.

LONDON. OLYMPIA. Christmas, 1906.

Special production of the Famous Old-Time RICHARDSON'S SHOW,

A faithful revival of all the old glamour and glory of ONE OF THE MOST AMUSING AND BEST-BELOVED FEATURES OF OLD ENGLISH FAIR LIFE.

MANCHESTER. PALACE. "The Football Match," Christmas, 1906.

Messrs. Harry Weldon, Ernie Myers, Robb Gilmore, Will Poluski, jun. Brien McCullough, Bertie White, Jack Royal, Alec Thomas, Miss Lily Lonsdale, Miss Eunice Bell, supported by the Karno Troupe of comedians, and pantomimists, and two real first-class football teams, comprising well-known football players selected from the leading clubs of the United Kingdom, and chorus and auxiliaries of over a hundred artists.

KARNO'S THEATRICAL FACTORY,

CAMBERWELL, S.E.

The Magnificent NEW WING just added to the above, comprising a Paint Room, Rehearsal Room, and Storage Dock, is now complete. The new Paint Room is furnished with Two Frames capable of carrying any Cloths. The new Rehearsal Room, splendidly lighted, ventilated, and heated, is 72 feet long, 21 feet wide, and owing to its exceptional height (26 feet 6 inches) can be used as a Practice Room for any Gymnastic or Aerial Acts. The huge Storage Dock, thoroughly ventilated and dry, covers an area of 316 square yards, and has a cubic space of 32,648 feet.

GENERAL STAGE DIRECTOR, AUTHOR, and PRODUCER,

Harold L. Hilliard.

ACCOUNTANT,

T. Scott Bell.

SOLICITORS,

Stanley, Woodhouse, and Hedderwick, E.C.

Sole Proprietor and Director,

MR. FRED KARNO.

26, 28, & 28a, VAUGHAN ROAD, CAMBERWELL, S.E.

Telegrams, "Karno, Camberwell." Telephone, Nos. 2341, 2341a Hop.

REVISED SCALE OF CHARGES FOR

MANAGERS WANTING ARTISTS, ARTISTS WANTING ENGAGEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

This Scale does not apply to "Trade" Advertisements in these Columns.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION (Post Free).

	UNITED KINGDOM.	FOREIGN.
One Quarter	6s. 6d.	8s.
Half Year	13s. 0d.	16s.
One Year	26s. 0d.	32s.

The Offices of "The Era" are
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.
For the convenience of Advertisers, Replies to Advertisements are received. They can remain until called for, or be forwarded by Post, FREE OF CHARGE

NO STAMPS.

Advertisers and Subscribers are politely requested to forward Cheques or Postal Orders in payment of their Advertisements and Subscriptions, crossed "Lloyd's Bank, Ltd." Remittances should be made payable to "The Era," Limited, and addressed,

THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up," 4,747, Central.

IN case of the non-delivery of "THE ERA" by the First Post, the Publisher will be greatly obliged if Advertisers will forward their Postal Wrappers with the time of delivery marked upon them.

COMPANIES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

MILTON BODE'S THEATRES.
WANTED, First-class Companies, for DALSTON THEATRE, LONDON, N.E.
Feb 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1, on.
COUNTY THEATRE, READING,
Feb. 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1, on.
OPERA HOUSE, LEICESTER,
Dec. 17, Feb. 11, March 25, April 29, May 6, on.
ROYALTY THEATRE, CHESTER,
March 11, 18, 25, April 1, 8, on.
GRAND THEATRE, WOLVERHAMPTON,
Dec. 10, Jan. 7, 28, Feb. 4, 18, 25, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, HUDDERSFIELD,
Feb. 11, March 4, 18, 25, April 1, on.
OPERA HOUSE, NORTHAMPTON,
Feb. 18, 25, March 4, 25, April 1, 8, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, LEICESTER,
March 25, April 1, 8, 15, 29, May 6, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, LEAMINGTON,
Nov. 26, Jan. 7, three nights, Feb. 18
March 11, 18, on.
Address, MILTON BODE, THEATRE, READING.

WANTED, First-class Companies, GRAND THEATRE, NEWCASTLE, May 6, onwards.
METROPOLE THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Dec. 17, March 6, April 22, onwards.
QUEEN'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Dec. 17, Jan. 14, 21, Feb. 4, 11, and 18, and April 1.
Address,
SIDNEY BACON, Metropole Theatre, Gateshead.
Telegrams, "Bacon, Gateshead."

WANTED, First-Class Companies, for COUNTY THEATRE, BEDFORD;
GRAND THEATRE, LUTON;
Dec. 31, Jan. 7, 28, Feb. 4, 11, onwards, with exceptions.
THEATRE ROYAL, CANTERBURY,
Dec. 3, 10, 17, 31, March 4 (three nightly only), onwards.
Add., E. GRAHAM-FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, First-Class Companies, for Canterbury, Dec. 3 and 10 (three nights only).
E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, Strong Attraction, for Luton, Jan. 14 (three nights).
E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

LYRIC THEATRE,
BROMLEY.
WANTED, First-Class Companies,
Three Nights, Dec. 13 and 20,
Six Nights, Jan. 21, Feb. 11.
And a Really Good Pantomime,
Six Nights, Feb. 18.
Address, F. W. PURCELL,
"Lingwood," Yerbury-rd., Tufnell Park, London, N.

QUEEN'S THEATRE,
LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, Dec. 3 and 17. L. CARSON, Keighley.

THEATRE ROYAL, HYDE.
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 21, First-class Attractions only. FRED GRANVILLE, Park View, Crosby, Liverpool.

WANTED, Musical Plays and Important Attractions, for Grand T., West Hartlepool, Vacant March 4, 18, 25. F. GRANVILLE, Park View, Crosby, Liverpool.

THEATRE ROYAL, ILKESTON.
Manager and Licensee, Mr. L. F. A. ROGERS.
WANTED, Companies, January 7, 21, 28, Feb. 4, 11, March 4, 18, April 1, onwards.
Silence a courteous negative.

HARROGATE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
WANTED, First-class Company, for Dec. 31, Jan. 1, 2, also for Jan. 21, 22, 23 (3 nights each). Apply, WILLIAM PEACOCK.

NEW THEATRE ROYAL,
LINCOLN.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions, Dec. 15 (three nights), Dec. 17, March 4, April 15 and 22 (Fair Week), May 6, on.
Address, FRANK KING.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, WIDNES.
WANTED, First-Class Companies, for Dec. 10 (?),
Dec. 17.
Address,
THOS. SWINTON.

ROYAL CLARENCE THEATRE,
PONTYPRIDD.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, Dec. 17, March 25, April 15, and various onward dates.
Apply, Manager, CHARLES TRENCHARD.

BORO' THEATRE, HEYWOOD, Lessee, A. JONES.
WANTED, Companies, Dec. 10, 17, and 24. Reply, W. F. SYKES, Acting-Manager, 11, City-road, Hulme, Manchester.

OPERA HOUSE,
WORKINGTON.
WANTED, First-Class Pantomime, Feb. 4 or 11, First in. Address, STANLEY ROGERS, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

WANTED, for the Prince of Wales's Theatre, Salford, First-class Companies, for Jan. 7, 21, and onwards. Address, E. B. GOULDEN.

WANTED, Companies (Theatrical), for Theatre Royal, Dereham, three nights; good business done with good shows. Refer Maggie Morton.

METROPOLE THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Dec. 17 vacant.
WANTED, First-class Company.
Wire, "Bacon, Gateshead."

THEATRE ROYAL, WEST BROMWICH.
Lessee, Mr. HARDING THOMAS.
WANTED, Comic Opera, Musical Comedies, &c., April, onwards. Address, HERBERT VERE.

WANTED, Strong Attraction, Dec. 10 (to oblige Manager),
King's Theatre, Sutton-in-Ashfield.

THE PERTH THEATRE.
WANTED, Good Attraction, Dec. 24; Share or Certainty. Apply, J. H. SAVILE, Paisley T.

THEATRES R., BILSTON and WEDNESBURY.
WANTED, Good Panto., Dec. 31, Jan. 7, first in; also Jan. 21, 28. HATTERSLEY, Bilston.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Dec. 10, Dec. 10. Address,
J. W. WHITEBEAD, Queen's Theatre, Dublin.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Barnstaple, Companies for two nights, Musical or Comedy preferred. Apply, H. ASHTON, Strand, Barnstaple.

COMPANIES WANTED.

WANTED, First-class Companies.

THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
Vacant Jan. 28, Feb. 25, onward, with exceptions.

THEATRE METROPOLE, DEVONPORT.
Vacant Dec. 10, 17, onward, with exceptions.

KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
Vac. Dec. 17, 31, Jan. 14, 28, onward, with exceptions (Last three nights of each week).

THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
Vacant Dec. 3, 10, Jan. 28, onward, with exceptions.

METROPOLE THEATRE, ABERTILLERY.
Vacant Dec. 3, 10, onward, with exceptions.

LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE,
Vacant Dec. 3, 10, onward, with exceptions.

"SPAN OF LIFE."
Vacant Feb. 18, onward, with exceptions.

"IN SIGHT OF ST. PAUL'S."
Vacant Dec. 31, Jan. 14, onward, with exceptions.

"CINDERELLA."
Vacant Feb. 4, 11, onward, with exceptions.

Companies "Farmed" through Fit-ups.
To Let, on Royalty, "THE PRAIRIE FLOWER" and "OUR BRITISH EMPIRE."
Excellent plants printing.

"THE LOST CHORD."
Vacant March 4, 11, April 8, 15, May 20, on.

All communications to
ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre Royal, Worcester.
Telegrams, "Carlton, Worcester."

GRAND THEATRE, SWANSEA.
Lessees and Managers, BROOKS and WOODBRIDGE.
WANTED, Dec. 3 and 10, unexpectedly fallen vacant, best No. 1 Companies only, Musical, Comedy, or very high-class Dramatic Companies,
Dec. 3 and 10, Dec. 3 and 10,
Only vacancies till April, 1907.
Wire instanter. Wire instanter.
Wire instanter. Wire instanter.
E. OSWALD BROOKS, Grand Theatre, Swansea.
Tel. 278 Swansea.

WANTED, First-Class Attractions, for Dec. 10,
Theatre Royal, Nottingham.
Apply, Mr. ROBERT ARTHUR, 24A, Regent-street, S.W.

OPERA HOUSE, DUNFERMLINE.
WANTED, Companies, Dec. 3, 17, 24, Jan. 14, 21 (latter dates can be booked in conjunction with Opera House, Perth. W. E. POTTS.

IRVING THEATRE, SEACOMBE.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, Dec. 17, 1906; Feb. 11, 18, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 15, 22, 29, May 6, 13, 20, 1907.

Apply, JAMES KIERNAN, Owner and Manager.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Inverness, Attractions for Feb. and March. Vacant dates apply, CAMERON BURGESS.

GRAND THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
WANTED, Strong Attractions, Dec. 10, 17, also Christmas Week and onwards, Musical preferred. Wire, VICTOR TURNER.

THE PIER, EASTBOURNE.
The most Popular and Largest Theatre in Eastbourne. Visited by all the Leading Managers.
WANTED, First-class Attractions.
Vacant Dates, Dec. 17, Jan. 14, 28, Feb. 4, March 11 (?), April 8, 22, and various dates, onwards.
Apply, G. HAYES, Manager.

NEW THEATRE, CONSETT.
WANTED, Company, for Dec. 31, and Pantomimes for Dates in January. Apply, HUGH ROBERTSON, T. R., Jarrow.

WANTED, Xmas week, good Fit-up Pantomime, Comedy, or Drama (two towns), Tyneside district; printing required 500 walls, 500 windows; no opposition. GEORGE P. FENTON, Queen's Theatre, Gateshead.

WANTED, First-Class Dramatic and Variety Companies, also Clever Musical Attractions, two nights, Dec. 3 and 4, 10 and 11, three nights 17, 18, 19, six Dec. 24, and on, with exceptions. For dates address W. E. POTTS, O. H., Dunfermline; all other coms. JOHN MILLER, Grand T., Cowdenbeath.

KNIGHTSTONE PAVILION and OPERA HOUSE, WESTON-SUPER-MARE.
WANTED, First-Class Attraction, Dec. 10 (three or six nights) and onwards, with exceptions. W. PAYNE.

GRAND THEATRE, DERBY.
WANTED, First-Class Pantomime, Feb. 25, one week; also Attractions, April 15 and onwards.
Address, T. ALLAN EDWARDES.

THEATRE ROYAL, COLNE, LANCS.
WANTED, Panto., Jan. 7, 14, or 21.
Address,
GERALD HARDING.

THEATRE ROYAL,
DARLINGTON.
WANTED, Really First-class Attractions, Dec. 17, 17,
Feb. 11, 25.
Good shows certain of Big Business.
JAMES BELL.

GRAND THEATRES, CHORLEY and RADCLIFFE.
WANTED, Big Attractions, Dec. 24, Jan. 21, on, Grand, Chorley; also Dec. 22 and following week, Grand, Radcliffe. SANTE, Radcliffe.

WANTED, for South Africa and Australia, First-Class Romantic Dramas, Comedy Dramas, and High-Class Melodramas, for Repertoire of Star Actor and Actress. Plays having been already produced and having good plants of printing preferred.
Address, ARTHUR DE FRECE, 12, Cecil-court, Charing Cross-road, London, W.C.

THEATRE ROYAL, BLYTH-BY-THE-SEA.
WANTED, Big Attractions, Dec. 17, '06 Feb. 4, March 18, '07, only vacant spring dates, excellent weeks. Apply, A. C. MOODY, Lessee.

PRINCE'S THEATRE, HORWICH.
WANTED, Dec. 3, Dec. 3, also 10, 17, onward, with exceptions. Theatre now well lighted and heated; good band, well posted. ED. LEWIS.

CRYSTAL PALACE THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, J. BANNISTER HOWARD.
WANTED, First-class Companies, February 11, 18, March 4, and various, onwards.
WILLIAM MARTIN, 3, Bedford-st., Strand, London.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS OPERA HOUSE.
WANTED, unexpectedly, 3 nights, Nov. 29, also March 4, April 8 and 22 (weeks).
CHARLES CAREY.

NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE, BLACKBURN.
WANTED, Really Good Drama, or other First-class Attraction, Dec. 17, Jan. 14 and 28.
E. H. PAGE.

NEW THEATRE, OXFORD.
WANTED, First-class Company, Musical preferred, Dec. 26 (4 nights). WILLIAM MARTIN, 3, Bedford-street, Strand, London, W.C.

NEW ROYAL THEATRE, KING'S LYNN.
Lessee and Manager, J. BANNISTER HOWARD.
WANTED, First-class Pantomime, Jan. 7 (6 nights). N.B.—This would be first pantomime in. WILLIAM MARTIN, 3, Bedford-street, Strand, London, W.C.

ILFRACOMBE.
RUNNACLEAVE T. AND OPERA HOUSE.
The Most Comfortable Playhouse in the District, used exclusively for Amusement Purposes.
Everything well done. Open all the year round.
WANTED, Attractions, between now and Xmas, with exceptions, also a Good Panto.
JULIUS PHILLIPS, Opera House, Ilfracombe.

CASINO, BEXHILL-ON-SEA.
WANTED, First-Class Fit-up Companies, Musical Comedy preferred; Share or Rent.
Apply, THORNELL, Casino, Bexhill-on-Sea.

COMPANIES WANTED.

HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE,
BARROW-IN-FURNESS.
Lessees and Managers,
Mr. and Mrs. CALVERT ROUTLEDGE.
The Leading Theatre in the Town.
The only Theatre in the Town lighted by electricity.
This week, Mr. and Mrs. John Walters' Pantomime, "BABES IN THE WOOD."
Next week, "WEARIN O' THE GREEN," return.
To be shortly followed by "The SHULAMITE."
Miss MINNIE PALMER in "MY SWEETHEART," "SHERLOCK HOLMES."

WANTED, Jan. 21, Feb. 4, 11, March 4, and certain later dates.
Only First-Class Companies Entertained.
Apply, CALVERT ROUTLEDGE.

ROYALTY THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE, BARROW-IN-FURNESS.
The Premier Theatre in the Furness District.
Holds £90 at ordinary prices.
This week, Mr. Frederick Melville's "BETWEEN TWO WOMEN."
Next week, Mr. Louis Calvert's "SUNDAY" (return visit).
WANTED, First-Class Attraction, for Jan. 21, through obliging Fredk. Mouillot, Esq.; March 11 and 18 also open.
The Bookings for this Theatre include the Principal Attractions touring.

All applications for dates to
HUGH ROBERTSON, Theatre Royal, Jarrow.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
Vacant, Dec. 3, Dec. 3,
Dec. 10, Dec. 10,
Dec. 17, Dec. 17,
Dec. 24, Dec. 24.
WANTED, Strong Attractions,
Wire, Wire, Wire.
R. C. BUCHANAN, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, FLEETWOOD.
This week, Mr. Whitmore Ledger's Company opened to the usual packed house, in spite of bad weather.
WANTED, Companies, Dec. 6, 7, and 8 (three nights), Dec. 10 (six nights), only vacant dates this year; Jan. 28, and onwards.
Address, H. J. SNELSON.

THEATRES R., BILSTON and WEDNESBURY.
WANTED, Good Companies, Dec. 3, 10, 17.
HARRY BATTERSBY, T. R., Bilston.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Magnificent New Town Hall, moderate rental, permanent stage, excellent accommodation. F. W. WESTERN, Sandy, Beds.

ST. MARGARET'S HALL, CANTERBURY.
Seats 600. Lighted throughout with Electricity. Electric Current for Cinématograph, 220 volts.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, onwards. Share or Rent. Apply, W. J. COTTON.

WANTED, Complete Entertainments, dramatic, picture shows, minstrels, &c., for small towns. Address, Box 4,043, "The Era."

THEATRES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

Grand Autumn Production.
"THE GIRL WHO TOOK THE WRONG TURNING."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Important Theatres, Feb. 18 and March 11.
WALTER MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

Grand Autumn Production.
"THE SOLDIER'S WEDDING."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatres, Feb. 11 and March 11.
Apply,
WALTER MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"A GIRL'S CROSS ROADS."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 24, March 11.
WALTER MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"HER FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31, Feb. 18.
FREDERICK MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE UGLIEST WOMAN ON EARTH."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31.
FREDERICK MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE BEAST AND THE BEAUTY."
WANTED, Theatres, March 4.
FREDERICK MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE FEMALE SWINDLER."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31, Jan. 14.
TOM H. TAYLOR,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE WORST WOMAN IN LONDON."
WANTED, Theatres, Jan. 28, Feb. 18.
TOM H. TAYLOR,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE GIRL WHO LOST HER CHARACTER."
WANTED, Jan. 21 and March 11.
Easter week vacant.
DOUGLAS BRUCE, Star Theatre, Swansea.

"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
WANTED, Weeks of Dec. 17, 31, and Jan. 7,
Scala Production.
Wire or write, W. W. KELLY,
8, Hamilton-square, Birkenhead.

"SAILORS OF THE KING."
WANTED, Important Theatres, Dec. 24, on,
Big Production.
CHARLES HARRINGTON, Win. Gar., Blackpool (return).

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."
WANTED, Important Theatres, Dec. 24, on,
Full Chorus, Big Specialities.
CHARLES HARRINGTON, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY'S CO.
"THE WEARIN' O' THE GREEN."
WANTED, Feb. 11 and 18, through transferring. Nov. 26.
His Majesty's Theatre, Barrow-in-Furness.
Aut., 1907, Grand Production, "Rollicking Rory."

"DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY."
WANTED Jan. 7,
Feb. 4,
March 4, 11, 18.
Address, J. W. CORDINER,
Theatre Royal, Chesterfield.
See Companies' advertisements, page 2.

GRANVILLE and THORNE'S CO.,
"NAPOLEON THE GREAT."
WANTED, for this Moneymaker, Dec. 17, 24, 31, Feb. 4, 11.
Wire for Xmas and New Year.
FRANK M. THORNE, T. R., Stratford, E.

WANTED, Theatres, for "The Silent Witness," unexpectedly vacant Dec. 3, to follow Riddings and precede Radcliffe; also Dec. 17, 24, 31, and on. F. H. NEVILLE, Sat., Shotton, Durham; after Empire, Riddings, Derbys.

"A BEAUTIFUL FIEND," Enormous Success.
Miss V. St. Lawrence as Fiend.
WANTED, Xmas, New Year, Jan. 14, 21, 28, Feb. 18, 25, March 18, April 15, 22, June 3, 10 17 (?). MONTAGUE BEAUDYN, Grand, Mansfield.

"WHEN WOMAN HATES."
WANTED, First-Class Theatre, Xmas week.
FRED BULMER, Grand Theatre, Brighton.

"FOR AULD LANG SYNE."
WANTED, Aug. 3, onwards
FRED BULMER, Grand Theatre, Brighton.

"THE GIRL WHO WENT ASTRAY."
WANTED, First-Class Theatres.
FRED BULMER, Grand Theatre, Brighton.

"THE LIGHTS O' LONDON."
"THE LIGHTS O' LONDON."
By Geo. R. Sims.
WANTED, Big Theatre, for Xmas week, also Jan. 7, 21, and Feb. 11. Wire,
H. HOLLWEG, to-day, Aquarium, Yarmouth; Monday, Empire T., Southend-on-Sea.

THEATRES WANTED.

LINGFORD CARSON'S PRODUCTIONS.
WANTED, Managers to kindly Note that all the following Plays are beautifully staged and well played, and any production not satisfactory to the resident management, I shall take it as a personal favour if they will acquaint me immediately, so that I may have an opportunity of rectifying.—Faithfully yours, LINGFORD CARSON.

"THE POWER OF THE CROSS."
WANTED, for this Extraordinary Attraction, Dec. 17, '06. Managers desirous of making money, book the above. L. CARSON, Keighley.

"THE DRAMA OF LIFE."
WANTED, First-class Autumn Dates, for this most excellent attraction, August, on. L. CARSON, Keighley.

"BABES IN THE WOOD."
Beautiful Dresses, and, above all, a Company of Carefully-selected Artists.
WANTED, Jan. 21, Feb. 4 and 18, First-class Theatres only. CARSON, Keighley.

ALFRED B. CROSS'S TOUR.
"THE MANXMAN."
"THE MANXMAN."
WANTED, Dec. 24, Dec. 24, Feb. 18, 25, March 4, and onwards.
Splendidly acted, beautifully mounted, and magnificently advertised. Nov. 26, Grand T., Eccles.

MISS MARY NEIL AND MR. GEORGE KIRK'S CO., "HER LUCK IN LONDON,"
By Charles Darrell.
WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
New Year's Week, Jan. 7, 21, 28.
A few Autumn Dates still open.
CHARLES A. LEICESTER,
This, Junction; next, Osborne, Manchester.

Messrs. SHINTON and GREENWOOD'S TOUR,
"THE PRICE OF HER SOUL."
WANTED, Big Theatre for Xmas.
All communications to
JOHN B. SHINTON,
Aquarium T., Yarmouth (return).

MR. F. B. WOULFE'S TOURS.
"ROBIN HOOD; or,
THE KING OF SHERWOOD FOREST."
An entirely new and original version, by Clifford Rean.
Mr. F. B. Woulfe as Robin Hood.
Miss Ethel Griffies as Maid Marion.
A gorgeous production; magnificent scenery and dresses; large plant of printing.
Company of eighteen; quartette of glee singers.
WANTED, Dates, for this Ideal Xmas Attraction, Dec. 31 Jan. 7, 14, 21, Feb. 18, and various on. F. B. WOULFE, Miner's T., Ashington.

"THE INDIAN MUTINY."
WANTED, Xmas and Jan. 28.
Address,
FRANK E. BURDETT,
Cradley Heath. Nov. 26, T. R., Rotherham.

"COAL KING."
Polini and Maitland.
WANTED, Dates, Jan. 7, 21, Feb. 4, 11, and 25.
POLINI, 93, Penge-road, Anerley; London, S.E.

"DISHONOURED."
WANTED, Xmas, big Military Attraction, LEICESTER JACKSON, Walsall; next, Dover.

"HER ONE GREAT SIN."
WANTED, Xmas, South preferred.
LEICESTER JACKSON, Walsall; next, Dover.

"THE GREAT AWAKENING."
WANTED, First-Class Theatre, for Miss Maud Hildyard and Company, Jan. 28, Feb. 4, 11, 18, and 25. Apply, Mr. ERNEST DOTTRIDGE, Empire Theatre, Oldham.

WANTED, "Revenge; or Death or Glory Boys." Star Cast, including E. Hill-Mitchelson, Jan. 21, 28, Feb. 4, 25, and March 11. E. HILL-MITCHELSON, P., Preston (two weeks.)

"LUCKY 'LIZA."
WANTED, Jan. 7, 14, 21, and Feb. 4, Lancs. or Yorks; March 4 and 11, North.
DICKIE CLARE, Albert Theatre, Brighouse.

WANTED, Theatres for "The Prodigal Parson." Jan. 7 and Feb. 4, only spring vacancies. W. V. GARROD, Theatre Royal, York.

E. H. KNIGHT and GEORGE DENHAM'S CO.
"THE GRIP OF IRON."
WANTED, Theatres, Xmas and New Year's Weeks, January 7 and 14 (North).
GEORGE DENHAM,
this, Prince's, Accrington; next, W. London.

"BOUND TO WIN."
WANTED, New Year's Week and Jan. 7, 14, for this great sporting play; piece better than ever; racehorses toured. Wire for this powerful attraction to F. G. KIMBERLEY, King's Theatre, Longsight; next, T. R., Sunderland.

"CINDERELLA."
WANTED, Feb. 4, only vacant date. Apply, H. A. JORDISON, St. James's Hall, M'chester.

"THE ANARCHIST TERROR."
WANTED, Dec. 3 and 24, 3 and 24.
Sixth year of tour.
Also, "THE SORROWS OF SATAN."
Either or both plays. Wire, LOIE ESMOND, T. R., Houghton; next, T. R., Shotton.

WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 17, Christmas, for "The Way of the World," Miss Sidney Crowe; racehorses travelled. SKARDON, to-day, Wednesbury; next, Rugby.

"THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, with large holding capacity, Whit and August Bank Holiday weeks, for the Biggest Financial Success touring. Address, E. DOTTRIDGE, Empire, Oldham.

"THE TRAITOR."
E. HILL-MITCHELSON AND HARRIS FINEBERG'S CO. One of the finest productions touring.
WANTED, Dec. 17, 24. E. HILL-MITCHELSON, Prince's Theatre, Preston.

"WOMAN AND WINE."
WANTED, Feb. 18, through transfer. E. VIVIAN EDMONDS, T. E., Sunderland, to-day; next, Blyth.

EDWARD MARRIS'S COMPANIES.
WANTED, for Pantomime, "Robinson Crusoe," Feb. 4.
Between Liverpool and Tyneside.
EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre Royal, Grantham.

"THE THRONE OF TERROR."
WANTED, Dec. 10, 17, 24, 31 (North), for this High-Class Costume Drama; Feb. 25 (Midlands); various Spring. MILLER, Cowdenbeath (two), Dunfermline (four).

"AN ACTOR'S ROMANCE."
WANTED, Jan. 7, 14, now booking Spring and Autumn, 1907. Address,
CHARLES DURIE, Princess's Theatre, Glasgow.

WANTED, No. 1 Theatre, North, Feb. 25, also March 18 (?), Mr. Wm. Mollison and representative company in a Répertoire of Plays, including "As You Like It," Mr. Mollison repeating his performance of Jaques, which created a furore during his season at St. James's Theatre. Address, SIDNEY COOPER, Lyceum, Newport.

MR. AND MRS. F. G. KIMBERLEY'S CO'S.
"TWO LITTLE DRUMMER BOYS."
WANTED, New Year's Week, Dec. 31, for this great play, an ideal holiday attraction. Band of fifes, drums, and bugles, for parade. F. G. KIMBERLEY, King's, Longsight; next, T. R., Sunderland.

By arrangement with Mr. Wm. Greet,
"THE SHULAMITE,"
the entire production from the Savoy Theatre.
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 24 and 31. Jan. 14, 28, and a few later dates. Apply, re dates, J. FRED WATSON, Victoria, Broughton, Manchester. Other communications, H. THEODORE, 25, St. Anne-street, Manchester.

"AN ABANDONED WOMAN."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Dec. 31, Jan. 7 and 14.
Enormous Success at Theatre Royal, Castleford.
As many laughs as a Pantomime.
HARRY FOXWELL, Theatre Royal, Batley.

"THE POWER OF GOLD."
Sixty-fifth week of present Tour.
Booked and re-booked into Oct., 1907.
WANTED, Whit Week Midlands, March 25 (follow Jarrow), April 8.
FRANK AYRTON, Gaiety, Burnley (return).

WANTED, First-Class Theatres, MR. SAMUEL JAMES'S COMPANIES.
"AS GOOD AS GOLD."
Vacant dates March 11, 18, Sept. 16, 23.
"WHY WOMAN SINS."
Vacant Dec. 31, Sept. 16, 30.
Add., F. S. JENNINGS, Lyric O. H., Hammersmith.

THEATRES WANTED.

WANTED, First-Class Theatres, for JAMES KIDDIE'S
JAMES KIDDIE'S
Colossal Gorgeous Pantomime,
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
Vacant Jan. 21, Feb. 4, and onwards.
"ALADDIN."
"ALADDIN."
Vacant Feb. 18 (Midlands).
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
Vacant Feb. 18 (Lancs. or Yorks.).
Address,
JAMES KIDDIE, Alexandra Theatre, Widnes.

"BLUEBELL IN FAIRYLAND."
Forty-Five in Company.
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Jan. 14 (South), to oblige a Manager, and Easter.
Only Vacant Dates till Xmas, 1907.
E. GRAHAM-FALCON,
County Theatre, Bedford.

MISS EMMA LITCHFIELD'S COMPANIES.
"A CLEVER IMPOSTOR."
WANTED, Jan. 28, Feb. 4, on.
Good Theatres Wanted,
Good Theatres Wanted,
for this important Attraction.
for this important Attraction.
"A CLEVER IMPOSTOR."
"A CLEVER IMPOSTOR."
Everything Carried. Brilliant Company.
STUART CLEVELAND, 30, Victoria-street, Fleetwood.

WANTED, First-class Theatres, for JACK HADDON'S
JACK HADDON'S
Gorgeous Pantomime,
"JACK AND THE BEANSTALK,"
"JACK AND THE BEANSTALK,"
Vacant Jan. 14, Feb. 4.
This Pantomime can be played twice nightly.
Address,
JACK HADDON,
Theatre Royal, Middlesbrough.

Grand Xmas Production.
E. A'DELL AND CHABOT'S CO'S.
(The Name a Guarantee.)
"HIS SISTER'S HONOUR," by Eva Elwes, Vacant Jan. 28, Feb. 4, on. Special plant of printing, three tons of scenery, and a cast second to none touring.
"THE ROMANY'S REVENGE."
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 7, March 11, on. Wire, E. A'DELL, to-day, Bootle (third visit); next, Middleton (R.).

"SAPHO."
"SAPHO."
"SAPHO."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Dec. 24,
Jan. 21, 28.
Enormous success everywhere.
Wire Dec. 24. Wire.
JAMES BELL, T. R., Darlington.

J. BANNISTER HOWARD'S COMPANIES.
WANTED, First-class Theatres,
"OLIVER TWIST"
(By arrangement with Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree),
Feb. 4, March 18, Easter, and April 8.
"THE FOUR JUST MEN"
(By arrangement with H. A. Saintsbury),
Feb. 4, March 4, 18, and Easter.
WILLIAM MARTIN, 3, Bedford-street, Strand, London, W.C.

EDWARD MARRIS'S COMPANIES.
WANTED, Wanted, for "The Orchid,"
possibly Dec. 26, four nights.
EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre Royal, Grantham.

"HER LOST SELF."
"THE BIGGEST SCAMP ON EARTH."
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 7, 28, Easter. Wire, to-day, FRANCES DELAVAL, T., Houghton-le-Spring; next, King's, Gainsborough.

"THE MASTER CRIMINAL."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Dec. 24, 31, Jan. 14, March 11.
HENRY L. OSMOND, Opera House, Weymouth.

ALLAN WILKIE,
Supported by
Mr. G. Alexander Marsh, Miss Carrie Baillie, Miss Ine Cameron, Miss Gertrude Gilbert.
The Strongest Shakespearean Company Touring the British Isles.
WANTED, Feb. 11 (three nights, South), April 29 (between Warrington and Harrogate), May 13 and 20 (North), May 27 (South), Good Theatre for Stock Season for four weeks, commencing June 10, Aug. 5, onwards, with exceptions.
Address, ALLAN WILKIE, Knightstone Pavilion, Weston-super-Mare.

HENRY E. LEIGH'S COMPANY.
"THE 'VARSITY BELLE."
WANTED, Xmas, New Year, and various Spring Dates, August Bank Holiday, on.
ANDREW W. SPENS, T. R., Portsmouth. See Companies Advertisement.

WANTED, Theatres for "A Heart's Desire," a Play of intense interest. Thanks R. C. Buchanan, Esq., for Contracts. Vacant Dec. 24 (Xmas week), Dec. 31 (New Year's week). A great Holiday Attraction. En route, or H. ELLIMAN, 5, Vernon-street, Dublin.

FRED GRANVILLE'S TOURS.
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 10, 31, "For Better or Worse."
Wire, Park View, Crosby, Liverpool.

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 7, March 4, 18. FRED BULMER, Metropole Theatre, Devonport.

THE "APEX" ANIMATED AND TALKING PICTURE CO., with the CHRONOPHONE (Gaumont's patent),
The Greatest Wonder of the Age.
WANTED, Theatres, Music Halls, Halls, &c. Dates, Jan. 12, onward, with exceptions. Shares or certainty.

All communications to
GENERAL-MANAGER,
81, Victoria-avenue, Hull.

WANTED, Halls, Theatres, &c., Share or Rental, for Dec. 3, 10, and on, for The Anglo-American Variety Co., including Dakota, the great hypnotist, a sure draw; plenty of free outside shows to draw the public; a sensation in every town visited, supported by a Grand Star Company of First-Class Artists, including the Perfecta Electragraph, with the Latest and Best Animated Pictures, the finest company on the road. This week, Nelson Variety Hall, Nelson, Lancs. Booked for one week; stopped four. Refer Manager. Write or wire DAKOTA, Nelson Variety Hall, North-street, Nelson, Lancs.

WANTED, Jan. 28, 1907, one week. First-Class Theatres or Hippodromes, Share or Certainty, for Kellinos and Star Vaudeville Company. All coms., Hippodrome, London. Hippodrome, London.

ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Juvenile Lady, Tall Heavy Gentleman, Comedian, Character and Responsible Actors, Baggage and Wardrobe Mistress. All particulars, photographs, last two references, E. VIVIAN EDMONDS, Theatre Royal, Blyth.

WANTED, First-class, Young, Pretty, Powerful Juvenile Leading Lady; Heavy Gentleman, capable character and juveniles; open Christmas, sketches, London; Good Comedian, Dec. 10; a few Amateur Ladies, walking on. Write, FRED G. BROOKE, 55, Ridley-road, Dalston, N.E.

WANTED, for Musical Sketch, Soubrette, Two Good Low Comedians, Chorus Ladies and Gentlemen, commence Christmas. Letters only. OPERETTA SYNDICATE, 26, Agate-road, W.

WANTED, to rehearse Monday, Dec. 10, 1906, smart and pretty Mezzo-Soprano, Soubrette, petite, fair, one used to concerted items and duets preferred; must be able to act in sketches (juveniles). Must be able to come to Ilkley early in December. Fare paid. Apply, ROBERTSON, Pavilion, Ilkley.

ARTISTS WANTED.

"THE TRAITOR."

WANTED, First-Class Leading Lady, young, pretty, and dress well.
References and photographs.
E. HILL-MITCHELSON, Prince's Theatre, Preston.

WANTED, A1 Comedian, for Sketch, long tour; also Intense Miser Actor. Send photo., particulars, where at present can be seen playing. Apply, letter, 122, Brixton-road, S.W.

WANTED, Lady, for Special Week, Dec. 10, who has played Lady Sneerwell, Lady Capulet, Jessica, &c. Apply, ALLAN WILKIE, Knightstone Pavilion, Weston-super-Mare.

WANTED, Clever Child Actress, for important part in Dramatic Sketch, rehearse London immediately, special week, Dec. 3. If suitable long engagement. Full particulars, height, appearance, age, parts played, photo., &c. Interview by appointment only. Address, JESSIE M. LYONS, Prince's Theatre, Poplar, E.

"THE CONSCRIPT."

WANTED, Sound Leading Man, for strong romantic part; also Child Actress (look ten, must be fourteen); can arrange joint. Photos., lowest terms, &c., to Mrs. F. W. CLIVE, this, Luton; next, Carlton, Birmingham.

WANTED, for "Her Lost Self" and "Biggest Scamp" a Gent. to play Wilfred Daventry and Biggest Scamp; clever, tall. FRANCES DELAVAL, Theatre, Houghton-le-Spring. Mon., King's, Gainsborough.

"PRIEST OF THE TEMPLE."

WANTED, Gentleman, for Heavy Lead, Robust Old Man, Juvenile Lady.
CHARLES MARCH, Opera House, Northampton.

WANTED, a thoroughly good Leading Gentleman, must be young, used to stock. Apply, with terms. Also Variety Artists write.—J. O. HAYES, People's Theatre, Taunton, Somerset.

WANTED, First-Class Gentlemanly Heavy Man, for Sketch, "Monte Carlo," few Comedy lines; town only; one known to the Music Halls preferred. Letters only, Mrs. GEORGE DAVENTRY, 5, Victoria-mansions, Holloway, N.

WANTED, Responsible Actor, for Special Week, Dec. 3, rehearse Dec. 1. Lowest terms, &c., to E. HOGGAN-ARMADALE, Exchange Theatre, Wellingborough.

MR. SAMUEL JAMES'S COMPANIES.

WANTED, First-Class Tall Character Man, Carpenter, to play small Comedy Part.
Add., F. S. JENNINGS, Lyric Q. H., Hammersmith.

WANTED, good Juvenile Gentleman, capable of Heavies. Lowest terms, photos., and references, to HENRY L. OSMOND, Theatre, Bordoncamp, Hants.

WANTED, Heavy Character Gentleman ("Cripple Creek"). Rehearse Dec. 10. Terms, height, references, parts played. MARK BLOW, 11, St. Edmund's-terrace, London.

WANTED, Gentleman, for Juvenile Lead; if suitable, long tour. Address, with full particulars, height, age, &c., WHITBREAD, Queen's T., Dublin.

WANTED, Smart Character Comedian, who can be intense, funny, and refined, long engagement, London, good modern wardrobe, study, appearance. All particulars, lowest terms, photo., LEONARD MORTIMER, 162, Clapham-road, S.W.

WANTED, good Hebrew Dialect Comedian, must be tall and of the Hebrew persuasion.
Apply,
BARNARD'S Agency, 24, Islington, Liverpool.

WANTED, Good Contralto Vocalist for Tour, young and refined, with good répertoire.
Apply by letter to Prof. VOORZANGER,
61, Warwick-avenue, Maida Vale, W.

WANTED, a few smart young Ladies, no previous experience necessary, no fees. Send photo., which will be returned immediately if not suitable. Mr. G. LEONARD, 101, Trinity-road, Upper Tooting.

WANTED, tall Young Ladies, of smart appearance; must have exceptionally good singing voices; also Violin Soloist, who is clever musical Director. Long guaranteed engagement in America.
Address, JESSE L. LASKY, c/o Marinelli Agency, 29A, Charing Cross-road, London, W.C.

WANTED, for Tour, Male and Female Choristers, must have good voices, and be of good appearance. Apply, 3.30, Tuesday,
Daly's Theatre.

WANTED, deep Second Bass, for celebrated Quartette, bookings unequalled; first-class engagement for first-class man. Address, M. HENRY, 38, Holland-road, Brixton.

WANTED, Smart Ladies, for Pantomime Chorus and Show Ladies; also Principals and Comedians. Photos. and full particulars to GROSSMAN and ALTMAN, 40, Lisle-street, Leicester-square.

WANTED, Smart Lady Dancers, First-Class Engagement, open at once. Call Saturday, 11 to 3. FRANK PERRY, 71, York-rd., Waterloo-rd., S.E.

WANTED, Dramatic Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Work, by a Tenor, tall, well-known, Stage or Concert; best London notices; good actor. Box 4,038, "The Era."

PANTOMIME ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

JAMES KIDDIE'S PANTOMIMES.
"ALADDIN," "CINDERELLA,"
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
Season 1906-7.

WANTED, Artists engaged for above to send addresses for the next two weeks to JAMES KIDDIE, Caen Villa, Highfield-road, Widnes.

WANTED, Arthur Carlton's Pantomimes.—Will Artists engaged kindly send their measurements, also addresses for next two weeks? ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre, Worcester.

"BABES IN THE WOOD."
"BABES IN THE WOOD."

WANTED, First-Class Principal Girl,
Handsome Fairy Queen,
Smart, Clever Dame,
Handsome Second Boy.
Send immediately full particulars, photos., absolute lowest terms, and say where can be seen working during next week, or call between 11 and 4, Mr. G. SINCLAIR, 118, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Second Boy, Fairy Queen, Comedians, Trios, Quartettes, Dame, Baron, and Wardrobe Mistress. GEO. AYTOUN, 22, Wilson-road, Camberwell, S.E. 'Phone 1949 Hop.

WANTED, Pantomime Artists, all Lines, Responsible Actors, Knockabout Comedians, &c., short run, North London. VALENTINE, 8, Dean-street, Oxford-street, London.

WANTED, for London Pantomime, Chorus Ladies, with good voices; must be tall and young. Apply immediately, F. DARRELL and Co., 415, Strand.

WANTED, Fairy Queen. Send photos., age, names, and addresses of last two references. ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre, Worcester.

WANTED, Known, vacancy has arisen in First-class "Cinderella" Pantomime in the North of England for Second Broker's Man, who must be able to understudy Ugly Sisters. Lowest terms and references.
Box 4,032, "The Era."

PANTOMIME ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Florence Leonard, High-class Vocalist, Vacant Pantomime, Fairy Queen. Renderings of a Scotch medley and "The Carnival" speedily make her an immense favourite.—The Stage, Oct. 18, '06. This, Hippo., Sheerness; next, c/o FORTUNE and GRANVILLE, 115, Strand.

WANTED, by Wynnie Darrell, Dainty Comedienne and Dancer, engagement, as principal girl; good voice and appearance. Communications, GEORGE F. SLATTER, Walthamstow Palace, Walthamstow.

WANTED, Monday next, Marie Leonard, Refined Up-to-date Soubrette, Liberty Panto., Second Boy or Girl. Wire, Empire Theatre, Hull.

WANTED, good Panto. offer by Marie Gerrard, last season played Princ. Boy with "Sinbad" Co. Perm., 65, Gordon-road, Aldershot.

WANTED, Known, Miss Bessie Frank, Disengaged, principal girl, sketches, &c. Refer, Mr. J. H. Savile, Mr. J. Gar Kiddie. Address, T. R., Leicester.

WANTED, Known, Ailsa Douglas, the popular Vocalist, at Liberty for Principal Girl or Fairy Queen. 206 Lambeth-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Proprietors to know, J. W. Rowley is at Liberty for Pantomime, Comedian or Dame. Address, Lynton House, Durand-gardens, Clapham-road, S.W.

WANTED, Ballet and Chorus, for three young ladies, singers and dancers; also employment as usher or cloak-room attendant. Apply to SECRETARY, Ladies' Music Hall Guild, 69, Primrose-mansions, Battersea Park.

WANTED, Pantomime, by Victor Vernon, Principal Comedian, four seasons Theatre Royal, Plymouth. Address, 69, Cranworth-street, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Bob Baxter, Liberty Panto., dame preferred, last two seasons R. Arthur, Esq. Address, Crown and Cushion, Leicester.

WANTED, for Panto., Animal Parts; Goose a Speciality; have own skin. J. ARTHUR, c/o "The Era."

WANTED, by Denby and Dent, Pantomime.
Address, "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Known, Barrett and Knowles, at Liberty for Panto. Reasons for being so, Last year Theatre Royal, Glasgow; year previous Alex. Theatre, Birmingham. Refer to Fred Wyndham, Esq., or Lester Collingwood, Esq. Address, Palace, Manchester, or BLACKMORE.

WANTED, Panto., by Bodey Bros., Triple Bar Gymnasts, Speciality and Small Parts. Com., 10, Fillwood-road, Fishponds, Bristol; or Palace, Portsmouth.

WANTED, Known, Frank Keegan and Co., Funniest Knockabout Act on the Road, at Liberty for Panto., Dec. 24, 31, Jan. 7, 14, 21. Com., 8, Somerleyton-road, Brixton, London.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty Pantomime, Electric Flying Ballet, at Liberty for Panto. through disappointment, the Five Amperes (four Ladies, one Gentleman), the most complete and elaborate Aerial Ballet ever produced. R. BRABAZON, Business-Manager, 44, Walcot-square, or Sole Agent, DAVE HYMAN, 167, Stamford-street, S.E.

WANTED, Pantomime Engagements for Sinclair's Four Comets,
Sinclair's Four Radiums,
Sinclair's Four Excelsiors,
Sinclair's Four Merry Mascots.
Managers in want of a smart, up-to-date Troupe of Expert Step and Acrobatic Dancers communicate at once, or call and see same.

SINCLAIR'S Excelsior Stage Dancing Academy,
118, Kennington-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Panto., the most Striking, Sensational Act ever seen, now the whole talk of Sunderland. Third week, Victoria Hall; next week, Theatre, West Hartlepool. Chard's Dog Circus.

WANTED, Known, Tudor's Four Performing Ponies, at Liberty; great attraction for Pantomimes, double and single Acts and double or single harness, all ten hands. TUDOR, Hippodrome, Blyth.

SCENIC ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, for Theatres Royal, Stockport and Ashton-under-Lyne, two good, quick Scenic Artists, provide own brushes. Apply, with copies of recent references and lowest terms,
CHARLES REVILL, Stockport.

WANTED, Scenic Artist, to Commence at Once, for pantomime production; also re-paint stock; own brushes. ALFRED SELWYN, Empire Theatre, Hull.

WANTED, Quick Scenic Artist, start immediately, one week. Particulars, PAYNE REYNOLDS, Palace Theatre, West Hartlepool.

SCENIC ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, S. Beltram open to receive Contracts, large or small, Touring Scenery re-painted; salary or contract. Address, c/o Waterloo Hotel, Liverpool.

WANTED, Contracts, Every Description of Scenery. Compare terms, models free. Work guaranteed. SCENIC CO., W. B. Bostock, Rumford-st., C.-on-M., Manchester.

WANTED, Known, G. Sackmann, Scenic Artist and Contractor. Painting-room, Kennington Green, Kennington-road, S.E. Tel., N3296 Hop.

WANTED, Contracts for Bright, Effective Scenery, at lowest prices. Carlyle Scenic Studio (W. B. ROBINSONI, 170, King's-road, S.W.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

"SAPHO."

WANTED, Acting-Manager (one who thoroughly understands the business), to combine Le Grande, Small Char. Comedy part.
Open at once.
Address full particulars,
JAMES BELL, Theatre Royal, Darlington.

WANTED, for Production of Comic Opera in West End, Manager able to influence Capital. A peculiarly valuable asset exists which will ensure success. Small investors invited.
Address,
Box 4,044, "The Era."

WANTED, Gentleman as Manager and Secretary, to First-class Speciality Act, with booked dates; must invest £15. Address Box 4,037, "The Era."

WANTED, Panto. Sketch Producer, with own script, two weeks, open Dec. 24, probably longer; also cheap panto. artists, chorus ladies, good quartette. Those Manchester district write, MANAGER, 152A, Oxford-road, Manchester.

To Music Hall Agents.

WANTED, First-Class well-known Agent, for Young Baritone, trained with exceptional range, late Musical Comedy, Halls, &c, reliable turn, not a dud; will give good bonus to well-known Agent that can book. First instance, W. A., Box 4,019, "The Era."

WANTED, Agent in Advance and good Carpenter, both thoroughly used to Fit-up work. Age, references, lowest terms, E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, good Electrician, accustomed to making stage effects. Send last two references, lowest terms, and age, to ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre Royal, Worcester.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, HULL.

WANTED, Stage Carpenter, practical man, good worker, permanency. Write, stating previous engagements, references, age, salary, and if married. GEORGE MORTON.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED, a good Stage Carpenter, accustomed to Window Billing, with own tools, one with knowlegde of electricity preferred, must be a strict disciplinarian. Apply, with photo. if possible, age and full particulars, with last two references, which will be applied for. GEORGE E. MUDD, Manager, Grand Theatre, Nelson.

WANTED, good reliable Carpenter, for Tour; own tools. State age, experience, last two references, and salary, HARRY BATTERSBY, T. R., Bilston.

WANTED, for Poole's Myriorama, good Bill-poster and Biller, to assist Agent; also useful men for Baggage and Top Window Billing. Age and terms to F. MAYER, Public Hall, Wrexham.

WANTED, Known, Resident-Manager Disengaged shortly, seeks an engagement, resident or touring, over 17 years' experience in both; thoroughly conversant in bar management, &c., &c. Exceptional references. Address, "THEATRICAL," c/o Manager, Tavistock Hotel, London, W.C.

WANTED, Engagement for Gentleman, as Manager in Music Hall or Circus, thoroughly experienced and capable of taking entire charge; sober and reliable; excellent testimonials. Full particulars by applying to SECRETARY, Music Hall Ladies' Guild, 69, Primrose-mansions, Battersea Park.

WANTED, Engagement, as Stage-Manager or Carpenter, in Theatre or Music Hall, own tools; twenty years' experience; age 39; good refs. W. HARWOOD, Stage-Manager, Pavilion, Glasgow.

WANTED, Re-engagement by thoroughly experienced Manager, Theatre or Music Hall, Touring or Resident; excellent references. Box 4,029, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement by young Gentleman, Clerk, as Assistant in Agency or Managing business; small premium if required. Full particulars address, Box 4,023, "The Era."

WANTED, Re-engagement as Advance Agent or Manager, just finished most successful tour. Highest references. B., 9, Auckland-road, Kingston, Surrey.

WANTED, Known, George Yates, Advance Agent, smart, reliable, excellent window biller, thoroughly experienced; good refs.; vacant Nov. 26. Write, G.P.O., Glastonbury, Somerset.

WANTED, by Advertiser (32), thoroughly experienced, at present for 12th year managing successful billposting business in city of 200,000, seeks similar situation; smaller town not objected to. Undeniable references. Write for full particulars in first instance, Box 4,048, "The Era."

WANTED, by two Smart Men, Engagement as Dressers, to Protean Artists; can make clothes for same. Address, Box 4,028, "The Era."

WANTED, Employment, as Wardrobe Mistress, good reference; able to cut, fit, and make. Address, DARE, 43, Brixton-road, S.W.

WANTED, Wardrobe Mistress; must be capable of cutting out and making; to start at once.
ALFRED SELWYN, Empire Theatre, Hull.

MUSICIANS' WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

EDWARD MARRIS'S COMPANIES.

WANTED, Musical-Director, Pianist, for Fit-up Tour. Fullest particulars, with last three references, to EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre Royal, Grantham.

WANTED, Leader, Violin; also Cornet, Piano, Clarionet, and Drums.
Address,
MANAGER,
G.P.O., Spennymoor, Co. Durham.

WANTED, First-class Leader, A.M.U., Brilliant Violinist, open Monday, Dec. 3. Apply, with terms M. D., Hippodrome, Hull.

WANTED, Conductor-Pianist, First-class, for Pantomime, to join about Dec. 17. Salary references, and age, to DIRECTOR OF MUSIC, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.

WANTED, for Xmas, Pianist-Conductor. Age, references, lowest terms, E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, First Violin and Cornet, for Touring Trades Exhibition (band of five); join next week. Permanency to good, sober, and steady men. References and terms to MANAGER, Trades Exhibition, Town Hall, Hexham.

WANTED, First and Second Violins, Viola, and Clarionet, Variety experience indispensable. Apply, stating lowest terms and refs., to AUGUSTE DENTON, Mus.-Dir., Hippodrome, Ton-y-Pandy, S. Wales.

WANTED, Monday next, First Violinist, used to Variety Business. Evening dress. Terms, &c., T. A. EDWARDES, Palace Theatre, Derby.

WANTED, at once, for Panto. Season, two First Violins, also 'Cello, only first-rate men need apply to ALFRED CARPENTER, Theatre Royal, Glasgow.

HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, DUNDEE.
Managing-Direcor, Mr. ROBERT ARTHUR.

WANTED, for six weeks, commencing Dec. 17, capable First Violin and Viola Players. Apply, with terms, &c., to H. EVERITT LOSEBY, Musical-Director.

WANTED, thoroughly good and competent Cornetist; must be able to play all Grand Operas, &c. Terms and references to J. H. CURRY, Prince of Wales's Theatre, Grimsby. Open all the year round.

WANTED, Solo Cornet, for Palace, Bath; experienced Variety business; open Dec. 3. Age, terms, &c., ANDREWS, 21, New King-st., Bath.

WANTED, Solo Cornet. Herbert Williams please send address. F. WILLIAMS, 18, Livingstone-road, Bath.

WANTED, Good Cornet and Bombardon, for pitching, shares, join at once. Address, MANAGER, 3, Leslie-grove, East Croydon.

WANTED, Second Clarionet, for Tour; must be used to Grand Opera. Open Dec. 3rd. Terms, references, &c., to Box 4,026, "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Clarionet, to Double String.
ALEX. CORRISON,
Conductor,
Penzance Military Band.

H. and F. POOLE'S MYRIORAMA.

WANTED, to Open immediately, Trombone Soloist, D Bass, and Flute and Piccolo; must wear evening dress and assist fittings.
Long engagement to the suitable men.
Apply, POOLE, Town Hall, Lewes.

WANTED, to complete Band for Pitching, Horn, Trombone Euphonium, Bombardon; steady workers only. JAMES, 15, Lower Draytonplace, Croydon, Surrey.

WANTED, Three Good 'Cellists, Two Solo Violinists, One Violinist and Pianist combined for White Star Mediterranean Service. Musical Duties only; second-class accommodation. One First-class Pianist and Flautist, for Cunard Service. Mr. C. W. BLACK, 19, Castle-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, First-class 'Cellist, for above Variety business; good Viola write in. Terms and refs. Apply, MUSICAL-DIRECTOR, Palace Theatre, Cork.

WANTED, 'Cello; must be young, smart, and experienced in variety business. Write full particulars to CONDUCTOR, Empire T., Coventry.

WANTED, good Flute and Clarionet, must be thoroughly used to Variety business. Apply, with latest references and terms, to GLEGHORN, 5, Glenthorne-road, Roker, Sunderland.

WANTED,
Piano, Violin,
'Cello, and Clarionet,
for R.M.S. Ormuz;
Light Duties.
BANDMASTER,
14, Brook-road, St. Margaret's, Twickenham.

WANTED, Pianist, 'Cellist, and First Violin (ladies), for permanency. Only experienced, good player should apply; young, good appearance essential. Box 4,049, "The Era."

HOWARD AND WYNDHAM, LTD.

WANTED, experienced and reliable Drummer, with own Tympani, open Dec. 10. State terms, references, and full particulars. Also vacancy for First-Class Violinist. GEORGE BURNLEY, Theatre Royal, Edinburgh.

MUSICIANS WANTED.

WANTED, First-class Double Drummer, with all effects; must be good tympanist, and experienced, open Monday. WORSWICK, Hippo., Wigan.

RHYL, N. WALES.

WANTED, by the Rhyl Urban District Council, a Band of not less than thirteen members and a vocalist, to perform in the town and on the Promenades during the Summer Season of 1907, from Whitsuntide to the end of Sept. Vocalist to be changed every week from the middle of July to the end of Sept. The Band must depend on collections and voluntary subscriptions, with a subsidy by the Council of £150, who will also provide a Bandstand and Chairs. For further particulars apply to the undersigned. Offers to be sent in not later than Dec. 20.

ARTHUR ROWLANDS,
Clerk to the Council.

Council Offices,
Rhyl.
Nov. 23, 1906.

WANTED, First-Class Uniformed Brass Band, thirty performers, for Sweden, May 15, Sept. 15. Forward photos. GUISE, 27, Bonham-road, Brixton.

WANTED, Full Orchestra, for Palace Theatre of Varieties, East Ham.
MUSICAL-DIRECTOR, Box 4,042, "The Era."

GRAND CHRISTMAS CARNIVAL, PAVILION, CARNARVON, NORTH WALES.

WANTED, Small Band. Wilton Russell write, if disengaged. Address, JAMES W. BOSTOCK, Barton-street, Gloucester.

WANTED.—Musicians "Out of Shop" and Bandmasters requiring Instrumentalists will do well to try an advertisement in the "Wanted" Columns of "The Era." One Shilling expended on Twenty Words (each additional Six Words Sixpence) is likely to bring successful results, as explained in the following letters from grateful Advertisers:—

FROM A MUSICIAN:—
To the Manager of "The Era" Advert. Dept.,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.
"Re Advertisement
"'WANTED, ENGAGEMENT BY CORNET.'
"Thanks for inserting above in the last number of your paper. I have obtained a comfortable shop. Had seventeen replies. You need not put in the second insertion.
"Yours truly, 'A GRATEFUL MUSICIAN.'"

FROM A BANDMASTER:—
"Re Advertisement, 'WANTED, A DRUMMER.
"Please do not insert my advt. for the second insertion, as I am pleased to say I have had twenty replies, and secured a Drummer.
"Yours truly, PHILIP GERMANN, Bandmaster,
"Littlehampton."

WANTED, Musicians who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls, or from any Newsagent in the United Kingdom, to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Michael Connelly, Musical Director, Violinist, Disengaged, Composer of Music "Silver King," &c. Pantomimes arranged. 54, Casewick-road, West Norwood, S.E.

WANTED, Known, First-Class Musical-Director at Liberty; brilliant Violinist; Variety business preferred. C. Fox, 35, Heathcote-street, Hanley, Staffs.

WANTED, by First-class Musical Director, Engagement in Theatre or Music Hall. Highest references. Box 4,022, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, as Leader or First Violin, experienced variety, dram. bus. A. PARISI, 106, Kenbury-street, Camberwell, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement as Leader, Theatre or Music Hall; good refs.; Disengaged Dec. 24. E. BURROWS, 3, Pound-villas, Banstead, Surrey.

WANTED, Re-engagement by Smart Young Pianist-Conductor (arranger), Theatre or Music Hall. HENRI ROCHELLE, c/o Burbridge, 22, Knowle-road, Brixton, London.

WANTED, Known, Miss Elsie West, Violinist, to Open for Engagements, Concerts, At Homes, &c. Lessons given. 17, Pyrland-road Highbury New Park.

WANTED, Engagement, as First or Second Violin, in Orchestra; steady and reliable. Write, J. A. FRAY, 1, Banksfields-rd., Mytholmroyd, Yorks.

WANTED, Engagement, by Lady Violinist, experienced, solo and orchestra, combined, piano accompanist. Refs. Miss KATE HUSBAND, 4, Lansdowne-street, Hove.

WANTED, Engagement, as First or Second Violin, in Orchestra; steady and reliable. Write H. FOREMAN, 29, Ilderton-road, Rotherhithe.

WANTED, Engagement, as reliable First or Second Cornet, can join at once. Address, C. BURROWS, 7, Stone-street, Hastings.

WANTED, Known, Cornet, young man, fair knowledge of music, height 5ft. 9½in., wishes join Police Band. Address, 68, St. Paul's-road, Salisbury.

WANTED, Engagement, by Clarionet, through closing Pier Pavilion, any Bus.; good refs. H. HART, 25, Sidney-road, Southport.

WANTED, by experienced Clarionet, Engagement, any business, reliable, abstainer; would deputise, London or Suburbs. SHEEHAN, 11, Pelham-street, South Kensington.

WANTED, Engagement by experienced Double Bass Player, Theatre or Variety; first-class references. G. Fox, 134, Queen's Park-rd., Brighton.

WANTED, Engagement, by Double Bass, through closing Pier Pavilion. High refs. Any Business. W. SAWYER, 24, Manning-road, Southport.

WANTED, Engagement, as Trombone, Theatre or Music Hall, or Deputising.
W. GOFF, 111, Upper Kennington-lane, S.E.

WANTED, Engagements, as Bass-Tuba, guaranteed capability and experience with the Leading Orchestras, including New Brighton Tower; deputising; distance no object. W. BANNISTER-LOUGHLEN, 2, St. Michael's-place, The Saltisford, Warwick.

WANTED, Orchestral Practice, for Little Girl, on 'Cello; also Good Engagements for 'Cellist. Mr. CASSELLE, 35, Granville-square, King's Cross-road, W.C.

WANTED, Known, First-Class 'Cellist, open for Engagements, town only. Address, Box 4,036, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, by experienced Oboe. Open for Panto. or Variety Business. WEBB, 75, Newington-butts, S.E.

WANTED, Known, Æneas Gibson, First-class Harpist and Pianist, immediate Engagement; young; travel abroad if preferred; reliable, sober. 164, Roundhay-road, Leeds.

WANTED, Known, Maud Estlin Grundy, age 19, Harpist; brilliant Soloist. All letters, 7, Provost-rd., Hampstead, London, N.W.

WANTED, by experienced Lady Harpist, Engagement for Panto. or Xmas Production. Box 4,018, c/o "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, Flute and Piccolo, London Theatre, or business; long references London; thoroughly reliable. PENFOLD, 74, Kenninghall-road, Lower Clapton.

WANTED, Engagement, by Flute and Piccolo, young, steady, and reliable; good ref.
FLAUTIST, 9, Garden-walk, Bridlington.

WANTED, Engagement by experienced Flautist, used to any business, Theatre or Music Hall preferred; good refs. Box 4,040, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, by Lady, as Accompanist, London or Tour. 39, Chelsham-rd., Clapham, S.W.

WANTED, Known, Musical Graduate seeks post as Pianist or Conductor; fully experienced. Address, Mr. D. DAVIDSON, 2, Wintour-street, Leeds.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

WANTED, by good Variety Pianist, any reliable Engagement, large or small, conduct and arrange; long experience and absolutely reliable, gentlemanly. LORENZO LEWIS, 3, Market-st., Exmouth, Devon.

WANTED, by Good Pianist, situation in Orchestra or upon Boat; fine reader, good soloist, first-class references from Union-Castle Line and Royal Mail Line as Conductor and Pianist; also Music Hall references. With good répertoire. Address, CHARLES KEETON, Red Lion, Costock, Notts.

WANTED, Engagement, by N. Robinson, Pianist, any Bus.; good reader, steady, reliable, excellent refs.; exper. var., drama. Bus. 227, Bowling Back-lane, Bradford, Yorks.

WANTED, Engagement, by well-known Pianist, London or suburbs; 10 years' experience London Halls. PIANIST, 37, Morgan-street, Bow, E.

WANTED, Engagement, as Double Drums, deputising or permanent; can open at once. A. EASOM, 16, Stonebridge-road, South Tottenham, London.

WANTED, Engagement, by steady, reliable Double Drummer; thoroughly experienced; Variety preferred; good refs. A. F. LILLE, 93, Queen's-road, Southend-on-Sea.

WANTED, Engagement, as Drums and Effects, experienced, any business, can combine viola or second violin. CHAPMAN, 140, Hampton-rd., Southport.

WANTED the Shakespearean Ladies' Orchestra (Viennese), copyright registered Stationers' Hall, twenty-two (or less) performers, magnificent costumes; highest criticisms. Conductor, Miss GASCOYNE OLD, 238, Edgware-road, London.

WANTED, Known, for Lady Instrumentalists and Bands, apply, Bureau, 8, Bedford-ter., Kensington. Bookings Johannesburg, Jan. to Dec. Quartet now Disengaged.

CIRCUS ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

KING OHMY'S GRAND CIRCUS,
BARROW-IN-FURNESS.

WANTED, Big Novelties in all Lines, at once and future dates; also Wanted, the Talent of the World; Riders, Gymnasts, Acrobats, Clowns, and Startling Sensations, for King Ohmy's Grand New Circus, which will open for the season in the town of Hyde, Lancashire, Dec. 24, 1906. All Artists must state when last appeared in the above towns. Address, KING OHMY, Ohmy's Circus, Barrow-in-Furness.

TUDOR'S HIPPODROME, BLYTH.

WANTED, First-Class Attractions, Big Combinations, with Singing Pictures preferred, Nov. 26, Dec. 3, 10, and 17; new stage, 22 by 46. Address as above.

POOL AND BOSCO'S CIRCUS, LTD.

WANTED, for Circus, Aldershot, Dec. 3, on. Artists in all Lines, including good Comedy Acts, Strong Shows, Cinématograph Pictures, Animal Shows, Riders, &c., &c. Nothing too good. Lowest terms. Bosco, Circus, Aldershot.

WANTED, Big Circus Acts and Novelties, for Hengler's Circus.
Apply,
HUMPHREY E. BRAMMALL, Hengler's, Argyll-st., W.

WANTED, a Top Man (about 8st.), for Two Acrobats, to play also Comedy for Acrobatic Sketch. Box 4,031, "The Era."

WANTED, Smart Boy,
about 8st,
one with slight knowledge of gymnastics preferred.
All information first letter,
Box 4,045,
"The Era."

WANTED, Legmania, Posturer. State height, age, salary, photo. if possible, FRED WOOD, General Post Office, Liverpool.

WANTED, smart Triple Bar Performer, to open at once. State tricks and particulars,
Box 4,034, "The Era."

WANTED, a Top Mounter, at once, for well-known Acrobats. E. STARLING, 57, Fortess-road, Kentish Town, London.

WANTED, Circus Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

CIRCUS ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known.—Notice to Proprietors, Managers, and Agents, Jackles and his Savage Brutes. Something New and Novel. A success every town we visit; 2½ years with Bostock and Wombwell's Great Shows through South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, &c. At liberty about the middle of February, 1907. 77, North-street, Wolverhampton.

WANTED, Known, Liberty Jan. 28, for three weeks only, the refined John Scott Family of male and female Equestrians, &c., five in number (one lady and four gents.), including Poor Billy, the King of the Ring.
For particulars, lithos., &c., address,
12, Charles-place, Hotwells, Bristol.

WANTED, Known, John Irvin and Miss Pinder will be at Liberty Dec. 3, with Six Bareback Acts, with own Horse, Riding Dog, and Flight of Pigeons, including my Foot Equilibrist show.
For terms, address, IRVIN,
144, High-street, Deptford, London.

WANTED, Happy Armstrong, Lightning Pyramid Drummer, Instrumentalist, Comic Patterer, Liberty Monday, onwards, exceptions, thanks to Richardson Bros. for contract, Olympia, Sunderland, Third Return. Wire, 40, Aspinall-st., Liverpool.

WANTED, Known, Dan Gregory, Musical Eccentric, has just finished with Tom Foy's Company of Comedians; have left on my own accord. This week, Grand, Stockton; next week, Nov. 26, Gilbert's Hippodrome, Yarmouth.

WANTED, Known, Les Steckels, Refined Gymnastic Speciality, specially retained this week longer by Payne Seddon, Esq., Opera House, Londonderry, usual success. Monday, Hippodrome, Stalybridge. Agent, STEBB, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Bodey Bros., Triple Bar Gymnasts. This, Empire, Merthyr; next, Palace, Portsmouth. Write for Dec. 3, 10, 17.

WANTED, Monday, also Dec. 3, the Maros, quaintest three-bar act. Big success, Public Hall, Barnsley. Perm., 126, Porter-street, Hull.

WANTED, Monday next, Miss Myria Lo-La, the beautiful and marvellous lady gymnast. Wire, LO-LA, 32, Victoria-street, Blackpool.

WANTED, Nov. 26, one week only, Alex and Jolly, first-class comedy three-bar act.
Wire, ALEX, Grand Theatre, Blackpool.

WANTED, Known, Ariel and Astarte, Lady and Gentleman, Gymnastic Pot-Pourri Act, free Dec. 10, 17; also New Year's week, North. Address, Hippo., Barrow-in-Furness.

WANTED, Dec. 3, to follow Worthing, Queenie Lolo, Charming Lady Gymnast; also Little May, Graceful Contortionist and Speciality Dancer; two distinct Acts. Address, Theatre Royal, Worthing.

WANTED, Known, Four Zolas, Lightning and Herculean Acrobats and Tumblers; also the Brothers Alpine, on the High Perch; just finished 9 months' tour, at Liberty Nov. 26 and onwards, also for Panto. Animal Parts and Speciality. 40, Tiverton-road, Bournbrook, Birmingham.

WANTED, Dec. 17, 24, only vacant dates, Mayeno Troupe, two ladies, two gents., Gymnasts, Acrobats, Tight Wire, three distinct numbers, comedy or serious. Perm., 30, Gt. George-st., Belfast.

WANTED, Dec. 3, for the Great Martelloni Troupe of Acrobats, through obliging a manager. Wire, Palace, Sunderland; next, Derby.

WANTED, Known, Almero, Aerial Norwegian Spar and Wire Act, Vacant for Xmas season, two reliable acts. Permanent, 142 Parnhead-road, St. Peter's Park, Paddington, London.

CIRCUS ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, Proprietors to see Harry Formosa, Equilibrist and Club Manipulator, in a Refined Novelty Act, at Liberty Dec. 3, 10, 17, 24. Apply, 53, Victoria-road, Grangetown, Yorks.

WANTED, Known, Young Man, good all-round Tumbler, wishes to join Tumbling Troupe or Comedy Sketch. GROGANS, 36, Ardgowan-place, Kingston, S.S. Glasgow.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, for the Opening of the Coventry New Hippodrome, Variety Artists
of every Description,
Big Productions,
Military and Equestrians,
Spectacles, Ballets, Pantomimes, scenes with 100 or more people taking part,
in fact,
the very cream of every branch of entertainment, fit to be exhibited on a
First-class Variety Stage.

Any price paid to right class of talent.

A comfortable engagement,
no outside interference,
and, above all,
no commissions stopped.

Apply, with terms, &c.,
T. M. SYLVESTER, 217, Piccadilly, London, W.

WANTED, Variety Artists, all Lines. Nothing too big. Send full particulars, with lithos. (if any), to MORGAN, Aquarium, Scarborough.

WANTED, Variety Artists, all Lines. Dec. 3, Palace, Sheerness. Quote lowest; hall small. P. REYMOND, as above.

WANTED, Variety Artists, in all Lines, Dec. 3, onward.
WM. B. BROADHEAD, Hippodrome, Manchester.

WANTED, Variety Artists, Big Numbers and Artists in all Lines, new to Wigan (Hippo.), one week, May 27, 1907. Summer terms.
Leo Vincent, ventriloquist, communicate at once.
JOE WALDRON, Empire, Burnley.

WANTED, First-class Variety Artists, all Lines, for Dec. 10, 17, 24, and onwards.
SITES, LIMITED, 213, Piccadilly, W.

EMPIRE, GREENOCK.
General-Manager, H. L. SKIVINGTON.

WANTED, Star Artists in all Lines. Nothing too big.
Salary or Share.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, for Immediate and Future Dates.
WILLIAM MOULD, Central Palace, North Shields.

WANTED, Artists for Glasgow Concerts. Lowest terms and permanent address to the SCOTTISH MUSICAL AGENCY, 107, George-st., Glasgow.

"CHESTER'S."
P. L. CHESTER (late Chester's Agency Limited).
30, Fennel-street,
Manchester.

WANTED, First-class Artists.
Correspondence invited.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines,
Palace, Lancaster.
J. FELL, Proprietor.

WANTED, Artists, Single and Double Turns, two weeks, Nov. 26, Dec. 3, 10, only dates vacant until end Jan. CHARLES A. JAMES, Waxworks and Varieties, Dublin.

WANTED, Artists for Dec. 3, must be new to Sandgate. Lowest Combination terms.
HICKS, 2, Aliwal-road, Clapham Junction.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Ballad Vocalist, &c., Dec. 10, 17. Lowest combination terms, DALE, Theatre Metropole, Hoyland.

WANTED, Artists in all Lines, from now onwards.
Apply, Mr. J. J. SCOTT, Empire, Wrexham.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, to Open Monday, Nov. 26, long tour, near Glasgow preferred. DUNLOP, 32, Victoria-street, Blackpool.

WANTED, Artists wishing to be Booked for First-Class Music Hall Engagements, to please communicate with BROOKS'S Agency 36, Shaftesbury avenue, W.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, nothing too big, commencing Saturday, Dec. 15, and every Saturday onwards. Artists can work their London engagements same time. Write VICTOR W. ROWE, 28, Herbert-road, Stockwell, S.W.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, for 3 weeks, Lancashire, Dec. 10, 17, and 24.
EVANS, 55, Berwick-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, Dec. 3 and on.
GEO. SAPHRINI, Palace, Boston.
Will Ahrensmeyer wire address?

WANTED, Artists coming North for immediate and later dates, write at once, big and small Specialities, also big Sensational Stage Act write at once. Artists writing to me for one price and proprietor for another save stamps. 'Phone 234Y5 Tron. DREW BAYLEY, 179, Saltmarket, Glasgow.

WANTED, Artists in all Lines, for Empire Palace, Dover, and the Alhambra, Sandgate. FRED DURHAM'S Variety Agency, 1A, Loughborough-road, Brixton, London, S.W. Telephone 15, Brixton.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, for Scotland, immediate dates. ANDERSON'S Agency, 6, Great Clyde-street, Glasgow.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Good Sisters and Serios. Send lithos., &c., SAM LEE, 48, Howland-street, Fitzroy-square, W.

WANTED, Artists in all Lines, Dec. 3 and onwards.
MANAGER, Britannia, Glasgow.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
DALTON'S AGENCY. Always send DALTON'S AGENCY. House Address as well
DALTON'S AGENCY. as Theatre.
DALTON'S AGENCY. A feature in connection
DALTON'S AGENCY. with this Agency will be DALTON'S AGENCY. Artists Vacant "Monday
DALTON'S AGENCY. next," also "Artists Vacant
DALTON'S AGENCY. Immediate Dates," and Art-
DALTON'S AGENCY. ists are requested to post
DALTON'S AGENCY. me if open Monday next,
DALTON'S AGENCY and mention at same time
DALTON'S AGENCY. any immediate vacancies;
DALTON'S AGENCY. but "Monday next" being
DALTON'S AGENCY. a feature in the future, a
DALTON'S AGENCY. penny stamp may mean a
DALTON'S AGENCY. shop. Please note to always DALTON'S AGENCY send private address where DALTON'S AGENCY. staying in the respective DALTON'S AGENCY. towns for early delivery of DALTON'S AGENCY. telegrams. Tele., "Gran-DALTON'S AGENCY. beste Withington," Tele-
DALTON'S AGENCY. phone, 193 Didsbury. 29,
DALTON'S AGENCY. Mauldeth-road West, With-DALTON'S AGENCY. ington, Manchester.

EMPIRE MUSIC HALL, PAISLEY.
WANTED, Known, the Proprietor having decided to close the above Hall after Saturday, Dec. 8, intimates to Artists that all Contracts made by present manager are hereby cancelled.

WANTED, Known, Alhambra, Edinburgh, Call Monday, Les Valdos, Andy Burn, Mlle. Bartenelli, Three Royal Temples, Mark Antony, Wallie Gilbert, Alhambrascope, Boultone.

WANTED, for Dec. 3, 10, and 17,
Stars in all Lines.
Stars in all Lines.
Full up for Smaller Items.
State Towns at Liberty for.
Can Fix Big Numbers any Odd Weeks.
CADLE'S Agency, 105-6, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Stars and Specialities, Dec. 24, onwards. Terms, &c., EDGAR STEBBINGS, 23, Egerton-street, Manchester. 'Phone, 09261. Wires, "Stebbing, Manchester."

WANTED, Stars and Specialities, for immediate and future dates. Terms and particulars to BROOKS'S Agency, 36, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Big Stars, Big Numbers, Anything Big, Anything that can draw, Nov. 26, Dec. 3, 10, 17, onwards. I can book you not only odd weeks, but First-class Tours. Wire or write, with full particulars.
JESS VERNO'S Agency, 16, Elizabeth-street, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Merriment." Telephone, 2076 Royal. Will Drum and Major please wire address.

WANTED, Star Turns,
Immediate and Future Dates,

GEORGE PEARSON'S Agency,
6, Dunstan-road, Honor Oak, S.E.

WANTED, Middle Turns, for Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, great vacancy; must be seen. GUISE, 27, Bonham-road, Brixton. Appointment only.

EMPIRE and GRAND THEATRE, DONCASTER.
WANTED, the Greatest Acts in the Profession, Speciality, Comedy Acts, for Dec. 10, '06, and onwards; must have full booking in all cases. Send lithos. and particulars to LEO FRITZ, Agent, Barnard's Music Hall, Chatham.

PALACE, KILMARNOCK.
Lessee and Manager, J. CUMMINGS.
WANTED, Star Acts, all Lines, absolute lowest, once nightly.

WANTED, all Dec, onwards, for South and North Wales, South Coast, Sunderland, Variety Acts all Lines. Full Bookings, permanent address, GANNON, West-grove, Bristol. Telegrams, "Fêtes, Bristol." Telephone 2536X Nat.

WANTED, Known, any Star Acts who have odd weeks vacant should send list of vacancies to FRANK LYNNE, 12, Cranworth-gardens, Brixton, S.W. (AYTOUN'S Agency.)

WANTED, Cycle Acts, Bioscopes, &c.
T. DIACOFF,
Victoria Theatre, West Stanley, co. Durham.

WANTED, for Keighley Institute, Yorkshire, for week commencing Jan. 7, Refined Artistic Novel Acts, that can be done on a small stage, Humorist, Smart Juggler, Vent. Conjurer, &c., &c., anything new and good, new to Keighley and attentive to business. State terms and all particulars, with private address, to CHARLES CLIFFORD, c/o Mrs. Melrose, 6, Great Clyde-street, Glasgow, and please accept silence as a polite negative pro tem.

WANTED, Big Specialities for Hippodrome, Cambridge, now opening at popular prices and under the management of Royle and Mervin. Write or wire.

WANTED, Good Speciality, Long Tour, musical, jugglers, or acrobatic, open Dec. 17, '06. Send fullest particulars, W. PARDOE, Theatre, Middleton, Lancs.

WANTED, Specialities, Specialities, now and onward, now and onward. MARTINO'S Agency, 125, Barcroft-street, Grimsby.

DEETRICH'S VAUDEVILLE BUREAU,
31, Islington, Liverpool.
WANTED, big Speciality, for Dec. 3, price no object; also strong singing number.
Always vacancies for clever novelties.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME, ROCHDALE.
WANTED, Variety Talent, Share or Salary. Rehearsal Monday next, 2 o'clock for Dainez' Circus, Three Seabornes, Sisters Volbecque, T. C. Jacques, Will Memory, The Camerons, Leo Fallowfield, Vernon's Bioscope.
Letters, SMITH and Co., Red Lion Hotel, Rochdale.

WANTED, Variety Novelties, Hugh Wiggles worth's Agency, late Manager, Blackpool, Morecambe, &c., 164, Meadow-st., Alexandra Park, Manchester

WANTED, the Cream of Profession. Those new to London can have a trial show. Send lithos., memos., and bookings, lowest terms, &c. Keep me posted every week. Many thanks to Henri Gros for giving Lily Arthur two dates at the Metropolitan, and two at Chelsea, also Parisian offer, 1,200fr. Sauteron. BILLY HENDERSON, seen by appointment only. Manager, Frank Lantin. 30, Handforth-road, Brixton-road London.

HIPPODROME, LOUGHBOROUGH.
WANTED, Good Tops, for Feb. 4, and on.
W. PAYNE SEDDON, Hippodrome, Londonderry.

HIPPODROME, DERRY.
Call Monday, Nov. 26, at 12 o'clock,
"The Vagabonds," Mlle. Asturte, The Cosmans, Brown and Spink, The Leonards, Garden's Quintette, The Sisters Virginia, Bioscope, Morton and Bowman. W. PAYNE SEDDON.

WANTED, Top of Bill, for Dec. 3 and 10; also good Singing Turns.
Address, WILL ONDA, Pier Pavilion, Southport.

WANTED, big Top Liners, for Hull, Wakefield, &c.; also other turns, Dec. 10 and on. Full particulars to ALFRED SELWYN, Empire Theatre, Hull.

WANTED, Known, Mr. Joe Haynes takes possession of the George, Newington Butts, Wednesday next, 28th, at 7. P.S.—Always can place Big Top or Bottom Lines. Passmores write.

BOGNOR PIER PAVILION.—SEASON 1907.
WANTED, Known.—The Bognor Urban District Council are prepared to receive Tenders for the Provision of Concert Parties and Band on the Pier for next season, from Whitsuntide to end of September. Particulars of the Council's requirements may be obtained on application to F. W. LOVETT, Council Offices, Bognor. Applications will only be considered from responsible Managers or Bandmasters willing to contract for the whole period, and individual performers need not apply.

WANTED, First-class Combination, Dec. 24, vacant through obliging.
Address, ELLISTON, Bolton.

JOHN H. TOMKINSON'S ROYAL GIPSY CO.
Established 1888.
WANTED, through artists leaving for Panto., really good Comedians, Refined Serios, Sisters, and Contralto Vocalist. Long and comfortable engagement to suitable people. Address, with fullest particulars and where can be seen working, to JOHN H. TOMKINSON, Smallthorne, Stoke-on-Trent.

WANTED, Ladies and Gentlemen, good voices, smart appearance, for Refined Party (Halls). Fullest particulars, Box 4,051, "The Era."

WANTED, two Vocal Comedians, one Tenor, one Baritone; must patter and dance; to join well-known Comedian, for Comedy Singing and Dancing Trio, for Music Halls; age under thirty. Apply TRIO, 77, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, good Comedian, Refined Lady Serio, and Specialities, for Picture Show; long tour, Liverpool Xmas. Lowest terms. MANAGER, 3, Lebanon-gardens, Wandsworth, London, S.W.

WANTED, Comedian (married), Refined, Wife pianist, also soubrette and dancer, for picture and variety tour. J. M. PETT, 4, Fordel-rd., Catford, S.E.

WANTED, for "Concordia," Smart Comedian; must knockabout and dance. PERCY HONRI, Queen's Park Hippodrome, Manchester.

WANTED, Young Lady, as Assistant to Illusionist. Apply, giving full particulars regarding age, height, &c., to Box 4,041, "The Era."

WANTED, Man with Modern Living Picture Machine, with latest up-to-date Films, for Winter Season, to take the management, on sharing terms, with proprietor, must be steady and a worker; hall in main thoroughfare. Apply, WILKIE, People's Palace, South Shields.

WANTED, Bioscope Operator, find own Films, Gas, and Machine, for an hour's Pictures nightly, one matinée, and Sunday evening's Concert. Monday next, near Middlesbro'. Wire, GOLDEN, Palace, Boston.

WANTED, at once, experienced Bioscope Operator and Electrician. State lowest terms and references. GRAHAM, Hippodrome, Hull.

WANTED, Bioscope, with Operator.
Address,
G. BROWN, Opera House, Northampton.

WANTED, for Bristol, Bioscope Operator (alternating current). Experienced men only need apply. Good salary to good man. CLEGG, Box 4,025, "The Era."

WANTED, Bioscope Operator, used to alternating current, open Monday. Wire, ONDA, Prince's Theatre, Preston; possible tour to suitable man.

WANTED, Music Hall Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Maud Esmond, London's Refined Burlesque Artist, open Panto., Boy, six weeks. Nov. 26, Walthamstow. 10, Kenbury-gardens, Camberwell.

WANTED, Known, Nellie Lovell, vacant one week, Dec. 3, also Disengaged for Panto., 1906-7. 88, Boston-street, Hulme, Manchester.

WANTED, by Florence Bell, Comedienne (late of Ten Dixie Girls), Nov. 19 and on, vacant panto. All communications, 6, Montague-street, Russell-square, W.C.

WANTED, Dates by Jessie Lacey, Serio Comic, Songs own, girl impersonator, decent turn and voice; country not objected. 106, Shirland-road, West Kilburn.

WANTED, by Florence and Lillian, in their artistic musical act, Dec. 3. Address, Empire, Nottingham; next week, Palace, Leicester.

WANTED, by Cento, the Cycling Monkey, Nov. 26, and onwards; a Novelty. Great success everywhere. All coms., 6, Middle Market-road, Gt. Yarmouth.

WANTED, by Herr Schuyler, World's Greatest Saxophonist, Dec. 3. Blackpool Times says: He is an artist of the first degree, and has performed all over the world. Wire, 49, Peter-street, Blackpool.

WANTED, Known, Phil Rabey, Comedian and Topical Vocalist, enormous success at Emp., Camberwell, where wire for Monday next, wire, unexpected vacancy.

WANTED, Known, Carl St. Clare, Phenomenal Male Soprano and Mimic, Lib. Mon., Nov. 26; would join quartette. C/o Bexfield, 77 Main-st., Gorbals, Glasgow.

WANTED, Known.—Important Notice to Managers and Proprietors. Dan Ashton, in Original and Copyright Collier's Song Scena; interesting, instructive, and entertaining, founded on fact (Wingate Colliery Explosion, Oct. 15, '06). Empire, Shildon, Durham; Monday, 26th, Theatre Varieties, Colne, Lancashire. Want immediate dates. Offers above. See Cards.

WANTED, Known, Will Gay, Comedian and Dancer, Lib. Monday. Terrific hit Islington Empire. Wire, 31, Princess-square, Kennington Park-rd., S.E. Any distance.

WANTED, through Parthenon closure, Monday next by Tony Iveson. Wire, Empire, Dover, till Saturday; then C/o SLEY, Manchester.

WANTED, by Allan Hanbury, Eccentric Patter Comedian, Monday next; also Dec. 3. Open Stoll Tour, Dec. 31. Wire, Palace, Gloucester.

WANTED, Dec. 17, onwards, by Harry Keeble, Versatile Comedian, and Hoozee?, the Perfect Ventriloquist. Always successful. Monday, Metropole, Hoyland.

WANTED, Known, Chas. Corona, Society Entertainer and Versatile Comedian, desires intermediate dates, Dec. 8, Jan. 22. Next, Theatre Royal, Waterford.

WANTED, Dec. 3, 10, 17, by Harry Gold, smart Singing Comedian, with a successful song-scena, "Cloudland," a big hit, on any programme. Offers required for the above dates. This week, Hippodrome, Wakefield. Nov. 26, Empire Theatre, Hull.

WANTED, Dec. 3, Bert Lytton, the Swell Comique. This week, Pavilion, Newcastle; next week, Hippodrome, Stoke.

WANTED, Known, George Edney, Refined Comedian and Descriptive Vocalist, vacant Dec. 3, 10, 17. Nov. 26, Westminster, Liverpool. Wire.

WANTED, Known, Bernardo, Comedy Juggler, Monday, Palace Theatre, Dundee.
Liberty Dec. 3, 10, 17, 24.

WANTED, Known, Little Hackenschmidt, the greatest Wrestling Marvel of the age, undisputed Champion Boy Wrestler and Herculean Pose Artist of the World, and pupil of the Russian Lion; meeting all comers, £100 challenge, tremendous success Leigh, Lancashire, London, Glasgow, and South Wales to follow. Managers wanting great draw secure this turn. Fast booking up only few vacant dates.
All coms., Megson's Royal Standard Agency,
8, Woodsley-road Leeds.

WANTED, Nov. 26 and on, by Jack Sheppard, the World's Greatest Handcuff King and Prison Breaker; also Miss Ruby Vesta, in the Greatest Trunk Mystery on the Stage.
Sure draw.
Wire, 249, Bond-street, Byker, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, by Marsuma, the Hypnotist and Magnetic Healer and Money Magnet, Dec. 3 and on, with exceptions; Share or Salary. Refer Harry Benet, Esq. This, Alhambra, Sandgate; next, Palace, Kidderminster (third return in ten months). Good lithos. and posters.

WANTED, Known, the World's Strongest Man, Attilla, the Grecian Gladiator, Liberty Mon. and Dec. 3. Wire, 195, Boaler-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Dec. 3, 10, the Mysterious Comedy Japanese Box, a laughing and applauding hit; don't miss this act; a Contortionist, Comedy Juggler, Conjurer, and Dog; wire KYOTO, Palace Theatre, Blackpool; vacant Dec. 3, 10, 31; also Miss May Geraldine, Dainty Dancing Comedienne; two distinct and successful acts. Wire or write, KYOTO, Palace, Blackpool.

WANTED, Known, Letta and Minni, vacant 26, and Dec. 3.
Address, 11, Addison Park-mansions,
Kensington, London, W.

WANTED, Monday next (one week only), by Maud Marlow, Charming Comedienne; and J. H. Crew, Quaint Comedian. Empire, Middlesbro', and Stoll Tour, &c., to follow. Starring return, Empire, Wrexham, where wire.

WANTED, Dec. 3 and 17, by Trick and Trixie, Comedy Musical Artists. Great success, this, Middlesex; next, Bedford.

WANTED, Jan. 14, Feb. 11, by The Moncktons, in musical farcical episodes, including latest screamer, "Are Wives Dummies?" Hippodrome, Bury.

WANTED, by Agnese and Arthur Lynch, in American Picture Songs, Dec. 3 and 10, to precede Cork. Hippo., Gt. Yarmouth.

WANTED, Monday next, also Dec. 3, 10, Sardou's Illusionists, 1,000 laughs in 1,000 seconds; also Marie Rivers, Comedienne. Wire, Palace, Gloucester.

WANTED, by Stanert and Yondi, comedy singing and dancing act, Dec. 3, 17, 24. Address, Empire, Dudley (fourth visit). Vac. also Panto.

WANTED, Known, Rezene and Robini vacant Dec. 31 and Jan. 14. Always a hit everywhere. Monday, Palace, Blackburn.

WANTED, by Chant and Chant, Vocal Comedy Duo, Monday, also Dec. 3, 10, 17, precede Panto., Scotland. Wire, Palace, Boston.

WANTED, Known, Austin and Austin, Eccentric Acrobatic Chair Pyramidist, Vacant Monday next, Regent, Salford. Wire for Monday. STEBBING'S Agency.

WANTED, Dec. 3, by the Mozondos Comedy Jumping and Tumbling Act. Next week, Hippodrome, Oldham. Wire above.

WANTED, Dec. 24, Jan. 21, Feb. 18, by Los Granadas, "Sensational Happening Outside an Hotel." Monday, Empire Theatre, Newport, Mon.

WANTED, Known, the Three Lloyds, Big Success, this week, Hippodrome, Glasgow, only double bounding cable act in the world, and no balance poles used. Next week, Palace, Blackpool. Vacancies Dec. 3, 10, 17. Ability and talent, not bluff.

WANTED, by the Three Danbrooks, musical comedy act. "A Lively Time in a Music Shop." Nov. 26, Dec. 10, 17. Wire, 16, Burtop-road, Lower Tooting, S.W.

WANTED, by Five Halyards, Dec. 3, 10, new Nautical Comedy Musical Scena, "Jack at Play" (own Scena). Address, "The Era."

WANTED, Monday next, by the Prinellas, in their beautiful Farm, Cornfield Scena, "A Country Flirtation." Wire, Alhambra, Edinburgh.

WANTED, Known, Ernestine Troupe of Dancers and Singers (seven ladies), now Touring Continent; Liberty at once for Pantomime. GUISE, 27, Bonham-road, Brixton.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, in or near Glasgow, Dec. 3 and 17, Jan. 7, 14, 21, 28, by the famous Mitchelson Family, up-to-date International, Continental, and Speciality Dancers, Vocalists, and Instrumentalists. Photos. and terms, 98, South Portland-street, Glasgow. Telephones, National 4Y1 Gorbals. Glasgow Post Office, 40, Red.

WANTED, Dec. 3, by Geo. Gulliver, Ventriloquist, to precede Belfast.
Address, Hippo., Stalybridge.

WANTED, by Hulbert, Ventriloquist, and De Lil, Illusionist, Monday next, also Dec. 10. Wire or write, 5, Union-road, Macclesfield.

WANTED, Dec. 10, for Matt Wilkinson's Screamer, "The Registry Office"; also Violet Beatrice, Dainty Boy Impersonator. Address, Palace, Dundee.

WANTED, Known, Caban's French Cirque, at Liberty Dec. 3, 10, 17, 24. Enormous success, Hippo., Londonderry. Re-engaged. All coms., Hippo., Londonderry.

WANTED, Known, Miss Ella's Lion Show, Best Trained and Finest Existing Lions on the Stage.
Vacant Dec. 3, 17, 24 (Xmas week), also Jan. 7, 14, and 28.
Address, week Nov. 26, Hippodrome, Lowestoft.

WANTED, Monday and Dec. 3, Percy Victor's Dog Orchestra; Eddie Clay, Comedy Musical Act. Empire, Stafford. After to-day, 48, Bilston-st., Wolverhampton.

WANTED, Known, Baton Spinner, Tumbler, and good Ragtime Dancer, would join Comedy or Speciality Act. MILRAY, C/o G.P.O., Glasgow.

WANTED, Dec. 3, on, Fontain's Mannikins, and The Lauriers, Comedy Conjurers, one or both acts. Now topping bill. Empire, Hull.

WANTED, by Young Man, Engagement with Comedy Sketch or otherwise; good Ragtime Dancer; can do few Comedy Tricks in Tumbling. Box 4,039, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Disengaged, Assistant-Illusionist or Assistant Conjurer. HILDA BERESFORD, 58, Heron-road, Herne Hill, London.

WANTED, by James Ambler, Engagement in Sketch or Baggage, and small parts; long engagement considered before big money. Thanks for offers. Woolpack Yard, Halifax.

WANTED, Booking for Walter Payne's Bio-Photoscopes, Films also for Hire, change weekly. 346, Brixton-road, London, S.W.

WANTED, Engagements, public or private, Harmon's Bioscope, Marionettes, also Royal Punch and Judy, with Toby. 326, Earlsfield-road, Earlsfield, S.W.

WANTED, Engagements, for the Lingwood Bioscope, change of up-to-date Films weekly; electric or lime-light. LINGWOOD, 31, Watcombe-rd., South Norwood.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known.—Write or call at Greene's, Falmouth-road, London, S.E., for .22 ammunition, rifles, globes, targets; absolutely cheapest market.

WANTED, Known.—A Word to the Wise is Sufficient. A Client writing June 25, 1906, says:—Bag puncher took £300 in a little over three months. For price, write Sole Agents to the Makers, viz., the Mills Novelty Co. MINERVA AUTOMATIC Co., 120, York-rd., King's Cross, London, N. Largest Variety of Automatic Machines in the trade. No Junk. Don't buy worn-out machines of old pattern; get a genuine Mills 1906 pattern.

WANTED, Auctioneers to Know, Simons, of 100, 101, 102A, Houndsditch, is going ahead with up-to-date Lines in Field Glasses, Fancy Goods, Clocks, Jewellery, &c. Send for Special Xmas Supplement. There is no cheaper house for you.

WANTED, Known, Electrical, Simpkin, Wilkinson, and Gibson, Kirkstall-road, Leeds, manufacture four and six pole Showmen's Dynamos (improved pattern), also new Flame Arc Lamps, geared motors, for driving organs and roundabouts, large stocks, cable, carbons, globes, incandescents, all classes of repairs; new line, direct coupled portable electric plants, driven by paraffin.

WANTED, Known, Auction Marts and others, R. Owens, 65, Market-street, Manchester, making up good Lines; good profit. Write for samples.

WANTED, Showmen to save money by sending for Leete's Catalogue of specially prepared paints, colours, varnishes, brushes, &c., and every requisite for decorating caravans, roundabouts, swings, &c. Cheapest house in the trade. A. LEETE and Co., 129, London-road, Southwark, S.E.

WANTED, Known, to Showmen, Balloon, magnificent advertising device, complete, £30, outfit, suitable for any business; big attraction, new condition, used one season, marvellous results; retiring from profession cause of selling. Seen pleasure, appointment. Bargain, £10, or nearest offer. Full particulars, stamp. T. H. A., 66, The Drive, Hove.

WANTED, Known, Showmen's Letter Cloths made and attractively painted in fancy colours. ROCHE, Artist, 22, Lansdown-road, Lee, London, S.E.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, EXHIBITION HALL.

WANTED, Artists for Carnegie's Christmas Carnival, for one or two weeks, commencing Christmas Eve, Comedy Combinations, with Artists giving Single Turns preferred.

Apply, CARNEGIE and Co., Ltd.,

144, Northumberland-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, Novelties and Exhibitions of all descriptions for best shop in Liverpool, and best position.
MANAGER, 34, Scotland-place, Liverpool.

WANTED, Novelties, with Paintings or Posters, for Monday next. Wire, wire, MADAME VALLUS, Permanent Exhibition, 129, Whitechapel-road, London, E.

WANTED, Novelties, for present and future dates, nothing too big; good Trance or Illusion write. THOMPSON, 78, Castle-st., Bristol.

WANTED, Novelties, to open Monday and onwards. Barber's Giant Girl write. PROPRIETOR, 100, Lower Marsh, Lambeth.

WANTED, Freaks, Giant or Giantess, Dwarf, Fat Boy, Bearded Lady, Long Tour in First-Class Music Halls; easy work; fares paid.

Apply, with photos., SECRETARY,
18A, Brixton-road, London, S.W.

WANTED, Freaks and Novelties, Open at Once, sale of books and post-cards allowed. CHARLES A. JAMES, Waxworks and Varieties, Dublin.

WANTED, Living Freaks, of Every Description, good shows. Terms, share. Write for present and future dates, MANAGER, 33, Bradshaw-st., Derby.

WANTED, Giants, Midgets, Tattooed Ladies and Gentlemen, Novelties, and Freaks of all descriptions. A. E. PICKARD, American Museum, Glasgow.

WANTED, Pictures, Novelties, Shooting Jungle, Character Delineator, Automatics, &c., Nov. 26, on, largest and only shop Leith. PROPRIETOR, 1, Promenade, Portobello.

WANTED, for Johnson's Circus of Varieties, two young lady paraders, or one, those used to fair business; also a good ground act. All letters address, Mrs. SARAH JOHNSON, Circus of Varieties, Market-place, Hexham, Northumberland. All next week.

WANTED, Lady Character Delineator.
A. E. PICKARD,
American Museum, Glasgow.

WANTED, a respectable Young Woman, to parade and assist in Living Van, good home all year round to suitable girl; must be domesticated. TAYLOR'S Electric Coliseum, Regent-street, Swindon, Wilts.

WANTED, First-Class Watchmaker, able to play Piano; good situation, steady, for Auction Vans. 128, St. Thomas-road, Preston.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

OLYMPIA,
OLYMPIA,
OLYMPIA,
KENSINGTON, W.

First International Fair and Carnival,
First International Fair and Carnival,
First International Fair and Carnival,
Eight Weeks, Commencing Christmas Eve.
Open all day, from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Admission Sixpence.
Admission Sixpence.
Admission Sixpence.

Proprietors, INTERNATIONAL FAIRS, LTD.
Registered Offices, 18, Fleet-street, E.C.

Directors:—
B. W. Rose, Esq., 35, Commercial-street, E.C., Chairman; A. E. Gatcombe, Esq., Trafalgar Mansions, Northumberland-avenue, W.C.; Robert Crossman, Esq., Isthmian Club, Piccadilly; Charles B. Cochran, Esq., 10, Leicester-place, W.C.

Bankers:—
Messrs. Barclay and Co., Ltd., 19, Fleet-st., E.C.
Solicitors:—
Messrs. J. Amery Parkes and Co., 18, Fleet-st., E.C.
Secretary, A. V. Godfrey.
Manager, Wallace Jones, Olympia.

Unparalleled Free Shows, including
The Magnificent Equestrian Company from the
Cirque Metropole, Paris,
Cirque Metropole, Paris,
Cirque Metropole, Paris,
The French Capital's Latest and Most Successful Home of Amusement.
The Best Circus Show in the World.

WILL HILL,
WILL HILL,
WILL HILL,
Presenting
the Greatest High Wire Act in the World.
The Sensation of Luna Park, Coney Island, for Three Seasons, and at present amazing all Paris at Frank Bostock's Hippodrome.

SEDGWICK'S MENAGERIE.
SEDGWICK'S MENAGERIE.
SEDGWICK'S MENAGERIE.

The Undefeated
GEORGE HACKENSCHMIDT.
GEORGE HACKENSCHMIDT.
GEORGE HACKENSCHMIDT.

Free Dancing Room.
Free Dancing Room.
Free Dancing Room.

Free Vaudeville.
Free Vaudeville.
Free Vaudeville.

Military Bands.
Military Bands.
Military Bands.

Refreshment Caterers, Messrs. J. Lyons and Co., Ltd.
Official Publishers, Messrs. Gale and Polden, Ltd
Lavatories and Hairdressing Saloons, Messrs. J. H. Faulkner and Co.

A Whirl of Merriment all day long.

A Mammoth Fun City.

WANTED, Known, Space can be Found for one more High-class Novelty Side Show with good fit-up and front. Anything of a refined character, except moving pictures.
Only one more, and it must be the best.
A little Special Space still remains for Stalls and Small Shows in the Main Hall.

Write for Plan and Prospectus to
THE SECRETARY,
The Mammoth Fun City,
10, Leicester-place, W.C.

Telegrams, "Interfair, London."
Telephone, 4319 Central.

WANTED, Engagements, Smith's Royal Punchinello. Sixty laughs in sixty minutes, and a little after. Novelties, Boxing Kangaroo, &c. Address, Ilfracombe.

WANTED, Known, Prof. Carl Whyte, Hypnotist, Lady in a Trance, Madame Celestina, Lady Wizard, and only Acknowledged Champion Knife Throwers, at Liberty for Christmas. Also Wanted, Novelties, open Monday, Ton-y-Pandy, Maerdy, Tirendall, good shops; share. Post Office, Mardy, Glamorganshire, S. Wales.

WANTED, Dates, by Mme. Wynema, Siberian Wolves and Snakes; also Collena's Sharpshooters. Address, 14, Woodbine-street, South Shields.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty, Tom Scott, King of Doorsmen for Exhibitions, High-class Shops, World's Fairs, &c. Address, Trades Exhibition, Hull.

WANTED, Known, Mlle. Flo (Tattooed Lady) and Ydac's Cabinet, Liberty Monday, on; Shares or Salary. Wire, CADY, 66, Kirkgate, Leigh.

WANTED, Engagement, Good Glass Engraver, Wire-worker, Electric Engraver, Gilding and Plating, used to Exhibition work. HUSKINSON, 14A, Parade, Margate.

WANTED, good Shops for a First-Class Novelty, for Monday, sure draw and good money taker. BIRCH, 47, Scott-street, Cardiff.

GRAND CHRISTMAS CARNIVAL, PAVILION, CARNARVON, NORTH WALES.

WANTED, Known, Space to Let, for one more Side Show, on sharing terms or otherwise, good position; also stand for 50 to 100 slot machines, Mutoscopes preferred; spaces in centre of the hall for wire worker, glass engraver, novelty stalls, optical goods, souvenirs, &c., &c. Note.—This is virtually new territory for all the above, so different to one that has been worked to death with them. Address, JAMES W. BOSTOCK, Barton-street, Gloucester. Exciting acts, such as Globe of Life, send vacant dates. Season three months. Changes weekly. Those playing Ireland note.—We are only nine miles from main line to Holy head; change at Bangor.

WANTED, Known, the Countess Bekoffska's Touring Charity Bazaar, good towns and halls, big draw, free admission, Spaces to Let for trade and other exhibits, side shows, &c. Terms, (payable in advance), 6d. to 1s. 6d. per square foot per week. No deductions from exhibitors' receipts. Agencies entertained. State full particulars at once to A. E. MURRAY, Post Office, Tunbridge Wells. Advance Agent write, state salary.

WANTED, all Showmen and Roundabouts Proprietors, Stall-holders, to know that Rochdale Christmas Fair will commence on Dec. 14, and continue till the 26th next, in the Cattle Market. All applications to WM. MITCHELL, Hindhill-street, Heywood.

WANTED, a First-class Space for Phrenology, at once. Address, PHRENOLOGIST, 3, Dryden-street, Nottingham.

WANTED, Known, Space to Let, for Set Gallopers or Motor-cars, in the Grand Carnival, Dundee; also dolly stalls, knife ringing, photographer, &c. Terms moderate. Opens Dec. 15 till Jan. 12.
Address F. H. HOBBS, Drill Hall, Dundee.

WANTED, Known, Space for good Midget Photographer to Let, in Touring Trades Exhibition. Shares or rental. Only really good man wanted. Long tour. Box 4,046, "The Era."

WANTED, to Let, Booths for Novelties, also Spaces for small shows. Apply, J. BEAUMONT, Market Yard, West Hartlepool.

WANTED, Known, Space to Let, for Side Shows, about 12ft. by 50ft.; acknowledged to be the most beautiful Illusion of the Age.
Box 4,024, "The Era" Office.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, Space, 50ft. by 40ft., in First-Class Exhibition, Gardens or Pier, for Minni Letta's Refined, Novel, Money-making Side Show, on the Rolling Stage. Can be seen working daily at the Olympia, London, for two months, commencing Xmas. Absolutely the only Show of its kind in the World. For particulars, address, 11, Addison Park-mansions, Kensington, London, W.

EXHIBITION AND CARNIVAL, AT PUBLIC HALL, IPSWICH, open Dec. 17 to 30 (two weeks). WANTED, Helter Skelter or Slip, also three more Spaces to Let for Photographs. Stamps, Wire and Engraving. Shares or Rental. Apply, BARRON'S Exhibition, Lowestoft.

WANTED, Auctioneers to Know, Simons, of 100, 101, and 102A, Houndsditch, has Special Departments for 9ct. Rings, Secondhand Watches, Unredeemed Pledges, and Cheap Jewellery. Send for Special Xmas Supplement. All up-to-date Lines.

Preliminary Announcement.
To Roundabout Proprietors, Showmen, Amusement Caterers, Speculators, and others.

WANTED, Known, that Tom Norman (Silver King) has received Instructions from the owners, who are retiring, to Sell by Private Treaty the Goodwill, and all those Roundabout Riding Machines at the Crystal Palace, Sydenham, namely, one large Steam Roundabout, known as the Boston Riding School, having seventy-two life-size Horses and two full-sized Wagonettes, with powerful Engine for driving the same, together with Organ, Organ Engine, and all accessories thereto, together with large Trucks for conveyance of same, all in thorough good condition and working order; also one set of Steam Horse Roundabout, consisting of twenty-four Horses and two Boats, together with Engine for driving the same, by Walker, Tewkesbury; Organ, Organ Engine, &c., &c., with Trucks complete, in thorough working order; also one set of Steam Bicycles, complete, to carry forty persons, together with Engine for driving same, by Savage, King's Lynn, the above also being in thorough good condition, together with a large quantity of Showmen's sundries, three portable sheds, engineer's tools, &c., &c. All of the above machines can be seen built up, and a trial run at any time, and all particulars on application to TOM NORMAN,
Showman Expert,
and
Authority on anything and everything connected with the business,
Auction Office, Manor Farm, Dallington, Sussex.
N.B.—If the above is not disposed of by Private Treaty by Dec. 6 next, it will be offered by Public Auction on a date to be hereafter announced.

WANTED, to Sell, carved and gilded Double Wagon, front Road, opens out to 44ft., in splendid condition, light and handy, stages, steps, all complete, the lot £150; also Piano Organ, only used twelve months, cost £18, cash price £8. Address, ANDERTON'S Modern Show, Shepton Mallet, Somerset. Note.—We will exchange front for first-class Slipping the Slip.

WANTED, to Sell, a good Pullman Car, cheap, for road or rail; fitted up well inside.
Apply, E. TANN,
High Mill-road, Southtown, Great Yarmouth.

WANTED, to Sell, three Rail Living Waggons, two compartments each, two figured Organ; together or separate. THOMPSON, 78, Castle-street, Bristol.

WANTED, to Sell, two Portable Engines, 5 and 6 horse power. Apply, RICHARDSON BROS., LTD., Olympia, Sunderland.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Machines, Husbands, Babies, Love-Letters, Palmistry, Lunatics', Marriage, and Liars' Licences. MEURICE, 39, Argyle-square, W.C.

WANTED to Sell, Automatic Fortune Machines, Money-takers, one to six drawers, cheap. Catalogue; samples free. MEURICE, 39, Argyle-square, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Machines, every description, new and second-hand. WORMALD, 123, Blythe-road, West Kensington, London. Established 1887.

WANTED, to Sell, Two Handsome State Coaches (the property of the late Duke of Cambridge), excellent advertising medium, together with four-in-hand harness, cheap. K., 28, Vaughan-road, Camberwell, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Razzle-Dazzle, complete, made by Howcrofts and Co., West Hartlepool, Savage's Centre Engine, also Organ; all new in May last year. Price and particulars, apply, J. WINGATE, Whale Museum, Skegness, Lincs.

WANTED, to Sell, Set Four Abreast and Three Abreast Gallopers, Steam Hobby Horses, Organs, &c. WALKER, Engineer, Tewkesbury.

WANTED, to Sell, Waxworks Exhibition, 65 complete figures, good dress, scenery, organ, and effects. STACEY, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Large Orchestrion, with Tunes, equal to full band, with water motor. Wanting room, must sell quickly.
Grand Attraction for place of Amusement.
GULDMAN and Co.,
7, Sugar-lane, Manchester.

WANTED, to Buy, Traction Engine, six or eight horse; repairs required no object. WALKER, Engineer, Tewkesbury.

WANTED, to Buy or Hire, a Booth, in good condition, size 24ft. front by 40ft. back, must be cheap for cash.
Apply,
BUTLER, 249, Munster-road, Fulham, London.

WANTED, immediately, Good Set Distorting Mirrors, for long tour. Sharing terms; or would buy outright if cheap. Box 4,047, "The Era."

WANTED, to Buy, a Good Fish Pond; must be in good order. R. MAUGHAN, Bisley Shooting Range, 49, Scotch-street, Carlisle.

WANTED, Wire Worker, as Partner, to go abroad. Large earnings.
E. H., Poste Restante, Worthing.

WANTED, Known, the Seventy Thousand Showmen who use the Columns of "The Era" and are moving about should know that they can make "The Era" Offices their Permanent London Address. Letters received will be held till called for, or immediately re-addressed, according to instructions. Address all communications respecting the Letter Department to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Showmen who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any Railway Bookstall to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street Strand W.C

WANTED TO SELL.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Sell, as a going concern, to dissolve a partnership, a Successful Music Hall, in good Provincial town; playing to big business; no opposition; part might remain on mortgage. Apply, with bankers' references, Box 3,738, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, Tights, Symmetrical Paddings, Woven Animal Dresses, Masks, Shoes, &c. H. J. BOXALL, 166, Waterloo-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Pantomime Dresses, in good condition,
Made by Eminent Costumiers.
Can be seen on application to the WARDROBE MISTRESS,
Drury Lane Theatre Royal, London.

WANTED, to Sell (taken for debt), Pantomime Dresses, all kinds; others, suitable any act. Must clear; only want seeing. CADLE, 105, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, Second-hand Pantomime Costumes, equal new, bargains, P. Boys, Kings, Barons, Dames, Dancers, Chorus, and Armour Dresses, 10s. to 30s. each. Apply, letter, REYNOLDS, 76, Brixton-road.

WANTED, to Sell, "The Geisha" Costumes, Scenery, and Properties of the popular English musical play. £200.
Apply to Mr. J. OLLER,
Moulin Rouge, Boulevard de Clichy, Paris.

WANTED TO SELL.

WANTED, to Sell, Walturdaw Bioscope, complete; latest new machine. Cost £30; will take £16 lowest. GRAHAM, 28, Chaucer-road, Herne Hill, London.

WANTED, to Sell, 20,000ft. of Films, majority good as new, from 1d. per foot.
POOLE, Palace, Gloucester.

WANTED, to Sell, Films, Black Beauty, Jail Bird, Caught by the Tide, Dog Saving British Flag, several others. BOLTON, Bioscope, Pontefract.

WANTED, to Sell, Shetland Ponies, large selection, for Pantomimes, Children, or Harness. Particulars and prices from G. STEPHEN, Braehead, Ferryhill, Aberdeen.

WANTED, Known, to Pantomime Producers, on Sale or Hire, over 100 Ponies, all colours, also Stage Harness in all shades; Sheep, White Horses, thoroughbreds, and the Wrestling Bull, all trained for stage work. FRASER HAY, 8, Jackson's-row, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell or Hire, Shetland Ponies, 30in. to 42in, 3 to 5 years, large stock.
ALEX. STEPHEN, Pony Importer, Aberdeen.

WANTED, to Sell, Black Entire Performing Pony (late Lorenzo's), ride, drive. Exchange illusion or anything useful, or easy payments, say £8 down. HERR FRITZ, Empire, Shepherd's Bush.

WANTED, to Sell, two very clever Performing Dogs, wire coated fox terriers, males. H. JOHNSON, 6, Middleton-road, Kingsland-road.

WANTED, to Sell, or Exchange for a Small Trick Dog, a pure white Bull Terrier (bitch), 11 months old; also Rough-coated Terrier (dog), 12 months old. Address, TOM BRANSON, Hastings, Sussex.

WANTED, to Sell, coloured Song Slides, 12 Old Folks at Home, 5s.; 11 Volunteer Organist, 5s.; 12 Excelsior, 5s.; 8 Anchored, 3s. 6d.; 7 Mona, 3s.; 6 Killarney, 2s. 6d.; 9 Daddy, 4s. MORRIS, 18, Tweed-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, to Sell, Stuffed Lion, also Dromedary Skin, suitable for Pantomime purposes. Offers to J. HARKINS, 114, Rose-street, S.S., Glasgow.

WANTED, to Sell, Living Marionette Figures, any character, beautifully dressed, ready for stage, 7/6 each. CLAY, 48, Bilston-street, Wolverhampton.

WANTED, to Sell, Braun Pattern Electric Engraver, nearly new, with Battery, complete, 50s. R. BOLTON, Jeweller, Kirkham, Lancs.

WANTED, to Sell, a Large Number of Pantomime Dresses and Properties.
Apply, T. F. DOYLE, Theatre Royal, Bradford.

WANTED, to Sell, Horizon and Prison Cloths, new, 18 by 24, cheap. SYKES, Scenic Studio, 11, City-road, Hulme, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, splendid tone brass Cornet, in nice case, by Keat, London, £3, or nearest offer; exceptional bargain to musicians. Box 4,020, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, back numbers of "The Era," from Sept., 1901, to date; clean, consecutively arranged. Offers, cash or exchange. PUGH, 192, London-road, Liverpool.

WANTED, to Sell, Grand Historical Moving Panorama of the Siege of Paris, and Paris during the Commune, each scene 20ft. long by 11½ft. in height, painted by the famous battle-scene painter of the Paris Salon, Mons. Henri Dupray, &c. Lowest price, £65. Particulars, WILFRED MORGAN, 787, Old Kent-road, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, in one lot or separate, three shop-soiled Gramophones, with sixty new records. 346, Brixton-road, S.W.

WANTED, to Sell, Doll Frame, complete, 30 figures, £8; Stereoscope (3) Boards, 14 set glasses, 40s. STACEY, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Captive Advertising Balloon, new, by Spencer, with 1,000ft. captive rope, gas capacity 2,000ft., complete, handbills can be dropped from Balloon, to be Sold cheap; also three almost new Road Living Waggons, can be seen near London; likewise two secondhand ditto. Wanted, to Purchase, a large Shuttered Booth, with seating, and all complete. John Fulcher send address to TOM NORMAN, Auctioneer, Dallington, Sussex.

WANTED, to Sell, or Let on Royalty, a Complete Spectral Opera Show, Fit-up, scenery dresses, &c. This business has had a long rest, and with energetic management a fortune is assured. Can also provide a First-class Comedian, who would Stage-manage the show. Address, DIRECTOR, 17, Mayland-terrace, Ilkley.

WANTED, to Sell, 200ft. of Seating, upholstered in 12ft. lengths, with standards, iron, gold bronzed. LEWIS and DEAKIN, 12½, Cleveland-street, Wolverhampton.

WANTED, to Sell, all kinds of Novelty Musical Instruments, Musical Surprises for Ballets and Pantomimes. LISLE, 5, Cuthill-road, Camberwell.

WANTED, to Sell, Undetectable Leg Paddings, Tights, Animal Skins, Blondin Donkeys, Elephants, Cows, &c. MAYERS, 22, Shepperton-road, Islington, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Monkey Dress, fit man 5ft. 4in., 8s.; also set of Sleigh Bells, very cheap. CAMBO, Palace, Bridlington.

Diamonds.
WANTED, Known, Lady has Pledged in the West-end, Brilliant and Sapphire Bracelet, £17; also Diamond Marquise Ring, £15. Lady unable to redeem, will sell vouchers £3. Call or write, 20, Bolingbroke-road, Kensington.

WANTED, to Sell.—Theatrical Managers are offered some unacted Stage Plays, Historical Dramas, and Comedies, of High Standard Literature. DRAMATIST, 19, Falkland-road, N.W.

WANTED, to Sell, "Aladdin" Pantomime Films, 800ft., 6,000ft. of others; also Wrench Cinématograph, cheap. Stamp for list. F. M., 4, Wellington-row, Bethnal Green, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Typewritten Stock Plays, Dramatic and Comedy Sketches, and Parts, Comedy parts written up. HAL COLLIER, Hippodrome, Stoke-on-Trent.

WANTED, to Sell, Old Skelt, Lloyd, Park, and Green Plays, from £1 each. MATHEWS, 120, Churchfields, Acton, London. Letters only.

WANTED, to Sell or Lease, successful Plays, complete, with scenery and properties. Address, T. E. WARD, 2, Hickman-road, Penarth, S. Wales.

WANTED, to Sell or Let, magnificent Fencing Sketch, Star Part for Lady; proved success; three characters (one could easily double); absolutely original; very moderate terms. Mrs. DAVENTRY, 5, Victoria-mansions, Holloway.

WANTED, to Sell, Good Comic Songs and Duologues (lady and com.), cheap. No rubbish. This and next, G. BARR, 26, Agnes-terrace, Grantham.

WANTED, to Sell, Military Band Music, new, cheap; suit small bands; also good March Books. Apply, HARVEY BROTHERS, Division-street, Sheffield.

The Publisher, "The Era,"
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.
"Dear Sir,—I ordered the following advertisement to appear in your paper for two insertions.

"'WANTED, to Sell, Self-acting Pianoforte, two barrels, twenty tunes, perfect condition, cost £44. What offers? MEURICE, 39, Argyle-square, W.C.'

"Kindly do not insert my advertisement again, as the self-acting piano which I had to sell has been sold to Mr. Jack Woolf, of Wonderland fame, Whitechapel-road, E. I had also ten other applicants through my advertisement in 'The Era.'
"Yours faithfully,
"J. H. Meurice.
"39, Argyle-square, W.C. Oct. 9, 1906."

WANTED TO BUY.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence

WANTED, to Buy or Lease, a Theatre or Hall; those with sites for same, please write. Address, THORNE, 3, Dryden-street, Nottingham.

WANTED, to Purchase, a Donkey's Skin, for Panto., must be in good condition. Particulars, SEARLE, 50, Church-rd., Stoke Newington.

WANTED, to Buy, good Bioscope, also Fittings for same and Films. State make and price. J. BILLING, 25, Orwell-road, Liverpool.

WANTED, big Films, secondhand, up-to-date, sensational, good condition, cheap for cash. Particulars, DAVIES, 50, Slaney-street, Newcastle, Staffs.

WANTED, Full Score or any Band Parts of Rossini's "Cinderella." Apply, MOODY-MANNERS OPERA COMPANY, Nov. 26, Theatre Royal, Bolton.

WANTED, two "Cinderella" Coaches.
FRASER HAY,
8, Jackson's-row, Manchester.

WANTED, to Purchase, Scenery, Street, Garden, and Chamber Scenes, with wings and borders, and with or without fit-up; a good scene-painter, who is also handy at sign-painting, wanted.
Address, JAMES W. BOSTOCK,
Barton-street, Gloucester.

WANTED, Pantomime Dresses, Scenery, Properties, Printing, &c., suitable for "Robinson Crusoe." Full particulars to ALFRED SELWYN, Empire Theatre, Hull.

WANTED, to Buy, a Set Secondhand Three-Throw Double Cranks.
Box 3,961, "The Era."

WANTED, a Stage Cloth, size about 30 by 28. Reply at once to FRED CLEVELAND, JUN., 129, Burton-road, Brixton, S.W.

WANTED TO LET OR HIRE.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

PARTHENON, GREAT CHARLOTTE-STREET, LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, Wanted, to Let, this old-established Music Hall (1869); beer and wine licence. Renovater throughout in 1904; early possession.
Apply, E. W. SMITH, at the premises.

PIER PAVILION, NEW BRIGHTON.
WANTED, Known, the Pier Company is prepared to receive proposals for letting Pavilion (with heating and electric light) for Entertainments, from Dec. 10 until Easter next. Apply in writing, SECRETARY, New Brighton Pier Co., 17, Water-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, to Let, Victoria Rooms, Cheltenham, seat 1,000. Vacant Dec. 10, 31, Jan. 14, onwards. Minstrel Troupe do well. Silence a polite negative. Dramatic licence.

WANTED to Let (Rental), Byculiah Athenæum, Enfield. Any kind of Entertainment. Scenery. Address, MANAGER, as above.

WANTED, to Let, Empire Music Hall, Paisley, as from Dec. 31. Share or Rental. Apply, J. H. SAVILE, Theatre, Paisley.

WANTED, to Let, a large Hall, in seaside resort, near large town, two years' lease, suitable for Hippo., Circus, or Variety. Rent, £80 season.
Address, with references,
T. H. C., Royal Hotel, Grimsby.

WANTED, to Let, suit beautifully engraved Armour, £50; Swords from 2s. each; 100 pairs Roller Skates, 1s. per pair; set Sleigh Bells, £3; Distorting Mirrors, £3; several Illusions, from £2 to £15 each; Giant Microscope, £10. CROWTHER, Royal Hotel, Grimsby.

WANTED, Lease of Provincial Theatre, North of England preferred. Address, with full particulars, ARTHUR DE FRECE, 12, Cecil-court, Charing Cross-road, London, W.C.

PARTNERS WANTED.

WANTED, Young Gentleman, with Capital, to join advertiser (well known in variety circles) in running comedy sketches, experience not essential, but one able to play small part preferred. Full particulars to C., 38, Craster-road, Brixton Hill, London, S.W. Please note.—Interview by appointment only.

WANTED, Lady or Gentleman, with £200, for a New, Novel Top-bill turn.
Principals only.
Lady preferred.
Experience not necessary.
Write Box 4,033, "The Era."

WANTED, by a Gentleman with small capital, Partnership with Variety, Dramatic, and Musical Agent (established). Particulars in confidence to Box 4,021, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, a good Ring Performer, at Liberty to join Partner or Troupe.
Box 4,030, "The Era."

WANTED, Partner, Acrobat (top mounter), Tumbler. Send me full particulars. H. G., 7, Victoria-house, South Lambeth-rd, London.

WANTED, Known.—Advertiser, who plays Banjo, Mandoline, and Harp, requires a Partner; must play an instrument and be able to sing. Address, Box 4,027, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement by Comedian, Sing, Dance, Patter, and Tumble, Partner or Sketch; good refs. SPROUL, 109, Kirkland-street, Glasgow.

WANTED, Partner, in Well-known Variety Agency. An active partner. Apply, Box 3,993, "The Era."

MISCELLANEOUS.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, F. G. Wright, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker, Electrical Engineer, and Theatrical Blacksmith. 66 and 68, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, to Let for Practice, Wright's Gymnasium. Absolutely Private, Comfortable, and Reasonable. Apply, 66 or 68, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, C. Kinch, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker, Theatrical and General Blacksmith. 17, St. Mary-square, Kennington-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Known, for Ventriloquial and Marionette Figures and Specialities, LE MARE and SON, 28, Coupland-st., Oxford-rd., Manchester

WANTED, Known that we do Picture Postcards, 100 5s., 250 8s., 500 12s., 1,000 16s. Send photo and cash. SENIOR and Co., Cotham Hill, Bristol.

WANTED, Known, prompt printing at Elphick's Colour Printers, Biggleswade, Day Bills, ¼ D.C., one colour, 10s. 6d. 1,000; two colours, 500 10s. 6d.; 1,000, 14s.; Handbills, 7s. 6d. 10,000; Posters all sizes, Art Memos, 2s. 6d. 200; Roll Tickets, 6d. 1,000. Send for Estimates. Telephone 22.

WANTED, Known, Printing, 50 large Memos, in colours; 50 Visiting Cards; Envelopes, or Postcards, for 7d. Beautifully printed. WHITESIDE, 15, Minshull-street, Liverpool. Agents wanted.

WANTED, Known, for Artistic and Cheap Lithos., write to EDWARD HARRISON, Litho. Studio, 125, Brompsring-lane, Sheffield.

WANTED, Known, the Godfrey Sutcliffe Noted Modelled Advertising Novelties; anything designed, modelled, and coloured to order. 1, Weighton-road, Anerley, S.E.

WANTED, Known, to Panto. Dames, "The Suffragette," Permission to sing (Panto. only), 5s.; Piano, 1s. extra. J. RUSSELL BOGUE, Prince's Theatre, Preston.

WANTED, Known, Band Parts, 3s. 6d.; Melodies, Curtains, Incidentals composed; transposing; Books, 4s. 7d. ten; &c.; Duplicating. COTTLE'S Bureau, 86, Coldharbour-lane.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted, Proprietors, Managers, and Electricians to know that the Tollerton Hand Feed Arc Lamp, for Stage Projectors, are the Simplest, Cheapest, and will not get out of order.
Now being used with great success.
Write for list.
TOLLERTON, 30, Carlisle-terrace, Leeds.

WANTED, Known, to Theatre and Music Hall Managers, the Cheapest, Simplest, and Most Effective Patent Electric Lime for Stage Purposes on the Market. For quotations, apply to J. WEBSTER, 10, Randallwell-street, Bradford.

WANTED, the Marvellous Howards to wire immediate to REVELL, New Empire, Stafford.

WANTED, Known, Rozel, Le Roi de l'Air, the Gymnast, is not the party advertising in last weeks "Era" with Bedford Music Hall address.

WANTED, produced, grand new three-act Comedy-Opera, music by first-class Composer; sure draw. NOVELTY, 10, Cicely-road, Peckham.

IF THE BOX, Clothes, &c., left at 40, Bloomsbury-street, W.C., about seven weeks ago, are not claimed within six days, they will be sold to defray expenses.

NEW COLLEGE, EASTBOURNE.
MESSRS. KILLICK AND DAVIES WILL SELL by AUCTION, on the premises, on Thursday, Nov. 29, 1906, at 11.30, a large quantity of effects, including excellent Stage and Costly Scenery, &c.
On view day previous to Sale.
Catalogues of the Auctioneers, Terminus-road, Eastbourne.

FAIRS, SHOWS, WAKES.

70,000 SHOWMEN
OF THE
UNITED KINGDOM
REQUIRED TO SEND FOR THE SHOWMEN'S YEAR BOOK
FOR 1906. JUST OUT.
Edited by the Rev. T. HORNE.
Entirely Re-arranged, Corrected, and Enlarged. 100 Pages.
PRICE - - ONE SHILLING.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS.

British Shows and Showmen.
Constitution and Rules of the "Showmen's Guild."
List of Fairs. Local Feasts and Wakes.
Synopsis of Bye Laws, &c., &c.

INVALUABLE TO ALL WHO FOLLOW THE FAIR

SOLD AT "THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, LONDON, W.C.

"CINDERELLA" AND ALL SPECTACULAR PRODUCTIONS.
TO BE LET ON HIRE.

Twenty Teams of Matched Ponies with Patent Leather Harness. In all Colours and same as used at Drury Lane Theatre last Xmas, and now at Porte St. Martin, Paris.

The Handsomest White Horses in the World for "Dick Whittington."
Twenty-Four Ponies with full Military Equipments, as used in the Drury Lane Pantomime "Jack and the Beanstalk."
Also the Plunging Water Horses for "Siberia," "Tally Ho!" etc., etc. "Cinderella" and other Carriages also supplied, and every class of Animal for Stage.

Apply HALES, The Universal Animal Provider,
40, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND.

"THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN THEATRICAL PROFESSION."
ON SALE WHEREVER THERE IS A PLACE OF AMUSEMENT.

NEW YORK DRAMATIC NEWS.

ISSUED WEEKLY with from 24 to 28 Pages, handsomely Illustrated, with Reports from over 1,000 Cities and Towns in the United States and the Foreign Stage, covered by Special Correspondents.
Has the exclusive patronage of Messrs. CHARLES FROHMAN, KLAW and ERLANGER, LIEBLER and CO., WILLIAM GILLETTE, NIXON and ZIMMERMAN, GEORGE EDWARDES, NAT C. GOODWIN, HENRY W. SAVAGE, and, in fact, every prominent Theatrical Manager.
Foreign Subscription, ONE POUND A YEAR. Advertising Rates, One Shilling per Line.
London Office, Clarence House, King William-street, E.C. JOHN PARKER, Manager.
Communications may be addressed to MAX ELIOT, Special London Correspondent, 3, Queen's Gate Terrace, S.W.

NEW YORK DRAMATIC NEWS,
BROADWAY THEATRE BUILDINGS, NEW YORK, U.S.A.

The Leading American Theatrical Weekly.

THE NEW YORK DRAMATIC MIRROR.

HARRISON GREY FISKE, Editor and President.
121, WEST FORTY-SECOND-STREET, NEW YORK, N.Y., U.S.A.

All the American Theatrical News.

For Sale in London at PALL MALL AMERICAN EXCHANGE; Carlton-street; Regent-street; Norman's Agency, 33, Haymarket, S.W.; and American Exchange, 3, Northumberland Avenue, W.C.

If you contemplate an American Tour send the news ahead through the medium of an advertisement in

THE BILLBOARD

AMERICA'S LEADING THEATRICAL WEEKLY.
It has the largest circulation in the United States of any paper in its class. Advertising Rates, 8s. 4d. per single column inch. This double column space, 16s. 8d. single insertion.
London Offices: 8, Rupert Court, W. John Moore, Manager.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

EARLY TRAINS.

The Railway Companies are despatching many morning trains earlier than hitherto. This will enable subscribers and advertisers in the provincial towns to get copies of "The Era" in time for the breakfast table. Advertisers are requested to forward their advertisements as early in the week as possible, and not later than 7 p.m. on Thursday.

Address:
THE PUBLISHER, The Era Buildings, 5, Tavistock Street, W.C.

FOR SALE

By Public Auction, and without the slightest reserve, at

ANCIEN TATTERSALLS FRANÇAIS,

ROUTE DE LA REVOLTE, NEUILLY, PARIS,

On WEDNESDAY, NOV. 28th, 1906,

Commencing at 1 p.m., sharp,

THE GRANDE

MÉNAGERIE ANGLAISE

Comprising several Splendid Groups of Lions Tigers, Leopards, Bears, Wolves, &c. Two Good Working Elephants, Five Camels and Dromedaries, Zebras, Gnus, Antelopes, Deer, Kangaroos, Birds, a number of Monkeys, including an Adult Mandrill in full colour, the Smallest Pony in Europe, Twelve Animal Wagons, Two Wagon Front (opening out 52ft.), other Living-Carriages, Lorries, Agent's Trap, and the General Effects of a First-class Travelling Menagerie.

N,B.—Forty Heavy Cart Horses and Harness will be sold the following day.

COLWYN BAY,

SEASON, 1907.

APPLICATIONS

ARE INVITED FOR SUPPLYING

TOWN AND PROMENADE BAND

(VOLUNTARY),

MINSTREL TROUPE, PIERROTS

AND OTHER SPECIALITIES.

For information apply to the

CLERK to the URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL

COLWYN BAY, NORTH WALES.

A Plot of Land to let adjoining the Promenade for Cinematograph or other similar performances.

CRAVEN'S Famous HAMPERS.

The World's Strongest and Best, as used by the Elite of the Profession.

RELIABLE TRAVELLING HAMPER.

Fig. 400.

Sizes and Prices as under:—

Inside Measurements. Long.	Wide.	Deep.	PRICE.	Lining.	Tray.	G.P.O. Rollers on bottom.
24 x	14 x	14 ..	6/10 ..	3/2 ..	3/0 ..	2/0
26 x	16 x	16 ..	7 9 ..	3 6 ..	3/0 ..	2/3
28 x	18 x	18 ..	8/9 ..	4/0 ..	3/3 ..	2/6
30 x	20 x	20 ..	10/6 ..	4/6 ..	3 6 ..	2/6
33 x	21 x	21 ..	12/6 ..	5/3 ..	4 0 ..	3 0
36 x	22 x	22 ..	14/6 ..	6/0 ..	4/6 ..	3/0

Illustrated Catalogues Post Free.

T. CRAVEN,

The Basket Factory, Manchester.

15, Marsden Court, Fennel Street.

You must be reminded of the EXPERT SERVICE at your command. . . .

We are Specialists for

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOS.

in all Modern Processes

Artistic in POSE, STYLE, and FINISH.

We do the right kind of Photos. for Artists, and at Special Advantageous Rates.

Get our Professional Price List.

THE Hana STUDIOS Ltd.,

22, BEDFORD STREET, STRAND.

PROFESSIONAL APARTMENTS.

Three Lines, ONE SHILLING.
Thirteen Insertions, TWELVE SHILLINGS.
Address, PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

BIRMINGHAM.—Mrs. Clarke, 22, Bath-row, 3 bedrooms, 2 sitting-rooms, 1 combined; piano; vacant panto. Cars for Royal and Alexandra Theatres now pass door.

BLACKPOOL.—Superior Apartments for Professionals, facing sea and promenade. recommended. 23, Wellington-terrace, Promenade.

BLACKPOOL.—Crown Hotel. Absolutely Central. All Theatres 1 to 3 min. low inclusive terms. Write Dick Forrester.

BRADFORD.—Professionals' House of Call is the Oddfellows' Arms (Saloon Bar Entrance, opposite People's Palace). John Bramham.

BRIGHTON.—Seven Stars, Ship-street, opposite G.P.O. The Professional House. Sunday Réunions. Always a hearty welcome. Luncheons, &c., at pop. prices. DE COSTA, Proprietor.

BRISTOL.—Prince's Hotel, adjoining Prince's Theatre; select, comfortable; good cuisine. Terms upon application to John Hobbs.

EASTBOURNE. — Devonshire Hotel, adjoining the Hippodrome. The Professional House. Agent for M.H.A.R.A. W. Webb.

EASTBOURNE.—Warm, Sunny Apartments, recommended, min. Hippo. and Theatre; bath, gas, piano; mod. Mrs. Hope, 14, Royal-parade.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—Right Against Royal Aquarium, large rooms, good cooking, piano and bath. Mrs. White, 10, Paget-road.

LIVERPOOL. Apartments. Mrs. Fairburn, 17, Baker-street. Bath rooms. Terms moderate.

LIVERPOOL.—Mrs. Collinson has Two Bedrooms, one Combined Room, two Sitting Rooms; pianos, bath, &c.; highly recommended. 38, Norton-street, off London-road.

LONDON, N.—Islington. 86, High-st. Com., also Sitting and Bedroom; few doors from Empire, Grand T., Collins', Sadler's. Good cooking; moderate.

LONDON, N.—Mrs. Beatrice, 35, Florence-street, Upper-street, Islington. Vac. Dec. 2. Two minutes Empire, Collins's, Sadler's, and Grand.

LONDON, N.W.—Furnished Apartments near Camden Theatre. Apply, 68, Delancey-street.

LONDON, S.E.—Mrs. Fred Gilbert. Comfortable Apartments, Good Cooking, Good Pianos, Main Road. 19, Kennington Park-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Large Front Sitting-room and Bedroom; comfortable, good cooking; moderate. Sunday, 71, Kennington-road.

LONDON, S.E.—253, Kennington-rd. —Comfortable Sitting and Bed Rooms; also large combined. Good cooking and attendance. Pianos. Highly recommended. Mrs. Robin.

LONDON, S.W.—Victoria. Double Bedrooms and Sitting Rooms, newly furnished. 25, Beesborough-street, Belgravia.

LONDON, S.W.—Brixton. Kingsley, Saltoun-road, Furnished Apartments, Every Comfort. Professional House. Vacant Sunday.

MANCHESTER.—Bed-sitting and Combined Rooms; pianos, bath, &c.; good cooking. Mrs. Prince, 37, Rumford-st., Oxford-st.

MANCHESTER.—Mrs. Franks, 1, Rosamond-place, Upper Brook-street. Sitting and Bedroom, two Combined Rooms; central; piano.

MANCHESTER.—Mrs. Starchie, 53, Grafton-st. Apartments, bed and sitting-rooms; piano; bath (h. and c.), w.c.; good cooking and attendance; open for panto.

MANCHESTER.—Sitting, with One or Two Bedrooms, Bath, Piano, Lav., &c., Good Cooking, Recommended. Mrs. Harrold, 27, Greenheys-lane, C.-on-M.

PRESTON. — Stanley Arms Hotel. Sitting-rooms, Bedrooms, Bath, Piano, 3 minutes amusement places. F. Halliday.

SHEFFIELD.—Royal Victoria Station Hotel. Special Professional Terms, 9s. per day, inclusive, or by arrangement. Write, T. M. OSBORNE, Manager.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL. Mr. W. SMITH begs to notify to the Music Hall Profession that he has removed his Offices from Laurence Pountney Hill, City, to 17, Craven-street, Charing Cross, W.C., where he still continues to make advances upon their Contracts.

TO ACTORS AND ACTRESSES. Money advanced on Contract Notes. For particulars apply to Mr. CHARLESWORTH, 1, Charing Cross, London, S.W. Tel. 6213 Gerrard.

WELL-KNOWN, Fully-licensed Music Hall, with Public-house attached, situate about five minutes from Elephant and Castle, S.E. The whole to be Let on advantageous terms to suitable tenant; or would be Sold. Letters to M. M. A., at Horncastle's, 61, Cheapside, E.C.

A WORLD-WIDE CIRCULATION.

THE ERA

IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE WORLD.

"THE ERA" IN PARIS.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

THE ANGLO-PARISIAN EXCHANGE,

60, RUE CAUMARTIN, PARIS.
(C. M. ERCOLE, DIRECTOR).

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED

Apply or Address,
ANGLO-PARISIAN EXCHANGE,
60, Rue Caumartin, Paris.
Cable Address, "ERCOLE, PARIS."
Telephone 23,469.

CALLS. CALLS.

LIVERMORE PALACE TOUR.
ABERDEEN.
DUNDEE.
SUNDERLAND.
BRISTOL.
PLYMOUTH.
also KING'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Address all Communications, Billing, Matter, &c., (2 clear weeks in advance of opening) to Messrs. ROSEN AND BLISS, 56, Whitcomb-street, Leicester-square, London, W.C. Telegrams: "Twopence, London." 'Phone, 7623 Gerrard.
N.B.—Interviewed by appointment only.

GLASGOW PAVILION.
CALL for Monday, Nov. 26, 1906. 7. Twice Nightly. 9.
Rehearsal, at 11 o'clock, for
Miss Jessie Huddleston, Daisy Jerome, Tom E. Hughes, Ara, Zebra, and Vora, Gertie Gitana, The Regal Opera Singers, "Barmaids," Charles Troupe.

GREENOCK PAVILION.
Rehearsal, at 2 o'clock, for
George Lashwood, Queenie May, Osborn and Brooks, La Martine, Pavoscope, Kloof and Ramsay.
All bill matter must be sent to Glasgow 14 days ahead. Failing this, Artists will run the risk of having their contract cancelled. By order, SAMUEL LLOYD, General-Manager

THE PALACE, GLASGOW
Sole Proprietor and Manager, RICH. WALDON
All Bookings are now made direct from above Hall.
All Contracts made on behalf of the Palace, Glasgow, on or before April 7, 1906, and not yet completed, will be carried out.
Bill matter must be sent two weeks in advance.

CALL for Monday, Nov. 26, at 12 o'clock, Arthur Stacey, Ross and Grayson, Dolly Harmer, Billy Burtford, Frank Keegan, Emily Warren, Bros. Huxter, Superba, Belle of Barcelona.
Address, HARRY MCKELVIE, Business-Manager.

LONDON AND PROVINCIAL PANTOMIMES COMPANY, LIMITED.
CALLS.
"Cinderella," King's Theatre, Kirkcaldy. All concerned. Monday, Dec. 3, at 11 a.m.
"Fair One with the Golden Locks," Gaiety Theatre, Leith. All concerned. Monday, Dec. 10, at 11 a.m.
"Jack the Giant Killer," Grand Theatre, Falkirk. All concerned. Monday, Dec. 10, at 11 a.m.
"Red Riding Hood," New King's Theatre, Sunderland. All concerned. Monday, Dec. 17, at 11 a.m.
"Cinderella," Marlborough Theatre. Chorus, Thursday, Dec. 13, at 11 a.m. Principals, Monday, Dec. 17, at 11 a.m.
No excuse for absence accepted.
Signed, STANLEY ROGERS, General-Manager, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

PANTOMIME CALL.
GEO. BRYDON-PHILLIPS' COMPANIES.
Seventeenth Season.
The ladies and gentlemen engaged for above, please note.—The first rehearsal for West London and Chester Productions will be held at the West London Theatre on Monday, Dec. 10, 1906. Small parts and chorus at 11; Principals at 1. All fares will be paid for Chester company there and back to London by the management. Those ladies who have signed other contracts and do not attend, please read penalties in agreement, which will be strictly enforced.
G. BRYDON-PHILLIPS.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Owing to the
REFUSAL TO GRANT LICENCES for the PALACE, TOTTENHAM,
and
HIPPODROME, HOUNSLOW
(for no apparent reason), these Halls are reluctantly closed pending an appeal. Due notice will be given to all Artists booked of the Re-opening. In the meantime all Engagements are null and void.
CISSIE LOUIE LAWSON.

POOLE'S PALACES, GLOUCESTER, AND PORTH.
NOTICE TO ARTISTS.
Before concluding Engagements in the Rhondda Valley, please read your contracts, which will be strictly adhered to. Ton-y-Pandy is only 3 miles from Porth. Messrs. Poole hope to announce soon other Palaces in connection with their Circuit.

ARTISTES WANTED
requiring Sound Investments and Residences for Occupation, Rents Collected, Estates Managed, Mortgages Arranged, Surveys and Valuations made, to consult Messrs. CRABB & SON, Auctioneers, Surveyors, Estate Agents, and Valuers, 100, Brixton Hill, S.W. (close to Water Lane). Telephone 643, Brixton. Manager, Mr. WALTER INGE.
Note.—Messrs. Crabb and Son have the honour of being Estate Agents to the élite of the Profession.

MR. BEN DAVIES

(The World's Famous Tenor)

WRITES:

"It gives me great pleasure to state that I consider your

'PHONOZONE'

has a very remarkable effect on the voice, curing hoarseness in a very short time, and bringing forth all the beauty and resonance of the VOICE."

PHONOZONE, PRICE 2/3, from Chemists, or Post Free from VIANOZONE CO., NORTH SHIELDS.

FIVE HUNDRED REPLIES

IN ANSWER to
ONE ADVERTISEMENT in the WANTED COLUMNS of
"THE ERA."

Mr. ALBERT HENGLER, writing from the HIPPODROME, GLASGOW, says:—
MY ADVERTISEMENT IN THE LAST ISSUE OF YOUR PAPER BROUGHT ME CLOSE ON 500 REPLIES.

AN EXCELLENT RESULT.

Particulars of
THE PUBLISHER,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C
(Two Doors off Wellington-street).

PANTOMIME SONGS.

REEDER & WALSH'S PANTOMIME SONGS.

"SAILING HOME." (Free.)
By MELLOR, LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.
The artistes who secure this song will "sail home" to their audiences' hearts at once.

"VERA." (Free.)
Hammock song
By MELLOR, LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.
Will make a splendid scena. Several Managers wanted a song similar to this last year.

"GOOD NIGHT, MY LITTLE DAFFODIL." (Free.)
By LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.
No Principal Boy will be complete without this.

"HAVE YOU NOTICED THE PAPERS TO-DAY?" AND "NO, NO, NO."
MARK MERRY'S SUCCESSES.
The Comedian who sings these in Panto. will be sure of good notices in the papers to-morrow.

"HOW'S THAT?"
By WORTON DAVID & SHIRLEY ILTON.
Ask the Public.
T. E. DUNVILLE'S NEW SONG.

"THE CHINAMAN."
By SAM MAYO & WORTON DAVID.
SAM MAYO'S BIG HIT.

"MY LITTLE REDBREAST."
(Free.)
By LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.

"THE SANDWICH WALK."
(Free.)
By BODEN & BRANTFORD.
Sung by HARRY FORD.
AND ALL OF HARRY FORD'S OTHER SUCCESSES.

Good Duet for Pantos. Suit any voice.
"THE WAY TO DO IT."

REEDER & WALSH,

14, CASTLE STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.

To Pantomime Producers, Artists, and Others.
"MOLLY, I LOVE YOU!"
One of Last Pantomime Season's Greatest Successes.
ALL WHO SANG IT
and
ALL WHO CAUSED IT TO BE SUNG
Should now Give Special Consideration to "BRIDGET,"
and
"WHY DO THE GIRLS LOVE CHARLIE?"
Two Catchy Chorus Songs by the Author-Composer of "MOLLY, I LOVE YOU!"
Specially arranged band parts issued for each song. Write, or call on, FRED W. LEIGH, 142, Charing Cross-road, London, W.C.

"SOAP," "SOAP," "SOAP."
T. E. Dunville's Trusty song skit.
Panto. rights, £2 2s.
Secured this week
by Howard and Wyndham, for Newcastle, Edinburgh, and Glasgow.
Communicate,
ELLERTON, 90, Vassall-road, Brixton.

HOTEL PROPRIETORS.
To Hotel Proprietors who regularly file "The Era."
HANDSOME ILLUMINATED METAL TABLETS
of
"THE ERA"
will be supplied gratis on application to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

PANTOMIME SONGS.

PRICE and REYNOLDS'
PRICE AND REYNOLDS'
PRICE AND REYNOLDS'
SONG SUCCESSES.
SONG SUCCESSES.
SONG SUCCESSES.
SONG SUCCESSES.

"A DEAR OLD SWEETHEART."
"A DEAR OLD SWEETHEART."
"A DEAR OLD SWEETHEART."
"A DEAR OLD SWEETHEART."

"HER LIPS ARE MADE FOR KISSING."
"HER LIPS ARE MADE FOR KISSING."
"HER LIPS ARE MADE FOR KISSING."
"HER LIPS ARE MADE FOR KISSING."

"ANOTHER LITTLE GIRL IN YOUR EYE."
"ANOTHER LITTLE GIRL IN YOUR EYE."
"ANOTHER LITTLE GIRL IN YOUR EYE."
"ANOTHER LITTLE GIRL IN YOUR EYE."

"SAME GIRL ON SUNDAY."
"SAME GIRL ON SUNDAY."
"SAME GIRL ON SUNDAY."
"SAME GIRL ON SUNDAY."

"COURTING AT HAMPTON COURT."
"COURTING AT HAMPTON COURT."
"COURTING AT HAMPTON COURT."
"COURTING AT HAMPTON COURT."

"I'M OFF TO DELAGOA BAY."
"I'M OFF TO DELAGOA BAY."
"I'M OFF TO DELAGOA BAY."
"I'M OFF TO DELAGOA BAY."

"THE GARDEN OF MY HEART."
"THE GARDEN OF MY HEART."
"THE GARDEN OF MY HEART."
"THE GARDEN OF MY HEART."

"ALL HE WANTS IS A GIRL."
"ALL HE WANTS IS A GIRL."
"ALL HE WANTS IS A GIRL."
"ALL HE WANTS IS A GIRL."

"IONA."
"IONA."
"IONA."
"IONA."

"PETER PEACOCK, ESQ."
"PETER PEACOCK, ESQ."
"PETER PEACOCK, ESQ."
"PETER PEACOCK, ESQ."

"ON THE PIER."
"ON THE PIER."
"ON THE PIER."
"ON THE PIER."

"WHERE THE BANYAN GROWS."
"WHERE THE BANYAN GROWS."
"WHERE THE BANYAN GROWS."
"WHERE THE BANYAN GROWS."

"WHAT! WHAT! WHAT!"
"WHAT! WHAT! WHAT!"
"WHAT! WHAT! WHAT!"
"WHAT! WHAT! WHAT!"

"ONEOTA."
"ONEOTA."
"ONEOTA."
"ONEOTA."

"LADYBIRD."
"LADYBIRD."
"LADYBIRD."
"LADYBIRD."

"ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLE."
"ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLE."
"ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLE."
"ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLE."

PRICE AND REYNOLDS,
PRICE AND REYNOLDS,
PRICE AND REYNOLDS,
41, BERNERS-STREET, LONDON, W.
41, BERNERS-STREET, LONDON, W.
41, BERNERS-STREET, LONDON, W.

SPECIAL FOR PANTO.

A NEW SONG. ONLY JUST READY.

"THE OLD REGIMENT."

Words by CLIFTON BINGHAM,
Music by GILBERT LOEWE.
Nothing like it for years.
A Grand Marching Song, with an irresistible swing and go that will fetch any audience.
Chorus, Tempo di Marcia:—
True, true and steady, in danger ready,
As in the days of old, the valiant days of old.
Times may change and years go by,
But glorious deeds shall never die,
The gallant name and the deathless fame
That they won in the days of old.

"HUSH ME TO DREAMS."

By KENNEDY RUSSELL.
A really Charming Song for Principal Girl or Boy. Now being sung with the greatest success by Miss Margaret Cooper at the Palace Theatre.

DON'T MISS THESE

or you will be sorry.
Professional Copies Post Free on Receipt of Three Stamps. Band Parts, Post Free, 1s.
CALL AND HEAR THEM.

GOULD and CO.,
25, Poland-street, London, W.

THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO.,

3, BERNERS STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.

"SIXPENNY SUCCESSES."

CHAMPION "SONG-PLACERS" OF THE WORLD.

PANTOMIME PRODUCERS! PANTOMIME PROPRIETORS! PANTOMIME PERFORMERS

NOW READY! FOUR "DARK HORSES" UP OUR SLEEVES ALL THE TIME."

"THERE'S A BIG SHIP SAILING IN THE MORNING." By the Authors and Composers of "Our Bamboo Bungalow," MELLOR, LAWRENCE, & GIFFORD.

"BRITANNIA'S SCHOOL." By SAM RICHARDS.

"SHE DIDN'T COME FROM BORNEO."
Miss Clarice Mayne's Terrific Success. By PAUL PELHAM, NEWTON BUTTS, & HERBERT RULE.

"YOU DON'T MISS DE WATER." Sung by Misses Frances Letty and Esta Stella.
HARRINGTON & TATE'S Absolute Greatest "Winner."

Send at once for our GRAND PANTOMIME BUDGET of SUCCESSFUL SONGS.

PROFESSIONAL COPIES OF ANY OF ABOVE, 3 STAMPS EACH, POST FREE.
WRITE FOR OUR COMPLETE LIST OF POPULAR SONGS.

Professionals in search of "FREE SONG HITS" — Write or Call! Write or Call!
THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO., 3, Berners Street, Oxford Street, London, W.
Telegrams, "Lyrical, London." Telephone, 12805 Central.

MOSS' EMPIRES, Ltd & SUBSEQUENT STOLL COMPANIES

(Moss Thornton & Stoll Theatres, Amalgamated)

Chairman: SIR EDWARD MOSS.

WORKING IN CONJUNCTION.
Capital £2,086,000.
Managing Director:
OSWALD STOLL.
Assistant Director and Chief of Staff: FRANK ALLEN.

(Including the London Coliseum, Ltd.)

Chairman: OSWALD STOLL.

CO-OPERATIVE OFFICES: CRANBOURN MANSIONS, CRANBOURN STREET, LONDON, W.C.

INTERVIEWS BY APPOINTMENT ONLY.

Telephone:—1399 Gerrard

CALLS FOR MONDAY, NOV. 26, 1906.

Wires: "Twigsome, London"

THE LONDON HIPPODROME.

"The Earthquake," Bellonini, Marzella's Birds, Kellinos, Two Butterflies, Maningos, Grisse Bros., Morris and Vincent, Schwartz Bros., Stelling and Revell, "Daily Mirror" Boy Army, Three Tauberts, Bioscope, Lavater Lee.

EMPIRE PALACE, EDINBURGH.
Rehearsal at 1.30 for:—
Marie Duma, Ginnett's Remounts, the Clarkes, Glenroy Troupe, Clarice Netta, Bioscope, Ray Maskell, "Rogues of the Turf," Harry Herbert, Alec. Thorne, Chas. Fisher and Co.

EMPIRE THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
"Three of a Kind," Bioscope, Francis Letty, Sid Myra, Greta May, Holden's Mannikins, Stavordale Quintette, Frank Maura, the Courtiers, Phil. and Nettie Peters.

ZOO AND HIPPODROME, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
Carl, Bioscope, Jessie Burnett, Paxton Trio, Three Clarions, Jordan and Harvey, Sydney Dolf, Delomes, Selma Braatz, R. T. Meikle.

COLISEUM, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
"Moses and Son," Bioscope, Violet Ray, Molasso Quartette, Shawlene, Les Voces, Indian Fakirs, Sylvia du Barry.

EMPIRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Karno's "Early Birds," Rosie Archer, Lyons Trio, Mason and Bart, Dion Wade, Daisy Dormer, Pat Rafferty, Ed. Laurie and May Beatty, Bioscope, Gracie Moore.

PALACE THEATRE, HULL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
"Mad Minstrels," J. H. Milburn, Baker and Balfe, Bros. Hayes, the Maples, Minnie Cunningham, Albertine Melisch, Lucia and Viata, Bioscope.

EMPIRE PALACE, LEEDS.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Chung Ling Soo, Bros. Horne, Arthur Lloyd Trio, Chas. Pastor, Daisy O'Malley, Techow's Cats, Hall and Earle, Bioscope, Lauri Clare.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BRADFORD.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Harmony Four, De Wynne Bros., Frank Sylvo, Burley and Burley, Ernest Ball, Rita and Roma, Joly, Hanid Alexander, Daisy James, Bioscope.

EMPIRE PALACE, SHEFFIELD.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Boissette's "Trip to the Contient," Bros. Obo, Macarte Sisters, Knick Knacks, Frank and Jen Latona, Lilieth Leyton and Co., the Haytors, Conway and Leland, Harry Carsdale, Bioscope.

EMPIRE PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Eugene Stratton, Bioscope, Alfred Hurley, Beatrice Willey, J. W. Rickaby, Fielding and Hull, Beatrice Renee, Will Vokes, Phillips and Terry, Nellie Wallace.

BORDESLEY PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
George Formby, Bioscope, Lilian Lowe, Frank Harwood, Boswell's Circus, Woodhouse and Wells, Six Imrie Girls, Ella Retford.

EMPIRE PALACE, LIVERPOOL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Carl Hertz, Bioscope, Eight of Hearts, Marguerite Broadfoote, L. W. Harris, Griffiths Bros., Les Rubens, Rio Bros., Marie Santoi and Co., Fred Clements.

OLYMPIA, LIVERPOOL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
"The Flood," Bioscope, Adeler and Sutton's Pierrots, Lena Willard, Ben Albert, Percival, Mezzettis, Parker and Parr, Trippelo, Kremos.

EMPIRE, HACKNEY.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Arthur Roberts and Co., Tom Costello, Frobel and Ruge, Three Ramoniers, Young and De Voie, James Brady, Victor Newman, Jeannie Mackay, Welsh Wanderers, Bugler Carr.

EMPIRE, HOLLOWAY.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Phil Ray, Harry Anderson, Winnie Derson, Northern Troupe, Wilson and Waring, the Ohms, Alexander, Harold Hughman, the Guitanos, Lilian Dundas and Co.

EMPIRE, NEW CROSS.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
The Leopolds, the Saphos, Matweef Troupe, Sybil, St. Elmo, Tom Owen, Frank Elliston and Co., Speedwell, Fred Elton, Millie Hylton, Lloyd Langdon.

EMPIRE, STRATFORD.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
"The Dandy Thieves," Monte Myro Troupe, Ernesto Die Schultzenlieserlyn, Schenk Bros., Carney and Armstrong, Ed. Forde, Raie Walters, Hetty Chattell.

EMPIRE, SHEPHERD'S BUSH.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Cot and Colibri, Albertus and Millar, Herr Fritz, Strolling Players, Harry Coates, Harry Lawson, Lily Tiso, Millie Payne, Annie Abbott, Bioscope, Wotpert Trio.

EMPIRE, CARDIFF.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Bob Hutt and Co., Aurora Troupe, James Stewart, Amoros Werner Troupe, the Dandies, Jimmy Shields, Billy Farrell, Johnnie and Charlie, Bioscope.

PHILHARMONIC HALL, ST. MARY-STREET, CARDIFF.
Cinématograph Exhibition, Curio Halls, Roller Skating, Phonograph, Waxworks, Galatea, Magic Maze, Shooting Ranges.

EMPIRE, SWANSEA.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Ted and May Hopkins, La Milo, Arthur Roece, Amy Sullivan, Mezzetti and Mora, Stein Eretto Troupe, Barton and Ashley, Cliff Ryland, Bioscope.

EMPIRE, NEWPORT.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Horace Jones, the Althoffs, Los Granadas, Mandie Ford, Hale and Francis, Harriett Vernon, E. J. Sheldon, Godfrey James, Bioscope.

EMPIRE, NOTTINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Vesta Tilley, Paulinetti and Piquo, Clemart, Will Mitcham, Maud Ross, Lilian Warren, Hector, Le Cren Trio, Bioscope.

PALACE, LEICESTER.
Rehearsal at 2.30 for:—
Ginnett's "Dick Turpin," Ludwig Amann, Victor Travers, Florence and Lillian, Avrigny Troupe, Amy Russell, Five Bogannys, Lil Hawthorne, Roy and Fenton.

ARDWICK EMPIRE, MANCHESTER.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Mark Sheridan, Bioscope, Lizzie Daniels, Brett and Orford, George Brooks, Gordon Highlanders, Ray Wallace, New Macs, Sisters Dorrell, Dutch Daly.

HIPPODROME, MANCHESTER.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Albert and Edmunds Troupe, Bioscope, Illustrated Song, Bonnie Goodwin, Cairns and Lynch, Imperial Russian Troupe, Fred Holland, Fred Daniels, Alexander and Hughes, Oswald Williams.

THE LONDON COLISEUM.

CLOSED.

THE FOLLOWING ARE BOOKED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ABOVE:

EMPIRE THEATRE, DUBLIN.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
"Casey's Court," May Fallowfield, Henri Taylor Trio, Pictures, Nellie Farrell, Walter King, Maxwell and Francis, Walter Curtis, May Henderson.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BELFAST.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Hal Godfrey and Co., Sybil Montague, Frank Couch, Sisters Lavender, Sauterons, Geo. Westland, Ned Graydon, Selbinis.

EMPIRE PALACE, SOUTH SHIELDS.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
"Where's Aubrey?" Co., May Orchard, Lee and Kingston, Pat Carey, Elia and Dacie Hope, Pictures, Ambrose Thorne, Rosie Reval, George Newburn.

RICHMOND THEATRE, RICHMOND.
Proprietor, Mr. George Dance.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Boggis' Spectacle, Fred Bronte, Rivington and Gordyn, Sisters Lytton, Agnes Molteno, Frank Boyce, Lily Esplin, Pictures, Mabel Bright and Co.

HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, WALSALL
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
Little Ganty, Madge May, Daisy Mayer, Silent Tait, Vetter Bros., Bioscope, "The Globe of Life," Hesketh Meade.

THE GRANVILLE, WALHAM GREEN.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Mabel Bardine and Co., Laurie's Kindergarten, Arthur Lennard, Jake Friedman, Morny Cash, Oakdene, Tom Shenton, Rosie Lloyd, Dora Martine, Lola Patey, Walton and Lester, Thompson's Topweights, Calcotts, Keith, Merson, and Co., Pictures, Kitty Rayburn, Barney Armstrong.

THE PALACE, CAMBERWELL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
First Performance: "Prince of Monte Carlo," Pictures, Florrie Forde, Harry Weldon, Ted Cowan, Walter Stanley, Kitty Rayburn, Lola Patey, Juno Salma, Jackley Wonders, Wm. Lee and Co., Sisters Slater.
Second Performance: "Prince of Monte Carlo" Co., Pictures, Florrie Forde, Barney Armstrong, Ted Cowan, Oakdene, Kitty Rayburn, Leah Laurie, Ike Scott and Son, Jackley Wonders, MacCann's Dogs, Sisters Slater.

EMPIRE, COVENTRY.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Paul Conchas, Sutcliffe Family, Madge Morley and Co., the Motramos, Beattie and Blanche, Sisters Finney, Frank Darwin, Gertrude Bradshaw, Bioscope.

EMPIRE, SUNDERLAND (in course of erection).
Artists should be careful to keep Dates Open for this Theatre, Booking for which will shortly commence.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ARTISTS.

Artists must have Band Parts for at least Twelve different Instruments for the Orchestras (Fifteen for those engaged at the London Coliseum). Matter for Bill, Blocks, and Specimens of Pictorials FOR ALL THE ABOVE THEATRES must be sent to Co-operative Offices, at above address, THREE WEEKS before Opening, or at least TWO WEEKS, failing which Artists will run the risk of having their Engagement cancelled.

IMPORTANT.—Artists must forward Copies of Songs to the STAGE DEPARTMENT, ABOVE ADDRESS, TWO WEEKS previous to Opening, with Assignments for same, which will be returned. Artists are requested to note carefully that the clause in their contracts relating to rehearsals will in future be strictly enforced.

ARTISTS WILL CLEARLY UNDERSTAND THAT THEIR BUSINESS MUST BE FREE FROM ALL VULGARITY.

N.B.—Silence in every case a polite negative. Artists are requested not to enclose stamped envelope. Letters marked "Private" will be delayed.
Telephone, 1399 Gerrard. Wires, "Twigsome, London."

The Greatest Aggregation of Variety Theatres in the World.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER'S

11th HOUR PANTO. NOVELTIES.

"FIGHTING FOR THEIR KING AND SIRELAND."

(A Grand Patriotic Song),
Written and Composed by Edward Montagu.
There's a mighty little island, where the west wind blows,
Where the oak tree grows, and the red, red, rose;
And her native sons have never failed to thrash her foes.
The whole world knows it well.
Though her rivals always envy her, and try to claim
That she's not the same at the fighting game;
Her sons throughout the world will still uphold her name,
And win anew the glories of her fame.
Chorus:—
At duty's call in line will fall, whenever danger's nigh,
The boys who'll waste no time in idle brag;
From colonies beyond the seas the men who'll do or die.
Underneath the same old flag.
The gallant Scotch, the old Black Watch, those fighting Highland boys,
And then that dear dare-devil Pat from Ireland,
Tommy Atkins tried and true, sailor lads in navy blue,
Fighting for their King and Sireland.

Write for Full Copy and hear the Melody.

"ARRAH WANNA."

(An Original Irish-Indian Song).
Words by Jack Drislane, Music by Theodore Morse.
'Mid the wild and woolly prairies lived an Indian maid,
Arrah Wanna, queen of fairies, of her tribe afraid.
Each night came an Irish laddie O, with a wedding ring,
He would sit outside her tent, and with his bagpipes loudly sing.
Chorus:—
Arrah Wanna, on my honour, I'll take care of you;
I'll be kind and true.
We can love and bill and coo.
In a wigwam built of shamrock green, we'll make those red men smile,
When you're Missis Barney Michael Carney from Killarney's isle.

Write for Full Copy and hear the Melody.

"THE GOOD OLD UNION JACK."

(A Dramatic Story and Stirring Refrain).
Words by Jack Drislane, Music by Theodore Morse.
Tell me, daddy, tell me, why those men in that big crowd,
Won't you tell me why they're cheering, what makes each one look so proud?
Listen, lad, he answered, it's the tune the brass band plays,
It's the song, "Britannia Rules the Waves," and you'll know one of these days.
Chorus:—
Makes no diff'rence where you wander, makes no diff'rence where you roam;
You don't have to stop and ponder for a place to call your home;
When they ask where you were born, lad, speak right up and answer back,
That you're proud of your own dear Motherland, and the good old Union Jack.

Write for Full Copy and hear the Melody.

See our Special Advertisement on Page 24.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER,
142, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

THE ABSORBING TOPIC.

"WHAT TO SING IN PANTO."

SONGS THAT WILL BE EVERYWHERE.

"BY THE SIDE OF THE ZUYDER ZEE."
"AU REVOIR, MY LITTLE HYACINTH."
"MY BUNGALOW IN BORNEO."
"WHEN THERE ISN'T A GIRL ABOUT."
"THERE'S ALWAYS ROOM FOR A GIRL."
"WHAT HAS BECOME OF OUR SONGS?"
"COLOMBO." "STOWAWAY."
"YOU ARE MY IRISH LILY."
"WALTZ ME AROUND AGAIN WILLIE."
"I WANT NO OTHER LITTLE GIRL BUT YOU."
"IF I HAD BEEN BORN A GIRL."
"SHE HASN'T DONE HER HAIR UP YET."
"WOULD YOU CARE?"
"LOOK OUT MR. MAN."

REMEMBER A HIT SPELLS "FAME."

WE CONTROL THE HITS THIS YEAR.

B. FELDMAN & CO., 2 & 3, ARTHUR STREET, NEW OXFORD STREET, W.C.

MOSS' EMPIRES, LIMITED

(MOSS, THORNTON, AND STOLL THEATRES, AMALGAMATED),
AND
STOLL COMPANIES

(INCLUDING THE LONDON COLISEUM, LTD.).

RE APPLICATIONS FOR ENGAGEMENTS

All applications by either Artists or their Agents must be made to the Head Office.

Lowest terms must be stated, and distinction made between salaries required for larger and smaller towns.

Vacant dates should be stated. If a list of existing bookings be sent, it will render selection easier.

Artists employing Agents should accredit one only at one time, as the friction arising when several Agents are employed at the same time, all expecting the one booking to go through each of them, often renders it expedient to avoid that booking altogether rather than give undeserved offence to several Agents.

New Acts seeking Engagements, or turns not re-booked (possibly because they have played a series of dates without introducing new business), will facilitate matters by having their acts seen by our District Managers. Their Districts and Postal Addresses are as follows:—

MANCHESTER, LIVERPOOL, AND DISTRICT.
MR. ALAN W. YOUNG,
Empire Theatre, Liverpool.

EDINBURGH, GLASGOW, NEWCASTLE, AND DISTRICT.
MR. S. GETHING,
Empire Theatre, Glasgow.

LEEDS, SHEFFIELD, HULL, BRADFORD, AND DISTRICT.
MR. T. GERALD MORTON,
Empire Palace, Leeds.

BIRMINGHAM, NOTTINGHAM, LEICESTER, AND DISTRICT.
MR. HATTON WHARTON,
Empire Theatre, Nottingham.

SOUTH WALES DISTRICT.
MR. W. LEA,
Empire Theatre, Cardiff.

LONDON DISTRICT,
MR. WILLIAM COLLINS,
The Empire, Shepherd's Bush, W.

N.B.—Mr. OSWALD STOLL or Mr. FRANK ALLEN can be seen by appointment on all matters arising out of the above, and for the discussion of entirely new Numbers.

All Artists or Agents who communicate with our District Representatives must have made definite applications, in accordance with above directions, to the Head Office, at the same time, or just previously.

Co-operative Offices:
CRANBOURN MANSIONS,
CRANBOURN-ST., LONDON, W.C.

THOMAS BARRASFORD TOUR.

CALLS for MONDAY, NOV. 26, 1906.

REHEARSAL EVERY MONDAY AT ALL OUR PLACES AT 12 NOON.

HIPPODROME, BRIGHTON.
The Novellos, Bros. Curran, Kendrick and Laura, R. H. Douglas, Dale and O'Malley, Keen and Waller, Lottie Lennox, Frank and Free, the Wilfords, Pictures, Manchester Mites.

HIPPODROME, LEEDS.
Leo Dryden, Mabel Kessler, C. Woodward, Bishop and Hanlon, James de Voye, Martin Conway, Susie and Protti, Two Eltons, Pictures, Mackweys.

HIPPODROME, LIVERPOOL.
Raymond and Kurkamp, Helen Martin, W. E. Gillen, Ernest Montefoire and Co., Jennie Johns, Colby and May, Alf. Gibson, Zetta Grey and Co., the Rallis, Wilton Heriot and Co., Pictures, Irma Lorraine.

HIPPODROME, BIRMINGHAM.
Edwin Boyde, Elsie Rubina, Babs Lloyd, Lizette Troupe, Bert Byrne, Harry Champion, the Two Bees, Tatten Hall, Pictures, Fred Moule and Co.

PAVILION, NEWCASTLE.
Arthur Prince, Maud Prenton, Harris and Worth, Great Scott, Fred Culiane's Comedy Four, Four Maisonas, Robins and Collier, Martine and Son, Pictures, Ida Rene.

ALHAMBRA, PARIS.
Raku, George Adams, Lucette de Verley, Roma and Romani, the La Vails, Boxing Midgets, Les Nairds, Ricardo and Salving, Tiny Arnold, Recco, Pictures, Gustave Barra, Three Seldoms, New York Comedy Four, Amiel.

BRITANNIA, HOXTON.
Grand Variety Company.

LYRIC, LIVERPOOL.
Grand Variety Company.

All Bill Matter must be sent to the London Office Two Weeks before opening, or Artists will run the risk of having their Engagements cancelled.

All Artists must carry Band Parts for Full Band.

All communications to be addressed to the London Office,

11, LEICESTER PLACE, LEICESTER SQUARE, W.

Telephone—6824 Gerrard. Telegrams—"Barrasford, London."

THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO.,

3, BERNERS STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.

"SIXPENNY SUCCESSES." CHAMPION "SONG-PLACERS" OF THE WORLD!

PANTOMIME PRODUCERS! PANTOMIME PROPRIETORS! PANTOMIME PERFORMERS!
SEND AT ONCE FOR OUR

GRAND BUDGET OF PANTOMIME SONGS
FOR 1906-1907.

COMPRISING THE FOLLOWING GREAT SONGS! SUCCESSFUL SONGS!
ALL FREE FOR PANTOMIMES.

"I'VE BUILT A BAMBOO BUNGALOW FOR YOU."
"WIDOW DOOLIN." "LOOK OUT, BOYS, THERE'S A GIRL ABOUT!"

"QUEEN OF OLD SAMARA." (J. F. LAMBE).
"SWEET EILEEN." "ANY OLD PLACE WHERE THE SUN SHINES."

"WHEN THE BAND PLAYED THE 'MEN OF HARLECH'."
"MY TINY FIREFLY." "SEND ALONG A WIRE.

"SOMEBODY CARES FOR YOU." (MILLS & SCOTT.)
"WATERFALL." "ZING-TA-RA-RA BAND."

"ROSIE IS WAITING."
AND MANY OTHER GREAT AND PROVEN SUCCESSES.

PROFESSIONAL COPIES OF ANY OF ABOVE, 3 STAMPS EACH, POST FREE.
WRITE FOR OUR COMPLETE LIST OF POPULAR SONGS.

Professionals in search of "FREE SONG HITS" Write or Call! Write or Call!
THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO., 3, Berners Street, Oxford Street, London, W.
Telegrams, "Lyrical, London." Telephone, 12805 Central.

THE STAR MUSIC PUBLISHING CO., LTD.

. . Have great pleasure in presenting . .

A. J. MILLS & BENNETT SCOTT'S

THREE WONDERFUL SONGS.

A bright, breezy, tricky, tuneful, catchy chorus song!

"SAILING IN MY BALLOON."

Sung with Enormous Success by Miss Florrie Forde and others.

and

A grand march time number which arouses enthusiasm everywhere.

"NELSON FROM HIS MONUMENT."

("John Bull Beware!").

Sung with Gigantic Success by Tom Costello.

"WILL YOU DANCE WITH ME, MARIE?"

The most charming Descriptive Ballad since "After the Ball."
Featured by Donald Hall.

FREE FOR PANTOMIMES,

but written Permission must be first obtained.

Send Stamps for professional copies to:

THE STAR MUSIC PUBLISHING CO., LTD.,
9, Charing-cross-road, London, W.C.
(Facing Garrick Theatre).
'PHONE 8446 GERRARD. TELEGRAMS. "SONGONIA, LONDON."

MACNAGHTEN VAUDEVILLE CIRCUIT.

Proprietor and Director General:
Mr. FRANK MACNAGHTEN.
Business Manager for the Circuit:
Mr. E. P. LAWTON.
Special Representative:
Mr. BRANDON BLAKE.
Secretary:
Miss AMY ROBINSON.

Accountants: Messrs. HARDY, LAWTON and MOULSON, York-street, Sheffield.

CALLS
FOR WEEK COMMENCING
MONDAY, NOV. 26, 1906.

PROVINCIAL CIRCUIT.
SPECIAL NOTICE.
Rehearsal at all Halls, Monday, at 12-0 sharp.

PAVILION, LEICESTER.
Cissy Scofield, Harry Briggs, Pallister's Bioscope, Leotard Brothers, Soutnern and Co.

PALACE, LINCOLN.
G. W. Hunter, Wallace Whitney, Beattie Foster; Les Belles Americaine, Ethairien Bros., Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Chas. F. Best, Josh Dixon.

GRAND, SHEFFIELD.
Tom Kelso, Charles Gardener, Zampas, Rita Resdan, Pallister's Bioscope, Ellis and Watts, Peake and Co.

PALACE, BATH.
Florrie Gallimore, Bros. Durant, Josie Delaine, Harry Walker, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Alex. Victor Duo, Lytton and Bland, Silvo, Rebla.

PALACE, BRADFORD.
Miss Florrie Baines, in "Miss Lancashire, Ltd."

PALACE, BLACKBURN.
"Three of a Kind," Jansons, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Belle Braham, Edwards and Dacre, Gus Garrick, Rezene and Robini, Annie Schuberth, Aquamarinoff Troupe.

PALACE, HALIFAX.
Friscari, Vocal Chameleon, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Hillman and Russell, Almos, Bert Harrow, George Hyam, Toy Foy and Co., Howard and Harris.

PALACE, W. HARTLEPOOL
Donaldson Bros., and Ardel, Mayon and Marle, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Gracie Bard, Flo Challis, Will Driscoll, Millie Denham, Prince Kokin.

PALACE, SOUTHAMPTON.
R. A. Roberts, Tom Yorke, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Dayton Family, Tom Lloyd, Nash and Noel, Ethel Loftus, Blanche and Powell.

KING'S, NOTTINGHAM.
Picture Entertainment.

THEATRE ROYAL, ROTHERHAM.
"Indian Mutiny."

THEATRE ROYAL, ATTERCLIFFE.
Picture Entertainment.

THEATRE ROYAL, CHESTERFIELD.
"Dare Devil Dorothy."

THEATRE ROYAL, LEEDS.
F. Maxwell and Co.

LONDON DISTRICT.
General Manager, Mr. FREDERICK BAUGH.
Telephone, 5954 Avenue.
Telegrams, "Stageyness, London."
Rehearsal at all Halls, Monday at 12 o'clock.

PALACE, BOW.
Matinée every Monday.
Chas. Majilton's Co. in "The Trippers," Harry Cotton, Louie Hurman, Jack Foley, Percival and Morley, Ford and Barras, Harry Melvin, Two Palmers, Wright and Elton, Mabel and Winnie Brooke, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Marie Santoi and Co. in "A Night in Japan."

THE BRITANNIA.
Matinée Monday.
Josephine Colona and Co. in "Robin Hood," Geo. Hall, Bros. Zampah, Stan Aubrey, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Florrie Bray, Kitty Marion, Tom Collins, Beattie Kent, Cissie Dryden, Geo. Kirk and Co. in "Grip; or, The Fatal Hand."

FORESTERS.
Matinées Monday and Thursday.
Vaudeville Dramatic Co. in "The Better Man," Grey and Welford, Smith and Johnson, Lily Black, Bert Danson, Elna May, Silbon Family, Percy Hannon, Woolmer Young, Maude Beaumont, Dan Filmer, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Addie Dorina in "Dr. Spot's Patients."

SADLER'S WELLS.
Matinée every Monday.
Dr. Walford Bodie, M.D., C.M., U.S.A.; F.R.M.S., London; Floradora Girls, Mill May, Mark Merry, Helms and Cozens, Dick Cruickshanks and Co. in "Colonel Pepper," Janet H. Reynolds, Pollo Jerome, Chas. Sloman, Rumbo Austin, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Jack and Evelyn.

SURREY THEATRE.
All Artists engaged for Surrey Theatre must bring 14 Band parts.
Matinée every Monday.
Harry Cadle's "Casey's Court," Guy Rider, Robbie Roy, Edna Latonne, Letine, Mignonette Kokin, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Mahatma, Minnie Fenton, Wal Phillips, Sid Bandon, Galletti's Monkeys.

Notice.—All artists carrying Scenery must have it Fireproof, according to L.C.C. regulations, otherwise it will not be allowed in the Halls.

All Bill Matter or Notification of Appearance must be sent in 14 days prior to opening. All Artists must attend Band Rehearsal, or their Contracts may be cancelled at the option of the Management.

N.B.—All Billing Matter, accompanied by Pictorials, and Business Communications relating to the Provincial Circuit must be addressed to the

EXECUTIVE OFFICES:
KING'S CHAMBERS,
ANGEL STREET, SHEFFIELD.
Telegraphic Address, "MACNAGHTEN, SHEFFIELD."
Telephone No. 3449, SHEFFIELD.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER

THE WORLD'S SONG PROVIDERS.

ELEVENTH HOUR PANTOMIME NOVELTIES.

"FIGHTING FOR THEIR KING AND SIRELAND."

A Grand Patriotic Number for Finale to Palace Scene

"ARRAH WANNA."

An Original Irish Song.
The Chorus of "Arrah Wanna" is great, catchy, and full of go.
An Ideal Pantomime Number.

"THE GOOD OLD UNION JACK."

The Verses tell a pretty domestic Story.
The Refrain is full of patriotic vigour.

For Particulars of our other Great Songs see Special Advertisement on Page 24.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER

142, CHARING-CROSS-ROAD,
LONDON, W.C.

SHAPIRO, VON TILZER
MUSIC Co., Ltd.,

100, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

FIVE GREAT PANTOMIME SONGS:

"LITTLE GIRL."
"MOONBEAM."
"SWEET SATURDAY NIGHT."
"TAKE ME BACK TO LONDON TOWN."
"MARIAR."

AND MANY OTHER SUCCESSFUL SONGS.

WRITE FOR OUR FULL LIST.

SHAPIRO, VON TILZER MUSIC Co., Ltd.,
100, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

THE AMERICAN HOUSE. The Home of Pantomime Hits.

M. WITMARK & SONS.

THE Song Publishers.

DO NOT OVERLOOK these "SURE FIRE" HITS.

"MOON DEAR." "MOON DEAR."
Do not miss it. One of the songs that "Happen."

"TAMANEE."
By the composer of "Good-bye, little girl good-bye."
Now the rage of Paris.

The Coon Song of the year.
"BILL SIMMONS;"
or, "I've got to dance till the band gets through."

The Ballad hit of the year.
"WILL YOU LOVE ME IN DECEMBER AS YOU DO IN MAY."
A song that appeals to every audience.

The production Song of the year.
"IN THE SHADOW OF THE PYRAMID."

The Dame Song of the year.
"THEY ALL GO TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY."

The Chorus Song of the year.
"I'VE GOT NO RIGHT TO LOVE YOU BUT I DO."

The March Song of the year.
"I COULD LEARN TO LOVE A SOLDIER.

The Comic Song of the year.
"ALL I NEEDED WAS THE MONEY."

The Description Songs of the year.
"JACK OF DIAMONDS" and "AMERICANA."

OTE.—Continental Artistes will favour us by addressing our Paris Branch:—
THE AMERICAN MUSIC COMPANY, 92, Rue St. Lazare, PARIS.
LEADERS OF BANDS AND ORCHESTRAS SEND FOR OUR CATALOGUES AND NOVELTY LISTS.
NOTE.—All Applications for Professional Copies of Songs must be accompanied by Seven Stamps and Recent Programme (No Cards) to receive attention.

ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO THE FIRM.
M. WITMARK & SONS, Witmark Building, 186 & 188 Shaftesbury Avenue, W.C.
Telephone: 1430 GERRARD. CHARLES WARREN, Manager.

OUR NEW CINEMATOGRAPH BRANCH IS NOW OPEN.

CINEMATOGRAPH OFFICES AND SHOWROOMS:
31-33, CHARING CROSS RD, W.C.

Telegraphic Address: "PHONOFILM," London. Telephone No. 3037 Central.
LONDON HEAD OFFICES:
14, 16, 18, LAMB'S CONDUIT STREET.

PATHÉ FRÈRES, LONDON

Our new price, 4 D. per foot, nett.

TRADE MARK MARK

TRADE MARK

A BAD MOTHER.
Code Word, CABESTAN.

A widower with a child marries again, and chooses a wife who already has a little child. But soon the stepmother ill-uses her stepchild until the poor little man is found by the keeper of the cemetery crying on the grave of his mother. Prompt police investigation, which shows that the poor child is covered with bruises, and his father, informed of the fact, turns the stepmother out of his home.

510ft. The Subject £8 10s.

A DIFFICULT PROBLEM.
Code Word, BUCHE.

An old scientist is so preoccupied with the problem he has to solve that he utilises anything handy, such as an old gentleman's back, a milliner's box, or a cab, &c. Most comical film.

210ft. The Subject £4 19s.

MAGIC ROSES.
Code Word, BUIRE.

Beautifully-coloured film, where roses are changed into most lovely figures and under the wizard's wand most extraordinary transformations take place. Strongly recommended as a short coloured film.

198ft. The Subject £3 6s.

POLICE INSPECTOR HYPNOTISED.
Code Word, BROUILLON.

Most extraordinary adventures of a police inspector who is hypnotised by a street thief. Very comic.

280ft. The Subject £5 12s.

WIFE'S BIRTHDAY.
Code Word, BROUETTE.

This film depicts the adventures of a good husband who wishes his wife many happy returns. Highly recommended.

314ft. The Subject £5 4s. 8d.

THE WRESTLER'S WIFE.
Code Word, BRUNISURE.

Another dramatic story. A travelling wrestler is admired by a rich lady and is asked to come to her house. He does so, followed by his jealous wife, who finally stabs the lady in her back.

362ft. The Subject £6 0s. 8d.

FEMALE SPY.
Code Word, CINGLANT.

A story of the wilds of Russia. A young girl turns spy. Pursued by the Cossacks, she is captured, tortured, and finally tied to a wild horse's tail to be dragged over the country. Terribly dramatic, amidst gorgeous scenery.

428ft. The Subject £7 2s. 8d.

PAY DAY.

A workman having just been paid his wages gets very intoxicated, and has rows with a baker, coalman, tramcar conductor, &c., generally coming off wors in the encounter.

297ft. The Subject £4 19s.

ALADDIN AND HIS WONDERFUL LAMP.
Code Word, BROUER.

The old fairy story retold, with beautiful scenery and Eastern effects, and coloured very effectively in parts. Grand quality.

824ft. The Subject £13 14s. 6d.
Colouring extra, £1 17s.

OUR OUTPUT OF FILMS AMOUNTS TO 32,800 YARDS PER DAY.
REMEMBER OUR FILMS ARE ABSOLUTELY STEADY.

NEW FILMS

NOW READY.

GRAND NEW PATHETIC FILM.

A WOMAN'S SACRIFICE.

In Six Scenes.

—:o:—

Scene I—Shielding the Prodigal Brother.
Scene II—Pining for Mother. The Doctor's Warning.
Scene III—The Shadow on the Blind. I must see my child!
Scene IV—The Triumph of Love.
Scene V—Explanations.
Scene VI—The Little Peacemaker.

Length, 340ft. Price, £8 10s.
(Subject), Code Word, "Sacrifice."

CRICKS & SHARP
7, Gt. Queen St. Kingsway, W.C.
Telegrams 'Bioscope' London.

NEW BIOSCOPE PICTURES

FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.

THE NEW BIOSCOPE TRADING COMPANY
ARE RECOGNISED AS GIVING
THE FINEST PICTURE SHOWS IN ENGLAND.

SEE FOR YOURSELVES

5, Cecil-court, W.C.

Telephone, No. 4,473 Central. Telegraphic Address, "Newbio, London."

FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.

NEW BIOSCOPE PICTURES

22-27, CECIL COURT, CHARING CROSS RD., LONDON, W.C.
(Facing the "ALHAMBRA.")

THE CINEMATOGRAPH PIONEERS AND SPECIALISTS.

L. GAUMONT & Co.

LONDON. BARCELONA. PARIS. BERLIN.

Telephone: "2430 Gerrard."
Telegrams; "Objecisti London."

AN "ELGE" CLINCHER,

In which SENSATION and HUMOUR run together.

No. 1551,

WHEN THE STORMY WINDS DO BLOW.

NOT A DULL DETAIL. EXCITING RIGHT THROUGH.

A windy day. An old swell. A silk hat. The hat on its travels. Down the coal hole. Under the tram. In the docks. Caught in the scoop. Shot in the ship's hold. Off again. To the top of some buildings. Through the window. Down to the basement. The swell after it. Bang! Not hurt, up again. Up to the top of a high water fountain. Next up a coal shoot. All wet, the man after it. Down the coal stack. The station again. Good-bye to town and the hat too.

Length 345ft. Price £6 18s, net.

WARNING.

Exhibitors should see that the Halls in which this Picture is shown possess firm foundations, and that the girders supporting the roof are in good order.

No. 1550.

THE DRUNKEN MATTRESS.

ENTIRELY ORIGINAL. A COMPLETE GRIPPER.

The mattress intoxicated, will not be pacified, and goes through some marvellous adventures. Down the stairs. Under the motor. Down the manhole. Over the balustrade. On the bed. Alive. Discovery.
Length 715ft. Price £14 6s. 0d. net.

No. 1547.

THE STEP-MOTHER.

A novel in a picture. A pathetic drama of domestic life. Winning, appealing, fascinating. Length 600ft. Price £12 net.

No. 1548.

A MODERN DIOGENES.

A Whirligig of fun and mischief concerning an intoxicated tramp and a barrel. Length 160ft. Price £3 6s. 0d. net.

LOCAL PICTURES.—We are prepared to forward Operator for these within an hour's notice. Quality and promptness guaranteed.

Be advised in time! NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY! The CHRONOPHONE is ours! NO OTHER FIRM can supply Gaumont's CHRONOPHONE.
DO NOT BE LEFT BEHIND! You have the MAKING or the MARRING of your own fortune!

"HOUSE FULL."

That's what you can see nightly at every house where they adopt PUSHING and GO-AHEAD methods—where they are showing

THE CHRONOPHONE

WARNING! Immediate action will be taken against any concern attempting to palm off spurious singing pictures as the CHRONOPHONE, or otherwise trading on our reputation and trade marks. Exhibitors,—We cannot but too often repeat THERE IS BUT ONE CHRONOPHONE, and that is Gaumont's. The rest is BLUFF.

THE CHRONOPHONE

has placed us above our competitors. IT CAN PLACE YOU ABOVE YOURS. There is ONLY ONE CHRONOPHONE in the World, and that is GAUMONT'S CHRONOPHONE.

THE SOLE MAKERS & PATENTEES, L. GAUMONT & CO.

WHAT DOES THIS CONVEY TO YOU?
"The new National Anthem here is 'You Can't Diddle Me.' The CHRONOPHONE at the Albert Hall, Swansea, IS ENTIRELY RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS."—The Cambria Daily Leader, Nov. 6, 1906.

L. GAUMONT & CO.

NEW "CLARENDON" FILMS.

HAVE YOU HEARD OF IT? The Funniest of Funny Films. The Trickiest of Trick Films. A RIB-TICKLING IN REALITY.

No. C145.

THE HORSE THAT ATE THE BABY.

A MARVEL OF MEDICAL SKILL.

The baby is chewed up by the gee-gee with his hay right in front of your eyes. You see it go down a mouthful at a time. Baby missed. A rumpus. Baby's cries heard coming from horse's stomach. The veterinary surgeon at work. A life-or-death operation upon the horse: The horse completely empty inside. The baby drawn out whole and in triumph, and the horse none the worse for his experience.

Length 275ft. Price £5 10s., net.

No. C143.

THE ARTFUL DODGER: OR, THE CAPTAIN OF KOEPENICK.

Length 346ft. Price £6 18s. 5d. net.

No. C144.

THE DOUBLE LIFE.

A PATHETIC DRAMA. VERY BEAUTIFULLY STAGED.
Length 580ft. Price £11 12s, net.

New "Norwood" Films

No. N08.

HOW ISAACS WON THE CUP.

A CLEVER COMIC FILM. Length 200ft. Price £4 net.

No. N09.

THE AMOROUS POLICEMAN.

ANOTHER NATTY NEW NORWOOD NOTION.
Length 110ft. Price £2 4s. net.

A marvel of Modern Science! The Conquest of the Clouds!

SANTOS DUMONT'S AEROPLANE.

Man is master of all things when he has mastered the air. THIS HAS BEEN DONE. And another great feat has been accomplished. WE HAVE THE FILM. WE ARE THE FIRST. IT HAS BEEN DONE. THE AEROPLANE IN FULL MOTION! THE GREAT EVENT OF THE AGE!

HIRING DEPARTMENT.—A wide and comprehensive collection of the latest Sensationals, Comics, Tricks, and Notable Events,

Hepwix

No. 1201.

AFTER THE MATINEE.

At a theatre in a well-known University town great admiration is shown by the College students for two dancing girls who are performing during a matinée. They vigorously applaud the clever and pretty dance, throwing on the stage many bouquets, tokens of their approval. Outside the theatre at the close of the performance the students, as usual, disperse in different directions, some quite studious, and others ready for further amusement. Two of them, however, remain behind and make proposals to the commissionaire on duty for an introduction to the young ladies they have just seen dancing. A little "palm oil" obtains the man's consent to take their cards in at the stage door, from which the girls soon emerge and welcome their admirers. They arrange themselves in pairs, and walk from the theatre apparently quite happy. Turning the corner they call for a carriage. As the vehicle is drawing up they view with some dismay and annoyance the approach of two dons. One of the students quickly bundles the girls into the carriage, while the other acknowledges the presence of his masters. As the latter draw near they make signs to the youths that they require the carriage; the students quickly seize this opportunity to get out of their dilemma. While the dons are handed in at one side of the carriage, the girls quickly make their exit the other, one student keeping his eye on the masters and the other taking charge of the girls. The carriage drives off, and the couples walk away, laughing at the success of their plans. At the College gates they all four, by persuasion and a substantial tip, soon overcome the scruples of the porter, who has hesitated to admit them. Unfortunately, so entirely wrapped upare these young people in tackling the official that one of the girls leaves behind a parasol. A few moments later the dons arrive, and, quickly observing the article carelessly left, at once demand an explanation from the poor man at the door. Taking the offending article with them the two learned men proceed into the college in search of the erring youths. Inside the quarters allotted to the students both girls have settled themselves comfortably and the young men are enjoying themselves to the utmost. They are suddenly disturbed by ominous sounds in the corridor, jumping to their feet all begin seeking hiding places for the girls. One is bundled into a box, the other is placed full length on the couch and covered with the college gowns, completely screening her from view. Seizing a book each, the students seat themselves on the edge of the couch and are apparently studying very deeply as the two dons rush into their rooms. The surprised look on the faces of the youths when confronted with the accusing parasol does not satisfy their masters, and they at once begin a thorough search of the room, &c.

Length 325ft. Price £8 2s. 6d.
(Metres 104.05.)

HEPWORTH MANUFACTURING Co LTD CINEMATOGRAPHERS,
TELEPHONE No. 2451 GERRARD.
Telegrams: "HEPTOIC," London.
15 and 17, Cecil Court, Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

PAUL'S LATEST - - - - FILM.

HOW TO MAKE THE TIME FLY.

This Film conveys the idea of hastening or delaying time. A little girl takes the pendulum off a clock, and causes the maid, who usually scrubs in a leisurely manner, to hasten her work accordingly to the speed of the clock. Visitors enter the hall, but suddenly rush up stairs as the clock speeds on. Men papering a wall at the usual speed of the British workman are seen splashing on the paste and the paper with alarming celerity. A gentleman starts taking his meal in the usual quiet manner, but eats faster and faster, according to the going of the clock. In other words, "How to Make the Time Fly" is a film illustrating forcibly the idea of how people could be made to work, eat, and traffic to pass if the control of time itself were in the hands of man.

Code-word, "Time." Length, 300ft.

ROBT. W. PAUL,
68, HIGH HOLBORN, LONDON, W.C.
Tels.: CALIBRATE, LONDON. Tele.: 4814 HOLBORN.

LIVING PICTURES.
FILM LIBRARY.
FILMS ON HIRE.
Reasonable Terms. Good Programmes.
Exhibitions Town or Country.

THE MICROGRAPH CO., LTD.
7 Great Queen Street, Kingsway, London.

Telegrams: "Ruffoscope, London." Telephone: 6695 Gerrard.

RUFFELL'S PICTURES

Hold your Audience.

RUFFELL'S PICTURES
Hold their Own.

RUFFELL'S PICTURES
Hold the Name.

Try "Ruffell's" in your Billing and the result will be a Success and a Draw.
Place your Date with us, the Reliable
STAR PICTURE EXHIBITORS.
We collect and use nothing but the very best Films of the highest photographic quality of all the leading British and Continental Manufacturers, besides Original Subjects of our own, hence our standard of efficiency is always TIP-TOP.
Complete Weekly Changes.
Terms Moderate.

RUFFELL'S IMPERIAL BIOSCOPE SYNDICATE,
12, LITTLE NEWPORT STREET, W.C.
(Opposite the Hippodrome.)

FILMS FOR HIRE.

THE GREAT

MAIL ROBBERY.

Copyright 1906 by

S. LUBIN, PHILADELPHIA, U.S.A.

Two clerks, one discharged and the other still in employment, enter into a conspiracy to rob their employer. The next scene brings us to the office where the clerk is employed. The Governor enters, gives some orders and dictates letters. He opens his big safe and takes a large amount of money therefrom. This he puts in an envelope which he hands to his clerk to be addressed. The letter is given to the office boy with instructions to have the valuable letter registered. Immediately the office boy has left the clerk leaves the office also. His pal is waiting outside. He quickly tells him about the large amount of money in the envelope, and rushes after the lad intent upon robbing him. The boy however safely reaches the Collecting Mail Carrier, and gets his receipt. The clerk then follows the Mail Carrier. In a secluded spot he knocks the Carrier down and robs him of all his letters. He dons the Mail Carrier's clothes and makes good his escape in the Mail Cart.

After closing the office the trusted clerk meets his pal in the park. They open all the envelopes and extract the valuables. Homeward they turn to have a good time with their ill-gotten money.

Wine and women are their final downfall. Found having a high old time in questionable company. Justice soon lays hands on the thieves.

Length 550ft. Price £13 15 0 (less 20 per cent.) Code word OXCOX.

A THRILLING PICTURE WITH THE USUAL WELL-KNOWN DASH OF AMERICAN SUBJECTS . . .

We are Sole European Agents for Mr. Lubin's productions, and we are authorised to take immediate steps against anyone found either pirating his ideas or duplicating his originals.

PLEASE NOTE

That all Lubin's Films are ORIGINALS. They are not made in England from secondary negatives, but from the ORIGINAL negative in America. We do NOT deal in, touch, or handle duplicated prints of any sort whatever.

READY IN A FEW DAYS.

FOX HUNTING.

ONE OF THE GREATEST NATIONAL SUBJECT-PICTURES EVER PRODUCED.

The WARWICK TRADING CO.,
THE WORLD'S HEADQUARTERS FOR ANIMATED PHOTOGRAPHY,
4 & 5, WARWICK COURT, HOLBORN, LONDON, W.C.
Telephone: 1135 Holborn. Telegrams: "COUSINHOOD, LONDON"
PARIS HOUSE—16, RUE ST. CECILE.

More Urban Successes.

TRUE TO HIS TRUST.

A CLEVERLY CONCEIVED, SUPERBLY ENACTED AND EXQUISITELY PHOTOGRAPHED DRAMA OF GREAT HUMAN INTEREST.

A Trustee of much wealth rides from home to place it in safe keeping. He is waylaid, "held up" and robbed. The robber hides his spoil, meets with an accident, and, dying, confesses to a priest, who undertakes to recover the treasure. In doing so he is waylaid in turn by two villains who garotte him, tumble him over a precipice and decamp. The priest, who is not killed, manages to crawl through the forest towards home, and comes across the robbers, who have quarrelled over their gains. One villain attacks and cripples the other and is leaving him, the wealth in his possession, when the wounded man shoots his companion, who sinks by his side. The priest once more secures the wallet of money, which he takes to the rightful trustee, in time to save the latter from arrest for misappropriation of trust funds.

No. 3146. Length, 500ft.

FOLLOWING IN HIS FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS.

Father, going to business, leaves his son, aged four, a precocious youngster who has ambitions. First, the Young Hopeful measures his father's paces in the gravel walk of the garden. Then, beginning with the morning toilet, he goes through his father's day, item by item, from shaving to breakfast, to business, a gallant appointment to lunch (with a young lady of three), a convivial evening, a jolly return home, a stumbling retirement to rest, and an agonising attack of "Lastnightis," which points its own moral and adorns the tale.

A LESSON FOR FATHERS. EXCEEDINGLY HUMOROUS. SPLENDIDLY STAGED.

No. 1913. Length, 475ft.

THE CONJUROR'S PUPIL.

DELIGHTFULLY COMIC. A CERTAIN DRAW.

The Conjuror initiates his youthful son in the art of making cakes in a silk hat. The pupil afterwards experiments upon his grandfather, with dire results. He flies, pursued by the old man, and comical accidents happen with high frequency, always with ignominious results to the pursuer. Ultimately the pupil is caught and spanked by his victim. THE LAD EXPLODES IN THE PROCESS, and vanishes in smoke. The conjuror appears with a pail of water, which he empties on to the ground, and the grinning pupil springs from the cascade, ripe for further mischief. A MOST DIVERTING COMBINATION, BEAUTIFULLY PHOTOGRAPHED, CLEVERLY PRODUCED, AND INTRODUCING SEVERAL INGENIOUS TRICKS.

No. 1930. Length, 300ft.

THE GREATEST SPORTING FILM EVER PRODUCED.

THE MOIR-PALMER BOXING MATCH.

For the Heavy-Weight Championship, at the National Sporting Club, OCT. 29th, 1906.

A Great Picture of this Thrilling Topical Event, reproduced by courtesy of the National Sporting Club, from whom we received Sole Concessions.

Absolutely no point of the Great Contest was missed, and the whole is reproduced from start to finish without a break.

No. 1929. Length 1,700 feet.
Price £85 subject to our usual discount.
Duration of exhibit 30 min.

PRICE 6d. PER FOOT (subject to our usual Discount). TERMS: CASH WITH ORDER.

THE CHARLES URBAN TRADING CO., LTD.,

48, Rupert Street, Shaftesbury Avenue, LONDON, W.

Telegrams and Cables, "BIOSCOPE, LONDON." And 46, MARKET STREET, MANCHESTER. Telephone, 3118 GERRARD.

For other Cinematograph Advertisements see Following Pages.

WALTURDAW

THE WORLD'S
BIOSCOPE OUTFITTERS.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER

READY NEXT WEEK.

OUR DAILY BREAD. Code Word, BREAD.
(Beautifully Tinted at no extra charge.)
Ploughing, Winnowing, Sowing, Rolling Fields of Golden Corn, Reaping and Bundling, Loading, Stacking, Threshing, the Bake-house, the Finished Loaf. Magnificent quality throughout, highly interesting and instructive.
245ft. £6 2s. 6d.

OTHELLO. Code Word, OTELLO.
The grand tragedy of William Shakespeare retold with glorious effects. The canals of Venice beautifully tinted, the strong dramatic story of the jealous Moor, the lovely Desdemona and the wicked adventurer Iago, culminating in the smothering of Desdemona, the death of Othello. Perfect quality. 540ft. £13 10s.

PEEP ROUND THE ZOO. Code Word, ZOO.
(AS SHOWING AT THE MOSS EMPIRES).
Admittedly the finest in photographic quality of this interesting subject. Has now been tinted and toned (no extra charge) in various shades.
435ft £12 2s. 6d.

FATHER'S WASHING DAY. Code Word, WASHING.
The old man interferes generally in the laundry, and to get rid of him is sent out to deliver the washing. After frequently falling over people and several amusing mishaps, he is taken home by the police. 292ft. £7 6s.

LIFE IN INDIA. Code Word, INDIA.
Scenes of Indian life—streets, waterways, cocoanut palm groves, cremation of the dead, sacred elephants, bathing in the sacred waters, an Indian baby's bath. Beautifully tinted (no extra charge). Grand quality. 450ft. £11 5s.

A LITTLE BIT OF STRING. Code Word, STRING.
Youngsters' mischief with a little piece of string. A milkman, bootblack, &c., all become victims. Original titling, "WITH A PIECE OF STRING."
250ft. £6 5s.

Our Price, 6d. per foot, less 20 %

Lengths Guaranteed not per Subject.

NOTE OUR FILMS FOR STEADINESS AND QUALITY.

THE "WALTURDAW" CO., LTD.,
3, Dean Street, High Holborn, LONDON, W.C.
Telegrams "ALBERTYPE, LONDON." Telephone: 4707 Holborn.

WARNING.—We shall take immediate proceedings against any Exhibitor, Showman, or Manager exhibiting re-staged copies, duplicated or pirated copies, of these subjects.

BRIDLINGTON.

TO BE SOLD
by Auction
by Messrs. CRANSWICK and CRANSWICK, at the People's Palace, Quay-road, Bridlington, on THURSDAY, Nov. 29, 1906, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon precisely. (Subject to the General Conditions of Sale of the Hull Incorporated Law Society and to such special and other Conditions as will be then and there produced).

The whole of the Valuable Freehold Estate of the BRIDLINGTON PEOPLE'S PALACE COMPANY, LTD.

(in Voluntary Liquidation).

Situate in Quay-road, Prospect-street, and Palace-avenue, Bridlington, and consisting of :—

LARGE CONCERT HALL OR THEATRE (licensed); good stage, 29ft. opening, 20ft. deep, and 20ft. high, with large gallery and a seating capacity for about 1,500 people.

LARGE REFRESHMENT ROOM (fully licensed), 50ft. long, 30ft. wide, 22ft. high, with two good Tea Rooms attached, each being 24ft. long and 18ft. wide; boiler, heating apparatus, and lift to kitchen; good cellarage.

EXTENSIVE BALL-ROOM, 90ft. by 50ft., in basement; lavatories and w.c.'s.

LARGE ROOM adjoining Ball-Room, 50ft. by 30ft., used at present as a Shooting Gallery.

GOOD BOWLING GREEN in Palace Grounds.

TEN THOUSAND YARDS or thereabouts of Valuable BUILDING LAND surrounding the Palace.

FOUR GOOD LOCK-UP SHOPS (at the front of the Palace), recently built. Three let

THREE SHOPS IN PROSPECT-STREET (adjoining the Palace Grounds), also commodious Dwelling-house and out-offices known as "ROSENDALE."

ELEVEN GOOD HOUSES IN PALACE-AVENUE, nearly new.

The Estate has a frontage to the main street, leading from the Railway Station to the sea, of about 125yds.

The Gross Annual Rental of the Houses and Shops (all of which have been recently reduced) is £401 10s., and £11 per annum is also received from advertising boards in front of the Palace. Such rents are quite exclusive of the Palace itself, from which alone the sum of £335 has been received in rentals this year.

All the Properties are Freehold and in the centre of the town (which is rapidly increasing in popularity), and would form a most desirable investment.

For further particulars apply to the Auctioneers, Messrs. Cranswick and Cranswick, Quay-road; Miss Morgan, 40, Tennyson-avenue, Bridlington; to the Liquidator, Mr. W. Kitchingman, The Aquarium, Scarborough; or to Messrs. RICHARDSON and SON,
Solicitors, Bridlington.

The PRIMUS LIMELIGHT PROJECTOR,

— FOR —

THEATRE WORK.

Russian Iron body, with plano convex lens.

Every possible movement, enabling the light to be thrown in any direction.

Adaptable to every requirement. Can be fixed anywhere.

The colours can be changed with the greatest ease, and each tinter can be easily distinguished.

Strong. Well made. Portable.

MODEL I. To take a lime-jet, complete in carrying case, without jet - - - - - £2 10s.
MODEL II. A larger pattern, constructed to take arc lamps - - - - - - - £3 3s.

The "EMPIRE" High Power Lime-jet.

Gives a light rivalling "Arc" lamps.

Forms a splendid combination with the above projector, which should be useful to every showman.

Every adjustment. Mechanical tray.

Price - £3 10s.

Complete Catalogue of Lantern Accessories on application.

W. BUTCHER & SONS, Camera House, FARRINGDON AVENUE, E.C.

FREE SONGS.

GREAT BIG HITS FOR PANTOMIME.

YOU CAN MAKE THE HIT OF THE SHOW WITH ANY OF THESE.

* "SLEEP AND FORGET." Song or Vocal Duet for Girl and Boy.
* "I'M WEARING MY HEART AWAY FOR YOU."
* "WHERE THE SUNSET TURNS THE OCEAN'S BLUE TO GOLD."
* "ROSES, ROSES EV'RYWHERE." A Charming Song.
* "FAREWELL! MY ANNABELLE." Another "Dolly Grey."
"THE MERRY VAGABONDS." Sparkling Vocal Duet for Tenor and Bass.
* "THE GATES OF DAWN." Very Effective. Fairy Queen, &c.
"TILL I DIE" & "WHEN THE EBB-TIDE." Bass Songs for Demon Kings, &c.
"TWO LITTLE GIRLS LOVED ONE LITTLE BOY."
"WILL YOU DANCE WITH A FRIEND OF MINE?"
"WHAT MAKES ME LOVE YOU AS I DO?"
"LIFE OF MY HEART." An Ideal Song for Principal Boy or Girl.
"A SWEETER STORY STILL." (I love you better far than any words can tell.)
"MY LITTLE DUTCH COLLEEN." Comedy Refrain Song.
"I'M A-DREAMING OF YOU." Coon Love Song.
"I'LL BE BACK IN A MINUTE, BUT I GOT TO GO NOW."
"I DON'T KNOW WHERE I'M GOING, BUT I'M ON MY WAY."
"MY NAME IS MORGAN, BUT IT AIN'T J. P."
} "Rag-time" Comedy Coon Songs.
"WE ALL DO A BIT BUT FATHER." Dame Song.

Full Orchestrations of those marked (*) may be had for Six Stamps each.
Full Piano Copies of any, 6d. each.

CHAS. SHEARD & CO., 196, SHAFTESBURY AVENUE, LONDON.

H. & M. RAYNE,

MANUFACTURERS & OUTFITTERS,
115 to 119, WATERLOO-ROAD, LONDON, S.E.
West-End Branch—49, CHARING-CROSS-RD. (a few doors north of Hippodrome.)
(opposite Tram Terminus and Waterloo Stn.) Telephone 7978 Central.

WEAVERS AT WORK.

TIGHTS.

SYMMETRICAL PADDING A SPECIALITY.
Every description of HOSIERY made to order on the shortest notice.
A NEW, LARGE, & VARIED STOCK of PURE & SPUN SILK TIGHTS, also in WORSTED & COTTON, at the lowest prices consistent with good workmanship.

DANCING BOOTS AND SHOES A SPECIALITY.
Makers to the PRINCIPAL LONDON THEATRES and LEADING ARTISTES of the Vaudeville and Operatic Stage.
Strong Linen Back Satin, Specially Woven for us for the Manufacture of LOUIS HEEL SHOES. 50 Art Shades in Stock.
FIT & STYLE GUARANTEED.

THE CHEAPEST & LARGEST STOCK OF THEATRICAL SUNDRIES IN THE WORLD.

ADMISSION TICKETS In ROLLS or PACKETS for Checking the Drawings.
Printed & Numbered to suit all requirements.
THE GLASGOW NUMERICAL TICKET AND CHECK BOOK PRINTING CO.,
Write Dept. "E" for Prices.
31 Finnieston Street, GLASGOW.

Now in Preparation.
FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
A World-wide Circulation, therefore an excellent Medium for Advertisers.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1907.

ADVERTISEMENTS should be forwarded at once to the Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.
For Scale of Charges see another Page.

JUST SEE AND TRY OUR PANTO. POSTERS.

STAFFORD & CO, Ltd., Netherfield, Notts.

W. WILLSONS
Supply STREAMER LETTERS, Mammoth Posters, Day Bills, in First-Class Style, and the General Run of Show Printing, Streamers—the Largest Assortment in the United Kingdom—
Day Bills, &c., at our Usual Low Rates.
NEW-WALK PRINTING WORKS, LEICESTER.

MR. and MRS. EDWIN JENNER (Hettie Senior). Capt. O'Neil and Connie, "The Assisin." A. Knight's Co., R. T., Liverpool.

MR. MAX JEROME, Concluding second tour Acting-Manager. "Saints and Sinners" Co. Spring settled.

MR. G. WALLACE JOHNSTON Concludes to-day twenty weeks with Mr. Louis Calvert. 135, St. Mark's-rd., North Kensington, W.

MR. T. ARTHUR JONES, Touring the Success, "Life's Sweetest Sins." Address, 2£, Wightman-road, Finsbury-park, N.

MR. S. MAJOR JONES, All communications, Tyne Theatre, Newcastle.

MR. THEO JONES and ADA MANSFIELD, Touring own Scenas. Wanted, Xmas and New Year. H., W. Bromwich.

MR. F. JOYNSEN - POWELL, Disengaged, care of Messrs. Ross, Branford, and Co. 5, Old Queen-street, Westminster, S.W.

MR. VERNON JOYCE, Playwright, Author, and Composer. 21, Aynhoe-road (Addison-road Station).

MR. WHITFORD KANE, Address, Theatre Royal, Leamington.

MR. ERNEST KEAND, Disengaged Lead, Heavies, Character. Wire, Write, 2, Foundry-st., Park Gate, Rotherham.

MR. OGILVY KEITH. Address, Charlmont, Western-parade, Southsea.

MR. and MRS. WALTER KENION at Lib. Panto., Drama, or Sketches, Char. or Low Com., Soubs., Chambs. Address, A.A.

MR. and MRS. EDGAR KENT (Miss Ada Clarke). Perm. address, Shelton, Stoke-on-Trent. Open for Spring.

MR. CLAUDE KING, Leading Business, Theatre Royal, Calcutta.

MR. FRED KNIGHT, Tom Codd in "Beauty and the Barge." Dec. 3, Prince's T., Manchester.

MR. RICHARD HENRY LACE, Address, The Theatre Royal, Preston. Permanent address, 19, Parkfield-drive, Liscard.

MR. JAMES R. LA FANE, Arrangements complete, Xmas and Spring. Address, 1 and 2, King-street, Covent Garden.

MR. GEORGE LE CLERQ, Pantomime, New King's Theatre, Sunderland.

MR. RALPH LEO, Playing Corkett, "Sliver King." Dis. Dec. 10. Address, Theatre Royal, Torquay.

MR. MARK K. LESTER, Concluded 4 years' Engagement, Maurice E. Bandmann, Character Comedian. 47, Crofton Park-rd., S.E.

MR. EDWIN LEVER, Disengaged. Address, 68, Alderney-street, Pimlico, London.

MR. D. LEWIN-MANNERING, Baron Bonelli, and Stage Director, in "The Eternal City," on Tour. Dec. 3, T. R., Smethwick, 1 week.

MR. HERBERT LEWIS, Disengaged Dec. 8th. Add., this week, Theatre Royal, Norwich.

MR. H. LAWRENCE LEYTON, Concluding as "Colonel Rayner." Next, T. R., Nottingham. 10, St. Andrew's-mans., W.

MR. FEWLASS LLEWELLYN, Address, 28, Chelverton-road, Putney, S.W.

MR. ARDENE LINDEN, Principal Character Comedy. Disengaged. 55, Edward-st., Broughton, Manchester.

MR. FRANK LISTER thanks Mrs. Brown-Potter for Offer of Marat. Resigned with Walter Melville. 47a, Bedford-road, Clapham.

MR. FRANK LISTON, Leading Business. Disengaged. 311, Kentish Town-road, N.W.

MR. BERESFORD LOVETT, Lead, "French Spy." Dec. 3, Queen's Theatre, Swindon.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM LOWE, Disengaged, Old Men, Women, and Character Parts. Address, 7, Bridson-st., Liverpool.

MR. HENRY LUDLOW, Gen. Ivanoff, "The Broken Melody." Empire, Oldham; next week, Grand, Leeds.

MR. WILLIAM LUGG, Lord Bellingham in "The Beauty of Bath." Aldwych Theatre.

MR. GEORGE LYTTLETON, Disengaged, Lead, Heavies, Character, &c. Wire or write, 70, Kennington Oval, S.E.

MR. GEORGE F. MACKARNESS, Address, New Theatre, W.C.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY. Own Tour, "Wearin' o' the Green." En route, or Ashdale, Poulton-le-Fylde, Lancs.

MR. GEORGE MALLETT, Talleyrand and General-Manager, Mr. Lewis Waller's "Brigadier Gerard" Co. County T., Kingston.

MR. and MRS. W. MANFREE (Amy Wood), and AMY MANFREE, "Silver King" Co. Dis. Dec. 15, Grand Theatre, Nottingham.

MR. PERCY MARSHALL, Wibsey, in "Public Opinion." Dec. 3, T. R., Portsmouth. Dis. 15th.

MR. H. SHERWOOD MARTIN, Theatrical Business-Manager, Theatre Royal, Manchester.

MR. CHRIS MASON, at Lib. Dec. 17, owing to sudden termination of Tour. Prince's Theatre, Blackburn.

MR. ERIC G. MERRIE, Manager, "At Cripple Creek" Co. Gaiety Theatre, Hastings, Dec. 3, Six Nights.

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR MERVYN, Juvenile Leading Business. Dis. The Cot, Trafalgar-road, Twickenham.

MR. GEORGE T. METCALFE, Acting-Manager, Mrs. Bandmann-Palmer's Tour. Address, Opera House, Cork.

MR. BERTRAM MILLAR, Permanent address, 47, West Twenty-eighth-street, New York City, U.S., America.

MR. GEORGE MILLER, Pierre Michu, "The Little Michus." Dec. 3, Coronet Theatre, W.

MR. G. M. MONTANINI, General-Manager, "A Traitor Prince" Co. Theatre Royal, Colne.

MR. HUGH MONTGOMERY, MARIE HARCOURT, Napoleon and Marcel, "Napoleon the Great" Co., T. R. Croydon.

MR. G. MORETON-WILLIAMS, "A Woman's Past" Co. Dec. 3, Queen's T., Gateshead.

MR. LLOYD MORGAN, Week Commencing Dec. 3, Hippodrome, Maidstone (Return), New Songs.

MR. GRAHAM MORRISON, General-Manager, Mr. Cyril Keightley's tour. Prince's, Bristol. Dis. Xmas, Tour or Resident.

MR. TOM MOWBRAY, "The Girl Behind the Counter" Co. Disengaged Dec. 10. Dec. 3, T. R., Newcastle-on-Tyne.

MR. HARRY ADAIR NELSON, All communications. His Majesty's Theatre, Aberdeen.

MR. DAVID G. NOBLE, Lead or Heavy Lead. Offers invited. Dec. 3, London. Per add., 48, Agate-road, Hammersmith.

MR. ALFRED NORTHWAY, "The Prodigal Parson" Tour. Letters, 57, Warrington-cres., W.

MR. ERNEST OWTTRIM, Disengaged till Christmas. Address, 33, Grove-lane, Camberwell, S.E.

MR. GUS OXLEY, at Liberty for Pantomime, 12, De Laune-street, Kennington-park, S.E.

MR. F. M. PAGET, Antonio, Polonius, Brabantio, Duke Frederick. Theatre Royal, Belfast, Dec. 10.

MR. CECIL W. PARKE, Principal Baritone, Second Tour, "Duchess of Dantzic."

MR. ASHTON PEARSE, Lord Percy Kilgour, in "Public Opinion." Disengaged Dec. 17. Theatre Royal, Portsmouth.

MR. and MRS. FRED W. PERMAIN (Miss Florence Le Clercq), c/o Messrs Wheeler, 11, Greenmarket-sq., Cape Town, S. Africa.

MR. and MRS. FRANK E. PETLEY, (Miss Gertrude Price). W. Greet's "Sign of the Cross," Dis. Dec. 10. Dec. 3, T. R., Bolton.

MR. W. SCOTT PHIPP, General-Manager for "Lady Kinton's Necklace." En route, or Managers' Club.

MR. FELIX PITT, Mr. Andrew Melville's Company. Grand Theatre, Brighton.

MR. DONALD PRICE-EVANS, Title-rôle, "The Private Secretary" Co. Avenue Theatre, Sunderland.

MR. STANLEY PRINGLE, at Liberty. 6, Brunswick-gardens, W.

MR. ERNEST RAMSAY, At Liberty. Address, Fir Tor, Dorking.

MR. ARTHUR LAW RAYNOR, Manager for Mr. Bert Coote. Address, 150, Oxford-street, W.

MR. RANDOLFE READE, As Douglas Cattermole in "The Private Secretary." Marlborough T., Holloway. En route.

MR. and MRS. TOM REDMOND (Mary Morison), at Liberty. 47, Moreton-terrace, S.W.

MR. FRANK RIDLEY, Mr. Forbes Robertson's American Tour. Letters addressed A.A. forwarded.

MR. HARRY H. RIGNOLD, At liberty from Dec. 1 to Dec. 16. Address 260 King's-road, Kingston-on-Thames.

MR. WALTER L. RIGNOLD, as Joe Mivens, and S. M., Apollo Theatre, W. Address, 34a Aldis-street, Tooting, S.W.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS Dis. Heavy, Character, or Pathetic O.M. Dis. 2, Lancaster-road, Leytonstone, N.E.

MR. LEONARD ROBSON, Playing in own first piece. "Prince Chap" Co., Tyne T., Newcastle-on-Tyne.

MR. BASSETT ROE, At liberty Dec. 3 for a few weeks Address, c/o "The Era."

MR. STANLEY ROGERS, Address all communications, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

MR. BAY RUSSELL, Engaged by R. Courtneidge, Esq., Dandini, "Cindrella." K. Edinburgh. Rehearsing. Open Dec. 8.

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK SANDY (Doris Lorraine), General-Manager Mr. A. Melville's "Driven from Home" Co., G., Brighton.

MR. VERNON SANSBURY, Disengaged Dec. 17 for Lead. 93, Barrow-road, Streatham Common, S.W.

MR. WILLIE SCOTT, Miss Maud Hildyard's "Great Awakening," Coventry. Panto arrangements complete.

MR. ARCHIE SELWYN, Hon. Dick Spinnaker and S.M., "The Broken Melody." Dec. 3, Queen's, Leeds.

MR. and MRS. JOHN B. SHINTON Leading Business. Disengaged. Dec. 10, Marina Theatre, Lowestoft.

MR. THOMAS SIDNEY At Liberty, Dec. 9. 16, Long-acre, W.C.

MR. JAMES SKEA, as Bill Sikes. Dis. Dec. 10. Drama, Comedy, Panto., or Sketch. Prince's T., Poplar.

MR. WILL SMITH, Dis., Char. Com. or Management, Musical Comedy, Panto., Drama. 8, Verulam-place, Bournemouth.

MR. GERALD SPENCER, Lead or Heavies, Stage or General Management, Stock or Tour. 36, Albemarle-st., Taunton.

MR. A. GIFFORD STACEY, Manager for Mr. Robert Courtneidge, Apollo Theatre, W.

MR. FRANK STANLEY, Acting-Manager, Her Majesty's Theatre, Carlisle.

MR. E. STANTON - SHARP, John Storm, in "The Christian" (Howard's). Dec. 3, Sutton-in-Ashfield; 6, Mansfield.

MR. W. R. STAVELEY, Disengaged. 239, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

MR. and MRS. LEO ST. CLAIR (Miss May Hart), Concluding third tour Hardie and Von Leer. 123, Haverstock-hill, N.

MR. CHARLES STIRLING, Lead. Heavies. Immediate offers invited. 60, Wouldhave-street, South Shields.

MR. GEORGE STONE, Resident-Manager (Thirteenth Year), Royalty T. and Opera House, Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. STORY-GOFTON, At Liberty, productions, parts, or Management. Address, care of "The Era."

MR. WALLACE STRANACK, Concludes Eng with Mr. C. Macdona's "Mr. Popple," Prin. Co. Panto., G. T., Leith.

MR. AUGUSTIN SYMONDS and Miss KATE PARRY, Disengaged two weeks. Coms. only, 88, Rectory-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. ALGERNON SYMS, Disengaged Lead, &c. Disengaged. Perm. add., 3, Springdale-road, Clissold Park, N.

MR. TAPPING. Address, 22, Leyland-road, Lee, S.E.

MR. and MRS. J. MILNE TAYLOR, Heavies or Character and Comedy. Dis. Dec. 10. T. R., Shrewsbury.

MR. FOWLER THATCHER, Disengaged, Char., Com., and Eccentric, &c., or Management. 35, Mall-rd., Hammersmith.

MR. and MRS. E. W. THOMAS (Agnes Knights), Mr. Edward Terry's Co., New Theatre, Oxford. At Lib. Dec. 10.

MR. RAYMOND THOMAS, At Liberty Dec. 8. Dec. 3, Theatre Royal, Norwich.

MR. WYLIE A. THOMPSON, Lewis Waller's "Brigadier Gerard" Co. Dec. 3, County Theatre, Kingston. Dis. Dec. 18.

MR. ALEC F. THOMPSON, Stage-Manager, Messrs. Lely and Mollison's Productions. Royal Lyceum, Edinburgh.

MR. and MRS. WALTER THORNTON (Miss Florence Hamilton). Disengaged Dec. 10. Dec. 3, Crown Theatre, Peckham.

MR. ALFRED C. TOONE, Musical Director, Gatti and Frohman's "Belle of Mayfair." O. H., Leicester.

MR. GEORGE TRAILL, "The Breed of the Treshams" Tour. Theatre Royal, Chatham.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD VAN BIENE (Kate Hallam), Gen. Mgt. and Star Lead, "The Drama of Life" Co. New T., Consett.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. B. VAUGHAN (Miss M. Lewes). Mr. Vaughan supporting Mr. Forbes Robertson, Amsterdam T., New York.

MR. PERCY H. VERNON, Engaged to produce Entire Répertoire for Miss F. Glossop-Harris and F. Cellier's Company.

MR. FREDERICK VICTOR, Napoleon, "A Royal Divorce." Theatre Royal, Worcester.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS VIGORS (Miss Lucy Beaumont), D. V. Duke of York's, L. B. Dis. Dec. 17. 35 Bridge-avenue, Hammersmith.

MR. ARTHUR WALCOTT, Empire Theatre, Glasgow. Dec. 3.

MR. EDWIN WALTON, Address, Playgoers' Club, 6, Clements Inn, London, W.C.

MR. HAROLD WANTAGE, Understudying Dick Seymour (Dude), in "After the Ball." Dis. Add., c/o. "The Era."

MR. PERCY CARNE WARAM, Mr. Ben Greet's Co. C/o Low's Exchange, 1123, Broadway, New York.

MR. ALBERT WARD, Own Company, "The Profligate King." Dec. 3, Queen's, Poplar

MR. HYLTON WARDE, Messrs. B. & F. Wheeler's Comedy Co., South African Tour. Perm., 17, Doris-rd., Norwich, or A.A

MR. W. LEMMON WARDE, William Tremblett, "The Perfect Lover." Opera House, Middlesbrough. Dis. Dec. 10.

MR. HENRY WATSON, Disengaged. Concluding tour with Hardie and Von Leer. 168, Stockwell Park-road, S.W.

MR. FRANK WEATHERSBY, Theatrical Agency, 3, Bedford-street, Strand. 'Phone, 3781 Cen. Tel., "Frivolous, London."

MR. WYN WEAVER, Dec. 3, Lyceum Theatre, Ipswich.

MR. CHARLES WEIR, Disengaged. 19, Ossington-street, Bayswater, W.

MR. EUGENE WELLESLEY, With Mr. Martin Harvey, on Tour. Dec. 3, Opera House, Belfast.

MR. C. A. WHITE, At Liberty Dec. 15, 3 or 4 weeks. "Beauty and the Barge" Co. Prince's T., Manchester.

MR. & MRS. TOWNSEND WHITLING (Violet Ley). All arrangements complete. T. R., Cardiff.

MR. HERBERT WILLIAMS, Six Brothers Luck, Ltd. Palace, Manchester.

MR. LEONARD WILLIAMS, Juvenile Lead, "The Master Criminal" Co. Perm, The Blorenge, Taunton, or A.A.

MR. BREMBER WILLS, Norman V. Norman Co. 3rd. Lyceum, Newport.

MR. A. WOOD. Address, 59, St. Mary's-road, Peckham, S.E.

MR. FRANK MOTLEY WOOD, Disengaged next Saturday. Theatre Royal, Bolton, "Sign of the Cross."

MR. HARRY G. WRIGHT, at Liberty Dec. 17. Prince's Theatre, Blackburn.

MR. NORMAN WRIGHTON, Shakespearean Character and Heavy Lead. The Actors' Association. Agent, BLACKMORE.

MR. EDWIN H. WYNNE, Comedy, Character. 39, Aigburth-mansions, Brixton, S.W.

MR. DUNCAN YARROW, Horatio Drake, in "The Christian" (Howard's). Dec. 3, Sutton-in-Ashfield; 6th, Mansfield.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LITTLE DOTT MOSS, Toy Comedienne, Thanks Milton Bode, Esq., for offer. Panto. settled. Good offers invited for Spring.

APPLICATIONS FOR POSITIONS on the FRONT PAGE of "The Era" should be addressed to the PUBLISHER.

B. J. SIMMONS and CO., Theatrical Costumiers to the Principal London Theatres.

KING STREET, COVENT GARDEN.

Costumes and Wigs for Amateur Theatricals on Hire or made to order. Telephone, 5568 Gerrard. Telegrams, "History, London."

MADAME WINTER'S DRESS AGENCY, 18, KENNINGTON-ROAD, S.E., near Bakerloo Tube. Have a Large Stock of nearly New, Smart, Up-to-date Evening Dresses, Tea Gowns, Costumes, Stage Dresses, &c., at Prices exceptionally moderate. Dresses taken in Exchange, or Sold on Commission. M. EUSTACE, Principal. Closed 2 o'clock Thursdays.

W. WALLER, THEATRICAL COSTUMIER and WIG MAKER. Every Description of Play and Opera correctly Costumed and Wigged. Historical and other Costumes, &c., for Tableaux and Fancy Balls. Amateurs advised on Correctness of Detail in Costumes and Wigs. 79, CITY ROAD, LONDON. Tel., 9399, London Wall. Quantity Secondhand Wardrobe and Wigs for Sale.

COSTUMES. — C. and W. MAY (Sons of the late Samuel May, of Bow street). COSTUMES on HIRE for Amateur Performances, FANCY BALLS, Tableaux Vivants, &c. The Newest Stock of Historical and Fancy Costumes. 9 and 11, GARRICK-ST., COVENT GARDEN, W.C. Tel., "Shakespearian, London." Phone 6525 Gerrard.

W. CLARKSON, The Leading House in the World for Costumes, Wigs, Properties, Blondin Donkeys, Animal Dresses, Grease Paints, Powders, Paints, Rouges, &c. Lowest Cash Prices. 41 and 43, WARDOUR-STREET, W.

OUR MOTTO—

"NEVER ASLEEP."

AN EXCEPTIONAL OFFER.

By Special Arrangement,

TOURING MANAGERS

can have their Wardrobes Cleaned between Shows, when in or near London. 'Phone, wire, or write

FACILITIES AND ENERGY ILLIMITABLE.

SPECIAL QUOTATIONS. ADVICE FOR NOTHING.

PRECEDENCE GIVEN TO PROFESSIONAL ORDERS.

Last year's exceptionally low offer for cleaning panto dresses, in quantities, holds good for this season. Price and quality of our work not to be beaten. Nulli secundus.

WARDROBES CLEANED BETWEEN SHOWS.

'PHONE, WIRE, OR WRITE TO T. HARRIS.

T. HARRIS.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

TOURING MANAGERS, LOOK OUT YOUR PANTOMIME DRESSES AT ONCE.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL.

Shakespeare Theatre, Clapham, S.W. Nov. 23, 1906.

Dear Mr. Harris,—You have made a splendid success of my satin gown. It looks lovely, and I am delighted with it. Many thanks. Enclosed please find cheque in settlement of account herewith. Faithfully yours,

ADA BLANCHE.

CHEMICAL CLEANING & DYEING COMPANY,

ORIGINAL THEATRICAL CLEANERS AND DYERS,

6, ARGYLL ST., REGENT ST., W.

Telegraphic Address, "CLEANING, LONDON." Telephone, THREE-NINE-TWO-THREE, GERRARD.

THE LATEST STYLE.

THE 'PREMIER' TIP-UP CHAIRS.

PATENT AUTOMATIC, ELEGANT & INEXPENSIVE, MAHOGANY INLAID FRAMES.

"Examples of Seating," new edition, just published, containing an extensive assortment of the Newest Designs in Theatrical Seating, &c.

Write for New Catalogue post free—

{Telegraphic Address: "Malleable," London
{Telephone: 9153, London Wall.

H. LAZARUS & SON, Specialists in Seating,

21, GREAT EASTERN STREET, LONDON, E.C.

- - THE AMERICAN PATENT FOR OUR CHAIRS FOR SALE - -

INSTRUCTORS.

MISS BATEMAN (Mrs. CROWE). Complete Training for the Stage, Constant Rehearsals. Fencing, Dancing. Resident Pupils. Full particulars, apply, by letter only, to MISS DOLLING, 88, PHILBEACH-GARDENS, S.W.

NEVILLE'S PRIVATE DRAMATIC STUDIO, 524, OXFORD-STREET, W.—Patrons:—Sir Charles Wyndham, H. Beerbohm Tree, Esq.; E. S. Willard, Esq.; Cyril Maude, Esq.; F. Harrison, Esq.; &c. Established by, and under the Personal Supervision of, Mr. HENRY NEVILLE. Thorough Practical Instruction for the Stage, Voice Production, Elocution, Gesture, and Performances. Lessons in Studio Theatre. Introduction to Profession. Address, The Principal, Mr. G. R. Foss.

THE BEN GREET ACADEMY OF ACTING.—Pupils of ability started in the Profession. Shakespearean and Modern Plays systematically Rehearsed on the Stage of the Studio. Prospectus, terms, SECRETARY, 3, Bedford-st., Strand.

MRS. S. BRERETON DOUGLASS (of The St. James's, Garrick, Drury Lane Theatres, &c.), Professor of Elocution. Department, and Acting. PATRON, MRS. KENDAL. Address, 30, PARK VILLAGE, EAST, GLOUCESTER GATE, N.W., and at 126, OXFORD-STREET, W.

MADAME KATE FLINN, Professor of Singing. Voice Production and Style a speciality. All Pupils Successful. Madame KATE FLINN Receives Pupils (Ladies and Gentlemen) at her residence, 57, GREAT MARLBOROUGH STREET, W. Interview on written application.

MISS EDITH GIBBS, TONE PRODUCTION, SINGING, ELOCUTION. STUDIO, BECHSTEIN HALL, W.

MISS OLGA LOEWENTHAL (Certified Pupil of MONS. JEAN DE RESZKE). Instruction in Voice Production on the De Reszke method. 84, NEW BOND-STREET, W.

MADAME SISMONDI (late of Denton's) gives LESSONS in all Kinds of DANCING and STAGE DEPORTMENT, at 143, CHARING CROSS-ROAD, W.C. Private or Class Lessons and Speciality Dances arranged. Terms on application.

MADAME PHASEY, Ballet Mistress. Tuition in English, American, and Italian Dancing. ANGLO-ITALIAN DANCING ACADEMY, 156, Westminster Bridge-road, London, S.E.

Now in Preparation.

FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

A World-wide Circulation, therefore an excellent Medium for Advertisers.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1907.

ADVERTISEMENTS should be forwarded at once to the Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C. For Scale of Charges see another Page.

PROVINCIAL THEATRICALS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

ABERDEEN.—His Majesty's Theatre.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. C. Cavanah, C.A.—Miss Emma and Mr. Percy Hutchinson's company opened here on Monday with Cousin Kate. Miss Lilias Earle displays conspicuous talent in the part of Kate Curtis, and Mr Templar Powell makes an excellent Heath Desmond; Mr. Ernest Cox is successful as the parson; Miss Hilda Honiss shows keen appreciation as Amy Spencer; and Miss Amy Coleman contribute a good portrayal of a dowager.

Palace Theatre. — Managing-Directors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Resident-Manager, Mr. Walter Gilbert.—Mr. Neil Kenyon, Scottish comedian, receives an enthusiastic welcome; and the comedy sketch by Mr. James Willard and company proves most enjoyable; Spry and Austin are as versatile as ever; the Katos give an exceedingly pleasing and interesting exhibition; and Mr. Herbert Clifton's vocal mimicry turn is wonderfully effective. Other notable contributions to the varied programme are those of Yettinah, whose magical feats are wonderfully clever; the Zelovas, graceful and daring acrobatic equilibrists; Miss Elsie Earle, a charming comedienne; and Mr. Arthur Goodman, a juggler, whose methods are novel and distinctive.

ABERTILLERY. — Theatre Metropole.—Lessees, Messrs. Arthur Carlton and Sam Duckworth; General and Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. W. Ventom.—This week the boards are occupied by Mrs. Sam Duckworth's company in the stirring drama Her Nameless Child. Mr. J. W. Evelyn as Anthony Ford is excellent, and as Arthur Mr. R. F. Gwyn-Richardson deserves praise; Mr. Ellerslie Pyne makes a capital Lord Henry Woodville, whilst Mr. John A. Levey is good as Mongrole, Lord Henry's catspaw; Mr. Alvin Sawyer and Miss Grace Harlington are responsible for the comedy parts, as Tom Rivers and Bessie Brooks respectively. Miss Madge Trevelyn is well suited as Crayoul, Miss Grace Jones is a charming Lady Sybil Woodville, and Miss Pattie Hastings wins favour by her pathetic impersonation of Phyllis Ford.

ALDERSHOT.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. Sounes; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. Williams.—An Unwedded Wife—a very sensational play and excellently presented by Miss Van Praagh and Mr. Edward Whitty's company—is forming an acceptable bill of fare to lovers of drama. Miss Van Praagh gives a talented portrayal of Marion; Mr. E. St. C. Forbes is good as Blackshaw; whilst Hawthorn and Armstrong are carefully played by Messrs. Darra and Roydan.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—Theatre Royal.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Fairbairn.—Mr. Frank Bertram's company is here for the week with the romantic play, The Breed of the Treshams, by arrangement with Mr. Martin Harvey. Mr. H. Tripp Edgar as Reresby (called the Rat) gives an impressive delineation of the part; as the cowardly Colonel Mr. Richard A. Greene fully establishes his claim to notice; and Mr. Cecil C. Klein gives a forcible impersonation of the Hon. Francis Tresham. Miss Celestine Bertram as Batty, the waif, finds the impersonation of a boy well suited to her special gifts. Prominence is also given to Viscount Dorsington by Mr. Oswald Lingard; to Margaret Hungerford by Miss Nellie Clyde; to Mrs. Bagshaw by Miss Madge Sagny; and to Helena Pierrepont by Miss Miriam Holt.

Empire Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Leach.—The attractions here include Arthur Holland, refined comedian; Cribb and Cribb, in fun of a boisterous kind; Charles Valvo, military ventriloquist; a novel speciality, Canary's Flying Kitchen; the Corman Youngsters, in their act scena, "Christmas Eve"; Nancy Renshaw, the laughing negro comedienne; George King and Tom Delane, in a comedy duo, At the Club; Johnson and D'Evre, American speciality artists; and Maston, mimic. The "bright, particular star" of the week is Miss Ada Fawn, the popular comedienne.

ATTERCLIFFE.—Palace Theatre of Varieties.—Proprietor, Mr. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Lacy Lyne; Assistant-Manager, Mr. S. H. Laycock.—A programme full of good things is presented here this week, headed by the "Bounding Dillons" (Hilda and Willie), who give a performance on the Dillon patent spring and trapeze, as clever as it is unique; in connection with this turn there is an amateur bouncing competition each evening, which is provocative of roars of laughter. The Three Sisters Transfield give a musical show, which is highly appreciated; the Three Pirmans are responsible for a comedy act on the horizontal bars and trapeze; Mr. George Prince, the "crazy comic," makes a welcome reappearance; Vernando is an exceptionally smart ventriloquist; Allsopp and Bekwith, comedy duologue artists, are amusing; "Yorkshire Tom" is here again, and finds much favour with his mimicry; and Mr. E. C. Clayton still remains a popular feature with his pictures. Friday night was set apart for the second annual benefit of Mr. J. Lacy Lyne, the popular manager here.

BACUP. — New Court Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Denman-Wood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Dudley Harcourt.—Mr. Charles Watson Mills' company is here this week with A Wrecker of Men. Mr. Frederick Biron submits a capital study of Jim Murley; Mr. Milner Noble makes a very good impression as Pharosaphus; Mr. Millar Anderson deserves praise for his interpretation of the silent servant, Railton; Mr. Stanley Champion is all that can be desired as Guise Strange; Mr. Harry Dunning, as the Hon. Reggie Verincourt, is distinctly good; Mr. Charles Earle in the dual rôles of Ezekiel Isaacs (a Jew) and Karnaphus (a mummy) is seen to advantage. Mr. Thompson Carruthers as Eric Melville gives a creditable performance. Miss Lucy Sibley shows considerable skill and ability in her delineation of Risca Mallison; Miss Beatrice Reynolds as Navasole Slopper evokes much merriment; Miss Gwendoline Talbot wins approval as Marion Isaacs; and Miss Cissie Podmore is a pathetic representative of Doris Melville.

BARROW-IN-FURNESS. — Royalty Theatre and Opera House. — Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Stone.—Mr. Louis Calvert's company in Sunday is paying a return visit. Mr. Leonard Pagden is an ideal Colonel Brinthorpe and Mr. Ernest A. Douglas a pleasing and breezy Tom Oxley; Mr. G. Wallace Johnston as the unscrupulous Arthur Brinthorpe is effective, and the Towzer, Davy, Lively, and Jacky of Messrs. W. William Lockhart, Sidney Reneff, Cecil Yapp, and Arthur Vezin are all respectively well contrasted. Miss Emelie Polini takes the title-rôle with much charm and dramatic power; Miss Muriel Pope is good as the Nun; and Miss M'Aimee Murray is a bright Mrs. Naresby.

His Majesty's Theatre.—Lessees and Managers, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Routledge.—Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Mackey's company in The Wearin' o' the Green is here. Mr. Chalmers Mackey plays Barney O'Hea with great spirit and humour and sings capably, ably seconded by Miss Nana Flensberg, who is a winning and amusing Biddy McGinn; Mr. Charles Homer sings and acts well as Shamus McDermott, and Mrs. Chalmers Mackey is a winsome Norah McGrath.

Tivoli Theatre of Varieties. — Lessee and Manager, Signor Pepi.—The Four Kurios are exceedingly comical, and are well received; Rose and Calvert prove a refined comedy couple; Francis, the cannon ball king, and his satellite Alfred are good jugglers; Jack Chalmers sings well; Grace Langley sings and dances artistically; and Johnny Walker is an amusing comedian.

BATH.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Egbert Lewis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lewis A. Long.—For the last week of the regular autumn season the dramatic version of When It Was Dark is being given by Mr. Morton Powell's company. Miss Eva Moss gives a forcible rendering of Gertrude Hunt; Mrs. Morton Powell is seen to advantage as Helena Byars; Basil Gortre is cleverly undertaken by Mr. Cyril Austen Lee; Constantine Schwabe finds a cool representative in Mr. George H. Pitt; and the Robert Llewellyn of Mr. Mills Watson is excellent.

Palace Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Chas. Schuberth.—Florrie Gallimore is once again the bright particular star of a good all-round programme, and her success with new and old songs is as great as ever. As a female impersonator Letine wins a big reception; Musical Silvo provides delightful harmony; the Brothers Durant continue to perform wonders as acrobats and gymnasts; Josie Delaine, in her scena, The Mirror and the Maid, is loudly applauded; Henry Walker is a comedian with a lot of patter; Lytton and Bland give their well-known speciality A Lesson in Love; and the Alex-Victor Duo, youthful duettists, also appear. Raymond's Bio-tableaux are humorous.

BATLEY.—Theatre Royal.—Proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitty.—Mr. Harry Foxwell's company is here in An Abandoned Woman. A prominent feature of the performance here is the excellent acting of Miss Georgette Thierry. Mrs. H. Foxwell gives a convincing portraiture of Eleanor Dean; Mr. Wolston Foster is successful as Captain Seaton; Mr. P. Marton Wright is equal to the requirements of his part; Mr. B. J. Leill plays well; Mr. Harry Foxwell is distinctly happy in his humorous interludes; and Mr. Will Glaze is lively and diverting.

BEDFORD.—Royal County Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. E. Graham-Falcon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter R. Wilson.—This week the boards are occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kimberley's company in Two Little Drummer Boys, by Walter Howard. General Kingsley finds a clever exponent in Mr. Mark Fuller; Mr. Fred Emery capably depicts the character of Captain Frank Carsdale; the rôle of Captain George Darrell is satisfactorily interpreted by Mr. Archie Helsby; the part of the Rev. John Rivers is left in the capable hands of Mr. Harry Greenburn; Molly Meadows is charmingly portrayed by Miss Edie Macklin; Miss Mildred Eversleigh meets with success as Alma Kingsley; and Miss Kathleen Magee undertakes the trying rôle of Drunken Meg in a thoroughly capable manner.

BELFAST.—Palace Theatre.—Proprietors, Warden, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. George Harris.—Miss Winifred Emery and company opened here on Monday in the new play, by Mr. Horace Vachell, entitled Her Son. Miss Emery appeared as Dorothy Fairfax, and undoubtedly achieved a great success by her skilful impersonation of the leading rôle. As Dick Gascoyne Mr. Eille Norwood was seen to advantage, and one of the outstanding features of the production was the really remarkable interpretation of the part of Min by Master Bobbie Andrews. Miss Minna Blakeston deserves congratulations on her capital impersonation of Chrystal Wride, and a word of praise is due to Miss May Chevalier for her clever assumption of the rôle of Lady Curragh. In the third and fourth act Min was played by Mr. M. A. Wetherell in an admirable manner; and other rôles were efficiently sustained by Miss Yvonne Morel. Miss Harriet Trench, Miss Eileen Munro, Miss Keith Lytton, and Messrs. Harry Ashford and H. Cannon George. On Wednesday, Thursday, and last night Olivia was presented, with Miss Emery in the title-rôle. Her Son was preceded by Mr. Brandon Thomas in a monologue, in which he attained a high level of excellence.

Theatre Royal.—Proprietors, Warden, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. James M. McCann.—The second week of the dramatic season at this theatre commenced on Monday, when the premier attractions was provided by D'Evelin's Zouaves, in their marvellous lightning drill and wall-scaling exhibition. The Collinson Combination create roars of laughter with their really funny sketch, The Cook's Guest; and a hit has been made by those versatile comedians, Tennyson and Wallis. The Bros. Ashley stage their comedy boxing sketch, Next, Please, which has been enthusiastically received; and the Wartenburg Bros. are marvellous juggling experts. Miss Jenny Hartley is a charming comedienne and good dancer; and Rosalie Jacobi, soubrette, Mr. Joe Mac, comedian, and the attractive Royal Pictures are also in the bill.

Empire Theatre of Varieties, Ltd.—General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Acting-Manager, Mr. John A. Walker.—Hal Godfrey and company provide the leading attraction here this week with the funny sketch, entitled A Very Bad Boy. The Selbinis, acrobatic trick cyclists, are very smart; and a hit has been made by Mr. Geo. Westland, a decidedly quaint Scotch comedian. Mr. Sybil Montague sings ballads with much charm; and the Santerons perform some jumping feats with amazing cleverness. Mr. Frank Couch is a really funny comic; and Mr. Ned Graydon appears to great advantage in a new musical speciality. The accomplished Sisters Lavender, duettists and dancers, complete a good programme.

New Alhambra Theatre of Varieties.—General-Manager, Mr. Henry T. Downs.—The Alhambra Dramatic Company, under the personal direction of Mr. M. Montgomery, is appearing this week in the drama, Defending His Honour. Miss Nina Blake-Adams furnishes a skilful impersonation of Ethel Bryce; and Mr. Horace Denton cleverly impersonates the rôle of Douglas Bryce. Miss Marie Hooper, a newcomer, fills the part of Mrs. Verison with every possible acceptance; Mr. Cyril Grier gains approval for his finished impersonation of Dick Verison; the humour of the piece was entrusted to Mr. Tom H. Solly as Richard Verison, ably assisted by Miss Mattie Crawford, a vivacious Trixie Lucien. Mr. Percy M. Stevenson, happily recovered from his indisposition, realistically portrays the villainous Stephen Graid; and Mr. Elmore Frith does full justice to the rôle of George Duncan; Mr. H. Hesselgrave is capital as Jack Damish; and Miss Florrie Townsend exhibits much ability in her assumption of the dual rôles of Harry and Jack Bryce. Miss Alice Clarke ably sustains the small part of the nurse; and Mr. E. Smyth is good as David Pellar.

BILSTON.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee, Mr. H. Battersby; Manageress, Miss Battersby.—A first-class company is creating much interest in the representation of The Female Swindler. Miss Grace E. Leslie possesses ample opportunity to bring out fully the heartlessness of Lue Valroy, and she does it effectively. Another fine exposition is the John Coulson of Mr. Joseph Millane; Miss Florrie Kelsey makes an interesting and pretty May Andrews; and the hero, Harold Travers, finds a careful and natural young exponent in Mr. Guy P. Ellis. As Geoffrey Warden Mr. Wilford Cheetham does well; and Mr. John Belton works hard as Mikestein, the Hebrew pawnbroker. The diverting impersonations of Mr. Harry Wright and Miss Mary Dawson, as the servant, Mary Ann, also deserve mention.

BIRKENHEAD.—New Theatre Royal.—Lessee, Mr. W. W. Kelly; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Pell.—Messrs. H. Armitage and Arthur Leigh's company in Lucky Durham is again attracting crowded houses here. Mr. Edmund Kennedy repeats his clever and telling performance of John Durham with, if anything, increased success; Lord Mountfallon is finely played by Mr. Robert Forsyth; Mr. A. E. Walker gives an artistic representation of Mr. Vallerton; and the Hon. Reginald Steighton is admirably undertaken by Mr. Arthur Leigh. Miss Alice Esther Belmore, as Helen Vallerton, shares largely in the honours of the evening; Mrs. Durham is exceptionally well acted by Miss Louisa Gourlay; Miss Nance Wolviston is well suited as Lady Mountfallon, and Miss Florence Dolhunty is an efficient Hon. Margaret Steighton.

Argyle Theatre of Varieties.—Manager, Mr. D. J. Clarke.—Miss Winifred Hare, the popular comedienne, is a leading attraction here, and creates an excellent impression. A capital company also includes Casey's Circus, a well-arranged juvenile act, which has made an unmistakable hit; Miss Minnie Hunt and Mr. Rhys Thomas, in their amusing sketch, Her Birthday; Joe Reishen's trained dogs, a wonderful show of canine sagacity; the Violas, in a really remarkable second-sight exhibition; the Brothers Hannaway, dancers; Miss Lily Langtry, a vivacious comedienne; Mr. Frank Cafferey, comedian; Miss Alexandra Royal, and Brown's Royal Bioscope.

BIRMINGHAM.—Theatre Royal.—Managing-Director, Mr. Tom B. Davis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Philip Rodway.—This week Birmingham is flocking to see Mr. Popple (of Ippleton) in the shape of Mr. G. P. Huntley, who, as the unsophisticated countryman with a partiality for rabbits, makes the house rock with laughter. Miss Millie Legarde shares the honours with her bright and merry manner as La Bolero; Miss Nellie Hodson pleases immensely as the maid, Louise; Miss Eva Kelly is highly attractive as Violet Brinton; Mr. Fred Maguire brings down the house with his fine singing in the rôle of Jacques Kenyon; Mr. Harry Welchman is admirably suited to the rôle of Norman Popple, which he invests with a handsome presence and dashing manners; Mr. C. M. Daly gives a smart impression of the groom, Platt; and Mr. Sydney Young, Mr. James Stephenson, Miss Kate Forster, Miss Ella Daincourt, and several others are noticeable for their support, which is augmented by a powerful chorus and orchestra.

Prince of Wales's Theatre.—Lessees, Messrs. Rodgers, Ltd.; Manager, Mr. J. F. Graham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Johnston.—The Prince of Pilsen is once more the attraction here, with Mr. George Musgrove's company, presented by Mr. J. Bannister Howard. Mr. Martin Adeson, as the rich brewer who is "mistook" for a prince, displays a rich humour quite in keeping with the part; Mr. J. B. Fox, as the real prince, scores in several well-delivered songs; Mr. G. Villiers Arnold sings and acts as Lieut. Tom Wagner with splendid effect. Miss Maisie Ellinger appears as the merry widow, Mrs. Madison Crocker, with delightful grace and animation, and is accorded a fervid reception in all her movements and songs; Miss Isa Bowman acts with charming vivacity as Nelly Wagner; Miss Nell Emerald displays all the dainty and chic attributes of the French maid; Miss Meg Hamylton makes a highly popular rôle of the bell-boy, Jimmie; Mr. Lawrence Wensley makes a diverting rôle of the Earl of Shrimpton; Miss Nelly Barnwell is popular as the Vassar Girl, and an innumerable array of other "girls" support.

Grand Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Victor Turner.—La Poupée is here, with that best of all replicas, Miss Stella Gastelle, to charm and fascinate with her clever performance, which remains as fresh and unspoilt as when she first essayed the rôle. Mr. W. H. Powell plunges the house into unrestrainable mirth as the eccentric doll-maker, Hilarious; Miss Avis Grahame affords him excellent help as Madame Hilarious; Miss Kitty Cavendish is commendable as Henri; Mr. Aubrey Carr portrays the excessive diffidence of the young novice, Launcelot, with perfect taste, and his singing wins him much applause; Mr. Frederick Hobbs is sonorous in voice and dignified as Father Maxime; Mr. William Griffin succeeds as the Baron; Mr. Fred Seymour is good as Loremois; and Mr. Vernon Reed as Balthazar contributes with good effect. An adequate chorus and orchestra assist, under the direction of Mr. Harry Rushworth.

Alexandra Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Lester Collingwood.—The Shadow of a Crime has made a powerful and successful appeal here, and Messrs Little and D'Arcy's company has been exceedingly well received. Miss Ina Grant renders the rôle of Loyale Norman in a most praiseworthy style; Mr. Stephen Crossley keeps the audience interested in the well-being of Harry Bullington; Mr. Robert Forder takes the part of the evil-doer, Ralph Esmond, in a capable manner; Miss Dorothy Riddell acts a graceful and sympathetic part as Dora Bullington; Mr. John H. Manley as Sir Edward Bullington and Mr. William Matthews as Jim Murdock are highly successful; Mr. E. W. Avery shines with his clever comicalities as Tom Brown, and others of the Brown family are smartly portrayed by the Misses May Rosine, Madge Blackie, Gertrude Rolands, Connie Little, May Hesford, and Lucy Hesford .

Metropole Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Andrew Melville; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Hindle Taylor.—The Face at the Window is here, played by Messrs. Armadale and Warren's company, both drama and company being received with acclamation. Mr. Lionel D'Aragon's characterisation of the Wolf, otherwise Lucio Delgado, is most dramatic; Mr. T. W. Dunscome plays his part as Paul Gouffett with conspicuous ability; Mr. Alfred Warne and Mr. Malcolm Wills, as the banker and his discharged clerk respectively, do excellent work; Miss Eugene Magnus appears as Marie de Brisson to the utmost advantage; Miss Marie Tennant makes the most of La Pinau; Mr. F. C. Raphael acts most realistically as the cut-throat, Barbelon; Mr. C. Alan Hineson relieves the play with some humorous by-play as Peter Pottlebury, and is cleverly assisted by Miss M. Leslie-Cudd as Babette; and Messrs. George Phythian, Walter Marriott, Arthur Hillier, James Cox, George Lockwood, Robert Hamilton, and R. L. Ward complete the cast.

Carlton Theatre, Saltley. — General-Manager, Mr. James Alexander.—Mr. F. Wybert Clive's company submits The Conscript here with every indication of success. Large audiences have cheered Mr. E. Bellenden Clarke in his manly and vigorous acting as Karl Truevitch, the hero; Miss Lilian Ross gives a pleasing interpretation of Karl's wife, Nadia; Mr. Chas. E. Johnson, as the villainous Governor, Count Paul Hardiski, gives a powerful and consistent performance; Mr. Walter Steele acts with telling ability as Ivan Manloff; Mr. William Head makes an effective part of Doggervitch, and Mr. Sidney Cauldfield as Maxim Fedka. Mr. Claude Seaton as Michael Andreitch, and Mrs. Charles Wood as Dame Katinka are successful. Mr. Becket Bould acts in the humorous rôle of Tretch Trotoff with genuinely humorous effect, and moveover entertains cleverly in song; and Miss Connie Meadows as Wando does likewise, and is very successful.

Theatre Royal, Aston.—Lessee, Mr. Charles Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson; Acting Manager, Mr. Frank Whittle.—The Eternal City is presented here by Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company. Mr. D. Lewin Mannering is most efficient as Baron Bonelli; Mr. Henry Deas makes a decisive hit as David Rossi; Mr. Jack Fortescue gives a clever embodiment of Pope Pius XI.; Mr. W. O'Flynn is a successful Bruno Rocco; Mr. J. Poole Kirkwood does well with the part of Commendatore Angelelli; Miss Sarah de Groot shows great ability in the rôle of Donna Roma; Miss Eva Stuart imparts due effect to the character of Elena; Miss May Fortescue's acting as Princess Bellini is characterised by much grace and care; Miss Violet Campbell acts as Natalina in a highly felicitous manner; Miss C. Stokes does well as Francesca; and Messrs. Edward Comberbach, E. Clowes, Henry Ainsworth, and E. Charles are successful in their rôles.

Empire.—Resident-Manager, Mr. A. W. Matcham.—Mr. Eugene Stratton, the premier coon impersonator, is here this week, adding greatly to his high reputation. Nellie Wallace has a style which is perfectly unique amongst comediennes; Fielding and Hull give a capital vocal turn; and Phillips and Terry present an original and laughable sketch; J. W. Rickaby has a very amusing military skit, and Will Vokes, a clever and eccentric dancer, does well. Other successful turns are provided by Beatrice Willey, a sweet-voiced vocalist, Alfred Hurley, and Beatrice Renee.

Gaiety.—General-Manager, Mr. Albert Bushell.—Charles Dare's Minstrels occupy premier position on the bills this week. It is a capital negro minstrel show, and that this form of entertainment is still popular was shown by the hearty applause accorded. Mark Melford is as smart as ever, and his sketch, Only a Wedding, is distinctly funny. Other items which merit commendation are provided by the Two Anartos in The Morning Mail; Verno and Voyce, singing comedians; the Imperial Quartette of vocalists and dancers; Esta Stella, a smart comedienne and dancer; and the Vyponds, society entertainers. Fred Land and Charlie Dixon are two comedians who materially add to the fun.

Hippodrome.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford. — Edwin Boyde is a comedian who always obtains a warm welcome from audiences in this city, and his funny songs and style are productive of much amusement; Fred Moule and E. D. Nicholls's company present a comic-tragedy entitled The Battle of the Belles. Plenty of amusement is supplied by this sketch, which is well staged, the principals being supported by a number of clever artists. Harry Champion is a quaint comedian with some good songs, and Tatten Hall adds to the fun with a smart burlesque on the huntsman; the Two Bees present an original comedy sketch entitled The Man in the Moon; other turns on an attractive programme are Bert Byrne, comedian; the Lizette Troupe of lady acrobats; Babs Lloyd, and Elsie Rubins.

Bordesley Palace.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Edward Foster.—George Formby the "Pretty Lad from Lancashire," occupies the first position on the bill this week, and keeps the house in a roar of laughter; Ella Retford, as usual, receives a hearty welcome, and Boswell's Stage Circus is responsible for much amusement; the Six Imri Girls, in a clever display of racquet and club juggling, are well received; Lillian Lowe, vocalist; Woodhouse and Wells, comedians and dancers; and Frank Harwood, comedians, also contribute to the programme.

BISHOP AUCKLAND.—Eden Theatre, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. Addison; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. J. Huntley.—On Monday and Tuesday Mr. Lingford Carson's company appeared here in A Modern Adventuress. Mr. Charles Draycott submitted a powerful embodiment of Pietro Donelli; an admirable William Delby was seen in Mr. Morley Carroll; Mr. Sydney C. Cranston was distinctly successful as Harry Delby; Mr. Ernest J. Fare was an excellent Wallace Danton; and Steve Meredith was capably handled by Mr. H. Scatchard. Miss Marie Robson gained admiration in the rôle of Vivette Delby; the character of Violet Meredith, alias Maud Delby, was well represented by Miss Muriel Thompson. Mr. Arthur Byron and Miss Daisy Norman were well suited in the amusing parts of John Crompton and Sally Hodges. The Octoroon, The Heart of a Hero, and The Ticket-of-Leave Man were played on the remaining nights.

Town Hall.—Mr. C. E. Parlato has just concluded a most successful visit here with his renowned cinematograph and variety entertainment. The performances during the fortnight have each evening been well patronised and greatly appreciated. Mr. Parlato's abilities as an impersonator and his interesting show with his trained animals have evoked much favourable comment.

BLACKBURN. — Theatre Royal.— Proprietor, Mr. Harry Yorke; Manager, Mr. Reginald C. Yorke.—Hall Caine's popular drama, The Christian, is proving a strong attraction here. Mr. Wentworth Croke's company is presenting the play. Miss Grace Chalmers is Glory Quayle, and she acts finely, her work in the last two acts being especially good; while as John Storm, Mr. Frank Tennant is strong, his interpretation comparing very favourably with his predecessors in the part; Mr. Frederick Scarth plays Lord Robert Ure very forcefully, and Mr. W. Briscoe Owen as Horatio Drake is excellent; Mr. Bert Conway (the Faro King) and Mr. Fern Pound (Mr. Lorimer) are also worthy of special mention.

Prince's Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Page.—Mr. Lingford Carson's company is drawing large houses with The Power of the Cross.

Palace Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Will Murray.—An excellent variety programme is contributed to by the following:—The Aquamarinoff Troupe of Russian dancers; Arden and Abel's sketch, Three of a Kind; Belle Braham, pictorial songstress; Gus Garrick, comedian; Rezine and Robini, eccentric comedians; Annie Schuberth, ballad singer; Edwards and Dacre, in their sketch, What a Life! and the Javeons, gymnasts.

BLACKPOOL.—Her Majesty's Opera House.—General-Manager, Mr. J. R. Huddlestone. — Mr. Charles Harrington and Co. are here in The Sailors of the King. Mr. Harrington faithfully portrays Admiral Drake and Mr. Frank Stevens gives a good account of Dick Drake; Felicia Phrynne finds a charming exponent in Miss Madge North, whilst Miss Sylvia Stella plays with great zest the part of Rebecca Crosby. The launch of a boat is made a special feature of the play.

Grand Theatre.—Owner and Manager, Mr. T. Sergenson.—The Marriage of Kitty, well acted by Mr. Howard Cochran's company, is the attraction here this week. The important rôle of Kitty Silverton is cleverly played by Miss Aida Jenoure, and Sir Reginald Belsize is artistically sketched by Mr. Cochran; Mr. Cecil Wilford is well placed as John Travers, and Mr. Colet Dare is decidedly good as Hampton. His Lordship Intrudes is the title of the curtain-raiser, played by Mr. Langford Reed and Miss Helen Kay Robertson.

Palace. — General-Manager, Mr. G. H. Harrop; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Waller.—A clever male impersonator is Hetty King, who tops the bill here this week. Other popular turns are J. P. Ling, in a mimetic monologue; Lozelle, a smart gymnast; Kyoto, the Japanese conjurer; the Three Lloyds, the bounding cable wonders; May Geraldine, singer and dancer; Crissie Cross, comedian; Four Hearnes, acrobats; and Carl Lynn, an extraordinary animal mimic. Vernon's Imperial Bioscope is also here.

BLYTH.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. A. C. Moody.—The interesting drama, entitled The Golden Ladder, has been successfully presented here by Miss Mary Austin and Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds's company. Mr. William Clayton, as the Rev. Frank Thornhill, gives a fine embodiment of a prominent part. Mr. Joseph Rowland, as Samuel Peckaby, submits a finished piece of character-acting; in the heavy part of Michael Severn, Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds plays in his usual robust and forcible manner, and finds able support in Mr. E. Graham Winsford as M. Peranza. Miss Mary Austin wins the hearty plaudits of the audience by her artistic rendering of the leading rôle of Lilian Grant; whilst the Mrs. Peckaby of Miss Mimi Edwards is highly praised. In the child's part of Lily Miss May Eddis obtains a brilliant reception.

Gaiety.—Proprietor, Mr. J. Grantham; General-Manager, Mr. Arthur James.—Sabino, in a musical entertainment, heads the bill here, and gives a varied and interesting show; Nell Brough, burlesque artist and whistler, has become a warm favourite; the Kashino Komedy Co., in The New Master, an amusing sketch, has had a good reception; Jack Hastings' illustrated songs continue to attract. The pictures displayed by the Bioscope have proved an interesting item of the programme.

Hippodrome.—Proprietor, Mr. William Tudor.—Pictures continue to gain in popularity with the patrons of the "Drome," and this week's series are giving every satisfaction. The variety turns have been supplied by Syd Hermann and Clive Watts, and have proved attractive.

BOLTON.—Theatre Royal, Ltd. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Melvin.—The Moody-Manners Opera Company, Ltd., opened here on Monday with a week of Grand Opera in English, a full house showing its appreciation and enjoyment of the fine rendering of Wagner's Tannhäuser. Mr. Joseph O'Mara, in the title-rôle, sang magnificently, and had a cordial reception; Mr. Charles Magrath was dignified as Herman, the Landgrave; Mr. William Dever was a decided success as Wolfram; and Mr. Renshaw as Biterolf, Mr. Tattersal as Heinrich, Mr. Brindle as Reimar and Mr. Johnstone as Walther were excellent in their respective parts. Mme. De Vere was charming in her rendering of Elizabeth; Miss Toni Seiter as Venus deserves every praise, and Miss Watt as a young shepherd created a pleasing impression. Other operas staged during the week are The Merry Wives of Windsor, The Bohemian Girl, Romeo and Juliet, Cavalleria Rusticana, Il Pagliacci, and The Lily of Killarney. The chorus ably responds to the skilful conductorship of Herr Richard Eckhold and Signor Romualdo Sapio.

Grand Theatre, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry Kenyon.—The great attraction here this week is the champion Ju-jitsu wrestler, Tano Myaki. Other turns supporting him are Charles Santon, male soprano and double-voiced vocalist; Selby and Myers, comedians, patterers, and dancers; Mabel La Blanche, ballad vocalist; Prof. R. Dunning, ventriloquist; Lord, Murray, and Lord, in their comedy gymnastic mélange, The Intruder; Kahn and Kahn, in a magical act; Carr and Rose, operatic duettists; J. H. Bowman, vocalist and dancer; Marie Blythe, contralto vocalist; the Four Geraldos in a smart performance of juggling and hoop rolling, and Vernon's Imperial Bioscope.

BOSCOMBE. — Hippodrome.—Joint-Proprietors, Messrs. Mouillot and De Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. De Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Ball.—The chief attraction here this week is the Kentucky Four, coloured singers and dancers; De Henau, the famous armless wonder, who paints with his feet only; Counsell and Mills, in their musical burlesque, On the Stage; Mlle. Aladini, with her cockatoos; Curtis and Vanity, the American comedy duo; Will Fredo, a mirth-provoking comedian; Flo Summers, comedienne and dancer; and the Hippodrome Pictures are other attractions.

BOSTON.—Palace.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Geo. Saphrini.—The Five M.P.'s, who are here on a return engagement, greatly delight large audiences with their new musical act; Fred Cary, comedian, scores with his smart songs and patter; Max Merlin is clever as "the human crocodile"; the Gelders, mystifying magicians, Lily Martell, comedienne and dancer, Ivy Dene, Daisy Palmer, and the Lee Trio, in their absurdity The Snowstorm, are all well received.

BOURNEMOUTH.—Theatre Royal and Opera House.—Proprietors, Messrs. David Allen and Son; Sole Lessee, Mr. Mouillot; Manager, Mr. Rowland Stewart.—The Walls of Jericho, under the management of Mr. Silvanus Dauncey and Mr. M. V. Leveaux, is paying a second return visit here. Mr. Herbert Bunston's rendering of Jack Frobisher remains a fine performance, which remark also applies to Miss Florence Jackson as Lady Alethea; Mr. G. A. Brandrum as the simple Hankey Bannister is successful; Mr. Cyril Balcine has made a clever study of the Marquis of Steventon, and Mr. Sydney Hamilton does well as Harry Dallas; Miss Molly Carton as Lady Lucy and Miss Doris Lytton as Miss Wyatt stand out prominently among others in a strong cast.

BRADFORD.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. T. F. Doyle; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Richardson.—The visit of the clever actress Mrs. Russ Whytal and her company, who are here this week with the delightful comedy Alice Sit-by-the-Fire, has been eagerly anticipated. Mrs. Russ Whytal as the charming womanly Mrs. Grey, in a convincing performance, more than justified her reputation as a clever actress; Mr. J. J. Bartlett's Colonel Grey is a performance at once natural and self-possessed. Amy Grey, the romantic school-girl, is delightfully portrayed by Miss Beatrice Bramah; Mr. A. W. Bascomb is humorous as the shy, reticent Cosmo Grey; Mr. Aubrey Mallalieu gives a convincing performance of the part of Stephen Rollo; the enthusiastic Leonora Dunbar exactly fits Miss Lucie Verrier; Miss Ada Marius plays the Nurse well; and as Richardson Miss Lilian Locke is capital. In the intensely dramatic one-act play The Royal Flower, which precedes the comedy, Mrs. Russ Whytal was the recipient of great applause for her powerful and earnest acting as Le Marquis, and she was finely supported by Mr. Bartlett as Vidal, Mr. Bascomb as Cadet Vincent, and Miss Ninon Dudley as Virginie.

Prince's Theatre.—Lessee, Mr. Francis Laidler; Acting-Manager, Mr. N. Hepworth.—Mr. Frederick Melville's drama, Her Forbidden Marriage, is on a return visit here, eliciting unmistakable marks of approval from enthusiastic audiences. Mr. H. Lonsdale is the hero, George Madison, and he gives a fine performance of the part; Mr. Louis Hector is effective as the villain, Charles Devereux; his accomplice, Lady Lucretia Lancaster, is excellent in Miss Octavia Noel's hands. Miss Nellie Bonser capably fills the part of the heroine of the story; Mr. Fred de Vere is good in the comedy rôle of Timothy Tuttutt; Miss Lucy Beaumont is capital as Patty Lovejoy; and Mr. Leonard Maxwell as Geoffrey Broughton, Mr. Rawden Vivian as the Rev. Mr. Deane, and Mr. Philip Renouf as Joe Lambkin are also noticeable. Mr. John Atkins is responsible for the excellent staging of the drama.

The Empire.—Moss' Empires, Ltd

Leonard Dalrymple. The staging is highly satisfactory, the mechanical railway engine and train in Act. II. being realistic. Mr. Lewis Leslie acts in good, manly style as Dave Stannard; and Miss Carlotta Anson is pleasing as Mary Stannard; Mr. Percy Maitland is consistent and effective as Luke Dezzard; Mr. Herbert Belmore acts well as Ezra Gamble; Miss Ethel Denville is decidedly good as the boy Davy; and the comic parts of Tat Spavvin and Suzette are capitally taken by Wittie Wattie Walton and Miss Madge Beresford, the remaining characters being all in competent hands.

PALACE THEATRE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace Livermore; Treasurer, Mr. F. V. Welchman.—Hardeen heads the programme, much interest being evinced at his dexterity in getting out of handcuffs and other manacles. C. Emlyn Jones's Ladies Quartette please with harmonious singing; and Rachel Lowe, comedienne, presents a pleasing turn, her songs obtaining much appreciation; the Three Amaranths are exceptionally clever and expert as acrobatic dancers; Spry and Monti please with their song, dance, and patter; George W. Kenway scores as a mimic of eminent comedians; Les Sados are successful as jugglers and equilibrists; Simms and Simms, musical comedians, obtain much applause; and Wal Robbins, black and white comedian, is appreciated. The performance concludes with animated pictures by Vernon's Imperial Bioscope.

EMPIRE.—Proprietor, Mr. B. Pearce Lucas; Resident-Manager, Mr. Sid Macaire.—John Tiller's company heads the bill with the amusing sketch, High Jinks, which has now been considerably elaborated. Plenty of song and dance is introduced, and the sketch goes really well. Sim Maree, a young Hindoo, described as the "Human Coil," does some exceptionally clever feats as a contortionist. "Mr. E." amuses with patter and comic magic-lantern pictures; the Evalos have a smart speciality and patter act; Herbert Rule, comedian, is successful, and the entertainment concludes with animated pictures.

BROMLEY.—LYRIC THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Purcell; Assistant-Manager, Mr. David Watson.—A successful three nights' visit has been paid us by the Ashley Vaudeville company. Mons. Goanon's ingenious illusions delighted a crowded audience, and calling for special mention are Miss Nellie Camp, a charming comedienne; Miss Lillian Devon, dainty serio and dancer; Bernard Bransby, a refined comedian; Harry Bentley, who has decidedly a style of his own; Gartell Trio, in a musical act; Vincent Mills, a good comedian; Eileen Conroy, an Irish comedienne and dancer; Beale and Belle, in a funny duologue, By the Sea; and Kirk and Randall, in an amusing skit, "Actors in the Park." A very interesting series of pictures is shown by the Bioscope.

BROUGHTON.—VICTORIA, LTD.—Manager and Licensee, Mr. J. Fred Watson.—Messrs. H. Armitage and Arthur Leigh's company provided a rare treat on Monday night, when a large house showed much appreciation of the sterling all-round acting of Leah Kleschna, the title-rôle being played by Miss Bessie Rignold. The burglar Kleschna was powerfully delineated by Mr. Paul Belmore. Mr. Wm. F. Grant made a fine Paul Sylvaine. Mr. Hamilton Deane delighted the audience with his Raoul Berton. Campbell Goldsmid was an excellent Schram. Mr. Roland Daniel did well in the dual rôles of General Berton and Valentin Faure. Miss E. Russell as Madame Berton, Miss Helene Belgrave as Claire Berton, Miss Violet Thorold as Sophie, Miss May Mamond as Frieda, and Miss Edith Summers as Charlotte gave charming support.

BURNLEY.—VICTORIA OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—A creditable performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's bright comic opera The Mikado is being given here this week by the Burnley St. Catherine's Amateur Operatic Society for the benefit of the local charities. The excellent scenic and lighting effects call for much praise to the resident staff of the theatre, under the management of Messrs. Jas. Moffat, J. Rowley, and T. Thornton. The whole performance is cleverly superintended by Mr. Henry Leffler, late of the Savoy Theatre, London.

EMIPRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—An excellent programme includes the Vasilescu Roumanian company, in a real performance on bars and bicycles; the Waldrons, in the comedy sketch The Silly Burglar; and Dan Robans, who possesses an excellent baritone voice. The performance on pyramids of bricks by N. T. Kioto is clever; Harry Vardon gives a smart ventriloquial entertainment; and Harry Carlton is a capital comedian. Dorothy L. Clarke in nursery songs is good, and "The Children's Lunch," illustrated by the Empire Theatrescope, is pleasing.

BURTON-ON-TRENT.—NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. H. Dudley Bennett; Acting-Manager, Mr. John Waller.—Mr. J. W. Turner's Opera Company is paying a welcome return visit this week, and on Monday gave a capital performance of Satanella. In the absence through indisposition of Mr. Turner the part of Count Rupert was allotted to Mr. F. J. Hargrave, whose fine voice and excellent acting made him an admirable substitute; Mr. Sidney Clifford's sonorous voice was heard to special advantage in the rôle of Arimanes; the pirate captain found a thoroughly capable exponent in Mr. G. Bidding; Mr. P. Newton (Karl) and Mr. Richard Cummings (Hortensio) creditably sustained their respective characters; little short of perfection was Miss Kitty Brownless as Satanella, voice and acting being equally good. The Lelia of Miss Christine Gomez and the Stella of Miss Jessie Dennis richly deserved the applause accorded. The chorus was up to the usual high standard. The répertoire for the remainder of the week includes The Bohemian Girl, The Waterman, Il Trovatore, Faust, The Puritan's Daughter, and Maritana.

BURY (LANCS.).—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Mr. Andrew Melville's company is playing the drama Driven from Home here this week. Mr. Reginald Payne is capital as Walter Hatherleigh; Mr. Fred A. Marston plays well as Anthony Raybrook; Mr. J. Milne Taylor is well placed as the villain, Geoffrey Waring; Miss Rose Ralphe is charming as Laura Raybrook; and Miss Jessie Yatman does full justice to her part of the orphan.

CIRCUS OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Some good turns here include the Cattaneos, acrobatic marvels; the Sisters Geretti, trapeze artists; the Llewellyns, operatic vocalists; Allis and Cassati, comedians and clog dancers; Rosie Sylvester, singer and dancer; J. W. Elliston, descriptive vocalist; Dan Paulton, comedian; and Carlton, the great card conjurer.

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; General-Manager, Mr. Broadhead, jun.—A good show is provided here by Clown Zertho's marvellously trained dogs; Harry Grey, comedian; Tina, a dainty singer; Percy Farrimond, the singing collier; Fred and Lillie Monckton, in a sketch entitled Are Wives Dummies?; Claremont and Victor, comedy acrobats; Will Letters, comedian; and Olive Arindale, comedienne.

CARDIFF.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Robert Redford.—The Shulamite has been a decided success at the Royal this week. Mr. Wm. Greet's company is responsible for the representation. Mr. W. T. Lovell's delineation of Robert Waring reflects considerable credit upon this talented actor; Miss Evelyn D'Alroy cannot be too highly praised for her inspiring rendition of Deborah; Mr. Charles Weir's impersonation of the old Dutch settler is admirable; Mr. Reynolds Denniston makes the most of his part of Jan; and Miss Mary Griffiths as Tante Anna gives a faithful and excellent portrayal. As a curtain-raiser, The Widow Woos is presented.

KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James; Acting-Manager, Mr. Albert C. Duncan.—A Fight for Millions is being presented here by Mr. Robert Perris's company. Mr. John C. Carlyle is an excellent Tom Manley; Mr. Hugh Mewburn a forcible Richard Dudley; Miss Alwynne Ermon a dainty Pearl Rivers; and Helen Dudley has an able exponent in Miss Elma C. Turner. Miss Norah Kingsley acquits herself with credit as Mrs. Hudson Rivers; and Miss Doris Howe as Little Madge wins the hearts of all. Mr. Harry Howe as the Tramp, and Mr. Karl H. Edwards as Solomon Moses, are exceedingly amusing.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. H. S. Dring.—The laughable sketch, Welcome Home, is presented by Bob Hutt and Co., with much success, and proves amusing from start to finish. The Dandies are charming in song, dance, and mirth; the Aurora Troupe, skilful cyclists, perform most interesting feats; the popular tramp at the piano, Jas. Stewart, is particularly entertaining; and another excellent comedian is Billy Farrell; the Amoros-Werner Troupe, in a pantomime juggling episode; Johnny and Charlie, comedy acrobats; Jimmy Shields, a one-legged eccentric; and the Bioscope, with excellent pictures, are the remaining features of an attractive bill.

CARLISLE.—H.M. THEATRE.—Lessees, Trustees of R. Stewart M'Kim; Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Stanley.—Hardie and Von Leer's company in Two Little Vagabonds, occupies the boards. Miss Laura Hansen plays the part of Marien Thornton with pathos and power; she is ably assisted by Mr. William Fagan as George Thornton; Mr. Henry Watson is a convincing Captain Darville; Miss Mildred an excellent Barbara; Mr. John F. Traynor a humorous Bill Mullins; and Miss Marie Pritchard a successful Biddy Mullins; Miss May Hart and Miss Margaret Nybloc, as Dick and Wally, undoubtedly make the feature of the production.

THE PALACE.—Proprietors, The Palace Theatre, Carlisle, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Signor Rino Pepi; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. E. Nicholls.—There is an all-round excellent programme provided here this week, but the laurels are undoubtedly won by Miss Marie Loftus, who is paying her first visit here, and meeting with a tremendous reception; the versatility of this charming artist, in her scena, Singers Past and Present, is little short of marvellous, and she is recalled again and again at the end of her performance. Without doubt this is one of the finest turns ever brought to Carlisle, and the management is being repaid for its enterprise by packed houses. The McConnall Trio, in their sketch, combine some good fun with excellent singing, which is thoroughly appreciated. Another good turn which wins unstinted applause is A-Ba-Be's post-card album; Walter Emmerson, comedian, keeps the house in good humour; Gus. Merriman, negro comedian, scores a decided success; Dora Martini is a gymnast far above the average; and Eily Adair, dainty soubrette and dancer, creates a favourable impression. Some capital pictures by the Pepiscope complete a most enjoyable programme.

CARMARTHEN.—ASSEMBLY ROOMS.—Proprietors, Public Rooms Co.; Secretary, Mr. Edward Baldwin.—This week Hardie and Von Leer present—under the direction of Messrs. G. W. Bowes and Henry Chattell—Two Little Vagabonds. Miss Evelyn Shard is a great success as Marion Thornton; Mr. Ernest Stidwell as Capt. Darville is exceptionally good; Mr. Herbert Russell does well as Bill Mullins; Mr. Claude Agnew is effective as Dido Bunce; and Biddy Mullins is in the capable hands of Miss Kathleen O'Connor; Miss Dorothy Hart and Miss Josie Beltram, as the two little vagabonds, Dick and Wally respectively, impersonate the characters with pathos.

CASTLEFORD.—ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor and Licensee, Mr. Chas. Gadsby; Business-Manager, Councillor Hy. Masterman.—Mr. W. Reuben Payne's company in The World's Verdict is here for a week, and doing very effective work. Mr. Albert Guyon gives a careful and convincing study of Jaspar Woodleigh, whose supposed wife, Cora Cassilis, is well played by Miss Lily Roselle; Mr. W. G. Wesley (Sammy Carrot) and Miss Anena Walton (Sally Jenkins) keep the fun going, and are very popular; Mr. Eric Hudson gives a vivid picture of Nathan Black, a maniac; Miss Beatrice Fitzhugh is charming in the part of Florence Woodleigh; Miss May Axon makes an admirable Nellie Ashford; and Mr. Harry Stuart plays with vigour as George Ashford; Mr. W. Reuben Payne is safely cast as Jeremiah Screw. Others worthy of mention are Mr. Tom Egerton, Mr. Hy. Claremont, Mr. Alex. Stewart Dyson, Mr. Jonas Swinbanks, Mr. Clifford Roche, and Mr. Fred Griffiths.

CHATHAM. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietors, Messrs. C. and L. B. Barnard; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lionel Barnard; Secretary, Mr. Geo. G. Ridley.—San Toy is here again with Miss Bessie Allayne repeating her bright impersonation of the title-rôle, and Mr. Arthur Cartwright giving a popular rendering of the part of Captain Bobby Preston; Mr. Bert Edwards, as Li, is applauded throughout; Mr. George Taylor, stage manages and appears as Lieut. Harvey Tucker; while Mr. Robert Rivers gives a capital sketch of Sir Bingo Preston; and Mr. Charles Cobb makes a popular Sing Hi.

BARNARD'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. L. B. Barnard.—The talk of this week's audiences is Henry Mack, whose smart act bewilders all; Miss Lillie Soutter scores in every song; Evelyn Taylor's ditties are well received; Pyck, Holl, and Taylor have a much-liked act; the Seven Zerbinis give their musical scena, The Enchanted Glen; and others in the bill are Ivy Aberdare, vocalist; H. C. Le Fre and company, in A Sham Hero; and Mr. Lacey with his Erascope.

GAIETY THEATRE OF VARIETIES. — Proprietor, Capt. H. E. Davis; Manager, Mr. Frank E. Donne.—Happy Fanny Fields, in the second week of her stay here is going better than ever; a good reception is also given nightly to George D'Albert; Orpheus is deserving of much praise for his musical act; Rell and Brett make a hit with patter, song, and dance; the Edisonograph has a capital film, entitled "The Horse Who Ate a Baby"; Ada Parker, coon songstess and dancer; A. E. Clifford, vocalist; and May Marton, soubrette, complete the attractions.

CHELTENHAM. — OPERA HOUSE. — General Manager, Mr. H. Oswald Redford.—Mr. Hopkinson is paying a visit this week, introduced by Mr. Charles Macdona's company. The title-rôle is cleverly played by Mr. Frank Stanmore; Mr. Arnold Lucy is a polished, genially critical Duke of Braceborough; the Duchess is impersonated with an air of gracious good humour by Miss Marie Hassall; Miss Gladys Jesson as Lady Tyre Egglesby invests the part with convincing cold dignity; Lord Cawthorpe has a sufficiently blasé representative in Mr. Reginald Dane; Mr. Shirley Lea presents an effective study of the crotchety Earl of Addleton; Mr. C. M. Heslop as the Hon. Otho Dursingham emphasises well the frankly cynical nature of the part; Miss Katherine M. Romsey portrays with delightful snap and verve the part of the "young person," Eliza Dibbs; Mr. G. C. Murray is natural as Smethurst; and minor parts are well filled by Mr. Vincent Galley and Mr. J. G. Lowther.

CHESTER. — ROYALTY THEATRE. — Proprietors, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. B. Fountaine.—The event of the theatrical season is the visit of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Benson to this house. On Monday night The Merchant of Venice was presented. Mr. Benson's Shylock is too well known to require any further commendation; Mr. Percy D. Owen is impressive as the Duke of Venice; Antonio is well represented by Mr. Clarence Derwent; Mr. Geo. Buchanan, as Bassanio, creates a good impression; Mr. H. O. Nicholson, as Gratiano, gives a forceful representation of the part, and is the cause of much merriment; Mr. G. F. Hannam Clark is well placed as Lorenzo; both in elocution and acting Mr. Ed. A. Warburton deserves much praise as the Prince of Morocco; Mrs. Benson, in the rôle of Portia, soon wins the favour of the audience, her love scenes being tenderly acted; Miss Helen Haye makes the most of her opportunities as the waiting-maid, Nerissa; and the part of Jessica is safe in the hands of Miss Gwladys Wynne. Henry the Fifth, Macbeth, The Taming of the Shrew, Twelfth Night, As You Like It, and Hamlet are also in the week's programme.

CHORLEY. — GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. G. T. Santé; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur Hemingway.—The Anglo-American play, A Gambler's Daughter, is paying a return visit here this week. Mr. A. Lincoln Galthorpe sustains with much dramatic effect the part of the villain, Stephen Brand; while Mr. Alfred Sanders humorously emphasises the part of Solomon Solomons, his accomplice. Captain Stanhope, the hero, is finely portrayed by Mr. William T. Riley; Mr. Robert Ayrton extracts plenty of humour from the part of Desmond O'Dare, an Irish emigrant. The dual rôle of Mildred and Miriam Grant is admirably sustained by Miss Adria Hill; Ralph Gilman finds a capable exponent in Mr. Arthur T. Leonard, and Mr. Victor Millard does exceedingly well as Jack Grant.

CLYDEBANK.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Herbert J. Montague.—The attraction here this week is the farcical comedy, Facing the Music, presented by Mr. Charles Windermere's company. Mr. Windermere undertakes the part of John Smith, and much of the success is due to his untiring efforts; the Rev. John Smith is smartly portrayed by Mr. C. Casson Freer; Mr. Gordon Philliott does good work as Dick Desmond; Mr. W. H. G. Wynne looks and acts well as Colonel Duncan; Miss Clare Manifield gives a smart performance of Nora Smith; Miss Kathleen Willoughby is highly successful as Mabel, the curate's wife; Miss Mary Buckstone makes a dashing Miss Fortheringay, of the Bijou Theatre; Miss Evelyn Shelley is a typical housekeeper, by name Mrs. Ponting; and Mr. Henry Nelson is well suited as Sergeant Duffell. The farce is preceded by a domestic episode, written by Mr. Windermere, entitled The Bookworm, in which he gives a delightful reading of the part of Mr. David Holmes. He is ably assisted by Mr. Gordon Phillott as Philip and Miss Clare Manifield as Kitty, a foundling.

COATBRIDGE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Coatbridge Theatre Company; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Commins.—Messrs. Durward Lely and William Mollison's company opened on Monday with Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush. Mr. Mollison, who is a great favourite here, capably delineated Lachlan Campbell; Mr. Kendall Chalmers artistically portrayed Tammas Mitchell; and the Earl of Kilspindle was successfully enacted by Mr. D. Lyall. Miss Evelyn McNay displayed ability as Flora Campbell; Miss Jennie Fitzgerald made a clever Jeannie; and Miss Josephine Woodward appeared to advantage as Margaret Howe.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Charles Macdona; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. C. Upton.—A crowded house assembled on Monday night to witness the musical pantomimical extravaganza, Saturday to Monday, by Mr. Fred Karno's company. The cast includes a strong contingent of comedians, of whom Mr. Rolando Martin, as Jaggs, is particularly welcome, his drolleries and topical asides causing endless merriment; Mr. J. Fletch, as Spinks, also contributes largely to the general fun; whilst Mr. V. H. Crawford, as the eldest son, and Master J. McDonagh, as the only daughter of Jaggs, are responsible for some humorous situations. Miss Amy Rogerson makes a charming Clorinda, and Miss Daisy Stone is acceptable as Violet.

HIPPODROME.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. Fredk. Mouillot and Walter de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Ben de Frece.—Quite an ovation is accorded the star turn, Horace White, and he certainly provides a very entertaining item with his ventriloquial business. Harry Russell and Co., in an amusing sketch, entitled Binks' Blunder, affords plenty of enjoyment; Little Salvino is highly proficient with a variety of musical wind instruments, whilst a quaint and yet very clever turn is Johnny Fuller, the "Great Little Cat." Phil Bransby, coster comedian, Mabel le Roy, a particularly well-dressed comedienne, and a smart set of pictures complete the programme.

CONSETT.—NEW THEATRE—Lessee, Mr Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance.—Messrs. Fred Darcy and Fred J. Little's company is on a welcome return visit here this week with the musical drama, On the Stroke of Twelve. Mr. Vincent W. Carlyle is good as Jack Rutledge; as George Bainbridge Mr. Fred Guinness is excellent; James Horton is well presented by Mr. H. Creagh Hunt; as Henry Rutledge Mr. Fred Ferne is entirely satisfactory; Mr. Fred Little, as Jesper, is most favourably received; and as Jess Bainbridge Miss Nellie Moors is the recipient of well-deserved applause; Miss Beatrice Moore is an attractive Doris.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. John Horgan.—Mr. Martin Harvey and his company made their first appearance in Cork at the Opera House on Monday, producing The Only Way. Mr. Harvey's Sidney Carton is a powerful study, and his acting in the final sacrifice was admirable. The pathetic Dr. Manette of Mr. Fred Wright, sen., was a performance of much interest. Miss N. de Silva, as Mimi, acted with much pathos and grace; Miss Coleridge, as Lucie Manette, played with sympathy and charm; Charles Darnay was effectively represented by Mr. Leonard Craske; and the Defarge of Mr. Charles Glenney was a very fine study. The Breed of the Treshams and A Cigarette Maker's Romance are also in the week's répertoire.

PALACE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Henry Kemble.—The principal turn here is that of the Three Olympiers, in "Beauty in Bronze," which consists of a series of studies portraying some great sculptors' creations. As a humorist, Fred Horsfall was most successful; the Haverleys, American song illustrators, gave a pleasing turn; Evie Hamilton, comedienne and dancer, was warmly received; the musical turn of Fanny Humber is clever; a good comedian is Charles Bignell, whose songs are decidedly amusing; Fred Collins, in song and patter, is full of humour; the Three Zaracs appear in Mashing the Barmaid; and the Ladderites, in their daring act, prove themselves clever gymnasts.

COVENTRY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr Wm. Bennett.—The sensational play, entitled The Spider and the Fly, produced by Messrs. Carpenter and Cooper, is attracting considerable attention at this house of amusement. Mr. Stanley S. Gordon is quite a favourite as Cyril Girdlestone; Mr. Ellis J. Preston is a capable villain, Welby Girdlestone; Mr. H. C. Lanceley, as the Rev. McAlister, is a typical village parson; Mr. Frederick Ross is an imposing David Strong; Mr. Fred Terriss and Mr. Charles A. Preece are highly amusing as Romulus Roe and Remus Roe. Miss Amy Venimore is responsible for some capital work as Stella Grey; Miss Nina Vaughton is a charming heroine, Edith McAlister; Miss Lucy Murray is seen to advantage as Molly Blake, an Irish lass; and Miss Ada Palmer is good as a modern lodging-house keeper.

THE HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. T. M. Sylvester.—A carefully-selected programme is submitted this week at this popular house. The Three Romas give a gymnastic display and hand-balancing act which is very clever. Leonard Barry, in a comedy sketch entitled Saturday Night, is well received. Austin Rudd, comedian, is a warm favourite; Starr and Leslie, American speciality artists, give a smart juggling exhibition; W. J. Churchill is a highly successful comedian; the Ten Dixie Girls are much admired in a graceful dance scena, and the usual Hippodrome pictures conclude the performance.

THE EMPIRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Geo. Dance; Manager, Mr. A. Rand.—A delightful performance is given here by Madge Morley and company in a comic episode, entitled After the Races. Paul Conchas appears in a juggling act with heavy weights, and is enthusiastically received; the Sutcliffe Family appear in an acrobatic performance, and also give a sword dance; the Sisters Finney introduce an acrobatic display which is clever and highly entertaining; Tom and Marie Motramo, comedy comedian and comedienne, give a good turn; Frank Darwin is a capital actor-vocalist; Gertrude Bradshaw acceptably renders some well-known songs. Lena Willard, comedienne and impersonator; Beattie and Blanche, comediennes and dancers; and the Bioscope pictures are also in the bill.

CRADLEY HEATH.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Jno. H. Morton.—Mr. Fred Jarman's company, with Under the Czar, is delighting full houses by its all-round excellence. Mr. Gerald Smyth is entrusted with the hero's part, and wins constant applause; Mr. Geo. H. Doyle has the part of Zakhar Kovesky, and gives a capital exposition; Mr. Louis Weston, as Paul Ignat, causes much laughter; Miss Maude Steeple gives a finished interpretation of Sonia Gregorovitch; and Miss Rose May, as Zara Bhura, has a lot to do, and does it well; Mr. R. Tarrant, as Victor Kleff, deserves special mention, as also does Mr. C. P. Amalia for his Count Nesseldorf. We must not overlook Mr. Carl Varener's Alex Petroff, and all the other characters are well filled.

CREWE.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry Taylor, J.P.—The Moody-Manners Opera Company is paying a welcome return visit here, and opened on Monday with Carmen. Miss Rosina Beynon was seen at her best in the title-rôle, her singing and acting being superb; Miss Alice Boaden delighted everyone as Michaela, possessing a voice of extraordinary sweetness; Miss M. Wilcocks gave an effective rendering of Frasquita; and Miss M. Wood did well as Mercedes. Mr. Charles Carter, in excellent voice, did full justice to the part of Don José; Mr. Marshall Vincent was a general favourite as Escamillo, his rendering of the "Toreador Song" receiving a vociferous encore; Mr. R. Brookes as Il Remendado, and Mr. S. Lansdale as Il Dancairo, were amusing; and Mr. Van Lachterop and Mr. G. Gorst were well placed as Morales and Zuniga. The chorus is exceptionally powerful, and the orchestra is under the able direction of Mr. Harrison Frewin. During the week Faust, Tannhäuser, The Bohemian Girl, Il Trovatore, Lohengrin, and Maritana were presented.

CROOK.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Wallace Davidson, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Wallace Davidson.—Mr. T. Morton Powell's company is here this week in the drama Honour Thy Father. As Gabriel Garth, Mr. W. M. Cameron displays great histrionic ability; and Mr. Bert H. Ross is a commendable Jack Halyard; Duncan Bly finds a capable exponent in Mr. W. B. Winning; and Mr. Claude Merton does exceedingly well in a dual rôle. Miss Winnie Donovan submits an interesting rendering of Mercy; and Miss Kate Newton, in the character of Gertrude Garth, is worthy of much praise. As Ned, Mr. W. H. Melrose, and Miss Lizzie Morley as Poppy, find favour with the audience.

CROYDON.—GRAND THEATRE. — Manager, Mr. Lawson Lambert.—Mr. Charles Steuart is introducing a triple bill here with success. The one-act comedy, The Second Mrs. Grundy, affords scope for interesting acting on the part of Mr. Herbert Druce as Jerry Grundy and Miss Daisy Atherton as Phyllis Hewett. In The Little Stranger unstinted praise is due to Master Edward Garratt for his exceedingly droll impersonation of Tom Pennyman; Mr. Athol Forde makes a hit as General Allenby; Mr. Charles Steuart is quite at home as Captain Dick Allenby; Mr. Charles Hanbury deserves high compliments for his portrayal of the Hon. Alec Howard; Mr. Hubert Druce is quite satisfactory in the rôle of Sir George Peacock; Mr. George E. Bellamy is worthy of praise as Paul Vronsky; Miss Mary Allestree is excellent as Mrs. Dick Allenby; Miss Daisy Atherton makes a charming Effie Peacock; and adequate assistance is given by Misses Mary Stuart, May Haysack, Louie Tinsley, and Mr. Charles Goold. A good reception is given to the scene "Fogged," which introduces Mr. John Morris's smart mechanical changes.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Herrick.—Messrs. Dottridge, Longden, and Elliott's company in A City of Sin is here this week. Mr. Conrad Heywood figures prominently as Paul Torraine; Mr. J. Berresford Innes as Mortain is very good; Mr. Wilfred Grahame does well as Zip Barzon; Messrs. C. W. Spencer and Val. W. Gully create much merriment as Bibi Leboeuf and Titi Culotte; Mr. W. G. Clements is commendable as Grognard, and Mr. A. H. Elliott excellently impersonates Father Mark. Miss Edith Wallis submits a good representation of Alice Bertrand; Miss Jenny Watson is capable as Ilma; and Miss Polly Denville and Miss Elvira Stuart as Zazotte and Cohuette are very pleasing.

EMPIRE PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. Walter Gibbons; Manager, Mr. Eustace Jay.—A varied and entertaining list of amusements is billed here. The Ten Loonies, in sketch, Dotty, are very quaint; Goodfellow and Gregson are first-class vaudeville artists; Eadie and Ramsden are much above the average in the musical pot-pourri, Charlie's Visit; Lionel Vaughan's company in a laughable sketch, In Trouble, is well worth seeing; Flo Cecil is a fascinating comedienne and dancer; the Five Casino Girls, brass instrumentalists, are applauded; the Groves do well in comedy act, The Lady Sculptor; Lloyd Morgan is a clever light comedian; and J. C. Kurry, comedian, is smart. The pictures on the Bioscope are appreciated.

DARLINGTON. — THEATRE ROYAL AND HIPPODROME.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. James Bell.—On Monday, Mr. Charles Darrell's new drama, Sins of Society, proved very successful here. A good all-round company includes Miss Bessie Elma. The piece affords her great opportunities, in which she is seen to advantage. Mr. Alfred D. Adams, as the keeper of a gambling saloon, is most powerful in his acting; Mr. Cecil H. B. Churton, in the part of Lionel Bennett, does very well; Miss Maud Le Ray and Mr. Walter Scully ably hit off two conventional Cockneys; Mr. Bartlett Masters is the exponent of an excellent part; Mr. Fred Mace is a good second to Mr. Adams in the chief villainy; Miss Louise Heathfield plays her part admirably; a charming performance is given by Miss Shirley Dalton as the adopted daughter of Sir Harding Bennett; and Mr. C. Chatterstone and Mr. James Carrington are good in their respective parts.

DARWEN. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessee, Mr. A. M. Loader; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. J. Robinson.—The Alberto troupe of equilibrists and acrobats; Mlle. Felda, in a clever musical act; the Sisters de Lacey, operatic vocalists; Molly Doon, comedienne; Bock Pylades, impersonator; and the Theatrescope pictures are the attractions here.

DERBY.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Denley; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Albert Orton.—Mr. Walter Melville's company is here this week with the drama, A Girl's Cross Roads. Mr. Chas. Franmore, as John Meadows, is in every way successful; and Miss Beaumont Collins cleverly depicts Barbara Wade; Miss Nannie Meade figures agreeably as Nellie Meadows; and Miss Jessica Black is a praiseworthy Constance Cornell; Mr. Wilson Gunning plays well as Jack Livingstone; and the Cuthbert Lumley of Mr. Gerald Jordan is a capable assumption. The comedy element is provided by Mr. Fred Ingram as Toby Turvey and Miss Lena Delphine as Tilly Vane.

PALACE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Herbert Taylor.—There is an interesting and well-varied programme here this week. Foremost on the bill come the Martelloni Troupe of lady acrobats and vaulters, who contribute a clever and skilful turn; the Two Hartfords do some wonderful tricks on a bicycle, and are well received; Zaro and Arno cause much fun in their comedy bar act; Walter Wade is an entertaining eccentric comedian; and Bert Williams is a ventriloquist of no mean order; Violet Morgan, character mimic, gives some good imitations of the leading comedians; and Mark Leslie, "The Dusky Prince," provides some good dancing. Several interesting pictures are shown on the Bioscope.

DEVONPORT.—METROPOLE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Geo. S. King.—Mr. Morton Powell's company in Buchanan Rogerson's powerful drama, The Woman who Gambles, occupies the boards this week. The acting of Miss Gertrude Hunt, as the Countess Steinboch, is a marked feature of the performance; while Mr. Horatio Sinclair, as the intriguing Baron Cratzlaw, Governor of Balaka, is very successful. The Misses Florrie Halton and Florrie Hall, and Messrs Stevenson, Prior, and Duncan also capably fill the parts alloted to them.

DEWSBURY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessees, The Northern Theatres Co., Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. H. Asquith.—Mr. F. R. Benson's company in a répertoire of Shakespeare's works and eighteenth-century comedians, is here this week. The Taming of the Shrew, staged on Monday night, was so worthily represented, thanks to the thoughtful and artistic acting, that the applause showered upon the actors bore conclusive testimony to the profound impression created. Macbeth drew a large audience of attentive and appreciative listeners. To a student of psychology, the character of Macbeth appeals with irresistible force, and so far as Mr. Henry Herbert's presentation went, the changing moods were delineated with a masterful ease and artistic verisimilitude. A performance of uniform excellence throughout was that of Miss Dorothy Green, as Lady Macbeth; Mr. E. Spencer Geach contributed some notable and valuable work in his rendering of Macduff; Mr. Reginald Davis proved a very satisfactory exponent of Banquo; and praise is also due to the acting of Messrs. Barker (King Duncan), Gerald Ames (Malcolm), Sherrard (Donalbain), Philip Merivale (Rosse), V. Holman (Lenox), Esme Filmer (Seyton), Ross Shore (First Witch), Miss Beatice Terry (Fleance), Mr. Henry Morrell (Second Witch), Miss Mary Webb (Third Witch), Miss Louise Graeme (Hecate), and Miss Rosa Burgess, as a gentlewoman. The week's bill includes, As You Like It, Henry V., The School for Scandal, Merchant of Venice, and Hamlet.

DONCASTER.—NEW THEATRE AND EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. W. Chapman.—A Woman's Pluck was delightfully presented here on Monday evening by Mr. James Willard's company. Mr. Austin Mortimer gave a fine rendering of Dick Darrell; and Mr. Frank Etheridge was a valuable asset as Sir Noel Fordyce, the mad squire; the Winston Dale of Mr. Harry T. Wood was well embodied; and Mr. Fred Norburn, in the dual rôles of Mark Scanlon and Jim Daremont demonstrated the wisdom of his being assigned these characters. A choice reading of Matthew Popo came from Mr. Harry Emmerson; and real humour was displayed by Mr. Dicky Bird as Roger Pippin. Miss Tina Shaw was particularly smart in her interpretation of Bertie Daredevil; a careful handling of Mrs. Pope was given by Miss Elsie Maitland; and a distinct triumph was secured by Miss Violet Carr, whose gentle and inteligent impersonation of a rustic maid was appreciated to the full. Miss Nellie Freeland was alert and engaging as Ophelia Pippin; Miss Helen Elmar has all the qualifications for undertaking with perfect success the part of Lady Daredevil; Miss Grace Lester displays ability as the plucky woman, and gives an exhibition of "the noble art" that earns for her vociferous recognition.

DOVER. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietors, The Dover Theatres, Ltd.; Chairman of Directors, Mr. B. Carter; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred C. Dew.—Miss Blanche St. Albans and Mr. Leicester Jackson's company is here this week with Her One Great Sin, a drama of the conventional type. Mr. John Cecil is a satisfactory Ruben Warhurst, and Miss St. Albans as Grace succeeds in gaining the sympathy of the audience. Two excellent character-studies are given by Mr. Charles E. Lambert and Miss Louie Walton as Dan and Bet Humble; while Mr. Harold B. Ford is effective in the rôle of their son Jack; a good deal of natural humour is brought into Mr. Fred Hudson's impersonation of Jerry Jumble; and Mr. J. Leicester Jackson is good as Arnold Thornhill. A clever sketch of a flower-seller is contributed by Miss Phyllis Damian. Miss Nellie Lambert, a vivacious and convincing Nancy Winpenny, is successful; and the part of Little Gracie is admirably undertaken by Miss Maudie Lambert.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Proprietors, the Vaudeville Syndicate Co.; Manager, Mr. B. H. Harland; Secretary, Mr. Chas. R. Standfield.—An excellent programme is submitted this week, with Robbie Roy, an amusing Scotch comedian, at the top of the bill. Cravetta and Parr score with their clever and entertaining pot-pourri act; Susie Marney, descriptive vocalist, gives well-rendered songs; and Mac and Hill, comedians and patterers, meet

Ross Warren as Coco Tachoski and Miss Alice Buckland as Nina Pattalake are warmly applauded, and Mr. Hill Cromer meets with approval as Paul Starevitch. Other parts are entrusted to Mr. Charles Bickell, as Michael Mischla; Mr. Frank Orchand, as Fedor Strellitzke; Mr. Arthur Swain, as Colonel Linievitch; Mr. Arthur Conroy, as General Drakensburg, and Mr. Alfred Mimms as Sergeant Kranz.

EMPIRE.—General-Manager, Mr Frank Allen; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. George H. Marsh.—The principal turn here this week is supplied by Harry Cadle's company of midgets in the eccentric act, entitled Casey's Court. Maxwell and Francis, vocalists and dancers, score a big success; and the Dusky Comedy Queen, May Henderson, is as good as ever; Henry Taylor Trio Mexican Equilibrists find an appreciative reception of their clever entertainment; and May Fallowfield is a chic comedienne who has many admirers; Walter King is an amusing comedian with good patter; and Nellie Farrell sings some Irish songs, which are well received. Walter Curtis, a comedian of more than ordinary merit, is well to the fore, and the Empire pictures are up to the usual standard.

TIVOLI.—General-Manager, Mr. Charles M. Jones; Secretary, Mr. H. A. Murphy.—The attraction here this week is MacDonald's Melody Makers in their phantom scena, The Burglar's Dream, which receives due recognition; the Five Saxonias, in a refined musical act, are deservedly applauded; and Frank Coyle, comedian, achieves a big success; Mr. H. Flockton Foster's company, in the sketch, Ferdie's Ma-in-Law, provides much fun; and Jeanette Hall, lady baritone vocalist, sings admirably; Cartza and Mirtziania give a smart and sensational gymnastic act. Other turns include J. C. Scatter, a capital comedian and dancer; Carlo Bianchi, foot equilibrist; and Lily Vane, a clever comedienne and dancer. The Bioscope is also interesting.

WORLD'S FAIR AND MUSIC HALL.—Proprietor, Mr. C. A. James.—The following artists are appearing here:—The Barries, duettists; Little Dandy, versatile comedian; Gertie Clark, ballad vocalist; Frank Doyle, comedian; Henri Hartz, conjurer; and Marcelia, with illustrated songs.

DUMFRIES. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. W. E. Potts; Manager, Mr. Payne Seddon.—For the first three nights of this week we had Mr. Percy Worman's company, in the military drama, A Woman Worth Winning. Mr. Sydney Barton as Czar Nicholas was very good; Mr. Gilbert was well placed as Amos Pauloff; Mr. A. B. Makay made a capital Fergus Lovinskie; Mr. Percy Norman ably sustained the part of General Bovinsky; Miss Maud Buchanan was an ideal Roma Pauloff; Miss Ida Mackay a smart Katerina; and Miss Iris Daventry a pathetic Lola.

DUNDEE. — HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Louis Karpe.—The Perfect Lover, by Mr. Alfred Sutro, is presented here this week. Mr. Harold V. Neilson does full justice to the part of Joseph Tremblett; Mr. W. Lemmon Warde is responsible for a clever embodiment of William Tremblett; and Miss Beatrice Forbes-Robertson artistically enacts the part of Mrs. William Tremblett.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. J. Dexter.—Mr. Harry Lauder continues his triumphant success of last week. He is supported by an excellent company, which includes Matt. Wilkinson and company, the Wolihafs, Fanny Robina, Florrie Cooper, Billie Bint, Bernardo, Steinway Quartette, and Miss Onra.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. R. A. P. Williams.—A Thousand Pounds Reward is being presented by Mr. Charles Rogers, jun., who gives a clever impersonation of Dick Springthorpe; Miss Daisy Halling looks well as Madam Sanson; Miss Lynn Darlington, in the character of a flower girl, sings "Eileen Alanah" in artistic style; and Inspector Gilbert is played with humour by Mr. Frank Dallas. The Saletos introduce a daring acrobatic pedestal act.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Percival.—Mr. Sydney Prince pays a welcome return visit with his cinematograph entertainment. Several novelties are introduced, including, "A Day in Burns' Land," "A Visit Below," &c. Mr. Frank Newbury, whistling comedian; and the Sisters Lorraine, song and dance artists, appear with success.

EASTBOURNE.—DEVONSHIRE PARK THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. Standen Triggs.—Three performances of Old Heidelberg have been given here by local amateurs with considerable success. The proceeds are to be given to the Princess Alice Hospital Funds.

PIER PAVILION.—Manager, Mr. George Hayes.—Mr. Weedon Grossmith's success, The Night of the Party, is being staged here during the week. A large part of the general success falls to Mr. Sebastian Smith, who, as Crosbie, is consistently excellent; Mr. Frank H. Denton plays with distinction and polish as Mr. Frayne; Mr. Douglas Munro realises many of the possibilities of the part of Mr. Flambert; and Mr. Stanley Arthur is a quaint and amusing Bogle. Mr. Aidan Lovett appropriately fills the rôle of Sir Charles; Mr. Ernest Rivarz is an entertaining Hargen; and Mr. Eric Bell a satisfactory Alec. Miss Evelyn Howard as Lady Hampshire is admirable, both in acting and appearance; Miss Stanley Rolands is a praisworthy Gipsy; Miss Lillian Williams as Pauline works hard and well; and Miss Lena Graham ably helps as Mrs. Young.

THE HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Sidney W. Winter; General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Resident-Manager, Mr. Walter Smith.—Dr. Carl Hermann heads the bill here, and again surprises and amuses the audience with his electrical experiments; Harwood's Juveniles sing, dance, and provide an excellent item; Mr. Frank Leon is one of the neatest and most expert dancers seen here; Miss Zetland sings capitally; Mr. George Bendon is entertaining as a white coon; the Three Bostonians dance in fine style; Miss Lizzie Kirk is a pleasing comedienne; and new pictures are shown.

ECCLES.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. C. Hamilton Baines; Manager, Mr. Ernest Hales.—Mr. Alfred B. Cross and company in The Manxman are playing to crowded houses. Mr. Cross, as Pete, appeals powerfully to the emotional part of the audience; Mr. Sydney C. Kearns, as Philip Christian, is praiseworthy; Mr. Richard Hutton, as Cæsar Creegeen, acquits himself cleverly; the Ross Christian of Mr. Dudley Stuart is satisfactory; Mr. Tom Bowron makes an ideal Dr. Mylcreest; Mr. Joe Wallace, as Tom, the Postman, acquits himself well; and the part of Monty Missitt is done full justice to by Mr. Edward Cartell; the Kate Cregeen of Miss Minnie Watersford is all that can be desired; as Miss Christian, Miss Mona Spearing is good; Miss Dorothy Duncan takes the character of Nancy admirably; and as Bella Kelly, Miss Kitty Livesey is taking.

EDINBURGH. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Whitehead.—Sergeant Brue is no stranger in Edinburgh, and, as presented this week by Messrs. E. Lockwood and R. Crossman's company, the piece still retains much of its earlier popularity. Mr. Arthur Reynolds as the doughty Sergeant, and Mr. Charles M'Lagan in the rôle of Crookie Scrubbs keep the fun going in rollicking style; and Mr. Charles Sims is exceedingly humorous as Mr. Crank, the magistrate. Mr. E. Percy Rogers gives a smart and effective impersonation of young Michael Brue; the part of Aurora finds a pleasing representative in Miss Mary Hay; and Lady Bickenhall, in the hands of Miss Hebe Bliss, is portrayed with much charm and grace, the songs falling to her share being successfully rendered. Admirable work is done by the chorus; and most of the numbers receive hearty encores.

ROYAL LYCEUM THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Howard Wyndham, Ltd.; General Manager, Mr. Geo. T. Minshull.—The Prodigal Son is being played here this week by an admirable company, which includes Miss Lily Hall Caine and Miss Alma Murray. Miss Lily Hall Caine is always an actress who gives proof of careful study and intelligence, and she is graceful, powerful, and pathetic in the dual rôle of Thora and Ellin. Miss Alma Murray's sympathetic, delightful style gives distinction to the part of Anna; and Miss Cecil Cromwell is a handsome, vivacious Helga. Strong work is done by Mr. Herbert Hewetson as Magnus; and Mr. Norman Partridge is singularly effective as Oscar. Mr. Howard Russell gives a fine performance as Stephen Magnusson; and amongst the other members of a large cast, highly laudable sketches are presented by Mr. Charles Douglass Cox as Dr. Olsen, Mr. Charles Maynard as Neils Finsen, Mr. Fred Epitaux as Oscar Neilson, and Miss Mima Renouf as Margaret Neilson. The drama is beautifully staged, and it is attracting good houses.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Parham Wells.—Dramatic sketches are prominent in the programme here this week. Mr. John F. Preston and company appear in a piece entitled Rogues of the Turf, a capital bit of acting as an alert trainer being given by Mr. Preston, who is well supported by the members of his company. Ginnett's Rejected Remounts causes the liveliest amusement; and Mr. Charles Fisher and company are admirable in a clever operatic sketch, The Music Master. Miss Marie Duma arouses much enthusiasm by her cultured rendering of several ballads; Miss Clarice Netta sings sweetly; Mr. Harry Herbert is an entertaining comedian; Miss Ray Maskell dances with grace and skill; and the Clarkes afford much pleasure by their deft manipulation of the banjo. The Glenroy Troupe are exhilarating in their exhibition of international dances; Mr. Alec Thorne sings expressively; and the American Bioscope provides a fresh series of interesting pictures.

COOKE'S ROYAL CIRCUS.—Proprietor, Mr. John Cooke.—Changes in the programme serve to maintain the attractions of this popular place of amusement at the usual high level. Dick Turpin's Ride to York forms a leading feature in the bill for the current week, the rôle of the formidable highwayman being undertaken in spirited fashion by Miss Ida Ginnett. Mr. Leicester Alfred introduces the remarkably well-trained horse Cleveland, who shows extraordinary intelligence; Hinton and Wooton give a smart display of football on bicycles which proves very exciting; the Hamels' double equestrian performance ranks among the cleverest exhibitions of horsemanship; Stelling and his dog show a wonderful development of canine sagacity; Du Calion continues his extraordinary ladder-climbing; and Miss Elliott introduces some agile skipping-rope dancing; while Gilbert's Bioscope, and comic interludes by Neddy Vokes and Frank Anderson, add interest and humour to the entertainment.

EXETER. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Chairman and Managing-Director, Mr. Edward J. Domville, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy M. Dunsford.—Mr. A. Clifton Alderson's company is here this week in the drama Held Apart. Mr. Alderson himself is clever as the villain James Douglas; Mr. Leonard Laurence does well as John Douglas; Mr. Ernest G. Batley as Hugh Trevor is all that can be desired; Miss Ruby Loneraine as Sybil Grey, the heroine, acts well; and Miss Ethyle Murray as Quita Garcia ably sustains her part.

FALKIRK.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace W. Ebbutt.—During the first three nights of the week the fare provided was of a miscellaneous kind. A capital cinematograph exhibition was given by the Royal Imperial Electric Animated Picture Company. Some excellent variety turns were supplied by the Dunlops, clever comedy cyclists; Miss Marie, ballad vocalist; Mr. T. E. Walter, tenor; and Miss Lillian Sivado, whose performances as a gymnast were daring and skilful. For Thursday, the company of Mr. Matthew H. Glenville and Mr. Fred Osmond in the American drama, The Still Alarm, was billed.

FLEETWOOD.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Harry J. Snelson.—This week Messrs. A. Hamilton Warden and Chas. V. Sandford's company is here in A Woman's Past. Mr. Henry Hargreaves is admirably suited as David Heath; Mr. Chas. V. Sandford makes an excellent Frank Dellannoy; Mr. A. Hamilton Warden is seen to advantage in the part of Clement Harper; Mr. G. Moreton Williams ably portrays Uriah Craven; Miss Era Bertram makes a remarkably good Clara Darrel; Miss Violet Ennis Lawson is appropriately "fetching" as Dorothy Heath; and Miss Maisie Hanbury as Bessie does well.

FOLKESTONE.—PLEASURE GARDENS THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland.—Messrs. Dottridge and Longden's company is here this week in The Midnight Mail. Mr. Arthur Whitehead as Harry Steyne acts with force and feeling; great praise is due to Mr. F. G. Eveson for his efforts as Billy Brewer; Mr. Robert Gray is satisfactory as Leonard Royle; Mr. Arthur Gilroy depicts the villainous Hassam Padisha realistically; Mr. Charles McCann does well as Donald Graigg; Miss Ada Oakley plays the somewhat arduous rôle of Mary Steyne in a capable manner; Miss Mildred Carr as Nancy Brewer scores a success; Miss Phyllis Dailley is all that could be desired as Lady Phyllis; and Miss Dolly Gilroy is a bright Patty. On Tuesday there was a special attraction in the shape of Mr. H. Bernhardt's flying matinée.

GAINSBOROUGH.—KING'S THEATRE.—Proprietors, Arthur Carlton Theatres, Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. H. Stear.—For the last three nights last week we had Messrs. Shinton and Greenwood's company in the sensational drama, entitled The Price of Her Soul. Mr. John B. Shinton gave a manly and dignified rendering of Lieut. Mandeville, and Mr. Annesley Hely was excellent as Skoboloff; Miss Ada M. Ryder, as the Countess, played a difficult part in an effective manner. The comedy element was in the hands of Mr. Will Percy, Miss Ethel Rainforth, and Miss Grace Garside.

GATESHEAD.—METROPOLE THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Thomas France.—Fascinating Kitty Grey is staying at this house for a week. Mr. Geo. Stephenson's company is an excellent one, and good business is being done. Miss Hilda Guiver is deserving of warm praise for a charming performance in the title-part; the impossible King of Illyria provides Mr. Lauri Lisle with an opportunity of exhibiting his admirable humour; Mr. Leslie Steward, as Lord Plantagenet, is also highly amusing; Mr Herbert Ranson does well as Sir John; Miss Dorothy Sephton as Lady Binfield is very popular; Mrs. Bright receives capable treatment at the hands of Miss Nellie Lauraine.

KING'S THEATRE.—Licensee, Mr. Edward Johnson; General-Manager, Mr. Harold Arnold.—Starring here this week are the Davis and Gledhill Trio, in their cycle and motor racing on a patent track. The exhibition is much appreciated. Daisy De Roy, a dainty comedienne, is paying a return visit, and augments her already huge list of admirers; Lawrence Barclay is a comedian in the true sense of the term; Austin and Cowan, vocal entertainers, get a hearty reception; an entertaining Scotch comedian is found in Jock Walker; Bliss and Bliss, knockabouts, submit a good turn; Frank and Violet Payte have a comedy duologue which appeals to a section of the audience. A funny picture named "Humours of a river picnic" is depicted by Vernon's Imperial Bioscope.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Stephen Smith.—The Drama of Life, presented by Mr. Lingford Carson's company, is drawing large audiences. Mr. Edward M. Hamilton gives an artistic rendering of Harry Beech; Mr. John J. Hooker may be congratulated upon a capital impersonation of Walter Beech; Mr. H. Maxwell Payne submits a careful study of Jack Lawton; Mr. Sydney Fiennes makes an excellent Dane Crane; very amusing is Mr. Harwood Roberts as Dobson Wilde; Mr. George Child cleverly portrays Brenton; a deep impression is made by Miss Kate Hallam, whose Sylvia Beech is excellent in every respect; Miss Marie Pardy represents Master Robert admirably; Miss Nellie Birchenough (Betty Black) and Miss Florence French (Lady Jane) are effective in their respective parts.

GLASGOW.—KING'S, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. H. Macfarlane.—Mr. Leonard Boyne received a hearty welcome here, after a long absence, on his appearance with Mr. Chas. Frohman's company in Raffles. As the amateur cracksman Mr. Boyne has a part that suits him to a nicety, and as the easy-going society lounger he was admirable, while in more exciting incidents he roused the enthusiasm of the audience to a high pitch. The contrasting picture of Crawshay was strikingly given by Mr. Dalziel Heron. Mr. Lewis Edgard made a manly young Harry Manders, and the languid Viscount Crowley was cleverly acted by Mr. Edmund Breon. Mr. Clifford Brooke appeared as Curtis Bedford. Mr. Arthur Willoughby made a handsome old aristocrat as the Earl of Amersteth. The ladies were all well suited, and the acting of Miss Hazel Thomson as Gwendoline, Miss Amy Thomas as Lady Melrose, Miss Madge Murray as Lady Ethel, Miss Hilda Stewart as the vindictive Mrs. Vidal, and Miss Beatrice Fitzgerald as a typical French maid helped greatly in the success of the play. A clever comedietta, specially well acted, A Lesson in Shakespeare, was given in front.

ROYALTY, LTD.—Managing Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. M. Downie.—Are You a Mason? on a return visit, is proving an attraction here this week. Mr. E. H. Paterson is amusing as Amos Bloodgood, and the Frank Perry of Mr. Howard L. Tracy is a praiseworthy performance. Mr. Ernest Cossart is seen to advantage as George Fisher. Miss Adelaide Grace is excellent as Mrs. Bloodgood; Mabel Durrand capitally sustains the part of Eva Perry; Lulu and Annie find charming representatives in Misses Babs Stuart and Madge Merrique; Miss Gwen Clifford does good work as Lottie. The farce is preceded by the one-act play The Ruby Heart, which was much enjoyed.

ROYAL PRINCESS'S.—Proprietor, Mr. Rich Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Hugh Murdock.—Miss Lillian Beszant's company is here this week in the American drama An Actor's Romance. The part of the popular actor Harold Davenport is played with considerable ability by Mr. E. Eardley Howard; Miss Beatrice Hone gives a sympathetic rendering of the part of Mrs. Davenport, whose little daughter Phyllis is pleasingly represented by Miss Marion Ryder; Miss Lillian Beszant gives a bright and vivacious performance as the pretty actress Dotty Dillingham; Miss Florence Nelson presents a strikingly dramatic impersonation of Florence Hastings; as Charlie Cummins Mr. Harry Wren is responsible for much hearty laughter: Robert Livingstone and Jack Woodford have able exponents in Messrs. E. E. Clive and Harry Agar-Lyons; good character work is done by Mr. Percy Warlow as Ikey Isaacs; and Mr. Ernest F. Wallace acts with excellent effect as Lester Bond.

METROPOLE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Gillespy.—The attraction here this week is Mr. Arthur Carlton's company in the successful drama The Span of Life. The cast includes several capable artists, notably Mr. R. S. Trelawney, who, in the character of Richard Blunt is highly successful. Mr. Sanderson Moffat, as Dunstan Leech, the deceitful villain, is also seen to great advantage; while Miss Phyllis Hamilton, as Mrs. Jelf, receives many expressions of approval. Able support is given by Messrs. Walter Dale, James Jarrett, and Misses Ella Wilmer and Kitty Russell; while the Stebbing Brothers look after the acrobatic requirements of the plot.

LYCEUM.—Proprietor, Mr. Rich. Waldon; Manager, Mr. J. H. Oakden.—Mr. Tom H. Taylor's company has been transferred from the Princess's to the Lyceum with the popular Worst Woman in London in which Miss Florence Dalton sustains the character which gives the play its name, as she did last week, the other parts being also represented by the same artists as before.

EMPIRE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. S. Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. Chas. Mussett.—That amusing playlet, Three of a Kind, as presented by Ethel Arden, George Abel, and company is a thoroughly enjoyable item. The Courtiers give a clever and picturesque vocal entertainment, with a spice of comedy; Phil and Nettie Peters are a smart American couple; Frances Letty dances neatly; the Stavordale Quintette give a pleasing musical turn; Holden's Mannikins get a well-deserved recall for a smart marionette show; Syd Myra and his dog Nell add to the enjoyment; as also does Greta May, comedienne, while the foot-balancing of Frank Maura is as deft as ever. The Bioscope pictures, with views of Bonnie Scotland, are much appreciated.

ZOO-HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd., and E. H. Bostock; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—Carl has proved a great success here. He reminds the audience of Little Tich. His business is very similar, and equally clever. An undoubtedly clever turn is that of the Paxton Trio. The hand and foot balancing is marvellous. Jordon and Harvey score with funny patter, and give a display of cycling, comic and sensational. The Villions have had a reception well worthy their skill and daring. "An Old Man's Darling" on the Bioscope is one of the most enjoyable items on the programme. Selma Brantz repeats her brilliant Cinquevalli business. Sydney Dolf has a fine reception for his varied performance as mimic, juggler, &c. Jessie Burnett, comedienne, the Delomes, in "The Phantom Clogs," Jas. Heron, in illustrated songs, and the Three Clarions, comedy artists and dancers, are the others on a very attractive programme.

PAVILION, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd.—A particularly good programme is drawing crowded houses here. Daisy Jerome, in half a dozen impersonations, fetches the audience every time. Another star turn is that of Gertie Gitana, whose dainty and neat style is appreciated. Jessie Huddleston, the well-known comic opera prima donna, contributes several attractive songs. The Royal Opera Singers give a most enjoyable extract from Maritana. A lively sketch, Barmaids, by Lowther, Hodgson, and company causes hearty laughter. Tom E. Hughes, comedian, is a strong favourite; the Charles Troupe give a smart and well-staged acrobatic turn; Rose Waller sings well; and George Foster's comic ditties are cleverly rendered.

COLISEUM.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. S. Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Burdette.—The chief attraction this week is undoubtedly Fred Karno's company in Moses and Sons, a spirited piece of amusement, in which Mr. Fred Kitchen plays with great success. Violet Ray in her vocal and 'cello selection is well received, and Sylvie Du Barry in her rendering of "Sing me to sleep" evokes much applause. The Four Indian Fakirs, in their exhibition of conjuring, astonish the audience, and Shawlene, in his whistling act, scores a great success. The Molasso Quartette give a good exhibition of cyclonic dancing, which is well received, and Les Voces gain hearty applause for their vocal act. The Bioscope gave the usual display of interesting scenes.

PALACE.—Proprietor, Mr. Rich Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry McKelvie.—Max Rubens and Mlle. Doro give a capital musical turn, entitled "Superba"; Emily Warren, soprano vocalist, sings charmingly; Billie Burford, comedienne, does well; Arthur Stacey scores capitally, and his dances do him credit; while the boisterous absurdity, "Everyday Cyclists," by Frank Keegan and company, convulses everyone. Jack Mackenzie and company have come across the city, and are repeating here their burlesque musical comedy, The Belle of Barcelona. The Brothers Huxter are a big draw; as acrobats they are in the forefront. Dolly Harmer is a favourite, and her imitations are received most warmly; and Ross and Grayson submit a versatile act.

HARMONIC CONCERTS.—Musical Secretary, Mr. Wm. Biggam.—A well-varied Scotch programme is given here, the chief item being a sketch, Tam o' Shanter and Soutar Johnnie. Bennett and Martell gain hearty applause for their amusing business as "lost mariners." J. K. Macfarlane and Tony Black do well in comic ditties; J. M. Hamilton, Nellie Clark, and Jessie W. Fraser score in sentimental songs; while the dancing of the Murray Troupe and the musical items of the Scottish Troubadours are also much enjoyed.

GLOSSOP. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Sydney Spenser.—Miss Ida Millais' company (under the direction of Mr. Henry Herne) is here this week. Mr. Herne capably sustains the part of Harry Oaklands; Mr. H. Pyne Warburton, in the dual characters of Gilbert and Capt. Norman Bathurst, gives a good reading; Mr. Frank Denis scores as the adventurer, Silas Moore; and Mr. A. G. Lytton, as Mat. Marsden, is successful; Mr. Wm. Mallalieu is amusing as Dr. Buxton, and together with Mrs. Mallalieu as Mrs. Poodle causes hearty laughter; Mr. Alfred Byron is to the fore as Thomas Poodle; Mr. Eduard Adams is good as Owen Rushton; Mr. Chas. Young (Long Tom Grinder), and Mr. Vaughan Rowe (Jem Carnip) do ample justice to their respective parts; Miss Ida Millais gains warm applause as Mary Bathurst; Mr. Neuton Pearce (Solomon Jacops), and Miss Nancy Mitchell (Bessie Poodle), are also excellent.

GLOUCESTER.—PALACE.—Owners, Messrs. C. W. and J. R. Poole; Manager, Mr. R. T. Rea.—M. Tschernoff introduces a wonderfully clever act with ponies, dogs, and pigeons; Hanvarr and Anna Lee are billed, but on Monday Miss Lee was not well enough to appear, and Mr. Hanvarr submitted his single-handed juggling with great success; the Harrison Bros. are expert dancers and smart comedians; Mr. Fred Vallance, ventriloquist, introduces his New Page to an accompaniment of laughter; the conjuring of Moteni meets with a good reception; Miss Ethel Yorke has good songs, and an interesting sketch is given by Bayne and Hope, entitled An Emperor's Divorce; the Miltons are capital skaters; Mr. Clem. Lisbon, comedian, appears; and the Bioscope presents the interesting film "Black Beauty."

GOOLE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. John E. Tomlinson.—A Mother's Love, played by Mr. F. L. Connynghame and company constituted the attraction at this house for three nights. Mr. A. Mervyn acts with power and ability as Paul Wingate; Geoffrey Mannering, an unscrupulous character, is cleverly portrayed by Mr. A. E. Pringle; Mr. F. L. Connynghame is highly successful in his impersonation of the eccentric Mat. Ruddock; Mr. R. Lynne wins favour as Joe Jackson; Miss R. Mervyn plays the rôle of Winnie Wingate in a charmingly sweet and sympathetic manner, which speedily won the favour of the house; Miss M. Barrett, as Ellaine Mervain, acts the part with much pathos and verve; Miss D. Monkhouse is bright and attractive as Mary Smart; Miss H. Haslewood deserves a tribute to her charm and ability as Paul Wingate's child.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—ROYAL AQUARIUM.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. W. Nightingale.—Messrs. J. B. Shenton and Alexander Greenwood are paying a return visit with the powerful Russian drama The Price of Her Soul. Lord Rolf Mandeville, V.C., is depicted in earnest, manly fashion by Mr. John B. Shinton; General Lanovitz is well played by Mr. Archie Gear; and Mr. Annesley Hely ably represents Major Skoboloff. Zouroff is capitally enacted by Mr. Fred White, and Mr. Sydney Ross as Captain Jack Lawton and Mr. G. Marriott, jun., as the Hon. Algy Fraser are both successful. The humorous element is well sustained by Mr. Will Percy as Pat Murphy and Miss Ethel Rainforth as Polly Perkins. Miss Ada M. Ryder is effective as Countess Inez Steinmetz, Miss Daisy L. Connell is excellent as Vera, Lady Jemima is admirably presented by Miss Grace Garside, and Miss Kate Walfred acts cleverly as Olga Lavonitz.

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. Geo. Gilbert.—The principal turns this week are the Five Whiteleys, who win loud applause in their clever acrobatic, wire-walking, and musical pot-pourri, and Ben Hur, the ideal athlete, who astonishes with his wonderful feats of strength. Other artists appearing are Rosa Tilley, versatile artist; the Lynches, with American picture songs; Tate and Tate, comedy artists; Zelding, equestrian; Shiela McNeil, the lass frae Killiecrankie; and Gregory, Albini, and the Boy Doodles, clowns.

GREENOCK.—ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietors, The Greenock Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident Directors and Managers, Messrs. A. B. and J. J. Wright.—Mr. Charles Macdona's principal company is here with The White Chrysanthemum. The musical comedy is staged with much liberality, and the company is a highly competent one. The chorus is strong and tuneful, and the music is satisfactorily rendered by the orchestra. Miss Muriel George, by her graceful acting and cultured singing, makes a hit as O San; Kitty Kenyon is delightfully rendered by Miss Emily Taylor; and the Cornelia of Miss Nellie Groves is another outstanding feature of the performance, her dancing being very effective; Mr. Charles Schmiedt makes an excellent Admiral, his vocal numbers being much appreciated; Mr. H. Langdon Bruce fills the rôle of Lieut. Reggie with credit, singing his numerous items very nicely; and Mr. H. E. Garden makes an ideal Lieut. Chippy; Mr. Richard Telford, as Sin Cheng, is a general favourite, and interprets the part of the Chinaman to perfection; while Mr. Jamie Dallas as Private Perks is very amusing.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. H. L. Skivington.—A good all-round programme includes Harry Tate's No. 1 Company in a laughable sketch, entitled Motoring, which is well received; Paul Courtney and company submit a cleverly-worked sketch, entitled The New Doctor; the musical turn provided by the American Comedy Team is of exceptional merit, their singing and dancing being much appreciated; the Brothers Carpo are smart head and hand balancers; Viviana is an exceptionally clever dancer; the Fimans are heartily received in their sketch, In the Fire Station; while little Rose Pink is a pleasing vocalist and dancer.

PAVILION THEATRE.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd; Resident-Manager, Mr. Chas. A. White.—An excellent programme is submitted here this week, the premier position being taken by Mr. George Lashwood, who had a cordial reception; Kloff and Ramsay submit a novel musical turn; Herbert La Martine is a clever vocalist, dancer, and baton manipulator; Osburn and Brookes sang and danced well, and have some good patter; and Queenie May, "the Juvenile Prize Packet," is much applauded for her charming singing. The Paviscope pictures are also interesting. At an interval on Monday evening the manager intimated that a special matinée under distinguished patronage would be given here on Wednesday afternoon, the net proceeds to be handed over to the Greenock Charity Organisation Society for the relief of families in the town in destitute circumstances.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Chairman of Directors, Mr. H. J. Curry; Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry.—The Love That Women Desire is presented here by Mr. G. Carlton Wallace's company. Mr. Wallace himself takes a prominent part, appearing as Richard Abingdon; Mr. Fred Lloyd portrays Philip Carnaby in manly fashion; and Miss Lalla Stanhope fulfils all requirements as the much persecuted Sybil Thornburn. Mr. J. O. Stewart is sufficiently grim as Squire Abingdon; and others notable for good work are Mr. Leonard Montgomery as Frank Hardy, and Miss Cicely Desmond as Madge Abingdon, whilst the comedy is well looked after by Miss Nita Imeson as Pattie Swift, Mr. John Hignett as Dennis O'Rourke, and Mr. J. W. Wilkinson as P.C. Sowerberry.

CURRY'S TIVOLI. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. W. North.—The astonishing gyrations of the Achmed-Ibrahim Troupe of Moroccan acrobats have greatly delighted the Tivoli audiences. The feature of the performance is the rapidity with which one feat follows another, and the members of troupe are equally expert in tumbling and pyramid work. Charles Austin's songs and funny business established him a favourite; and Julian Mack, a quaint female impersonator, also causes much merriment. Ragius manipulates tennis balls in a novel and smart manner; the Three Whirligigs accomplish pretty dances, coupled with excellent songs; the Morton Trio combine comedy with pleasingly harmonised vocalism; Rappo and Ella contribute a capital equilibristic turn; the Dunham Trio scored as bar performers; and A. Minor is an entertaining ventriloquist.

THE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. A. Edwardes; Resident-Manager, Mr. T. W. Moyes; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. V. Allton.—The Seven Savonas and Elliotts have made a welcome reappearance. As the Savonas they give a musical speciality that is more enjoyable than ever, whilst their brilliantly illuminated stage setting is of surpassing beauty. As the Elliotts they introduce new business into their clever cycling act. Millie Howell, a descriptive vocalist, wins admiration for her charm of style; Wheeler and Wilson give an acrobatic specialty, and accomplish some wonderful lifting feats; a graceful gymnastic act is also presented by Senorita Eloina; comedy is provided by Fred Dunstone, whose parodies are amusing; and Grant and Allen are a couple of laughable eccentrics; whilst the Sisters Neilson, dainty song and dance artists, complete the programme.

THE HIPPODROME. — Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. T. Haydn Reano.—Drama was again the attraction here, At the World's Mercy, played by Mr. Carr Loates' company. Mr. Loates was good as Captain Manley, and was well supported by Miss Lillian Beaumont as Alice Lloyd; Mr. Percy Beresford as Jabez Barber; Mr. Henry Fergusson as the Jew; Mr. Jesse Boxer as Charlie Smart; and Mrs. Loates as Kitty Knott.

HALIFAX.—GRAND THEATRE, LTD.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Sam Winks.—Mr. Junius Booth opened here on Monday in Monte Cristo. Edmond Dantès was admirably delineated by Mr. Junius Booth; as Dangears Mr. Augustin Bowerman proved excellent; Mr. Walter Martin did good work as the Abbé Faria; Fernard was forcibly presented by Mr. C. W. Crowe; Mr. E. H. Templeton created a good impression as Noirtier; Mr. Walter Huron looked the part of the despotic Villefort; and Mr. J. W. Braithwaite did well as Caderousse; Miss Clare Elstob won sympathy as Mercedes; and Miss Emma Robberds was an acquisition as the scheming La Carconte.

THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Harry Freeman, the popular comedian, has been in a mirth-provoking humour here this week; the Kitafukas Troupe of real Japanese present an astounding act; Milstead and Bell in an original scena, The Belle of Arizona, are worthy of commendation; the Four Olympians are full of vivacity; Amy Anderson and company, in the Banana Queen meet with approbation; Martinengo is a 'cello player of great promise; and Denby and Dent, the Westons (cyclists), and J. G. Forde (comedian) are also in the programme.

PALACE THEATRE, LTD.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Ed. Harrison.—Howard and Harris have adequate scope for their humorous propensities; Tom Foy and company, in A Yorkshire Lad in London, are delightfully quaint; a musical duologue by Hillman and Russell, "The Somnambulist," proves entertaining; and the Almos (acrobats), Friscara (juggler), George Hyam in "Cricket," and Bert Harrow are also popular.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Douglas Elphinstone.—Mr. Tree's company opened here on Monday, in Oliver Twist, under the management of Mr. Alfred Wareing. Mr. Mackintosh is once more to be seen as Fagin, a most artistic impersonation; Mr. Cecil A. Collins as Bill Sykes contributes a clever portrayal; as the Artful Dodger Mr. Tom Macfarlane scores successfully; Mr. Christmas Grose does well as Charlie Bates; Mr. Frederick Clive as Tom Chitling is seen to advantage; as Barney, Mr. Max Montesole is capital; Miss Maudie Ray is responsible for an interesting Oliver Twist; as Nancy Miss Marie Polini is exceedingly clever; Betsy is in the capable hands of Miss Edith King; and Mrs. Maylie finds a good exponent in Miss Elsie Carew.

GRAND.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Alfred Edwardes.—Mr. Fred Storey and company head the bill this week, in Rip Van Winkle. The piece is cleverly enacted. In the title-rôle Mr. Storey's performance is most artistic; he is admirably supported, and the mounting lacks nothing. The Avolos in their novel gymnastic turn contribute a performance of much excellence; Rex Fox in his turn upon the slack wire is much appreciated; Marriott Edgar sings several capital songs; Preston and Balmaine return in their illustrated songs, which are capitally pictured; Stanley and ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Mortons, Ltd.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. Morton.—Mr. Walter Howard's Midnight Wedding is a drama far above the average. It tells its story coherently, it sustains its interest, and it reveals histrionic gifts of no mean order in its representatives. Mr. Paumier, the head of the company, finds a most congenial rôle in that of Paul Valmer. The comic relief is found in three singing soldiers, Max, Otto, and Bobo, whose struggles to capture the heart of Miss Ada Champion (Kathie) are to the evident enjoyment of the house.

THE HIPPODROME.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Graham; Manager, Mr. Tom Lunn.—Carter Livesay and Lilian Rosebery make a return visit in Would-be Actors. Iona is a capital entertainment provided by Charles Fraser and company; Smiler Lee, comedian, has a quaint style; Bob Hamilton appears with much success; Kathleen Gray, a new turn, gains much applause; the Virginians contribute some capital songs and dances.

HULL EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. Harry Slingsby.—Empress, lady handcuff expert, tops the bill in some smart tricks; Rosie Bartlett has some catchy choruses; Mlle. Meletia is a clever dancer. Other popular artists include J. G. Aitken, Two Leons, Mitzi, Harry Gold, and Sphinx and Sphinx.

THE PALACE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.—Mr. Jno. Tiller's Mad Minstrels top the bill. All the principals are new, except Jessie Templeton, a big favourite in Hull, who successfully takes the title-rôle. Minnie Cunningham sings her songs in a dainty manner, as of yore; Lucia and Viata appear in a smart wire act; the Maples and Baker and Balfe are capital turns; and other artists include J. H. Milburn, Bros. Hayes, and Albertine Melicn.

HYDE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. R. Feather—Hardie and Von Leer's Two Little Vagabonds company is paying a return visit here, to the delight of large audiences. In the rôles of Dick and Whalley, Miss Lucy Beaumont and Miss Gladys Vernon appear to distinct advantage; Mr. Arthur E. Melbourne gives a finished performance as George Thornton; Mr. Edward Maclean displays high histrionic ability as Captain Darville; and Mr. Richard Hicks makes the most of the part of John Scarth. Villainy is capitally personified by Mr. Lionel Ellis as Bill Mullins; Mr. Frank Gordon as Dido Bounce, and Mr. Gerald Valentine as the Coughdrop. Miss Valerie Crespin gives a powerful and telling interpretation to her lines as Marion Thornton; Miss Lilian Stewart is all that could be desired as Barbara Scarth; and a clever study of Biddy Mullins is furnished by Miss Violet Vivian.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. Rogers.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company in the musical comedy Florodora was here the first three nights. Miss Daisy Lake plays effectively the rôle of Dolores, and uses her well-trained voice to advantage; whilst Mr. Howard V. Cropton as Frank Abercoed is the recipient of much applause for his fine rendering of the songs allotted to him; Mr. Gus Danby keeps the house in roars of laughter by his quaint and clever reading of Anthony Tweedlepunch; Mr. H. Carnelly-Joye scores as Captain Arthur Donegal, and Miss Dorothy Dempste is a charming exponent of Angela Gilfain; Miss Rose Sullivan makes a capital Lady Holyrood, and her songs are received with well-earned approbation. Mr. Colin Johnston's Cyrus W. Gilfain is an excellent performance; Miss Dorothy Dance is successful as Valeda, and the same remark applies to Mr. C. A. Road-Night as Leandro. The chorus is under the able directorship of Mr. W. E. Brightwell.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Knightall.—The Danvils render their illustrated songs in a charming way, and also present good animated pictures. The Delemers, comedians and dancers, are applauded; Fred Alberto, vocalist and dancer, has had a good reception; May Tudor, ballad vocalist; George Russell, character-comedian; and Leo Loveday, comedian and dancer, add to the success of the entertainment.

IPSWICH.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Acting-Manager, Mr. Leonard Grey.—The musical farce entitled The Dandy Doctor is here. Miss Florence Smithers, in the character of Jane, causes much merriment; Mr. James Satter as the millionaire makes a good impression in an eccentric part; Mr. Leslie Martin as Bertie Bolingbroke renders good assistance; Miss Elfie Vincent sings charmingly, and Mr. Walter Nugent as the Doctor and Mr. Herbert Pearce as the Colonel are quite successful.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—The most striking feature of the programme here is Madame Claesen's living art bronzes, which include some living replicas of the great masters. Other turns include Joe Archer, with droll patter; Jack Ross, a double-voiced vocalist; the Sisters Hayden, refined singers; Walker and May; Otto and Olger, in a burlesque opera sketch; Sable Fern, comedienne, and Sid Cotterell and Co. in that amusing sketch, The Substitute.

JARROW.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jerold E. Reed.—Between Two Women is being presented here. Mr. F. Goddard gives a good account of the Earl of Millard; Mr. Howell Travis is most excellent as Harry Millard; Mr. Walter Thornton does full justice to the part of James Durward; Mr. Geoffrey Tearle is quite at home as the Rev. Philip Carton; Mr. Roland Yorke plays with force as Major Strangeways; Mr. Fred Danvers causes amusement as Jack Pringle; being ably assisted by Miss Earle as Polly Popp; Carmen De Savereaux is in the capable hands of Miss Fletcher; Miss M. Malone is a graceful Violet Thornton; and Miss Lulu Bowes gives a capital rendering of the Blind Boy.

KEIGHLEY.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Carson and Kendall; Acting-Manager, Mr. Will Carson.—Mr. E. Lockwood and Mr. R. Crossman's excellent company is here in Sergeant Brue. Mr. E. Russell's Brue is most praiseworthy; Mr. T. A. Shale as Crooky Scrubbs is irresistibly droll; Miss Kitty Dale possesses a beautiful voice, and her songs are encored nightly; Mr. J. H. Goldsworthy ably undertakes the part of Michael Brue; Miss Lily Lingard is a charming Lady Bickenhall, and Mr. Henry Chichester's Crank deserves praise.

KETTERING.—AVENUE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Payne.—Mr. Ian Maclaren and company are appearing here this week in a round of Shakespearean plays. On Tuesday Hamlet was produced, when Mr. Maclaren gave a masterly interpretation of the title-rôle, being ably supported by Miss W. Beresford, who presented a charming performance of Ophelia. Othello, The Merchant of Venice, and Romeo and Juliet are billed for the remainder of the week.

KIDDERMINSTER.—NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Licensee and Managing-Director, Mr. Jas. P. Moore; Acting-Manager, Mr. R. C. Gudgeon.—For the first three nights this week we have a visit from Mr. Chas. Macdona's company with A Country Girl. Miss Violet Leslie is an excellent Marjorie; Miss Hetty Peel is a sprightly Nan; the Princess is in the clever hands of Miss Adelaide Clifton; Miss Madge Campbell is an ideal Sophie. Mr. Frank Weir causes no end of amusement in the part of Barry; and Mr. Martin D. Pitts as Geoffrey and Mr. Bernard Vaughan as the Rajah are respectively good in their parts. The popular musical comedy is mounted and staged in first-class style.

KIRKCALDY.—KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Burton.—Large audiences are greeting the return visit of Messrs. Glenville and Osmond's company in The Still Alarm; Mr. Glenville is still to be seen in the rôle of Jack Manley, a part which suits him admirably; Mr. Osmond, as Doctor Wilber, is more amusing than ever; Mr. George Arthur portrays the villainy of John Bird in a way which is most natural and effective; Mr. Lewis Gordon, as Franklyn Fordham, makes a fairly good old man; and Mr. Tom Beasley is capital as Willie Manley, he and Miss Hettie Zillwood as Cad working well together; Mr. J. Sutton Pateman is excellent as Joe Jones; Miss Maud Warburton is charming as Elinor; and Miss M. Veriton a praiseworthy Mrs. Manley. The singing of the Lyric Comedy Four is much appreciated.

LANCASTER.—ATHENÆUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Acting-Manager, Mr. Alfred Hook.—A Woman's Past is being presented by Mr. H. F. Housden and company. Mr. Housden gives a skilful study of Clement Harper; Mr. Clifton Earle is forcible as Uriah Craven; and Mr. David Phillips is to be commended as Frank Delanney. Miss Dorothy Wallace in the rôle of the heroine, Bessie, wins sympathy; and Miss Doris Cameron as Dorothy Heath, Miss Irene Carrington as Clara Darrel, and Mr. J. Myron Howard as David Heath are all commendable.

HIPPODROME AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. J. Porter and W. J. Fergusson.—The Tennessee Guards give a fine exhibition of pyramid-building and wall-scaling; another capital turn is supplied by Whimsical Walker in a sketch, Captain Hamilton, V.C., the talented comedian having the assistance of Little Frances Maddock, a remarkable child actress; the Errols, comedy tumblers, are smart; Bennett and Martell in "Lost Mariners" cause roars of laughter; Bert Bowden is a comedian of the first rank; Bert Kemble, comedian, also does well; and Beau and Belle in "A Pierrot's Serenade," the Three Tivoli Girls, and Walter Payne's new pictures make up a capital programme.

PALACE.—Manager, John Fell.—The bill is headed here by Avon and Crest, comedy artists; York, Mac, and York supply a screaming comedy act, A Widow's Worries; Mr. Theodore Jones's company in a vocal scena, Jack Sheppard, merit rounds of applause; and Minnie Wren, comedienne; the Three Orchids; the Sisters Astor, acrobatic dancers; Juan and McDue, comedians; and the Edison-Swan Pictures complete a first-rate entertainment.

LEEDS.—GRAND THEATRE.—Managing Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. Edward Cadman.—A crowded house assembled on Monday to welcome Mr. James Welch and company with Charles Marlowe's farce, When Knights were Bold. After struggling through the first act under the inconvenience of an obvious cold, the popular little comedian had to depute his part to an understudy. Miss Audrey Ford and Mr. Edward Sass are particularly effective as Rowena Eggington and Sir Brian, respectively; Isaacson is a clever study by Mr. Arthur Grenville; Millicent, a charming effort by Miss Daisy Cordell; and as the two retainers, Mr. George F. Tully and Mr. Gordon Tompkins, acquit themselves well. In other leading parts Mr. Henry J. Ford, Miss Emma Gwynne, and Miss Enid Sass are most effective. The curtain raiser, The Lady Burglar, is capitally played by Mr. Henry J. Ford and Miss Estelle Winwood.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. R. Ernest Liston.—A revival of that famous old play, The Corsican Brothers, is proving a popular engagement here; the condensed version being welcomed by two good houses nightly. The dual rôle of the twin brothers has a fine and capable exponent in Mr. Frederick Maxwell, whose forceful acting is very impressive; Miss Lois du Cane makes a pleasing and winsome Pom Pom; the character of Emilie de L'Esparra is most effectively realised by Miss Louise Biddulph; and other parts are capably enacted by Mr. Charles Levey; Mr. Sam Harcourt and Miss Pollie Marshall.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Dottridge and Longden; General-Manager, Mr. C. H. Longden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Bush.—Claudian is the attraction here. Mr. William Maclaren and Miss Lily C. Bandmann's company giving a convincing presentation; Mr. Maclaren's Claudian is a forceful and dignified effort; the Almida of Miss Bandmann is a talented conception; Mr. Edmund Grogan does excellent service in the rôle of the Tetrarch; the part of a young farmer is cleverly depicted by Mr. F. Owen Chambers; and Miss Rosa Webster deserves high praise for a sweet delineation of Serena.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Moss Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. T. Gerald Morton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Alex. Galley.—Chung Ling Soo is the chief feature of this week's bill, his wonderful conjuring entertainment arousing great interest; the Horne Bros. are provoking much merriment with their boxing specialty; the Arthur Lloyd Trio are giving a new comedy sketch with success; Hall and Earle score with diverting acrobatic business; Techow's Cats go through a wonderful performance; Charles Pastor finds ready acceptance of clever new items; and Laurie Clare, a new comedian; Daisy O'Malley, comedienne and dancer; and the ever popular picture show complete a strong programme.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Managers Mr. Claude Shayler and Mr. Charles Weldon.—Leo Dryden, the popular actor-vocalist, is starring here, and with fine new items, enhances a big reputation; the Mackweys are diverting in an acrobatic wire act; Mabel Kessler introduces successful bugle solos; the comedians include that popular favourite, Martin Conway and C. Woodward; also Bishop and Hanlon, a clever pair; James De Voye introduces his intelligent horse Billy; and we are further entertained by the Two Eltons, with comedy bar act; Susie and Protti, in a continental specialty act; and the Barrascope pictures.

CITY VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. Fred W. Wood; General-Manager, Mr. J. C. Whiteman; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sam Jones.—The usual vociferous welcome is being extended by crowded houses to that talented pair Bella and Bijou, and a record week's business is being done. The Dean Bros. fill the bottom of the bill with a clever dancing act; that smart comedy pair, the Wedburns, are on a welcome return visit; the vocal and electric specialty, Illumino, is presented with success by J. A. Skerrett; the Falcons are pleasing with an excellent comedy act; and the programme also includes an original specialty by King Leo and Jerry; and Lillie Le Bretton, a graceful and expert trapeze performer.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton.—The interesting and successful play The Fascinating Mr. Vandervelt, adequately presented by Messrs. Silvanus Dauncey and M. V. Leveaux's clever company, is making its first appearance here this week. In the title-part Mr. Reginald Dance is to be complimented on a portrayal of great cleverness and all-round excellence, and Miss Gladys Mason as Lady Clarice Howland wins golden opinions by her charming impersonation. Mr. H. Lawrence Leyton is very good as Colonel Rayner, and as Lord Woolham Mr. Edward Coutts is excellent. Both Mr. George A. Seager as Sir Bartholomew Cardic and Mr. Russell Barry as Mr. Goddlestone are amusing. Miss Agnes Gunn is all that can be desired as Miss Pelling, the same remark applying to Miss Mary Weigall as the Marchioness of Hendingby, Miss Eve Titheradge as Aggie Coles, and Miss May Brooke as Lady Clementina Desborough. Mr. George Percy is capital as the Rev. Hubert Langston, and Mr. F. Vernon Travers as Mr. Mellon, Mr. Gerald Henson as Alfie, Miss Helen Tytler as Mrs. Mellon, and Miss Dorothy Haigh as Miss Brevell also deserve a meed of praise. The one-act drama The Drums of Oude precedes, the principal parts in which are enacted in good style by Mr. Reginald Dance, Miss Gladys Mason, and Mr. Edward Coutts.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessees and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Business-Manager, Mr. E. R. Beaumont.—Mr. Lester Collingwood's company, in When London Sleeps, is the attraction here this week. Mr. C. P. Wentworth, as the evil genius, Captain Rodney Hayes, plays well, and Mr. Sam Arthur as David Engleheart is excellent. Miss Mabel Scudamore displays her histrionic talents to the best advantage as Queenie Carruthers, and Miss Josephine Melbourne as Lelia is conspicuously successful. Miss Maude Yorke is good as Hilda Carode, and Mrs. Edgar Colona is capital as Signorina Jonesio. Mr. F. E. Thomas does well as Bob Jones, as also do Mr. D'Arcy Kelway as Sammy Blythe, Mr. Frank Howard as the Hon. Bertie Broombead, Mr. Harry Barham as Mark Blackwood, and Miss Bessie Frank as Carrie Jones. The play is staged in the usual praiseworthy manner.

PALACE THEATRE, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; District-Manager, Mr. Hatton Wharton; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. Finch-Hatton; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Bertram G. Iles.—Fred Ginnett and company, with an improved edition of the romantic equestrian spectacle Dick Turpin's Ride to York, introducing the marvellously-trained mare "Black Bess," is the leading attraction here this week. To Mr. Ginnett must be accorded great praise for the exceedingly entertaining manner in which he has placed his "show" on the stage. Ludwig Amann, the well-known character impersonator, scores a well-deserved success with his life-like portraits of various famous personages; Victor Travers, a mirth-provoking comedian, keeps the audience in continual laughter; a delightful musical act is submitted by Florence and Lillian; the Five Boganneys, as "The Lunatic Bakers," give a smart, clever, and clean acrobatic performance; the Avrignys are well to the front with a first-class juggling and equilibristic act; Amy Russell is an entertaining vocalist; Roy and Fenton are capital in their laughable absurdity The Grass Widower; Lil Hawthorne not appearing here on Monday evening, Alma Obrey, a dashing burlesque artist, filled the gap, and met with a hearty reception. For the rest of the week the Bioscope, with the usual entertaining films, was billed in the place of Miss Hawthorne.

PAVILION THEATRE.—Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Lapworth.—Fred Southern and company are again the principal attraction, and are submitting The Flag of Freedom in excellent style. The old favourite, His Lordship's Birthday, is also a feature, with Mr. Fred Southern as Hinky. The various parts in both sketches are well played, particularly by Mr. Percy Emery, Mr. Charles Ashwell, Miss May Emery (Mrs. Southern), Miss Gipsy Alexander, and Mr. Fred Southern. The Leotard Brothers, acrobatic clowns and hat throwers, are scoring a well-deserved success with a clever turn. A special feature of the programme is Walter H. Pallister's Bioscope. Other artists who give entertaining turns, are Harry Briggs, a popular double-voiced vocalist; Cissie Schofield, comedienne; and Eric Graham, comedian.

TEMPERANCE HALL.—Manager, Mr. G. Stanyon.—Mr. Will Catlin's Royal Pierrots entered on their third week on Monday, and continue to delight all with their refined and versatile entertainment.

LEIGH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Cragg; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Rousby.—Mr. Augustine Knight and company are appearing here this week in the stirring drama, entitled The Assassin. Miss Ella Vane, who plays the title-rôle, gives evidence of dramatic powers of more than ordinary merit; Mr. Augustine Knight contributes a well-thought out exposition of the villainous Prince Demetri; Mr. Edward E. Ashby plays the hero in a manner which evokes much applause. Miss Hettie Genier scores a great success as Connie Jonathan; Mr. Cecil H. Raymond is a humorous exponent of Baron Alphonse; Mr. Edwin Jenner gives an intelligent interpretation of Capt. O'Neil; Mr. Tom Taylor as Peter has full opportunity of displaying his skill in comedy, his efforts being well seconded by Miss Marie Robertson as Katrina.

LEITH.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Darlison.—Leith playgoers always give a cordial welcome to Irish dramas, and Mr. C. Watson Mills' romantic play, A Warning to Women, has been well received. The author-actor has given himself an arduous rôle in Dr. Marcus Dread, to which he imparts much interest; and Miss Rosalind Tate appears to great advantage as Moira Kennion. An excellent portrait of an old Irish squire is presented by Mr. Henry Rutland; Mr. N. C. Slaughter does amusing work as Lord Eversleigh, a sprig of nobility; and Mr. W. Pallisor Acock, in the part of an excitable Frenchman, Ferdinand de Joules, is also responsible for much diversion. Miss Saidie Hilton makes a good Nurse Hellena; Miss Ellen Beverley is effective as Molly O'More, the Wise Woman; and a crowd of minor characters, male and female, find able exponents.

LINCOLN.—ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Frank King.—Somebody's Sweetheart is excellently presented by Mr. Edward Marris's company, including Mr. W. H. Kirby, a very amusing Blabbs. Mr. E. H. Bertram as Stanton Ashleigh is excellent, Miss Millie Gordon scores as the perky young brother, and Mr. D. B. Watson makes his mark as Leverton. Mr. R. H. Hamber wins favour as the old negro, Joe, and a bit of good character acting is contributed by Mr. J. Templar Ellis. Miss Molly Hackett enacts the title-rôle with success, Miss Cordelia Knight is a picturesque Zora, and Miss Norah Melton an effective Miss Ainslie. The piece is well staged.

PALACE.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. Sydney Arthur.—G. W. Hunter, with his lively songs and amusing patter, is entertaining local audiences this week, and meeting with uproarious applause. Wallace Whitney presents a very quaint fire-brigade ditty, the Brothers Etherien have some intensely funny burlesque work, and Charles F. Best's mountebank number is as interesting and well-thought-out as before. Les Belles Americaine are a vivacious quartette of song-and-dance artists, Beattie Foster is a character low comedienne of ability, and Raymond's Bio-Tableaux present several smart new films.

LIVERPOOL.—ROYAL COURT THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager Mr Arthur Lawrence.—The leading theatre still maintains its reputation for providing the latest London successes. This week its patrons, assembled in great numbers, have thoroughly enjoyed the bright and merry musical play entitled The Girl Behind the Counter, and the general opinion was that it ranks exceedingly high among those of its particular class. Foremost were Miss Isabel Jay and Mr. Hayden Coffin, two leading players, who, strange to say, never before appeared in the city on the Mersey. As Winnie Willoughby Miss Jay exhibited a sweetness and vivacity which was exceedingly pleasing to witness, whilst her rendering of several pretty songs induced the audience to strongly demand encores. Mr. Coffin as Chetwynd soon found favour, his acting, manner, and vocalisation being altogether admirable; Mr. J. F. McArdle as General Willoughby was one of the principal mainstays of the play; Mr. G. D. Burnaby got everything possible out of Viscount Gushington; and a large amount of excellent comedy was provided by Mr. Lionel Victor (office boy), Mr. George Barrett (waiter), Mr. Fred Allandale (Mr. Duval), and Mr. Ernest Laceby (commissionaire). Minor parts were charmingly presented by the Misses Maisie North (Millie Moyston), Violet Crossley, Helene Rose, and Kathleen Courtney.

SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, LTD.—Manager and Secretary, Mr. John Gaffney.—In the répertoire presented here this week Mr. Edward Terry included Liberty Hall, a revival which met with much acceptance. As the old bookseller, Todman, the popular comedian was seen to great advantage, the character being of that type in which Mr. Terry revels. Mr. Allan Pollock was excellent as Mr. Owen, his acting being a strong feature of the play; Mr. William Dexter exercised every discretion as Briginshaw; Miss Fyfe Alexander and Miss Gertrude Tate pleased exceedingly in the rôles of Blanche and Amy Chilworth; Miss Eugenie Vernie afforded the utmost satisfaction as the despotic servant, Crafer; and worthy support came from Mr. George Howard (Mr. Hickson), Miss Ella Dixon (Miss Hickson), and Mr. Frank Cellier, jun (Honorable Gerald). The Magistrate and Sweet Lavender were in the week's list.

ROTUNDA THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery.—Mr William Greet's company is here this week with The Sign of the Cross. Mr. Frank E. Petley acted with dignity and feeling as Marcus Superbus; Miss Marie Leonhard was graceful and sympathetic in the rôle of Mercia; much tenderness was shown by Miss Effie Dane as Stephanus; Mr C. Yorke gave satisfaction as Nero; Mr. Charles Aldred was a capable Tigellinus; and Mr Walter Fleet creditably sustained the character of Favius. The play was well presented.

LYRIC THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry C. Arnold; Directors of Entertainments, Messrs. T. Barrasford and F. Willmot; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Coles.—Alec Hurley and his company, in the Coster's Friendly Lead, is the principal draw here this week; Harrigan and Holt are funny with their up-to-date business; the Sisters St. Julian are smart dancers; Dawson Dewick is laughable; Fatima Diard sings in an artistic manner; and the Arleys are clever gymnasts, and with the assistance of the trained dogs their turn is certainly made very entertaining; Georgina Leonard is loudly applauded for her songs; the Lillian Bros. give a clever acrobatic turn

STAR THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Harris Fineberg.—For the first time in Liverpool, the American play Alaska has been given here by Mr. Hilliard Vox and company. It met with acceptance, Mr. Vox, in the character of Skookum Jim, displayed ability, keeping a good hold of his audience; Mr. Albert Rogers proved exceedingly humorous as the coon, Pompey Cæsar; Miss G. Hastings Walton exhibited dramatic power as the faithful Indian, Alaska; Miss E. Turner Elliott was a pretty and vivacious Jessie Dalton; Mr. C. D. Pitt made an impression as the villainous Ned Larson; Mr. H Naylor Grimson was a fine Baptiste; and worthy support also came from Miss Winnie Webster (the Widow's Mite), Miss Leslie Wynne (Widow Casey), Mr. Bevan Benton (Father Bernard), and Mr. John Ford (Malumite Kid).

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Lingford Carson; Manager, Mr. Fred L Arthur.—Mr. C. W. Somerset and company have been here this week with a new version of The Jungle. As Jacob Whitmarsh, the mad doctor, Mr. Somerset acted with dramatic effect; Mr. John Hood's assumption of the part of Cyprian Randal afforded satisfaction; Miss Ada Homer played the emotional rôle of Jessie Thyme with care; Mr. Alexander Bradley was well placed as Sir Martin Gerard; Mr. George Barran made an able Governor Beaumont; and Miss Winifred Pearson did justice to the character of Barbara Whitmarsh. The scenery was neat, and the music, from the pen of Mr. Denham Harrison, appropriate.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Manager, Mr. Walter Hassan.—Another capital all-round programme is offered here this week. Foremost is Irma Lorraine in a series of beautiful picture-tableaux of great masters, which have been witnessed by large and delighted audiences; a cordial greeting has been extended to Alice Raymond (who is assisted by John Kurkamp), the lady cornetist and bugler, whose playing is of a very high order; Ernest Montefiore and company present a pretty musical and dramatic scena, The Little Colonel, which is received with much appreciation; Colby and May have a novel entertainment, entitled "The Ventriloquist and His Dancing Doll"; the quaint comedy work of Alf Gibson is richly enjoyed; a popular musical comedy act, The Lancashire Lass, is successfully submitted by Zeta Grey and company, much laughter follows the funny trifle, The Artist and His Monkey, by the Rallis; W. E. Gibin's humorous and ventriloquial turn earns for him loud applause; Wilton Heriot and company present a pleasing protean act, An Anglo-American Alliance; and other artists who appear are Helen Martin, vocalist, and Jennie John, soubrette.

NEW PARTHENON.—The British Imperial Life-Motion Picture company, under the direction of Mr Anthony Brown, is here again this week.

ROYAL PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank O'Toole.—The "Royal" stock company is presenting the dramatic sketch, Slave of Sin. Mr. Percy Boucher is a humorous Alphonse D'Arcy; Mr. Cecil Ravenswood carefully presents Prof. Morley; Mr Harry Tresham plays with dramatic strength the part of Gordon Morley; Mr. Sydney Grant is powerful in the heavy rôle of Dr. Josiah Selby; Mr. Robert Wilton makes the most of Stephen Fletcher; Miss Florence Palmer acquits herself as Elsie Beresford; and Miss Beryl Ravenswood does justice to Ida Ross.

PADDINGTON PALACE.—Lessee, Mr. M. Montgomery.—The "Royal" stock company here is giving this week Edward Thane's Every Inch a Man. Mr. Vincent A. Briscoe is an admirable Alderman Barnet; Mr. Albert Sember is particularly fine as Dick Barnet; the heavy part of Daniel Barnet is capably undertaken by Mr. Frank S. Strickland; Mr. Walter Foster does credit to Ben Brown; and Mr. H. G. Brandon is responsible for excellent comedy as Teddy Edwards. Miss Lina Nazeby is well placed as Mrs. Edwards; Miss Florence Barnes holds the part of Martha; and Miss Lilian Burns plays discreetly as Vera Maxwell. Mr. Ernest Williams is worthy of mention as Major O'Donovan.

PARK PALACE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Dandy George heads the programme here this week, his funny clowning and the remarkable sagacity of his well-trained dog combining to provide a merry twenty minutes show; the Hebrew character delineator, Gus Harris, brings his latest vocal scena, "The Synagogue"; May Zant and her juveniles have a pleasing exhibition of music and dancing; a smart quick-change entertainment comes from Baroni and Kemp; Leah Arden renders several acceptable ballads; for the second week the Theatrescope shows some first-class moving pictures, and Lady Fauntleroy gives a pleasing example of ventriloquism.

WESTMINSTER.—Lessee, Mr. Fred E. Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Montgomery.—At the top of the bill here this week are the Beau Ideal troupe of eight juveniles, whose entertainment of mimicry, dancing, and singing is much appreciated; Sammy Shields, a humorous story-teller and vocalist, keeps his audience in a merry mood; Sandy and Carl are particularly funny with their knockabout business; the whistling of Crocker is very good, and his songs much appreciated; May Bruce has several pleasing numbers; and George Edney, actor vocalist, is also in the list. On Thursday Mr G. Montgomery, acting-manager, had a successful benefit.

EMPIRE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.—The big attraction here this week is the famous illusionist, Carl Hertz, who is assisted by Emeline D'Alton and company. Fresh from his American tour he presents his latest sensation, The Bridal Chamber, in the course of which he produces from nothing a complete bedroom boudoir, handsomely furnished, with a lady reclining on a solid six feet bed. The trick created the greatest surprise. Those clever comedians, Griffithe Bros., arouse endless laughter with their antics; the dainty Marie Santoi and her merry little Japs provide a delightful musical novelty, "The Japanese Teagarden by Night"; the singing and dancing of the ladies known as The Eight of Hearts, is loudly applauded; Fred Clements, the well-known comedian, appears in his latest successes; some smart gymnastic work is gone through by the Rio Brothers; and others in the list are Marguerite Broadfoote, a charming comedy vocalist; Les Rubens, operatic vocalists; and L. W. Harris, with his "Elleline" and other songs.

HAYMARKET.—Licensee, Mr. J. S Childs.—The Vandyke troupe of pantomimists are here this week with their laughable sketch, Sensations, which is well put on; Tom Garland, the Welsh ventriloquist, gives a pleasing turn; some smart conjuring comes from Professor Anderson; Cissie Carter renders Irish ballads (which are illustrated by the lantern) in capital style, and is heartily applauded; Rowan and Moore present an acceptable sketch, The First Quarrel; and the Bioscope has pleasing pictures

OLYMPIA, LTD.—Manager, Mr. A. W. Young.—The doors of this handsome building are besieged for the third week with vast crowds, eager to witness The Flood. In the variety part of the programme the famed Kremos troupe of acrobats are prominent, and earn loud applause for their remarkable work; the eccentricities of Ben Albert arouse great laughter; the turn given by the Adeler and Sutton pierrots (Charles Harvey, Elsie Steadman, and Clifford Morgan), is much appreciated; Parker and Parr, Welsh vocal entertainers, prove very diverting with their trifle, Taffy and the Toff; Percival, "the piano shifter," submits a funny turn; some humorous and smart work is performed by the Mezzettis on the triple bars; and also in the list are Tripello saxophonist; and Lena Willard, comedienne. On Thursday a special charity matinée was given, in aid of the funds of the Food and Betterment Association.

LLANELLY.—ROYALTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Z. Andrews; Acting Manageress, Miss Alice Rocheforte.—Miss Winifred Maude and company are here once more. This time they present The Sins of a City. Miss Maude herself takes the part of Seaweed in excellent style; Mr. William Vane as Sandy is exceptionally good; and as Joe and Jasper Woodleigh Mr. Norton Shields works hard and successfully. Miss Ethel Tinsley is a capable Lesbia; Miss Lily Mason a good Mrs. Miggs; and Miss Jenny Hackett a charming Midge. The Stowaway is billed for the second half of the week.

LONG EATON.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Mr. F. S. Gilbert's opera company has paid a return visit this week, opening with Wallace's Maritana. Mr. Gilbert is ably assisted by Miss Elsia May, Miss Faith Laborde, Mr. J. Kneale Campbell, Mr. H. Blagrave, Mr. James Knox, Mr. F. Featherstone, and others. The operas produced were Faust (Miss Laborde as Marguerite, and Mr. E. Stevens the title-rôle), Il Travatore, The Daughter of the Regiment, finishing up the week end with the ever-popular Bohemian Girl. The principals are all in excellent voice, and numerous encores were demanded during the various performances.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Payne-Seddon and George Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lindsey Edwards.—Mr. Hoggan Armadale and company are here with a répertoire, which includes David Garrick, The Vicar of Wakefield, and The Bells. In the first-named piece Mr. Hoggan Armadale gave a delightful performance of the title-rôle, and was well supported by Mr. David Beattie as Joshua Bedford, Mr. Arthur Rose as Squire Overdon, and Miss Violet Macaree and Miss Nancy Roberts as Laura Bedford and Lydia respectively.

MACCLESFIELD.—THE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. W. K. Gatley.—Miss Hettie Jeffries' company is paying a return visit with the realistic play, A Nobleman of Nature. Prince Ivan is capitally played by Mr. Whitmore Ledger, ably assisted by Miss Hettie Jeffries as Vera; Mr. Geoffrey Broughton is excellent as Barrie Forsyth, and Mr. Clifford Spencer admirably depicts Bill Drinkwater; Mr. Tom Handley is seen to advantage as Phillip Hampton; Miss Evelyn Terry acquits herself with distinction as Olga; and Miss Eva Elwes is successful as Katuski Vodski.

MAIDSTONE.—CORN EXCHANGE.—Manager, Mr. J. Beslee.—The Biograph Animated Photograph Company is drawing crowded houses here this week. The pictures are clear and steady, and the subjects well chosen. The following artists appear during the evening: Mlle. Renee, lady juggler; Roy Beavis, illusionist; Gilbert Serrony, comedian; and Miss May Burkett, soprano.

HIPPODROME.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Stanley Baskerville.—The good programme provided here this week includes Celest, a clever wire-walker and baton spinner; the Laure Brothers, French acrobats, who combine comedy with smartness; Martinett and Wallace, coloured instrumentalists; Miss Daisy Morell, a popular comedienne, on a return visit; Katie Marsh, mimic; Rowland Hill, comedian; the Sisters Stratton, duettists; and the Reed-Oetzmann Troupe of Pantomimists in A Day in the Tyrol.

MANCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Acting-Manager, Mr. Edmondstone Shirra.—Mr. Robert Courteidge's production of The Dairymaids is repeated here another week with deserved success.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietors, The United Theatres Co., Ltd; Acting-Manager, Mr. George Lee.—The White Chrysanthemum, presented here on Monday by Mr. Frank Curzon's company, proved acceptable to a large audience. The piece does not aspire to originality, but it is performed in entertaining style, the principal laughter-makers being Mr. Horace Mills, whose impersonation of Lieut. "Chippy" Belmont is a quaintly characteristic piece of work; Mr. W. H. Rawlins also looks well and acts amusingly as the Admiral; Mr. O. E. Lennon, who, as the Chinese cook, works very hard and dances with remarkable agility; and Mr. Harry Paulton, jun., who is funny as Private Perks. As Sybil Cunningham, Miss Ruth Lincoln, acts and sings with nice feeling; and Miss Katie Vesey as Cornelia Vandercken makes the best of her lines, and exhibits particular grace and accomplishment as a dancer; while a good impersonation of Reginald Armitage is given by Mr. F. Pope Stamper; and Miss Dorothy Le Hay is charming as Betty Kenyon, the Admiral's vis-à-vis. The piece contains some smart and pretty songs and good work for the chorus, and the staging and dresses are brilliant.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Acting-Manager,

PALACE.—General-Manager, Mr. Walter de Frece; Secretary, Mr. Peter Watson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Nelson Barry.—A splendid reception awaited Georges Hackenschmidt here on Monday, and the champion is wrestling all comers during the week with the usual excitement and hard-fought success. Whit Cunliffe makes a hit, especially with his latest success, "Hello! hello! hello!"; and clever and entertaining turns are given by Leo Tell, the mimic of equine and other sounds; Phil Herman, the Anglo-Dutch comedian; Charles Prelle, who presents a troupe of marvellously-trained dogs; Barrett and Knowles, smart comedians; Vince Clements, mimic; Lady Mansel and Juveniles, in a cleverly-done speciality entitled A Concert Rehearsal; and Frank Gee, comedian. The Palace pictures portray, as usual, all the latest events of interest.

HIPPODROME.—Managing Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. P. Morgan.—Albert and Edmund's comedy troupe are to the front here this week in an absurdity, entitled Neighbours, which causes plenty of laughter; Alexandre and Hughes are humorists of a high order, their patter and concertina playing being greatly enjoyed; the Imperial Russian Troupe are exceedingly good dancers and singers, and are received with loud applause; Bonnie Goodwin and her Apollo Piccaninnies give a smart performance; Cairns and Lynch are wonderfully clever dancers; Oswald Williams, assisted by Winifred La Berte and company, does some bewildering tricks and illusions; and enjoyable turns are those of Fred Holland, vocalist; and Fred Daniels, comedian. Two vocal items by the choir, and Bioscope pictures complete.

TIVOLI.—Managing-Director, Mr Charles A. Wilkes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur B. Wilkes.—A most enjoyable programme is provided here this week, headed by those clever, up-to-date comediennes, the Three Sisters Sprightly, whose turn is entirely successful from start to finish; Ruby and Laws are very interesting in a capital vocal and humorous scena; and the Ellimans (Alice and Van) give a delightful and novel musical turn and meet with a good reception; Ryder Slone, a first-rate character vocalist, contributes an amusiig song; the Crown Trio are excellent singers, and are deservedly well received; and Nat Watkins, an eccentric comedian of the John E. Coyle order, makes a decided hit. Emmie Ames is a pleasing comedienne; Cissie Astbury sings and dances nicely; Simosa San presents a neat juggling act, with trained pigeons introduced; and Harry Bancroft is an actor vocalist of merit. Raymond's Vivagraph pictures are amusing.

KING'S, LONGSIGHT.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—A big attraction here this week is George Ginnett and company in a capital production of Dick Turpin's Ride to York, introducing a well-trained mare. The piece is exceedingly well staged, and is followed with great interest. Another excellent turn is that of the Eight Lancashire Lads, who sing and dance in fine style, and are warmly applauded; the Howards (Ralph and Nellie) are smart in comedy and melody; Davis and Davis are seen to advantage in a novel scena; and Earle and Melville, comedians, are good in patter and dance. Other smart items are offered by Oliver Conroy, comedian; Ray Royal, contralto vocalist; the Bonnettis, comedy speciality artists; and the Bioscope pictures, depicting "When the Stormy Winds do Blow," complete.

QUEEN'S PARK HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Percy Honri, supported by a capable company, is the particular star here this week, and is presenting that superb protean extravaganza, entitled Concordia, with great success, and meeting with a deserved big reception; Fields and Lewis are exceedingly smart burlesque artists; the Marions are charming juvenile duettists; the Kroney Brothers do some clever acrobatic tumbling as the "Lazy Coalmen"; Jay Laurier and Fred Casburn, comedians, amuse the audience, each in his own particular style; and Sylvia Martin introduces a highly-trained horse, La Roland; and David Poole, who figures on the programme, did not appear on the occasion of our visit. "The Return of Sherlock Holmes" is an interesting film shown on the Bioscope.

HIPPODROME (HULME).—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—This week Peter Gotz, "light-weight champion of the world," is the top "star" turn, and gives an interesting exhibition, which commends itself to appreciative audiences. The Scottish Meisters are first-rate glee singers; Leon and Leoni are very good banjoists, and give many pleasing selections; and the Edwards Trio are above the average in feats of juggling and equilibrium; "Lady Julia" is a remarkably clever ape, whose performance is unique; Levano is well received in his sensational double somersault act with knives; and Linton, "the Mexican Wonder," appears with success in a cable walking act. Other good turns are given by J. T. Macmillan, Scotch comedian; and the Sisters Russell, comedy duettists. Will Walton, comedian, and the Bioscope pictures complete an excellent programme.

MANSFIELD.—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietors, Mansfield Theatre Company; General-Manager, Capt. Cecil Clayton; Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesey's company presented here the first three nights the Russian melodrama, A Beautiful Fiend. Mr. Montague Beaudyn in the rôle of Ivan Paulovitch gave a finished interpretation; Wanda Lubenoff was powerfully portrayed by Miss V. St. Lawrence; and Miss Irene Munroe was successful in the part of Nadine Karateff; Mr. Tom Robertson gave a fine impersonation of Count Fedor Karateff; the comedy element was in the capable hands of Mr. Harry Oates as Christopher Crackles; and as Patty Woodlands Miss Annie Clunn was also very successful. A Traitor Prince was billed for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Herbert Darnley; Resident-Director, Mr. Tom Jennings.—Good houses have been the rule here this week. Mr. Arthur Elvy, the sporting comedian, is a popular turn; Fred Mason, whistling comedian, is much appreciated. Mr. Mason offers a prize for the best imitation of his whistling during the week; Marie St. John gives an interesting turn; Ellis Short wins applause; and the Bioscope presents an up-to-date series of pictures.

MARGATE.—HIPPODROME.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. F. Mouillot and W. De Frece; General Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. F. Bawtree.—Elsie Roby, comedienne pianiste, in her musical comedy act, The Slavey's At-Home, is most amusing here. Rich and Rich have scored well, and Keir and Kempton have also been successful as vocal duettists; Dick Kendall, comedian; and Russell Carr, military ventriloquist, are good; and a glove-fight between Gunner Moir and Jack Palmer is depicted by means of Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope.

MEXBOROUGH.—PRINCE OF WALES THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. H. Melton.—Mr. Harry Starr is here this week with The Unseen Power. Mr. Starr submits a finished rendering of Fred Granville; Mr. Wm. Miller plays capitally as Harold Granville; Mr. Edwin Firth makes a sinister figure of Antonio Romano; a clever character study of Horatio Cracklesby is given by Mr. Fred W. Graham; Miss Ella Crossley is a powerful Lucretia Granville; Miss Madge Blundell a capital Anita; and Miss Cissie Hastings does well as Lucy. Carl the Clockmaker was given on Thursday.

MIDDLESBROUGH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Chas. Imeson.—The play attracting crowds of people nightly this week is Under the Russian Flag, the scenery and stage effects of which are particularly fine. Mr. Edward Avinal as the villainous Michael is a capable actor, and well suited to his part; and Mr. Cecil Melton as Ivan is equally worthy of praise. The part of Vara Vassiloff is rendered with much power by Miss Elaine Vanbrugh, and the portrayal of gentle and winning Luka Marischla is in the capable hands of Miss Marie Rayner. The remaining parts are all well filled, and at times a good many amusing incidents, in which Miss Violet Lytton as Orgarita, Mr. Hal Forde as Peter Poulski, and Mr. Fred Haming as Alexis Souvaroff show to advantage, are interesting. Mr. Chas. Liddon as Woolf Marisch is worthy of mention.

OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Manager, Mr. W. K. Chatto.—The first visit of Mr. and Mrs. Kendal to the Grand Opera House has been looked forward to with considerable pleasure. In The Ironmaster, which was submitted for three nights, Mr. Kendal is nothing short of magnificent as Philippe Derblay. His acting is ful of solemnity and pathos, which quickly wins the attention and admiration of all. Mrs. Kendal's rendering of Claire De Beaupre thoroughly sustains her brilliant reputation, and supplies a performance of the highest standard. The company altogether is an exceptional one, the humorous passages being effectively introduced by Mr. Ernest Hendrie, who, as Moulinet, is decidedly funny. For the remaining three nights The Elder Miss Blossom was billed.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Brill; Manager, Mr. Chas. Rembges.—Billy Williams heads the bill here this week, and creates roars of laughter with his songs. The New York Nippers score in their vocal and dancing scena, Bedtime, and the Australian Twin Andersons have a gratifying reception. Harmonious quartette singing is rendered by the Four Avocas, and Harry Thurston, mimic, gives some good impersonations. Mr. and Mrs. George English please in their musical duologue, In Old Kildare, and William and Warden cause laughter with their songs and patter. Other turns are provided by Flo Penley, comedienne, Nellie Martell, comedienne and dancer, and the Bio.

OXFORD PALACE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Alf. Graham.—Signor and Mme. Borelli greatly please the audiences here this week with humorous tit-bits, and Wake and Dean are very amusing in their comedy act, A Dispute in a Lane. Walter Munroe is a great favourite, and Lou Dunmore, comedienne, does well. Belrose and De Velin provide an excellent vocal turn, and the Three San Remo Girls, comediennes and dancers, please. An interesting feature of the programme is a novelty competition open to local amateurs for the best act of any kind.

MOTHERWELL.—NEW CENTURY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Reginald Grant.—La Poupée is again here, and played by Mr. Herbert Rallond's company, is proving more popular than ever. Miss Mysie Devine scores a distinct success in the title-rôle. The part of Gwendoline is aptly sustained by Miss Alice Roche; the Hilarius of Mr. Harry Brayne is an impersonation of irresistible drollery; as Lancelot Mr. Arthur Cozens has met with a hearty reception. He is a singer of exceptional merit. Mr. Walter Balfour's fine voice is heard to advantage in the various numbers allotted to Father Maxime; Messrs. Arthur Dennis and Fuller Allen are well suited as the old beaus Loremois, and Chanterelle; Miss Edith Hunter is a satisfactory Madame Hilarius; and Miss Doris Dickens a bright and vivacious Henri. The chorus is exceptionally good.

NELSON.—NEW GRAND THEATRE.—Lessee and Manageress, Mrs. T. Greenwood Croft; Business-Manager, Mr. George E. Mudd.—The play-going inhabitants of Nelson are having refreshingly light and bright fare this week, Mr. Chas. Macdona presenting The Toreador. Mr. Harold Batt as Pettifer works with apparently inexhaustible energy; Mr. Ralph Lynn as Sir Archibald Slackett plays the part creditably; Mr. George Austin ably sustains the character of Augustus Trail; a capital study of Carrajola is furnished by Mr. Sydney Granville; Mr. Henry Arthur is to be commended for his representation of the Governor of Villaya; the grotesque antics of Mr. Walter Champney as Sammy Gigg create endless hilarity; Mr. Harry Newman is good as Rinaldo; Miss Leah Howard is lively and comical as Susan; Miss Marie Beresford accomplished and successful as Nancy Staunton; Miss Beatrice Grosvenor cleverly acts the part of Mrs. Hoppings; and Miss Nina Carlton as Donna Teresa deserves unstinted praise.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.—TYNE THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. F. C. Sutcliffe.—Messrs. A. and S. Gatti and Charles Frohman's company, with The Belle of Mayfair, make a most successful initial visit here this week, and are rewarded with a flattering reception from crowded audiences nightly. Miss Alice Russon, an old pantomime favourite here, in the rôle of Julia Caldicott, is very dainty, and sings her songs in sweet voice; Miss Tilley Cunningham, as Corrie Fay, dances in merry style; Princess Karl, Lady Caldicott, and the Countess of Highgate are admirably done by Miss Joan Keddie, Miss Barbara Huntley, and Miss Rosa Snell; the Lady Rocksley of Miss Blanche Massey is a first-class performance; and Miss Dorothy Hanbury was a stylish Lady Gussop; Mr. Charles McNaughton is full of humour as Sir John Caldicott, and finds an able partner in Mr. Percy Yorke as the Earl of Highgate, the pair working together with great success; Mr. Vernon Davidson is admirable as Raymond Finchley; and Mr. Wensley Russel infuses much life into the part of Hugh Meredith; the Bishop of Brighton is a fine study in the hands of Mr. Trueman Towers; and Mr. Robert Whyte, jun., as Comte de Perrier, acts effectively. The scenery is elaborate, and the chorus well balanced.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. T. W. Rowe; Business-Manager, Mr. E. B. Clarke.—For Better or for Worse is produced by Mr. Fred Granville this week to good houses. The company includes Messrs. Scott Leighton, C. E. Clive, Owen Redmonde, Willie Black, and C. Coldcleugh, and Miss Julia Nightingale, Miss Jennie Hallworth, Miss Emily Cussard, and Miss Florence Bates.

GRAND THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Bacon and Bolam; Managing-Director, Mr. Sidney Bacon.—Mr. Brooke Warren's company is providing the fare this week with the sensational drama, Mysteries of the Thames, which affords crowded audiences nightly many thrilling moments. The company is a very capable one, and the performance sustains the interest at a high pitch throughout.

EMPIRES THEATRE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Resident-Director, Mr. Richard Thornton; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Andrews.—Mr. Fred. Karno's company, with Early Birds, is top of the bill this week, and proves a powerful attraction. Edward Lauri and May Beattie, assisted by Miss Nina Osborne, in their musical protean mélange, In Her Boudoir, brought forth storms of applause; Rosie Archer is a clever mimic, and scored heavily; Mason and Bart, a pair of comedians, in the tramp line, are a great success; Miss Gracie Moore, a local turn, is accorded a flattering reception for her clever singing; Pat Rafferty is as popular as ever in his Irish songs; Dion Wade is a fast rising comedian; Miss Daisy Dormer was absent owing to severe illness, and her place was taken by Mr. Boris Lensky, violinist, who executed some selections in finished style. During the exhibition of pictures on the American Bioscope, the Empire Orchestra, under the able leadership of Mr. J. W. Dawson, rendered Marguerite Marigold's new waltz, which had an enthusiastic reception.

PAVILION THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Acting-Manager, Mr. Will H. Boardman.—Arthur Prince was received with open arms by a crowded house in the initial performance, on Monday evening, and so clever and humorous was his ventriloquial entertainment that it was with difficulty that the curtain was rung down; Ida Rene delighted her audience with her catchy songs; Maud Prenton, comedienne, has a winning manner, and earned much applause; Great Scott performs some remarkable juggling feats; Morton and Scott, American song illustrators, prove very popular; Harris and Worth, comedians, score heavily; and Fred Gullone's Comedy Quartette provoke roars of laughter; Robins and Collier, in their comedy act, win golden opinions; and the Four Maisavos, in their eccentric musical act are indeed clever; the Barrascope pictures are again a special feature of a good entertainment.

NEWPORT.—LYCEUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Sidney Cooper.—Messrs. G. M. Polini and Austin Melford's company are playing this week that ever-attractive drama, The Silver King, and delighted houses are giving it a warm reception. Mr. Fred R. Davies, who as Wilfred Denver sustains the title-rôle capably, and is seen at his best in his declamatory passages. Miss Daisy Scudamore as Nellie Denver displays such realism in her acting as to bring tears to many eyes, and the faithful Dan'l Jaikes is admirably sustained by Mr. Edward J. George. Miss Flossie Hale Davies acts with a good deal of naturalness the part of Cissy, and Mr. Eric Stone makes a capital Mr. Parkyn. The comedy element is well sustained by Miss Loule Hall as Tabitha, Mr. Walter Anderson making an amusing gipsy traveller. Nothing could have been been more repulsive than Mr. S. St. George Lowther's representation of the Spider, and he is admirably supported by his confederates, Elijah Combe (Mr. A. Wright) and Cripps (Mr. Harris Lindon). The piece is tastefully mounted.

EMPIRES.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. O. Stoll.—Horace Jones, a Welsh comedian, affords much amusement with a representation of a Welshman at a Rugby football match, and Godfrey James, a native of the district, renders a couple of songs in good style. Hale and Francis give a very clever exhibition of hoop rolling and globe walking, and E. J. Sheldon, a nigger comedian, is amusing with his original patter. Harriet Vernon, looking as blithe as ever, and in superb dresses, sings her number with an ease and a dash that catch the house. Maudie Ford dances prettily, and the Los Grenadas are exceedingly smart on the bars. The Althoffs present a comical musical sketch, and the Bioscope completes a very strong bill.

NORTHAMPTON.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors and Managers, Mr. Milton Bode and Mr. Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Frank Seddon.—The Peep Show Man is being played this week under the title of True to his Trust, with the farce of His Last Legs, entitled, Kiss Your Father, or the Irish Doctor, the leading parts in both being well represented by Mr. Lonnen Meadows and Miss Lizzie Maddocks, supported by Miss Ada Tilley and Messrs. E. G. Mortimer, Charles Hermann, Julian Gallier, P. Willoughby, Walter Dunlop, and J. Harvey. The principal item, however, is the visit of Les Vesse's Ju-Ju-Jitsers—Professor F Long, senior pupil of Apollo, Ajax, the miniature Hercules, and Omoyo San, champion lady ju-jitser, who give a very interesting and instructive exhibition of physical culture, boxing versus ju-jitsu, &c, with a lucid explanation and demonstration of the various Japanese locks and holds. Ellis Barrieton, vocalist; Mr. Charles March, quick-change artist; Halma, the Society juggler; Miss Issa Steel, vocalist; Charles Rowen, eccentric comedian; and Carlo Hicks, Milanese piper, also contribute acceptable items.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Fred H. Anderson; Representative, Mr. Edwin C. Jazon; Acting-Manager, Mr. T. A. Evans.—Bosanquet, the violin virtuoso, is a great success here, and the charm of his playing gains great applause. Another good turn is furnished by the Andos, Japanese gymnasts and jugglers; the singing, dancing, and banjo playing of the Sisters Redfern is highly appreciated; and the Bioscope pictures projected by C. Vincent are of intense interest. Welda and Wynne are clever and amusing in a comic speciality; J. C. Morris gains applause for his singing and witty stories; Frank Cumminger is an expert sand dancer; and Hans and Lux are a pair of funny comedians.

NORTH SHIELDS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Horace Lee.—Mr. Herbert Barrs and Miss Dorothy Oswald and company are appearing here in Life. As Stephen Lockhart Mr. Herbert Barrs submits a capital impersonation, and Miss Dorothy Oswald as Beatrice Ferrars is seen to great advantage; Mr. Ronald Grahame is clever as Sir Horace Lester, and Mr. E. Cheetham creates a good impression as Zac Krabbe; Mr. A. B. Lyons is a capable Joe Pippit, and Mr. H. Ashe makes the most of Detective Blake; Miss Edna Hana is an effective Ruth Thorpe, Miss Maude Vincent a pleasing Jess; Miss Ethel Bateman deserves mention as Agnes Mostyn, and Miss Ada Lacey is good as Mrs. Moriaty.

CENTRAL PALACE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Wm. Mould.—Messrs. Derenda and Green, in their clever and amusing juggling act, are making a great hit here; the Gregsons, comedy trio, in The Dummy, cause hearty laughter; Mr. Bert Weston, comedian, meets with a cordial reception; Master Marco, the boy magician, is smart; the Three Cheers, speciality artists, do well; Mr. Bert Tirrell, Dutch and Tyrolean vocalist, has many admirers; and the Bio-Photoscope is still popular.

NORTHWICH. — CENTRAL THEATRE. — Proprietress, Mrs. S. Golden; Secretary, Miss E. Golden.—Miss Bonwin Carlton's company is this week presenting The Plucky Nipper to enthusiastic audiences. As the Plucky Nipper Miss Carlton is admirable in every respect, and the company is of all-round excellence.

NORWICH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Manager Mr. Fred Morgan.—Miss Maud Hildyard and company are here this week in The Great Awakening. Miss Hildyard gives a fascinating representation of Lola Selby; Miss Dora Digby is very good indeed as Molly Morton; Miss Iso Bellington deserves praise as Selina Worts; Mr. A. C. Hardie is an excellent James Selby; Mr. Bernard a praiseworthy Sir Henry Merton and Jack Merton; Mr. Herbert Evelyn acted with much force as Captain Harry Lambert; and Mr. Charles E. Linney deserves praise as Gerry Rogan. Mr. Willie Scott as Billy Brass, with Miss Bellington, creates the fun.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. E. H. Bostock and F. W. Fitt; Manager, Mr. Councillor F. W. Fitt.—The audiences are well pleased with this week's programme. A very attractive item is Barnard's Mannikins in "The Coon's Revelry," the figures being most life-like in their movements; Pigitt and Lizette as magical pantomimists create much merriment; J. A. Wilson deserves his success as a comedian and dancer, assisted by his clever dog; Drew and Alden are highly amusing in their sketch, The Rival Billposters; Joe Humphreys is a good comedy vocalist; Collins and Rice deserve praise; and Florence Schuberth is a pleasing burlesque artist. The Hippo Bio also shows some capital pictures.

NOTTINGHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robt. Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Howard Finney.—The Earl and the Girl pays a return visit this week, and a crowded house on Monday testified to its continued popularity. Miss Frances Earle gave a charming interpretation of Elphin Haye, singing and acting with refreshing grace and refinement; Miss Gertrude Melville made a bright and animated Daisy Fallowfield; Miss Mary Morison capitally suggested the dignity of Miss Virginia Bliss; Miss Jennie Richards gave a smart character study of 'Liza Shoddam; and Miss Beatrice Anderson created amusement as Mrs. Shimmering Black. The Jim Cheese of Mr. Wm. Stephens was a thoroughly diverting performance; Mr. Arthur Harrold used his fine voice to good effect in the music of Dick Wargrave; Mr. Percy E. Wright gained ready appreciation for his efforts as Crewe Boodle, and Mr. H. Courtin well emphasised the bumptiousness of Bunker Bliss.

GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Charles P. Cooke.—Mr. J. Rice Cassidy's company opened here on Monday with In Holy (?) Russia. Mr. Arthur Stratton is exceedingly good in portraying Col. Forrest; Mr. Terence Nerrey contrives to put in effective work as Michael Natolski; and Mr. Joe Cuthbertson essays the rôle of Baron Von Plehve with distinction; Mr. Fredk. Lloyd gains many friends as Petrolski, and Mr. Robert Cockroft makes a capable Czar of Russia; Mr. Carl Rovincelli adds vigour and manliness to his part of Lauria Steragoff, and Mr. J. Rice Cassidy gives an amusing representation of Micky Nolan; Mrs. J. Rice Cassidy plays with delicate emotional expression as the long-suffering Renee Rubinoff.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles H. Bowmaker.—Miss Vesta Tilley, as dainty, bright, and charming as ever, roused the audience on Monday to a high pitch of enthusiasm, and they would not be denied a neat little speech; Hector showed his adroitness both as a wire walker and hoop manipulator; a gymnastic performance by Paulinetti and Piquo deservedly came in for a large share of applause; the versatility of Clemart was abundantly proved by his exceedingly smart ventriloquial sketch; the Le Cren Trio submitted a burlesque act which produced several merry moments; and the musical capabilities of Will Matcham on the musette and saxophone gained him loud plaudits; Maud Ross proved herself an accomplished dancer; Lilian Warren rendered songs with pictorial illustrations; and the American Bioscope supplied a capital series of pictures.

NUNEATON.—PRINCE OF WALES' THEATRE AND ENTERTAINMENTS CO., LTD. — Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter J. R. Bryan.—On Monday Mr. George Testo Sante opened with The Life of a Showman. Mr. Sante as Brian Leader, a circus acrobat, wins hearty applause by his clever feats; M. Aurell Lambert de Lambert makes a capital Hendrick Marais; Miss Amy McNeill cleverly depicts the unscrupulous Agatha Winter; Miss May Warden does well as Lefanette Leader; and Master Harry Warden, as Dickie, is well received.

OLDHAM.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—General Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant Manager, Mr. J. Hulme.—A warm welcome was accorded to M. Auguste Van Biene and his talented company in The Broken Melody on Monday evening. M. Van Biene sustains the rôle of Paul Borinski in his usual clever style, and his solos on the 'cello are heartily applauded. Mr. Henry Ludlow is excellent as the officious General Ivanoff, and Mr. Chas. A. Morgan is really good as Dickson, the lodging-house keeper; Mr. Faulkner Cox makes an amusing Mortimer, and causes much laughter, and Mr. Lawrence Grove does well as Beaujour. Mr. Archie Selwyn makes a good Hon. Richard Spinnaker, and Mr. W. Thomson is capital as Dr. McGrath. Miss Lena Burnleigh quickly enlists the sympathies of the audience for her excellent rendering of the part of Mabel, and Miss Rosemary Rees plays the Duchess de Verviers in a forcible manner; Miss Mary Mannering does much to amuse as the Hon. Mrs. Soinnaker, while Miss Rosie Lewis is very successful as Mrs. Dickson. On Monday and Friday the one-act comedy The First Night was performed, M. Van Biene appearing as Achille Talma Dufard.

COLOSSEUM.—Manager, Mr. W. Eastwood.—Mr. John Gerant and company opened here on Monday with the military drama At Duty's Call, and a large and interested audience gave it a cordial welcome. Mr. John Gerant as the villainous Harold Allison was very powerful, his half-brother, Capt. George Allison, being played by Mr. Harry Scott in manly fashion; Mr. Ernest St. John makes a capital General Gordon; Mr. Walter P. Carr is good as Spencer, the pugilist, and Mr. Ivan Mavis is a capital Joey Trott; Mr. Harry Ugar as Terry causes a good deal of laughter; Miss Lily Crammonde is excellent as Dora, and Miss Beatrice Western plays strongly as Salema. Miss Eva Bell is good as Mary, and Miss Emily Cleveland and Miss Hetty Foplin appear as Merrura and Nurse Slater respectively. All the remaining parts are well filled.

ROYAL THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant-Manager, Mr. W. Howgate.—De Dio is the principal attraction in Terpsichore's Dream, in which a magnificent display is given. The Leslie Bros give a capital eccentric musical show; the Four Emilions are smart in a novel acrobatic turn, and Florence Esdaile, operatic vocalist, sings her songs in an excellent manner; May Glen is a sweet singer and a capital dancer; Ernie Mayne, comedian, causes roars of laughter; Arthur Croxon is very good as a mimic, and Jean Seul, illusionist, also appears. The Royal Dottoscope is again showing an excellent picture.

HIPPODROME. — Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Nuttall.—Marie Kendall is the star here, and she has a very good reception. The Mazondos create much merriment in a new jumping and tumbling act; Alice Maude is a capital child mimic, and Esme Gordon is an excellent comedienne; the three Sisters Chester are very good banjoists, vocalists, and dancers; L. B. Athol is also effective in a characteristic turn; Steve McCarty is a good Irish coon, and Ross, Rose, and Rosert cause much laughter in Always Moving. The Dottoscope concludes with an interesting picture.

OXFORD.—NEW THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Lucas, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. C. Dorrill.—The D'Oyly Carte Répertoire Opera company, under the management of the popular Mr. H. E. Bellamy, is again here. The reception accorded The Gondoliers on Monday night by a packed house showed the keen appreciation of the admirable representation given by this excellent company. Mr. C. H. Workman had a great reception as the Duke of Plaza-Toro, and played with all his accustomed skill and humour; Mr. Fred Billington also scored heavily as the Grand Inquisitor; and as the Gondoliers Mr. Pacie Ripple and Mr. Albert Kavanagh sang sweetly and acted effectively; while Mr. L. Tunks did very well as Luiz. Miss Theresa Rassam was an admirable Duchess, and as her daughter Miss Mabel Graham won great praise; Inez found a capable exponent in Miss Norma Russell; and Miss Hope Hastings and Miss Lulu Evans were bright and animated as Jianetta and Tessa, and sang their songs in excellent fashion. The chorus was large and well trained, and the orchestra did full justice to the music under the skilful direction of Mr. T. Silver. The week's bill includes The Mikado, Iolanthe, H.M.S. Pinafore, Patience, and The Yeomen of the Guard.

PAISLEY.—PAISLEY THEATRE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Bentz.—Messrs. Armitage and Leigh's company is here with East Lynne. Miss Julie Kennard in the character of Lady Isabel displays considerable power; Mr. Alfred Beaumont as Archibald Carlyle figures admirably; Francis Levison is played in quite convincing fashion by Mr. Monckton Hoffe; a fine portraiture of Lord Mountsevern is given by Mr. Spencer Goodwin; Justice Hare has an able exponent in Mr. C. C. Grattan; Mr. E. Massingham interprets Richard Hare in excellent style; Mr. Cyril Hayward makes a capital lawyer Dill; very amusing and entertaining is the P.C. Bullock of Mr. Alfred Tate; Miss Ethel Saville gives a really fine rendering of Barbara Hare; Cornelia Carlyle is conspicuously well played by Miss Ethel Hardacre; little Willie is carefully and intelligently acted by Miss Jessie Bayes; little Isabel is sweetly played by Miss Ethel Ray; and clever assumptions are submitted by Miss Kathleen Bryan as Lady Mountsevern, Miss Ida Heron as Joyce, Miss Bessie Carroun as Wilson, and Miss Emily Frith as Susanne.

HIPPODROME.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. E. H. Bostock; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Wilson.—Horace Wheatley, Irish comedian and dancer, is the star turn here this week; Henri Bekker mystifies with his conjuring tricks; the Montague Brothers score in their original sketch The Sculptor's Dream; a pleasing and delightful entertainment is Ruby Dahl, with her novel and original imitations of life-sized marionettes; the Olive Trio, vocal comediennes and dancers, have an enthusiastic reception; an excellent turn is contributed by Rastus and Banks, coloured American entertainers; Willie Gardner, skate dancer, is applauded; the Three Panamas give an artistic acrobatic and dancing act; and the Hippodrome Bioscope shows some splendid films.

EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. J. H. Savile; Manager, Mr. Delno Fritz.—A good all-round company is engaged here this week, headed by Cosgrove and Burns (Jack and Ethel), comedy duettists, who perform delightfully; Daisy Postlethwaite sings well and is an expert sand dancer; Mr. Charles Howarth, a favourite here, maintains his reputation; Fred Lyndo, eccentric comedian and dancer, has a good reception; a comedy act by King and Mackay (Tom and Bee) creates plenty of mirth; an excellent turn is given by Gilroy and Gros, comedians and patterers; and Bob Carsewell, boxer, is well received.

PENZANCE.—ST. JOHN'S HALL.—Mr. F. R. Benson's company, under the management of Mr. Alban B. Limpus, has appeared here in Hamlet and The School for Scandal this week, the tour for Cornwall being under the direction of Mr. S. J. Liddicoat. An appreciative audience welcomed the melancholy Prince after many years, in so far as West Barbary is concerned. Mr. Arthur Phillips fulfilled all expectations, his elocution and grace being most artistically pleasing. The Ophelia of Miss Christie Laws, in the opinion of cultured provincial audiences, is one that will be heard of in the future; Mr. Chas. Donaldson as the King is good; Polonius, as given by Mr. Leo M. Briggs, being also a careful study. Mr. Briggs also appears as the first grave-digger, in which part he shows to much advantage; Mr. Frank Darch as Laertes acted with considerable force; Mr. Charles Maunsell is an ideal Horatio; and Miss Lucy Hare as the Queen is dignified and impressive.

PERTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Aldridge.—Miss Elaine Verner's company, including Mr. Harding Thomas, is here this week in The Middleman and Saints and Sinners. In The Middleman Mr. Harding Thomas assumes the rôle of Cyrus Blenkarn, and makes a decided hit in his clever portrayal; Mr. Frank Lyndon is also seen to considerable advantage as Joseph Chandler; Mr. Percy Brown is well adapted to the rôle of Captain Chandler; Mr. Edward de Vere acquits himself creditably as Batty Todd; and Mr. Edgar Kent is received with special favour in his pleasing impersonation of Jesse Pegge. Miss Maud Bearr is effective as Mrs. Chandler; Miss Ruby Romen is a charming Maud Chandler; Miss Ada Clarke evinces ability in her successful portrayal of Nancy; and Miss Elaine Verner's Mary elicits unstinted approbation.

PLYMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr J. Langdon Lee.—Sir Francis Burnand's diverting farcical comedy A Lady of Ostend, has furnished amusement for large audiences during the past week, and the members of the capable company under the management of Mr. Lawrence Brough do full justice to their opportunities. The vicissitudes of Dick Whortles, admirably played by Mr. Henry Hampson, create unending merriment; Mr. Charles Groves, jun., is admirably adapted to the part of Joseph Carbury, the gay old father-in-law; Mr. Watkin Wynne as Toby Krockitt, the prize-fighter, has a style as original as it is amusing, and Mr. Lawrence Brough ably sustains his well established reputation as the Baron de Longueville. Among the ladies Miss Kate Milford as Dorothy Whortles and Miss Bessie Harrison as Matilda Carbury share the honours for distinctly clever acting; the lesser parts of Millie Grace, Jane (a maid), and the Lady of Ostend being carefully and correctly dealt with by the Misses Evelyn Ormonde, Ida Vynall, and Daisy Cook respectively. The piece is preceded by a pretty yet touching curtain-raiser entitled At the Risin' of the Moon, in which the leading parts are sustained by Messrs. Harry Collier, Chas. Groves, jun., H. Douglas Cottell, and Miss D. Cook.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. Jack Field.—Yukio Tani, the well-known exponent of the art of Ju-Jitsu, is the principal attraction, and his interesting exhibition is followed with rapt attention; Goggin and Davis, eccentric soldiers, introduce some clever tumbling feats; Fyne and Hurley, in their sketch The Coster and the Dude, provide a humorous boxing exhibition; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finden are successful in their farce Two to One. The Herald Comedy Four were handicapped by the absence through indisposition of a leading member of their quartette. Other turns are A. G. Spry (comedian), Charles Vincent (comedian), and Vernon's Pictures.

PONTYPRIDD.—ROYAL CLARENCE THEATRE.—Owners and Proprietors, Mrs. Trenchard and Miss L. Jones; Manager, Mr. Charles Trenchard.—A great attraction is provided this week in Mr. J. A. Campbell's The Sin of her Childhood. Mr. Chas. Fancourt finely portrays the Rev. Alan Grey; Stephen Haysel is admirably assumed by Mr. Austin Milroy; Mr. Wordley Hulse shows to advantage as Capt. Thornton; Mr. Hugh Brady as Barney O'Reilly is a host in himself; Miss Mary Fulton displays ability as Mary Haysel; little Dot Moss is a clever Hannah Spry; and Miss Nellie Hook shines as Eliza Muggins.

PORTH. — THE PALACE (LATE OPERA HOUSE).—General-Manager, Mr. C. W. Poole; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Bynorth.—A good all-round programme is submitted here, and includes the following: Atroy, society juggler and hoop roller; Violi, lady istrumentalist; Pueblo and Cropp, versatile creole artists; Carl Rosine, magician; Karr and Kooney, comedians and vocalists; the Athlones, in classical poses; Vere and Royal, vocal comedy duo; Yetta, in her speciality act, "The Cake Walk on the Wire"; May La Vella, versatile instrumentalist and dancer; and some capital pictures are also shown on the Electric Bioscope.

PORTSMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Bell.—Florodora is being presented here this week by Mr. J. B

thur S. Dudley also gave a clever portrayal as Count Ulric Uzeda, and Mr. Percy Horton was an excellent King of Spain; Mr. Henry Edlin was exceptionally good as Michael Sancha, and as Manuel Mondega Mr. Fred G. Ingleby gave a clever impersonation; as Inez Alvarez Miss Gladys Murray submitted a delightful interpretation, especially in the later acts, and Miss Aimée Grattan-Clyndes was exceedingly good as Cora Casilda, her acting being powerful and realistic; Miss Annie Stewart was seen to great advantage as Parquita Marcella, and Miss Ethel Whitely was a most acceptable Mother Maria Teresa.

READING.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. Michael Dempsey.—The well-worn but still popular drama, The Streets of London, is again attracting good business this week. The play is produced in excellent style by Mr. Eade Montefiore's company. Mr. William Rokeby gives a clever rendering of the part of Badger; Mr. Riddell Robinson as Gideon Bloodgood, Mr. Charles O'Connor as Mark Livingstone, Mr. Clifford Amitage as Captain Fairweather, and Mr. C. Kean as Paul Fairweather all sustain their parts well. Miss Winifred Ingham plays very artistically as Lucy; Miss Dorothy Casey is effective as the banker's daughter; Mr. Joe Bracewell as Puffy, and Miss Adelaide Gracey as Mrs. Puffy are both very amusing; and Miss Florence Moore is capital as Dan. The Street Urchin's scena in Act 4 is effective, and the fire scene in the last act realistic.

ROCHDALE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Hague.—Two Little Sailor Boys occupies the boards here this week. Mr. Jerrold Heather acts with distinction as Com. Noll Tregarthen; Mr. Horace Booth cleverly interprets the part of Lieut. Richard Redstone; Mr. Oscar Power and Mr. Tom E. Sinclair are amusing as Jack Jolly and Ben Baxter; Mr. Ambrose Horton submits a typical impersonation of Jim Royston, a burglar; in the title-rôles Miss May Day as Cyril Grey and Miss Ethel Frances Green as Tom Yorke are both conspicuous with their realistic acting; Miss Alice Defoe is winsome as the faithful and loving Mildred Grey; and Miss Blanche Steele acts with powerful effect as Lola Grey.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Smith and Co.—An attractive bill of fare is submitted here this week. E. B. Dainez, with performing animals, has a capital show; the Three Seabornes, equilibrists and acrobats, are loudly applauded for their clever feats; J. C. Jacques, comedian, the Sisters Volbesque, the comedy couple, the Camerons, in The Plough Boy and Lady Guide, Will Memory, mimic, Les Fallowfield, comedian, and Vernon's Bioscope complete the list.

EMPIRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Thomas Hargreaves; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Hargreaves.—Miss Ella Shields possesses a charming personality, and fairly brings down the house with her delightful rendering of coon songs; Oram and Major are old favourites here with their racy patter. Other artists appearing with success include the Haydees, with their miniature vaudeville theatre; Frederica's performing terriers and pony; Mlle. De Rose, lady baritone vocalist; J. H. Hawtrey, actor vocalist; and the Empire Bioscope.

ROTHERHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. Holbery Hardy.—Mr. Frank E. Burdett's company is here this week with The Indian Mutiny. Mr. Cyril Harrison is smart as Captain Manley, and Mr. George Steel is seen to advantage as Lieut. Manley. Mr. John Davidson is deserving of mention as Major Ingleby, and Mr. G. Birch scores as Ensign Blake. Mr. Cecil Morand is humorous as Terry O'Brien, and Mr. F. Anderson is a typical Sergeant Thompson. Special mention should be made of Mr. Villiers Stanley as Nebu Singh, and Mr. John Shedden as Abul Khan. Miss Lillie Gray is a pompous Mrs. Major Ingleby, and Miss Agnes Kingston is pleasing as Kate Ingleby. Miss F. Melrose Millet as Ghuz-nah gives a highly finished rendition of the part. Mr. Holbery Hardy took his benefit on Wednesday, when the house was crowded in every part, and special turns were given by the company from the Grand Palace, Sheffield.

RUGBY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Drew Mackintosh.—Messrs. Montague Beaudyn and Sidney Crowe's company is this week presenting the drama, The Way of the World. Mr. Herbert Shardon is excellent in every way as Cecil Montague, circus rider; and Mr. Lawrence Bauer as Captain Slade gives an artistic rendering; Mr. Malcolm J. Cummings is good as Matthew Malyon; and as Horatio Bluff, Mr. Augustus Hammond causes much amusement. Mr. F. J. Edwards as Joe Sparrow is extremely funny; Mr. Pat Quinn as Silas Montague is good. As Kate Montague, Miss Marie Fontaine is well placed and gives a charming exposition; Miss Clara Steele as Dolly Bell is smart; Miss Laurie Deering is good as Marion Fanshard; and Miss Sidney Crowe wins applause by her refined and clever rendering of the part of Adela de la Roche.

RYDE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees and Managers, J. Bannister Howard, Ltd.—Caste was given here on the first three nights of this week by a company under the management of Mr. C. Otter Hind. Mr. Alfred Ibbesson gave a striking delineation of Eccles; Miss Blanche Lynd did excellently as Polly; Mr. C. Otter Hind was well suited as Captain Hawtrey; and Mr. Cecil W. Parke was responsible for a good portrait of George D'Alroy. Miss Ethel May, in the part of Esther Eccles, was pathetic, and Miss Lucy I. Cherson discharged faithfully the duties attached to the rôle of the Marquise. Mr. Arthur Terris was responsible for much amusement as Gerridge.

SALFORD.—PRINCE OF WALES'S.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. E. B. Goulden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harold Goulden.—Mr. Frank Lindo always finds a ready welcome when he visits this house, and on Monday general satisfaction was evinced by a full house when he took his usual lead as Stephen Armitage in Home, Sweet Home, an interesting drama, written by himself. Mr. D. Lawrence Doyle as old David Armitage gave a good study of an old lifeboatman; the Duke of Ancaster was portrayed with dignity and ability by Captain Gerald Gambier; the villainous Lucas Lyle was carefully played by Mr. F. Miles Hodgson; Mr. Jack Patrick as the Hon. Percy, Mr. Ernest E. Owens as Lord Silvermore, and Miss May Rochefort as Sybil Fay kept the comedy incidents to the fore. The part of Joan fell to the lot of Miss Cecil Warde, who successfully took the place of Miss Marion Wakeford, who was temporarily indisposed. Miss Daisy Rochefort was a charming little Dora; Mr. George Overs made a good impression as Dick Redmayne.

REGENT THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner: Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary, Mr. J. C. Patterson.—The clever acting of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Lucas of scenes from Dickens is much enjoyed; the Cumberlands are smart and daring in their cycling act; pleasing turns are also provided by Agnes Asher, comedienne; Little Barney, Scotch comedian; Clark's Nippers, in their club manipulation, ball punching, dancing, &c., act; Harry Vernon, comedian; Patty Yole, comedienne and dancer; Billy Hobbs, coon comedian and dancer; Regan and Ryan, in their comedy act; Ida Kathrena in a doll scena; James Shingleton, singing collier; and Johnny Holland and company, in sketch, The Millionaire.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. C. H. Wentworth.—An enjoyable programme is headed by the amusing skit, Muscles; or, Muscular Development Personified, by Herbert Darnley's combination; Flo Hilton gets much applause for her male impersonations; the Three Boccacios give a smart vocal and instrumental turn; Mack Ollive, assisted by Miss Daisy Baldry is well received in "The Candy Store" whistling scena. The other entertainers are Edie Gray and White Coons; Vera Mayne, Canadian comedienne; Lily Watson, comedy patter artist; Charles Rigwell, character comedian; and Tod Lowan, the very funny fellow SEACOMBE.—IRVING THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. James Kiernan.—Mr. E. Lockwood's company is doing excellent business here this week with Sergeant Brue. Mr. J. Harold Carson sustains the title-rôle with much drollery, and receives excellent support from Michael Brue as impersonated by Mr. Robert Selby. Matthew Habisham receives capital treatment at the hands of Mr. Cecil Strickland, and Mr. Harold Godwin is officially impressive as Inspector Corringe. Mr. F. Laceby causes much mirth as the eccentric and innocent Mr. Crank; Mr. Lamb is well looked after by Mr. T. Wyman; and Captain Bay by Mr. Gordon Wright. Mr. Maitland Dicker plays the exacting part of Crookie Scrubbs with considerable skill, and Miss Reydon Dallas gives an excellent rendering of Lady Bickenhall. Aurora Brue (Miss Florence Spurgeon), Daisy (Miss Dora Taylor), Mabel Widget (Miss Kathleen V. Grey), and Vivienne Russell (Miss Kate Sabine) all receive intelligent rendering. Mr Vernon C. Booth gives a satisfactory reading of Gerald Treherne, and Miss Hilda Sane does well as Louise Claire. Miss Lil Hodson as Eva Graham and Miss Nellie Burn as Stella Conroy complete an excellent company.

SEAHAM HARBOUR.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. A. C. Harrison.—The London Fireman is being played here by Messrs. Garside and Knowles's company. Mr. J. Forbes Knowles is equally good as Colonel Fleming and Hal Curtis, the young fireman; Viscount Fleming is carefully portrayed by Mr. Oliver Birrell; Patty is realistically drawn by Mr. Edward L. Garside; as Abel Fortnum, Mr. Wm. Burgess is well placed; and Joe Bluener is successfully played by Mr. Walter Wilby. As Niney Stinger, Mr. Harry C. Momber is responsible for much merriment; Ida Curtis is presented in excellent style by Miss Nellie Shirley; Miss Nellie Waddington is a capable Countess; and Grace Curtis is effectively presented by Miss Beatrice Sinclair.

SHEERNESS.—THE HIPPODROME.—General-Manager, Mr. F. Leighton.—Amongst the most prominent turns appearing this week are Roy Cochrane and company, in the farcical act, No Parson Required, which they present in creditable style. Dan Thomas, comedian, makes a popular re-appearance, and gains a capital reception; Souplessi, aptly described as the Flying Serpent, submits a clever entertainment; Fred Keeton, eccentric comedian, gains hearty applause; Nina Elms, comedienne, is much admired; Fred Harrison, comedian, and Irene Meldon, serio and dancer, also score. A choice selection of pictures by Vernon's Bioscope completes the bill.

PALACE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Phil Reymond.—A capital company here includes Mr. F. Godfrey, character comedian, who is well received; Nellie Morton, a sweet singer of sensible songs; Mr. Horace Sade Leggett, a champion dancer; the Maynard and France company, in their sketch, A Sister's Devotion; Miss Topsy Levane, a neat dancer; and the farce, Families Supplied, by the Elshaw company.

SHEFFIELD.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont.—Miss Claudia Lasell's company appeared on Monday in the new musical play The Sweet Girl. Well staged and excellently played, the piece gave pleasure to a large audience. The title-rôle was charmingly acted by Miss Claudia Lasell, whose vocalism received due approbation; Miss Alice Lethbridge, pretty, graceful, and accomplished, appeared with her usual success, and her artistic dancing was truly the "poetry of motion"; Mr. Fred Eastman was the quintessence of drollery as the Count, and scored a big success; Mr. George De Lara was first-rate as the Count's secretary; and other characters were efficiently represented by Miss Muriel Harding, Mr. Leonard Russell, Mr. Algernon Newark, and Mr. W. H. Page. There was an excellent chorus.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont.—The historic boards of the Royal are occupied this week by Mr. Julian Malvern's company in the semi-military drama I Defy the World. Mr. Percy Ballard as Leon Darville, Mr. Chas. Conway as Laroche, and Miss Violet Crawford as Blanche do good work; and all the other characters are cleverly acted.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. W. D. Forsdike; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. W. Ramsay.—The combined attractions of Frederick Melville's drama The Ugliest Woman on Earth and the talented artist Miss Beatrice Homer resulted in a packed and enthusiastic audience on Monday. Miss Beatrice Homer again magnetised the house by the strength and intensity of her acting as the "veiled lady," and the support was good all round.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Proprietors, The Moss' Empires Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Alan D. Dunbar.—The famous Boisett Troupe appeared to large audiences on Monday in the pantomime A Trip to the Continent, which for over thirty minutes kept the spectators almost convulsed with healthy hilarity. The Latonas, Jim and Jan, do a pleasing humorous and refined musical act; the Haytors are old and deserved variety favourites, and are always welcome; Conway and Leland are two smart and amusing performers; the Macarte Sisters are graceful and clever artists; and other turns this week are Mr. Harry Carsdale, mimic; Miss Lilieth Leyton and her company, the Bros. Obo, the Knick-Knacks, and the American Bioscope with new pictures.

GRAND PALACE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Richard Ralli.—The company here includes Mr. Tom Kelso, a laughter-provoking comedian; the Zampas, in a novel act; Ellis and Watts; Mr. S. S. Peake's company, in a sketch; Miss Rita Resden, a graceful comedienne; Pallister's Biograph; and Mr. Charles Gardener, vocal comedian.

ALBERT HALL.—Mr. Geo. Burton's popular concerts are successful here.

SHREWSBURY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Business-Manager, Mr. W. C. Dornton.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's powerful company was here on the first three nights of the present week with the evergreen drama, The Silver King. Mr. Horace E. Herbert was talented in the title-rôle; Miss B. Doyle played with grace and expressive feeling as Nellie Denvers; Mr. Percy Foster made a most capable Jaikes; Madge Gillard was a sweet little Cissy; Mabel Reid a clever Ned; Mr. Oswald Cray a capital Capt. Herbert Skinner; Mr. Ralph Leo a smart Henry Corket; Mr. Wm. Dempsey acted with care and success the part of Elijah Coombe; and numerous other male rôles were satisfactorily taken. Miss Beatrice Blagdon was an amusing Mrs. Gamage; Miss Dorothy Laine a bright Susie; Miss Janet Bullworthy merited praise as Tabitha Duerdon; and Miss Dorothy Black as Olive Skinner acted creditably.

SMETHWICK.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr C. Barnard; Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson.—Mr. Fred Melville's attractive melodrama, The Beast and the Beauty, was presented here for the first time on Monday. The company is a very strong one, including Mr. W. S. Hartford, who plays cleverly and with success as Jack Barrymore; and Miss Alice Bowes, who does all that is possible with the rôle of Violet; she acts with grace and dramatic power. Mr. Wm. E. Passmore is good as the Earl of Loman; Mr. Bernard Mervyn is convincing as Henry Denver; Mr. H. Talbot is amusing as Tom Chicken, and is ably assisted by Miss Mamie Rendle as Mimi; Mr. Eric Campbell gives a capital interpretation of the rôle of Ned Samson; Miss Daisie Gwynne is a handsome and alluring representative of Delilah Vane.

SOUTHAMPTON.—GRAND THEATRE.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr F. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. Arthur Weston.—Mr. Norman V. Norman's company is appearing here with decided success in a répertoire. On Monday The Adventure of Lady Ursula was charmingly played. Mr. Norman met with a flattering reception as Sir George Sylvester, and Miss Beatrice Wilson, in the title-rôle, was winsome. Capable support was given by the other members of the cast. On Tuesday and Friday David Garrick was presented, and on Wednesday and Thursday the romantic play, Robin Hood was enacted.

PALACE.—Sole Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. William Trussell.—The pièce de résistance here is supplied by Mr R. A. Roberts in his sketch, Ringing the Changes, which is very successful. Mr. Roberts impersonates no less than eight distinct characters, and his acting and the mounting are excellent. The Dayton Family, Risley performers, are exceedingly clever, and others who do well are Tom Yorke, coster delineator; Nash and Noll, comedians and dancers; Ethel Loftus and Janet Reynolds, comediennes; and Tom Lloyd, comedian.

HIPPODROME.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. Fredk. Mouillot and W. de Freece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Freece; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. P. Howell.—Tom Grave's daring cycling feat, "Whirling the Wheel," calls forth uproarious applause here; Dora Lyric sings several catchy chorus songs, and Flo Deighton is a gifted songstress; Larola does a really clever turn, his jugglery and jumping being remarkably smart; Wal Pink and Jeff Vendome's pantomimists, in The Day-breakers, evoke hearty laughter; and Dezmonti and Mora, triple bar performers, and Rose Cabani, comedienne, also do well.

VICTORIA HALL.—Mr. Jacob Studt's World's Fair is being well patronised. The Bioscope pictures are excellent.

SOUTHEND-ON-SEA.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Empire Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Geo. Conquest; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. Lingham Power.—The attraction for this week is provided by Mr. Herbert Hollister, whose powerful company is giving The Lights of London. Mr. C. F. Collings is thorough and interesting as Harold Armytage, and has capital support from Miss Jennie Burgoyne, whose interpretation of Bess is sympathetic. The three Jarvises are worthy characters, well taken by the Misses Violet Temple and Renée Douglas and Mr. Herbert Lewis. Mr. Raymond Thomas as the villain (Clifford Armytage) shows ability, and Seth Preene has a talented and forcible impersonator in Mr. Herbert Hollister.

PIER PAVILION.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. E. Angless; Acting-Manager, Mr. Stanley E. Angless.—So immensely popular did the Skating Rink appear last winter that the management have now laid a magnificent maple floor for this season. The opening towards the end of last week drew a large number, and the season promises to be another successful one, judging by the attendances. The length of the floor is 100ft., with a width of 50ft., being 10ft. larger than last year. The rink is opened three times daily, and the fancy skating exhibitions during intervals are greatly liked and appreciated. Music is supplied by the talented Red Band, whose services have been re-engaged. A Badminton hockey and lawn tennis club is in course of formation, under the personal direction of the acting-manager.

SOUTHPORT.—OPERA HOUSE, WINTER GARDENS.—Secretary, Mr. R. Singleton.—An attractive entertainment is provided here this week in the engagement of Mr. George Alexander's capital company, in Mr. Pinero's comedy, His House in Order. Miss Jean Stirling MacKinlay depicted the rôle of Nina with great histrionic power and skill, and was warmly applauded; Mr. Stephen T. Ewart was successful in the part of Hilary Jesson, his interpretation of the character being marked with realistic effect; Miss Maisie Richardson found favour with the audience by her portrayal of Derek Jesson; Filmer Jesson, M.P., had a distinctly successful representative in Mr. J. Edward Pearce; the Ridgeleys were cleverly and characteristically represented by Miss Augusta Haviland, Miss Elaine Sleddall, Mr. George Fitzgerald, and Mr. Ernest R. Holloway respectively; Mr. Lloyd Lowndes submitted a commendable study as Major Maurewarde; whilst Miss Eve Grand and Mr. Luke Foster did well as Mdlle. Thome and Dr. Dilmott.

ALBERT HALL, WINTER GARDENS.—Lessee, Mrs. Charles Parker; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Mertz.—The bill here for the current week is headed by Harry Tate's comedians in Golfing, a highly-diverting sketch. Other excellent turns are contributed by J. W. Hall, comedian whose rollicking humour is appreciated; the Fitzroys, society gymnasts, in their smart trapeze and rope speciality; the Westwoods, cyclists; and Elton and Elma, in a comic bar act. The programme also includes Bertha Norwood, comedienne; Jack Neil, comedian; Alice Blandford, the "New Zealand Nightingale"; Vasey and Ramsey, eccentric dancing act; and the Bioscope with the latest films.

SOUTH SHIELDS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. John and Fred Coulson.—A realistic drama, For Life—and After, by George R. Sims, is being performed to good houses by Messrs. Hardie and Von Leer's company. Mr. Vernon Sansbury convincingly enacts Richard Grey; Marion Grey is sympathetically and ably rendered by Miss Grace Heywood; the dual parts of Jack Huggett and Jim Huggett are ably accounted for by Mr. Henry Hare; Mr. Charles Osborn is good as Rube Hexham. Ample comedy is supplied by Mr. Caris Mason as Joe Grimper and Miss Edith Barwell as Mrs. Grimper. The situations are good, and the scenery effective.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Richard Thornton; General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. F. Thompson.—The chief turn is a new and original musical extravaganza, entitled Where's Aubrey? in which a good deal of comedy is introduced. George Newburn, in his impersonations of Lashwood, Lauder, Formby, and others has an excellent reception; Ella and Dacie Hope contribute a successful comedy act; Lee and Kingston cause great fun; and May Orchard, juvenile comedienne, was much appreciated. The remaining enjoyable items are Rosie Revel, comedienne; Ambrose Thorne, actor-vocalist; Pat Carey, comedian and dancer; and the bioscope.

TIVOLI.—Proprietors, Messrs. J. K. Hall and Jos. Sweeney; Business-Manager, Mr. Harry Burns.—Carl Mysto, the handcuff manipulator, heads the bill this week, and is creating a good impression. Percy Curry, North Country comedian, is paying a welcome return visit; the Kimberley Boys keep the house in good humour; Bruce and Ross contribute a good comedy sketch; the vocal efforts of Master May are appreciated; Will Bell is a good Irish entertainer and dancer; and the Tivoli Bioscope completes the bill.

SPENNYMOOR.—CAMBRIDGE THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr. Hugh Robertson; General-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance; Resident-Manager, Mr. David Collins.—A second visit of Her Fatal Past has to be recorded this week. As on its first appearance here, Mr. T. Edward Ward's company is responsible for its presentation. One of the most prominent parts, Honor Symes, provides Miss Ward with ample opportunities to display her undoubted histrionic abilities; Mr. Stuart Lomath submits a manly and natural portrayal of Mark Desmond; as Gilbert Fernside, a villain of the deepest dye, Mr. Wilson Coleman is distinctly successful; Miss Adeline Raby as the callous and frivolous Belle de Lara renders a good account of herself; Little Len has a pretty and charming exponent in Miss Audrey Sutherland. The lighter side of the play is admirably accounted for by Miss Gertie Reid as Kitty, Miss Ettie Spalding as Martha, Mr. Ward as Nobbs, and Mr. Sidney Bryant as Dickie Bird. On Friday night Her Wedding Day, with Miss Ward as the Bride, was staged.

STAFFORD.—EMPIRE AND LYCEUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. James Elphinstone.—Dinah Morris and her troupe of Southern Belles, in the musical comedy sketch, The Lost Coon, top the bill; Mozetto and assistant are clever and amusing jugglers; the Revell Troupe, in their wonderful knockabout absurdity, Mischief, evoke genuine laughter; Mlle. Lucretia is a smart and pleasing serio and dancer; and the pictures of the Empire Bioscope are an additional attraction.

ST. HELENS.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD. — General-Manager, Mr. McLeod Loader.—Mr. W. W. Kelly's company is here on a return visit, in the popular drama, A Royal Divorce. Miss Edith Cole repeats her admirable performance of the Empress Josephine; Mr. Fred Victor acts in convincing style as Napoleon; Miss Agnes Finlay's interpretation of Marie Louise, and Miss Helen Richmond's assumption of Stephanie, both merit high praise; Talleyrand finds a capable exponent in Mr. Percy Vernon; Mr. Graham Woods is an excellent Marquis de Beaumont.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. T. Barrasford, Will Sley, and Fred Willmot; Resident-Manager, Mr. A. V. Carnell.—The bill of fare provided here this week includes Mdlle. Von Jossa, protean and quick-change artist; Frank Cass, comedian; Miss Blanche Marion, comedienne and dancer; the Gladenbecks, clever hand-balancers; Jack Hylton, eccentric comedian; Mephisto, contortionist; the Dugros Trio, gymnasts; and the Barrascope, with new pictures.

STOCKPORT.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Revill.—Bright and entertaining is The Prince of Pilsen, and large audiences have been delighted with its many pleasing features. Mr. Baron H. Harriss's company is one of exceptional excellence. As Hans Wagner, Mr. Harry Kilburn causes abundant laughter; Mr. Frank Crimp as the Prince acts and sings in most acceptable style; and Miss Sophie Harris is a distinct success as Mrs. Maddison Crocker. A clever impersonation is that of Miss Connie Leon as the French maid, Sidonie; Mr. Roy Sydney portrays the character of Lieut. Tom Wagner admirably; and Miss Peggie Franklin makes a lovable Nellie Wagner.

EMPIRE, LTD.—Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Black.—Leoni Clarke, with his numerous cats, rabbits, monkeys, rats, mice, canaries, &c., is the chief attraction here, and has provided a most amusing entertainment; a clever performance in the silver tank is given by Dickinson and Johnson, ornamental swimmers; Lavello Brothers, comedy acrobats, are amusing; Miss Arabella Allen's impersonations of Dickens characters are greeted with much appreciation; Wyndham and Waters, in their sketch The Professor and His Pupil, cause hearty laughter; Renson and Waite, comedy duo; Lotte de Abbey, vocalist; and Harry Barclay, comedian, are highly successful; whilst the reception accorded Harry Drew, a capable baritone vocalist, is of a most gratifying character.

ALBERT HALL.—Mr. Frank Abbott's "Times" animated pictures continue here this week, with satisfactory success.

STOURBRIDGE.—ALHAMBRA THEATRE.—Managerées, Miss Maude Lynton.—Mr. Charles H. Phelps and company are appearing here this week in two dramas, The Blind Foundling and His Dishonoured Wife. On Monday the former piece was presented, and thoroughly enjoyed. The title-rôle was entrusted to Miss Mabel Hall, and she proved herself one of the most efficient child artists we have seen here. Miss Belle Tilbury had an important character to delineate in that of Isabel, but she acquitted herself admirably. Mr. Chas. H. Phelps won unstinted applause by his embodiment of the part of Gerald Dalton. Others conspicuous in their rôles were Messrs. Lawrence Brien, Alfred G. Fry, Bernard Webb, Harry Tilbury, and Misses Amy Dalby and Milly Doris.

SUNDERLAND.—AVENUE THEATRE.—Director and Manager, Mr. Chas. E. Machin.—Sherlock Holmes is paying a welcome return visit to Wearside. Mr. Hamilton Stewart enacts the rôle of the cool, calculating, and intrepid detective with quiet force; Mr. W. F. Stirling submits another strong interpretation of Professor Moriarty; Mr. Stanley Logan is a natural Dr. Watson; Mr. Fred Bell an effective John Forman; Mr. Ernest Gray capably sustains the part of James Larrabee; Mr. Edward Mervyn is a satisfactory Sydney Prince; and Master Cedric Sutherland is smart as Billy. Miss Lindsay Fincham, in the unsympathetic character of Madge Larrabee, comes through with considerable credit; and Miss Constance Leigh deserves commendation for her conception of the difficult rôle of Alice Faulkner.

ROYAL THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. E. Machin; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jos. Hemingway.—Bound to Win is being presented here by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Kimberley's company. Harry Lyndon, the gentleman sport, is adequately portrayed by Mr. F. G. Kimberley; Mr. Charles Vivian succeeds in the heavier rôle of Phillip Ayre; Mr. J. Franklin admirably represents the part of Ned Oakley; Miss Eva Elwes as the heartless Gladys Orme shows considerable power; and Miss Violet Langley submits a charming interpretation of the heroine.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Lessees and Manager, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Managers, Messrs. Browne and Stringer.—A nicely diversified bill is headed by W. J. Ashcroft (accompanied by J. W. Morton), who receives a most hearty reception. The Lukushima Troupe of Japanese artists submit a clever entertainment; Bijou Russell, sand dancer, is another excellent turn; the beautiful Lillian Power performs some exceptionally clever feats with her safety bicycle; Rosa Rossetti's selections on 'cello and violins are pleasing items; and Lee Lung, Chinese illusionist; George Bernard, actor-vocalist; Lauri Wylie, with his mimicing mannikins; Little Don, the mirthful mite; and Vernon's Bioscope pictures make up the remainder of the programme.

SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD.—KING'S THEATRE.—The first three nights of this week Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesey's company appeared here in the drama, A Traitor Prince. The play was well received by a large audience on Monday night. It is well mounted and dressed, and the acting is all that could be desired. The principals include Mr. G. M. Montamni, as the Prince; Miss Livesey, as Vashti; Mr. T. P. McBride, as Lieut. Derrick; and Miss Rose Routledge, as Lola Vam.

SWINDON.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Responsible Manager, Mr. Alfred Manners.—That popular musical comedy, The Earl and the Girl, is paying this town a first visit, and is proving a genuine attraction. Mr. William Greet's company, under the business-management of Mr. Francis Hawley, is a strong one, while the elaborate dresses and scenery form a leading feature. Miss May Yates as Elphin Haye is charming; and Miss Ida Stratham is particularly pleasing as Daisy Fallowfield, both ladies scoring high honours with their vocal efforts. Mr. Thomas Kennard must be highly commended on his distinct success as Dick Wargrave, being deservedly applauded for each song; and Mr. Leslie Owen does good work as the Hon. Crewe Boodle. As Jim Cheese, Mr. Alfred Donohoe is irresistibly amusing, and with Miss Lina Hicks, an ideal 'Liza Shoddam, evoke roars of laughter. In the part of Mrs. Shimmering Black, Miss Kathleen Gerard is very good; and Miss Winnie Plumpton as Virginia Bliss is all that can be desired. Mr. Ernest A. Plumpton must be complimented on his good work as Downham; while Mr. G. Hayes and Mr. Sam Lysons, in the parts allotted to them, deserve special mention.

TON-Y-PANDY.—ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Carlton and Duckworth; General-Manager, Mr. Sam Duckworth; Acting-Manager, Mr. Ridgewood Barrie.—This week the boards are occupied by Mr. F. Marriott-Watson's company in A False Wife. The part of Lieut. George Mansfield is well placed in the hands of Mr. Howard Barlow; Mr Marriott-Watson is seen to advantage as Jean Beraud; Mr. Elton Morgan keeps the house in good humour as Ben Rattle; Miss Florence Florence is excellent as Lady Mansfield; Miss Minnie Leslie is very amusing as Bessie; and Miss Annie Hylton is a charming Agnes Weyland.

TORQUAY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Managing-Director, Mr. W. H. Mortimer; Secretary, Mr. Arthur Pearse.—Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company presented Public Opinion for the first time to a Torquay audience on Monday. Miss Hutchison took the principal part very successfully, and was well supported by Mr. Charles Harley, who acted with considerable ability as Spencer Traughton. Mr. Percy Marshall gave a clever impersonation of Horace Wibsey, and the character studies of the Hon. Mr. Justice Mulley by Mr. Fred Lewis and Sir Babington Mulley by Mr. Douglas Hamilton were exceedingly well done. Miss Mary Beresford was a pleasing Pansy Bligh, and Miss Connie Deane a pretty Phyllis Dagenham; Mr. Douglas Greet as Viscount Pomfey and Mr. Ashton Pearse as Lord Percy Kilgour also deserve mention.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS.—THE OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee, Mr. C. Carey; Manager, Mr. L. J. Gunnell.—On Monday Mr. Bannister Howard's company commenced a three nights' visit with The Earl and the Girl. Mr. John Clegg was as funny as ever as the dog-trainer; Mr. Frank Wilson as the real heir and Mr. D. FitzGibbon as the supposed heir were both excellent; Mr. H. Cotter as the uncle and Mr. A. Godfrey as the Yankee solicitor furnished humorous studies; Miss Alice Nixon gave a vivacious impersonation of the American heiress; Miss M. Maude, responsible for the Strong Lady and Miss C. Dade as 'Liza Shoddam both contributed strong comedy impersonations; while Miss Florence Brandon as Daisy Fallowfield and Miss C. Stephens as Virginia Bliss also deserved special mention. The full chorus and orchestra (under the direction of Mr. H. Lonsdale) attacked their work with commendable vigour.

WAKEFIELD.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Sherwood and Co.—Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's company, in the drama, Under Two Flags, is here this week. Mr. Wellesley Draper gives a spirited rendering as Bertie Cecil; Mr. Lionel West does full justice as Barklie Royellieu; Mr. Charles Brook is suitably placed as Lord Royellieu; and Mr. Fred Pawl enacts the part of Lord Rockingham in an able manner; Mr. Arthur Elwyns proves capable as the Black Hawk; and Mr. Harry Benson is admirable as Rake, the valet. Miss Mary Thorne submits a clever portrayal as Cigarette; Miss Mabel Ormonde makes a pleasing Princess Corona; and Miss Amy Maitland is successful as Lavinia the maid.

HIPPODROME.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—Mons. De Ora, gymnast, heads the bill this week with a startling turn; Wisper, comical juggler, is amusing; Fox and Melville, illustrated song vocalists, merit appreciation; the Two Lauriers, conjurers; Miss Beattie Bloom, comedienne; Miss Amy Allnutt, comedy artist; and Mlle. Fontaine's Mannikins, and Fred Dice, comedian, ably contribute.

WALSALL.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—Interesting variety characterises the programme here this week. Heading the bill is The Globe of Life, the performers being "Wizard" Stone and Irene Stone, who are marvellous. Madge May, comedienne; the Bros. Vetter, in a vocal and equilibristic speciality entitled The Page's Recreation; Daisy Mayer, comedienne and sand dancer; Silent Tait, the eccentric wizard; Hesketh Meade, in animated picture songs; and Little Ganty, who creates great fun, are other attractions of the bill.

GRAND THEATRE. — Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—Miss Annie Bell and company are here this week in Sapho. Miss Bell, in the title-rôle, proves most successful; Mr. Otto Minster does well as Jean Gaussin; and Mr. Pringle Roberts is capital as Caoudal.

WARRINGTON.—ROYAL COURT.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. Joseph Potter; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred J. Reece.—At this theatre on Monday a capital house gave Mr. Mouillot's company a hearty reception on its appearance in the tuneful musical comedy, The Geisha. The rôle of O Mimosa San was acted by Miss Lydia Bland in a style sufficient to satisfy even the severest of critics, and her excellent voice was well suited for the songs which fall to her share. Miss Doris Langdon gave a capital representation of O Juliette Diamente; and Miss Edith Adeson, as Molly Seymour, acquitted herself extremely well and sang admirably; Miss Winifred Knightly was a fine, handsome Lady Constance Wynne; and the Misses Lucy Kipling, Evelyn Powell, and Daisy Notting appeared as her guests. Charming Geisha Girls were Misses Ada Silvester, Kate Holmes, Maud Holmes, and Winnie Brooke. Mr. Melford Hook presented a highly commendable portraiture of Reginald Fairfax, and he acted and sang as the fickle naval officer with admirable effect. Mr. Edward Pollard was good as Dick Cunningham; and Messrs. Ryton Hoare, T. Squires, and Miss Emily Lovell (a dashing young "middy") were all well in the picture as young officers on board H.M.S

Willie Hicks does sound work in the attractive part of Tom Holmes; Mr. Geoffrey Cleate as the unscrupulous Vivian Ormonde fills a difficult part well. Miss Nelly Howitt, who plays the title-rôle, has been a happy selection, playing with rare force and keen insight; Miss Evelyn Robson is quite at home as Felice; Miss Marie Ada Downing as the crippled Christina wins all hearts.

WIGAN.—Royal Court Theatre.—Proprietors, The Wigan Entertainments Co. — Mr. Samuel James's company present As Good as Gold, a drama which is admirably staged, inclusive of some sensational mechanical effects. Mr. H. H. Barrington as Mark Williams, Mr. Wm. Heilbronn as Jack Stanton, Mr. Richard Ferris as Sir Richard Wharncliffe, and Mr. Norman Hall as Horatio Spanker, play the chief male parts with conspicuous ability. Miss May Hastings as Nora Williams, whose virtues suggest the title-rôle, represents the character most naturally, and speaks her lines with considerable elocutionary powers; Miss Kate Froude, Miss Irene Tracey (Wharncliffe's son), Miss Florence Lovell, and Miss Edith Carr, also play their parts well.

The Hippodrome.—Proprietors, The Wigan Entertainments Co.—Chas. Diamond, harpist; and Miss Beatrice, clever performer on the saxophone, have an excellent reception; and Doody and Wright, "Australian comiques," are clever vocalists and dancers, and score a great success; Karno's Komedians, O'Malley and Brown, Harry Morris, and Tom Fancourt and Rubie, in a sketch, provide capital comedy; the Sisters Poole, society entertainers, dance well; and the Montaldos, equilibrists; Dolly, Agnes, and Maud, fancy box makers from the factory, who are also good vocalists; and Lieut. Travis, a very smart ventriloquist and pleasing singer, complete a most acceptable programme.

WOLVERHAMPTON. — Grand Theatre. — Lessees and Managers, Mr. E. H. Bull and Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Percival.—Mrs. Bandmann-Palmer and company are appearing here in a round of plays. On Tuesday Mary Queen of Scots was produced, in which Mrs. Bandmann-Palmer admirably sustained the title-part, and met with a good reception. Miss Katharine Herbert made an excellent Queen Elizabeth; and Miss More Dunphie did well as Hannah Kennedy. The part of the Earl of Leicester was capitally portrayed by Mr. F. Skein; and that of Earl of Shrewsbury was ably filled by Mr. A. Wilson Wynne. As Lord Burleigh, Mr. Leonard Cheetham rendered a good account of himself; and Mr. Sydney Bland was successful as Sir Edward Mortimer. The following plays were also billed for the week:—From Washerwoman to Duchess, East Lynne, Sapho, Nell Gwynne, and Jane Shore.

Empire Palace. — Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. W. H. Lennon.—A great treat is provided here this week in the engagement of Ada Reeve, who is drawing large houses, and providing them with much pleasure and amusement by her clever and charming songs. Other artists are Charles R. Whittle, vocalist; the Paolias; Frank and Alice Lurin, comedians; the Bros. Adderley, in sketch; the Sisters Melba, juvenile vocalists; Stephens and Rennior, comedians and sand dancers; and Edie Anderson, vocalist.

Hippodrome. — This week's programme includes two sketches of the burlesque and knockabout order, the one entitled Moving In, and the other The Skirmishers. Both provide plenty of fun. Other attractions are Arthur Aldridge, vocalist; Maidie Scott; Forest and King, the elastic couple; Alf Barton, the story-teller; Tom Moore, comedian; Olga Kean, juvenile fairy dancer; and the Hippodrome pictures.

WORCESTER.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. Le Wards.—Florodora has always enjoyed considerable popularity with Worcester theatregoers, and the performances of Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company are as bright and enjoyable as ever. Mr. Alfred E. Passmore is admirable as the Professor; Mr. Stanley White is well suited as the millionaire perfume proprietor; as Frank Abercoed, Mr. Allan Morris finds ample opportunity for the display of a powerful and cultured voice; and Miss Josephine Sullivan makes a charming Dolores. Miss L. G. Gullick is a vivacious Angela, and Miss Kate Leicester makes a great hit as Lady Holyrood.

WORKINGTON.—Opera House.—Lessee, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Manager, Mr. Falconer Jackes.—Colen's Excursions is doing good business. The principal attraction is Mr. Charles Coborn, whose songs are enthusiastically received, and whose welcome as an old favourite is of the heartiest character.

YORK.—Royal.—Lessees, Messrs. Waddington; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. S. Dacre.—The Prodigal Parson is being played here by Messrs. Northway and Garrod's company this week. Mr. Garrod is an impressive Tom Godley, acting with pathos; Mr. Hugh Carmichael as the villainous Enoch Jaggins plays in excellent style; Mr. H. Newton as the genial Phil Drive causes much amusement; and he is well supported by Miss Lydia Hart as Gretchen; as Fern Godley, Miss Vera Ferdyce is a distinct success, playing naturally and with grace; and a sympathetic Myrtle is seen in Miss Gladys Conover.

Opera House.—Managing Director, Mr. Wm. Peacock; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sidney Brooke.—Mendel is decidedly the chief attraction this week; Jock Whiteford's witticisms never fail to amuse; and Cullen and Carthey are decidedly smart dancers; Miss Lily Lena, a pleasing singer of tuneful songs, scores a success; the Dagodets are clever; H. O. Wells causes amusement; and the King's College Boys do well; Johnson and Bert and the Bioscope complete the bill.

HOCKEY.

Misses Cecilia Fowler's and Winnie Bradley's Ladies' Athletic Team v. Miss Jessie Clinton's Bath Ladies' XI.

Played near Bath on Saturday, Nov. 10. Misses Kit Montgomery, Lillie Belding, Lilla Carter, Sadie Osborne, and May Collings scored for their respective sides. The following were the teams:—

Misses Fowler and Bradley's XI.—Miss Ethel Bowman, goal; Miss Alice Gibbs and Miss Lilla Carter, backs; Miss Cecilia Fowler, Miss Lillie Belding, and Miss Edie Lawrence, half backs; Miss Winnie Bradley, Miss Kit Montgomery, Miss Florrie Hooper, Miss Rosie Davies, and Miss Nell Lawrence, forwards.

Miss Clinton's XI.—Miss Minnie Lewis, goal; Miss Nellie Osborne and Miss Sadie Osborne, backs; Miss Ethel Tucker, Miss Jessie Clinton, and Miss Mabel Williams, half backs; Miss May Collings, Miss Florence Thatcher, Miss Beatie Cook, Miss Edith Brooks, and Miss Laura James, forwards.

Referee, Miss Ivy Bowman. Result: Misses Fowler and Bradley's XI., 3 goals; Miss Clinton's XI., 2 goals.

Miss Cecilia Fowler's Eleven v. Miss Winnie Bradley's Eleven.

Played near Clifton Downs on Saturday, Nov. 24. Miss Ethel Bowman (goal), who was injured in the match on Nov. 10, very pluckily turned out for her club. The following were the teams:—

Miss Fowler's Eleven:—Miss Ethel Bowman, goal; Miss Ivy Bowman and Miss Irene Dudley, backs; Miss Cecilia Fowler (captain), Miss Lillie Belding, and Miss Rosie Davies, half-backs; Miss Minnie Leonard, Miss Gracie Leonard, Miss Bertha Godfrey, Miss Alice Bernard, and Miss Amy Bernard, forwards.

Miss Bradley's Eleven:—Miss May Fisher, goal; Miss Alice Gibbs and Miss Nellie Stevens, backs; Miss Edie Lawrence, Miss Minnie Hamilton, and Miss Gertrude Thomas, half-backs; Miss Winnie Bradley (captain), Miss Nell Lawrence, Miss Florrie Hooper, Miss Maude Burgess, and Miss Alice Mitchell, forwards.

Referee, Miss Kit Montgomery (of Miss Winifred Bradley's team).

Result: Miss Fowler's Eleven, nil; Miss Bradley's Eleven, 1 goal (scored by Miss Nellie Stevens).

Mr. Surtees Corne is composing the music for the forthcoming pantomimes at the Lyceum Theatre, Newport, Mon., the Theatre Royal, Bristol, and the Pier Pavilion, Hastings.

AMERICAN AMUSEMENTS.

(from our own correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Miss Lena Ashwell's superb embodiment of Deborah Krillet in Messrs. Claude Askew and Edward Knoblauch's play, The Shulamite, now running at the Lyric Theatre, has been praised unreservedly by the critics, but the success of the play in London will not be repeated in this city. Miss Beryl Mercer's Memke and the Simeon Krillet of Mr. Edward R. Mawson are excellent characterisations.

Mr. Robert Mantell, whose conscientious work in Shakespearean and classical plays has called forth much favourable comment in the principal cities, is fulfilling his annual engagement in New York at the Academy of Music, appearing in an extensive and varied répertoire and winning the approval of large audiences. Mr. Mantell is supported by Miss Marie Booth Russell (Mrs. Mantell) and an excellent company. The orchestra is under the direction of Dr. Andrew Byrne, of Edinburgh University, who has composed the incidental music for several of the plays.

"Brigadier Gerard," with Mr. Kyrle Bellew in the title-rôle, has been tried and found wanting so far as the metropolis is concerned, and its run at the Savoy Theatre is to be limited to two weeks. Mr. Bellew was in fine form on the opening night, especially when he unsheathed the trusty blade that was laid by during his long engagement in Raffles, and engaged in a sword fight with the truculent Major Olivier. Mr. Bellew's personal success was unquestioned.

Mr. James T. Powers, who reigned so long as a musical comedy star at Daly's Theatre, is maintaining his popularity as Private Charlie Taylor in The Blue Moon at the Casino. His "Crocodile" song is repeatedly encored, and his comicalities keep the audience in a good humour throughout the performance. Miss Ethel Jackson is a graceful Chandra Nil, and sings "Blue Moon" most effectively. The favourite number, "Burmah Girl," is admirably rendered by Mr. Edward M. Favor as Major Allabone; and Miss Clara Palmer as Millicent Leroy sings and acts bewitchingly. The dancing of La Petite Adelaide and the English Pony Ballet is heartily applauded. The piece is handsomely mounted and is a very attractive offering.

STAGE STAFF GOSSIP.

Mr. George Alexander has decided to be a candidate for election to the London County Council in March next, and, so far as the working staff are concerned, it would be difficult to find a more popular candidate. The stage employees will also have a representative in the field next March. Mr. Jesson, of the Musicians' Union, is already a member of the Council, and there is a probability of a music hall artist seeking election. If all the candidates are successful, London's governing body will not lack qualified advisers in the control of theatres and music halls.

Theatrical employees generally are reminded that the annual concert takes place to-morrow (Sunday) in the Royal Opera House. Mr. Martin Harvey has added his name to the list of patrons. Mr. George Alexander has a sent a donation of £2 2s., and Mr. William Telbin £2 2s. These donations will be placed to the "Open" Benevolent Fund. The committee regret to announce that, owing to the death of her father, Miss Edna Thornton will not be able to appear at the concert. The programme is, however, of exceptional attraction, and will not be completed until 10 o'clock p.m.

Mr. Harry Norton, stage-manager of the Haymarket Theatre, holds the record so far for the sale of tickets, and the committee greatly appreciate his energetic services. Those who desire to make sure of a seat—and no employee who can be present ought to be absent—should apply at once.

AMUSEMENTS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

(from our own correspondent.)

KIMBERLEY, Oct. 29.—The visits of theatrical companies to Kimberley during the present year have been like those of angels—few and far between. However, after a lapse of some nine weeks the Leonard Payne company favoured us with a short season of eight nights, and met with extraordinary success. They opened with What the Butler Saw, followed by Raffles, the Amateur Cracksman, both of which were played to good business. This they followed up with The Prodigal Son, which scored an immense success, the company, in order to cope with the demand for seats, having to delete from their programme The Three Musketeers and Richard III. Mr. Leonard Payne scored as Magnus, while Mr. Frank Beresford was not less successful in the rôle of Oscar. Mr. G. Clifton Boyne's Stephen Magnusson was another clever piece of work. Miss Gertrude F. Godart took chief honours among the ladies with her clever delineation of the part of Helga Neilsen. Miss Freda Godfrey was a charming Elen, and Miss Annie Leaf also deserves the heartiest congratulations on her clever acting as Margaret Neilsen. The Manxman was also staged, and drew another crowded house. There are no more bookings for the present year.

DURBAN, Nov. 3.—Theatre Royal (Sole Lessees and Managers, Messrs. B. and F. Wheeler).—Wheeler's London comedy company produced What Happened to Jones here this week. Mr. Douglas Gordon represented Jones, and is to be congratulated upon the manner in which he performed that arduous part. Ebenezer Goodly, the quiet-going anatomist, was played by Mr. Rule Pyott, and he gave a clever impersonation of the elderly gentleman; and Mr. David Miller cleverly portrayed the ancient cleric. Miss Hilda Vaughan capably played the part of Cissy; Miss Gertrude Le Sage as Mrs. Goodly was the most henpecking of wives; Miss Violet Greville as Alvinia Starlight ably acted the part of the old maid; and Miss Florence Le Clercq and Miss Marie Housley represented the part of Ebenezer's daughters with effect.

COVENT GARDEN BALL.

The fifth of these series of popular dances was held on Friday evening, the 23rd ult., when a goodly attendance was again in evidence. The fancy costumes were more numerous than usual. There were sixteen handsome prizes, the first being a diamond and emerald pendant, which was awarded for the costume "A Picture of Old Vauxhall. Noticeable amongst others were "In a Southern plantation," "Britain's Bulwarks," "The Trusts," "Zulu Chief and Slave," and the "Duchess of Devonshire."

Mr. W. Clarkson was successful in gaining fourth prize with "The Stage of To-day," fifth prize for "The Golden Pheasant," and others for "Port Ounceless" and other effective dresses. "The Stage of To-day" represented scenes illustrative of stage life and portraits of well-known players. "The Clerk of the Weather" was a prettily-trimmed picture of the seasons, and "The Query" was a charming costume of white satin, with panels depicting life from the cradle to old age.

To the accompaniment of popular music played by Mr. Dan Godfrey's admirable band, the fun was briskly maintained until an early hour.

Mr. Ernest Jones, of Rhyl, has sent us some excellent specimens of photographs of professional subjects. They are exceedingly good carte-de-visite portraits, and can be obtained at the remarkably small price of 2s. per dozen.

THE COURT THEATRE CRICKET CLUB ANNUAL DINNER.

The Court Theatre Cricket Club had their second annual dinner on Sunday evening last, in the Horse Shoe Tavern, Tottenham Court-road. Mr. E. Taylor Platt, the business-manager, presided, supported by Mr. J. E. Vedrenne, Mr. Wilfrid Frank (the stage-manager), Mr. Theodore Stier (the musical director), Mr. Edmund Gurney, Mr. Trevor Lowe, Mr. Norman Page, Mr. R. F. Knox (assistant stage-manager), and many other members of the company, the heads of departments and their respective staffs. An excellent dinner was provided.

The entertainment was commenced by a pianoforte selection played by Mr. Harris.

The Chairman proposed the toast, "The King and the Royal Family."

Mr. Trevor Lowe gave "The Cricket Club," and a wild burst of cheering arose, as, with "a beautiful smile on his handsome face," he commenced his speech. Mr. Lowe said when it became known that he was to propose this toast he received advice from all quarters. Mr. Taylor Platt had informed him that he (Mr. Lowe) had been selected to propose the toast because he knew nothing about cricket. With regard to Mr. Norman Page, who had been entrusted with the difficult task of responding to the toast, if one did not know his pads and bat it would be difficult to distinguish him on the field. They all, of course, took great interest in the fortunes of their club, and in conversation with Mr. Page after a match he (Mr. Lowe) was invariably met with the reply that they had "just lost" or "won easily." He found on enquiry that "just lost" meant losing by about 130 runs, and that "won easily" really meant won by a run. After some further banter, which was much enjoyed, the toast was duly responded to by Mr. Page, who gave Mr. Lowe a "Roland for his Oliver."

Mr. Theodore Stier proposed the health of "The Management" of the Court Theatre in an interesting speech full of appreciation of the two partners, Messrs. Vedrenne and Barker, who, he said, possessed all the qualities necessary to secure the most cordial co-operation of everyone in their employ, and their fellow-workers in the production of the wonderful plays which had been presented at the Court Theatre.

Mr. Taylor Platt, responding, said that Mr. Vedrenne had come to the dinner on the distinct understanding he was not to be called upon to make a speech, and Mr. Barker had undertaken to respond, but was unavoidably absent. Mr. Barker had, however, entrusted him (the Chairman) with a letter, which he proceeded to read. In this letter many of those present were referred to in terms of kindly appreciation, many of the allusions it contained also exciting much merriment. The toast was received with musical honours.

Mr. Edmund Gurney proposed "The Visitors," to which the stage-manager of the Duke of York's Theatre responded.

During the evening the following contributed to the musical part of the programme:—Mr. C. McMullin sang "Night and Morning"; Mr. Joseph Rous rendered several of Mr. George Robey's songs in fine style; Mr. Forrest, a member of the Court Theatre Orchestra and "the King's Band," played a 'cello solo, which gained an encore; Mr. Lewis Casson recited "The Battlefield," and in response to an encore gave a poem by Kipling. A feature of the programme was selections by eight members of the company, the second one being a song specially written and composed for the occasion by Mr. R. F. Knox and Mr. Theodore Stier. The song contained illusions in every verse which tickled the fancy of the staff. Two verses run as follows:—

"Then the queue outside the door begins to swell,
And the bulge upon the walls begins to show.
And at every matinée
There are dozens turned away
You begin to call up visions of Soho.

"But there's hardly any room
For another Barker boom,
And Shaw requires a bigger world to land in;
So that is why last June
We went up in a balloon,
And we found a lot of air we can expand in."

Mr. R. F. Knox gave an amusing sketch of a rehearsal at His Majesty's Theatre, when Mr. Tree called in the aid of the late Mr. Dan Leno and Mr. Herbert Campbell, and Mr. George Robey and Mr. Joe Elvin. Mr. George Mozart told some humorous stories, and presented a drama in several acts—and scenes—under the title of the "Woman who Took the Wrong Turning; or, the Man who Changed His Mind," the many tragic episodes exciting roars of laughter. Mr. Douglas Beaufort succeeded in completely mystifying his audience with some wonderful sleight of hand tricks. The whole evening was most enjoyable, and the proceedings throughout were characterised by a sociability as valuable as it was delightful to witness. The concert was under the direction of Mr. Theodore Stier. Mr. F. McMullen, the electrician, acted as secretary, and to him and his co-workers in making the arrangement great credit is due.

FREEMASONRY.

At the meeting of the Bow Lodge of Instruction on Monday a most interesting and instructive paper on Lady Freemasons was read by Past-Master Henry Harris, J.P. Before proceeding to give various details not generally known as to the cause of the Hon. Miss St. Leger being initiated into the secrets and mysteries of Freemasonry, the speaker read a treatise by eminent writers as to the reasons women were not permitted to enter the Masonic order, and gave instances of the American "adoption" Lodges, into which ladies were admitted, and in which all the offices were filled by females. He also read extracts from the reports of their proceedings as published in the papers devoted to the craft in the United States.

Mr. Harris then endeavoured successfully to show, from data obtained from the descendants of the Hon. Miss St. Leger, accompanied by a ground plan of Doneval Castle, showing the position of the Lodge-room and the library in which she was reading when the episode occurred what led to her being made a Freemason, thus setting aside the many incorrect versions that have from time to time been published, as well as the numerous imaginative tales which have been circulated upon the same subject. Mr. Harris traced the history of the lady from her birth to her death, and from the former to the period at which she was married, and arrived at the conclusion that she must have been about the age of eighteen when initiated. A photo of an oil-painted portrait of the lady in full Masonic regalia was also exhibited.

At the conclusion discussion was invited, when several questions were asked, to which Mr. Harris satisfactorily replied. The meeting ended with a hearty vote of thanks to the speaker, who was unanimously elected an honorary member of the Lodge. It is very pleasing to know that so much interest is taken in what may be termed the crux of Freemasonry, and we understand that a very exhaustive lecture on the utensils used in the Temple is shortly to take place at the Israel Lodge of Instruction.

Mr. Daley Cooper, who has been scoring so decisively for some time past in the part of Tweedlepunch in Florodora, has been engaged by Mr. Ernest Dottridge to play Abanazar in his Aladdin tour.

THE DRAMA IN PARIS.

"MADEMOISELLE JOSETTE MA FEMME," Comedy, in Four Acts,
by MM. Paul Gavault and Robert Charvay, Produced at the Gymnase, on
Nov. 16.

Josette	Mme. Marthe Regnier
Myrianne	Mlle. Fèlyne
Mme. de Saint-Assise	Mme. Dherbeuil
Mme. Dupré	Mlle. Claudia
Léontine	Mlle. Helenne Maia
Totoche	Mlle. Montavon
André Ternay	M. Dumeny
Théodore Panard	M. G. Dubosc
Aristide Valorbier	M. Luguet
M. Dupré	M. Arval
Joe Jackson	M. Jean Dax
Saint-Assise	M. Rablet
Jalavert	M. Paul Edmond

(from our own correspondent.)

PARIS, Thursday, Nov. 21.—MM. Paul Gavault and Robert Charvay's new piece, brought out at the Gymnase, is new; yet it can hardly be termed original, for it bears a strong family likeness to several plays we have seen, and especially to a vaudeville called La Poire, by M. Artus, that enjoyed a long run at the Palais Royal. André Ternay is a bachelor, and, of course, has a mistress, Myrianne, a young actress, who plays in a revue in the Variétés. Myrianne likes André, but is not faithful to him. As to André, he is fond of the girl, without troubling as to how she spends the time during his absence. Not so Panard, his friend. This gentleman pays his court to Myrianne in quite a respectful manner. It is he who escorts her to and from the theatre; who listens patiently to her small-talk; who looks after her little dog, &c. Between his easy-going mistress and his faithful friend, André leads a happy, comfortable life. Alas! it was not meant to last. Josette Dupré, his god-daughter, who is passionately fond of him, asks him to render her a service. She likes Joe Jackson, a young Englishman. She wants to become his wife; but her parents object to the match because Joe's father is their opponent in business. And, to complicate matters, Josette's aunt Agathe has bequeathed to her twenty thousand pounds, on condition that she marries before she has entered her eighteenth year. In two months she will be eighteen, so that there is no time to be lost. And then Josette exposes to André her plan, or rather the scheme Joe suggested to her. She asks André to become her husband—only pro-forma, of course—and when Joe returns in a year from his business tour through the United States, they will divorce, and she can then become Joe's wife. André says it is absurd, and gets cross. Josette cries, and looks so sweet and sad, that he relents. The romantic side of the affair also appeals to him, and when, true to his promise to Josette, he asks for her hand, M. and Mme. Dupré give their consent. Joe, on the eve of his departure on his long trip, thanks André for his kindness, and everybody is happy. André and his wife start on their supposed honeymoon trip, and André begins to think he is playing a rather ridiculous rôle. According to the arrangement entered into, he cannot, and does not, claim marital rights; yet he suffers when he sees Josette flirt with every man she comes across. In fact, he discovers, to his dismay, that he has fallen in love with Josette, and that this platonic marriage was a mistake. Pretending an important appointment, he returns to Paris alone. This act would have been almost sad, but for Panard, who puts in an unexpected appearance. This extraordinary man did not care to remain behind, close to the fascinating Myrianne, and, sooner than betray his friend's trust, he has stampeded off to Switzerland, without luggage, in a high hat and a frock coat. The moment André arrives in the capital he sends a message to Myrianne to call on him that same evening. To his surprise it is Josette who walks in. She took the next train. She shows him a letter she just received from Joe, informing her that he got himself into trouble in New York, and will not return to Europe for four years. She sits on André's knee, kisses him, until finally poor André loses his head, and presses the flighty girl to his heart. And little Josette looks triumphant. The play might, and ought to, have ended there; but the authors added a useless fourth act, wherein Joe turns up. His trouble, it seems, arose with a woman, and he was compelled to marry her. As regards the interpretation, the greatest praise is due to M. Dubosc, whose impersonation of the wonderful Panard was splendid. He kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter. M. Dumeny seemed somewhat heavy for the rôle of André. Mme. Marthe Regnier and Mlle. Félyne were both excellent.

"LE CŒUR DE SYLVIE," Comedy, in Three Acts, in Verse,
by M. Gabriel Nigond,
Produced at the Bouffes-Parisiens on Nov. 25.

Sylvie	Mlle. Jeanne Rabuteau
Prunelle	Mlle. Fergaudy
Le Chevalier	M. Gaston Severin
Le Comte..	M. Pouctal
Briquet	M. Henry Lamothe
Framboisy	M. Berthelier fils
Un Laquais	M. Jalabert

PARIS, Thursday, Nov. 29.—At the rate we are going this will certainly be a record season as regards theatrical novelties. Premières are following one another in rapid succession, but it must be regretfully owned that the quality is rather below the usual standard. Le Cœur de Sylvie, the work of a young poet, is prettily written, and his ideas on love, on the old songs of Lulli and Rameau, on the flowers that fade too soon, are delightfully expressed. Unfortunately the author does not possess the elementary notions of the stage, and his personages came and went in a manner that bewildered the audience. The heroine, Sylvie, is a dancer at the opera. An elderly nobleman has fallen in love with her, and she has followed him to his country seat, where they live happily. But Framboisy, Sylvie's former teacher, discovers her retreat and implores her to return to Paris. The public, he says, are clamouring for her. In vain. Sylvie is fond of her elderly friend, and does not want to leave him. The latter, however, commits the mistake of introducing to Sylvie his nephew, the brilliant Chevalier. The young people fall, of course, in love with one another, and the Count thinks it prudent to separate them as promptly as possible in order to avoid a catastrophe. This is a terrible blow to poor Sylvie. Her little heart is pining for love; and as it cannot remain idle, she starts flirting with Briquet, the handsome young gardener, and allows him to kiss her hand. Sylvie promises the Chevalier to elope with him; but the Count, an old philosopher, reasons with the giddy girl, and explains to her that what she takes for love is only a passing fancy. He tells her that she will soon forget the Chevalier, whose heart she will break, for he really loves her. Sylvie does not believe him. Love, she says, does not kill. But she is mistaken. A noise is heard in the distance, and we learn that Briquet has drowned himself in the lake. And Sylvie, who wants all the affection she can get without being able to love anybody, returns to Paris with her faithful Framboisy to resume her work at the opera. She has already forgotten the Chevalier. Mlle. Jeanne Rabuteau was admirable in the rôle of the flighty Sylvie. The part of the Chevalier suited M. Severin to the ground; and M. Pouctal supplied a fine sketch of the philosophical Count.

"Le Major Ipeca," the new farce, produced at the Cluny Theatre, is anything but a satisfactory production. Moreover, it was very badly played by a cast who did not seem to take the slightest trouble with their rôles. The only exponent who took his part seriously was a little sucking pig which a countrywoman offers to a chemist's assistant. It is to be hoped that the success it achieved will not turn its young head.

"LE FILS A PAPA."
Vaudeville, in Three Acts, by MM. Antony Mars and Maurice Desvallières, produced at the Palais-Royal on Nov. 27.

Aurélie	Mlle. Lucienne Guitt
La Baronne des Aubrais	Mme. Alice Bery
Rose Croix	Mlle. L. Delmay
Mariette	Mlle. Christ. Desroches
Jaqueline Boislurette	Mlle. Rosny
Le Baron des Aubrais	M. Numès
Pomarel	M. Hurtraux
Alexis	M. Treville
Hubert des Aubrais	M. Hamilton
Boislurette	M. Jullien
Charancey	M. Diamand

For the last few years the Palais-Royal has been proverbially unlucky, and the friends of that old house were, therefore, all the more pleased to see that the new managemnt had "struck oil" with thir production Le fils à Papa, which met with an excellent reception. It is a vaudeville on time-honoured lines, with numberless doors and cupboards, and people who play hide-and-seek; but it contains some shriekingly funny situations, and raised peals of laughter. Baron des Aubrais is a scientist. He is a firm believer in atavism, and has written works on het theory of "So the father, so the son." He is married, and has a son, Hubert, on whom the mother watches with jealous care. Hubert, a youth of about twenty, would like to go out with his friends, but his mother, fearing the dangers of the gay city, only gives him enough money to keep himself in cigarettes. Moreover, whenever Hubert meets a pretty woman and feels attracted towards her, his impulse receives a sudden check, for he cannot help thinking of his virtuous father, who has written such beautiful books on heredity; and, to the surprise of the object of his flame, he withdraws from the contect. The Aubrais have a nephew, Berlurette, married to a charming young woman, whom he deceives disgracefully. And we also meet there Aurélie, the wife of a perfumer, a flighty lady, with whom Hubert falls violently in love. And then we witness a strange spectacle. Mme. des Aubrais and Mme. Berlurette have both retired for the night—in fact, in that highly respectable house, all the inmates ought to have been asleep by that time. But when everything is quiet we hear doors open softly, and we see Berlurette slip out on tip-toe and leave the house to meet a lady with whom he has an appointment. Next comes Hubert, for whom Aurélie is waiting; and, lastly, we see the Baron des Aubrais! Yes, the austere scientist, member of the Academy of Science, on pleasure bent! As a matter of course, we meet all these people in a well-known night restaurant, where all kinds of adventures await them. But Des Aubrais, senior, when he sees his son with a lady, feels happy. His theory on atavism is right. Hubert does the same as his father. He is "le fils à papa." As a rule, the final act in a vaudeville, when things are put right, is rather dull. In this instance, however, the authors have enlivened it by introducing an amusing personage. At the before-mentioned restaurant the two Des Aubrais and Boislurette have been served by a head-waiter who showed himself particularly smart and attentive; and, to their terror, they see that man next day at the Baron's house. The Baroness, in want of a servant, has engaged him. The Baron, acting on his friend and son's advice, gives the fellow at once notice; but the later, having recognised in them the three gentlemen he served the night before, threatens to betray them. And the three men, trembling with fear, are compelled to put up with the man's insolent behaviour until all difficulties are overcome, when he is promptly bundled out. The interpretation was first-class, and the piece is likely to run for many nights.

"La Ponette" is the title of a four-act comedy, by MM. Artus and Fuchs, brought out at the Athénée. It plays in the world of bookmakers, whom the authors take severely to task. The story is well told, and appeared to give pleasure to the audience, a large portion of whom are interested in matters concerning the Turf. The heroine, Blanche Carpezat, is the daughter of a bookmaker, who has nicknamed her "La Ponette." Her mother, who died before the story begins, belonged to an excellent family. Blanche, being in poor health, the doctor has prescribed her a prolonged stay in the country, and she has gone to her aunt, Mme. Martin, her mother's sister. The latter, a religious and austere woman, is somewhat shocked at Blanche's free-and-easy manners, which, however, she hopes to improve in time. Mme. Martin has a son, Pierre, a young officer, and he and Blanche soon lose their hearts to one another. Things might have gone well had the bookmaker not hit upon the unfortunate idea of paying his sister-in-law a visit to see Blanche, his little "La Ponette," of who mhe is very fond. Mme. Martin hardly knows Carpezat, and her notions as to the profession o fa bookmaker are anything but flattering to the man. When, therefore, he comes to see her, with a crowd of men and women whose conversation and attitude upset her, she has a violent discussion with him, and calls him a cad, and even a thief! Blanche and Pierre's matrimonial prospects are, of course, knocked on the head; and Pierre resigns his post in the army to come to Paris in order to be near Blanche and to try to make his fortune. The quickest way for this, he thinks, is to gamble on the racecourse; and, having discovered an infallible "system," he tries his luck, with the result that he lose every cent. he possesses. But it discovered that Pierre has lost his money through Blanche's father, who cheats the public by running horses under false names. And then we have a strong scene, wherein "La Ponette" compels her father to refund Pierre's money. Mme. Martin also relents, and the young people are married. The work, well staged, was spiritedly acted. We were glad to welcome Mme. Judic, with whom time deals gently. She was most pathetic in the rôle of Mme. Martin, and Mlle Diéterle was a bewitching Blanche. The other parts were also well sustained.

THEATRICAL PATENTS.

These particulars have been supplied us by Messrs. Hughes and Young, patent agents, 55-56, Chancery-lane, London, W.C., who will give advice and assistance free to our readers on all matters relating to the patenting of inventions:—

Mr. J. C. W. I. E. Burges, of 26, Cumberland-terrace, Regent's Park, and Messrs. Gamages, Ltd., have invented an improved apparatus for exhibiting optical illusions. It consists of a chamber with an opening which can be closed by a curtain, and through which can be viewed reflections from a mirror. The reflections have the appearance of a room or stage, and to further the illusion the platform which represents the floor has articles of furniture fitted to it by means of projections fitting into holes or slots. The stage, which represents the back walls, is preferably made concave and the sides are inclined, and fitted with windows and doors, footlights being also arranged. A ball may be inserted through a door and allowed to run down the side and across the stage, thus giving the appearance of the ball running along the floor and up the side of the room, the ball appearing to rest finally in the middle of the sides of the room.

Mr. Ernest A. Rowe, who for so long has acted as advance manager for the Osmond Tearle Shakespearean company, is now the representative of Mr. Fred McCrea, of Gloucester.

DEATH OF MR. WYBERT REEVE.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Wybert Reeve, at his residence, Walmer, Newport, Isle of Wight, on the 14th ult. The deceased was born in London in 1831, and entered the dramatic profession at Bradford, Yorkshire, in 1849, playing the part of Frederick in The Wonder. Afterwards he joined the York circuit, appearing in various juvenile leading parts, as Azael, Sir T. Clifford, &c. In 1852, at Plymouth, he produced his first dramatic piece, a farce, entitled An Australian Hoax. In 1855 he joined the Bath and Bristol company. The same year he wrote and produced a farce, entitled Supper Gratis, acted during the summer months in Mr. Roxby's circuit. In 1857 Mr. Reeve became a member of the Theatre Royal, Manchester, company, with whom he acted for four consecutive seasons as light and eccentric comedian. During this engagement he produced a comedietta, entitled A Match for a Mother-in-Law, and was also part author of the successful pantomime entitled Blue Beard. On leaving Manchester to enter upon the management of the Cardiff, and subsequently of the Swansea and Ryde Theatres, Mr. Reeve was presented with a testimonial by his professional colleagues of the Theatre Royal. In 1862 he managed the Theatre Royal, Sheffield, under the lesseeship of Mr. Chas. Pitt, a position which Mr. Reeve resigned in 1865 for the purpose of opening the new South Shields Theatre. In 1867 he became lessee of the Theatre Royal, Scarborough. At Sheffield he produced Pike O'Callaghan, an Irish two-act piece, which was afterwards played in London at the Surrey Theatre; a three-act comedy, Not So Bad After All; and the three successful pantomimes, entitled The Dragon of Wantley, Robinson Crusoe, and Little Red Riding Hood, of which pieces he is author. He made his first appearance on the London stage in Oct., 1869, at the Lyceum Theatre, as John Mildmay in Still Waters Run Deep. Subsequently Mr. Reeve produced and appeared in his comedies of Won At Last and Not So Bad After All, at the Charing Cross Theatre, with success. In 1871 (after playing in the provinces) he returned to London and appeared at the Olympic Theatre as Walter Hartwright, on the production of Wilkie Collins's play The Woman in White. Shortly afterwards, during Mr. George Vining's illness, Mr. Reeve sustained the part of Fosco in the same play, and so satisfactorily that he performed this character more than fifteen hundred times in various cities of the United Kingdom, Canada, the United States of America, and in the Australian Colonies. For some years Mr. Reeve has lived in retirement at his residence in the Isle of Wight. He was a member of the Dramatic Authors' Society, and wrote, amongst other pieces, Never Reckon Your Chickens, &c., a farce performed at the Olympic Theatre, and received with much favour; Parted, a four-act comedy-drama; The Better Angel, a four-act play; and a piece entitled I Love You; and he has also produced dramatisations of George Geith and No Name, the latter made at the request of Mr. Wilkie Collins.

GUILDHALL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

The concert given by the students on Wednesday evening was more successful in its instrumental than vocal items, as some of these were far beyond average students' acquirements. For instance, Miss Marion Watkins, who has a voice good in quality but not powerful, essayed Donizetti's recit. and aria, "O mio Fernando," from Favorita, an air that not only requires power, but operatic experience; while Miss Nellie Wilson attempted no less difficult an aria than "Caro Nome," from Verdi's Rigoletto. Other students, however, in less exacting works, as Molloy's song "The Vagabond," sung by Mr. W. C. Lee; "Dream Ships," by Waddington Cooke, cleverly sung by Miss Fanny Cuthbert, A.G.S.M.; and Tosti's "Parted," expressively rendered by Mr. H. D. Spratt, were pupils who did themselves and their professors credit. Miss Amy Bean was also much applauded in Purcell's song, "From Rosy Bowers," and Miss Mary Seaman bravely attacked Bemberg's "Hindoo Song," the violin obbligato being skilfully played by Mr. L. Seaman, these performers being associated in Gounod's duet, "Oh, that we two were Maying." Master Leonard A. Connabeer displayed good training and ability in Max Bruch's violin solo, "Adagio and Finale from Concerto in G minor," a difficult composition for so young a player; and Miss Muriel Herbert was entirely successful in her pianoforte solo of "Two Concert Studies," by Godard. Mr. Albert Cazabon, a most promising pupil of Mr. Johannes Wolff, displayed great freedom of execution in his violin solos of Sinding's "Romance in E Minor" and "Carnaval Russe," by Wieniawski. Mr. Norman Attwell also was warmly greeted for his 'cello solo, "Polonaise," by De Munck. In Brahms' charming "Scherzo," Op. 4, Miss Evelyn K. Harrison as a pianist showed great ability and brilliant execution. Miss Jenny Hyman, the official accompanist of the School, most ably performed her duties.

MISS DOT STEPHENS' FUND.

Amount already acknowledged ..	£829	10	6
J. W. Boughton	1	1	0
Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Ball	0	5	0
Collected at Fulham Theatre, per F. Merer :—
Mr. and Mrs. Redmond	0	5	0
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stephens ..	0	5	0
F. Merer	0	5	0
Jennie Richards	0	2	6
W. H.	0	1	0
Total	£831	15	0

MR. DYBALL'S INVENTION.

IMPROVED METHOD FOR WORKING TABLEAUX CURTAINS.

Mr. George H. Dyball, the stage-manager of the Tivoli, has invented an apparatus which opens, raises, lowers, and closes tableaux curtains. The apparatus in question opens the tableaux curtains to the full width of the proscenium opening, then raises them, if necessary, right out of sight, thus giving the full width and height to the opening, as well as a clear line of sight from the boxes and side seats in the auditorium. At the conclusion of an act or scene the curtains descend, first touching the stage floor at the sides, then closing together, which leaves the centre of the stage picture disclosed until the last moment. This is a great improvement upon the old method, where one only sees the performers' feet at first, and the scene grows gradually upwards, and vice-versâ in the lowering of the curtain. In Mr. Dyball's contrivance the two movements—opening and raising—are worked on one drum. The idea hitherto employed involved the use of one drum for opening the curtains and another for raising them, which of course meant additional labour. The Dyball Compensator—which is the name of the new invention—can be worked by hand or electro-motor. In the latter case, the whole contrivance could be controlled by a switch at the prompt box, which means that the stage-manager or the prompter himself can operate the curtain quite as easily as touching the bell and depending on the flyman.

FIG. 1.

SIDE ELEVATION OF WINDLASS.

FIG. 2.

PLAN SHOWING DRUM AND FUSEE BARREL.

Asked how the idea of his compensator came to him, Mr. Dyball stated that it was conceived while he was taking an old verge watch to pieces. He noticed that the watch contained a fusee barrel used for the purpose of equalising the tension of the spring on the movement. Then it occurred to him that an advantage would be gained by utilising the fusee barrel in place of the old cone, which was then, and is now in all other cases, used for operating the counter-weight line, and is much handicapped by the fact that the counter-weight line slips from the greater to the lesser circumference. Anybody who understands this will realise that Mr. Dyball's system is immeasurably superior to the old. The new apparatus was first put into operation at the Tivoli some years ago, and has worked successfully ever since. The Dyball Compensator was improved upon by its inventor and installed at the Chelsea Palace early this year, and has given entire satisfaction. The main difference between the apparatus at the Tivoli and that at Chelsea is that the former is constructed of wood and the latter of steel. We may mention that the patent—specifications and drawings of which we here give—is for disposal.

SPECIFICATION: This invention consists of an iron framed windlass, with drum and fusee barrel or variable volute compensating balance, and may be made of wood, iron or other metal, can be worked by hand or motive power. Hitherto tableaux curtains and such like have been raised by a drum and cone, but as the lines are apt to slip on to the smaller end of the cone, all power is then lost in the compensating balance. But by using the volute the lines travel true and cannot slip, therefore no power is lost.

The method of opening and raising the curtains F is by winding the lines C, which are fastened to the curtains F at J, and pass through rings attached to the curtain, on to the drum A, assisted by the compensating balance D, the line of which is wound off the fusee barrel B by this movement. When the curtains F are opened to their full width they are raised automatically by the counter-balance weight H, the lines E of which are attached to the top of the curtains F and carried over pulleys G to the counter-balance weight H, which may be hung at some convenient point. On unwinding the gear the whole weight is then thrown on to the curtains F, which, being heavier than the counter-balance weight H, causes them to descend to the stage level, and then close. The curtains F are prevented from descending too low by check lines.

FIG. 3.

METHOD OF APPLYING THE INVENTION.

AMUSEMENTS IN AUSTRALIA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SYDNEY, Oct. 23.—The Squaw Man still draws large audiences to Her Majesty's Theatre, and Mr. James Waldron and Miss Ola J. Humphreys are prime favourites. Every character in the story is adequately acted, and it now remains to be seen whether these artists, so much at home in rough American life, will do justice to The Christian, which Mr. Williamson announces for the 27th. Mr. Waldron will be the much-tempted and finally conquered John Storm, with Miss Humphreys as the temptress, Glory Quayle.

MR. BLAND HOLT'S naval drama, A Sailor's Knot, rouses enthusiasm at the Royal, especially as, just now, two sets of self-advertising Imperialists are celebrating the anniversary of Trafalgar.

"THE FATAL WEDDING" is still crowding the Criterion, and Messrs. Meynell and Gunn are reaping the reward of their exact gauging of Sydney's taste.

THE Tivoli is kept plentifully supplied by Mr. Harry Rickards with the very best to be had in the realm of vaudeville. Almost every week we have newcomers from England, America, and the European Continent. The latest is Harry Tate's company, five in number, in the funny sketch, called Motoring. Miss Phyllis Chrystal, song and dance artist, and Miss Jessie Lee, singer, are also new to us, both being favourably received. Cassie Walmer, Duncan and Godfrey, Augustin and Hartley, Casselli and James, Harry Bedford, Olive Fenton, Victor Kelly, the Ibsens, and others, are still in the bill. Mr. Rickards is expected to arrive from England on the 25th by the Mooltan.

MR. EDITOR.—SIR,—In your notice of The Broken Melody at the Prince's, Poplar, last week you said the piece is staged and produced under the management of Mr. Gilbert Heron. May I ask you to state that I have the entire direction of the stage?—Yours faithfully, ARCHIE SELWYN, Empire Theatre, Oldham, Nov. 27.

THE DRAMA IN BERLIN.

"DIE FEINDE."

Play, in Three Acts, by Maxim Gorki, produced at the Kleines Theatre, Nov. 24.

Sascha Bardin	HERR LEITINGER
Polina	FRAULEIN GRUNNING
Jakob	HERR ABEL
Tatjana	FRAULEIN HOFMANN
Nadja	FRAULEIN GOERICKE
Petschenjegoff	HERR NOLLET
Kleopatra	FRAULEIN OLLY
Nikolaj	HERR JOHN
Sfinzoff	HERR WALTHER
Pologif	HERR HEINSCH
Jogodin	HERR EISFELD
Lewschin	HERR LICHO
Konj	HERR HELMER
Agrafena	FRAULEIN VON LORRE
Bohojedoff	HERR KLEIN-RHODEN
Katsch	HERR DU BOIS-REYMOND
Leutnant	HERR APPELT
Richter	HERR HAASE
Kommissar	HERR SONNECK

BERLIN, THURSDAY, Nov. 29.—We have had a week of novelties which—truth compels me to say—have proved more or less disappointing. Gorki's new piece (modestly termed by him "scenes from Russian life") is perhaps the most disappointing of all. The Germans have overrated the Russian author, who became—in consequence of the surprising success of his first play, Nachtasyl—the fashion here. Die Kinder der Sonne was a distinct falling-off on Nachtasyl, and Die Feinde (enemies) is even less meritorious than its predecessor. Gorki is at his best when he is depicting the condition of the lower classes of his compatriots; as soon as he starts to descant upon the doing of "Society" he gets out of his depths—as is but natural—and becomes abusive. In his rugged, simple manner he tells some home-truths, and if many of the scenes are desperately wearisome, several are very interesting, while a few of the characters are admirably drawn and appeal to our sympathies. The plot is briefly the following:—A tyrannical manufacturer named Bardin, after a conflict with his workmen, is shot by one of them. He expires after he has only had time to say his murderer has red hair, and as more than one of the men answer to the description, the culprit is not discovered for some time. In the second act nothing much takes place. The persons of the play come and go, drink tea or something stronger, philosophise, vituperate, and come and go again. The third act—which is the best—shows us a Court of Justice where the case is being tried. The real murderer is a married man with a family, and the deed having been committed in the interests of his fellow-workmen, a young fellow has been persuaded to declare himself the assassin and to take upon himself the consequences. As the case is proceeding, however, the real criminal rushes into the hall; he will not accept his friend's sacrifice, and acknowledges his guilt. Now comes the culminating point—the sentiment round which the piece has been written. Nadja, the niece of Bardin, and the representative type of Young Russia, jumps to her feet and thunders out the words—addressed to judges, jury, police, and all whom they may concern—"Not he, but you are the murderers; you, who drive the poor to desperation"; and Lewschin (a similar type to Luka of Nachtasyl) speaks the closing sentence thus: "It is true; not he who strikes the blow is the murderer, but he who drives him to it." The piece was satisfactorily interpreted, and met with a cordial reception, even the monotonous and deadly-dull middle act meeting with respectful attention. The manager appeared on behalf of the absent author.

AT the Royal Schauspielhaus Dr. Blumenthal's latest play was produced on Tuesday last. It is a three-act comedy, entitled Das Glashaus, and the popular author was applauded with much heartiness. It will not bear comparison with Blumenthal's earlier works, but it is full of good-humoured satire, and, acted as well as it is by the first artists of the company, it may enjoy a fairly long run. The chief point of interest centres itself in a literary trap for amateurs who are willing to pay anything to enter the "glass house," or, in other words, to come before the public notice. A speculative publisher, who lost a fortune through talented writers, seeks to build it up again by means of the untalented ones, and succeeds until his unscrupulous dealings are brought to light. Amateurishness, exemplified in many types, is satirised by the author with a good deal of humour, and some time-honoured jokes are skilfully interspersed, helping to the success of the piece.

DR. HERBERT EULENBERG'S astonishing play, Ritter Blaubart, has been withdrawn—as I predicted would be the case—from the bill of the Lessing, and two things remain a matter of wonderment: that the management of our "first" theatre could produce such a piece, and that an author of undeniable talent could write it. There are surely sufficient horrors in real life without bringing them on the stage. That the heads of Bluebeard's six murdered wives were realistically presented to our notice was not the chief reason of the indignation of the audience, but rather the depressing details of a funeral they were called upon to witness. The first night was a record in our annals. A storm of hisses and cat-calls drowned all attempts at applause raised by the author's friends, and the play had to be shortened in consequence. Such prominent members of the company as Fräuleins Triesch and Orloff and Herren Rittner, Sauer, and Marr could not, by their masterly acting, save the piece from its inevitable fate.

AT the last moment on Thursday the performance of Der Fledermaus, at the Central, had to be postponed, and the money for a full house returned. A fire-brigade man, in a well-meant endeavour to test the precautions against accident, opened a pipe, and in a few moments the whole stage was knee-deep under water. Great damage was done to the new scenery and properties, to say nothing of the actual money losses. It will be interesting to hear who will be called upon to defray the expenses.

"DIE HOCHZEITSFACKEL,"

Comedy, in Four Acts, by Max Dreyer, produced at the New Schauspielhaus, Nov. 16, 1906.

Kurfürstin-Muteer	FRAULEIN ARNOLD
Dorothea	FRAULEIN SORGER
Der Rangraf	HERR SIEBERT
Barbara	FRAULEIN MAREN
Kurfürst	HERR STARNBURG
Kurfürstin	FRAULEIN MORLAND
Fürst Ulrich	HERR WALDEN
Prinz Günther	HERR SLABECK
Von Wartendarf	HERR RETZBACH
Gräfin Wellhausen	FRAULEIN VON SEYFFERTITZ
Hofmarschal	HERR BORES
Komödiant	HERR ARNT
Alter Schauspieler	HERR ANSFELDER
Junger Schauspieler	HERR KLEINKE
Selinde	FRAULEIN SCHNEIDER
Gesandte	HERR KLEIN

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

BERLIN, THURSDAY, Nov. 22.—Herr Dreyer is one of our popular playwrights. He calls his present comedy "The play of a May night"; the action passes in the seventeenth century. The young Prince Ulrich has led to the altar the fair Barbara, daughter of the Rangraf, and niece of the Elector. All the pomp of the period has been employed in the wedding festivities, and the rigid and tiresome ceremonies considered necessary by the Electress are observed to such an extent that the young husband loses patience. He would prefer to carry his bride off from the Palace to the dainty garden pavilion, to be alone and solitary with her, but Barbara upholds—or pretends to uphold—the customs of her rank, and as they enter the bridal chamber the boom of cannon thunders out. In consequence of all these obstacles to his peace Ulrich quarrels with his wife, and rushes out alone into the park, and Barbara lets him go with a forced smile, though at heart she is longing for love. The beauty of the May night is being enjoyed by the mighty Rangraf and a troupe of travelling actors. Ulrich joins them, and makes violent love to Selinde, a charming singer and dancer of the troupe. The Rangraf, seeing how matters are, saves Barbara's honour—not unwillingly—by getting Selinde to elope with him, and after a while the young wife comes to look for her husband. She has cast off all pretence of caring for Court etiquette, and, overjoyed at the reconcilation, Ulrich leads his Barbara to the garden pavilion. In the meantime, the Electress, in her foolish imitation of ancient French customs, goes with a train of veiled matrons at midnight to the door of the bridal chamber to pronounce a blessing. The young couple—as we know—are not within, but another pair of lovers (to whose wooing the Electress is opposed) have a rendezvous there, and so receive the blessing of the unconscious lady. This scene was very amusing, and created roars of laughter. The acting was not altogether satisfactory, but the reception was very friendly, and there were many calls for the author, who was unavoidably absent from town.

THE Royal Schauspielhaus produced a genuine novelty last week—an event so rare that it is worthy of record. It was a five-act tragedy by Gustav Renner, entitled Merlin, and it would have met with a more cordial reception had it been less long and heavy. The author, who is justly esteemed here for previous writings—not plays—was called before the curtain and heartily applauded early in the evening, but the majority of the audience grew weary, and took to their heels before the end of the play. The mystical Merlin has been the theme of many writers, from Nennius in his "Historia Britonum" up to our own day, but nobody has ever been much the wiser. Herr Renner has drawn his version from a mixture of many others. His Merlin is discovered on the island of Avalun by King Vortigern's Knights, and taken to the ruler. The youthful Queen for sakes her marriage vows for Merlin, whose fascinations are greater than those of her elderly husband. Merlin, feeling his magic power diminishing, succeeds in dethroning the King and proclaiming himself ruler. Vortigern dies of sorrow, and the Queen, having been again proved faithless, is slain by Merlin, who, later on, loses his reason. Ganieda—who loves him too—is stabbed, and finally Merlin, forsaken by all, seeing the Saxon invaders at the door, places the crown upon the jester Rodri's head and throws himself into the flames of the burning palace. As the curtain falls Hengist is proclaimed King. This pot-pourri of tragic events is depicted in verse of interminable length, and I do not fancy Merlin will occupy the bill for long. The most interesting feature of the performance was the reappearance of Herr Otto Sommerstorff after an interval of several years. The famous actor is as sympathetic and convincing as ever, and in the title-rôle his great powers were tried to the utmost. Frau Willig as the Queen was fairly satisfactory, and the remaining numerous characters were adequately sustained. The mounting was tasteful and effective.

MISS KEITH WAKEMAN, who will be remembered in London as a comely woman and a fine dramatic actress, is making an enviable reputation in America in Henri Lavedan's play, The Duel, with Mr. Otis Skinner in the leading part. Miss Keith Wakeman has roused great enthusiasm in the rôle of the heroine, the Press being loud and emphatic in her praise.

CHAPPELL & CO.'S PANTOMIME SUCCESSES.

Songs for Principal Boy:

"WHISPERS OF LOVE," by Harry Fragson.
"THE PARISIENNE," by Harry Fragson.
"VIVE LE SPORT," by Harry Fragson.
"MAL DE MER," by Harry Fragson.
"ROSE-A-RUBIE," by Bernard Rolt.
"WHEN THE STARS ARE SHINING IN THE SKY," by Garnet Wolseley Cox.
"RAMONA" (Indian Love Song), by Lee Johnson.

Songs for Principal Girl:

"LOVE'S LAST WORD," by Octave Cremieux.
"THE LILY OF BOULTER'S LOCK," by Bernard Rolt.
"THE LITTLE GOLD FIREFLY," by Bernard Rolt.
"LA MATTCHICHE" (Maxixe), by Ch. Borel-Clerc.
"WHEN THE STARS ARE SHINING IN THE SKY," by Garnet Wolseley Cox.
"KISSING IS NO SIN," by Edm. Eysler.

Songs for Fairy Queen:

"CARESSANTE" (Valse Song), by Frank Lambert.
"THE WIND IN THE ORCHARD," by Frank E. Tours.
"A SONG OF ANDALUSIA," by E. J. Margetson.

Songs for Comedian:

"VIVE LE SPORT," by Harry Fragson.
"MAL DE MER," by Harry Fragson.
"THE PARISIENNE," by Harry Fragson.
"A SURPRISE," by Frank E. Tours.

N.B.—We can confidently recommend all the above, as they have been placed with most of the principal Pantomimes throughout the country. Professional copies will be supplied to recognised artists upon receipt of professional card and six stamps for each song required.

Instrumental:

"THE WHISTLER AND HIS DOG," Caprice, by Arthur Pryor.
"HOP-SCOTCH," Two-Step, by Paul A. Rubens.
"HALLO! HALLO!" March, by P. Mario Costa.
"CHRISTMAS," Valse, by Alfred Margis.
"FOLIE D'AMOUR," Valse, by Paul Fauchey.
"FASCINATION," Valse, by F. D. Marchetti.
"WIENER FRAUEN," Valse, by Franz Lehar.
"REVE DE JEUNESSE," Valse, "SOURIRE D'AMOUR," Valse, by Frank Lambert.
"LA MATTCHICHE" (Maxixe), by Ch. Borel-Clerc.

N.B.—The above are particularly recommended for Ballets and Marches.

CHAPPELL & CO., LTD., 50, NEW BOND STREET, LONDON, W.

LONDON & SUBURBAN THEATRES.

THE MARLBOROUGH.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
"THE PRIVATE SECRETARY."

The Private Secretary is being played here this week by Mr. Eugene C. Stafford's brilliant company. This being the twenty-second year of tour, with over 13,000 performances, the play must be familiar to most of the habitués of this popular house, and that it has lost none of its attractiveness was manifest from the large and enthusiastic audience which assembled on Monday to witness it. As the Rev. Robert Spalding Mr. Donald Price-Evans never fails to keep interest and amusement at a high pitch. Mr. J. P. E. Hussey, as Harry Marsland, and Mr. Randolph Reade as Douglas Cattermole play their parts excellently. After twenty years' performance of the part, Mr. Wm. Hargreaves cannot be said "to act the part," he is Mr. Cattermole from India. He is in high favour with the audience all through; continued and unrestrained laughter is evoked by this clever comedian all the time he occupies the stage. Mr. W. T. Elworthy is excellent as Mr. Marsland; and Mr. V. Gilbert sustains the part of Mr. Sidney Gibson, the tailor, in a strikingly effective, unctiously humorous manner. Miss Dora Gray continues to charmingly portray the rôle of Edith Marsland; and Miss Beth Elliott is a winsome Eva Webster. Miss Cecily Wade is well suited as Mrs. Stead; and as the elderly spinster, Miss Ashford, Mrs. Alfred Davis makes the most of her opportunities. John, a servant, and Knox, the writ-server, are capably undertaken by Mr. D. Benford. Buckstone's comic drama, in one act, entitled Good for Nothing, precedes The Private Secretary. Miss Dora Grey as Nan, and Mr. W. T. Elworthy as Tom Dibbles, particularly shine, ably assisted by Messrs. Randolph Reade (Harry Collier), J. P. Hussey (Charley), V. Gilbert (Mr. Simpson), and D. Benford (James).

KING'S THEATRE, HAMMERSMITH.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Play, by A. Conan Doyle, entitled
"BRIGADIER GERARD."

The soldier-like qualities of Captain Gerard were bound to make him a general favourite with his audiences, and, therefore, on his arrival at the King's on Monday evening, the crowded house enthusiastically applauded the exploits of the valiant Captain of Hussars, at the same time benignantly overlooking his boastful manners. The hero of Conan Doyle's play is an attractive personality, and in his love-making with the Comtesse de Roquelaure he has always the good wishes of the audience. The company organised by Mr. Lewis Waller is a strong one. For the Brigadier a better exponent could not be found than Mr. Loring Fernie, who has all the attributes necessary to display Gerard to the utmost advantage, and it is needless to say that his impersonation is thoroughly well appreciated. Mr. Arthur Somers gives a realistic representation of Napoleon, and Mr. Cecil Wynne as General de Caulaincourt is excellent; Colonel Guerin is ably handled by Mr. Frank Powell; and Mr. Fenn Hamilton deserves much praise for a masterly performance of Mons. D'Albert. Mr. James Crowe is a satisfactory Mons. Bassompierre; Mr. Reginald Mason is successful as Pierre; and an extremely clever rendering of Talleyrand is presented by Mr. George Mallett, who scores a decided hit. The officers of the Hussars are well acted by Messrs. J. Henry Twyford (as Major Bron), Edwin Bennett (as Major Olivier), and others. Mr. Arthur Bowyer acts capitally as Trumpeter Papilette. Miss Maude Hoffman wins a conspicuous success by her magnificent acting as the Comtesse de Roquelaure, and numerous are the plaudits gained by her. Miss Gertrude Beattie makes a pleasant Agnes; and Miss Florence Denbigh capably undertakes Mére Lafitte. The scenery is in excellent taste.

THE CORONET.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Play, in Four Acts, entitled
"CHARLOTTE CORDAY."

Mrs. Brown Potter and her company, under the direction of Mr. Robert Crossman, are appearing this week in the historical play in four acts, entitled Charlotte Corday. Mrs. Brown Potter is seen to advantage in the name part as the deeply religious maid, burning with patriotic fervour and hatred of the tyranny of the so-called "friend of the people." Half angelic, half demoniac, eaten up with the intensity of her purpose, and believing herself to be an instrument of vengeance sent from Heaven like Judith, who slew Holofernes, her mysticism turns to fanaticism and her gentle disposition to demoniac fury at the contemplation of Marat's hideous excesses and lust of blood. Love is not for her, nor marriage or maternity. All must be staked on her heavenly mission of vengeance, and therein she closely resembles her great prototype Jeanne d'Arc. Such is the complex character which Mrs. Brown Potter essays to interpret, and she comes out of the ordeal with flying colours. Her gentle, girlish appearance, her seductive smile, her self-absorption and mysticism; and, above all, her frenzy of determination, are graphically and powerfully portrayed. Might we suggest that the introduction of a final tableau depicting the celebrated painting, "Her Last Toilette," would make a magnificent finale to a stirring story? Admirable support is rendered by many members of the company, notably by Mr. Clarence Blakiston as the sinister arch-tyrant and murderer, Marat. His inordinate appetite for the blood of the aristocrats, his craven fear of assassination, and his irritation of restraint are all grimly set forth. Mr. Lawrence Grant is very good as the great painter, Mons. David; and Mr. Edwin Palmer is an able representative of Charlotte's parent, M. de Corday D'Armont; whilst the part of the dear old Abbé Fleuriot is delightfully rendered by Mr. F. Morland. Mr. Esmé Percy acts with boyish impetuosity as the impulsive young aristocrat Adam Lux, Charlotte's lover. Mr. Frank Collins as Potin, the perruquier, provides a little comic relief to the otherwise unrelieved gloom of the play, and he acts with notable discretion. Miss Dora Maitland is a sympathetic sister Rose, and the parts of various deputies and revolutionaries are creditably rendered. Mr. Harold Payne, who enacts the part of the advocate, M. Chauveaux-Legarde, with distinction, sings a romance specially composed by Mr. Sydney Shaw (the musical director of the company) in the second act, excellently well. The courteous Mr. Roger Alwyn acts as general manager, with Mr. John J. Goldsack as an able acting-manager, and Mr. C. T. Doe undertakes the stage-management. Mr. Barclay Gammon and a piano humorously usher in the tragedy of Charlotte Corday. This is the last week of the tour, and Mrs. Brown Potter will appear at certain halls in her successful Mary, Queen of Scots impersonation preparatory to putting on a new play for touring purposes.

THE CAMDEN.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Musical Play, entitled
"MY SWEETHEART."

Monday evening was Daily Mirror night at this theatre, when a very large audience filled the house, and gave Miss Minnie Palmer a very cordial greeting when she appeared in that old favourite musical play My Sweetheart, and again appeared in her world-famous embodiment of Tina. Miss Minnie Palmer, who is now making her farewell appearances before going to America, was in her accustomed form, and as full of life and spirits as ever. She sings numerous songs, and plays with tremendous energy throughout the three acts of the piece. Mr. Robert H. Howard lends able assistance as Tony Fauste, his quaint dialect causing much mirth, while his singing is also much admired, and on Monday he was obliged to yield to the demand for encores on several occasions. Dr. Oliver is capitally played by Mr. Chas. R. Haun, who acts in a quiet but most effective manner. Miss Iris Lincoln is captivating as the fascinating Mrs. Fleeter, while Mr. Robert Stretfield is diverting as the dandy, Dudley Harcourt. Joe Shotwell is capitally played by Mr. F. W. Leonard, and Mr. J. T. MacCullum is seen to advantage in the character of Harold Bartlett. Mrs. H. E. Russell deserves great praise for her breezy rendering of Mrs. Hatzell, a clever piece of acting; and Mr. A. J. Mayes is good as Farmer Hatzell. Miss Elsie Forster is very bright as Peek-a-Boo. The play, which is under the management of Mr. Wentworth Croke, is capitally staged, and the Farm scene is picturesque, and could not easily be improved on for its design and general effects. The orchestra, under Mr. W. D. J. Damant, do good work. Mr. Richard Elliott is the business-manager for the company.

THE CROWN, PECKHAM.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Comedy, entitled
"THE FREEDOM OF SUZANNE."

Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company is playing here this week to good houses in the above West End success. The play is very bright, light, and amusing, and though the causes which appear to justify the heroine in obtaining her decree nisi may appear to the legal mind to be strangely inadequate, the success of the production is undoubted. Miss Mabel Love appears in the part of Suzanne, which was originally played by Miss Marie Tempest, and scores a great success in the rôle of the feather-brained little society butterfly, who is, after all, so dissatisfied at obtaining her freedom. Miss Love is perhaps at her best in the third act, when she has a tête-a-tête with her husband, after her long motor ride. Mr. Percy Hutchison acts with admirable lightness of touch, and when required imparts genuine pathos to the character of Charles Trevor. Fitzroy Harding is capitally played by Mr. F. G. Thurstans, who gives a clever character-sketch of the old bon vivcur. Miss Charlotte Mead makes a good deal out of the part of the humble companion, Miss Fanny Minching; and Mr. J. Hastings Batson is very droll as the senile lady-killer, the Earl of Datchet. Miss Annie Stalman is a severe Lady Charlotte Trevor; Miss Violet Ley is charming in the small part of Lady Isabel Bury; Mrs. F. Turner is good as the charwoman, Mrs. Putnam; and Miss Dorothy Lart does all that is possible with the rôle of Mrs. Tustall. Mr. Townsend Whitling makes an excellent Captain Harry Cecil; Tommy Keston is well looked after by Mr. Richard Neville; and Mr. Patrick Quill is an urbane and courtly old lawyer. The piece is well mounted and staged.

GRAND, FULHAM.

On Monday, November 26,
the Musical Play, by G. Grossmith, Jun.,
Ivan Caryll, and Lionel Monckton, entitled
"THE SPRING CHICKEN."

A good company, under the direction of Mr. Herbert Cathcart, has been appearing in the lively Spring Chicken. The central part of Mr. Girdle is taken by Mr. George Gregory, who is responsible for no small share of the laughter, mainly provoked by his remarkable variety of facial contortions. Miss Irene Verona is very successful as Mrs. Girdle, who endeavours to keep her husband in order, and scores with one or two capital songs, notably, "I guess," and "Regent Street." Miss Gertrude Gilliam makes a charming Baroness Papouche; and Miss Nancy Langtyre plays Dulcie Babori in an equally charming way; Miss Jennie McNulty is full of life as a fair client of the lawyer, Babori; as Rosalie, Miss Mabel Russell acts and sings well; and two precocious and inconveniently active children are represented by Mr. William Spray and Miss Nellie Lonnen, the latter showing herself to be an exceptionally graceful dancer. Mr. John Brabourne has much to do as Gustave Babori, the lawyer, who is wont to go astray in the spring. He acts with great spirit and humour, and makes a good central figure. Mr. Frank Hector puts plenty of energy and humour into his performance as the Baron Papouche, and Mr. Jocelyn Hope is equally vigorous as the outraged restaurant proprietor. In the part of Boniface Mr. Fred Leslie, jun., contributes some excellent dancing, of the most graceful and accomplished type. As Felix, the head waiter, Mr. Ernest Mahar is most amusing throughout, and his performance, for real humour, is as good as anything in the play. It remains only to add that the dresses are bright and tasteful; the scenery is excellent—especially the out-of-door restaurant set, and the full orchestra is ably conducted by Mr. Ernest Vonsden.

NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE, POPLAR.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Play, in Five Acts, entitled
"OLIVER TWIST."

Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company is here this week with Oliver Twist, and a cordial welcome has been given, both to play and performers, for the excellent entertainment provided. Mr. Stanley Drewitt as the crafty and cunning Fagin gives a clever character-study, with every detail cleverly marked and underlined. Mr. James Skea looks a typical Bill Sikes and acts convincingly; Mr. Charlie Clark does good service as the Artful Dodger; and Mr. R. C. Hunter as Charlie Bates is excellent. As Mr. Brownlow Mr. Fred Penley presents a capital picture of the trusting and courteous old gentleman, and Mr. W. H. Rotherman capably doubles the parts of Mr. Grimwig and Monks. Mr. Paige Laurence makes a manly and earnest lover of Harry Maylie; Miss Dorothy Marsden, in the title-rôle, could scarcely be bettered. She acts the part with singular grace. As Mrs. Maylie Miss A. Lingham gives a careful and well-studied rendering of the part. As Rose Maylie Miss Dorothy Mayhew is dainty and graceful; Miss Edith Anton Laing as Nancy wins golden opinions for her interesting performance; her work bearing the imprint of careful study. The play is well staged, and the incidental music is rendered under the capable leadership of Mr. Stephen Blythe.

THE PAVILION.

On Monday, November 26,
the Drama, in Four Acts, by Z. Korenblith, entitled
"TRUE LUCK."

On Monday night a good house welcomed the Jewish Operatic and Dramatic Company in Z. Korenblith's drama, True Luck, and although the play being essentially of a domestic character, claims no special literary merit, yet some capital situations are presented, and the audience is kept fully interested until the fall of the curtain. Mr. S. Feinman again showed himself to be an actor of great force in his performance of Motie Melech Egber; he grasped every opportunity, presenting a conception of the honest cabinetmaker that was almost perfect. Jane was played very naturally Madame F. Waxman; her acting in the scene where Jane is turned from her father's home was particularly good. Mr. M. D. Waxman acted the poet, Morris Bleichman, with earnest sincerity, and thoroughly carried the audience with him, and Mr. N. Hamburger lent prominence to the character of Mr. Wolfsohn. The good-hearted but loquacious Mirel was rendered with excellent effect by Madame Goldstein, and Mr. J. Fineberg deserves great credit for a sound impersonation of the villainous Henri Lichtenberg. Mr. Schilling was exceedingly clever and irresistibly funny as Mordechy Izic, and an amusing study of Beni was given by Mr. J. Scherman, whose catch-phrase was provocative of much merriment. The scenery and mounting were fully in accordance with the story, and praise must be awarded to Mr. J. Fineberg for his stage management. During the week Mirele Efres, Sulamitha, The Jewish Revolution, and Solomon Scharlatan, have been successfully performed.

THE ELEPHANT AND CASTLE.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Drama, in Five Acts, by the late Frank Harvey, entitled
"THE MILESTONES OF LIFE."

Mr. J. M. East is presenting this week the drama, The Milestones of Life, to Elephant and Castle patrons, who have been flocking in great numbers to see the last presentation of the season of their very popular and eminently successful stock company, all the members of which on Monday evening were accorded a tremendous ovation. Mr. Albert Ward and Mr. W. H. Hatchman are seen as John Gower and James Staples. Mr. Ward gains much approbation for his perfect rendering of the successful young workman, whilst Mr. Hatchman, by his clever character-study, excellently shows the misery and remorse brought about by drink.

As John Gower's wife Miss Kathleen Russell, by her tenderness and charm, captivates all hearts; and as Annie Staples Miss East Robertson, in a complex character, does good work. Mr. Horace Hunter as Charles Belton lends distinction to the part; Mr. Edward Boddy is effective as Nicholas Belton; Mr. H. J. Crane makes a cheerful old father-in-law as Simon Crane; Mr. Teddy Coleman causes much amusement as Tom Weeder; Mr. Brian Daly gives a capital reading of Alec Webb, a ne'er-do-well. Mrs. Calhaem as Mrs. Sinnaker scores throughout. Whenever she is on the stage the house is kept in loud peals of merriment. Miss Agnes Paulton, although suffering from a nasty cold, is a bewitching Nelly Spinks. Miss Irene Ross is a successful Minnie; Miss Jones speaks distinctly and makes a good boy as Gerald. The piece is excellent staged. Quite a feature in the first act is the wedding breakfast, in which nearly all the company take part, roars of laughter greeting the clever bye-play. On Saturday evening each member of the audience will be presented with a souvenir of the stock company.

CRYSTAL PALACE.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
The Musical Play, entitled
"THREE LITTLE MAIDS."

Mr. Charles Macdona's company has proved to be one of the most successful engagements of the season here, and certainly that success was deserved by all the members of the cast, who worked hard and well to achieve it. As the three little maids, Miss Cora Lingard, Miss Daisy Sylverton, and Miss Eva Weigh respectively pourtrayed Ada, Hilda, and Edna Branscombe, making a pretty trio, acting brightly and singing archly, their songs in many cases being brought up-to-date by the introduction of topical verses, which went very well. Miss Kate Graham-Beck was a stately Lady St. Mallory, making a very appropriate guardian for her three protégées, Lady Rosemary Beaulieu, Venetia Grafton, and Lady Marjory Chrichton, charmingly represented by Mesdames Hilda Stericker, Daisy Goldsack, and Edith Maynard. Miss Laura Wright infused infectious mirth into the part of Gretchen, the Dutch servant; and Miss Maud Madle, as Miss Price, made an efficient manageress of the tea-shop. Mr. Victor Kerr was a great success as Lord Chyne, giving full effect to all the Huntleyian points in this character; Mr. Guy Williams made a manly and unaffected Bryan Molyneaux; and Mr. Eric Barrington sang tastefully as the amorous French attaché. Mr. Charles Leverton gave a discreet rendering of the Rev. Mr. Branscombe, the father of the three little maids. As Cupid, the caddy, Mr. Charles Caffery was a quaint and laughter-making oddity, his dances with Gretchen and others being encored several times. There were many demands for the repetition of favourite songs, and the entire production had a most cordial reception.

LYRIC, HAMMERSMITH.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Drama, entitled
"EAST LYNNE."

The fine old drama, East Lynne, has filled the Lyric to overflowing this week, an excellent production being furnished. The Archibald Carlisle of Mr. Arthur Bawtree is praiseworthy in the highest degree. He combines polish with manliness, and his rendering is eminently successful. Miss Beatrice May as Lady Isabel also acts her part with ability, and proves her emotional power. Barbare Hare, played by Miss Nellie Lane, is a fine impersonation of a difficult character. In the villainous part of Francis Levison Mr. D. G. Noble appears to full advantage. Cornelia Carlisle is entrusted with good judgment to Miss Nell Gilmore, who makes the part very humorous, and a fine exhibition of juvenile acting is given by Miss Florrie Graves, whose interpretation of Willie is full of pathos. The characters of Justice Hare and Richard Hare are placed in the reliable hands of Mr. J. P. Dryden and Mr. J. E. Manning. Others who deserve a word of commendation are Mr. James Johnson as Lord Mountsevern, Mr. James May as Lawyer Dill, Miss Annie Mead as Wilson, Miss Hettie Graham as Joyce, and Miss Maud Ethelda as Susanne.

THE TERRISS.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Drama, by W. J. Patmore, entitled
"SONS OF ERIN."

This popular and interesting Irish-American military drama has been very well received by the folks of Rotherhithe. Mr. Ashley Page makes a decided hit as Val Desmond, a Federal captain, and his dash and spirits are a notable feature of the performance. Mr. Alfred Harding acts with much determination and force as the villain, Ralph Vincent; Mr. Tom Taylor gives a capital rendering of the part of Michael Corrigan, a poor Irish doctor; Mr. Johnny Chippendale, an old favourite at this theatre, is humorous as Terry O'Hagan, and receives much applause; and Miss Mattie Everett causes plenty of laughter as Bridget Maloney. Mr. John Sargent is seen to advantage as the grim, unscrupulous soldier, Cass Kennedy; Miss Marion Denvil makes a sweet and refined heroine as Kathleen Corrigan, and gains the sympathy of the house; Miss Georgie De Lara is dramatic and pathetic as the Spanish-American adventuress, Margarita; Mr. C. A. Chandler makes a favourable impression as the good-natured military swell, Captain Delaware; Mr. Gerald Morgan supplies a good character-sketch as the negro, Abel; Mr. Frank Woodville is amusing as Cornelius Septimus Brown. The scenery and effects are beyond reproach. On Thursday Miss Marion Denvil and Mr. Ashley Page took their benefit, when The Lady of Lyons and other attractive items were in the programme.

GRAND, WOOLWICH.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Musical Play, entitled
"THE BLUE MOON."

Mr. Clarence Sounes has certainly booked a strong attraction here this week, in the shape of The Blue Moon, which, attractively mounted, and capably handled by Mr. Robert Courtneidge's talented company, has been drawing excellent houses. In the title-rôle Miss Clarice Lockstone is responsible for a tender and effective rendering of the poor singing girl who places her duty before her love; her voice, though not strong, is decidedly sweet, and she makes a hit with several delightfully rendered numbers. Miss Ethel Callahan as Evelyn Ormsby is a thorough English girl, her clever acting, and especially her singing, soon making her a firm favourite, her happiest effort being, perhaps, her song, "Sometimes." Miss Florence Imeson plays the maid, Millicent Leroy, with much vivacity and a fund of good spirits that goes far towards making the play the success it is. Miss Leroy was in excellent voice on Monday night, and her song, "She didn't know," was perhaps the best-received number of the evening. Miss Kathleen Carteret is a distinguished Lady Augusta Brabasham; and Miss Louie Lochner gives prominence to the small part of Orma. Mr. Alec Fraser makes a dashing Captain Ormsby, and sings in excellent style. Mr. Alfred Clark plays Major Vivian Callabone with good-humoured extravagance, and scores heavily with his song, "The Major." In the character of Moolraj, idol maker, juggler, and jack-of-all-trades, Mr. Alfred Beers proves himself a gifted comedian, his unceasing efforts in the cause of laughter being heartily responded to by a delighted audience. Mr. A. Wykes Ashdowne as Bobbie Scott is a typical example of the newer journalism, and plays with a vivacity and light-heartedness admirably, indicative of Scott's mercurial temperament. In the rôle of Private Charles Taylor, Mr. Reginald Switz evokes much laughter, his song, "Mother," being loudly re-demanded, while his "Crocodile" song, sung and danced with the assistance of an energetic "tail" of ladies of the chorus, fairly brings down the house. Mr. Frank Halett plays well as the Hon. Archie May, and sings "The Burmah girl" with good effect. Mr. Arthur Soames does as well as possible with the somewhat thankless part of Prince Badahur Samatsinjhi. The chorus is tuneful, and the rendering of the concerted numbers, notably that opening the second act, excellent.

GRAND THEATRE, ISLINGTON.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Drama, in Four Acts, by William P. Sheen and F. S. Jennings, entitled
"WHY WOMAN SINS."

The current week's attraction at the Grand exhibits all the familiar features of popular melodrama—a consistent plot, good comedy reliefs, and a rapid succession of those incidents so dear to the heart of a popular audience. Hence, Mr. F. S. Jennings, whose company present the play, can reasonably anticipate a satisfactory tour. Mr. Harry Cullenford as Harry Maxwell acts in a bold and manly way that carries the house with him, and is an established favourite. Mr. Jackson Hayes, as Captain Carlton, enacts the heavy rôle in the approved manner; Mr. George Ellis, as Cecil Spencer, is acceptable in a humorous rôle; and Mr. George Claremont submits a very clever study of a ne'er-do-well as Jim Rainbird. Mr. Edwin Wilde, as Oliver Desmond, merits commendation; and Mr. W. Hawkins is satisfactory as Major Algy Belton. Messrs. Harry Thorne and H. C. Brooks submit two effective little sketches as the Admiral and Captain. The lighter relief finds capital exponents in Messrs. Will Skelton, Charles Grant, and Fred May, who have a loyal ally in Miss Hettie Graham as Miss Nibble; Miss Bertha Baker presents a clever little study of poor Boy; and Miss Nellie Sheffield is alert and amusing as Lily de Vere. Miss Hilda Baynton acts with a sympathetic touch as Nell Desmond. Miss Gertrude Netterville as Ida Valette is commendable in the heavy rôle; and Miss Queenie Conway does well as Mr. Benbow. The remaining smaller parts are all in able hands, and a good house extended a hearty reception to the production, which has the additional distinction of being very well mounted.

THE STANDARD.

On Monday, November 26,
the Drama, by Walter Melville, entitled
"THE WORST WOMAN IN LONDON."

The immense popularity this excellent drama gained when first produced, has in no way diminished, and on Monday, when the piece was revived at the Standard, a large and enthusiastic audience paid great attention to the unfolding of a story of power and interest, and at frequent intervals showed appreciation of the good work done, in a manner which could not be misinterpreted. Great praise must be besowed upon Mr. Wingold Lawrence for his powerful and lifelike reading as Jack Felton. Ability of a high order was very evident throughout his delineation, and in spite of the effects of a heavy cold he carried his scenes through in an artistic and finished manner. Special mention must also be made of Mr. Roy Redgrave as Hugh Drayton. The part is one fraught with many difficulties, but Mr. Redgrave puts his great and varied experience to good use, and supplies a portrayal of high worth. Mr. Jack Denton's picture of Vincent Lyle proves of considerable service, and is effective. Mr. J. C. Aubrey has this time departed from his customary rôle, and plays with striking success as James Milford; first of all, as a man blinded with the passion of love, and later with force and spirit when he discovers that he has been nothing but the "cat's-paw" of the lady, who is rightly termed "the worst woman in London." The lighter portions of the drama are safely entrusted to Mr. Willie Reid as Bob Goldfinch, and with the able assistance of Miss Marie McAuley, the ball of fun is kept effectively rolling. Mr. A. P. Kaye plays with power and skill as Philip Armstrong, and Miss Nellie Brunton supplies an excellent study of Jane Nogood. The rôle of Ruth Milford is sweetly portrayed by Miss Jessie Winter. Her acting is full of pathos, and is decidedly successful. Fortunately, Miss Olga Audre has been engaged to present her original rôle, that of Frances Vere, "the worst woman in London." In no part have we seen Miss Audre give more satisfaction. Although difficulties of an arduous nature appear at every point, Miss Audre is quite equal to the task set her, and supplies a finished performance of great value. The many minor characters are each adequately represented by other members of the company, and the scenery and effects are excellent, and quite up to what we might expect to see in a production of Mr. Melville's.

KENNINGTON THEATRE.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Comedy, by Brandon Thomas, entitled
"CHARLEY'S AUNT."

A good house assembled to welcome a return visit of this famous comedy, and to cheer on Charley's Aunt as she kept running around the Oxford College garden, steadily pursued by her ardent admirer Stephen Spettigue, with as much persistence as in the days long ago, when she gathered up her skirts and dashed off on her first sprint across the stage. The comedy is as bright and as lively as ever, and at the hands of Mr. Thomas's company does not lose in interest with age. The fun is endless, and the laughter on Monday was continuous as one amusing situation succeeded another, to the huge delight of the audience. For plentiful high-toned humour Charley's Aunt will long hold the field. There is not much opportunity in the piece for stage effect, but the garden scene is certainly a pretty setting. Mr. Stanley Cooke is the life of the piece as Lord Fancourt Babberly, and proves himself to be a rattling good comedian. He is quite a frolicsome old lady, making the most of the many farcical passages with which the comedy abounds, and winning golden opinions for the cleverness with which he acts. Mr. Hastings Lynn as Jack Chesney and Mr. Richard Mason as Charley Wykeham, the Oxford undergraduate, are excellent. Their embarrassing bashfulness in the love-making scenes is quite delightful, and amused the audience immensely. Miss Lena McNaughtan makes a stately and dignified Donna Lucia, and as her companion, Ella Delahay, Miss E. Boyne was distinctly successful. Miss Kitty Carew as Amy Spettigue and Miss Lilyan Lait as Kitty Verdum are both charming, playing the parts of the undergraduates' sweethearts very gracefully. Mr. Walter Beaumont is admirable as Stephen Spettigue, the solicitor being seen to great advantage in his efforts to capture Charley's Aunt. The character of Sir Francis Chesney is faithfully portrayed by Mr. C. B. Keston, and as Brassett, the College scout, Mr. Sydney Compton deserves praise, his fund of dry humour greatly pleasing the house.

THE SHAKESPEARE.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Musical Comedy, entitled
"THE BELLE OF NEW YORK."

A musical comedy, after a few seasons of strenuous theatrical life, generally loses that natural freshness which is so essential to its continual success, and is supplanted in the affections of the public by younger and more up-to-date rivals; but it is very evident that this is not the case with the sparkling musical play The Belle of New York, as was amply testified by the enthusiastic reception accorded Mr. Geo. Musgrave's principal company at the close of the opening performance at the Shakespeare Theatre on Monday. The play—which is produced under the direction of Mr. J. Bannister Howard—is excellently mounted, and the dresses, &c., are all that can be desired. Mr. Paddy Duprès caused much merriment by his clever presentation of the millionaire, Ichabod Bronson; and Harry Bronson was excellently sustained by Mr. John Doran. Mr. Max Copeland was successful in the rôle of the polite lunatic, Karl Von Pimpernick; and this remark also applies to Mr. Alfred Sandoe as Doc Snifkins and Mr. Walter Uridge as Kenneth Mugg. Mr. Lionel Yeoman and Mr. R. L. Cody rendered good assistance as the Twin Portuguese, and their extraordinary antics caused much laughter. Miss Empsie Bowman created a favourable impression in the part of the Salvation Army lassie, Violet Gray, and gained much applause for her songs, which were excellently rendered. Miss Lily Maxwell as Fifi Fricot, a Parisienne, quickly won the favour of the house by her bewitching acting and singing; and Miss Nellie Bowman was seen to advantage in the dual rôles of Kissie Fitzgarter and Mamie Clancy. Miss Winnie Browne was eminently satisfactory as Cora Angelique, the prima donna of the Comic Opera Co. The minor parts were all capably sustained, and the chorus, under the direction of Mr. Ernie Woodville, gave every satisfaction. Mr. Charles Thorburn is general manager, Mr. Wilfred Esmond business manager, and Mr. A. Linforth stage manager for Mr. Bannister Howard.

BROADWAY THEATRE.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Romantic Play, entitled
"DOROTHY O' THE HALL."

Miss Julia Neilson and Mr. Fred Terry are among the most popular West End favourites who make periodical visits to this theatre, and they were most warmly greeted on their appearance on Monday night in their latest success, entitled Dorothy o' the Hall. To state that Miss Neilson was charming as Dorothy Vernon is to give a poor description of her altogether delightful performance. Miss Neilson's attractive personality is combined with rare artistic skill, and her latest creation is worthy to rank among her best. Mr. Fred Terry, who runs his clever wife very close in public favour, gave a most enjoyable rendering of the part of Sir John Manners—always refined, easy, and true to nature. Mr. Frederic Groves was very good as Sir John's father, the Earl of Rutland; Mr. J. Carter Edwards submitted an admirable study of Sir George Vernon; while Mr. Jerrold Robertshaw must be congratulated on his conception of the character of Sir Malcolm Vernon. Mr. D. J. Williams was excellent as Lord Burleigh; and Mr. Malcolm Cherry was well suited to the part of Sir William St. Lee. Mr. Horace Hodges as the dwarf Perkin proved a characteristically quaint jester. The remaining male characters were well rendered by Messrs. W. A. Haines, Walter Edwin, George Dudley, and Alan Borthwick. Miss Miriam Lewes was an impressive and dignified Elizabeth of England; and Mary of Scotland had an attractive representative in Miss Lilian Waldegrave. Miss Claire Pauncefort was responsible for a very fine portraiture of Lady Vernon; Miss Mary Mackenzie as Jenny and Miss Marion Sterling as Bess were both admirable. The mounting and dressing are costly and tasteful, and leave nothing to be desired.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, N.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Farce, in Three Acts, by Edward A. Parry and Frederick Mouillot, entitled
"WHAT THE BUTLER SAW."

Messrs. Parry and Mouillot's amusing farce, which enjoyed a considerable measure of popularity on its production at Wyndham's, and afterwards at the Savoy, is at the Alexandra this week, the company including Miss Ada Blanche and Mr. Lionel Rignold. A factor that makes largely for the success of the production is the inclusion in the cast of that admirable light comedian Mr. Charles S. Fawcett, whose breezy and natural performance of the gallant and high-spirited Irishman, Jack Barrington, is as excellent a piece of comedy acting as one could wish to see. So sound and experienced a comedian as Mr. Lionel Rignold may be relied on to get every ounce of fun out of the rôle of Pink, the butler, and roars of laughter greet him on every entrance. Miss Ada Blanche is a charming Mrs. Barrington, and plays the part with verve and spirit. A very quaint and droll sketch of Mrs. Hake is furnished by Miss Annie Goward; and Miss Marie Daltra contrives to impart originality to her impersonation of the conventional dragoness of farcical comedy and champion of women's rights, Miss Foden. That "fine old English gentleman" Abraham Weinstein is ably and amusingly represented by Mr. Harry Rignold; and the young men of the piece are satisfactorily embodied by Messrs. Reddick Anderson, Louis Lingard, and Alec Alver. Good work is done by Messrs. George Ascot and Roy Boyford, who appear as General Dunlop and Professor Shales respectively. Messrs. Frank Kingsley and C. Barrey, and Misses Jenny Wigney, Hylda Davies, Vera O'Connell, Violet Gould, Minnie Willett, Agnes Webster, and Dorothy Garth fill the remaining parts creditably.

COUNTY THEATRE, KINGSTON.

On Monday, Nov. 26,
the Comedy, in Four Acts, by A. W. Pinero, entitled
"HIS HOUSE IN ORDER."

Kingstonians are enjoying to the full this week a visit from Mr. George Alexander's company in that brilliant comedy, His House in Order. The company has evidently been chosen with great care, and in each individual case gives a reading of the part allotted to the artist that is most commendable. Premier honours are awarded to Miss Auriol Lee, who appears as Nina, and gives a most impressive interpretation of the part. Mr. Cyril Harcourt also acquits himself admirably as Mr. Filmer Jesson, M.P.; and Mr. Frank Fenton is equally good as the debonair Hilary Jesson. An intelligent picture of Sir Daniel Ridgeley is presented by Mr. Adam Alexander; and the part of Lady Ridgeley is ably portrayed by Mrs. Kemmis. Others in the company deserving of particular mention are Miss Audrey Campbell as Geraldine Ridgeley, Mlle. Juliette Milo as Mlle. Thomé, Mr. Charles Tyrel as Major Maurewarde, Mr. George Silver as Price Ridgeley, Mr. Jas. Annand as Dr. Dillnott, and little Miss Carmen Woods as Derek Jesson.

"GUILTY GOLD."

A New Drama, in Five Acts, by Dr. D. T. Callahan, Produced at the Dalston Theatre, on Monday, Nov. 25.

Hypolite Dupont .....MR. WILLIAM FELTON
Maxime Dupont .....MR. MARTIN B. PEDLER
Maurice de Chautel .....MR. H. P. OWEN
Robinet .....MR. COLLINS ROLFE
Hector .....MR. A. GORDON
Placide .....MR. W. H. HEWLETT
Andrée de Chautel .....MISS ITALIA CONTI
Mme. Florence ....MISS M. MACDONALD-MARTIN
Bertha .....MISS IRIS LABROW
Ernestine .....MISS BEATRICE MURRAY

Although not so stated on the programme, there is a strong probability that Guilty Gold is an adaptation from a French play. At all events, the scene is laid in France, and the plot and general treatment of the theme has a distinctly Gallic flavour; and that is not always agreeable to the taste of an ordinary English audience. The weak point in the new production is that the leading female character is a lady for whom no one can feel any real sympathy, in spite of the fact that she is the victim of an hereditary taint. In the first act we learn that Andrée, the only daughter of Maurice de Chautel, described as an "aristocrat," has been betrayed by a man who she learns, when too late, is already married. Mme. Florence, M. Chautel's housekeeper, informs Andrée that she can introduce to her a man who is quite willing to marry her for the sake of the social position which such a union will confer upon him. In order to satisfy her father's scruples he is also prepared to assume to be the man who seduced her, for M. Chautel has been kept in ignorance of the fact that her betrayer is married. The girl, who is in the depths of despair, and is quite indifferent as to what happens to her, agrees to the proposal. In the meantime, M. Chautel informs his daughter it is not true, as she had been led to believe, that her mother died some years ago. She brought misery and disgrace upon her husband by running away with a lover, and he has never seen her since. Hypolite Dupont, the man introduced by Mme. Florence, has an interview with M. Chautel, and, after some bitter remarks with reference to his visitor's betrayal of Andrée, consents to the marriage, and gives him particulars as to the fortune which his wife will possess in her own right. Then Andrée finds herself in the presence of her future husband, who agrees to her conditions that she shall have perfect freedom of action, and be his wife in name only. The man, who is of lowly origin, but possessed of boundless ambition, declares that in three years he will have Paris at his feet, now that he has the social position and money he has been seeking.

It proves to be no idle boast on the part of Hypolite Dupont. In the period just mentioned he has become a great personage, who daily holds receptions of all kinds of people, including the Minister of Finance, whom he keeps waiting in an ante-room. In the meanwhile Andrée has been living a life of extravagance, and, aware that she is in debt, her husband gets one Robinet, a notary, to purchase, at a comparatively cheap rate, certain landed property belonging to her. Dupont has a grown-up son, named Maxime, and he and Andree are thrown a good deal together, with the result that they fall in love with each other. When, therefore, his father suggests that he shall marry a Swedish heiress, Maxime refuses, much to the delight of Andrée, who, after struggling to suppress her passion for the young man, confesses to him that she loves him. The story finishes in as gloomy a fashion as it began, for, in the last act, Andrée, whose fainting fits have given the audience a hint as to the ending, dies, self-poisoned, and leaves her husband to solace himself with what she has denounced as "guilty gold."

Mr. William Felton had evidently made a careful study of the part of Hypolite Dupont, a man dominated by ambition and love of power gained by gold; and he gave a firm, consistent, and powerful embodiment of the character. He was particularly impressive in the scene with Andrée in the first act, where he boasts of the ambitious schemes he intends to carry out in the future; and calls upon his future wife to co-operate with him in his plans. Miss Italia Conti as Andrée de Chautel did her best with a wholly unsympathetic part, and ably expressed the passion for Maxime, which the woman vainly endeavoured to conquer. Mr. Martin B. Pedler was an earnest representative of Maxime Dupont; and Mr. H. P. Owen put considerable feeling and force into his embodiment of the unhappy father, Maurice de Chautel. Miss M. Macdonald-Martin did good work in the part of Mme. Florence, a lady whose one object in life is to retire to a little villa in the country, and is not very scrupulous as to the means to that end. Miss Iris Labrow was bright and pleasing as Bertha, the Swedish heiress, who endeavours to capture the affections of Maxime; and Miss Beatrice Murray was smart as the maid, Ernestine. Other minor parts were entrusted to Mr. Collins Rolfe as Robinet, Mr. A. Gordon as Hector, and Mr. W. H. Hewlett as Placide. The play, which was produced by Mr. Henry S. Dacre, would have been improved by the introduction of some comic characters, to have relieved the depressing nature of the story.

"WOMAN'S WILES."

A One-act Comedy, by William Young, performed for the first time in England, at the Theatre Royal, Brighton, on Monday evening, Nov. 26.

Zaidie .....MISS MARGARET CAVANIA
Abdallah.....MR. A. E. DRINKWATER
The Wise Man .....MR. JAMES GELDERD

The piece is a vividly dramatic little story, which is admirably written, and possesses distinct literary merit. Zaidie is a beautiful and captivating young Algerian, but her elderly husband, Abdallah, influenced by a book, entitled "Woman's Wiles," which he has been reading, grows suspicious of his wife, and regards her tokens of love as wiles to gain her own ends, and make him loosen his purse strings. Zaidie cannot read, and is anxious to know the contents of the book. The opportune arrival of a tourist prompts her to show him the volume. The tourist is the author of the book, and in a charming scene, in which Zaidie acts with fascinating grace, he, who deemed himself proof against woman's wiles, becomes enamoured of the beauty, and professes his love for her. The approach of the husband is heard; the tourist hides in a chest, and Zaidie turns the key upon him. The comedy seems likely to be transformed into tragedy. Zaidie declares she has defended the honour of Abdallah, and receives from her husband a handsome chain. Fortunately, all ends happily; Abdallah has confidence in his wife, and the tourist is allowed to effect his escape.

Miss Margaret Cavania's handsome stage presence fitted her splendidly for her portrayal of the bewitching young wife, and she displayed fine contrasts of powerful vigour and charming tenderness. Mr. A. E. Drinkwater (under whose direction the comedy was produced) acted convincingly as the suspicious Abdallah; while the tourist was effectively impersonated by Mr. James Gelderd. The piece was very favourably received.

"THE WIDOW CAPET," an historical playlet by Louis Coen, was produced for copyright purposes at the Coronet Theatre on Saturday.

"THE NEW ALADDIN."

The new Aladdin, known as Lally, had a new representative at the Gaiety Theatre on Saturday night, when Miss Gertie Millar returned to play the part which had up to then been sustained by Miss Lily Elsie. The clever and popular Gaiety actress received a very warm welcome on making her reappearance, and the occasion was made doubly interesting by the introduction of several fresh songs. Miss Gertie Millar herself played all through the piece with that charming animation of manner which has always been one of her most pleasing characteristics, and so much at home did she seem in the part from the very beginning that no one would have supposed it was her first appearance as the new Aladdin. She was recalled for her delightful rendering of the topical ditty, "That's the sort of chap I'd like to know," by Leslie Mayne and Lionel Monckton; and earlier in the evening she, and Miss Adrienne Augarde as the Princess, had scored with the pretty duet, by Adrian Ross and Ivan Caryll, called "The dream of you," and also with "The Miniature Girl," in which the chorus assist. In the second act Miss Millar sang most effectively another new song, "Bed-time at the Zoo," with an excellent melody, by Mr. Monckton; but her greatest triumph came with the new number, called "Grandmamma." Attired in the distinctive costume of the early Victorian period, Miss Millar was accompanied by a chorus of little girls, dressed in the same style, and carrying rose-coloured parasols in their hands. This proved a most delightful novelty, and an encore was inevitable. One of the tiniest of the children then joined Miss Millar in a pas de deux, which was also loudly applauded.

Miss Connie Ediss in the part of the Spirit of the Ring, continues to display her usual keen sense of the humorous, and her new song (Ross and Caryll), "In the Strand," given with much piquancy, contains references to popular performers, including Mr. Asche, the Gibson Girl, Miss Billie Burke, Miss Phyllis Dare, Miss Marie Lloyd, and Little Tich. The song has an ear-haunting melody, and had a most favourable reception.

Mr. Edmund Payne has, since the production of the piece, added many little touches to his portrayal of Tippin, the page, and now joins Miss Gertie Millar in a topical duet, "Down where the vegetables grow," both appearing as costers with a barrow-load of vegetables. One of the funniest scenes in the piece is the meeting of Tippin and the Lost Constable, a part played with much stolid humour by Mr. Alfred Lester, whose services are, indeed, of the greatest value. Mr. Lester's bewildered policeman is quite a gem in its way.

Mr. George Grossmith, jun., as the Genie of the Ring, works as hard as ever, and his efforts are rewarded by complete success all along the line. "Rub the Lamp" and "The No-hat Brigade" both go merrily enough, and he has a capital new song in "Waltz me once round again," the always active, agile comedian comically representing an exhausted swell whom a lady compels to dance and finally carries off the stage.

Mr. Robert Nainby is clever and quaint as General Ratz, and has a new song, called "Der Umberefen Guards" (Leslie Stiles and Hugo Felix), also winning applause with an eccentric dance. Miss Adrienne Augarde is a fascinating Princess; and Miss Kitty Mason as Winnie Fairfax, gives a charming pas seul. Miss Jean Aylwin as the representative of Maggie has made quite a hit in a small part, her Scotch accent being delightful. Her song, "Dougal," is one of the successes of the evening. Miss Olive May as Laolah, the Cadi's daughter, delights the audience by her dancing; and Mlle. Gaby Deslys as the Charm of Paris displays much vivacity, and her song, "Sur la Plage," is well received. Mr. Arthur Hatherton is amusing as the Cadi; and Mr. Harry Grattan gives an effective dramatic touch to his portrayal of Ebenezer. Mention should also be made of Mr. Charles Brown's clever Imitation Genie. On Saturday night Mr. George Edwardes and the principal artists were, at the final fall of the curtain, called for, and received with great applause. There is no doubt that the new Aladdin will continue to "rub his lamp" with wonderful results for a long time to come at the popular house in the Strand.

A LANDLADY'S GRIEVANCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—At the meeting of the Council, held yesterday, I was directed to draw your attention to the following:—

DEAR SIR,—I know that you have plenty to do, that the grievances of actors and actresses are very numerous, and that the Actors' Association does not want to be bothered in the arbitration of minor professional quibbles. Yet I feel sure that the subject I much regret having to introduce to you is not altogether the most trivial you have had to deal with.

I am a landlady. For ten years I have let apartments to theatrical touring artists. I number, I am proud to say, some very prominent names in the profession among my patrons.

At one time I paid no commission to the stage doorkeeper of a local theatre for the introduction of a "let." I mostly obtained them by personal written application or recommendation from former guests. Lately, however, the stage doorkeeper seems to have a monopoly in "placing" the artists of a touring piece when they desire to reside in the locality for the week or longer. Of course he sends his applicants to those who pay him the highest commission. It does not matter to him if they are not comfortable, or if they are overcharged.

I know a case where a stage doorkeeper charged 20s. on a pantomime "let" of six weeks. The landlady paid 10s. down. Finding (as most artists themselves find now) that her guests had to cut their living expenses very close, and the 20s. could never be honestly worked into their account, she refused to pay the other 10s. Result: That stage doorkeeper never sent her another "let." If these stage doorkeepers get to know that you personally apply for "lets" they do all in their power to keep you out of it.

I argue that, to do justice to your guests, you have to be economical. Now, to a landlady with a good reputation, whose tariff is on a strictly honest and reasonable scale, this commission is an infliction. She must get it back somehow. Who suffers? The artist, of course. The system is unnecessary. It reflects no credit on theatrical business methods—or landladies. The apartment list at the theatre should be fair and square. "Tested and recommended" should be written on old-established addresses. The artist should be allowed to copy out his or her selection to refer to the manager. A "tip" now and again to the stage doorkeeper is never objected to.

Hoping you will kindly take notice of this, I am, faithfully yours,

LANDLADY.

Charles Cruikshanks, Esq.

The Council also desire me to point out that they think it a good opportunity for landladies to insert their advertisements in the A.A. Year Book, and thus secure the advantage of having their whereabouts brought to the direct knowledge of at least the members of the Actors' Association.—Yours faithfully,

CHAS. CRUIKSHANKS, Sec.
The Actors' Association,
10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

RUINED BY PIRACY.

MR. MILTON WELLINGS.

(BY OUR OWN COMMISSIONER.)

We have on numerous occasions appealed for the sympathy of our readers on behalf of a distressed member of one or other of the professions connected with the stage, and we are bound to admit that the sympathy has not been appealed for in vain. In fact, we have every reason to feel proud of the moral support and material assistance which has been given in every case which has been commended by us to the charitably-minded—and their name is legion in the theatrical world. The matter to which we now wish to draw attention is a meritorious one. Mr. T. Stuart Crook, the secretary of Messrs. J. B. Cramer and Co., Ltd., has drawn our attention to its urgency. Mr. Milton Wellings, a short time ago, was one of the most popular song writers and composers of the day. To the present generation Mr. Welling's name is not so well known, but to many older playgoers, concert-goers, and even members of the public, it will be associated with dozens of delightful musical compositions.

Mr. Wellings is now suffering under straitened circumstances. About a fortnight ago he communicated to a director of J. B. Cramer, Ltd., and the communication was immediately placed in the hands of Mr. Crook. The latter gentleman set to work with praiseworthy promptitude. Mr. Wellings was found to be "living" in a Rowton House, and practically starving. A few pounds were collected, and Mr. Wellings was removed from somewhat undesirable surroundings, to place him with a decent family, and to give him an entirely new outfit, which he badly needed. Mr. Wellings is at present in a very delicate state of health owing to the privations he has experienced, and several months must necessarily elapse before he has regained sufficient strength to enable him to look after a situation or to attempt any serious work. A few of our prominent singers, whose names we have not the permission to use at the time of writing, responded without delay to an appeal on behalf of Mr. Wellings, and a small sum was secured in this way. That sum, however, will not last more than a week, and we therefore put the case before our supporters.

Photo by the Rapid Art Photographic Co.

MR. MILTON WELLINGS.

Among the charming concert and drawing-room songs to which Mr. Wellings supplied the music may be mentioned "Golden Love," the words of which were by Miss Mary Mark Lemon, a daughter of the one-time famous editor of Punch. The song was sung by Miss Anna Williams and Miss Clara Samuell, vocalists of no small eminence at that period. "Some Day" was the title of a few other pretty verses (written by Mr. Hugh Conway) set to music by Mr. Wellings, and this number was made popular by the exquisite rendering of Mme. Enriquez.

We shall be happy to announce in these columns any donations that may be sent to the hon. treasurer to this Fund, Mr. F. H. Pedgrift, at The Era Office, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C., and beyond adding that Mr. Wellings' present condition is in no wise consequent upon acts of his own—his conduct through life, we believe, has been irreproachable—and that his unfortunate circumstances are in great measure due to the depredations of the music pirates, we feel, and with the utmost confidence, that we can leave the issue in the hands of those who peruse this article.

THE WEST LONDON.

On Monday, Nov. 26, the Drama, in Five Acts, by Arthur Shirley, entitled

"THE GRIP OF IRON."

Though always a big draw in Marylebone, nevertheless the powers of The Grip of Iron to attract large audiences seem but to increase with each succeeding visit of this popular play. One potent factor for this is no doubt due to the all-round excellence of Messrs. E. H. Knight and G. Denham's company, which is headed by Mr. Fred Powell as Jagon, alias Simmonet, the strangler, a part he has played over 5000 times. It savours somewhat of "painting the lily" to attempt to enlarge on Mr. Powell's performance now, considering he was thoroughly conversant with the character years ago. Suffice it to say, that he has still the same masterly grip on his audience as of yore, and he commands their closest attention whilst he occupies the stage. Mr. Wallace Curnock is full of determined energy as Paul Blanchard; Mr. A. G. Polson-Turner is entirely successful as Lorentz de Ribas; Mr. T. Renaud Lockwood is decidedly cool and collected as Alphonse de Concon; Mr. John Brittain is delightfully quaint and amusing as Dodot; and Mr. George Denham acts Loustalot, the Smiler, in a broadly humorous way, his acting being full of characteristic by-play well exploited. Miss Rosabel Dodd is responsible for much good work as Cora Simmonet; Miss Muriel Inglis plays carefully and with distinction as Sophie Blanchard; Miss Violet Ingram portrays Marie Guerin capably; Miss Pope Royal is satisfactory as Mlle. Delaney; and Miss Cissie Hayes is good as Babette.

THE Countess of Dartmouth and party witnessed Mrs. Bandmann Palmer's performance of Mary Queen of Scots on Tuesday evening at the Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton, when the popular actress received eleven "curtains" from an enthusiastic audience.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS had an accidental fall outside his residence at Leytonstone on the 21st ult. and dislocated his left shoulder. Mr. Roberts is progressing favourably, but it will be two or three weeks before he is thoroughly well.

"THE NUN AND THE BARBARIAN."

An adaptation, by Osmond Shillingford, of the three-act Spanish play La Loca de la Casa, played for the first time in England, at the Theatre Royal, Margate, on Monday, Nov. 26.

Jose Maria Cruz .....MR. CHARLES GARRY
Don Juan de Moncada .....MR. E. S. PETLEY
Philip .....MR. ARTHUR BURNE
Jaime .....MR. WILFRED E. BRANDON
Fernando Huguet .....MR. A. AUSTIN-LEIGH
Jordana .....MR. G. W. ELTON
Lluch .....MR. H. G. MASON
Victoria .....MISS KATHERINE HARRINGTON
Gabriela .....MISS MURIELLE LANGLEY
Dona Eulalia .....MISS MURIEL CURREY
Marquesa de Malavella .....MRS. CULLING
Sister Maria .....MISS GLADYS JONES
Carmeta .....MISS DOROTHY WATKINSON
First Nun .....MISS MADELINE HARRISON
Second Nun .....MISS MARIANA FOUNTAIN

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

At the country house of Moncada, where the scene of the first act of this lay is laid, it is made apparent that the affairs of Don Juan de Moncada, as discussed by him and his friend, Fernando Huguet, are not too flourishing. Jose Maria Cruz, formerly a servant in the Moncada household, has made an immense fortune at the mines in California; and it is his ambition to wed one of his former master's daughters. He has a considerable hold over Moncada; and, in his rough fashion, which has earned him the sobriquet of "barbarian," he makes his wishes known. He desires to wed Moncada's daughter, Victoria; but, learning that she is a novice, and about to become a nun, he declares that he does not want to see her again. Gabriela, the other daughter, he says, shall be his wife. He had always dreamed, while in America toiling for the wealth which is now his, of some day being a gentleman, where he had once been a despised drudge. Moncada tells Victoria, who comes to see him, that he is ruined; but she urges him to trust to her, and decides upon making herself the sacrifice by renouncing the convent and marrying Jose to save her father. A pathetic interview takes place between Victoria and her former lover, Philip, Marquess de Malavella, who states his intention of entering a monastery; but, although Victoria as a nun may have been simple and saint-like, she shows considerable business aptitude in the stipulations she makes with Jose.

The second act finds him installed at the Santa Madrona Factory, and Victoria, as his wife and helpmate in business affairs. All has apparently gone well until she asks her husband not to foreclose on his mortgage on the estate of the Marquess de Malavella; then there is a scene. Subsequently Jose hands his wife a cheque with instructions to pay it into the bank; but obeying an impulse, she gives the cheque to Philip in order to relieve him from financial difficulty. Cruz comes in, a moment or two later, and asks for the cheque, and seeing Philip hanging about the grounds, sends a servant out to invite him to enter. He has to admit that Gabriela has given him the cheque, and he states that it was his intention to hand it back, hence his presence in the grounds. Cruz accuses him of sneaking about the place in order to make love to his—Cruz's—wife, and Philip, losing all self-control, is on the point of striking Cruz with an axe when Victoria recalls him to his better senses. As an outcome of the scene, she says she will go home with her sister and leave her husband.

In the third and last act the scene changes to a hospital at Santa Madrona, where a fête is being held. Husband and wife meet, there is a reconciliation between them, and Victoria agrees to overlook things conditionally upon her husband consenting, out of his vast wealth, to complete the hospital.

Mr. Charles Garry was very successful in the rôle of Jose Maria Cruz; it was a part that suited him admirably, and he played it with all the requisite forcefulness. Miss Katherine Harrington was most effective as Victoria, her acting being excellent throughout, and at no time overdone. Mr. E. S. Petley was good as Don Juan de Moncada, and Mr. Arthur Burne gave a clever presentment of the part of Philip. His brother Jaime found capable representation at the hands of Mr. Wilfred E. Brandon; whilst Mr. A. Austin-Leigh did well as Fernando Huguet. Miss Murielle Langley was a charming Gabriela, playing the part pleasingly; and Miss Muriel Currey did well as Dona Eulalia. Mrs. Cullen was a success as Marquesa de Malavella, and Miss Gladys Jones was all that could be desired as Sister Maria. Other characters were ably sustained by Miss Dorothy Watkinson as Carmeta, Miss Madeline Harrison and Miss Mariana Fountain as Nuns, Mr. G. W. Elton as Jordana, the Mayor of Santa Madrona, and Mr. H. G. Mason as Lluch, porter at the factory. The play was produced for Mr. Arthur Bourchier by Mr. A. Austin-Leigh.

ROYAL COLLEGE OPERATIC PERFORMANCE.

An excellent performance of Sir Charles Stanford's opera, Shamus O'Brien, was given by the operatic students of the Royal College of Music on Friday afternoon, Nov. 23, at the Scala Theatre, by kind permission of Mr. E. Distin-Maddick. Shamus O'Brien, it will be remembered, was produced at the Opera Comique in 1896, and several now famous artists appeared in the cast, the part of Nora being taken by Mme. Kirkby Lunn, Kittie by Miss Maggie Davis, while Mr. Denis O'Sullivan as Shamus, Mr. Magrath the Father O'Flynn, and Mr. Joseph O'Mara as the informer, Mike Murphy, completed the cast, Mr. Henry Wood conducting. In the performance given on Friday afternoon, the part of the patriotic and impulsive Shamus was enacted in a manly style by Mr. Arthur H. Wynn, and a most promising début was made by Mr. Edward G. Mercer, who sang and acted the character of the jovial Father O'Flynn with marked ability. Miss Ada M. Thomas as the lively and coquettish Kitty O'Toole displayed considerable gifts as an actress, being most ably seconded in her efforts by Mr. W. Spencer Thomas, who made a gallant Captain Trevor. The unhappy wife, Nora, was sympathetically acted by Miss Maggie Kirkbride, and, although the music is sung "off" the stage, the Banshee wail was beautifully delivered by Miss Gladys M. E. Honey. Mr. Denis Byndon-Ayres showed no small amount of humour in the part of the informer, Mike Murphy, particularly in the second act; and the parts of Sergeant Cox and the drummer were cleverly undertaken by Mr. Robert P. Chignell and Mr. Herbert A. Smith. Great praise must be awarded to the chorus for their intelligent singing and acting, and to Mr. Richard Temple, the stage-manager; while the spirited Irish jig, danced at the close of the first act, reflected the utmost credit on the students' dancing-instructor, Mr. B. Soutten. The picturesque dresses were lent by Mr. Neil-Forsyth, of the Royal Opera, and the scenery by the Pavilion Theatre Company. Sir Charles Stanford conducted, and the young orchestral students comprising the band admirably performed the bright, attractive score. On this occasion, Mr. G. H. Jessop's dialogue was given in recitative, which was not advantageous to the general effect, and somewhat hampered the young artists. At the close, all the principals and their conductor were called on, and heartily applauded by the large audience.

MR. EDITOR.—SIR,—In the notice of The Beauty Shop production your Ayr correspondent attributes the music to George Gee. It should have been —Yours faithfully, GEORGE ESS, T.R., Lincoln, Nov. 27.

THE L.C.C. AND AMUSEMENTS.

The usual weekly meeting of the London County Council was held on Tuesday at the County Hall, Spring Gardens.

BRIXTON THEATRE LICENCE.

Mr. J. G. Hubbard presented a petition, signed by all the clergy and Nonconformist ministers in the district, against the granting of a music-hall licence to the Brixton Theatre. The consideration of this change of licence came before the County Council sitting as the licensing authority on Friday.

SUNDAY CONCERTS.

On the report of the Theatres and Music Halls Committee being presented, Alderman Dew asked the chairman of the committee whether his attention had been called to the holding of Sunday concerts at the Empire, Denmark-hill, for the purposes of private gain? Another question was, whether similar concerts had been held at Lambeth Baths.

Mr. Greenwood promised to make inquiries, and inform the hon. members of the result.

COMEDY THEATRE.

The Theatres and Music Halls Committee recommended that the Charing Cross, West End, and City Electricity Supply Co., Ltd., be informed that the Council has no objection to their proposal to fix additional electric heaters at the Comedy Theatre provided certain stated conditions are complied with.

NEW THEATRES.

The committee had considered a drawing submitted by Mr. W. G. R. Sprague showing the provision of an additional floor to the dressing-room block at the new theatre in course of erection in Shaftesbury-avenue and Rupert-street. They recommended that Mr. Sprague be informed that the Council has no objection to the arrangements shown on the drawing submitted by him with regard to the provision of an additional floor to the dressing-room block at the new theatre in course of erection in Shaftesbury-avenue and Rupert-street, upon condition that a cat ladder be fixed to give access from the small flat at about gridiron level to the roof of the dressing-room block.

The committee had considered a drawing submitted by Mr. W. G. R. Sprague showing an additional dressing-room to be constructed at the new theatre in course of erection in Shaftesbury-avenue and Wardour-street. They recommended that Mr. Sprague be informed that the Council has no objection to the arrangements shown on the drawing submitted by him with regard to the additional dressing-room proposed to be constructed at the new theatre in course of erection in Shaftesbury-avenue and Wardour-street, provided the undermentioned conditions be complied with—(1) That a fire-resisting door be provided in the corridor between the two exit staircases; and (2) that a trap-door be provided in the roof over the top floor landing on the north staircase, and that a stair or ladder be fixed to give access thereto.

THE PLAYHOUSE.

The Committee had considered a drawing submitted by Messrs. Blow and Billerey, showing the proposed reconstruction of the stage at the Playhouse, Northumberland-avenue. They recommended that Messrs. Blow and Billerey be informed that the Council has no objection to the arrangements shown on the drawing submitted by them with regard to the proposed reconstruction of the stage at the Playhouse, Northumberland-avenue, provided the whole of the woodwork in connection with the stage do consist of hard wood.

All the above recommendations were agreed to.

CASTLE THEATRE, RICHMOND.

On Thursday, Nov. 29, the Play, entitled "LIGHTS OUT."

It was only to be expected that so popular a play as Lights Out should draw a good audience, and the piece met with an enthusiastic reception, not only on the score of the intrinsic value of the play as on the all-round excellent interpretation it received at the hands of the particularly capable company. To Mr. J. Maunder Gregory too much praise cannot be given for the completeness and exceptional merit of the production. Mr. Wilton Reid played the brusque old Sergeant Volkhardt in commendable style; he was seen at his best in Act 4, but throughout the evening he contributed materially to the success of the performance. As the Lothario type of the German Army Mr. Lovel did wonderfully well as Lieut. Von Lauffen; very good, too, was the Corpl. Quiess of Mr. F. J. Bethell. To Mr. Richard Fielding fell the rôle of the luckless Corpl. Helbig; he handled the part with conspicuous success, and was enthusiastically applauded. Mr. Arthur Ross was excellent as Capt. Von Bannewitz; and good work was also done by Mr. Kenneth Brampton as Lieut. Von Howen. Major Paschke found a clever exponent in Mr. Lambert Plummer; and Mr. Henry Walliss was satisfactory as Lieut. Hagermeister. On Miss Octavia Kenmore fell the heaviest work in the play, and she displayed throughout talent of a very high order. The play was mounted with scrupulous care, and, all things considered, it may be said that Lights Out starts on an exceedingly prosperous voyage. It may be added that the production is stage-managed by Mr. F. J. Bithell, who was in the original Waldorf play. Mr. Arthur T. Barugh is the acting-manager, and very capably does he fill the duties of his office.

"ROBIN HOOD" AT TUNBRIDGE WELLS.

Mr. Norman V. Norman concluded a successful week's engagement at the Opera House, Tunbridge Wells, on Saturday with the romantic play of Robin Hood, by Dennis Clough and Cecil Jones. In the title-part Mr. Norman has undoubtedly a rôle which will stand out prominently among his past successes. His impersonation of the bold outlaw was in every respect admirable. He had the able co-operation of Miss Beatrice Wilson, who won all hearts as Maid Marian. Those who saw Miss Wilson's Lady Ursula earlier in the week expected great things of her Maid Marian, and they were not disappointed. Mr. Norman was also well supported by the other members of his company. Mr. Francis Hope was a valiant Friar Tuck, and inspired his part with all the requisite humour; Mr. Kenneth Bruce doubled the parts of the old Earl of Huntingdon in the prologue and of the lusty Little John in the main portion of the play; while Mr. Dennis Clough was a sufficiently martial Richard Cœur de Lion. Mr. Norman Leslie as Lord Guy and Mr. Bromber Wells as Sir William Trusty were not lacking in their due contribution to the atmosphere of the play; while Robin Hood's merrie men had, in addition to the omniscient Little John, excellent representatives in Messrs. Howard Brenan (as Will Scarlet), Frederick Luck (as Allen a Dale), W. R. Marshall, S. Greenley, and Miss Rushforth (as Stutely). Mr. B. Carrton made the most of the Abbot of Newark, and Mr. S. Wilkinson of the Sheriff of Nottingham; and Mr. Bernard Elliott made a realistic serf. Of the rôles for the ladies, Miss Dorothy West-Symes as the wife of the Sheriff of Nottingham, Miss Sybil Ruskin as Clarinda, Miss Hilda Gregory as Pomona deserve special mention; while Miss Betty Stannard was a comely page and Miss Mona Garland a charming forest maid. The scene of the play is, for the main part, laid in Sherwood Forest, with one scene on the ramparts of Nottingham Castle, and Mr. Norman is to be congratulated upon the admirable way in which the whole production is represented, as well as the spirited manner in which an atmosphere of old English chivalry is maintained.

THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

Mr. George Alexander has decided to become a candidate at the London County Council elections in March next. He will stand as an ordinary citizen, with a warm interest in London's general welfare. The old-fashioned idea of the theatrical manager as an indifferent citizen has long been dispelled, and the time has certainly come when the profession should be represented in our civic parliament—for which, it should be remembered, women as well as men have votes. We trust that artists of both sexes in the constituency for which Mr. Alexander stands will give him their fullest support, and will make a point of seeing that their votes are properly secured to them, if only for the purpose of recording them in favour of the popular manager of the St. James's.

Miss Marion Terry, who has so often in the course of her career appeared as the embodiment of human sympathy and graciousness, played the rôle in real life on the 23rd ult., when she opened a two-days' bazaar at Surbiton in aid of the funds of the local Cottage Hospital. In putting the claims of the charity before her hearers, Miss Terry said that they had all been sick and suffering, and knew the blessings and comforts of the attention given at hospitals, so that their sympathies were with that undertaking that day. She felt sure that she would not appeal in vain in asking them to spend generously, remembering that suffering was, in some form or another, the lot of all, and any alleviation of it was one of the highest privileges of their lives.

Mr. Arthur Bourchier's support in Macbeth, which will be given at the Garrick Theatre on the afternoons of the 11th and 13th inst., will be practically the same as that of the production at Stratford-on-Avon, with the exception that Mr. Sydney Valentine will play Banquo and Mr. Matheson Lang Macduff. Mr. Charles V. France is also a newcomer to the cast, which will be completed by Messrs. Leveson Lane, Walter Pearce, Douglas Imbert, William Burchill, Acton Bond. Alfred Bristowe, Reed, Douglas, Charles Goodheart, Lawson Butt, Frank Lacy, H. Nye Chart, Arthur Whitby, and Mrs. H. Nye Chart, Miss Olive Terry, Miss Evelyn Bateman, Miss Pamela Gaythorne, and Miss Nora Greenlaw, with Miss Violet Vanbrugh as Lady Macbeth.

Mr. E. A. Baughan, in a bright and lucid article in the Daily News on Sir Charles Stanford's speech at the recent banquet to Mr. T. P. O'Connor, says very truly that it is no part of a music publisher's duty to display an altruism in the conduct of his business which no one dreams of demanding from other business men. The music publisher supplies a demand; he cannot afford to create it, or even to foster it. "I cannot help thinking," says Mr. Baughan, "that Sir Charles Stanford should have examined his 'facts' more closely before delivering his public rebuke, for Belaïev should not have been held up as an example to the British publishers. Belaïev was a millionaire, and the encouragement of native Russian music was his peculiar fad. His patronage has been good for the Russian composer, but it has not succeeded, and could not succeed, in keeping the bulk of the works published before the public."

Mr. Edward Terry, who has been completely winning the hearts of the inhabitants of the Green Isle, was heartily recalled at the close of the performance of Sweet Lavender, at the Gaiety, Dublin, on Saturday. In response to demand for a speech, the poular comedian said he would not inflict a long oration on his audience, for they were now nearing the one day of the week upon which the actor ceased troubling and the critics were at rest. He was not yet able to speak the Irish language, but he hoped to be at some future date, for he knew the alphabet, and was the possessor of a grammar. As a veteran he could not hope to make the progress of a young man at a language—a very beautiful and interesting language—but he was working hard at his task, and he was looking forward to the time when he would be able to say something in Irish. So long as he was spared he would pay the usual visits to his Dublin constituents, and he was sure they would always extend to him a hearty "cead mile failte."

Miss Lena Ashwell received a genuine tribute to the excellence of her acting recently in America. She was appearing in New York as the brutally-treated wife of the old Boer farmer in The Shulamite, and had reached the scene where she falls on her knees by command of her elderly husband that he may the more conveniently flog her with his sjambok, when an indignant voice from the gallery shouted, "Darnation, don't stand it no longer! Shoot that old 'cuss' where he stands, or I guess I will, for the honour of the 'Stars and Stripes'!"

Mr. Martin Harvey's next Shakespearean production will be Richard III., and it goes without saying that the versatile actor's impersonation of the crooked-back King will be awaited with particular interest. To-night Mr. Harvey, Miss de Silva, and company conclude a week's sojourn at the Opera House, Cork, doing a phenomenal week's business. On Monday Mr. Harvey commences the final week of his Hibernian tour at the Palace Theatre, Belfast. The gallery and upper circles have been secured by the students next Wednesday evening, and the booking for the week is already such as to place the issue beyond doubt. Mr. Harvey concludes his brilliantly-successful autumn tour by a week's performances at the Coronet Theatre, commencing Dec. 10—his only appearance in the suburbs for at least a year to come.

The season of German opera at Covent Garden will open on Jan. 14, when Mr. Ernest van Dyck, by arrangement with Messrs. Rendle and Forsyth, will for a period take up the reins of management. The opening performance will be Tristan, with Mr. Van Dyck in the title-rôle. The conductors for the season will be Herr Arthur Nikisch, Herr Leopold Reichwein (of the Grand Ducal Opera, Mannheim), and Herr Franz Schalk (of the Imperial Opera House, Vienna). M. Eugene Ysaye, the famous violinist and conductor of Beethoven's works, has been specially engaged to direct the performances of Fidelio. Mr. Carl Armbruster is also retained as conductor, but is entrusted with the direction of the chorus, in which he will be assisted by Professor Max Laistner, of London, and Herr Hugo Bryk, of Vienna. Leading vocalists from Bayreuth and other Continental centres have been engaged, and the season promises to be a brilliant one. A ballet of twenty-seven dancers, trained by Mr. Ambrosini, will be brought from Brussels. Prices will range from 2s. for a gallery seat to £4 14s. 6d. for pit and grand tier boxes.

Mr. Otho Stuart is the latest recipient of the King's command, and will present Peter's Mother at Sandringham on Friday evening next. On that occasion Wyndham's Theatre will be closed. Peter's Mother will be transferred to the Apollo on Monday, Dec. 10, when the audience will be given as a memento a copy of Mrs. de la Pasture's novel of the same name. On Dec. 10 also Toddles will travel from the Duke of York's to Wyndham's, with Mr. Cyril Maude and the members of the present company in their original characters. The Duke of York's will then remain closed for a week, reopening on the 18th with Peter Pan.

Mr. Beerbohm Tree has very kindly forwarded a contribution to the fund for the jubilee testimonial to Mr. William Morgan, of Scarborough.

The Actors' Benevolent Fund annual dinner, it is well to remind our readers, takes place on Wednesday next at the Hotel Metropole. Sir Charles Wyndham, whose reappearance at the New last week was so cordially received that he contemplates an early return to active work, will preside. Sir Charles is one of the most delightful of after-dinner speakers, and his able advocacy of the claims of the Fund should show a result worthy to be ranked with any former achievement of the kind. The resources of the Fund will meanwhile be appreciably increased by a repetition of the performance of David Garrick, to be given by Sir Charles Wyndham and Miss Mary Moore in its behalf on Monday next.

With regret we record the death of Mrs. T. N. Wenman, widow of the late Tom Wenman, who was for a number of years with the late Sir Henry Irving. Mrs. Wenman passed peacefully away, death being due to heart failure, at her Clapham residence on Tuesday, and is to be laid to rest in the family vault at Norbiton on Tuesday next. Her age was fifty-one years.

We were glad to learn, upon inquiry yesterday at the Aldwych Theatre, that Mr. Seymour Hicks was greatly improved in health, and his return to the cast of The Beauty of Bath was anticipated as an almost immediate happening.

The Irving Memorial Committee held a meeting on Thursday, the 22nd, when Mr. John Hare attended. Mr. Cecil Raleigh occupied the chair, being supported by Messrs. Cyril Maude, Acton Bond, Lawrence Grant, Lewis Casson, and Chas. Cruikshanks (secretary). Letters from Mr. C. Hayden Coffin and Mr. F. R. Benson were read, and after a lengthy sitting the committee adjourned until that day week.

Colonel Mapleson has, we understand, at length succeeded in laying the foundation of a National Opera House in London. According to the plan drawn up by the veteran impresario, in conjunction with Mr. Ernest Runtz (the well-known architect) the new opera house will contain about 100 private boxes, about 600 orchestra stalls, an amphitheatre holding about 2000 persons, and, in all, sufficient space comfortably to accommodate an audience of about 4000. It is proposed to create a permanent orchestra to perform exclusively at the National Opera House, and another feature of the scheme will be a permanent chorus, who will be taught to sing in the language in which the opera is given. The principal singers will be selected from the chief European opera houses, and, in addition, prize vocalists from the Royal College of Music, Royal Academy of Music, and foreign conservatoires will be given engagements. The programme for the National Opera House, as at present outlined, will be to give opera in English, Italian, French, and German, a specially organised English company being formed for the rendering of native works. Promenade concerts, oratorios in costume, and costume balls are also to figure among the attractions.

The sad death of Miss Charlotte Mead took place on the 22nd ult. after a short and sudden illness. Miss Mead was the daughter of the late Mr. Tom Mead, for many years a member of the late Sir Henry Irving's Lyceum Theatre company. She was also a member of Sir Henry's company. Of late years Miss Mead has played many parts with the Hutchison comedy companies, appearing in A Country Mouse, and the St. James's piece, Saturday to Monday, and finally as Miss Minching in The Freedom of Suzanne company, the members of which held her in the highest esteem.

The funeral took place on Friday. Among the wreaths was one from the members of her company, inscribed, "From Mabel Love and the members of The Freedom of Suzanne company, in loving and heartfelt sympathy from her brother and sister artists." Also a cross from Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison, inscribed, "In loving and deep sympathy." Mr. Hutchison attended the funeral to represent his mother and the members of the company.

Mr. William H. Day, who was recently playing Martin, the old-time servitor in Mr. Tree's production of Colonel Newcome, at His Majesty's, will create the chief rôle in Crystal Gazing, which is to be produced at the Hackney Empire on Monday. In his early days at Queen Victoria's own theatre, then under the management of Mary Moore's father, he went through the mill, as the saying is. In one night it was nothing for him to play in Richard III., Sarah's Young Man, and Sweeney Todd. Once, in the last-mentioned play, he nearly lost his life. At the cue "If the world had one throat, how would I polish you off" the chair in which Mr. Day was sitting was supposed to disappear through a trap-door. Instead, however, it tipped to one side and smashed, throwing the actor with such violence on the back of his head that he was unconscious for three hours.

This is not the only time Mr. Day has had a hairbreadth escape. When engaged in Sims and Raleigh's play, Fanny, at the Strand, he had to journey to Islington, where the rehearsal was taking place. Travelling from Brixton he arrived at Aldersgate station just in time to find another train (in which the members of the company were) moving off from the other side of the platform. Dashing across as the train entered the tunnel, Mr. Day attempted to board it, but was knocked down. Amidst the screams and shouts of people on the platform, he was shot into the tunnel, but by good luck he was able to grasp an iron stanchion, and to cling to it while the train rushed past. When everybody expected to see a mangled form across the rails, Mr. Day crawled out, dusty and crestfallen, and made a bee-line for the toilet-room. After a wash and brush-up he journeyed to Islington, and rehearsed his part.

He has been all over the world, but perhaps his hardest piece of work was when he appeared before the King at Dublin with Mr. Beerbohm Tree. Starting from London on a Wednesday morning, the company arrived at North Wall at 8 p.m. After dinner the members adjourned to the theatre at 9.15, and after the piece on the boards was finished they commenced rehearsing Trilby. At six in the morning they began the rehearsal of The Last of the Dandies, which lasted until 8 a.m. In the forenoon there was another call, and when the King arrived that night everything was in readiness. After the performance the company caught the boat for Holyhead at 3.15 a.m. on Friday morning, when they had the first chance of a sleep since their arrival in Ireland.

Visitors to the Crystal Palace Theatre next week will find another treat in store for them in The Prince of Pilsen, presented by Mr. George Musgrove's company. Mr. Bannister Howard is well aware that so long as he continues to engage good companies in good plays he will go on receiving the support not only of the thousands of residents round about the Palace, but of those living further afield. The company playing The Prince of Pilsen includes Messrs. J. B. Fox, Villiers Arnold, Alfred Solby, Lawrence Wensley, D. O. Uglas, James Maddison, and Martin Adeson, and Mesdames Isa Bowman, Nell Emerald, Abele Roze, Meg Hamylton, Clarice Stanton, Iris Coley, Mimi Clancey, Ella Merton, Flora Grey, Stella Wost, Bessie Royce, Eva Howard, and Millicent Marsden.

The Bandmann Opera Company will next week start on tour in the Far East with The Belle of Mayfair, visiting, among other places, Bombay, Calcutta, Rangoon, Singapore, Hong-Kong, Shanghai, Manila, Yokohama, Colombo, and Cairo.

The Commissioners Committee held a meeting on Monday last, when Mr. Burton Cooke (of the Council) took the chair, being supported by Miss Rose Matthews and Messrs. Sam Major Jones and Chas. Cruikshanks (secretary), Miss Lucy Sibley and Mr. F. J. Arlton were elected as members of the committee, and various questions affecting the well-being and future prosperity of the Actors' Association were discussed at considerable length. A suggestion was made as to obtaining the services of another gentleman on the committee, and the secretary received instructions to write to the member selected.

The usual weekly meeting of the Council was held on Tuesday last, when there were present Mr. C. Aubrey Smith (chairman), Mr. A. E. Drinkwater (deputy-chairman), Mr. Henry W. Mote (hon. solicitor), Mrs. Cecil Raleigh, Messrs. Cecil Barth, J. Cooke Beresford, Acton Bond, Burton Cooke, Thalberg Corbett, William Devereux, Lawrence Grant, Norman McKinnel, Algernon Syms, A. B. Tapping, Spencer Trevor, Frank Vernon, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary). The hon. solicitors reported they had advised several members, and were requested to claim damages on behalf of a member against a manager for alleged breach of contract. The secretary reported that he had settled the claims of four members of the Association against a manager by dividing the monies recovered (after payment of costs and out-of-pocket expenses) from such manager equally between them, and referred to letters of thanks sent by the four recipients.

A question as to extending the operation and usefulness of the insurance schemes was under consideration, and the hon. solicitors were requested to look into the matter and advise the council at a later date. A communication from the Theatrical Managers' Association having been received, it was referred to the special committee, and the secretary was instructed to summon that body to a meeting at a date in the immediate future. The report of the Finance and General Purposes Committee was received. Dr. Mitchell Bruce was elected as an hon. member of the Association; Dr. O'Brien, of 94, East India Road, E., was elected as an hon. medical officer to the A.A. It was agreed that a former member be reinstated.

The Finance and General Purposes Committee held a meeting on Tuesday last. There were present Mr. Acton Bond (chairman), and Messrs. J. Cooke Beresford, Lawrence Grant, C. Aubrey Smith, and Chas. Cruikshanks (secretary). Various matters connected with the financial position of the Association were considered, and instructions were given to the secretary as to settlement of accounts before the close of the present year.

Mme. Kate Flinn (Mrs. Basil Dawson), the accomplished professor of singing, who is responsible for the production of so many voices that have charmed the ear of the public, has opened a studio in Brighton, and visits it every Saturday. In order to demonstrate to the inhabitants of the popular watering-place the talents of her pupils, Mme. Flinn gave an "at home" recently in the Drawing-Room of the Hotel Metropole, which was attended by upwards of 160 people, representative of the best residents of the town, including Lord and Lady George Loftus, Miss Sassoon, Sir Valentine Grace, and many others. Tea was served in charming style in the Clarence Rooms after the music.

Amongst the pupils who sang was Miss Von Taysen, a young lady with a charming appearance and cultured voice, who distinguished herself in "Still vie die Nacht" (Bohm) and "Lovers in the lane" (Lehmann); Miss Ruby Cobbett, who has the rare gift of a pure contralto voice, sang "Lascio chio planga" and songs by Mallison; and Miss Barbara Ballestrell, a fine mezzo-soprano, who showed commendable skill in the control of the voice, rendered ballads by Chaminade and Parke. The singing was agreeably diversified by Miss Elaine Hawkins and Miss Eileen Molyneux, Mme. Flinn's little pupils, who sang and danced exquisitely. It seems almost incredible that Mme Flinn, who obtains such excellent results in the teaching of music of the highest class, should be equally expert in training in elocution and gesture and other forms of stage work, but those who have been under her care can testify to the wonders she is able to perform in the practice of her art.

"The Websters," a modern play, in three acts, by Frank Kingston, will be produced by the author at a special matinée at Terry's Theatre, on Tuesday, Dec. 11. A strong cast will include Miss Beatrice Berren, Miss Calypso Veletta, Mr. John Hanes, Mrs. Alice Chapin, Miss Margaret Hathaway, and Mr. Wilfred E. Brandon. Additional interest will be given to the production by certain lighting effects and innovations of which Mr. Kingston is the inventor.

Mr. Noel McGuckin, the son of the famous Barton McGuckin, has made a successful début at the Crystal Palace concerts. Fearing that he might be handicapped by his father's fine reputation, he decided to adopt another name, and now appears as Mr. Noel Fleming. Friends and admirers of Mr. Barton McGuckin will congratulate him on the success of his son, who is described as having an excellent tenor voice, which he uses remarkably well.

Mr. G. Wallace Johnston is to-day, on the termination of tour, concluding his engagement with Mr. Louis Calvert, and returns to Mr. Edward Compton, thus entering upon his fourth engagement with that gentleman. He will play Sir Lucius O'Trigger and other leading parts in old English comedy. Before joining Mr. Compton in 1904, Mr. Johnston was nearly four years with Mr. F. R. Benson, under whose management he played a large number of important juvenile and character parts.

Mr. Louis Calvert's pantomime at the Broadway will be Cinderella, specially written for the theatre by Mr. William Wade. Miss Lucie Caine will play the title-rôle and Miss Beatrice Edwards the principal boy. A novelty will be found in the fact that the Baroness will be played by a lady, the part falling to one of the Sisters Sprightly, whose clever associates play Dandini and Princess respectively. Others in the cast will be the Tally-Ho Trio, Fred Cary, the Pollard Brothers, and the Eight Sunrays. The scenery is being specially painted by Mr. Hugh Freemantle. A feature of the pantomime will be a crystal ballet, during which Cinderella's slipper is forged by the fairies. The pantomime will be produced on Boxing Morning, under the direction of Mr. Calvert, by Mr. Frederick Stanhope and Mr. William Giffard, the able manager of the theatre.

Miss Ada Blanche and Mr. Lionel Rignold, who have been touring that brilliant comedy What the Butler Saw, by Judge Parry and Fred Mouillot, terminate their second successful tour to-night, when the 260th performance under their management will be reached. Their winter and spring engagements start Dec. 22 at Blackpool. Miss Blanche travels up to Harrogate to assist at the first grand complimentary benefit to Mr. William Peacock, which is fixed for Dec. 19. Mr. Peacock, it will be remembered, married Addie Blanche, who appeared so often as principal girl with her sister, who retired from the profession on her marriage. Miss Ada Blanche will appear in her successful sketch Becky Bounder, and will be assisted by her sister, Miss Edith Blanche, and Mr. Douglas Blair and Mr. Hollins, two well-known Harrogate amateurs.

The fourth annual concert in aid of the benevolent funds of the Theatrical Employés Society will, by kind permission of Mr. Frank Rendle, be given in the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, to-morrow evening. The London Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Landon Ronald, will play a number of orchestral items, and the following artists, in addition to Mr. Ronald, are kindly giving their services: Mme. Alice Esty, Mme. Mary Conly, Miss Helen Blain, Miss Marie Stiven, Mr. Joseph O'Mara, Mr. Herbert Grover, Mr. Hector Lightfoot, Mr. Charles Knowles, and Mr. Denis O'Sullivan. Mr. Fredk. B. Kiddle will be the accompanist, and play the organ in the "1812" overture. Her Grace the Duchess of Leeds Sir Charles Wyndham, Sir Charles V. Stanford, Sir Edward Moss, Mr. George Alexander, Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree, Mr. Cyril Maude, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, Miss Irene Vanbrugh, Mr. Arthur Bourchier, Miss Kate Compton, Miss Constance Collier, Miss Lillian Braithwaite, Mr. Granville Barker, Miss Mary Moore, Miss Evelyn Millard, Mr. Lewis Waller, and a host of other theatrical celebrities are patrons of the concert.

Mr. Luscombe Searelle has received a flattering offer for the provincial rights of Mizpah, the offer including a large sum paid as advance royalties. Mr. Searelle, however, hesitates to make any provincial arrangements for the play till the London verdict on the work has been given. E. Ascherberg, the publisher of Mr. Searelle's tragic opera The Kisses of Circe, originally played in South Africa by the Moody-Manners Opera Co., is negotiating for the production of the work in Italy.

All the ladies' minor parts in The Nun and Barbarian, produced at the Theatre Royal, Margate, on Monday last, were, it is pleasing to note, played by students from Miss Bateman's Dramatic School. The acting-manager, in writing to the popular instructress, says: "Your girls are all charming and up to their work, and we shall always be like Oliver, and come 'for more.'"

It is understood that, on account of pressure of business, Mr. Henry C. Cavanah has resigned the position of acting-manager for Mr. Robert Arthur, at Aberdeen. Mr. Cavanah succeeded his father as manager of Her Majesty's Theatre in 1901, and has discharged the responsible duties with unfailing tact and ability.

No possible doubt can exist as to the success of Lady Kinton's Necklace, and both Servais Le Roy and W. Scott Phipp are to be congratulated on being the first to introduce such a novelty. The entertainment has been playing at the Queen's Theatre, Longton, during the week to packed and enthusiastic houses. On Tuesday Mr. Sheriff Howard circulated the following among the inhabitants of Longton and districts:—"To My Patrons,—On behalf of my proprietors, I can honestly advise you to see Le Roy, Talma, and Bosco in their incredibly marvellous entertainment. Lady Kinton's Necklace is a most interesting play, splendidly played, and mounted in every way worthy of a visit. The wonderful mystical effects woven into the story by Le Roy, Talma, and Bosco must be seen to be believed, and I have every confidence in advising you not to miss it." We understand that the show will be reproduced on July 29 next, and that numerous offers are already to hand for dates.

Mr. Henry C. Arnold, the lessee and manager of the Lyric Theatre, Liverpool, was accorded a bumper benefit on Thursday, the 22nd ult. Artists from most of the Liverpool and district theatres assisted, and Mr. Arnold's friends came from far and near to show their esteem for him.

Mr. Arthur Bourchier was present at the formation meeting of the Manchester branch of the British Empire Shakespeare Society on Wednesday, and said he was going to have the temerity to represent Macbeth at the Prince's Theatre next autumn, and would give prizes to members for essays on that production. The Dean of Manchester, who moved "that the society be formed," remarked that when Sir Henry Irving visited Harrow during his headmastership he made a delightful speech, telling the boys, whatever they might be afterwards, to keep to the habit of reading the Bible and Shakespeare.

Mr. Oscar Asche will add another to the illustrious list of Othellos in the course of his week at the Camden Theatre, where he begins his tour on Feb. 18 next with The Taming of the Shrew. Miss Lily Brayton will be the Desdemona, and Mr. Alfred Brydone the Iago. The itinerary will include visits to various suburban theatres, after which a tour of the principal provincial cities will be made.

Miss Maud Darling, who is to appear as principal girl in Humpty-Dumpty in the forthcoming pantomime at the Prince's Theatre, Bristol, was married on Monday at St. Cuthbert's Church, Darlington, to Mr. Leonard Brockleby Holford, second son of Mr. Edwin Holford, of Oxton, Cheshire. Miss Olive Watson, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, Mr. Bert Holford, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the bride was given away by her father. After a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holford left by motor-car for Sheffield, en route for Devonshire, for the honeymoon.

Mr. George Alexander will celebrate the anniversary of His House in Order, which will be reached on Friday, Feb. 1, by the presentation to every member of the audience of a handsome copy of the piece. The booklet will contain photographs of the leading characters in Mr. Pinero's great play, and will furnish a memento which will be highly prized by every visitor to the St. James's on that occasion.

The libel case instituted by Mr. Seymour Hicks came before Mr. Justice Sutton at Liverpool Assizes on Wednesday, when Frederick Henry Woolfries, who has masqueraded as the brother of the Misses Phyllis and Zena Dare, pleaded guilty to publishing a defamatory libel concerning Mr. Hicks. Counsel on both sides addressed the Court, after which his Lordship, in delivering judgment, told the prisoner that he had pleaded guilty to a libel which exposed Mr. Hicks to hatred and contempt, and which attempted to take away the character of Miss Phyllis Dare. This libel must have caused deep distress to the near relatives of both families. Prisoner's counsel had asked him to take into consideration that he did this only for the purpose of obtaining notoriety with the girl towards whom he was on affectionate terms for some time. He (the learned judge) could not take that into consideration, and he came to the conclusion that he could not pass a less sentence than eight months' imprisonment.

The Assembly Rooms, Malvern, have been taken on lease by Mr. M. T. Stevens, the proprietor of the Malvern Gazette. Extensive improvements are being carried out, and the holding capacity of the hall, now 850, will be increased. Mr. Stevens has been the promoter of a very successful Shakespearean Week in Malvern for the past five years, which has on each occasion been conducted by Mr. F. R. Benson and his principal company.

Mme. Patti will bid farewell to the public this afternoon at the Albert Hall. Though the famous cantatrice has had a musical career extending over fifty-six years, her voice retains its remarkable qualities almost unimpaired, and Mme. Patti has decided to retire while still in the fulness of her powers. The audience at the Albert Hall this afternoon will be a brilliant one, and earnest indeed will be the wishes for prolonged life and happiness for Baroness Cederström.

Two revivals are due this evening—A Midsummer Night's Dream at the Adelphi and The Cricket on the Hearth at Terry's. The latter piece, it is interesting to recall, was produced for the first time in London by Mr. W. H. C. Nation, the present lessee of Terry's, at Sadler's Wells something over thirty years ago, with Mr. George Belmore, Mr. Thomas Swinburne, and Mr. Charles Warner in the cast. To-night's revival will employ the talents of Messrs. Charles Groves, A. B. Imeson, Campbell Bishop, and Armstrong, and Misses Frances Ruttledge, Gladys Archbutt, Tempest, and Stainer.

The pantomime at the Palace Theatre, Belfast, this Christmas will be Mother Goose. The libretto is by Mr. J. Hickory Wood, and the music composed and arranged by Mr. S. P. Swanton. The principals include Miss Carlotta Levey as principal boy, Miss Molly McIntyre as principal girl, Miss May Moore Duprez, Miss Elsie Roby, Miss Anna Kenwick, and Messrs. Martin Adeson, Wm. Cromwell, J. P. Marsden, Harrigan and Holt, with specialities by the Eight Little Rosebuds. The pantomime will be produced under the experienced direction of Mr. Fred W. Warden, managing-director of the Theatre Royal and Palace, Belfast, and after running four weeks will be transferred to Dublin.

The third complimentary benefit to Mr. Harold Goulden, acting-manager of the Prince of Wales's Theatre, Salford, will take place on the afternoon and evening of the 12th inst. Sir Charles Wyndham, Mr. Beerbohm Tree, Mr. Hall Caine, the Mayor of Salford, and Sir William Bailey are among the influential patrons.

Mr. Albert Duncan, the acting-manager of the King's Theatre, Cardiff, where he is highly popular, has resigned his position, much to the regret of the frequenters of that house, and is leaving this week for a new sphere of activity.

Miss Maudie Ray, who has been successfully playing the title-rôle in Mr. Tree's Oliver Twist company on tour, has been engaged by Mr. John Hart for the Theatre Royal, Manchester, to play Boy Babe in his forthcoming production of Babes in the Wood.

Mr. Dare Austin successfully sustained Mr. Frederic Jaques' part of Hamilton Travers in Are You a Mason? at the Theatre Royal, Darlington, during the latter's recent indisposition.

Mr. Horace Butler, whose death at Croydon took place on the 23rd ult., was for many years a well-known actor-manager and the proprietor of several theatres in North of England towns, including Darlington, Bishop Auckland, and Stockton. He also toured with several of his own plays, amongst these being The Flying Colt, a well-known racing drama. He had also, in the course of his long stage career, played with most of the principal stars, including the late Wilson Barrett. Until within three weeks of his death the deceased was a member of Mr. T. Rice Cassidy's company, and played a part in the drama, entitled In Holy (!) Russia.

Mr. Charles Hannan's pathetic one-act play, The Setting of the Sun, now being given at the New Royalty Theatre, will be included in Miss Florence Glossop-Harris's répertoire when she starts on her tour next month. Miss Glossop-Harris will play the rôle so charmingly sustained at the New Royalty Theatre by Miss Phyllis Relph. Mr. Hannan's comedy, The Electric Man, gives unmistakable evidence of having caught on at the Royalty, and has every appearance of being in for a long and successful run.

Mr. Norman V. Norman's production of Dennis Cleugh and Cecil Duncan Jones's romantic play Robin Hood is meeting with the greatest success, the house being filled with enthusiastic audiences, who applaud Mr. Norman as Robin Hood and Miss Beatrice Wilson as Maid Marian to the echo. In the prologue to the play Mr. Norman, who has the reputation of being one of the finest swordsmen on the stage, has a combat, in which he engages six Norman soldiers at one time—a thrilling incident that invariably brings down the house. At Southampton this week an enthusiastic playgoer in the audience sent Mr. Norman a message to the effect that it was the most sensational fight he had seen for thirty years, and he had not been so excited since his youthful days of Rugby football.

Mr. Hoggan Armadale was the victim of a most unfortunate accident at Wellingborough last Monday evening, receiving the thrust of the rapier of his opponent in the duel scene full in the face, which caused him to fall to the ground. The curtain was immediately lowered, and a doctor summoned. Mr. Armadale happily recovered sufficiently on the following day to reappear with his customary success as the Vicar of Wakefield, in Charles Hannan's Sweet Olivia, a part which he has been successfully performing for the past three years.

A great feature of the forthcoming performance of The Taming of the Shrew by the O.U.D.S. will be the appearance of Miss Lily Brayton (Mrs. Oscar Asche) as Katharina. The part of Bianca will be taken by Miss Agnes Brayton. The play, which will be given from Feb. 6 to 12, will be produced under the direction of the well-known and experienced stage-manager, Mr. G. R. Foss.

At this afternoon's concert at the Crystal Palace Mark Hambourg, the great Russian pianist, will be heard, and will be assisted by Boris Hambourg, Jan Hambourg, Ida Kopetschny, and Benno Scherek. In the evening there will be a grand Scotch concert, when Scotch songs, selections, and part songs will be given. The artists include Miss Leonora Sparkes, Mr. William Maxwell, Mr. Charles Bennett, and Miss Jessie Bowater. The Crystal Palace Choir will be conducted by Mr. Walter W. Hedgcock, who will also, with Mr. Fred W. Holloway, act as accompanist, and the military band will be conducted by Mr. Herbert Godfrey.

"On the Side of the Angels," the new play by W. L. Courtney, which will be produced by the Pioneers at the Royalty on Sunday, Dec. 16, will be powerfully cast. The characters are allotted to Messrs. Norman McKinnel, Matheson Lang, Arthur Playfair, George Bealby, Daniel McCarthy, Frank Cochrane, and A. Vane Tempest, and Misses Lilian Braithwaite, Granville, Agnes Thomas, Florence Haydon, Eily Malyon, and Mabel Beardsley.

Flattering reference to the excellence of the Morton management was paid by Mrs. Russ Whytal at the Theatre Royal, Hull, last week. At the close of her visit with Alice Sit-by-the-Fire the popular actress thanked the audience for their kindly reception. Her visit to their town, where she received so much kindness from the management, had, as always, been most delightful. The "Mortons" were indeed among the best managements in Great Britain, and the encouragement she received from them ever since her first visit to this country, some two years since, was beyond expression.

Pit and gallery seats will be numbered at the matinée which is to take place at the Scala Theatre on Monday afternoon in aid of five well-known animals' societies. A fine programme has been arranged, including Miss Lilian Braithwaite, Miss Margaret Cooper, Miss Marie Dainton, Miss Maggie May, Miss Nancy Price, Mr. Lawrence Irving, Mr. Henry Neville, Mr. Charles Capper, and a large number of other well-known artists.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

DR. KARL BLEIBTREU, the German writer, has come to the conclusion that the real author of Shakespeare's plays was not "the Warwickshire thief" but Roger, Earl of Rutland, the son-in-law of Sir Philip Sidney. One of Herr Bleibtreu's reasons for thinking this is that the Earl went to Denmark in 1603 to attend the baptism of the Danish Crown Prince; hence the "local colour" of Hamlet. The Earl, we are informed, actually met a Guildenstern and a Rosencrantz at the Danish Court, and the two young Barons Rosencranz were fellow students of the Earl at Padua.

APROPOS of Elsinore, some amusing facts are related in "Baedeker." It seems that the authorities and guides of the place were so pestered by applications from tourists and visitors to be shown "Ophelia's Grave," that at last, in self-defence, they prepared a very picturesque one for exhibition purposes, and it is now one of the "lions" of Elsinore. This is only another instance of the superior enterprise shown by the inhabitants of Continental resorts in making them interesting and attractive.

ANOTHER "cheery" drama has been produced in Berlin. Franz Wedekind, the author, is one of Germany's most "modern" playwrights. His latest production, Frühling's Erwachen (Spring's awakening), which was given at the Deutsches on the 22nd ult., is called a "children's tragedy." It is the story of two schoolboys and of a schoolgirl not yet out of short skirts. One of the boys, Melchior, is a brute; the other, Moritz, more refined and of morbid nature, falls under his friend's evil influence, and commits suicide. The innocent Wendla is a victim of Melchior's vice, and dies in consequence of her mother's efforts to conceal the effects of the crime. Melchior escapes from the house of correction, and goes by night to Wendla's grave. Here he meets the shade of Moritz, with his head under his arm, and the dead and the living converse amicably. A masked individual of the male sex appears, who orders poor Moritz back into his grave, while he leads Melchior, with friendly promises, into the world again. Who the amiable gentleman is the audience is not told, but may conclude that he is the impersonation of Life.

THE overture to The Yeomen of the Guard which Mrs. D'Oyly Carte will revive at the Savoy Theatre next Saturday, was composed and scored in twelve hours. Sir Arthur Sullivan was a very rapid worker, and thus described his method :—"My first work—the jotting down of the melodies—I term sketches. When I have finished these, the creative part of my work is completed. When the sketch is finished, the work is drawn out in so-called 'skeleton score'; that is, with all the vocal parts, rests for symphonies, &c., completed, but without a note of accompaniment or instrumental work of any kind. Then the rehearsals begin. On those occasions I 'vamp' an accompaniment. It is not until the music has been thoroughly learnt, and the rehearsals on the stage with the necessary action and business are well advanced, that I begin orchestration." Sir Arthur always considered The Yeoman of the Guard his best opera.

ONE of the functions of the drama is to instruct; and Miss Clara Lipman's play, Julie Bonbon, informs us of many American matters. Our attention is called to the marvellous variety of inflexions of which the American accent is capable, from that of the little messenger boy to that of the proud inhabitant of a house "on" Fifth Avenue. It is a great mistake to suppose that this accent is one and indivisible. To a trained ear, the speech of the Eastern, Southern, or Western States is easily distinguishable. And in Julie Bonbon we also have the French accent "breaking through" the American, as the gentleman broke through the footman in an historical performance.

TOLSTOY has confessed, in an article in the Fortnightly Review, that he cannot see much in Shakespeare. He says :—"I remember the astonishment I felt when I first read Shakespeare. I expected to receive a powerful, æsthetic pleasure; but, having read, one after the other, works regarded as his best—King Lear, Romeo and Juliet, and Macbeth—not only did I feel no delight, but I felt an irresistible repulsion and tedium, and doubted as to whether I was senseless in feeling works regarded as the summit of perfection by the whole of the civilised world to be trivial and positively bad, or whether the significance which this civilised world attributes to the works of Shakespeare was itself senseless. My consternation was increased by the fact that I always keenly felt the beauties of poetry in every form; then why should artistic works recognised by the whole world as those of a genius—the works of Shakespeare—not only fail to please me, but be disagreeable to me? For a long time I could not believe in myself; and during fifty years, in order to test myself, I several times recommenced reading Shakespeare in every possible form, in Russian, in English, in German, and in Schlegel's translation, as I was advised. Several times I read the dramas and the comedies and historical plays, and I invariably underwent the same feelings—repulsion, weariness, and bewilderment."

AFTER a long and derisive scenario of King Lear, Tolstoy, in his article, continues :—"Such is this celebrated drama. However absurd it may appear in my rendering—which I have endeavoured to make as impartial as possible—I may confidently say that in the original it is yet more absurd. For any man of our time—if he were not under the hypnotic suggestion that this drama is the height of perfection—it would be enough to read it to its end (were he to have sufficient patience for this) in order to be convinced that, far from being the height of perfection, it is a very bad, carelessly composed production, which, if it could have been of interest to a certain public at a certain time, cannot evoke amongst us anything but aversion and weariness. Every reader of our time who is free from the influence of suggestion will also receive exactly the same impression from all the other extolled dramas of Shakespeare, not to mention the senseless dramatised tales, Pericles, Twelfth Night, The Tempest, Cymbeline, Troilus and Cressida."

IN the same review, Mr. St. John Hankin, in an article on "Puritanism and the English Stage," denounces the influence of the censorship on English dramatic art, and pleads for the building of an Art Theatre where the playright may be free from the supervision of that functionary. Says Mr. Hankin in the course of his article :—"There is, however, another form of Puritanism whose hostility to the English theatre is of more recent growth. In fact, it scarcely seems to have existed till quite modern times. This is not a Puritanism of faith or morals. Indeed, it is often quite ostentatiously free from either. It is a sort of Puritanism of the intellect and is not always distinguishable from Priggishness. I remember once asking a well-known man of letters what he thought of a certain play which was then having a considerable success in London. His reply was, 'Oh, I never go to the theatre.' Do you imagine that he made this confession with a certain diffidence, a hint of deprecation even, as one that might need some apology coming from a literary critic who had written a good deal on Ibsen and the musical glasses? On the contrary. He said it with that curl of the lip, that accent of intense superiority and conscious virtue with which our middle-class citizen tells you that he 'never enters a public-house.' I have been somewhat coy about referring to the theatre in literary circles since then, but if ever the subject has arisen—it seldom does—I have usually detected the same curl of the lip."

"JULIE BONBON."

A Play, in Four Acts, by Miss Clara Lipman, Played, for the First Time in London, at the Waldorf Theatre, on Monday, Nov. 26.

Julie Bonbon ..... MISS LIPMAN
Jean Poujol ..... MR. MANN
Mrs. Schuyler Van Brunt ..... MISS IDA LEWIS
John Schuyler Van Brunt.. MR. ROBERT CONNESS
Mr. John Stevens..... MR. GEORGE PAUNCEFORT
Mrs. Johnson ..... MISS ADA MAY TALBOT
Grace Moreland ..... MISS MURIEL MCARTHUR
Mrs. Dan Laverty ..... MISS JENNY LAMONT
Mrs. Lester ..... MISS CORNELIA LYNDS
Annie ..... MISS MADELEINE DALLAS
Katie ..... MISS BEATRICE BERTRAND
Caroline ..... MISS LEONA STEVENS
Arabella ..... MISS JANE FEARNLEY
Charlie ..... MR. MARTIN G. BROWN
Freddie ..... MR. GILBERT MILLER
Eddie..... MR. ALBERT LATSCHA
Schwartz ..... MR. ANTHONY ASHER
August ..... MR. JOHN ADOLFI
Second Waiter ..... MR. MAURICE ELVY
Dr. Bustling ..... MR. W. THORNTON SIMPSON
Soloist ..... SENOR EOLO CELLINI
Messenger Boy ..... CHARLIE BARRISCALE
Newsboy ..... PERCY CLIFTON
Louise ..... MISS RHODA RAY
Dan ..... MR. SAM WHITE
James ..... H. CARTER
Salvation Army Lassie.. MISS MARJORIE HUBERT

Memories of Caste must have come to many of those who saw Miss Clara Lipman's play, Julie Bon-Bon, at the Waldorf Theatre on Monday evening. But the motif of the girl of the people who is sought in marriage by a man of the upper class, and is sorely troubled by her connection with a tipsy and disreputable parent, can be told in many ways; and Miss Lipman's treatment of the idea is decidedly and distinctively American. Indeed, the piece is so essentially New-Yorkish in flavour that it is slightly handicapped in England by the presentation of a society unfamiliar to mere Britishers. Julie Bonbon, the heroine, is the proprietress of a fashionable millinery shop "on" Fifth-avenue. Her real name is Poujol; and her father, Jean Poujol, is a base and intemperate old rascal, who lives upon her, and is a decided encumbrance to his brave and industrious daughter. This is severely felt when she falls in love with John Schuyler Van Brunt, the eldest son of an American family of aristocratic importance. Mrs. Van Brunt is violently opposed to the proposed mésalliance, and she comes to the shop to buy Julie off. Her offer is rejected with scorn; and then the enraged mother engages detectives to investigate the girl's antecedents and connections. Though strictly virtuous, Julie has lived the free life of the independent woman, and is followed, "for the bad motive," by an elderly rake called John Stevens. Mrs. Van Brunt tries to "pump" him as to Julie's conduct, in order to make her son believe in the worthlessness of his fiancée; and she also invites Jean Poujol to the house in Fifth-avenue, in order to show John Schuyler what sort of a father-in-law he has in prospect. Poujol arrives, and thoroughly disgraces himself, stealing cigars and wine, and trying to make his daughter's marriage with Van Brunt a matter of barter. On his demands being denied, he flies into a furious passion, and "flings" out of the house. John Schuyler, who is beginning to have doubts of Julie's virtue, goes with his cousin, Grace Moreland, to a Bohemian restaurant, where a supper is being given to Julie by Stevens, to celebrate her birthday. Mrs. Van Brunt, by feigning illness, makes the young man break his appointment with his fiancée; and, when he arrives at the restaurant, Julie is egged on by the statements of Stevens and the suggestions of her companions to quarrel with him, and, in her distress and desperation, to behave in the wildest way, standing on a table to be pelted with roses, and doing a reckless dance. John Schuyler, who understands her feelings, tries to check her; but she is in such a state of excitement and indignation that she repulses him, and falls fainting on the floor. In the end, however, Van Brunt is touched by her wish to sacrifice her love for him to his welfare, and all obstacles to their union are removed.

Decidedly the most striking thing in the performance was the Jean Poujol of Mr. Mann. He makes the old rascal extremely grotesque and not a little amusing. Poujol has a stoop and a suspicion of a hunch-back. His nose and lips are of a purplish-red, and his "sloppy" trousers and shuffling, uncertain gait, all add to the picture he presents in the first act. Later on, when he appears in evening dress, Mr. Mann emphasises the rarity of such display on Poujol's part by his sufferings from a pair of tight patent leather boots. His business, when left alone in the Van Brunt library, is admirably worked up, and holds the attention of the audience for several minutes. Miss Moreland, it should be stated, is in hiding behind a curtain, whence she watches Poujol purloin a fan, and fill his bottle from the wine-decanter on the table. At each fresh movement the young lady makes a noise, startling the nervous "sponger" sharply. Our readers can easily imagine how this business "goes." In his paroxysms of rage, Mr. Mann shows his teeth with a strong resemblance to an angry ape; and, in the third act, he introduces a vast amount of characteristic detail, pushing down waiters, and making himself a nuisance to the Bohemian guests by his boasting and violence. Mr. Mann's reading of the part does not err on the side of under-emphasis, and certainly his Jean Poujol makes a strong impression on the audience. Miss Lipman gives a realistic representation of a warm-hearted, excitable française—a woman of the people, with a good heart and ungovernable impulses. There is no attempt to moderate the violence of the character, or to indicate that Julie, by exceptional refinement, is suited to fill a position above her own. Miss Lipman has plenty of energy and dramatic power, and she displays both qualities in the noisy scene in the third act, in which Julie "carries on" wildly in order to exasperate John Van Brunt. Mrs. Van Brunt has a firm and sound exponent in Miss Ida Lewis, who plays the part with solid confidence and excellent ease and balance. Mr. Robert Conness is frank, manly, and earnest as John Schuyler Van Brunt, and looks the character extremely well. Miss Ada May Talbot is clever and competent as Mrs. Johnson; and Miss Muriel McArthur depicts Grace Moreland with commendable tact and discrimination. A neat and comical character-sketch is supplied by Miss Jenny Lamont as Mrs. Dan Laverty; and Miss Cornelia Lynds fills to satisfaction the rôle of Mrs. Lester, Miss Madeleine Dallas being effective as the forewoman, and the shop-girls and boys being creditably represented. Mr. George Paunceforth supplies a clear-cut and polished performance as John Stevens. Mr. Anthony Asher, well made up, gives an interesting sketch of a New York restaurant-keeper; and Mr. John Adolfi is energetic as an irritated and injured waiter. Mr. W. Thornton Simpson is a smart and business-like doctor; and Senor Eolo Cellini sings well as the Soloist. The minor parts all have competent representatives, and the scenery, by Physioc, is thoroughly good, Mr. Louis Mann's production of the piece being thoroughly satisfactory.

ECCENTRIC CLUB DINNER.

Mr. Lionel Brough presided at the sixteenth anniversary dinner of the Eccentric Club, held at the Hotel Cecil on Sunday, the vice-chair being taken by Mr. Alfred Ellis. It had been previously arranged that Mr. Seymour Hicks should act as chairman on this occasion, but the sudden illness of that gentleman prevented his fulfilling the office. There was a big assembly of members of the club and visitors, the names, according to the table list, being as follow :—Major Russell Finley, Mr. Alfred Grunebaum, Colonel C. Allen, Mr. Oscar Barrett, Mr. Austin Brereton, Mr. Ormande Kalisz, Mr. Sidney Dark, Mr. Carl Hentschel, Mr. Chris Taylor, Mr. T. McDonald Rendle, Mr. Max Clarke, Mr. G. Hubbard, Mr. A. W. Moore, Mr. S. Groner, Mr. B. Seeker, Mr. C. Groner, Mr. L. Levy, Mr. J. Briggs, Mr. W. Briggs, Mr. S. W. Heaton, Mr. C. E. L. Wright, Mr. C. Sheather, Mr. A. J. Sewell, Mr. B. D. Robbins, Mr. G. H. Frost, Mr. Laidlaw Smith, Mr. J. Moverley Sharpe, Mr. Walter Wallis, Mr. W. G. R. Sprague, Mr. Sidney Marlow, Captain Carradeas, Dr. Brimacombe, Mr. M. Dockrell, Mr. Robert Jones, Dr. Morgan Dockrell, Mr. J. W. M. Jarrett, Mr. S. Garcia, Mr. M. J. Garcia, Mr. Joseph Davis, Mr. Joseph Lyons, Mr. Fred Riley, Mr. E. Haines, Colonel H. T. Hewitt, Mr. Edward Rosenheim, Mr. Robert Burrow, Mr. Lionel Brough, Mr. Denby Hare, Mr. R. Westmacott, Mr. C. J. Warburton, Colonel Diver, Mr. P. W. Arnold, Mr. J. W. Nightingale, Mr. W. Lyall, Mr. K. Harvey, Mr. J. Goodbun, Mr. W. E. Hobbs, Mr. L. G. Jackson, Mr. W. Hedges, Mr. S. G. Rome, Mr. S. Fredericks, Mr. Fred Fredericks, Mr. A. M. Woolf, Mr. J. M. Flatau, Mr. J. George, Mr. W. C. Clarke-Frost, Mr. E. Mayou, Mr. Guy Lane, Mr. L. Booth, Mr. B. Pellosi, Mr. G. Welch, Major Woodward, Major Stevens, Mr. G. H. Huddart, Mr. W. H. Miles, Mr. H. Jacoby, Mr. T. Jacobus, Mr. J. Franks, Mr. H. Joyner, Mr. D. Curzon, Mr. L. Curzon, Mr. E. Duffin, Hon. A. Bourke, Mr. R. A. Young, Mr. N. Williams, Mr. C. H. Craggs, Mr. A. J. Brown, Mr. G. Fitzgerald, Mr. F. N. Salaman, Mr. O. R. Borradaile, Mr. A. P. Manton, Mr. Walter Hookway, Mr. H. Mattingley, Mr. H. McClory, Mr. H. Brass, Dr. Collier, Mr. E. Bratt, Mr. T. S. Jackson, Mr. George Shepherd, Mr. Harry Milton, Mr. H. J. Rimell, Mr. A. Gutirrez, Mr. A. Winter, Mr. P. H. Winter, Mr. F. W. Marten, Mr. R. Salem, Mr. James Thompson, Mr. T. Thompson, Mr. J. Thompson, Mr. C. A. Salaman, Mr. C. Rock, Mr. W. M. Borradaile, Mr. Wardropp, Mr. R. Goodall, Mr. A. Braff, Mr. G. W. P. Johnstone, Mr. G. Morden, Mr. T. Jackson, Mr. W. Milton, sen., Mr. W. Milton, jun., Mr. F. J. Parsons, Mr. A. Nisbet, Mr. A. Eyles, Mr. A. Thurston, Mr. F. Anstiss, Mr. H. J. Young, Mr. S. Gotto, Mr. Victor Crichton, Mr. H. T. Robinson, Mr. Richard L. Warner, Mr. Laurence Caird, Lord de Clifford, Mr. C. J. Smith, Mr. R. D. Cummings, Mr. W. Rosenheim, Mr. I. Seaman, Mr. W. M. Wilson, Mr. H. F. Burrows, Mr. H. Nowell, Mr. W. E. Mandelick, Mr. S. Vandenburgh, Mr. W. G. Dickenson, Mr. C. B. Cochrane, Mr. B. W. Rose, Mr. R. H. Drysdale, Mr. A. E. Gatcombe, Mr. W. W. Thornton, Mr. Milton Abelson, Mr. S. Kutnow, Mr. Max Mendelssohn, Mr. J. Durkin, Mr. Bryan O'Donell, Mr. V. Blackburn, Mr. H. Baker, Mr. H. Pilet, Mr. J. Otto Schuler, Mr. James Stephens, Mr. S. Attenborough, Mr. J. M. McLeod, Mr. Hy. Lewis, Mr. A. G. Chifferiel, Mr. A. G. Christmas, Mr. F. B. Pitcher, Major Stevens, Mr. J. Fischer, Mr. A. Gretner, Mr. C. M. York, Mr. W. J. Calder, Mr. C. Tod Pullen, Mr. Frank Lewis, Mr. G. May, Mr. Thomas Cooper, Mr. John Le Hay, Mr. John Woodhouse, Mr. P. Hedderwick, Mr. C. J. Taylor, Mr. David Day, Mr. R. Bastinellio, Mr. Percy Dowling, Mr. Frank Shorland, Mr. W. J. Harvey, Mr. Max Malini, Mr. Albert Whelan, Mr. Tom Clare, Mr. Fred Stephens, Mr. Whitworth Mitton, Mr. Robert Radford, M. Joska Szigeti, Mr. Arthur Godfrey, Mr. Sinclair Mantell, Mr. Auguste Van Biene, Mr. P. Garcia, Mr. B. Lydington, Mr. Fred Brewer, Mr. J. B. Ellis, Mr. E. J. Venner, Mr. H. Hitchins, Mr. T. J. Richards, Mr. T. Green, Mr. A. N. G. Aitken, Mr. J. Ferguson, Mr. C. Temperley, Mr. Ernest Baker, Mr. W. Dowling, Mr. H. Cazman, Mr. C. Davis, Mr. George Mozart, Dr. Robertson, Mr. Robert Michaelis, Mr. Charles Cautley, Mr. Herbert Lloyd, Mr. Herbert Shelley, Mr. H. Reynolds, Mr. H. E. Scott, Mr. Frank Boor, Mr. J. A. Harrison, Mr. Tom Honey, Mr. G. Turner, Mr. L. A. Harward, Mr. E. C. Wheater, Mr. F. Chaine, Mr. A. B. Randall, Mr. S. B. Joel, Mr. A. R. Stephenson, Mr. Eugene Corrie, Mr. T. Tapling, Mr. C. Lacell, Mr. H. E. Marshal, Mr. George Everett, Mr. Percy Leftwich, Mr. F. Banks, Mr. W. J. Smith, Mr. W. H. White, Mr. S. Asher, Mr. H. Barnato, Mr. J. L. Nathan, Mr. White, Mr. Charles Eves, Mr. F. Coleman, Mr. E. Theobald, Mr. J. H. McFadden, Mr. H. Desommes, Mr. G. C. Ralli, Mr. R. Collinge, Mr. W. E. Whineray, Mr. Harry Murdoch, Mr. Alec Wood, Mr. E. B. Palmer, Mr. Harry Carver, Mr. Thomas Fraser, Mr. Alfred Ellis, Mr. A. M. Binstead, Mr. H. Woodford, Mr. H. Titmas, Mr. C. C. Blundell, Mr. G. W. Edwards, Mr. W. H. Williams, Mr. Otto Scholzig, Mr. W. Potter, Mr. Martin Jacolette, Mr. A. Corbett, Mr. W. E. Downey, Mr. G. F. Carr, Mr. S. J. Pallant, Mr. S. Hookway, Mr. C. E. Bulling, Mr. John De Ville, Mr. Fred Evans, Mr. Harry Smith, Mr. E. T. Platt, Mr. J. C. Brock, Mr. G. Sanderson, Mr. Passmore Edwards, Dr. W. H. George, Mr. Walter J. W. Beard, Mr. I. N. Lyons, Mr. T. E. Baines, Mr. W. O'Brien, Mr. W. Harwood, Mr. W. Devereux, Mr. E. W. Bayley, Mr. R. Davidson, Mr. T. Barrasford, Mr. B. Nathan, Mr. B. Lane, Mr. C. Tyrer, Mr. Arthur Aldin, Mr. W. H. Baylis, Mr. F. Bennet, Mr. J. H. Bennet, Mr. James Trier, Mr. George Moore, Mr. W. E. Osborn, Mr. E. C. Lendon, Mr. H. Westcott, Mr. E. Suffolk, Mr. L. H. Bauer, Mr. H. O. Mack, Mr. C. J. Mate, Mr. F. W. Trott, Mr. J. Sheather, Mr. W. M. Darvell, Mr. C. H. Wyatt, Mr. J. L. Kerpen, Major H. Bateman, Mr. Tom Smith, Mr. F. A. K. Hounsell, Mr. Walter De Frece, Mr. Frank Callingham, Mr. H. Barnett, Mr. W. Lancaster, Mr. W. Churcher, Mr. E. Chatrian, Mr. F. Speyer, Mr. J. Dore Behr, Mr. S. Behr, Mr. H. Raphael, Mr. Moss Cohen, Mr. G. B. Willis, Mr. E. Dicker, Mr. W. Sparks, Mr. S. Fitch, Mr. H. Hart, Mr. F. Hall, Mr. Arthur Tite, Mr. J. Clift, Mr. Arthur Weston, Mr. P. R. Stephens, Mr. A. Oxley, Dr. Luther Martin, Mr. R. Sievier, Mr. P. Teofani, Mr. A. Strugnell, Mr. W. Schubach, Mr. S. Bileby, Mr. W. Klingenstein, Mr. M. Barnett, Mr. A. H. Chapman, Mr. M. Moore, Mr. J. White, Mr. V. Vagnoline, Mr. C. Escott, Mr. T. C. Wray, Mr. J. J. Hands, Mr. W. Griffin, Mr. H. R. Martingell, Mr. C. Loader, Mr. G. Callingham, Mr. C. Scott, Mr. Fred Bishop, Mr. W. E. Prince, Mr. L. Carter, Mr. C. B. Murless, Mr. H. J. Goodrich, Mr. J. Raphael, Mr, W. Clarkson, Mr. D. Storey, Mr. W. Hobbs, Mr. N. M. Ogle, Mr. L. R. L. Squire, Mr. S Elliott, Mr. C. Meares, Mr. J. W. Hope, Mr. J. B. Adams, Baron De Ville, Mr. T. McKeggie, Mr. A. J. Thomas, Mr. Frank Holmes, Mr. Percy Bishop, Mr. Percy Dobson, Mr. A. Harrington, Mr. F. Layman, Mr. J. King, Mr. W. D. Courteney, Mr. Oliver Imray, Mr. H. S. J. Booth, Mr. E. A. Pickering, Mr. H. Barnett, Mr. J. A. Mayer, Mr. R. H. Pringle, Mr. A. Wolton, Mr. W. J. Bruty, Mr. H. Wolton, Mr. John Palmer, Mr. R. Lee, Mr. Pritchard Jones, Mr. E. Vincent-Evans, Mr. J. Hoffer, Mr. E. C. Irish, Mr. H. J. Homer, Mr. E. Lockwood, Mr. Louis Duveen, Mr. W. C. Tozer, Mr. Edward Duveen, Mr. James Lipscombe, Mr. A. S. De Pinna, Mr. P. Phillips, Mr. A. E. Lewin, Mr. Richard Dunn, Mr. S. A. Weeden, Mr. S. G. Cook, Mr. I. G. Salaman, Mr. W. J. Hatton, Mr. Herbert Ward, Mr. P. D. Smith, Mr. Harry Reece, Mr. J. B. Howard, Mr. Wentworth Croke, Mr. H. Sparling, Mr. Norman J. Norman, Mr. E. T. Steyne, Mr. Meagher, Mr. C. A. Anderson, Dr. Byrd Page, Mr. Ernest Stuart, Mr. A. Corrick, Mr. J. V. Olver, Mr. C. St. John Denton, Mr. George Scott, Mr. Charles Urban, Mr. H. Hargreaves, Mr. J. Tiller, Mr. Herman Finck, Mr. Tom Chittock, Mr. H. Parsons, Mr. G. Cording, Mr. Clarence Sounes, Mr. Bernard Parsons, Mr. A. Dones, Mr. F. Foulsham, Mr. H. W. Chew, Mr. Fred Crellin, Mr. A. H. Bleksley, Mr. Wilkie Bard, Mr. C. A. Antonelli, Mr. W. Ramsbottom, Mr. Mark Noble, Mr. J. Turner, Mr. J. J. McNaughton, Mr. J. Kotchie, Mr. W. S. Le Grand, Mr. S. Clifford, Mr. J. C. Lilley, Mr. G. Lean, Mr. C. Hornitz, Mr. S. Corner, Mr. Will Bishop, Mr. T. McNaughton, Mr. D. Munroe, Mr. Jas. Howell, Mr. Joseph Wilson, Mr. Louis De Reeder, Mr. Cubitt Cooke, Mr. B. Lewis, Mr. Max Heyman, Mr. Oscar Krupka, Mr. Buckham, Mr. J. W. Jeffery, Mr. Heathcote, Mr. C. Ansell, Mr. Hal Forde, Mr. W. W. Sampson, Mr. J. Nanson, Mr. J. Lindsey, Mr. Jesse Sparrow, Mr. Geo. Peel, Mr. S. Harris, Mr. A. Bond Sayers, Mr. E. M. Lacey, Mr. Stanley Brett, Mr. J. Hayman, Mr. Eustace Ponsonby, Mr. Harry Fragson, and Mr. Harry Tich.

A message from Mr. Seymour Hicks was read, as follows :—"Am overwhelmed that I cannot take the chair at your dinner to-night. If at any date I can be of assistance to my brother Eccentrics, command me." The secretary telegraphed the following reply :—"My dear Seymour,—Five hundred of your brother Eccentrics and guests unite in wishing you a speedy recovery. Lal Brough in the chair.—Your always, Jack Harrison."

After the chairman had proposed the loyal toasts, the vice-chairman submitted "The Visitors," coupling with it the name of Mr. T. McDonald Rendle.

Mr. Rendle, in returning thanks for the visitors, made an extremely witty speech, which was throughout punctuated by the laughter of his hearers. He expressed regret that the gentleman who had been announced to take the chair had been unable to do so; but in substituting for Mr. Seymour Hicks the veteran who now occupied the chair they had not made a great mistake. He (the speaker) remembered Mr. Brough in the long ago as a person with a florid waistcoat—and therefore presumed to be virtuous—in The Rosebud of Stinging Nettle Farm. So far as Mr. Hicks was concerned, it was to be hoped that his new theatre in course of erection in Shaftesbury-avenue would prove successful.

The chairman stated that Mr Hicks, who was to have proposed "The Eccentric Club," had written a speech, and Mr. Denby Hare had kindly offered to read it to them.

Mr. Seymour Hicks' speech, read by Mr. Hare, was as follows :—

Gentlemen, I am very proud to occupy the position of your chairman to-night, and I am also very grateful to you for allowing so humble a member of the club as myself to have the honour of proposing the toast of the evening. I think, before I go any further, I had better try and speak the truth—I should say, speak the truth so that we can thoroughly understand each other. The fact is, I am wholly unfitted to occupy the chair at this delightful meeting. One of the first qualifications of a chairman is that he should be able to speak—one of my first and most marked characteristics at a public dinner is that I become speechless. For the first time in my life I stand here perspiring with fear, even as I did twenty years ago when I first had the pleasure of meeting my dear friend, and your magnificent secretary, Mr. Jack Harrison. I remember him looking me up and down, and I said, "Mr. Yorke Stephens has put me on the stage." "Has he?" said Mr. Harrison. "What harm have you ever done him? So you are an actor?" I asked him to put it in writing. Jack Harrison is a careful man. But in those halcyon days, gentlemen, when we had less money, or, I should say, when we were not allowed to owe as much as we do at the present time—which is much the same thing—Jack Harrison supplied the costumes for a production of Macbeth. Our means were scanty, and Jack Harrison, with the economy of Mr. Haldane, dressed Act I. splendidly. Act II. we used the same dresses turned inside out. I held the book, and the critic next morning wrote :—"The prompter, although seen at rare intervals, soon became a favourite with the audience."

What would Shaftesbury-avenue do without its Eccentric Club? What would the cab-rank at Piccadilly Circus do at three in the morning without it? And now, having treated it in the lightest possible way, but with the most affectionate feelings in my heart for it, I am not going to hesitate to blow the Eccentric trumpet. I am proud to do so, for the trumpet's music has brought happiness and comfort to many a fellow-creature in distress. The trumpet, gentlemen, which although played upon by men who say they are out of the ordinary and eccentric, are only out of the ordinary in one way, and that is their hearts are a bit too big for their bodies, and that they try to and do more kindly acts and say less about them than any community that it has ever been my lot to fall into. Even then, to so little practised a speaker as myself, it is not such a difficulty as I first imagined to get up and propose so ripping a club as ours is—bohemian in the best sense of the word, thanks to its splendid committee and the way the club is managed. What would an oyster be without its shell? What would the Eccentric Club be without its Beard, its Tom Fraser, its Billy White, and other members of the committee? Gentlemen, when I ask you to raise your glasses, as I am about to do, I think it is no exaggeration to say that we shall do so, not in an ordinary superficial toast-like manner, but with real affection in our hearts for these brother members of ours who have steered our ship so successfully, both financially and socially. Gentlemen of the committee, I thank you, we all thank you, from our hearts for your splendid service. Let us not forget that on every ship there are unseen hands who urge it—stokers who bank the fires in rough weather or smooth—and let us not forget that on our good ship we have a stoker who works from Christmas Day to Christmas Day. Need I say who I mean? I mean our dear Jack Harrison. Jack to his friends, Harrison to the world, nothing to his enemies, because he has not got any. With the club, gentlemen, raise your glasses to the commitee, with the committee our splendid secretary. If you will, gentlemen, allow myself and the dear woman who has always done everything for me to make some small return to you. I would like to give you a row of dress circles and a row of stalls for the opening night of our New Theatre in Shaftesbury-avenue to our Benevolent Fund, and perhaps somebody will put them up to auction later this evening and get a substantial sum for the splendid society. Mr. Charles Frohman is only too delighted that I do this.

The chairman, after eulogising Mr. Hicks' address, gave the toast, "Success to the Eccentric Club," which was enthusiastically honoured.

Mr. Jack Harrison, the hon. secretary, in replying, stated that he, like all the others, regretted the absence of Mr. Seymour Hicks. However, they could not have found anyone better qualified to take his place than Mr. Lal Brough. Mr. Hicks had made the club a very generous offer. He had placed at their disposal for the first night of the opening of his new theatre twenty seats in the stalls, and thirty in the dress circle, with the object of aiding their Benevolent Fund. So far as the club itself was concerned, it was gratifying to be able to report a very prosperous state of affairs. In its sixteen years' existence it had devoted a large sum of money to charity, up to last year the amount that had been expended in this direction being £7,000. Mr. Harrison concluded by thanking Mr. Brough for so ably presiding.

During the progress of the dinner a fine programme of music was performed by Mr. Norfolk Megone's orchestra, and afterwards a delightful entertainment was given by some of the following artists :—Miss Elsie Bernard, Miss Margaret Cooper, Mme. Heléne D'Aubigny, Miss Violet Elliot, Miss May Gurney, Mme. Aimée de Leska, Miss Alice Lloyd, Miss Clarice Mayne, Miss Annie Purcell, Miss Margaret Radcliffe, Mr. Charles Cautley, Mr. Tom Clare, Mr. J. M. Crawford, Mr. Richard Green, Mr. Nelson Jackson, Mr. Sydney Jarvis, Mr. Kalisz, Master Nipper Lane, Mr. Herbert Lloyd, Mr. Max Malini, Mr. Robert Michaelis, Mr. Whitworth Mitton, Mr. George Mozart, Mr. F. Byrd Page, Mr. Robert Radford, Mr. Willie Rouse, Mr. Andrew Roy, Mr. Herbert Shelley, Mr. Fred Stevens, M. Joska Szigeti, Mr. Albert Whelan, Mr. and Mrs. Zancig, Miss Nell Carter, Miss Barbara Deane, Miss Maudi Darrell, Mr. Stanley Brett, Mr. Laurence Caird, Mr Murray King, Master Albert Valchera, and Miss Fairbrother and the Six Bathbuns. At the piano : Mr. Arthur Godfrey, Mr. Victor Marmont, and Mr. Sinclair Mantell. Mr. Frank Boor and Mr. J. Le Hay were the directors for the entertainment.

"WASPS."

A New and Original Comedy, in Three Acts, by Muriel Carmel Goldsmid (Muriel Carmel), Produced at a Matinée at the Royalty Theatre, on Tuesday, Nov. 27.

Lord McKirk ..... MR. FRED MORLAND
George Marsh ..... MR. HUGH ARDALE
Rev. Archibald Jones ..... MR. STUART WILSON
Judge ..... MR. STANLEY ROBERTS
Mr. O'Brian ..... MR. F. H. DE QUINCEY
Mr. Smithers ..... MR. DANIEL MCCARTHY
Junior Counsel ..... MR. ERIC LENNARD
Captain Hunter ..... MR. A. G. MELFORD
Bob Staines ..... MR. J. H. JACKSON
Eric Field ..... MR. GERALD BRUCE
Usher ..... MR. RATHWELL WILSON
Lady McKirk ..... MISS KATE OSBORNE
Blanche Marsh ..... MISS GEORGINA HAMILTON
Lady Julia ..... MISS SIME SERUYA
Esmé Barlow ..... MISS MARGARET BUSSE
Mrs. Hunter ..... MISS MAUD HENDERSON
Cissy Flick ..... MISS MURIEL CARMEL
Fluffy Flo ..... MISS F. WELSTEAD
Mrs. Sting ..... MISS M. ALEXANDER
Mrs. Stodger ..... } MISS DINAH FREUDENHEIM
Victoria May ..... }
Susan ..... MISS DORIS REGAN
Jane ..... MISS C. SUSSMAN

If Miss Muriel Carmel Goldsmid, in the new comedy produced at a special matinée given on behalf of the Jews in Russia, has not achieved a distinct success in a difficult branch of the art of playwriting, she can at any rate be complimented on a very creditable piece of work for a comparatively inexperienced writer for the stage. Its merits were certainly above those of many similar productions presented at performances having a special object. Most of the characters are life-like, and the dialogue, generally speaking, is natural and crisp. The construction, however, left a good deal to be desired.

Lord and Lady McKirk are a prim, precise Scotch couple, who have a horror of anything connected with the playhouse. Great, therefore, is their anger and dismay when their son George informs them that he is engaged to be married to an actress. Their ire is all the more intense inasmuch as they had arranged that the young man should marry a certain Lady Julia, who is quite willing to accept him as her husband. Esmé Barlow, the smart young actress, ventures to interview the old couple, and is insulted by being offered a small sum of money to release George from the engagement. Lady McKirk becomes hysterically tearful, and his lordship, also much upset, shows the young lady the door. George, who regards Lady Julia in the light of a sister, and is unaware of the warmth of her feeling towards him, consults her in regard to his love affair, and she unselfishly promises her assistance. By arrangement with his fiancée George declines to fulfil his promise to marry her, and he is accordingly sued as defendant in an action for damages in the High Court of Justice. A sympathetic jury awards the plaintiff £20,000 damages, and the young people, who have deceived both the old couple and the court, are able to live comfortably on the proceeds of the successful action for breach of promise. It may be said that the probabilities are considerably outraged by the plot, as the father is surely not compelled to find the money which the jury awarded the plaintiff.

Mr. Fred Morland gave a capital sketch of the strait-laced Scotch lord, and Miss Kate Osborne was amusing as the garrulous and tearful Lady McKirk. Mr. Hugh Ardale played well as George Marsh; and Mr. Stuart Wilson cleverly depicted the Rev. Archibald Jones, who, though engaged to another lady, makes love to Lady Julia. Miss Margaret Bussé was a charming representative of Esmé Barlow, the young actress; and Miss Sime Seruya (the producer of the play) acted with tact and feeling as Lady Julia. Miss Georgina Hamilton displayed ability and humour in her portrayal of George's sister Blanche, evidently one of the "wasps." Miss M. Alexander doubled the parts of Mrs. Sting and Mrs. Stodger. In the second act commendable work was done by Mr. Stanley Roberts as the Judge and Mr. F. H. de Quincey as Mr. O'Brian, Mr. Daniel McCarthy as Mr. Smithers, and Mr. Eric Lennard as Junior Counsel, other minor parts being entrusted to Miss Maud Henderson and Miss F. Welstead. Miss Muriel Carmel herself appeared as Fluffy Flo, and adequate assistance was also rendered by Messrs. A. G. Melford, J. H. Jackson, Gerald Bruce, and Rathwell Wilson, and the Misses Freudenheim, Doris Regan, and C. Sussman.

The new play was preceded by the one-act play, by Samuel Gordon and M. Carmel Goldsmid, entitled

"DAUGHTERS OF SHEM."

"THE DEVIL'S SUNDAY."

A Sensational Dramatic Episode, produced for the first time in the West End at the Metropolitan on Monday, Nov. 26.

David Faber .....Mr. John Lawson
Lord Harrington .....Mr. Royston
Commissioner Day .....Mr. E. S. Vincent
Fay Faber .....Mrs. Lawson
Lady Stevens .....Miss Mabel Wynn
Miss Babbington .....Miss Ford

Mr. John Lawson in Humanity gave us the bash of the bottle; in The Devil's Sunday he regales us with the thrill of the throttle. The later episode was produced at the Metropolitan on Monday, and throughout the attitude of the audience—hushed and intent—and the enthusiasm at the fall of the curtain were most unmistakable signs of success. It is admitted by the anonymous author that he or she is indebted to the recent diatribes at the expense of "the smart set" of Father Bernard Vaughan at the Chapel of the Jesuits, Farm-street. The scene of the incidents presented is the drawing-room of a flat in Grange Court-mansions, Kensington Here Mrs Fay Faber, whose husband has been arrested and is retained at Exeter on a charge of forgery, is entertaining some very frivolous people, supposed to be hanging on to the fringe of society, in this case represented by a worthless aristocrat, Lord Harrington. A chartered libertine, he not only makes an assignation with Mrs. Faber—who is only too glad of the temporary relief from the inconvenient solicitude of her Hebrew husband promised by a prospective five years' penal servitude—but endeavours to draw into his net an innocent girl companion of one of the guests. His designs in this quarter are, however, frustrated by the abrupt entry of the girl's father—a twenty-one years' Service man—who speaks out with all the bluntness of an old soldier, giving his opinions of all and sundry in no measured terms before taking his daughter away from the contaminating influence of women without conscience or scruple. A game of bridge is suggested, and Mrs. Faber loses thirty pounds. Left alone in her flat, she discovers the engraved plate used by her husband in his forgeries of the flimsies, and, so keen is her desire to secure his conviction that she writes to the Governor of Exeter Gaol, where Faber is supposed to be incarcerated, and encloses the damning evidence of his crime. But Faber's friends and counsel have persuaded the stipendiary at Exeter to let him out on bail. He arrives at the flat, finds his wife's incriminating letter to the authorities, and Lord Harrington's telegram arranging for her week-end stay with him at Brighton. Even then the man is so consumed with love for the woman whose extravagance he has only been able to satisfy by becoming a smasher that on his knees he begs of her to be true to him. She treats him with disdain, and in an access of rage expresses both her hate and scorn. We are then plunged into a maelstrom of tragedy. In the struggle that ensues, Faber, in his mad fury, chokes her on the sofa, and, placing a screen around the body, awaits events. Lord Harrington comes with his motor to take the light o' love away with him. "Where is Mrs. Faber?" "Behind that screen," replies the husband, with the calm of despair. Harrington goes to the sofa, and is terrified to find the corpse of the woman he would have dishonoured. Faber utters no word of sorrow or repentance. "I killed her," says he, "that she may never break the hearts of other men!" Harrington, with a few nonchalant remarks, is about to depart, but is stopped by the now desperate Faber. "There are two revolvers on this table. One of them is loaded. Choose before I finish counting three and turn out the light." Harrington has perforce to obey, and falls shot to the heart. Curtain

The mounting of the episode, which is without any author's name, is on the lavish scale that is always a hall-mark of the Lawson productions, in which nothing that is shabby or perfunctory is permitted. The drawing-room is furnished with taste and liberality, the lady guests of Mrs. Faber are gowned in the latest French creations, and Mrs. Faber herself looks superb in a lovely dress of sequined net. The acting, too, of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson is remarkable for its power and effect. Mrs. Lawson on her entry by many little touches makes apparent the reckless extravagance of Mrs. Faber, for whom the Avernus of adultery has no terrors. It is, however, when the heartless, unscrupulous woman is at bay that we realise the depth and purpose of Mrs. Lawson's fine conception of the character, in the delineation of which she has made a further stride in her art. She may, indeed, be recognised as one of the few actresses on either stage who can rise to the opportunities afforded to her by situations of grim tragedy. In his study of despair Mr. John Lawson is consistent, forcible, and earnest; and Faber's cri de cœur strikes one by the profound depth of its sorrow.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

Bristol X.L.C.R. and Music Halls Athletic Clubs v. Harry Hare's Orchestral Band A.F.C.

Played on Clifton Downs, Nov. 24. The following were the teams:—

Bristol X.L.C.R.:—F. B. Nichols, goal; J. Lewis and A. Cox, backs; J. Lacey, S. Carter, and T. Neagle (captain), half-backs; J. Leonard, P. Reardon, F. Hansford, E. Belding, and J. Aubrey, forwards.

H. Hare's Band:—H. Wahlenn, goal; A. Hamlin (captain) and F. Edney, backs; F. Stevens, A. Mattock, and W. J. Horton, half-backs; H. Edwards, E. Bowman, P. Hewlett, L. Hamlin, and S. Richards, forwards.

Referee, H. Belding. Linesmen, H. Hare and D. O'Connor.

Result: Bristol X.L.C.R., 1 goal; H. Hare's Band, 3 goals. Messrs. J. Leonard, W. J. Horton, L. Hamlin, and H. Edwards scored the goals for their respective sides.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL LAW.

BY A. A. STRONG, LL.B. (LOND.), SOLICITOR.

Your book will, I am sure, be a valuable aid to all managers and actors.—Sir Henry Irving.

Mr. Strong states the whole case very clearly.—Illustrated London News.

Should be found very useful.—Pelican.

Should prove perfectly invaluable.—Weekly Sun.

Furnishes useful information.—Daily News.

FIFTY YEARS OF THE DRAMA.

Owing to pressure on our space, we have been compelled to hold over the weekly instalment of the above. The series will be continued next week.

The first gymkhana of the season in connection with the asphalt roller skating rink at the Crystal Palace will take place on Dec. 15, at 8 p.m. The events will include Wheelbarrow Race (three laps), 1st and 2nd prizes; Obstacle Race (two laps), 1st and 2nd prizes; Potato Race, 1st prize; Sack Race (two laps), 1st and 2nd prizes; and Ladies' Egg-and-Spoon Race (two laps), 1st prize. The Hockey Cup Match, Goy's v. Winners of A, will take place at 8.30 p.m.

Mr. Tom Pavillio, of Pavillio and Rousillion, passed away on the evening of Nov. 22 at his residence, 28, Brunswick-square, Camberwell, after many years of ill-health. He had a paralytic stroke about a week ago, and fell, severely hurting his head. At the inquest on the 23rd ult. a verdict of accidental death was returned. The deceased's real name was Tom Henry Wilson.

MUSIC HALL LADIES' GUILD.

MATINEE AT THE CANTERBURY.

Sisters in art united in a common cause on Tuesday at the Canterbury, when that popular hall, kindly lent by Mr. Geo. Adney Payne and his co-directors, was the scene of a remarkable manifestation of enthusiasm in behalf of the Music Hall Ladies' Guild, a society founded for the relief of the necessitous among the fairer portion of the entertainers of the variety stage. Though only in the first weeks of its existence, the beneficent purpose of the society has been recognised by the foremost ladies of the profession, the acknowledged head of whom stands in the capacity of president. Illness unfortunately intervened to prevent Miss Marie Lloyd from being present, but the vice-president, Miss Lily Burnand, was conspicuous among the performers, and Miss Constance Moxon, one of the founders, filled the duties of stage-manager expeditiously. Mrs. Fred Ginnett, another vice-president, was amongst the stewards, who also included Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. Louie Smythson, Miss Lil Hawthorne, Mrs. Fred Karno (treasurer), Mrs. Butler, Mlle. Vulcana, and Mrs. Eugene Stratton, Miss Anna de Grey being the acting-manager. The feminine note was extended even to the orchestra, where Mme. H. E. Angless's Pompadour Band officiated ably, and made an impressive appearance in their picturesque costumes. Dainty ladies welcomed visitors at the doors, and smiling maidens pushed the sale of programmes, photographs, and flowers indefatigably. The immense auditorium was crowded from floor to roof, and though a few vacant seats were to be found in the stalls, they were all represented in the returns by hard cash. The event, arranged and carried out in its entirety by ladies, was a brilliant example of what the gentler sex is capable when it puts its fair shoulder to the wheel, and reflected in a remarkable way the amount of energy, zeal, and organising power which had been expended in its promotion.

At an interval in the performance, the curtain rose upon a large group of ladies, in the centre of whom stood Miss Anna de Grey, the hon. secretary, who came forward to explain why they had been brought together. There was, she said, a great deal of distress amongst music-hall people, and they were joining together, a band of willing workers, to do something towards their help. They were not doing very much—just trying to provide a little food, coal, and clothing, to visit the sick—that was all at the present moment. They were trying to ease the distress which prevailed, and many hands were stretched forward for help. A woman would go sometimes to a woman for help when she would not go to a man. A woman did not like to expose her poverty before all men, and that was why they were not asking the help of the men except from their pockets, in which respect they were always most generous. She had received many telegrams from sympathisers, who all expressed their regret at being unable to be present. One telegram was from their president, Miss Marie Lloyd, who was kept away by illness. Miss de Grey was sure they would join with her in the earnest desire that she would soon be released from her bed of sickness, and come amongst them once more. The telegram was as follows: "More than sorry unable to be with you to-day to aid in the success of this worthy cause. Unfortunately still confined to bed; otherwise would have been with you. Trust it will prove gigantic success. With all kind wishes from yours, Marie Lloyd." Miss Lloyd's telegram was heartily cheered, and Miss de Grey, resuming, said she thanked them, the public, and every lady and gentleman there that afternoon. She also proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Payne and his co-directors, to the gentlemen of the Press, to the billposters, who had done all the posting free of charge, and to all those who had generously assisted. She also thanked the band, and, lastly, the artists, many of whom had travelled long distances in order to be present. She thanked them heartily for their kindness, and for all they had done.

If the voice of the mere male was silent on the stage, it was determined to assert itself in the auditorium, for, as soon as the applause which greeted Miss de Grey's speech was allayed, Mr. Joe O'Gorman, the popular Irish comedian, taking up his position at the orchestra rail, addressed the audience. No man, he said, was allowed within the precincts of the stage to interfere with the Adamless Eden there established. He came there to represent the Grand Order of Water Rats, and in their behalf to express the hope for the continued success and prosperity of the most excellent society which had been formed for a noble cause. He was only too well aware of the poverty which unfortunately exists in the profession. They were reputed to earn a lot of money, but evil days came upon them as in other professions, and they sometimes came to want, and this youthful society had come to succour those in distress. It was his pleasing duty to present them, on behalf of the Water Rats, with a cheque for £55 towards that excellent object.

Miss de Grey then asked to be allowed to say another few words to thank the Water Rats most heartily for their gift. She also wanted to thank the members of the Theatrical Ladies' Guild, who were present, and had helped them in every way. They had only had a ten weeks' existence, but if it had not been for the ladies of the Theatrical Guild, they could not have existed at all.

Then up and spoke Miss Fanny Brough, the president of the Theatrical Ladies' Guild, who, with her vice-president, Mrs. Edward Compton, and Miss Carlotta Addison, occupied a private box. She did not deserve any thanks, she said, but was more than gratified at the gorgeous success which had been attained. The society she represented was fourteen years old, but the Music-Hall Ladies' Guild was only fourteen days, and had done wonders in that time. They had taught them a lesson that afternoon, and she would suggest that though her Guild had not hitherto allowed the noble animal to do anything, they would in future follow their example, and let him in—if he would come. She regretted the absence of Miss Marie Lloyd, for whom she had the very deepest admiration. They could always rely upon the Theatrical Ladies' Guild to do all possible good for the Music-Hall Ladies' Guild.

Miss Constance Moxon, who had wittily announced all the "extra turns," here "spied" Mr. Fred Miller in the hall, and suggested that he should respond on behalf of the management. Mr. Miller, who submitted that his friend, Mr. O'Gorman, had taken all the wind out of his sails, and prevented him delivering the nice little speech he had prepared, said on behalf of the management that they were more than pleased to be of any assistance in such a good cause. The reputation of the society would be greatly enhanced by the grand assembly there that afternoon, and anything he had done in its behalf had been a great pleasure.

The chief feature of the entertainment, which was confined solely to ladies, was the appearance of Miss Kate Carney, who had the support of all those behind the footlights in her popular song, "'Liza Johnson." There was less eccentricity about the accompanying revels than those to which we are accustomed, but the sight of a bewitching array of "star" performers joining in a "cake-walk," was a memorable one. The Lloyd family, despite the absence of its chief member, was well represented in Miss Alice Lloyd and Miss Rosie Lloyd, who both sang one of their most taking numbers. Miss Lily Burnand delighted her hearers with her inimitable rendering of a picture-post-card song; and an esteemed Canterbury favourite appeared in the person of Miss Katie Lawrence. A series of poses, illustrative of muscular development, was given by Mlle. Vulcana, Miss Edie King won enthusiastic recalls for her tuneful singing and expert dancing, and Miss Millie Payne gained laughter for her treatment of the ills of "Jenny Jones." A "mite" of something like five summers was presented in Popet Ginnett, who executed a dance close to the wings, but was induced to come to the footlights to accept a bouquet, and another of about the same tender age was found in Miss Lil Shaw, certainly a juvenile prodigy, who gave an imitation, in male costume, of Miss Vesta Tilley, in "Following in father's footsteps," and was also florally rewarded. Miss Clarissa Heney, a young vocalist, with a prepossessing style, sang "Creep a little closer" agreeably; Miss Maude Mortimer's fine voice was heard with pleasure in a medley of Scotch ballads; Miss Anna Kenwick obliged with a characteristic coon song and dance; and Miss Lilian Lee gave a highly-cultured and expressive rendering of "Il Bacio"; Miss Bertha Stuart sang "Caller Herrin'" charmingly in character; Miss Rose Harvey rendered the popular "Zuyder Zee"; Miss Nina Martino sang a French chanson captivatingly; and the entertainment was completed by Miss Teresa de Silva, Miss Dot Irving, Miss Katie Butler, Miss Empsie Bowman, and the Sisters Jonghmanns.

Mr. Fred Miller, the manager, welcomed visitors cordially, and great assistance was lent in front by Mr. Alfred Davis, to whose hands the interests of the Press were committed. It was understood that the proceeds of the matinée would result in the substantial sum of nearly £200.

Further list of donations:—	£	s.	d.
Mrs. Harry Randall	1	1	0
Collected by Miss Alice Maydue at V.A.F. meeting, Glasgow	0	10	6
Mr. Albert Egbert	0	10	0
Miss Hetty Chattell	0	5	0
Miss Patty Yole	0	2	6
H. Douglas	0	2	0

Gifts of clothing have been received from Miss Annie Wood, Sisters Slater (2nd), My Fancy (2nd), Miss Burnand, Miss Annie Schuberth, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Butler, and Mrs. Ryan (Regan and Ryan).

RICHMOND THEATRE.

So excellent in every way is the programme devised for the delectation of his clientèle that one is inclined to wonder whether Mr. Kay Draco, who directs matters here, could do better or meet with a more gratifying share of commendation. Mr. Norfolk Megone's always excellent orchestra opens with a rollicking overture, "Off we go," sufficiently tuneful to put everyone in a good humour. The Sisters Lytton harmonise quite prettily, and score a huge success in Arditi's ever popular "Il Bacio." A dainty and exquisite setting is given to the song-picture "Dolly and a coach." Miss Agnes Molteno fills in the vocal story and accompanies herself at the piano. It not infrequently happens when this course is pursued that the result is not satisfactory; this reproof cannot be levelled at Miss Agnes Molteno; her skill as a pianist is only excelled by a really beautiful voice, which is heard to perfection. Mr. Fred Bronte sings of sailor-lads and other matters nautical, and promptly veers off to the deeds of the self-sacrificing clergyman, whom the vocalist admits is "a parson and a man." There is nothing in Mr. Bronte's song to cavil at, and he is rewarded by considerable applause. The clergy would appear to be popular in Richmond, at all events. There is endless fun in the high-class comedy duo Not a Word. It deals with a silent man and a lady who is the very reverse of quiet. The trouble seems to have come about by the husband (Mr. G. L. Grange) not returning home as early as he should on the anniversay of his wedding-day. The wife (Miss Fay Rivington) proves a veritable shrew, and for ten or twelve minutes the husband has anything but a pleasant time of it. Throughout the torrent of abuse, invectives, and denunciations the husband remains dumb; not a word does he utter. But even this sullen silence fail to please his wife, whose lectures would put Mrs. Candle to the blush. Of course all ends happily and peace is restored by the presentation of a diamond brooch to the lady. Mr. Grange is excellent as the husband, and Miss Fay Rivington, on whom falls the brunt of the work, is exceedingly clever. The interval is pleasingly filled by a tuneful selection from The Cingalee under the bâton of Mr. Norfolk Megone, admirably interpreted by the orchestra. Mr. Frank Boyce warbles pleasingly of girls and the starlight. His second contribution dealt with the Turf and kindred topics dear to Captain Coe—and others; the song pleased immensely, and Mr. Boyce met with a full share of favour. It is a trite truism that "Girls will be girls," and this proved the title of Miss Mabel Bright's scena. Quite a bevy of young ladies take possession of the stage, and go to prove that there cannot be a shadow of doubt that "girls will be girls." Miss Mabel Bright's ladies sing, dance, flirt, and generally appear to do all that the modern girl is required to do. The song "The hammock built for two" was successfully interpreted by the company generally, but their best effort is a North American Indian love-song. This was one of the hits of the evening. Miss Lily Esplin has a coon song which she renders in her own peculiarly happy style, and, as usual "Mr. Jackson" got the proverbial cold shoulder. "Mr. Jackson" is an unlucky dog. Miss Esplin's "Suffragette" song is a quaint humoresque. With the rage for poses plastiques, it was small wonder that they should find their way into the bill here. La Pia is clever, and poses with considerable success. Many of the tableaux selected for representation were in this year's Paris Salon, and evoked very favourable attention. The electric fountains are gems of rare beauty. Vernon's Bioscope shows some droll pictures, notably "Four Hooligans," a quartet of young scamps who get into all kinds of trouble and as promptly escape. Another picture, "When cripples meet," demonstrated that even invalids occasionally wax pugilistic—and with dire results. Mr. Kay Draco has an admirable bill.

THE FRED LOCKE FUND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

Sir,—I am pleased to inform you that I have made my first £100 for the Fred Locke Fund, and this week I start on my second. Sorry to say Bro. Locke is no better. Has no power whatever in his left side. The following is my list to this date: Sixteen friends, per Harry Blake, 20s.; Wellington Corbett, 10s. 6d.; Willie Downs, 219, 10s. 6d.; Major Donaldson, 354, 10s.; Wee Covey, 354, 8s.; Friends, 2s.; W. Abercrombie, 2s. 6d.

Yours faithfully,
J. G. CRICHTON.

9, Bridge-street, Glasgow, Nov. 27.

THE LATE MRS. FRED GILBERT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

Sir,—As a daughter of the late Fred Gilbert, I shall be grateful if you will allow me to make it known through The Era that Mrs. Gilbert, his widow and my mother, died in April last year. It has come to my ears that some person is seeking financial help representing that she is Mrs. Gilbert; and for the sake of those who have gone, as for those whose charity may be imposed upon, I hope you will publish this letter.—Yours truly,

E. GILBERT.

8, Glenshaw Mansions, Brixton, Nov. 27.

"KISMET."

A Sensational Episode, by Heaton Gray, produced at the Middlesex Music Hall on Monday, Nov. 26.

Joan Earle .....Miss Mary Vaughan
Julie Gray .....Miss Cissie Murdoch
Frank Galbraith .....Mr. Heaton Gray

Fate takes an unexpected turn in the new sketch which is included in Mr. J. L. Graydon's programme at the Middlesex this week. The novelty is skilfully constructed in a manner which stimulates continuous interest, and the end is swift and startling. A successful artist named Frank Galbraith is putting the finishing touch to his picture of a study in the nude as the curtain rises. It is his masterpiece, and with it he intends to lay aside his brush. He also determines to have done with his model, Joan Earle, with whom he had lived for some time on terms of intimacy, and, after a belated repentance, to settle down to married life with Julie Gray, to whom he has become engaged. Galbraith had lured Joan from her village home some five years previously, and ever since the girl had been devoted to the artist, thinking her affection was returned. An unexpected visit is paid to the studio by Frank's fiancée, who wishes to see his picture, but the artist says he would rather she should not see it till after it is hung. Joan overhears their love-making, and learns that she is to be cast aside. Determined that her betrayer shall not benefit by her picture for which she had stood, Joan takes a knife and slashes it to pieces, and, hearing someone approaching, steps within the frame. The new arrival is Julie, who has come to take a surreptitious view of the painting, and when she draws the curtain she is astounded at the lifelike appearance of the figure. Her wonder is soon dispelled, for Joan leaves the frame and tells her sad story to Frank's intended wife. When she has finished, Frank returns, and learns that his fiancée knows all. Joan determines to leave the pair unmolested, but Julie points out to Frank that his duty lies towards the girl he has wronged, and the artist, filled with remorse, solves the problem by shooting himself.

The episode, which created a marked impression, was played by Mrs. Oscar Luck's company, the author himself enacting the part of the artist with sincerity and conviction. Miss Mary Vaughan acted with emotional feeling as Joan, the model; and Miss Cissie Murdoch was a tender and dainty representative of Julie.

"UNDER THE MAPLE LEAF."

A Dramatic Sketch, by John Henderson, Produced at the Queen's, Poplar, on Monday, Nov. 26.

Lizzie Sinclair .....Miss Millie Henderson
Troop Sergt.-Major ....Mr. Charles Beckville
Racehorse Charley .....Mr. Cyril Fairlie
Sandy McFarlane .....Mr. John Henderson

Mr. John Henderson is to be congratulated on two things. Firstly, he has written in most able fashion and in good style a tragedy, and, secondly, in the production of that tragedy he himself gives us what is rarely seen on the stage—a realistically life-like portrayal of an old Scotsman. In this he happily abandons the red-whiskered, snuff-consuming, whisky-drinking monstrosity which is usually foisted upon the public as representative of King Edward's subjects north of the Tweed. The story, briefly, is this: The scene is laid in the Canadian Rockies. The mounted police are seeking one Racehorse Charley, a notorious thief and assassin. The father of this desperado is Sandy McFarlane, an old soldier, and now earning a livelihood as a packman carrier. Father and son come together in a village posthouse, and just before the police arrive to secure their man old McFarlane strangles him in order that it may never be said that a child of his went to the gallows. Mr. Henderson's interpretation of the part of the packman carrier was altogether admirable. His accent was reminiscent of oat-cake and peet reek, and it would not be a bad plan if some of our friends in the West-End theatres who essay the characterisation of the Scotsman were to take a few hints at his hands. Racehorse Charley was as daring, brutal, and stop-at-nothing desperado as one would not wish to meet; and Miss Millie Henderson acted with delightful naturalness in the rôle of the postmistress.

"Hymack," an entirely novel turn discovered by Mr. C. St. John Denton, and who is likely to be a big success, opens at the Empire on Monday.

William H. Chippendale, who was recently charged at the instance of Mr. Fred Karno, with forging an order for £2, has been found "not guilty," and discharged. The accused acted as manager of one of Mr. Karno's companies.

The Secretary of the Music Hall Benevolent Fund has received the sum of £6 5s. from Mr. Ernest Bridgen, being the results of his kind efforts in collections at the New Cross Empire in aid of the charity.

Master May, the boy vocalist, whom Mr. Ernest Dottridge brought out recently, is meeting with great success. Dates are flowing in to Mr. Dottridge, who holds the sole agency for this gifted artist.

Mr. Walter Gibbons has, his many friends will be glad to learn, so far recovered from his recent operation as to be able to take outdoor exercise, and do a little business.

Miss Dora Lyric returns to town next week, when she will produce a new song by A. J. Mills and Harry Castling entitled "Fine feathers make fine birds." This is another of the Star Company's gems.

The friends of Miss Ada Mansfield will be sorry to hear that she is laid up at Southport with pleurisy. She is now, fortunately, out of danger. She has been obliged to transfer dates of her successful scena, Mother Shipton.

The latest quotations of music hall shares are as follows:—Alhambra, 1⅞; Canterbury, ¾; Empire (15s. paid), 1¼; Empire (10s. paid), ⅛; London Pavilion Ord., 4⅜; London Pavilion Pref., 4⅜; London Coliseum, ⅛; Metropolitan, ¾; Moss Empire, 5; Moss Empire Five per Cent. Pref., 3⅝; Oxford, 6⅞; Palace, 11s. 9d.; Tivoli, 6⅜; Varieties Consolidated Theatres, 13s.

If the large audience and the very full measure of approbation accorded each item of the programme submitted on Sunday evening last be any criterion, the concerts organised by Mr. Cecil Jeapes, on behalf of the Terriers' Benevolent Fund, appear certain to be extensively supported. The Bayreuth Orchestra, fresh from a season of triumph at Tunbridge Wells, executed some charming music. Miss Mabel Green (from the Apollo Theatre, by permission of Robert Courtneidge, Esq.) quite charmed her audience with her cultured voice, and Mr. Conway Dixon's rendering of "The welcome stranger" and "The soldier's toast" proved him to be a pleasing and talented baritone. The elocutionary powers of Miss Ecca Vanleer were displayed in Dickens's "Poor Joe," and "The King's Command" (Bradshaw), and the exhibition of the Graphic Animated Photographs elicited frequent marks of approval.

Mr. R. A Beaton, who is producing, with a strong cast, at the Richmond Theatre on Monday, a farcical sketch, entitled Poor Phil Garlic, by Roy Redgrave, will play the part of Major Garlic, which has been specially written for him.

ON THE ROAD, DEC. 3.

All-of-a-Sudden Peggy.—Lyceum T., Sheffield.
Are You a Mason? (Macdona).—Coalbridge.
Assassin.—Theatre Royal, Rochdale.
At Cripple Creek.—Galety T., Hastings.
At Duty's Call.—Queen's T., Farnworth.
Bandmann-Palmer, Mrs.—O. H., Cork.
Beast and the Beauty.—Prince's T., Portsmouth.
Beautiful Fiend.—Prince's T., Bradford.
Belle of Mayfair.—O. H., Leicester.
Belle of New York (Howard).—Prince's, Poplar.
Benson, F. R. (N.).—Athenæum T., Lancaster.
Benson, F. R. (S.).—St. Austell and Paignton.
Benson, Mr. & Mrs., & Co.—T. R., Manchester.
Bound to Win.—Theatre Royal, Jarrow.
Breed of the Treshams.—Theatre Royal, Chatham.
Bulmer, Mr.—Theatre Royal, Bristol.
Carl Rosa Opera Co.—Galety T., Dublin.
Coal King.—O. H., Blackpool.
Charley's Aunt.—Theatre Royal, King's Lynn.
Christian, The (Croke).—Theatre Royal, York.
Christian, The (Howard).—Sutton-in-Ashfield.
City of Sin.—Walsall.
Claudian.—Grand T., Halifax.
Conscript, The.—P. O. W., Mexborough.
Dairymaids, The.—Court Theatre, Liverpool.
Dare-Devil Dorothy.—Grand T., Newcastle.
D'Oyly Carte.—Royalty T., Glasgow.
Driven from Home.—Grand T., Brighton.
Earl and the Girl (N.).—Dudley.
Eternal City (Howard).—Smethwick.
Executioner's Daughter.—Grand T., Nelson.
Face at the Window.—Grand T., Woolwich.
Fascinating Mr. Vanderveldt.—T. R., Nottingham.
Female Swindler.—Prince's T., Accrington.
Florodora (M.). (Howard).—Castle T., Richmond.
For Life and After.—Prince's T., Blackburn.
Freedom of Suzanne.—T. R., Cardiff.
French Spy.—Queen's T., Swindon.
Golden Ladder.—Palace T., Newcastle.
Great Awakening.—O. H., Coventry.
Heart's Desire.—T. R., Clydebank.
Held Apart.—T. R., Aston.
Her Fatal Past.—New T., West Stanley.
Her Luck in London.—T. R., Stockport.
Her Lost Self.—T. R., Leicester.
Her One Great Sin.—T. R., Colchester.
His House in Order (N.).—T. R., Hull.
His House in Order (S.).—T. R., Bournemouth.
Honour Thy Father.—Standard T., Hetton.
Hour of Her Triumph.—Borough T., Heywood.
Hutchison Repertoire.—H. M. T., Dundee.
Indian Mutiny.—T. R., Leigh.
Kitty Grey.—T. R., Birkenhead.
La Comedie Anglaise.—Blandford and Portland.
Lady Kinton's Necklace.—Empire T., Oldham.
La Poupee (Ralland).—Lyceum T., Govan.
Lights of London.—T. R., Norwich.
Little Breadwinner.—Artillery T., Woolwich.
Little Michus (Edwardes).—Coronet Theatre, W.
London Fireman.—Colosseum, Oldham.
Love that Women Desire.—Eden T., Bishop Auckland.
Lucky Durham.—P. O. W., Great Grimsby.
Manxman.—Pier Pav., Eastbourne.
Marriage of Kitty.—O. H., Harrogate.
Midnight Mail.—T. R., Aldershot.
Midnight Wedding.—Alexandra T., Birmingham.
Monte Cristo.—Theatre Royal, Bury.
Moody-Manners (A.)—Liverpool.
Moody-Manners (B.).—Grand T., Eccles.
Mr. Hopkinson.—Broadway T., New Cross.
My Sweetheart.—T. R., Ashton-under-Lyne.
Napoleon the Great.—T. R., Croydon.
No Man's Land.—Great Yarmouth.
Norman V. Norman.—Lyceum T., Newport.
On the Stroke of Twelve.—T. R., Chesterfield.
Otto the Outcast.—P. O. W., Nuneaton.
Power of Gold.—Grand T., Rawtenstall.
Prince of Pilsen (Harris).—Grand T., Derby.
Prince of Pilsen (Howard).—Crystal Palace.
Prodigal Parson.—T. R., Lincoln.
Private Secretary.—Avenue T., Sunderland.
Prodigal Son.—Borough T., Stratford.
Proof.—Theatre Royal, Dewsbury.
Public Opinion.—T. R., Portsmouth.
Raffles.—Galety T., Manchester.
Revenge.—O. H., Southport.
Romany's Revenge.—T. R., Darwen.
Royal Divorce.—T. R., Worcester.
Sailors of the King.—H. M. T., Barrow.
Saints and Sinners.—Paisley T., Paisley.
Sherlock Holmes.—Grand T., W. Hartlepool.
Sign of the Cross.—T. R., Bolton.
Silver King (Polini) (N.).—T. R., Hanley.
Silver King (Polini) (S.).—Grand T., Nottingham.
Silver King (Howard).—O. H., Torquay.
Sin of Her Childhood.—West London Theatre.
Spider and the Fly.—Grand T., Islington, N.
Still Alarm.—Alexandra T., Greenock.
Terry, Edward.—New Theatre, Oxford.
Three Little Maids (N.) (Macdona).—Workington
Throne of Terror.—T. R., Houghton.
Traitor.—O. H., Southport.
Two Little Drummer Boys.—County T., Luton.
Two Little Sailor Boys.—Elephant and Castle T.
Two Little Vagabonds (M.).—Macstag and Treherbert.
Two Little Vagabonds (S.).—Royalty T., Chester.
Unwedded Wife.—Osborne T., Manchester.
Village Blacksmith.—Shakespeare T., Clapham.
Walls of Jericho (S.).—Grand T., Southampton.
Warner, Miss Grace.—Alhambra, Stourbridge.
Warning to Women.—Galety T., Leith.
Wearin' o' the Green.—T. R., Preston.
When London Sleeps.—Mansfield and Sutton.
When Women Hate.—T. R., Bristol.
White Chrysanthemum (Curzon).—Grand T., Leeds.
White Chrysanthemum (Macdona).—Carlisle.
Wilkie, Allan, and Co.—O. H., Kidderminster.
Worst Woman in London.—Grand T., Edinburgh.
Youngest of Three.—Lyceum T., Ipswich.
10.30 Down Express.—Queen's T., Liverpool.

Deputising last week-end at the Duchess, Balham, for Mr. Michael Nolan, Miss Elsie Enry, a comedienne new to the variety stage, made a most successful début. Equipped with a good voice and capital songs, this new candidate for public favour went well. She is of prepossessing appearance, and dresses with exquisite taste.

Mr. Arthur Elvy and company, in The Up-to-Date Tipster, are topping the bill this week at the Hippodrome, Mansfield. The trio of charming ladies, dressed in approved racing costumes, look very smart, and the song, "The Racing Girls," is a most tuneful number.

Our readers will be interested to hear that Captain John Holtum, in spite of his sixty-one years, is still performing his wonderful cannon-ball feat with the expertness, strength, and agility that marked his first performance of it in 1871 at the Holborn Amphitheatre. He is now with the Norris and Rowe Circus, in Mexico, a country that he visited for the first time in 1864, when he did juggling and strong man acts.

The cannon used for his feat was once a Russian siege gun. Holtum, though born a Dane, is a naturalised American citizen, and has some interesting reminiscences to relate of the unfortunate Emperor Maximilian. He is also proud of a letter received from Lord Roberts in 1887, the hero of Kandahar being much impressed by Holtum's skill. He has performed also before most of the rulers of Europe, and has recently been honoured by an introduction to the Mexican President. In spite of a chequered career, he is in perfect health, and is looking forward to another European tour, commencing in London in the early part of 1907.

Gadbin, the physically unimpressionable, was a dramatic artist, and was regularly engaged to appear in the revues staged at the Casino de Paris. One day a troupe of Ju-jitsu wrestlers arrived, and more as a joke than anything else, Gadbin accepted the challenge of one of them. To his great surprise he beat the Jap, and each successive Jap with whom he wrestled. Despite the fact that he had no idea of the art of Ju-jitsu, he managed to overcome by sheer force of strength. This was the first time that he found out that no pain could be inflicted on his bones. Then he tried placing his hand under a cart-wheel and letting it go over him. He still felt no pain; next he tried his foot with the same result. Then he tried a motor car, also filled with people, and, lastly, permitted a motor-bus to run over his back. Still Gadbin remained alive and uninjured. Gadbin will be pleased to meet all doubters next week at the Glasgow Empire, when he will demonstrate his remarkable powers.

"THE ERA" NEWSPAPER.

Notice to Contributors.

All communications intended for publication should be sent to "THE EDITOR," and be accompanied by the Writer's Name and Address, not necessarily for insertion, but as a guarantee of good faith.

The Editor will not undertake to be responsible for any rejected MSS., nor to return any Contribution unaccompanied by a stamped and directed envelope.

Notice to Subscribers.

"The Era" is sold by all Newsagents in all the leading English, Irish, and Scotch towns, every Saturday Morning. Price Sixpence.

TERMS, POSTAGE FREE,

Home Subscriptions.		Foreign Subscriptions.
One Year.....	£1 6 0	One Year.....	£1 12 0
Six Months.....	13 0	Six Months	16 0
Three Months ..	6 6	Three Months ..	8 0

Cash must accompany order.

Notice to Advertisers.

Advertisements should reach the Office early in the week, and not later than Thursday, 7 p.m. Remittances, payable to "THE ERA," LTD., and crossed Lloyd's Bank.

Address,
The PUBLISHER,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.
(two doors off Wellington Street)
Telegrams, "The Era, London." Telephone, 4747, Central.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

FREDERICK CHARLES.—(1) Yes. (2) Seven days at least. Consult on these points Strong's "Dramatic Law," published at this office, price 3s. 6d.

ADAPTED.—(1) The law with regard to the adaptation of French plays, and those of most Continental countries, is governed by the Berne Convention. The subject is a very complicated one, and, if you want us to advise you, you must send us more details. (2) We cannot say. Apply to S. French, theatrical publisher, Southampton-street, Strand.

WILTON DANS.—Write to Miss Lottie Collins for the information.

GEO. H. DUNNICLIFFE.—A daughter of the late Harry Ball, music hall comedian.

IRENE BERESFORD HOPE.—It is usual to first get the MS. typed. It certainly stands a far better chance of being read.

PIXIE.—We should think there would be no objection to your joining as an amateur; or, if in doubt, you could put the question to the manager of the company.

JOSEPH TELKI.—Mr. Bernard Shaw's play, entitled The Devil's Disciple, was copyrighted at the Bijou, Bayswater, on April, 17, 1897.

K. J. W.—Yes, at Drury Lane Theatre.

W. B.—A Brace of Partridges, comedy, in three acts, by Robert Ganthony, was produced at the Royal County Theatre, Kingston, on Nov. 15, 1897.

A. WILLIAMS.—Joshua Haggard was played at the Theatre Royal, Cheltenham, on May 19, 1879. Cast: Joshua Haggard, Mr. Jesmond Young; Oswald and Arnold Pentreath, Mr. Arthur E. Norton; Cynthia, Miss Marion Allen; Naomi, Miss Jenny Hardcastle; Judith Haggard, Miss Margaret Eburne; James Haggard, Miss Maud Montagu. The above are the only characters mentioned in our notice of the production.

IN DOUBT.—Next week.

W. H.—The drama entitled England in the Days of Charles the Second was produced at Drury Lane on Sept. 22, 1877.

BIRTHDAYS OF THE WEEK.

We wish many happy returns of the day to the following ladies and gentlemen:—

Robert Saurin—Saturday, Dec. 1.
Arthur Verne—Saturday, Dec. 1.
Sam Delavine—Saturday, Dec. 1.
Irene Vanbrugh—Sunday, Dec. 2.
Hamilton Deane—Sunday, Dec. 2.
F. W. Millis—Sunday, Dec. 2.
W. Zanetto—Sunday, Dec. 2.
Jules Claretie—Monday, Dec. 3.
Maude Remayne—Monday, Dec. 3.
Walter Munroe—Monday, Dec. 3.
Helen Henri—Monday, Dec. 3.
Austin Rudd—Monday, Dec. 3.
Nellie Korrie—Tuesday, Dec. 4.
Flo Wilton—Tuesday, Dec. 4.
Augustine Alexander—Wednesday, Dec. 5.
A. R. Marshall—Thursday, Dec. 6.
Marie Jones—Thursday, Dec. 6.
Sir Frederick Bridge—Thursday, Dec. 6.
E. H. Sothern—Thursday, Dec. 6.
Cole Aspinall—Thursday, Dec. 6.
David Day—Friday, Dec. 7.
Violet Cameron—Friday, Dec. 7.
Pietro Mascagni—Friday, Dec. 7.
Maud Lyndhurst—Friday, Dec. 7.

"TWLL DU," a light Welsh opera written and composed by Geoffrey Blackmore, was produced for the first time at the Stanley Hall, South Norwood, on Wednesday. The music is tuneful; the songs contained in the work were well appreciated. The costumes were quaint and pretty. Mr. Arthur Phillips is to be congratulated on the production, and the result obtained out of the material at his disposal; while the stage-management of Mr. Woodford Grant left little to be desired.

MR. EDITOR.—SIR,—Your correspondent for Merthyr states in your current issue that May Peskett, serio, appeared at the Temperance Hall, Merthyr. It should have been—Yours faithfully, MAY BURKET, soprano.—Nov. 25, '06.

BEEF TEA FOR THE MILLION.

By a simple but clever invention the cost of making Beef Tea has been so reduced as to bring it within the reach of thousands of homes where hitherto it has been an unattainable luxury.

The new preparation is called Eiffel Tower Ox Cup. It is guaranteed to be an absolutely pure and wholesome article made from Extract of Meat with valuable nutritive vegetable properties added, and its special feature is that it is supplied in the form of small jelly tablets. A 1d. tablet of Ox Cup placed in a breakfast cup of hot water instantly makes a most delicious savoury Beef Tea ready for immediate use. Fancy a breakfast cup of good Beef Tea for a 1d.!

It is by supplying Ox Cup in Jelly tablets and thus avoiding the heavy cost of bottles, carriage, cases, etc., and giving the extra value in the article itself that it has been found possible to produce it at this remarkable price. While it is cheap—so very cheap, yet its main recommendation is the exceptional excellence of the article itself.

If you have not already tried it you should certainly send a postcard for a free sample to G. Foster Clark and Co., Dept. (217), Maidstone.

"THE ERA" LETTER-BOX.

A Stamped Envelope, plainly addressed, must be enclosed with application for each Letter. Letters, after lying at this Office for One Month, are forwarded to the Postal Authorities, to be returned to the Senders.

No Circulars or Parcels admitted to this list

Adderley, Mr. J. P.
Allen, Mr. Fredk. F.
Andertons, The
Armstrong, Miss J.
Arthur, Mr. J.
Arundale, Miss S.
Ashworth, Mr. T.
Balby, Mr. E. G.
Baroni and Kemp
Barris, Mr. Herbert
Bathurst, Mr. Pat
Bedford, Mr. Henry
Beltram, Miss Jessie
Beresiyn, Miss Ethel
Bestic, Mr. C. M.
Birvell, Mr. Karl
Bishop, Mr. J. H.
Black, Miss Belle Bounds, Mr. Arnold
Bronson, Miss Kate
Brophy, Miss Ida
Brown & Spink, Messrs.
Brull, Mrs.
Buckingham, Mr. F.
Buckle, Miss Jennie
Buist, Mr. Scott
Bunce, Mr. Thomas
Calvalho, Miss Sylvia
Carling, Mr. Tom
Carson, Mr. L.
Chipperfield, Mr. H.
Chung Ling Soo
Clayton, Mr. J. W.
Clayton, Mr. Cecil
Clayton, Mr. Rene
Clive, Mr. F. W.
Colin, Mr. R.
Collins, Mr. Albert
Coma, Mr. Arthur
Conrad, Mr. Harry
Conrad, Mr. Louis
Courtney, Mr. Alfred
Courtney, Mrs.
Courtney, Mr. Alfred
Coopers, The Three
Craston, Mr. Chas.
Crawley, Mr. J. C.
Creighton, Mr. James
Culshaw, Mr. Wm.
Dagmar, Miss V.
Dainton, Mr. Arthur
Danby, Mr. Frank
Darnley, Mr. J. H.
Darrell, Miss Hilda
Davis, Miss Belle
Dene, Miss Hetty
Derina, Miss Addie
Dewar, Mrs. H.
Dobbs, Miss Edith
Dover, Mr. Cliff
Duncan and Godfrey
Dunville, Mr. Fred C.
Edwards, Miss Dollie
Eltinge, Mr. Julian
Elverton, Mr.
English Drama Society
Entwistle, Mr. H.
Faber, Mr. Arthur
Field, Mr. W.
Fitzgerald, Mrs. Tom
French, Mr. H. Ormsby
Fritz, Mr. Leo
Fulford, Mr. C. Quinton
Garde, Mr. and Mrs.
Gerrard, Mr. C. H.
Gibbons, Mr. H. H.
Gilbert, Mr. Louis
Goodfellow, Mr. G.
Goutis, Mr. Henry
Gratton, Miss Emilie
Gregory, Mr. E. G.
Grenfell, Miss Violet
Griffiths, Mr. J. P.
Groves, Miss C.
Grovinis, The
Guitano, Mr. Herrman
Guynne, Mr. P. H.
Haddon, Miss Betty
Hall, Mr. J.
Hanbury, Miss Hilda
Harris, Mr. Wm. Thos.
Harris, Miss Winifred
Hartley, Mr. Chas.
Heam, Mr. Thomas
Heirile, Mr. Sidney
"Henriques," The
Hill, Mr. Hamilton
Hill, Mr. Leonard
Hodges, Mr. Horace
Holloway, Mr. Abe
Ishmael, Prince
Iveson, Mr. Tony
Jackson, Miss Lotty
Johnson, Mr. Kid
Jones, Mr. J.
Kenny, Mr. Chas.
Kenyon, Mr. Neil
Kioto, Mr. N. T.
Kirby, Mr.
Lane, Mr. M. G.
Lang, Mr. Matheson
Lauri, Madame
Lawrence, Mr. Gerald
Lemoine, Miss Rose
Leroy, Mr. J.
Leslie, Miss Fannie
Leslie, Mr. Alfred
Levante, Miss Marie
Lewis, Mrs. Alwyn
Leyton, Mr. Geo.
Lingard, Mr. H.
Linwood, Mr. Lance
Loftus, Miss Vinie
Lovett, Mrs. A.
Lowenwirth, Mr. Sam
Macarte, Miss Eleanor
Maclaren, Mr. Ian
Marsh, Mr. Albert
Martin, Miss Sylvia
Mawson, Mr. Chas.
Mayall, Mr. James
McArthur, Mr. Fred
Michel and Polo
Milian, Mr. Max
Montford, Mr. Geo.
Moore Mr.
Moore, Mr. Henry
Murray, Miss Vera
Munro, Mr. D.
Neildon, Mr. Tommy
Newton, Mr. Cecil
Norman, Mr. J.
Osborne, Miss N.
Otley, Mr. C.
Parde, Mrs.
Patti, Madame A.
Pattison, Mr. Bart
Pelham, Mr. Paul
Penrose, Mr. Chas.
Phydora, Mr. Harry
Pierri, Mr. Antonio
Pillans, Miss Helen
Platt, Mr. J. H.
Powell, Mr. A.
Proctor, Mr. John
Prye, Miss Maggie
Purce, Mrs. Maud
Rawschle, Mr.
Rayburn, Miss Kittie
Read and Wright
Reckitts, Miss Edie
Rees, Mr. Leonard
Reeves, Miss Marie
Rennie, Miss Maggie
Restall, Mr. John
Revell, Mr. H.
Roberts, Mr. H. R.
Rooke, Miss Irene
Russell, Mr. Harry
Sampson, Mr. C. A.
Sansbury, Mr. V.
Scott Mrs. Veretta
Sidney, Mr. Charlie
Smith, Mr. Wellesley
St. George, Miss Zana
Sutherd, Mr. D.
Tanshoft, Mr.
Temple, Mr. F.
Terry, Mr. Fred E.
Turner, Miss M. G.
Tyrrell, Miss Florence
Vampire, Mr. James
"Vasco"
Vassar, Dr. Carl
Wadbrook, Mr. H.
Wakefield, Mr. J. H.
Wardroper, Mr. Henry
Waterfield, Mr. C.
Watson, Mr. John
Wells, Mr. Rhodes
White, Mr. Claude
White, Mr. Will
Wilmot, Mr. A.
Wolviston, Miss
Wylie, Mr. Lauri
Yorke, Mr. Nansen

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, & DEATHS.

The charge for inserting in "The Era" an announcement of a Birth or Death or an "In Memoriam" notice, not exceeding twenty-four words, is One Shilling and Sixpence, every additional word One Penny.

The charge for a notice of Marriage, not exceeding forty words, is Two Shillings and Sixpence, every additional word One Penny.

As a guarantee of good faith, the name and address of the sender must accompany each notice.

BIRTHS.

TRAYNOR.—On Nov. 22, the wife of John F. Traynor (Miss Muriel Clay), of a son. Both doing well.

MARRIAGES.

WORKMAN—NOBLE.—On Nov. 28, in London, George Chico Workman to Claire Harford (Clara Alice Noble), only daughter of Mrs. and the late G. Harford Noble, Esq., of Bath.

DEATHS.

BOSTOCK.—At Kilconquhar, Fife, after a lingering illness, Isabella Black (Ada Bland), wife of N. C. Bostock. Deeply mourned.

BUTLER.—Nov. 22, at Croydon, Horace Butler, formerly actor-manager and theatre proprietor.

COLMER.—Nov. 15, Albert Ernest Colmer, assistant-manager at the Hippodrome, Sheerness.

GORDON.—On Tuesday, Nov. 27, at Oaklands, Dudley-road, Wimbledon, David Gordon, aged 28.

JEE.—Nov. 17, after a severe operation, James Henry Jee, formerly acrobat and circus proprietor, aged 57.

MEAD.—Nov. 22, after a short illness, Charlotte Mead, daughter of the late Tom Mead, actress, late of The Freedom of Suzanne Co.

PAVILLIO.—Nov. 22, at his residence, 28, Brunswick-square, Camberwell, after a long illness, Tom Pavillio (of Pavillio and Roussillion), and latterly a variety agent.

REEVE.—Nov. 22, at his residence, from pneumonia, Malmesbury-road, Bow, Charles Reeve, actor, father of Ada Reeve, aged 63.

REEVE.—Nov. 14, at Walmer, Newport, Isle of Wight, Wybert Reeve, retired actor and playwright, aged 77.

SEAMAN.—Nov. 23, Mrs. Seaman, widow of the late William Seaman, in her 95th year, for many years a member of the Victoria, City of London, and Standard theatres, and mother of Julia, Alice, Florence, and Wm. Seaman.

WENMAN.—At 7, Eckestien-road, S.W., Mary Wenman, widow of the late T. N. Wenman, mother of Janet, Henry, and Charles A. Wenman. R.I.P.

IN MEMORIAM.

BAILEY.—In loving memory of our dear father, Francis Bailey, who passed away Nov. 30, 1902. Sadly missed by his three daughters, Susie, Belle, Dolly. "His children arise and call him blessed."

BAILEY.—In ever loving memory of my dear father, Francis Bailey, who passed away Nov. 30, 1902. Never forgotten by his daughter HENRIETTA.

EMMERSON.—In loving memory of my dear mother, Ellen Emmerson, who departed this life Dec. 2, 1905. Never forgotten by her affectionate daughter Nellie, and grandchildren. Thy will be done.

JEE.—In loving memory of James Henry Jee, father of the James Henry Jee Family, who died Nov. 17, 1906. Deeply lamented by family and friends.

WATTERSON.—In loving remembrance of Charlie, the beloved husband of Madge Watterson, who died Nov. 28, 1905. Never forgotten by his sorrowing wife and daughter. 10, Mill-lane, Islington, Liverpool, and 9, Lord Nelson-street, Liverpool (late of Newcastle-on-Tyne).

BURHAU DE CHANGE

SPECIALLY RECOMMENDED. HANDS and CO., 16, STRAND, CHARING-CROSS RAILWAY STATION, LONDON, W.C.

"I'll swear upon that bottle."—TEMPEST, Act ii., Scene ii.

WHITBREAD'S
BOTTLED BEERS

maintain their popularity because they are brought into condition by MATURING IN BOTTLE,
the Natural method,
without the aid of carbonating or other artificial process.

The largest Beer Bottlers in the World.

APPLY TO CHIEF OFFICES,
BRITANNIA ST., KING'S CROSS, LONDON, W.C.
(Telephone No. 366 North. Telegraphic Address, "Bearsellar, London.")
FOR NAME OF NEAREST AGENT.

LUNCH TIME FORGOTTEN
when you
BREAKFAST on Plasmon Oats
and Plasmon Cocoa
All Grocers and Stores.

The treatment of superfluous hair is something which requires the greatest nicety and care.
X. BAZIN'S
DEPILATORY POWDER
is the result of much study of the cause and problem of destroying these growths without injury to the skin, or leaving a scar or the slightest disfigurement.
There is no necessity for any woman whose refinement and good breeding have made her sensitive about these unfortunate marks to be subjected to the pain of electrical treatment and the consequent eruptions.
X. Bazin's Depilatory Powder is absolutely safe, and destroys the hair without pain—a simple dainty way of effecting a cure.
The great skill and science employed in the compounding of X. Bazin's Depilatory Powder make it absolutely safe and reliable.
If some former remedy has been tried without success, it is because the right powder was not applied.
In Sealed Package, price 2s. 6d.
HALL and RUCKEL,
46, Holborn Viaduct, London.

Evans'
ANTISEPTIC THROAT
Made to a Formula of the Liverpool Throat Hospital.
Highly commended by Leading Actors, Vocalists, and Public Speakers, for Preventing and Removing Hoarseness, Soreness, Irritation, and all affections incident to prolonged or undue vocal exercise. Used by many Actors and Singers, whose testimonials as to their efficacy have been received by us. Write for Sample, and mention THE ERA, to Sole Manufacturers,
EVANS SONS LESCHER & WEBB, LTD., LIVERPOOL.
Pastilles

ROWLAND'S KALYDOR
FOR THE COMPLEXION.
Produces Soft, Fair, Delicate Skin, and Removes all Cutaneous Blemishes.
2/3 & 4/6, of Stores, Chemists, &
ROWLAND'S, 67, Hatton Garden, LONDON.

DINNEFORD'S
MAGNESIA.
The Best Remedy for Acidity of the Stomach, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and Indigestion.
A Safe and most effective Aperient for regular use.

DELICIOUS COFFEE,
RED WHITE
& BLUE
For Breakfast & after Dinner.

To Asthma SUFFERERS
Instant relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and Whooping Cough by the use of POTTER'S ASTHMA CURE, in 1/- Tins. Sold everywhere. For FREE SAMPLE send Post Card to POTTER & CLARKE, Artillery Lane, London, E. Mention paper.
Instant relief

REAL HAMBURG GROUND
KROPP RAZOR
Always Ready for Use.
English Manufacture
WARRANTED PERFECT
NEVER REQUIRES GRINDING.
Black Handle.....5s. 6d. | Pair Ivory Handles in Russia Leather Case .....21s. 0d.
Ivory Handle .....7s. 6d.
Kropp Duplex Strop 7s. 6d. | Kropp Strop Paste 6d.
Wholesale
OSBORNE, GARRETT, AND CO., LONDON, W.

THE MISTAKE MADE IN FURNISHING
is in having no settled plan, no fixed idea of exactly what will be required, down to the minutest detail in every room, and the exact cost. If you would furnish in STYLE, and yet with ECONOMY, you should secure the HACKNEY FURNISHING CO.'S
GUIDE AND CATALOGUE,
an illustrated volume that has helped thousands, together with Prospectus of our famed "MODEL" SYSTEM, testimonials, &c.
POST FREE.

CAUTION.—Please note HACKNEY FURNISHING CO., LTD., Painted over the Premises before entering. We are compelled to notify this.

HACKNEY
Furnishing Co.,
Ltd.
CASH BARGAINS OR EASY TERMS.

GENERAL TERMS. Worth.	Per Month.
£10	£0 6 0
20	0 11 0
30	0 17 0
40	1 5 0
50	1 8 0
100	2 5 0
200	4 10 0
500	11 5 0

and pro rata.

Special Facilities for Members of the Dramatic and Music Hall Professions.
10 per cent. Discount for Cash.
Carpets, &c., laid free.
No Deposit Required.

TOWN HALL BUILDINGS, MARE STREET,
HACKNEY, N.E.,
AND THE GROVE, ADJOINING.
Hours, 9 till 9; Thursdays close 4. Telegrams: "Furnimente London." Tele.: 84 Dalston and 854. North Country orders packed free and carriage paid. OPEN SATURDAYS until a LATE HOUR.
A. M. STEWART, Managing Director.

BIRKBECK BANK.
ESTABLISHED 1851.
SOUTHAMPTON BUILDINGS, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.
2½ PER CENT. INTEREST allowed on Deposit Accounts.
2 PER CENT. INTEREST on Drawing Accounts with Cheque Book.
All general Banking Business transacted.
PROSPECTUS, with full particulars, POST FREE.
C. F. RAVENSCROFT, Secretary.

SHAFTESBURY
LIVERY STABLES,
25a, LISLE-ST., W.
(Close to Hippodrome and Leicester-square.)
HORSES FOR THEATRICAL ENTERTAINMENTS A SPECIALTY.
Hacks and Job Horses on Hire. Lessons given.
Apply to Manager. Telephone 11,106 Central.

A PERFECT BUST FORM
For ACTRESSES, MUSIC HALL ARTISTES, CONCERT SINGERS, and others.
THE . .
"WILSON" PNEUMATIC BUST FORM
is the most perfect contrivance ever invented, and supersedes every other device. Invisible with any costume. Indistinguishable by sight or touch from real flesh and blood. Fit any figure, and take any desired size or shape. Cool, healthful, durable, perfect fitting.

Round Shape, 7/6; Oblong Shape, 9/6.
Post free under plain cover.
Photo-illustrated Booklet sent post free in plain envelope, carefully sealed and free from observation.
AGENTS WANTED.
(Dept. 50) THE UNION MFG. CO.,
51, Market Street, Bradford, Yorks.

CAMAGES
FOR PROFESSIONAL OUTFITS,
Wigs, Masks, Beards, Make-up, Mechanical and other Properties, and every Accessory.
You save Money by getting Camage's "Magical" Catalogue. Write for it to-day. Sent post free.
A. W. CAMAGE, LTD.,
Holborn, London, E.C.

THE UNIVERSAL HAIR CO.
(No connection with any other firm),
SPECIALISTS IN ALL KINDS OF . .
ORNAMENTAL HAIR WORK

The GIBSON CURL, now so fashionable, to be worn as illustrated, only 4/6 each.
Transformations made on fine Lace Foundations, only 30/-; worth 65/-
Tails of Pure Hair, 22in. long, weighing 2oz., 7/6, worth 15/6.
Fringe Nets, Largest and Best in London, at 2/- per half-dozen.
Ladies should send for our Illustrated & Descriptive Catalogue (post free), direct from our only address—
The UNIVERSAL HAIR Co.,
84, Foxberry Road, Brockley, S.E.

LONDON THEATRES.

FANCY DRESS BALLS, COVENT GARDEN.
NEXT GRAND FANCY DRESS BALL OF THE SEASON,
FRIDAY next, Dec. 7, at 11 p.m.
Six Special and Ten other valuable Prizes.
DAN GODFREY'S GRAND ORCHESTRA.
Box Office Open 10 to 10.
Telephones, 2888 Gerrard, and 7903 Central.

HIS MAJESTY'S. MR. TREE.
To-night and Every Evening, at 8,
(Last 7 Nights).
Shakespeare's
KING RICHARD II.
King Richard, Mr. TREE.
The Queen, Miss VIOLA TREE.
MATINEE EVERY SATURDAY, at 2.
EXTRA MATINEE WEDNESDAY NEXT.
Box Office (Mr. Watts) open 10 to 10. Tel. 1777 Ger.

GAIETY THEATRE.
Manager, Mr. GEORGE EDWARDES.
Every Evening at 8.0.
(Doors open 7.40.)
THE NEW ALADDIN.
A Musical Extravagance.
Matinée every Saturday at 2.0 (Doors Open 1.40).
Box Office Open 10 till 10.

ST. JAMES'S, King-street, Pall Mall.
Every Evening, at 8.15 (334th time).
HIS HOUSE IN ORDER, by A. W. Pinero
MR. GEORGE ALEXANDER
MISS IRENE VANBRUGH
Matinée Every Wednesday and Saturday at 2.
Tel. 3903, Gerrard

GARRICK.
MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER,
Lessee and Manager.
Every Evening, at 8.30,
THE MORALS OF MARCUS,
a Play in four acts,
by William J. Locke.
MATINEES WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, 2.30

CRITERION THEATRE.
PICCADILLY CIRCUS.
Lessee, Sir Charles Wyndham.
Every Evening, at 9,
THE AMATEUR SOCIALIST.
By W. Kingsley Tarpey.
Mr. ERIC LEWIS as The Socialist.
An evening of wild hilarity.—Daily Mail.
One long triumph for Mr. Eric Lewis.—Daily Telegraph.
A really clever farce. We laughed the evening through.—Standard.
Preceded at 8.30 by THE COLLABORATORS.
Miss LILIAN BRAITHWAITE in both pieces
Matinée every Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30.

NEW ROYALTY.
THE ELECTRIC MAN.
Sole Proprietors, The Royalty Theatre (Limited).
General-Manager, Mr. E. B. NORMAN.
At 9. THE ELECTRIC MAN. At 9.
by Charles Hannan.
Harry Nicholls, Mrs. Charles Calvert, H. Marsh Allen, June von Buskirk, &c.
At 8.15, THE SETTING OF THE SUN.
Matinées Wednesdays and Saturdays 2.30.

COMEDY THEATRE.
Sole Lessee, Mr. ARTHUR CHUDLEIGH.
Under the Management of Mr. Arthur Chudleigh.
Every Evening at 8.50,
CHARLES FROHMAN presents
RAFFLES,
THE AMATEUR CRACKSMAN,
a Play, in Four Acts,
by E. W. Hornung and Eugene W. Presbrey.
Preceded at 8.20 by A WIRE ENTANGLEMENT.
Matinée every Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30.

DUKE OF YORK'S THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Charles Frohman.
Every Evening, at 9, CHARLES FROHMAN presents CYRIL MAUDE in a new play in 3 acts by Tristram Bernard and André Godfernaux, entitled TODDLES. At 8.25, THE SCAPEGRACE, with PAULINE CHASE, a wordless play in one act, arranged by Albert Chevallier. Music by Edward Jones. MAT. Every THURS. and SAT. at 2.25.

DALY'S THEATRE.
Produced by Mr. George Edwardes.—Every Evening, at 8.15, Matinée every Saturday, at 2.30, the New Comedy Opera, in English, entitled
THE MERVEILLEUSES.
The book by Victorien Sardou, adapted for the English stage by Basil Hood, lyrics by Adrian Ross, and the music by Hugo Félix, with an exceptional cast.
Box Office 10 till 10.

KING'S THEATRE, W.
'Phone, 119 HAMMERSMITH. Owner and Resident-Manager, J. B. MULHOLLAND.
Nightly at 8; Thursday Matinée, 2.30.
OLIVER TWIST.
Re Bookings at the MARLBOROUGH THEATRE Address MR. MULHOLLAND, King's Theatre.
Magnificent Pantomime Production, "Red Riding Hood," for disposal. Scenery, Dresses, Costumes complete. Equally suitable for "Babes."

MARLBOROUGH THEATRE.
Managing-Directors,
Mr. ERNEST STEVENS and Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN.
Monday, Dec. 3.
THE NEW MAGDALEN
Matinées, Thursdays, at 2.30. All communications re Dates, to Mr. J. B. MULHOLLAND, King's Theatre, Hammersmith, W.
All other communications to Messrs. STEVENS and BUCHANAN, Marlborough Th., N. 'Phone, 131 North.

WOOLWICH.—GRAND THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of S.E. London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Monday, Dec. 3,
THE FACE AT THE WINDOW.
Matinée every Thursday, at 2.30.
Add., Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E.

POPLAR. NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of East London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Monday, Dec. 3,
THE BELLE OF NEW YORK.
Original Company.
Matinée every Thursday, at 2.30.
Several Spring Dates Open. Tel., 64 East.
Add., Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E.

ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE,
KINGSTON-ON-THAMES.
Managing Director, Mr. PETER DAVEY.
Monday, Dec. 3, Mr. Lewis Waller's Company, in Conan Doyle's Soldier Play,
"BRIGADIER GERARD."
Tel., "Theatre, Kingston." 'Phone, 68, Kingston.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES,
HIGH-ST., POPLAR. Telephone, 714 East.
Proprietors, Messrs. F. and M. ABRAHAMS.
Nightly, 6.30 and 9.10, Matinée, Thursday, 2.30, Albert Ward and Co., including Miss Francis Alleyne, in "The Profligate King," The Ongars, Selby and Myers, Harry Russell and Co., Beattie Lyndon, Alice Maple, New Bioscope, Burg, Haud, and Wise. Two Walonels, and Madame Roza's Canine Hippodrome.
Band rehearsal, 1 o'clock Mondays. Popular prices.
General-Manager, Mr. JACK WOOLF.

ROYAL STANDARD MUSIC HALL
(facing Victoria Station). Proprietor and Manager, Mr. T. S. DICKIE. One house nightly. (Half-time 9.30, except Saturdays and holidays). Monday, Dec. 3, Mabel Bright and Co. in "Girls will be Girls," T. E. Dunville, Park's Eton Boys, Jake Friedman, The Smythsons, Lilian Lea, Ernest Rees, Mill May and Theresa, Lucy Coventry, Phil Branaby, Harding and Preston, Mike Asher, Lily Kirton, Edisonograph.
Rehearsal Monday, 1 o'clock. Assistant-Manager, Mr. M. Volny.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

ALHAMBRA
Grand Ballet, "L'AMOUR."
Première Danseuse, Signorina MARIA BORDIN. Varieties by AGNES and JULIUS ZANCIG, Brothers Bonnes, "LES POETTINGERS," LES THERESES, Comedy Hypnotic Act, Urbanora, "Climbing the Dolomites," "True to His Trust," "PARISIANA" BALLET.
Doors 7.45. Manager, GEORGE SCOTT.

EMPIRE (Leicester-square).
THE DEBUTANTE.
New Grand Ballet
MLLE. GENEE, Premiere Danseuse.
FOX HUNTING on the Biograph.
"BURNING TO SING."
Arthur Prince, H. Y. Mack, Healey and Mealey, Raku, Daunton Shaw Troupe, The Brittons, Herbert Lloyd, Chinka Pana, &c.
Every Evening at 8.
Manager, Mr. H. J. HITCHINS.

PALACE.
Galatea, Princess Trixie, Margaret Cooper, D'Arc's Marionettes, Johnson and Dean, Palace Girls. The McNaughtons, &c. Latest Topical Events on Bioscope.
Every Evening at 8.0 (doors 7.45).
Special Priced Matinée Every Saturday at 2.0
Managing-Director, Mr. ALFRED BUTT.

THE OXFORD.
The Mysterious Cross, a novel, bewildering illusion, Sam Mayo, Kelly and Gillette, Lily Burnand, Ernest Shand, Dan Crawley, Geo. Bastow, Bertha Stuart, Three Laurels, Nat Clifford, Ike Scott and Son, Lina Verdi, Lockhart's Elephants, Fred Earle, Stella Troupe, Sandford and Lyons, Harry Weldon, Derrington Family.
Open 7.30. Manager, Mr. BLYTH PRATT.
Saturday Matinées at 2.30.

THE TIVOLI.
Little Tich, Fragson, G. H. Elliott, Sandford and Lyons, Lilian Elfreda, Barbara Babington, Bertha Stuart, The Harvey Boys, Carrie Laurie, Will Van Allen, Jack Camp, Lee and Bentley, Lennie and Hast, Billie Barlow, George Bastow.
Open 7.30
Manager, JOSEPH WILSON.
Saturday Matinées (Reduced Prices), 2.15.

CANTERBURY.
Matinée every Saturday, at 2.30. Half-price to all parts. Important Engagement of the famous Little Tich, James Fawn, Carlotta Levey, Phœbe Mercer and Co., Musical Jees, Datas, Forest and King, Eugene Family of Aerial Gymnasts, Harry Weldon, Myra Stansfield, May Henderson, Mark Melford and Co., Walker and May, Ruffell's Bioscope, Victoria Monks.
General-Manager, FRED MILLER.

PARAGON,
Mile End-road, E.
The only Variety Theatre in the East End on the One House-a-Night System, with a West End Company of Star Turns. Monday, Dec. 3, 1906, and during the week. Matinée every Thursday, at 2.30. Special Attractions. "The Duchess of Tooting," a Musical Comedy in 30 minutes, W. Van Allen, Griff and Alpha, Derrington Family, T. Woottwell, Ruffell's Bioscope, A. Lester, C. Collette and Joan Derry, J. Fawn, N. Clifford, G. Grahame, G. H. Chirgwin, the only White-eyed Kaffir, Alexandra Dagmar. Doors open at 7. Prices 3d. to £1 1s. Tel., 165, East. Manager, CHAS. BEECHAM.

THE EUSTON
(opposite St. Pancras Station)
Twice Nightly, at 6.20 and 9.10.
Fred Eustace and Co., Ruffell's Bioscope, Dutch Daly, Menotti, Sam Mayo, Stella Troupe, Rich and Rich, Terry and Bentley, Lottie Govell, Griff and Alpha, Two Whites.
Manager, FRED McAVOY.

SOUTH LONDON PALACE,
London-road, S.E.
Twice Nightly, at 6.30 and 9.10.
Matinée, Mondays at 2.15.
Leonard Mortimer and Co., Gracie Grahame, Herbert Shelley, Lava and Ella, Helm and Cozens, Blake and Granby, Sisters Silcott, Ruffell's Bioscope, Charles Leighton, George Bastow.
Manager, WILLIAM PAYNE.

THE NEW BEDFORD
PALACE OF VARIETIES, LTD.
Manager, A. F. LOVESY.
Twice Nightly at 6.10 and 9.0.
Monday, Dec. 3, Jenny Reeve, Goodfellow and Gregson, Dora Lyric, Fred Land, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, The Egertons, Geo. Bendon, Bonnetti and Corrie, Arthur Rigby and Co., Pueblo and Cropp, Dan Thomas.
Artists are notified that they must send their full Bill Matter in two clear weeks before opening. Rehearsal, 1 o'clock Mondays. All must attend. Artists not complying with the above rules are subject to having their contracts cancelled at option of Management.

EMPIRE, CAMBERWELL.
Managing-Directors,
JESSE SPARROW and HARRY BAWN.
Twice nightly, 6.40 and 9 o'clock.
Vesta Victoria, Marion Wills in "A Musical Comedy Rehearsal," Tom Packer, Rappo and Ella, Barbara Babington, William Holles and Nannie Goldman, presenting "The Little Charwoman," Harry Sims, Mueller and Coyne, The Empire Pictures, Blarney and Kennard, and Charles H. Barker's Company, in the Sensational Dramatic Episode, "A Race for Honour," introducing the Greatest Motor Sensation of the Century.

EMPRESS THEATRE OF VARIETIES,
BRIXTON
Ten Loonies, Geo. D'Albert, Amba Austa, My Fancy, Carrie Laurie, Cruikshanks, Ruffell's Pictures, Foreman and Fannan, Bert Brantford, Maud Esmond, Nat Clifford, Tommy Volt and Co., A. Royce, Dezmonti and Mora, Mrs. John Lawson in "Vanity," and Walesco's Australian Circus.
'Phone No. 41 Brixton. Doors open at 7.30; half-time, 9.15. Manager, NELSON FRANCIS.

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE.
Two Performances Nightly, at 6.30 and 9.
Band Rehearsals at 3 p.m. on Mondays.
All Artists must attend.
Fred Storey and Co., Phil Ray, Jessie Preston, Dolly Harmer, The Lurins, George Antill, Five Vernons, De Vere and Kenwick, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope.
Manager, ARTHUR J. BARCLAY.

ROYAL ALBERT PALACE OF VARIETIES, Canning Town, E. Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. ARTHUR G. H. HUNT. Assistant-Manager and Secretary, Mr. Alfred Levy.
Monday, Dec. 3, Twice Nightly, 6.30 and 9.15. Sidney Bacon's Sketch Co., the Arleys, Leo Lester's Sports, Twin Sisters Edwards, Gicargo, Raymond's Tableau, Bryan and Lawrence, Jessie M. Lyons and Co., the Dallwoods, Three Orros. Musical-Director, J. Stark; Stage-Manager, A. Everitt. Band Call 2 p.m. Monday. Prices from 2d. to 1s. 6d.

CHELSEA PALACE,
King's-road, Chelsea.
Twice Nightly, at 6.40 and 9.10
Tom Foy and Co., Carlotta Levey, Rezene and Robini, Alma Gray, Ruby and Laws, Enid Errol and Co., in "The Magic Vase," Harry Rogerson, The Korries, H. J. Kisbey, Ernest Shand.
Manager, EDWARD SWANBOROUGH.

PUTNEY HIPPODROME.
Managing-Director, Mr. W. J. GRIMES.
Once Nightly. Half Time, 9.15.
Band Rehearsal for Artistes Monday, 12 noon.
Vesta Victoria, Arthur Melrose, Bessie Spear, Sisters Tinsley, Thelma, Maud Esmond, Gus Garrick, Tom Foy and Co., Etonian Boys, Jessie Albini, Marie Collins, Desmonti and Mora, Pete and Juno, Cyclo, Ruffell's Pictures, Tom Craven and Co. Doors open 7.30. Tel., 808 Putney.
Manager, Mr CLIFFORD KING.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

MIDDLESEX, DRURY LANE, W.C.
—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. L. GRAYdon.—Monday, Dec. 3, 1906.—Harry Roxbury, "The Prince of Monte Carlo," Three Sisters Hayden, Bert Lytton, Marguerite Broadfoote, Fyne and Hurley, Les Sados, Kimberley Boys, New Bioscope, Dale and O'Malley, Ethel Dove, J. R. Val, Lillie Langtry, the Four Figaros, Lillian Clare and Co., Agnes Molteno and Co. in a beautiful Song-Scena entitled "An Old-Time Story," Hayman and Franklin. Commence 7.15. Saturday one hour earlier. Popular prices.

HAMMERSMITH PALACE.
Proprietor, Mr. J. C. COE. One performance nightly. Monday, Dec. 3.—Clark and Hamilton (every evening at 9.15), Goodfellow and Gregson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leonard, Park's Eton Boys, Starr and Leslie, Twin Brothers Dean, Bert Brantford, Amber Austa, Lola Patey, Fred Lincoln, Wm. Lee and Helen Bentley, Victor Travers, Agnes Asher, the Edisonograph, Mr. and Mrs. Royston Dene and Co., "At the Stroke of Twelve." Tele. 106 Hammersmith. Manager, LEWIS VINCENT.

THE METROPOLITAN,
EDGWARE-ROAD.—Lew Lake and Co., in "The Bloomsbury Burglars," T. E. Dunville, Poluskis, Sandford and Lyons, E. Veno, P. Pryde, T. Woottwell, Massano, L. Govell, H. Rogerson, Regan and Ryan, J. Collins, H. Weldon, W. Van Allen, C. Adams, J. H. Kisbey. Open 7.15. Prices from 6d. to £1 10s. Manager, J. W. EDGAR Tel. No. 194 Pad. Box office from 11. Artists note.—If they do not send billing matter in 14 days before opening they will not be billed.

LONDON HIPPODROME.
Twice daily, at 2 and 8 p.m.
"Earthquake," Chung Ling Soo, Lavater Lee, the Kellinos, Bellonini, 3 Tauberts, the Schwartz Bros., Marzella's Birds, Morris and Vincent, Maningos, Bioscope, "Daily Mirror" Boy Army, 3 Roberts, The Tupps, &c.

CRYSTAL PALACE.
CRYSTAL PALACE.
Monday, Dec. 3, and Every Evening.
In Theatre at 8.0; Matinée, 3.0, Wednesday, "The Prince of Pilsen." Electric Theatre. Mr. E. Noakes, Conjurer. Promenade Concerts every evening. Great Asphalte Skating Rink now Open. Dec. 8, Great Rugby Football Match, England v. South Africa. Dec. 5 and 6, National Chrysanthemum Show.

MASKELYNE and DEVANT'S
MYSTERIES, ST. GEORGE'S HALL, LANGHAM-PLACE, W. Daily, at 3 and 8. A SIDE ISSUE, Mr. J. N. Maskelyne's New £1,000 Ghost Illusion. Mr. David Devant, with New Magical Problems.
Daylight Ghosts and various Entertainers.
Seats 1s. to 5s.
'Phone, 1545 Mayfair.

ACADEMIES AND SCHOOLS.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC,
TENTERDEN-STREET, W.
Instituted 1822. Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1830.
The Academy offers to Pupils of both sexes an opportunity of receiving a thorough education in Music in all its branches, the Drama, and Dramatic Elocution under the most eminent Professors.
For terms and all other information, apply to F. W. RENAUT, Secretary.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC
(Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1883),
PRINCE CONSORT-ROAD, SOUTH KENSINGTON, S.W.
Patron: HIS MAJESTY THE KING.
President, H.R.H. the PRINCE OF WALES, K.G
Director, Sir C. HUBERT H. PARRY, Bart., C.V.O., D.C.L., M.A., Mus.Doc.
Hon. Sec., CHARLES MORLEY, Esq.
Fourteen Free Open Scholarships will be Competed for in January and February, 1907. Particulars now ready.
Associateship Examination, April, 1907.
Syllabus and Official Entry Forms may be obtained from FRANK POWNALL, Registrar.

GUILDHALL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.
The only School in London for
OPERATIC and THEATRICAL
TRAINING which possesses a completely equipped Theatre. Public Performances periodically given.
Stagecraft, Elocution, Fencing, Gesture, and Deportment Taught by Eminent Professors.
New Pupils can enter at any time.
FEES MODERATE. Prospectus on application to H. SAXE-WYNDHAM, Secretary, Victoria-embankment, E.C.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
In "The Era" Annual (5, Tavistock-street, Strand, 1s.), Miss Vesta Tilley breaks into verse, and a score or more of her comrades of "the boards" try their hands at fiction. The result is entertaining, and as there is added a list of new plays and revivals during the past year, with other information, the annual is worth a place on the playgoer's bookshelves.—The Yorkshire Post

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
"The Era" Annual, 1906, is welcome as containing carefully compiled lists of the pieces produced during the past year in London, the suburbs, and the provinces, in Paris, and in Berlin. The rest of it is curious and entertaining reading. There is the almanack with its "memorabilia of theatrical events occurrences, &c." There are besides a score of stories and other articles contributed by theatricals a very good one being Miss Louie Freear's set of verses, "Boy Bob" at Sea," which has humour, feeling, and swing. The book contains many theatrical portraits. As a book of reference the Annual is of great use and value, and while some of its contents doubtless appeal more keenly to the professional than to the outsider, any thoughtful person may derive from its study much amusement and no little insight into the conditions, the magnitude, and the complexity of the English theatre of to-day.—Morning Post, Jan. 22.

TO OUR READERS.
A SINGLE COPY OF "THE ERA" Post-free to any Address in the United Kingdom for SIX STAMPS.
Telegraphic Address, "The Era, London."
Address, THE PUBLISHER,
The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN.
GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.
First-class Attractions only.
KING'S THEATRE, EDINBURGH.
Opening Saturday Evening, Dec. 8, with
Mr. Robert Courtneidge's Pantomime "Cinderella."
KING'S THEATRE, SUNDERLAND.—Joint Managing-Directors, ERNEST STEVENS and R. C. BUCHANAN. A First-class Theatre, at present in course of erection. To be opened in December with Pantomime.
THE ALEXANDRA, GREENOCK.
THE NEW CENTURY, MOTHERWELL.
THEATRE ROYAL, COATBRIDGE.
THE NEW GAIETY, LEITH.
THE NEW GAIETY, AYR.
THE KING'S, KILMARNOCK.
THE GRAND, FALKIRK.
THE NEW GAIETY, CLYDEBANK.
THE KING'S, KIRKCALDY.
Also booked in conjunction,
THE METROPOLE, GLASGOW,
and THE THEATRE ROYAL, NORTH SHIELDS.
By arrangement with Mr. Jefferson.
All communications to Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN.
General Office, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.
Telegraphic Address, "Bookings, Glasgow."

COLONIAL THEATRES.

AUSTRALIA.
MELBOURNE, SYDNEY, BRISBANE.
Mr. J. C. WILLIAMSON,
Manager of the Leading Australian Theatres.
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, MELBOURNE;
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, SYDNEY;
THEATRE ROYAL, SYDNEY;
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, BRISBANE.
London Representative:
J. A. E. MALONE, Daly's Theatre.

AUSTRALIA.
Mr. HARRY RICKARDS'
AUSTRALIAN ENTERPRISES:—
TIVOLI THEATRE, SYDNEY;
TIVOLI HOTEL, SYDNEY;
GRAND OPERA HOUSE, MELBOURNE;
PRINCE OF WALES'S HOTEL, MELBOURNE;
TIVOLI THEATRE, ADELAIDE;
THEATRE ROYAL, PERTH;
PALACE THEATRE AND GARDENS, PERTH.
Mr. Harry Rickards has now completed his bookings until 1909.
Address all communications Tivoli Theatre, Sydney.
Cable Address: Tivolian, Sydney.

AUSTRALIA.
THE BROUGH-FLEMING COMEDY CO., under the direction of
Mr. HERBERT FLEMING
Nov., Dec., PRINCESS'S T., MELBOURNE.
Jan., Feb., March, 1907, NEW ZEALAND.
Easter, 1907, PALACE THEATRE, SYDNEY.
All communications care of
Messrs. BLAKE and RIGGALL,
120, William-street, Melbourne.
London representative, R. GOLDING BRIGHT,
120, Green-street, Leicester-square.

SOUTH AFRICA.
Messrs. B. and F. WHEELER
now control the
ONLY CIRCUIT OF THEATRES
in
SOUTH AFRICA.
Proprietors and Lessees of
OPERA HOUSE, CAPETOWN,
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, JOHANNESBURG,
WHEELER'S OPERA HOUSE, PRETORIA,
THEATRE ROYAL, DURBAN.
Wheeler's New Musical Co. sailed Nov. 17.
Companies now Touring:
Wheeler's Comedy Company,
The William Haviland Company.
Wheeler's No. 2 Musical Company,
London Representative,
J. A. E. MALONE, Daly's Theatre.

AFRICA.
LEONARD RAYNE.
Business-Manager in South Africa,
GRANT FALLOWES.
London Representative,
GEORGE RAYNE,
Portugal House, Portugal-street, W.C.

INDIA and THE FAR EAST.
MAURICE E. BANDMANN'S CIRCUIT.
The premier theatres of the East.
Maurice E. Bandmann controls now the only circuit of theatres in the East.
Proprietor and Manager
GRAND OPERA HOUSE, CALCUTTA
(now in course of erection).
Holds, at ordinary prices, £350.
Sole Lessee and Manager,
THEATRE ROYAL, CALCUTTA.
Holds, at ordinary prices, £250.
Two Resident Scenic Artists, Band, and Full Staff.
Companies Touring:
THE BANDMANN OPERA COMPANY,
THE BANDMANN COMEDY OCMPANY,
THE O'CONNOR OPERA COMPANY,
THE LONDON BIOSCOPE AND VARIETY COMPANY.
Required, first-class attractions of every description. Rent, Share, or Certainty.
Address all communications,
MAURICE E. BANDMANN,
Theatre Royal, Calcutta.
Cables, "Svengali," Calcutta."
London Representative, KELSON TRUEMAN, 233a, Regent-street, W Telegrams, "Turridu," London.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

ALDERSHOT.—THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
First-class Attractions Only.
Applications for Dates,
Add., Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill. Only No. 1 Companies entertained. Vac. April 1, 15, 29. Fast booking Autumn, 1907. Address Charles Revill, T. R., STOCKPORT.

BLACKPOOL.
HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE,
WINTER GARDENS,
The PRINCIPAL THEATRE,
Holds MORE MONEY at ORDINARY PRICES, and has better average business throughout the Year than any Theatre in the Town.
The Most Comfortable, Elegant, and Best Equipped Theatre. Large and Well Electric Lighted Stage and First-Class Orchestra.
All visitors to the Theatre have Free Admission to the Winter Gardens, Floral Hall, Empress Ballroom, and Pavilion Entertainments; thus Companies visiting Her Majesty's Opera House have this additional attraction, which no other Theatre can offer. Only best No. 1 Companies booked.
For Dates, address, JNO. R. HUDDLESTONE, Manager, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

BLACKPOOL.
GRAND THEATRE.
Holds at Ordinary Prices more money than any Theatre in the Town, as any Responsible Manager who has visited Blackpool can Prove.
The Premier Theatre.
Mr. Beerbohm Tree says it is the most perfect and best-managed theatre in the Kingdom.
Only First Companies Entertained.
Apply for Dates to
T. SERGENSON,
Proprietor and Manager.

CAMBRIDGE.—NEW THEATRE (Ltd.)
Man. Director, Mr. W. B. REDFERN, J.P., D.L.
A theatre among the most beautiful in England.—Sunday Times. Now booking Spring Dates, 1907. Vacant Jany. 14 and 31, and a few dates in Feb., March, and May, in full term time.
Silence a polite negative.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.
Sole Proprietor, Mr. CHAS. MACDONA.
Vacant Dates, Dec. 3 and 10.
Christmas, for Pantomime or Musical Attraction.
All communications to CHAS. MACDONA.
17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.
Vacant Jan. 14, Feb. 18, March 4, 11, 18, 25. Wanted, Strong Musical Attraction for Easter week. Also Vacant April 22, May 13.
None but First-Class Attractions received.
Applications to Mr. JOHN HORGAN, Manager.

DUBLIN. — GAIETY THEATRE.
GUNN, LTD. Managing-Director, Mrs. Michael Gunn; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. Chas. Hyland. All dates for 1906 filled. Applications for dates 1907-8 to be addressed to Mrs. Michael Gunn.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

DUBLIN. QUEEN'S ROYAL THEATRE
Sole Proprietor and Patentee, Mr. ELLIS JONES.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. WHITEHEAD.
Lent open for Non-Dramatic Entertainments.
Address, J. W. WHITEHEAD.
Silence in all cases a respectful negative.

EBBW VALE, MON.
CENTRAL HALL.
To Let for Every Kind of Entertainment.
Apply,
THOMAS HUGHES, Esq.,
Solicitor,
Ebbw Vale, Mon.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE, LTD.
Established 1884.
Chairman, H. J. CURRY.
Managing-Director, JOSEPH H. CURRY.
Open all the Year Round.
CURRY'S TIVOLI THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LIMITED.
Chairman, Mr. H. J. CURRY.
Managing-Director, Mr. JOSEPH H. CURRY.
Telegraphic Add., "Curry, Grimsby," Tel. No. 240.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.
Please Note:
The Staffordshire Potteries for all Dramatic Purposes must be considered as one large town.
Hanley has undoubtedly the Largest Theatre and Stage in Staffordshire.
Lighted by Electricity.
Accommodation for 3700 People.
Electric trams and Trains after Performance to ends of the District, Longton, Stoke, Burslem, and Tunstall.
Vacant Dates, Jan. 21, 28, Feb. 18, 25, March 18, 25, April 1, onwards, for First-class Companies only.
CHAS. E. ELPHINSTONE,
Managing-Director.

HULL. — THE CIRCUS. —
General Manager, EDWARD EMERSON.
One of the Finest and Largest Halls in the Provinces, Fitted with Large Stage, and Suitable for Circus, Minstrels, Concert, Choir Parties, &c. Rental, Share, or Salary. Only a Few Vacant Dates.

IPSWICH. — LYCEUM.
General-Manager, MR. LEONARD GREY
Vacant Feb. 25, and on, with exceptions.
Required, Strong Attraction for Easter Week.
Apply, LEONARD GREY, Lyceum, Ipswich.
Silence a polite negative.

JARROW. — THEATRE ROYAL.
BARROW, ROYALTY T. and OPERA HOUSE
CONSETT, NEW THEATRE.
SPENNYMOOR, CAMBRIDGE THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. HUGH ROBERTSON.
Vacant Dates, Jarrow, Feb. 11, Barrow, Jan. 21, March 11 and 18, for Musical Attractions. The bookings for this Theatre include the Principal Attractions touring. Consett, Jan. 14 and 28, on, with exceptions. Spennymoor, Jan. 28, on, with exceptions.
Re Dates, HUGH ROBERTSON, Jarrow.

JERSEY and GUERNSEY,
Population 100,000; no opposition.
Transport from Bournemouth, Bath, Swindon, and Bristol. Vacant Jan. 7, 21, Feb. 18.
Apply, C. ROBT. PERKINS, Jersey.

KIDDERMINSTER.—OPERA HOUSE.
Electricity throughout, Brilliantly Illuminated, Eminently Successful. High-class and best Productions only Entertained. Vacant Jan. 21, Feb. 7, 8, 9, and 14, 15, 16. Address, J. P. MOORE.

KINGSTOWN PAVILION and GARDENS, Ltd., General-Manager, Mr. C. Irvine Bacon, vacant dates in Nov., and onwards, with exceptions, for Répertoire companies, with comedy, comic operas, or musical comedy.

LLANDUDNO.—GRAND THEATRE.
Holds £200.
The Electric Tramway from Colwyn Bay will stop at the Theatre Doors.
Vacant next season.
Easter, Whit, July 22, 29, Sept. 16, 23.
Address, HALDANE CRICHTON.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. Seddon and Robertson. Only vacancies March 7 and 21. Will be booked next Autumn in conjunction with King's Lynn. Apply, GEORGE ROBERTSON.

MORECAMBE.—ROYALTY THEATRE
Sole Lessee, JULIAN MALVERN.
Vacant Easter, Whit, and on.
First-class attractions only.
Address CHAS. M. JULIAN, General-Manager.
Dec. 3, STAR THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.

NOTTINGHAM.—GRAND THEATRE
Manager, CHARLES P. COOKE.
Vacant Aug. 5, for big attraction; also April 22, June 3, 10, Aug. 13.
Silence a courteous negative.

OLDHAM. — EMPIRE THEATRE.
the Premier Theatre; holding capacity £200.
Vacant for Musical Attractions only,
March 11 (?), 25, April 8, 22, May 13, 27.
Address, ERNEST DOTTRIDGE.

OXFORD. — NEW THEATRE.
Managers of First-class Companies are invited to apply for Dates to
Mr. THOMAS LUCAS, J.P.,
Managing-Director.
Silence a polite negative.

PLYMOUTH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Managing-Director, Mr. C. F. WILLIAMS.
"The" Theatre in the West of England.
For Vacant Spring Dates, apply, Mr. C. F. WILLIAMS, Theatre Royal, Plymouth.

PORTSMOUTH. — NEW THEATRE ROYAL.
Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. BOUGHTON.
Open throughout the year.
First-class Companies.
Weekly Matinées.

SHEERNESS. — Correspondent Required to Supply Music Hall Reports weekly. Address, "Dramaticus," "The Era" Offices, 5, Tavistock-street, London, W.C.

STOCKPORT. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill. Only No. 1 Companies entertained. Vacant May 20, June 3. Fast booking Autumn, 1907.
Address, Charles Revill.

SUNDERLAND. — THE KING'S THEATRE.—Joint Managing-Directors, Ernest Stevens and R. C. Buchanan.
A FIRST-CLASS PLAYHOUSE
AT PRESENT IN COURSE OF ERECTION.
Opening in December with Pantomime.
Seating Capacity, 2,500. Situated in Centre of Town.
Booked in conjunction with the King's Theatre, Edinburgh, Grand Theatre, Glasgow, and Scotland's Provincial Theatres.
Offers entertained from No. 1 attractions only.
All coms. re dates should be addressed to Messrs. ERNEST STEVENS and R. C. BUCHANAN, GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR PROVINCIAL THEATRES
AND
PROVINCIAL MUSIC HALLS.
Five Lines, TWO and SIXPENCE.
Thirteen Insertions (Including a Copy of "The Era" Weekly), THIRTY SHILLINGS.
For Each Additional Line, Sixpence.
Address, the PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up," 4,747, Central.

FUNDS, &c.

ROYAL GENERAL THEATRICAL FUND.
FOR MEMBERS BECOMING INCAPACITATED EITHER BY OLD AGE OR INFIRMITY
Hon. Treasurer, EDWARD TERRY, Esq.
CHARLES J. DAVIES, Secretary, Savoy House, Strand.

ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND,
8, ADAM-STREET, STRAND.
C. I. COLTSON, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL DINNER
of the
ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND
will be held at the
HOTEL METROPOLE,
on WEDNESDAY, Dec. 5.
SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM (President)
in the Chair.

Donations will be most gratefully received and acknowledged by Sir Charles Wyndham, New Theatre, St. Martin's-lane, W.C., and by C. I. Coltson, the Secretary of the Fund, from whom Dinner Tickets (1 guinea) may be obtained.

A Selection of Music under the direction of Mr. J. H. Maunder will be given. Miss Mabel Manson, Mr. Ben Davies, Mr. Robert Radford, and the Westminster Glee Singers are kindly giving their services.

Office, 8, ADAM-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

ACTORS' ASSOCIATION
(Incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900), 10, King-street, Covent Garden, London, W.C. Annual Subscription, 15s.; entrance fee, 5s.

A Scheme of Insurance is now in force by which every member whose subscription for the year is paid is covered under certain conditions.
CHARLES CRUIKSHANKS, Sec. Telephone, No. 1753 Gerrard. Telegraphic address. "Actoris, London."

MUSIC HALL BENEVOLENT FUND.
Established 1888. Offices, 18, ADAM-ST., STRAND, W.C. Hon. President, Sir JOSEPH RENALS, Bart.

President, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq.; Trustees, G. ADNEY PAYNE, Esq., and R. WARNER, Esq.; Treasurer, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq.; Secretary, HORACE MARRIOTT.

Committee:—Vice-Chairman, H. G. Hibbert, Esq.; Frank Allen, A. A. Asher, H. Astley, C. Beecham, C. Berte, E. Brown, J. Chappell, C. Chapman, D. J. Clarke, W. Clarkson, J. W. Cragg, J. Dunedin, H. M. Edmunds, J. Elvin, J. Fortune, H. De Frece, W. De Frece, J. De Frece, Edgar Granville, Edward Granville, F. Griffiths, H. Griff, Henri Gros, C. E. Howell, A. Hubner, W. F. Hurndall, S. M. Hyman, J. Lawson, J. Leopold, J. Lyons, Alan Macey, F. McAvoy, H. Masters, A. W. Matcham, F. Miller, T. M. M'Naughton, D. Monro, G. W. Moore, Sir E. H. Moss, G. Mozart, J. O'Gorman, W. Oliver, T. Pacey, C. Blyth-Pratt, H. Randall, P. Ray, G. Robey, F. Russell, J. D. Stuart, J. Selbini, T. Shaw, J. Somers, W. Stockwell, P. Valentine, E. Warner, B. Williams, Captain E. H. Warren Wright.

The Relief Committee Meets every Thursday, at 2 o'clock.

MUSIC HALL SICK FUND,
Founded in 1867.

Committee Meetings second Wednesday in the month at 2 p.m., held at the York Hotel.

Sick Payments—£1 for 6d. per week, £1 10s. for 9d. per week. £10 paid to nearest relative on death of member. President, Mr. PAT CAREY; Hon. Auditors, Messrs. H. E. HIGH and H. GRIFF; Trustees, Messrs. G. ADNEY PAYNE, H. JENNINGS, and DOUGLAS WHITE; Vice-President, Mr. W. J. WAINRATTA; Treasurer, Mr. FRANK HEATH; Secretary, Mr. R. T. BAINES. Address all communications, 1, York-road, Lambeth, S.E.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION
THEATRICAL EMPLOYEES.
Established to promote the interests of all engaged in any Stage Department, and to provide sick, funeral, and benevolent funds for members and dependents. Free Legal advice, and other Benefits. The co-operation of those interested invited to form a branch in every city. Entrance fee 2s. 6d.; contributions from 2d. to 1s. per week, according to benefits provided by a branch.
Further particulars from SECRETARY,
29, Wellington-street, Strand, London.

ALPHABETICAL LIST
OF
ILLUSTRATED BIOGRAPHIES.

NAME.	DATE.
Abrahams, Messrs. F. & M.	March 31, 1906.
Alexander, Mr. Alex.	June 2, 1906.
Ashcroft, Late Mr. W. E.	October 27, 1906.
Ashton, Mr. George	May 5, 1906.
Ashton, Miss Margaret	September 1, 1906.
Ball, Mr. Alf	September 1, 1906.
Barbour, Mr. William	March 3, 1906.
Barclay, Mr. Arthur J.	May 26, 1906.
Barlow, Miss Billie	March 10, 1906.
Barnett, Mr. Orlando	October 6, 1906.
Barrasford, Mrs.	February 10, 1906.
Beatty, Miss May	November 10, 1906.
Bertoldi, Late Miss Ena	April 7, 1906.
Bessie, Late Miss Elizabeth	February 3, 1906.
Billington, Mrs. John	January 20, 1906.
Bordin, Signorina Maria	September 15, 1906.
Brough, Mr. Lionel	May 13, 1905.
Brown-Potter, Mrs.	March 3, 1906.
Burton, Mr. John	March 10, 1906.
Butt, Mr. Alfred	August 25, 1905.
Carrington, Miss Eva	February 24, 1906.
Cavalho, Miss Sylvia	March 3, 1906.
Cellier, Miss Marguerite	May 26, 1906.
Chapin, Miss Alice	May 26, 1906.
Cinquevalli, Mr. Paul	May 5, 1906.
Clarey, Late Mr. H. O.	February 24, 1906.
Clark, Mr. William	March 3, 1906.
Clark, Late Mr. Henri	Dec. 9, 1905.
Clark, Mr. T. Sealey	May 19, 1906.
Collette, Mr. Charles	November 4, 1905.
Collier, Mr. Hal	May 19, 1906.
Conquest, Mr. Arthur	May 26, 1906
Conquest, Mr. Fred	Dec. 9, 1905.
Coote, Mr. Bert	June 16, 1906.
Corri, Mlle. Ghita	September 22, 1905.
Costello, Mr. Tom	September 15, 1906.
Cotterell, Mr. Sid	July 14, 1906.
Crisp, Late Mr. Henry	May 26, 1906.
Cruikshank, Mr. Alfred	March 17, 1906.
Culloch, Mr. Arthur	November 10, 1906.
Dallas, Mr. J. J.	July 7, 1906.
Dampier, Mr. Alfred	May 12, 1906.
Deering, Late Miss R.	July 14, 1906.
De Gracia, Mr. G.	May 19, 1906.
Dobson, Mr. E. H.	August 12, 1905.
Donegan, Mr. James K.	May 20, 1905.
Duff, Master Harry E.	April 29, 1905.
Dyball, Mr. George H.	January 13, 1906.
Earnshaw, Mr Arthur	November 4, 1905.
Elliott, Late Mr. J. B.	May 26, 1906.
Elen, Mr. Gus	September 23, 1905.
Gastelle, Miss Stella	July 15, 1905.
Gatti, Late Mr. Stefano	October 20, 1906.
Genée, Mlle.	September 22, 1906.
Godfrey-Turner, Miss M.	October 28, 1905.
Gibbs, Miss Edith	March 3, 1906.
Grace, Miss Amy	January 13, 1906.
Gray, Miss Dora	January 13, 1906.
Grey, Miss Isabel	July 7, 1906.
Grove, Mr. Fred	March 10, 1906.
Grein, Mr. J. T.	Nov. 11, 1905.
Gunn, Miss Haidee	September 30, 1905
Hamlyn, Mr. J. D.	January 20, 1906.
Hansen, Miss Laura	January 20, 1906.
Harris, Mr. Thomas	February 24, 1906.
Harriss, Miss Sophie	April 7, 1906.
Harvey, Late Mr. Eddie	September 1, 1906.
Hastings, Miss Nora	March 10, 1906.
Heron-Brown, Miss Edith	June 16, 1906.
Hey, Miss Muriel	September 15, 1906.
Hitchens, Mr. H. J.	September 8, 1906.
Holloway, Mr. Baliol	April 15, 1905.
Hunter, Late Mr. Harry	October 20, 1906,
Illington, Miss Margaret	June 2, 1906.
Irving, Late Sir Henry	Oct. 21, 1905.
Jenoure, Miss Aida	June 24 1905.
Jerrard, Late Mr. J. F.	April 28, 1906.
Juliette, Mdlle.	January 13, 1906.
Karno, Mr. Fred	August 12, 1905.
Kinghorne, Late Mr. Mark	November 10, 1906.
Kingston, Miss Bertha	February 24, 1906.
Kinnaird, Miss Helen	March 3, 1906.
Knowles, Mr. J. Forbes	July 7, 1906.
Lamonte, Miss Syria	November 10, 1906.
Lauri, Mr. Edward	July 28, 1906.
Wright, Mr. Stewart D.	Nov. 17, 1906.
Zorn, Mr. Fritz	February 17, 1906.

Copies of the above can be obtained by communicating with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

A. BLACKFORD.
LADIES' and GENTLEMAN'S THEATRICAL BOOTS and SHOES
Companies Fitted.
Estimates Free on Application.
in Great Variety.
3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET, COVENT GARDEN, W.C.
Telephone, P.O. Central, 5,014.

DRESS CLOTHES LENT.—BLACKFORD has for SALE or HIRE the Finest of CLOTHES for Theatres, Balls, Parties, Weddings, Dinners, Funerals, &c. Clothes sent to any part of England. Perfect Fit guaranteed. 3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET, COVENT GARDEN (one door from Market), and 31, WELLINGTON-STREET, STRAND. Telegraphic Address, "Misfits, London." Telephone, P.O. Central, 5,014.

TYPEWRITING, TYPEWRITING,
Shorthand Writers. Temporary Operators.
Dictations. Translations.
THEATRICAL WORK A SPECIALITY.
Despatch, Accuracy, and Neatness guaranteed.
CHARGES MODERATE.
THE MOYA TYPEWRITER CO.,
95, STRAND, LONDON, W.C. (Hotel Cecil Block).

NOW IN PREPARATION.
FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
A World-wide Circulation, therefore an Excellent Medium for Advertisers.
1907—THE ERA ANNUAL—1907
Advertisements
should be Forwarded at once to the Office,
5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.
For Scale of Charges see another Page.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1906.

SHAKESPEARE AND SCENERY.

The most "contentious" essay of all the eleven which constitute the volume called "Shakespeare and the Modern Stage," recently published by JOHN MURRAY, is undoubtedly the first in the book. It deals with the very difficult question of with how much or how little mounting SHAKESPEARE'S plays should be produced. According to Mr. LEE, the leading London managers are in the wrong in adding "spectacular magnificence" and music to the other attractions of Shakespearean productions; and he considers that the spectacular embellishments now in vogue are so costly that Shakespearean revivals are made more risky by the heavy financial risk involved in the enterprise. In this way Mr. LEE accounts for the comparative rarity of such performances in London; and he goes so far as to contend that only those plays are viewed with favour by the London manager which lend themselves, in his opinion, to more or less ostentatious spectacle, and to the interpolation of music and dancing. Mr. LEE continues:

"It is open to doubt whether, from the sensible literary point of view, the managerial activity be well conceived or to the public advantage. It is hard to ignore a fundamental flaw in the manager's central position. The pleasure which recent Shakespearean revivals offer the spectator reaches him mainly through the eye. That is the manager's avowed intention. Yet no one would seriously deny that the Shakespearean drama appeals, both primarily and ultimately, to the head and to the heart. Whosoever seeks, therefore, by the production of Shakespearean drama chiefly to please the spectator's eye shows scant respect both for the dramatist and for the spectator. However unwittingly, he tends to misrepresent the one and to mislead the other in a particular of first-rate importance. Indeed, excess in scenic display does worse than restrict opportunities of witnessing SHAKESPEARE'S plays on the stage in London and other large cities of England and America. It is to be feared that such excess either weakens or distorts the just and proper influence of SHAKESPEARE'S work. If these imputations can be sustained, then it follows that the increased and increasing expense which is involved in the production of SHAKESPEARE'S plays ought on grounds of public policy to be diminished."

It seems to us that managers, audiences, and critics attach rather too much importance to this matter of mounting. We never knew a really poor piece to be saved by the scenery. Elaborate mounting is more or less of a fashion, and one entrepreneur vies with another in ingenuity of invention and liberality of enterprise. The result is that a certain standard of sumptuosity has been reached, playgoers have grown accustomed to it, and anything less thorough and complete would be regarded as inadequate. For, after all, mounting is merely a matter of degree. As soon as you leave the safe ground of the ungarnished stage, with "This is a castle" writ on a placard, it is difficult to say where adequacy ends and where "excess" in scenic embellishment commences. Roughly speaking, we should place the point of exuberance where the attention is distracted from the play to the production. That the most accurate imitation of an environment does not impair the spectator's interest in the acting is proved by the fact that in a drama of modern life, where every table and teacup can be real, it is found that as soon as the story is set going the surroundings are entirely forgotten, although they may be absolutely realistic down to the smallest detail. It is not, indeed, the perfect, but the imperfect, realisation of a scene which offends. When the reproduction is flawless the eye simply accepts the imitation as satisfactory and the illusion as complete. It is when the scenic artist has failed in his attempt at deception, when the papier-maché treatment is obviously artificial, that one awakens from one's dream. By witnessing a succession of complete and careful productions the taste becomes exacting, and resents imperfections. It is simply a matter of habit, however. The audiences of SHAKESPEARE'S time had a certain standard of illusion, the audiences of GARRICK'S time had another, the audiences of the early Victorian period had a third. But in these matters we cannot, "like a crab," "go backward." A public accustomed to see GARRICK play Macbeth in a white wig and knee-breeches felt no injury to their illusion, because they "knew no better." The stage has to keep pace with contemporary education and information. We have to be accurate and elaborate simply to satisfy, and only to escape ridicule.

As far as the leading London managers are concerned, they have little choice in the matter. They must either not play SHAKESPEARE at all or must mount his works with the liberality and accuracy which the public which patronises West End playhouses has learnt to expect. Mr. STEELE states that Sir HENRY IRVING lost heavily "on his Shakespearean productions," while PHELPS made his reign at Sadler's Wells pay. At any rate, IRVING took between the time of his starting management in 1878 and the day of his death in 1905 over two million pounds sterling. As for PHELPS, after eighteen years of unremitting toil, he left Sadler's Wells, Mr. COLEMAN tells us, almost as poor as when he entered it to accept an engagement at Drury Lane under FALCONER and CHATTERTON; and then joined Mr. LABOUCHERE at the Queen's Theatre for a "grand spectacular production" of A Midsummer Night's Dream, "which proved highly successful, and realised large sums for both actor and manager." What PHELPS could do at Sadler's Wells would have been impossible for IRVING to do at the Lyceum; and it is very doubtful if another PHELPS could do what he did in his day. The conditions were so different, with the multitude of competing attractions and the difficulty of keeping together a stock company of excellence. The "object-lesson" of a revival of Antony and Cleopatra at the Burg-Theater in Vienna, which Mr. STEELE supplies, is not inspiring. "The acting," he says, "was competent, though not of the highest calibre; there were no conspicuous deflections from the adequate standard." The only character in the performance of which he retains any recollection is that of Enobarbus. The performance lasted five hours, and "no sign of impatience manifested itself at any point." But will Mr. LEE swear that there was no snoring?

JUDGING by the principals Mr. Sounes has engaged for his pantomime The Forty Thieves, at the Prince's Theatre, Poplar, a huge success is in store for him. The appointments of the up-to-date theatre are admirably designed to give effect to the most elaborate production, and the pantomime is sure to be exceedingly "Poplar"—if we may repeat a pun which has the distinction of having been perpetrated in Parliament.

MR. F. B. WOULFE asks us to state, in order to prevent misapprehension, that the new version of Robin Hood, written for him by Mr. Clifford Rean, in no way encroaches on any other version of the same story. Two novels of Dumas have been selected as a basis for the play, viz., "Robin Hood the Outlaw" and "The Prince of Thieves." In addition, this version is a melodrama pure and simple. The character of Robin has been drawn with every regard to the celebrated outlaw's enormous physical strength, and the part is one that few actors, unless endowed with Mr. Woulfe's thews and sinews, would care to have to deal with. In the course of the play Mr. Woulfe intends to perform some notable feats of strength, and in one scene, where the old English custom of Trial by Combat is introduced, he wrestles with and throws a man of over 18st. weight.

TOLSTOI'S Anna Karénine has tempted many Parisian playwrights, yet no theatre has thus far cared to produce the work, possibly on account of its being too typically Russian for the taste of the public. M. Gémier, however, has accepted a play founded on the before-mentioned novel, and has put it in rehearsal. The difficulty, however, is to find an actor suitable for the rôle of Wronsky, and those who have read the novel will understand that it is not an easy one. M. Gémier has taken over the part of Karénine, and Mme. Mègard will impersonate the heroine, Anna. The tableau wherein the latter throws herself under a passing train will be made sensational.

THE clever performance of the Court embalmer, Ptolemy Theopompus Allakama—to give him his full title—in that most successful opera Amasis, was credited by us to Mr. Herbert Ross, an unfortunate error that robbed the real impersonator, Mr. Reginald White, of much-merited praise. By his rendering of his opening song one easily discovers that Mr. White is a comedian with an easy, natural style, and that he never labours his points. His clever eccentricities also do much for the comedy scenes, which are now so full of drollery, and he is a decided acquisition to the cast.

THE Authors' Society, writes our Paris correspondent, are still crowing over their wonderful victory in having, as they say, floored the Trust. Certain facts, however, have now come to light showing that this so-called victory is a most expensive one, and decidedly profitable to the vanquished. In the first instance, the society, who announced with a great flourish of trumpets that nobody would be allowed to manage more than one theatre at a time, has permitted MM. Richemond and Deval to direct the Athénée and the Folies-Dramatiques, and MM. Clos and Dublay to take another playhouse besides the Bouffes. The society, moreover, takes over the lease of the Palais-Royal and of the Variétes, and, by way of idemnity, pays MM. Richemond and Deval £1600 a year for the Variétes and £800 for the Palais-Royal! In other words, the beforementioned gentlemen, whom the society threatened to excommunicate first and slaughter afterwards, are pocketing a nice little income, guaranteed by that wealthy concern, the Authors' Society. It will be interesting to know why the society claim a victory considering it is those whom they prosecuted who reaped all the benefit of the affair.

BRITISH EMPIRE SHAKESPEARE SOCIETY.

At the St. James's Theatre, on Thursday afternoon, Her Highness Princess Louise-Augusta of Schleswig-Holstein presented the prizes to several ladies and gentlemen who, in an elocution competition recently held under the auspices of the British Empire Shakespeare Society, were adjudged winners by Mr. George Alexander. Mr. Sidney Lee, president of the Society, was in the chair, and there were also on the stage Mr. George Alexander, Mr. Laurence Irving, Miss Irene Vanbrugh, and Mr. Acton Bond, and Miss Morritt, the secretary.

An extremely interesting programme of dramatic readings commenced with a recitation of "Ben Jonson's Ode to Shakespeare," recited with fine expression and clear enunciation by Mr. Laurence Irving. Then followed readings from Julius Cæsar, Henry VIII., and The Taming of the Shrew. All the speeches were delivered with excellent elocutionary effect. Mr. Lewis Casson as Marcus Brutus and Mr. Walter Hampden as Cassius were heard to excellent effect, others taking part in the scenes from Julius Cæsar being Mr. George Ingleton, Mr. Edwin Holloway, Mr. Michael Sherbrooke, Mr. Stanley Lathbury, and Miss Kate Turner. In Henry VIII. Mr. Acton Bond as Wolsey and Miss Edith Wynne-Matthison as Catharine spoke with rare feeling and commendable diction. Others appearing in this scene were Mr. Kenyon Musgrave, Mr. John Macfarlane, Mr. J. H. Irvine, Mr. Stuart Wilson, and Mr. John Beamish. But the honours of the afternoon, so far as a fresh characterisation of a rôle was concerned, undoubtedly fell to Miss Hutin Britton, whose vigorous delivery and whose robust personal appearance as Katharina were well in accordance with the requirements of the rôle. It was a brilliant piece of work, which received due appreciation. Mr. Matheson Lang spoke well as Petruchio; and others who assisted in The Taming of the Shrew, in addition to those mentioned as taking part in the previous performances, were Miss Agnes Brayton (Bianca), Mr. Nigel Playfair (Grumio), and Miss Gertrude de Burgh as Curtis.

At the close of the dramatic performances Her Highness Princess Louise-Augusta graciously presented prizes to the successful competitors at the last examination. The names of the recipients are as follow: Miss Clare Absalom, Miss Joan Wiseman, Miss Kathleen Rind, Miss Hilda Fletcher, Miss Muriel Hutchinson, Mr. Norman Wrighton, Miss Gwendolen Hart, Miss Enid Rose, Miss Ruby Feetum, and Mr. Sydney Smith.

The chairman, in moving a vote of thanks to Princess Louise-Augusta for her kindly offices in the distribution of the prizes, mentioned that in having Mr. George Alexander as judge they could scarcely have had a higher authority on the art and the practice of acting. The value of the prizes would be greatly enhanced by the fact that they had been bestowed by the Princess's hands. They welcomed Her Highness for many reasons. For one thing she was a patroness of the Society, and she was a most ardent admirer of the works of William Shakespeare. Thanks were due to her for the encouragement she had given to the Society and for the efforts she was making to extend the ranks of readers of Shakespeare.

Sir Theodore Martin, who seconded the vote of thanks, remarked that he came to the theatre that afternoon without any great expectations, and he had been agreeably surprised to find such excellent results of the work of the Society. He did not think there was nowadays a due appreciation of the beauty of Shakespeare's language, which was as diversified as it was beautiful.

Mr. Laurence Irving, in moving a vote of thanks to Mr. George Alexander, said: It is my privilege to offer the thanks of the British Empire Shakespeare Society to Mr. George Alexander for his great kindness and hospitality in receiving us here this afternoon. We who are members of this Society know that this is only one of the services he has rendered in our behalf, and, speaking more widely, I think one might truly say that Mr. Alexander's whole management of this theatre has been most encouraging to the art of the stage, to all that is best in it, and, therefore, particularly to the works of our great national poet. On these boards Mr. Alexander has never produced any play that would tend to corrupt good manners or that had not in it strong intrinsic merit. It is not only for 300 nights, but for more than a decade, that Mr. Alexander has kept His House in Order. Now I wish to speak of a movement that has lately been started in our profession—or calling, or occupation, or art—a movement that has very strongly, for many reasons, appealed to me, and also to Mr. Alexander. I am alluding to what is called Actors' Day. As you are no doubt aware, this was a day on which it had been determined that all actors, managers, and authors should relinquish one-sixth of their earnings in one week for the purpose of alleviating distress among those connected with the stage. There once existed an old adage, "Look out, ma! Take in the washing. Here come some actors." Well, actors are sufficiently fortunate to-day to be able to have their own washing. But we were desirous of removing whatever taints might still be bound up with our calling by the institution of Actors' Day. Unfortunately there were very few Alexanders in the field. Many members of the profession of light and leading held back. Mr. Alexander, in giving one-sixth of his week's salary, gave one-sixth of the largest salary that has ever been paid to him, and that I consider was positively handsome. It is my pleasure to offer him a vote of thanks, and, if available, I know we shall all give him our votes if he really does stand for the County Council or in whatever capacity which may require him to accept our assistance and heartfelt suffrage.

Mr. George Alexander, in acknowledging the vote of thanks, said: I can hardly say how delighted I have been to place my theatre at the disposal of the Society this afternoon. I am perfectly certain that the Society will do a great deal of good. It will make playgoers who will be anxious to witness stage representations of Shakespeare. Mr. Irving, with an enthusiasm which cannot be overpraised, has mentioned in this assembly the subject of Actors' Day. I sincerely hope that the Actors' Day movement will be a very great success, and I feel sure it would do much to give us a better position in the world if we could entirely give up making any appeals to the public to look after our less fortunate brothers and sisters. In conclusion, I hope that the Society will on many future occasions meet again in this house.

MRS. SEAMAN, widow of the late Wm. Seaman, passed away on the 23rd ult. in her ninety-fifth year. She and her husband were for many years members of the old Victoria, the City of London, and Standard theatres. The deceased leaves three daughters, Julia, Alice, and Florence, and one son, William. Miss Julia Seaman was a few years ago well known as an actress both in London and the provinces.

MARKED interest attaches to the special performance at the Broadway Theatre, New Cross, on Monday evening, Dec. 17, of The House of Dombey, by the Dickens Fellowship Dramatic Society. The occasion will be rendered noteworthy by the presence of Mr. Beerbohm Tree, president of the society, who will, at the close, present the Lord Mayor with a cheque for the proceeds of the performance, which is given in aid of the Crippled Children's Fund.

THE ORIGINAL CHRISTY MINSTRELS.

Mr. William Matthews, whose death in his seventy-first year was recently announced in The Era, was one of the three Brothers Matthews of the original C.C.C. Christy Minstrels. The deceased was the "bones" of the troupe, and amongst the comic songs that he helped to make popular were "Tapioca," "My Mary Ann," "The Grecian Band," "The Hat and Feather," "Hush-a-bye baby," "The Hen Convention," &c.

In the year 1863 three young men, who had received a good musical education, opened an establishment for the sale of musical instruments in Tavistock-street, Covent Garden. The name of these young men was Matthews—Thomas, William, and Henry—and here they gave pleasant little musical reunions to the delight of all who had the privilege of an entré. After a time the three brothers resolved to form a troupe, and give entertainments of the kind made famous by E. P. Christy and his company in America. They called themselves Christy's Coloured Comedians, and in August, 1863, they made their appearance at the Royal Colosseum. In a contemporary notice of their début there reference is made to the "droll eccentricity and mercurial vivacity of Mr. William Matthews," the "bones" of the party. The Era of August 16, 1863, contains a paragraph giving a brief notice of the "new company" of coloured minstrels at the Dr. Johnson Music Hall, a place of amusement that has long ceased to exist. The troupe also appeared at the old Raglan Music Hall and at the Crystal Palace, on one occasion when the late Prince Arthur was present. They also had the honour of performing before the then Prince and Princess of Wales, at the Horticultural Gardens, South Kensington. One of the most distinctive and successful efforts of the company at this time was an extraordinary and quaint burlesque fragment, called "Dooral Mac Dill Darrell," which was given by the Brothers Matthews and Beckett some thousands of times. Mr. T. W. Matthews was a tenor singer, and Mr. Harry Matthews was the tambourine corner man.

Many people are no doubt quite unaware of the fact that the real original Christy Minstrels never visited Europe at all, but, under the management of the Mr. Christy already mentioned, confined their performances to America. About the year 1857 a Mr. Raynor who had been a member of the original company in America, being convinced that it would be a good speculation to introduce this then novel kind of entertainment into Great Britain, came over in that year with a troupe of Christy Minstrels, and gave performances both in London and the provinces with considerable success. However, before the year 1860, the troupe was disbanded, and Mr. Raynor returned to America, the "properties" having been disposed of to Messrs. Wilsom and company, who carried on the same kind of entertainment for some time. Mr. George Washington Moore and Mr. Crocker became connected with this company, but after a while—in Nov., 1864—these two gentlemen started a troupe of their own.

In the meantime the Bros. Matthew had been joined by Mr. J. Spiller, one of the original minstrels under Mr. Raynor, and as the Christy Coloured Comedians, or the C.C.C., they, in Nov., 1864, engaged the St. James's Hall, Piccadilly, and gave performances there with great success for five weeks, when they were succeeded by the famous General Tom Thumb. The troupe, after a fortnight's provincial trip, went to the Polygraphic Hall (afterwards the Charing Cross Theatre, and still later known as the Folly and as Toole's Theatre), King William-street, Strand. Here they remained five months, at the conclusion of which period they again went into the country, but, returning to St. James's Hall, continued performing there till Sept. 2, 1865. This being the dull time of the year in London, the troupe went on tour in the provinces. In their absence Messrs. Moore, Crocker, and Burgess secured St. James's Hall—which had become the recognised home of the Christy Minstrel entertainments—for a considerable period.

Many of the above facts were elicited in the course of an action for libel which the Matthews brothers brought against Messrs. Moore, Crocker, and Burgess, and which was tried before the late Mr. Justice Lush and a special jury at Westminster Hall, on Feb. 11, 1869. The plaintiffs accused the defendants of injuring them seriously in their business by the publication of advertisements, cautioning the public against being "misled by unscrupulous persons who go about from time to time representing themselves as the Veritable and Legitimate Minstrels of the St. James's Hall, Piccadilly." Mr. Quain, Q.C. (the late Mr. Justice Quain), Mr. Walter Molesworth St. Aubyn, and Mr. Popham Pike were counsel for the plaintiffs. Mr. Serjeant Parry, Mr. Morgan Lloyd, and Mr. Montagu Williams appeared for the defendants. After the opening speech of counsel for the plaintiffs the only witness called was Mr. Thomas William Matthews, and, after hearing his evidence, a verdict for the plaintiffs for 40s. and costs was returned, the defendants undertaking to withdraw the advertisements complained of, and in any other advertisements to state in express terms that they were not intended to apply to Messrs. Matthews' C.C.C. Christy Minstrels—which indeed was the defence set up by the defendants' counsel.

The troupe was afterwards known as Matthews' Minstrels, and continued to perform in the provinces until the year 1890.

THE TERRIERS ASSOCIATION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—The Committee of Management of the Terriers Association, having been informed that rumours are in circulation in the profession to the effect that the funds of the assocation are in an unsatisfactory condition, and that members have not received the benefits to which they are entitled, I am requested to ask you to give prominence to the fact in your current issue that such rumours are absolutely unfounded, and that if the responsibility for the circulation of such malicious statements can be fixed on anyone proceedings of the most stringent nature will be taken.

The financial state of the Terriers Association—which I think I am correct in stating is the only registered Friendly Society restricted to the music hall profession—has never since its inception been in a stronger or more prosperous condition than at the present time.—Your obedient servant,

GERALD P. R. BURGESS,
Solicitor to the Terriers' Association
5, Great James-street, Bedford-row, Nov. 29.

"THE SLEEPING CAR."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—I notice in your variety columns of Nov. 24 last a criticism of a sketch produced by Mr. Maurice Hoffman entitled The Sleeping Car. The plot is very similar to a sketch entitled The Midnight Mail, by Forbes Dawson, recently played with success at the Chelsea, Metropolitan, and Standard, and noticed by your critic. Of this I hold the sole performing rights, and as I intend again playing it in London shortly, to save confusion, I shall be grateful if you will, in justice to myself and author, publish this letter.—Yours faithfully,

GEORGE THORNE, JUN.
Hippodrome, New Brompton, Kent.
Nov. 27.

VARIETY GOSSIP.

The Canterbury difficulty has vanished, and on Friday the L.C.C., sitting as the licensing authority at Spring-gardens, acceded to the application of Mr. G. A. Payne for a licence for music and dancing, Mr. H. J. Greenwood, the chairman of the Theatres Committee, stating that an agreement had now been come to with respect to certain structural alterations which were to be carried out.

A licence for music and dancing was granted on Friday to Mr. Oswald Stoll for the London Coliseum, subject to an undertaking that no intoxicating drinks should be sold or consumed on the premises.

Miss Marie Lloyd is so deeply interested in the Music Hall Ladies' Guild that it must have been an intense disappointment to her that she was forbidden by her medical attendant from appearing at the brilliantly successful matinée at the Canterbury on Tuesday. She, however, sent along a cheque for ten guineas for two boxes.

Miss Constance Moxon, who exercised a genial sway as stage-manager, was very gratified at receiving the following kind letter from Miss Ellen Terry, who was unable to be present with Miss Fanny Brough, to give encouragement to her sisters of the lesser stage in their splendid work. Writing from her residence at Chelsea, Miss Terry says:—"Dear Miss Moxon,—I have been staying at my little farm and neglecting my letters. A day of reckoning comes for that sort of thing! I am sorry I did not answer your letter before—sorry, too, to tell you I cannot do what you ask me. On the 27th and 29th I am acting for charities in the country, and can only send my good wishes to the ladies of the Music Hall Guild—and a tiny cheque towards the scheme they have in hand."

The following amounts were taken by the sale of programmes, photos, and flowers:—Miss Maud Courtney, £3 5s. 2d.; Miss Margaret Ratcliff, £2 2s. 3d.; Miss B. Burnand, £2 17s. 10d.; Miss Agnes Molteno, £1 10s. 9d.; Miss M. Wood, £1 4s. 10d.; Miss Weston, £1 3s. 3d.; Miss Popet Ginnett, £1 1s.; Miss Miller, £1; Miss Rose Harvey, 17s. 6d.; Mrs. Morny Cash, 14s.; Miss Carrie Laurie, 13s. 6d.; Miss L. Smythson, 13s.; Miss B. Hyman, 12s. 5d.; Miss Jonghmanns, 11s. 7d.; Miss Alice McNaughton, 9s. 3d.; Miss Millie Payne, 5s. 5d.; Miss Martini (postcard), 1s.

Roughly speaking, the total sum obtained by the matinée is about £200. Miss Burnand received a cheque from My Fancy of £5 for a programme, and another £3 3s. for two stall seats. Telegrams of good wishes were sent by Miss Marie Lloyd, Mrs. Ganty, Miss Nellie Wallett, Mrs. Webb, Miss Marie Loftus, Miss Amy Clevere, Roberts and Appleyard, Mr. and Mrs. Mildare, Mr. Russell Wallett, Mrs. Egerton, Miss Bijou Russell, and Miss Molteno. The committee of the Guild desire, through the columns of The Era, to record their heartfelt thanks to the "Rats" fraternity for their splendid gift, to acknowledge their indebtedness to everyone who assisted, and to thank the Press for the publicity so freely given.

Miss Lil Shaw (the Pocket Vesta Tilley), aged five years, came all the way from Hull to appear at the Music Hall Ladies' Guild matinée at the Canterbury on Tuesday, is a life guardian of the principal hospital in that town, holding this big position through her aid to numerous charities.

Mr. Gus Elen on Monday next will be taking his Cockney carols into the provinces, where he will appear with his new entertainment, which possesses the additional advantage of being illustrated with cinematograph effects. The homespuns of ancient Rhodes were regaled with Attic salt in the Hellenic comedy of Aristophanes some four hundred years ago, and now our country cousins are to be tickled with "Elenic" humour, which also has an attic flavour. History repeats itself!

The directors of the Alhambra and Mr. George Scott are carrying out a scheme of reconstruction and redecoration of the auditorium that embraces the repainting, the reseating, and recarpeting of the entire house, and by Jan. 15—the probable date of the production of the new ballet—it is expected that the contract will have been completed.

Mr. Alfred Butt and the directors will celebrate the fourteenth anniversary of the Palace Theatre on Tuesday, Dec. 11. We expect to see many theatre and music-hall favourites on the stage and a great and distinguished crowd in the auditorium.

Mr. C. Blyth-Pratt has now entirely recovered from the nasty touch of malarial fever that compelled him to remain at home for a few days. Unfortunately, those who have seen service, like the popular manager of the Oxford has, in the unhealthy region of the West Coast of Africa, are only too liable to recurring attacks of the malady of the marshes.

We referred briefly last week to Miss Ada Reeve's severe bereavement by the death of her father, Mr. Charles Reeve, who passed away at the age of 63 on Thursday, the 22nd ult., from pneumonia. In her early days at the Pavilion Theatre she profited much by the advice of the sound legitimate actor, and she was bound to him not only by the ties of filial affection, but by artistic sympathy. As a stock actor at the Mile End Charles Reeve did much excellent work. His gifted daughter, whose brilliant career was a source of continual delight to him, is overwhelmed with sorrow, and is deeply sensible of the sympathy which has been shown to her in shoals of telegrams and letters, which she is quite unable to answer individually. He was buried on Monday.

Mr. Pat Carey, the president of the Music Hall Sick Fund, in a letter addressed to the secretary, expresses the heartfelt thanks of himself and wife to the committee and officers of the society for the handsome illuminated address presented on the occasion of his recent marriage. He also thanks the committee for their good wishes expressed in the letter accompanying the presentation.

At the 490th meeting of the Executive Committee of the Music Hall Artists' Railway Association, held at the offices on Wednesday, Mr. Joe O'Gorman in the chair, a motion was carried that a sub-committee be appointed to procure suitable premises for the proposed Music Hall Exchange. The weekly financial statement showed a total of £40 14s. 6d., and during the week fifty-one new members were enrolled. The Committee in future will hold its weekly meetings on Wednesday at one o'clock.

Mr. Harry Seymour, who was specially engaged by Mr. Arthur Collins to appear in the Parisian production of Cinderella, is playing the Cat, to the delight equally of the boulevardier and the children. His business in the picnic scene is adding much to the gaiety of la ville lumière, the large audiences that assemble nightly to hear the Anglo-French version of the old legend being convulsed.

Our forecast of the success of the Napoleonic sketch, The Drummer of the 76th, by Louis Cohen, has been more than justified by the bookings both in London and the provinces. This week it is scoring most unmistakably at Bradford, and is winning triumphant receptions everywhere. The Colonial and American rights, which are for disposal, should be speedily snapped up.

The New Tivoli, Liverpool, will be opened on Dec. 10. A private inspection is to take place on Saturday next, when Miss Vesta Tilley will unveil a memorial tablet affixed at the entrance of the hall.

The new manager of the Tivoli, Mr. James Marks, at present controlling the Park Palace, took a farewell benefit at that place on Tuesday evening, when a crowded audience put in an appearance, and all the principal variety artists of the city and Birkenhead attended to offer their services. The staff of the Park presented Mr. Marks with a charmingly inscribed silver cigarette case, and to Mrs. Marks a valuable bag was given.

An influential syndicate has been formed for the purpose of establishing an up-to-date variety theatre in Cheltenham. The syndicate has been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Hugh Astley, the chairman of the London Pavilion, who will be chairman of the company, and his influence will enable the leading artists from the Pavilion to visit Cheltenham from time to time, thus ensuring a programme being placed before local audiences which otherwise would be unattainable.

It is proposed to place the construction of the building in the hands of Messrs. Wylson and Long, the well-known architects of King William-street, W.C., who designed the Oxford, Pavilion, Euston, the Newcastle Pavilion, the Chelsea and Walthamstow Palaces, &c. Naturally, a great deal of work in the construction of the house can be done locally, and tenders will probably be invited from all local firms for each department.

The growth of the variety theatres in England has been phenomenal of late years, most of the smaller towns now possessing their "Palaces" and "Empires," which all seem to be flourishing. In London and its suburbs, too, the increase is no less remarkable, and the conversion, or anticipated conversion, of the Brixton, Stoke Newington, and Islington Theatres, with the opening of the East Ham Palace in a fortnight's time, speak eloquently of the favourable attitude of the masses towards entertainments that are essentially light and snappy.

Through the kindness and courtesy of Mr. Fred W. Warden, the South African Rugby team and officials were invited to the Belfast Royal Theatre of Varieties on Thursday, 22nd ult. The visitors thoroughly enjoyed themselves, being especially interested in the mystifying illusions of Mr. Carl Hertz.

Regan and Ryan, whose entertainment is always up-to-date, are playing at the Court Theatre, Liverpool, for pantomime this year. They are well booked up at all the leading variety houses in Great Britain, and have also settled for Australia with Mr. Harry Rickards.

Mr. George Brooks has been secured by Mr. C. F. Williams as principal comedian for his pantomime Blue Beard, and it will be the good fortune of patrons of the Theatre Royal, Plymouth, to enjoy the rich fun of this capital farceur in the rôle of Sister Ann. Mr. Williams is to be congratulated.

Mr. Delno Fritz has intimated his resignation of the position as manager of the Empire, Paisley, which is under the lesseeship of Mr. J. H. Savile. Mr. Fritz, who has been in charge for five years, came with an excellent reputation, and has been offered an engagement as a performer at an increased salary by Messrs. Barnum and Bailey in America, he being attached to the mammoth circus for six years before becoming a manager in Paisley. His departure will be regretted by many friends. Mr. Fritz has been allotted a benefit next week.

From Mr. Chas. E. Machin's Sunderland office comes the news that bookings are going so strong for his weird and novelty sketch productions that Mr. Chas. M. Daly, his manager, author, and producer, has already started on four other novelties, and that by Easter almost a dozen productions will be in full swing. Arrangements are also in hand for a tour through the States, thence to Australia and South Africa, with a special company playing a sketch répertoire.

W. J. Ashcroft, thirty years ago, was as great a draw at a music hall as Little Tich is to-day. Since then he has been theatre proprietor, manager, and entertainer with the greatest success. There are thousands in Great Britain who even now remember the ovations the veteran Irish comedian and dancer received everywhere he appeared in the early 'seventies. The present generation have but to see him once to acknowledge that their fathers "knew a good thing when they saw it" in W. J. Ashcroft. It is just fourteen years since Ashcroft appeared in Leeds—long enough to be forgotten in the case of a mediocre man. But it is safe to assume that many who read the announcement that "the solid man" will appear at the Empire next Monday will receive the news with the greatest pleasure, and make a point of giving the veteran comedian and dancer a great welcome.

Mr. Ashcroft was born in far-away Pawtucket, in the United States. A few years ago he retired from the stage. "In my retirement," he told the writer, "the great difficulty I had was to find something to put in my time at. I tried many things, but no matter with what I occupied myself, there was a longing for the old life—a craving, I may say, for the glare and glitter, the rush and excitement of the stage, and so when my old partner, John W. Morton, came to me and discussed the matter I decided to return, provided it could be arranged that my work would not be of too heavy a nature."

Theatre musicians in Sunderland are endeavouring to get their wages raised to the standard prevailing in other towns, and with this object proprietors of local theatres had been approached. Mr. Thornton, of the new Empire, in response, wrote Mr. Williams, secretary of the Musicians' Union, stating that he had no desire to evade the rules of the Musicians' Union. It was his intention to employ the best talent and to pay the standard rate of wages. Mr. Williams has replied to Mr. Thornton from the headquarters of the Amalgamated Musicians' Union at Manchester, stating he has forwarded the letter to the Sunderland secretary, with directions to place the context of the same before the Trades Council, so that the trades unionists of the district shall know that his would be a fair house, and worthy of their patronage.

Isidore Gadbin is the only man in the world that can defy a motor car to run over him and not injure him. This remarkable human phenomenon, who has been giving demonstrations of his extraordinary powers in Paris, will appear at the Glasgow Empire next week, and anyone is at liberty to bring a motor car, of any weight up to two tons, and try conclusions with him. Gadbin is a native of Paris, thirty-six years of age, and has only had one imitator, who was immediately killed in attempting to emulate one of the feats Gadbin had just accomplished.

Mr. John Keating, the highly-respected and popular assistant-manager of the Argyle Theatre of Varieties, Birkenhead, has been the recipient of a handsome cabinet of table cutlery, presented to him by the staff of the establishment on the occasion of his marriage.

Owing to indisposition, Miss Lil Hawthorne has had to remain out of the bill at the Empire Palace, Leicester, this week.

Miss Rose Hamilton, of Jack Sheppard fame, who has been scoring a success with her répertoire of high-class character-songs, has only been out of town five weeks this year. Next week she will be seen in two new songs at the Stratford Empire, and on Dec. 10 she starts rehearsals at the Metropole, Glasgow, where she is to be principal boy.

Miss Margaret Ashton, who has recently returned from a visit to America, is still unfortunately prevented, by the state of her health, from fulfilling any of her immediate engagements. She should this month have appeared at Vienna, and in January at Copenhagen, but has been reluctantly compelled by the orders of her medical adviser to relinquish both engagements. She hopes, however, to make her reappearance in February at the Tivoli.

Mr. Albert Ward, who will finish to-night a most successful stock season at the Elephant and Castle Theatre, will on Monday next produce at the Queen's, Poplar, a new romantic episode in three scenes from his own pen, entitled The Profligate King. From all we hear this should prove a very strong attraction, a most powerful and dramatic story being well told, with the addition of picturesque costumes by Hyman and scenery by Bull.

The Palace, East Ham, will be opened to the public on or about the 17th inst. The place will be run in conjunction with Walthamstow and other variety consolidated houses in which Messrs. Joseph Davis, Henri Gros, Henry Tozer, and George Adney Payne are interested. As already stated in these columns, Mr. A. J. Barclay will control both Walthamstow and East Ham in much the same way as Mr. Fred Muller does the Canterbury and Paragon.

The matinée on Thursday at the Stratford Empire in aid of the funds of the West Ham Hospital was a huge success, artistically and financially. No fewer than fifty-one turns figured on the programme, including Miss Alexandra Dagmar, Mr. Dan Crawley, Miss Hettie Chattell, Mr. Harry Russon, Mr. Fred Frampton, and Mr. Dennis Drew, the latter of whom went enormous in "The Beat of the Drum" and "Come and be a Soldier." That pretty and fantastic sketch, by Mr. F. Bowyer, entitled Crystal Gazing, so well enacted by Miss Laura Dyson and Mr. W. H. Day, was a strong feature in a meritorious performance.

Mr. Tom Owen is an interesting yarn-spinner, and he is a born comedian of whom Swansea should be proud. Latterly he has been seen on the Moss-Stoll circuit, and will only leave it for eight weeks at Christmas to go into pantomime. Once Tom took a party of workhouse inmates out to Bracelet Bay. There his pierrot troupe fed and entertained the old people, afterwards making a collection for 'baccy and snuff amounting to £2 15s. The guests of the day were duly driven home, and the veteran of the party felt it incumbent upon him to make a speech of thanks to Mr. Owen. Said he: "There's old Tom—good old Tom. Look here, Tom, you've always been good to us in the workhouse, and I hope it won't be long before you're up with us altogether!"

Another true story. Owen was out with a show that stayed three days in one town and a like period in another. He was ahead one day prospecting for a pitch. Blaina was the little place at which Tom thought he could do good business. So he essayed to engage the local hall. But the proprietor refused, on the ground that the previous man who had rented it gave worthless cheques. Tom made his way back to the railway station, and there he met a friend, who strongly advised him to bring his show to the town. "The barber and I will surely come," he said, as an inducement to clinch the matter. "But," argued Owen, "the only place I can engage they won't let to me." "There's the chapel," explained the friend. "Chapel!" returned Tom; "you can't have a variety show in a chapel." "Yes you can," explained the other. "You see, it stands over a disused coal mine, and the congregation have shifted to yon iron building down the road. The old place'll collapse some day. But they don't mind letting it to theatre folk meanwhile."

The question of the fees paid to the directors of the Palace Theatre is to be the subject of a general meeting requisitioned by a little group of shareholders, who think the sum of £1,200 per annum is too large. The directors' fees paid by the three principal West End variety theatres last year were: Palace, £1,200; Alhambra, £2,007; Empire, £1,550.

It is understood that the Queen's Theatre, Leeds, will be turned into a variety theatre shortly, and form one of the houses on the De Frece circuit. The theatre will presumably be managed by the present company, with Mr. Walter de Frece as director. The De Frece theatres are increasing apace, both North and South; and the Portsmouth establishment will be opened under brilliant auspices during this month.

Collins's will celebrate its forty-fourth anniversary on Thursday evening next, when the first performance will commence at the early hour of six o'clock and the second at nine. The hall was founded by the Irish comedian Sam Collins on the site of the tavern known as the Lansdowne.

Mr. Sidney Bacon's two famous sketches are both starring in London this week. The Duchess of Tooting tops the bill at the Canterbury and The Maniac at the Middlesex.

Mr. John Grant, who has been stage-manager of the Walthamstow Palace without a break since the opening, has been appointed to fulfil a similar position at the new East Ham Palace, which, by the way, is announced to open on the 17th inst. During his stay at Walthamstow Mr. Grant has fulfilled his responsible, and often onerous, duties in such a manner as to win the appreciation not only of the directorate and the management, but also of the artists.

The interment of the late James Henry Jee took place at Norwood on the 22nd ult. Wreaths were sent by Mrs. Josephine Jee (wife), Mrs. Eliza Fillis (niece), Mr. and Mrs. George Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. P. Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Bihardo, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elvin, Mr. and Mrs. Selbini, Mr. and Mrs. Holloway, Mr. Lavater Lee (nephew), Mr. Joe Jee (nephew), Mr. Aguzzi, Mr. Reimann, Mr. C. Avolo, Mr. Robins, Mr. H. C. Rice, from Birmingham, Messrs. Alfred and John Clarke, Miss Irvene, and numerous other friends.

M. Guillaume Leone is now the chef d'orchestre at the Empress, Brixton.

The Sheffield Empire presented a brilliant appearance on Saturday, the 24th ult., when the annual benefit took place on behalf of the National Lifeboat Fund. The performance was under distinguished patronage, and the audience included the principal notables of the town and district. A long and well-arranged programme was gone through, including turns by the Boisset troupe, Mr. J. H. Milburn, Mr. Ben Albert, Miss Minnie Cunningham, and other favourites. A loudly-applauded item was a descriptive piece by the Empire band, conducted by the composer, Mr. H. Renton-Gardner.

Miss Lily Burnand was almost mobbed on the 23rd ult. when she visited the Stock Exchange to sell tickets for the matinée at the Canterbury in aid of the Music Hall Ladies' Guild. After selling her tickets she had to fight her way through the crowd. She is proud of the fact that she is the only lady who ever raided the Stock Exchange.

Miss Madge Lessing has just accepted a flattering offer from Mr. Oswald Stoll for a four months' starring engagement on the Moss and Stoll tour, starting at Glasgow in two weeks time. This charming actress will make a special feature of Jerome and Schwartz's Dutch song, "Lutie," in an appropriate scena, and with a strong chorus to assist her. This song is published by the Shapiro, Von Tilzer Music Co., Ltd.

Mr. Tom Leamore returns to town on Monday next, and opens at Collins's and the London, Shoreditch, with two new numbers, "When I look in those eyes" and "Robinson Crusoe." He has been specially engaged by Mr. Geo. Adney Payne to produce a new scena at the Paragon, entitled Sweet Liberty, in which he will play the character of Convict '99. It will be produced on Dec. 17, with special scenery and effects. Mr. Leamore has also been specially engaged to open at the new Palace of Varieties at East Ham, Dec. 17.

The Brixton Hippodrome, the latest variety theatre in South-West London, will open this evening with a special programme, directed by Mr. Charles Read, the able chief of staff of Mr. Walter Gibbons, who is, we are very glad to hear, able to go out. The licence was confirmed on Friday, but in consequence of the opposition, clerical and otherwise, only one house a night will be allowed.

"Crystal Gazing," which is written by Mr. Fred Bowyer, part-author of The New Barmaid, is to be produced on Monday at the Hackney Empire, with Mr. W. H. Day and Miss Laura Dyson in the chief rôles. Mr. Day is by this time quite accustomed to the variety stage, and, strangely enough, made his first appearance thereon in the most famous of Mr. Bowyer's sketches—none other than the famous Little Stowaway, in which Mr. Day was the captain to Jenny Hill's waif. Mr. Day also supported the late G. H. Macdermott in Our Lads in Red at the Canterbury and Metropolitan, scoring a hit as the villainous officer.

The Holloway Empire will celebrate its seventh birthday on Tuesday next, the 4th inst., by a grand anniversary performance, commencing at 6 p.m. The acting-manager, Mr. C. W. Adams, will have the assistance of Mr. W. Collins and Mr. Will Bennet in welcoming the many friends of the proprietary.

Yet another recruit from the theatres, Miss Barbara Babbington, who has recently been playing Margery in Mr. George Dance's Country Girl company, made her London début on Monday at Collins's, where she immediately caught on, and through her agent, Will Oliver, was offered engagements for the next four years. Young, attractive, and possessing a fine voice, she opens at the Tivoli on Monday, and has been secured by Mr. J. F. Elliston for his Hull pantomime as principal boy.

Mr. Guy Stevens's troupe, consisting of five singing and dancing girls, gave a trial show at the Metropolitan on Tuesday, under the auspices of Mr. J. W. Edgar. The turn consisted of three songs and chorus, and appropriate dance music, written and composed by Guy Stevens. Special dresses and military uniforms have been designed for the production by Clarkson, the dances have been prettily arranged by Mlle. Grace, and the mise-en-scène and production are by the clever Fred Farren, of the Empire. So favourable was the impression created that the turn was at once booked.

Miss Lucy Weston, a dainty comedienne, whose impersonations are invariably interesting as well as artistic, is adding nightly to her high reputation by her successful singing at the Metropolitan of her latest number, "For fear that you might slip down," the chorus of which is sure to be heard all over London in a very short time.

Miss Lily Woolf, of 47, Great Portland-street, has been highly complimented on the tasteful designs and the ingenuity of the dresses supplied by her to Bert Coote's Kiddies appearing this week in a most successful series of scenas at the Holborn Empire. Amongst her other customers may be mentioned Misses Carlotta Levey, Daisy Jerome, Florrie Gallimore, Ray Wallace, Kittee Rayburn, Gipsy Woolf, &c. Owing to the rapid extension of her business she will be removing to larger premises in May next.

Mr. John Lawson's latest sketch, The Devil's Sunday, produced at the Metropolitan on Monday, will be seen in duologue form at the Empress, Brixton, next week. The rôles of Mr. and Mr. Faber will be taken by Mrs. John Lawson and Mr. A. Royston. Mrs. Lawson is wearing a dress specially made by Mme. Lucien.

Miss Lilian Dundas was the unexpected recipient of a handsome bouquet at the Holloway Empire the other evening. The young lady at once sent the flowers off for the use of the patients of the Great Northern Hospital close by.

In accordance with the Act of Parliament regulating patents, &c., the Elliotts and Savonas have been notified by the Comptroller of the Patent Office to give public warning that the whole of the appliances used in their musical act, including organs, instruments, musical lyres, and bells, &c., also all scenic and electrical effects, are protected by Royal Letters Patent, No. 24652/05 and No. 24653/05. They also wish to notify that the title of Savonas is fully registered, and anyone after this notice infringing the patent or name, or using any colourable imitation of such patent or name will be immediately prosecuted.

Miss Anna Lee (of Hanvarr and Lee), who has been appearing so successfully in South Wales, is, we regret to say, unable to appear this week at Gloucester, and her partner, Mr. Hanvarr, has had to appear solus. Miss Lee, who was feeling unwell while performing at Porth, pluckily went through the week, although she fainted after her performance on Thursday. On arriving at Gloucester Dr. Ancrum was called in, and he immediately put his veto upon any stage performances of the charming artist—at any rate, for a few nights at least.

Before Mr. Justice Bucknill and a common jury, on Thursday, in the King's Bench Division, was the case of Phillips v. Fitzgerald. In this case Mr. Samuel Redfern Phillips, comedian, better known in the music hall profession as Sam Redfern, sued Capt. Fitzgerald, proprietor of the Hippodrome, Coventry, to recover damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained through the negligence of the defendant, which was denied. The plaintiff went to Coventry to fulfil an engagement during Whit-week in 1904, and on the occasion of a matinée he crossed the stage and descended a staircase at the side. On reaching the bottom of the stairs the plaintiff said he fell into a hole in the ground, which was some twenty inches deep, breaking the small bones of one of his ankles and twisting his side. In consequence of the accident the plaintiff lost several engagements, and incurred medical and other expenses. The plaintiff admitted that the defendant had offered to pay all expenses incidental to the accident. The jury found a verdict for the defendant, and judgment was entered accordingly.

SONGS, WRITERS, AND SINGERS.

Mr. Bert Coote's children's scene from The Fatal Wedding has been produced with great success this week at the Empire, Holborn, and the little ones have delighted the audience with their clever singing and graceful dancing. The Shapiro, Von Tilzer Music Co., Ltd., are the publishers of their three principal songs, "The Yankee-Doodle Girl," "My Dixieland Daisy," and "My Samoan Beauty."

The Shapiro, Von Tilzer Music Co., Ltd. have this week acquired the following songs: Miss Alice Lloyd's "Share my little nest with me," by George Arthurs and Orlando Powell; "Fishing," by Bert Delmar, sung by Miss Gracie Grahame; "It's a gift" and "How to get on in the world," both written by George Arthurs and composed by Orlando Powell, and sung by Alec Hurley; "Naughty Angeline," written by Percy Ford, and composed by J. Chas. Moore; and "I want a Gibson Girl," written and composed by Herbert Rule, Frank Dix, and George Arthurs, which will be specially featured by Miss Hetty King and Mr. Malcolm Scott during their Liverpool pantomime engagements.

Balloons and airships are very much "in the air" at the present time, and Miss Florrie Forde has been testing the lung-power of the Camberwell Palace patrons this week with Mills and Scott's aeronautic chorus carol, "Sailing in my balloon." These writers seem to possess a happy knack of adapting the topic of the moment to the requirements of a popular song; and the said number is fast overtaking many established favourites for pantomime.

Mr. Tom Costello, who has just commenced the Stoll tour at Hackney, made an exceptional hit on Monday with Mills and Scott's patriotic stormer, "Nelson from his monument," the audience joining in the chorus with much gusto. It is a question whether anything has been heard like it since MacDermott roused the country with Jingo Hunt's "We don't want to fight." The Star Music Publishing Co., Ltd., are busy placing this certainty for pantomime.

Among the eleventh hour pantomime novelties none has a greater claim to consideration than Castling and Murphy's dainty Welsh love song, "On the Isle of Anglesey," which the Star Music Co., Ltd., have fortunately secured.

Mr. Alf. Gibson has secured a song, "I'm the unhappiest man alive," the work of H. F. Greenfield, who has also fitted Mr. Frank Harwood with a patriotic number, entitled "There's a dear little place called England."

That eminent singer Mr. Lloyd Chandos has specially selected for his tour the beautiful ballad entitled "Hope," by Clifton Bingham and Edward St. Quentin, which Messrs. W. Morley and Co. have published in four keys. The work is a successor of, and companion piece to, the same writers' admired number "Beyond."

Miss Vesta Tilley's smart song, "If the girl doesn't mind," which Messrs. Francis, Day, and Hunter have published, seems likely to be the vogue with many principal boys. Scott McKenzie, whose work it is, has also sold the same firm "free" song, entitled "Patsy, I want you."

"Courting at Hampton Court" (A. E. Sidney Davis and John Neat) is a song that will be heard in most of the London and suburban pantomimes this year. It is essentially of the popular order, and likely to be picked up by the man in the street. Price and Reynolds are the publishers.

Messrs. Murray and Sheppard have just completed a new song, specially written for the kitchen scene in Cinderella, which is decidedly tuneful, and should be a big success. They have also on hand a satirical topical duet for pantomime.

Messrs. Mellor, Lawrance, and Gifford have just placed a "catchy" new number, entitled "Carolina," with the Monte Carlo Publishing Company, which firm's "rapid placers" anticipate making one of their greatest successes in the near future.

Miss Vesta Victoria has just accepted from Messrs. John P. Harrington and James W. Tate three new songs, specially written for her to open with in America, entitled "All about him," "Better in the part," and "Don Juan." All three will be issued by the Monte Carlo Publishing Company in their "Sixpenny Successes" series.

During the present week the demand for J. F. Lambe's "Widow Doolin" for pantomime has been universal. The song has been already secured for various pantomimes, and is sung by J. W. Rowley, Pat Carey, W. J. Ashcroft, and is introduced on the Stoll tour by Mr. Fred Elton. The Monte Carlo firm are the publishers.

The Monte Carlo Publishing Company are daily receiving telegrams confirming the reports of the great success of "There's a big ship sailing in the morning," which is going especially well at the Empire, Glasgow. As this song is from the busy pens of Messrs. Mellor, Lawrance, and Gifford, the fortunate proprietors of "I've built a bamboo bungalow for you," are to be congratulated on the production of yet another "winner."

Miss Edie King will produce Messrs. Tom McNaughton and Joseph Kandt's quaint song, "Come an' make a fuss o' me," at the Tivoli on Monday. This Monte Carlo number is being eagerly snapped up for pantomime.

Ever since it has become known that the Monte Carlo Publishing Company are issuing a selection of their popular songs this firm has been inundated with applications from musical directors, both of pantomime companies and music halls, in all parts of the country. The band-parts are now being expedited through the press with all possible speed to meet the ever-growing demand.

Mr. Fred Elton, who has been making such a success on the Stoll tour with hi sentertainment On Board a Liner, introduced on Monday the charming number "Queen of Old Samura" at the Empire, New Cross, making an instantaneous hit, and having to repeat the chorus three times to an enthusiastic audience. The Monte Carlo "winner" is indeed a certainty.

Three big pantomime hits have been published lately. These are "Boodle" (Ascherberg) and "Grandmamma's Glasses" (Francis, Day, and Hunter), by St. John Hamund and Sydney Shaw, and "My Prince" (Ascherberg), by J. H. Goldsworthy and Sydney Shaw. The first of these has been secured by Messrs. Howard and Wyndham and many other managers, and will be sung by Mr. J. F. McArdle, at the Prince of Wales's, Birmingham. It is a catchy song dealing with all the latest topics. All these numbers are melodious and quite out of the common.

Miss Frances Letty, who appeared at the Glasgow Empire this week, has added another success to her list with "There's a big ship sailing in the morning." This was taken up by the audience with a gusto that meant success, and is being whistled all over the city. Three pantomime producers heard it on Tuesday night and immediately secured this number, which they will specially featurise at Christmas. This artist has followed up her London success throughout the provinces, where she is playing on the Moss-Stoll tour. Will Oliver, her business agent, is rapidly completing her vacancies.

LONDON VARIETY THEATRES.

HOLLOWAY EMPIRE.

At Midnight's Hour, by Leslie Dane, which is being played here this week by Miss Lillian Dundas and company, is correctly described as "an intensely dramatic episode." The only female character, Olga Ray, would possibly only find her counterpart in the lady who is theatrically notorious as "the worst woman in London." Olga's nature is just as vile, and her conduct just as indefensible as the leading character in Mr. Walter Melville's well-known play. Indeed, a woman with a very black past is Olga Ray; and in her drawing-room at a Mayfair flat we first meet her in the company of Paul Conway, a young medical student, whose infatuation for the beautiful syren has brought him to the verge of ruin and disgrace. Being in urgent need of money—his own having no doubt gone in satisfying the extravagant tastes of his mistress—he has committed the crime of forging a cheque. The name he has forged is that of Geoffrey Wynter, a stockbroker, who, however, forbears to take any legal action, and returns him the cheque. As Olga informs her lover, the reason of this clemency is that Geoffrey has fallen in love with Paul's sister. The woman does not conceal the fact that she is tired of the young man, and Paul pretends to take his departure, but, instead, steps into an anteroom, where he can overhear all that takes place. Geoffrey Wynter calls, and Olga appeals to him to renew their former relations, but he meets her advances with stolid indifference, and informs her that he is about to be married. She makes light of Paul's passion for her; and after Wynter, with the contemptuous remark, "You are not fit to live," has departed, there is a violent scene between Paul and Olga, the young man, in a fit of rage, strangling the woman. Miss Lillian Dundas plays with passionate intensity and abandon the part of Olga Ray, and receives powerful support from Mr. Charles Craston as Geoffrey Wynter, and Mr. Spencer Trevor as Paul Conway.

Mr. Phil Ray, the "peculiar patterer," is prominent in the current week's programme. This popular comedian has a style of his own that perhaps may be best described as free and easy, or the "go as you please" comedy method. A good deal of his patter is apparently spontaneous. The picture of a van in the scene painted on the back cloth suggests the remark that it has called to fetch his week's salary; and the uncontrollable mirth of a maiden in the stalls or gallery will elicit some pertinent remark, that causes another peal of merriment. As a piquant concluding morceau, Mr. Ray sings a sort of parody of "Who's that a-callin'," introducing realistic imitations of the raucous cries of costers, and the comical behaviour of a cockney couple, who indulge in a dip at the seaside. Mr. Ray has had a very cordial reception in Holloway, and is recalled to bow his acknowledgments. Wilson and Waring are a smart couple, who term their amusing entertainment A Bit of Nonsense. The lady is bright in manner, and a smart singer and dancer. The gentleman displays plenty of humour in the character of the lady's eccentric visitor, whose comic business with a soda-water syphon and a collapsible table, causes much merriment. He is also successful with his patter, while his partner makes a remarkably quick change of dress in effecting a transformation from a maid in short skirts to her mistress in a dazzling evening costume. The couple finish with a spirited dance. Alexander the Great looms large as a famous historical personage. The Great Alexander is a clever trick cyclist, who is very much up to date. His safety trick-riding performance on a table is quite astonishing, and must be seen to be appreciated at its proper value. Seated on a single wheel, the cyclist mounts a wooden staircase step by step, and then drops on the table. Carl and Mary Ohm introduce their trained animals, consisting of bears, monkeys, ponies, and dogs, and the performance is interesting, and in some respects unique. Mr. Harold Hughman achieves marked success with his mimicry of animals and birds, &c. Mr. Harry Anderson scores with his song, "My new pal," and another ditty, the theme of which is woman's chief weapon—her tongue. Miss Winnie Derson, comedienne, the Northern Troupe of International Dancers, and the Three Guitanos, acrobats, are also included in the current bill. Mr. Chas. W. Adams, the acting-manager here, is busy in completing arrangements for the approaching anniversary of the opening of the Empire.

THE DUCHESS.

It would be surprising if the general excellence of the programme which is being presented here this week failed to produce anything but the happiest of results, and, consequently, appreciative and orderly houses are nightly enjoying the fare provided to the utmost. Vacant seats are entirely conspicuous by their absence, and small wonder is it that Manager Ross's face is fairly wreathed in smiles. Miss Victoria Monks, the charming and always popular coon comedienne, is making one of her periodical visits to this hall, where she can always be sure of the heartiest welcome being extended to her. She is delighting everyone with her singing, and the unmistakable manner in which the choruses are taken up testify that her choice of songs could certainly not have been better. Charmingly dressed, her personality seems to appeal irresistibly to the house, and from the moment she walks on the stage to that of her departure she fairly succeeds in holding the audience. The two numbers which she is singing are "London town," with which everyone is now familiar, and "I'm leaving home," and the popularity of both is secure.

A novel yet interesting turn is that of Professor Duncan's collies, and the intelligence of these animals certainly borders on the marvellous. The way they go through their performance, without the slightest hitch, speaks volumes for their training, and shows that no small amount of time has been spent in this direction. The various items of their performance include many most laughable ones, that especially where one is dressed as a widow being very funny. Their fire engine scene also shows that several of these dogs possess sagacity almost human. The applause bestowed is certainly most deserved. Gilbert Girard, who, judging by the warmth of his reception, is another Balham favourite, is again presenting his interesting turn. Although the possessor of a nasty cough, this does not prevent him from giving his many imitations of dogs and other animals in his usual inimitable manner. He has recently added a new one, that of the roaring of lions, and this is quite entitled to take a foremost place amongst his others.

Mr. James Fawn, the one and only, has a couple of capital numbers, in both of which he appears to advantage. In the first, as a magistrate, he sings about the various people brought before him for trial, but it is in his second, which deals with a "wife-spoofing club," that he appears at his best, and the applause awarded him is of the most generous description. Mr. Charles Norton, the clever mimic, must certainly be accorded a high place in this week's programme. He has not been seen here for some time, and, as a result, his turn is as much appreciated as any. He is presenting his mimetic monologue about A Day at the Races, with which he is scoring heavily. In this he introduces several well-known and popular comedians, including Joe Elvin, R. G. Knowles, Willie Bard, Gus Elen, and Eugene Stratton. This he precedes with some capital impersonations, including Harry Lauder and George Lashwood, and the manner in which he succeeds in reproducing them is recognised by deafening applause. Sterling and Love are presenting their breezy domestic musical squabble. As a cornet and posthorn player, the male member shows himself a most able exponent, and they bring their turn to a conclusion with a clever pot-pourri song. Stewart and Morgan are in fine voice, and their singing of "Mavoreen" is loudly applauded. The Columbia Comedy Trio are all the possessors of capital voices, the bass in particular being of undoubted excellence. Their turn is most appreciated, and they are the recipients of hearty cheers. H. C. Lovell and company are presenting an amusing sketch, entitled Madm'iselle Pompon, which is well received, the antics of the dude being the cause of the heartiest of laughter. Alice Maple is a charming comedienne; and as pleasant a two hours as one could wish to spend is brought to a conclusion with some capital pictures on the bioscope, that depicting "The Child's Revenge" being most interesting. The able orchestra, presided over by Mr. Charles Longmaid, is heard to advantage in the overture from The Catch of the Season. Mr. Bertram C. Ross, the popular manager, does everything possible for the comfort of his patrons, and Mr. L. Westcott Hicks is his acting-manager.

HOLBORN EMPIRE.

Mr. Walter Gibbons is reaping the reward of his enterprise in two excellent houses here each evening, and were the shade of Weston to revisit the glimpses of the moon, it would be more than astonished to see the immense queues that form in Holborn nightly to obtain a seat in the house that has risen on the site of the hall he originated. Programmes of surpassing merit are given every week, and an especially bright and interesting item in the current scheme of amusement is the interlude contributed by Bert Coote's Kiddies, who have been appearing at the theatres in the great children's scene in The Fatal Wedding. Audiences are at once interested in the opening scena, in which Miss Dolly McCalla and the full company sing "She's a Yankee-Doodle Girl," the dresses—all of which are cleverly designed by Miss Lily Woolf, of 47, Great Portland-street—being patterned in "stars and stripes"—a happy recognition of international amity. Miss Madge McCalla heads a coon chorus in the scena, "My Samoan Beauty," and a tuneful melody and well-turned lyrics draw a radiant picture of a dusky beauty of the island that Robert Louis Stevenson loved so well. Miss McCalla comes on in an elaborately-trimmed shaded orange frock, and scores most unmistakably by her vim and sparkle. A red-silk dancing frock also makes a very becoming toilet, which is completed by a big hat and sunshade. The principals and chorus unite in a concluding American Indian number, entitled "Big Chief," in which the "braves" and "squaws" give picturesque effect and make the welkin ring with a characteristic chant. Miss Dolly McCalla is responsible for a capital cane dance; and quite a little genius in her way is Miss Winnie Crisp, the remarkable child toe-dancer, whose solo gives unaffected pleasure. Master Jack Grice is also a wonder as a juvenile clog-dancer. The youngsters are admirably drilled, and, evidently loving their work, they play con amore.

My Pal Jerry, a star attraction of the bill, is announced as a sequel to The Bloomsbury Burglars, who were known as Nobbler and Jerry. These interesting stage-cracksmen have a further series of adventures, which, however, end in disaster and the death of Jerry, who with his pal has been sentenced to Portland, and is shot in the back by a warder while attempting to escape from the Quarries. The bustling business in the Pentonville Prison scene and the comicality of the stage trial win for the sketch a very hearty reception.

Mr. John Terry and Miss Mabel Lambert, after a lengthened absence, return to town with new business, and each appears in a series of thumbnail sketches of characters from real life, which they term "Reflections of Characters, A.D. 1906." The men and women of the day include a cabby and a lady of the smart set, a Lancashire mill hand and his sweetheart, an aristocratic noodle to be found only in musical comedy and a smart American girl, a crushed tragedian and a serio, and, as a finale to a most interesting series, a judge and the woman he is about to sentence for theft, who owes her downfall to the man on the bench. The couple are great favourites, and completely justify the warm reception given to them so ungrudgingly by a delighted audience.

Mr. Harry Pleon makes his mimicry of some of our leading comedians of the halls something much more amusing than the mere mechanical details of gesture and intonation. For instance, to hear that genial cockney Joe Elvin recite a travesty of a speech spoken by Hamlet's father is to laugh consumedly. Mr. Pleon goes from gay to grave with complete success when he delivers a speech belonging to the character of Reresby the Rat, played by Mr. Martin Harvey in the successful play The Breed of the Treshams. Alex Kendal is decidedly quaint in his patter; Clown Barker's animal show is amusingly worked; Miss Victoria Monks is a great favourite; and other turns announced on the bill are Miss Amy Clevere, Mr. Harry Conlin, Farley, Rennie, and Farley, in their comedy act Fun at a Railway Station; Los Rupertos, novel equilibrists; and Rosa Loader, mimic at the piano.

THE Canterbury will inaugurate to-day a series of Saturday afternoon matinées, commencing at 2.40 p.m., when the current week's programme will be given.

CHAT WITH MR. HARRY DACRE.

(BY OUR OWN COMMISSIONER).

Mr. Harry Dacre, the well-known song-writer, is now—like Mr. Owen Hall—submerged in a business enterprise known as the Successful Song Syndicate, which is issuing his songs only at the higher prices which ruled before the "pirates" attempted to revolutionise the music-publishing trade. The name of Harry Dacre has been for many years a household word among lovers of popular songs, and some of his verses, written and composed as long ago as ten years, are at this date remembered and sung in thousands of homes and upon hundreds of stages.

It is a pleasing personality and a very agreeable individual that one meets in Mr. Dacre. He is one of the most good-humoured and sincere of men; yet, for all that, he is alert and businesslike, ready of speech and quick of wit. There is nothing of that very annoying character, the long-haired æsthetic visionary, about him. You might at first glance take him for a smart city man. Apparently, and judging by his works, while he possesses the poetic temperament, he does not permit that quality to envelope him to such an extent as to absorb in its cloudy atmosphere his vision to the exclusion of what is going on in the world around him.

MR. HARRY DACRE.

Mr. Dacre is quite capable of speaking for himself without requiring the promptings of an interviewer. We will let him do so. Says Mr. Dacre:—

"The Successful Song Syndicate proposes to issue my songs at full price, as in pre-piratic days. If the experiment is not justified by results, the Syndicate will have to climb down from its pedestal. All the publishers of Sixpenny Pops prophesy failure of superior editions. Nous verrons! Personally, I believe I have my own particular public. It is well known that under the title of 'Frank Dean and Co.' I ran for ten years the most successful publishing business of its kind in this country; but at last the pirates became too hot for me, more especially as my songs could only be legitimately obtained at the old full price. Over a year ago I retired from business, declining either to write or publish songs until an Act of Parliament should suppress the scandalous robberies of the pirate printers. I believed then that the day of emancipation would never arrive; but thanks chiefly to that well-esteemed Irishman, T. P. O'Connor, I am again on the war-path. During the existence of piracy, I venture to say that no song-writer suffered as much as I did.

"Changing the subject, it has been said that unless I consented to write in the American style, otherwise in 'rag-time,' I should become a 'back number.' Well, I have never written a 'rag-time' song, and am not likely to; especially as the pretty waltz-refrain and domestic ballad are again capturing the hearts of the British public. I can remember the days when the public would sing into great popularity drivel of this kind:—

Down amongst the coals, down amongst the coals,
Wasn't it a jolly lark, all alone and in the dark,
Down amongst the coals, down amongst the coals,
Waiting to make love to my Jemima!

Other delectable ditties of the period included 'Mouse-traps, a penny, who'll buy?' 'Any ornaments for your fire-stove?' and 'Up in a balloon.' But the songs that have been popular in the last few years are a vast improvement. Take, for instance, 'Put a little bit away for a rainy day,' 'My little wooden hut,' 'Skylark,' 'What is the use of loving a girl?' These were very pretty melodies, and the words were a great advance on the old-time jingles. Modesty forbids that I should specify my own contributions to the happiness of nations, but the fact of being pirated to the extent of twelve popular songs all at one time speaks volumes.

"Well, I am going to make an attempt to improve upon my past performances. As this course has only very recently been decided upon, my initial effort comes rather late for pantomime purposes. This initial effort, I may tell you, is 'My Sugar-plum.' I have invariably noticed that when one of my songs has been born at some unearthly hour in the morning it has become extremely successful. I anticipate that this will be the case with 'My Sugar-plum.' But this is not going to be the kind of song I shall entirely depend upon, my true forte being the song of domestic interest, such as 'I want to see the old home again,' and 'As your hair grows whiter.' It does not necessarily follow that the song which brings the largest pecuniary profit is the composer's favourite; though in my case it happens to be so. 'As your hair grows whiter' will always hold first place in my affections. The words were inspired by real experience, and if you care to reproduce some of them, I will recite them to you. I am not ashamed of them, or their sentiment. I am proud of having been able to add pleasure to the declining years of one of the best of mothers by means of the proceeds of the song I wrote in her praise:—

Mother!
As your hair grows whiter I will love you more;
Though your eyes were brighter in the days of yore.
Though your footsteps falter,
My love shall never alter.
As your hair grows whiter, I will love you more.

Long years ago, when your life was full of trouble,
Mine was the hand that was clasp'd in your own;
Bravely you fought, in the face of pain and sorrow,
Bravely you labour'd, unaided, alone.
Rest on my breast, now the dark clouds are dispersing,
Safe in this haven of peace you will be.
Guarding you, dear, from the world and all its dangers,
Ah! what a labour of love 'tis to me.

"You ask me to give some account of my career. Suffice it to say that it was considerably chequered until the days of the discovery of that will-o'-the-wisp—the public taste. Then all became plain sailing, and sweet fame and good fortune have since been my close companions. I do not wish so much to recall the past as to gaze into the vista of the future, wherein I seem to see the kindly fates laden with still more costly gifts—the most precious of them all, good health; before which mere wealth fades into the insignificance which Rockefeller well wotteth of!"

CHELSEA PALACE.

To the masses of this great metropolis the name of Robbie Burns has become quite familiar this week, through the announcements of many musical functions organised to commemorate St. Andrew's Day; and it is, perhaps, just as well to remind the cockney occasionally that Burns of Battersea is not the only celebrity bearing the name. Miss Bertha Stuart, who comes from the land of brae and loch, is singing too, of the imperishable fame of her great countryman at the Chelsea Palace, and it is pleasant to hear the ringing applause that breaks out both in gallery and pit at the conclusion of each stanza. "Within a mile of Edinboro' toon" is another number, and this charming vocalist, picturesquely clad in tartan, does complete justice, the old melody being possibly new to many of its appreciative listeners.

Fun of the extravagant kind is in the ascendant while Mr. Lew Lake's company of comedians play two scenes of My Pal Jerry, an absurdity forming a sequel to that other successful concoction, The Bloomsbury Burglars. We have become quite accustomed, in a long experience of stage-productions, to the vagaries of stage trials. The administration of justice behind the footlights has to fulfil the purposes of tragedy, or melodrama, or farce. With My Pal Jerry, the judge, counsel, jury, police, and public all minister in their several ways to the love of laughter, and the sentence on Nobbler and Jerry, burglars of the most desperate character, are taken in the most light-hearted manner by these croppy-looking descendants of Bill Sikes. At Pentonville the diverting nature of the incidents evokes shouts of laughter, but there is a pathetic ending after the mutiny in the quarries at Portland. Success the most complete is achieved. A fanciful and bright interlude is The Sea Nymph, presented by Mr. Walter Hast and Miss Lennie. The latter impersonates the title-rôle, Coralline, who is imprisoned in a shell owing to the displeasure of Father Neptune. She learns much from the young middy whom she surprises on the seashore, and before she gets back to the bed of the ocean she not only hears but sings lines on the latest topics—social and political. The trifle goes exceedingly well.

Miss Peggy Pryde is not to be excelled in her impersonation of the lady with an aggressive tongue, who lectures on the rights and the wrongs of her sex, who finds fault, too, with the wearers of petticoats because they have hearkened to tyrannous man, and allowed him a latchkey. Hearty laughter follows Miss Pryde's exit, and her exhibition of low comedy in "He'd never been there before" shows observation and acuteness. Bob and Jennie Leonard bask in the sunshine of perennial favour, and amuse us all the time in their original act, Point Duty, in which one keeps one's eye on the force—excellently represented by the aforesaid Bob—and learns something that has not yet been divulged to the Police Commission. Mrs. Leonard is clever in her impersonation of a country lass and a coster girl, and the whole concludes with a neat double dance. Mr. G. H. Elliott, endowed with an excellent voice, is quite successful in realising the sentiment and romance of a tuneful coon song, and dances capitally; the Florias are comedy slack-wire performers, possessing a good notion of diverting business; and Charles Faning, comedian, and Maud Laverne, burlesque artist, also entertain. Mr. J. Norman Berlin, who is officiating as manager in the place of Mr. Teddy Swanborough, is a popular functionary; and Mr. Angelo Asher directs a capable orchestra.

THE FORESTERS'.

The management of the Foresters' are performing a goodly service this week. On Monday evening it was announced that collections would be made on behalf of the pensioners, widows, and orphans of the National Lifeboat Institution, and the first day's appeal resulted in £4 being secured for this admirable charity. It is hoped during the week to make a total of £25. As to the programme, it is, as usual, full of sound stuff. Miss Lily Black has a couple of delightful songs, which she sings in delightful fashion. These are "You are not the only rosebud" and "If roses could only speak." Smith and Johnson, the "society coloured duo," offer an attractive coon act which is highly appreciated; and Grey and Welford arouse a good deal of laughter with their funny patter and comic boxing. They show themselves to be lively and agile and to possess not a small knowledge of the noble art. Miss Addie Dorina, a quick-change artist of great merit, is seen within the space of a few minutes in no less than six different rôles in the sketch Dr. Spot's Patients, and her varying characterisations prove her to be a versatile and accomplished actress. A word of praise is due to Mr. Pat Waddock as the doctor. Miss Elna May is a winsome and engaging comedienne, and her rendering of "I've got no right to love you" is marked by appropriate feeling and expression. A vocalist and patterer who succeeds in making his hearers rock with laughter is Mr. Bert Danson. His ditty "If it wasn't for the girl" goes extremely well. Then there is an entertaining comedian and a smart dancer in Mr. Dan Filmer, whose song, "Life on the sea," is a distinct hit.

The Vaudeville Dramatic Company, under the management of Mr. Ernest Wingfield, appear in the sensational romantic sketch The Better Man. Mr. Herbert Pearson presents a most creditable impersonation of the Rev. David Clyde and Miss Helena Walbran charmingly, and with considerable realism, enacts the rôle of Grace Clyde. Mr. Ernest Wingfield presents an admirable study of the false and treacherous Walter Maitland; and Miss Ida Clifford characteristically portrays the part of the boy, Tim Tatters. The other rôles are in able hands, and the piece is well mounted. The Silbon Family, with their miniature circus, attract a good deal of attention, and the whole show is conducted in a praiseworthy manner, the different animals giving evidence of careful training and wonderful intelligence. Mr. Percy Hannon, the American baritone, delights the audience with his vocal efforts, as applied to the song "What is the meaning of Christmas?" and he should be heard of in the immediate future. Another gentleman whose work we can commend is Mr. Woolmer Young, a descriptive vocalist of undoubted talent; and for a clever burlesque actress we need seek no further than Miss Maude Beaumont, who is also receiving the enthusiastic plaudits of the patrons of the Foresters'. Raymond's Bio-Tableaux have a laughable series of pictures, entitled "The Drunken Mattress." The scenes are well conceived and admirably carried out, and the film is one which should be in great demand.

"THE WOMAN WITH THE RED HAIR."

Translation of an Episode by Paul Kosakin, played for the first time in England at the Cambridge Music Hall on Monday, Nov. 26.

Michel Kirillovich .....MR. WEBSTER LAWSON
Fedora Zasulich .....MISS MINNIE SADLER

The bomb has been used not infrequently in dramatic sketches both on the theatrical and variety stage; but a grim interest attaches to the above episode from the fact that it was written by the Russian revolutionary Kosakin, and completed the day before his execution. A wholesome story of wifely devotion is contained in the sketch, the dramatic strength of which is, however, obscured by the long inflammatory speeches which one of the characters has to deliver. Only two personages appear in the episode, which opens in the mean apartment of Michel Kirillovich, anarchist, in the Muscovite capital. It is the morning of a great coup, by which a hated member of the bureaucracy is to be assassinated, and Michel, to whom the foul deed has been assigned, awaits the arrival of final instructions from headquarters. They are brought by a lady—a notorious member of the conspirators known as "the woman with the red hair"—who occupies a high place in society circles as the wife of a Russian Grand Duke. The pair recognise in each other old sweethearts, who had been separated by a misunderstanding years before, and Michel elicits the information that Fedora had married the Grand Duke, although her heart was given to Michel. Since her marriage she has grown to love her husband, and is dismayed to learn from the letter of which she was the bearer that it is he who is to be the victim of the contemplated outrage. She entreats Michel to spare her husband's life; but tears and promises of reward are alike unavailing, and Michel catches up a bomb and hurls it at the passing carriage. There is a fearful explosion, and the sound of falling débris tells of the wreckage that has been wrought. Michel sends Fedora away through a secret passage, and, taking his stand at the window, receives a volley from the street below, and falls dead.

The rôle of the terrorist, Michel Kirillovich, affords much scope for declamatory effect, but though Mr. Webster Lawson, who played the part with dramatic fervour, delivered the dialogue with commendable light and shade, he was not quite distinct in the more intense passages. In appearance and gesture he was particularly impressive, and altogether submitted a clever study of the part. Miss Minnie Sadler realised the character of the red-haired woman completely. She was suitably deliberate and mordant in expression at first, while the strenuous emotion displayed in her appeals for her husband's life to be spared was also admirably done. The sketch was greatly strengthened by the accuracy with which some of the effects were obtained, and a cordial recall at the close pronounced the verdict of success.

THE Fimana open at the Palace Theatre on Monday next with their successful comedy act, for which an entire new scene has been painted by Charles Sayer.

MR. GUS ELEN in the song, "Wait till the work comes round."

MR. GUS ELEN in Private Dress.

MR. ELEN is starting Monday next on the Stoll tour with his new entertainment, a "Song Scene," which consists of a selection of his most popular songs, illustrated with cinematograph effects. The selection embraces the world-known ditties "Mrs. Carter," "Golden Dustman," "Pyjama 'At," "'E dunno where 'e are," "Down the road," "Faithless Dinah," "'E has my sympathy," "Never interdooce yer donah to a pal," "Down the Dials," &c.

THE FIGHT FOR BURSLEM WAKES.

PEOPLE'S ANSWER TO THE CORPORATION.

Without a doubt the one all-absorbing topic of the Potteries is the fight for the continuance of Burslem Wakes. We have already placed before our readers in ordered sequence the scheme of the narrow-minded, puritanical, and prejudiced section of the Town Council to do away with the people's old-time wakes. We have already shown that, for the time being, two distinct and separate parties on the Town Council combined their forces—the party for total abolition, and the party who desired to remove the fair from its admirable position in the squares and open spaces in the heart of the town, to a site somewhere in the outskirts of the borough. The total abolitionists made no secret of their intention, and loudly boasted that they represented the best thought and the most progressive elements of Burslem.

So insistent and so confident of victory was this party on the Town Council, and so effective for the time being their denunciations of the fair and all who supported it, that the more moderate and cautious-minded of the Council were carried away by the Cromwellian insistence of the abolitionists. Fortunately for the cause of justice, the municipal elections took place within a short time of the triumph of the puritans on the Council, and a number of the Town Councillors had to explain their position at ward meetings in the borough. At these meetings the electors severely heckled their representatives, with this very significant result, that the Moderates, who only wished to remove the fair, found themselves more in accord with the feeling of the town than the extremer members of the Council.

Even some of the men who held extreme views, and were pledged to the abolition of the wakes, began to temporise, and before the wards meetings were over, almost every member of the Council came round to the right and safe opinion that it was a matter for the ratepayers to decide. Even the leader of the abolitionists (although he stoutly defended himself and his views) was wise enough and man enough to admit that it was a question for the ultimate decision of the people of Burslem; that, although he might stand alone, he would still maintain that it was good to do away with the fair altogether, but of course he left it to the people to decide.

This significant change in the opinion of the Town Council was largely brought about by the activities of an influential local committee of tradesmen interested in the retention of the fair. We have already shown in The Era that the Showmen's Guild set to work as soon as the mistaken action of the Town Council abolishing the fair became known. Although the executive officials of the Guild have spared neither time nor money in safeguarding the interests of the showmen tenants of the fair, it has been an eminently satisfactory thing for them to have the eager and ever-ready assistance of the energetic body of local traders, "the Wakes Defence and Ratepayers' Committee," ably led by such well-known public men as Messrs. T. Bentley, Allen E. Wood, A. Boulton, and some forty other gentlemen. The Showmen's Guild issued a most telling manifesto, traversing every detail of the attack on the showmen's claim to carry on the wakes, and, at the same time, in bold and unmistakable terms, arousing the people of Burslem to the attack upon their popular pleasures and all too scanty opportunities for rest, recreation, and amusement, afforded by the old-time cycle of Pottery Wakes.

The magnificent demonstration of the working people in the Drill Hall (the largest public building in Burslem), fully reported in last week's issue, resulted in a vote of over two thousand in favour of the wakes, and only one person against it. This meeting was largely attended by members and officials of the Corporation, and there was no doubt as to the spontaneity, unanimity, and significance of the show of hands.

The town's meeting, convened by the Mayor upon the requisition of an influential body of ratepayers, was as crowded and as enthusiastic in its determination to maintain the wakes as the showmen's meeting, to which we have already referred. Numbers of persons failing to find sitting accommodation were compelled to stand in the gangways, down the centre, and the sides of the spacious Town Hall.

The tone of the meeting was very hostile to those who spoke in defence of the action of the Town Council, and the interruptions were so frequent and noisy that the speakers could be heard only with difficulty. In view of the possibility of a disturbance, a number of policemen were present during the proceedings, but happily the intervention of the officers was not required, the manifestations of hostility being confined entirely to shouting and hooting. The Mayor presided, and among those also on the platform were Aldermen W. Bratt, T. Edwards, W. Cartlidge, and S. Malkin, Councillors T. Willett, D. Porter, S. Johnson, W. E. Robinson, G. Wade, T. Mitchell, F. Averill, S. Ford, T. S. Green, J. Paterson Brodie, J. H. Edwards, J. Jackson, A. H. Gibson, J. H. Broadhurst, and S. Chadwick; the Town Clerk (Mr. Arthur Ellis), the Revs. H. H. Redgrave (Vicar of St. Paul's), W. Stanley Lamb, J. Griffin, Messrs. T. Bentley, J. Kent, A. Boulton, H. T. Arrowsmith, S. Oulsnam, M. S. Pickering, and W. Wade.

The Mayor said he was sorry that the meeting had not been held during the term of office of Mr. Dobson, who was better able to stand the strain of presiding at such a gathering than himself. He should refrain from expressing his own views, although he had strong convictions on the subject; but he promised that he should be perfectly neutral, and should do his utmost to conduct the meeting fairly and squarely. (Applause.) His Worship then outlined the procedure which would be adopted for the control of the meeting, and appealed for the support of those present.

THE RESOLUTION.

The following resolution was then moved by Mr. T. Bentley:—"That the Town Council be requested to rescind the resolution passed on Oct. 8, 1906, prohibiting the Burslem Wakes Fair from being held, and that such fair be held at the usual time and place, and that the Council instruct their toll collector to let the town lands and thoroughfares for the purposes of the said fair as heretofore."

Mr. Bentley said he spoke as a native of the town, and he claimed that the wakes was the only amusement in the town, and said he had no wish for it to be destroyed. The wakes gave the people great pleasure, and it was the means of affording delight to the children of the workhouse, who, through the hospitality of the showpeople—(applause)—were provided with a splendid entertainment at the wakes. (Applause.) Each one of the men who had signed the requisition to the Mayor was a tradesman. For his own part, he had earned his living in the town for many a long year, and he did not see why he should have a portion of it taken away. (Hear, hear.) If the meeting decided to accept the resolution, it would meet with the approval of those who had signed the requisition; if not, they would demand a ballot. (Loud applause.)

A Mr. Roberts left the audience and seconded the resolution from the platform. The audience, however, only heard his opening sentences amid a volley of interruptions of encouragement and approval. Mr. Roberts said, as a boy he had enjoyed Burslem Wakes, and asked why should not their boys enjoy the fair? (Applause.) He wanted to know who had invited all those on the platform to occupy the seats, and said he did not see why a few ordinary ratepayers should not sit there as well. (Cheers.) Several members of the audience disconcerted the speaker by their laughter and interruption, and he retorted by inviting them to "go and have a try." Eventually, Mr. Roberts, after failing to secure a hearing for all he had to say, left the platform.

Mr. Paterson Brodie, on rising to speak against the resolution, was greeted with a storm of groans and hisses. He made many ineffectual efforts to gain the ear of the audience, and the Mayor several times intervened on his behalf. His Worship said he had asked those present for fair play, and they were not giving it. If they had a good cause, they ought not to be afraid of the subject being ventilated. (Applause.)

Mr. Brodie told the audience he had attended the meeting, expecting to hear some sound sufficient reason why the resolution should be rescinded, but had heard no such reason advanced. (A Voice: "What's they know about it?" and laughter.)

After another appeal by the Mayor, who said that the meeting would be closed if a hearing was not given to the speakers, Mr. Brodie drew attention to the resolution of the Council which it was suggested should be rescinded. In the requisition to the Mayor, and in much of the printed matter that had been circulated, there seemed to be an attempt to deceive the public. (Interruption.) It was stated that the wakes was to be abolished. No such thing was proposed by the Council. (Loud applause, and a voice, "They daren't.") In the first resolution the Council decided "That no booths, shows, or stalls should be allowed to occupy any ground, public street, or main roads, or squares in the centre of the town during Wakes Week." The second resolution was: "That the toll collector be instructed not to let or enter into any contract to let any land in the centre of the town or in the main thoroughfares, to be occupied by booths, shows, or stalls, during the last week in June or the first week in July." In neither of those resolutions would they find one word about abolishing the wakes. (A Voice: "Same thing.") The resolutions simply meant that in future the centre of the town should not be used for the wakes. (A Voice: "Where then?" and applause.) After further noisy interruptions, Mr. Brodie said that there was nothing in the resolutions to prevent the Town Council from finding land for the purpose of the wakes. If they would give the Council time, they would no doubt be able to find land.

Alderman Cartlidge, whose reception was less embarrassing, claimed equal right to speak on the subject as Mr. Bentley, having been born in the town, and being a ratepayer. The people ought to consider the matter very carefully, and without bias created by selfish motives. (Hear, hear.) As chairman of the Sanitary Committee of the Town Council, he told the audience that there were several features objectionable from a sanitary standpoint connected with the last wakes. He did not wish to say a word against the showmen, but an unpleasant state of things existed after the visit of the shows, which was not to be found before. (A Voice: "Rats!")

It was often said that they could not trace imported diseases to showpeople, but he could say that at the last Burslem Wakes a travelling musician and his wife and child came into the town, and the child was seized with scarlet fever. The child was taken to the Isolation Hospital, there until Aug. 15, and cost the ratepayers £20. (A Voice: "Do all scarlet fever cases cost that much?" and interruption.) Alderman Cartlidge failed to proceed further with his speech in the face of the manifestations of disapproval of his remarks.

He was succeeded by Alderman Malkin, who said he was a ratepayer like anyone else, and claimed to have as deep an interest in the town as any of his fellow-ratepayers. He attended the meeting, he said, not to draw a feather over the eyes of those present, but to give them his reasons for the action he had taken on the Council. He declared that he was one of those who went to the meeting arranged by the showmen on Wednesday night, and he wished he could have had a few words there. The only thing he could do was to hold his hand up against the resolution. The meeting in the Drill Hall did not appear to him to be a ratepayers' meeting, it was a showmen's meeting. (Interruption.) Well, they could have it their own way. (Laughter.) The chief speakers at the showmen's meeting was a lawyer and a parson, both very good men. If he (Mr. Malkin) employed a lawyer, he would take his view of the matter, and if he paid him he would do any amount of talking. (Laughter and interruption.) Nobody had paid him (the speaker) for going to that meeting or for being on the Council. He did not object to the showmen holding a meeting, but he did object to their holding up something and telling the people that the Council was trying to knock it down. It was in the best interests of the town, he believed, that they should not allow their open spaces to be filled with all sorts of shows. (Prolonged interruption.) There were shows and shows. Some of them were all right, but, as a ratepayer, he objected to the aggregation of shows being allowed in the town. In conclusion, Alderman Malkin said he was the one on the Council who proposed that only ratepayers addressed that meeting—(hear, hear, and uproar). His reason for doing so was that he thought it would not be to the credit of the ratepayers if they were to get an outside lawyer to talk to them, or, indeed, any person not a ratepayer. (Hear, hear.)

There were many cries from members of the audience asking Mr. Malkin to sit down, and the Mayor appealed to those present to allow Mr. Malkin to proceed for another two minutes; but practically all this period was filled with noisy shouting at the back of the hall, above which the Alderman could not make himself heard. Eventually he resumed his seat amid an outburst of laughter and cheering; but he managed to shout, "If you pass this resolution I shall be like Nelson—I shall go my own way." The remark provoked a renewal of the shouts, so that when the Rev. J. Griffin rose to oppose the resolution he had to wait some time before the noise had subsided, and then there were occasional interruptive shots, which were disconcerting to the speaker. Mr. Griffin appealed for a patient hearing. When, during the election, he had addressed the townspeople from that same platform, they had listened to him because they agreed with him. He hoped they would extend the same courtesy towards him now that they disagreed with him. (A Voice: "It's not the same thing.") He said he was not an opponent of legitimate amusement, pleasure, or recreation, but he saw no reason why the wakes fair should not be held outside the town. Amid further interruption, Mr. Griffin said that one of the most popular fairs in Yorkshire, held at Hull, took place some distance from the centre of the town. He argued that it was the business of the authorities to see that the sanitary and moral condition of the town was conserved, and he supported the Council's action with all his heart.

Mr. T. Bentley, on rising to reply to arguments brought forward by the opponents of the resolution, was heartily cheered. He said, although there was nothing in the Council's resolutions about the abolition of the wakes, it was proposed to remove the fair, and removal meant abolition in the end. (Loud applause.) The experiment had been tried before and had failed. (Applause.) He could not remember anything of an insanitary character attending the wakes, and the town was no more insanitary at the wakes time than it was at ordinary times. If they removed the fair, where would they put it? (A Voice: "Alseeger," and loud laughter.) The fair would be far less harmful in the centre of the town, under the eyes of everyone, than in a field.

The resolution was then put to the meeting by the Mayor, who asked that only ratepayers should vote, and was carried by a very large majority.

On the proposition of Mr. Bentley, seconded by Alderman Malkin, a vote of thanks to the Mayor was carried with the greatest possible heartiness.

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER

THE WORLD'S SONG PROVIDERS.

A few of our great Pantomime Songs:

"THERE'S A MAN IN MANITOBA."
"SNOWFLAKES."
"HELLO! HELLO! HELLO!"
("IT'S A DIFFERENT GIRL AGAIN.")
"GOOD-NIGHT, MR. BROWN, I'M OUT."

"ARRAH WANNA,"
Our 11th Hour Sensation.

"I CAN SEE RED ROSES BLOOMING."
"CHEYENNE."
"FIGHTING FOR THEIR KING & SIRELAND."
"ROSY'S COSY BUNGALOW."

(FOR FULL LIST SEE PANTOMIME BOOKS.)

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER

The Absolute Headquarters for Pantomime "HITS."

"THERE'S A MAN IN MANITOBA."
"COME BACK TO BORNEO."
"BOY BLUE."
"I WONDER WHAT WE'D DO WITHOUT OUR GIRLS."

"ARRAH WANNA,"
Our 11th Hour Sensation.

"WHY DO THE GIRLS LOVE CHARLIE."
"IN MY PAGODA."
"WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO LEARN TO LOVE ME."

(FOR FULL LIST SEE PANTOMIME BOOKS.)

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER

The Music Market of the World.

142, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

In acknowledging this vote, the Mayor said that, though they might differ from one another, he hoped they should go away the best of friends. (Applause.) All that the Council desired was that the children of the town should be made familiar with those principles which made them honest men and women, and that the town should be made happier and brighter. (Applause.)

In compliance with the unanimous desire of the local committee, the Rev. T. Horne and Mr. Watson Wright agreed to address an open-air meeting in St. John's-square immediately after the town's meeting. The main reason for this action was that, by an express resolution of the Town Council, only ratepayers were eligible to address the town's meeting, and the local committee felt that the showmen's view of the matter ought to be heard, and, if not at the Town Hall meeting, immediately afterwards. The weather turned out to be extremely inclement, and, although the open-air meeting was well advertised, it became evident to the executive officials of the Guild in the late afternoon that an outside meeting was extremely doubtful. In this emergency, Mr. Jeffreys (business-manager for P. Collins) interviewed the Town Clerk, the chairman of the Markets Committee, and finally the Committee itself, and, by the special grace and favour of the Mayor and Corporation, the Showmen's Guild was permitted to hire the Town Hall for a meeting to follow the town's meeting.

Never in the history of Burslem has such a striking contrast been exhibited as that shown by the extremely clamorous and indignant meeting of the ratepayers, and the same people when under the magnetic influence and the charm of oratory of the Honorary Chaplain of the Guild and its equally eloquent and distinguished solicitor.

Mr. Bentley, who had so ably led the people at the town's meeting (and without whose moderating influence that meeting would have degenerated into a chaotic exhibition of ineptitude), took the chair, and received a magnificent ovation, the prophet of the people being indeed justified in his own country. The Rev. T. Horne and Mr. Watson Wright, on mounting the platform, were received with cheers, again and again renewed. Mr. Bentley said that he had no need to ask them to hear Mr. Horne. His magnificent appeal at the Drill Hall the previous evening had touched all their hearts, and he was quite certain that Mr. Horne's address on "British Shows and Showmen" would be heard and fully appreciated by the magnificent audience before them.

On rising to begin his address, Mr. Horne was again received with enthusiasm. He stood there that night, he said, by the courtesy of the Mayor and Corporation of Burslem, and at the very forefront of his speech he desired to acknowledge the kindness and courtesy of the Town Clerk, of Alderman Bratt, and the members of the Town Hall and Markets Committee. It would have been impossible for him to have fulfilled his intention of speaking to the people of Burslem again that night, owing to the inclemency of the weather, but for the kindness of the Mayor and Corporation in permitting them to occupy the Town Hall at the close of the town's meeting. He had not come to that platform with any idea of intensifying or perpetuating the heated or angry feelings of either of the parties concerned in the controversy raging around Burslem Wakes. On the contrary, he assumed that the Town Council, having made their appeal to the people, would abide by the very unmistakable answer the people had given them that night. (Loud applause.) He had found, after a somewhat lengthy, and, at times, strenuous public career, that the best thing to be done at all times was to go before the people, to trust the people, to tell the people the truth, and leave the final issue to the sound judgment and justice-loving decision of the people.

He had no concern that night in dealing with the mistaken notions, the prejudiced statements, or the false issues raised by the opponents of the wakes; in fact, it was not his mission there and then to pull down falsehood, but it was his mission to build up truth, "for truth, eternal truth, is mighty, and will prevail." (Great applause.) He claimed to speak as an expert upon the subject he was now bringing before them—the showman industry, like all other industries, had grown with the growth of the National Life. It had its rootage in the dim, historic past, and there was no country and no civilised race in the world which had not its shows and showmen. In our own country, not a page of our glorious history but what had its showmen and its shows. Unfortunately, there were people in the world who refused to recognise (so twisted and perverted had their lives become) that there was any necessity for shows, showmen, fairs, or wakes. One of the most urgent and insistent of his duties was to show to this type of mind that, whilst they had a perfect right to keep away from such amusements as those afforded by shows and showmen, they had no right to abuse the high position that public work on public bodies gave them, in order to impose upon the people their own narrow views of life.

Another constantly recurring error was the opinion formed (without any evidence) that British fairs were dying out, and that the conditions of industrial life did not now require such amusements. On the contrary, the fact was that, for every fair that had ceased to exist, ten other fairs had sprung into existence. He was prepared to prove that there were more fairs, and necessarily more shows and showmen, in existence to-day than at any other period of our history. Any impartial study of the history of our country will give abundant evidence that the industry of the fair-ground (like all the industries dependent upon the increasing demand of the national will) had prospered and grown in harmony with the growth of the population, the extension and development of the great industrial centres of the nation. He would give them one or two most significant examples, examples well within living memory:—George Wombwell, "the father of menageries," commenced his remarkable career as a showman by the exhibition of some serpents purchased by him at the East India Docks. Wombwell's menagerie became a national institution, and, wherever Wombwell's show was located, the people made holiday, and went in their crowds to see the show. One of the most striking examples of oratory within his experience he had heard from the front of Wombwell's menagerie. After the band had played the National Anthem, the doorsman—"that persuasive orator of the show"—came forward, and, with a voice that commanded instant attention, delivered himself thus:—

"This is Wombwell's mammoth menagerie, containing birds, beasts, and reptiles, selected and collected from all parts of the inhabitable globe. It were impossible for me, in the short time at my disposal, to attempt to give you any detailed account of the marvels of nature contained within the limits of this portable menagerie; suffice it to say that it takes upwards of fifty horses to convey this concern from town to town. We are now about to commence, and our own naturalist will go from den to den, and fully explain the nature, the country, the habits of life, of every specimen of the animal creation within the menagerie.

"Finally, Martino Maccomo, the African lion hunter, will enter the den of eighteen forest-bred African lions, and put the animals through their matchless performance—the lion hunt, the capture, and the reconciliation of the mighty lions of the forest, and illustrating the power of man over the brute creation. The prices of admission—one shilling, sixpence to the working classes—places it well within the reach of one and all to pay a visit to this stupendous aggregation of living marvels. Now we begin; admission one shilling—sixpence to the working classes."

That menagerie was the father of a number of similar concerns, and, at the present time, the descendants of Wombwell, the Bostocks, were carrying on the same line of business, not only in the British Isles, but on the Continent, in the United States of America, and our colonies. The one menagerie of George Wombwell had grown into four (if not five) huge travelling menageries, one of them always in England, one travelling the Continent, and the others in America or in the British colonies. Probably the most striking example of all was that afforded by the honoured president of their Guild, the greatest showman in the world—Lord George Sanger, a name honoured and esteemed throughout the British Empire. The rise and progress of the Brothers Sanger in the circus world was a striking example, and as significant as any afforded in our national life, of enterprise, ability, and industry, rewarded and blessed with singular and striking success, and, when the story of the heroes of English industry is written, an honoured place will be found for George, John, and William Sanger. His last illustration would be one locally well known and universally esteemed, he referred to Patrick Collins, the principal showman on the Midland circuit, and the chief tenant at Burslem Wakes. It was almost "a fairy tale" of individual success, Mr. Collins's wonderful career. Starting with a very small concern, by sheer pluck, ability, and hard work, he had achieved the position of the principal roundabout proprietor and fair-ground lessee in the world of shows. Now, at the very centre of a strenuous public career, he had an invested capital at stake, variously estimated at between thirty and forty thousand pounds. There were engaged in the show business some seventy thousand persons, and indirectly concerned in the business were a number of industries engaged in making, or supplying, the multiplicity of goods used or vended at our popular fairs. So far from the truth is the mistaken notion that fairs are a dying quantity, that the very opposite is the truth, shows and showmen are an important, well organised, and largely capitalised section of the British community.

A good deal has been said about the insanitary conditions alleged to prevail at, or resulting from the holding of, Burslem Wakes. The showmen had asked for, but up to the present moment had not been supplied with, specific cases of danger to public health at their fair. He, however, would remind their pastors, and masters, and would-be leaders in Burslem, that there was a great aspect of sanitary reform to which they might with profit devote their attention. He referred to "mental hygiene, the sanitation of the brain." Sir William Crichton Browne, the greatest living authority on mental disease, has recently proclaimed a gospel of recreation. In his presidential address to the Sanitary Congress at Blackpool, he said "That he and all other doctors in these days of strenuous activity were compelled to be preachers and teachers of a gospel of recreation." So great was the strain upon the human intellect of the speeding up of industry by the universal use of machinery, that man had become, in most instances, merely the minder of a machine. The specialisation and the division of labour had this terrible effect upon the mental powers—most workers were using only one or two of their brain cells, and the others were inevitably atrophied, or, at the best, only partially employed. For this condition of affairs in the modern and industrial world there was only one remedy—more recreation.

Sanitary experts were bound to carry their principles on to this higher plane of experience, and provide for the necessary sanitation of the brain. He commended the conclusions of the eminent scientist to the Town Council, and he asked them to remember that, for hundreds of years past, before hygiene or sanitation had become an important department of public usefulness, that the travelling showman, in providing popular amusement for the people, had been, whether it were known or not, the prophets and apostles of this latest of all the gospels of modern life—"the gospel of recreation." (Loud and continued applause.)

Mr. T. Watson Wright, Guild solicitor, in the course of a twenty minutes' address, fully explained the legal bearings of the showmen's claim to continue Burslem Wakes, his principal points being, in the first place, that the fair was a statutory fair, set up by the town authorities under powers they undoubtedly possessed; but though they had power to create a fair, it was not within their powers to abolish a fair by mere resolution of the Town Council. (Applause.)

The Fairs Act of the year 1871 was the statute under which local authorities might apply to the Home Secretary by petition to abolish a fair. The preamble of that Act set out in no uncertain terms that the people who frequent the fair must have a deciding voice in the question of its continuance—in other words, the Act fully protects all the interests of the authorities, as in this case, the legal owners of the fair, of the tenants and traders using the fair for business purposes, and of the general public frequenting the fair, either for business or pleasure. Burslem Wakes was, he asserted, a properly constituted and legal fair, created under statutory powers, and, without statutory power, could not be either abolished or removed from the centre of the town, where for so many generations past it had been held. (Applause.) In the second place, he doubted not that the members of the Borough Council, having seen and heard, as they had done that night, what the people thought of the proposal to interfere with their fair, they would, as sensible men, rescind the obnoxious resolution which the town's meeting had so emphatically rejected, and that we should hear no more of the matter. He would, however, in the event of anyone hesitating as to the justice and wisdom of this course, point out the serious dilemma in which the Town Council had become involved. If it were contended that since the year 1880 Burslem Wakes was not a properly constituted legal fair, what about the illegality of imposing upon, and receiving from, showmen, of tolls and rents for a fair that has been all the time illegal? (Applause.)

As regards the showmen (whom he was proud to represent), he ventured to warn the Council, and to inform that magnificent gathering of the townsmen of Burslem, that the showmen were fully organised, fully prepared, and able to defend their trade interests; that, under the leadership of such men as George Sanger, Patrick Collins, and other showmen, but above all, the devoted and inspiring guidance of the Rev. Thomas Horne, the showmen of the United Kingdom were fully determined to defend their business rights and privileges, and that, since the starting of the Showmen's Guild, this work had been carried out with signal success and distinction.

Pre-eminently the showmen linked their cause with the cause of the common people. The British people, under the hard conditions and overstrain of their working life, needed just that kind of amusement provided by our modern fairs. They had seen in Burslem, as in all other towns where necessity had driven them to make the appeal direct to the people, that the justice-loving and the show-loving public would not tolerate the invasion or the deprivation of their ancient fair rights and franchises.

The Rev. T. Horne proposed, and Mr. T. Watson Wright seconded, votes of thanks to the Mayor and Corporation for the use of the Town Hall, and to Mr. T. Bentley for presiding over the meeting.

THE SHOWMAN WORLD.

DARLINGTON NOVEMBER FAIR had for its entertainments the very best shows and machines on the North round, and comprised Randall Williams' (Monte Brothers) theatre of living pictures and varieties, and similar concerns by Messrs. W. Wilson, Paine, and A. Testo, J. Storey's fine art show, W. Murphy's motor cars, Wingate's Japanese air ship, H. Carris' gallopers, Baker and Sons' steam yachts, Morley's helter-skelter, Newsome's, Key's, and Robinson's manual swings. The shooting concerns were Taylor's, Hancock's, Sherran's, and Kelly's rifle galleries, and Illingworth's bottle battery. The minor varieties were provided by Messrs. Smith, J. Wright, Cooper, Illingworth, A. Smith, and Wright.

ULVERSTON kept its fair with Wilden's cinematograph theatre, Marshall's motor cars, Hoadley's steam horses, Casey's swings, Rostron's rifle saloon, Wilson's bottle battery, Russell's, Broughton's, Wilson and Talbot's Emma sheets, Taylor and Jones' cokers, and Stockwell's variety stall.

THE novelties at Crowle Fair were as follows: Ball and Eva's living picture show, Harniess' roundabouts, Ball's swings, rifle gallery, and throwing games, Fossett's rifle saloon, and Gillat's varieties.

THE local committee defending Burslem Wakes is following up its triumphant appeal to the people by a memorial addressed to the Mayor and Corporation of Burslem, worded as follows:—

IN THE MATTER OF THE BURSLEM WAKES FAIR.

To the Mayor and Corporation of Burslem.

The Humble Petition of the Ratepayers and Owners in the Borough of Burslem.

Sheweth as follows:

That the Festival of Saint John, or otherwise known as "The Burslem Wakes Fair," has for many years past been held in the last week in June or the first week in July in each year for the amusement and entertainment of the Ratepayers and Inhabitants of the said Borough of Burslem, in the County of Stafford.

That at a meeting of the Council of the said Borough held on the 8th day of October, 1906, a resolution was passed refusing to grant the Town lands and thoroughfares for the said Wakes Fair, and instructing the Toll Collector not to let the said Town land and thoroughfares for the said purpose.

That on the 15th day of November last, a Town's Meeting was held to ascertain the views of the Ratepayers upon the subject of the abolition of the said Fair, and at such Meeting there was an overwhelming majority of the company present in favour of the said Wakes Fair being continued as heretofore.

That your Petitioners verily believe that the abolition or removal of the said Fair from its former position is not in the interest of the general body of Ratepayers and the people of Burslem.

That to further testify that the Ratepayers require the said Fair, your Petitioners humbly pray that your Council in fairness to the people of Burslem rescind their resolution of the 8th day of October, 1906, prohibiting the Burslem Wakes Fair being held, and that the said Fair be held at the usual time and place, and that you instruct your Toll Collector to let the Town lands and thoroughfares as heretofore.

And your petitioners will ever pray.

THAT enterprising showman Tom Norman is not only the recognised auctioneer and professional expert in all that concerns the business of show-

"MY SUGAR-PLUM."

A VOCAL SWEETMEAT THAT POSITIVELY MELTS IN THE MOUTH, ITS DELICIOUS FLAVOUR CLINGING TO THE MOST EPICUREAN PALATE.

Sing this Chorus over three times, and forget it IF YOU CAN!

Suitable for "Boy."

HARRY DACRE'S CHRISTMAS SUGAR-PLUM

(Dragée bien sucrée).

Suitable for "Girl."

CHORUS.

Suitable for "Girl."

HARRY DACRE'S CHRISTMAS BON-BON

(Très bon).

Suitable for "Boy."

The music of the Verse is à la Schottische, and is quite as alluring as that of the Chorus.

IT IS FREE FOR PANTOMIME!

But Written Permission must be obtained. Applications are already pouring in rapidly.

WE ARE GRANTING A LIMITED NUMBER OF FREE PERMISSIONS FOR MUSIC HALLS.

ARTISTS SHOULD APPLY IMMEDIATELY. BAND-PARTS IN THE PRESS.

THE SUCCESSFUL SONG SYNDICATE, 20, Nassau Street, Mortimer Street, London, W.

men, but he is also on another side of his manifold enterprises honoured, esteemed, and patronised in his own country. The enterprising "Silver King" has just concluded the most successful of his Michaelmas farm sales. These yearly sales are not only growing in popularity, but provide a distinctly felt want in the Sussex district in which Mr. Norman's residence—Manor Farm, Dallington—is situated. In addition to these yearly sales, the genial "Prince of the Rostrum" is in considerable demand for farm and other property sales. Quite recently he has conducted two farm sales at the Home Farm and one at Burton Latimer. Showmen will do well to watch Mr. Norman's advertisements.

To showmen taking the Lincolnshire round, either for the fairs or private business, it is of interest to know that the Corporation of Horncastle (like many another public body, we are glad to say) has provided excellent accommodation for travelling showmen by opening a much larger fair-ground than the old one. This is the well-known stock fair-ground known as the "Wong." Some interest attaches to this, because it indicates that corporations are beginning to recognise that it is good business to encourage showmen to pitch within their borders, and that they recognise that the visit of a travelling show is much appreciated by the people of the town.

YORK Martinmas Fair, despite rumours to the contrary, is still held in the centre of the town, and during the present week Parliament-street and St. Sampson's-square have been crowded with eager and good-humoured sightseers. The advent of the Bioscope seems to have entirely changed the character of the fair, and this form of entertainment has undoubtedly obtained a firm hold on the public favour. In this department the exhibitions of Capt. Payne and Mr. Tuby are to the fore, and have done excellent business. Aspland's motors on their old stand have been crowded, and the same firm's whirling-the-whirl has done exceedingly well, as has also a similar machine belonging to Relph and Pedley. Collins's motors have also received their quota of patronage, and, as usual, Chipperfield's menagerie has not been neglected. Ling's fine exhibitions have done well, the slave-market picture being well patronised. Wright's pictures, Holdsworth's lighthouse, and Westray and Ball's side-shows, motor-cars by Ben Howden and Sons, and Cornwell's rifle saloons, and varieties by Gunthorpe, Leat, Stewart, Walker, Cornwell, and other caterers have all had their share of patronage.

AT Hancock's Winter Gardens, Devonport, this week an evening's cinematograph entertainment has been substituted for the usual variety entertainment, and the experiment appears to be a great success.

EAGLE DAVIS and Wild Bess have opened a Palace of Novelties in the Overgate, Dundee. The Dahomey Amazons (Princess Gooma and Chieftain Angazza Lobogolo) have paid a flying visit and attracted enormous crowds. One of the most successful features of the exhibition is the character delineations of the highly-recommended American lady palmist, Mme. Davis. Tattooing by Professor Donaldson, wire-working by Signor Wormaldi, and glass etching by Miss Dennis are amongst others worthy of notice.

AN interesting event to West of England and Welsh showmen takes place at St. Mary's Church, Southampton, on Wednesday next, when the marriage of Jacob Studt, jun., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Studt, of roundabout and show renown, to Mary Ann Dooner, the daughter of Richard Dooner, an equally famous showman, will be celebrated. We are quite certain that the best wishes of their numerous friends in Showland will go out to the bride and bridegroom in anticipation of the happy event.

THE Fancy Fair at Dudley was under the control of P. Collins, of Walsall, who exhibited the No. 2 cinematograph and theatre of varieties, and the racing cockerels. With him were associated Harris's exhibition of reptiles, Harry Cullis with school of boxers, Messrs. Craddock and Hayes with swing-boats, and Ford with juvenile motor-cars and miniature roundabout. Shooting saloons were supplied by Dobson, Ford, White, and Tom Dobson, and the well-known providers and caterers of fairground novelties were Messrs. Humphries, Wright, Wagstaffe, Beach, Birch, Wimsper, Robins, Stokes, and Joyce.

THE annual pleasure fair was held at Guildford on Thursday, the 22nd ult., and attracted a large number of people, especially from the country-side, into the quaint county town of Surrey.

AT the "World's Fair," Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, great progress is being made with the gigantic programme arranged for the coming 28th annual, which, it is anticipated, will eclipse all its predecessors. Mr. T. E. Read's wide travels in the early part of the year have resulted in his being able to place on record the greatest and most varied programme ever given at London's greatest of all Christmas fairs. The remarkable aerial acts, augmented circus, an ideal indoor zoo, together with other great attractions yet to be announced, will certainly form a mammoth entertainment for the million, with easy access from all parts, at the customary price of sixpence admission.

A MONSTER carnival will be held in the spacious Corn Exchange, Arbroath, N.B., from December 29, 1906, until Jan. 5, 1907. An orchestra and numerous free stage attractions have been engaged, including Jack's marionettes, Mlle. Jeanetta, the Handcuff Queen, Lyric Sketch Co., Revillo, the Royal magical jester, and the Carnival mascots. The carnival is under the management of Mr. Oliver, and should prove a financial success.

ROYALTY AND SHOWMEN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—There is sufficient proof that we are not forgotten by Royalty. In an illustrated paper this, Thursday, morning there was a photo of some of our Royal children driving in that splendid carriage drawn by the beautiful ponies presented to them on behalf of England's showmen by that grand old man, Lord George Sanger. The faddist may attempt to exterminate us; but Royalty still respects us.—Yours faithfully,

TOM NORMAN.

Manor Farm, Dallington, Sussex, Nov. 29, 1906.

GREAT DRAW.

GRAHAM,

The Human Marionette.

"A Sure Top."

Agent,

GEORGE BARCLAY.

Mr. LEO DRYDEN,

Business Manager for

The Australian Diva,

MADAME

ADA

COLLEY,

PRIMA DONNA,

Thanks Messrs. T. Barrasford, J. De Frece, Sam Lloyd, E. Dottridge, H. J. Worswick, W. Robinson, and the various Agents for Offers for the BRITISH ISLES,

CONTINENT,

AND

AMERICA,

and wishes to inform those who have not secured the services of this

GREAT ARTIST

that Open Dates are being

Rapidly

Filled.

All coms.,

LEO DRYDEN,

KING'S THEATRE,

GATESHEAD.

IT MUST BE GOOD.

Top of the Bill,

OXFORD MUSIC HALL,

LONDON,

AND UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

ENORMOUS SUCCESS.

A WONDERFUL DRAW.

THE MYSTERIOUS CROSS.

Presented by

MR. ARTHUR PRESTON & COMPANY.

(Registered No. 2,633.)

Solicitors, Messrs. Stanley, Woodhouse, and Hedderwick.

Agent, HUGH J. DIDCOTT, Esq.

RE-ENGAGED BY

MR. GEORGE ADNEY PAYNE

For all the Halls he is associated with.

SOLE PROPRIETOR,

"CARLTON,"

HIPPODROME, PAISLEY.

Then Pantomime Rehearsals,

PRINCE'S THEATRE, BRISTOL.

Specially engaged to play the Circus Proprietor.

GUS W. BLAKE. and MAUD GRANBY.

Just returned from most Successful Tour in Australia.

BLAKE & GRANBY

Laughter-Makers

(That's all).

Mr. Leete (Manager of the Tivoli, Sydney), says "The Man in Possession" gave him the heartiest laugh he has had for twenty years.

BLAKE and GRANBY,

Billed by Mr. Rickards, after our opening, as "The Great Laughter-Makers."

Tivoli Theatre.

Blake and Granby, comedy burlesque artists, made a palpable hit in their sketch, "The Man in Possession." The farce is screamingly funny, and as both the artists are admirably suited for their parts, the house was kept in roars of laughter throughout the performance.—Sydney Herald.

Tivoli—Harry Rickards' Co.

The latest star turn at the Tivoli is contributed by Blake and Granby, comedy duologue artists, who made their initial appearance in Australia last night before a crowded house. The newcomers contributed a comedy sketch entitled "The Man in Possession." . . . The sketch is brimful of fun, and had a very enthusiastic reception, the principals being honoured with several recalls.—Sunday Times, Sydney.

An amusing addition to the programme was "The Man in Possession," by Blake and Granby, who, on Saturday made their first appearance in Australia. It is screamingly funny and bright throughout. The two performers are good in their business, and altogether kept the audience constantly laughing while they held the stage.—The Argus.

Tivoli Theatre.

The new arrivals at the Tivoli yesterday, Blake and Granby, English comedy artists, proved very acceptable additions to the programme, and their sketch, "The Man in Possession," is very amusing. . . . Her method is absurdly far-fetched, but it is funny; and the way she bounces, bangs, bumps, beats, and batters that unfortunate broker's bumbailiff when she finds out the truth indicates that Miss Granby has a muscle like Hackenschmidt.—Australian Truth.

Tivoli.

Blake and Granby made their first appearance in Australia at the Tivoli last Saturday. Their sketch is of a highly humorous nature, entitled "The Man in Possession." The sketch is brimful of fun, and raised considerable laughter, the principals being honoured with several recalls.—Sporting and Dramatic News, Australia.

Blake and Granby are introducing a new and very entertaining sketch, "The Late Lamented," which is a screamer from beginning to end.—Referee, Australia.

Tivoli Theatre.

Blake and Granby, a pair of comedy burlesque artists, made their first appearance at the Tivoli on Saturday in an original comedy sketch, "The Man in Possession." . . . The sketch is decidedly humorous, and the lady and gentleman responsible for its production present it well, receiving most flattering approval from a big audience.—Sydney Daily Telegraph.

There are two comedy contributions—one by the Homer B. Mason and Marguerite Keeler Company, and the other by Blake and Granby. Both combinations, however, are front-rankers in their own particular direction, and are responsible for roars of laughter. . . . Throughout the week Blake and Granby went spiffing, and the result of competition in their own particular line only goes to show up, all the more clearly, the excellence of their work.—Australian Truth.

Vacant Dec. 10 and 17, and Jan. 14 and 21.

Only vacancies till 1908.

Sole Agents, PACEY and REEVES.

THE HIT OF THE PARIS THEATRICAL WINTER SEASON, 1906.

HARRY SEYMOUR

The Prince of Comedian Clowns,

Specially Engaged from the New York Theatres By Mr. ARTHUR COLLINS, To Appear in Several Leading Parts In the French Production of

"CINDERELLA"

At the Theatre de la Porte St. Martin.

What the French Press says about HARRY SEYMOUR.

LE MATIN says:—

One's attention is almost taken off Mayol, the leading comedian in "Cinderella," by the most original impersonation of the cat, which is produced by the clever comedian, Harry Seymour. His antics, as he scampers round the balcony of the theatre, electrified the audience.

THE FIGARO says:

One of the most decided hits of "Cinderella" is the clever performance of Harry Seymour, a young English comedian, who has the speciality of playing dumb parts and imitating animals. His impersonation of the cat is simply stupendous.

LE PETIT JOURNAL says:

In the pic-nic scene of "Cinderella" the house was absolutely convulsed with laughter by the eccentricities of Harry Seymour, the English comedian, who has been a revelation to the Parisian public.

Address, "The Era," Paris Office, ESCOLE, 60 rue Caumartin.

NOTICE.

In accordance with the Act of Parliament regulating Patents, &c.,

THE

ELLIOTTS

AND

SAVONAS

Have been notified by the Comptroller of the Patent Office to give public warning that the whole of the appliances used in their Musical Act, including

ORGANS INSTRUMENTS,

MUSICAL LYRES & BELLS, &c.

Also all Scenic and Electrical Effects, are protected by Royal Letters Patent, No. 24652/05 and No. 24653/05.

They also wish to notify that the title of Savonas is fully registered, and anyone after this Notice infringing the patent or name, or using any colourable imitation of such patent or name, will be immediately prosecuted.

Agents are appointed in all towns visited by the SAVONAS to look after unprincipled pirates.

PRESS OPINIONS.

ANOTHER GREAT TRIUMPH FOR

THE SAVONAS

Read what they say in Bradford, the greatest musical centre in the world.

The production of WAGNER'S

OVERTURE TO TANNHAUSER

BY THE

SEVEN SAVONAS

is the big event of their engagement, and is a real musical treat; they gave a fascinating and impulsive performance, which achieved a glorious and instantaneous success. Great praise must be awarded for their painstaking and effective rendering of all the technical requirements in Wagner's delightful musical masterpiece, in which they were eminently successful, and received long and loud applause from a huge audience, who testified their appreciation of such talented and refined musicians by delightful lusty cheers, the demonstration being so great they were not allowed to proceed with the programme for some moments.

The YORKSHIRE POST says:

The Seven Savonas gave a bright, bold, and brilliant performance of Wagner's Overture to "Tannhäuser," which was fully recognised and appreciated by a large, critical audience, for which they deserve all credit; also their sire, Mr. J. B. Elliott, the inventor and producer of this classical and popular style of entertainment.

The dresses, by Alias, designed by J. B. Elliott, at a cost of £300, are effectively are good figures and pretty faces, all of brilliant and gorgeous, added to which which go to make a pleasurable successful evening's amusement.

Why are the

ELLIOTTS

AND

SAVONAS

Such popular favourites with the Managers and Public?

Because they draw the Money for Managers, which makes them happy and cheerful.
Because they give a good show.
Because they are good musicians.
Because they dress well.
Because they are poetic and fascinating.
Because they have always something new and grand.
Because they have good scenery and marvellous electrical effects.

That is why they succeed where others fail.

Address en route, or

42, St. Paul's Road, Middlesboro'.

FRED KARNO'S COMPANIES.

GLASGOW.
GRAND. Wednesday, Dec. 5.

GORGEOUS XMAS PANTOMIME.

"The House that Jack Built."

Fred Kitchen, Harmony Comedy Four, the Fourteen Black Hussars, Kirby's Flying Ballet, Miss May Mars, Miss Luna Love, Miss Frances Kapstowne, Sisters Hopkins, Little Maudie Francis, Wee Mona, Bob Sloan, Fred. Whittaker, Helier Le Maistre, Miss Genevera Tree, Miss Agnes Lane, Harry Lappo, Frank Douglas, Frederic Booth, E. Sydney Smith, Dave Laird, Harold Wellesley, Barry Searle, Albert Leonzi, H. Victor Smith, Misses Holly Errol, Eva Norman, May Prichard, Freda Vaughan, Lallie Forsyth, Kathleen Morland, Dora Grey, Nellie May, Florence Raymaur, Florence Fenwicke, Eva Carlisle, Flo Pragnell, Helen Temple, Ianthe Gordon, Florence Marks, Gabrielle Wallace, Violet Crossley, Helen Le Maistre, Lydia Granville, Louis Wollett, Alys Hardy, Jessie Clapham, and chorus and ballet of 150 performers.

Produced by HAROLD L. HILLIARD,
Under the personal supervision of FRED KARNO.
General-Manager, Mr. J. B. HELM; Stage-Manager, Mr. KENNETH MACLEOD; Musical Director, Mr. HENRY HENDERSON.

GLASGOW.
COLISEUM. "Moses and Sons."

Messrs. Albert Bruno, T. Ellis-Buxton, Herbert Landeck, Anthony Gordon, J. Springsohn, Nat Lewis, Bernard Katz, Gipsy Dolin, H. Myers, Phil Sinclair, D. Asher, W. Davis, N. Goodman, B. Hart, Frank Lester, F. Westcott, M. Rutherford, E. H. Carl, Harry E. Stafford, L. Banjamin, Fred Bentley, Misses Aggie Morris, Janet Reeve, Madge Rockingham, Rosa Abrahams, Lydia Weber, Leah Holland, Bertha Hymans, Kate Hymans, Blanche Newmann, Etty Ray, E. Silve, A. Boyce, A. Spencer, B. Asher, C. Gordon, Herbert Landeck, Manager, Mr. M. CRAMMONDE; Musical Director, Mr. DUDLEY POWELL.

AMERICA, U.S. NEWHAVEN.
POLI. "Mumming Birds."

Messrs. Harry Royston, James Russell, Sidney Chaplin, W. Fern, Ernest Stone, Fred Bendo, Bert Clark, Arnold McFarlane. Misses Amy Minister, Beatrice Barnes, Agnes Clark.
Manager, Mr. A. FORREST.

SHEPHERD'S BUSH.
THE EMPIRE. "Dandy Thieves,"

Messrs. George Hestor, Frank Morton, Harry Howe, R. H. Kitchen, Tom Manardo, Alec Munro, Sydney Bolton, Charles Usher, B. Moore, S. Gossling, Frank Douglas, Cecil Frere, Misses Leonora Castelle, Kitty Brunton, Chloey Johnson, Margaret Ruby, Daisy Hestor, Edith Ager, Amy Hermance, Marjorie Gossling, Maud Darrell, E. Terry, J. Hylton, K. Elthorn, G. Moore.
Manager, Mr. L. GREENWOOD; Musical Director, Mr. F. H. J. MORAN.

AMERICA, U.S. MASS.
WORCESTER. "Early Birds."

Messrs. Billie Reeves, George Welch, Arthur Dandoe, Will Stanley, Charles Emerald, Jack Osborne, Chas. Sivado, Reed Almonti, Will Crackles, G Seamans, J. Aubrey. Misses Rosie Fenton, Mabelle Welsh, Minna Dixon.
Manager, Mr. A. REEVES.

WEST BROMWICH.
THEATRE ROYAL. "Saturday to Monday."

Messrs. Rolando Martin, James Fletch, Fred Palmer, J. W. Bradbury, Dick Harcourt, Victor H. Crawford, T. McDonough, George Cooper, C. Herbert Summers, Sydney Lansdown, Bertie Crew W. Lawrence, E. Pablo, Mark Milton, Misses Amy Rogerson, Ada Maskell, Daisy Stone, Lucy Walden, Lulu Lillian, Kathleen Dennis, Valetta Rushton, Muriel Palmer, Ethel Milton, Louie Arnold.
Manager, Mr. H. A. DOOLEY; Musical Director, Mr. A. D'ALBERT.

NEWCASTLE.
EMPIRE. "Jail Birds"

Messrs. James Le Fre, Bob Lewis, Chas. Wragg, Bert Williams, Will Moran, Frank Melroyd, Will Lorenzi, George Craig, Albert Layton, E. E. Giles, jun., B. Dean, Misses Marie Dayton, Sara Dudley, Louie Decubas, Marjorie Williams, Rosie Mayville.
Manager, CHAS. SEWELL.

LONDON.
OLYMPIA. Christmas, 1906.

Special production of the Famous Old-Time RICHARDSON'S SHOW,
A faithful revival of all the old glamour and glory of ONE OF THE MOST AMUSING AND BEST-BELOVED FEATURES OF OLD ENGLISH FAIR LIFE.

Harry Paulo, Fred Newman, Watty Lewis, A. Danville, Prof. Burnett, G. Romali, D. Robins, Sid Dinah, Misses Madge Lloyd, Marian Homes, Maud Tribe, Dot Robins, The Three Walkers, Band, &c.
Manager, Mr. J. M. JONES.

MANCHESTER.
PALACE. "The Football Match," Christmas, 1906.

Messrs. Harry Weldon, Ernie Myers, Robb Gilmore, Will Poluski, jun., Brien McCullough, Bertie White, Jack Royal, Jack Murray, A. E. Johnstone, John E. Doyle, Alec Thomas, Miss Lily Lonsdale, Miss Eunice Bell, supported by the Karno Troupe of comedians, and pantomimists, and two real first-class football teams, comprising well-known football players selected from the leading clubs of the United Kingdom, and chorus and auxiliaries of over a hundred artists.

KARNO'S THEATRICAL FACTORY,
CAMBERWELL, S.E.

The Magnificent NEW WING just added to the above, comprising a Paint Room, Rehearsal Room, and Storage Dock, is now complete. The new Paint Room is furnished with Two Frames capable of carrying any Cloths. The new Rehearsal Room, splendidly lighted, ventilated, and heated, is 72 feet long, 21 feet wide, and owing to its exceptional height (26 feet 6 inches) can be used as a Practice Room for any Gymnastic or Aerial Acts. The huge Storage Dock, thoroughly ventilated and dry, covers an area of 316 square yards, and has a cubic space of 32,648 feet.

GENERAL STAGE DIRECTOR,
AUTHOR, and PRODUCER,
Harold L. Hilliard.

ACCOUNTANT,
T. Scott Bell.

SOLICITORS,
Stanley, Woodhouse, and Hedderwick, E.C.

Sole Proprietor and Director,

MR. FRED KARNO.

26, 28, & 28a, VAUGHAN ROAD, CAMBERWELL, S.E.

Telegrams, "Karno, Camberwell."
Telephone, Nos. 2341, 2341a Hop.

REVISED SCALE OF CHARGES FOR

MANAGERS WANTING ARTISTS, ARTISTS WANTING ENGAGEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

This Scale does not apply to "Trade" Advertisements in these Columns.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION (Post Free).

	UNITED KINGDOM.	FOREIGN.
One Quarter	6s. 6d.	8s.
Half Year	13s. 0d.	16s.
One Year	26s. 0d.	32s.

The Offices of "The Era" are "THE ERA" BUILDINGS, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.
For the convenience of Advertisers, Replies to Advertisements are received. They can remain until called for, or be forwarded by Post, FREE OF CHARGE

NO STAMPS.

Advertisers and Subscribers are politely requested to forward Cheques or Postal Orders in payment of their Advertisements and Subscriptions, crossed "Lloyd's Bank, Ltd." Remittances should be made payable to "The Era," Limited, and addressed,

THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up," 4,747, Central.

IN case of the non-delivery of "THE ERA" by the First Post, the Publisher will be greatly obliged if Advertisers will forward their Postal Wrappers with the time of delivery marked upon them.

COMPANIES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

MILTON BODE'S THEATRES.
WANTED, First-class Companies, for DALSTON THEATRE, LONDON, N.E.
Feb 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25, April 1, on.
COUNTY THEATRE, READING,
Feb. 25, March 4, 18, 25, April 1, on.
OPERA HOUSE, LEICESTER,
Dec. 17, March 11, 25, May 6, 13, 20.
ROYALTY THEATRE, CHESTER,
Feb. 18, March 11, 18, 25, April 1, on.
GRAND THEATRE, WOLVERHAMPTON,
Jan. 7, 28, Feb. 4, 18, 25, March 4, 11, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, HUDDERSFIELD,
Feb. 11, March 4, 18, 25, April 1, on.
OPERA HOUSE, NORTHAMPTON,
Feb. 18, 25, March 4, 25, April 1, 8, on.
GRAND THEATRE, LEICESTER,
March 25, April 1, 8, 29, May 6, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, LEAMINGTON.
Jan. 7 (three nights), Feb. 18, March 11, 18, on.
Address, MILTON BODE, THEATRE, READING.

WANTED, First-class Companies,
GRAND THEATRE, NEWCASTLE,
May 6, onwards.
METROPOLE THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Dec. 17, March 6, April 22, onwards.
QUEEN'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Dec. 17, Jan. 21, Feb. 4, 11, 18, and April 1.
Address,
SIDNEY BACON, Metropole Theatre, Gateshead.
Telegrams, "Bacon, Gateshead."

WANTED, First-Class Companies, for COUNTY THEATRE, BEDFORD,
Jan. 7, 28, Feb. 4, 11, 25, onwards.
GRAND THEATRE, LUTON,
Feb. 11, 25, March 18, 25, April 8, onwards.
THEATRE ROYAL, CANTERBURY,
Dec. 10, 17, 31, March 4 (three nights only), onwards.
Add., E. GRAHAM-FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

CAMBRIDGE THEATRE, SPENNYMOOR.
WANTED, First-class Attraction, for Dec. 17.
Apply, HUGH ROBERTSON, Jarrow.

LYRIC THEATRE,
BROMLEY.

WANTED, First-Class Companies,
Three Nights, Dec. 13 and 20,
Six Nights, Jan. 21, Feb. 11.
And a Really Good Pantomime,
Six Nights, Feb. 18.

Address, F. W. PURCELL,
"Lingwood," Yerbury-rd., Tufnell Park, London, N.

THEATRE ROYAL, ILKESTON.
Manager and Licensee, Mr. L. F. A. ROGERS.

WANTED, Companies, Jan. 28,
March 4, 18, April 1, onwards.
Silence a courteous negative.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, WIDNES.
WANTED, First-class Company, for
Dec. 17.
Dec. 17.
Wire,
THOS. SWINTON.

THEATRE ROYAL, WEST BROMWICH.
Lessee, Mr. HARDING THOMAS.
WANTED, Comic Opera, Musical Comedies, &c., April, onwards. Address, HERBERT VERE.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, First-Class Attraction, Jan. 28, March 11 and 18, 1907. L. CARSON, Keighley.

WANTED, for Grand Theatre, West Hartlepool, March 25, April 1, 29, May 6, important attractions only. FRED GRANVILLE, Park View, Crosby, Liverpool.

Dramatic and Pantomime Companies.
WANTED, Dec. 24, 31, and Jan. 7, Feb. 11.
WM. B. BROADHEAD,
Hippodrome, Manchester.

WANTED, First-Class Attractions,
OPERA HOUSE, COVENTRY,
Xmas, suddenly vacant

Address, H. G. DUDLEY BENNETT,
Shakespeare Theatre, Clapham, S.W.

THEATRE ROYAL, HEBBURN.
WANTED, First-class Companies (Musical preferred), Dec. 17, Feb. 11 to follow "The Toreador" and "Three Little Maids." Feb. 25, Good Pantos. write. CHARLES ELDERTON.

GRAND THEATRES, CHORLEY AND RADCLIFFE.
WANTED, Big Musical Attraction, Dec. 24, Jan. 7, Grand, Radcliffe; also Feb. 11, Répertoire, Grand, Chorley. Address, SANTE, Theatre, Radcliffe.

THEATRE ROYAL, RYDE.
WANTED, Companies, Feb., onwards.
HARRISON-BROADLEY, Manager.

NEW THEATRE, CONSETT.
WANTED, Pantomimes for Jan. 14 and dates in Feb. Apply, HUGH ROBERTSON, T. R., Jarrow.

IRVING THEATRE, SEACOMBE.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, Feb. 18, March 11, 18, 25, April 15, 22, 29,
May 6, 7, 20.

Apply, JAMES KIERNAN, Owner and Manager.

THEATRE ROYAL, JARROW.
WANTED, First-class Attraction, for Dec. 10, through disappointment. Wire, ROBERTSON, Theatre, Jarrow.

WANTED, for the Prince of Wales' Theatre, Salford, First-class Companies, for Jan. 7, 21, Feb. 4, and onwards. Address, E. B. GOULDEN.

COLISEUM, ABERYSTWYTH.
WANTED, Companies, Dec. 10 (three nights), and 27, 28, onwards, with exceptions.
Wire, PHILLIPS

WANTED, First-class Companies, Dec. 17 and Feb. 18 (one night benefit). F. J. ROBINSON, T. R., Darwen.

NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE, BLACKBURN.
WANTED, Really Good Dramas,
Jan 14, March 4, 11, and 25.
E. H. PAGE.

STANLEY, DURHAM, NEW ROYAL, LTD.
WANTED, Good Attractions, March 11, April 8, 15, 22, and 29.
Apply, MARK H. LINDON.

WANTED, First-class Attractions,
Dec. 17, Jan. 10 (3 nights),
and Jan. 28.
Apply, SHERWOOD and Co., Theatre, Wakefield.

COMPANIES WANTED.

WANTED, First-class Companies

THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
Vacant Feb. 25, March 11, onward, with exceptions.

THEATRE METROPOLE, DEVONPORT.
Vac. Dec. 10, 17, April 22, onward, with exceptions.

KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
Vacant Dec. 17, 31, onward, with exceptions.
(Last three nights of each week).

THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
Vacant Dec. 3, 10, Jan. 28, onward, with exceptions.

METROPOLE THEATRE, ABERTILLERY.
Vacant Dec. 17, 31, onward, with exceptions.

LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
Vacant Dec. 3, 10, 17, onward, with exceptions.

"THE LOST CHORD,"
Vacant April 8, 22, onward, with exceptions.

"SPAN OF LIFE."
Vacant Jan. 21, Feb. 18, onward, with exceptions.

"IN SIGHT OF ST. PAUL'S."
Vacant Dec. 31 Jan. 14, 21, onward, with exceptions.

"CINDERELLA."
Vacant Feb. 4, 11, onward, with exceptions.

Companies "Farmed" through Fit-ups.
To Let, on Royalty, "THE PRAIRIE FLOWER" and "OUR BRITISH EMPIRE."
Excellent plants printing.

All communications to
ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre Royal, Worcester.
Telegrams, "Carlton, Worcester."

ROYALTY THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE, BARROW-IN-FURNESS.
The Premier Theatre in the Furness District.
Holds £90 at ordinary prices.
This week, Mr. Louis Calvert's "Sunday," Return Visit.

WANTED, First-class Attraction, for Jan. 21, through obliging Fredk. Mouillot, Esq.; March 11 and 18 also open.
The Bookings for this Theatre include the Principal Attractions Touring.

All applications for dates to
HUGH ROBERTSON, Theatre Royal, Jarrow.

AVENUE OPERA HOUSE,
SUNDERLAND.
WANTED, High-Class Musical Comedy or London Successes, for the following dates, 1907:
Feb. 11.
Feb. 18.
Feb. 25,
April 15,
April 22,
April 29,
May 6,
May 13,
May 20,
and onwards.
Address, CHAS. E. MACHIN.

THEATRE ROYAL, DARLINGTON.
WANTED. First-class Attraction,
Dec. 10.
Wire, JAMES BELL. Wire.

GRAND THEATRE, DERBY.
WANTED, through obliging Mr. Dance, First-Class Star or Musical Attraction, Feb. 25 and March 4. Could entertain good Pantomime one week. Also Attractions May 6, and onwards.
Address, T. ALLAN EDWARDES.

RAMSGATE.
SANGER'S AMPHITHEATRE.
WANTED, First-Class Companies,
Feb. and on.
Address, HENRY BOWMAN.

PRINCE'S THEATRE, HORWICH.
WANTED, Dec. 17, 24, 31, onward, with exceptions; must be good Cos. Theatre well lighted, heated; good band. Copy of daybill, F. LEWIS.

KNIGHTSTONE PAVILION and OPERA HOUSE, WESTON-SUPER-MARE.
WANTED, First-Class Attraction, Dec. 10 (three or six nights) and onwards, with exceptions. W. PAYNE.

WANTED, for the Theatre Royal, Bolton (through the dissolution of a well-known Comic Opera Co.), a First-class Company for Christmas Week, Dec. 24. Address, J. F. ELLISTON, Bolton.

ROYAL CLARENCE THEATRE, PONTYPRIDD.
WANTED, First-Class Companies,
Dec. 17, Dec. 17, Dec. 17,
March 25, April 22, May 6.

Apply, CHARLES TRENCHARD.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Barnstaple, Companies for two nights, Musical or Comedy preferred. Apply, H. ASHTON, Strand, Barnstaple.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Inverness, Attractions for Feb. and March. Vacant dates apply, CAMERON BURGESS.

WANTED, First-Class Attractions, Colchester, Dec. 3 and 10, Xmas, Jan. 7, Feb. 25, Clacton Xmas. Communicate, CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

NEW THEATRE ROYAL, LINCOLN.
WANTED, First-Class Attraction, Dec. 13 (three nights), Jan. 3 (three nights), April 15, 22 (Fair Week), May 20.
Address, FRANK KING.

THEATRE ROYAL, BURY ST. EDMUNDS.
Now a beautiful Theatre modernised in every respect at a cost of over £1,000.
WANTED, Jan. 14, 21, 28 (3 nights), Feb. 11 (3 nights) or Feb. 14, and a few on. MONTEFIORE, Bury St. Edmunds. Opening Dec. 10 with Moody-Manners Opera Co., "Faust," with Mr. Charles Manners as "Mephisto."

NEW THEATRE, CAMBRIDGE.
WANTED, First-class Companies, Jan. 21, 22, 23, vacant through transfer, and through obliging Mr. George Dance, Feb. 4, 5, 6, is vacant. A few vacant dates latter half of April, also May 9, and 23, and June 3. Apply,
W. B. REDFERN.

WANTED, Good Fit-up Companies, one or two nights each, Operetta House, Clacton, from Xmas, onward. Communicate, CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

WANTED, Companies, for Opera House, Wakefield. Vacant Dec. 17, Jan. 10 (3 nights), Jan. 28, March 18, Easter, April 15, and onwards, with exceptions.

OPERA HOUSE, DUNFERMLINE.
WANTED, Companies, Dec. 17, 24, Jan. 14, 21 (latter dates can be booked in conjunction with Opera House, Perth). W. E. POTTS.

WANTED, First-Class Dramatic or Musical Attractions for a Midland Theatre, Dec. 10, 17, and 24. No. 1 Companies only entertained. BARNARD, Chiselett-road, W. Hampstead, N.W.

PIER PAVILION, SOUTHPORT.
WANTED, for Xmas and New Year's weeks, big Holiday Attraction; rent or share; must be first-class. Fullest particulars to CHARLES F. JOHNSON, Manager.

CASINO, BEXHILL-ON-SEA.
WANTED, First-Class Fit-up Companies, Musical Comedy preferred; Share or Rent.
Apply, THORNELL, Casino, Bexhill-on-Sea.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Magnificent New Town Hall, moderate rental, permanent stage, excellent accommodation. F. W. WESTERN, Sandy, Beds.

ST. MARGARET'S HALL, CANTERBURY.
Seats 600. Lighted throughout with Electricity. Electric Current for Cinématograph, 220 volts.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, onwards. Share or Rent. Apply, W. J. COTTON.

WANTED, Dec. 26, 27, Town Hall, Maidenhead. Fit-up Company, Panto. preferred. Musical Comedy. Sharing terms. LEONE, Park-st., Maidenhead.

COMPANIES WANTED.

HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE,
BARROW-IN-FURNESS.
Lessees and Managers,
Mr. and Mrs. CALVERT ROUTLEDGE.

The Leading Theatre of the Town.
The only Theatre in the Town Lighted by Electricity.
Stage capable of any Production.
Can Fly any size Cloth.
This week, "The Wearin' o' the Green" (return); next week, Mr. Charles Harrington's Co., "The Sailors of the King."
To be followed by "The Shulamite," Miss Minnie Palmer in "My Sweetheart,"
"Sherlock Holmes," &c., &c.

None but the Best Companies Booked at this Theatre.
WANTED, Jan. 21, Feb. 4 and 25.
Apply, CALVERT ROUTLEDGE.

FOLKESTONE AND HASTINGS.
WANTED, High-Class Companies, for vacant Spring dates,
GAIETY THEATRE, HASTINGS,
Jan. 28, Feb. 4, 25 (?), March 4, 11, 25.
PLEASURE GARDENS T., FOLKESTONE,
Jan. 28 (?) Feb. 11 (?), March 4 (?).
Easter vacant through disappointment at Hastings and Folkestone. Big Musical Comedies wanted; Whit Week also vacant, both Theatres; Must be big Shows or not entertained.
H. W. ROWLAND, Theatre, Folkestone.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
WANTED, Companies,
Vacant First-Class Dec. 10, Glasgow,
Dec. 17, Dec. 17,
Dec. 24, Dec. 24.
Wire, Wire, Wire.

R. C. BUCHANAN,
Grand Theatre, Glasgow.

SUBSCRIPTION ROOMS, STROUD.
WANTED, First-Class Drama, Fit-up, Share, Dec. 26 and 27, 1906.
Apply, H. TWITCHETT, at above.

THEATRES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

Grand Autumn Production.
"THE GIRL WHO TOOK THE WRONG TURNING."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Important Theatres, Feb. 18 and March 11.
WALTER MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

Grand Autumn Production.
"THE SOLDIER'S WEDDING,"
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatres, Feb. 11 and March 11.
Apply,
WALTER MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"A GIRL'S CROSS ROADS,"
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 24, March 11.
WALTER MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"HER FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE,"
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31, Feb. 18.
FREDERICK MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE UGLIEST WOMAN ON EARTH."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31.
FREDERICK MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE BEAST AND THE BEAUTY."
WANTED, Theatres, March 4.
FREDERICK MELVILLE,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE FEMALE SWINDLER."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31, Jan. 14.
TOM H. TAYLOR,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE WORST WOMAN IN LONDON."
WANTED, Theatres, Jan. 28, Feb. 18.
TOM H. TAYLOR,
Standard Theatre, E.

"THE GIRL WHO LOST HER CHARACTER."
WANTED, Jan. 21, March 11.
Easter week vacant.
DOUGLAS BRUCE, Theatre Royal, Barnsley.

"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
WANTED, Weeks of Dec. 31 and Jan. 7,
Scala Production.
Wire or write, W. W. KELLY,
8, Hamilton-square, Birkenhead.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY'S CO.
"THE WEARIN' O' THE GREEN."
WANTED, Feb. 11 and 18, through transferring.
Nov. 26,
His Majesty's Theatre, Barrow-in-Furness.
Aut., 1907, Grand Production, "Rollicking Rory."

"SAILORS OF THE KING."
WANTED, Important Theatres, Dec. 24, on,
Big Production.
CHARLES HARRINGTON, H. M. T., Barrow.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31, Jan. 7.
Full Chorus, Big Specialities.
CHARLES HARRINGTON, Carlton T., Birmingham.

"DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY."
WANTED Jan. 7,
Feb. 4,
March 4, 11, 18.
Address, J. W. CORDINER,
Grand Theatre, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
See Companies' advertisements, page 2.

"LIFE OF A SHOWMAN."
WANTED, First-Class Theatres for the above big and novel Attraction; Vacant Feb. 18 (South or London), also Aug., 1907, onwards, with exceptions. Fast booking third returns.
SANTE, P.O.W., Nuneaton; T. R., Middlesbrough.

WANTED, Feb. 11 and onwards, for first-class Pantomime Production, with Powerful Cast and Chorus. Theatres capable of holding good money only. Address, J. F. ELLISTON, Bolton.

By arrangement with Mr. Wm. Greet,
"THE SHULAMITE,"
From the Savoy Theatre.
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 24 and 31, Jan. 14, and a few later dates. Apply, re dates, J. FRED WATSON, Victoria, Broughton, Manchester. Other communications, H. THEODORE, 25, St. Anne-street, Manchester.

WANTED, for "The Girl Who Went Astray," Aug. 5, onwards.
FRED BULMER, Theatre Royal, Bristol.

WANTED, Christmas and New Year's week, for "WHEN WOMAN HATES."
FRED BULMER, Theatre Royal, Bristol.

WANTED, First-class Theatres, Christmas, New Year, for "Are You a Mason?"; Jan. 28, "Mr. Popple." Communicate, CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

WANTED, "Revenge; or Death or Glory Boys," Star Cast, including E. Hill-Mitchelson, Jan. 28, Feb. 4, 25, and March 11. E. HILL-MITCHELSON, P., Preston (two weeks).

MESSRS. SHINTON and GREENWOOD'S TOUR.
"THE PRICE OF HER SOUL."
WANTED, Big Theatre for Xmas.
Better bus. than ever return to Yarmouth.
Address, JOHN B. SHINTON,
Marina Theatre, Lowestoft.

"A BEAUTIFUL FIEND."
Enormous Success. Miss V. St. Lawrence as Fiend.
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 14, 21, 28, Feb. 18, 25, March 18, April 15, 22, June 3, 10, 17 (?), July 1, 22, 29.
MONTAGUE BEAUDYN, next, Prince's, Bradford.

"ROBINSON CRUSOE."
WANTED, Feb. 4 (between Liverpool and South Shields), for production from Shakespeare, Liverpool. Cast includes those great favourites, the Waldrons, and No. 1 Company of over forty artists. Wire, EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre, Grantham.

FRANK BERTRAM'S TOURS.
"THE BREED OF THE TRESHAMS."
WANTED, Jan. 28, Feb. 4, and Easter, for this Popular Attraction.
EUGENE BERTRAM, T. R., Chatham.

THEATRES WANTED.

LINGFORD CARSON'S PRODUCTIONS.
WANTED, Managers to kindly Note that all the following Plays are beautifully staged and well played, and any production not satisfactory to the resident management, I shall take it as a personal favour if they will acquaint me immediately, so that I may have an opportunity of rectifying.—Faithfully yours, LINGFORD CARSON.

"THE DRAMA OF LIFE."
WANTED, First-class Autumn Dates, for this most excellent attraction, August, on. L. CARSON, Keighley.

"BABES IN THE WOOD."
Beautiful Dresses, and, above all, a Company of Carefully-selected Artists.
WANTED, Feb. 4, First-class Theatres only.
CARSON, Keighley.

ARTHUR JEFFERSON'S AGENCY.
WANTED, Dates,
Mr. John Clyde and Company, in a Special Production of
"JEANNIE DEANS,"
Feb. 11, on.
2, Park-terrace, Queen's Park, Glasgow.
Telegrams, "Jefferson, Glasgow."

ALFRED B. CROSS'S TOUR.
"THE MANXMAN."
"THE MANXMAN."
WANTED, Best Theatre,
Vacant Dec. 24, Dec. 24,
also Feb. 18, 25, and few later.
Sixth year of tour, and success continued.
Mr. CROSS as PETE,
Miss WATERSFORD as KATE.
Dec. 3, PIER PAVILION, EASTBOURNE.

MISS MARY NEIL AND MR. GEORGE KIRK'S CO., "HER LUCK IN LONDON,"
By Charles Darrell.
WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
New Year's Week, Jan. 7, 21, 28.
A few Autumn Dates still open.
CHARLES A. LEICESTER,
This, O., Manchester; next, T. R., Stockport.

FRANK J. PITT and CHARLES HALLING'S CO.
"£1,000 REWARD."
"£1,000 REWARD."
WANTED, for this Successful Attraction,
Dec. 31,
Jan. 14, 21,
Feb. 4, 11,
on, with exceptions.
Metropole, Glasgow, Dec. 3.

"COAL KING."
Polini and Maitland.
WANTED, Dates, Jan. 7, 21, Feb. 4, 11, and 25.
POLINI, 93, Penge-road, Anerley, London, S.E.

"THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, with large holding capacity, Whit and August Bank Holiday weeks, for the Biggest Financial Success touring. Address, E. DOTTRIDGE, Empire, Oldham

WANTED, for "An Actor's Romance" Co. Jan. 7 and 14. Now booking spring and autumn. CHARLES DURIE, Opera House, Perth.

"LUCKY 'LIZA."
WANTED, Jan. 21, Feb. 4 (Lancs. or Yorks.), March 4, 11, and 25 (North), only vacant Spring dates. DICKIE CLARE, Theatre R., Glossop.

Grand Xmas Production. E. A'DELL AND CHABOT'S CO'S. (The Name a Guarantee.)
"HIS SISTER'S HONOUR," by Eva Elwes, Vacant Jan. 28, Feb. 4, on. Special plant of printing, three tons of scenery, and a cast second to none touring. "THE ROMANY'S REVENGE."
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 7, March 11, on. Wire, E. A'DELL, T. R., Darwen.

FRED GRANVILLE'S TOURS.
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 31, Jan. 7,
"For Better or Worse."
Wire, Park View, Crosby, Liverpool.

"THE POWER OF GOLD."
Sixty-sixth week of present Tour.
Booked and re-booked into Oct., 1907.
WANTED, Whit Week Midlands
March 25 (follow Jarrow), April 15.
FRANK AVERTON, Grand, Rawtenstall (return).

"AN ABANDONED WOMAN."
WANTED, Good Theatres,
Dec. 31, Jan. 7 and 14,
Dec. 31, Jan. 7 and 14,
to precede Prince's Theatre, Blackburn.
As many laughs as a Pantomime.
To-day, HARRY FOXWELL, Theatre Royal, Batley; Dec. 3, Theatre Royal, Hebburn.

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, First-class Theatre, Dec. 31.
FRED BULMER, Theatre Royal, Bristol.

SIDNEY DENCH'S TOURS.
"RICH AND POOR OF LONDON."
WANTED, Theatres, Dec. 17, 24, 31.
SIDNEY DENCH, 33, Tudor-road, Cardiff.

"A TRAITOR PRINCE."
WANTED, Feb. 4, 11, 25, March 11, 18.
BEAUDYN and LIVESEY,
Theatre Royal, Colne.

"THE NIGHT OF THE PARTY."
WANTED, Dec. 24 (Xmas), for the above No. 1 Co., between Manchester and London. Add., this week, Pavilion, Eastbourne; next, O. H., Doncaster.

E. H. KNIGHT and GEORGE DENHAM'S CO.
"THE GRIP OF IRON."
WANTED, Theatres, Xmas and New Year's Weeks, Jan. 7 and 14 (North).
GEORGE DENHAM,
This, W. London; next, T. R., Huddersfield.

BEAUDYN AND CROWE'S COMPANY.
"THE WAY OF THE WORLD."
WANTED, Dec. 17 (Midlands), also Xmas, by special arrangement with Mr. Preston, "Rogues of the Turf," can be played either singly or in conjunction with "Way of the World," in towns beyond barring clauses of Music Halls. Racehorses travelled. Xmas and various on vacant for both plays.
HERBERT SKARDON, Theatre Royal, Rugby.

"ROBINSON CRUSOE."
WANTED, Feb. 4 (between Liverpool and South Shields), for production from Shakespeare, Liverpool. Cast includes those great favourites, the Waldrons, and No. 1 Company of over forty artists. Wire, EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre, Grantham.

MR. and MRS. F. G. KIMBERLEY'S COS.
WANTED, Dec. 31 (New Year's week), for this Great Play, one of the biggest draws on the road. Band of Drums, Fifes, and Bugles, for Parade. F. G. KIMBERLEY, Vauxhall, The Scotlands, Wolverhampton.

HARDIE AND VON LEER'S CO.
"TWO LITTLE VAGABONDS."
WANTED, First-Class Theatres,
Jan. 14, 21 (?), 28, March 4, 11.
E. P. CLIFT, 110, St. Martin's-lane, W.C.
Wires, "Vagancy, London." Tel. No. 7504 Gerrard.

WANTED, good Date for Xmas week, for Miss Dorothy Grimston, supported by strong Company, in "East Lynne," Dec. 10, Kennington Theatre, Kennington; Dec. 17, Grand Theatre, Croydon. Write, Theatre Royal, Exeter.

HENRY E. LEIGH'S COMPANY.
"THE 'VARSITY BELLE."
WANTED, Xmas, Jan. 7, and various Spring Dates, Aug. Bank Holiday. ANDREW W. SPENS, 1, Brookwood-road, Southfields, London, S.W. See Companies advertisement.

WANTED, for Florence Glossop-Harris and Frank Cellier, in "Carmen" and other Plays, Jan. 14, between St. Leonards and Harrogate; also Jan. 28 (three nights, Midlands). Write, CELLIER, New Theatre, Oxford.

"A HEART'S DESIRE."
An Exceptional Cast.
A Play of Intense Interest.
An Unmistakable Success.
WANTED, Dec. 24.
H. ELLIMAN, 5, Vernon-street, Dublin.

"BOUND TO WIN."
WANTED, Dec. 31, Jan. 7, 14, for this Pantomime Attraction. Enormous success. Refer any Manager where piece has been this tour. Wire for New Year's Week (must be first-class theatre) to F. G. KIMBERLEY, T. R., Sunderland; next, Jarrow.

WANTED, First-class Theatres,
"FOR AULD LANG SYNE."
FRED BULMER, Theatre Royal, Bristol.

WANTED, for J. W. Turner's English Opera Co., Jan. 7, Vacant through alteration of Birmingham arrangements. Wire, Grand Theatre, Birmingham.

THEATRES WANTED.

MORTON POWELL'S ENTERPRISES.

WANTED, Dates for
"WHEN IT WAS DARK,"
"WHEN IT WAS DARK,"
Jan. 7, 28 (?), Feb. 18, 25.

"THE WOMAN WHO GAMBLES,"
Jan. 14, 28, April 1.

"HONOUR THY FATHER,"
Dec. 31, Jan. 7, 14, 21.

MORTON POWELL,
Queen's Theatre, Farnworth, Bolton.

"BLUEBELL IN FAIRYLAND."
Forty-Five in Company.

WANTED, First-class Theatres,
Jan. 14 (South), to oblige a Manager, and Easter.

Only Vacant Dates
till Xmas, 1907.

E. GRAHAM-FALCON,
County Theatre, Bedford.

ALLAN WILKIE,
Supported by
Mr. G. Alexander Marsh, Miss Carrie Baillie, Miss Ine Cameron. The Strongest Shakespearean Company Touring the British Isles.

WANTED, Theatres, Feb. 11 (three nights, South), May 13 (North or Midlands), May 20 (Midlands or South), June 10. Wanted, good Theatre for four weeks' stock répertoire of eighteen plays, Shakespeare, drama, and comedy; also Aug. 5, onwards, with exceptions. ALLAN WILKIE, Opera House, Kidderminster.

WANTED, for Lingford Carson's "Drama of Life" No. 1 Co., Xmas and New Year's weeks. Wire, VAN BIENE, this, Q. T., Gateshead; next, New T., Consett.

"SAPHO."
"SAPHO."
WANTED, First-class Theatres,
Dec. 24,
Jan. 21, 28.
No greater success touring.
Wire,
JAMES BELL,
T. R., Darlington.

GRANVILLE AND THORNE'S CO.
"NAPOLEON THE GREAT."
WANTED, for this Money-maker, Dec. 24, Feb. 4, 25, an excellent Holiday Attraction.
Wire for Xmas.
FRANK M. THORNE, T. R., Croydon.

"THE STREETS OF LONDON."
WANTED, owing to continuation of Tour, Dec. 17, Xmas, Jan. 7, 14, 21;
This week, County, Reading;
Dec. 3, Grand, Swansea;
Dec. 10, Theatre Royal, Bristol.
Company includes Mr. W. Rokeby, Mr. Joe Bracewell, Mr. Riddell Robinson, Mr. Charles O'Connor, Mr. Charles Keen, Mr. Clarmont Gaskell, Miss Dorothy Caley, Miss Helena Rigby, Miss Winifred Ingham, and Miss Florence.

Wire, MONTEFIORE, Bury St. Edmunds.

"ROBINSON CRUSOE."
WANTED, Feb. 4 (between Liverpool and South Shields), for production from Shakespeare, Liverpool. Cast includes those great favourites, the Waldrons, and No. 1 Company of over forty artists. Wire, EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre, Grantham.

LINGFORD CARSON'S REPERTOIRE CO.
"MODERN ADVENTURESS," "HEART OF A HERO," "TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN," AND "OCTOROON."
Enormous Business at every Theatre visited.
WANTED, Theatres (unexpectedly vacant through transfer), Jan. 14, 21, and March 4. Only Vacant Dates until Sept. 16, 1907. Apply at once for Jan. 14 and 21 to CHARLES DRAYCOTT, Royalty Theatre, Barrow.

"THE TRAITOR."
E. HILL-MITCHELSON and HARRIS FINEBERG'S MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTION.
WANTED, Jan. 7, 28, Feb. 4. One of the strongest attractions touring. E. HILL-MITCHELSON, Prince's Theatre, Preston.

MR. F. B. WOULFE'S TOURS.
"ROBIN HOOD; or,
THE KING OF SHERWOOD FOREST."
An entirely new and original version, by Clifford Rean.
Mr. F. B. Woulfe as Robin Hood.
Miss Ethel Griffies as Maid Marion.
A gorgeous production; magnificent scenery and dresses; large plant of printing.
Managers, please note.—This is a Melodrama pure and simple, and infringes the rights of no other version.
Company of eighteen; quartette of glee singers.
WANTED, Dates, for this Ideal Xmas Attraction, Dec. 31, Jan. 7, 14, 21, Feb. 18, and various on. F. B. WOULFE, Her Majesty's T., Carlisle.

"PUSS IN BOOTS."
"PUSS IN BOOTS."
WANTED, for this Gigantic Production, Important Theatre, for week of Feb. 11,
to follow Hull and Sheffield.
Address, C. and F. RENAD, Grand Theatre, Hull.

MISS EMMA LITCHFIELD'S COMPANY.
"A CLEVER IMPOSTOR."
WANTED, Feb. 18, on, with exceptions; excellently advertised, sumptuously staged, brilliantly played.
Add., STUART CLEVELAND, 30, Victoria-st., Fleetwood.

WANTED, Theatres, January, for "Cricket on the Hearth," Elaborate Production.
HARRISON-BROADLEY, Manager, Theatre Royal, Ryde.

"THE LIGHTS O' LONDON,"
"THE LIGHTS O' LONDON,"
By Geo. R. Sims.
WANTED, for this never-failing Attraction, big Theatre for Xmas week, vacant through theatre transformed to Music Hall.
Wire,
H. HOLLISTER, to-day, Empire, Southend.
Monday, T. R., Norwich.

WANTED, for "Her Lost Self," by Nita Rae, "The Biggest Scamp on Earth," by F. A. Scudamore, New Year, New Year. Wire, FRANCES DELAVAL, King's, Gainsborough; Dec. 3, T. R., Leicester.

"THE INDIAN MUTINY."
WANTED, Good Theatres,
Dec. 24 and Jan. 28.
Address, FRANK E. BURDETT,
To-day, Rotherham; Dec. 3, T. R., Leigh.

"THE THRONE OF TERROR."
WANTED, Dec. 24, 31, Feb. 25, March 11 (Midlands or North), April 1, 8, 15, June 24 (London district). W. J. MILLER, Royal, Houghton.

"ROBINSON CRUSOE."
WANTED, Feb. 4 (between Liverpool and South Shields), for production from Shakespeare, Liverpool. Cast includes those great favourites, the Waldrons, and No. 1 Company of over forty artists. Wire, EDWARD MARRIS, Theatre, Grantham.

THE "APEX" ANIMATED AND TALKING PICTURE CO., with the CHRONOPHONE (Gaumont's patent),
The Greatest Wonder of the Age.
WANTED, Theatres, Music Halls, Halls, &c. Feb. 11, on, with exceptions.
Shares or certainty.

All communications to
GENERAL-MANAGER,
81, Victoria-avenue, Hull.
Telegrams, "Chrono, Hull."

NELSON and HARDY'S ANIMATED PICTURES AND VARIETY COMBINATIONS.
WANTED, Halls, Theatres, &c., week of Jan. 7, 1907, and onward, share or rental; three special nights in every town. Enormous attractions. Address all coms. to MANAGER, c/o 1, Stanley-terrace, Middle Market-road, Great Yarmouth.

ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, for "Sign of the Cross," rehearse 10th inst., Gentlemen for following parts: Philodemus and Melos (double), Servillius, Strabo, and Viturius. Those with good tenor voices to assist in Chorus preferred. Also tall Baggage and Fit-up Man, to work limes. Full particulars in first instance, photos., references (with addresses), to HENRY CHATTELL, Watford.

WANTED, for Long Stock Season, the following First-Class experienced Artists: Leading Man, Heavy, Comedian, and Character; also smart Chambermaid, with songs and dances, and Character Old Woman. Rehearse Dec. 17; open Dec. 24.
Send full particulars, photos, and absolute lowest terms, PERCY WILLIAMS, Grand Theatre, Plymouth.

"THE LOVE THAT WOMEN DESIRE."
WANTED, Rehearse, Dec. 17, Young Actor, tall, powerful voice, combine A.S.M.; Young Lady, tall, pretty; also First-class Carpenter; good, long engagement. Photos. and full particulars, G. CARLTON WALLACE, 6, King Edward-street, Islington, N.

"THE CONSCRIPT."
WANTED, Immediate, Smart, Dashing Chambermaid, for soubrette part; must sing and dance. Lowest terms, photo., references, to Mrs. F. WYBERT CLIVE, this, Carlton, Birmingham; next, P. O. W., Mexborough.

"THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH" CO.
WANTED, through illness, good Emotional Actress for Kate Strong; rehearse London; open Dec. 24, North. References, latest photos. (or no use), and full particulars, SAM LIVESEY, Shakespeare Theatre, Clapham Junction.

MESSRS. SEDDON AND ROBERTSON'S CO., in "CHARLEY'S AUNT."
(By arrangement with Mr. Brandon Thomas.)
Fit-up Tour.
WANTED, a Charley. Photo. and lowest terms. Silence polite negative.
ROBERTSON, T. R., Loughborough.

"LIFE OF A SHOWMAN."
WANTED, Aristocratic Old Man, capable of Character, not under 5ft. 10in. (robust), to rehearse Tuesday, Middlesbro'. Send lowest terms, age, height, photos., references, SANTE, Theatre, Nuneaton, until Sunday's post; then, T. R., Middlesbrough.

WANTED, for "Bluebell in Fairyland," Gentleman for Blib, Small Child who can sing. Age, height, references, lowest terms child's photo, E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford. Harry Vernon write.

WANTED, to support Walter Bentley, in "Rob Roy" production, Gentlemen, for Francis (must be tenor vocalist and actor), Captain Mornton (must be able to fight broadsword combat). Ladies for Hostess and Jean, to speak Scotch and sing Soprano and Contralto; also good Advance Agent. Letters only, with full particulars and lowest terms, to Miss PHYLLIS ORME, 35, Hartismere-rd., Fulham, S.W.

"THE POWER OF GOLD."
WANTED, Heavy Gent., for Dr. Zambra, six nights, Dec. 10, rehearse Rawtenstall 5th inst. Fullest particulars, lowest inclusive terms, to FRANK AYRTON, Grand Theatre, Rawtenstall.

WANTED, Good Juvenile Gentleman, Répertoire Co., rehearse near Liverpool, Dec. 11. Full particulars, HARDING THOMAS, Theatre, Paisley.

WANTED, Light Juvenile Gentleman, Sketch, Dec. 10, one week, London. Photo., terms, references. Letters only, GRAHAM, Crown Theatre, Peckham.

WANTED, Refined Comedian for Fiery Old Colonel in Sketch, long Tour. Letters only. SELLERS, 9, York-buildings, Adelphi, W.C.

WANTED, Gentleman to play Responsible Parts; must be tall and of good address. NORMAN V. NORMAN, Lyceum Theatre, Newport.

WANTED, First Tenor, also Second Baritone and Bass, for Quartette, Provinces.
C. NAYLOR, 60, Chestnut-grove, Balham.

Exceptional Opportunity.
WANTED, a few smart young Ladies, no previous experience necessary, no fees. Send photo., which will be returned immediately if not suitable. Mr. G. LEONARD, 101, Trinity-road, Upper Tooting.

WANTED, Dramatic Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Miss Laura Hansen thanks Mr. Allan Wilkie and Mr. Sam Livesey for offers. Disengaged, Lead. 86, Church-road, Hove.

PANTOMIME ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, all Artists, Chorus, and others engaged for Pantomimes to write at once to J. F. ELLISTON, Theatre Royal, Bolton.

WANTED, for Pantomime, Chorus Ladies and Gents; must be tall.
Address, with terms and references,
J. F. ELLISTON, Bolton.

WANTED, for Pantomime, Comedians, for Emperor and Vizier. Age, height, references, lowest terms. E. G. FALCON, County T., Bedford.

WANTED, for West-End Pantomime Production, Principal Boy, pair Refined Knockabouts, pair Sisters, Second Boy and Girl, Baron, Wolf (Baritone), Dame, and Fairy Queen (Soprano). Call and state where to be seen, SOMERS and WARNER, 1, Tottenham Court-road.

WANTED, for Mr. and Mrs. John Walters' Pantomimes, Principal Boy, young and refined, and a good singer; also Artists, for Clown and Pantaloon, and a few Chorus Ladies and small-part people; rehearse Birmingham, Dec. 17, tour till Easter. J. WALTERS, Metropole Theatre, Gateshead-on-Tyne.

WANTED, for "Aladdin," Principals, Conductor, Chorus. Photos., references, lowest terms first letter.

SAM DUCKWORTH,
Theatre Royal, Ton-y-Pandy.

WANTED, Experienced Comedian, for part of Baron, in "Cinderella." Those who have played part before acceptable. GANNON, Westgrove, Bristol.

WANTED, Lady for Princess of Morocco ("Whittington"). Age, photo., last two references, to ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre, Worcester.

WANTED, Pantomime Artists, pair of Sisters, for second boy and girl, quartette of Lady Dancers, and Specialities. J. W. JOHNSON, Variety Agent, 86, Waterloo-road, S.E.

WANTED, for Pantomime, First-class All-round Dancers, to rehearse at once. Call or write, SYDNEY T. RUSSELL, 88, Boston-street, Hulme, Manchester.

WANTED, Good-looking Chorus Girls and Ballet. Apply, any morning, 12 o'clock, Grand Theatre, Islington, N. Also Pianist-Conductors; nothing to score or arrange.

WANTED, Chorus Ladies, Pantomime, London and Provinces; good salaries and fares paid. Apply Thursday next, 2 to 3, EDWARD CRANSTON, Rule's, Maiden-lane.

LONDON and PROVINCIAL PANTOMIMES CO.
WANTED, First-Class Ballet Mistress, for three weeks, to train children and arrange Ballets; also Wardrobe Mistress, for Scotch Touring Pantomime. Terms and references to STANLEY ROGERS, King's Theatre, Kirkcaldy.

PANTOMIME ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Lily Stewart, vacant through misunderstanding, Principal Girl last year, West London. Perm., 14, Hutchison-st., Aldgate, E.C.

WANTED, Known, Flora Macdonald, A.L.C.M., 5ft. 9½in., Lib. Panto., Fairy Queen preferred, last season Bros. Luck. 56, Drayton-road, Harlesden, N.W.

WANTED, Known, Maud Esmond, London's refined burlesque artist, open panto., boy. Dec. 3, Empress and Putney. 10, Kenbury-gardens, Camberwell.

WANTED, Pantomime, by Fred Alberto, comedian, vocalist, actor, and dancer. The man who made E. G. Falcon's panto. last season at Bedford. Queen's Palace of Varieties, Ilkeston.

WANTED, Known, Liberty for Pantomime, Animal Part, good Comedy Tumbler. Perm., CADEROS, 1, Reed-street, West Hartlepool. Thanks to A. Carlton, Renad Bros., for offers.

WANTED, Panto., by Arthur Wade, Baritone, sure success. Powerful, exceptional range.—Era. Offers, c/o 44, Trigon-road, Claylands-road, Kennington, S.W.

WANTED, Pantomime, by Victor Vernon, Principal Comedian, four seasons, Theatre Royal, Plymouth. Wire, 69, Cranworth-street, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Liberty Panto., Bob Baxter. Dame preferred; four seasons, J. F. Elliston, Esq.; last two seasons, R. Arthur, Esq. Address, Regent, Salford.

WANTED, Known, The Lurins (Frank and Alice), open for Pantomime, with their most successful Novelty, "Cinders," fully protected. Palace, Walthamstow.

WANTED, Known, Barrett and Knowles, most pronounced success with new Act at Palace, Manchester; next week, Royal, Oldham. Come and see us.
At Liberty for Panto.
Last year, Theatre Royal, Glasgow.

WANTED, by Denby and Dent, Pantomime.
Address, "Era Office."

WANTED, Panto., by Drum and Major, Prin. or Second Girl and Comedian. Address, c/o "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Panto, the Smartest Dog Act in the Known World. A Lightning Show; not a dull moment. No inconvenience or waits in setting. CHARD, Grand Theatre, West Hartlepool.

WANTED, by York, Mac, and York, Panto., dame and speciality, original, novel act, for kitchen scene. MAC, Lyceum, Stafford.

WANTED, an Engagement, for Illuminous Flying Ballet, Pantomime or Big Spectacular Show preferred. Good lithos.
Box 4,070, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Frank Keegan and Co., Funniest Knockabout Act on the Road, at Liberty for Panto., Dec. 24, 31, Jan. 7, 14, 21. Com., 8, Somerleyton-road, Brixton, London.

SCENIC ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Scenic Artists, Theatre Managers, &c., to write for Leete's Catalogue of colours, varnishes, painting brushes, and every requisite for scene painting and theatre decoration. The fullest range of colours in the trade. A. LEETE and Co., 129, London-road, Southwark, S.E.

WANTED, Scenic Artist, to co-operate in Sketching Speciality, variety theatres, share small expenses. State particulars, METRO, Box 4,051, "The Era."

WANTED, a good Scenic Artist; must be able to paint and write advertising curtains and have own brushes. Apply personally, Monday morning, 10 o'clock, 26, Gt. Eastern-road, Stratford, E.

WANTED, Scenic Artist, for two weeks, commencing Dec. 10.
Address, Box 4,066, "The Era."

SCENIC ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, S. Beltram open to receive Contracts, large or small, Touring Scenery re-painted; salary or contract. Address, c/o Waterloo Hotel, Liverpool.

WANTED, Known, G. Sackmann, Scenic Artist and Contractor. Painting-room, Kennington Green, Kennington-road, S.E. Tel., N3296 Hop.

WANTED, Engagement, or Contract, by Philip Small, Scenic Artist, at Liberty Dec. 1. Address, 44, Randolph-gardens, Maida Vale, London.

WANTED, Scenery Contracts, Productions. Our Paint Frames, 40 by 24; Theatres completely fitted with Scenery, Ropes, Blocks, Cleats, &c. Estimates and Designs submitted free. Scenery bought and exchanged. FRED WILKINS and BRO., LTD., 54, Whitechapel, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Theatrical."

WANTED, Known, G. S. Evans, Scenic Artist, Disengaged; extensive experience in good theatres. Reasonable terms. 8, Buckley-st, Limehurst, Ashton-under-Lyne.

WANTED, Contracts for Bright, Effective Scenery, at lowest prices. Carlyle Scenic Studio. W. B. ROBINSON, 170, King's-road, S.W.

WANTED, by Young Man, Situation, to paint Scenery or assist; good character; on job or otherwise. H. S., 79, Rochester-row, S.W.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

Theatre.
WANTED, Known, a most favourable opportunity occurs for the investment of £500 in the production of an entirely new Farcical Comedy, by well-known and successful authors. Liberal terms can be arranged. Parts open. Address, COMEDY, care of Anderson's, 14, King William-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Acting-Manager, who thoroughly understands working up a Theatre; only those who have held similar positio ns before need apply. Send detailed list of ideas to MANAGER, Box 99, C/o W. L. Erwood, Advertising Offices, 30, Fleet-street, E.C.

WANTED, Experienced Acting-Manager, for London Suburban Music Hall.
Apply, with references,
Box 4,078, "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Smart Secretary, good penman, assist Window Billing and Inspection; join immediately. Send photos. (returned), references, JOHN HENRY COOKE'S Royal Circus, Edinburgh.

WANTED, Smart Young Man, as Secretary, must be thoroughly experienced, rapid shorthand writer and typist, and have knowledge of theatrical work. State terms required, references, &c., to FRED KARNO, 28, Vaughan-road, Camberwell, S.E.

WANTED, Smart Man, used to Musical Hall Agency, must be well accustomed to booking Turns at the Halls; steady and reliable. State age, salary, and qualifications to Box 4,057, "The Era."

WANTED, Electrician, used to Variety and Theatre, one knowing how to work chronophone preferred. A. E. PICKARD, Britannia, Glasgow.

WANTED, Beginner to assist in front of Theatre; only those willing to be taught the business need apply. Excellent opportunity, under good management. Box 4,065, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, the Name of Martin Comstock on any bill corresponds to the sterling mark on silver and gold.
Now at Liberty, Manager or Agent. Offers invited. Address, MARTIN COMSTOCK, Opera House, Coventry.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED, Known, Wilfred R. Morgan is at Liberty to accept position as Manager of Variety Palace; smart advertiser, expert lecturer, late Lessee Garrick Theatre, Foresters', Grand, Luton, &c. Address, 787, Old Kent-rd, London.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty Xmas, as Stage-Manager, for music halls, or Carpenter, for sketches, good references, one who thoroughly understands bar, cellar work, can take charge of bars if required. Address, Box 4,076, "The Era."

WANTED, Re-engagement, by thoroughly experienced Manager, Theatre or Music Hall, Touring or Resident; excellent references. Box 4,067, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, Acting-Manager, young, smart, energetic, experienced in all duties, accountancy, bars, &c. Highest refs. Box 4,072, "The Era."

WANTED, by Advertiser, 32, with energy and brains, and 15 years' experience front and behind curtain, Engagement, touring or resident. Security given. Address, CLARIDGE, Post Office, Burnley.

WANTED, Engagement as Stage-Manager; good refs.; twelve years in last situation; good all-round man. J. BARTLETT, 10, Burnham-st., Canning Town.

WANTED, by Clerk, 22, references, Situation assist Manager, anything respectable; can play small parts. JOHN MOAR, 13, Langside-place, Langside, Glasgow.

WANTED, Engagement, Carpenter, parts, anything; tall, experienced, total abstainer, age 27; resident or tour. Wife, chorus, parts; good voice and appearance. Joint or singly. First-class refs. CARPENTER, 44, Trigon-rd., Kennington, London.

WANTED, Known, W. H. Grieves, Carpenter, own tools, Dis. Xmas and Spring, resident or tour, or sketches in music halls. Princess T., Bristol.

WANTED, Known, Theatrical Managers, Educated Man, now leaving Telephone Company, seeks employment, stage-door keeper, night fireman, bill inspector, experienced theatre work. B., 37, Strathleven-road, Acre-lane, Brixton, S.W.

WANTED, Engagement, in Box Office; excellent references; late Theatre Royal, Stockton-on-Tees. Address, Miss L. DALE, 23, Sydney-street, Plymouth.

MUSICIANS' WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

CIRCUS, SPENNYMOOR, CO. DURHAM.
WANTED, Leader (Violin), Piano, Cornet, Drums, and Clarionet.
Send references and state lowest terms in first letter, to open Dec. 10, '06.
Address, ALGIE.

WANTED, for Pantomime, Two Good Conductors.
Terms and references, address,
J. F. ELLISTON, Bolton.

WANTED, for Volunteer Band, a Bandmaster (Army preferred).
Reply, stating age and qualifications, and salary required, by letter to
V. B., 887, care of Messrs. Deacon's, Leadenhall-street, E.C.

WANTED, Musical Director (Piano), used to Panto., through releasing Mr. Forshaw Kershaw. Terms, refs., to JAS. KIDDIE, Alexandra Theatre, Widnes.

JOHN HERY COOKE'S ROYAL CIRCUS, EDINBURGH.
WANTED, Good Second Violin, to Open Dec. 10, thoroughly used to circus and variety business.
References and lowest terms to HARRY WAMBA, Conductor.
N.B.—Lowest terms and references must be forwarded.

WANTED, First and Second Violins, Viola, and Clarionet, variety experience indispensable. Apply, stating lowest terms and refs., to AUGUSTE DENTON, Mus. Dir., Hippodrome, Ton-y-Pandy, S. Wales.

H. and F. POOLE'S MYRIORAMA.
WANTED, to open Reading, Dec. 24, First Violin, wear evening dress and assist fittings. WELDON, Esq., M.D., Assembly Rooms, Bognor.

WANTED, Dec. 3, Greenock Pavilion, Cornet; Dec. 10, Drummer and Pianist. Trial, reference, to HOWARD GALPIN, M.D., Pavilion, Glasgow. Cornetist wire.

WANTED, Dec. 3, Greenock Pavilion, Cornet; Dec. 10, Drummer and Pianist. Trial reference to HOWARD GALPIN, M.D., Pavilion, Glasgow. Cornet wire.

WANTED, Good Trombone, well up in variety, open Monday; must be steady.
Wire, MAITLAND LACEY, Empire, Greenock.

WANTED, Euphonium, Pitching, join Monday next, shares. Thanks to those who wrote last week. T. JACKSON, 3 Leslie-grove, Croydon.

WANTED, Three Good 'Cellists, Two Solo Violinists, One Violinist and Pianist combined for White Star Mediterranean Service. Musical Duties only; second-class accommodation. One First-class Pianist and Flautist, for Cunard Service. Mr. C. W. BLACK, 19, Castle-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Wanted, 'Cellist, must be reliable.
Apply immediately,
SHERWOOD and Co., Theatre, Wakefield.

WANTED, for Palace Theatre, Northampton, Flute and Piccolo; must be good, and well up to variety business. State salary and references to MUSICAL DIRECTOR, 16, Abington-avenue, Northampton.

WANTED, to commence soon, Second Flute and Piccolo, for the Bournemouth Municipal Orchestra; must be first-class performer, with experience in high-class Music and Military Band Work. 4½ hours daily; no Sunday work. Apply, with terms and references, to Mr. DAN GODFREY, Winter Gardens, Bournemouth.

WANTED, Pianist, to open Dec. 10; experienced in Variety Business. Lowest terms and latest references, T. HULLEY, Conductor. Tivoli, Barrow-in-Furness.

WANTED, Pianist, to combine Violin. Age, references, lowest terms.
E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, good Drummer, with effects, to open Dec. 10; permanency. Terms, age, and references to CHAS. ELPHINSTONE, G. T., Hamley, Staffs.

WANTED, for the World's Fair, Agricultural Hall, Brass Band of 12 performers; must be strictly sober and attentive. Apply, E. COOK, M.D., Fossett's Farm, Ravensthorpe, near Northampton.

WANTED.—Musicians "Out of Shop" and Bandmasters requiring Instrumentalists will do well to try an advertisement in the "Wanted" Columns of "The Era." One Shilling expended on Twenty Words (each additional Six Words Sixpence) is likely to bring successful results, as explained in the following letters from grateful Advertisers:—

FROM A MUSICIAN:—
To the Manager of "The Era" Advert. Dept.,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.
"Re Advertisement
"'WANTED, ENGAGEMENT BY CORNET.'
"Thanks for inserting above in the last number of your paper. I have obtained a comfortable shop. Had seventeen replies. You need not put in the second insertion.
"Yours truly, 'A GRATEFUL MUSICIAN.'"

FROM A BANDMASTER:—
"Re Advertisement, 'WANTED, A DRUMMER.
"Please do not insert my advt. for the second insertion, as I am pleased to say I have had twenty replies, and secured a Drummer.
"Yours truly, PHILIP GERMANN, Bandmaster,
"Littlehampton."

WANTED, Musicians who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls, or from any Newsagent in the United Kingdom, to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

MUSICIANS WANTED.

COLWYN BAY,
Season 1907.
WANTED, Applications, for supplying Town and Promenade Band (voluntary),
Minstrel Troupe,
Pierrots,
and other Specialities.
For information, apply to the
CLERK to the Urban District Council,
Colwyn Bay,
North Wales.

A Plot of Land to Let, adjoining the Promenade, for Cinematograph or other similar performances.

WANTED, for the new Palace of Varieties, Stoke Newington, full Orchestra, all departments write in; good players only. State age, experience, terms; open Dec. 24; two houses nightly, one matinée.
Write, Box 4,068, "The Era."

WANTED, Drummer, full effects, tymp. preferred; must be good, refs., open Monday. McMILLAN, Hippodrome, Oldham.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Michael Connelly, Musical Director, Violinist, Disengaged, Composer of Music "Silver King," &c. Pantomimes arranged. 54, Casewick-road, West Norwood, S.E.

WANTED, by Orchestra Conductor, Re-engagement, Theatre, Music Hall, or Municipal Orchestra; open to compose music for Panto. or Musical Comedy. Terms, &c., apply H. VINCENT KEIGHLEY, "The Ledgers," Heythorp-st., Southfields, S.W.

WANTED, Re-engagement, by Young Conductor, piano, violin, composer, arranger, theatre, hall. HENRI ROCHELLE, c/o Burbridge, 22, Knowle-rd., Brixton, London.

WANTED, through Disappointment, Engagement, by well-known first-class musical director, theatre, or good variety. Highest refs. Box 4,073, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, by First Violin, open about Dec. 21, theatre or hall. Excellent refs.; abstainer. C. VINT, P.O., Carlisle.

WANTED, Engagement by Reliable Cornet Player, any business; can join at once. Address, C. BURROWS, 7, Stone-street, Hastings.

WANTED, Engagement, by Clarionetist, any business, reliable refs., total abstainer. McCORMICK, 28, Aylmer-rd., Wendell Park, Shepherd's Bush.

WANTED, Known, Gentleman desirous of filling in his evenings wishes to offer his services as Second or Ripieno Clarionet, in good London theatre. Salary secondary consideration. Box 4,071, "The Era."

WANTED, by experienced Clarionet, Engagement, any Business; good refs., abstainer; distance no object. SHEEHAN, 11, Pelham-street, South Kensington, London.

WANTED, Known, Good Bassoon, at Liberty any Business; brilliant soloist; highest references; theatre preferred. BASSOONIST, 74, Sharderloes-road, New Cross, London, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement by experienced Double Bass Player, Theatre or Variety; first-class references. G. Fox, 134, Queen's Park-rd., Brighton.

WANTED, Re-engagement, as Double Bass, thoroughly experienced, excellent references, permanency preferred. LYND, 170, Drakfell-road, Brockley, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement, as Trombone, Theatre or Music Hall, or Deputising.
W. GOFF, 111, Upper Kennington-lane, S.E.

WANTED, Orchestral Practice, for Little Girl, on 'Cello; also Good Engagements for 'Cellist. Mr. CASSELLE, 35, Granville-square, King's Cross-road, W.C.

WANTED, by experienced Lady 'Cellist, Engagement in London. No Sunday work. Address, 'CELLIST, 118, Elgin-av., Maida Vale, W.

WANTED, Known, owing to reduction of Eastbourne Municipal Orchestra, C. Herrick, late Solo Oboe, requires Engagement. C/o DODD, 72, Victoria-street, Westminster, S.W.

WANTED, Engagement, by Experienced Oboe, open for panto. or variety business. WEBB, 75, Newington-butts, S.E.

WANTED, Known, Æneas Gibson, First-Class Harpist and Pianist, immediate engagement; young, gentlemanly, travel abroad. MUSIC SELLER, Bayswater House, Roundhay-road, Leeds.

WANTED, Known, Maud Estlin Grundy, age 19, Harpist; brilliant Soloist. All letters, 7, Provost-rd., Hampstead, London, N.W.

WANTED, by Experienced Lady Harpist (solo or orchestral), engagements.
Box 4,064, "The Era."

WANTED, by Harpist, Engagements with Quadrille Small Band, &c.
Box 4,060, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, Flute and Piccolo, orchestra or business, would deputise, long reference (theatre closing). FLAUTIST, Alexandra Theatre, Stoke Newington, N.

WANTED, Engagement, by N. Robinson, pianist, any business, exper. var., drama business, good reader, excel. refs., steady, reliable. 227, Bowling Back-lane, Bradford, Yorks.

WANTED, Engagement, by Lady, as Accompanist, London or Tour. 39, Chelsham-rd., Clapham, S.W.

WANTED, Engagement during day or evening, Herbert Knight, L.A.M., accompanist, transpose, read sight, music publishers, rehearsals. 126, Lambeth-road, London.

WANTED, Engagement as Pianist or Saxhorn, combine if required, at Liberty Monday. WILLIE SWIFT, Lee-street, Ravensthorpe, Yorkshire.

WANTED, Engagement, by Brilliant Pianist, fine soloist, good reader, respectable, sober, late piano-conductor on boat. CHAS. KEETON, Red Lion, Costock.

WANTED, Engagement, by Pianist, Concerts or Orchestra, young and steady, travelled Continent and America. J. VERNON, 12, Hunter-road, Thornton Heath, S.E.

WANTED, Known, Chas. Waterman, Deputy Pianist, Varieties, Dance or Concert work, London only. 76, Hamball-road, Clapham Park, S.W.

WANTED, Engagement, by Pianist, finishing tour Dec. 8, could train chorus, abstainer, good accompanist. R., 59, Amesbury-avenue, Streatham Hill.

WANTED, Engagement, as Pianist, combine violin, experienced, smart, steady, excellent refs, permanency, or auxiliary for panto. MANTON, 101 Heath-rd, Ashton-in-Makerfield.

WANTED, Engagements, by First-class Double Drummer, thoroughly experienced, Variety preferred; steady, reliable; good refs. A. LILLE, 93, Queen's-road, Southend-on-Sea.

WANTED, Shop, as Double Drums, any business, or deputising. A. EASOM, 16, Stonebridge-rd., South Tottenham, London.

WANTED, Engagement, by Drummer (orchestral), theatre or music hall, thoroughly experienced. DRUMS, 10, Cadogan-st., Sloane-sq., S.W.

WANTED, Known, the Shikissimma Band, ladies' Japanese orchestra, at Liberty, magnificent costumes, large répertoire. CONDUCTRESS, Volthurst, Boundary-rd., Newbury.

WANTED the Shakespearean Ladies' Orchestra (Viennese), copyright registered Stationers' Hall, twenty-two (or less) performers, magnificent costumes; highest criticisms. Conductor, Miss GASCOYNE OLD, 238, Edgware-road, London.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

WANTED, Known, for Lady Instrumentalists and Bands, apply, Bureau, 8, Bedford-ter., Kensington. Bookings Johannesburg, Jan. to Dec. Quartet now Disengaged.

WANTED, Known, Miss Dorothea A. Vincent, lady's quartette, instrumental, for at-homes, concerts, hotels, &c. 28, Marjorie-grove, Clapham Common, S.W.

WANTED, Known, Ladies' Trio, First-class Instrumentalists, open for dinners, at homes, dances, and tea-rooms. Madam WILTON DAVIS, 42, Linton-street, Islington.

CIRCUS ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

KING OHMY'S GRAND CIRCUS,
BARROW-IN-FURNESS.

WANTED, Big Novelties in all Lines, at once and future dates; also Wanted, the Talent of the World; Riders, Gymnasts, Acrobats, Clowns, and Startling Sensations, for King Ohmy's Grand New Circus, which will open for the season in the town of Hyde, Lancashire, Dec. 24, 1906. State when last in above towns. Address, Barrow-in-Furness.

WANTED, for future dates, a Man and his Wife, to play Sketches, and Bareback Equestrians, with or without their own Horses, and Artists of all Kinds. No fancy prices, but money sure. Apply to W. C. S. HANCOCK, Hippodrome, Plymouth.

FETES AND GALAS. FETES AND GALAS. 1907.

WANTED, Attractions, High Rope and Wire Shows, Aerial Flying Acts, Acrobats, Three Bars, and all kinds of Sensational Novelties, &c., &c., for fêtes, Whit Week, May 20, July 1, 8, and 15, August Bank Holiday, Aug. 5, 10, and other dates. Apply, stating lowest terms, along with all particulars, also sample litho., to W. and J. WILDER, Fête Agents, Great Francis-street, Birmingham.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted, First-Class Tumbler, for Recognised Act; well Booked. State age, height, and weight; also line of Trick. Amateurs save stamps. Address, Box 4,052, "The Era."

WANTED, Immediately, Young Man, good all-round tumbler. State lowest terms and tricks to Mr. LEE, Palace, Aberdeen.

WANTED, Circus Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

CIRCUS ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Miss Ella's Lion Show, best trained, cleanest, and finest existing Lions (full grown) on the Stage. Vacant Dec. 24 (Xmas week), Jan. 7, 14, and 28. Address, Week Dec. 3, Hippodrome, Cambridge.

WANTED, Don Miguel's, the only Troupe Performing Bulls, suitable Ring and Stage. Disengaged Feb. next, 1907, onward. Address, DON MIGUEL'S, up till Dec. 17, Olympia, Liverpool.

WANTED, Known, Liberty Jan. 28, for three weeks only, the refined John Scott Family of male and female Equestrians, &c., five in number (one lady and four gents.), including Poor Billy, the King of the Ring. For particulars, lithos., &c., address, 12, Charles-place, Hotwells, Bristol.

WANTED, Known, Lillian Davies, the Premier Equestrienne, will terminate a most successful Tenting Season with the Barnum and Bailey, Greatest Show on Earth, Nov. 17. Nov. 26, Hippodrome, New York, until further notice. For correspondence, address as above, or Perm., Irvinstown, co. Fermanagh.

WANTED, Known, Liberty Dec. 24, and onward, the Biddall Family of male and female equestrians, and other first-class acts. Address, BIDDALL'S Circus, Murton, Co. Durham.

WANTED, Known, Mr. and Mrs. S. Anderson, Barebacked Equestrians, and Clown, own Horse, at Liberty. Address, Saturday, Hengler's Circus, Glasgow. After Saturday, 6, Thornley-st., Wolverhampton.

WANTED, Known, Bobby Davies, All-round Equestrian, own Horses, Tom Hall and Family, Clowns, Acrobats, Wire Walkers, Dogs and Monkeys. Thanks for Offers. Still Vacant Xmas. Circus Wallsend.

WANTED, Known, to Proprietors, Managers, and Agents, Happy Jackles and his new and original Act, "The Savage Brutes," an Act away from all others; a success every town we visit. Three years through South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, &c. with Bostock and Wombwell's Great Shows. Will arrive home about the middle of Jan. For dates, 77, North-street, Wolverhampton.

WANTED, Known, Dan Gregory, Eccentric Clown, met with a great success on my opening night, at Gilbert's Hippodrome, Gt. Yarmouth.

WANTED, Les Steckels, Gymnastic Speciality. Dec. 24 and 31, also Jan. 21. Big bit this week, Grand, Stalybridge. Mon., Hippo., Oldham.

WANTED, Dec. 17, 24, Mayeno Troupe, 2 ladies, 2 gents, Gymnasts, Acrobats, Wire Walkers, Stilt Tumblers, Tub Posturers, &c., the only vacant dates. Perm., 30, Great George-street, Belfast.

WANTED, Known, Ariel and Astarte, Lady and Gentleman Gymnastic Act, free Dec. 17, 31, Jan. 7, 14, North. Address, Grand, Bolton.

WANTED, Known, Elton and Elma, Comedy Bar Act, Liberty Monday through being barred King's, Gateshead. Wire, Albert Hall, Southport.

WANTED, Known, Queenie Lolo, Charming Lady Gymnast and Teeth Speciality Artist; also Little May, in her graceful Contortionist and Dancing. Wire, this week, Theatre, Worthing; Liberty Monday.

WANTED, Monday. Wire, The Maros, Hippo., Scarboro'. What a Hit; a Roar for twelve minutes. Perm., 126, Porter-street, Hull.

WANTED, Known, Four Zolas, Lightning and Herculean Acrobats and Tumblers; also Bros. Alpine, on the High Perch, Monday, Ohmy's Circus; at Lib. Dec. 10, and onwards, also for Panto., Speciality and Animal Parts. Address, OHMY'S CIRCUS, Barrow-in-Furness.

WANTED, Known, the Three Lloyds, Wonders of the Double Bounding Cables, entire act without balance poles. Big success, Hippodrome, Glasgow; going strong here. Vacant Dec. 3, 10, and 17. Coms., 49, Station-road, King's Heath, Birmingham.

WANTED, Known, Almero, Flying Spar and Smart Wire Act. Vacant 3rd and 10th. Address, 2, Grange-cottages, Wright-street, Small Heath, Birmingham.

WANTED, by Gymnast Engagement, or would work up with another; can tumble, hand balance, 9st. 8lb. London district preferred. Box 4,054, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Tall, Gentlemanly Young Man, lately with Mr. Frank Bostock in France, seeks berth in menagerie, circus, or travelling show, home or abroad, thoroughly experienced with horses and animals, excellent references, abstainer, reliable, disengaged. D., 10, Clifton-street, Brighton.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, for the Opening of the Coventry New Hippodrome, Variety Artists of every Description, Big Productions, Military and Equestrians, Spectacles, Ballets, Pantomimes, scenes with 100 or more people taking part, in fact, the very cream of every branch of entertainment, fit to be exhibited on a First-class Variety Stage.

Any price paid to right class of talent.

A comfortable engagement, no outside interference, and, above all, no commissions stopped.

Apply, with terms, &c., T. M. SYLVESTER, 217, Piccadilly, London, W.

WANTED, Variety Artists, all Lines. Nothing too big. Send full particulars, with lithos. (if any), to MORGAN, Aquarium, Scarborough.

WANTED, Variety Artists, all Lines, Dec. 10, Palace, Sheerness. Quote lowest; hall small. P. REYMOND, as above.

WANTED, Variety Artists, in all Lines, Serios, Burlesque Actresses, &c., Dec. 10, and onwards. A. E. PICKARD, Britannia, Glasgow.

WANTED, Variety Artists, all Classes, for 1907, Gala List. Lithos., Memos., FARNSWORTH and DYSON, Agents, 124, Crookesmoor-rd., Sheffield.

WANTED, Variety Artists, in all Lines, Dec. 10, onwards. WM. B. BROADHEAD, Hippodrome, Manchester.

NEW EMPIRE, STAFFORD.

WANTED, for Dec. 10, and onwards, Variety Artists, in all Lines, nothing too big, anything with drawing power. Apply, with lowest terms, to Sole Agent, JACK MORRIS, Camberwell Palace.

WANTED, Variety Artists, of all Descriptions, Dec. 31, and onwards. Absolute lowest terms. Money sure. Address, ALBANO TROUPE, 39, Newcastle-road, Wavertree, Liverpool.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted, Gaiety Theatre of Varieties, Anderston Cross, Glasgow. Manager, W. H. Howard.

First-Class Artists in every line, Dec. 24, and onward dates; Good Comedians, Good Comedy Sketches, Good Vocal Combinations. Good Lady Artists, Good Duettists, Trios, and Quartettes, Good Single and Double Turns, of every description. Nothing too big or too good, and being good, must be free from the slightest tinge of vulgarity. Reasonable terms to desirable Turns.

All Artists known to W. H. HOWARD specially invited to communicate.

EMPIRE, GREENOCK.

General-Manager, H. L. SKIVINGTON.

WANTED, Star Artists in all Lines. Nothing too big. Salary or Share.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, for Immediate and Future Dates. WILLIAM MOULD, Central Palace, North Shields.

WANTED, Artists for Glasgow Concerts. Lowest terms and permanent address to the SCOTTISH MUSICAL AGENCY, 107, George-st., Glasgow.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Palace, Lancaster. J. FELL, Proprietor.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, for Scotland, immediate dates. ANDERSON'S Agency, 5, Great Clyde-street, Glasgow.

DREW BAYLEY'S AGENCY.

WANTED, Artists in every Line, Dec. 10, and on. Big and Small Specialities, Dumb Shows, Star Comedians, and every Act on the Face of the Earth, for the North. 170, Saltmarket, Glasgow.

WANTED, Artists, in all Lines, from now onwards. Apply Mr. J. J. SCOTT, Empire, Wrexham.

WANTED, for High-Class Concerts, in and near London, Dec. 24, and onwards, Talented and Refined Artists, for one, three, and six nights. Animal Acts, Vents., Conjurers, Jugglers, Balladists, Piano Acts, especially invited to write. Big Acts also required for Tops of Bills. State number of nights vacant, where show can be seen, with lowest terms per night and weekly. PAUL VANDY'S Agency, Barnes, London, S.W. 'Phone 222 Putney. Wires, "Vandyking, London."

WANTED, Artists, Single and Double Turns, two weeks, Jan. 21, Feb. 4, 18. CHAS. A. JAMES, Waxworks and Varieties, Dublin.

WANTED, Artists in all Lines, for Empire Palace, Dover, and the Alhambra, Sandgate. FRED DURHAM'S Variety Agency, 14, Loughborough-road, Brixton, London, S.W. Telephone 15, Brixton.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines. Two cheap turns wire for Monday next. SAPHRINI, Palace, Boston.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Dec. 10. Address, WILL ONDA, Pier Pavilion, Southport.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, nothing too big, for Palace, Leigh, Dec. 10, onwards. J. LARDER, 51, Fairhurst-street, Leigh, Lancs.

THEATRE ROYAL, HEBBURN.

WANTED, Artists, in all Lines, Dec. 17. Send lowest terms as introduction. Turns known to me write in. CHARLES ELDERTON.

WANTED, Artists coming North, 17th and onwards, to write R. LOMAS, Empire, Shildon.

WANTED, Artists, in all Lines, for Oldbury and Bilston; nothing too big. TOM PRICHARD, Palace, Oldbury.

POOL and BOSCO, LTD.

WANTED, for Aldershot Hippodrome, Star Artists of all Descriptions. Nothing too big, suitable for Circus Ring. Dec. 10, on. Write, Bosco, Circus, Aldershot.

WANTED, Known, Artists wishing to be booked for First-class Music Hall Engagements communicate with BROOKS'S Agency, 36, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, Rugby, Dec. 17, Those in the neighbourhood write with Combination terms. HICKS, Alhambra, Sandgate.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, nothing too big, Boxing Day, Dec. 26, 27, 29, and every Saturday onwards. Artists can work their London engagements same time. Write, VICTOR W. ROWE, 28, Herbert-road, Stockwell, London, S.W.

WANTED, Artists, to Note ALHAMBRA MUSIC HALL, SANDGATE, KENT, is Changing Proprietorship on Dec. 31, 1906. All artists holding contracts to open on that date or later must communicate at once with Mr. Fred Durham, 14, Loughborough-road, Brixton, to obtain New Contracts, as the New Syndicate refuse to entertain any Contracts other than their own booking.

ALHAMBRA, EDINBURGH.

WANTED, Known, Rehearsal Monday, 12 o'clock, for Clyo and Rochelle, Arthur Goodman, Maud King, Charles Howarth, The Lorraines, Will Coon, Bioscope, Kloof and Ramsay. Wanted, Artists, all Lines, Immediate dates. Address, MANAGER.

COVENTRY HIPPODROME.

Proprietors, COVENTRY HIPPODROME CO., LTD.

WANTED, Agents and Artists to please Note that from Dec. 23, 1904, no Contracts will be recognised unless signed by the Secretary and Manager. T. M. SYLVESTER, Manager; G. E. WRIGHT, Secretary.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted, DALTON'S AGENCY. Always send DALTON'S AGENCY. House Address as well DALTON'S AGENCY. as Theatre. DALTON'S AGENCY. A feature in connection DALTON'S AGENCY. with this Agency will be DALTON'S AGENCY. Artists Vacant "Monday DALTON'S AGENCY. next," also "Artists Vacant DALTON'S AGENCY. Immediate Dates," and Art- DALTON'S AGENCY. ists are requested to post DALTON'S AGENCY. me if open Monday next, DALTON'S AGENCY. and mention at same time DALTON'S AGENCY. any immediate vacancies; DALTON'S AGENCY. but "Monday next" being DALTON'S AGENCY. a feature in the future, a DALTON'S AGENCY. penny stamp may mean a DALTON'S AGENCY. shop. Please note to always DALTON'S AGENCY. send private address where DALTON'S AGENCY. staying in the respective DALTON'S AGENCY. towns for early delivery of DALTON'S AGENCY. telegrams. Tele., "Granbeste Withington." Tele- DALTON'S AGENCY. phone, 193 Didsbury. 29, DALTON'S AGENCY. Mauldeth-road West, With- DALTON'S AGENCY. ington, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Special Notice to Artists and those it may concern, that the Hippodrome, Plymouth, is now being carried on by W. C. S. HANCOCK.

TIVOLI THEATRE, DUBLIN.

WANTED, for the Tivoli Theatre of Varieties, Dublin, All the Greatest Stars in the Profession, Acts New in Dublin, for the above, the Premier Variety Theatre in Ireland, Direct or through Agents. All communications to WILL SLEY, 41, Oxford-street, Manchester. Telegraphic Address, "Variety, Manchester." Telephone, 09144.

WANTED, for Immediate Dates, on, the Biggest Stars in the Profession.

Full list of bookings and absolute lowest first instance, HARRY BURNS'S AGENCY, Head Office, Empress Theatre, Hartlepool.

Telegrams, "Burns, Empress." Telephones, 0231 and 0231A.

BARNARD'S AGENCY, 24, Islington, Liverpool.

WANTED, Stars and Specialities, Nothing too Big. Telephone, 1114.

WANTED, Big Stars, Big Numbers, Anything Big, Anything that can Draw, Dec. 10, 17, 24, and onwards. I can book you. Not only odd weeks, but First-class Tours. Wire or write, with full particulars, JESS VERNO'S Agency, 16, Elizabeth-street, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Merriment." 'Phone, 2076 Royal.

WANTED, Big Stars and Specialities, bigger the better, Dec. 24, 31, onwards. Terms, bookings, lithos., photos., &c., EDGAR STEBBINGS, Agent, 23, Egerton-street, Manchester. 'Phone, 09261. Wires, "Stebbing, Manchester."

WANTED, Stars and Specialities for immediate and future dates. Terms and particulars to BROOKS'S Agency, 36, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

WANTED, for Dec. 10, 17, and 24, Stars in all Lines. Stars in all Lines. Full up for Smaller Items. State Towns at Liberty for. Can Fix Big Numbers any Odd Weeks. CADLE'S Agency, 105-6, Strand, W.C.

ROYAL HIPPODROME, BELFAST, Now in Course of Erection, and when Finished will be the Largest and Handsomest Building in Ireland.

WANTED, February, onward, all the Finest Acts in the World. Price no object. New and Novel Turns of every Variety. The above is Booked in conjunction with TIVOLI THEATRE, DUBLIN.

WILL SLEY, 41, Oxford-street, Manchester.

GRAND PAVILION,

CARNARVON, NORTH WALES.

WANTED, Startling Acts for Dec. 31 and onwards, through season, Comedy, Musical Teams, and anything novel for Top and Bottom of Bills. Address, JAMES W. BOSTOCK, as above.

Still a few Spaces for Side Shows, Wireworker, Glass Engraver, Novelty Stalls, &c.

WANTED, Known, any Star Acts who have odd weeks vacant should send list of vacancies to FRANK LYNNE, Palace, Manchester. (ATTOUN'S Agency.)

WANTED, for Palace, Kilmarnock, Lessee and Manager, J. Cummings, Star Acts all Lines, absolute lowest, once nightly.

WANTED, all Dec, onwards, for South and North Wales, South Coast, Sunderland, Variety Acts all Lines. Full Bookings, permanent address, GANNON, West-grove, Bristol. Telegrams, "Fêtes, Bristol." Telephone 2536X Nat.

WANTED, Speciality Acts of all Kinds. Immediate Vacancies. Send Bookings. MARTINO'S Agency, Empire, Merthyr Tydfil.

WANTED, for Keighley Institute, Yorkshire, for week commencing Jan. 7, Refined Artistic Novel Acts that can be done on a small stage, Humorist, Smart Juggler, Vent. Conjurer, &c., &c., anything new and good, new to Keighley. State terms, with private address, to CHARLES CLIFFORD, c/o Mrs. Melrose, 6, Great Clyde-st., Glasgow. Silence polite negative.

WANTED, Big Tops and Bottoms, Star Turns, for Dec. 10, onward. Send list of bookings and lowest terms, &c., to FRED NEIMAN and Co., 108, Strand, London, W.C. Telephone 8488 Gerrard.

CIRCUS and HIPPODROME, ROCHDALE. Rehearsal, Monday next, 2 o'clock prompt, for: Musical Palmers, D. Almer, M. Walker, Dolly, Agnes, and Maud, J. Truman, Vernon's Bioscope, Lady Julia, B. McArdle, C. Rowen.

WANTED, Variety Talent, Share or Salary. Letters, SMITH and Co., Red Lion Hotel, Rochdale.

THEATRE ROYAL AND HIPPODROME, HYDE.

WANTED, from Dec. 31 onwards, the Best Variety Talent, Novelties and Stars, Nothing too big. Vacant dates and terms to FRED GRANVILLE, as above.

N.B. — First-class Equestrian and other Circus Acts that can perform on the very large stage write.

WANTED, Variety Novelties, Hugh Wigglesworth's Agency, late Manager, Blackpool, Morecambe, &c., 164, Meadow-st., Alexandra Park, Manchester. Boston Twins communicate.

JAMES FIONI'S AGENCY, 21, Norton-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, First-class Numbers, Wanted, First-class Numbers, Dec. 10, onwards. Artists Free Xmas and New Year's Weeks write. JAMES FIONI'S Agency, 21, Norton-street, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Fioni, L'pool." 'Phone, 1686 Royal.

WANTED.—The Albemarle Syndicate, 157, Strand, W.C., have vacancies for a few First-Class Numbers. Those that can work another turn in London Dec. 17, and on. Send particulars, terms, &c. Telegrams, "Templify, London." Telephone, No. 4957 Gerrard.

WANTED, strong Top Liners, must have strong power of attraction.

Write, stating terms and full particulars, to Box 4,079, "The Era."

WANTED, big Animal Acts and Sketches, smart Sisters and Boys' Band. Apply, with lithos, photos., &c., to A. SAKER, and Co., 17, Cranworth-gardens, Brixton, S.W.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Big Variety Turns, Big Variety Turns, Big Variety Turns, Big Variety Turns, Big Variety Turns,

Something New and Up-to-Date, Something New and Up-to-Date, Something New and Up-to-Date, Something New and Up-to-Date, Novelties and Sensational Acts, Novelties and Sensational Acts, Novelties and Sensational Acts, Novelties and Sensational Acts,

For Immediate and Future Dates.

Send at once, Terms, Dates, and Lithos. Those having a Good Act can rely on Immediate Work. I can give you nine months' solid work. Also Wanted, Big Acts, of all Kinds, for the Coming Season, for the Seaside.

WILL SLEY, WILL SLEY, WILL SLEY, WILL SLEY, 41, Oxford-street, 41, Oxford-street, 41, Oxford-street, 41, Oxford-street, Manchester. Manchester. Manchester. Manchester.

Telephone 09144.

Telegraphic Address, "Variety, Manchester."

WANTED, the Cream of Profession. Those new to London can have a trial show. Send lithos., memos., and bookings, lowest terms, &c. Keep me posted every week. Many thanks to Henri Gros for giving Lily Arthur two dates at the Metropolitan, and two at Chelsea, also Parisian offer, 1,200fr. Sauteron. BILLY HENDERSON, seen by appointment only. Manager, Frank Lantin. 30, Handforth-road, Brixton-road London.

WANTED, First-Class Attractions, big Combinations, with Singing Pictures preferred, Dec. 17, Jan. 7, new Stage 22ft. by 46ft. When writing send particulars of Acts, with bill and programme. TUDOR, Blyth.

WANTED, Two Girls, really experienced Stepdancers, good Singers, attractive appearance. Photos. and details experience indispensable. M. HOWARD, G.P.O., Birmingham.

WANTED, Sandow Girls and Artists' Models, for tour. FRED GRANVILLE, Park View, Crosby, Liverpool.

WANTED, Three or Four Smart Pierrots, Xmas engagement, town. LOTTO, 2, Lambeth Palace-road, S.E.

CIRCUS, SPENNYMOOR, CO. DURHAM.

WANTED, Good Funny Comedians, Comedy Acts, and Specialities of every Description, to open Dec. 17, and on. Address, ALGIE.

WANTED, Comedian, Good Amateur Entertained, for comic strong man, sketch, for four, shares, not under 5ft. 8in. STONE, 49, Abbeville-rd., Clapham.

WANTED, a Good Smart Acting Pantomimist; one able to posture and do splits preferred. Apply by letter only, JOHN LEOPOLD, JUN., 40, Fairmead-road, Holloway, N.

WANTED, Good Comedians, Comedy Acts, and Small Specialities doing two Acts. Apply lowest terms, GEO. ZALVA, Hippodrome, Scarboro'. Almero wire address.

WANTED, immediately, Young Man, from 16 to 22 years of age, good Flip-flap Thower, also good Bender or Hand-balancer, to enlarge well-known troupe. State lowest terms and tricks to CARLTON, Palace, Aberdeen.

WANTED, Baritone Vocalist that can do Comedy Dude, Patter and Dance. Apply, TRIO, 77, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Conjurer, to do a few Smart Tricks, Xmas engagement, town. LOTTO, 2, Lambeth Palace-road, S.E.

WANTED, a good Acrobat, able to play a Comedy Part in an Acrobatic Sketch. Box 4,069, "The Era."

WANTED, Hypnotic Subjects. Address, MANAGER, 13, Rosamond-street, Oxford-road, Manchester.

WANTED, Bioscope, also Young Comedians and Lady Serios, used to Choirs. Lowest terms, particulars, to TRAVIS, Post Office, Bicester, Oxon.

WANTED, Bioscope, Electric, Latest Films, to open Monday, 2 weeks, Brighouse and Farnworth. Wire lowest. DALE, Theatre, Hoyland.

WANTED, Bioscope (electric) Operator, proficient, at once, for Chronophone; Tuition whilst on tour. Alternating and Direct Current, Accumulators. Good salary to suitable man. Address, with references, MANAGER, 81, Victoria-av., Hull.

WANTED, Experienced Bioscope Operator, used to electric and lime; open Saturday, 8th; teetotaller preferred; references. STONE, Hall, Mardy, S. Wales.

WANTED, Bioscope Operator, used to Alternating Current, open Monday. Wire, ONDA, Pier, Southport.

WANTED, an Operator, for electric and lime, Gaumont's machine; must understand his business. R. SILVESTER, Town Hall, Falkirk, Scotland.

WANTED, Marionette Figure Worker, Single. State age, experience, by letter only, to MARIONETTE, 116, Englefield-road, Canonbury, London, N.

WANTED, Music Hall Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Engagements, by Little Lottie Lonsdale, Juvenile Comedienne and Dancer. Last week, Hippodrome, Blyth, with startling success. Write or wire, 13, Summerhill-terrace, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, Known, Miss Elsie Russell, the handsome, dashing, stylish, up-to-date Burlesque Actress, Liberty Monday next, Dec. 10; also for Panto (second boy). All coms., c/o HAMLET, Privry House Privry-street, Coventry.

WANTED, Known, Kitty Lea, the Favourite Ballad Vocalist. Lib. Monday; also Panto. Sure success. Perm. address, New-road, Prestbury, Macclesfield.

WANTED, Engagement, by the Great Henri Hartz, World-renowned Conjurer, Great Hypnotic Act, New Chinese Levitation Mystery; also original Card and Cigar Act. Imitation impossible. And Vi Studholme, Serio and Dancer. Two hours, if wanted. Wire or write, 13, Lower Buckingham-street, Dublin.

WANTED, Dec. 24, on, by Harry Keeble, Versatile Comedian, also Hoozee?, the Perfect Ventriloquist. Always successful. Monday, Albert Theatre, Brighouse.

WANTED, by Har[illegible] Attwood, Dec. 10, owing to rehearsing Panto. week later. Wire, Empire, Burnley.

WANTED, an Agent, by Edwards, the Ideal Song Illustrator; would join a first-class touring company. 14, Guildford-st., Rochdale, Lancs.

WANTED, by Harry Vernon, Descriptive Baritone Vocalist, Monday next. Wire, 249, Meanwood-rd., Leeds; or c/o STEBBINGS, Manchester.

WANTED, by Vosper, the Master Mimic and Necromancer, Dec. 10, 17, and 24. Address, Grand Theatre, Stalybridge.

WANTED, Known, Phil Rabey, Comedian and Tonical Vocalist, vacant Monday. Bottom of Bill this week. Wire, Empire, or 29, Lambpit-street, Wrexham, Wire.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, Known, Dan Gregory, Musical Eccentric, left Tom Foy's Company of Comedians of his own accord, and is now appearing nightly with great success, and had a fine reception on his opening at Gilbert's Hippodrome, Great Yarmouth.

WANTED, by Dan Ashton, in Original and Copyright Collier's Song Scena; interesting, instructive, entertaining, and successful. Monday next and immediate dates, offers Theatre Varieties, Colne, Lancashire.

WANTED, Known, I have Photo. Blocks for Daybill and Throwaways for my Act, and Lantern Slides for week in advance. DAN ASHTON, Theatre Varieties, Colne.

WANTED, Monday next, by Harry Gold, smart Singing Comedian, with a successful Song Scena, "Cloudland," a big hit on any programme. Offers required for the above date. This week, Empire Theatre, Hull. Panto. settled.

WANTED, Dec. 10 and 24, by De Ora, Great Speciality Gymnast, heading bill Hippo., Wakefield. Next, Palace, Boston, Lincs; Empire, Hull, Dec. 17. Address, Boston.

WANTED, Known, Kingsley Disengaged, Hand-Bell Expert, Dec. 3, 10, 17. Wire, Post Office, Glastonbury. Write, 73, Saltoun-road, Brixton, London.

WANTED, Known, Stylo, Marvellous and Only Hoop Act in this country, requires Dec. 3 and 10; sure attraction. Address, 7, Clifford-street, Manchester.

WANTED, Dec. 10, 31, Jan. 14, '07, The Mysterious Comedy Japanese Box, presented by The Original Kyoto, a Clever Contortionist, Comedy Juggler, Conjurer and Dog, A Laughing and Applauding Hit. Also Dainty May Geraldine, Chic Comedienne and a Sprightly Dancer. "Say," don't overlook this advert. Enormous Success, Palace, Blackpool. Monday, 5th return, Central Palace, North Shields.

WANTED, Known, Little Hackenschmidt, World's Champion Boy Wrestler and Pupil of the Russian Lion, posing and taking on all comers. Always a success. All coms., MEDSON'S Agency, 8, Woodsley-road, Leeds.

WANTED, Known, The Elbas are at Lib. Christmas and New Year, with their Refined and Amusing Second-Sight Performance. Write, 59, Kirkgate, Leith.

WANTED, Dec. 3 and 17, Trick and Trixie, Comedy Musical Artists, Conclude Bedford, Camden Town. Big success everywhere.

WANTED, Monday next, onwards, Sardou's Illusionists, Marvellous Mystifiers; also Marie Riviers, Comedienne. Empire, Winchester, Hants.

WANTED, Monday next, by Douglas and Gordon, Scottish comedy duo, in "Scotch and Polly." Success, Alh., Brighton, 45, Kensingotnplace, Brighton.

WANTED, Monday next and onwards, by Reeski and Raszki, Gymnastic Grotesques, and we're gluttons on it. 6, Beech-grove, Dewsbury.

WANTED, Known, F. Wyze and A. Adna, at the twist, day and night, with Geraldo and Lord. Lyric, Liverpool. BENTLEY'S.

WANTED, Known, Austin and Austin, eccentric acrobatic chair pyramidists, Tivoli, Dublin. At Lib. Mon. next. Wire, or STEBBINGS, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Rezene and Robini, Vacant Dec. 31 and Jan. 14. Always a hit everywhere. Monday, Chelsea Palace.

WANTED, Monday next, Poole and Poole, comedy couple, world's greatest pedestal dancers. Wire, 18, Winchester-st., Lupus-st., Pimlico, London.

WANTED, Known, Myles and May, Comedians, thanks for offers. Still vacant Panto. Theatre Royal, Warrington; next, Park Palace, Liverpool.

WANTED, by The Monckton, Jan. 14, Feb. 11, in Musical Farcical Episodes, including latest laughable success, "Are Wives Dummies?" Complimented by Messrs. Broadheads. Hippo., Preston (return).

WANTED, by Three Danbrooks, Lady and two Gentlemen, Refined Musical Comedy Act, Solo Harpists, Panto., as Speciality; would join Touring Company. 16, Burtop-rd., Lower Tooting, London.

WANTED, in or near Glasgow, Dec. 3 and 17, Jan. 7, 14, 21, 28, by the famous Mitchelson Family, up-to-date International, Continental, and Speciality Dancers, &c. 98, South Portland-street, Glasgow. Telephones, National 4Y1 Gorbals. Glasgow Post Office, 40, Red.

WANTED, by The Henderson and Stanley Quartette, Monday next. Good agent write. 9, Salisbury-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Dec. 24, Jan. 21, Feb. 18, by Los Granadas, "Sensational Happening Outside an Hotel." Monday, Empire Theatre, Coventry.

WANTED, Known, Bert Leonard Trio, Herculean Acrobats and Equilibrists, Liberty Dec. 3 and 10. Wire for Monday. 140, Oak-st., Norwich.

WANTED, by the Five Halyards, Comedians, Vocalists, and Instrumentalists, in their New Musical Scena, "Jack at Play" (own scene). Address, Rock Cottage, Deganwy, N. Wales.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted, by the great Albano Troupe, Dec. 17, Dec. 17. Add., 39, Newcastle-rd., Wavertree, Liverpool.

WANTED, Known, Seven Wulfrunas, lady and gentlemen comedy acrobats, "Fun in a Café," own scenery and effects, Liberty Dec. 17 and 24. This, Merthyr; next, Hippo., Dewsbury.

WANTED, Dec. 3 and 10, by The Boultons and Mlle. Bartenelli, two acts. Wire, Alhambra, Edinburgh.

WANTED, Known, Enormous Attraction, THE HUNGARIAN MILITARY BOYS' BANDS, and the Beautiful Hungarian Dancers, in the Famous "CSARDAS."

Band A, thirty in number, four months Casino de Paris, 5th month in Riga (Russia).

Band B, twenty-four in number, in Buda-Pesth.

Extensive Répertoire. Elegant Uniforms. Can arrange for any part of the World, on Sharing Terms or Certainty.

Communications to HARRY FRIEDMAN, Hotel Cecil.

WANTED, by Hulbert, Ventriloquist, and De Lil, Illusionist, two smart acts, Dec. 10 and Jan. 21. Offers, Tivoli, Dublin.

WANTED, Monday next, by Gulliver, Ventriloquist, really first-class turn. Wire, Hippo., Stalybridge; after Sunday, c/o STEBBINGS.

WANTED, Known, Le Warren, Ventriloquist and Vocalist, big show, at Liberty Monday, Dec. 3, 10. Wire, 1, Holden-square, Nottingham.

WANTED, by King Leo, Ultra-smart Ventriloquist, Dec. 3 and 10. Success guaranteed. Wire, City Varieties, Leeds. After Sunday, 29, Mytton-street, Manchester.

THE ROUGE ET NOIR VAUDEVILLE CO., Vocalists, Instrumentalists, and Society Entertainers.

WANTED, for the above Phenomenally Successful Costume Concert Party, Halls, &c., for Boxing Day, Dec. 26 (afternoon and evening), Thurs., Dec. 6 (3 nights), Monday, Dec. 10 (3 nights), Monday, Dec. 17 (?) (3 nights). Sharing or certainty. Press opinions, photos., répertoire, &c., &c., on application to Mr. PHIL PIERRING, Business-Manager, 12, Helena-road, Walthamstow.

WANTED, Known, The Spangelettis, Animal Circus, Big Act, with Novel Competitions. Sure draw. Liberty Dec. 17, 24, and New Year's week. Wire or write, 173 Queen's-road, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Caban's French Cirque, Ponies, Donkeys, and Dogs, at Liberty to accept Dates. All coms., 9, Artillery-st., Londonderry.

WANTED, by Mlle. Roza's Canine Hippodrome, Dec. 10, through being barred, Putney, topliner, football team a draw. Com., Queen's, Poplar.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, Immediate Dates, a Lightning Act, a Sure, Big, Reliable Draw; just finished four weeks Victoria Hall, Sunderland. The smartest and most sensational Act ever seen with Dogs Great Panto. Speciality; can follow any Animal Act in the Known World. If not as represented, salary forfeited. Chard's Dog Circus, and the World's Greatest Troupe of High-leaping Hounds. Grand Theatre, West Hartlepool. Open for Continent.

WANTED, Engagement with Good Concert Co., by Advertiser, who has Latest Bioscope, and can also introduce Conjuring Act, or join Partner who could play Piano and do Agency. Address, Bioscope, Carrick-on-Shannon, Ireland.

WANTED, Known, James Ferguson, late Casey's Court Company, wishes to join Comedy Sketch, Singer and Buck-dancer. C/o Mrs. McCartney, 324, Gallowgate, Glasgow.

WANTED, Known, Frank Ogden, Comedian, vacant for sketch; late "Landgrabbers" Co. Wire or write, 113, Burlington-street, Ashton-under-Lyne.

WANTED, Engagements, public or private, Harmon's Bioscope, Marionettes, also Royal Punch and Judy, with Toby. 326, Earlsfield-road, Earlsfield, S.W.

WANTED, Engagements for Lingwood's Bioscopes, complete change of up-to-date Films weekly; electric or limelight. Lingwood, 31, Watcombe-road, S. Norwood.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

Important to Roundabout Proprietors, Showmen, Amusement Caterers, Speculators, Cycle Dealers, and Others.

WANTED, Known, Mr. Tom Norman (Silver King, regd.), having been favoured with instructions from the Owner to Sell by Private Treaty the whole of the Stock and Plant of those Three well-known Roundabout Riding Machines, together with the Goodwill as a going concern, and as now erected in the grounds of that world-renowned amusement resort, the Crystal Palace, Sydenham, Kent.

The above Machines consist of:—Firstly, all that well-known Riding Machine, the Boston Riding School, having 72 Life-sized Horses and 2 Full-sized Wagonettes, and being the only one of its kind in this country, and cost over £2,500 to construct. This Machine has taken over £143 in one day, and still capable of doing so. The above is complete, and in thorough good condition and repair, and is driven by an 8½ horse-power steam engine by Thuxford and Sons, Boston; also Organ and Organ Engine to same. Secondly, a Steam-driven Roundabout, having 24 Horses and 2 Boats, with 5 horse-power engine, by Walker, Tewkesbury; also Organ and Organ Engine for same. Thirdly, a Steam-driven Set of Cycle Roundabouts, carrying forty persons at one time, with Engine by Savage, King's Lynn. Also a number of Covered Trucks for removing the above Roundabouts; likewise three Sheds, comprising Workshop, Tool House, and Paint Shop; also a large quantity of Water Tanks, Oil Cans, Jacks, Ropes, Fittings, Engineers' and Workmen's Tools, &c., &c.

The Auctioneer desires to call special attention to the above very Important Sale, which offers a chance that very seldom occurs in this line of business. Each of the above Lots are complete in every detail and in good condition and repair, and the rent of the ground they stand on being moderate, as well as having no opposition in the same business on the ground, and considering the Palace has recently been reorganised, and that great preparations are now being made to make the Palace and Grounds more attractive than ever before, the above should, under good management, be a good paying concern.

Each of the machines can be seen built up complete, and a trial run given to intending purchasers between the hours of 12 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Thursday next, Dec. 6.

Applications for cards to view, catalogues, and all particulars to be made to Tom Norman, Showman Expert and Authority, Auction Office, Manor Farm, Dallington, Sussex.

N.B.—If the above concern is not disposed of by Friday next it will then be sold by Public Auction, for the date of which and all particulars see next Saturday's "Era."

Also Wanted, to Sell, at great sacrifice, two Living Carriages, road or rail, one a Pullman Car, 17ft. 6in. long by 6ft. 6in. wide, built by the Gloucester Wagon Company, in splendid condition, comfortably fitted with separate bed place, lounge, cupboards, drawer, tables, mirror, Larbert cooking range, Mallakoff roof, &c., &c., door on side; price £40.

Another, same size, barrel top, nicely fitted with cooking range, separate bed place, chest of drawers, table, corner cupboard, &c. Has been used as back wagon, for shuttered booth to build to, and carries its own proscenium, and has every convenience for carrying shutters and frame; also has packing place at back for tilt lamps, &c. Price £25.

WANTED, Known.—A Word to the Wise is Sufficient. A Client writing June 25, 1906, says:—Bag puncher took £300 in a little over three months. For price, write Sole Agents to the Makers, viz., the Mills Novelty Co. Minerva Automatic Co., 120, York-rd., King's Cross, London, N. Largest Variety of Automatic Machines in the trade. No Junk. Don't buy worn-out machines of old pattern; get a genuine Mills 1906 pattern.

WANTED, Auctioneers to Know, Simons, of 100, 101, 102A, Houndsditch, is going ahead with up-to-date Lines in Field Glasses, Fancy Goods, Clocks, Jewellery, &c. Send for Special Xmas Supplement. There is no cheaper house for you.

WANTED, Known, Electrical, Simpkin, Wilkinson, and Gibson, Kirkstall-road, Leeds, manufacture four and six pole Showmen's Dynamos (improved pattern), also new Flame Arc Lamps, geared motors, for driving organs and roundabouts, large stocks, cable, carbons, globes, incandescents, all classes of repairs; new line, direct coupled portable electric plants, driven by paraffin.

WANTED, Known, to Showmen, Circus, and Roundabout Proprietors, that De Salis and Co., of Leighton Buzzard, are manufacturers of Showmen's Colours, Paints, and Varnishes, suitable for Switchbacks, Galloping Horses, Rounding Boards, Swings, &c., &c. Specially recommended by Mr. A. Higgins, Artist, of Totterdown, Bristol, and others.

All Showmen should send for price list and samples.

Specialities,
"New Royal Red,"
"Salisello," a perfect white enamel.
Extra Pale Durable Body and White Copal Varnishes.

WANTED, Showmen to Know that the Gourock Ropework Co., Ltd., Largest Tent Manufacturers in the World, have a large stock of New and Secondhand Circus Tents made from their famous Rotproof and Waterproof Tent Canvas, "Birkmyres Cloth." The most durable and waterproof Canvas for Showmen's Tents, &c. Buy from Manufacturers and save middlemen's profit. Gourock Ropework Co., Ltd., Lancaster-pl., Lowestoft.

WANTED, Known.—Write or call at Greene's, Falmouth-road, London, S.E., for .22 ammunition, rifles, globes, targets; absolutely cheapest market.

WANTED, Known, Showmen's Letter Cloths, made and attractively painted in fancy colours. All kinds of Showmen's Painting undertaken. Rocus, Artist, 22, Lansdown-rd, Lee, London, S.E.

WANTED, Living Novelties, for Good Show, just opening for the Season, open on Saturday. Terms, shares or salary. Wire, Prof. Barker, Stanhope-road, Fair Ground, Portsmouth.

WANTED, Novelties, with paintings, Richmond, Woolwich, and other places; good Giantess or Trance write. Proprietor, 100, Lowermarsh, Lambeth, London.

WANTED, for new departure in Show business, a quick high-class Novelty, Second Sight, Illusion, or Trance preferred. Salary £2 10s. weekly, show or not. Apply Tom Norman, Manor Farm, Dallington, Sussex.

WANTED, Good Freaks and Novelties, for Best Position in Kettering; any good show write or wire for Monday, 3rd, and following dates. Shares. Manager, 32, Gold-street, Kettering.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, Showmen to Know that the following is a complete COPYRIGHT LIST OF FAIRS, FEASTS, WAKES, AND CARNIVALS FOR DECEMBER, 1906.
(COPYRIGHT TO THE ERA.)

ENGLAND.

Dec. 1. St. Ives (Cornwall) (6,094)
Dec. 6. Northwich (17,600)
Dec. 11. Boston (15,700)
Dec. 11. Cobham (2,300)
Dec. 11. Leighton Buzzard (6,400)
Dec. 11. Ringwood (4,400)
Dec. 14. Millom (10,400)
Dec. 22. Bilston (24,000)
Dec. 22. Birkenhead (111,000)
Dec. 22. Bristol (392,840)
Dec. 22. Cheltenham (49,600)
Dec. 22. Deptford (110,000)
Dec. 22. Islington (World's Fair)
Dec. 22. Jarrow-on-Tyne (31,300)
Dec. 22. Kirkby Lonsdale (1,600)
Dec. 22. Newcastle-on-Tyne (214,803)
Dec. 22. Northampton (87,000)
Dec. 22. North Shields (50,000)
Dec. 22. Northwich (17,600)
Dec. 22. Portsmouth (189,000)
Dec. 22. Preston (113,000)
Dec. 22. Rushden (12,500)
Dec. 22. Ryde (I. of W.) (11,000)
Dec. 22. Southampton (104,911)
Dec. 22. Southport (48,400)
Dec. 22. South Shields (97,300)
Dec. 22. Tunbridge Wells (33,400)
Dec. 22. Wellington (7,300)
Dec. 24. Rowthorne (67)
Dec. 24. Salford (Trinity Market) (221,000)
Dec. 27. Rugeley (7,181)
Dec. 27. Uttoxeter (5,200)
Dec. 28. Nantwich (7,700)
Dec. 28. Sandbach (5,500)
Dec. 29. Newport (Salop) (3,200)
Dec. 22. Newport (Mon.) (67,000)

SCOTLAND.

Dec. 19. Govan (164,000)
Dec. 22. Motherwell (54,274)

WALES.

Dec. 22. Cardiff (164,000)
Dec. 22. Merthyr Tydfil (26,500)
Dec. 22. Mold (4,000)
Dec. 22. Morriston (15,055)
Dec. 22. Pontypridd (23,000)
Dec. 22. Swansea (90,423)
Dec. 24. Flint (5,125)

WANTED, Freaks and Novelties, Open at Once, sale of books and post-cards allowed. Charles A. James, Waxworks and Varieties, Dublin.

WANTED, Freaks, Novelties, and Illusions, or any good Money-taking Show, for Bristol and other towns. Thompson, 78, Castle-street, Bristol.

WANTED, good Freaks and Novelties of every description, for several good Shops in London. Write, Professor Ruby, Exhibition, 213A, Rye-lane, Peckham.

WANTED, Pictures, Marionettes, Novelties, Automatics, Freaks, Tattooer, Peep Show, Shooting Jungle, &c., largest shop Kirkgate, Leith. Proprietor, 1, Promenade, Portobello.

WANTED, at once, for the best position in Liverpool; good Illusion or Show; anything good. Manager, 34, Scotland-place, Liverpool.

WANTED, Two Lady Paraders; must be good and used to Fair Business, young and good appearance; dresses found; live in or out; photos. Also two Good Tumbling Knockabouts; no fancy salaries; money sure. State lowest terms and particulars. W. Biddall, Electric Exhibition, Castle Hotel, Brentford. Silence a polite negative.

WANTED, First-class Phrenologist and Character Reader. Terms, shares. Big Business. Madame Shophia write. Caston's Premier Tableau Waxworks, Panopticon, Llanelly.

WANTED, a thorough good Comedian and Planksman, to travel with Auction Mart, Songs and Wheezes must be up-to-date. All would-be's save stamps. Apply, R. Williams, Auction Mart, Ystrad, Rhondda.

WANTED, a good all-round Auctioneer, for selling Swag, in best Shop in Portsmouth; 10 per cent. given; also good Handseller, to make himself generally useful; wages 30s. Apply, 214, Commercial-road, Portsmouth.

WANTED, a Live Agent, used to Fair Business, for a Tip-top Living Picture Show; must know the country by road, and able to arrange for private business, and able to door if required. Also good useful people, Traction Driver and Electrician. Allen write. A good job for the right people. Address, Box 4,077, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Madam Amella, Hampshire Giantess, at Liberty Monday, Dec. 3, and onwards, First-class Fit-up, Paintings, and First-class Doorsman. Apply, 28, Warwick-street, Deptford, London.

WANTED, Known, Mlle. Flo, Tattooed Lady, and Ydac's Cabinet Act, at Liberty Monday, onward. Wire, Cady, 66, Kirkgate, Leith, Scotland.

WANTED, Situation, by Auctioneer, understands business thoroughly, and knows good firms for getting stuff; highest references. Box 4,055, "The Era."

WANTED, Known,
Through unforeseen circumstances,
One Space to Let, frontage 12ft., suitable for Illusion, Waxworks, Marionettes,
Second Sight, Dog and Monkey Show,
Working Model, or any First-class Show.
Also a few 6ft. by 6ft. Spaces, on the Stall Ground, for Fancy Stalls; good position, ground floor.
Apply, T. E. Read,
"World's Fair,"
Royal Agricultural Hall, London.

H. E. MOSS'S 22ND ANNUAL CARNIVAL, WAVERLEY MARKET, EDINBURGH.

WANTED, Known, a few Stall Spaces to Let. Add., Manager, Carnival Office, Waverley Market.

WANTED, all Roundabout Proprietors, Showmen, and Stallholders to Know that Rochdale Christmas Fair will commence on Dec. 14, till the 26th next, on the Cattle Market.

All applications to
Wm. Mitchell, Hindhill-street, Heywood.

WANTED, Known, Grand Carnival and World's Fair, Drill Hall, Dundee, opens Dec. 15 till Jan. 12 Still a few Spaces to Let for Dolly Stalls, Bioscope Booth, also One Set of Motor Cars (invite offers for the latter), space for Photographer and Good Side-show. F. H. Hobbs.

WANTED, to Let, Spaces for Side Show, Photographer, Glass Blower, Embroidery, Stalls, &c., at the Admission Free Indoor Carnival, to be held in the Corn Exchange, Arbroath, N.B., from Dec. 29 to Jan. 5. Apply Dr. Oliver, 48, High-street, Arbroath.

WANTED, to Let, Booths for Novelties, also Spaces for small shows. Apply, J. Beaumont, Market Yard, West Hartlepool.

WANTED, Known, Room to Let, suitable for massage treatment, beauty doctor, &c. Chas. A. James, Waxwork Exhibition, Dublin. Palmistry excepted.

WANTED, Good Waxwork or Mechanical Exhibition, will hire or share; best position in Ireland. Apply, Professor Smart, 27, Patrick-street, Limerick.

WANTED, Auctioneers to Know, Simons, of 100, 101, and 102A, Houndsditch, has Special Departments for 9ct. Rings, Secondhand Watches, Unredeemed Pledges, and Cheap Jewellery. Send for Special Xmas Supplement. All up-to-date Lines.

WANTED, to Sell, or to Let, Joytown, Automatic and Bioscope Saloon, 137, Barking-road, Canning Town, E.; Automatic Machines, Phonograph, Punch Ball, Guns, and Bioscope Side Show now open, taking good money; good reason for selling. B. Cohen, 63, Whitechapel-rd, London, E.

Important Notice.
WANTED, to Sell, as a Going Concern, that Masterpiece of all Portable Roundabouts, Edmund Holland's
Steam Razzle-Dazzle.
Not an imitation.
A certain future for an enterprising party.
If sold with electric light, five loads;
or four loads without light. Price reasonable.
Principals only dealt with.
Communications, E. Holland,
Ivy Cottage, Belgrave-rd., New Moston, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, Set Four Abreast and Three Abreast Gallopers, Steam Hobby Horses, Organs, &c. Walker, Engineer, Tewkesbury.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, to Sell, Set of Juvenile Racing Motor Cars, five Cars, run on platform; everything complete. Apply, W. H. Doubtfire, Living Van, Pasture-road, Goole.

WANTED, to Sell, 1 Portable Electric Light Plant, comprising compound engine in truck, with dynamo, for 32 arcs, 16 arc lamps, &c., £275 the lot; 1 dynamo, for 20 arcs, by Laurence Scott, in thorough order, with pulley and slide rails, £30; 10 arc lamps, by Crompton, £1.10 each; ampère meter, £1; voltmeter, £1; also large quantity of cables, switches, lamp-holders, resistances, &c., cheap to clear. W. Reynolds, 43, Alexandra-road, Bedford.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Machines, Husbands, Babies, Love-Letters, Palmistry, Lunatics', Marriage, and Liars' Licences. Meurice, 39, Argyle-square, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Machines, of every description, new and second-hand. Wormald, 123, Blythe-rd., West Kensington, London. Established 1887.

WANTED, to Sell, Two Handsome State Coaches (the property of the late Duke of Cambridge), excellent advertising medium, together with four-in-hand harness, cheap. K., 28, Vaughan-road, Camberwell, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Large Orchestrion, with Tunes, equal to full band, with water motor. Wanting room, must sell quickly.
Grand Attraction for place of Amusement.
Guldman and Co.,
7, Sugar-lane, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, or Exchange, Part Bulldog and Calf, human faced, Catapukia Mummy, and paintings. Marwood, 55, Plumstead-rd., Woolwich.

WANTED, to Sell, Portable Toboggan Slide, handsome appearance. Lowest price £25. Full particulars from Larcher, 30, Pimlico-rd., London, S.W.

WANTED, to Buy, Set Golloping Horses, second-hand lot, for cash. Bert Ellis, Stanley-road, Chingford, Essex.

WANTED, Avery's Plated Height and Weight Machine; must be in good condition, and price moderate. Buxton, 36, Fleming-st., Gateshead.

WANTED, to Buy, Traction Engine, six or eight horse; repairs required no object. Walker, Engineer, Tewkesbury.

WANTED, to Buy, a Set Second-hand Three-Throw Double Cranks.
Box 3,961, "The Era."

WANTED, to Buy, a good Fishpond, must be in good order; also Automatic Machines. Maughan, 49, Scotch-street, Carlisle.

WANTED, to Buy, 6-horse Traction Engine, in good condition. Savage, Prospect Works, Oxford-road, New North-road, Islington, London.

WANTED, Known, the Seventy Thousand Showmen who use the Columns of "The Era" and are moving about should know that they can make "The Era" Offices their Permanent London Address. Letters received will be held till called for, or immediately re-addressed, according to instructions. Address all communications respecting the Letter Department to the Publisher, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Showmen who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any Railway Bookstall to kindly communicate with the Publisher, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street Strand W.C

WANTED TO SELL.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Sell, as a going concern, to dissolve a partnership, a Successful Music Hall, in good Provincial town; playing to big business; no opposition; part might remain on mortgage. Apply, with bankers' references, Box 3,738, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, Old-established fully-licensed Theatre and Music Hall, in a populous Lancashire district, with no opposition; beautifully decorated, electric lights, very long lease to run; immediate possession can be arranged. Apply to Box 4,062, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, a large Hall, in seaside resort, near large town, two years' lease, suitable for Hippo., Circus, or Variety. Rent, £80 season.
Address, with references,
T. H. C., Royal Hotel, Grimsby.

WANTED, to Sell, Electric "Cinderella" Motor (real, practical, "Crowdus" Chicago Car), cream enamel body, beautifully upholstered in white satin, electrically-lit crystal wheels and ornaments, Dunlop tyres, used last pantomime at Prince of Wales's Theatre, Birmingham, where it can be seen.
Apply,
J. F. Graham, Manager, as above.

WANTED, to Sell, Tights, Symmetrical Paddings, Woven Animal Dresses, Masks, Shoes, &c. H. J. Boxall, 166, Waterloo-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Pantomime Dresses, in good condition,
Made by Eminent Costumiers.
Can be seen on application to the Wardrobe Mistress,
Drury Lane Theatre Royal, London.

WANTED, to Sell, 20,000ft. of Films, majority good as new, from 1d. per foot.
Poole, Palace, Gloucester.

WANTED, to Sell, 20,000ft. of Films, from 1d. per foot. A. Chesham, Silvograph Pictures, Rhyl. Send stamp for list.

For Sale or Hire.
WANTED, Known, that Walter Payne can arrange for the Supply of Films on Hire; can give Complete Change of Programme Weekly Nothing too big. Address, 346, Brixton-road, S.W.

WANTED, to Sell, Bioscope, Urban, new, complete outfit, Machine, two Lenses, and condensers, Gwyer and Injector Jets, Sheet and Frame, six Spools, two Illustrated Songs, Gauges, and Regulators, and 2,500ft. of First-class Films. Cost over £100; cash price for the lot £50. No approval, but can be seen any time. Manager, 13, Rosamond-street, Oxford-road, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, Rock Steady Bioscope, Lenses, Condensers, Large Sheet, Spools of Films, one subject about 800ft., in travelling case. Lowest cash price, £15 15s., given away. Seen by appointment. Tremain, 3, Bodafon-row, Llandudno.

WANTED, to Sell, Shetland Ponies, large selection, for Pantomimes, Children, or Harness. Particulars and prices from G. Stephen, Braehead, Ferryhill, Aberdeen.

WANTED, to Sell or Hire, Shetland Ponies, 30in. to 42in, 3 to 5 years, large stock.
Alex. Stephen, Pony Importer, Aberdeen.

WANTED, Known, to Pantomime Producers, on Sale or Hire, over 100 Ponies, all colours, also Stage Harness in all shades; Sheep, White Horses, thoroughbreds, and the Wrestling Bull, all trained for stage work. Fraser Hay, 8, Jackson's-row, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, two Piebald Ponies, very small suitable for Cinderella Coach, used to stage, go in harness; cheap. Apply, Caban, 9, Artillery-street, Londonderry.

WANTED, to Sell, Two Clever Boxing Dogs, doing 10 tricks; also Poodle, doing 8 tricks. Clackson, 9, Rosoman-street, Clerkenwell, E.C.

WANTED, to Sell, black and white spotted harlequin Great Dane puppy; pedigree comprises the world's champions. Price £4.4. R. Lewis, Leominster.

WANTED, to Sell, Stuffed Lion, also Dromedary Skin, suitable for Pantomime purposes. Offers to J. Harkins, 114, Rose-street, S.S., Glasgow.

WANTED, to Sell, a Large Number of Pantomime Dresses and Properties.
Apply, T. F. Doyle, Theatre Royal, Bradford.

WANTED, to Sell, Undetectable Leg Paddings, Tights, Animal Skins, Blondin Donkeys, Elephants, Cows, &c. Mayers, 22, Shepperton-road, Islington, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Old Skelt, Lloyd, Park, and Green Plays, from £1 each. Matthews, 120, Churchfields, Acton, London. Letters only.

WANTED TO SELL.

WANTED, to Sell, 4 Gas Battens, in good condition, tubing, chains, &c., complete.
Apply, Warden, T. R., Belfast.

WANTED, to Sell (leaving England). Great Cannon Illusion, £4; Miscellaneous Conjuring Apparatus. Stamp for particulars. Nanjura, 53, St. Michael's-hill, Bristol.

WANTED, to Sell, Plush Curtain, Fit-up, Flats, Drop Scenery, Footlights, V's and Brackets. Adams, Bridge-street, Wednesday.

WANTED, to Sell, Blue and Gold Plush Living Mannikin Fit-up, bargain, £3; Figures, various, from 10s. each. Dr. Oliver, 48, High-st., Arbroath, N.B.

WANTED, to Sell, Marionette Theatre, complete, cost £60, will accept £15, to clear. Write Heath, 338, High-street, Lewisham.

WANTED, to Sell, Coloured Song Slides, 12 Excelsior, 5s.; 11 Volunteer Organist, 5s.; 6 Killarney, 2s. 6d.; 7 Mona, 3s.; 8 Anchored, 3s. 6d.; 9 Bethlehem, 4s. Bioscope engagements taken. Morris, 18, Tweed-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, to Sell, Large Stock of Handcuffs, Leg Irons, Figure Eights, Gang Chains, and one dozen Fakes, genuine Lunatic Straight Jacket, Grand Box Mystery, with six locks, and roped as Houdini's, escaping in two seconds, as used in principal Halls; also Secret of Escaping from Tin Box or Packing Case; reasons for selling going to America. If not as represented, money returned. Price, £8 cash. Apply, Karduck, Handcuff King, 8, Crane-street, Cefn, Ruabon.

WANTED, to Sell, two splendid Chamber Sets, practically new, by Francis Bull. Can be seen any time. Box 4,059, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, New and Sensational Illusion Secret, for Stage or Drawing-room, Amateur or Professional. Appearance or disappearance of one, two, three, or more persons; lights on, audience all round, no traps, mirrors, or black crutains, made by anyone, complete with drawings, &c., 1s. 6d. Box 4,056, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, Picture Post-cards, real photographs. Send portrait and 2s. for sample dozen. Splendid finish. Reduction for quantities. Ernest Jones, Photographer, Rhyl.

WANTED, Scenery Contracts, Productions. Our Paint Frames, 40 by 24; Theatres completely fitted with Scenery, Ropes, Blocks, Cleats, &c. Estimates and Designs submitted free. Scenery bought and exchanged. Fred Wilkins and Bro., Ltd., 54, Whitechapel, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Theatrical."

WANTED, to Sell, 46in. Boy Knee Figure, miscellaneous lot, Conjuring Apparatus, set Conjurer's Tables. Bargain; stamp. 134, Fairfax-road, Harringay, N.

WANTED, to Sell, Splendid Stage Ring Fence, also American Riding Machine, made in tube, quite new. Apply, Caban, 9, Artillery-st., Londonderry.

WANTED, to Sell, all Kinds of Novelty Musical Instruments, Musical Surprises, for Ballets and Pantomimes. Lisle, 5, Cuthill-road, Camberwell.

WANTED, to Sell, three Brin's Oxygen Cylinders, in good condition. Can be seen at any time. Apply, M. Abrahams, Queen's Palace of Varieties, Poplar, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Large Quantity of Numbered Admission Tickets, Assorted Prices and Colours, 12 rolls for 1/- Hope, Queen's Theatre, Longton.

WANTED, to Sell, Handsome Black Net and Sequin Evening Dress, silk lined, suit tall figure, platform or stage, scarcely worn, £2 10s., cost £15. After 3 Saturday, or by appointment. Flat B., 36, Upper Marylebone-street, W.

WANTED, to Sell, Photo Buttons, 12 for 1/-, copied from Cabinet Photos. Photo, Co., 8, Clifford-street, Chorley, Lancs.

WANTED, to Sell, a good Papier Maché Elephant and hundreds of other Props, Harlequin Blades and Handles, strong, powerful Eight Bells, Profile; any Props. made to order; second-hand Cloths and Flats, all subjects, a Palace, a Garden, and Oak Chamber; carting and storing. Elms Lester Bros., 8, New Compton-street, Soho, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, Officer's Outfit, cost £150, fit 5ft. 8in., 36in. chest, £25. Cash returned if not suitable. Clements, Castle-street, Carlisle.

WANTED, to Sell, Sole Rights of good Comic Songs and Duologues (lady and com.), cheap. No rubbish. G. Barr, this, 26, Agnes-terrace, Grantham; next, Queen's Theatre, Longton.

WANTED, to Sell, Typewritten Stock Plays, Dramatic and Comedy Sketches, and Parts, Comedy parts written up. Hal Collier, Palace of Varieties, Leigh, Lancs.

WANTED, to Sell, Military Band Music, new, cheap; suit small bands; also good March Books. Apply, Harvey Brothers, Division-street, Sheffield.

The Publisher, "The Era,"
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.
"Dear Sir,—I ordered the following advertisement to appear in your paper for two insertions.

"'WANTED, to Sell, Self-acting Pianoforte, two barrels, twenty tunes, perfect condition, cost £44. What offers? Meurice, 39, Argyle-square, W.C.'

"Kindly do not insert my advertisement again, as the self-acting piano which I had to sell has been sold to Mr. Jack Woolf, of Wonderland fame, Whitechapel-road, E. I had also ten other applicants through my advertisement in 'The Era.'
"Yours faithfully,
"J. H. Meurice.
"39, Argyle-square, W.C. Oct. 9, 1906."

WANTED TO BUY.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence

WANTED, to Purchase, First-Class Music Hall in good town, or site suitable for erection of same. Apply Tom Norman, Showman's Auctioneer,, Expert, and Authority, Manor Farm, Dallington, Sussex.

WANTED, Smart Performing Dogs, doing several tricks, must be free workers. Full particulars, Florence Oliver, 131, Willow Brook-rd, Leicester.

WANTED, to Purchase, one or two Cinematographs, with cloths, at once; must be perfect. Paul Vandy's Agency, Barnes, London, S.W.

WANTED, to Buy, Waxwork or Variety Business. Full particulars,
A. E. Pickard, Britannia Panopticon, Glasgow.

WANTED, to Buy, Cheap, for Cash, Good Stage Illusions, Big Conjuring Tricks. State all particulars first letter, lowest cash terms, to Leon Vint, 11, Victoria-street, Hereford.

WANTED, to Buy, Regulators, Gauges, Gwyer Jet, and anything for limelight purposes. Lowest prices to Prof. Lloyd, 50, Holton-road, Barry Dock.

WANTED, to Buy, First-Class large Sedan Chair, or a Palanquin. Lambert, Opera House, Burnley, next week only.

WANTED, Unrideable Mule or Donkey, with man to work same, Xmas engagement, town. Lotto, 2, Lambeth Palace-road, S.E.

WANTED, to Buy, good Bioscope, with Lime Fittings for same; must be cheap. Full particulars, White, 6, Exeter-street, West Hartlepool.

WANTED, to Buy, Films, Settler's Oath, Dog Detective, Pioneers, Steam Saw Mills, Apple Thief, Living Flowers, Raffles, Christ Among Men, How the Jail Bird Flew, Terrible Kids; also good Lantern Slides, Songs, Recitals; must all be fairly good, and sent on one day's approval. Bank reference, &c. given. Write, Lawrence, 48, Lothian-st., Edinburgh.

WANTED, 1,000ft. of Cinematograph Films, amusing and up-to-date subjects. Must be seen and tried, for cash. Webster and Girling, 44, Upper Baker-street, N.W.

WANTED, Self-folding Perforated Music, for Piano Orchestrian, 10½in. wide, thirty notes. Barry, Saracen's Head, Warburton.

WANTED, Set of "Whittington" Chimes.
Cadle,
105, Strand, W.C.

WANTED TO LET OR HIRE.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Let, Victoria Rooms, Cheltenham, seat 1,000. Vacant Dec. 10, 31, Jan. 7, onwards. Minstrel Troupe do well. Silence a polite negative. Dramatic licence.

WANTED to Let (Rental), Byculiah Athenæum, Enfield. Any kind of Entertainment. Scenery. Address, Manager, as above.

WANTED, Known, the Pier Pavilion, New Brighton, Company is prepared to receive proposals for letting, for entertainments, from Dec. 10 until Easter next. Apply in writing, Secretary, New Brighton Pier Co., 17, Water-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, to Let on Lease, an excellent Theatre Site, in Nottingham.
Arthur Carlton, Theatre, Worcester.

WANTED, to Let, a 40 by 30 Frame, right in the heart of the Theatre World, a few yards from Palace Theatre, London, W.C.; office and store room; suit any business. Elms Lester Bros., 8, New Compton-street, Soho, W.C.

WANTED, to Let or Sell, Successful Money-making Dramas; printing and scenery complete. Coms., T. E. Ward, 2, Hickman-road, Penarth.

WANTED, Good Store for Scenery, in or near London, from Dec. 10 to Feb. 18. H. F. Maltby, Lyceum Theatre, Ipswich.

WANTED, to Hire or Purchase, for Monday next, Palmer-Moir Fight Film.
Wire terms.
Wood, City Varieties, Leeds.

PARTNERS WANTED.

WANTED, Partner, with capital, to exploit several Novelties in Music Halls; experience not essential, but one able to play small part preferred. Particulars to C., 38, Crasier-rd., Brixton Hill, London, S.W. Please note.—Interview by appointment only.

WANTED, a Partner, for Music Hall Sketches. Apply by letter to William Rowlinson, 16, Stanley-road, Cheadle, Hulme, Cheshire.

WANTED, by Performer, with Black Art Illusion, partner, able to book same, and assist, share, salary. Illusionist, 30, Faraday-st., Liverpool.

WANTED, Young Musical Partner, clever all-round Instrumentalist, for known Act. Full particulars to Copeland, 69, Cook's-road, Kennington, London.

WANTED, Juvenile Gentleman, for High-class Sketch. Partnership offered to one willing to invest. Clever amateur entertained. Box 4,075, "The Era."

WANTED, Rapid Sketcher, Artistic Character Heads, to Share in Variety Speciality. Send age, height, miniature sketch. Box 4,053, "The Era."

WANTED, Partner, Lady or Gentleman, by respectable, sober, single gentleman, age 35, Violinist, Mandolinist, Vocalist; excellent turn, any Bus. Apply, Box 4,058, "The Era."

WANTED, Partner, in Well-known Variety Agency. An active partner. Apply, Box 3,993, "The Era."

WANTED, Partner, Experienced, Good Comedian, for double act, song, dance, knock-about, patter. Particulars, Crawford, Poste Restante, Vere-st., Oxford-st., London, W.

WANTED, a Partner, must play Banjo, Sing and Patter, to join an experienced performer.
Address,
Box 4,074, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, by Comedian, Sing, Dance, Patter, and Tumble, partner or sketch, good refs. Sproul, 109, Kirkland-st., Glasgow.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, F. G. Wright, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker, Electrical Engineer, and Theatrical Blacksmith. 66 and 68, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, to Let for Practice, Wright's Gymnasium. Absolutely Private, Comfortable, and Reasonable. Apply, 66 or 68, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, C. Kinch, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker, Theatrical and General Blacksmith. 17, St. Mary-square, Kennington-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Known, for Ventriloquial and Marionette Figures and Specialities, Le Mare and Son, 28, Coupland-st., Oxford-rd., Manchester.

WANTED, Known that we do Picture Post-cards, 100 5s., 250 8s., 500 12s., 1,000 16s. Send photo and cash. Senior and Co., Cotham Hill, Bristol.

WANTED, Known, for Artistic and Cheap Lithos., write to Edward Harrison, Litho. Studio, 125, Bromsgrove-lane, Sheffield.

WANTED, Known, Uniforms, Cheapest House in the Trade for Band Uniforms, Attendants' and Page Boys' and Military Uniforms, &c., &c., new and part worn. Send for list to Uniform Clothing and Equipment Co., 5, Clerkenwell-green, London, E.C.

WANTED, Known, the Godfrey Sutcliffe Noted Modelled Advertising Novelties; anything designed, modelled, and coloured to order. 1, Weighton-road, Anerley, S.E.

WANTED, Known, to Theatre and Music Hall Managers, the Cheapest, Simplest, and Most Effective Patent Electric Lime for Stage Purposes on the Market. For quotations, apply to J. Webster, 10, Randallwell-street, Bradford.

WANTED, Known, to Panto. Dames, "The Suffragette," Permission to sing (Panto. only), 5s.; Piano, 1s. extra. J. Russell Bogue, Prince's Theatre, Preston.

WANTED, Known, prompt printing at Elphick's. Colour Printers, Biggleswade. Day Bills, ½ D.C., one colour, 10s. 6d. 1,000; two colours, 500 10s. 6d., 1,000 14s.; Handbills, 7s. 6d. 16,000; Posters, all sizes; Art Memos., 2s. 6d. 200; Roll Tickets, 6d. 1,000. Send for Estimates. Telephone 22.

WANTED, Known, good thing for Agents, persons in touch with Actresses, Music Hall Artists Concert Singers, &c., can make big profits by introducing the Wilson Pneumatic Bust Forms, most perfect contrivance ever invented Exceptionally liberal terms Dept. 52, The Union Manufacturing Co., 51, Market-street, Bradford.

WANTED, Scenery Contracts, Productions. Our Paint Frames, 40 by 24; Theatres completely fitted with Scenery, Ropes, Blocks, Cleats, &c. Estimates and Designs submitted free. Scenery bought and exchanged. Fred Wilkins and Bro., Ltd., 54, Whitechapel, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Theatrical."

WANTED, Known.—Band Parts, 3s. 6d.; Melodies, Incidentals, &c., composed. Transposing; Books, 4s. 7d. 10. Duplicating, &c. Cottle's Bureau, 86, Coldharbour-lane.

Bogus Managers.
WANTED, Known, Members of the Actors' Association are invited to consult the Secretary before signing Agreements. Members wishing the Council of the Actors' Association to recover Unpaid Salary would greatly assist by not allowing arrears to accumulate.
10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

WANTED, Successful Authors with untried Plays to submit scripts, with view to production and tour, by well-known touring Manager. Address, first instance, Box 4,063, c/o "The Era."

WANTED, Known, if Mr. Hartford Warrington will send his address to E. Hoggan-Armadale, Metronole, Devonport, he will hear something to his advantage.

WANTED, Address of
Playfair and Nichola,
Johnson, Agent, 86, Waterloo-road.

PROFESSIONAL APARTMENTS.

Three Lines, ONE SHILLING.
Thirteen Insertions, TWELVE SHILLINGS.
Address, PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

BIRMINGHAM.—Mrs. Clarke, 22, Bath-row. 3 Bedrooms, 2 Sitting-rooms, 1 Combined; Piano. Cars for Royal and Alexandra Theatres pass door. Vacant Sunday and Panto.

BIRMINGHAM.—Devon House, Islington-row, Five Ways. Superior apartments; piano, good cooking and attendance.

BLACKBURN.—Apartments (superior), one minute from Theatre and Palace. Two Private Sitting Rooms, Combined Room, Piano, Bathroom, w.c., every Comfort. Terms Moderate. Apply, 1, Mount-street, Blackburn.

BLACKPOOL.—Superior Apartments for Professionals, facing sea and promenade. recommended. 23, Wellington-terrace, Promenade.

BRADFORD.—Professionals' House of Call is the Oddfellows' Arms (Saloon Bar Entrance, opposite People's Palace). John Bramham.

BRISTOL.—Prince's Hotel, adjoining Prince's Theatre. Special terms to the Profession. Apply, J. Hobbs.

DUBLIN.—Mrs. Steede, 14, Lower Buckingham-street Nice apartments for Professionals, good cooking, and attendance.

EASTBOURNE. — Devonshire Hotel, adjoining the Hippodrome. The Professional House. Agent for M.H.A.R.A. W. Webb.

GLASGOW.—Mrs. O. Neill (late of Manchester) has bedroom, sitting-rooms, and combined; gas, piano, every comfort, hot suppers. 138, West Graham-st., Glasgow (opposite the Hippodrome). Vacant for Panto., and next week.

LEEDS.—32, Northfield-square, off Lovel-road. Comfortable Apartments and Combined Rooms. Terms moderate.

LEICESTER.—Superior Apartments. Large Rooms; 3 bed, 1 combined, 2 sitting; piano; bath; minute theatres, 3 Palace. Mrs. Roberts, 15s. Cank-street.

LIVERPOOL. — De Silva's Hotel. Rebuilt, up-to-date, first-class hotel accommodation. Special terms to the Profession. Handsome Billiard, Smoking, and Luncheon rooms. Tele., 1783 Royal. Finest Wines and Spirits.

LIVERPOOL.—17, Baker-street. Mrs. Fairburn. Near the Shakespeare and Olympia. Recommended by Mr. Maude and John Lawson. Bathroom, &c. Excellent chef

LONDON, N.—Mrs. Beatrice, 35, Florence-street, Islington. Vacant Sunday. 2 minutes Empire, Collins's, Grand; 6min. Sadler's.

LONDON, N.—Islington. 86, High-st. Com., also Sitting and Bedroom; few doors from Empire, Grand T., Collins', Sadler's. Good cooking; moderate.

LONDON, S.E.—Combined Sitting and bedrooms; gas, piano, good cooking; central, homely. Liberty panto. Mrs. Knight, 126, Lambeth-road.

LONDON, S.E.—128, Kennington Park-road. Bed, Bed Sitting, Bath; scrupulously clean. Moderate. Piano. Recommended.

LONDON, S.E.—253, Kennington-road. Comfortable Bed and Sitting Rooms; also Combined; good Cooking and Attendance; Vacant Sunday. Mrs. Robin.

LONDON, S.E.—Mrs. Fred Gilbert. Well-furnished, Comfortable Apartments, Good Cooking, Good Pianos, Main Road. 19, Kennington Park-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Kennington (opposite Gate). Comfortable Apartments; Bath, Piano, Sitting-room and Bedroom. 260, Kennington Park-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Bed and Sitting-room, also Com., Lib. Dec. 9 and Panto.; 2 min. Elephant, Surrey, South. Mrs. Rice, 81, Falmouth-rd.

LONDON, S.E.—Large, Comfortable Apartments; pianos, gas. Mrs. Foster, 259, Kennington-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Two Minutes' Camberwell and Empires; near S. London, Canterbury, Surrey; piano. 248, Camberwell New-road.

LONDON, S.E.—148, Kennington Park-rd. Large Front Sitting-room and Bedroom; Piano, Bath (h. and c.); also Board Residence for Gentlemen. Opposite the Theatre.

MANCHESTER.—Bed-sitting and Combined Rooms; pianos, bath, &c.; good cooking. Mrs. Prince, 37, Rumford-st., Oxford-st.

MANCHESTER.—Mrs. Franks, 1, Rosamond-place, Upper Brook-street. Sitting and Bedroom, two Combined Rooms; central; piano.

MANCHESTER.—Two Sitting and bedrooms, piano, bath, vacant for Panto. Mrs. Sampson, 44, Acker-street.

MIDDLESBORO'.—Can Highly Recommend Mrs. Footit, 62, Grange-rd. East. Bath (h. and c.), w.c., piano, front sit. and bedroom, and back, vacant.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.—Sitting and Double-bedded rooms; Piano; 5 minutes from Tyne Theatre. Vacant Panto. Mrs. Smith, 21, York-street.

PRESTON. — Stanley Arms Hotel. Sitting-rooms, Bedrooms, Bath, Piano, 3 minutes amusement places. F. Halliday.

SHEFFIELD.—Royal Victoria Station Hotel. Special Professional Terms, 9s. per day, inclusive, or by arrangement. Write, T. M. OSBORNE, Manager.

STOCKPORT.—One Minute from Empire, 3 from Theatre. Sitting, Bed, and Combined rooms; Piano, Bath (h. and c.) Mrs. Hope, 29, Market-place.

FURNISHED FLAT TO LET.—Self-contained, Four Rooms, Pleasant Outlook, Every Convenience, Bath, Electric Light. Immediate Possession. Ten Minutes' walk all West End Theatres. Apply, HOUSEKEEPER, 15-16, Newman-st., Oxford-st., W.

Account sickness. Will sell Artistic FURNISHED FLAT in Kensington; drawing and dining rooms, 2 bedrooms, every convenience. Cost £700; will sell £350, genuine bargain. Y., Box 781, Smith's Advertising Agency, 100, Fleet-street, E.C.

"THE GOLDEN LION," KING-STREET, ST. JAMES'S, W.

Mrs. Crocker, late proprietress of the "Crown," Aberdeen-place, and "Volunteer," Kilburn, has commenced business at the above address, next to the St. James's Theatre, and having now placed "Her House in Order" will be pleased to receive her numerous friends and customers from Marylebone, Paddington, Kilburn, &c.

Allsopp's celebrated Ales and Lager, Wines, Spirits, and Cigars of the highest quality. Luncheons, Dinners, and Suppers a speciality.

PROPOSED ACTORS' UNION. A small working Committee has been formed, to enquire into the possibility of founding a Union of Actors and Actresses for their Mutual Benefit and Protection. Opinions and suggestions as to advisability earnestly solicited from all interested. Address, SECRETARY, (pro tem.), 5, Restormel-terrace, Mount Charles, St. Austell, Cornwall.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL. Mr. W. SMITH begs to notify to the Music Hall Profession that he has removed his Offices from Laurence Pountney Hill, City, to 17, Craven-street, Charing Cross, W.C., where he still continues to make advances upon their Contracts.

BOROUGH OF RAMSGATE.

THE CORPORATION invite Tenders for the supply of an

ORCHESTRAL OR MILITARY BAND

for the season 1907 (July 9th to September 14th, inclusive).

PARTICULARS and CONDITIONS of Tender may be obtained upon application to the undersigned.

TENDERS, endorsed "Band," addressed to the Chairman of the Amusements Committee, must reach Albion House, Ramsgate, on or before the 10th prox.

THE CORPORATION do not bind themselves to accept the lowest or any Tender.

A. BLASDALE CLARKE, Town Clerk.

Albion House, Ramsgate.
29th November, 1906.

GRAND THEATRE, LIMITED (in Liquidation).

The Subscribers INVITE OFFERS for the DRESSES, SCENERY, PROPERTIES, &c., of "THE BABES AND ROBIN HOOD" Pantomime, Produced at Nottingham, 1905-06. and also for the "SCOTTISH BLUE-BELLS," Musical Play, Music by F. Osmond Carr, Mus. Doc. (Oxon.).

For Further Particulars and Orders to View Apply to Messrs. Lockhart, Thomson, and Stevenson, W.S., 111, George-street, Edinburgh, or William D. Stewart, C.A., 3, Albany-street, Edinburgh. Official Liquidator of the Company.

To Theatrical Managers, Opera and Touring Companies, Costumiers, and Others.
CHADWICK and SONS WILL SELL by AUCTION, on the Premises, 28 and 30 Hanway-street, Oxford-street, on Friday, Dec. 7, 1906, at 11 to 12, a large assortment of Operatic, Theatrical, Pantomime, and Fancy Dresses, Sacque, Tuck up, and Hobby Horse, Ballet Dresses, Handsome Costumes of Various Periods, Naval and Military Uniforms, Accoutrements, and other dresses too voried to enumerate. On View day prior to Sale. Catalogues of the Auctioneers, 43, St. Martin's-lane, London, W.C.

IMPERIAL THEATRE, WESTMINSTER. MESSRS. MARLER and MARLER Beg to Announce that the above Theatre was NOT SOLD at their Recent Auction at the Mart, and may now be Treated for Privately through their Agency.

Auctioneers' Offices, 176, Sloane-street, S.W.

CARL HAGENBECK'S Thierpark at Stellingen, near Hamburg, offers a lot of very fine African Riding Dromedaries, 6 Abyssinian Mules, and 2 White Abyssinian Riding Donkeys, Stallions, 3 years old, also several Zebras, male and female. Moreover, 4 tame Lionesses, 2 years old, 2 pairs imported Senegal Lions, tame, 1 year old, 4 Lionesses, 3 months old. All excellent for performing. For all particulars, please apply to the above address.

LIVE STOCK NOVELTIES.

Chacma Baboons. Chacma Baboons.

Arriving Saturday, Dec. 1, A Large Consignment Animals, Birds, &c., from South Africa.

JOHN HAMLYN, 221, St. George's-street, East.

Telegrams, "Hamlyn, London Docks, London." Telephone, 6341 Avenue.

CALLS FOR PANTOMIME.

LONDON AND PROVINCIAL PANTOMIMES COMPANY, LIMITED.
CALLS FOR PANTOMIME.
"CINDERELLA."
KING'S THEATRE, KIRKCALDY.
ALL CONCERNED. Monday, Dec. 3, at 11 a.m.
"FAIR ONE WITH THE GOLDEN LOCKS."
GAIETY THEATRE, LEITH.
ALL CONCERNED. Monday, Dec. 10, at 11 a.m.
"JACK THE GIANT KILLER."
GRAND THEATRE, FALKIRK.
ALL CONCERNED. Monday, Dec. 10, at 11 a.m.
"RED RIDING HOOD."
NEW KING'S THEATRE, SUNDERLAND.
ALL CONCERNED. Monday, Dec. 17, at 11 a.m.
"CINDERELLA."
MARLBOROUGH THEATRE.
CHORUS, Thursday, Dec. 13, at 11 a.m.
PRINCIPALS, Monday, Dec. 17, at 11 a.m.
No excuse for absence accepted.
Signed, STANLEY ROGERS, General-Manager, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

CALL FOR PANTOMIME.
Messrs. C. and F. RENAD'S "PUSS IN BOOTS."
CHORUS and BALLET, Thursday, Dec. 13, at 11 a.m.
PRINCIPALS, Monday, Dec. 17, at 11 a.m.
At the GRAND THEATRE, HULL.
Signed, C. and F. RENAD.

PRINCE OF WALES THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
CALL FOR PANTOMIME.
"CRUSOE'S ADVENTURES," MONDAY, Dec. 10, at 12 o'clock.
EVERYBODY CONCERNED.
No Excuses.
JOS. F. GRAHAM, Manager.

CALL FOR PANTOMIME.
DOTTRIDGE and LONGDEN'S "ALADDIN," Theatre Royal, Halifax, Saturday, Dec. 15, 10 a.m. sharp.
No excuses; everybody must attend.

CALL FOR PANTOMIME.
DOTTRIDGE and LONGDEN'S "ROBINSON CRUSOE," Oldham.
Assembly Rooms, Horsedge-street. Saturday, Dec. 15, 10 a.m. sharp.
No excuses; everybody must attend.

CALL FOR PANTOMIME.—"Cinderella," Queen's Theatre, Longton. All artists engaged for the above production are requested to assemble on the stage Monday, Dec. 10, at 12 noon; no excuses. HARRY FISCHER.

CALLS FOR PANTOMIME.
EVERYBODY engaged to J. F. Elliston for Pantomime is requested to communicate at once to THEATRE ROYAL, BOLTON.

CALL FOR PANTOMIME.
SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.
The ladies and gentlemen engaged for pantomime of "Mother Goose" will please attend on the stage at 11 sharp, on Monday, Dec. 10, 1906.
Signed, John Gaffney, Manager.

CALL FOR PANTOMIME.
Jack Haddon's "Jack and the Beanstalk."
Everybody concerned are kindly requested to assemble on the Stage of the New Grand Theatre, Nelson, on Monday, Dec. 10, at 12 a.m. No excuses.
JACK HADDON, Grand Theatre, Nelson.

CRAVEN'S Famous HAMPERS.

The World's Strongest and Best, as used by the Elite of the Profession.
RELIABLE TRAVELLING HAMPER.

Fig. 400.

Sizes and Prices as under.

Inside Measurements. Long.	Wide.	Deep.	PRICE.	Lining.	Tray.	G.P.O. Rollers on bottom
24 x	14 x	14 ..	6/10 ..	3/2 ..	3/0 ..	2/0
26 x	16 x	16 ..	7/9 ..	3/6 ..	3/0 ..	2/3
28 x	18 x	18 ..	8/9 ..	4/0 ..	3/3 ..	2/6
30 x	20 x	20 ..	10/6 ..	4/6 ..	3/6 ..	2/9
33 x	21 x	21 ..	12/6 ..	5/3 ..	4/0 ..	3/0
36 x	22 x	22 ..	14/6 ..	6/0 ..	4/6 ..	3/0

Illustrated Catalogues Post Free.
LARGE STOCK ALWAYS ON HAND. ORDERS CAN BE DISPATCHED SAME DAY AS RECEIVED. TERMS: NETT CASH.
T. CRAVEN,
The Basket Factory, Manchester.
15, Marsden Court, Fennel Street.

"CINDERELLA" AND ALL SPECTACULAR PRODUCTIONS.

TO BE LET ON HIRE.

Twenty Teams of Matched Ponies with Patent Leather Harness. In all Colours and same as used at Drury Lane Theatre last Xmas, and now at Porte St. Martin, Paris.

The Handsomest White Horses in the World for "Dick Whittington."
Twenty-Four Ponies with full Military Equipments, as used in the Drury Lane Pantomime "Jack and the Beanstalk."
Also the Plunging Water Horses for "Siberia," "Tally Ho!" etc., etc. "Cinderella" and other Carriages also supplied, and every class of Animal for Stage.

Apply HALES, The Universal Animal Provider, 40, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND.

PANTOMIME SONGS.

REEDER & WALSH'S PANTOMIME SONGS.

"SAILING HOME." (Free.)
By MELLOR, LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.
The artistes who secure this song will "sail home" to their audiences' hearts at once.

"VERA." (Free.)
Hammock song
By MELLOR, LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.
Will make a splendid scena. Several Managers wanted a song similar to this last year.

"GOOD NIGHT, MY LITTLE DAFFODIL." (Free.)
By LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.
No Principal Boy will be complete without this.

"HAVE YOU NOTICED THE PAPERS TO-DAY?" AND "NO, NO, NO."
MARK MERRY'S SUCCESSES.
The Comedian who sings these in Panto. will be sure of good notices in the papers to-morrow.

"HOW'S THAT?"
By WORTON DAVID & SHIRLEY ILTON.
Ask the Public.
T. E. DUNVILLE'S NEW SONG.

"THE CHINAMAN."
By SAM MAYO & WORTON DAVID.
SAM MAYO'S BIG HIT.

"MY LITTLE REDBREAST."
(Free.)
By LAWRANCE & GIFFORD.

"THE SANDWICH WALK."
(Free.)
By BODEN & BRANTFORD.
Sung by HARRY FORD.
AND ALL OF HARRY FORD'S OTHER SUCCESSES.

Good Duet for Pantos. Suit any voice.
"THE WAY TO DO IT."

REEDER & WALSH,

14, CASTLE STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.

TWO GREAT PANTOMIME SUCCESSES!

"MY PRINCE,"
(J. H. GOLDSWORTHY & SYDNEY SHAW).

"BOODLE."
(Topical).
(ST. JOHN HAMUND & SYDNEY SHAW).
Every Comedian should secure this Song.
Published by ASCHERBERG, HOPWOOD & CREW.

For singing rights and terms apply:—
ROBERT CROSSMAN, 11, Garrick St., W.C.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND! One of the things you want in Panto. is a chorus-song with "grip" and "go" in it; one that will hold your audience from first note to last, and then leave them wanting more.
Two songs fulfilling these conditions are "BRIDGET" and "WHY DO THE GIRLS LOVE CHARLIE?" by the Author-Composer of "MOLLY, I LOVE YOU!" one of last season's biggest hits.
Recent trial-trips have proved them to be THE REAL THING.
Band parts for each song are now ready.
FRED W. LEIGH, 142, Charing Cross-rd., London, W.C.

PANTOMIME SONGS.

PRICE & REYNOLDS' SONG SUCCESSES.

"A DEAR OLD SWEETHEART."
"HER LIPS ARE MADE FOR KISSING."
"ANOTHER LITTLE GIRL IN YOUR EYE."
"SAME GIRL ON SUNDAY."
"COURTING AT HAMPTON COURT."
"I'M OFF TO DELAGOA BAY."
"THE GARDEN OF MY HEART."
"ALL HE WANTS IS A GIRL."
"IONA."
"PETER PEACOCK, ESQ."
"ON THE PIER."
"WHERE THE BANYAN GROWS."
"WHAT! WHAT! WHAT!"
"ONEOTO."
"LADYBIRD."
"ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLE."

PRICE & REYNOLDS,
41, Berners-st., London, W.

SPECIAL FOR PANTO.

A NEW SONG. ONLY JUST READY.
"THE OLD REGIMENT."
Words by CLIFTON BINGHAM, Music by GILBERT LOEWE.
Nothing so good for years.
A Grand Marching Song, with an irresistible swing and go that will fetch any audience.
Chorus, Tempo di Marcia:—
True, true and steady, in danger ready,
As in the days of old, the valiant days of old.
Times may change and years go by,
But glorious deeds shall never die,
The gallant name and the deathless fame
That they won in the days of old.

"HUSH ME TO DREAMS."
By KENNEDY RUSSELL.
A really Charming Song for Principal Girl or Boy Now being sung with the greatest success by Miss Margaret Cooper at the Palace Theatre.

DON'T MISS THESE
or you will be sorry.
Professional Copies Post Free on Receipt of Three Stamps. Band Parts, Post Free, 6d. each.
CALL AND HEAR THEM.

GOULD and CO.,
25, Poland-street, London, W.

Sure Hit for Dame or Principal Girl.
"GRANDMAMMA'S GLASSES,"
By St. John Hamund and Sydney Shaw.
Published by Francis and Day.

Particulars and Terms from ST JOHN HAMUND, 33, Thornton-avenue, Chiswick, W.

To MR. J. WYBROW.
TAKE NOTICE that unless the charges due to Mr. PERCY A. WYNN, of 12, Merton-road, Wimbledon, for warehousing furniture belonging to you since the 29th day of Sept., 1899, are paid on or before the 8th Dec. next, he will sell the same by public auction on the 12th Dec. next, at 109, Merton-road, Wimbledon, to defray his expenses and charges.
Dated this 29th day of Nov., 1906.
W. A. E. HEADLEY.
12, New Court, Carey-street, London, W.C., Solicitor.

THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO.,

3, BERNERS STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.

"SIXPENNY SUCCESSES." CHAMPION "SONG-PLACERS" OF THE WORLD.

PANTOMIME PRODUCERS! PANTOMIME PROPRIETORS! PANTOMIME PERFORMERS!
NOW READY! FOUR "DARK HORSES" UP OUR SLEEVES ALL THE TIME."

"THERE'S A BIG SHIP SAILING IN THE MORNING." MISS FRANCES LETTY'S Empire, Glasgow, furore. By MELLOR, LAWRENCE, & GIFFORD.

"BRITANNIA'S SCHOOL." By SAM RICHARDS.

"SHE DIDN'T COME FROM BORNEO." Miss Clarice Mayne's Terrific Success. By PAUL PELHAM, NEWTON BUTTS, & HERBERT RULE.

"YOU DON'T MISS DE WATER." Sung by Misses Frances Letty and Esta Stella.
HARRINGTON & TATE'S Absolute Greatest "Winner."

Send at once for our GRAND PANTOMIME BUDGET of SUCCESSFUL SONGS.

PROFESSIONAL COPIES OF ANY OF ABOVE, 3 STAMPS EACH, POST FREE.
WRITE FOR OUR COMPLETE LIST OF POPULAR SONGS.

Professionals in search of "FREE SONG HITS" — Write or Call! Write or Call!
THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO., 3, Berners Street, Oxford Street, London, W.
Telegrams, "Lyrical, London." Telephone, 12805 Central.

MOSS' EMPIRES, Ltd & STOLL COMPANIES

Subsequent

(Moss Thornton & Stoll Theatres, Amalgamated)

Chairman: SIR EDWARD MOSS.

WORKING IN CONJUNCTION.
Capital £2,086,000.
Managing Director:
OSWALD STOLL.
Assistant Director and Chief of Staff: FRANK ALLEN.

(Including the London Coliseum, Ltd.)

Chairman: OSWALD STOLL.

CO-OPERATIVE OFFICES: CRANBOURN MANSIONS, CRANBOURN STREET, LONDON, W.C.
INTERVIEWS BY APPOINTMENT ONLY.

Telephone:—1399 Gerrard

CALLS FOR MONDAY, DEC. 3, 1906.

Wires: "Twigsome, London"

THE LONDON HIPPODROME.

"The Earthquake," Bellonini, Marzella's Birds, Kellinos, The Tupps, Maningos, Chung Ling Soo, Morris and Vincent, Schwartz Bros., Robertus, Three Tauberts, "Daily Mirror" Boy Army, Lavater Lee, Bioscope.

EMPIRE PALACE, EDINBURGH.
Rehearsal at 1.30 for:—
Jordan and Harvey, Indian Fakirs, Bonnie Goodwin and Piccs., Zanfretta and Napio, Boyd and Gilfain, Ambrose Thorne, Pat Carey, La Danseuse, Franes Letty, Bioscope, Shawlene.

EMPIRE THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
Carl, The Clarkes, Marie Duma, Bioscope, Frank Burnard and Co., Horace Jones, Gadbin, Lavender Sisters, Two Cromwells, The Merrils.

ZOO AND HIPPODROME, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
"Rejected Remounts," May Orchard, Bioscope, "Newhaven Fishwife," "The Peacemaker," Arabella Allen, Paul Conchas, Little Zola, Kitarfukas, Harry Leybourne.

COLISEUM, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
"Moses and Son," Clarice Netta, Bioscope, Cora Carina, Percival, Parker and Parr, Glenroy Troupe.

EMPIRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Karno's "Jail Birds," Grisse Bros., Lee and Kingston, George Newburn, Frank Harwood, Techow's Cats, Hall and Earle, Arthur Lloyd Trio, Chas. Pastor, Bioscope.

PALACE THEATRE, HULL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Macarte Sisters, Ella and Dacie Hope, De Wynne Bros., Clarke and Glenny, Lilieth Leyton and Co., Two Cymros, Dion Wade, Conway and Leland, Hackenschmidt, Fred Keeton.

EMPIRE PALACE, LEEDS.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
O'Malley and Brown, Ethel Ra Leslie, Baker and Balfe, Bros. Hayes, Mason and Bart, Selma Braatz, Whit Cunliffe, Fred Holland, the Kurios, W. J. Ashcroft.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BRADFORD.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Carl Hertz, Boswell's Circus, Alf Gibson, Rio Bros., Mezzettis, Harry Carsdale, Minnie Cunningham, Daisy O'Malley, Bioscope, Ernesto.

EMPIRE PALACE, SHEFFIELD.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Vesta Tilley, Bros. Horne, Fred Clements, Mlle. De Dio, Stavordale Quintette, Alexandra Edwin, Prince Kokin, Lauri Clare, Bioscope, Griffiths Bros.

EMPIRE PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
The Boissetts, Bioscope, Obo Bros., Albert Christian, Florence Smithers, Gordon Highlanders, L. W. Harris, Katie Cohen, Eugen Joly, Geo. Gilbey, "The Yellow Fang."

BORDESLEY PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Bioscope, Ernest Ball, Rita and Roma, Hanid Alexander, Frank Sylvo, Burley and Burley, Madge Morley and Co.

EMPIRE PALACE, LIVERPOOL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Gus Elen, Bioscope, Maxwell and Francis, Daisy James, Walter King, Sisters Finney, Les Voces, Motramos, Beattie and Blanche, Rapoli.

OLYMPIA, LIVERPOOL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
"The Flood," Bioscope, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, Henri Taylor Trio, The Courtiers, Walter Curtis, Two Butterflies, Fred Daniels, Ray Maskell, Oswald Williams.

EMPIRE, HACKNEY.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
R. A. Roberts, Mascotte Trio, Hurley and Cole, Theo. Hardeen, Holden's Marionettes Buddha's Blackboard, "Crystal Gazing," Bioscope, Raie Walters, Chas. Robinson.

EMPIRE, HOLLOWAY.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Tom Costello, Frobel and Ruge, Three Ramoniers, Young and De Voie, James Brady, Jeannie Mackay, Welsh Wanderers, Albertine Melisch, Lucia and Vista, Lottie Lennox.

EMPIRE, NEW CROSS.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Arthur Roberts and Co., Harry Anderson, Winnie Derson, Three Guitanos, Northern Troupe, Wilson and Waring, The Ohms, Alexander, Harold Hughman, Teresa Da Silva.

EMPIRE, STRATFORD.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Leopold Troupe, The Saphos, Matweef Troupe, Sybil St. Elmo, Tom Owen, Frank Elliston and Co., Speedwell, Fred Eylton, Millie Hylton, Rose Hamilton.

EMPIRE, SHEPHERD'S BUSH.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
"The Dandy Thieves," Monte Myro Troupe, Die Schultzenliesertyn, Schenk Bros., Hetty Chattell, Carney and Armstrong, Ed. Ford, Bugler Carr, Harry Vernon's Co. in "Christmas Eve," Bioscope.

EMPIRE, CARDIFF.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Dr. Walford Bodie, Wotpert Trio, Albertus and Millar, Herr Fritz, Strolling Players, Harry Coates, Harry Lawson, Lily Tiso, A. G. Spry, Bioscope.

PHILHARMONIC HALL, ST. MARY-STREET, CARDIFF.
Cinématograph Exhibition, Curlo Halls, Roller Skating, Phonograph, Waxworks, Galatea, Magic Maze, Shooting Ranges.

EMPIRE, SWANSEA.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
The Dandies, Aurora Troupe, James Stewart, Amoros Werner Troupe, Jimmy Shields, Billy Farrell, Johnny and Charlie, Bioscope, Frank Darwin, Gertrude Bradshaw.

EMPIRE, NEWPORT.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
La Milo, Arthur Reece, Amy Sullivan, Stein Eretto Troupe, Barton and Ashley, Ted and May Hopkins, Cliff Ryland, Bioscope.

EMPIRE, NOTTINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Lil Hawthorne, The Althoffs, Maudie Ford, Hale and Francis, E. J. Sheldon, Bioscope, John Le Hay and Co., Corbin's Dogs, Redfern Sisters, Hesketh Meade.

PALACE, LEICESTER.
Rehearsal at 2.30 for:—
"High Jinks," Paulinetti and Piquo, Clemart, Will Mitcham, Maud Ross, Lilian Warren, H. O. Wills, Bioscope.

ARDWICK EMPIRE, MANCHESTER.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Lilian Doreen, Victor Travers, Bioscope, Trippello, Five Bogannys, Queen and Le Brun, Roy and Fenton, Avrigny Troupe, "La Viviandière," Horace White.

HIPPODROME, MANCHESTER.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Bioscope, Adeler and Sutton's Pierrots, Illustrated Song, Ludwig Amann, Delomes, Amy Russell, Stanley and Greenop, Kremos, Lauri and Beatty, "When the Clock Went Wrong."

THE LONDON COLISEUM.

CLOSED.

THE FOLLOWING ARE BOOKED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ABOVE:

EMPIRE THEATRE, DUBLIN.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Hal Godfrey and Co., Sybil Montague, Frank Couch, Arif Hemet, Syd May, Pictures, Ned Gray, Selbinis.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BELFAST.
Rehearsal at 1 for:—
Marie Santoi and Co., Jessie Burnett, Frank Maura, May Fallowfield, Oakdene, Paxton Trio, Carlotta Lunn, Harry Bent, Derenda and Green.

EMPIRE PALACE, SOUTH SHIELDS.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
Wilkie Bard, Nellie Stratton, Pictures, Leverto, Lyons Trio, Rosie Archer, Dora Martine, Pat Rafferty.

RICHMOND THEATRE, RICHMOND.
Proprietor, Mr. George Dance.
Shang Hai, Maud Walsh, Mayvilles, Harry Mountford, Maude Rochez, Pictures, Sibb and Sibb, "Poor Phil Garlic," Dot Hardy, Haytors.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—

HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, WALSALL
Rehearsal at 12 for:—
Howard and Harris, Wyndham and Kitty, Harriett Vernon, George Young, Bioscope, New Macs, Sisters Dorrell, Mezzetti and Mora.

EMPIRE, COVENTRY.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
"Globe of Life," Mount and Corelli, Will Vokes, Los Granadas, Adeline Yohle, J. W. Hall, The Æolians, Celtic Comedy Trio, Bioscope.

THE GRANVILLE, WALHAM GREEN.
Rehearsal at 3 for:—
Joe Elvin and Co., Bellonini, George D'Albert, Walter Stanley, Godfrey James, Jack Camp, Belle Braham, Ray Wallace, Peggy Pryde, Three Sisters Chester, The Bostons, The Howards, Rappo and Ella, Sanford and Lyons, Ike Scott and Son, Nelson and Thomas, Pictures.

THE PALACE, CAMBERWELL.
Rehearsal at 2 for:—
1st Performance: Joe Elvin and Co., Dan Crawley, Joe O'Gorman, Godfrey James, Dolly McCalla, Gracie Grahame, Alexandra Dagmar, Dinah Morris, Walton and Lester, Pictures, Harry Conlin.
2nd Performance: Joe Elvin and Co., Dan Crawley, G. H. Elliott, Joe O'Gorman, Fred Earle, Dora Lyric, Gracie Grahame, Alexandra Dagmar, Dinah Morris, The Haytors, Pictures.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
ARTISTS ARE REQUESTED TO NOTE THAT IF THE ALEXANDRA THEATRE, STOKE NEWINGTON, SHOULD OPEN AS A VARIETY THEATRE, IT WILL COME WITHIN THE AREA ABSOLUTELY BARRED BY US.

EMPIRE, SUNDERLAND (in course of erection).
Artists should be careful to keep Dates Open for this Theatre, Booking for which will shortly commence.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ARTISTS.

Artists must have Band Parts for at least Twelve different Instruments for the Orchestras (Fifteen for those engaged at the London Coliseum). Matter for Bill, Blocks, and Specimens of Pictorials FOR ALL THE ABOVE THEATRES must be sent to Co-operative Offices, at above address, THREE WEEKS before Opening, or at least TWO WEEKS, failing which Artists will run the risk of having their Engagement cancelled.

IMPORTANT.—Artists must forward Copies of Songs to the STAGE DEPARTMENT, ABOVE ADDRESS, TWO WEEKS previous to Opening, with Assignments for same, which will be returned. Artists are requested to note carefully that the clause in their contracts relating to rehearsals will in future be strictly enforced.

ARTISTS WILL CLEARLY UNDERSTAND THAT THEIR BUSINESS MUST BE FREE FROM ALL VULGARITY.

N.B.—Silence in every case a polite negative. Artists are requested not to enclose stamped envelope. Letters marked "Private" will be delayed.
Telephone, 1399 Gerrard. Wires, "Twigsome, London."

The Greatest Aggregation of Variety Theatres in the World.

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER'S

PANTOMIME SONGS.

BAND PARTS

of the following Songs now ready:—

"THERE'S A MAN IN MANITOBA,"
"ARRAH WANNA,"
"GOOD-NIGHT, MR. BROWN, I'M OUT,"
"SNOWFLAKES,"
"FIGHTING FOR THEIR KING AND SIRELAND,"
"CHEYENNE,"
"I CAN SEE RED ROSES BLOOMING,"
"BOY BLUE,"
"COME BACK TO BORNEO,"
"IN MY PAGODA,"
"WHY DO THE GIRLS LOVE CHARLIE?"
"HENNY KLEIN,"
"IT IS THE SCARECROW,"
"MY IRISH ROSIE."

Full List of Band Parts on application.

See our Special Advertisement on Page 24.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER,
142, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

THE ABSORBING TOPIC.

"WHAT TO SING IN PANTO."

SONGS THAT WILL BE EVERYWHERE.

"BY THE SIDE OF THE ZUYDER ZEE."
"AU REVOIR, MY LITTLE HYACINTH."
"MY BUNGALOW IN BORNEO."
"WHEN THERE ISN'T A GIRL ABOUT."
"THERE'S ALWAYS ROOM FOR A GIRL."
"WHAT HAS BECOME OF OUR SONGS?"
"COLOMBO." "STOWAWAY."
"YOU ARE MY IRISH LILY."
"WALTZ ME AROUND AGAIN WILLIE."
"I WANT NO OTHER LITTLE GIRL BUT YOU."
"IF I HAD BEEN BORN A GIRL."
"SHE HASN'T DONE HER HAIR UP YET."
"WOULD YOU CARE?"
"LOOK OUT MR. MAN."
"SEASIDE LOUISE."

REMEMBER A HIT SPELLS "FAME."

WE CONTROL THE HITS THIS YEAR.

B. FELDMAN & CO., 2 & 3, ARTHUR STREET, NEW OXFORD STREET, W.C.

MOSS' EMPIRES,

LIMITED

(MOSS, THORNTON, AND STOLL THEATRES, AMALGAMATED),

AND

STOLL COMPANIES

(INCLUDING THE LONDON COLISEUM, LTD.).

RE APPLICATIONS FOR ENGAGEMENTS

All applications by either Artists or their Agents must be made to the Head Office.

Lowest terms must be stated, and distinction made between salaries required for larger and smaller towns.

Vacant dates should be stated. If a list of existing bookings be sent, it will render selection easier.

Artists employing Agents should accredit one only at one time, as the friction arising when several Agents are employed at the same time, all expecting the one booking to go through each of them, often renders it expedient to avoid that booking altogether rather than give undeserved offence to several Agents.

New Acts seeking Engagements, or turns not rebooked (possibly because they have played a series of dates without introducing new business), will facilitate matters by having their acts seen by our District Managers. Their Districts and Postal Addresses are as follows:—

MANCHESTER, LIVERPOOL, AND DISTRICT,
MR. ALAN W. YOUNG,
Empire Theatre, Liverpool.

EDINBURGH, GLASGOW, NEWCASTLE, AND DISTRICT.
MR. S. GETHING,
Empire Theatre, Glasgow.

LEEDS, SHEFFIELD, HULL, BRADFORD, AND DISTRICT.
MR. T. GERALD MORTON,
Empire Palace, Leeds.

BIRMINGHAM, NOTTINGHAM, LEICESTER, AND DISTRICT.
MR. HATTON WHARTON,
Empire Theatre, Nottingham.

SOUTH WALES DISTRICT.
MR. W. LEA,
Empire Theatre, Cardiff.

LONDON DISTRICT,
MR. WILLIAM COLLINS,
The Empire, Shepherd's Bush, W.

N.B.—Mr. OSWALD STOLL or Mr. FRANK ALLEN can be seen by appointment on all matters arising out of the above, and for the discussion of entirely new Numbers.

All Artists or Agents who communicate with our District Representatives must have made definite applications, in accordance with above directions, to the Head Office, at the same time, or just previously

Co-operative Offices:
CRANBOURN MANSIONS,
CRANBOURN-ST., LONDON, W.C.

THOMAS BARRASFORD TOUR.

CALLS for MONDAY, DEC. 3, 1906.

REHEARSAL EVERY MONDAY AT ALL OUR PLACES AT 12 NOON.

HIPPODROME, BRIGHTON.
Malcolm Scott, Tom Yorke, Mabel Kessler, Tatten Hall, Wilton Heriot and Co., Edwin Barwick, Bert Williams, Gus Barra, Jack Hylton, Pictures, Six Brothers Luck.

HIPPODROME, LEEDS.
Lydia Yeamans, Charlie Williams, Walker and Lake, Helen Martin, Stelling, Les Rallis, Gus Harris, Fred Cullane Comedy Quartette, Martine and Son, Gillen, Pictures, Manchester Mites.

HIPPODROME, LIVERPOOL.
Smart Set, Arthur Stacey, Babs Lloyd, Simosa San, Four Maisonas, The Mackweys, The Waldrons, Williams and Warden, Two Dixons, Frank Boyce, Pictures, Fred Moule and Co.

HIPPODROME, BIRMINGHAM.
The Novellos, C. Woodward, Allsop and Bekwith, Zetta Grey and Co., Alice Raymond and John Kurkamp, Deer Family, Tom Hughes, Pictures, Irma Lorraine, Jenny Hartley.

PAVILION, NEWCASTLE.
Kentucky Four, Billie Burford, Harry Thurston, James De Voye, Ross and Grayson, Colombia Trio, Laurie Wylie, Beau-Ideal Troupe of Juveniles, Bishop and Hanlon, Pictures.

ALHAMBRA, PARIS.
Henrietta De Serris, Four Jumels, Amile Amiel, Baltus Troupe, New York Comedy Four, La Sallandri, Anna Thibaud, Radford and Valentine, Hilgart Arkas Troupe, Cornier, Pictures, Eugene Fougere.

BRITANNIA, HOXTON.
Grand Variety Company.

LYRIC, LIVERPOOL.
Grand Variety Company.

All Bill Matter must be sent to the London Office Two Weeks before opening, or Artists will run the risk of having their Engagements cancelled.

All Artists must carry Band Parts for Full Band.

All communications to be addressed to the London Office,

11, LEICESTER PLACE, LEICESTER SQUARE, W.

Telephone—6824 Gerrard. Telegrams—"Barrasford, London."

THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO.,

3, BERNERS STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.

"SIXPENNY SUCCESSES." CHAMPION "SONG-PLACERS" OF THE WORLD!

PANTOMIME PRODUCERS! PANTOMIME PROPRIETORS! PANTOMIME PERFORMERS!
SEND AT ONCE FOR OUR

GRAND BUDGET OF PANTOMIME SONGS
FOR 1906-1907.

COMPRISING THE FOLLOWING GREAT SONGS! SUCCESSFUL SONGS!

ALL FREE FOR PANTOMIMES.

"I'VE BUILT A BAMBOO BUNGALOW FOR YOU."
"WIDOW DOOLIN." "LOOK OUT, BOYS, THERE'S A GIRL ABOUT!"

"QUEEN OF OLD SAMARA." (J. F. LAMBE).
"SWEET EILEEN." "ANY OLD PLACE WHERE THE SUN SHINES."

"WHEN THE BAND PLAYED THE 'MEN OF HARLECH'."
"MY TINY FIREFLY." "SEND ALONG A WIRE.

"SOMEBODY CARES FOR YOU." (MILLS & SCOTT.)
"WATERFALL." "ZING-TA-RA-RA BAND."

"ROSIE IS WAITING." "OLD CALABAR."

AND MANY OTHER GREAT AND PROVEN SUCCESSES.

PROFESSIONAL COPIES OF ANY OF ABOVE, 3 STAMPS EACH, POST FREE.
WRITE FOR OUR COMPLETE LIST OF POPULAR SONGS.

Professionals in search of "FREE SONG HITS" Write or Call! Write or Call!
THE MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO., 3, Berners Street, Oxford Street, London, W.
Telegrams, "Lyrical, London." Telephone, 12806 Central.

THE STAR MUSIC PUBLISHING CO., LTD.

. . Have great pleasure in presenting . .

A. J. MILLS & BENNETT SCOTT'S

THREE WONDERFUL SONGS,

'SAILING IN MY BALLOON,'
'NELSON FROM HIS MONUMENT,'
("John Bull Beware!").
'WILL YOU DANCE WITH ME, MARIE?'

also

HARRY CASTLING & C. W. MURPHY'S
ELEVENTH HOUR STORMER,

"ON THE ISLE OF ANGLESEY"
(JENNY JONES),

FREE FOR PANTOMIMES,

but written Permission must be first obtained.

Send Stamps for postage of professional copies to:

THE STAR MUSIC PUBLISHING CO., LTD.,
9, Charing-cross-road, London, W.C.
(Facing Garrick Theatre).

'PHONE 8446 GERRARD. TELEGRAMS, "SONGONIA, LONDON."

MACNAGHTEN VAUDEVILLE CIRCUIT.

Proprietor and Director General:
Mr. FRANK MACNAGHTEN.
Business Manager for the Circuit:
Mr. E. P. LAWTON.
Special Representative:
Mr. BRANDON BLAKE.
Secretary:
Miss AMY ROBINSON.

Accountants: Messrs. HARDY, LAWTON and MOULSON, York-street, Sheffield.

CALLS
FOR WEEK COMMENCING
MONDAY, DEC. 3, 1906.

PROVINCIAL CIRCUIT.
SPECIAL NOTICE.
Rehearsal at all Halls,
Monday, at 12·0 sharp.

PAVILION, LEICESTER.
Fred Southern and Co., Pallister's Bioscope, Ellis and Watts, Levine, Lily Le Breton, Sisters Ford.

PALACE, LINCOLN.
Arden and Abel, Grace Langley, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Edwards and Dacre, Louis Kerno, Alexander Victor Duo, Millie Denham, Dayton Family.

GRAND, SHEFFIELD.
Reilly and Taylor, Pallister's Bioscope, The Players, Lester May, Lancashire Mill Boys, Jansons, Frances Haskoll.

PALACE, BATH.
McClain's Sextette, Learto, Belrose and De Velin, Wallace Whitney, Beattie Foster, Three Rubys, Gullick and St. John, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Geoffreys and Benson.

PALACE, BRADFORD.
Aquamarinoff Troupe, W. H. Downs, Eric Graham, Tom Lloyd, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Sammy Shields, Mignonette Kokin, Galetti's Monkeys.

PALACE, BLACKBURN.
"Casey's Circus," Harry Walker, Ethel Loftus, Almos, W. J Churchill, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Chas. F. Best, Vandyke Troupe.

PALACE, HALIFAX.
Donaldson Bros. and Ardel, Johnny Holland, Mayon and Marle, Woodward and Walton, Geo. Leonard, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Leotard Bros., Davis and Gledhill.

PALACE, W. HARTLEPOOL.
Bounding Dillons, Herbert La Martine, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Cissie Dryden, Hillman and Russell, Susie and Protti, Friscari, Maud Prenton.

PALACE, SOUTHAMPTON.
Cot and Colibri, Tate and Tate, Harry Cotton, Les Belles Americaines, Harry Briggs, Raymond's Bio-tableaux, Lytton and Bland, Bob Hutt.

KING'S, NOTTINGHAM.
Picture Entertainment.

THEATRE ROYAL, ROTHERHAM.
"Tomkinson's Choir."

THEATRE ROYAL, ATTERCLIFFE.
Picture Entertainment.

THEATRE ROYAL, CHESTERFIELD.
"On the Stroke of Twelve."

THEATRE ROYAL, LEEDS.
"Span of Life."

LONDON DISTRICT.
General Manager, Mr. FREDERICK BAUGH.
Telephone, 5954 Avenue.
Telegrams, "Stageyness, London."
Rehearsal at all Halls, Monday at 12 o'clock.

PALACE, BOW.
Matinée every Monday.
Vaudeville Sketch Co., Smith and Johnson, Little Salvino, Casey's Court, Bros. Zampah, George Hall, Flo Burris, Johnny Dwyer, Wal Phillips, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux.

THE BRITANNIA.
Matinée Monday.
Will Musgrave, Louie Hurman, Harry Melville, George Gray and Co. in "The Fighting Parson," Silbon's Circus, Sisters Melba, Phern and Phern, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Bros. Dean, Mammie Cannon, Lillie Lassah.

FORESTERS.
Matinées Monday and Thursday.
Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Floradora Girls, Jack and Evelyn, Helms and Cozens, Florrie Bray, Janet H. Reynolds, Robbie Roy, Letine, Sisters Lunelle, the Staccatos, George Kirk and Co.

SADLER'S WELLS.
Matinée every Monday.
Lily Black, Will Musgrave, Sid Bandon, Minnie Fenton, Czar Troupe of Dancers, Sisters Brooke, Mahatma, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Stan Aubrey Keir and Kempton, Tom Collins, Kate Carney and Co.

SURREY THEATRE.
All Artists engaged for Surrey Theatre must bring 14 Band parts.
Matinée every Monday.
Chas. Sloman, Fred Maxwell and Co., Percy Hannon, Mark Merry, Polo Jerome, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Kitty Marion, Marie Santoi and Co., Beatie Kent, Wild Willie and West, Margt. Parker and Co., Rumbo Austin.

Notice.—All artists carrying Scenery must have it Fireproof, according to L.C.C. regulations, otherwise it will not be allowed in the Halls.

All Bill Matter or Notification of Appearance must be sent in 14 days prior to opening. All Artists must attend Band Rehearsal, or their Contracts may be cancelled at the option of the Management.

N.B.—All Billing Matter, accompanied by Pictorials, and Business Communications relating to the Provincial Circuit must be addressed to the

EXECUTIVE OFFICES:
KING'S CHAMBERS,
ANGEL STREET, SHEFFIELD.

Telegraphic Address, "MACNAGHTEN, SHEFFIELD."
Telephone No. 3449, SHEFFIELD.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER

THE WORLD'S SONG PROVIDERS.

THREE GREAT NOVELTIES FOR PANTOMIME.

"THERE'S A MAN IN MANITOBA."

THE great Chorus Song.

The only Song of its class in Pantomime this year.

"ARRAH WANNA."

The most original Song ever offered for Pantomime.

"GOOD-NIGHT, MR. BROWN, I'M OUT."

The one and only popular "Coon" Song in Pantomime this year.

For Particulars of our other Great Songs see Special Advertisement on Page 24.

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER

142, CHARING CROSS ROAD,
LONDON. W.C.

SHAPIRO, VON TILZER
MUSIC Co., Ltd.,
100, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

FIVE GREAT PANTOMIME SONGS:
"LITTLE GIRL."
"MOONBEAM."
"SWEET SATURDAY NIGHT."
"TAKE ME BACK TO LONDON TOWN."
"MARIAR."

AND MANY OTHER SUCCESSFUL SONGS.

WRITE FOR OUR FULL LIST.

SHAPIRO, VON TILZER MUSIC Co., Ltd.,
100, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.

CALLS. CALLS.

LIVERMORE PALACE TOUR.
ABERDEEN.
DUNDEE.
SUNDERLAND.
BRISTOL.
PLYMOUTH.
also KING'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
Address all Communications, Billing, Matter, &c., (2 clear weeks in advance of opening) to Messrs. ROBEN AND BLISS, 56, Whitcomb-street, Leicester-square, London, W.C.
Telegrams: "Twopence, London."
'Phone, 7623 Gerrard.
N.B.—Interviewed by appointment only.

GLASGOW PAVILION.
CALL for Monday, Dec. 3, 1906.
7. Twice Nightly. 9.
Rehearsal, at 11 o'clock, for
Ada Reeves, Rastus and Banks, Queenie May, Muir and Bartlett, Barton and Franklin, Gena Manon, Jack Pleasants, Little Dando, Dolly Golden.

GREENOCK PAVILION.
Rehearsal, at 2 o'clock, for
Tennyson and Wallace, Gertie Gitana, Lorne and Rene, Tom Leo, Calcotts, Pictures.
All bill matter must be sent to Glasgow 14 days ahead. Failing this, Artists will run the risk of having their contract cancelled. By order,
SAMUEL LLOYD, General-Manager.

POOLE'S PALACES, GLOUCESTER, AND PORTH.
NOTICE TO ARTISTS.
Before concluding Engagements in the Rhondda Valley, please read your contracts, which will be strictly adhered to. Ton-y-Pandy is only 3 miles from Porth. Messrs. Poole hope to announce soon other Palaces in connection with their Circuit.

CALLS. CALLS.

THE PALACE, GLASGOW
Sole Proprietor and Manager, RICH. WALDON
All Bookings are now made direct from above Hall.
All Contracts made on behalf of the Palace, Glasgow, on or before April 7, 1906, and not yet completed, will be carried out.
Bill matter must be sent two weeks in advance.

CALL for Monday, Dec. 3, 1906, at 12 o'clock: Horace Wheatley, Harris and Worth, Ted Saunders, Billy Hobbs, W. G. Webber, Kathleen Grey, Stanley and Vandyke, A. Bo-Kou, Will H. Sloan.
Address, HARRY MCKELVIE, Business-Manager.

BURTON-ON-TRENT,
NEW HIPPODROME.
CALL, Monday, Dec. 3. Rehearsal 1 o'clock Monday for: Revell Troupe, Allan Hanbury, Welda and Wynne, Edie Anderson, Grant and Allen, Great Scott, Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Madame Sims Reeves.
For Dates Apply to Sole Booking Representative,
H. PERCIVAL YOUNG,
Shakespeare Theatre Offices,
Clapham Junction,
London, S.W.

ARTISTES WANTED
requiring Sound Investments and Residences for Occupation, Rents Collected, Estates Managed, Mortgages Arranged, Surveys and Valuations made, to consult Messrs. CRABB & SON, Auctioneers, Surveyors, Estate Agents, and Valuers, 100, Brixton Hill, S.W. (close to Water Lane). Telephone 643, Brixton. Manager, Mr. WALTER INGE.
Note.—Messrs. Crabb and Son have the honour of being Estate Agents to the élite of the Profession.

OUR NEW CINEMATOGRAPH BRANCH IS NOW OPEN.

CINEMATOGRAPH OFFICES AND SHOWROOMS:
31-33, CHARING CROSS RD, W.C.

Telegraphic Address: "PHONOFILM," London. Telephone No. 3037 Central.
LONDON HEAD OFFICES:
14, 16, 18, LAMB'S CONDUIT STREET.

PATHÉ FRÈRES, LONDON

Our new price, 4 D. per foot, nett.

TRADE MARK MARK

TRADE MARK

VENETIAN TRAGEDY.
Code Word, BURLESQUE.

The story occurs in lovely Venice amidst beautiful surroundings. The wife of a proud noble loves a young man. She writes suggesting a secret meeting. The torn-up letter is found by a beggar, who, wishing to blackmail, gets money for it from the husband. The husband follows the lover in a gondola, and eventually stabs him in his wife's room, throwing his body out of the window into the canal below. Intensely dramatic.

595ft. The Subject £9 18s. 4d.
Colouring extra, £3 12s.

NEGRO'S VENGEANCE.
Code Word, BUCHERON.

A Negro being laughed at by a street seller determines to have his revenge, so procures some bad boys to blow soot over her face while asleep. She in turn is laughed at by the people that pass.

180ft. The Subject £3.

A BAD MOTHER.
Code Word, CABESTAN.

A widower with a child marries again, and chooses a wife who already has a little child. But soon the stepmother ill-uses her stepchild until the poor little man is found by the keeper of the cemetery crying on the grave of his mother. Prompt police investigation, which shows that the poor child is covered with bruises, and his father, informed of the fact, turns the stepmother out of his home.

510ft. The Subject £8 10s.

ALADDIN AND HIS WONDERFUL LAMP.
Code Word BROUER.

The old fairy story retold, with beautiful scenery and Eastern effects, and coloured very effectively in parts Grand quality.

824ft. The Subject £13 14s. 6d.
Colouring extra, £1 17s.

THE SKATING LESSON.
Code Word, BRUNISSAGE.

Amusing adventures on a skating rink. Frequent falls.

132ft. The Subject £2 4s.

A DIFFICULT PROBLEM.
Code Word, BUCHE.

An old scientist is so preoccupied with the problem he has to solve that he utilises anything handy, such as an old gentleman's back, a milliner's box, or a cab, &c. Most comical film.

210ft. The Subject £4 19s.

MAGIC ROSES.
Code Word, BUIRE.

Beautifully-coloured film, where roses are changed into most lovely figures and under the wizard's wand most extraordinary transformations take place. Strongly recommended as a short coloured film.

198ft. The Subject £3 6s.

POLICE INSPECTOR HYPNOTISED.
Code Word, BROUILLON.

Most extraordinary adventures of a police inspector who is hypnotised by a treet thief. Very comic.

280ft. The Subject £5 12s.

FEMALE SPY.
Code Word. CINGLANT.

A story of the wilds of Russia. A young girl turns spy. Pursued by the Cossacks, she is captured, tortured, and finally tied to a wild horse's tail to be dragged over the country. Terribly dramatic, amidst gorgeous scenery.

428ft. The Subject £7 2s. 8d.

OUR OUTPUT OF FILMS AMOUNTS TO 32,800 YARDS PER DAY.
REMEMBER OUR FILMS ARE ABSOLUTELY STEADY.

NEW FILMS

THE HERRING HARVEST.

A fine series of pictures illustrating this important industry.

—:o:—

1. Leaving Port.
2. Casting the Nets.
3. Hauling in Nets.
4. Returning to Port.
5. Berthing the Boats.
6. Landing the Catch.
7. Scotch Girls Cleaning Fish.
8. After Work—Girls Knitting.

395ft. £9 17s. 6d.
(Subject), Code Word, "Herrings."

CRICKS & SHARP,
7, Gt. Queen St., Kingsway, W.C.
Telegrams 'Biolesque' London.

NEW BIOSCOPE PICTURES

FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.

• • •

THE NEW BIOSCOPE TRADING COMPANY
ARE RECOGNISED AS GIVING
THE FINEST PICTURE SHOWS IN ENGLAND.

SEE FOR YOURSELVES

5, Cecil-court, W.C.

Telephone, No. 4,473 Central. Telegraphic Address, "Newbio, London."

• • •

FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.
FILMS FOR HIRE.

NEW BIOSCOPE PICTURES

22-27, CECIL COURT, CHARING CROSS RD., LONDON, W.C.
(Facing the "ALHAMBRA.")

THE CINEMATOGRAPH PIONEERS AND SPECIALISTS.

L. GAUMONT & Co.

LONDON. BARCELONA. PARIS. BERLIN.

Telephone: "2430 Gerrard."
Telegrams; "Objecist! London."

LOOK OUT! LOOK OUT!!!
For SPECIAL "ELGE" SUBJECTS for the Season,
AN "ELGE" CLINCHER,
No. 1551.

WHEN THE STORMY WINDS DO BLOW.

A RUNNING REEL OF ROUSING INTEREST WITHOUT A DULL DETAIL.

A windy day An old country swell. A silk hat. A high wind. The hat on its travels. Under the trams. Down the coal hole. Into the docks. Down the hold. Slung up in the scoop. To the top of some high buildings. Through the window. Down to the basement. Bang! Now up to the top of a high water fountain. Drenched! Then up a coal shoot. Out the top. Down the coal stack. Water and coal dust. The station once again. The hat lost for ever. Distress of the old boy.

Length 345ft. Price £6 18s. net.

WARNING.

Exhibitors must see that the Halls in which this Picture is shown have firm foundations, and that the roof girders are in good order.

No. 514.

RESCUED BY LIFEBOAT.
OF STIRRING INTEREST.

A rough sea. Boat in distress. Life endangered. "Man the Life-boat." Away. The work of rescue. Saved. Length 380ft. Price £7 12s. net. The Margate Lifeboat and Crew were used in the making of this picture.

No. 1550.

THE DRUNKEN MATTRESS.
ORIGINAL. STARTLING. STRIKING.

Length 715ft. Price £14 6s. 0d. net.

No. 1547.

THE STEP-MOTHER.
A DOMESTIC STORY IN A PICTURE.

Length 600ft. Price £12 net.

No. 1548.

A MODERN DIOGENES.
A WHIRLING WIRL OF FUN AND FANCY.

Length 165ft. Price £3 6s. 0d. net.

LOCAL PICTURES.—We are prepared to forward Operator for these within an hour's notice. Quality and promptness guaranteed.

"ASTOUNDING"!!!

This exclamation escaped involuntarily from the lips of the greatest of living Impresarios when he first saw and is the unanimous and universal verdict of all who are qualified to pass an opinion on

THE CHRONOPHONE

THE CHRONOPHONE

There is only one attraction to-day which will fill your house with eager and enthusiastic audiences AND BRING THEM AGAIN, it is

THE CHRONOPHONE

Now is your time, the Christmas Season is here.
THERE'S MONEY IN IT!

WARNING!
Immediate action will be taken against any concern attempting to palm off spurious singing pictures as the CHRONOPHONE, or otherwise trading on our reputation and trade marks.

EXHIBITORS!
We cannot too often repeat THERE IS BUT ONE CHRONOPHONE, and that is Gaumont's. The rest is BLUFF!

L. GAUMONT & CO.

KEEP YOUR EYE OPEN FOR NEW "CLARENDON" FILMS.
Some EXTRA XMAS subjects will appear shortly.

A RIB-TICKLING IN REALITY. The Trickiest of Trick Films.

No. C145.

THE HORSE THAT ATE THE BABY.

You see the Baby go down mouthful by mouthful. It is heard by the frenzied Mother crying inside the Horse. A Veterinary Surgeon is called. A life-and-death operation on the Gee-gee: The Horse completely empty of his internal organs. His ribs removed. The Baby brought forth whole and uninjured. The horse none the worse for his experience.

Length 275ft. Price £5 10s. net.

No. C144.

THE DOUBLE LIFE.
A FINE DRAMA.

Length 580ft. Price £11 12s. net.

New "Norwood" Film

No. N09.

THE AMOROUS POLICEMAN.
A ROARING COMEDY.

Length 110ft. Price £2 4s. net.

EXTRA! EXTRA!
SANTOS DUMONT'S AEROPLANE.
THE CONQUEST OF THE CLOUDS.

The theme which is filling the papers, the periodicals. THE TOPIC OF THE MAN IN THE STREET. Man is master of the air. ÆRIAL NAVIGATION A FACT. It has been done. WE HAVE DONE IT. SANTOS DUMONT'S ASCENT, FLIGHT THROUGH SPACE, DESCENT, CONGRATULATIONS,

Now is Your Opportunity to Win the Prize.

Length 105ft. Price £2 2s. net.

HIRING DEPARTMENT.—A wide and comprehensive collection of the latest Sensationals, Comics, Tricks, and Notable Events,

Hepworth

No. 1207.

A GRANDCHILD'S DEVOTION.

SCENE I.—DRINK AND DISGRACE.—In a grocer's shop a father and daughter are engaged in serving a number of customers. At one corner of the shop an old man is leaning against the walls; as he totters forward it is seen that he is in drink. The old chap, father of the shopkeeper, advances with familiarity towards the customers, much to their dislike. All would-be purchasers now leave the shop highly indignant, and the irate shopkeeper, hastening up to the old man, turns him out into the street. The child, clinging to her grandfather in spite of her father's persuasions to return with him, is left quite discarded by her parent.

SCENE II.—POVERTY AND REPENTANCE.—The child and old man although clinging together are not quite happy. The little girl in the garret is in tears, because of the old man's love for the bottle. The heartbroken sobs of his grandchild, just as he is once again about to indulge, touches the old man keenly, and with sudden re-awakened resolution he dashes the bottle to the ground and smashes it to atoms. Turning to the child he holds out his arms, and she flies to him with great gladness and love. He comforts her by his assurance to mend his ways, and putting on the boards for sandwich work he leaves the house.

SCENE III.—HER FATHER'S CARRIAGE.—Outside a London theatre in a very busy street our little heroine is walking about offering her goods for sale. While strolling about she suddenly spies her father's carriage draw up near the kerb. With sudden resolution she opens the door, and comfortably settles down on the cushions. The owner of the carriage soon makes his appearance, gives his instructions to the coachman, and jumps in. Driving down the street, the coachman is ordered to draw up, and a policeman is called. The officer is made acquainted with the facts, and he pulls the poor child from her warm corner. As the man leaves his carriage to give further details to the constable, the child rushes to him and discloses her identity. The parent, much surprised and pleased, clasps his child fondly, and promptly squares the officer. After explaining to her father the alteration in her grandfather, the man immediately says "we must go and find grandpapa." She takes her father to the garret, where he views with much remorse the sad conditions under which his dear ones have lived. The old man not being at home they go once more into the street to look for him; nearing a confectioner's they see grandpa enter, a place he has formerly seldom patronised. Hurrying forward, his dear grandchild places her arms around his neck, and father and son forgetting the past, shake hands.

Length 375ft. Price £9 7s. 6d.
(Metres 114.30.)

HEPWORTH MANUFACTURING Co LTD
TELEPHONE No. 2451 GERRARD.
Telegrams: "HEPTOIC," London.
CINEMATOGRAPHERS,
15 and 17, Cecil Court, Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

PAUL'S LATEST - - - - FILMS.

INTRODUCTION EXTRAORDINARY.
A very Novel Film.
Length 375ft, Code-word "Clothing."

HOW TO MAKE THE TIME FLY.
Quite a New Idea in Animated Photography.
Length 360ft. Code-word "Time."

WOMAN SUPREME.
The Twentieth Century Woman.
Length 212ft. Code-word "Supreme."

THE ? MOTORIST.
The Picture that has Caused a Sensation wherever it has been Exhibited.
Code-word "Motorist." Length 187ft.

ROBT. W. PAUL,
68, HIGH HOLBORN, LONDON, W.C.
Tels.: CALIBRATE, LONDON. Tels.: 4814 HOLBORN.

Telegrams: "Ruffoscope, London." Telephone: 6695 Gerrard.

RUFFELL'S PICTURES

Hold your Audience.

RUFFELL'S PICTURES
Hold their Own.

RUFFELL'S PICTURES
Hold the Name.

Try "Ruffell's" in your Billing and the result will be a Success and a Draw.
Place your Date with us, the Reliable STAR PICTURE EXHIBITORS.
We collect and use nothing but the very best Films of the highest photographic quality of all the leading British and Continental Manufacturers, besides Original Subjects of our own, hence our standard of efficiency is always TIP-TOP.
Complete Weekly Changes.
Terms Moderate.

RUFFELL'S IMPERIAL BIOSCOPE SYNDICATE,
12, LITTLE NEWPORT STREET, W.C.
(Opposite the Hippodrome.)

FILMS FOR HIRE.

HOTEL PROPRIETORS.

To Hotel Proprietors who regularly file "The Era."

HANDSOME ILLUMINATED METAL TABLETS
of
"THE ERA"
will be supplied gratis on application to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

SOUTH AFRICANS VERSUS WALES.

THE Match of the Tour.

. . We have two operators taking this match to-day . .

PRINTS WILL BE READY EARLY MONDAY MORNING.

We shall be at work all day on Sunday and can reply to wires and 'phone.

Quality and length of picture will be telegraphed free on Sunday to those requiring the information.

(We have EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS of cinematographing this match.)

THE GREAT

MAIL ROBBERY.

Copyright 1906 by
S. LUBIN, PHILADELPHIA, U.S.A.

Length 550ft. Price £13 15 0 (less 20 per cent.) Code word OXCOX.

A THRILLING PICTURE WITH THE USUAL WELL-KNOWN DASH OF AMERICAN SUBJECTS . . .

We are Sole European Agents for Mr. Lubin's productions, and we are authorised to take immediate steps against anyone found either pirating his ideas or duplicating his originals.

PLEASE NOTE

That all Lubin's Films are ORIGINALS. They are not made in England from secondary negatives, but from the ORIGINAL negative in America. We do NOT deal in, touch, or handle duplicated prints of any sort whatever.

READY IN A FEW DAYS.

FOX HUNTING.

ONE OF THE GREATEST NATURAL SUBJECT-PICTURES EVER PRODUCED.

The WARWICK TRADING CO.,
THE WORLD'S HEADQUARTERS FOR ANIMATED PHOTOGRAPHY,
4 & 5, WARWICK COURT, HOLBORN, LONDON, W.C.
Telephone: 1135 Holborn. Telegrams: "COUSINHOOD, LONDON"
PARIS HOUSE—16, RUE ST. CECILE.

URBAN PRODUCTIONS

"TRUE TO HIS TRUST."

A cleverly conceived, superbly enacted and exquisitily photographed minor melodrama of great human interest.

No. 3146.
Length 500ft.

RECORD BREAKING BIOSCOPE SENSATIONS OF THE YEAR.

CONQUERING THE DOLOMITES.

Photographed by the intrepid mountain climber, Mr. F. ORMISTON-SMITH.

The only record ever secured of the scaling, from base to summit, of many peaks of the Dolomites of Southern Tyrol, some of which had never before been ascended. The most difficult mountaineering feats in the world.

The audience see the climbers start on their hazardous journey, accompany them step by step, gasp with apprehension as they negotiate the difficult rocks and treacherous "traverses," and heave a sigh of thankfulness when they realise that the hard-fought-for summit is reached. Finally, they depart with a glad consciousness that the safest and most entertaining method of climbing the Dolomites is by—the Urban Bioscope.

Marvels of Clearness and Realistic to a remarkable degree.
Nerve Thrilling, Exhilarating, Wonderfully Fascinating.

No. 1932.—FULL descriptive pamphlet of the Wonderful Tyrol Series on application. Length 500ft.

"LA PATRIE":

THE FRENCH ARMY NAVIGABLE BALLOON,

Recently taken over by the French Military Authorities for the defence of Verdun. We obtained exclusive rights to Bioscope the successful ascent at Moisson on the 26th inst., when a speed of nearly 30 miles an hour was made. Perfect control of the air-ship was assured, and the photographic result is now published for the first time.

Photographic quality magnificent. Absolutely steady.

No. 3154. Length 325ft.

THE MAGIC BOTTLE.

Astounding feats of Magic performed before the eyes of the audience. Mysterious changes, appearances and disappearances, Fascinating, Exciting, Bewildering.

This beautiful subject (which is supplied artistically coloured by hand at an extra charge of £3 6s. 8d.) presents a rare combination of Mystery, Loveliness, Superb Photography, and Clever Acting.

A series of Wonderful Delusions wonderfully staged.

No. 1866. Length 20ft.

TERMS: CASH WITH ORDER.

The CHARLES URBAN TRADING COMPANY LTD

Chief Offices 48 RUPERT ST LONDON, W. BRANCH AT 46 MARKET ST, MANCHESTER.
TELEGRAMS BIOSCOPE, LONDON PARIS - BARCELONA - NEW YORK. TELEPHONE 3118 CENTRAL.

For other Cinematograph Advertisements see Following Pages.

WALTURDAW

THE WORLD'S
BIOSCOPE OUTFITTERS.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER
READY NEXT WEEK.

OUR DAILY BREAD. Code Word, BREAD.
(Beautifully Tinted at no extra charge.)
Ploughing, Winnowing, Sowing, Rolling Fields of Golden Corn, Reaping and Bundling, Loading, Stacking, Threshing, the Bake-house, the Finished Loaf. Magnificent quality throughout, highly interesting and instructive.
2451ft. £6 2s. 6d.

OTHELLO. Code Word, OTELLO.
The grand tragedy of William Shakespeare retold with glorious effects. The canals of Venice beautifully tinted, the strong dramatic story of the jealous Moor, the lovely Desdemona and the wicked adventurer Iago, culminating in the smothering of Desdemona, the death of Othello. Perfect quality. 5401ft. £13 10s.

PEEP ROUND THE ZOO. Code Word, ZOO.
(AS SHOWING AT THE MOSS EMPIRES).
Admittedly the finest in photographic quality of this interesting subject. Has now been tinted and toned (no extra charge) in various shades.
4951ft £12 2s. 6d.

Our Price, 6d. per foot, less 20 %

WALTURDAW
No. 5.

This Machine is constructed on a different Model to Nos. 1 and 3, but same workmanship and material are used, viz., The Best. It is constructed to meet the demand for a cheaper Machine than we have hitherto manufactured. It is not made for Sale only, but, like all Walturdaw productions, for work. Alive to the requirements of Exhibitors, we have pleasure in recommending this Machine, which, though cheap, is a thoroughly practical and reliable instrument.

Price £15.

THE "WALTURDAW"

THE "WALTURDAW" CO., LTD.,
3, Dean Street, High Holborn, LONDON, W.C.
Telegrams "ALBERTYPE, LONDON." Telephone: 4707 Holborn.

TO BE LET
ON BUILDING LEASE, OR FOR SALE,
the grandest and most perfectly positioned
MUSIC HALL OR THEATRE SITE
In South London.

Main Road Frontage of 112ft. to Tooting-road, close to the Tram Junction, ultimately connecting up the L.C.C., City, and West-end Trams with Wimbledon, Croydon, and Putney. Side Frontages of 167ft. to Lessingham-avenue and 161ft. to Derrington-road.

The scheme lately stopped by death of projector. Opportunity up to Christmas next for speculator or syndicate to take up scheme.

Plans approved by and Certificate for Licence granted by County Council.

Small premium only for 99 years' lease at £220 per annum.

Plans at Messrs. RINGS and MYERS, Architects, 21, Railway-approach, London-bridge, S.E. Particulars of Messrs. WALTON and LEE, Sole Agents, 10, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, W.

You must be reminded of the EXPERT SERVICE at your command. . . .

We are Specialists for PROFESSIONAL PHOTOS.
in all Modern Processes

Artistic in POSE, STYLE, and FINISH.

We do the right kind of Photos. for Artists, and at Special Advantageous Rates.

Get our Professional Price List.

THE Hana STUDIOS, Ltd.,
22, BEDFORD STREET, STRAND.

"EMPIRE" CINEMATOGRAPH ACCESSORIES.

The "EMPIRE"
HIGH POWER LIME-JET.

This jet is the most powerful made, and gives a light of 2,500 candle power rivalling arc lamps. For the light obtained the gas consumption is very small. It is substantially mounted on a mechanical tray and has a patent gas cut-off.

Price £3 10s. 0d.

The "EMPIRE"
FILM SPOOL WINDER.

Two stout folding arms on a detachable base to carry 12in. spools with geared winding wheels to rewind film from spools. A useful article to every showman.

Price 15s.

The "EMPIRE"
ARC LAMP.

An arc lamp built on an entirely new principle, giving more light for the amount of current used than any other principle. The great advantage of this system is that the crater is always where it should be—opposite the centre of condenser. It is heavily built and well insulated.

Price £6 6s. 0d.

W. BUTCHER & SONS, CAMERA HOUSE, FARRINGDON AV., E.C.
"EMPIRE" CINEMATOGRAPH CATALOGUE FREE ON APPLICATION.

FREE SONGS.
GREAT BIG HITS FOR PANTOMIME.

YOU CAN MAKE THE HIT OF THE SHOW WITH ANY OF THESE.

* "SLEEP AND FORGET." Song or Vocal Duet for Girl and Boy.
* "I'M WEARING MY HEART AWAY FOR YOU."
* "WHERE THE SUNSET TURNS THE OCEAN'S BLUE TO GOLD."
* "ROSES, ROSES EV'RYWHERE." A Charming Song.
* "FAREWELL! MY ANNABELLE." Another "Dolly Grey."
"THE MERRY VAGABONDS." Sparkling Vocal Duet for Tenor and Bass.
* "THE GATES OF DAWN." Very Effective. Fairy Queen, &c.
"TILL I DIE" & "WHEN THE EBB-TIDE." Bass Songs for Demon Kings, &c.
"TWO LITTLE GIRLS LOVED ONE LITTLE BOY."
"WILL YOU DANCE WITH A FRIEND OF MINE?"
"WHAT MAKES ME LOVE YOU AS I DO?"
"LIFE OF MY HEART." An Ideal Song for Principal Boy or Girl.
"A SWEETER STORY STILL." (I love you better far than any words can tell.)
"MY LITTLE DUTCH COLLEEN." Comedy Refrain Song.
"I'M A-DREAMING OF YOU." Coon Love Song.
"I'LL BE BACK IN A MINUTE, BUT I GOT TO GO NOW."
"I DON'T KNOW WHERE I'M GOING, BUT I'M ON MY WAY."
"MY NAME IS MORGAN, BUT IT AIN'T J. P."
} "Rag-time" Comedy Coon Songs.
"WE ALL DO A BIT BUT FATHER." Dame Song.

Full Orchestrations of those marked (*) may be had for Six Stamps each.
Full Professional Copies can be had, price 6d. each.

CHAS. SHEARD & CO., 196, SHAFTESBURY AVENUE, LONDON.

H. & M. RAYNE,
MANUFACTURERS & OUTFITTERS,
115 to 119, WATERLOO-ROAD, LONDON, S.E.
West-End Branch—49, CHARING-CROSS-RD. (a few doors north of Hippodrome.) (opposite Tram Terminus and Waterloo Stn.) Telephone 7978 Central.

WEAVERS AT WORK.

TIGHTS.
SYMMETRICAL PADDING A SPECIALITY.
Every description of HOSIERY made to order on the shortest notice.
A NEW, LARGE, & VARIED STOCK of PURE & SPUN SILK TIGHTS, also in WORSTED & COTTON, at the lowest prices consistent with good workmanship.

DANCING BOOTS AND SHOES A SPECIALITY.
Makers to the PRINCIPAL LONDON THEATRES and LEADING ARTISTES of the Vaudeville and Operatic Stage.
Strong Linen Back Satin, Specially Woven for us for the Manufacture of LOUIS HEEL SHOES. 50 Art Shades in Stock.
FIT & STYLE GUARANTEED.

THE CHEAPEST & LARGEST STOCK OF THEATRICAL SUNDRIES IN THE WORLD.

ADMISSION TICKETS In ROLLS or PACKETS for Checking the Drawings.
Printed & Numbered to suit all requirements.
THE GLASGOW NUMERICAL TICKET AND CHECK BOOK PRINTING CO.,
Write Dept. "F" for Prices.
31 Finnieston Street, GLASGOW.

Now in Preparation.
FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
A World-wide Circulation, therefore an excellent Medium for Advertisers.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1907.
ADVERTISEMENTS should be forwarded at once to the Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.
For Scale of Charges see another Page.

JUST SEE AND TRY OUR PANTO. POSTERS.

STAFFORD & CO, Ltd., Netherfield, Notts.

WILSONS
Supply STREAMER LETTERS, Mammoth Posters, Day Bills, in First-Class Style, and the General Run of Show Printing, Streamers—the Largest Assortment in the United Kingdom—Day Bills, &c., at our Usual Low Rates.
NEW-WALK PRINTING WORKS, LEICESTER.

MR. FAWCETT LOMAX, Dis. Comedy, Character, Sing and Dance, can Produce Panto. 9, Rosamond-st. East, Manchester.

MR. BERESFORD LOVETT is admirable as Captain Somers.—Swindon Advertiser. Lead, "French Spy," Dec. 10, R., Aston.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM LOWE, Disengaged, Old Men, Women, and Character Parts. Address, 7, Bridson-st., Liverpool.

MR. HENRY LUDLOW, Gen. Ivanoff, "The Broken Melody." Dec. 10, T. R., Ashton-under-Lyne.

MR. WILLIAM LUGG, Lord Bellingham in "The Beauty of Bath." Aldwych Theatre.

MR. GEORGE F. MACKARNESS, Address, New Theatre, W.C.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY. Own Tour, "Wearin' o' the Green." En route, or Ashdale, Poulton-le-Fylde, Lanca.

MR. J. T. MACMILLAN, Address, Shakespeare Theatre, Liverpool.

MR. AUBREY MALLALIEU Concludes this week, "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire." At Lib. till Jan. 14. 19, Campbell-rd., Hanwell, W.

MR. and MRS. W. MANFREE (Amy Wood), and AMY MANFREE, "Silver King" Co. Disengaged Dec. 15. G. T., Islington, N.

MR. JERROLD MANVILLE, Producing "Dorothy" for Amateur Operatic Society. Dis. Dec. 16. 4, Aldams-rd., Dewsbury.

MR. PERCY MARSHALL, Wibsey, in "Public Opinion." Dec. 10. T. R., Bournemouth. Dis. 15th inst.

MR. CHRIS MASON, Joe Grimper, "For Life—and After." At Liberty Dec. 17. Grand Theatre, Derby.

MR. ERIC G. MERRIE, Manager, "At Cripple Creek" Co. Theatre Royal, Leigh, Dec. 10.

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR MERVYN, Juvenile Leading Business. Dis. The Cot, Trafalgar-road, Twickenham.

MR. BERTRAM MILLAR, Permanent address, 47, West Twenty-eighth-street, New York City, U.S., America.

MR. GEORGE MILLER, Rehearsing. P.O.W., Birmingham.

MR. G. M. MONTANINI, Address, The Opera House, St. Helens.

MR. HUGH MONTGOMERY, MARIE HARCOURT, Napoleon and Marcel, "Napoleon the Great" Co. T. R., Worcester.

MR. G. MORETON-WILLIAMS, "A Woman's Past" Co. Dec. 10, T. R., Seaham Harbour.

MR. F. MARTIN MORRIS, Disengaged for Management, Tour or Resident. Address, c/o Lyric Theatre, W.

MR. GRAHAM MORRISON, General-Manager, Mr. Cyril Keightley's tour. Tyne, Newcastle. Dis. Xmas, Tour or Resident.

MR. and MRS. TOM MOWBRAY (Miss Edith Ife), Disengaged. Address, 133, Lavender-sweep, Lavender Hill, S.W.

MR. GEORGE MUNRO, Sir Peter Teazle, Gravedigger, Launcelot, Gobbo, Roderigo, and S.-M. O. H., Blackpool.

MR. ARTHUR B. MURRAY, Disengaged. 6, Saltoun-rd., Brixton, S.W.

MR. SINCLAIR NEILL, as Davy Garrick. Address, C/o "The Era."

MR. HARRY ADAIR NELSON, All communications. His Majesty's Theatre, Aberdeen.

MR. ALFRED NORTHWAY, Heavy lead. "The Prodigal Parson" Tour. Alexandra Theatre, Sheffield.

MR. GUS OXLEY, Rehearsing Pantomime. 12, De Laune-street, Kennington Park, S.E.

MR. F. M. PAGET, Polonius, Antonio, Duke Frederick, Brabantio. Theatre Royal, Belfast.

MR. and MRS. ROBSON PAIGE (Mabel Syringa), Disengaged. Address, 10, Ospringe-road, N.W., or BLACKMORE.

MR. REGINALD PAYNE, Starring as Willie in "Driven from Home." Prince's Theatre, Bradford.

MR. ASHTON PEARSE, Lord Percy Kilgour, in "Public Opinion." Disengaged Dec. 17. Theatre Royal, Bournemouth.

MR. and MRS. FRED W. PERMAIN (Miss Florence Le Clercq), c/o Messrs Wheeler, 11, Greenmarket-sq., Cape Town, S. Africa.

MR. and MRS. FRANK E. PETLEY, (Miss Gertrude Price), Leading Bus., Dis. Dec. 10. Address, 10, Oberstein-rd., London, S.W.

MR. W. SCOTT PHIPP, General-Manager for "Lady Kinton's Necklace." Managers' Club, Savoy Mansions, W.C.

MR. FELIX PITT, Mr. Andrew Melville's Company. Prince's Theatre, Bradford.

MR. DONALD PRICE-EVANS, Title-rôle, "The Private Secretary" Co. Grand Theatre, Leeds.

MR. STANLEY PRINGLE, at Liberty. 6, Brunswick-gardens, W.

MR. WILLIAM PRINGLE, "Belle of Mayfair." Vaudeville Theatre.

MR. ARTHUR LAW RAYNOR, Manager for Mr. Bert Coote, Address, 150, Oxford-street, W.

MR. HENRY RENOUF, Lead. MISS MIMA RENOUF, Com. Old Women. Char. Dis. 72, Prince's-st., Southend-on-Sea.

MR. FRANK RIDLEY, Mr. Forbes Robertson's American Tour. Letters addressed A.A. forwarded.

MR. HARRY H. RIGNOLD, At Liberty until Dec. 16. Address, 260 King's-road, Kingston-on-Thames.

MR. WALTER L. RIGNOLD, Stage-Management, "Crusoe's Adventures." P. O. W., Birmingham. Liberty Spring.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS Dis. Heavy, Character, or Pathetic O.M. Dis. 2, Lancaster-road, Leytonstone, N.E.

MR. LEONARD ROBSON, playing in own first piece, "Prince Chap" Co. Disengaged Dec. 24, New Theatre, Greenock.

MR. BASSETT ROE, Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. STANLEY ROGERS, Address all communications, 134, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

MR. BAY RUSSELL, Engaged by Robert Courtneidge, Esq., Dandini, King's, Edinburgh. Rehearsing, open Dec. 8.

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK SANDY (Doris Lorraine). General-Manager, A. Melville's "Driven From Home" Co. P., Bradford.

MR. VERNON SANSBURY, Disengaged Dec. 15, for Lead. Address, c/o "The Era."

MR. ARCHIE SELWYN, "The Broken Melody" Co., Disengaged Jan. 5. Dec. 10, T. R., Ashton-under-Lyne.

MR. WILLIE SCOTT Concludes Tonight Successful Tours with Miss M. Hildyard. Rehearsing Panto., Elephant and Castle T.

MR. and MRS. JOHN B. SHINTON Leading Business. Disengaged. Address, c/o. "The Era," 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.

MR. THOMAS SIDNEY at Liberty, 16, Long-acre, W.C.

MR. JAMES SKEA, Character Actor. Dis. Dec. 10. 56, Colverstone-crescent, Dalston, London.

MR. A. GIFFORD STACEY, Manager for Mr. Robert Courtneidge, Apollo Theatre, W.

MR. E. STANTON-SHARP, John Storm, in "The Christian" (Howard's). Dec. 10, T. R., Lincoln; 13th, Castle T., Richmond.

MR. W. R. STAVELEY, Disengaged. 239, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

MR. LAURENCE STEVENSON, "The Jungle," Mr. C. W. Somerset's Co., Dalston, N.E. Dis. Dec. 17.

MR. ERNEST ST. JOHN, General Gordon, "At Duty's Call," Lyric, Hammersmith. Per., Maida House, Maida Vale, W.

MR. GEORGE STONE, Resident-Manager (Thirteenth Year), Royalty T. and Opera House, Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. STORY-GOFTON, At Liberty, productions, parts, or Management. Address, care of "The Era."

MR. WALLACE STRANACK, General-Manager, "The Fair One," Panto. Disengaged Spring. N. G. T., Leith.

MR. AUGUSTIN SYMONDS and Miss KATE PARRY. Address, Theatre Royal, Cardiff.

MR. ALGERNON SYMS, Disengaged Lead, &c. Disengaged. Perm. add., 3, Springdale-road, Clissold Park, N.

MR. TAPPING. Address, 28, Leyland-road, Lee, S.E.

MR. and MRS. J. MILNE TAYLOR, Heavies, or Character and Comedy, or Character, Disengaged. 77, Edge-lane-road, Oldham.

MR. FRED TERRISS, Disengaged, Unexpectedly Disengaged. Royal West London Theatre, Dec. 10, Six Nights.

MR. and MRS. E. W. THOMAS (Agnes Knights), at Liberty. The Attic, 38, Grafton-square, Clapham Common, S.W.

MR. RAYMOND THOMAS, at Liberty for Heavy Lead or Character. Add., to-day, Theatre Royal, Norwich; after, A. A.

MR. WYLIE A. THOMPSON, Conclusion "Brigadier Gerard" Tour. Disengaged. Bridgen, Bexley, Kent.

MR. ALEC F. THOMPSON, Stage-Manager, Messrs. Lely and Mollison's Productions. King's Theatre, Glasgow.

MR. and MRS. WALTER THORNTON (Miss Florence Hamilton). Disengaged. 35, St. John's-park, Upper Holloway, N.

MR. and MRS. MONSON THORPE (Gwendolen Thorpe), Leads, "The Dear Homeland" Co., 10th, Nuneaton.

MR. ALFRED C. TOONE, Musical Director, Gatti and Frohman's "Belle of Mayfair." T. R., Brighton.

MR. GEORGE TRAILL, "The Breed of the Treshams" Tour. 10th, Tunbridge Wells; 13th, Worthing.

MR. J. HENRY TWYFORD, Concluding Tour, "Brigadier Gerard." Mr. Lewis Waller's Co.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD VAN BIENE (Kate Hallam), Gen. Mgt. and Star Lead, "The Drama of Life" Co. T. R., Wednesbury.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. B. VAUGHAN (Miss M. Lewes). Mr. Vaughan supporting Mr. Forbes Robertson, Amsterdam T., New York.

MR. PERCY H. VERNON, Engaged to produce Entire Répertoire for Miss F. Glossop-Harris and F. Cellier's Company.

MR. ERIC VICTOR, Disengaged. York Villa, Plough-lane, Wimbledon.

MR. FREDERICK VICTOR, Napoleon, "A Royal Divorce." Opera House, Leicester.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS VIGORS (Miss L. Beaumont), D. V., Duke of York's; L. B., Camden T., Dis. 17th. 35, Bridge-av., H'smith.

MR. ARTHUR WALCOTT, Hippodrome Theatre, Manchester, Dec. 10.

MR. EDWIN WALTON, Dec. 10, Hippodrome, Liverpool.

MR. PERCY CARNE WARAM, Mr. Ben Greet's Co. Low's Exchange, 1123, Broadway, New York.

MR. ALBERT WARD, "The Profligate King," a genuine success. 55, Doddington-grove, Kennington Park.

MR. W. LEMMON WARDE, Disengaged. 47, Algiers-road, Ladywell, London, E.

MR. HYLTON WARDE, Messrs. B. & F. Wheeler's Comedy Co., South African Tour. Perm., 17, Doris-rd., Norwich, or A.A

MR. FRANK WEATHERSBY, Theatrical Agency, 3, Bedford-street, Strand. 'Phone, 3781 Cen. Tel., "Frivolous, London."

MR. WYN WEAVER, Address, Lyceum Theatre, Ipswich.

MR. CHARLES WEIR, Disengaged. 19, Ossington-street, Bayswater, W.

MR. C. A. WHITE, "Beauty and the Barge." Lyceum Theatre, Sheffield.

MR. & MRS. TOWNSEND WHITLING (Violet Ley). All arrangements complete. Prince's T., Bristol.

MR. VICTOR WIDDICOMBE, at Liberty Dec. 22. 27, Aigburth-mansions, Brixton, S.W.

MR. HERBERT WILLIAMS, Thanks for offer Dame, Terry's Theatre, W. Six Bros. Luck, Palace, Halifax.

MR. LEONARD WILLIAMS, Juvenile Lead. T. R., Exeter. Perm., The Blorenge, Taunton; or A.A.

MR. CHARLES WINDERMERE Concludes Tour with "Facing the Music." Dec. 10, New Theatre, Cambridge.

MR. A. WOOD. Address, 69, St. Mary's-road, Peckham, S.E.

MR. FRANK MOTLEY WOOD, Disengaged. Address, c/o "The Era."

MR. GRAHAM WOODS, De Beaumont, "Royal Divorce," Miss Robson, L. Carson Co., en route. O. H., Leicester.

MR. HARRY G. WRIGHT, Zeke, "For Life—and After." At Liberty Dec. 17. Grand Theatre, Derby.

MR. EDWIN H. WYNNE, Comedy, Character. 39, Aigburth-mansions, Brixton, S.W.

MR. DUNCAN YARROW, Horatio Drake, in "The Christian" (Howard's), 10th, Lincoln; 13th, Richmond.

MR. FRED ZIETZ, Poodle. Third Season in Mr. Robert Arthur's Pantomime. Great success at rehearsals. H. M. T., Aberdeen.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISSES DORA, WINNIE, and MASTER LEONARD CRISP. Child parts and toe dancers. 51, Braybourne-avenue, Clapham.

APPLICATIONS FOR POSITIONS on the FRONT PAGE of "The Era" should be addressed to the PUBLISHER.

SHORTLY CLOSING FOR ADVERTISEMENTS. FORTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION. A World-wide Circulation, therefore an excellent Medium for Advertisers.

THE ERA ANNUAL, 1907.

ADVERTISEMENTS should be forwarded at once to the Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C. For Scale of Charges see another Page.

"THE ERA" IN AMERICA.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

LOW'S STEAMSHIP AGENCY.
1,123 BROADWAY,
Corner TWENTY-FIFTH-STREET.
Choice Berths on all Steamers at Lowest Rates
Receiving Mail, Storing, Forwarding Baggage

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED

American Artistes visiting the Metropolis use The Era Offices as their Permanent London Address.

Apply or Address,
LOW'S STEAMSHIP AGENCY,
1,123, Broadway, corner Twenty-fifth-street,
New York.

OUR MOTTO—
"NEVER ASLEEP."

AN EXCEPTIONAL OFFER.

By Special Arrangement,

TOURING MANAGERS

can have their Wardrobes Cleaned between Shows, when in or near London. 'Phone, wire, or write

FACILITIES AND ENERGY ILLIMITABLE.

SPECIAL QUOTATIONS. ADVICE FOR NOTHING.
PRECEDENCE GIVEN TO PROFESSIONAL ORDERS.

Last year's exceptionally low offer for cleaning panto dresses, in quantities, holds good for this season. Price and quality of our work not to be beaten. Nulli secundus.

WARDROBES CLEANED BETWEEN SHOWS.

'PHONE, WIRE, OR WRITE TO T. HARRIS.

T. HARRIS.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

TOURING MANAGERS, LOOK OUT YOUR PANTOMIME DRESSES AT ONCE.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL.

Shakespeare Theatre, Clapham, S.W.
Nov. 23, 1906.

Dear Mr. Harris,—You have made a splendid success of my satin gown. It looks lovely, and I am delighted with it. Many thanks. Enclosed please find cheque in settlement of account herewith.

Faithfully yours,
ADA BLANCHE.

CHEMICAL CLEANING & DYEING COMPANY,
ORIGINAL THEATRICAL CLEANERS AND DYERS,
6, ARGYLL ST., REGENT ST., W.
Telegraphic Address, "CLEANING, LONDON." Telephone, THREE-NINE-TWO-THREE, GERRARD.

THE LATEST STYLE.

THE 'PREMIER' TIP-UP CHAIRS.

PATENT AUTOMATIC, ELEGANT & INEXPENSIVE, MAHOGANY INLAID FRAMES.

"Examples of Seating," new edition, just published, containing an extensive assortment of the Newest Designs in Theatrical Seating, &c.
Write for New Catalogue post free—

{Telegraphic Address: "Malleable," London
{Telephone: 9153, London Wall.

H. LAZARUS & SON, Specialists in Seating,
21, GREAT EASTERN STREET, LONDON, E.C.

- - THE AMERICAN PATENT FOR OUR CHAIRS FOR SALE - -

NEW PLAYS OF THE MONTH.

LONDON.

Nov. 5. The Collaborators, play, in one act, by Mrs. Kingsley Tarpey—Criterion.
„ 10. The Electric Man, farcical comedy, in three acts, by Charles Hannan (originally produced at the King's Theatre, Hammersmith, April 4, 1904)—Royalty.
„ 10. The Setting of the Sun, play, in one act, by Charles Hannan (originally produced at the Court Theatre, Liverpool, Oct. 13, 1892)—Royalty.
„ 20. The Doctor's Dilemma, tragedy, in four acts and an epilogue, by George Bernard Shaw—Court.
„ 24. The Widow Capet, historical playlet, by Louis Cohen (copyright performance)—Coronet.
„ 26. Guilty Gold, drama, in five acts, by Dr. D. T. Callahan—Dalston Theatre.
„ 26. Julie Bonbon, play, in four acts by Miss Clara Lipman (originally produced in America), played by American company—Waldorf.
„ 27. Wasps, comedy, in three acts, by Muriel Carmel Goldsmid (Muriel Carmel)—Royalty.

REVIVAL.

Nov. 19. Richard II., Shakespeare's historical tragedy, as arranged by Herbert Beerbohm Tree—His Majesty's.
„ 27. Daughters of Shem, play, in one act, by Muriel Carmel Goldsmid (Muriel Carmel) and Samuel Gordon (originally produced at the Royalty Theatre by the Pioneers on May 20, 1906)—Royalty.

PROVINCES.

Nov. 2. The Spell, a tragedy of truth, in two panels, by Rosamund Langbridge, with special music by Norman O'Neil—Theatre Royal, Manchester.
„ 2. Adrienne Lecouvreur, new version, in five acts, of Scribe and Legouvé's French play—Theatre Royal, Bradford.
„ 5. The Other Heir, comedy, in one act, by Ernest H. G. Cox—Her Majesty's Opera House, Blackpool.
„ 6. The Crusader, grand opera, for juveniles, in four acts, written and composed by George Tootell—Lytham Pier Theatre.
„ 12. The Cornish Girl, pastoral romantic opera, in two acts, founded on a historical Cornish story, written by Edward C. Arden, the music composed by Jullien H. Wilson and Clement Locknane—Pleasure Gardens Theatre, Folkestone.
„ 14. The Crystal Gazer, dramatic sketch, by Leopold Marteyn—Royal Albert Hall Theatre.
„ 14. The Vicar of Wakefield, romantic opera, founded on Oliver Goldsmith's novel, in three acts, lyrics by Laurence Housman, music by 'Liza Lehmann—Prince's Theatre, Manchester.
„ 15. Her Son, comedy, in four acts, by Horace Annesley Vachell—Theatre Royal, Glasgow.
„ 15. The Beauty Shop, musical comedy, in three scenes, by W. H. Kirby, music by George Gee, and lyrics by Douglas B. Watson—New Gaiety Theatre, Ayr.
„ 23. The Lost Chord, play by Sutton Vane and Arthur Carlton (copyright performance)—Theatre Royal, Worcester.
„ 26. Woman's Wiles, comedy, in one act, by William Young — Theatre Royal, Brighton.
„ 26. The Nun and the Barbarian, adaptation by Osmond Shillingford of the three-act Spanish play La Loca de la Coas—Theatre Royal, Margate.
„ 27. Tommy, play, in three acts, by Jerome K. Jerome—Theatre, Midland Hotel, Manchester.

PARIS.

Nov. 2. Miquette et sa Mère, comedy, three acts, by Robert de Flers and Gaston de Caillavet—Variétés.
„ 5. Biribi, play, three acts, by Georges Darien and Marcel Lucas—Antoine.
„ 5. Chez les Zoaques, comedy, three acts, by Sacha Guitry—Antoine.
„ 9. Les Armaillis, dramatic legend, two acts, by Henri Cain and D. Baud-Bovy, music by Gustave Doret—Opéra-Comique.
„ 9. Le Bonhomme Jadis, opera-comique, one act, poem by Franc-Nohain, music by Jaque-Dalcroze—Opéra-Comique.
„ 10. La Vierge d'Avila (Sainte Thérèse), play, five acts and nine tableaux, by Catulle Mendès—Sarah-Bernhardt.
„ 14. Les Mouettes, play, three acts, by Paul Adam—Comédie-Française.
„ 16. Mademoiselle Josette, ma femme, comedy, four acts, by Paul Gavault and Robert Charvay—Gymnase.
„ 24. Le Major Ipéca, farce, three acts, by Mouëzy-Eon and E. Joullot—Cluny.
„ 25. Le Cœur de Sylvie, comedy, three acts, in verse, by Gabriel Nigond—Bouffes-Parisiens.
„ 27. Le Fils à Papa, vaudeville, three acts, by Antony Mars and Maurice Desvallières—Palais-Royal.
„ 28. La Ponette, comedy, four acts, by Louis Artus and Paul Fuchs—Athénée.
„ 30. Pan, satirical drama, three acts, by Charles van Lerberghe—Théâtre de l'Œuvre.

BERLIN.

Nov. 1. Zierpuppen, musical comedy, in one act, by A. Goetzl—Komische Oper.
„ 1. Onkel Dazumal, one-act comic opera, by E. J. Dalcroze—Komische Oper.
„ 8. Ritter Blaubart, three-act fairy play, by H. Eulenberg—Lessing.
„ 9. Merlin, tragedy, in five acts, by G. Renner—Royal Schauspielhaus.
„ 9. Husarenfieber, comedy, in four acts, by MM. Kadelburg and Skowronnek—Lustspielhaus.
„ 16. Die Hochzeitsjackel, four-act comedy, by Max Dreyer—New Schauspielhaus.
„ 20. Frühlings Erwachen, three-act tragedy, by F. Wedekind—Deutsches.
„ 20. Das Glashaus, comedy, in three acts, by O. Blumenthal—Royal Schauspielhaus.
„ 24. Die Feinde, play, in three acts, by Maxim Gorki—Kleines.
„ 25. Mutter Mews, five-act play, by F. Stavenhagen—Deutsches.
„ 27. Eine lustige Doppel-Ehe, musical farce, in three acts, by MM. Kraatz and Lincke—Thalia.
„ 29. Der Schmetterling, operetta, in three acts, by C. Weinberger—Des Westens.
„ 29. Gäuseliesl, five-act fairy play, by Rosa Dodillet—Lustspielhaus.
„ 30. Mathias Gollinger, four-act comedy, by MM. Blumenthal and Bernstein—Schiller N.

WHEN the late Mr. Wilson Barrett was at the Princess's Theatre, playing Hamlet, he sent one day for Mr. J. Neil Maskelyne, and inquired whether he could produce a ghost. The "Monarch of Magic" suggested several things, among them being that a figure should gradually appear in a luminous mist, float across the stage and vanish, of course, in the same way. "We shall never be able to do that," he remarked. "We could never get an actor to take it on." Another idea of Mr. Maskelyne's was that a halo of light should be made to float across the stage, but the scheme was far too elaborate for Mr. Barrett's liking."

"THE ERA" can be obtained at the principal bookstalls throughout the provinces.

PROVINCIAL THEATRICALS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

ABERDARE.—New Theatre.—Manager, Mr. L. Andrews.—Messrs. Travis Green and Arthur Hinton's company is here this week in the drama When a Man Hates. Mr. Percy E. Davison makes a fine manly Lawrence Hastings. Mr. Arthur Hinton is a great success as the half-witted Paul. Mr. W. Travis Green plays with power as Pietro Danelli. Mr. Eddie Garr as Peter Pimple is most amusing. Mr. Tom Leslie is good as Detective Smart; and the same may be said of Mr. Pleon Gains as Sir Rupert Treharne and Mr. E. Sampson as Jim Rogers. Miss Leila Zillwood displays some powerful acting as Olga Gwynne; Miss Dot Rosson as Letty is a captivating heroine; and Miss Jennie Clare is bright and vivacious as Dolly Dimple. All the minor characters are in capable hands.

ABERDEEN.—Palace Theatre.—Managing-Directors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Resident-Manager, Mr. Walter Gilbert.—Nothing could have pleased the audience better this week than the return visit of Astley's American Circus. Another notable performance is that of Ara, Zebra, and Vera, whose presentation of "Indian Pastimes" is as novel as it is amusing. The Steinway Quartette gives a delightful song scena, and Mr. Matt Wilkinson and company appear with success in a highly humorous sketch, The Registry Office. Miss Florrie Cooper sings very sweetly; Miss Fanny Robins is as graceful and vivacious as ever; and the Three Clarions contribute a delightful musical absurdity, The Would-be Tenor. Among the other successful artists are Mr. Billy Bint, an old favourite, and the Sivronis, whose burlesque is full of brightness and piquancy.

ABERTILLERY.—Theatre Metropole.—Lessees, Messrs. Arthur Carlton and Sam Duckworth; General and Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. W. Venton.—Mr. J. Arnold's company of variety artists is here this week, headed by Mr. Charlie Green, heavy-weight wrestler; the Two Olivers, dancers and patterers, are an extra good turn; Miss Eva Frere sings some popular songs in good style; Listen, comedian, and Miss Dallas, serio and dancer, are also excellent; Flemine, a one-legged acrobat, is, indeed, a marvel; Alec Alexandra, actor vocalist, deserves praise; Mr. W. T. Burgess and company play a neat little sketch, entitled Found Faithful.

ACCRINGTON.—Prince's Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. J. B. Ormerod; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. E. Barnes.—On Monday Mr. Tom A. Taylor's company opened here in The Female Swindler. Mr. Joseph Millane gave a smart rendering of John Coulson; Mr. John Belton must be complimented on his Abraham Mikestein; Mr. Henry Wright was good as Binks; the Scotchman and Lord Hitchitt Geoffrey Warden were played with effect by Mr. W. Cheetham; John Oliver was well acted by Mr. A. Kenyon Gray; Miss Grace E. Leslie embodied Lu Valroy admirably; Miss Edith Gray as Mrs. Poppen was all that could be desired; Mary Ann Mee lost nothing in the hands of Miss Mary Dawson; Miss Florrie Kelsey excelled as May Andrews.

Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Messrs. Willmot, Potter, Vandy, and Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Parsons.—An excellent bill is provided here this week. It includes Vay's Juveniles, who are very smart; Rose Elliot, with good songs; Dusty Rhodes, patter artist; Charles Santon, double-voiced comedian; Leah Arden, who is well received; Mephisto, contortionist; the Du Gros Trio, amusing and clever; J. H. Wakefield, and the Bioscope, with interesting pictures.

ALDERSHOT.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Clarence Saunes; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. E. Williams.—The Midnight Mail, on a return visit, is forming a good bill of fare, and one that is both instructive and interesting. Mr. Fred Evison and Miss Mildred Carr are supported by a clever company, including Miss Ada Oakley, Miss Phyllis Dailley, Miss G. Chesterfield; Messrs. A. Whitehead, R. Grey, and A. Gilroy.

Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Messrs. Pool and Bosco; Manager, Mr. Irving Bosco.—This well-lighted and comfortable building opened here on Monday for the season. Included in the attractive bill are the Three Moxons, the Four Watsons, Messrs. R. Yelding, O'Brien, Ida Avilo, Karados, and Valdo.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—Theatre Royal.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Fairbairn.—Miss Minnie Palmer and her company of artists organised by Mr. Wentworth Croke are here in the bright little musical comedy, My Sweetheart, which delighted audiences years ago. Miss Palmer is as full of fun and mischief as ever as Tina, and continues to sing, dance, and romp with abundant spirit. The support is excellent. Mr. Robert H. Howard is invaluable as Tony; Mr. Jno. T. MacCallum is easy and natural as the gambler, Bartlett; Mr Rupert Stutfield as the idiotic swell; and Mr. Fred W. Leonard as Joe Shotwell, the impecunious, but amusing, husband of the fashionable Mrs. Fleeter, are admirable. Miss Millie Silvester as Mrs. Fleeter is a very attractive but false-hearted woman of the world; and minor parts are well sustained by Mrs. H. E. Russell, Elsie Forster, Messrs. Chas. E. Hann, and Alfred Wray.

Empire Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Leech. — This pleasure resort continues to be well attended, the quality of entertainment submitted meeting with approval. The swell camedian, Billie French, is well received both as comic singer and buck dancer; the Bros. Hampson are amusing patter comedians and dancers; Lily Watson amuses with her songs of the low comedy kind; Edwin Garth challenges attention in his own special line of business, made up of joke and song entitled "Matrimonial Bliss"; May Zant and her clever juveniles appear in an act called Just Out of School; Charles Ridgwell, character artist; and Madge Gray, Lancashire dialect comedienne, are big favourites. A sort of pantomimic farce, in three scenes, entitled The Brewery, is comically played by Bert Bernard's company. The Bioscope pictures conclude the entertainment.

ATTERCLIFFE.—Theatre Royal, Limited.—Managing-Director, Mr. Frank Macnaughten.—The "Picture Entertainments" inaugurated here some weeks ago seem to be as popular as ever, and the illustrated songs ably rendered by the well-known vocalist, Mr. Baker E. Belphor, are highly appreciated.

Palace Theatre of Varieties.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Lacy Lyne; Assistant-Manager, Mr. S. H. Laycock.—Gustave Farsola, the Indian fakir, heads the bill here this week, and thoroughly mystifies the audiences by his clever tricks; the Three Sisters Holman are highly appreciated as coon vocalists and dancers; the Two Hartfords (lady and gentleman) are responsible for a daring cycle act, which includes a trapeze performance on the bicycle; Mr. Mark Leslie, the dusky prince, is a favourite in his songs and dances; Miss Lalla Vincent is good as a soprano ballad vocalist; Wheeler and Wilson, nautical equilibrists, give a smart show; Mr. Fred Dunstone, comedian, finds much favour with his parody songs, and Mr. Clayton presents a goodly selection of pictures on the Attergraph.

AXE.—New Gaiety Theatre.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry W. Day.—Mr. C. Watson Mill's No. 1 company, in A Warning to Women, was produced here on Monday night for a three nights' run. Mr. Mill, who plays cleverly the part of Dr. Marcus Dread, has selected a capable company. Miss Rosalind Tate enacts capably the part of Moira Kennion; Miss Emmie Barton is satisfactory as Sheila Kennion; Miss Helen Beverley is bright as Molly O'More; Mr. George Harvey makes an effective Shaun; and Mr. Norman B. Cannon as Fergus McNaughton; Mr. N. Carter Slaughter as Lord Eversleigh; and Mr. Henry Rutland as Squire Kennion, also lend efficient aid.

BACUP. — New Court Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Denman-Wood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Dudley Harcourt.—Miss Winifred Maude and company, under the direction of Mr. Victor du Cane, are appearing here in the stirring drama, The Sins of a City. Miss Winifred Maude submits a sincere rendering of the rôle of Seaweed; Mr. William Vane is a capable Sandy Macdonald; and Mr. Leonard Harrison ably sustains the part of Donald MacIvor. Mr. William Bradford as the villain Ralph Blackwater performs his arduous part with considerable credit. The character of Isaac Levi is well taken by Mr. Victor du Cane; Mr. Norton Shields renders dual service in the rôles of Joe and Jasper Woodleigh; Miss Jessie Mason is successful in the rôle of Jenny, a Scotch fisherwoman; Miss Ethel Tinsley as Lesbia delights her audience by her clever assumption of the character. The humour of the drama is well sustained by Mr. Reginald Green as the railway porter; and Miss Jenny Hackett as Midge, a servant. On Thursday and the two following evenings, The Stowaway was presented by the same company, with Mr. Victor du Cane as Dicky Dials and Miss Winifred Maude as Althea Dale.

BARROW-IN-FURNESS. — Royalty Theatre and Opera House. — Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Stone.—Mr. Lingford Carson's company, in A Modern Adventuress, is here. Mr. Sydney C. Cranston essays the part of Harry Delby with great success; and the Vivette Delby of Miss Marie Robson is a performance of much merit; Pietro Donelli has a good exponent in Mr. Charles Draycott; and the Violet Meredith of Miss Muriel Thompson is a distinguished performance. The Octoroon and The Ticket-of-Leave Man are also billed.

His Majesty's Theatre.—Lessees and Managers, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Routledege.—Mr. Charles Harrington's company, in The Sailors of the King, is here. Mr. Charles Harrington makes a capable Admiral Blake; and the brothers Dick Drake and Orrel Drake are admirably contrasted by Messrs. Frank Stephens and R. F. Stacey respectively; Miss Madge North is a pleasing Felicia Phrynne; Miss Lily Prescott a convincing Daisy Dent; and Miss Sylvia Stella a capital Rebecca Crosby.

Tivoli Theatre of Varieties. — Lessee and Manager, Signor Pepi; Stage Manager, Mr. Tom Whiting.—Simpson's novelty sketch, Burglar's Surprise, with the dog, Rover, is very well received; and Morny Cash, the Lancashire Lad, is successful; Frank Keegan and Co., do a screamingly funny absurdity, Every-day Cyclists; Spencer and Marks are amusing comedians; Phillipi Brothers in Shunting do a good turn; and Gus Merriman is clever.

BATH.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Egbert Lewis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lewis A. Long.—On Tuesday afternoon a "flying" matinée took place, under the direction of Mr. H. Bernhardt, the principal attraction being the appearance of Miss Camille Clifford, who was accorded a flattering reception from an enormous audience. The hit of the afternoon was made by Miss Margaret Cooper in her delightful "Songs at the Piano." Mr. Lionel Brough told funny stories in his own inimitable fashion; 'cello solos were performed by that eminent player Abbus; Miss Clara Alexander's studies of plantation life were loudly applauded. Songs were given by Miss Violet Elliott and Mr. Alan Turner. Miss Louie Risby, in addition to playing a couple of piano solos, accompanied the other artists admirably.

Palace Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Chas. Schuberth.—Added interest to this week's programme is aroused by the first appearance upon the vaudeville stage of that clever young local actress, Miss Lily Gullick, who, associated with Mr. Herbert St. John, has presented an up-to-date comedietta entitled My Tiger Lily, which has met with acceptance from full houses twice nightly. The thought-transference manifestations of "Mahatma" have been the means of creating curiosity and bewilderment; the Billy McClain Troupe, in their coon songs and dances, are huge favourites; the Three Rubys do marvels upon the trapeze, besides proving themselves acrobats of the first rank; Geoffreys and Benson, in their comedy sketch Spoofed, cause laughter; Belrose and De Velin sing duets in a melodious fashion; Leonto and his musical dog "Babs" are old friends; and Raymond's Bio-Tableaux reveal interesting and amusing subjects. Beattie Foster, comedy artist, is also billed, but illness prevented her appearance.

BEDFORD.—Royal County Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. E. Graham-Falcon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter R. Wilson.—This week the boards are occupied by Blanche and Diacoff's vaudeville company. Miss Eva Balcliffe proved herself to be a refined coon singer, and the Musical Majors cause plenty of amusement; George Daunton, comedian, and Flo Melville, serio, present a good entertainment; Blanche and Diacoff, in their cycle whizz, give a clever peformance; Joe Andry, a laughing comedian, causes plenty of fun, and the Sisters Beatrice are successful as duettists and dancers; Costel, the humorous conjurer, contributes a valuable item to the programme.

BELFAST.—Palace Theatre.—Proprietors, Warden, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. Harris. — Undoubtedly one of the chief events of the theatrical season here is the engagement of that clever actor, Mr. Martin Harvey, who, fresh from his triumphs in Dublin, opened here on Monday with the ever attractive play, The Only Way. Mr. Harvey was assisted by a first-class company, and on making his appearance was accorded a noteworthy reception. His impersonation of Sydney Carton was a decided triumph, completely enthralling the audience. In the beautiful scene with Lucy in the garden, and in the final scene, Mr. Harvey's acting was superb, and it was little wonder his performance created intense enthusiasm. A delightful impersonation of Mimi is furnished by that clever actress, Miss N. De Silva, who deservedly shared the honours of this brilliant performance. Another fine impersonation was that of Mr. Fred Wright, sen., who assumed the rôle of Dr. Manette with no little skill; while we have nothing but praise for Miss Coleridge for her charming impersonation of Lucy Manette. Mr. Leonard Craske was all that could be desired as Charles Darney, his acting being excellent; and it would be difficult to excel Mr. Charles Glenney's assumption of Ernest Defarge. Other rôles were sustained by Miss May Rorke, Miss Bessie Elder, and Messrs. A. E. Raynor, J. E. Frayzer, S. Mansfield, &c. The Only Way was repeated on Tuesday and Wednesday (Students' night); on Thursday Hamlet was performed; and to-night (Saturday) A Cigarette-Maker's Romance will be produced. It should be added that the enthusiasm on Monday was so pronounced that Mr. Harvey was compelled to make a speech of thanks at the close of the performance.

Theatre Royal.—Proprietors, Warden, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. James M. McCann.—The Three Olympiers head the bill, and present with much success their artistic entertainment, entitled "Beauty in Bronze." Mr. Frank Coyle is a capital comedian, with catchy chorus songs; and a good reception has been extended to Macdonald's Melody Makers, who present their phantom scena, The Burglar's Dream, a decidedly clever entertainment. The feats of illusion by Mr. Ormonde Penstone are quite amazing; and Miss Cora Duncan and Mr. Albert Brasque appear to advantage in their interesting dramatic and musical episode, entitled A Dressing-Room Romance. Miss Winnie Scott is a charming comedienne; and also appearing are Mr. Fred Collins, Scotch comedian; Stacey and Williams, comedians; and the Royal Pictures.

Empire Theatre of Varieties, Ltd.—General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Acting-Manager, Mr. John S. Walker.—Marie Santoi and company head the bill, and have been successful in their latest musical novelty, The Japanese Tea-Garden by Night, the vocal items being capitally rendered. Mr. Harry Bent's mimicry has much to commend it; and Miss Jessie Burnett is a charming comedienne with a fine voice. Derenda and Green, juggling comedians, supply one of the best turns on the bill with their unique performance; and the Paxton Trio perform some amazing feats of head and hand balancing. As a ventriloquist Oakdene furnishes us with something new, and his smart performance gains the reception it deserves; Miss May Fallowfield is a comedy artist of much ability; and others appearing are Miss Carlotta Lunn, comedienne; and Mr. Frank Maura, Mexican fumnambulist.

New Alhambra Theatre of Varieties.—General-Manager, Mr. Henry T. Downs.—The Alhambra Dramatic Company produce here this week the sterling drama, entitled Wings of Wealth, by Mr. Albert H. Clarke. Mr. Horace Denton plays the part of George Brandon with a large measure of success; and Miss Nina Blake-Adams, a clever actress, assumes the rôle of Elsie Brandon with much credit to herself and in a manner that would indeed be difficult to excel. The villainies of Fergus Vavasour were realistically portrayed by Mr. Percy M. Stevenson; and much praise is due to that versatile actor, Mr. Cyril Grier, for his finished impersonation of the character part of Ephraim Isaacs. The humour of the piece was in safe hands. Mr. Tom H. Solly (who is also responsible for stage-management) was decidedly humorous as Alphonso Green, and he was ably assisted by Miss Mattie Crawford, a charming comedienne, who was a vivacious Betsy Badger. Mr. Elmore Frith was admirable as Dr. Currie; and Miss Dora Price was the haughty Lady Everdale to the life. Mr. H. Heselegrave submitted a fine character sketch of Ben Badger; and other rôles were portrayed by Mr. E. Smyth and Mr. F. Moselle. The A'hambra Bioscope exhibits a fine picture.

BILSTON.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Battersby; Musical-Director, Mr. J. B. Machin.—By way of change from drama, Mr. Tom Pritchard's company of variety performers is now on the scene. Arthur Albert is the prominent vocalist; Harry Mantle proves a good descriptive singer; and the Orchids have a medley duet, and are good patterers. Madame Collard's miniature menagerie of animals, made up as lions, tigers, hyenas, &c., is a novelty, and tops the bill. Koups and Lina are smart on wind instruments; a triple-bar act comes from the Smalleys; and other vocalists and dancers include Sands and Shipley, Maude Laverne, G. W. Clifton, and Nellie Duval. There are also bioscope pictures.

BIRKENHEAD.—New Theatre Royal.—Lessee, Mr. W. W. Kelly; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Pelt.—Mr. George Stephenson's company in the musical comedy, Kitty Grey, is on a successful first visit here. The title-rôle is admirably undertaken by Miss Hilda Glover, who gives an interesting rendering of the part; Mr. Leslie Steward is amusing as Lord Plantagenet; the King of Illyria is well represented by Mr. Lauri Lisle; Mr. Herbert Ranson is an excellent Sir John Binfield, and the Comte de Trenitz is well played by Mr. Gordon Leslie. Miss Dorothy Sephton is suited as Lady Binfield; Miss Nellie Laurance is an efficient Mrs. Bright; Miss Elsie Skillings is a good Sadie de Poulson, and Mr. V. Wakeman gives a capable rendering of Joseph.

Argyle Theatre of Varieties.—Manager, Mr. D. J. Clarke.—Mr. Harry Lauder is the bright, particular star this week, and, as a matter of course, the house is filled to its utmost capacity twice nightly. A capital combination also includes Mr. George Formby, comedian; Miss Bijou Russell, dancer; Miss Elia Retford, comedienne; Verno and Voyce, singing comedians; Miss Lilian Lowe, vocalist; Mr. Dave O'Toole, comedian; Tray and Rich, black and white comedians, and Brown's Royal Bioscope.

BIRMINGHAM.—Theatre Royal.—Managing-Director, Mr. Tom B. Davis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Philip Rodway.—Mr. Robert Courtneidge's beautiful production of The Blue Moon reached here on Monday, when its many charms were at once appreciated. Miss Florence Smithson was, for her idyllic personation of the title-rôle, recalled again and again by the delighted and crowded audience; Miss Lulu Valli acted with enjoyable vivacity as Millicent Leroy; Miss Daisy Revett was delightfully piquant and pointed as Evelyn Ormsby; Miss Mabel Lorrell did extremely well as Lady Augusta; Mr. Edward Lewis delighted his admirers here exceedingly with his droll portrayal of Moolraj; Mr. Bert Gilbert as Private Charles Taylor worked with a vim and energy that brought him much applause; Mr. Leslie Gaze acted well, and sang in tune as the Major; Mr. Thos. Holding was applauded as the Prince; and Messrs. J. Edward Fraser, Geo. Mudie, jun., J. W. Duval, Walter Lynham, Arthur Wyndham, and Horace Manger were prominent members of the cast.

Princes of Wales's Theatre.—Lessees, Messrs. Rodgers, Ltd.; Manager, Mr. J. F. Graham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Johnston.—Mr. James Welch and company are appearing to crowded houses here in the new farcical comedy, When Knights Were Bold, which shows the popular comedian in one of his most pleasant veins. As Sir Guy de Vere Mr. Welch gives the fullest pleasure, and increases his fame incalculably. Miss Audrey Ford lends her charming abilities as Rowena; that excellent stage-craftsman, Mr. Edward Sass, scores as Sir Brian; Mr. Arthur Grenville depicts the moneylender, Isaacson, with much skill; Mr. Arthur Chesney presents a capital figure of the Dean; and Mr. H. J. Ford as Widdicombe, Miss Emma Gwynne as the Hon. Mrs. Waldegrave, Miss Estelle Winwood as Millicent Eggington, Miss Daisy Cordell as Miss Isaacson, and several others contribute largely to the picture. The programme has included The Lady Burglar, in which Mr. Henry J. Ford and Miss Estelle Winwood appear.

Grand Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Victor Turner.—Miss Lancashire, Limited, was, on its appearance here last Monday, bereft of two of its principal performers, nevertheless, the piece was well received on this its initial visit. Miss Florence Baines was incapacitated through sudden indisposition from filling her famous rôle of Mary Ellen, which, under the circumstances, was taken in a surprisingly clever and successful way by Miss F. de Vere; the part of Isidore Moses was, in the additional absence of Mr. Burt Burton, taken up by Mr. Sam Lister with much success; and Messrs. Payne Fletcher, Patrick Evans, Will Casey, David Donaldson, and Walter Hicks, plus the Misses Annie Mitchell and Pattie Groves, did very well in this exceedingly bright and musical farce.

Alexandra Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Lester Collingwood.—The Midnight Wedding furnishes the attraction here, with Messrs. Alfred Paumier and Walter Howard's company. Miss Annie Saker wins high praise for her skilful delineation of the Princess Astrea; Mr. Alfred Paumier is a convincing exponent of the part of Paul Valmar; Mr. Fredk. W. Freeman appears successfully as the Crown Prince Leopold; Mr. Ernest Imeson acts cleverly as Lieut. Eugene von Strelsburg; Mr. Clinton Baddeley makes a striking character of Captain Rudolph von Scarsbruck; Miss Florence Hunt contributes ably as Rozel; Miss Prudence Laurence is successful as Marie; Mr. W. S. Hardy is most suitable as Father Gerrard; and admirable comic effect is obtained by Messrs. Jas. E. Page, Edward Fletcher, and Algie Spalding, as the "comrades," cleverly assisted by Miss Ada Champion as Kathie.

Metropole Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Andrew Melville; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Hindle Taylor.—Mr. Fred Granville submits the now well-known drama, For Better or Worse, this being its first visit here. The progress of the play is attended with every sign of appreciation, the leading characters of Captain Frank Hilliard, Major Gerald Crawford, and Lieut. Hector Dalrymple, are portrayed with fine military distinction by Messrs. Scott Leighton, George Edwin Clive, and William Sage; Mr. Carthage Caldcleuch acts with rare dramatic power as Ned Earnshaw; Miss Ruth Nightingale makes a charming and interesting character of Olive Heathcote; the Misses Chrissie Dunbar and Jenny Sage shine as the actresses; and Mr. Edmond T. Sayers as Horatio P. Ranter, actor; and Mr. Fred Garrett, as Benjamin Little, and others, display ability.

Carlton Theatre, Saltley.—General-Manager, Mr. James Alexander.—Mr. Charles Harrington's popular version of Uncle Tom's Cabin is drawing full houses here. Mr. J. Carr presents an admirable study of Uncle Tom; and his persecutor, Legree, is rendered sufficiently repulsive by Mr. J. Henry Rogers. Mr. Stanley Howard does well as St. Clair; Mr. Leslie Beaufort evokes hearty sympathy with his manly style as George Harris; Mr. James Jackson makes an admirable Haley; Mr. W. Eversleigh evolves much humour from the rôle of Marks; Mr. Tom Miles makes a hit as Quimbo; Miss Hettie Johnson acts in a sympathetic and refined manner as Eliza Harris; Miss Carrie Ellis gives a pleasing portrayal of Emmeline; Miss Jennie Malcolm shows circumspection as Aunt Ophelia; Miss Annie Watson suggests the drollery and cunning of Topsy with much success; Mrs. Carr is very popular as Aunt Chloe; Little Minnie is idolised for her winning picture of Eva; and many others in the cast show admirable qualities.

Theatre Royal, Aston.—Lessee, Mr. Charles Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson; Acting Manager, Mr. Frank Whittles.—Mr. A. Clifton Alderson and his company are fulfilling a successful engagement here in the drama Held Apart. Mr. Clifton Alderson holds the audience riveted with his graphic portrayal of James Douglas; Mr. Leonard Lawrence prepossesses the house with his effective acting as the Laird, John Douglas; Mr. Robert B. Drysdale gives a clever assumption of the Scotch dialect as Andrew McPherson; Mr. A. W. Norman leaves nothing wanting in the character of Captain Ford; Miss Ethyle Murray realises the rôle of the Countess de Castro to the most minute detail; Miss Ruby Loncraine gains much sympathy for the heroine, Sybil Grey; and Mr. Ernest J. Batley as Hugh Trevor, Mr. Thos. Kirkwood as Sergeant Ritchie, Mr. Thos. Weymms as David, Miss Emily Levettez as Lady Grant, Miss Winifred Love as Lily, and Miss Paget Ford as Mrs. Briggs, are successful.

Empire.—Resident-Manager, Mr. A. W. Matcham.—The Boissetts, those excellent pantomimists, provide the chief turn on the bill this week. Their sketch, The Bricklayers, is one productive of mirth from start to finish. George Gilbey, the comedian, gets a flattering reception for his clever patter; Captain Bevan's Gordon Highlanders go through their drill with military precision at lightning speed; the Obo Bros. are original comedians and dancers, who give a warmly appreciated performance; while Florence Smithers and company keep the house in the best of spirits with their sketch, Hard Lines. Albert Christian has a good voice, and Eugen Joly is an excellent cornet soloist. L. W. Harris, in his latest success, "Ehaline," and Kate Cohen, vocalist, complete the bill.

Gaiety.—General-Manager, Mr. Albert Bushill.—Bella and Bijou are responsible for an up-to-date entertainment. Their latest song, descriptive of the woes of a suffragette, keeps the house in one continual roar of laughter. Another attraction is Seener and Fridkins's Troupe of Imperial Russian singers and dancers; while Frank and Violet Tayte have a screamingly funny sketch in Miss Summerson's Baby. The Bodina Trio are smart mandolinists, and Leo Tell is a clever imitator of various musical instruments. Other acceptable turns are provided by Roze and Calvert, Meier and Mora, Will Dalton, and Harry Hayton.

Hippodrome.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—Irma Lorraine, described as "London's latest idol," in a series of beautiful picture-tableaux of works of the great masters, gives a most diverting turn. Her poses are most charmingly realistic, and form a series of most effective living pictures. Zeta Grey and company have an original musical comedy sketch, entitled The Lancashire Lass, much above the average, and one that is likely to be successful; while the Novellos, in their spectacular equilibristic act, Europe in India, in which well-trained ponies and elephants are introduced are very well received. The Deer Family, North American Indians, present a weird and original act, entitled Indians of the Past; Tom Hughes has a real sense of humour and is well received; Alice Raymond, the talented lady cornetist and bugler, and John Kur Kamp, conductor, make a very welcome return visit. Jennie Hartley is a charming soubrette and dancer; Allsopp and Bekwith are good comedians.

Bordesley Palace.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Edward Foster.—A sketch, which should not be missed by all lovers of the drama, is being presented here this week by Mr. J. G. Grahame. It is entitled The Yellow Fany, and has quite delighted the audiences. Another sketch, in somewhat lighter vein, is presented by Madge Morley and company, under the title of After the Races. The programme also includes Rita and Roma, excellent vaudeville artists; Frank Sylvo, comedy juggler; Hamid Alexander, in a musical scena; Ernest Ball, and Burley and Burley.

Public Hall, Erdington. — The Nevado Concert Party have fulfilled a most successful engagement here this week. Mr. Bert Errol, the clever lady impersonator, has amazed and charmed his listeners with his wonderful quality and range of voice; Mr. Ernest T. Jones has shown wonderful skill and technique as a Welsh zither banjo performer; Mr. R. Leonard Brown, the eminent tenor, was received with enthusiasm for his well-rendered songs; Miss Dolly Summers, a smart lady humorist, beguiled the audience with her bright interludes; Master Norman Leonard did well at the piano; Mr. C. A. Jackson won much applause as a single-stringed violin exponent; Mr. W. E. Newman was listened to with obvious pleasure in his entertaining humorous selections; and Mr. Leslie Bartlett proved a brilliant executant at the piano.

BISHOP AUCKLAND.—Eden Theatre, Ltd.—Lessees, Messrs. R. Addison, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. Addison; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. J. Huntley.—A visit is being paid this week by Mr. G. Carlton Wallace's company in The Love that Women Desire. Mr. Fred Lloyd gives a noble impersonation of Philip Carnaby; Mr. J. O. Stewart is a powerful Squire Abingdon; Richard Abingdon, his son, is in the capable hands of Mr. Robt. M. Heanley; a good portrayal of Frank Hardy is given by Mr. Leonard Montgomery; Mr. Gilson Brooke does exceedingly well in the rôle of Dr. Brandreth; and Mr. Hugh Wallace is excellently placed as Rev. Arnold Cathorne. Miss Lalla Stanhope acts with sympathetic grace as Sybil Thornburn; Madge Abingdon is adequately sustained by Miss Cicely Desmond; Mr. J. W. Wilkinson is amusing as P.C. Sowerby; and Mr. John Hignett and Miss Nita Imeson create an immense amount of fun in the characters of Dennis O'Rourke and Pattie Swift.

Town Hall.—Mr. Joshua Dyson's Gipsy Choir are paying their first visit here this week, and the entertainments each evening are attracting and in every way pleasing large audiences. The visit opened on Sunday night with a sacred concert, the spacious hall being packed to its utmost capacity. During the week the entertainment consists of a splendid musical programme by the choir; whilst in addition the audience is nightly conducted by diorama round the great cities and pleasure resorts of the world.

BOLTON.—Theatre Royal, Ltd. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Melvin.—Although The Sign of the Cross has been presented in Bolton on many previous occasions, the play was received on Monday with unmistakable approval. This was chiefly due to the excellent manner in which it was played by Mr. William Greet's No. 1 company. Mr. Frank E. Petley gives a fine and manly conception of Marcus Superbus, and Miss Marie Leonhard makes a most acceptable appearance as Mercia. Miss Effie Dane scores a considerable success as Stephanus. Mr. Frank Woods makes a creditable Glabrio, and Mr. C. Yorke gives a fine picture of Nero, the Emperor of Rome. Others who deserve particular notice are Mr. Charles Aldred, as Tigellinus; Mr. J. Weatherell, as Licinius; Miss Mary Newcombe, as Poppæa; Miss Gertrude Price, as Berenice; Miss Cissie Carlton, as Dacia; and Miss Jessica Thorne, as Aucaria. The singing of Miss Beatrice Felsted and the dancing of Miss Gladye Gordon have been much admired. The play was admirably staged.

Grand Theatre, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry Kenyon.—The "star" turn here is the Brothers O'Brien, in a smart horizontal-bar act. Other interesting turns are Jock Whiteford, Scotch comedian; Lil Hartley, descriptive vocalist; the Two St. Johns in a refined musical act, &c.; Frank Hartley, juvenile juggling wonder; Charles Faning, comedian (assisted by Lotta and Charles); E. R. Dainez's famous animals; Amy Anderson, coster (the Banana Queen); the Sisters Poole, society entertainers; Ærial and Astarte, in a gymnastic pot-pourri act; Sid Doody and Edie Wright, Australian comiques; and Vernon's Imperial Bioscope.

Temperance Hall.—Hamilton's Excursions, "From Far and Near," are drawing large audiences. The entertainment is highly interesting, while the "variety" turns are well applauded.

BOOTLE. — Muncaster Theatre. — Proprietors, Messrs. Pennington; Manager, Mr. H. Pennington; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. Young.—Crowded houses have been attracted this week to witness the Bootle Dramatic company in a new musical play in two acts, entitled The Pet of the Embassy, from the pen of Mr. Sidney F. Bailey, a local author, and music composed by Mr. Albert E. Wilson, the conductor of the Muncaster orchestra. The play, which contains some most melodious and delightful music, is presented in a manner which reflects credit on the members of the orchestra, the principals, and chorus alike. Mr. Herbert Franklyn is a capital Eric Brown, both his singing and acting being admirable; Miss Pickavance scores as Hilda Graham; Mr. Arthur Kendal gives an exceedingly amusing representation of the dude, Percy Brassington; while Miss May Clifford is a vivacious Dorothy Stanley. Mr. A. J. Harrington is well placed and seen to advantage as Willie Bung, keeping the house in roars of laughter, and Miss L. M. Clarke portrays the character of Mrs. Pamela Bung in a praiseworthy manner. The mounting of the play and dresses are on an elaborate scale. On Monday evening the Mayor and Mayoress of Bootle, also the aldermen and councillors of the borough, were present to witness the performance.

BOSCOMBE. — Hippodrome.—Joint-Proprietors, Messrs. Mouillot and W. De Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. De Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Ball.—The chief attraction here this week is Addie Dorina, in a quick-changing act, entitled How it Was Done. The Pasquali Brothers are wonderful acrobats, and give a sensational turn; Guy Ryder, described as the sweetest whistler in the world, gets a good reception; Nina Elms, chic comedienne, submits a pleasing turn; Florence Deighton, vocalist, wins much admiration; Natalia and Diana, aerial gymnasts, are very clever; Charles J. Johnson, the Black Diamond, is good; and the Hippodrome Pictures maintain their usual standard.

BOURNEMOUTH.—Theatre Royal and Opera House.—Proprietors, Messrs. David Allen and Son; Sole Lessee, Mr. Mouillot; Manager, Mr. Rowland Stewart.—His House in Order, which opened on Monday, is proving quite the most popular play seen here for some time past. It is admirably presented by Mr. George Alexander's company. Chief interest is centred on Mr. Frank Fenton and Miss Auriol Lee, who give strong delineations of the central characters. Among others who greatly distinguish themselves in a carefully-chosen and well-balanced cast are Mr. Cyril Harcourt, Mr. Adam Alexander, Mr. George Silver, Mrs. Kemmis, Miss Audry Campbell, Miss Doris Champion, and Mlle. Juliette Milo.

BRADFORD.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. T. F. Doyle; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Richardson.—The theatre is in the possession of the Bradford Amateur Operatic Society this week, and under the direction of Mr. Edwin Bryan performances of Merrie England are being given for the benefit of the local charities. Mr. J. Douglas Smith is the musical director.

Prince's Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. F. Laidler; Acting-Manager, Mr. N. Hepworth.—Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesey's company commenced a return visit on last Monday with the strong drama, A Beautiful Fiend. Miss V. St. Lawrence retains the character of Wanda Lubinoff, and her performance is full of excellence and power; and Ivan Paulovitch, the Major of Russian Police, is still in the excellent hands of Mr. Beaudyn; Mr. Albert Wray is the exponent of the part of the patriotic Sergius Strogoff, and his performance is admirable; Nadine Karatoff is a capable effort by Miss Irene Munro; Count Fedor Karatoff is well played by Mr. Tom Robertson; and in the rôle of Pattie Woodlands Miss Annie Clunn is good.

The Empire.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. Percival Craig.—The marvellous illusionist, Carl Hertz, is on a return visit here, and assisted by Emeline D'Alton and company he performs some extraordinary feats, "The Bridal Chamber" being perhaps the most puzzling and sensational; Alf Gibson, too, is here again, quaint and immobile as ever; Harry Carsdale gives capital imitations of animals; and in dainty style Minnie Cunningham submits Irish songs; neat step-dancing by Daisy O'Malley finds favour; the Mezzettis on the triple bar combine fun with their clever work; a smart and clever performance by Ernesto, juggler, wins applause; the Rio Brothers are a clever quartette of muscular young gymnasts, whose feats elicit hearty applause; Boswell's Stage Circus affords great amusement; and there are some fine films shown by the American Bioscope.

Palace Theatre.—Lessee, Mr. Fr placed as Sir Charles Marlow; and Mr. Iden Payne was amusing as Tony Lumpkin. The remaining characters had competent exponents in Messrs. Sidney Burton, B. A. Pittar, Basil Dean, Edward Harrison, Henry Pritchard, Ivan Leslie, Joseph Keogh, C. Chalmers, and Miss Theresa Gregory. Other plays billed are The School for Scandal, Miles Carew—Highwayman, and The Rivals.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Ernest Carpenter; Resident-Manager, Mr. W. F. Crowe.—Sentenced for Life is the attraction here, the drama being capitally played by Mr. Bulmer's company, and it is well staged, the mechanical change from the deck of the ship H.M. Hannibal to the open sea and raft being well arranged and realistic. Mr. Edward E. Louis acts in manly and convincing style as Roy Stillwell; Mr. Ernest Vaughan is consistent and powerful as Paul Derrick; Mr. Morris Maud acts well as the Rev. Martin Orris; Miss Madge Douglas is sufficiently sympathetic as Adele Gray; Miss May Neilson acts carefully as Kate Rennel; the "Two Komical Konvicts" are capitally taken by Mr. Arthur Keane and Mr. Reginald Oldroyd; and Mr. J. F. Firth is amusing as Percy McGentle.

PALACE THEATRE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace Livermore; Treasurer, Mr. F. V. Welchman.—Mme. Mellor's operatic company is here with a new sketch, The Magic Eye. It is founded upon an Egyptian episode, and is performed by a full cast of twenty performers, appropriately dressed, and with music befitting the scenes depicted. The libretto and lyrics are by Edward Waltzere, and the music by Emilio Pizzi. The sketch, which went very well, is produced under the direction of the author. Leslie Brothers have a capital act, entitled Music Mad; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finden amuse with their farce, Two to One; May Moore Duprez is a smart Dutch impersonator and dancer; Will Cornish does a good musical bell act; Goggin and Davis introduce an acceptable comedy acrobatic act; Fee Lung is a decidedly clever Chinese illusionist; the Herald Comedy Four sing harmoniously; Charles Vincent, comedian, obtains applause; and the performance concludes with interesting animated pictures.

EMPIRE.—Proprietor, Mr. B. Pearce Lucas; Resident-Manager, Mr. Sid Macaire.—Lelia Roze heads the programme with her scena "A Dressing-room Dream." Charmingly dressed in various costumes, she presents several attractive songs, and does a pretty dance, obtaining well deserved applause for her efforts. Hanvarr and Lee score with their speciality, The Golfer and the Maid; Luigo's Serenaders present with success their operatic scena, Naples by Night; Ben Albert, comedian, is appreciated; Moon and Morris are smart comedians and dancers; Clara Victor is a pleasing comedienne-vocalist; Dick Kendal, comedian, does a good turn; Clark's Nippers score with their speciality of boxing and dancing; and Gladys Williams is an attractive comedienne. The performance concludes with some new animated pictures.

BROMLEY.—LYRIC THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Purcell; Assistant-Manager, Mr. David Watson. A most successful visit is being paid this week by Miss Blanche St. Albans and Mr. Leicester Jackson's company in Her One Great Sin. As Grace Warhurst, Miss Blanche St. Albans has a part that suits her admirably. An excellent representation of the hero is given by Mr. John Cecil, who soon obtains the sympathy of the audience. Mr. Leicester Jackson is sufficiently despicable as the spendthrift squire, Arnold Thornhill. A pretty and winning little Gracie, the child of Reuben, is presented by Miss Maudie Lambert. A considerable amount of humour is infused into the character of Jerry Humble and Nancy Winpenny by Mr. Fred Hodson and Miss Nellie Lambert, and a fine study of the London flower-seller, Charlie, is given by Miss Phyllis Damian.

BROUGHTON.—VICTORIA, LTD.—Manager and Licensee, Mr. J. Fred Watson.—Alaska; or Lynch Law in North America, drew a good house on Monday, when Mr. Hilliard Vox sustained the manly character of Skookim Jim; Mr. Albert Rogers was a funny Pompey; Alaska was well delineated by Miss G. Hastings Walton; a charming Jessie Dalton was presented by Miss E. Turner Elliott; Miss Leslie Wynne was an amusing Widow Casey; an excellent study of a half-breed was given by Mr. G. W. Millington; and Ned Larson was cleverly played by Mr. H. Naylor Grimson.

BURNLEY.—VICTORIA OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—An excellent entertainment is here this week in the shape of the New Victoria Bioscope company. A particularly fine series of Scottish lakes and waterfalls is shown. Happy Attwood is a funny comedian; Ugo is a smart conjurer; the Sisters De Lacy are good duettists; and Miss Dolly Elsworthy and company present Nell Gwynne.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—Frank and Jen Latona in Music and Comedy score a distinct success here; Mackinnon's Scottish Meisters, in a vocal extravaganza, are accorded a flattering reception; Miss May Glenn, comedy vocalist, is well received; Robb Gilmore is a laughable comedian; and Kit Keen, a coloured comedian, is very good. The Three Panamas give a clever performance of tumbling and dancing; Lily Hayes is an acceptable vocalist; and the pictures by the New Empire Theatroscope are interesting.

BURTON-ON-TRENT.—OPERA HOUSE, NEW HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. H. Dudley Bennett; Acting-Manager, Mr. John Walter.—Variety is the order of things here this week. A special turn is given by Madame Sims Reeves, the possessor of a good voice, who sings with success some of her late husband's songs. The Revell Troupe, in their absurdity, Mischief, convulse the audience with laughter; Miss Edie Anderson is good in dance and song; Grant and Allan, novelty comedians, gain hearty applause; the new comedian, Allan Hanbury, is funny; and Great Scott scores in his juggling act on the balancing ladder; Welda and Wynne, in their comedy juggling and dancing act, also do well, and the Raymond Bio-tableaux are up to the usual high standard.

BURY (LANCS.).—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Mr. Junius Booth and company are playing Monte Cristo here this week. Mr. Booth's Edmond Dantès is a fine effort; Mr. Augustin Bowerman gives a good rendering of Danglars; Abbé Faria is capitally played by Mr. Walter Martin; Mr. C. W. Crowe is earnest as Fernand; Miss Clare Elstob, charming as Mercedes, and Miss Emma Robberds acts well as La Carconte.

CIRCUS OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—A varied programme is provided here this week. Fred Sinclair and Gracie Whiteford are successful in a sketch, entitled Getting Even, and Russell Wallett, in a clever drawing-room entertainment; Kioto, a wonderful Japanese balancer; Barney Vox, ventriloquist; Frank A. Wood, tenor vocalist; Three Missouris, burlesque acrobats; Wisper, a comedy juggler, and Beattie Bloom, comedienne, are all good turns.

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; General-Manager, Mr. Broadhead, jun.—A good show is put on here by Haydee's Mannikins; Marie Jones, assisted by Ernest Munro, gives a good quick-change duologue; and Levano, a speciality acrobat; Harry Taft, whistling comedians; Sisters Russell, comedy duettists; the Elgars, vocal entertainers; Little Tichbourne, singer and dancer; the Corman Youngsters, who sing and dance very cleverly, and Allan Hardman, a blind pianist, are other attractions.

CARDIFF.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Robert Redford.—The popular comedy, The Freedom of Susanne, brings the Theatre Royal season to a close. Miss Mabel Love's captivating portrayal of Suzanne won the charming actress a host of friends on this her first appearance in the city. Mr. Percy Hutchison's delineation of Charles Trevor aroused much admiration; Mr. F. G. Thurstans was an amusing Fitzroy Harding; Sir Horace Hatton was ably impersonated by Mr. Patrick Quill; Miss Annie Stalman as Lady Charlotte had the dignified manner so necessary to the character; Miss Florence Harwood made a conspicuous success of Fanny Minching; and Miss Violet Ley as Lady Isabel was particularly sweet and graceful. The curtain-raiser was a smart little piece, entitled Mary's Secret.

KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James.—Miss Rose Faith and her No. 1 company are here this week with No Cross, No Crown. Miss Faith appears as Clare, and gives a most effective portrayal of this trying part. Mr. W. Carriden achieves great success as Sir Francis; Mr. Fred Gresham displays much ability as Dr. Ashby; and Mr. Herbert De Ville makes the most of the opportunities afforded him as Austin Blake. Miss Gwen Stewart deserves praise for her capital delineation of Mistress Gray; while little Ada Clawson as Doris proves a careful exponent of her part; Miss Rita Rosslyn as Priscilla, and Mr. C. George as Rawson Haines help very considerably to secure the success of the piece.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. H. S. Dring.—After a considerable absence we have a visit from Dr. Walford Bodie, "the electric wizard," who demonstrates the wonders of his electrical experiments; an entertaining turn of singing, dancing, and ventriloquism is given by Sidney James's popular strolling players; Albertus and Millar are a bright and breezy duo, with novel business; Harry Coates, the singing navvy, is a tenor vocalist, and earns much applause; A. G. Spry is a quaint comedian, who creates much laughter; and Herr Fritz, with his amazing performance, is well received; the Wotpert trio of springboard acrobats; Harry Lawson, an amusing comedian, and pretty Lily Tiso, a neat singer and tricky dancer, with the Bioscope with excellent pictures, complete the performance.

CARLISLE.—H.M. THEATRE.—Lessees, Trustees of R. Stewart M'Kim; Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Stanley.—Mr. F. B. Woulfe and company, in a répertoire of plays, opened on Monday with Lady Godiva. In the title-rôle Miss Ethel Griffies appeared to great advantage, and Mr. F. B. Woulfe gave a finished and powerful rendering of Tom of Coventry. Mr. R. Seath Innes was well placed as Leofric, and Mr. W. Macready made the most of Algar. Miss Katherine Brook played Lady Aldyth artistically, and Miss Edith Lorraine was a pleasing and pretty Elfrida, and in her scenes with Robin Shacklewood (Mr. Bob Anderson) displayed a fund of quaint humour.

THE PALACE.—Proprietors, The Palace Theatre, Carlisle, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Signor Rino Pepi; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. E. Nicholls.—The musical comedy burlesque, The Belle of Barcelona, occupies top position here this week. Mr. Frank Zara, as the idiot, keeps the audience well amused with his funny business; Miss May McKenzie makes a charming Cerita. Other turns include Francis and Alfred, a pair of clever and quaint jugglers; Johnson and Bert, smart cross-talkers and tumblers; Takio, one of the best of mimics on the road; the Lillian Brothers, speciality gymnasts, and Leslie Race, vocal comedian. Some capital pictures by the Pepiscope complete.

CASTLEFORD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor and Licensee, Mr. Chas. Gadsby; Business-Manager, Councillor Hy. Masterman.—Mr. Samuel James's company is appearing here with As Good as Gold. Mr. H. H. Barrington submits a creditable impersonation of Mark Williams; Lieut. Jack Stanton finds an admirable representative in Mr. William Heilbronn; as Nora Williams, Miss May Hastings is womanly and sympathetic; Mr. Richard Ferris impersonates the arch schemer, Sir Richard Wharncliffe, in a style befitting the character; as Kate D'Arville, Miss Kate Froude appears with success; Miss Irene Tracey is clever as the Kipper; Mr. F. Thorpe-Tracey contributes a fine character study of Timothy Nias; Miss Edith Carr as Madge Merry, and Messrs. Norman Hall and J. Leon as Horatio Spanker and Jacob Simpson do much to amuse the house; and Mr. Ern Carlton, the acting-manager, gives a capital impersonation of Capt. D'Arcy James.

CHELTENHAM. — OPERA HOUSE. — General Manager, Mr. H. Oswald Redford.—Mr. E. R. Abbott's company is here this week in Sapho and Trilby consecutively. On Monday night Miss Ada Abbott did fairly well in the trying part of Sapho; Mr. E. R. Abbott played with considerable power as Gaussin; Mr. Douglas C. Phelps introduced a welcome vein of comedy as Uncle Ceasine; and the Hettema of Mr. W. H. Davis-Brown, and the Old Legrand of Mr. Weedon Ross, were amusing. Miss Marjorie Tennant was pleasing as Madame Hettema; the hysterical little Joseph was effectively played by Miss Hetty Jones. In the first act Mr. Edmund Keene introduces a clever quick-change musical interlude.

CHESTER. — ROYALTY THEATRE. — Proprietors, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. B. Fountaine.—Hardie and Von Leer's (South) company, in Two Little Vagabonds, is paying a welcome return visit. Mr. Arthur E. Melborne does well as George Thornton; Mr. Edward Maclean is a success as Captain Darville; Mr. Lionel Ellis as Bill Mullins is exceptionally good, being ably seconded by Miss Violet Vivian as Biddy; Dido Bunce is safe in the hands of Mr. Frank Gordon; and the Cough Drop is humorously presented by Mr. Gerald Valentine; Mr. Geoffrey Dering is well placed as Joe Gargoyle; Miss Valerie Crespin as Marion Thornton evokes sympathy; Miss Lillian Stuart is well in the picture as Barbara Scarth; and Dick and Wally find able representatives in Misses Edie Martin and Gladys Vernon.

MUSIC HALL.—Agents, Messrs. Phillipson and Golder.—On Thursday of last week two performances of three of the Chester Mystery Plays were given by the English Drama Society under the direction of Mr. Nugent Monck, the incidental music being arranged by Dr. Bridge, of Chester. As no programmes were issued we are unable to give a detailed notice of the performances. This week we have a first visit from Mr. Walter Jeffs' New Century pictures, the finest that have yet been exhibited in Chester. Ballads are sung by Miss Dora Kingsley.

CHORLEY (LANCS.).—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. G. T. Santé; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur Hemingway.—Mr. Arthur Carlton's company is here this week, presenting the play, In Sight of St. Paul's. Mr. Ernest R. Allen ably depicts Tom Chichester; Mr. W. H. Domoney capitally undertakes the part of Harry Chichester; as John Gridston, Mr George D. Daiper is excellent; while Mr. Herbert Sydney is seen to advantage as Blidstein. Mr. Herbert Colley most humorously embodies Jim Palfrey; Cynthia Dell is in the exceptionally strong hands of Miss Lallah Davies, a finished performance being the result. Miss Cissie Bellamy is attractive as Aileen Milbar; and Miss I. Hackness vivaciously undertakes Rose.

COATBRIDGE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Coatbridge Theatre Company; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Commins.—For the first three nights this week, Mr. Charles Macdona's company occupied the boards here with Are You a Mason? Mr. Ernest Cossart made an excellent George Fisher; Mr. E. H. Paterson provided an admirable representation of Amos Bloodgood; Mr. Howard L. Tracey successfully delineated Frank Perry; and the Hamilton Travers of Mr. Frederic Jacques was much admired; Miss Adelaide Grace gave good effect to the part of Mrs. Caroline Bloodgood; Miss Gwen. Clifford very ably delineated Lottie; and Miss Ploensgains was well cast as Franchon Armitage. A variety company, including Mr. Charles Coborn, was billed for Thursday.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Charles Macdona; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. C. Upton.—Mr. Hugh Dempsey and his variety combination are here for six nights, and Mr. Dempsey himself proves a versatile artist of considerable ability, more especially in his admirable top-boot dances.

HIPPODROME.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. Fredk. Mouillot and Walter de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Ben de Frece.—The Jackley Trio head the bill here, and give an expert exhibition of tumbling combined with droll tricks; Fred Poplar, with his bacchanalian songs, is highly diverting; the Macdonald Trio, an eccentric party of musicians, present a capital scena with most originally constructed instruments, causing immense mirth; J. C. Crawley is a vocal and instrumental mimic of considerable ability, and Kitty Wager captivates everyone with her charming personality and well-rendered songs. Alf Davies proves a descriptive vocalist of power and the "Adventure of Mephisto's Son," portrayed on the screen completes a much-appreciated programme.

CONSETT.—NEW THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance.—Mr. Lingford Carson's company is paying a welcome return visit here this week with the Drama of Life. Mr. Edward M. Hamilton is an admirable Harry Buch; whilst as Sylvia Buch, Miss Kate Hallam acquits herself with commendable ability; Mr. John J. Hocker as Walter Buch is a most consummate villain, and as Sir Dobson Wilde, Mr. Harwood Roberts is very funny, being well supported by Miss Florence French as Lady Jane Wild. Jack Lawton is well portrayed by Mr. H. M. Payne, and as Dane Crane, Mr. Sidney Fiennes is highly commendable. Mr. George Child give a good account of himself as Richard Brenton, and as Count de Foi, Mr. Edward Van Beine is good. Miss Nelly Birchenough is deserving of the highest praise in the part of Betty Blank, and Miss Marie Pardy is also deserving of special mention in the rôle of Master Robert Buch.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. John Horgan.—Mrs. Bandmann Palmer's company commenced a week's engagement here on Monday in From Washerwoman to Duchess. It was the play's first production in Cork, and it was well received. Mrs. Bandmann Palmer as Catherine scored a distinct success, and Mr. T. Skein as Fouche was most satisfactory. Hamlet, East Lynne, Nell Gwynn, and The Merchant of Venice are also in the bill.

PALACE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Henry Kemble.—The programme here is up to its usual standard. The Five Saxonias give a pleasing musical act; Barry Gilmore is a capital eccentric comedian; the Rolands are clever equilibrists and hand balancers; the Venola Bros. succeed as comedy gymnasts, and the Bros. Asnley are capital comedy boxing artists. The entertainment finishes up with Amurat, musical athlete, and Hetel and Kalida, in a spectacular act of mystery.

COVENTRY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr Wm. Bennett.—Miss Maud Hildyard is on a farewell visit to Coventry—previous to her Australian tour—with The Great Awakening. Miss Hildyard gives a thrilling, sensational rendering of the chief part, Lola Selby; Miss Doris Digby is quite successful as Molly Merton; Mr. Willie Scott and Miss Isa Bellington are amusing as Mr. and Mrs. Brass respectively; Mr. A. C. Hardie gives a capital impersonation of James Selby; Mr. Bernard is seen to advantage in the dual parts of Sir Henry Merton and his son; Mr. C. E. Linney proves a capable Guy Rogan; and Mr. Herbert Evelyn as the gallant Captain Lambert; and Mr. Tracey Barrow as the funny waiter, Antoine, add to the attractiveness of the representation.

THE HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. T. M. Sylvester.—Well-filled houses on Monday witnessed an attractive programme. Mr. Harry Champion is well received; Miss Nellie Wallace captures the house by her quaintness; and the same remark applies to Miss Millie Payne, who has successfully appeared several times at Coventry. Mons. Billing and his troupe present capital feats of strength; Montaldo gives a novel turn in the way of trained birds; Graham and Zerlina depict cleverly an episode of Parisian life, entitled A Daughter of Pleasure; Katie Marsh is successful as a vocalist and dancer; and the animated pictures conclude.

THE EMPIRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Geo. Dance; Manager, Mr. A. Rand.—An exceptional programme is provided at this house. Chief praise must be given to the Two Stones, in a marvellous feat, "The Globe of Life"; the Æolians (six in number) have a capital display of singing and dancing; the Celtic Comedy Trio are well received; Los Granadas are knockabouts of an exceptional kind; Mount and Corelli give a successful turn; Will Vokes is an expert eccentric dancer; Adeline Yohle a pleasing vocalist; and J. W. Hall a droll comedian. Cinématograph pictures conclude.

CRADLEY HEATH.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Jno. H. Morton.—Mr. F. Brooke Warren's company is giving us a return visit with Mysteries of the Thames. Mr. F. Brooke Warren himself takes the "heavy" part of Captain James Denbigh in masterly style; Mr. Andrew Money gives a finished interpretation of Richard Brander; Mr. Sydney Vereker wins constant applause as Bill Bosco; and Mr. Dan Hardie causes plenty of fun as Peter Miggles. Miss Kate Ramus shows us some powerful acting as Kate Brandon, and Miss Violet Leal as her child Little Doris deserves special mention. Miss Stephanie Baring has a double part as Helen Price and Grace Rochdale, her twin sister, and right well does she acquit herself. Mr. Gilbert Hall makes a good lawyer, Jack Hammond, and Mr. George Arthur is well chosen for Ben Lorrimer. Mr. Tim Herne is in his element as Wary Mike, and Miss Effie W. Crawford is to the fore as Bertie Fitzgerald.

CREWE.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry Taylor, J.P.—Messrs. W. H. Hallatt and Walter Howard's company has presented Her Love Against the World for the first time here. Mr. Walter Howard gave a powerful and effective portrayal of the Earl or Strathmere, and Miss Rossie St. John acted with cleverness as Nello. Miss Ellen Snow was an admirable Princess of Idalia, and Miss Victoria Douglas showed capability as the Countess of Rasselyn. Mr. Mayor Cooke made a successful appearance as Prince Ulric of Ravensburg, and as Prince Othenar, Mr. Raymond Wood gave every satisfaction. Mr. Gerald Venning was suitably placed as Prince Maurice of Saxonia, and Mr. J. Fulton Miller as Sergeant Kaspar did well. Mr. Henry B. Lewis and Mr. Richard Webb were responsible for the humorous side as Heinrick Pimpernickel and Fitz Pimpernickel, and were ably assisted in their efforts by Miss Lizzie Lennon as Katinka, and Miss Harrington Baily as Gretchen.

CROYDON.—GRAND THEATRE. — Manager, Mr. Lawson Lambert.—J. M. Barrie's Alice Sit-by-the-Fire is giving delight to Grand visitors. Mrs. Russ Whytal charms all with her pleasing and artistic rendering of Mrs. Grey; Miss Beatrice Bramah deserves all praise for her portrayal of Amy Grey; Miss Lucy Verrier is an entrancing Leonora Dunbar; Miss Ada Marius makes the most of the rôle of Nurse; Miss Ninon Dudley is neat as Fanny; Miss Lilian Locke gives a capital sketch of Richardson; Mr. Aubrey Mallalieu rightly gauges the character of Stephen Rollo; Mr. A. W. Baskcomb is very good as Cosmo Grey; and Mr. J. J. Bartlett gives a performance as Colonel Grey which does him credit. The first piece is The Royal Flower, in which Mrs. Russ Whytal achieves a palpable success as Le Marquis; Miss Ninon Dudley is a pretty Virginie; Mr. J. J. Bartlett is excellent as Vidal; and Mr. A. W. Baskcomb is well placed as Cadet Vincent.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James; Acting-Manager, Mr. Chas. Herrick.—Messrs. Granville and Thorne's company, in Napoleon the Great, is the attraction here this week. Mr Hugh Montgomery submits an excellent representation of Napoleon; Mr. Henry Earlesmere ably depicts Colonel Lavarennes; Mr. Phil Harper as Colonel Jules Meuron is a success; Mr. Bartlett Garth is exceptionally good as Paul Laczinska; Mr. Frank M. Thorne as Pierre Pomponnet proves himself a capable actor; Mr. Albert Sinclair as Sergeant Choupin is well placed; and Mr. G. Acton Dix as Monsieur Fouche is very good. Miss Marie Warner as Marie Walewska displays talent; Miss Marie Harcourt renders a fine impersonation of Marcell Coupin; Miss Maud Russell is a convincing Leonie Marbœuf; and Miss Florence Thorne as Mère Dumont makes the most of her opportunities.

EMPIRE PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. Walter Gibbons; Manager, Mr. Eustace Jay.—The entertainment here is varied and amusing. Yukio Tani, Japanese wrestler, is causing a sensation; Rosa Loader is a droll musical mimic; Alix Luxos sings his song, "Pictures in the fire," with dramatic effect; Cline and Clark are expert speciality dancers; Signor and Madame Borelli are applauded for humorous and musical tit-bits; Edie King is a clever comedienne and dancer; Gilbert Girard is a marvellous animal mimic; Clown Barker and Miss Rozsika receive a great reception in their refined animal show; the bioscope picture, "A Child's Revenge," is well liked; and a remarkably smart and interesting sketch, The Chauffeur, is well enacted by Mr. Frank Danby and company.

DARLINGTON. — THEATRE ROYAL AND HIPPODROME.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. James Bell.—Miss Claudia Lasell and company, in the new musical comedy The Sweet Girl, is receiving a big reception this week, Miss Lasell's singing and acting in the title-rôle quite taking the house. Mr. Leslie Morrah as Dick Kenyon is exceedingly good; Mr. Fred Eastman causes much amusement in the part of Count Lubenberg; and a great feature of the comedy is the graceful dancing of Miss Alice Lethbridge, coupled with Mr. Algernon Newark as Anthony Strauss. Mr. W. H. Page makes a good Major Domo, Mr. Geo. De Lara is clever in light comedy, Mr. Douglas Phillips in the part of Florian Llerlich is in fine voice; and Miss Muriel Harding is charming as Countess Lizzie. The chorus is strong and well balanced.

DARWEN. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessee, Mr. A. M. Loader; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. J. Robinson.—Messrs. E. A'Dell and F. Chabot's company, in The Romany's Revenge, is commanding good house here this week. The part of the Romany is admirably portrayed by Miss Ethel Ashleigh, and that of John Hope in a most efficient manner by Mr. Evelyn A'Dell. In the dual rôle of Lillian Hope and Elspie (a gipsy) Miss Kathleen Eckart is seen to advantage. Mr. John Soden, in the heavy part of David Renard, is very realistic; whilst the contributions of Mr. F. Rose and Miss Ada Stelling as Bobbie Bloom and Pollie Pluck respectively provide the comedy of the piece in a clever manner.

DERBY.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Denley; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Albert Orton.—Baron H. Harriss's company is here this week with The Prince of Pilsen. Mr. Harry Kilburn as Hans Wagner is in every way successful; Miss Sophie Harriss scores heavily in the part of the New York widow, and it would be difficult to find an actress better suited to the part. An outstanding feature is the manly acting and the capital singing of Mr. Frank Crimp as the real Prince. Miss Connie Leon as the French maid finds ready favour; Nellie Wagner is charmingly presented by Miss Peggie Franklin, and a capital Jimmie is found in Miss Molly Wynne. Miss A. D. Loriere figures agreeably as the Gibson Girl. A clever sketch of a dude is given by Mr. Bernard Russell, and Mr. Ernest Gifford is funny as Francois.

PALACE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Herbert Taylor.—A good programme is submitted at the above place of amusement this week, the chief attraction being provided by the Four Charles in a clever acrobatic juggling speciality. The Grigson Trio cause much amusement in their capital comicality; the Dummy and Yorkshire Tom is a wonderful exponent of mimicry; Veraardo introduces a novel ventriloquial turn, and the Crown Trio are well received. Other entertaining turns are provided by Millie Howell, comedienne; Almon, "The Upside-down Marvel," and the Bioscope with interesting pictures.

DEWSBURY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessees, The Northern Theatres Co., Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. H. Asquith.—An old saying, "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," applies appropriately to the stage. Proof is being submitted here by Mr and Mrs. Wm. Maclaren's company. Mr. George Kennedy is to be complimented on his powerful pourtrayal of Pierre Lorance; Miss Beatrice Shirley shows resourcefulness and artistic merit as Madeleine and Adrienne; Mr. Wilford Bailey is humorous as Chamboran, and Mr. W. J. Butler is realistic as the treacherous Lazare. Mr. Carl Beechy presents the Duke d'Aubeterre genially.

HIPPODROME.—General-Manager, Mr. George Weldon.—Onda and Leon are responsible for a performance on the horizontal bars into which much amusing comedy is infused; vaulting is the specialised work of the Bros. Lavelle, who excel therein; Harry Drew's songs are well rendered; of much interest and attractiveness are the Ashley team (one lady and two gentlemen); the Three Sisters Killner exert themselves to some purpose as singers and acrobatic dancers; the acrobatic exploits of the Seltina troupe do not lack originality; Miss Cecilia Maud is an acceptable descriptive vocalist; and Sword and Robb, in a comedy act, are mirth-making. The Bioscope pictures complete the programme.

DONCASTER.—NEW GRAND THEATRE AND EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. W. Chapman.—The Night of the Party proves a most mirth-provoking production. Lady Hampshire is daintily assumed by Miss Evelyn Howard; and an equally charming impersonation of Mrs. Young is furnished by Miss Lena Graham. Gipsy Vandelier receives an added interest in the hands of Miss Stanley Ronalds; Miss Maud Linden is very engaging as Pauline; Mr. Aidan Lovett as Sir Charles Hampshire is a typical country gentleman; Mr. Frank Denton's interpretation of Mr. Frank Frayne is vigorous and amusing withal; and Mr. Sebastian Smith enacts Mr. Crosbie with great skill. Mr. Ernest Rivarz is quaint as Alderman Hargen.

DOVER. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietors, The Dover Theatres, Ltd.; Chairman of Directors, Mr. B. Carter; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred C. Dew.—An excellent company is presenting Lights Out, with Mr. Leigh Lovel at the head of the cast. Mr. Lovel as Lieut. Von Lauffen submits a most praiseworthy impersonation; a notable piece of acting is contributed by Mr. Kenneth Brampton, whose portrayal of Lieut. Von Howen is both earnest and convincing; Mr. Wilton Reed succeeds in bringing into prominence the lovable traits of Sergeant Volkhardt; and an impressive and entirely excellent rendering of Major Paschke is given by Mr. F. Clive Ross, Mr. Arthur Stone proving himself most capable in the rôle of Captain Von Bannewitz. The unhappy position of Corporal Helbig is duly emphasised by the clever acting of Mr. Richard Fielding; Mr. Lambert Plummer's touch of light comedy introduced into the rôle of Captain Lehdenburgh is admirably effective; Mr. Francis J. Tithell sustains the long part of Corporal Queiss with much ability; and Mr. Frederick Clifton is a most satisfactory Michael. Miss Octavia Kenmore's naturally pathetic voice and graceful deportment assist materially her portrayal of Klara.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Proprietors, the Vaudeville Syndicate Co.; Secretary, Mr. Chas. R. Standfield; Manager, Mr. B. H. Harland.—The sketch, In the Tempter's Coil, is contributed by the Lloyd-Phillips' company; the Sisters Selwin, vocalists and dancers, and Percival and Morley, in a comedy duologue, are eminently successful; George Grogie and Jennie Chalmers also contribute two highly satisfactory turns; and Cris Baker is a most amusing comedian.

DUBLIN.—GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Directress, Mrs. Michael Gunn; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. Charles Hyland.—The Carl Rosa Opera company entered on its second week on Monday, when Bizet's charming opera Carmen was played before a crowded house. Miss Doris Woodall made her first appearance here in the rôle of Carmen, and gave a very successful performance, her acting being artistic and powerful, while her vocalism was greatly admired. Mr. Julius Walther did splendidly in the part of José, acting well, and being in excellent voice. The Escamillo of Mr. Charles Victor was particularly good, and his rendering of the Toreador song was most acceptable, and Miss Elizabeth Burgess made a pleasing and effective Micaela. Mr. F. Clendon as Dancairo and Mr. Arthur Hyde as Remendado did very well, as did Miss Ina Hill and Miss Dorothy Mayfield in the respective parts of Frasquita and Mercedes. The choruses were admirably rendered, and Mr. Walter Van Noorden conducted most creditably. On Tuesday Don Giovanni was played. Miss Grace Nicoll gave a brilliant and artistic rendition of Donna Anna; Miss Elizabeth Burgess was admirable as Donna Elvira; and Miss Ina Hill as Zerlina was most successful. Mr. Charles Victor made a capital and impressive Don Giovanni. Mr. Arthur Winckworth as Leporello, Mr. Fred Clendon as Masetto, and Mr. Edward Davies as Ottavio were all good. The choruses and band under Mr. Eugene Goossens were admirable. For the remainder of the week Fidelio, The Merry Wives of Windsor, Tannhäuser, Faust, and, for to-night, Maritana are announced.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Parrington.—A large and appreciative audience was present here on Monday night to witness Her Son, as played by Miss Winifred Emery and company. Their Excellencies the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen and Viceregal party were present, and met with a cordial reception when they entered. Miss Winifred Emery presents an artistic and clever study of Dorothy Fairfax, displaying power and versatility in her various moods. Mr. Bille Norwood is impressive, and does excellent work as Dick Gascoyne, his dignified style quite suiting the part, and Miss Minna Blakiston acts carefully as Chrystal Wride. Sir Augustus Helmingham has an able exponent in Mr. Harry Ashford, and Miss Eileen Munro is capital in the rôle of Lady Helmingham. The part of Min is played by Master Bobbie Andrews in the second act, and afterwards by Mr. M. A. Wetherell, is most praiseworthy, and Miss Keith Lytton is a careful study as Susan Judkins. Mr. H. Cannon George is particularly good as Parfiete, and as Lady Curragh and Kitty Tabard the Misses May Chevalier and Harriet Trench are admirable. The play is preceded by some humorous recitations given in his own inimitable style by Mr. Brandon Thomas. On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings Olivia was played by the same company.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Whitbread; Acting-Manager, Mr. John M. Dawson.—Mrs. Hubert O'Grady's company is appearing here this week in the Irish comedy-drama The Fenian, and doing excellent business. Mr. Arthur Gribbin gives a fine portrayal of Jack Lynch; Mr. Fred Aldworth is well placed as Lieutenant Tracy; and Miss Ada Hender cleverly acts the part of Helen Lynch. Mr. Sam S. Wilford gives a humorous impersonation of Barney, and the Misses Lizzie Brereton and Cissy Haighton, as Miss Williams and Lady St. John, are both good in their respective parts. Mr. J. Barker capably fills the rôle of Father Kelley, and as Nana Miss Violet Wood is satisfactory. The part of Colonel Tracy is well sustained by Mr. A. Weekley, and Mr. Harry Harrild is capital as Harry Maxwell. Fast Life is also billed.

EMPIRE.—General-Manager, Mr Frank Allen; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. George H. Marsh.—The programme here this week is of an agreeably diversified character. Heading the bill we have Hal Godfrey and company in their sketch A Very Bad Boy, which keeps the house convulsed with laughter. As a novelty in the mystery line the exhibition of Arif Hemet is entitled to be regarded as a special feature of the entertainment. Miss Sybil Montague, a vocalist of considerable talent, sings some popular songs with much acceptance. The Selbinis, in a smart and clever acrobatic cycling act, score a distinct success, as does also George Westland, quaint Scotch comedian. Syd May enhances his reputation as a mimic, and the musical turn of Ned Graydon obtains appreciation. Frank Couch, comedian, is favourably received; and Max Merlin, the human crocodile, elicits applause. The Empire pictures are up to date.

TIVOLI.—General-Manager, Mr. Charles M. Jones; Secretary, Mr. H. A. Murphy.—There is a capital company engaged here this week. The famous native choir from Jamaica are distinctly successful in their interesting entertainment. Another excellent turn is provided by Jennie Johns, a sparkling soubrette, whose catchy songs delight the audience, and the old favourite, Charles Bignell, is as popular as ever. The Brothers Wartenberg, double foot experts, contribute some smart feats, and Charles Mildare, whistling comedian, receives well-merited applause. Hart and Victor's sketch, The Golfer and the Caddie, is highly amusing, and Professor Hulbert is far above the average as a ventriloquist. Fred Horsfall, humorist and mimic, is highly appreciated, and Mons. de Lil, illusionist, and the Bioscope complete the bill.

DUDLEY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. Maurice Clement; Acting-with a hearty reception. The Saletos, head-balancers; Geo. Walker, baritone; Miss Connie Pulsford, Miss Hulford, Mr. Edward Grey, and a capital bioscope entertainment completed a successful programme.

EASTBOURNE. — Pier Pavilion. — Manager, Mr. George Hayes. — Mr. Alfred B. Cross and company are reappearing here in The Manxman. Mr. A. B. Cross, in a strong performance as Pete, again grips and holds the audience. Miss Minnie Watersford, too, is a sympathetic Kate Cregeen; Miss Dorothy Duncan an animated Nancy, and Miss Mona Spearing a satisfactory Miss Christian. Mr. Richard Hutton does admirable work as Cæsar Cregeen; Mr. Sydney C. Kearns is effective as Philip; and the sporting trio, Ross, Monty, and Mawley, are capably represented by Mr. Dudley Stuart, Mr. Edward Cartell, and Mr. W. Lynton.

The Hippodrome. — Managing-Director, Mr. Sidney W. Winter; General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Resident-Manager, Mr. Walter Smith.—The Jubilee Minstrels give a capital and complete miniature nigger entertainment; the Paolias, a wonderfully-developed gentleman and a pretty lady, give a taking turn; the Dandy Darkies appear in the well-known sketch Black Justice; Miss Maud Wilton is a clever mimic, Miss Mary Glenn a pleasing Scotch vocalist, Hardie Palm an effective comedian, and an excellent film is shown on the Bioscope.

ECCLES.—Grand Theatre and Opera House.—Proprietor, Mr. C. Hamilton Baines; Manager, Mr. Ernest Hales; Secretary, Mr. P. Ryan Smith.—The Moody-Manners opera company on Monday opened here with Carmen. The title-rôle was filled by Miss Rosina Beynon, who was accorded an enthusiastic reception; Mr. Charles Carter as Don José took his part cleverly; as Escamillo, Mr. Frederic Erle did full justice to the part, his rendering of "The Toreador" being admirable; Miss Lucie Lever, in the part of Michaela, sang charmingly; Miss M. Wilcocks and Miss M. Wood as Frasquita and Mercedes respectively, filled their allotted parts creditably. The orchestra and chorus responded ably to the skilful conductorship of Mr. Harrison Frewin. The week's bill includes Tannhäuser, The Bohemian Girl, Faust, Cavalleria Rusticana, and I Pagliacci, Lohengrin, and Martana.

EDINBURGH. — Theatre Royal. — Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Whitehead.—This theatre was occupied on Monday evening by an amateur combination, which played The School for Scandal in aid of the funds of a local charity. The house was closed during the remainder of the week for rehearsals of the pantomime.

Royal Lyceum Theatre. — Proprietors, Messrs. Howard and Wyndham, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. T. Minshull.—Mr. William Mollison and company are paying a return visit to Edinburgh this week with the adaptation of Ian Maclaren's touching and humorous series of stories, Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush. Mr. Mollison's impersonation of the narrow-minded Highland farmer, whose love ultimately conquers his prejudices, is of sterling merit, and the actor has never presented the character with more striking dramatic force. Mr. John Clyde as the warm-hearted doctor gives a performance abounding in felicitous touches; and Mr. Alec F. Thompson supplies an admirably humorous sketch of Wee Posty. Mr. Eric Mayne must be congratulated upon his excellent acting as the minister; Mr. Kendall Chalmers is a pawky Tammas Mitchell; and the support rendered by the remaining members of the company, including that capable actress Miss Josephine Woodward as Margaret Howe, Miss Evelyn McNay as Flora Campbell, and Mr. Archie W. Chappell as Lord Hay, contributes in no small measure to the success of the play.

Empire Palace Theatre.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Parham Wells.—A quartette of jugglers, the Four Indian Fakirs, are at the head of this week's bill, and their marvellous dexterity in the performance of various conjuring feats, including the famous basket trick, excite great interest and wonder. Two Hebrew comedians, Jordan and Harvey, succeed in imparting something new to their characteristic turn; and Shawlene, comedian and siffleur, renders an operatic overture with delightful effect. The songs and dances of Pat Carey, Irish comedian, are racy of the soil; Mr. Ambrose Thorne is a pleasing light comedian; La Danseuse, in a dancing scena, greatly charms the audience; Boyd and Gilfain appear with much success in a sprightly vaudeville entertainment; Bonnie Goodwin and her piccaninnies are amusing in their cake-walks and dances; Zamfretta and Napio are clever eccentrics with their musical knife-grinding; Miss Frances Letty sings well, and executes a novel dance on electric tram rails; and several series of descriptive pictures are shown by the Bioscope.

Cooke's Royal Circus. — Proprietor, Mr. John Henry Cooke.—Miss Iona Ginnett and the Humels, with their clever and interesting equestrian acts, and Messrs. Hinton and Wooton, the bicycle football players, are still leading features on an excellent circus programme, which also includes remarkable acrobatic feats by Miss Victoria Dagmar, good singing and dancing by the Two Elliotts, and some diverting antics by Mr. Permane's troupe of trained bears. In addition Mr. Cooke presents another very attractive entertainment this week, entitled Ally Sloper's Big Water Carnival on the Thames. This is an act in two scenes, introducing the whole human strength of the company, supplemented by ducks, geese, and swans. The arena at one time shows a pleasing rustic spectacle, which is with much ingenuity quickly changed into a miniature lake, with an island in the centre and a cascade pouring down between plants and shrubs with very picturesque and realistic effect. Small boats cover the surface of the water, and there is plenty of furious fun, carried on with great vigour by Mr. Leicester Alfred Cooke, Neddy Vokes, Mr. James Humel, Miss Florrie Humel, Du Calion, Mr. Charles Linder, and many other spirited performers. The carnival was received on the opening night with great cordiality, and Mr. Cooke bowed his acknowledgment amid enthusiastic cheers. A good exhibition of Bioscope pictures kept the audience amused during the intervals needed for the various transformations.

EXETER. — Theatre Royal. — Chairman and Managing-Director, Mr. Edward J. Domville, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy M. Dunsford.—Mr. B. A. Meyer's company is here this week in the well-known play, East Lynne, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Grimston. Miss Grimston herself takes the part of Lady Isabel, and her portrayal is lifelike and deservedly earns the sympathies and plaudits of the audience; Mr. Wilfred Beckwith's Archibald Carlyle is distinctly good; while Miss Blanche Stanley as Miss Carlyle is very amusing. Mr. Eric Maxon ably sustains the part of Captain Francis Levison, and Miss Ena Ferry is a capital Barbara Hare.

FALKIRK.—Grand Theatre and Opera House.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Mr. Horace W. Ebbutt.—Miss Lois Esmond's company, under the direction of Mr. Edward Neville, presented the sensational drama, The Anarchist Terror, on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Fred Cherry took the part of Silas Washington Goldstraw, and his portrayal of the retired pork king of Boston was a very clever one, his acting being first-class. Mr. Edward Neville showed his versatility in five different characters, under all of which he was yet what the title of the drama proclaimed him to be. Mr. Chas. Ninian made a heroic Lieutenant Armstrong; Mr. Herbert Carrington's Mickey Doolan was a smart bit of work, and his Irish "brogue" was always fetching; Miss Nita Langford proved herself an accomplished actress as Marita, an Italian Jewess; while Miss Rosie Neville, in the character of Columbia Goldstraw, was piquant, and Miss Esmond was sprightly as Kitty Malone. As Ishmael, the gipsy chief, Mr. H. Evan Gibbon acted forcibly. On Wednesday evening The Sorrows of Satan was produced by the same company, the theatre being given over on Thursday evening to the Falkirk and District Operatic Society for a three nights' engagement with Erminie.

FARNWORTH.—Queen's Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, T. Morton Powell.—Mr. John Gerant's company is this week presenting the military drama, At Duty's Call. Mr. Gerant appears successfully as Harold Allison a part he has played nearly 2,000 times. Mr. Ernest St. John as General Gordon gives a capital impersonation, and Mr. Harry Scott very creditably undertakes the part of Captain George Allison. Mr. Walter P. Carr and Mr. Harry Ugar as Jack Spencer and Terry O'Halloran respectively, are responsible for a great deal of amusement. Miss Lily Esammonde as Dora Drummond has a part that suits her admirably, and she does not fail to make every point tell. Miss Beatrice Western as Salema is all that can be desired, and Miss Eva Bell as Mary is to be complimented on her humorous assumption of the character.

FLEETWOOD.—Queen's Theatre.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Harry J. Snelson.—Miss Adria Hill and Mr. Robert Ayrton's company this week is presenting A Gambler's Daughter here. Mr. Robert Ayrton as Desmond O'Dare gives a capital portrayal of an honest, good-natured Irishman; Mr. Richard Pitt is good as John Grant; and Mr. Victor Millard makes an interesting Jack Grant. Ralph Gillman is ably represented by Mr. Arthur T. Lennard; and Mr. William T. Riley is seen to advantage as the Weasel (Captain Stanhope). Mr. Lincoln Calthorpe is well suited with the part of Stephen Brand; Mr. George Vinning does well as Tom Brand; Mr. Alfred Sanders makes a good Solomon Solomons; Miss Linda Riley an amusing Auntie Zeb; and Miss Lottie Sanders an admirable Careta. Miss Lizzie Gordon is well adapted to the part of Carman Sancho; and Miss Adria Hill as Mildred Grant, the gambler's wife, and afterwards as Miriam Grant, the gambler's daughter, is both realistic and pathetic.

FOLKESTONE.—Pleasure Gardens Theatre.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland.—Miss Madge McIntosh and Mr. Lumsden Hare's company, in Mollentrave on Women, is the attraction here this week. Mr. Herbert Grimwood gives a striking delineation of Mr. Mollentrave; Mr. Athol Stewart is a clever Sir Joseph Balsted; Mr. Harry Kendal acts with ability as Everard Sevenboys; Mr. Stockall Ward is good as Lord Contareen; Miss May Pardoe enacts the part of Lady Claude Derenham in an able manner; Miss Eva Hamblin as Margaret Messilent is well placed; Miss Belle Donaldson and Miss Ada King are satisfactory as Miss Treable and Mrs. Martelli; and Miss Jessie Fraser is an effective Martin.

GATESHEAD.—Metropole Theatre.—Lessees, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting - Manager, Mr. Thomas France.—Mr. and Mrs. John Walters' company is appearing with considerable success here this week in the pantomime The Babes in the Wood. Miss Gerty McQueen is a dashing Robin Hood, and a charming Maid Marion is Miss Fanny Adamson. Dainty little Kitty Chester is popular as Bertie; and Baby Blyth is successful as Cissie. Miss Kitty Liske is a sweet Dolly Dimple; Mr. Ernest Thirlway is entertaining as the Baron; but chief honours in the comedy line go to Mr. Ally Benson, who is extremely funny as Dame Flossie. Messrs. Traynor and Connor as the bold, bad men cause many laughs, and Joe Brogan's representation of Soft Tommy finds great favour. Specialties are introduced by the Four Emeralds, acrobatic dancers, and the Sisters McQueen, operatic vocalists.

King's Theatre.—Licensee, Mr. Edward Johnson; General-Manager, Mr. Harold Arnold.—Very creditable to the management is the programme submitted here this week. Ada Colley can nominate Gateshead as one of her strongholds. Her auditors are loth to part with her, even after she has treated them to four numbers. Leo Dryden gives us of his best in "Bachelor Boys! Farewell" and "The Prodigal Son." The ever-welcome J. W. Hall is greeted with a storm of applause, and his quaint antics and funny patter keep the audience in a continual state of merriment; Jack Charman, with the song "May I come home once more?" scores; and the Woelhafs submit a comedy act which is well received. Vasey and Ramsey have a capital comedy and dancing turn, and Emilie Warren, brilliantly costumed, renders a ballad with good effect. Bertha Norwood, described as a "refined soubrette," and pictures by Vernon's Imperial Bioscope complete an excellent programme.

Queen's Theatre.—Proprietors, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Stephen Smith.—A Woman's Past, excellently interpreted by Messrs. Hamilton Harden and C. V. Sandford's company, is the attraction at this house. Mr. Henry Hargreaves cuts a handsome figure as David Heath, and his acting is of a high-class order; Mr. Sandford adequately fills the comedy rôle of Frank Dellanoy; and Uriah Craven receives capable treatment at the hands of Mr. G. Moreton-Williams; Mr. Warden is capital as Clement Harper. The central figure in the drama is Miss Maisie Hanbury, whose depiction of Bessie is worthy of the highest praise; Miss Violet Ennis Lawson cleverly impersonates Dorothy Heath; and Miss Eva Bertram gets the most out of the part of Clara Darrell.

GLASGOW.—Royalty, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. M. Downie.—Audiences filled the house in every part on Monday, and during the week, to welcome back D'Oyly Carte's company in Gilbert-Sullivan opera, commencing with the favourite Mikado. Mr. Fred Billington excelled himself in his humorous delineation of the unequalled pluralist, Pooh-Bah; while Mr. Charles R. Walenn was equally mirth-provoking as Ko-Ko; the three little maids were charmingly rendered by Miss Hope Hastings as Yum-Yum, Miss Lulu Evans as Pitti-Sing, and Miss Mabel Burnegge as Peep-Bo. Mr. Albert Kavanagh acted the Mikado with a highly comical mock dignity; Mr. Pacie Ripple as Nanki-Poo used his fine voice effectively both in solos and concerted pieces; the part of Katisha was ably acted and sung by Miss Theresa Rassam; the noble lord, Pish-Tush, was well handled by Mr. Leicester Tunks; and the deep bass of Mr. Fred Drawater as Go To was used with telling effect all through the opera. The Yeomen of the Guard was played on Tuesday and Friday, The Gondoliers on Wednesday evening, while Iolanthe was the attraction for Thursday.

King's, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. H. Macfarlane.—Mr. David Bispham and company are here this week with Liza Lehmann's new operatic version of The Vicar of Wakefield, and it is not surprising that this picturesque production was followed with such great interest and appreciation on Monday, for it is a long time since such a refined and harmonious light opera has been seen in Glasgow. Mr. Bispham's acting in the title-rôle is well up to the best traditions of the character, while his singing of both old and new lyrics is most expressive; for the part of Olivia a highly accomplished actress and vocalist is found in Miss Violette Londa; Miss Edith Clegg is the Sophia, and gives an excellent account of herself, both vocally and histrionically; Mr. Walter Hyde is a tenor of more than average ability, and makes a fine romantic figure of Squire Thornhill; as Mr. Burchell, Mr. Richard Temple has little singing to do, but gives the necessary weight and dignity to the part; Mrs. Theodore Wright is particularly well suited as Mrs. Primrose; the rôle of Moses is adequately filled by Mr. Arthur Eldred; Mr. Powis Pinder gives a humorous touch to the part of Farmer Williams; as the crafty Mr. Jenkinson, Mr. C. Oram Lauder is good: the Vicar's children are cleverly represented by Master Gordon Travis and Miss Elfin Arthur, the former being a singer of considerable promise; the parts of Lady Blarney (Madame Amy Martin), Miss Skeggs (Miss Valerie de Lacy), and a Gipsy (Miss Bella Wallis) are well filled, and in keeping with the general excellence of the production, Mr. Hamish MacCunn is the musical conductor.

Metropole, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Gillespy.—£1,000 Reward is this week being presented by Messrs. Frank J. Pitt and Charles Halling's company. Charles Rogers, jun., is well suited to the part of Jack Springthorpe; Mr. Frank J. Pitt is a satisfactory Fred Engleford; and Mr. Charles Halling as Vincent Ramsworth gives a praiseworthy performance. Good work is also done by Mr. Frank Dallas as Inspector Gilbert; Miss Lyn Darlington wins sympathy as Meg; Miss Crissie Francess sustains the part of Kitty Springthorpe; and Miss Daisy Halling ably accounts for Madame Samson; Mrs. Sidney Halling makes an efficient Mrs. McCarthy.

Lyceum.—Proprietor Mr. Rich. Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Oakden.—Large and enthusiastic audiences welcomed La Poupée this week, as presented by Mr. Herbert Ralland's company. Miss Mysie Devine makes a charming Alesia, and sings her various numbers with much taste. As the doll-maker, Hilarius, Mr. Harry Brayne ably sustains the traditions of the part in the humorous line; Mr. Arthur Cozens acts well and sings pleasingly as Lancelot; Mr. Fuller Allen, who manages the company, is a dignified Baron Chanterelle; and the fine voice of Mr. Walter Balfour does ample justice to the songs of Father Maxime. Mr. Arthur Dennis as Loremois and Mr. E. Mooney as Balthazar ably portray two types of character. Miss Edith Hunter is a pleasant Madame Hilarius, Miss Doris Dickens an attractive Henri, and Misses Alice Roche, Hettie Cornwallis, Nina Zambray, Aima Heath, Dora Dickens, and Nita Cree are well placed in the other female parts. An able chorus, including a clever male-voice quartette, give fine effect in the various concerted numbers, and the augmented orchestra is well managed by Mr. H. H. Shaw.

Empire.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. Sam Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. Charles Mussett.—A novel turn heads the bill here—that of Monsieur Gadbin, who allows an Argyll motor-car, with passengers, to run over his hands, feet, and back. Frank Bernard and company in an amusing telephone sketch, Hello! are well received; Marie Duma, the well-known operatic prima donna, sings two ballads in pleasing style; Carl, the comedian à la Little Tich, is a quaintly-amusing character, and having now recovered his valuable bulldog (which was missing at the week-end) the climax of his turn goes well. The Three Merills are smart and daring cyclists; Horace Jones, the new Welsh comedian, gives a football recitation; the Clarkes contribute a high-class selection on the banjo; the Two Cromwells are clever little girls in juggling feats; and the Sisters Lavender sing and dance well. The latest films are also shown on the Bioscope.

Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd., and Mr. E. H. Bostock; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—A capital bill of fare is provided here this week, the chief attraction being the engagement of Paul Conchas, the famous Continental juggler, who gives a daring and marvellous display. Fred Ginnett and company provide the amusing equestrian act, entitled Rejected Remounts; while the efforts of Little Zola, eccentric comedian, meet with deserved appreciation. Arabella Allen gives clever impersonations of the best-known characters in the works of Charles Dickens; and Sterry and Morgan are seen to much advantage in The Newhaven Fishwife sketch. Other acceptable turns are contributed by Harry Leybourne, mimic; the Kitapika Troupe, in Japanese mélangé; Little May Orchard, comedienne; W. S. Ellwanger and company, sketch artists; and series of new pictures by the Hippodrome Bioscope.

Pavilion, Ltd.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd.—The enterprise of the management here in securing Miss Ada Reeve has been amply rewarded, and crowded houses have twice nightly evinced the utmost enthusiasm for the dainty comedienne, who comes well provided with catchy songs. Rastus and Banks are a clever coloured couple, the acrobatic feats of the gentleman being marvellous; Muir and Bartlett's company in The Collar Stud provides some enjoyable complications; Little Dando's eccentricities are much appreciated; and that clever comedian Jack Pleasants keeps the audience in roars of laughter. Barton and Franklin give a smart musical turn; Queenie May is a young singer with a pleasing style; Dolly Golden dances neatly; and some clever songs are contributed by Gena Mason.

Coliseum. — Proprietors, Moss Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. Sam Gething; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry Burdette.—Mr. Fred Karno's company repeats the performance of Moses and Son, which proved a great success at this theatre last week. Mr. Fred Kitchen being now busy rehearsing in the Grand pantomime, gives place to Mr. Albert Bruno in the chief part, and he proves a first-rate successor. Cora Corina, a charming comedienne, sings and dances tastefully; the Glenroy quintette gain liberal applause for their well-executed national dances; Clarice Netta displays a fine soprano voice in "The Dear Homeland"; and Percival is humorous and clever in a pianoforte recital. Parker and Parr sing duets with taste; Mr. Walker conducts a fine overture selection; and the Bioscope pictures this week are not by any means the least pleasing item of the programme.

Palace.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Rich. Waldon; General-Manager, Mr. Harry M'Kelvie.—A programme of all-round excellence is submitted here this week. Horace Wheatley is the principal attraction, and had a capital reception on the opening night; the Martelloni Troupe of lady acrobats also made a good appearance, their performance being greeted with rounds of applause. Other notable members of the company include Ted Saunders, mimic; Stanley and Vandyke, comedy artists; the Gilbeys, instrumentalists; Kathleen Gray, comedienne; W. C. Webber, basso; Billy Hobbs, comedian and dancer; and Harris and Worth, comedians.

Harmonic Concerts.—Musical Secretary, Mr. Wm. Biggam.—Bendon's Animatograph, with an interesting series of pictures, creates much enthusiasm; Tom Bassett proves an amusing comedian in his Shakespearean burlesques; Nellie Hughes does well in song and dance; Sam Thomson and Harry Dalton score as Scotch comedians; the efforts of the Mackinnon Family are loudly applauded; Harzadon and Cole appear in their sketch, A Lucky Mistake; Carl Volta exhibits wonderful sleight-of-hand achievements; Bishof and Vale, comedians; and Harry Jennings, song and dance artist, also contribute to a good programme.

GLOSSOP. — Theatre Royal.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Sydney Spenser.—Mr. Dickie' Clare's company, in Lucky 'Liza, is here this week. The piece is most cordially received. Mr. Clare as Silas Slim and the Judge handles those characters in a clever and humorous manner; Mr. T. W. Benson (Peter Pettitoe) and Mr. A. W. Thompson (Barny Blatherwick) give capital studies; Mr. Leonard Maitland as Paul Pettitoe brings down the house with his drolleries; and Mr. H. A. Griffiths is very good as William Biffins. Miss Madge Browne sustains the title-rôle in a clever manner; Miss Vesta Brownie is an excellent Virginia Blatherwick; Miss Bella Russell an effective Marie Pettitoe; and the Esmond Trio of lady vocalists and acrobatic dancers are one of the features of the performance.

GLOUCESTER.—Palace.—Owners, Messrs. C. W. and J. R. Poole; Manager, Mr. R. T. Rea.—The programme is headed this week by the Atlas Troupe, society athletes, who provide an interesting show, in which Miss Vulcana shines prominently; Airoy is a smart juggler and hoop roller; Violi is a clever lady instrumentalist, whose selections are of the popular order; Percy Vere and Edith Royal are a good pair of patterers, vocalists, and dancers who score well; Karr and Kooney are old friends with new business; and Miss Alma Curzon has some effective songs, excellently sung. Carl Rosine does some neat conjuring; Wirson, in a daring head and hand-balancing act, meets with approval; as does Yetta, in the cake-walk on the wire; Carl Lynn proves a capital animal mimic; and Lozelle is a sensational gymnast. The bioscope adds to its popularity each week.

GOOLE.—Theatre Royal.—Lessee, Mr. John B. Tomlinson.—Mr. J. H. Clyndes' company is here on a second visit, with the romantic play, A Royal Revenge. Mr. J. H. Clyndes gives an exceedingly fine performance as Esteran Alveraz. Mr. Fred G. Ingleby is excellent as the heroic Manuel Mondega. The part of Nicholas Vargas has an able exponent in Mr. John Foxhill. Mr. Henry Edlin causes amusement by his boisterous performance of Michael Sancha; he is ably supported by Miss Annie Stewart as Paquita. Mr. Percy Horton gives a dignified portrayal of the King of Spain. Miss Aimee Grattan-Clyndes is to be highly commended for her admirable representation of Cora Caselda. Miss Ethel Whitely is seen to advantage as Mother Maria Teresa. Mr. Arthur F. Dudley is a capital Azan, and Mr. Leslie Parker is well placed as Friar Dominie.

GRAVESEND. — Grand Theatre of Varieties, Ltd.—General-Manager, Mr. David Hart.—On Friday, the 30th ult., the general manager, Mr. David Hart, held his annual benefit, which was an enormous success. This week good turns and good houses have been the order. Larola, the funny man, has been doing great things; Ada Parker, coon songstress and dancer, has been successful; A. E. Clifford has proved himself a versatile vocalist; Orpheus is a clever instrumentalist and a master of melody; L. B. Athol, comedian, and Rose Cabani, comedienne, have both received their share of applause, whilst Princess Pauline, comedienne, an old favourite here, is more popular than ever.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—Royal Aquarium.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. W. Nightingale.—The sensational play, No Man's Land, performed by Miss Ida Millais' company, is the attraction here for the week. Mr. Henry Herne as Harry Oaklands gives a vigorous and manly rendition of the rôle; and Miss Ida Millais is natural and sympathetic as Mary Bathurst. Mr. Frank Denis is excellent as the evil genius, Silas Moore; Mat Marsden is capitally represented by Mr. A. G. Lyton; Mr. H. Pyne Warburton cleverly depicts the two brothers, Gilbert and Norman Bathurst; Dr. Buxton is admirably acted by Mr. Mallalieu; Mrs. Poodle is capably played by Mrs. Mallalieu; and Thompson and Bessie Poodle are amusingly presented by Mr. Alfred Byron and Miss Nancy Mitchell.

The Hippodrome.—Proprietor, Mr. Geo. Gilbert.—Austin Rudd, eccentric comedian, wins much applause for his well-rendered songs; Stack and Milton give a clever show on the horizontal bars; and Fioretti and Elly win loud applause in their speciality act. Other artists appearing are John Yelding, equestrian; Mlle. de Roche, operatic singer; A. T. Boswell, negro comedian; Stanley's Urchins, in song and dance; and the Boy Doodles and Dan Gregory, clowns.

GREENOCK.—Alexandra Theatre.—Proprietors, The Greenock Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident Directors and Managers, Messrs. A. B. and J. J. Wright. —The Still Alarm is being played here this week by Messrs. Mathew H. Glenville and Fred Osmond's company. Mr. Mathew H. Glenville delineates with masterly skill the character of Jack Manley, and Mr. Fred Osmond is highly amusing as Dr. Wilber. Villainy is capitally personified by Mr. George Arthur as John Bird, and the part of Willie Manley is in the capable hands of Mr. Tom Beasley. Mr. Lewis Gordon acts well as Franklyn Fordham, and Mr. J. Sutton Pateman as Joe Jones deserves mention. Miss Maud Warburton is all that could be desired as Elinor Fordham; Miss Hetty Zillwood is also successful as Carrie Wilber, and Miss Mabel Veriton is a capable Mrs. Manley. Songs are introduced with success by Miss Hetty Zillwood, and the Lyric Comedy Four are also applauded.

Empire Theatre of Varieties.—General-Manager, Mr. H. L. Skivington.—Heading the bill here is a grand cinematograph reproduction of the great Moir-Palmer Fight. Messrs. James Willard and company present an amusing dramatic sketch, entitled Did he Deserve It? which is well received. Minnie Wren has a good reception for her selections; Bishop and Vale score with funny patter, and give a good tumbling display; Master Harry Baley, in illustrated song: Marvello, society entertainer, and Mozetto, juggler, are also in the bill, and their performances are appreciated.

Pavilion Theatre.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd; Resident-Manager, Mr. Chas. A. White.—The company here includes Tennyson and Wallis, comedians, who score with their singing and amusing patter; Lorne and Rene, in a Lancashire singing sketch, entitled Capital and Labour, cause hearty laughter; Gertie Gitana commands the heartiest applause for her excellent vocal method and charming appearance; Lottie De Abbey is much applauded for her singing; the Calcotts submit a clever musical dancing act; Tom Leo, the lazy comedian, is also good, and the Paviscope pictures complete the bill.

GRIMSBY.—Prince of Wales's Theatre.—Chairman of Directors, Mr. H. J. Curry; Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry.—Wilson Barrett's last play, Lucky Durham, has repeated its former success here. Mr. Edmund Kennedy still presents the central character, John Durham, with dignity and earnestness; in Miss Alice Esther Belmore an altogether charming Helen Vallerton is seen; whilst Miss Louisa Gourlay is a sympathetic exponent of Mrs. Durham. Mr. Arthur Leigh contributes quiet, but effective, humour as the Hon. Reginald; and others who may be mentioned are Mr. Robert Forsyth as Lord Mountfallon, Mr. A. E. Walker as Mr. Vallerton, Mr. Powell James as Arthur Walcombe, Mr. W. F. Clitherow as Ben Verstein, Miss Frances Wolviston as Lady Mountfallon, and Miss Florence Dulhunty as the Hon. Margaret.

Curry's Tivoli. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. W. North.—Charles Dare's troupe of minstrels give a capital entertainment here. The singing is exceptionally good, and there is abundance of variety in the turn; Otto and Olga, besides proving expert instrumentalists, introduce capital comedy and operatic burlesque; the Athlones, a couple of splendidly proportioned athletes, submit a series of classic poses and muscular manipulations; Les Uniques are prominent in a gymnastic act; and others appearing are Beatrice Willey, flower vocalist; the Sisters Terry, comediennes and dancers; Esta Stella, comedienne and eccentric dancer; Woodhouse and Wells, comedians; and Ted Waite, eccentric comedian.

The Palace.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. A. Edwardes; Resident-Manager, Mr. T. W. Moyes; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. V. Allton.—In consequence of their great sucess last week, the Savonas are retained for this week's programme, and they present a variety of musical novelties. As the Elliots, the troupe perform their smart cycle act. George Prince, a favourite eccentric comedian here, has added to his reputation; Zaro and Arno perform on the horizontal bars; Kahn and Kahn present new illusions; Ingram and Irving appear in a sketch, The New Office Boy; and others taking part are F. S. Hulme, comedian; and R. Dunning, ventriloquist.

The Hippodrome. — Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. T. Haydn Reano.—Animated pictures occupy the greater portion of the programme, new subjects being shown. In addition, Ivy Deane, comedienne and dancer; and the Gelders, illusionists, appear.

GUERNSEY.—St. Julian's Hall.—Lessee, Mr. C. Robt. Perkins.—Mr. Arthur Nelstone and company with "The Season's Novelties" appeared here on Thursday, the 29th ult. The Lieut.-Governor and a distinguished gathering were present. The entertainment was exceptionally bright, fresh, and attractive. Mr. Arthur Nelstone is irresistibly humorous, and his dramatic sketches are exceedingly clever. Able support is given by Miss Kate Walbran, who is not only possessed of histrionic ability, but is a brilliant reciter. Special praise is due to Mr. Ernest A. Thiel, a born mimic; he is also a clever singer and pianist. Miss Naidee Girelle's singing, acting, and dancing are most enjoyable.

HALIFAX.—Grand Theatre, Ltd.—Resident-Manager, Mr. S. Winks.—Mr. Wm. Maclaren and powerful company are attracting good houses here this week with Claudian. The fine stage presence of Mr. Wm. Maclaren (who acts the title-rôle) makes him a great favourite; while Mr. Douglas Earle is much admired for his sterling representation of Agazil; the villainous rôle is assiduously interpreted by Mr. F. Owen Chambers as the impetuous Tetrarch; Mr. S. Brisco Farbridge is responsible for the Holy Clement, a part he plays with much success; Mr. Edmund Cragan is followed with much interest as the sculptor, as is the Symachus of Mr. Vernon O. Crabtree. A good deal of delightful low comedy is infused by Mr. C. T. Chaloner into the rôle of Belos; and as Eddesa Miss Maud Garth cannot be too highly commended; while Miss Lily C. Bandmann maintains her claims on Halifax players by her sweet portrayal of Almida.

Theatre Royal, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—The Marvellous Craggs had a rousing reception here on Monday, when they opened with Billy, the New Steward of the Channel Queen, a farce that abounds in byplay and startling pyramid trickery. Marlo, who ably deputised for May Glenn, is a juggler of more than average ability; Ernie Myers was in great form; Bliss and Bliss, comedians, met with a cordial reception; while Bert Byrne was all that could be desired; Estio and Luigy gave a novel football exhibition, assisted by a sagacious bulldog; Lily Lonsdale, a delightful ballad vocalist, also captivated the audience.

Palace Theatre, Ltd.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Ed. Harrison.—A pleasing turn, brimful of bright comedy, is provided here by Donaldson Bros. and Ardel in A Zoological Comedy. The Leotard Bros. are as whimsical as ever, and score heavily; adequate excitement is contributed by the Davis and Gledhill trio of expert cyclists; local adepts have a rare chance to distinguish themselves, for there is an open competition. Johnny Hall and company, in their latest ultra-farcical absurdity, entitled Our Betsy, are well received; Geo. Leonard, comedian; Woodward and Walton, the rag-time experts, together with Mayon and Marle, in a vocal duologue, Elizabeth and the Baby, are assured of success.

HANLEY.—Theatre Royal, Ltd.—Managing Director, Mr. Chas. Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Douglas Elphinstone.—Messrs. Melford and Polini's company opened here on Monday in The Silver King. Mr. Fred Davis as Wilfred Denver is powerful; as Nellis Denver Miss Daisy Scudamore is most successful; Mr. Edward J. George is seen to advantage as Jaikes; and Mr. St. George Lowther as the Spider is effective; Mr. Arthur Wright as Combe is well placed.

Grand.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Alfred Edwardes.—Harry Ford leads the bill this week, and scores a distinct success; the Abdullah Troupe of Arabs provide a wonderful acrobatic performance; the Di Pace Bros. are seen in a smart musical act, playing really good music; Spry and Monti, in their scena The Dandy Guardsman, are well received; Fred Mulvey and Minnie Miriam contribute an interesting comedy act; Little Ganty is successful; Anna Kenwick provides a pleasing turn; and Madge May is a comedienne of merit. The pictures are new and quite up to date.

HARROGATE.—Grand Opera House.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Peacock; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. Fielding Smith.—For the first three nights of this week we had the third visit here of the ever-popular comedy, The Marriage of Kitty, this time presented by Mr. Howard Cochran's company, and an excellent one it was. Mr. Cochran played Sir Reginald Belsize very well, and had an excellent partner in the person of Miss Margaret Damer as Kitty Silverton; Mr. Cecil Wilford made a very good John Travers, the family solicitor; Miss Betty Castle was a fine Mme. de Semiano, and won many laughs by her clever performance; Miss Helen Kay Robertson gave a clever study of the French maid, Rosalie. The piece was well staged. For the rest of the week, Miss Adria Hill's and Robert Ayrton's company, in A Gambler's Daughter, was announced.

HARTLEPOOL. — Empress. — Proprietors, Messrs. Everton and Cragg; Manager, Mr. Harry Burns.—The principal attraction her this week is Zertho and his dogs, a show that is full of humour; the Raglus Duo, eccentric lawn tennis ball manipulators, are amusing and smart; as vocalists, instrumentalists, and patterers the Wed burns created a favourable impression. Other turns are the Three Sisters Lee, vocalists and acrobats; Will Bell, an expert dancer; Dan Robans, a pleasing light opera vocalist; the Bros. Carpos, in a clever acrobatic act; Dr. Ernst and company, in a musical scena; Alec Kendal, a capital comedy patterer; and the Bioscope.

HASTINGS.—Gaiety Theatre.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles E. Scutt.—A week's visit was opened on Monday by Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's company in the American drama, At Cripple Creek, and a well-filled house gave its first production here a very cordial approval. The company travel excellent scenery, and the piece is well staged. Mr. Stanley Bedwell filled the rôle of Joe Mayfield efficiently; Miss Agnes Verity gave a clever portrayal of "Dynamite" Ann; Belle Gordon is pleasingly played by Miss Lily Beagle; Maggie Mason has a lively representative in Miss Daisy Carlton, and is successful in a duet and dance with Reggie Harwood—a part played by Mr. Will Hook with much ability. Little Rosie Hopkins as Little Tatto proves an especially clever little lady, and drew a determined encore for her song of the "Apple Orchard." Mr. Arthur D. Layland displayed much agility as Wahketah, and his sensational rescue of Tatto received due recognition from his audience. The ruffians of the Creek had able exponents in Mr. Chas. H. Lester as Martin Mason, Mr. J. G. Maine as Manuel Alvarez, and Mr. Sydney Benson as the Nigger Ben enlivened the play with his seasonable humour, songs, and dance, which obtained much applause. The remaining characters had suitable exponents.

Pier Pavilion. — Pier - Master, Mr. R. Turner; Entertainment Manager, M

1907. NOTICE TO INTENDING ADVERTISERS. LAST DAYS FOR ADVERTISEMENTS. 1907.

Fortieth Year of Publication.

THE ERA ANNUAL

WILL BE THE MOST COMPLETE

Dramatic Dictionary of Dates and Theatrical Treasury of Knowledge

EVER BROUGHT BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

It will also be found to be the most interesting Annual of the Year, containing as it does MANY STORIES told by Members of the DRAMATIC and MUSICAL PROFESSIONS.

ILLUSTRATED BY PHOTOGRAPHS AND AUTOGRAPHS.

A WORLD-WIDE CIRCULATION, THEREFORE AN EXCELLENT MEDIUM FOR ADVERTISERS.

Specimen Advertisements.

MR.

LEO DRYDEN,

Vocal Character Actor.

"LOVE AND DUTY."
"MINER'S DREAM OF HOME."
"THE MINER'S RETURN."
"SKIPPER'S DAUGHTER."
"INDIA'S REPLY."
"THE GREAT WHITE MOTHER.'
"JOSEPHINE."
"MERCIA."
"BRAVO! DUBLIN FUSILIERS.
"THE ONLY WAY."
"MICE AND MEN."
"FREEDOM AND JAPAN."
"AN ACTOR AND A MAN.'
"BACHELOR BOYS, FAREWELL.
"THE PRODIGAL SON."

All communications, c/o "The Era."

Half-page Advt., £2 2 0.

"So pleased to see you again."

Mr. ARTHUR LENNARD ("Baby").

Christmas Arrangements . . .

London Pavilion. Tivoli.
Gatti's, Charing Cross Road. English's Sebright.

Sole Agents - - - TOM SHAW & CO.

Quarter-page Advt., £1 1 0.

"MY FANCY"

The World's Greatest Sand Dancer

WHO HAS PERFORMED AT ALL THE PRINCIPAL THEATRES IN THE WORLD

Wishes One and All the Season's Greetings

JANUARY :: :: COLISEUM

BOOKED SOLID BY BAWN'S AGENCY, BALHAM

Whole Page Advt., £4 4 0.

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR THE THEATRICAL AND MUSIC HALL PROFESSIONS.

	£	s.	d.
Whole Page	4	4	0
Half-Page	2	2	0
Quarter-Page	1	1	0
One-Eighth Page	0	10	6
One-Sixteenth Page	0	5	0

PHOTO. BLOCKS FOR ILLUSTRATING ADVERTISEMENTS CAN BE SUPPLIED.

Terms on application to the Publisher.

Cheques and Post Office Orders payable to "THE ERA" LTD.
A Copy forwarded for Twelve Stamps.

Address, THE PUBLISHER,

5, TAVISTOCK STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

Telephone: No. FOUR—SEVEN—FOUR—SEVEN CENTRAL.

welcomed his reappearance. The man in blue finds an excellent counterpart in Mr. Arthur Reynolds. Miss Mary Hay is a capable and capital Aurora, whilst Miss Hebe Bliss is a delightful Lady Bickenhall. Mr. Chas. McLagan is responsible for much of the fun that prevails when Cookie Scrubbs is on the stage. The music runs with a merry swing, and the chorus, thoroughly efficient, render adequate aid.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Mortons, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. Morton.—A Woman's Pluck is just the play to please a popular audience. To Miss Grace Lester is given the task, which she fills with much skill and prowess. As Roger Pippin Mr. Dicky Bird makes a hit; Miss Helen Elman is a pronounced success as Lady Dare Devil; and Mr. Fred Norburn is equally at home in the dual rôles of Jim Daremount and Mark Scouler.

THE HIPPODROME.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Graham; Manager, Mr. Tom Lunn.—Terry and Lambert successfully top the bill; the Ten Dixie Girls furnish a bright and entertaining terpsichorean and vocal act; J. W. Ellison is popular in some excellent songs; Pete and Minnie contribute an amusing turn, The Scotchman's Visit to London; the juggling feats of Salsuma are exceedingly smart; Maude Clifton is a nice vocalist; Tom Dunmore also contributes.

THE EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. Harry Slingsby.—Zelda, an expert musical turn, tops the bill. The Prinellas appear with much success in A Country Flirtation; Vera Mayne's songs meet with success; T. C. Callaghan is an old Empire favourite. Other artists include The Shamrocks, a clever trio, in songs and dances; Fred Dice, Amy Allnutt, and Jean Rae.

THE PALACE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.—Appearing here are Hackenschmidt (who was unable to appear after Monday on account of illness), De Wynne Bros., Macarte Sisters, Conway and Leland, Dion Wade, Fred Keeton, Two Cymros, Clark and Glenny, and Leyton and Spurling.

THE CIRCUS.—Resident-Manager, Mr. E. Emerson.—Animated pictures have just entered upon the ninth week.

HYDE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. R. Feather.—Crowded houses have nightly appreciated Mr. Fred Melville's drama during the past week. Mr. Henry Lonsdale gives a manly and vigorous performance as George Madison, and a charming and sympathetic Lucy is found in Miss Nellie Bonser. Mr. Louis Hector depicts with considerable skill the callous nature of Charles Devereux; and the unscrupulous adventuress, Lady Lucretia Lancaster, has a clever impersonator in Miss Octavia Noel. Mr. Beresford Whitecombe makes a dignified Sir George Lancaster, and Miss Barbara Cott is excellent as the Mother Superior. The comedy element is in the capable hands of Mr. Fred de Vere as Timothy Tuttett and Miss Jenny Fitzherbert as Patty Lovejoy.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. Rogers.—Messrs. Phelps and Tilbury's company is here with His Dishonoured Wife. Mr. Chas. H. Phelps's reading of Frank Lindon is a good one; the Florence Lindon of Miss Belle Tilbury is also praiseworthy; Mabel Lindon is charmingly taken by Miss Mabel Hall; Miss Amy Dalby is quite at home as Alice Harvey; and Mr. Laurence Brien displays ability as Neil Locksley. Mr. Harry Tilbury is successful as Mickey Doolan, being ably assisted in the comedy line by Miss Millie Doris as Araminta.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Knightall.—Leon and Leoni, in a clever musical act; Willard's Merry Mannikins; the Danvils, in good illustrated songs; Emay Leycester, an acceptable serio and dancer; Geo. Russell, comedian; and May Tudor, descriptive vocalist, make up the programme here this week.

IPSWICH.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Acting-Manager, Mr. Leonard Grey.—The Youngest of Three is being played here. Mr. Maltby, the author, in his original part of George Wendover, plays with intense feeling. Mr. Wyn Weaver is a youthful and impetuous Gerald Wendover; Mr. W. Reginald Favell does justice to the rôle of Philip Radford; the comic element is well emphasised by Mr. T. Candler as Prynne, the innkeeper; and Miss Janet Hudson gives a finished portraiture of Annie, Miss Mara Maltby rendering good assistance as the sister Florence.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—The programme here for the current week is of a varied and attractive character. The Two Whiteys, Continental acrobats, are warmly welcomed; J. A. Wilson, assisted by his clever performing dog, "Private Towzer," elicits repeated applause for his singing and clever business. Other items include Phillips and Merritt, in an amusing comedy act; Picitt and Lisette, in a magical pantomime extravaganza; Collins and Rice, speciality artists; Joe Humphreys, vocalist; Florence Schuberth, an accomplished singer; and Barnard's Mannikins.

JARROW.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jerold E. Reed.—The attraction here this week is Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kimberley's company with Bound to Win. Mr. Kimberley gives a manly rendering of Harry Lyndon; Mr. Charles Vivian plays Philip Ayre with power; Mr. E. Bikker is quite at home in the rôle of Squire Forbes; Mr. Allen Charles is an excellent Horatio Buffit; Mr. Charles Coventry smart Joe Blake; Miss Eva Elwes makes the most of the part of Gladys Orme; Miss Violet Langley is a charming Marian Forbes; and Miss Trixie Toole a good Winnie.

KING'S LYNN.—NEW ROYAL THEATRE.—Lessees, J. Bannister Howard, Ltd.; Business-Manager, Herr B. Parizer.—Played with the freshness of a new production, Mr. Brandon Thomas's excellent company has been here again this week presenting Charley's Aunt in capital style. In the ever-favourite part of Lord Fancourt Babberley, Mr. Stanley Cooke is irrepressible, and maintains the fun of the piece throughout. Mr. Hastings Lynn makes a spirited and energetic Jack Chesney, and Mr. Richard B. Mason does justice to his part of Charley Wykeham. Mr. Walter Beaumont is responsible for an inimitable performance of Stephen Spettigue, and Mr. Sydney Compton as Brassett presents a college scout to the life. Mr. C. B. Keston undertakes successfully the part of Sir Francis Chesney. Miss Lena Macnaughton is quite at home as Donna Lucia D'Alvodorez; Miss Lyllian Lait and Miss Kitty Carew maintain with charm the parts of Kitty and Amy respectively; and Ella is daintily and gracefully acted by Miss Eva Boyne.

LANCASTER.—ATHENÆUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers; Acting-Manager, Mr. Alfred Hook.—Mr. F. R. Benson's North company opened on Monday in The Merchant of Venice. Mr. Henry Herbert gave a fine reading of the part of Shylock; as Portia, Miss Dorothy Green was tenderness itself in the love scenes with Bassanio, and full of dignity and keen force in the trial scene; Bassanio had a suitable exponent in Mr. Charles Francis, and the Prince of Morocco gave Mr. Reginald Davis an excellent chance of displaying his elocutionary powers; Mr. Dagnall was dignified as the Duke of Venice; Mr. Gerald Ames displayed sympathy in the rôle of Antonio; Mr. Henry Morrell was well-placed as Lorenzo, and Jessica was nicely interpreted by Miss Louise Graeme. Messrs. E. Spencer Leach, Philip Merrivale, and Mark Draper as Gratino, Salanio, and Salarino respectively, all did well, and Miss Mary Webb was quite suited to the rôle of Nerissa. As You Like It, Macbeth, Taming of the Shrew, School for Scandal, Henry V., and Hamlet are also in the bill.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, J. Porter and W. J. Fergusson; Acting-Manager, Mr. John Martin.—A varied and interesting programme is arranged for the patrons here. Mr. Chas. Prelle is deservedly the star turn, and his canine circus is a marvellous performance; Henri Cazman in a scena, "La Café Chantant," is a smart conjurer and quick change artist, and the Westwood's comedy cyclists perform some clever feats. Florence Yaymen is a capital burlesque coon singer; the Brooklands are expert dancers; Miss Florence Elliott is a pleasing soprano, and the King's College Boys sing nicely. The Hippograph, with new pictures, completes the bill.

PALACE.—Proprietors, Messrs. J. and C. Fell; Manager, Mr. John Fell.—Another attractive programme is arranged here, at the head of which are the Danbys, comedians and dancers; Chant and Chant, comedy vocalists, are well received, and the same remark applies to Alfonzo, the tranka wonder; the Sisters Valli supply a pleasing musical turn; Sterling and Cashen; Alf. Bishop, comedian; Rena and Rex, comedy artists, and Lady Fauntleroy, in a clever ventriloquial act; not forgetting the Edison-Swan pictures, all win hearty applause.

LEAMINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Manager, Mr. Harry Hunter.—Mr. Ian Maclaren and his Shakespearean répertoire company are paying a welcome return visit to Leamington this week. On Monday the company gave an admirable interpretation of Romeo and Juliet. Mr. Maclaren gave a highly interesting and extremely artistic study of youth and passion in the character of Romeo. Miss W. Beresford submitted a very meritorious impersonation of Juliet, which was greatly admired. Other performances worthy of note were the Mercutio of Mr. Alfred Grey, the Friar John of Mr. P. Vavasseur, the Peter of Mr. Philip Gordon, the Benvolio of Mr. R. H. Stevenson, and the old Capulet of Mr. F. Stafford Dawson. Other pieces given during the week are The Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Othello, Julius Cæsar, and Hamlet.

LEEDS.—GRAND THEATRE.—Managing Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. Edward Cadman.—The White Chrysanthemum had on Monday a cordial reception from a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Frank Curzon's company includes those popular favourites, Mr. Horace Mills and Mr. W. H. Rawlins, and their encounters in the respective parts of Lieut. Chippy Belmont and Admiral Armitage are invariably provocative of great merriment. The dashing sailor-lover, Lieut. Reggie Armitage, is presented in attractive style by Mr. F. Pope-Stamper. Mr. O. E. Lennon is very successful as the comic little Chinaman, Sin Chong; and Mr. Harry Paulton, jun., depicts the irrepressible Private Perks with characteristic humour. Miss Ruth Lincoln charms all with her delightful renderings of ballads; that accomplished danseuse, Miss Katie Vesey, acts with grace the rôle of an American heiress; and Miss Daisy Le Hay is a fascinating Betty Kenyon.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. R. Ernest Liston.—The Royal habitués recognise an old favourite in The Span of Life. Mr. R. S. Treiawney plays the part of Richard Blunt in manly and convincing fashion; the villainous Dunstan Leech is a portrayal of skill and power by Mr. Sanderson Moffatt; Mr. James Jarrow shines as Joshua Gurnet; a charming portrait of Kate Heathcote is presented by Miss Ella Wilmer; Miss Phyllis Hamilton is well placed as Mrs. Jelf; and Mr. Walter Dale and Miss Kitty Russell revel in their light comedy parts. In the sensational incident of the Human Bridge, the acrobatic powers of the Stebbing Bros. are seen to advantage.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Dottridge and Longden; General-Manager, Mr. Chas. H. Longden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Chas. Bush.—The distinguished actor-musician Van Biene brings his famous piece The Broken Melody once again, which, though nearing its 5000th performance, is still drawing full houses. Mr. Van Biene's Paul Borinski is a study of rare dramatic fervour; the part of Mabel is played with sympathy and tenderness by Miss Lena Burnleigh; the rôle of General Ivanoff has a capable exponent in Mr. Henry Ludlow; Mr. Charles A. Morgan merits praise for a clever delineation of Dickson; and good support is also given by Mr. Faulkner Cox, Mr. Lawrence Grove, and Miss Rosemary Rees. The one-act comedy The First Night, was announced as an additional attraction for Friday evening.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Moss Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. T. Gerald Morton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Alex. Galley.—Whit Cunliffe leads the Empire bill this week, and with catchy new songs, rendered in faultless style, is very popular. A famous entertainer of the old school, Ashcroft, known as "the solid man," makes a reappearance, winning the appreciative plaudits of crowded houses; the clever young lady juggler Selma Braatz, has a big reception; a diverting comedy sketch by O'Malley and Brown is a popular item; the praises of cricket are sung in clever style by Fred Holland; Baker and Balfe, an accomplished pair of xylophonists, earn loud plaudits; Mason and Bart are seen in a diverting comedy speciality; the Hayes Brothers score a success; and a Continental speciality by the Kurios goes well. That charming character-vocalist, Ethel Ra-Leslie, is also in the bill and doing well.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. Thomas Barraford; Managers Mr. Claude Shayler and Mr. Chas. Weldon.—In an interesting and varied programme, Lydia Yeamans is a prominent feature, with a very pleasing vocal and character turn; John Tiller's troupe of juvenile dancers (the Manchester Mites) contribute a clever performance; Gus Harris makes a favourable impression as actor-vocalist; Fred Cullane's comedy quartette provide an acceptable turn; Stelling presents a remarkably intelligent dog; a novel and amusing turn is that of Les Rallis—"the artist and his monkey"; and capital entertainment is also subscribed by Gillin, novelty ventriloquist; Walker and Lake, an eccentric comedy pair; Helen Martin, an accomplished vocalist; and Charlie Williams, the clever negro comedian.

CITY VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. Fred W. Wood; General-Manager, Mr. J. C. Whiteman; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sam Jones.—That popular lady, Marie Kendall, is the star attraction at the Varieties, singing a number of new songs with success; a diverting comedy sketch by Conway and Garland is a much-applauded item; operatic selections by the Three Royal Temples are much enjoyed; the comedians Charley Dixon and Steve McCarthy, are smart and effective; Robbins and Collier present an excellent musical speciality; a novel act by the Saletos is interesting; and Nelly Farrell sings ballads in delightful style.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; General and Business-Manager, Mr. Henry Dundas.—A full house here on Monday evening accorded a hearty welcome to Messrs. A. and S. Gatti and Charles Frohman's company in The Belle of Mayfair. The dressing and staging call for high commendation, as do also the excellent company and chorus that take part in a really good show. Miss Alice Russon plays and sings delightfully as Julia Caldicott, and Miss Joan Keddie as Princess Karl is a success. Miss Filley Cunningham as Corrie Fay, Miss Barbara Huntley as Lady Chaldicott, Miss Rosa Sneli as the Countess of Mount Highgate, Miss Dorothy Hanbury as Lady Gussop, and Miss Blanche Massey as Lady Rocksley are each to be complimented on performances of all-round merit. Mr. Charles McNaughton gives a clever and humorous portrayal as Sir John Caldicott, and Mr. Percy Yorke as the Earl of Highgate lends excellent assistance. Mr. Wensley Russell as Hugh Meredith makes a hit with his dancing; Mr. Vernon Davidson is good as Raymond Finchley, and Mr. Robert Whyte, jun., does well as the Comte de Perrier. Mr. Trueman Towers as the Bishop of Brighton gives an excellent portrayal. The orchestra has been specially augmented, and adds to the success achieved.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessees and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Business-Manager, Mr. E. R. Beaumont.—Miss Frances Delaval and company in the new and original drama, Her Lost Self, provide an excellent attraction here. The principal part of Philippini Marcel is played by Miss Frances Delaval in a powerful and successful manner, and both Mr. Herbert Cecil as Wilfred Daventry and Mr. G. Osmond Tearle as Norman Esmond are good. Mr. Leslie York is capital as Paule Kimberley, as also is Mr. Fred Lillywhite as Victor Elsworth. Both Mr. Jimmy Stewart as Tom Flyaway and Miss Hettie Stewart as Bridget Mahone are well placed in the comedy parts. Miss Clara O'Sullivan in the dual rôles of Lucile and Dorothy is good, and Mr. L. W. Halfpenny as Abraham Cohen, and Miss Edmund Lyons as Rachel Cohen are to be complimented. Special praise must be accorded to Miss Tiny Carrie Johnson, a very small comedienne, for her songs and dances.

PALACE THEATRE, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; District-Manager, Mr. Hatton Wharton; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. Finch-Hatton; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Bertram G. Iles.—The great attraction here this week is John Tiller's company in the musical farcical burletta, High Jinks; or, Fun on the Sands, which is presented in a most elaborate manner, and proves thoroughly enjoyable. The company work hard, and to Mr. Bob Selvidge and Miss Bessie Cohen special praise must be accorded. The ventriloquial turn of Clemart is entertaining, and Paulinetti and Piquo give, with success a unique gymnastic conception; H. O. Wills is a low comedian of ability, and Lillian Warren, as usual, does well as a pictorial songstress. Maud Ross, comedienne, and Will Mitcham, musical comedian, maintain their popularity. The American Bioscope is showing the usual excellent and entertaining pictures.

PAVILION THEATRE.—Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Lapworth.—Fred Southern and company, the popular sketch artists, entered on their third week here on Monday, and scored their usual gratifying success with their sensational sketch, Falsely Convicted, and the merry trifle, The Private Hotel. Walter H. Pallister's Bioscope makes a big hit with up-to-date pictures. Ellis and Watts are amusing comedians and smart dancers. The other artists entertaining are the Sisters Ford, duettists and dancers; Lillie Le Breton, trapeze artist; and the Levines, speciality artists.

TEMPERANCE HALL.—Manager, Mr. G. Stanyon.—Mr. Will Catlin's Royal Pierrots bring their season of a month's duration to a close to-day.

LEIGH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Cragg; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Rousby.—Mr. Frank E. Burdett's company is paying a return visit with a new version of The Indian Mutiny. Mr. George Steel presents an admirable assumption of Lieut. Manley; Mr. Chas. Boult gives a capital portrayal of Ra Goonga; Mr. Cyril Harrison is a strong, effective Captain Manley; Mr. Villiers Stanley does full justice to the part of Nebu Singh; Miss F. Melrose Millet cleverly interprets the part of Ghuznah, the Brahmin priestess; Mr. Cecil Morand is highly successful as Teddy O'Brien; Mr. John Davidson is all that can be desired; Miss Agnes Kingston is a charming Kate Ingleby; Miss Lily Grey strongly portrays the part of Mrs. Major Ingleby.

PALACE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee, Mr. Ph. Bennett; Business-Manager, Mr. J. Larder.—After undergoing many vicissitudes this hall was re-opened on Monday night, with the title of Palace, as a theatre of varieties. The new management has made a good bid for popularity, a capital programme being submitted on the opening night, headed by Mike Cray, eccentric juggler. Miss Marie Elsie, comedienne, is accorded a hearty reception; the Lancashire Mill Lads are warmly applauded for their fine singing; Miss Cara Magda is a clever gymnast; Miss Marie De Voy, character vocalist, sings in excellent style. Other turns are Mr. Frank Whiteley, comedian; Adelina, impersonator; and The Camerons, in a comedy sketch, The Ploughboy and Lady Guide.

LEITH.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Darlison.—The Worst Woman in London, which ranks among the greatest of Mr. Walter Melville's many successful melodramas, is well played here this week by Mr. Tom Taylor's company. In the rôle of Frances Vere, Miss Florence Dalton misses none of the opportunities for powerful acting provided by a trying part. Mr. George Gaisford, eminently satisfactory as Jack Fenton, is ably seconded by Miss Elizabeth Watkins as Ruth Milford; and strong support is also rendered by Mr. C. R. Stone, Mr. Leonard Booker, and Mr. P. Barry Lewers, who appear respectively as James Milford, Philip Armstrong, and Vincent Lyle. The other performers, in a cast which includes some thirty characters, give a good account of themselves. Some novel and ingenious stage effects are well contrived and cleverly worked out, and the drama receives a good all-round interpretation.

LINCOLN.—ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Frank King.—A very effectively-staged melodrama is The Prodigal Parson, which is well done by Messrs. Garrod and Northway's company. Mr. W. V. Garrod is a strong Tom Godley; Mr. Alfred Northway effectively presents the scheming Enoch, and Mr. W. Hayward is good as Ben Jaggins. Miss Vera Fordyce as the wife, and Miss Gladys Conover as the child, win high favour; and the comedy could not be in better hands than those of Mr. Herbert Newton and Miss Lydia Hart. Mr. W. Vincent makes a prominent figure of the murdered Ned Kettlepin. Miss Dot Russell is seen to advantage as a dancer, executing an effective pas seul in the Bier Garten scene.

PALACE.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Sydney Arthur.—Three of a Kind is intensely amusing local audiences, who have not seen Ethel Arden, George Abel, and their clever combination prior to this week. The Dayton Family are wonderfully smart in a ground tumbling act; Edwards and Dacre pleasingly present a duologue; Grace Langley scores with song and dance; and Millie Denham is also well received. The Alex. Victor Trio of juvenile vocalists present a commendable turn; and Louis Kerno is a comedian of merit. The show concludes with some effective pictures from Raymond's Bioscope.

LIVERPOOL.—ROYAL COURT THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur Lawrence.—The Dairymaids, under the direction of Mr. Robert Courteneidge, has been received with much favour here. The interesting and tuneful farce is in the hands of a capable combination of artists, who do it every justice; Miss Violet Lloyd and Miss Rhoda Gordon are a couple of lively dairymaids, taking high honours for their work; Miss Edith Blanche does well as Lady Brudenell; Mr. E. Statham Staples proves an amusing Sam; continuous laughter follows the work of Mr. Harry Dent as Mivens; a capital Dr. O'Bryne comes from Mr. Forbes Dawson; and worthy support is lent by Mr. George Desmond and Miss Rose Musgrove. The staging is particularly pretty, and the dresses picturesque.

SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, LTD.—Manager and Secretary, Mr. John Gaffney.—The visit of the Moody-Manners opera company this week has been welcomed by packed audiences. For the first time here the Parisian edition of Tannhäuser was given on Monday evening, Mr. Joseph O'Mara, who was in capital voice, undertaking the title-part; Mr. Lewys James acted and sang excellently as Wolfram; Mme. Fanny Moody enjoyed a fine reception for her Elizabeth, which she played with power and charm; Miss Toni Seiter scored a pronounced success as Venus; a dignified and telling Hermann was submitted by Mr. Charles Magrath, and other ably rendered rôles were Biteroff (Mr Halfin), Reinmar (Mr. Brindle), Heinrich (Mr. Tatternell), Walther (Mr. Johnstone), and a young shepherd (Miss Rigby). Nicolai's Merry Wives of Windsor was given on Tuesday, with Mr. Manners as Sir John and Mme. de Lussan as Mistress Page; and for the rest of the week Romeo and Juliet, Faust, Cavalleria Rusticana, I Pagliacci, and The Bohemian Girl were announced. The conductors of the week were Herr Richard Eckhold and Signor Sapio.

ROTUNDA THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery.—Mr. Augustine Knight's company is here this week with Mr. Hill-Mitchelson's stirring drama, The Assassin, which has done good business. Mr. Knight repeats his capital assumption of the rôle of Prince Demetri; Miss Ella Vane plays Countess Wanda with dramatic effect; as Ipanoff, Mr. Edward E. Ashby is manly and forceful, earning hearty applause; Miss Hettie Senior makes a worthy Connie Jonathan; Miss Ada Douglas handles carefully the rôle of Nadine; much laughter is provoked by Mr. Cecil H. Raymond as Baron Alphonse; the character of Captain O'Neil is ably presented by Mr. Edwin Jenner, and the comedy is helped by Mr. Tom Taylor (Peter) and Miss Marie E. Robertson (Katrina).

LYRIC THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry C. Arnold; Directors of Entertainments, Messrs. T. Barrasford and F. Willmot; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Coles.—A really delightful and entertaining item is Casey's Court, a sketch which deservedly tops the very interesting programme billed here this week. John E. Coyle is intensely laughable, his patter particularly so; the Bollinger's turn is original and deeply interests everyone; Esdale Brothers are good; Boden and Bell are loudly applauded for their clever items; and other artists billed include Blanche Marion, a pleasing comedienne, and the Gladenbecks, clever acrobats.

STAR THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Harris Fineberg.—I Defy the World, played by Mr. Julian Malvern's company, under the direction of Mr. Charles M. Julian, is the attraction here this week. Mr. Percy Ballard does excellent as Leon Darville; Mr. Charles Wilton shows much ability of the character of Count Beaulieu; Mr. Alfred Denning is an imposing General Delaporte; Mr. Charles Conway stands out prominently as Laroche; Miss Rosie Dane plays sweetly as Fanchette; Mis Violet Cranfurd distinguishes herself in the rôle of Blanche Darville, and the comedy is in the good hands of Mr. Charles M. Julian and Miss Maud Lilian. The scenery is very appropriate.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Lingford Carson; Resident-Manager, Mr. Fred L. Arthur.—The 10.30 Down Express, presented by Mr. Horace Stanley's company, has been received with much satisfaction here. Mr. George Beverley is excellent in the heroic part of Jack O'Malley; Mr. Tom Roydon does every justice to Seth Coombes; Mr. Charles Burdon proves a sufficiently odious James Inderwick; Miss Elsie Capell gives a capital impersonation of Bessie Leigh; Mr. Arthur E. Francis, with his silent acting, as Baggs, the bailiff, causes a deal of merriment; Miss Evelyn M. Walton as Letitia Leigh is quaint and funny; Mr. Alaric Burton plays Cuthbert Leigh, and the greater part of the comedy is contributed by Mr. Horace Stanley as Sam Wagstaffe and Miss Kate Kilpack as Peggy Potts.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Manager, Mr. Walter Hassan.—At the top of the bill here this week are the Smart Set, including Miss Hilda Light and Miss Georgie Martin, who provide a really excellent vocal entertainment, which is richly enjoyed. Fred Moule and E. D. Nicholl's company cause endless laughter with their comic tragedy, The Battle of the Belles; some smart juggling and balancing is performed by Simosa San; an able little artist is Babs Lloyd, whose coon songs earn for her much applause; remarkable work is done on the wire by the Mackweys; The Silly Burglar, a comedy act presented by the Waldrons, keeps the audience in a merry mood; as an eccentric dancer and comedian, Arthur Stacey gives much satisfaction; the Two Dixons appear with distinction as bâton swingers, dancers, and banjoists; Frank Boyce has some good songs; the Four Maisanos are a particularly fine turn, their eccentric playing on musical instruments proving very enjoyable; and constant laughter follows the antics of the Irish comedians, Williams and Warden, who bring a new act, Mr. Dooley. Some excellent pictures are shown by the Barrascope.

NEW PARTHENON.—Success continues to follow the British Imperial life-motion pictures shown here by Mr. Anthony Brown.

ROYAL PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank O'Toole.—A London Actress, from the pen of Miss Emma Litchfield, is the strong attraction here this week. The Royal stock dramatic company is headed by Mr. Percy Boucher, who is exceedingly droll as Moses Mendoza; Mr. Sydney Grant plays with effect as the villainous Clive Crawford; Mr. Harry Tresham is seen to advantage as Ned Kingston; Mr. Cecil Ravenswood is well placed as Captain Mannering; Mr. Robert Wilton adds much to the comedy with his Pat Maloney; Miss Beryl Ravenswood is a powerful Hilda Langley; Miss Florence Palmer makes a sweet Phyllis Crawford; Miss Sara Blumenthal proves a jocular Biddy Maloney; and also in the cast are Miss Florence Cameron (Rosie Blythe) and Miss Ada Kelly (Mrs. Skinner).

PADDINGTON PALACE.—Lessee, Mr. M. Montgomery.—The Royal stock company are presenting here this week Arthur Shirley's powerful drama, Passion's Power. Mr. Albert Sember handles with care and satisfaction the rôle of Prince Kandos; Mr. Walter Foster is an excellent General Zuran; Mr. H. G. Brandon is particularly amusing as Felix; Mr. Vincent A. Biscoe does well with Rudolph Laski; and Mr. Frank S. Strickland makes a sufficiently villainous Michael Laski. Of the ladies, Miss Lina Nazeby is creditable in the part of Countess Delauney, and Miss Lilian Burns plays Zorah with discretion.

PARK PALACE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Top of the bill here this week are Flockton Foster's company, with the funny comedy sketch, Ferdie's Ma-in-Law; the Bros. Hannaway, comedians, vocalists, and dancers, are as smart as ever; some commendable equilibristic work is performed by the Ballot Bros.; George Rae has some funny Scotch songs, and dances well; Myles and May cause a deal of laughter with their act, The Merry Huntsman; Cyclo, as a trick cyclist, is particularly clever; and Harry Levane contributes several humorous songs.

WESTMINSTER.—Lessee, Mr. Fred E. Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Montgomery.—Foremost here this week are Ernest Montefiore and company with a neat musical and dramatic scena, The Little Colonel; Captain Devereux and his troupe of dogs provide a well-arranged canine sketch, The Streets of Liverpool; Carr and Rose (Fred and Ada) render several humorous songs; smart dancing and patter comes from the Brothers Harrison; the Gallery Boy is popular for his songs, and others in the list are Barney Kane, Scotch comedian; and the Campeons, comedy duettists and dancers.

EMPIRE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.—Gus Elen pays a welcome return visit, and causes much laughter with The Wrong-'un's Bedroom; the wonderful juggling of Rapoli is watched with interest; Daisy James, to whom a cordial welcome is given, includes in her list of songs, "The Gibson Girl"; Tom and Marie Motramo are exceptionally lively comedy artistes; some pretty singing comes from Les Voces; Beattie and Blanche are a couple of smart comediennes and dancers; a bright comedy scena of singing, dancing, and talk is provided by Maxwell and Francis; the swimming of the Finney Sisters is a novel turn; and Walter King, the doleful comedian, arouses a deal of laughter.

HAYMARKET.—Licensee, Mr. J. S. Childs.—Top of the bill here this week is the sketch Shaun; or, The Dawn of Day, presented by Harry Calden; Martin Melia, champion clog-dancer, has had a most flattering reception; Augouste and Lillian, "the lady and the clown," are an amusing turn; and Dulcie Milner sings several good songs in taking style. The Bioscope shows some fine pictures.

OLYMPIA, LTD.—Manager, Mr. A. W. Young.—The fourth and last week of The Flood, which has proved eminently successful, is announced; Oswald Williams, the wizard, supported by Miss Winifred La Berle and company, is here, astonishing everybody; Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Lucas present their cleverly-drawn characters from Dickens; the Two Butterflies are smart juvenile gymnasts; the Courtiers provide a very neat vaudeville entertainment; the Henri Taylor trio of expert equilibrists are loudly applauded, and others in the programme are Fred Daniels, comedian; Walter Curtis, comedian, and Ray Maskell, comedienne and dancer.

ROSCOMMON.—Lessee, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Heading the bill here this week is Dandy George, a clever gymnast; Allia, comedian, and Cassati, Tyrolean songstress, give an acceptable turn in singing, comedy, and dancing; Miss Dulcie sings and dances tastefully; Harry Bancroft has some taking songs; and others who appear are Arthur Woodville, comedian and dancer, and Copeland and Son, champion double dancers.

LLANELLY.—ROYALTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Z. Andrews; Acting Manageress, Miss Alice Rocheforte.—Mr. Fred J. Kirke's company is here once more with Our Sailor Lad, In Old Madrid, and The Naval Detective. Mr. Kirke is not at present in the cast, his parts being taken with much success by Mr. Lawrence Tessier. In the first-named play Mr. Tessier plays Jack Maitland well, Mr. Charles Burns being very good as the Admiral. As Detective Searchley and Alphonse de Britton Mr. Walter T. Hybert works exceedingly hard and successfully; Messrs. Mark Practice and Frank Beaulieu as Slippery Bill and William Fenton respectively are very good. Miss Louie Fountaine is charming as Nell Lindsey; Miss Edith Claris as Jim the Waif is, as usual, excellent; Miss Lily Seymour makes a capital Mrs. Loveman; and the clever sisters Amy and Nancy Shaw do some expert dancing. Miss Annie Burnette as Rita Velois is much to be commended.

NEW EMPIRE.—Manager, Mr. W. A. Totten.—The company here this week includes Prof. Goundon, mystic, assisted by Mlle. Dallin; Miss Lilly Devon, serio and dancer; Ashley Beale and Anita Bell, in a funny duologue; Ella Kirk and Will Randell, in Actors in the Park; Harry Bentley, the popular comedian; Nellie Camp and Vincent Millis, Eileen Conroy, and the Gartell Trio.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Payne-Seddon and George Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lindsey Edwards.—A Nobleman of Nature, presented by Miss Hettie Jeffries and company, is the attraction this week. Miss Jeffries as Vera gives a clever rendering, and earns well-deserved applause; Olga, in the capable hands of Miss Evelyn Terry, is well portrayed; Mr. Whitmore Ledger as Prince Ivan gives an excellent interpretation, and Mr. Geoffry Broughton is good as Barry Forsyth. Mr. Clifford Spencer is humorous as Bill Drinkwater. Other parts are well sustained by Mr. Tom Handly as Philip Hampton, and Miss Agnese D. Aragon as Mrs. Bouncer.

LOWESTOFT.—MARINA.—Managing-Director, Mr. E. A. Smith.—This week we have the first visit locally of Messrs. Shinton and Greenwood's company in the drama The Price of Her Soul. The action of the play takes place in Russia, and the various situations are well worked up by an able company. Mr. John B. Shinton presents a manly and well-thought-out study of Lord Rolf Mandeville; and Mr. Annesley Hely is exceedingly well cast as Skoboloff. Miss Ada M. Ryder enacts the part of the Countess in an earnest and convincing manner. The humorous element is well sustained by Mr. Will Percy (Pat Murphy), Miss Ethel Rainforth (Polly Perkins), and Miss Grace Garside (Lady Fraser).

LUTON.—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. R. Graham Falcon; Manager, Mr. Louis J. Beard.—Two Little Drummer Boys is being played here this week by Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kimberley's No. 1 company. Mr. Frank Fuller faithfully portrays General Kingsley; and Mr. Fred Emery is good as Captain Frank Carsdale; Mr. Archie Helsby makes a capital Captain Geo. Darrell; and in the part of the Rev. John Rivers Mr. Harry Greenburn gives a very fine performance. Miss Edie Macklin wins hearty plaudits by her artistic rendering of Molly Meadows; Miss Mildred Eversleigh, as the general's daughter Alma Kingsley, wins favour by her dignified impersonation; and Miss Kathleen Magee successfully portrays the difficult rôle of Drunken Meg. The play is well staged, and appreciated by fair houses.

MACCLESFIELD.—THE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. W. K. Gatley.—Good houses have marked Macclesfield playgoers' appreciation of Mr. Percy Norman's excellent production of A Woman Worth Winning. To Miss Maud Buchanan, who undertakes the name-part, every praise is due for the manner in which she acts, ing. Mr. G. Standing as Amos Pauloff is admirable; and Mr. A. B. Mackay as Fergus Lorinski gives a fine portrayal; whilst Mr. P. Norman in the part of General Borinski gives a realistic impersonation. Good work is done by Mr. E. H. Eldon as Bertie Scribbles and Mr. E. C. Edwards as Peter Popples; and the parts of Corporal Peteroff and Ivan Bardoff are well played by Mr. W. Davies and Mr. A. Alexander. Miss Ida Mackay is sprightly as Katerine.

MANCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, The United Theatres Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr Edmondstone Shirra.—Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Benson and company opened here on Monday in a well equilibrists; Horan White, an entertaining ventriloquist at the piano; Stanley and Greenop, in a banjo speciality act; Victor Travers, a popular comedian; Trippello, a fine player of the saxophone; and Nina Gordon, mimic and society entertainer. The bioscope depicts "Cabby's Dream."

HIPPODROME. — Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. P. Morgan.—A fine programme here this week is headed by the famous Kremos, a troupe of daring Risleyists, who do wonderful things; a big reception is accorded also to Ludwig Amann, whose character impersonations are of a most entertaining quality; Edward Lauri and May Beatty add an amusing musical protean mélange, In Her Boudoir; and other smart turns are by the Delomes, phantom clog-dancers; Adler and Sutton's Pierrots, a clever combination; Stanley and Greenop, banjoists; Amy Russell, vocalist; Matthews, Cowper, and company, in a comedy sketch, When the Clock went Wrong; the Tomboys, on the bioscope; and two pleasing items by the choir.

PALACE.—General-Manager, Mr. Walter de Frece; Secretary, Mr. Peter Watson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Nelson Barry.—Captain Devlin's Zouaves are here this week in a first-class exposition of lightning drill and wall-scaling, and meet with a good reception; the Six Brothers Luck are also to the front in their highly amusing absurdity, Blazes, and create no end of laughter; Hetty King, an exceptionally good male impersonator, sings three capital songs in taking style, and is enthusiastically received; Martin Conway, of "Walk round, Martin" fame, is a first-rate comedian, with plenty of good business; Maidie Scott is a nice singer; and Daisy Martell, comedienne, dances neatly. Other smart turns are those of Colby and May, in a clever ventriloquial and dancing act; Ted Cowan, Frank Lynne, and Will Johnson, comedians, all good in their own particular way. The bioscope pictures are excellent.

TIVOLI.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles A. Wilkes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur B. Wilkes.—Charming Annie Purcell, a favourite comedienne, is the bright particular star here this week, and delights with several well-sung songs, including "By the Zuyder-Zee," and is greatly appreciated; Mabel Osborn and Gordon Brookes score a big success in The Motorist and the Maid; Ruby Bijou dances daintily; Mlle. Helene D'Aubigny, soprano vocalist, receives a flattering reception; and the Maples, comedy speciality artists and dancers, are capital. Others who offer enjoyable items are Bert Harrow, a very droll comedian; Ada Martine, comedienne; Marco, boy magician and illusionist; Young Vento, descriptive character vocalist; and Flo Velma, comedienne. Raymond's Vivagraph pictures complete.

KING'S, LONGSIGHT.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Milton Ray's company of comedians are at the head of a good programme here this week, in a first-rate musical farcical comedy, entitled The Cruise of the Calabar, full of catchy music, pretty dresses, good singing, and effective scenery. Principal parts, all well sustained, are in the hands of Messrs. Arthur Milton, Fred Russell, Joe English, and the Misses Minnie Mulvey, Hetty Lind, and Lillie Ward. Tony Ivison entertains in a quaint manner at the piano; Agnes McKellar is a good singer; Linton, the Mexican wonder, is clever on the tight-rope; the Wiltons are smart coon dancers; and good turns are also contributed by Ford and Hanson, in musical act; Will Walton, comedian; and Ranji and Valeria, illusionists.

QUEEN'S PARK HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Highly successful here this week are Wyndham and Waters, as The Professor and His Pupil, in a comic act, well received; Bean and Bell are up-to-date entertainers; and Janette Hall, lady baritone vocalist, is a first-rate singer. Master Joe Conway is a smart comedian; Will Letters, comedian, does well; and France and Francis are clever acrobatic comedians. Good turns are also given by Davis and Davis, patterers; Ray Royal, contralto vocalist; Tod Lovan, comedian; and the Sisters Bartholomew, duettists and dancers. The bioscope is very amusing.

HIPPODROME (HULME).—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Percy Honri, after a most successful week at the Queen's Park Hippodrome, is at the top of the bill here this week, and presents his effective sketch, Concordia, in his usual brilliant manner; another excellent turn is William Jackson's musical extravaganza, entitled London to Tokio, introducing excellent vocal items, Japanese and other dances, and comedy business by the Eight Lancashire Lads, assisted by Alma and Rose, and Percy Linton. Well received also are Cribb and Cribb, in an original comedy scena; Maston, a smart mimic; and Bert Dawson, a particularly funny comedian. Enjoyable items are contributed by Sylvia Martin, lady horse trainer; Maud Vera, descriptive vocalist; and Ada Fawn, the popular comedienne. The bioscope film is excellent.

MANSFIELD.—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietors, Mansfield Theatre Company; General-Manager, Capt. Cecil Clayton.—Mr. Lester Collingwood's company in When London Sleeps, occupied the boards here the first three nights of this week. Mr. C. P. Wentworth gave a capable portrayal of the part of Capt. Rodney Hayes. Miss Mabel Scudamore has proved a powerful actress in the part of Queenie Carruthers. Mr. Sam Arthur was good as David Engleheart. As Lelia, Miss Josephine Melbourne was successful. Miss Maude Yorke was admirable as Hilda Carode, and Mrs. Edgar Colona gave a fine rendering of the part of Signorina Jonesio. Bob Jones (Mr. F. E. Thomas), Sammie Blythe (Mr. D'Arcy Kelway), Hon. Bertie Broomhead (Mr. Frank Howard) were all capably sustained, as was also the part of Carrie Jones by Miss Bessie Frank.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Herbert Darnley; Resident-Director, Mr. Tom Jennings.—Rezelle, the daring gymnast, has given a thrilling turn here; Carl Howard, the mad conjuror, is amusing; Lily Foy is appreciated; Hans and Lux give a good turn; and the Bioscope displays up-to-date pictures.

MARGATE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Exclusive Manager, Mr. Edward Michael; Business-Manager, Mr. A. Austin-Leigh.—The stock company has staged this week the old play, The Ticket-of-Leave Man, and although seen times innumerable in Margate, it has been received with marked favour by fairly well-filled houses. Mr. A. Austin-Leigh has made up well and played excellently as Robert Brierley; whilst Mr. G. W. Elton has been a success as Melter Moss, the Jew fence. The part of Hawkshaw the detective has been effectively sustained by Mr. Frank Stone; and Mr. Boyd Pearson has successfully depicted the rascality of James Dalton. Miss Helena Millais has made a bright and engaging Sam Willoughby; and Miss Emmie O'Reilly has been conspicuously successful as Mrs. Willoughby. Miss Katherine Harrington, in the rôle of May Edwards, has played well; and the remaining characters have been efficiently sustained.

MERTHYR TYDFIL. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, The South Wales Entertainments, Ltd.; Manager, Mr. Lewis Gilbert.—Mrs. Sam Duckworth's company is here this week, with Her Nameless Child. Mr. J. W. Evelyn plays Anthony Ford with considerable ability; and Miss Pattie Hastings is conspicuous as Phyllis Ford. Other principals in the drama are Mr. T. K. Gwyn Richardson as Archie Ford, Mr. Ellerslie Pyne as Lord Henry Woodville, Mr. John A. Levey as Mongrole, Mr. Alwyn Sawyer as Tone Rivers, Miss Grace Harlington as Bessie Brooks, Miss Beatrice Dover as Sarah, Miss Madge Trevelyan as Crayout, and Miss Grace Jones as Lady Sibil.

TEMPERANCE HALL.—Manager, Mr. Israel Price.—The variety programme submitted here this week, includes Tamamoto, Japanese acrobat; Keane Harker, eccentric comedian; Moto, on the slack wire; Winnie Wentworth, comedienne; Shavo, comedy juggler; Marlino, the man-frog; and the biograph pictures are as usual interesting and very amusing

MEXBOROUGH.—PRINCE OF WALES THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. H. Melton.—Mr. F. Wybert Clive's company is this week presenting The Conscript. Mr. E. Bellenden Clarke gives a manly rendering of Karl Truevitch; Paul Hardiski has a capable exponent in Mr. Chas. E. Johnson; Mr. Walter Steele scores a success as Ivan Manloff; Mr. Sydney is most acceptable in the rôle of Maxim Freda; and Mr. Wm. Head makes the most of the part of Doggervitch. Miss Lilian Ross plays with sympathy and earnestness the character of Nadia Truevitch; Mrs. Chas. Wood is well placed as Dame Katinka; Mr. Beckell Gould displays a sense of humour as Tretch Troloff; and he is cleverly supported by Miss Connie Meadows, both contributing songs and dances.

MIDDLESBROUGH. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Chas. Imeson.—The Life of a Showman is staged here this week. The central figure is Brien Leader, and it would be difficult to find a more qualified interpreter than Mr. George Testo-Sante, co-author of the work with Mr. Charles Darrell. In the second act the Bros. Testo cause much laughter with their songs and patter, as does also Comical Walker. Mr. Evan Roland is fully adequate in the part of Sir Noel Hartland; and a clever representative of Laurie Gray is found in Mr. J. G. Sante. Miss E. Bamford as Lena Hartland gives a particularly sympathetic interpretation; and Miss Amy McNeill as Agatha Winter proves herself to be a very capable actress. The scenic effects are altogether very pleasing.

OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Manager, Mr. W. K. Chatto.—Mr. Harold V. Neilson and his company produced The Perfect Lover here on Monday. Mr. Harold Neilson as Joseph Trembiett reveals brilliant powers as an actor. As leading lady, Mr. Neilson has with him Miss Beatrice Forbes-Robertson, whose natural ability as an emotional actress gifted with artistic restraint is given full scope in the character of Lillian Trembiett. Miss Renne de Lestrade gives a capital interpretation of the rôle of May: and Mr. W. Lemmon Warde submits an admirable study of the unscrupulous company promoter. Mr. Lewis Willoughby is exceedingly good as Lord Cardew; and Miss Dorothy Milne is a decided success as Martha Trembiett. Mr. John Dotliy does full justice to the part of John Collis; and Miss Elizabeth Watson leaves nothing to be desired as Hon. Susan Lisson. The other members of the cast all perform their parts in a creditable manner, and the scenery and costumes are exceedingly pretty.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Briil; Manager, Mr. Charles Rembges. — The management of this place are to be congratulated upon the excellence of the programme provided here this week. One of the principal successes is the turn given by Cordite and Buffalo, Mexican lasso and rope spinners. The illuminated spectacle in "Electra's Bower," by Alma Abdullah and La Superbe, is well received; as harmonious vocalists and dancers the Silvertone Quartette prove a decided hit; Mr. Oscar Luck's company in the dramatic episode Kismet are very interesting; and the Alskarno troupe of acrobats are warmly applauded. Maud Marlow, dancer, pleases; and Will Lytton, comedian, does well; J. H. Crew, comedian also adds to the programme; and the film "A Wedding on Bicycles," causes much laughter.

OXFORD PALACE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Alf Graham.—The principal turn in an enjoyable programme this week is The Enchanted Iona, which is presented with much success by Chas. Fraser and company; Bob Hamilton, a Scotch comedian, finds great favour with the audiences; and the humours of Tom Parker create a good deal of merriment. Emmie Ames, with her original mechanical toy wonder, is well received; and Bernaro provides a clever juggling turn. Walter Emmerson, comedian, does well; and Dorothy Clarke does some good singing. Other items are ably supplied by Prebend and the Palascope.

NEATH. — CASTLE THEATRE.—Mr. Will Haggar opened here on Monday to a large house with a stirring drama, entitled Our Guardian Angel. Mr. Haggar makes his mark as Jack Daryll, his rendering of the part being perfect. Miss Jenny Lindon as Zedia is a charming actress; Mr. Jas. Haggar and Mr. Arthur Stanley respectively are responsible for the comedy element, and keep the house in uproarious laughter; Mr. J. W. Desmond is a capital exponent of the villainous Captain Massy; Miss Kate Sylvester scores a success as Sarah Green; and the remaining parts are in the capable hands of Messrs. Geo. Stanley, H. Templeton E. Meadows, J. Chapman, Miss Giddings, and Miss L. Templeton.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.—TYNE THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. F. W. Sutcliffe.—Capital fare is provided this week by Mr. A. H. Canby's original company with The Prince Chap. The hero of the play, William Peyton, is admirably impersonated by Mr. R. H. Roberts, who acts with great power. Mr. Victor Widdicumbe submits an enjoyable study as Marcus Runion. The part of Claudia is in three different hands, the first two representatives being remarkably clever children, Miss Olga Hope and Geraldine Wilson, who act with much natural feeling; whilst in the concluding stage Miss Lorna Lawrence gives a sweet, lovable rendering of the character. Miss Marie Wright makes a happy maid of all work, Phœbe Puckers; and the part of Alice Travers is well sustained by Miss Ethel Hollingworth. Mr. A. E. Greenaway, Mr. Wilfred Draycott, Mr. Leonard Robson, Mr. Albert Powers, Mr. Ivan Berlyn, and Miss Kathleen Kelly are all excellent in their respective rôles. The play is preceded by a clever little comedy, The Girl from Biarritz, in which Mr. Leonard Robson, Mr. A. E. Greenaway, and Miss Lorna Lawrence take part.

THEATRE ROYAL. — Managing - Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting - Manager, Mr. F. Teale Lingham. — For the wind-up (except for a matinée performance on Thursday of next week, of David Garrick, by Sir Charles Wyndham, Miss Mary Moore, and company) of a brilliant and successful dramatic season at the Theatre Royal, Mr. Frank Curzon presents The Girl Behind the Counter, just as it was played for a long season at Wyndham's Theatre, London. The powerful company includes Mr. Hayden Coffin and Miss Isabel Jay, two renowned artists, making their first appearance in Newcastle, and to welcome them there assembled on Monday evening one of the largest audiences of the season. Mr. Coffin throughout acted with naturalness, and delighted the house, and his fine interpretation of his several songs resulted in many enthusiastic recalls. Miss Jay also gave a performance that will not soon be forgotten, her fresh, sweet voice being especially heard to advantage in the song describing the man she would love, and in the flower duet with Mr. Coffin. Not upon these two artists, however, does the success of the piece entirely depend, for the company all round is excellent. The ready witticisms and quaint humour of Mr. J. F. McArdle as the General caused a constant ripple of laughter; and from the Dude of Mr. G. Davy Burnaby to the Office Boy of Mr. L. Victor, the Waiter of Mr. George Barrett, and the Monsieur Duval of Mr. F. Allandale, nothing but praise can be accorded. Miss M. North is a charming Millie Mostyn; as Ninette Miss Helen Rose sings and dances most acceptably; and Miss Kathleen Courtney proves a great favourite as Susie; while the part of Lady Willoughby is ably taken by Miss Violet Crossley.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. T. W. Rowe; Business-Manager, Mr. E. B. Clarke.—On Monday evening Miss Mary Austin and Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds' company presented Wilson Barrett's play The Golden Ladder to a crowded audience. Mr. Vivian Edmonds plays a strong heavy lead in the part of Michael Severn in admirable style; Mr. W. Clayton makes a typical Rev. Frank Thornhill; Mr. Joseph Rowland shows fine acting as Samuel Peckaby; whilst Mr. Graham Winsford as M. Peranza lends adequate support. Miss Mary Austin's rendering of Lilian Grant is sympathetic and altogether excellent; Miss Mimi Edwards as Mrs. Peckaby is well sustained; whilst the child's part of Lily by Miss May Eddis deserves special praise.

GRAND THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Bacon and Bolam; Managing-Director, Mr. Sidney Bacon.—Dare-Devil Dorothy is being presented this week by Mr. Henry Swinerd's company to good houses. Mr. H. C. Barry is the life and soul of the piece; he scores all the time he is on. He is capably supported by Miss Nellie Harcourt, who enters into her business with infectious gaiety. Miss Dorothy Desmond in the name-part pleases both by her acting and singing. Other members of the company include Mr. Walter Boyce, Mr. Walter Ashley, Mr. Hy. C. Ward, Mr. Arthur Hartley, Mr. Deane Cliffe, Miss Mabel Blake, Miss Lillie Blake, and Miss Marie Vere.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Proprietors, Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Resident-Director, Mr. Richard Thornton; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Andrews.—Mr. Fred Karno's company, with The Gaol Birds, is paying another visit here. The Arthur Lloyd Trio, in a sketch where twin sisters cause much diversion by reason of their similitude, create great amusement. George Newburn, the well-known mimic, is awarded a flattering reception for his well-studied imitations of well-known artists: the Grisse Bros. have a comedy act, Fun on the Tiles; Haidee Lee and Wallace Kingston another, entitled Practical Joking, both of which go merrily. Other turns include Charles Pastor, comedian; Hall and Earle, acrobats; Frank Harwood, actor-vocalist; and the Bioscope.

PAVILION THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Manager, Mr. Will H. Boardman.—The Kentucky Four are top of the bill this week, and are in great favour with their coon and plantation songs. The Colombia Comedy Trio are just such another combination, only theirs is a serio-comedy mélange and full of amusement. Ross and Crayson are clever comedy artists, and score heavily; Laurie Wylie gives a good show with his mimicking mannikin; the Beau Ideal Troupe of Juveniles are eight smart youngsters, who give songs ,duets, and dances all above the average; Harry Thurston is a clever impersonator of notabilities of the stage; the Schiavouks' acrobatic turn is neat and clever; Walter Bishop and Fred Hanlon are a couple of knockabouts, who perform merrily; Miss Billie Burford, comedienne; the Musical Silvos, and the Barroscope pictures complete a good programme.

NEWPORT.—LYCEUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Sidney Cooper.—Mr. Norman V. Norman's company is playing Robin Hood here this week. The Forest scenes are exceedingly pretty, and the instrumental music lends a charm to the performance that is delightful. Mr. Norman V. Norman acts with grace and vigour the part of Robin Hood; Miss Beatrice Wilson as Maid Marian is simple and natural; and as Richard Cœur de Lion Mr. Dennis Cleugh shows much earnestness. Mr. Brember Wills as Simon Hardmyst does well, and as Sir Wm. Trusty is effective; Mr. Saml. Wilkinson, jun., is clever in the part of the Sheriff of Nottingham; and Mr. Francis Hope's Friar Tuck is amusing low comedy, as is also Miss Sybil Ruskin's Clorinda. Miss Dorothy West-Symes makes a good Isabella; Mr. Kenneth Bruce plays the Earl of Huntingdon and Little John satisfactorily; Nell Gwynn is billed for Wednesday, and on Friday Lady Ursula will be played.

EMPIRE.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. O. Stoll.—La Milo is proving so attractive here as to fill both houses nightly; Cruickshank executes some clever caricatures of statesmen; Ted and May Hopkins receive a warm welcome; and the Stein-Evetto Troupe do some marvellous feats in balancing. Barton and Ashley keep the house in roars with their comedy; Cliff Rylands has a novel way of saying funny things; and Arthur Reece is applauded for his tuneful ballad; while Amy Sullivan, a pleasing artist, and the Bioscope complete the bill.

NORTHAMPTON.—OPERA HOUSE. — Proprietors and Managers, Mr. Milton Bode and Mr. Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Frank Seddon. Mr. Walter Melville's combination is here this week with A Girl's Cross Roads. Mr. Chas. Franmore is very successful as the old farmer, John Meadows; Miss Beaumont Collins realises the character of Barbara Wade with dramatic force; Mr. Wilson Gunning plays well as Jack Gunning; Mr. Gerald Jordan as Cuthbert Lumley, and Mr. Fred Withers as Luke Ramsden are a couple of consummate scoundrels; Mr. Frank Brunell as good as Dr. Weston; Miss Nannie Meade is a capable Nellie Meadows; and Miss Jessica Black does well as Constance Cornell. Mr. Fred Ingram as Toby Turvey and Miss Lena Delphine as Tilly Vane supply the comic relief.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Fred H. Anderson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Thos. A. Evans.—The drawing-room entertainment of J. P. Ling is good, and meets with hearty appreciation; the Five Abadaroffs provide a good acrobatic show; Lambert and Hands are capital duettists; Hall and Wilson exploit a miniature cycling racing track, and prizes are offered for the successful competitors; C. Vincent presents some new pictures; Pearce and Ward succeed as speciality artists; Pollie Denton is a very pleasing comedienne, her singing and dancing being loudly applauded. and Counsell and Mills appear with success in a musical burlesque, On the Stage.

NORTH SHIELDS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Horace Lee.—The boards here this week are occupied by Mr. Esca Garrick's company, which opened on Monday evening with Drink. As Coupeau Mr. Charles Carte presented a satisfactory portrayal of the character. Miss Doris Brookes was seen to advantage as Gervaise, the remaining parts being sustained by Messrs. Richard Thorne, Edgar Hayes, Max Madden, Bert Osborne, Ernest Leigh; Misses Alice Ballard, Rose Conroy, Winnie Francis, &c.

CENTRAL PALACE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Wm. Mould).—Miss Daisy De Roy, the popular comedienne, is with us again this week, and is having a cordial reception. Mrs. Thompson Wood's juvenile stars in The Gipsy's Holiday, score a distinct success. Mr. Walter Leverto, the dancing marvel (who appears in place of Mr. Barney Stuart, indisposed), is clever; and Kyoto, the Japanese entertainer; Miss May Geraldine, comedienne; Miss Bessie Travis, ventriloquist, and the Bio-photoscope all meet with favour.

NORWICH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Manager Mr. Fred Morgan.—Mr. Herbert Hollister's excellent company is here this week in The Lights o' London. Mr. C. F. Collings as Harold Armytage plays with much earnestness; Mr. Raymond Thomas is good as the villain, Clifford Armytage; Mr. Herbert Hollister as Seth Preene deserves every praise; Miss Jennie Burgoyne is excellent as Bess; whilst Mr. Herbert Lewis, Miss Violet Temple, and Miss Renée Douglas as the Three Jarvises do well in their respective parts.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. E. H. Bostock and F. W. Fitt; Manager, Mr. Councillor F. W. Fitt.—An amusing programme is given this week. John L. Shine and his excellent company, in their comedy sketch Hogmany; or, a Tale of New Year's Eve, are very good. The Hanlon troupe of acrobats, in their aerial performance, are clever; George French is a successful comedian; Helen Charles is very entertaining; whilst Bennett and Martell create much fun in their nautical sketch The Lost Mariner. Bernard and Martell are good comedians; and the Carina Sisters are pleasing in their musical mélange. The Sisters Brenton are charming comediennes and dancers; and the Hippodrome Biograph is an attraction.

NOTTINGHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robt. Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Howard Finney.—The Fascinating Mr. Vanderveldt was presented here for the first time on Monday by a capital company. Mr. Reginald Dance's work in the title-rôle is distinguished at all points; Mr. H. Lawrence Leyton gives a vigorous portrayal of Colonel Rayner; Mr. Edward Coutts makes the most of his small part as Lord Woolham; Mr. Geo. A. Seager, as Bartholomew Cardick; and Mr Russell Barry, as Goddlestone, handle their parts skilfully; Miss Gladys Mason, who is especially happy in showing the frivolous side of Lady Clarice, throughout gives a conscientious reading; Miss Mary Weigall looks imposing as the Marchioness; and Miss May Brooke aptly assumes the acerbity of Lady Clementina Desborough; Miss Eve Titheradge supplies an admirable impersonation of the lively Aggie Coles, and smart representations are also given by Misses Agnes Gunn, Dorothy Haigh, Helen Tytler, and Muriel Mason. The play is preceded by The Drums of Oude.

GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Charles P. Cooke.—The Silver King is drawing large audiences, and the capable company of Messrs. G. M. Polini and Austin Melford is having a warm welcome. Miss Victoria Addison gives dramatic intensity and pathos to the part of Nellie Denver; Mr. Herbert Ford, as Wilfred Denver, shows an excellent grasp of the character; the Jaikes of Mr. Tom Paulton is a sound embodiment; Mr. Charles Baird excites keen repugnance as the villainous Skinner; and Mr. Henry Osman cleverly supports him as the wily Elijah Combe. Mr. Claude Vernon acts with care in the part of Corket, and Mr. Arthur J. Rooke is good as Baxter. Miss Viola Holland aptly assumes the part of Olive Skinner, and Miss Amy Wood makes a good impression as Tabitha Durden. Cissy and Ned are nicely played by Miss Jessie Apted and Master Eric Dene respectively.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES. — Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles H. Bowmaker.—Principal place this week is occupied by Lil Hawthorne, whose smart costumes and vivacious style call forth abundant manifestations of approval; John Le Hay and company provide an excellent mirth-provoking sketch, entitled Blind Beggar; hoop-rolling and club-juggling by Hale and Francis receive well-merited recognition; and a clever performance is given by Corbyn's dogs. The humorous items of E. J. Sheldon cause plenty of laughter, and the songs of Hesketh Meade gain added interest from a series of animated pictures; the Rerfern Sisters dance attractively, as also does Maudie Ford; the Althoffs submit a comical sketch of musical surprises, and the American Bioscope completes the programme.

NUNEATON.—PRINCE OF WALES' THEATRE AND ENTERTAINMENTS CO., LTD. — Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter J. R. Bryan.—Mr. Harry Starr and his company are paying a return visit here. Mr. Starr, who is well known to local theatre-goers, retains his popularity in the triple rôles of Frank Granville, Costermonger Joe, and Miss Giggley-Flighter in his new musical drama, The Unseen Power. Mr. Edwin Firth appears with success as Antonio Romano; Mr. F. Graham is an amusing Horatio Cracklesby; Miss Ella Crossley is good as Lucretia Granville; Miss Madge Blundell (Anita Romano) and Miss Kate Norris as Chris Granville are both deserving of praise.

OLDHAM.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—General Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant Manager, Mr. J. Hulme.—A large and enthusiastic audience was present on Monday evening to witness Servais Le Roy's mystical play, Lady Kinton's Necklace. A strong and well-balanced company, in charge of Mr. W. Scott Phipp, does full justice to the play, which is full of mystery and magic; Le Roy, Talma, and Bosco perform some wonderful and interesting tricks, which delight the audience; and Miss Talma is fairly entitled to the title of "The Queen of Coins"; Mr. Stafford Smith appears as Lord Kinton, and he makes a success of the part; Mr. John S. Chamberlain is capital as Bothwell Daraville; and Mr. Frank Melrose is good as the villainous Professor Le Gros, being well supported by Mr. Henry Danson as Robert Fenton; Mr. Robert A. Innes plays very well as Rufus Merivale; Miss Queenie Fraser Brunner is sweet and sympathetic as Lucie Daraville, while Miss May Harley is excellent as Mary Grey, and, later, as Lotty Mayday; Miss Marie Ault causes a large amount of merriment as the eccentric Annie Jones, and able assistance is rendered by Willie Atom as Billy Brighton.

COLOSSEUM.—Manager, Mr. W. Eastwood.—Messrs. Garside and Knowles opened here with The London Fireman on Monday. Mr. J. Forbes Knowles gave a manly rendering of the part of Hal Curtis and Colonel Fleming; Mr. Oliver Birrel was excellent as the villainous Viscount Fleming, and Mr. Ed. L. Garside was also good as Ratty; Mr. Wm. Burgess scored a success in the part of Abel Fortnum, and Mr. Walter Wilbey was admirable as Joe Bluener; Mr. Harry C. Momber played Nixey Stinger in a humorous manner, being well supported by Miss Nelly Garside as Polly; Miss Nelly Shirley did well as Ida Curtis, while Miss Nellie Waddington was capital as Countess Fleming, and Miss Beatrice Sinclair played Grace Curtis in an able manner.

ROYAL THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant-Manager, Mr. W. Howgate.—A capital programme is submitted this week, at the top of which are the Achmed Ibrahim troupe of acrobats, who earn much applause; the Three Boccaccios, including Signor Francia, mandolinist, are excellent vocalists and instrumentalists; Barrett and Knowles are capital vocal comedians; Madam Roma's six Imra juggling girls give a smart turn with the clubs, and the Primrose Quartette harmonise very well; J. W. Rickaby, character comedian, is well received; and Barrington is an expert musician; Tennie and Laune have a capital vocal scena; and the Rajah's Casket is depicted on the Royal Dottoscope.

HIPPODROME. — Manager, Mr. E. Dottridge; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Nuttall.—Marie Blythe is appearing here in her latest creation, and is highly appreciated; Emma Don and her Comedy Team are capital; Halma performs some excellent juggling feats; Vandinoff is a smart painter; Percy Curry, comedian, causes much laughter; and the Brothers Brooks are good comedians; the Sisters Brand are unique comedians and dancers; and Les Steckels give a refined gymnastic display. An interesting series of pictures is being shown on the Dottoscope.

OXFORD.—NEW THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Lucas, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. C. Dorrill.—Mr. Edward Terry is this week paying his annual visit, opening on Monday with Liberty Hall. Mr. Terry was seen at his best as the lovable William Todman, and gave a most delightful performance. He was well supported by his capable company. Mr. Allan Pollock's quiet, incisive acting as Mr. Owen met with much favour; Mr. Frank Cellier, jun., was exceedingly good as Gerald Harringay; Mr. W. Dexter as the repulsive Mr. Briginshaw acted well; and as Mr. and Miss Hickson Mr. G. Howard and Miss Ella Dixon both scored; Miss Fyfe Alexander and Miss G. Tate were delightful as the Misses Chilworths, and quite took the fancy of the house; and Miss Eugenie Vernie duly emphasised the character of Crafer. The Magistrate and Sweet Lavender are also billed.

PAISLEY.—PAISLEY THEATRE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Bentz.—The Middleman and Saints and Sinners are being played here by Miss Elaine Verner and Mr. Harding Thomas's company. In the former play, Mr. Harding Thomas, who displays much dramatic skill, gives a fine portrayal of Cyrus Blenkarn; Joseph Chandler is effectively embodied by Mr. Frank Lyndon; Mr. Percy Brown acquits himself well as Captain Julian Chandler; Mr. Edward de Vere is distinctly successful as Batty Todd; Jesse Pegge has a humorous representative in Mr. Edgar Kent; Mr. Max Jerome contributes a clever study of Sir Seaton Umfraville; Danaper is ably undertaken by Mr. Jenu Comley; Mr. Guy Dene makes a capital Mr. Vachell; Mr. Arthur Neilson is good as Epiphany Danks; great praise is due to Miss Elaine Verner for her natural and charming portrayal of Mary; Miss Ada Clark plays Nancy capitally; Miss Maud Beard makes an acceptable Mrs. Chandler; and Miss Ruby Romer is quite satisfactory as Maud Chandler.

HIPPODROME.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Bostock; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Wilson.—Minnie Hunt and Rhys Thomas score with their clever original sketch, Her Birthday; Carlton, card conjurer, submits a novel and amusing entertainment; and others contributing to the programme are David Poole, ventriloquist; Blanche and Powell, society entertainers; Max Rubens and Mlle. Dora, in a musical change scenic production; Ray Forde, comedienne and dancer; Sisters Lotus, juvenile duettists; Charles Banks, comedian, with a well-trained dog; and the Hippodrome Bioscope with amusing pictures.

EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. J. H. Savile; Manager, Mr. Delno Fritz.—This week, which is the last one under the present managership, the company engaged includes Mlle. Sylvesto, in an unique specialty act; Mike Murphy, comedian; Jack Brindale, comedian and dancer; the Two Cliffs, acrobats and hand balancers; Bella Enwick, serio and dancer; Fred Collins, Scotch comedian; and Brothers Lawrence, comedians and dancers.

PERTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Aldridge.—Miss Lillian Bezant's company in the American domestic drama, An Actor's Romance, is here this week, and is proving a great success. The characters worthy of special note are Mr. E. Eardley Howard's Harold Davenport, Miss Florence Nelson's Florence Hastings, and Miss Marion Ryder's charming Phyllis Davenport.

PETERBOROUGH.—ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. A. Darville Vernon.—This week we have Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company in Florodora. It would be difficult to improve upon the Tweedlepunch of Mr. Gus Danby. Miss Daisy Lake as Dolores gives a clever and attractive performance. Mr. Colin Johnson is a capital Cyrus W. Gilfain. Mr. Howard V. Cropton an admirable Frank Abercoed, and Mr. H. Carnelley-Joye, a capable Captain Arthur Donegal. Miss Dorothy Dempster is a charming Angela Gilfain, and Lady Holyrood is well played by Miss Rosa Sullivan.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Owners and Proprietors, Mrs. Trenchard and Miss L. Jones; Manager, Mr. Charles Trenchard.—Mr. Charles March's vaudeville company is the attraction here this week. Mr. March's cleverness in his embodiments of nine distinct characters is highly appreciated; Dick Thomas, the Welsh comedian, is appreciated; the Colonials take well in their comedy scena, The Tramp's Intrusion; and the Bioscope winds up a very entertaining programme.

PORTH. — THE PALACE (LATE OPERA HOUSE).—General-Manager, Mr. C. W. Poole; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Bynorth.—Good houses have been the rule here this week, and the programme is an exceedingly good one. The Cattaneos troupe of acrobats deserve praise for their marvellous performance; Sam Redfern scores heavily, and is undoubtedly a big favourite; Ronald, Bayne, and Evelyn Hope, in a historical duologue, An Emperor's Divorce, is being highly appreciated; Jean Seul, illusionist, is well received, his performance being watched with the keenest interest; Perci Galino, in a clever musical pot-pourri, is enjoyed; Ethel Yorke, the charming and refined comedienne, scores a success with her fine songs; Tom Garland, the Welsh national ventriloquist, delights the audiences; and some very pretty pictures are shown on the new electric bioscope.

PORTSMOUTH. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Bell.—The comedy, Public Opinion, is the attraction here this week, played by Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's capable company. Miss Hutchison, appearing as Lady Diana Caldershaw, sustained the part very cleverly, making her points with telling effect; Pansy Bligh was smartly personated by Miss Nancy Beresford; Miss Connie Dene as Phillis Dagenham, and Miss Violet Harley as Charlotte played their rôles with complete success; Mr. Percy Marshall, in the character of the lawyer, Horace Wibsey, had a part that fitted him exactly; the irascible Spencer Traughton, C.B., was exceedingly well depicted by Mr. Charles Harley; Mr. Fred Lewis as the Hon. Mr. Justice Mulley was admirable; Messrs. Douglas Hamilton, Douglas Greet, and Ashton Pearse, as Sir Babington Mulley, Viscount Poffrey, and Lord Percy Kilgour, were very good in their respective parts. The comedy is preceded each evening by the amusing piece, The Strategem.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. T. E. Agate.—Mr. Frederick Melville's company in the drama, The Beast and the Beauty, is occupying the boards here this week. Miss Alice Bowes as Violet, gives an excellent rendering of an exacting part; Mr. W. S. Hartford in the rôle of Jack Barrymore is most successful in a strong personation; the Earl of Loman is admirably well taken by Mr. William E. Passmore; Mr. Bernard Mervyn is well suited with the part of Henry Denver; Mr. Eric Campbell ably sustains the character of Ned Sampson, and Mr. Harry Talbot scores as the light-weight champion, Tom Chicken. Miss Daisy Gwynne, in the thankless rôle of Delilah Vane, is admirable, and Miss Mamie Rendle causes plenty of merriment in her impersonation of Mimi, the maid of all work.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Secretary, Mr. W. Pratt.—A strong company is billed here for the week, John Lawson and company, in their sensational Hebrew episode, being the personation of Tat Spavvin, the railway porter; Mr. Percy Maitland gives a characteristic rendering of the villain, Luke Dezzard; Miss Carlotta Anson displays much ability as the wife of the innocent man, Dave Stannard, ably impersonated by Mr. Lewis Leslie; and Miss Madge Beresford acts vivaciously as the French Maid.

ROCHDALE.—Theatre Royal, Ltd.—Managing Director, Mr. W. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Hague.—On Tuesday, under the distinguished patronage of Colonel Sir Clement Royds, C.B., and Lady Royds, and officers of the D.O.L. own Yeomanry and 2nd V.B. Lancashire Fusiliers, a performance of Leo Trevor's comedy, Brother Officers, was presented to a crowded house. The artists one and all acquitted themselves with distinction, coming in for quite an ovation at the fall of the curtain. The Idler is billed for production on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The proceeds are in aid of the Cripples' Society and the Blind Society.

Circus and Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Messrs. Smith and Co.—The Five M.P.s (Musical Palmers) have always a cordial reception here; their contribution was quite up to the standard, and was thoroughly appreciated. Lady Julia, the ape with the human brain, is an almost convincing proof of Darwin's theory; Miss Barbara McArdle, gipsy maid; Chas. Rowen, comedian; Dolly, Agnes, and Maud, the factory nightingales; Jack Truman, tenor vocalist; Monty Walker, Yorkshire comedian; Daisy Almer, comedienne; and Vernon's Bioscope also contribute to the programme.

Empire.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Thomas Hargreaves; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Hargreaves.—Crowded houses awaited Miss Florrie Gallimore on Monday evening; her contributions were rendered with quite the old charm. A comedy sketch entitled The Doctor was capitally performed by Paul Courtney and Co.; Josie Delaine is a charming dancer and vocalist; Lord Murray and Lord gave a clever exhibition of ball punching and boxing; Renson and Waite, comedy duo; Henri Bekker, assisted by Mlle. Maie, conjuror; Cumminger, sand dancer; Charnleys, comediennes and dancers; and the Empire Bioscope complete the list.

ROTHERHAM.—Theatre Royal, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. Holbery Hardy.—A complete change is being made here this week in the class of entertainment provided, Mr. J. H. Tomkinson's No. 1 Royal Gipsy Company filling the bill. The first part of the programme is taken up with songs and other items of minstrelsy, and in the second part special turns are introduced by the Rizarelis, lady gymnasts; the Recars, clever Chinese eccentric acrobats; Little Via Lette, a pocket edition of Vesta Tilley; and Mlle. Vanda, a clever lady juggler on the revolving globe.

RUGBY. — Theatre Royal.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Drew Mackintosh.—Mr. Herbert Skardon and company are this week presenting the sporting drama, The Rogues of the Turf. As Arthur Somerton Mr. Herbert Skardon gives a manly and effective rendering, and Mr. Frank Stanley is good as Sir Gerald Heathcote. Mr. Fred Bentley gives a clever portrayal of the trainer, Joe Flaxman, and as Sam Flaxman Mr. Fred J. Edwards is equally good; Mr. Vivian Charles submits a powerful embodiment of Captain Dudley Clinton, the chief of the rogues; and Mr. Lawrence Power is excellent as Mo Soloman. Mr. Pat Quin as Steve Burton does very well. Miss Marie Fontaine as Nellie Flaxman has a charming presence, and proves herself to be a good actress. Miss Clara Steel is piquant as Phillis Wurzel; and Miss Sidney Crowe as Lady Heathcote displays exceptional ability. As the family lawyer, Mr. Mat Russell is good, and Mr. David Cockney as John Strongham makes the most of his part.

SALFORD.—Prince of Wales's.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. E. B. Goulden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harold Goulden.—Mr. James Hare's company drew a good house on Monday with the new romantic drama, A Destroyer of Men, by Sidney Spencer and Clarence Burnette. Mr. Harold B. Lewis as Count Starevitch, ably assisted Miss Irene Clifford as Olga Mischla to forcibly impress the audience with their stage villainies. Mr. James Hare capitally sustained the part of Karl Mischla; Mr. Ross Warren as Coco Tachoski, and Miss Alice Buckland as Nina Pattacake kept the house in execellent humour; Miss Gladys Lloyd charmingly presented Vidal Raval; and good work was done by Mr. C. Bickell as Michael Mischla. Paul Starevitch and Fedor Strellitzki were carefully portrayed respectively by Mr. Hill Cremer and Mr. Frank Orchard. Mr. Arthur Swain (Colonel Limevitch), Mr. Arthur Conroy (Genl. Drakensburg), and Mr. Alfred Minns (Sergeant Kranz), did well in their various characters.

Regent Theatre of Varieties, Ltd.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary, Mr. J. C. Patterson.—Under the direction of Ethel Arden and Geo. Abel Limited, The Little Stowaway was much enjoyed on Monday by a large audience. Miss Eva Lumley in the title-rôle, and Mr. John K. Walton as the Captain, were excellent. Always Moving was another amusing sketch by Ross, Rose, and Rosert. The songs by Alma Obrey gave much pleasure; Florrie Forde sang, "Float me, Charlie," "Oh, Matrimony," &c., which went well; and Marie Weston, speciality dancer; the Sisters Neilson, duettists and expert dancers; Bob Baxter, comedian; and Sisters Cora, in their scena, Sweethearts, also appeared.

Royal Hippodrome.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. C. H. Wentworth.—Claude Ginnett and company take up a great part of the time of each house with their equestrian spectacle, Dick Turpin's Ride to York, and gain much applause; Dorians (two ladies and one gentleman) give an acceptable acrobatic act; a clever sketch, Fun in a Music Shop, by Brull and Hemsley (Elsa and Arthur), is much applauded; Agnes Tina is a promising little mimic. Turns are also given by J. T. Macmillan, Scotch comedian; the Four Goldini, expert carpet, &c., spinners and acrobats; Lade Henderson, character vocalist; and Wallie Croker, whistler.

SCARBOROUGH.—People's Palace and Aquarium.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Morgan; Secretary and Manager, Mr. Walter Kitchingman.—Juan and McQue top the bill here this week, and as acrobatic comedians give much novelty in the performance; Morrice Holmes, comedian, sings some good songs well; the Schallers as dancers and gymnast would attract an audience at any time; George Adney is a clever character vocalist; Alan McAskell, known as the silent conjurer, introduces some clever tricks; Phil Rees' impersonation of leading artists receives well deserved applause; Madge Maynard has a good voice, and uses it to advantage; as a coster delineator, Fred Buckley shows much ingenuity; Vernon's Imperial Bioscope submits new films of an up-to-date character.

Hippodrome. — Proprietor and Manager, Mr. George Zalva.—The re-appearance of Will Goodwin with his budget of up-to-date songs is a welcome addition to a popular programme; the Boultons are smart in their acrobatic dances; Mlle. Bartenelli gives a novel turn as a contortionist and gymnast, and is well applauded; Arthur Holland, vocal comedian, is well received. The pictures are all up-to-date subjects.

SEACOMBE.—Irving Theatre.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. James Kiernan.—Mr. Charles Watson Mills' company is presenting here this week the powerful melodrama, A Wrecker of Men. Mr. Frederick Biron submits an excellent picture of the desperate but withal good-hearted burglar Jim Murley; Pharosaphus is well drawn by Mr. Milner Noble; Railton is a strong delineation by Mr. Millar Anderson; Mr. Stanley Champion plays well as Guise Strange; and the Hon. Reggie Verincourt could hardly be in better hands than those of Mr. Harry Dunning; Eric Melville is well looked after by Mr. Thompson Carruthers; and Marion Isaacs by Miss Gwendoline Talbot. Miss Beatrice Reynolds causes much amusement by her smart rendering of Vavasole Slopper; Doris Melville is pathetically played by Miss Cissie Podmore; and Miss Lucy Sibley gives a strong and clever depiction of Risca Mallison.

SEAHAM HARBOUR.—New Theatre Royal.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. A. C. Harrison.—Mr. Ernest Dare's company occupies the boards here this week with the drama, By Sheer Pluck. A capital portrayal of Major Desmond is given by Mr. Charles Collins. Mr. Ernest Dare as Richard Desmond plays with telling effect. Capt. Gaspard is powerfully depicted by Mr. Alfred E. Calver. Mr. Geo. P. Lester as Smikes is humorous. Nancy Stuart is pleasingly embodied by Miss M. Lowe-Dare. Miss Ethel Tooney is a skilful Elsie Taber, and as Martha Miss Minnie Thurgate is very good.

SHEERNESS.—The Palace.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Phil Reymond.—The company engaged here this week is an excellent one. Mr. Harry Royde, the "funny comedian," causes roars of laughter. Miss Josie Watson is well applauded for her well-rendered songs; Mr. H. S. Leggett, comedian and dancer, is applauded, his top-boot dance being excellent; the Nicholsons are a clever comedy couple, and their act, More Ways than One, is very laughable. Miss Topsy Levane is a popular favourite, and her songs and dances are greatly admired. The Arundel company appears in a capital comedy sketch, entitled The Count's Stratagem.

SHEFFIELD. — Lyceum Theatre. — Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont.—On Monday, Messrs. Lionel Glenister and Wood-Ingram's company appeared in the delightful comedy, All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy. The popular and charming artist, Miss Decima Moore, acted with her accustomed grace and piquancy as Peggy; Miss Annie Brophy was a clever representative of Mrs. O'Mara; Mr. Frank G. Bayly's Lord Crackenthorpe was a good character-sketch; Mr. Lionel Glenister was a smart Hon. Jimmy Kepple; Mr. Henderson Bland submitted a careful study of a military half-pay officer as Major Phipps; and other characters were well played by Mr. Harold Weston as Jack Menzies, Mr. Pat Fitzgerald as Lucas, Mr. H. Phillips as Parker, Miss Violet Barton-Astor as Millicent Keppel, Miss Estelle Despa as the Hon. Mrs. Colquehoun, and Miss Kate Wingfield as Lady Crackenthorpe.

Theatre Royal.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont.—A Fight for Millions is being played this week by Mr. Robert Perris and his excellent company. Mr. John Carlyle is first rate as the dashing Tom Manley; Mr. Gus Harding is amusing as Solomon Moses; Miss Alwynne Ermon is a prepossessing and dramatic heroine; Miss Mabel Howe makes a pretty little Madge; and other parts are efficiently played by Mr. J. Schofield, Mr. Hugh Mewburn, Miss Rose Kearns, Miss Nora Kingsley, and Miss Elma Turner. The drama is effectively staged.

Alexandra Theatre. — Managing-Director, Mr. W. D. Forsdike; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. W. Ramsay.—On Monday a cleverly-constructed domestic drama by A. W. Brabner was presented for the first time in Sheffield, under the direction of Mr. T. Arthur Jones, entitled Life's Sweetest Sins, and its success was immediate. Some good scenery was provided, and the "submarine" episode riveted the close attention of the large audience. The acting was good all round. Miss Mabel Dent gave a strong and consistent reading of the character of the heroine; Mr. Oswald Douglas ably depicted the duplicity and craft of Dr. Colebrook; and Mr. T. Arthur Jones acted earnestly as Harold Marston.

Empire Palace.—Proprietors, The Moss' Empires Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Alan D. Dunbar.—For over a quarter of a century has "the London Idol" frequently topped the bill in Sheffield, and this week Miss Vesta Tilley is again demonstrating to packed houses the value of inherited talent, and sound early training, combined with charm of manner and close artistic study. The bill also includes the famous Brothers Griffiths, in a screaming new act; the Brothers Horne, in their laughable boxing sketch, The Biter Bit; Mr. Fred Clements, comedian; the Stavordale Quintette, vocalists and musicians; Mr. Lauri Clare, vocalist; Miss Alexandra Edwin, soprano vocalist; Mlle. de Dio, in her beautiful illuminated dances; Prince Kokin, in his marvellous feats; and the American Bioscope.

Grand Palace.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Richard Ralli.—Miss Frances Heskall, the Players, and other performers are engaged here, together with Pallister's popular picture entertainment.

Central Hall. — Animated pictures, and the efforts of Mr. W. A. Raby, comic vocalist, and the Sisters Lytton, duettists, please the habitués of this hall.

SHREWSBURY. — Theatre Royal. — Licensee and Business-Manager, Mr. W. C. Dornton.—Mr. Andrew Melville's company is appearing in the drama, Driven from Home, and playing to excellent business. Mr. F. A. Marston as Anthony Raybrook gives a good portrayal of the part, as also does Mr. Andrew Emm as Willie, an outcast; and Miss Rose Ralph is sympathetic as Laura Raybrook. The piece is well mounted.

SOUTHAMPTON. — Grand Theatre. — Sole Leesee and Manager, Mr F. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. Arthur Weston.—Messrs. Silvanus Dauncey and M. V. Leveaux's company is this week renewing acquaintance with The Walls of Jericho. The company, which is of all-round excellence, includes Miss Florence Jackson, who gives a capital portrayal of Lady Alethea Frobisher. A great local favourite is Mr. George A. Brandram, who, as Hankey Bannister, gives a clever and finished piece of character-acting. Mr. Herbert Bunston plays the part of Jack Frobisher with a full sense of all its possibilities. Miss Lydia Busch (Lady Westerby), and Miss Molly Carton (Lady Derenham) also render able assistance.

Palace.—Sole Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. William Trussell.—Extremes meet here; the appearance of Henri Cot, the French giant, and Prince Colibri, the Russian midget, excite great wonderment. Bob Hutt, in a merry and bright sketch, Welcome Home, convulses the audience with laughter, and Harry Cotton excels as a droll comedian. Others who entertain are Harry Briggs, triple-voiced vocalist; the Florodora Girls, vocalists; Tate and Tate, acrobats; and Lytton and Bland, in A Lesson in Love.

Hippodrome.—Joint Proprietors, Messrs. Fredk. Mouillot and W. de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. Jack de Freece; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harold P. Howell.—Joe Peterman's miniature musical comedy, The Belle of the Orient, is the star attraction. Mr. Joe Peterman (Ike Novinski), and Miss Florence Vie (the Belle), both scoring great successes. Max Duffex, a clever musical contortionist; Flo Somers, comedienne; Curtis and Vani' wonderful dancers; Bros. Bright, gymnasts; Held and Sagar, comedy artists; and Tiny Arnold, Liliputian comedienne and dancer, also give a good account of themselves.

SOUTHEND-ON-SEA.—Empire Theatre.—Empire Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Geo. Conquest; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. Lingham Power.—This week's attraction is the exciting drama, entitled Why Woman Sins, which is produced by Mr. Samuel James's company. Mr. Harry Cullenford is seen to advantage in his impersonation of Lieut. Harry Maxwell; Mr. Jackson Hayes as Capt. Herbert Carlton enacts the villain with skill, and has capital assistance from Mr. George Clarkson as Jem Rainbird. Cecil Spencer is well portrayed by Mr. George Ellis; Mr. Will Skelton provides hearty merriment as Sam Spavins, whose clever impersonation of the Gibson Girl is really successful. Miss Gertrude Netterville in her rôle of Ida Valetta shows considerable ability. The Misses Nellie Sheffield and May Seton are well suited as Lily de Vere and Nancy Nibble respectively, and Miss Hilda Baynton plays Nell Desmond admirably.

Pier Pavilion.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. E. Angless; Acting-Manager, Mr. Stanley E. Angless.—It is most gratifying to witness the enthusiasm shown at this popular skating rink, where every comfort is made for both skaters and lookers-on. The first carnival of the season took place on Wednesday evening, when a delightful programme of ladies' and gentlemen's single and double races, as well as obstacle races, was gone through with every satisfaction, and awards were given for fancy dress costumes. An interesting feature on this night was the exhibition of fancy skating by experts, the acting-manager being most prominent. The celebrated Red Band, which appears twice daily, provide capital selections that are greatly enjoyed.

SOUTHPORT.—Opera House, Winter Gardens.—Proprietors, The Southport Opera House and Winter Gardens Co., Ltd.; Secretary, Mr. R. Singleton.—Messrs. E. Hill-Mitchelson and Harris Fineberg's company is appearing here this week in The Traitor. Miss Ruth Shepherd depicts the rôle of Zula, the avenger, with emotional power; Miss Isabel Hunt as Lieutenant Nicholas does exceedingly well; Miss Katherine Vere is a vivacious Elsie Duprey; Miss Gwynne Warren portrays the Countess of Zicks effectively; Cen-Cen, the Japanese girl, has a piquant exponent in Miss Lilian Matthews; Prince Rudolph is vigorously represented by Mr. Bensley Evans; Mr. Stephen E. Scanlan is well placed as the chief of police; and as the English naval captain, Mr. T. W. Hurst is commendable.

Albert Hall, Winter Gardens.—Lessee, Mrs. Charles Parker; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Mertz.—A capital all-round programme was submitted to a large audience at this popular variety hall on Monday evening, the principal item being supplied by Harry Tate's famous comedians in Motoring; the Ringling Trio, American eccentrics, who introduce an highly diverting absurdity, entitled The Manager's Lunch; and Harry Freeman, in his latest successes. The programme includes Mona McDonald, comedienne; Slippere, blind pianist and baritone; Dave McNeil, comedian; Angeline, the dancing juggler; Louise Zetland, vocalist; and the Bioscope, with the latest films.

SPENNYMOOR.—Cambridge Theatre. — Lessee, Mr. Hugh Robertson; General-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance; Resident-Manager, Mr. David Collins.—Monday witnessed the first appearance, locally, of the eminent tragedian, Mr. Edmund Tearle. Hamlet formed the attraction. In the title-rôle Mr. Tearle was seen to great advantage, and his efforts were greatly appreciated; Miss Esther Tearle submitted a very effective portrayal of Ophelia, and Miss Mary Campbell was generally sound as Queen Gertrude. Mr. J. Cooke Hinton as Claudius, and Mr. Bernhardt Turner as Laertes gave a good account of themselves. As the First Gravedigger, Mr. J. A. Keogh was excellent. During the visit the company have appeared in Othello, Richard III., Jeanie Deans, and The Three Musketeers.

STAFFORD.—Empire and Lyceum.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. James Elphinstone.—D'Artigan as Le Diabelo, in Looping the Devil's Wheel, provides a sensational and exciting turn. J. P. Johnstone is an amusing comedian. York, Mack, and York appear in a laughable knockabout sketch. The Three Itrams provide a pretty and clever acrobatic act. J. H. McCann, comedian and roller-skate dancer, prove very popular. The Empire pictures are good, and Miss Dolly Clayton makes a hit with "May I come home again?"

STALYBRIDGE.—Grand Theatre.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Louis Ellison; General-Manager, Mr. Eugene B. Hardie; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. D. Oswald.—An excellent variety programme has been arranged here, the principal artists being Charles Ulrick, barrel king; the Three Whirligigs, in their pot-pourri act; the Three Tivoli Girls, acrobatic dancers; Zarenh, in a quick-change dancing scena; T. W. Barrett, the Nobleman's Son; Duncan, club manipulator; Vosper, a notable mimic; Nellie Montague, burlesque actress; Harry Willats, comedian; and several extra turns.

ST. HELENS. — Theatre Royal and Opera House, Ltd. — General-Manager, Mr. McLeod Loader.—Mr. J. W. Whitbread's Irish Répertoire company, under the direction of Mr. Dave Clarke, is here presenting Willie Reilly, The Irish Dragoon, Sarsfield, The Colleen Bawn, and Lord Edward; or, '98. The company is one of all-round excellence, including, as it does, such experienced artists as Messrs. James O'Brien, Harry Richardson, R. Faulkner, Dave Clarke, H. Forrest, Tom Ireland, Miss Jessie Glen, Mrs. E. F. Brady, Miss Madeline Hurst, and Miss Cecilia Dare, who all achieve a success in their respective rôles.

Hippodrome.—Proprietors, Messrs. T. Barrasford, Will Sley, and Fred Willmot; Resident-Manager, Mr. A. V. Carnell.—At the head of the bill here are Mr. Carter Livesey and Miss Lillian Roseberry in the amusing skit, Would-be Actors; the Sisters Julian, exceptionally good vocalists, have made a big hit; Harrigan and Holt are funny comedians; Fatima Diard is the possessor of a fine voice, which she uses to advantage in some operatic selections; the Arleys, assisted by two dogs, give a clever acrobatic turn; the Perrams are skilful manipulators of marionettes, and the McIntoshes evoke loud applause with their clog dancing.

STOCKPORT. — Theatre Royal and Opera House. — Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Revill.—Mr. George Kirk and Miss Mary Neil's company, which is one of undoubted ability, is commanding the close interest and appreciation of large audiences here in the representations of Her Luck in London. Miss Mary Neil as Nellie Harborne depicts the grave and gay character with marked skill, and Mr. Charles A. Leicester acquits himself admirably as the Hon. Fitzgerald O'Connor. As Richard Lemmen Mr. G. Langdon impersonates the part to perfection; Mr. Douglas Tremayne makes a capital Rev. Lionel Strong; the character of Stephen Harborne has a capable exponent in Mr. Tyrone Power, and Miss Frances Bruce is effective as Lilian Harborne, whilst Mr. J. Telly Dillsen as Jerry Gotobed, and Miss Florrie Groves as Maud Gladys Shovepenny provide abundant fun.

Empire.—Proprietors, The Stockport Empire Theatre Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Black.—The Four Geraldos, in a club juggling and hoop-rolling act, head the bill here, and are heartily applauded for their really clever feats. Interesting from start to finish is the episode Her Good Name, and presented with distinct ability by Miss Diana Hope and company, it proved a very pleasing feature. Maxford and O'Neil are a smart couple; a promising juvenile is Alice Maude, who gives impersonations of noted artists; Tom Kelso and company, in their comedy sketch, The Silly Servant, causes plenty of laughter; the Sisters Marion, juvenile duettists, repeat their previous success here; Rowland Hill is a decidedly funny comedian; Mabel La Blanche is a pleasing ballad vocalist; Daisy Morell, comedienne, was highly successful, and A-BA-BE, in a beautiful series of tableaux in colours, was entertaining in a marked degree.

STOKE.—Hippodrome.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Manager, Mr. H. Miller.—Miss Marie Loftus, who heads the bill, is most successful, her sketch, Singers Past and Present, being exceptionally good. Bert Williams is a ventriloquist of excellent quality; the Two Errols in their leaping specialty are well received; Mlle. Frederica's performing terriers and pony are admirably trained; the Two Zampas are smart duettists and dancers; the Brothers Lano on the horizontal bars provide a turn of excellence; the Bonanzas are hand balancers extraordinary; and Chas. Gardener is as good as ever. The pictures are capital.

STOURBRIDGE.—Alhambra Theatre.—Manageress, Miss Maude Lynton).—This week Miss Grace Warner and company are here in three pieces, The Scarlet Clue, East Lynne, and The Little Widow. On the opening night the first-named was presented. As Scarlet Sal Miss Grace Warner gave a high-class impersonation, and Mr. George Gordon as Michael Stanton proved an accomplished artist. Mr. Reginald Brown won favour by his delineation of the twin-brothers Jack and Harry Esmond. Mr. J. R. Leigh as Billy the Rotter was amusing, and, in addition, he rendered two or three songs in first-class style. Mr. Arthur Page as Crazy Jim was exceedingly good. Miss M. Stamer as Miss Esmond, and Miss Kathleen Cranston as Mother Scoorge played with excellent effect, while Miss Hilda Herne as Elsie Dane was admirably suited. A word of praise is also due to the juvenile actresses, Miss Phyllis Massey and Violet Palfrey, who undertook their characters with distinction.

STROUD.—Subscription Rooms.—Manager, Mr. H. J. Twitchett.—Mr. Josh A. Hybert's Uncle Tom's Cabin company was here on Monday. Mr. Reg. Kloof was a decided success as George Harris; Mr. B. Taylor made an excellent Uncle Tom; Mr. W. Bertram played with humorous effect the part of Skeggs; Mr. L. Humphries realistically portrayed the villainous Simon Legree; Mr. C. Reginald made a good Augustine St. Clair; Lawyer Marks and Phineas Fletcher found clever exponents in Mr. Western Beecher and Mr. J. A. Hybert respectively; Miss Norah Waylett ably sustained the part of Eliza; Miss Kitty Wood evoked merriment as Topsy; Miss Cora North was a pathetic Aunt Ophelia; and Miss Violet Mignon as Little Eva created a pleasing impression.

SUNDERLAND.—Avenue Theatre.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. E. Machin.—Mr. Eugene C. Stafford's company is here this week in the ever-popular comedy, The Private Secretary. Mr. Donald Price-Evans gives a capital rendering of the Rev. Robert Spalding, and causes much merriment; Mr. W. Hargreaves is also highly amusing as Mr. Cattermole; Mr. Randolfe Reade has ample scope for his abilities as Douglas Cattermole; and as Harry Marsland Mr. James P. E. Hussey leaves little to be desired. The Sidney Gibson of Mr. Vivian Gilbert could not well be improved upon, and Mr. W. T. Elworthy is a pleasing Mr. Marsland. Miss Dora Gray plays the part of Edith Marsland with chic that makes her impersonation very charming, and Miss Beth Elliott scores as Eva Webster.

Theatre Royal.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. E. Machin; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jas. Hemingway.—Mr. H. F. Housden's company in A Woman's Past is drawing crowded houses here this week. Mr. J. Myron Howard gives a masterly impersonation of David Heath, and Mr. Clifton Earle plays with power as Uriah Craven. Mr. David Phillips as Frank Dellannoy is responsible for most of the fun; and Clement Harper finds an apt exponent in Mr. H. F. Housden. Miss Dorothy Wallace works wonderfully hard, and gives a refined and pathetic rendering of Bessie; Miss Doris Cameron (Dorothy Heath) and Miss Irene Carrington (Clara Darrel) both capably fill their respective parts.

Palace of Varieties.—Managers, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Managers, Messrs. A. Browne and S. B. Stringer.—The Virginians (coloured artists) head the bill here this week, and are accorded a hearty reception; J. C. Scatter, Tyneside comedian, is also cordially received. The bill also includes: The Lannons, pedestal dancers; the Three Delaries, in a speciality act; Joe Mac, comedian; Rachel Lowe, comedienne; Cullen and Carthy, comedians; the Marlo Dunham Trio, in clever gymnastic act; and Vernon's Bioscope.

SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD.—King's Theatre.—Proprietor, Mr. Edward Gray.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company is here playing The Christian. On Monday a full house gave unmistakable approval, and justly so, for the cast is excellent. Miss Laura Walker as Glory Quayle gives a meritorious performance; John Storm is played in capital style by Mr. E. Stanton-Sharp; Mr. Harry Colbeck as Father Lamplugh, Mr. P. Gedge Twyman as Lord Robert Ure, and Mr. Duncan Young as Horatio Drake all do good work. Miss Alice Maude is matronly and lovable as Mrs. Callander; and as Polly Love Miss L. Kingston scores a distinct success.

SWINDON.—Queen's Theatre.—Proprietor and Responsible Manager, Mr. Alfred Manners.—That popular drama, The French Spy, ably presented by Mr. Fred Benton's company, is here again. All the popular parts of this house were crowded on the opening night, and the piece was given a hearty reception. As the Countess Andre Miss Madge Devereux was excellent, her rendition of this heavy rôle being highly appreciated. She was well supported by Miss A. Harrison. Tate, whose work as the jealous Olga was very fine, and Mr. Beresford Lovett, who was seen to advantage as Captain Summers, while Mr. Max Coutts as Count Romanoff, Mr. George Sheraton as Petros, and Mr. Hugh W. Tavers as General Trepoff, also did well. Mr. Fred Benton as Fritz, and Miss Cissie Cleveland as Julie were capital, and caused the greatest amusement.

TON-Y-PANDY—Hippodrome.—Director, Mr. David Taylor; General-Manager, Mr. Culine Baldry.—The star turn here is a really sparkling item, provided by the Clement Trio; the Rinaldos also merit much favour, and the sketch, Conscience, played by J. H. Reynolds and company, wins loud applause. Other good features are provided by Franklyn, trick cyclist; Nimble Nib and Daisy Renham, ball punchers; Nellie Langtry, and Tom N. Mills.

TORQUAY.—Theatre Royal.—Licensee and Managing Director, Mr. W. H. Mortimer; Secretary, Mr. Arthur Pearse.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company presented The Silver King to a large and appreciative audience on Monday. In the title-part Mr. Horace E. Herbert acted with great discretion, feeling, and pathos, the character of the heroine being tenderly and sympathetically taken by Miss E. Doyle. As Daniel Jaikes Mr. Percy Foster gave one of the best sketches of the evening. Cissy was presented by little Madge Gillard, and her brother Ned was well rendered by Little Mabel Reid. The Spider was capably portrayed by Mr. Oswald Cray, and other members of the gang were well impersonated respectively by Mr. Ralph Leo, Mr. Wm. Dempsey, and Mr. Seton Bernard. The remaining characters were in very capable hands.

WAKEFIELD.—Royal Opera House.—Proprietors, Sherwood and Co.—That weird play The Power of the Cross is presented by Mr. Lingford Carson's company this week. The part of Baron Woulfe Curzola, the human vampire, is ably filled by Mr. Alexander J. Haviland; Mr. Victor Rae is effective as Dr. Leslie Fairfax; Mr. Harry C. Rutland does well as Gerald Fairfax; Mr. L. Fred Tenaur is commendable as Benjamin Hawke; and Mr. Arthur Read is able as David Kingsley. Miss Cissie St. Elmo acts with considerable power as Rita Lascelles; Miss May Grayce is admirable as Blanche Kingsley; and Miss Stanley Burt performs the rôle of Margaret Seaton with pathos and sincerity. The comic parts of Timothy O'Dowd and Dolly Gray are capitally taken by Mr. Richard E. Nugent and Miss Etta Turner.

Hippodrome.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—The Seven Zerbinis, in their electrical scena The Enchanted Glen, contribute a talented musical performance, which merits applause; the Two Eltons are amusing on the triple bars; Miss Rosie Bartlett is a smart comedienne. Other items comprise Miss Fannie Humber, instrumentalist and dancer; Mr. J. G. Aitken, comedian, who proves popular; Mr. Clifton Hall, baritone vocalist; Mr. Tom Hulme, an amusing patterer; Mlle. Sara Marblesque Trio, in living statuary, and Miss Elsie Kedward, acrobatic dancer.

WALSALL.—Her Majesty's Theatre of Varieties.—Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—A fine variety company is here this week. Billy Howard and Kathryn Harris cause much amusement; the New Macs add to the merriment; the Sisters Dorrell are pleasing in song and dance; George Young, expert blind pianist, is well received; Wyndham and Kitty give a remarkable performance on the wire; Mezzetti and Mora, in their triple bar act, prove themselves clever; and Harriet Vernon, beautifully costumed, proves a great attraction. The American Bioscope, with some capital pictures, completes a most attractive bill.

Grand Theatre. — Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—Messrs. Dottridge, Longden, and Elliott's company occupy the boards here this week in A City of Sin. Mr. Conrad Heywood makes a capital Paul Torraine; Mr. A. H. Elliott proves most successful as Father Mark; Mr. W. H. Burton is well placed as Bertrand; Mortain is well presented by Mr. J. Berresford Innes; Miss Edith Wallis charmingly assumes the rôle of Alice Bertrand; and Miss Jenny Weston is good in the part of Ilma.

WARRINGTON.—Royal Court.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. Joseph Potter; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred J. Reece.—Mr. F. Marriott-Watson's company is reappearing here this week in the stirring drama, A False Wife. Miss Florence E. Florence again sustains the heavy part of Lady Mansfield, and her finished delineation of a difficult rôle is indeed a praiseworthy effort.

Royal Theatre of Varieties.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Director of Amusements, Mr. F. Willmot.—Another capital company is doing good business here. Harry Grey, the Australian Nugget, is one of the quaintest comedians seen here for some time. Harry Cass again makes many friends with his capital round of songs, and equally successful are Molly Doon and Olive Arundale, two charming comediennes. Bert Gordon has an excellent voice, and Julian Mack, comedian, and the Great Vincent are well received.

WEST BROMWICH.—Theatre Royal and Opera House.—Lessee, Mr. Harding Thomas; Manager, Mr. Herbert Vere.—Saturday to Monday is presented here for the first time this week by Mr. Fred Karno's excellent company, and is cordially received. The chief characters are Clorinda, capitally played by Miss Amy Rogerson, and John Willie Jaggs, amusingly portrayed by Mr. Rolando Martin.

New Hippodrome.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Player.—The Wizard Germaine tops the bill here this week, and is drawing large houses. Bert Woodward gives a smart and original cycling show; Ernie Mayne receives repeated encores for his funny songs; a good turn is submitted by Harry Blake; Mr. Theodore and company present a vocal scena, Jack Sheppard; the singing and acting are well received. A humorous ventriloquial turn is given by Nelson Hardy; Silent Tait, the funny man, is distinctly clever. Miss Gladys Mavius deserves hearty mention for her songs. The Hippodrome picures are bright and entertaining.

WEST HARTLEPOOL.—Grand.—Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Manager, Mr. J. A. Lewis.—Sherlock Holmes is this week being played by a company with Mr. H. Hamilton Stewart in the title-rôle. Mr. Stewart's portrayal quite realises to the audience the famous creation of Conan Doyle. A powerful impression is given by the acting of Mr. W. F. Stirling as Professor Moriarty; the Larrabees have capital exponents in Mr. Ernest Gray and Miss Lindsay Fincham.

Palace. — Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Julius Simpson.—Well-filled houses are this week thoroughly appreciating a capital programme, the principal attraction in which is undoubtedly the performance by the Bouncing Dillons (Hilda and Willie), whose display is at once graceful, clever, and amusing; Susie and Protti, in continental dances, are neat and decidedly agile; Friscari's performance, from start to finish, is a marvel of precision; Cissy Dryden is a clever male impersonator, and Maud Prenton, a sweet-voiced vocalist, has some taking songs. The Somnambulist, by Hillman and Russell, is notable for the pretty operatic selection introduced. Herbert La Martine excels as a dancer, and some capital pictures are shown on the Bioscope.

WESTON-SUPER-MARE.—Knightstone Pavilion and Opera House.—Manager, Mr. W. Payne.—Mrs. Morton Powell's company is this week appearing here for the first time in that successful play When It Was Dark. As the hero, the Rev. Basil Gortre, Mr. Cyril Austen-Lee gave a fervent and manly representation; Mr. George H. Pitt was thoroughly artistic as Constantine Schuabe; another exceedingly well-acted character was the Sir Robert Llewellyn of Mr. W. Marsh; Mr. Robert Hall gave a praiseworthy interpretation of Harold Spence; the Hon. Charlie Gayfly was amusingly portrayed by Mr. Miller Wilson; Mr. Henry Heller was distinctly good as the Rev. Mr. Byars; so, too, was the Mr. Ommaney of Mr. Charles Clayton. Mr. George Mortimer's Nunc Wallace proved worthy of commendation; unstinted praise must be given Miss Eva Moss for her highly dramatic impersonation of Gertrude Hunt; Mrs. Morton Powell looked charming, and acted with distinctions as Helena Byars; Miss Bessie Ellis made a delightful Gracie Goldeye; whilst Miss E. Allen as Flossie Lovegay and Miss G. Allen as Minnie Golightly were both excellent.

Victoria Hall.—Manager, Mr. E. W. Sully.—Gough's premier Bioscope and Variety Company are attracting large audiences here this week. The pictures shown on the Bioscope are extremely good, and much appreciated. Miss Dolly Harmon is loudly applauded for her serio-comic and descriptive songs; another good turn is Miss Margaret Jacobson, el

PROFESSIONAL APARTMENTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

DEAR SIR,—With reference to the letter signed "Landlady" in your issue of Dec. 1, I would like to make one or two remarks. All members of the profession who tour realise the importance of this question, and how much it means that they should have some efficient and satisfactory way of discovering really good apartments. In the first place, you might perhaps let me say that with regard to stage-door keepers' commission, I have never found this practice obtain in well-managed theatres, though, if the stage-door keeper takes a lot of trouble in sending rooms, perhaps a tip now and then would not come amiss. I would like to direct the attention of members of the profession, more especially those who belong to the Actors' Church Union, to a scheme recently organised by the general secretary of the Union, Rev. Donald Hole. The idea is to ask the local chaplains to furnish the general secretary with a list of really clean, comfortable rooms, where moderate prices and fair dealing will obtain. These addresses will not be registered until they have been tested, and any properly authenticated complaint will be sufficient to have them removed from the list altogether. The chaplains of the Union are, of course, in a very strong position to do this, because they go in and out of the houses, and know the character of the inmates and the life they lead, and therefore can easily tell if a person is likely to be comfortable or not. When the scheme has assumed some dimensions, the Union will issue cards to all the landladies; these they can hang up in their windows, and as long as they are there the Union will guarantee that the acommodation is satisfactory. My experience may have been somewhat unfortunate, but I may say that I have been in many rooms which appeared on the Actors' Association list, and it did not seem to me, to say the least of it, that they were better than "ordinary." I think it is a very serious matter for the members to recommend rooms hastily and without consideration, because if this is done it means that the list supplied by the Association becomes in a very short time of no use to anyone.

Of course, the landladies have their grievances; so, also, have the members of the profession. What about the landlady who quotes 16s., and when the bill arrives charges extra for fires, lighting, and coal. Then what about the landlady who books your rooms for 16s., and then because somebody offers her 16s. 3d., writes at the last moment to say you cannot have them. I really think that as well as a white list there should be a black list for these persons. It would be quite worth while to form a bureau for the registration of theatrical rooms, which would supply a list of rooms by the year for a nominal subscription of 5s. or 10s. Personally, I would gladly pay twice the latter amount if I was always sure of having clean, decent, and respectable rooms where I would not be cheated, and where I would meet with at least cleanliness, if not with luxury.—Yours faithfully,

CHARLES MANNERS.

Shakespeare Theatre, Liverpool.
Dec. 5, 1906.

A PORTRAIT OF MISS DAPHNE DE ROHAN, as she appeared at Bow on Nov. 2, 1906.

D aintily sweet, with powder and patch,
A nd arrayed in soft, silvery sheen;
P retty white curls all over her head,
H er tiny shoes fit for a Queen.
N ow raising her fan, now curtseying low—
E very step a delight to treasure—

D ancing the graceful old English dance,
E 'en treading its stately measure.

R ich jewels are sparkling on her hands,
O n her neck and bosom gleaming;
H er blue eyes brighter than them all,
A nd yet with laughter teeming.
N o one can say, if grave or gay, of what my lady's dreaming.

—Painted by FANNY FREDERICA ADDY.

BOW SCHOOLS SWIMMING ASSOCIATION.

The special item on the programme, however, was the appearance of that well-known and popular society entertainer, Mlle. Daphne de Rohan, so favourably known in London and Brighton, and, indeed, in all parts of England and the Continent. Mlle. de Rohan, who is a "Lady of Honour" of the French Marine Ambulance Society (Mariniers-Ambulanciers), kindly delightly her audience with a very remarkable and artistic presentation of the celebrated "Quarrel Scene" from The School for Scandal. Mlle. de Rohan, who has been called "the world-famed Lady Teazle," certainly did justice to her reputation. Attired in a delightful creation of silver, fur-trimmed and pearl-embroidered, she captivated all and sundry as that winsome, petulant woman of fashion, whose disputes with old Sir Peter (well played by Mr. Fred Evered) have been the delight of actors and playgoers alike for more than a century. Mlle. de Rohan's power of enunciation is one of her many natural gifts, and being also a composer of merit and an elegant devotee of Terpsichore, she enhanced the general effect of the scena by introducing therein a beautiful gavotte, composed by herself, to which she danced with a charm that carried one irresistibly back to the days "When George III. was King." Mlle. de Rohan received a perfect ovation, and was presented, in the name of the committee, with a bouquet by little Miss Doris Kay, who, wearing her new French decoration, the "Prix Perrin," and other honours for her wonderful proficiency in swimming, tripped smilingly on to the platform to perform her pleasant task.—The Brighton Standard, Nov. 29, 1906.

THE STAGE EMPLOYEES' ANNUAL CONCERT.

The fourth annual concert in aid of the benevolent funds of the Heads of Departments Association, the Carpenters and General Staff Branches of the National Association of Theatrical Employees, took place on Sunday evening last in the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden. The list of patrons included her Grace the Duchess of Leeds, Sir Charles Wyndham, Sir Charles V. Stanford, Sir Edward Moss, the Hon. W. F. D. Smith, M.P., Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., Mr. George Alexander, Mr. Rutland Barrington, Miss Jessie Bateman, Mr. Granville Barker, Miss Lillian Braithwaite, Mr. Dion Boucicault, Mr. Arthur Bourchier, Mr. Alfred Butt, Mr. Louis Calvert, Miss Kate Compton, Miss Constance Collier, Mr. Frank Curzon, Mr. George Edwardes, Mr. H. V. Esmond, Mr. Charles Frohman, Mr. Frank Glenister, Mr. Martin Harvey, Mr. Seymour Hicks, Mr. Sidney Jones, Mrs. Kendal, Mr. W. H. Kendal, Mr. J. H. Leigh, Mr. Cyril Maude, Miss Evelyn Millard, Miss Mary Moore, Miss Eva Moore, Miss Julia Neilson, Miss Agnes Nichols, Mr. A. W. Pinero, Mr. F. H. Pedgrift, Mr. Paul A. Rubens, Mrs. Cecil Raleigh, Mr. Alfred de Rothschild, Mr. Otho Stuart, Mr. Alfred Sutro, Mr. William Telbin, Mr. Fred Terry, Mr. Edward Terry, Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree, Miss Irene Vanbrugh, Mr. J. E. Vedrenne, Miss Genevieve Ward, Mr. Lewis Waller, and the Alhambra Company, Ltd.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, Miss Genevieve Ward, Mrs. Cecil Raleigh, Miss Lillian Braithwaite, Miss Ethel Matthews, Mr. Grant Allen, Mr. E. Dagnall, Mr. Harry Norton, Mr. Saxon, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kimpton, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, and other representatives of the theatrical profession.

The programme was a most attractive one, and was evidently greatly appreciated by the large audience present. The London Symphony Orchestra, and its most able conductor, Mr. Landon Ronald, received most enthusiastic applause for the delightful rendering of the orchestral numbers. The opening overture, "Zampa," gave a foretaste of the enjoyment to be expected. Mr. Hector Lightfoot, the new Australian tenor, followed with "Onaway, awake, beloved," accompanied by the orchestra, and both singer and orchestra did full justice to Coleridge Taylor's beautiful music. Miss Helen Blain sang "Abide with me," accompanied on the pianoforte by Mr. Fredk. B. Kiddle. Many in the audience evidently remembered that this gifted lady sang last year at a moment's notice in the place of an artist who had failed to appear. Miss Blain sang with much feeling, and only the great length of the programme precluded the encore demanded being granted. The Tannhäuser overture was the next item for the orchestra, and rarely has that masterpiece of Wagner's been better played. Mr. Landon Ronald seems to understand perfectly the art of obtaining the best that this very fine orchestra could give.

Mr. Charles Knowles gave an exceedingly fine and expressive rendering of Sullivan's "Thou'rt passing hence." It was announced from the stage that Mme. Alice Esty was suffering from the effect of a severe cold, but had most kindly come to keep her promise. This indisposition did not prevent this great artist giving a brilliant rendering of Verdi's "Ah fors e lui," and the audience in their enthusiasm wished to have an encore, which in the circumstances was hardly considerate. The orchestra then gave the second and third movements from the "Pathetic Symphony," which was much applauded, following that item with "Two songs without words"—(a) "Spring Song" and (b) "Bee's Wedding" (Mendelssohn). These were so daintily played as to seem really fairy music. Mr. Joseph O'Mara had an enthusiastic welcome, and sang "On with the motley," from Pagliacci; but he, also, had to decline an encore. Next came a fine performance of the William Tell overture which, like "Zampa," never seems to pall on an audience, however often it is included in a concert programme. To hear this overture played by the London Symphony Orchestra is like hearing it anew. The light and shade, the piano and crescendos, were most defined. Altogether it was an artistic treat, and Mr. Ronald well deserved the great applause with which this item was received.

Mme. Mary Conly's beautiful soprano voice gave great pleasure in Verdi's "Ernani Involami." This artist's contribution was greatly appreciated, and regret was manifest that an encore could not be given.

Mr. Denis O'Sullivan's spirited rendering of "The smith's song," accompanied by the orchestra, was also cordially received. The overture from Rienzi by the orchestra followed; and Miss Marie Stiven contributed the remaining vocal item, "O my heart is weary," which she sang beautifully. This fine programme was brought to a close with the performance of the overture from "1812" (Tschaikovsky).

The concert committee announced in the programme their "most grateful thanks to Mr. Landon Ronald and the ladies and gentlemen who generously gave their services at the concert." The only artist who failed to appear was Mr. Herbert Grover, who arrived from singing elsewhere just after the last item had commenced.

The thanks of the committee were also given to Messrs. Ascherberg, Hopwood and Crew, Ltd., for kindly lending the parts of Mr. O'Mara's song; to Messrs. Novello and Co., for the parts of Mr. Lightfoot's song; to "Bechstein," for use of the grand piano; to the Positive Organ Co., for the use of the organ; to Mr. Robert Affleck master machinist, and Mr. William Crawshaw, electrical engineer, who kindly gave their services at the theatre on the day and evening of the concert. Mention must also be made of the splendid assistance given by Mr. Harry Norton, stage-manager, the Criterion Theatre, who sold the most tickets; and of Mr. E. Dagnall—"Inspector Bott"—of the Criterion Theatre, who came next to Mr. Norton in this direction.

The donations received from patrons of this concert, exclusive of the receipts from those who kindly took tickets, are as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
Mr. Alfred de Rothschild	5	5	0
Mr. George Alexander	2	2	0
The Directors, Alhambra Co., Ltd.	2	2	0
Mr. A. W. Pinero	2	2	0
Mr. William Telbin	2	2	0
Sir Edward Moss	1	1	0
Mr. Dion Boucicault	1	1	0
Mr. Frank Curzon	1	1	0
Mr Sidney Jones	1	1	0
Miss Agnes Nichols	1	1	0
Mr. W. S. Penley	1	1	0
Mr. Paul A. Rubens	1	1	0
Mr. Alfred Sutro	1	1	0
Miss Irene Vanbrugh	1	1	0
Miss Kate Compton	0	10	0

The Concert Committee was composed as follows:—Arthur Palmer, secretary, Carpenters' Branch; H. Porter (New Theatre), General Staff Branch; H. J. Powell (Prince of Wales's), Heads of Departments' Association; A. Spaull (Tivoli), Carpenters' Branch; Charles Thorogood, president, General Staff Branch; Philip Thomas (Alhambra), General Staff Branch; J. Wilson, Carpenters' Branch; chairman, James Cullen (St. James's Theatre), president, Heads of Departments' Association; treasurer, G. H. Dyball (Tivoli), secretary, Heads of Departments' Association; hon. secretary, William Johnson, general secretary, N.A.T.E.

Those who acted as stewards were:—Mr. Charles Thorogood (in charge of the gallery), assisted by Mr. H. Bowmer (Gaiety), Mr. Ed. Stow (New), Mr. Martin (Scala), Mr. Haley (Alhambra), and Mr. Sinkins (Comedy); Mr. W. G. Farrell (Criterion), in charge of the amphitheatre, assisted by Mr. J. Phelps (Drury Lane) and Mr. A. J. Mason (Vaudeville); Mr. H. J. Powell (Prince of Wales's Theatre), in charge of the balcony, assisted by Mr. Hunt (Alhambra). The programmes and cloakrooms were in charge of Mr. Thomas (Alhambra) and Mr. Spaull (Tivoli). Front box-office, Mr. A. Palmer and Mr. Atterton. The secretary, Mr. William Johnson, was acting-manager for the committee.

The concert, while being the greatest artistic success yet achieved by the stage employees organisations, will not, unfortunately, be so financially successful as previous efforts.

The birth of the London Symphony Orchestra took place in consequence of an impossible contract issued by Mr. Henry J. Wood in February, 1904, when about sixty members resigned their positions in the Queen's Hall Orchestra, in which they were members.

Mr. Thomas R. Busby set about organising the now famous London Symphony Orchestra, and convened a meeting at the St. Andrew's Hall, Oxford-street, at which meeting the orchestra was formed, Mr. Busby being appointed secretary. Dr. Hans Richter conducted the first concert, which took place in June, 1904. The event created an immense impression. Symphony concerts were given in the winter of 1904-5, and were conducted by the most eminent conductors in Europe, viz., Arthur Nikisch, Fritz Steinbach, Edouard Colonne, and Peter Raabe; whilst amongst the British conductors there were Sir Edward Elgar, Sir Chas. Stanford, and Dr. Frederic Cowen, the result being that all these eminent conductors pronounced the orchestra to be the finest in the world—a fact of which all Britishers are justly proud.

The orchestra, accompanied by the Leeds Choir, paid a visit to the French capital in January last, the event creating the wildest enthusiasm in the musical world, and was the first occasion when a representative orchestra had played abroad. The visit was under the distinguished patronage of H.M. King Edward VII. and M. Loubet, the French President, the latter of whom Mr. Busby had the honour of receiving, and who warmly shook hands with him.

The success of the London Symphony Orchestra grows apace, and is a most striking instance of what can be done with unanimity, all the members being most keen on furthering the interests of the undertaking. The organisation was turned into a limited company in February, 1905, the shareholders being confined to the members of the orchestra, and at that time Mr. Busby was appointed managing-director and secretary. There is not the slightest doubt of its artistic success, and its financial position is most flattering. As recently as Nov. 19, 1906, H.M. Queen Alexandra honoured the Symphony Concert by her presence, and expressed her delight with the programme of the concert, which she thoroughly enjoyed.

MR. LANDON RONALD.

Reproduced by kind permission of Dover-street Studio.

Mr. Landon Ronald is the son of Mr. Henry Russell, the composer of "Cheer, boys, cheer" and other popular songs. Mr. Ronald is himself the composer of several important symphonic works and over 150 songs. His first appearance in public was as solo pianist with L'Enfant Prodigue, the wordless play, and attracted the attention of the late Augustus Harris, and he appointed Mr. Ronald to the position of deputy-conductor at Covent Garden, and he conducted grand opera there. He toured the United States as conductor with Mme. Melba in 1894. He appeared before Queen Victoria in 1897 at Windsor, and at Balmoral in 1898, in which year he was conductor at the Lyric Theatre, where he contributed some of the most attractive numbers to the score of Little Miss Nobody, L'Amour Mouille, Florodora, and The Silver Slipper. He also wrote the entire music of the Coronation ballet, Britannia's Realm, 1902, and L'Entente Cordiale at the Alhambra in 1904. His work has covered a wide field, and he is one of the busiest, effective, and most popular conductors of the day. He rendered every assistance to the concert committee, who greatly appreciate the interest he kindly took to ensure the success of their arrangements.

PANTOMIME AT ABERDEEN.

Mr. Robert Arthur opened his new theatre, His Majesty's, Aberdeen, on Monday with Little Red Riding Hood, which was produced on a scale of spectacular splendour never hitherto attempted in Aberdeen. From start to finish the performance went with remarkable smoothness. Though the theme is so well worn, many ingenious new situations have been introduced. The scenic and other accessories are of the most appropriate and artistic nature, and the members of the company do the rest. Mr. Frank Dix is responsible for the libretto, which is a good specimen of pantomime literature.

The production is divided into two parts, the first including four and the second five scenes. The opening dance and chorus introduced a bevy of pretty children; they were followed by a stirring huntsman's chorus, and a delightful interpretation of the "Old Apple Tree"; and then came a very fine rendering of the Umbrella song by Miss Muffett. This feast of good things was sufficient to put the audience in an excellent humour for the rest of the evening. The third and fourth scenes, which represent "Poppyland Glen," make a beautiful couple of stage pictures, and the snow effects in the fourth scene are also worthy of particular commendation. At this point the chorus and juvenile dancers hold the stage most agreeably, and the scene concludes with a charming tableau, which was rapturously applauded.

The second act, which opens in the Manor Garden, introduces some amusing fooling and several enjoyable songs contributed by the Squire and Boy Blue. In the third scene, inside the Dame's Cottage, an exceedingly clever and comical turn is given by the Brothers Redmond, and a short fourth scene makes way for the grand finale in the hall of the Manor, the principal feature of which is a "March of the Nations." This undoubtedly makes the most brilliant picture in a relatively brilliant production.

The company, taken all round, is one of the best pantomimic combinations we have ever seen. Mr. Andie Caine, an indefatigable worker and a genuinely clever and original comedian, appears with a high degree of success as the Squire; Miss Nellie Wigley makes an undoubted hit as Little Miss Muffett. She acts gracefully, and her rich, powerful voice is heard to advantage in some of the best of the songs. Miss Winnie Harber has already established herself as a favourite by her presentation of Boy Blue; and Miss Lynda Love makes a dainty Red Riding Hood. Mr. Willie Garvey is most amusing as Mother Hubbard; and the Brothers Redmond are specially resourceful as comedians. Misses Maud Sandeman, Florence Ray, Little Phyllis Nolan, and Maggie Baugh represent the parts of Jack, Jill, Dorothy, and Rosie very effectively; and excellent work is contributed by Mr. Fred Leitz as Gibby, the dog, Mr. Albert Chapman as Lupus, the Wolf, Miss Raynor Golden as the Fairy Glow-Worm, and "Tiny Tim" as Rupert. The corps de ballet, under Mlle. Elis Clerc, provide one of the most notable features of the entertainment, and the music by Mr. Julien H. Wilson is tuneful and appropriate throughout.

The pantomime was staged under the personal superintendence of Mr. Arthur, and its cordial reception by the great audience must have been extremely gratifying to all who were concerned in its production.

PRINCESS HENRY OF BATTENBERG was present at the Haymarket Theatre and witnessed the performance of The Man from Blankley's on the 30th ult.

PUPILS AT PRACTICE.

The lady Hamlet is no new figure of the modern stage, but to the pupils of Mrs. S. Brereton Douglass (Miss Stella Brereton) is apparently given the rare capacity to sustain a whole Shakespearean play. The revelation was made at an afternoon performance at the Queen's (Small) Hall, on Monday, when, among the numerous items of the programme, was to be found an excerpt from Hamlet in which the Prince of Denmark was a lady, the Ghost was a lady, and even the beard of the aged Polonious hid a fair and feminine face, while there is no doubt that the Gravediggers and all the other companions of the melancholy Dane could have been represented had occasion required. The passage chosen from Shakespeare's play was the scene in which Hamlet accuses his mother of conniving at his father's death. The title-rôle was taken by Miss Maggie Maskall, who made quite a remarkable impression in the character. She looked the part to perfection, and acted with an intelligent appreciation of its many phases of expression. Her articulation was, for the most part, excellent, but in the heated denunciation of the Queen she allowed herself to be carried away by the passionate character of the words, and so hurried the lines as to render them indistinct. Such a fault, however, is one that time will remedy, and Miss Maskall's performance may be well described as one of great promise. The Queen was played with commendable power and dramatic resource by Miss Edith Maskall, whose aid in the strenuous scene was invaluable. Miss Grace Thelwall gave the generally-accepted reading of the Ghost, and managed to make him sufficiently weird; and a venerable Polonius was found in Miss Maude Garton. The balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet presented two of the talented young ladies above mentioned in the chief parts. Miss Maggie Maskall was a most attractive Juliet, and spoke the beautiful lines with graceful emphasis, and Miss Edith Maskall made a comely Romeo, and acted with true boyish ardour. Shakespeare was still further represented by Queen Katharine's trial speech from Henry VIII., the piece being spoken by Miss Edith Maskall with fine vigour and eloquent gesture.

Great pleasure was derived by a large audience, which included Mrs. Kendal, from the varied selection of more or less familiar recitations. The enthusiasm of the audience was early aroused by Mr. Frank Desprez's popular poem "Lasca," which seems to find a place in most entertainments of the kind. Apart from a tendency to hurry at times, Miss Edith Maskall gave a picturesque delivery of the terse and telling lines contained in the thrilling tale of the backwoods of Texas, and the piece at the end had the distinction of a double recall. Similar honours were paid to Miss Grace Thelwall, who, in the character of a drunken miner, recited "A Letter from England" in a masculine voice and with remarkable energy. Miss Higgins secured the rapt attention of the audience for her delivery of "An Irish Recitation," by George R. Sims, and impressed all by the sympathetic quality of her voice and her admirable manner of using it. Easy transitions from gay to grave were made by several of the students, Miss Dorothy Chetham, who supplied a charmingly coquettish rendering of C. Rae Brown's "Ballad of a Bazaar," also giving Mrs. Bradshaw's recitation "Lost and Won" in a way that gained well-merited approbation. Miss Maude Garton submitted a humorous rendering of Anstey's "Picture Sunday," and subsequently, in the robes of Cardinal Wolsey, gave that prelate's famous speech from Henry VIII. with skilful enunciation. Miss Jeanne Picriaux was entrusted with the delivery of Mrs. Bradshaw's recitation "Courage." The pieces were agreeably interspersed by music at the piano, including Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" and morsels from Mendelssohn, tastefully played by Madame Roe.

The varied nature of the programme showed Mrs. Douglass's pupils to the best advantage, and in each case the finished methods of the practised teacher were reflected. The way the young ladies take the stage gives evidence of a thoroughly practical tuition in the art in which they desire to be perfected, and few faults are to be detected either in gesture or deportment. The appreciation of the audience was constant and cordial, and at the close Mrs. Douglass was summoned to the platform to receive a handsome bouquet.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

